Section 6.4 Registered Shareholders. The corporation shall be entitled to recognize the exclusive right of a person registered on its books as the owner of shares to receive dividends, and to vote as such owner, and to hold liable for calls and assessments, a person registered on its books as the owner of shares, and shall not be bound to recognize any equitable or other claim to or interest in such shares on the part of any person, whether or not it shall have actual or other notice thereof, except as otherwise provided by law.

ARTICLE VII

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

Section 7.1 Dividends. Dividends upon the outstanding shares of the corporation, subject to the provisions of the applicable statutes and of the articles of incorporation, may be declared by the board of directors at any annual, regular or special meeting. Dividends may be declared and paid in cash, in property, or in shares of the corporation, or in any combination thereof.

Section 7.2 Reserves. There may be set aside out of any funds of the corporation available for dividends such sum or sums as the board of directors from time to time in their sole and absolute discretion think proper as a reserve to meet contingencies, or to equalize dividends, or to repair or maintain any property of the corporation, or for such other purpose as the board of directors shall think conducive to the interest of the corporation, and the board of directors may modify or abolish any such reserve in the manner in which it was created.

Section 7.3 Signature of Negotiable Instruments. All checks or demands for money and notes of the corporation shall be signed by such officer or officers or such other person or persons as the board of directors may from time to time designate.

Section 7.4 Fiscal Year. The fiscal year of the corporation shall be fixed by the board of directors; provided, that if such fiscal year is not fixed by the board of directors it shall be the calendar year.

Section 7.5 Books of the Corporation. The books of the corporation may be kept, subject to the provisions of the applicable statutes, within or outside of the State of Illinois, at such place or places as may from time to time be designated by the board of directors or as the business of the corporation may require.

Section 7.6 Seal. The seal, if any, of the corporation shall be in such form as may be approved from time to time by the board of directors. If the board of directors approves a seal, the affixation of such seal shall not be required to create a valid and binding obligation against the corporation.

Section 7.7 Securities of Other Corporations. Unless otherwise ordered by the board of directors, the president or the secretary of the corporation shall have full power and authority on behalf of the corporation to attend, to vote and to grant proxies to be used at any meeting of shareholders of such other corporation in which the corporation may hold stock. The board of directors may confer like powers upon any other person or persons.

Section 7.8 Fixed Record Date. In order that the corporation may determine the shareholders entitled to notice of or to vote at any meeting of shareholders or any adjournment thereof, or to express consent to corporate action in writing without a meeting, or entitled to receive payment of any dividend or other distribution or allotment of any rights, or entitled to exercise any rights in respect of any change, conversion or exchange of stock for the purpose of any other lawful action, the board of directors may fix, in advance, a record date which shall be not more than sixty 60 days before the date of such meeting, nor more than 60 days prior to any other action.

Section 7.9 Amendment. The power to alter, amend, or repeal these bylaws or to adopt new bylaws is vested in the board of directors.

Section 7.10 Right to Indemnification.

(A) Each person (hereinafter an "indemnitee") who was or is made a party to or is threatened to be made a party to or is otherwise involved in any action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (hereinafter a "proceeding"), by reason of the fact that he or she was a director, officer or agent of the corporation or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation or of a partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, including service with respect to an employee benefit plan, whether the basis of such proceeding is alleged action in an official capacity as a director, officer, employee or agent, shall be indemnified and held harmless by the corporation to the fullest extent authorized by the Illinois Business Corporation Act, as amended, as the same exists or may hereafter be amended (but, in the case of any such amendment, only to the extent that such amendment permits the corporation to provide broader indemnification rights than permitted prior thereto), against all expense, liability and loss (including attorney's fees, judgments, fines, ERISA excise taxes or penalties and amounts paid in settlement) reasonably incurred or suffered by such indemnitee in connection therewith, and such indemnification shall continue with respect to an indemnitee who has ceased to be a director, officer, employee or agent and shall inure to the benefit of the indemnitee's heirs, executors and administrators; provided, however, that, except as provided in paragraph (B) hereof with respect to proceedings to enforce rights to indemnification, the corporation shall indemnify any such indemnitee only if such proceeding (or part thereof) was authorized by the board of directors of the corporation. The right to indemnification conferred in this section shall be a contract right and shall include the right to be paid by the corporation the expenses incurred in defending any such proceeding in advance of its final disposition (hereinafter an “advancement of expenses”); provided, however, that, if the Illinois Business Corporation Act, as amended, requires, an advancement of expenses incurred by an indemnitee shall be made only upon delivery to the corporation of an undertaking (hereinafter an “undertaking”), by or on behalf of such indemnitee, to repay all amounts so advanced if it shall ultimately be determined by final judicial decision from which there is no further right to appeal (hereinafter a “final adjudication”) that such indemnitee is not entitled to be indemnified for such expenses under this section or otherwise.

(B) If a claim under paragraph (A) of this section is not paid in full by the corporation within 60 days after a written claim has been received by the corporation, except in the case of a claim for an advancement of expenses, in which case the applicable period shall be 20 days, the indemnitee may at any time thereafter bring suit against the corporation to recover the unpaid amount of such suit, or in a suit brought by the corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking, the indemnitee shall be entitled to be paid also the expense of prosecuting or defending such suit. In (i) any suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right to indemnification hereunder (but not in a suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right to an advancement of expenses) it shall be a defense that, and (ii) any suit by the corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking the corporation shall be entitled to recover such expenses upon a final adjudication that, the indemnitee has not met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in the Illinois Business Corporation Act. Neither the failure of the corporation (including its board of directors, independent legal counsel, or its shareholders) to have made a determination prior to the commencement of such suit that indemnification of the indemnitee is proper in the circumstances because the indemnitee has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in the Illinois Business Corporation Act, nor an actual determination by the corporation (including its board of directors, independent legal counsel, or its shareholders) that the indemnitee has not met such applicable standard of conduct shall create a presumption that the indemnitee has not met the applicable standard of conduct or, in the case of such a suit brought by the indemnitee, be a defense of such suit. In any suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right of indemnification or to an advancement of expenses hereunder, or by the corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking, the burden of proving that the indemnitee is not entitled to be indemnified, or to such advancement of expenses, under this section or otherwise shall be on the corporation.

(C) The rights to indemnification and to the advancement of expenses conferred in this section shall not be exclusive of any other right which any person may have or hereafter acquire under any statute, the corporation’s certificate of incorporation, by agreement, by vote of shareholders or by disinterested directors or otherwise.

(D) The corporation may maintain insurance, at its expense, to protect itself and any director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation or another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise against any expense, liability or loss, whether or not the corporation would have the power to indemnify such person against such expense, liability or loss under the Illinois Business Corporation Act.

Section 7.11 Invalid Provisions. If any provision of these bylaws is held to be illegal, invalid, or unenforceable under present or future laws, such provision shall be fully severable; these bylaws shall be construed and enforced as if such illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision had never comprised a part hereof; and the remaining provisions hereof shall remain in full force and effect and shall not be affected by the illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision or by its severance herefrom. Furthermore, in lieu of such illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision there shall be added automatically as a part of these bylaws a provision as similar in terms to such illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision as may be possible and be legal, valid, and enforceable.

Section 7.12 Headings. The headings used in these bylaws are for reference purposes only and do not affect in any way the meaning or interpretation of these bylaws.

The above bylaws were duly adopted as the bylaws of the corporation effective as of the 20th day of December, 2005.

FIRST AMENDMENT
TO OPERATING AGREEMENT
WAUKEGAN ILLINOIS HOSPITAL COMPANY, LLC

This First Amendment to Operating Agreement of Waukegan Illinois Hospital Company, LLC (“Amendment”) is made and entered into as of July 1, 2006, by Waukegan Hospital Corporation, an Illinois corporation (“Member”).

WHEREAS, the Member has heretofore executed and delivered that certain Operating Agreement of Waukegan Illinois Hospital Company, LLC (the “Company”) dated as of December 20, 2005 (the “Operating Agreement”); and

WHEREAS, the Member desires to amend the Operating Agreement to authorize the issuance and certification of units.

NOW THEREFORE, IT IS

RESOLVED, that the Operating Agreement is hereby amended by deleting Section 2.1 in its entirety and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

2.1 Initial Capital Contribution of Member. The interest in the Company shall be divided into units (“Units”). The total number of Units that the Company is initially authorized to issue is 100 Units. The Member has been issued the number of Units listed on Exhibit A hereto attached. The Member may, but shall not be required to, make additional capital contributions to the Company from time to time.

FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Operating Agreement is hereby amended to add the following text:

2.2 Certificates for Units. Certificates representing Units shall be in such form as may be determined by the Member. Such certificates shall be signed by the President or Vice President of the Member, if such offices be created and filled, or signed by an officer designated by the Member to sign such certificates. The signature of such officer upon such certificates may be signed manually or by facsimile. All certificates for Units shall be consecutively numbered. The name of the person owning the Units represented thereby, with the number of Units and date of issue, shall be entered on the books of the Company. All certificates surrendered to the Company for transfer shall be canceled and no new certificates shall be issued until the former certificates for a like number of Units shall have been surrendered and canceled, except that, in case of a lost, destroyed or mutilated certificate, a new one may be issued therefore upon such terms and indemnity to the Company as the Member may prescribe.

FURTHER RESOLVED, except as set forth in this Amendment, the terms and provisions of the Operating Agreement are hereby ratified and declared to be in full force and effect. This Amendment shall be governed by the provisions of the Operating Agreement; provided, however, to the extent that the terms of this Amendment and Operating Agreement conflict, the terms of this Amendment shall control.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the undersigned has executed this Amendment as of the day and year first above set forth.

WAUKEGAN ILLINOIS HOSPITAL COMPANY, LLC

OPERATING AGREEMENT

This Operating Agreement (“Agreement”) is declared to be effective as of the 20th day of December, 2005, by Waukegan Hospital Corporation, as the sole Member (such corporation and any successor hereunder, the “Member”) of Waukegan Illinois Hospital Company, LLC (the “Company”), pursuant to the provisions of the Illinois Limited Liability Company Act (the “Act”).

Section 1. The Company.

1.1 Formation. The initial Member is forming the Company as a limited liability company pursuant to the provisions of the Act and upon the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement.

1.2 Company Name. The name of the Company shall be as set forth in the Articles from time to time, and all business of the Company shall be conducted in such name. The Member may change the name of the Company at any time.

1.3 Purpose. The purpose of the Company shall be as set forth in the Articles from time to time.

1.4 Principal Place of Business. The principal place of business and address of the Company shall be at any place within or without the State of Illinois as determined by the Member.

1.5 Existence. The existence of the Company shall commence on the date the Company’s Articles of Organization (as amended from time to time, the “Articles”) are filed in the office of the Secretary of State of Illinois in accordance with the Act and shall continue until the winding up and liquidation of the Company following a Liquidating Event as provided in Section 8 hereof.

1.6 Title to Property. All real and personal property owned by the Company shall be owned by the Company as an entity.

1.7 Independent Activities; Transactions With Affiliates.

(a) The Member shall be required to devote only such time to the affairs of the Company as the Member determines in its sole discretion may be necessary or appropriate, and the Member shall be free to serve any other Person in any capacity that he may deem appropriate in his discretion.

(b) Insofar as permitted by applicable law, the Member may, notwithstanding this Agreement, engage in whatever activities it chooses, whether the same are competitive with the Company or otherwise, without having or incurring any obligation to offer any interest in such activities to the Company, and neither this Agreement nor any activity undertaken pursuant hereto shall prevent the Member from engaging in such activities or require the Member to permit the Company to participate in any such activities.

1.8 Definitions. Certain capitalized words and phrases used in this Agreement have the following meanings:

“Interest” means the entire limited liability company interest in the Company of a Member or Interest Holder at any particular time, including the right of such Member or Interest Holder to any and all benefits to which the Member or Interest Holder may be entitled as provided in this Agreement, together with the obligations of such Member to comply with all the terms and provisions of this Agreement.

“Interest Holder” means any Person who holds an Interest, regardless of whether such Person has been admitted to the Company as a Member. “Interest Holders” means all such Persons.

“Net Cash Flow” means the gross cash proceeds from Company operations and from all sales and other dispositions and refinancings of Property, less the portion thereof used to pay or establish reserves for Company expenses, debt payments, capital improvements, replacements, and contingencies, all as determined by the Member. “Net Cash Flow” shall not be reduced by depreciation, amortization, cost recovery deductions, or similar allowances, but shall be increased by any reductions of reserves previously established pursuant to the first sentence of this definition.

“Person” means any individual, partnership, limited liability company, corporation, trust, or other entity.

“Property” means all real and personal property acquired by the Company and any improvements thereto, and shall include both tangible and intangible property.

“Transfer” means, as a noun, any voluntary or involuntary transfer, sale or other disposition and, as a verb, voluntarily or involuntarily to transfer, sell, or otherwise dispose of. “Transferred” shall have a correlative meaning.

Section 2. Capital Contributions.

2.1 Initial Capital Contributions. In exchange for all the Interests in the Company, the Member has, or may cause to be, contributed or will contribute to the capital of the Company, One Thousand and No/100 Dollars ($1,000.00) in cash.

Section 3. Tax Allocations.

3.1 No Allocations in Single-Member Entity. Waukegan Hospital Corporation, as the only Member, intends for the Company, as such a wholly-owned entity, to be disregarded for accounting and income tax purposes. Accordingly, all items of income, gain, loss, deduction, and credit that would, but for such single-member status, belong to the Company shall belong to the Member.

Section 4. Distributions.

4.1 Distributions. Subject to the Act, Net Cash Flow, if any, and any item of Property chosen by the Member, shall be distributed to or as directed by the Member, at such times as the Member may determine.

Section 5. Management

5.1 Authority and Duties of Member. The overall management and control of the Company shall be vested in the Member and the Member shall have the right and authority to enter into transactions on behalf of the Company, to bind the Company and to conduct, and to make decisions relating to, the day-to-day operations of the Company. Without limiting the foregoing and in each case without any further act, vote or approval, the Member is hereby specifically authorized for, and in the name of and on behalf of, the Company from time to time to:

- (a) Amend the Articles;
- (b) Issue Interests in the Company and admit other Persons as Members;
- (c) Acquire by purchase, lease, or otherwise any real or personal property;
- (d) Loan money to the Company, its affiliates or other third parties, upon such terms and conditions as the Member may determine;
- (e) Operate, maintain, finance, improve, construct, own, grant options with respect to, sell, convey, assign, mortgage, and lease any real or personal property;
- (f) Designate, authorize and direct one or more Persons to execute any and all agreements, contracts, documents, certifications, and instruments on behalf of the Company that are necessary or convenient in connection with the management, maintenance and operation of Property or managing the Company's affairs, including executing amendments to the Agreement and the Articles in accordance with the terms of the Agreement, both as authorized agent for the Company and, if required, as attorney-in-fact for the Member pursuant to a power of attorney.
- (g) Appoint individuals designated as officers and/or managers of the Company and delegate such authority to such officers and/or managers as the Member deems advisable.
- (h) Borrow money and issue evidences of indebtedness (including bonds, notes and debentures) necessary, convenient or incidental to the accomplishment of the purposes of the Company, and secure the same by mortgage, pledge, or other lien on any Property;
- (i) Care for and distribute funds to the Interest Holders by way of income, return of capital, or otherwise;
- (j) Contract on behalf of the Company for the employment and services of employees and/or independent contractors, such as lawyers and accountants, and delegate to such Persons the duty to manage or supervise any of the Property or operations of the Company;

(k) Engage in any kind of activity and perform and carry out contracts of any kind as may be lawfully engaged in, carried out, or performed by a limited liability company under the laws of each state in which the Company is then formed or qualified; and

(1) Make any and all elections for federal, state, and local tax purposes.

5.2 Indemnification of Member.

(a) The Company, its receiver, or its trustee (in the case of its receiver or trustee, to the extent of Company Property) shall indemnify, save harmless, and pay all judgments and claims against the Member relating to any liability or damage incurred by reason of: (i) ownership of an Interest in the Company, and (ii) any act performed or omitted to be performed by the Member in connection with the business of the Company, in any case including attorneys' fees incurred by the Member in connection with the defense of any action based on any of the foregoing.

(b) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in Section 5.2(a) above, in the event that any provision in such Section is determined to be invalid in whole or in part, such Section shall be enforced to the maximum extent permitted by law.

Section 6. Role of Member.

6.1 Compensation. The Member may from time to time receive a salary, fee, or draw for services rendered to or on behalf of the Company in such amount as the Member deems appropriate.

6.2 Expenses. The Member may charge the Company for any expenses reasonably incurred by it in connection with the Company's business.

6.3 Loans. If the Member shall make any loan or loans to the Company or advance money on its behalf, the amount of any such loan or advance shall not be treated as a capital contribution but shall be a debt due from the Company. The amount of any such loan or advance by the Member shall be repayable out of the Company's cash and shall bear interest at such rate as the Company and the Member shall agree but not in excess of the maximum rate permitted by law. The Member shall not be obligated to make any loan or advance to, or on behalf of, the Company.

Section 7. Transfer of Interests.

7.1 No Restriction on Transfers. The Member may Transfer all or any portion of its Interest at any time.

7.2 Admission of Transferees as Members. Unless otherwise indicated in writing at the time of any Transfer of an Interest, a transferee of an Interest (including a transferee by operation of law) shall be admitted to the Company as a substituted Member and shall be bound by the terms of this Agreement upon such transferee's written notice to the Company at the address specified in Section 1.4.

Section 8. Dissolution and Winding Up.

8.1 Liquidating Events. The death, retirement, bankruptcy or dissolution of the Member, or the occurrence of any other event that terminates the continued membership of a member in the Company, shall not cause the Company to be dissolved and its affairs wound up, but rather the business of the Company shall be continued without dissolution, provided that there remains at least one Member (including a transferee of one or more Interests who becomes a Member). The Company shall dissolve and commence winding up and liquidating upon the first to occur of any of the following events (the "Liquidating Events"):

- (a) The written consent of the Member or any successor Member;
- (b) There is no Member or transferee of one or more Interests who becomes a Member; or
- (c) The occurrence of any other event causing the dissolution of the Company under the Act.

8.2 Winding Up. Upon the occurrence of a Liquidating Event, the Company shall continue solely for the purposes of winding up its affairs in an orderly manner, liquidating its assets, and satisfying the claims of its creditors and the Member. To the extent not inconsistent with the foregoing, the terms of this Agreement shall continue in full force and effect until such time as all of the Property (including the proceeds of sales of Property) has been distributed pursuant to this Section 8.2 and the Company's existence has been terminated in accordance with the Act. The Member (or, in the event there is no remaining Member, any Person elected by those Persons succeeding to ownership of the Member's Interest) shall be responsible for overseeing the winding up of the Company, shall take full account of the Company's liabilities and Property, shall cause the Property other than cash to be liquidated as promptly as is consistent with obtaining the fair value thereof, and shall cause the proceeds therefrom, to the extent sufficient therefor, to be applied and distributed in the following order:

- (a) First, to the payment and discharge of all of the Company's debts and liabilities to creditors; and
- (b) The balance, if any, to the Member.

Section 9. Miscellaneous.

9.1 Amendment. The Member may amend this Agreement at any time.

9.2 Headings. Section and other headings contained in this Agreement are for reference purposes only and are not intended to describe, interpret, define, or limit the scope, extent, or intent of this Agreement or any provision hereof.

9.3 Severability. Every provision of this Agreement is intended to be severable. If any term or provision hereof is illegal or invalid for any reason whatsoever, such illegality or invalidity shall not affect the validity or legality of the remainder of this Agreement.

9.4 Variation of Pronouns. All pronouns and any variations thereof shall be deemed to refer to masculine, feminine, or neuter, singular or plural, as the identity of the person or persons may require.

9.5 Governing Law. The laws of the State of Illinois shall govern the validity of this Agreement, the construction of its terms, and the interpretation of the rights and duties of the Member.

The undersigned has executed this Agreement as of the day and year first above set forth.

 8. A director of the Corporation shall not be personally liable to the Corporation or its stockholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director, except for liability (i) for any breach of the director's duty of loyalty to the Corporation or its stockholders, (ii) for acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law, (iii) under Section 2718.8-330 of the Kentucky Business Corporation Act (the "Kentucky Code") or (iv) for any transaction from which the director derives an improper personal benefit. If the Kentucky Code is amended hereafter to authorize corporate action further eliminating or limiting the personal liability of directors, then the liability of a director of the Corporation shall be eliminated or limited to the fullest extent permitted by the Kentucky Code, as so amended.

Any repeal or modification of the foregoing paragraph by the stockholders of the Corporation shall not adversely affect any right or protection of a director of the Corporation existing at the time of such repeal or modification.

9. Indemnification:

A. Rights to Indemnification. Each person who was or is made a party or is threatened to be made a party to or is otherwise involved in any action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (hereinafter a "proceeding"), by reason of the fact that he or she, or a person of whom he or she is the legal representative, or is or was a director or officer of the Corporation or is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director or officer of another corporation or of a partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, including service with respect to an employee benefit plan (hereinafter an "indemnitee"), whether the basis of such proceeding is alleged action in an official capacity as a director or officer or in any other capacity while serving as a director or officer, shall be indemnified and held harmless by the Corporation to the fullest extent authorized by the Kentucky as the same exists or may hereafter be amended (but, in the case of any such amendment, only to the extent that such amendment permits the Corporation to provide broader indemnification rights than permitted prior thereto), against all expense, liability and loss (including, without limitation, attorneys' fees, judgments, fines, excise taxes or penalties and amounts paid or to be paid in settlement) incurred or suffered by such indemnitee in connection therewith and such indemnification shall continue with respect to an indemnitee who has ceased to be a director or officer and shall inure to the benefit of the indemnitee's heirs, executors and administrators; provided, however, that except as provided in paragraph (B) hereof with respect to proceedings to enforce rights to indemnification, the Corporation shall indemnify any such indemnitee in connection with a proceeding initiated by such indemnitee only if such proceeding was authorized by the Board of Directors of the Corporation. The right to indemnification conferred in this Article shall be a contract right and shall include the right to be paid by the Corporation the expenses incurred in defending any such proceeding in advance of its final disposition (hereinafter an "advancement of expenses"); provided, however, that, if the Kentucky Code requires, an advancement of expenses incurred by an indemnitee shall be made only upon delivery to the Corporation of an undertaking (herein after an "undertaking"), by or on behalf of such indemnitee, to repay all amounts so advanced if it shall ultimately be determined by final judicial decision from which there is no further right to appeal (hereinafter a "final adjudication") that such indemnitee is not entitled to be indemnified for such expenses under this Article or otherwise.

B. Right of Indemnitee to Bring Suit. If a claim under paragraph (A) of this Article is not paid in full by the Corporation within sixty days after a written claim has been received by the Corporation (except in the case of a claim for an advancement of expenses, in which case the applicable period shall be twenty days), the indemnitee may at any time thereafter bring suit against the Corporation to recover the unpaid amount of the claim. If successful in whole or in part in any such suit, the indemnitee shall also be entitled to be paid the expense of prosecuting or defending such suit. In (i) any suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right to indemnification hereunder (but not a suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right to an advancement of expenses) it shall be a defense that, and (ii) in any suit by the Corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking, the Corporation shall be entitled to recover such expenses upon a final adjudication that, the indemnitee has not met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in the Kentucky Code. Neither the failure of the Corporation (including its Board of Directors, independent legal counsel or its stockholders) to have made a determination prior to the commencement of such suit that indemnification of the indemnitee has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in the Kentucky Code, nor an actual determination by the Corporation (including its Board of Directors, independent legal counsel or its stockholders) that the indemnitee has not met such applicable standard of conduct, or in the case of such a suit brought by the indemnitee, shall be a defense to such suit. In any suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right to indemnification or to an advancement of expenses hereunder or by the Corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking, the burden of proving that the indemnitee is not entitled under this Article or otherwise to be indemnified, or to such advancement of expenses, shall be on the Corporation.

C. Non-Exclusivity Rights. The rights to indemnification and to the advancement of expenses conferred in this Article shall not be exclusive of any other right which any person may have or hereafter acquire under this Charter or any Bylaw, agreement, vote of stockholders or disinterested directors or otherwise.

D. Insurance. The Corporation may maintain insurance, at its expense, to protect itself and any indemnitee against any expense, liability or loss, whether or not the Corporation would have the power to indemnify such person against such expense, liability or loss under the Kentucky Code.

E. Indemnity of Employees and Agents of the Corporation. The Corporation may, to the extent authorized from time to time by the Board of Directors, grant rights to indemnification and to the advancement of expenses to any employee or agent of the Corporation to the fullest extent of the provisions of this Article or as otherwise permitted under the Kentucky Code with respect to the indemnification and advancement of expenses of directors and officers of the Corporation.

BYLAWS OF HOSPITAL OF FULTON, INC.

ARTICLE I
OFFICES

Section 1.1 Registered Office. The registered office shall be in the City of Louisville, Commonwealth of Kentucky.

Section 1.2 Other Offices. The corporation may also have offices at such other places both within and without the Commonwealth of Kentucky, as the board of directors may from time to time determine or the business of the corporation may require.

ARTICLE II
MEETINGS OF SHAREHOLDERS

Section 2.1 Annual Meeting. An annual meeting of shareholders of the corporation shall be held on such date and at such time as shall be designated from time to time by the board of directors and stated in the notice of the meeting. At such meeting, the shareholders shall elect directors and transact such other business as may properly be brought before the meeting.

Section 2.2 Special Meetings. Special meetings of the shareholders for any purpose whatsoever may be called at any time by the president, the board of directors, or the holders of not less than ten percent of all shares entitled to vote at such meeting.

Section 2.3 Place of Meetings. All meetings of shareholders for any purpose or purposes may be held at such places, within or without the Commonwealth of Kentucky, as may from time to time be fixed by the board of directors or as shall be stated in the notice of the meeting or in a duly executed waiver of notice thereof.

Section 2.4 Notice. Written notice stating the place, day and hour of the meeting and, in the case of a special meeting, the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is called, shall be given not less than ten nor more than sixty days before the date of the meeting, either personally or by mail.

Section 2.5 Quorum of Shareholders. The holders of a majority of the shares issued and outstanding and entitled to vote at such meeting, present in person or represented by proxy shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at all meetings of the shareholders.

Section 2.6 Voting, of Shares. Except as otherwise provided by statute or the articles of incorporation, each holder of record of shares of stock of the Corporation having voting power shall be entitled at each meeting of the shareholders to one vote for every share of such stock standing in his or her name on the record books of shareholders of the corporation on the date on which such notice of the meeting is mailed, unless some other day is fixed by the board of directors for the determination of shareholders of record.

Section 2.7 Voting List. The officer who has charge of the stock transfer books for shares of the corporation shall prepare at least ten days before every meeting of shareholders, a complete list of the shareholders entitled to vote at such meeting, arranged in alphabetical order, including the address of each shareholder and the number of voting shares held by each shareholder. For a period of ten days prior to such meeting, such list shall be kept open to the examination of any shareholder, for any purpose germane to the meeting, during ordinary business hours, either at a place within the city where the meeting is to be held and which place shall be specified in the notice of the meeting, or, if not so specified, at the place where said meeting is to be held. Such list shall be produced at such meeting and at all times during such meeting shall be subject to inspection by any shareholder. The original stock transfer books shall be prima facie evidence as to who are the shareholders entitled to examine such list or stock transfer books.

Section 2.8 Treasury Stock. The corporation shall not vote, directly or indirectly, shares of its own stock owned by it and such shares shall not be counted for quorum purposes.

Section 2.9 Consent of Shareholders in Lieu of Meeting. Whenever the vote of shareholders at a meeting thereof is required or permitted to be taken for or in connection with any corporate action, the meeting, the notice thereof, and the vote of shareholders can be dispensed with, if a consent in writing, setting forth the action so taken, shall be signed by the holders of stock having not less than the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to authorize or take such action at a meeting at which all shares entitled to vote thereof were present and voted, provided that prompt notice must be given to all shareholders of the taking of corporate action without a meeting by less than unanimous written consent.

ARTICLE III DIRECTORS

Section 3.1 Powers of Directors. The business and affairs of the corporation shall be managed by its board of directors which shall have and may exercise all such powers of the corporation, subject to the restrictions imposed by law, the articles of incorporation, or these bylaws.

Section 3.2 Number and Qualification. The number of directors which shall constitute the entire board of directors shall be determined by resolution of the board of directors at any meeting thereof or by the shareholders at any meeting thereof. Directors need not be residents of Kentucky or shareholders of the corporation.

Section 3.3 Election and Term of Office. The directors shall be elected annually by the shareholders, except as provided in Section 3.4 of these bylaws. Each director shall hold office until the next succeeding annual meeting of shareholders and until his or her successor shall have been elected or until his or her earlier death, resignation, or removal. The board of directors may, by resolution, appoint one of its members as chairman to preside over meetings of the board of directors. The position of chairman of the board of directors shall not be an office of the corporation.

Section 3.4 Vacancies. Any vacancy occurring in the board of directors by reason of death, resignation, or removal may be filled by affirmative vote of a majority of the remaining directors, although less than a quorum of the board of directors. Such vacancy may also be filled by affirmative vote of the majority of the shareholders. A director elected to fill a vacancy shall be elected for the unexpired term of his or her predecessor in office or until his or her death, resignation, retirement, disqualification, or removal.

Section 3.5 Resignation of Directors. Any director may resign from office at any time by delivering a written resignation to the secretary of the corporation, and such resignation shall be effective upon delivery of such resignation to the secretary.

Section 3.6 Removal of Directors. Any director may be removed with or without cause at any time by the shareholders.

Section 3.7 Place of Meetings. Regular or special meetings of the board of directors may be held either within or without the Commonwealth of Kentucky.

Section 3.8 Regular Meetings. Regular meetings of the board of directors may be held without notice at such times and places as may be designated from time to time as may be determined by the board of directors.

Section 3.9 Special Meetings. Special meetings of the board of directors may be called by the president or any director on twenty-four (24) hours notice to each director, either personally or by telephone, mail, telegram or other means of telecommunications. Neither the business to be transacted at, nor the purpose of, any special meeting of the board of directors need be specified in the notice or waiver of notice of any special meeting.

Section 3.10 Quorum of Directors. At all meetings of the board of directors, a majority of the directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business and the act or a majority of the directors present at any meeting at which there is a quorum shall be an act of the board of directors. If a quorum is not present at a meeting, a majority of the directors present may adjourn the meeting from time to time, without notice other than an announcement at the meeting, until a quorum is present.

Section 3.11 Committees. The board of directors may, by resolution passed by a majority of the entire board, designate one or more committees, including, if they shall so determine, an executive committee, each such committee to consist of one or more of the directors of the corporation. Any such designated committee shall have and may exercise such of the powers and authority of the board of directors in the management of the business and affairs of the corporation as may be provided in such resolution, except that no such committee shall have the power or authority of the board of directors in reference to amending the articles of incorporation, adopting an agreement of merger or consolidation, recommending to the shareholders the sale, lease or exchange of all or substantially all of the corporation's property and assets, recommending to the shareholders a dissolution of the corporation or a revocation of a dissolution of the corporation, or amending, altering or repealing the bylaws or adopting new bylaws for the corporation and, unless such resolution or the articles of incorporation expressly so provides, no such committee shall have the power or authority to authorize the issuance of stock. The board of directors shall have the power at any time to change the number and members of any such committee, to fill vacancies and to discharge any such committee.

Section 3.12 Compensation of Directors. The board of directors shall have authority to determine, from time to time, the amount of compensation, if any, which shall be paid to its members for their services as directors and as members of committees of the board of directors. The board of directors shall also have power in its discretion to provide for and to pay to directors rendering services to the corporation not ordinarily rendered by directors as such, special compensation appropriate to the value of such services as determined by the board of directors from time to time. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to preclude any director from serving the corporation in any other capacity and receiving compensation therefor.

Section 3.13 Action by Unanimous Written Consent. Any action required or permitted to be taken at a meeting of the board of directors or any committee may be taken without a meeting if a consent in writing, setting forth the actions so taken, is signed by all of the members of the board of directors or such committee, as the case may be.

Section 3.14 Minutes of Meetings. The board of directors shall keep regular minutes of its proceedings and such minutes shall be placed in the minute book of the corporation. Committees of the board of directors shall maintain a separate record of the minutes of their proceedings.

ARTICLE IV

NOTICES AND TELEPHONE MEETINGS

Section 4.1 Notice. Any notice to directors or shareholders shall be in writing and shall be delivered personally or by mail, telegram, telex, cable, telecopier or similar means to the directors or shareholders at their respective addresses appearing on the books of the corporation. Notice by mail shall be deemed to be given at the time when the same shall be deposited in the United States mail, postage prepaid. Any notice required or permitted to be given by telegram, telex, cable, telecopier, or similar means shall be deemed to be delivered and given at the time transmitted.

Section 4.2 Waiver of Notice. Whenever by law, the articles of incorporation, or these bylaws, notice is required to be given to any shareholder, director, or committee member of the corporation, a waiver thereof in writing signed by the person or persons entitled to such notice, whether before or after the time notice should have been given, shall be equivalent to the giving of such notice. Attendance of a director at a meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting, except where a director attends a meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business on the ground that the meeting is not lawfully called or convened.

Section 4.3 Telephone and Similar Meetings. Shareholders, directors, or committee members may participate in and hold a meeting by means of a conference telephone or similar communications equipment by means of which persons participating in the meeting can hear each other. Participation in such a meeting shall constitute presence in person at such meeting, except where a person participates in the meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business on the ground that the meeting is not lawfully called or convened.

ARTICLE V OFFICERS

Section 5.1 Officers. The corporation shall have a president and a secretary and such other officers and assistant officers as the board may deem desirable to conduct the affairs of the corporation. The position of chairman of the board of directors shall not be an office of the corporation. Any two or more offices may be held by the same person. No officer need be a shareholder or a director.

Section 5.2 Powers and Duties of Officers. The officers of the corporation shall have the powers and duties generally ascribed to the respective offices, and such additional authority or duty as may from time to time be established by the board of directors.

Section 5.3 Removal and Resignation. Any officer appointed by the board of directors may be removed by the board of directors whenever, in the judgment of the board of directors, the best interests of the corporation will be served thereby. Any officer may resign at any time by giving written notice to the corporation. Any such resignation shall take effect at the date of receipt of such notice or at a later time specified therein, and unless otherwise specified therein, the acceptance of such resignation shall not be necessary to make it effective.

Section 5.4 Term and Vacancies. The officers of the corporation shall hold office until their successors are elected or appointed, or until their death, resignation, or removal from office. Any vacancy occurring in any office of the corporation by death, resignation, removal, or otherwise, may be filled by the board of directors.

Section 5.5 Compensation. The salaries of all officers of the corporation shall be fixed by the board of directors. The board of directors shall have the power to enter into contracts for the employment and compensation of officers on such terms as the board of directors deems advisable. No officer shall be disqualified from receiving a salary or other compensation by reason of the fact that he or she is also a director of the corporation.

ARTICLE VI

CERTIFICATES AND SHAREHOLDERS

Section 6.1 Certificates for Shares. The certificates for shares of stock of the Corporation shall be in such form as shall be approved by the board of directors in conformity with law and the articles of incorporation. Every certificate for shares issued by the corporation must be signed by the President or a Vice President and the Secretary or an Assistant Secretary under the seal of the corporation. Any or all of the signatures on the face of the certificate may be facsimile. Such certificates shall bear a legend or legends in the form and containing the restrictions to be stated thereon by the Kentucky Business Corporation Act, other provisions of law, the articles of incorporation or these bylaws. Certificates shall be consecutively numbered and shall be entered as they are issued. Each certificate shall state on the face thereof the holder's name, the number and class of shares, the par value of such shares, and such other matters as may be required by law, the articles of incorporation or these bylaws.

Section 6.2 Lost. Stolen. or Destroyed Certificates. The board of directors, the executive committee, or the president of the corporation may direct a new certificate or certificates representing shares to be issued in place of any certificate or certificates theretofore issued by the corporation alleged to have been lost, stolen, or destroyed, upon the making of an affidavit of the fact by the person claiming the certificate or certificates to be lost, stolen, or destroyed. When authorizing such issue of a new certificate the board of directors, the executive committee or the president may require the owner of such lost, stolen, or destroyed certificate, or his or her legal representative, to advertise the same in such manner as it or he or she shall require and/or give the corporation a bond in such sum as it may direct as indemnity against any claim that may be made against the corporation with respect to the certificate alleged to have been lost, stolen or destroyed.

Section 6.3 Transfer of Shares. Shares of stock of the corporation shall be transferable only on the books of the corporation by the holder thereof in person or by the holder's duly authorized attorneys or legal representatives. Upon surrender to the corporation or the transfer agent of the corporation of a certificate representing shares duly endorsed or accompanied by proper evidence of succession, assignment, or authority to transfer, the corporation or its transfer agent shall issue a new certificate to the person entitled thereto, cancel the old certificate, and record the transaction upon its books.

Section 6.4 Registered Shareholders. The corporation shall be entitled to recognize the exclusive right of a person registered on its books as the owner of shares to receive dividends, and to vote as such owner, and to hold liable for calls and assessments, a person registered on its books as the owner of shares, and shall not be bound to recognize any equitable or other claim to or interest in such shares on the part of any person, whether or not it shall have actual or other notice thereof, except as otherwise provided by law.

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

Section 7.1 Dividends. Dividends upon the outstanding shares of the corporation, subject to the provisions of the applicable statutes and of the articles of incorporation, may be declared by the board of directors at any annual, regular or special meeting. Dividends may be declared and paid in cash, in property, or in shares of the corporation, or in any combination thereof.

Section 7.2 Reserves. There may be set aside out of any funds of the corporation available for dividends such sum or sums as the board of directors from time to time in their sole and absolute discretion think proper as a reserve to meet contingencies, or to equalize dividends, or to repair or maintain any property of the corporation, or for such other purpose as the board of directors shall think conducive to the interest of the corporation, and the board of directors may modify or abolish any such reserve in the manner in which it was created.

Section 7.3 Signature of Negotiable Instruments. All checks or demands for money and notes of the corporation shall be signed by such officer or officers or such other person or persons as the board of directors may from time to time designate.

Section 7.4 Fiscal Year. The fiscal year of the corporation shall be fixed by the board of directors; provided, that if such fiscal year is not fixed by the board of directors it shall be the calendar year.

Section 7.5 Books of the Corporation. The books of the corporation may be kept, subject to the provisions of the applicable statutes, within or outside of the Commonwealth of Kentucky, at such place or places as may from time to time be designated by the board of directors or as the business of the corporation may require.

Section 7.6 Seal. The seal, if any, of the corporation shall be in such form as may be approved from time to time by the board of directors. If the board of directors approves a seal, the affixation of such seal shall not be required to create a valid and binding obligation against the corporation.

Section 7.7 Securities of Other Corporations. Unless otherwise ordered by the board of directors, the president or the secretary of the corporation shall have full power and authority on behalf of the corporation to attend, to vote and to grant proxies to be used at any meeting of shareholders of such other corporation in which the corporation may hold stock. The board of directors may confer like powers upon any other person or persons.

Section 7.8 Fixed Record Date. In order that the corporation may determine the shareholders entitled to notice of or to vote at any meeting of shareholders or any adjournment thereof, or to express consent to corporate action in writing without a meeting, or entitled to receive payment of any dividend or other distribution or allotment of any rights, or entitled to exercise any rights in respect of any change, conversion or exchange of stock for the purpose of any other lawful action, the board of directors may fix, in advance, a record date which shall be not more than sixty 60 days before the date of such meeting, nor more than 60 days prior to any other action.

Section 7.9 Amendment. The power to alter, amend, or repeal these bylaws or to adopt new bylaws is vested in the board of directors.

Section 7.10 Right to Indemnification.

indemnitee shall be made only upon delivery to the corporation of an undertaking (hereinafter an “undertaking”), by or on behalf of such indemnitee, to repay all amounts so advanced if it shall ultimately be determined by final judicial decision from which there is no further right to appeal (hereinafter a “final adjudication”) that such indemnitee is not entitled to be indemnified for such expenses under this section or otherwise.

(B) If a claim under paragraph (A) of this section is not paid in full by the corporation within 60 days after a written claim has been received by the corporation, except in the case of a claim for an advancement of expenses, in which case the applicable period shall be 20 days, the indemnitee may at any time thereafter bring suit against the corporation to recover the unpaid amount of such suit, or in a suit brought by the corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking, the indemnitee shall be entitled to be paid also the expense of prosecuting or defending such suit. In (i) any suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right to indemnification hereunder (but not in a suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right to an advancement of expenses) it shall be a defense that, and (ii) any suit by the corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking the corporation shall be entitled to recover such expenses upon a final adjudication that, the indemnitee has not met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in the Kentucky Business Corporation Act. Neither the failure of the corporation (including its board of directors, independent legal counsel, or its shareholders) to have made a determination prior to the commencement of such suit that indemnification of the indemnitee is proper in the circumstances because the indemnitee has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in the Kentucky Business Corporation Act, nor an actual determination by the corporation (including its board of directors, independent legal counsel, or its shareholders) that the indemnitee has not met such applicable standard of conduct shall create a presumption that the indemnitee has not met the applicable standard of conduct or, in the case of such a suit brought by the indemnitee, be a defense of such suit. In any suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right of indemnification or to an advancement of expenses hereunder, or by the corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking, the burden of proving that the indemnitee is not entitled to be indemnified, or to such advancement of expenses, under this section or otherwise shall be on the corporation.

(C) The rights to indemnification and to the advancement of expenses conferred in this section shall not be exclusive of any other right which any person may have or hereafter acquire under any statute, the corporation’s certificate of incorporation, by agreement, by vote of shareholders or by disinterested directors or otherwise.

(D) The corporation may maintain insurance, at its expense, to protect itself and any director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation or another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise against any expense, liability or loss, whether or not the corporation would have the power to indemnify such person against such expense, liability or loss under the Kentucky Business Corporation Act.

Section 7.11 Invalid Provisions. If any provision of these bylaws is held to be illegal, invalid, or unenforceable under present or future laws, such provision shall be fully severable; these bylaws shall be construed and enforced as if such illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision had never comprised a part hereof; and the remaining provisions hereof shall remain in full force and effect and shall not be affected by the illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision or by its severance herefrom. Furthermore, in lieu of such illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision there shall be added automatically as a part of these bylaws a provision as similar in terms to such illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision as may be possible and be legal, valid, and enforceable.

Section 7.12 Headings. The headings used in these bylaws are for reference purposes only and do not affect in any way the meaning or interpretation of these bylaws.

The undersigned officer of the corporation hereby confirms that the above bylaws were duly adopted as the bylaws of the corporation as of the 11th day of May, 1992.

5. The name and address of the Corporation's incorporator is: Sara Martin-Michels, 414 • Union Street, Suite 1200, Nashville, Davidson County, Tennessee 37219-1777.
6. The Corporation is for profit.
7. The business and affairs of the Corporation shall be managed by a Board of Directors. The number of directors and their term shall be specified in the Bylaws of the Corporation.
8. A director of the Corporation shall not be personally liable to the Corporation or its stockholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director, except for liability (i) for any breach of the director's duty of loyalty to the Corporation or its stockholders, (ii) for acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law, (iii) under Section 271B.8-330 of the Kentucky Business Corporation Act (the "Kentucky code) or (iv) for any transaction from which the director derives an improper personal benefit. If the Kentucky Code is amended hereafter to authorize corporate action further eliminating or limiting the personal liability of directors, then the liability of a director of the Corporation shall be eliminated or limited to the fullest extent permitted by the Kentucky Code, as so amended.

Any repeal or modification of the foregoing paragraph by the stockholders of the Corporation shall not adversely affect any right or protection of a director of the Corporation existing at the time of such repeal or modification.

9. Indemnification:

A. Rights to Indemnification. Each person who was or is made a party or is threatened to be made a party to or is otherwise involved in any action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (hereinafter a "proceeding"), by reason of the fact that he or she, or a person of whom he or she is the legal representative, or is or was a director or officer of the Corporation or is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director or officer of another corporation or of a partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, including service with respect to an employee benefit plan (hereinafter an "indemnitee"), whether the basis of such proceeding is alleged action in an official capacity as a director or officer or in any other capacity while serving as a director or officer, shall be indemnified and held harmless by the Corporation to the fullest extent authorized by the Kentucky as the same exists or may hereafter be amended (but, in the case of any such amendment, only to the extent that such amendment permits the Corporation to provide broader indemnification rights than permitted prior thereto), against all expense, liability and loss (including, without limitation, attorneys' fees, judgments, fines, excise taxes or penalties and amounts paid or to be paid in settlement) incurred or suffered by such indemnitee in connection therewith and such indemnification shall continue with respect to an indemnitee who has ceased to be a director or officer and shall inure to the benefit of the indemnitee's heirs, executors and administrators; provided, however, that except as provided in paragraph (B) hereof with respect to proceedings to enforce rights to indemnification, the Corporation shall indemnify any such indemnitee in connection with a proceeding initiated by such indemnitee only if such proceeding was authorized by the Board of Directors of the Corporation. The right to indemnification conferred in this Article shall be a contract right and shall include the right to be paid by the Corporation the expenses incurred in defending any such proceeding in advance of its final disposition (hereinafter an "advancement of expenses"); provided, however, that, if the Kentucky Code requires, an advancement of expenses incurred by an indemnitee shall be made only upon delivery to the Corporation of an undertaking (hereinafter an "undertaking"), by or on behalf of such indemnitee, to repay all amounts so advanced if it shall ultimately, be determined by final judicial decision from which there is no further right to appeal (hereinafter a "final adjudication") that such indemnitee is not entitled to be indemnified for such expenses under this Article or otherwise.

B. Right of Indemnitee to Bring Suit. If a claim under paragraph (A) of this Article is not paid in full by the Corporation within sixty days after a written claim has been received by the Corporation (except in the case of a claim for an advancement of expenses, in which case the applicable period shall be twenty days), the indemnitee may at any time thereafter bring suit against the Corporation to recover the unpaid amount of the claim. If successful in whole or in part in any such suit, the indemnitee shall also be entitled to be paid the expense of prosecuting or defending such suit. In (i) any suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right to indemnification hereunder (but not a suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right to an advancement of expenses) it shall be a defense that, and (ii) in any suit by the Corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking, the Corporation shall be entitled to recover such expenses upon a final adjudication that, the indemnitee has not met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in the Kentucky Code. Neither the failure of the Corporation (including its Board of Directors, independent legal counsel or its stockholders) to have made a determination prior to the commencement of such suit that indemnification of the indemnitee has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in the Kentucky Code, nor an actual determination by the Corporation (including its Board of Directors, independent legal counsel or its stockholders) that the indemnitee has not met such applicable standard of conduct, or in the case of such a suit brought by the indemnitee, shall be a defense to such suit. In any suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right to indemnification or to an advancement of expenses hereunder or by the Corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking, the burden of proving that the indemnitee is not entitled under this Article or otherwise to be indemnified, or to such advancement of expenses, shall be on the Corporation.

C. Non-Exclusivity of Rights. The rights to indemnification and to the advancement of expenses conferred in this Article shall not be exclusive of any other right which any person may have or hereafter acquire under this Charter or any Bylaw, agreement, vote of stockholders or disinterested directors or otherwise.

D. Insurance. The Corporation may maintain insurance, at its expense, to protect itself and any indemnitee against any expense, liability or loss, whether or not the Corporation would have the power to indemnify such person against such expense, liability or loss under the Kentucky Code.

E. Indemnity of Employees and Agents of the Corporation. The Corporation may, to the extent authorized from time to time by the Board of Directors, grant rights to indemnification and to the advancement of expenses to any employee or agent of the Corporation to the fullest extent of the provisions of this Article or as otherwise permitted under the Kentucky Code with respect to the indemnification and advancement of expenses of directors and officers of the Corporation.

BYLAWS OF HOSPITAL OF LOUISA, INC.

ARTICLE I
OFFICES

Section 1.1 Registered Office. The registered office shall be in the City of Louisville, State of Kentucky.

Section 1.2 Other Offices. The corporation may also have offices at such other places both within and without the State of Kentucky, as the board of directors may from time to time determine or the business of the corporation may require.

MEETINGS OF SHAREHOLDERS

Section 2.1 Annual Meeting. An annual meeting of shareholders of the corporation shall be held on such date and at such time as shall be designated from time to time by the board of directors and stated in the notice of the meeting. At such meeting, the shareholders shall elect directors and transact such other business as may properly be brought before the meeting.

Section 2.2 Special Meetings. Special meetings of the shareholders for any purpose whatsoever may be called at any time by the president, the board of directors, or the holders of not less than ten percent of all shares entitled to vote at such meeting.

Section 2.3 Place of Meetings. All meetings of shareholders for any purpose or purposes may be held at such places, within or without the State of Kentucky, as may from time to time be fixed by the board of directors or as shall be stated in the notice of the meeting or in a duly executed waiver of notice thereof.

Section 2.4 Notice. Written notice stating the place, day and hour of the meeting and, in the case of a special meeting, the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is called, shall be given not less than ten nor more than sixty days before the date of the meeting, either personally or by mail.

Section 2.5 Quorum of Shareholders. The holders of a majority of the shares issued and outstanding and entitled to vote at such meeting, present in person or represented by proxy shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at all meetings of the shareholders.

Section 2.6 Voting of Shares. Except as otherwise provided by statute or the articles of incorporation, each holder of record of shares of stock of the Corporation having voting power shall be entitled at each meeting of the shareholders to one vote for every share of such stock standing in his or her name on the record books of shareholders of the corporation on the date on which such notice of the meeting is mailed, unless some other day is fixed by the board of directors for the determination of shareholders of record.

Section 2.7 Voting List. The officer who has charge of the stock transfer books for shares of the corporation shall prepare at least ten days before every meeting of shareholders, a complete list of the shareholders entitled to vote at such meeting, arranged in alphabetical order, including the address of each shareholder and the number of voting shares held by each shareholder. For a period of ten days prior to such meeting, such list shall be kept open to the examination of any shareholder, for any purpose germane to the meeting, during ordinary business hours, either at a place within the city where the meeting is to be held and which place shall be specified in the notice of the meeting, or, if not so specified, at the place where said meeting is to be held. Such list shall be produced at such meeting and at all times during such meeting shall be subject to inspection by any shareholder. The original stock transfer books shall be prima facie evidence as to who are the shareholders entitled to examine such list or stock transfer books.

Section 2.8 Treasury Stock. The corporation shall not vote, directly or indirectly, shares of its own stock owned by it and such shares shall not be counted for quorum purposes.

Section 2.9 Consent of Shareholders in Lieu of Meeting. Whenever the vote of shareholders at a meeting thereof is required or permitted to be taken for or in connection with any corporate action, the meeting, the notice thereof, and the vote of shareholders can be dispensed with, if a consent in writing, setting forth the action so taken, shall be signed by the holders of stock having not less than the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to authorize or take such action at a meeting at which all shares entitled to vote thereof were present and voted, provided that prompt notice must be given to all shareholders of the taking of corporate action without a meeting by less than unanimous written consent.

ARTICLE III

DIRECTORS

Section 3.1 Powers of Directors. The business and affairs of the corporation shall be managed by its board of directors which shall have and may exercise all such powers of the corporation, subject to the restrictions imposed by law, the articles of incorporation, or these bylaws.

Section 3.2 Number and Qualification. The number of directors which shall constitute the entire board of directors shall be determined by resolution of the board of directors at any meeting thereof or by the shareholders at any meeting thereof. Directors need not be residents of Kentucky or shareholders of the corporation.

Section 3.3 Election and Term of Office. The directors shall be elected annually by the shareholders, except as provided in Section 3.4 of these bylaws. Each director shall hold office until the next succeeding annual meeting of shareholders and until his or her successor shall have been elected or until his or her earlier death, resignation, or removal. The board of directors may, by resolution, appoint one of its members as chairman to preside over meetings of the board of directors. The position of chairman of the board of directors shall not be an office of the corporation.

Section 3.4 Vacancies. Any vacancy occurring in the board of directors by reason of death, resignation, or removal may be filled by affirmative vote of a majority of the remaining directors, although less than a quorum of the board of directors. Such vacancy may also be filled by affirmative vote of the majority of the shareholders. A director elected to fill a vacancy shall be elected for the unexpired term of his or her predecessor in office or until his or her death, resignation, retirement, disqualification, or removal.

Section 3.5 Resignation of Directors. Any director may resign from office at any time by delivering a written resignation to the secretary of the corporation, and such resignation shall be effective upon delivery of such resignation to the secretary.

Section 3.6 Removal of Directors. Any director may be removed with or without cause at any time by the shareholders.

Section 3.7 Place of Meetings. Regular or special meetings of the board of directors may be held either within or without the State of Kentucky.

Section 3.8 Regular Meetings. Regular meetings of the board of directors may be held without notice at such times and places as may be designated from time to time as may be determined by the board of directors.

Section 3.9 Special Meetings. Special meetings of the board of directors may be called by the president or any director on twenty-four (24) hours notice to each director, either personally or by telephone, mail, telegram or other means of telecommunications. Neither the business to be transacted at, nor the purpose of, any special meeting of the board of directors need be specified in the notice or waiver of notice of any special meeting.

Section 3.10 Quorum of Directors. At all meetings of the board of directors, a majority of the directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business and the act of a majority of the directors present at any meeting at which there is a quorum shall be an act of the board of directors. If a quorum is not present at a meeting, a majority of the directors present may adjourn the meeting from time to time, without notice other than an announcement at the meeting, until a quorum is present.

Section 3.11 Committees. The board of directors may, by resolution passed by a majority of the entire board, designate one or more committees, including, if they shall so determine, an executive committee, each such committee to consist of one or more of the directors of the corporation. Any such designated committee shall have and may exercise such of the powers and authority of the board of directors in the management of the business and affairs of the corporation as may be provided in such resolution, except that no such committee shall have the power or authority of the board of directors in reference to amending the articles of incorporation, adopting an agreement of merger or consolidation, recommending to the shareholders the sale, lease or exchange of all or substantially all of the corporation's property and assets, recommending to the shareholders a dissolution of the corporation or a revocation of a dissolution of the corporation, or amending, altering or repealing the bylaws or adopting new bylaws for the corporation and, unless such resolution or the articles of incorporation expressly so provides, no such committee shall have the power or authority to authorize the issuance of stock. The board of directors shall have the power at any time to change the number and members of any such committee, to fill vacancies and to discharge any such committee.

Section 3.12 Compensation of Directors. The board of directors shall have authority to determine, from time to time, the amount of compensation, if any, which shall be paid to its members for their services as directors and as members of committees of the board of directors. The board of directors shall also have power in its discretion to provide for and to pay to directors rendering services to the corporation not ordinarily rendered by directors as such, special compensation appropriate to the value of such services as determined by the board of directors from time to time. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to preclude any director from serving the corporation in any other capacity and receiving compensation therefor.

Section 3.13 Action by Unanimous Written Consent. Any action required or permitted to be taken at a meeting of the board of directors or any committee may be taken without a meeting if a consent in writing, setting forth the actions so taken, is signed by all of the members of the board of directors or such committee, as the case may be.

Section 3.14 Minutes of Meetings. The board of directors shall keep regular minutes of its proceedings and such minutes shall be placed in the minute book of the corporation. Committees of the board of directors shall maintain a separate record of the minutes of their proceedings.

ARTICLE IV

NOTICES AND TELEPHONE MEETINGS

Section 4.1 Notice. Any notice to directors or shareholders shall be in writing and shall be delivered personally or by mail, telegram, telex, cable, telecopier or similar means to the directors or shareholders at their respective addresses appearing on the books of the corporation. Notice by mail shall be deemed to be given at the time when the same shall be deposited in the United States mail, postage prepaid. Any notice required or permitted to be given by telegram, telex, cable, telecopier, or similar means shall be deemed to be delivered and given at the time transmitted.

Section 4.2 Waiver of Notice. Whenever by law, the articles of incorporation, or these bylaws, notice is required to be given to any shareholder, director, or committee member of the corporation, a waiver thereof in writing signed by the person or persons entitled to such notice, whether before or after the time notice should have been given, shall be equivalent to the giving of such notice. Attendance of a director at a meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting, except where a director attends a meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business on the ground that the meeting is not lawfully called or convened.

Section 4.3 Telephone and Similar Meetings. Shareholders, directors, or committee members may participate in and hold a meeting by means of a conference telephone or similar communications equipment by means of which persons participating in the meeting can hear each other. Participation in such a meeting shall constitute presence in person at such meeting, except where a person participates in the meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business on the ground that the meeting is not lawfully called or convened.

ARTICLE V OFFICERS

Section 5.1 Officers. The corporation shall have a president and a secretary and such other officers and assistant officers as the board may deem desirable to conduct the affairs of the corporation. The position of chairman of the board of directors shall not be an office of the corporation. Any two or more offices may be held by the same person. No officer need be a shareholder or a director.

Section 5.2 Powers and Duties of Officers. The officers of the corporation shall have the powers and duties generally ascribed to the respective offices, and such additional authority or duty as may from time to time be established by the board of directors.

Section 5.3 Removal and Resignation. Any officer appointed by the board of directors may be removed by the board of directors whenever, in the judgment of the board of directors, the best interests of the corporation will be served thereby. Any officer may resign at any time by giving written notice to the corporation. Any such resignation shall take effect at the date of receipt of such notice or at a later time specified therein, and unless otherwise specified therein, the acceptance of such resignation shall not be necessary to make it effective.

Section 5.4 Term and Vacancies. The officers of the corporation shall hold office until their successors are elected or appointed, or until their death, resignation, or removal from office. Any vacancy occurring in any office of the corporation by death, resignation, removal, or otherwise, may be filled by the board of directors.

Section 5.5 Compensation. The salaries of all officers of the corporation shall be fixed by the board of directors. The board of directors shall have the power to enter into contracts for the employment and compensation of officers on such terms as the board of directors deems advisable. No officer shall be disqualified from receiving a salary or other compensation by reason of the fact that he or she is also a director of the corporation.

CERTIFICATES AND SHAREHOLDERS

Section 6.1 Certificates for Shares. The certificates for shares of stock of the Corporation shall be in such form as shall be approved by the board of directors in conformity with law and the articles of incorporation. Every certificate for shares issued by the corporation must be signed by the President or a Vice President and the Secretary or an Assistant Secretary under the seal of the corporation. Any or all of the signatures on the face of the certificate may be facsimile. Such certificates shall bear a legend or legends in the form and containing the restrictions to be stated thereon by the Kentucky Business Corporation Act (the "Kentucky Code"), other provisions of law, the articles of incorporation or these bylaws. Certificates shall be consecutively numbered and shall be entered as they are issued. Each certificate shall state on the face thereof the holder's name, the number and class of shares, the par value of such shares, and such other matters as may be required by law, the articles of incorporation or these bylaws.

Section 6.2 Lost, Stolen, or Destroyed Certificates. The board of directors, the executive committee, or the president of the corporation may direct a new certificate or certificates representing shares to be issued in place of any certificate or certificates theretofore issued by the corporation alleged to have been lost, stolen, or destroyed, upon the making of an affidavit of the fact by the person claiming the certificate or certificates to be lost, stolen, or destroyed. When authorizing such issue of a new certificate the board of directors, the executive committee or the president may require the owner of such lost, stolen, or destroyed certificate, or his or her legal representative, to advertise the same in such manner as it or he or she shall require and/or give the corporation a bond in such sum as it may direct as indemnity against any claim that may be made against the corporation with respect to the certificate alleged to have been lost, stolen or destroyed.

Section 6.3 Transfer of Shares. Shares of stock of the corporation shall be transferable only on the books of the corporation by the holder thereof in person or by the holder's duly authorized attorneys or legal representatives. Upon surrender to the corporation or the transfer agent of the corporation of a certificate representing shares duly endorsed or accompanied by proper evidence of succession, assignment, or authority to transfer, the corporation or its transfer agent shall issue a new certificate to the person entitled thereto, cancel the old certificate, and record the transaction upon its books.

Section 6.4 Registered Shareholders. The corporation shall be entitled to recognize the exclusive right of a person registered on its books as the owner of shares to receive dividends, and to vote as such owner, and to hold liable for calls and assessments, a person registered on its books as the owner of shares, and shall not be bound to recognize any equitable or other claim to or interest in such shares on the part of any person, whether or not it shall have actual or other notice thereof, except as otherwise provided by law.

ARTICLE VII

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

Section 7.1 Dividends. Dividends upon the outstanding shares of the corporation, subject to the provisions of the applicable statutes and of the articles of incorporation, may be declared by the board of directors at any annual, regular or special meeting. Dividends may be declared and paid in cash, in property, or in shares of the corporation, or in any combination thereof.

Section 7.2 Reserves. There may be set aside out of any funds of the corporation available for dividends such sum or sums as the board of directors from time to time in their sole and absolute discretion think proper as a reserve to meet contingencies, or to equalize dividends, or to repair or maintain any property of the corporation, or for such other purpose as the board of directors shall think conducive to the interest of the corporation, and the board of directors may modify or abolish any such reserve in the manner in which it was created.

Section 7.3 Signature of Negotiable Instruments. All checks or demands for money and notes of the corporation shall be signed by such officer or officers or such other person or persons as the board of directors may from time to time designate.

Section 7.4 Fiscal Year. The fiscal year of the corporation shall be fixed by the board of directors; provided, that if such fiscal year is not fixed by the board of directors it shall be the calendar year.

Section 7.5 Books of the Corporation. The books of the corporation may be kept, subject to the provisions of the applicable statutes, within or outside of the State of Kentucky, at such place or places as may from time to time be designated by the board of directors or as the business of the corporation may require.

Section 7.6 Seal. The seal, if any, of the corporation shall be in such form as may be approved from time to time by the board of directors. If the board of directors approves a seal, the affixation of such seal shall not be required to create a valid and binding obligation against the corporation.

Section 7.7 Securities of Other Corporations. Unless otherwise ordered by the board of directors, the president or the secretary of the corporation shall have full power and authority on behalf of the corporation to attend, to vote and to grant proxies to be used at any meeting of shareholders of such other corporation in which the corporation may hold stock. The board of directors may confer like powers upon any other person or persons.

Section 7.8 Fixed Record Date. In order that the corporation may determine the shareholders entitled to notice of or to vote at any meeting of shareholders or any adjournment thereof, or to express consent to corporate action in writing without a meeting, or entitled to receive payment of any dividend or other distribution or allotment of any rights, or entitled to exercise any rights in respect of any change, conversion or exchange of stock for the purpose of any other lawful action, the board of directors may fix, in advance, a record date which shall be not more than sixty 60 days before the date of such meeting, nor more than 60 days prior to any other action.

Section 7.9 Amendment. The power to alter, amend, or repeal these bylaws or to adopt new bylaws is vested in the board of directors.

Section 7.10 Right to Indemnification.

(A) Each person (hereinafter an "indemnitee") who was or is made a party to or is threatened to be made a party to or is otherwise involved in any action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (hereinafter a "proceeding"), by reason of the fact that he or she was a director, officer or agent of the corporation or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation or of a partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, including service with respect to an employee benefit plan, whether the basis of such proceeding is alleged action in an official capacity as a director, officer, employee or agent, shall be indemnified and held harmless by the corporation to the fullest extent authorized by the Kentucky Code, as the same exists or may hereafter be amended (but, in the case of any such amendment, only to the extent that such amendment permits the corporation to provide broader indemnification rights than permitted prior thereto), against all expense, liability and loss (including attorney's fees, judgments, fines, ERISA excise taxes or penalties and amounts paid in settlement) reasonably incurred or suffered by such indemnitee in connection therewith, and such indemnification shall continue with respect to an indemnitee who has ceased to be a director, officer, employee or agent and shall inure to the benefit of the indemnitee's heirs, executors and administrators; provided, however, that, except as provided in paragraph (B) hereof with respect to proceedings to enforce rights to indemnification, the corporation shall indemnify any such indemnitee only if such proceeding (or part thereof) was authorized by the board of directors of the corporation. The right to indemnification conferred in this section shall be a contract right and shall include the right to be paid by the corporation the expenses incurred in defending any such proceeding in advance of its final disposition (hereinafter an “advancement of expenses”); provided, however, that, if the Kentucky Code requires, an advancement of expenses incurred by an indemnitee shall be made only upon delivery to the corporation of an undertaking (hereinafter an “undertaking”), by or on behalf of such indemnitee, to repay all amounts so advanced if it shall ultimately be determined by final judicial decision from which there is no further right to appeal (hereinafter a “final adjudication”) that such indemnitee is not entitled to be indemnified for such expenses under this section or otherwise.

(B) If a claim under paragraph (A) of this section is not paid in full by the corporation within 60 days after a written claim has been received by the corporation, except in the case of a claim for an advancement of expenses, in which case the applicable period shall be 20 days, the indemnitee may at any time thereafter bring suit against the corporation to recover the unpaid amount of such suit, or in a suit brought by the corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking, the indemnitee shall be entitled to be paid also the expense of prosecuting or defending such suit. In (i) any suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right to indemnification hereunder (but not in a suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right to an advancement of expenses) it shall be a defense that, and (ii) any suit by the corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking the corporation shall be entitled to recover such expenses upon a final adjudication that, the indemnitee has not met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in the Kentucky Code. Neither the failure of the corporation (including its board of directors, independent legal counsel, or its shareholders) to have made a determination prior to the commencement of such suit that indemnification of the indemnitee is proper in the circumstances because the indemnitee has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in the Kentucky Code, nor an actual determination by the corporation (including its board of directors, independent legal counsel, or its shareholders) that the indemnitee has not met such applicable standard of conduct shall create a presumption that the indemnitee has not met the applicable standard of conduct or, in the case of such a suit brought by the indemnitee, be a defense of such suit. In any suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right of indemnification or to an advancement of expenses hereunder, or by the corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking, the burden of proving that the indemnitee is not entitled to be indemnified, or to such advancement of expenses, under this section or otherwise shall be on the corporation.

(C) The rights to indemnification and to the advancement of expenses conferred in this section shall not be exclusive of any other right which any person may have or hereafter acquire under any statute, the corporation’s certificate of incorporation, by agreement, by vote of shareholders or by disinterested directors or otherwise.

(D) The corporation may maintain insurance, at its expense, to protect itself and any director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation or another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise against any expense, liability or loss, whether or not the corporation would have the power to indemnify such person against such expense, liability or loss under the Kentucky Code.

Section 7.11 Invalid Provisions. If any provision of these bylaws is held to be illegal, invalid, or unenforceable under present or future laws, such provision shall be fully severable; these bylaws shall be construed and enforced as if such illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision had never comprised a part hereof; and the remaining provisions hereof shall remain in full force and effect and shall not be affected by the illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision or by its severance herefrom. Furthermore, in lieu of such illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision there shall be added automatically as a part of these bylaws a provision as similar in terms to such illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision as may be possible and be legal, valid, and enforceable.

Section 7.12 Headings. The headings used in these bylaws are for reference purposes only and do not affect in any way the meaning or interpretation of these bylaws.

The undersigned officer of the corporation hereby confirms that the above bylaws were duly adopted as the bylaws of the corporation as of the 28th day of May, 1993.

ARTICLE TEN

The name and address of the incorporator is:

Robin J. Payton
414 Union Street, Suite 1600
Nashville, TN 37219

ARTICLE ELEVEN

To the greatest extent permitted by Kentucky law, a director of the Corporation shall not be personally liable to the Corporation or its stockholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director, except for liability (i) for any breach of the director's duty of loyalty to the Corporation or its stockholders, (ii) for acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law, (iii) under Section 271B.8330 of the Kentucky Code or (iv) for any transaction from which the director derives an improper personal benefit. If the Kentucky Code is amended hereafter to authorize corporate action further eliminating or limiting the personal liability of directors, then the liability of a director of the Corporation shall be eliminated or limited to the fullest extent permitted by the Kentucky Code, as so amended.

Any repeal or modification of the foregoing paragraph by the stockholders of the Corporation shall not adversely affect any right or protection of a director of the Corporation existing at the time of such repeal or modification.

ARTICLE TWELVE

A. Rights to Indemnification. Each person who was or is made a party or is threatened to be made a party to or is otherwise involved in any action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (hereinafter a "proceeding"), by reason of the fact that he or she, or a person of whom he or she is the legal representative, or is or was a director or officer of the Corporation or is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director or officer of another corporation or of a partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, including service with respect to an employee benefit plan (hereinafter an "indemnitee"), whether the basis of such proceeding is alleged action in an official capacity as a director or officer or in any other capacity while serving as a director or officer, shall be indemnified and held harmless by the Corporation to the fullest extent authorized by the Kentucky Code as the same exists or may hereafter be amended (but, in the case of any such amendment, only to the extent that such amendment permits the Corporation to provide broader indemnification rights than permitted prior thereto), against all expense, liability and loss (including, without limitation, attorneys' fees, judgments, fines, excise taxes or penalties and amounts paid or to be paid in settlement) incurred or suffered by such indemnitee in connection therewith and such indemnification shall continue with respect to an indemnitee who has ceased to be a director or officer and shall inure to the benefit of the indemnitee's heirs, executors and administrators; provided, however, that except as provided in paragraph (B) hereof with respect to proceedings to enforce rights to indemnification, the Corporation shall indemnify any such indemnitee in connection with a proceeding initiated by such indemnitee only if such proceeding was authorized by the Board of Directors of the Corporation. The right to indemnification conferred in this Article shall be a contract right and shall include the right to be paid by the Corporation the expenses incurred in defending any such proceeding in advance of its final disposition (hereinafter an "advancement of expenses"); provided, however, that, if the Kentucky Code requires, an advancement of expenses incurred by an indemnitee shall be made only upon delivery to the Corporation of an undertaking (hereinafter an "undertaking"), by or on behalf of such indemnitee, to repay all amounts so advanced if it shall ultimately be determined by final judicial decision from which there is no further right to appeal (hereinafter a "final adjudication") that such indemnitee is not entitled to be indemnified for such expenses under this Article or otherwise.

B. Right of Indemnitee to Bring Suit . If a claim under paragraph (A) of this Article is not paid in full by the Corporation within sixty days after a written claim has been received by the Corporation (except in the case of a claim for an advancement of expenses, in which case the applicable period shall be twenty days), the indemnitee may at any time thereafter bring suit against the Corporation to recover the unpaid amount of the claim. If successful in whole or in part in any such suit, the indemnitee shall also be entitled to be paid the expense of prosecuting or defending such suit. In (i) any suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right to indemnification hereunder (but not a suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right to an advancement of expenses) it shall be a defense that, and (ii) in any suit by the Corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking, the Corporation shall be entitled to recover such expenses upon a final adjudication that, the indemnitee has not met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in the Kentucky Code. Neither the failure of the Corporation (including its Board of Directors, independent legal counsel or its stockholders) to have made a determination prior to the commencement of such suit that indemnification of the indemnitee has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in the Kentucky Code, nor an actual determination by the Corporation (including its Board of Directors, independent legal counsel or its stockholders) that the indemnitee has not met such applicable standard of conduct, or in the case of such a suit brought by the indemnitee, shall be a defense to such suit. In any suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right to indemnification or to an advancement of expenses hereunder or by the Corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking, the burden of proving that the indemnitee is not entitled under this Article or otherwise to be indemnified, or to such advancement of expenses, shall be on the Corporation.

C. Non-Exclusivity of Rights. The rights to indemnification and to the advancement of expenses conferred in this Article shall not be exclusive of any other right which any person may have or hereafter acquire under this Certificate of Incorporation or any Bylaw, agreement, vote of stockholders or disinterested directors or otherwise.

D. Insurance. The Corporation may maintain insurance, at its expense, to protect itself and any indemnitee against any expense, liability or loss, whether or not the Corporation would have the power to indemnify such person against such expense, liability or loss under the Kentucky Code.

E. Indemnity of Employees and Agents of the Corporation. The Corporation may, to the extent authorized from time to time by the Board of Directors, grant rights to indemnification and to the advancement of expenses to any employee or agent of the Corporation to the fullest extent of the provisions of this Article or as otherwise permitted under the Kentucky Code with respect to the indemnification and advancement of expenses of directors and officers of the Corporation.

ARTICLE THIRTEEN

The Bylaws of the Corporation may be altered, amended or repealed or new Bylaws may be adopted by the board of directors.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand, this 3rd day of July, 1995.

MEETINGS OF SHAREHOLDERS

Section 2.1 Annual Meeting. An annual meeting of shareholders of the corporation shall be held on such date and at such time as shall be designated from time to time by the board of directors and stated in the notice of the meeting. At such meeting, the shareholders shall elect directors and transact such other business as may properly be brought before the meeting.

Section 2.2 Special Meetings. Special meetings of the shareholders for any purpose whatsoever may be called at any time by the president, the board of directors, or the holders of not less than ten percent of all shares entitled to vote at such meeting.

Section 2.3 Place of Meetings. All meetings of shareholders for any purpose or purposes may be held at such places, within or without the State of Kentucky, as may from time to time be fixed by the board of directors or as shall be stated in the notice of the meeting or in a duly executed waiver of notice thereof.

Section 2.4 Notice. Written notice stating the place, day and hour of the meeting and, in the case of a special meeting, the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is called, shall be given not less than ten nor more than sixty days before the date of the meeting, either personally or by mail.

Section 2.5 Quorum of Shareholders. The holders of a majority of the shares issued and outstanding and entitled to vote at such meeting, present in person or represented by proxy shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at all meetings of the shareholders.

Section 2.6 Voting of Shares. Except as otherwise provided by statute or the articles of incorporation, each holder of record of shares of stock of the Corporation having voting power shall be entitled at each meeting of the shareholders to one vote for every share of such stock standing in his or her name on the record books of shareholders of the corporation on the date on which such notice of the meeting is mailed, unless some other day is fixed by the board of directors for the determination of shareholders of record.

Section 2.7 Voting List. The officer who has charge of the stock transfer books for shares of the corporation shall prepare at least ten days before every meeting of shareholders, a complete list of the shareholders entitled to vote at such meeting, arranged in alphabetical order, including the address of each shareholder and the number of voting shares held by each shareholder. For a period of ten days prior to such meeting, such list shall be kept open to the examination of any shareholder, for any purpose germane to the meeting, during ordinary business hours, either at a place within the city where the meeting is to be held and which place shall be specified in the notice of the meeting, or, if not so specified, at the place where said meeting is to be held. Such list shall be produced at such meeting and at all times during such meeting shall be subject to inspection by any shareholder. The original stock transfer books shall be prima facie evidence as to who are the shareholders entitled to examine such list or stock transfer books.

Section 2.8 Treasury Stock. The corporation shall not vote, directly or indirectly, shares of its own stock owned by it and such shares shall not be counted for quorum purposes.

Section 2.9 Consent of Shareholders in Lieu of Meeting. Whenever the vote of shareholders at a meeting thereof is required or permitted to be taken for or in connection with any corporate action, the meeting, the notice thereof, and the vote of shareholders can be dispensed with, if a consent in writing, setting forth the action so taken, shall be signed by the holders of stock having not less than the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to authorize or take such action at a meeting at which all shares entitled to vote thereof were present and voted, provided that prompt notice must be given to all shareholders of the taking of corporate action without a meeting by less than unanimous written consent.

ARTICLE III DIRECTORS

Section 3.1 Powers of Directors. The business and affairs of the corporation shall be managed by its board of directors which shall have and may exercise all such powers of the corporation, subject to the restrictions imposed by law, the articles of incorporation, or these bylaws.

Section 3.2 Number and Qualification. The number of directors which shall constitute the entire board of directors shall be determined by resolution of the board of directors at any meeting thereof or by the shareholders at any meeting thereof. Directors need not be residents of Kentucky or shareholders of the corporation.

Section 3.3 Election and Term of Office. The directors shall be elected annually by the shareholders, except as provided in Section 3.4 of these bylaws. Each director shall hold office until the next succeeding annual meeting of shareholders and until his or her successor shall have been elected or until his or her earlier death, resignation, or removal. The board of directors may, by resolution, appoint one of its members as chairman to preside over meetings of the board of directors. The position of chairman of the board of directors shall not be an office of the corporation.

Section 3.4 Vacancies. Any vacancy occurring in the board of directors by reason of death, resignation, or removal may be filled by affirmative vote of a majority of the remaining directors, although less than a quorum of the board of directors. Such vacancy may also be filled by affirmative vote of the majority of the shareholders. A director elected to fill a vacancy shall be elected for the unexpired term of his or her predecessor in office or until his or her death, resignation, retirement, disqualification, or removal.

Section 3.5 Resignation of Directors. Any director may resign from office at any time by delivering a written resignation to the secretary of the corporation, and such resignation shall be effective upon delivery of such resignation to the secretary.

Section 3.6 Removal of Directors. Any director may be removed with or without cause at any time by the shareholders.

Section 3.7 Place of Meetings. Regular or special meetings of the board of directors may be held either within or without the State of Kentucky.

Section 3.8 Regular Meetings. Regular meetings of the board of directors may be held without notice at such times and places as may be designated from time to time as may be determined by the board of directors.

Section 3.9 Special Meetings. Special meetings of the board of directors may be called by the president or any director on twenty-four (24) hours notice to each director, either personally or by telephone, mail, telegram or other means of telecommunications. Neither the business to be transacted at, nor the purpose of, any special meeting of the board of directors need be specified in the notice or waiver of notice of any special meeting.

Section 3.10 Quorum of Directors. At all meetings of the board of directors, a majority of the directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business and the act or a majority of the directors present at any meeting at which there is a quorum shall be an act of the board of directors. If a quorum is not present at a meeting, a majority of the directors present may adjourn the meeting from time to time, without notice other than an announcement at the meeting, until a quorum is present.

Section 3.11 Committees. The board of directors may, by resolution passed by a majority of the entire board, designate one or more committees, including, if they shall so determine, an executive committee, each such committee to consist of one or more of the directors of the corporation. Any such designated committee shall have and may exercise such of the powers and authority of the board of directors in the management of the business and affairs of the corporation as may be provided in such resolution, except that no such committee shall have the power or authority of the board of directors in reference to amending the articles of incorporation, adopting an agreement of merger or consolidation, recommending to the shareholders the sale, lease or exchange of all or substantially all of the corporation's property and assets, recommending to the shareholders a dissolution of the corporation or a revocation of a dissolution of the corporation, or amending, altering or repealing the bylaws or adopting new bylaws for the corporation and, unless such resolution or the articles of incorporation expressly so provides, no such committee shall have the power or authority to authorize the issuance of stock. The board of directors shall have the power at any time to change the number and members of any such committee, to fill vacancies and to discharge any such committee.

Section 3.12 Compensation of Directors. The board of directors shall have authority to determine, from time to time, the amount of compensation, if any, which shall be paid to its members for their services as directors and as members of committees of the board of directors. The board of directors shall also have power in its discretion to provide for and to pay to directors rendering services to the corporation not ordinarily rendered by directors as such, special compensation appropriate to the value of such services as determined by the board of directors from time to time. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to preclude any director from serving the corporation in any other capacity and receiving compensation therefor.

Section 3.13 Action by Unanimous Written Consent. Any action required or permitted to be taken at a meeting of the board of directors or any committee may be taken without a meeting if a consent in writing, setting forth the actions so taken, is signed by all of the members of the board of directors or such committee, as the case may be.

Section 3.14 Minutes of Meetings. The board of directors shall keep regular minutes of its proceedings and such minutes shall be placed in the minute book of the corporation. Committees of the board of directors shall maintain a separate record of the minutes of their proceedings.

NOTICES AND TELEPHONE MEETINGS

Section 4.1 Notice. Any notice to directors or shareholders shall be in writing and shall be delivered personally or by mail, telegram, telex, cable, telecopier or similar means to the directors or shareholders at their respective addresses appearing on the books of the corporation. Notice by mail shall be deemed to be given at the time when the same shall be deposited in the United States mail, postage prepaid. Any notice required or permitted to be given by telegram, telex, cable, telecopier, or similar means shall be deemed to be delivered and given at the time transmitted.

Section 4.2 Waiver of Notice. Whenever by law, the articles of incorporation, or these bylaws, notice is required to be given to any shareholder, director, or committee member of the corporation, a waiver thereof in writing signed by the person or persons entitled to such notice, whether before or after the time notice should have been given, shall be equivalent to the giving of such notice. Attendance of a director at a meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting, except where a director attends a meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business on the ground that the meeting is not lawfully called or convened.

Section 4.3 Telephone and Similar Meetings. Shareholders, directors, or committee members may participate in and hold a meeting by means of a conference telephone or similar communications equipment by means of which persons participating in the meeting can hear each other. Participation in such a meeting shall constitute presence in person at such meeting, except where a person participates in the meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business on the ground that the meeting is not lawfully called or convened.

ARTICLE V OFFICERS

Section 5.1 Officers. The corporation shall have a president and a secretary and such other officers and assistant officers as the board may deem desirable to conduct the affairs of the corporation. The position of chairman of the board of directors shall not be an office of the corporation. Any two or more offices may be held by the same person. No officer need be a shareholder or a director.

Section 5.2 Powers and Duties of Officers. The officers of the corporation shall have the powers and duties generally ascribed to the respective offices, and such additional authority or duty as may from time to time be established by the board of directors.

Section 5.3 Removal and Resignation. Any officer appointed by the board of directors may be removed by the board of directors whenever, in the judgment of the board of directors, the best interests of the corporation will be served thereby. Any officer may resign at any time by giving written notice to the corporation. Any such resignation shall take effect at the date of receipt of such notice or at a later time specified therein, and unless otherwise specified therein, the acceptance of such resignation shall not be necessary to make it effective.

Section 5.4 Term and Vacancies. The officers of the corporation shall hold office until their successors are elected or appointed, or until their death, resignation, or removal from office. Any vacancy occurring in any office of the corporation by death, resignation, removal, or otherwise, may be filled by the board of directors.

Section 5.5 Compensation. The salaries of all officers of the corporation shall be fixed by the board of directors. The board of directors shall have the power to enter into contracts for the employment and compensation of officers on such terms as the board of directors deems advisable. No officer shall be disqualified from receiving a salary or other compensation by reason of the fact that he or she is also a director of the corporation.

CERTIFICATES AND SHAREHOLDERS

Section 6.1 Certificates for Shares. The certificates for shares of stock of the Corporation shall be in such form as shall be approved by the board of directors in conformity with law and the articles of incorporation. Every certificate for shares issued by the corporation must be signed by the President or a Vice President and the Secretary or an Assistant Secretary under the seal of the corporation. Any or all of the signatures on the face of the certificate may be facsimile. Such certificates shall bear a legend or legends in the form and containing the restrictions to be stated thereon by the Kentucky Business Corporation Act (the "Kentucky Code"), other provisions of law, the articles of incorporation or these bylaws. Certificates shall be consecutively numbered and shall be entered as they are issued. Each certificate shall state on the face thereof the holder's name, the number and class of shares, the par value of such shares, and such other matters as may be required by law, the articles of incorporation or these bylaws.

Section 6.2 Lost, Stolen, or Destroyed Certificates. The board of directors, the executive committee, or the president of the corporation may direct a new certificate or certificates representing shares to be issued in place of any certificate or certificates theretofore issued by the corporation alleged to have been lost, stolen, or destroyed, upon the making of an affidavit of the fact by the person claiming the certificate or certificates to be lost, stolen, or destroyed. When authorizing such issue of a new certificate the board of directors, the executive committee or the president may require the owner of such lost, stolen, or destroyed certificate, or his or her legal representative, to advertise the same in such manner as it or he or she shall require and/or give the corporation a bond in such sum as it may direct as indemnity against any claim that may be made against the corporation with respect to the certificate alleged to have been lost, stolen or destroyed.

Section 6.3 Transfer of Shares. Shares of stock of the corporation shall be transferable only on the books of the corporation by the holder thereof in person or by the holder's duly authorized attorneys or legal representatives. Upon surrender to the corporation or the transfer agent of the corporation of a certificate representing shares duly endorsed or accompanied by proper evidence of succession, assignment, or authority to transfer, the corporation or its transfer agent shall issue a new certificate to the person entitled thereto, cancel the old certificate, and record the transaction upon its books.

Section 6.4 Registered Shareholders. The corporation shall be entitled to recognize the exclusive right of a person registered on its books as the owner of shares to receive dividends, and to vote as such owner, and to hold liable for calls and assessments, a person registered on its books as the owner of shares, and shall not be bound to recognize any equitable or other claim to or interest in such shares on the part of any person, whether or not it shall have actual or other notice thereof, except as otherwise provided by law.

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

Section 7.1 Dividends. Dividends upon the outstanding shares of the corporation, subject to the provisions of the applicable statutes and of the articles of incorporation, may be declared by the board of directors at any annual, regular or special meeting. Dividends may be declared and paid in cash, in property, or in shares of the corporation, or in any combination thereof.

Section 7.2 Reserves. There may be set aside out of any funds of the corporation available for dividends such sum or sums as the board of directors from time to time in their sole and absolute discretion think proper as a reserve to meet contingencies, or to equalize dividends, or to repair or maintain any property of the corporation, or for such other purpose as the board of directors shall think conducive to the interest of the corporation, and the board of directors may modify or abolish any such reserve in the manner in which it was created.

Section 7.3 Signature of Negotiable Instruments. All checks or demands for money and notes of the corporation shall be signed by such officer or officers or such other person or persons as the board of directors may from time to time designate.

Section 7.4 Fiscal Year. The fiscal year of the corporation shall be fixed by the board of directors; provided, that if such fiscal year is not fixed by the board of directors it shall be the calendar year.

Section 7.5 Books of the Corporation. The books of the corporation may be kept, subject to the provisions of the applicable statutes, within or outside of the State of Florida, at such place or places as may from time to time be designated by the board of directors or as the business of the corporation may require.

Section 7.6 Seal. The seal, if any, of the corporation shall be in such form as may be approved from time to time by the board of directors. If the board of directors approves a seal, the affixation of such seal shall not be required to create a valid and binding obligation against the corporation.

Section 7.7 Securities of Other Corporations. Unless otherwise ordered by the board of directors, the president or the secretary of the corporation shall have full power and authority on behalf of the corporation to attend, to vote and to grant proxies to be used at any meeting of shareholders of such other corporation in which the corporation may hold stock. The board of directors may confer like powers upon any other person or persons.

Section 7.8 Fixed Record Date. In order that the corporation may determine the shareholders entitled to notice of or to vote at any meeting of shareholders or any adjournment thereof, or to express consent to corporate action in writing without a meeting, or entitled to receive payment of any dividend or other distribution or allotment of any rights, or entitled to exercise any rights in respect of any change, conversion or exchange of stock for the purpose of any other lawful action, the board of directors may fix, in advance, a record date which shall be not more than sixty 60 days before the date of such meeting, nor more than 60 days prior to any other action.

Section 7.9 Amendment. The power to alter, amend, or repeal these bylaws or to adopt new bylaws is vested in the board of directors.

Section 7.10 Right to Indemnification.

only upon delivery to the corporation of an undertaking (hereinafter an “undertaking”), by or on behalf of such indemnitee, to repay all amounts so advanced if it shall ultimately be determined by final judicial decision from which there is no further right to appeal (hereinafter a “final adjudication”) that such indemnitee is not entitled to be indemnified for such expenses under this section or otherwise.

(B) If a claim under paragraph (A) of this section is not paid in full by the corporation within 60 days after a written claim has been received by the corporation, except in the case of a claim for an advancement of expenses, in which case the applicable period shall be 20 days, the indemnitee may at any time thereafter bring suit against the corporation to recover the unpaid amount of such suit, or in a suit brought by the corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking, the indemnitee shall be entitled to be paid also the expense of prosecuting or defending such suit. In (i) any suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right to indemnification hereunder (but not in a suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right to an advancement of expenses) it shall be a defense that, and (ii) any suit by the corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking the corporation shall be entitled to recover such expenses upon a final adjudication that, the indemnitee has not met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in the Kentucky Code. Neither the failure of the corporation (including its board of directors, independent legal counsel, or its shareholders) to have made a determination prior to the commencement of such suit that indemnification of the indemnitee is proper in the circumstances because the indemnitee has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in the Kentucky Code, nor an actual determination by the corporation (including its board of directors, independent legal counsel, or its shareholders) that the indemnitee has not met such applicable standard of conduct shall create a presumption that the indemnitee has not met the applicable standard of conduct or, in the case of such a suit brought by the indemnitee, be a defense of such suit. In any suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right of indemnification or to an advancement of expenses hereunder, or by the corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking, the burden of proving that the indemnitee is not entitled to be indemnified, or to such advancement of expenses, under this section or otherwise shall be on the corporation.

(C) The rights to indemnification and to the advancement of expenses conferred in this section shall not be exclusive of any other right which any person may have or hereafter acquire under any statute, the corporation’s certificate of incorporation, by agreement, by vote of shareholders or by disinterested directors or otherwise.

(D) The corporation may maintain insurance, at its expense, to protect itself and any director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation or another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise against any expense, liability or loss, whether or not the corporation would have the power to indemnify such person against such expense, liability or loss under the Kentucky Code.

Section 7.11 Invalid Provisions. If any provision of these bylaws is held to be illegal, invalid, or unenforceable under present or future laws, such provision shall be fully severable; these bylaws shall be construed and enforced as if such illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision had never comprised a part hereof; and the remaining provisions hereof shall remain in full force and effect and shall not be affected by the illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision or by its severance herefrom. Furthermore, in lieu of such illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision there shall be added automatically as a part of these bylaws a provision as similar in terms to such illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision as may be possible and be legal, valid, and enforceable.

Section 7.12 Headings. The headings used in these bylaws are for reference purposes only and do not affect in any way the meaning or interpretation of these bylaws.

The above bylaws were duly adopted as the bylaws of the corporation effective as of the 5th day of July, 1995.

LIMITED LIABILITY COMPANY OPERATING AGREEMENT
RUSTON LOUISIANA HOSPITAL COMPANY, LLC

This Limited Liability Company Operating Agreement (“Agreement”) is declared to be effective as of the 18th day of December, 2006, by Ruston Hospital Corporation, as the sole Member (such corporation and any successor hereunder, the “Member”) of Ruston Louisiana Hospital Company, LLC (the “Company”), pursuant to the provisions of the Delaware Limited Liability Company Act (the “Act”).

THE COMPANY

- 1.1. Formation. The initial Member is forming the Company as a limited liability company pursuant to the provisions of the Act and upon the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement.
- 1.2. Company Name. The name of the Company shall be as set forth in the Articles from time to time, and all business of the Company shall be conducted in such name. The Member may change the name of the Company at any time.
- 1.3. Purpose. The purpose of the Company shall be as set forth in the Articles from time to time.
- 1.4 Principal Place of Business. The principal place of business and address of the Company shall be at any place within or without the State of Delaware as determined by the Member.
- 1.5 Existence. The existence of the Company shall commence on the date the Company’s Certificate of Formation (as amended from time to time, the “Articles”) is filed in the office of the Secretary of State of Delaware in accordance with the Act and shall continue until the winding up and liquidation of the Company following a Liquidating Event as provided in Section 8 hereof.
- 1.6 Title to Property. All real and personal property owned by the Company shall be owned by the Company as an entity.
- 1.7 Independent Activities; Transactions With Affiliates.
 - (a) The Member shall be required to devote only such time to the affairs of the Company as the Member determines in its sole discretion may be necessary or appropriate, and the Member shall be free to serve any other Person or enterprise in any capacity that he may deem appropriate in his discretion.
 - (b) Insofar as permitted by applicable law, the Member may, notwithstanding this Agreement, engage in whatever activities it chooses, whether the same are competitive with the Company or otherwise, without having or incurring any obligation to offer any interest in such activities to the Company, and neither this Agreement nor any activity undertaken pursuant hereto shall prevent the Member from engaging in such activities or require the Member to permit the Company to participate in any such activities.

1.8 Definitions. Certain capitalized words and phrases used in this Agreement have the following meanings:

“Interest” means the entire limited liability company interest in the Company of a Member or Interest Holder at any particular time, including the right of such Member or Interest Holder to any and all benefits to which the Member or Interest Holder may be entitled as provided in this Agreement, together with the obligations of such Member to comply with all the terms and provisions of this Agreement.

“Interest Holder” means any Person who holds an Interest, regardless of whether such Person has been admitted to the Company as a Member. “Interest Holders” means all such Persons.

“Net Cash Flow” means the gross cash proceeds from Company operations and from all sales and other dispositions and refinancings of Property, less the portion thereof used to pay or establish reserves for Company expenses, debt payments, capital improvements, replacements, and contingencies, all as determined by the Member. “Net Cash Flow” shall not be reduced by depreciation, amortization, cost recovery deductions, or similar allowances, but shall be increased by any reductions of reserves previously established pursuant to the first sentence of this definition.

“Person” means any individual, partnership, limited liability company, corporation, trust, or other entity.

“Property” means all real and personal property acquired by the Company and any improvements thereto, and shall include both tangible and intangible property.

“Transfer” means, as a noun, any voluntary or involuntary transfer, sale or other disposition and, as a verb, voluntarily or involuntarily to transfer, sell, or otherwise dispose of. “Transferred” shall have a correlative meaning.

CAPITAL CONTRIBUTIONS

2.1 Initial Capital Contribution of Member. The interest in the Company shall be divided into units (“Units”). The total number of Units that the Company is initially authorized to issue is 100 Units. The Member has been issued the number of Units listed on Exhibit A hereto attached. The Member may, but shall not be required to, make additional capital contributions to the Company from time to time.

2.2 Certificates for Units. Certificates representing Units shall be in such form as may be determined by the Member. Such certificates shall be signed by the President or Vice President of the Member, if such offices be created and filled, or signed by an officer designated by the Member to sign such certificates. The signature of such officer upon such certificates may be signed manually or by facsimile. All certificates for Units shall be consecutively numbered. The name of the person owning the Units represented thereby, with the number of Units and date of issue, shall be entered on the books of the Company. All certificates surrendered to the Company for transfer shall be canceled and no new certificates shall be issued until the former certificates for a like number of Units shall have been surrendered and canceled, except that, in case of a lost, destroyed or mutilated certificate, a new one may be issued therefore upon such terms and indemnity to the Company as the Member may prescribe.

TAX ALLOCATIONS

3.1. No Allocations in Single-Member Entity. Ruston Hospital Corporation, as the only Member, intends for the Company, as such a wholly-owned entity, to be disregarded for accounting and income tax purposes. Accordingly, all items of income, gain, loss, deduction, and credit that would, but for such single-member status, belong to the Company shall belong to the Member.

DISTRIBUTIONS

4.1. Distributions. Subject to the Act, Net Cash Flow, if any, and any item of Property chosen by the Member, shall be distributed to or as directed by the Member, at such times as the Member may determine.

MANAGEMENT

5.1. Authority and Duties of Member. The overall management and control of the Company shall be vested in the Member and the Member shall have the right and authority to enter into transactions on behalf of the Company, to bind the Company and to conduct, and to make decisions relating to, the day-to-day operations of the Company. Without limiting the foregoing and in each case without any further act, vote or approval, the Member is hereby specifically authorized for, and in the name of and on behalf of, the Company from time to time to:

- (a) Amend the Articles;
- (b) Issue Interests in the Company and admit other Persons as Members;
- (c) Acquire by purchase, lease, or otherwise any real or personal property;
- (d) Loan money to the Company, its affiliates or other third parties, upon such terms and conditions as the Member may determine;
- (e) Operate, maintain, finance, improve, construct, own, grant options with respect to, sell, convey, assign, mortgage, and lease any real or personal property;
- (f) Designate, authorize and direct one or more Persons to execute any and all agreements, contracts, documents, certifications, and instruments on behalf of the Company that are necessary or convenient in connection with the management, maintenance and operation of Property or managing the Company's affairs, including executing amendments to the Agreement and the Articles in accordance with the terms of the Agreement, both as authorized agent for the Company and, if required, as attorney-in-fact for the Member pursuant to a power of attorney.

(g) Appoint individuals designated as officers and/or managers of the Company and delegate such authority to such officers and/or managers as the Member deems advisable.

(h) Borrow money and issue evidences of indebtedness (including bonds, notes and debentures) necessary, convenient or incidental to the accomplishment of the purposes of the Company, and secure the same by mortgage, pledge, or other lien on any Property;

(i) Care for and distribute funds to the Interest Holders by way of income, return of capital, or otherwise;

(j) Contract on behalf of the Company for the employment and services of employees and/or independent contractors, such as lawyers and accountants, and delegate to such Persons the duty to manage or supervise any of the Property or operations of the Company;

(k) Engage in any kind of activity and perform and carry out contracts of any kind as may be lawfully engaged in, carried out, or performed by a limited liability company under the laws of each state in which the Company is then formed or qualified; and

(l) Make any and all elections for federal, state, and local tax purposes.

5.2. Indemnification of Member.

(a) The Company, its receiver, or its trustee (in the case of its receiver or trustee, to the extent of Company Property) shall indemnify, save harmless, and pay all judgments and claims against the Member relating to any liability or damage incurred by reason of: (i) ownership of an Interest in the Company, and (ii) any act performed or omitted to be performed by the Member in connection with the business of the Company, in any case including attorneys' fees incurred by the Member in connection with the defense of any action based on any of the foregoing.

(b) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in Section 5.2(a) above, in the event that any provision in such Section is determined to be invalid in whole or in part, such Section shall be enforced to the maximum extent permitted by law.

ROLE OF THE MEMBER

6.1. Compensation. The Member may from time to time receive a salary, fee, or draw for services rendered to or on behalf of the Company in such amount as the Member deems appropriate.

6.2. Expenses. The Member may charge the Company for any expenses reasonably incurred by it in connection with the Company's business.

6.3. Loans. If the Member shall make any loan or loans to the Company or advance money on its behalf, the amount of any such loan or advance shall not be treated as a capital contribution but shall be a debt due from the Company. The amount of any such loan or advance by the Member shall be repayable out of the Company's cash and shall bear interest at such rate as the Company and the Member shall agree but not in excess of the maximum rate permitted by law. The Member shall not be obligated to make any loan or advance to, or on behalf of, the Company.

TRANSFERS OF INTERESTS

7.1. No Restriction on Transfers. The Member may Transfer all or any portion of its Interest at any time.

7.2. Admission of Transferees as Members. Unless otherwise indicated in writing at the time of any Transfer of an Interest, a transferee of an Interest (including a transferee by operation of law) shall be admitted to the Company as a substituted Member and shall be bound by the terms of this Agreement upon such transferee's written notice to the Company at the address set forth in Section 1.4.

DISSOLUTION AND WINDING UP

8.1. Liquidating Events. The death, retirement, bankruptcy or dissolution of the Member, or the occurrence of any other event that terminates the continued membership of a member in the Company, shall not cause the Company to be dissolved and its affairs wound up, but rather the business of the Company shall be continued without dissolution, provided that there remains at least one Member (including a transferee of one or more Interests who becomes a Member). The Company shall dissolve and commence winding up and liquidating upon the first to occur of any of the following events (the "Liquidating Events"):

- (a) The written consent of the Member or any successor Member;
- (b) There is no Member or transferee of one or more Interests who becomes a Member; or
- (c) The occurrence of any other event causing the dissolution of the Company under the Act.

8.2. Winding Up. Upon the occurrence of a Liquidating Event, the Company shall continue solely for the purposes of winding up its affairs in an orderly manner, liquidating its assets, and satisfying the claims of its creditors and the Member. To the extent not inconsistent with the foregoing, the terms of this Agreement shall continue in full force and effect until such time as all of the Property (including the proceeds of sales of Property) has been distributed pursuant to this Section 8.2 and the Company's existence has been terminated in accordance with the Act. The Member (or, in the event there is no remaining Member, any Person elected by those persons succeeding to ownership of the Member's Interest) shall be responsible for overseeing the winding up of the Company, shall take full account of the Company's liabilities and Property, shall cause the Property other than cash to be liquidated as promptly as is consistent with obtaining the fair value thereof, and shall cause the proceeds therefrom, to the extent sufficient therefore, to be applied and distributed in the following order:

(a) First, to the payment and discharge of all of the Company's debts and liabilities to creditors; and

(b) The balance, if any, to the Member.

Section 9

MISCELLANEOUS

9.1. Amendment. The Member may amend this Agreement at any time.

9.2. Headings. Section and other headings contained in this Agreement are for reference purposes only and are not intended to describe, interpret, define, or limit the scope, extent, or intent of this Agreement or any provision hereof.

9.3. Severability. Every provision of this Agreement is intended to be severable. If any term or provision hereof is illegal or invalid for any reason whatsoever, such illegality or invalidity shall not affect the validity or legality of the remainder of this Agreement.

9.4. Variation of Pronouns. All pronouns and any variations thereof shall be deemed to refer to masculine, feminine, or neuter, singular or plural, as the identity of the person or persons may require.

9.5. Governing Law. The laws of the State of Delaware shall govern the validity of this Agreement, the construction of its terms, and the interpretation of the rights and duties of the Member.

The undersigned has executed this Agreement as of the day and year first above set forth.

ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION

OF

FARMINGTON HOSPITAL CORPORATION

The undersigned, acting as incorporator of a corporation under the General and Business Corporation Law of Missouri (the "Missouri Code"), adopt the following Articles of Incorporation:

ARTICLE ONE

The name of the Corporation is Farmington Hospital Corporation.

ARTICLE TWO

The street address of its initial registered office is 300-B East High Street, Jefferson City, Missouri 65101, and the name of its initial registered agent at such address is National Registered Agents, Inc.

ARTICLE THREE

The aggregate number, class and par value, if any, of shares which the corporation shall have authority to issue shall be One Thousand (1,000) shares of $.01 par value common stock.

The preferences, qualifications, limitations, restrictions, and the special or relative rights, including convertible rights, if any, in respect to the shares of each class are as follows:

The corporation shall have one class of stock and such common stock shall have unlimited voting rights and the right to receive the net assets of the corporation upon dissolution of the corporation.

ARTICLE FOUR

The extent, if any, to which the preemptive right of a shareholder to acquire additional shares is limited or denied.

Shareholders of the corporation shall have no preemptive rights to acquire additional shares of the corporation.

ARTICLE FIVE

The name and place of residence of each incorporator is as follows:

Robin J. Keck
7100 Commerce Way, Suite 100
Brentwood, TN 37027

ARTICLE SIX

The number of directors to constitute the first board of directors is three. Thereafter the number of directors shall be fixed by, or in the manner provided by the bylaws. Any changes in the number will be reported to the Secretary of State within thirty calendar days of such change.

ARTICLE SEVEN

The duration of the corporation is perpetual.

ARTICLE EIGHT

The corporation is formed for the following purposes:

The purpose of the Corporation is to own and operate health care facilities and to engage in any lawful act or activity for which corporations may be organized under Section 351 of the Missouri Code.

ARTICLE NINE

A director of the Corporation shall not be personally liable to the Corporation or its stockholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director, except for liability (i) for any breach of the director's duty of loyalty to the Corporation or its stockholders, (ii) for acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of the law, (iii) under Section 351.345 of the Missouri Code, or (iv) for any transaction from which the director derived any improper personal benefit. If the Missouri Code is amended hereafter to authorize corporate action further eliminating or limiting the personal liability of directors, then the liability of a director of the Corporation shall be eliminated or limited to the fullest extent permitted by the Missouri Code, as so amended.

Any repeal or modification of the foregoing paragraph by the stockholders of the Corporation shall not adversely affect any right or protection of a director of the Corporation existing at the time of such repeal or modification.

A. Rights to Indemnification. Each person who was or is made a party or is threatened to be made a party to or is otherwise involved in any action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (hereinafter a "proceeding"), by reason of the fact that he or she, or a person of whom he or she is the legal representative, is or was a director or officer of the Corporation or is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director or officer of another corporation or of a partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, including service with respect to an employee benefit plan (hereinafter an "indemnitee"), whether the basis of such proceeding is alleged action in an official capacity as a director or officer or in any other capacity while serving as a director or officer, shall be indemnified and held harmless by the Corporation to the fullest extent authorized by the Missouri Code as the same exists or may hereafter be amended (but, in the case of any such amendment, only to the extent that such amendment permits the Corporation to provide broader indemnification rights than permitted prior thereto), against all expense, liability and loss (including, without limitation, attorneys' fees, judgments, fines, excise taxes or penalties and amounts paid or to be paid in settlement) incurred or suffered by such indemnitee in connection therewith and such indemnification shall continue with respect to an indemnitee who has ceased to be a director or officer and shall inure to the benefit of the indemnitee's heirs, executors and administrators; provided, however, that except as provided in paragraph (B) hereof with respect to proceedings to enforce rights to indemnification, the Corporation shall indemnify any such indemnitee in connection with a proceeding initiated by such indemnitee only if such proceeding was authorized by the Board of Directors of the Corporation. The right to indemnification conferred in this Article shall be a contract right and shall include the right to be paid by the Corporation the expenses incurred in defending any such proceeding in advance of its final disposition (hereinafter an "advancement of expenses"); provided, however, that, if the Missouri Code requires, an advancement of expenses incurred by an indemnitee shall be made only upon delivery to the Corporation of an undertaking (hereinafter an "undertaking"), by or on behalf of such indemnitee, to repay all amounts so advanced if it shall ultimately be determined by final judicial decision from which there is no further right to appeal (hereinafter a "final adjudication") that such indemnitee is not entitled to be indemnified for such expenses under this Article or otherwise.

B. Right of Indemnitee to Bring Suit. If a claim under paragraph (A) of this Article is not paid in full by the Corporation within sixty days after a written claim has been received by the Corporation (except in the case of a claim for an advancement of expenses, in which case the applicable period shall be twenty days), the indemnitee may at any time thereafter bring suit against the Corporation to recover the unpaid amount of the claim. If successful in whole or in part in any such suit, the indemnitee shall also be entitled to be paid the expense of prosecuting or defending such suit. In (i) any suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right to indemnification hereunder (but not a suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right to an advancement of expenses) it shall be a defense that, and (ii) in any suit by the Corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking, the Corporation shall be entitled to recover such expenses upon a final adjudication that, the indemnitee has not met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in the Missouri Code. Neither the failure of the Corporation (including its Board of Directors, independent legal counsel or its stockholders) to have made a determination prior to the commencement of such suit that indemnification of the indemnitee has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in the Missouri Code, nor an actual determination by the Corporation (including its Board of Directors, independent legal counsel or its stockholders) that the indemnitee has not met such applicable standard of conduct, or in the case of such a suit brought by the indemnitee, shall be a defense to such suit. In any suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right to indemnification or to an advancement of expenses hereunder or by the Corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking, the burden of proving that the indemnitee is not entitled under this Article or otherwise to be indemnified, or to such advancement of expenses, shall be on the Corporation.

C. Non-Exclusivity of Rights. The rights to indemnification and to the advancement of expenses conferred in this Article shall not be exclusive of any other right which any person may have or hereafter acquire under these Articles of Incorporation or any Bylaw, agreement, vote of stockholders or disinterested directors or otherwise.

D. Insurance. The Corporation may maintain insurance, at its expense, to protect itself and any indemnitee against any expense, liability or loss, whether or not the Corporation would have the power to indemnify such person against such expense, liability or loss under the Missouri Code.

E. Indemnity of Employees and Agents of the Corporation. The Corporation may, to the extent authorized from time to time by the Board of Directors, grant rights to indemnification and to the advancement of expenses to any employee or agent of the Corporation to the fullest extent of the provisions of this Article or as otherwise permitted under the Missouri Code with respect to the indemnification and advancement of expenses of directors and officers of the Corporation.

ARTICLE ELEVEN

The Board of Directors of the Corporation shall have the power to adopt and amend the Bylaws of the Corporation.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, these Articles of Incorporation have been signed this 27th day of April, 2006.

BYLAWS OF FARMINGTON HOSPITAL CORPORATION

OFFICES

Section 1.1 Registered Office. The registered office shall be in the City of Jefferson City in the State of Missouri.

Section 1.2 Other Offices. The corporation may also have offices at such other places both within and without the State of Missouri as the board of directors may from time to time determine or the business of the corporation may require.

MEETINGS OF SHAREHOLDERS

Section 2.1 Annual Meeting. An annual meeting of shareholders of the corporation shall be held on such date and at such time as shall be designated from time to time by the board of directors and stated in the notice of the meeting. At such meeting, the shareholders shall elect directors and transact such other business as may properly be brought before the meeting.

Section 2.2 Special Meetings. Special meetings of the shareholders for any purpose whatsoever may be called at any time by the president, the board of directors, or the holders of not less than ten percent of all shares entitled to vote at such meeting.

Section 2.3 Place of Meetings. All meetings of shareholders for any purpose or purposes may be held at such places, within or without the State of Missouri, as may from time to time be fixed by the board of directors or as shall be stated in the notice of the meeting or in a duly executed waiver of notice thereof.

Section 2.4 Notice. Written notice stating the place, day and hour of the meeting and, in the case of a special meeting, the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is called, shall be given not less than ten nor more than sixty days before the date of the meeting, either personally or by mail.

Section 2.5 Quorum of Shareholders. The holders of a majority of the shares issued and outstanding and entitled to vote at such meeting, present in person or represented by proxy shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at all meetings of the shareholders.

Section 2.6 Voting of Shares. Except as otherwise provided by statute or the articles of incorporation, each holder of record of shares of stock of the Corporation having voting power shall be entitled at each meeting of the shareholders to one vote for every share of such stock standing in his or her name on the record books of shareholders of the corporation on the date on which such notice of the meeting is mailed, unless some other day is fixed by the board of directors for the determination of shareholders of record.

Section 2.7 Voting List. The officer who has charge of the stock transfer books for shares of the corporation shall prepare at least ten days before every meeting of shareholders, a complete list of the shareholders entitled to vote at such meeting, arranged in alphabetical order, including the address of each shareholder and the number of voting shares held by each shareholder. For a period of ten days prior to such meeting, such list shall be kept open to the examination of any shareholder, for any purpose germane to the meeting, during ordinary business hours, either at a place within the city where the meeting is to be held and which place shall be specified in the notice of the meeting, or, if not so specified, at the place where said meeting is to be held. Such list shall be produced at such meeting and at all times during such meeting shall be subject to inspection by any shareholder. The original stock transfer books shall be prima facie evidence as to who are the shareholders entitled to examine such list or stock transfer books.

Section 2.8 Treasury Stock. The corporation shall not vote, directly or indirectly, shares of its own stock owned by it and such shares shall not be counted for quorum purposes.

Section 2.9 Consent of Shareholders in Lieu of Meeting. Whenever the vote of shareholders at a meeting thereof is required or permitted to be taken for or in connection with any corporate action, the meeting, the notice thereof, and the vote of shareholders can be dispensed with, if a consent in writing, setting forth the action so taken, shall be signed by the holders of stock having not less than the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to authorize or take such action at a meeting at which all shares entitled to vote thereof were present and voted, provided that prompt notice must be given to all shareholders of the taking of corporate action without a meeting by less than unanimous written consent.

Section 2.10 Minutes of Meetings. The secretary of the corporation shall keep regular minutes of all meetings of shareholders and such minutes shall be placed in the minute book of the corporation.

DIRECTORS

Section 3.1 Powers of Directors. The business and affairs of the corporation shall be managed by its board of directors which shall have and may exercise all such powers of the corporation, subject to the restrictions imposed by law, the articles of incorporation, or these bylaws.

Section 3.2 Number and Qualification. The number of directors which shall constitute the entire board of directors shall be determined by resolution of the Board of Directors at any meeting thereof or by the Shareholders at any meeting thereof. Directors need not be residents of Missouri or Shareholders of the corporation.

Section 3.3 Election and Term of Office. The directors shall be elected annually by the shareholders, except as provided in Section 3.4 of these bylaws. Each director shall hold office until the next succeeding annual meeting of shareholders and until his or her successor shall have been elected or until his or her earlier death, resignation, or removal. The board of directors may, by resolution, appoint one of its members as chairman to preside over meetings of the board of directors. The position of chairman of the board of directors shall not be an office of the corporation.

Section 3.4 Vacancies. Any vacancy occurring in the board of directors by reason of death, resignation, or removal may be filled by affirmative vote of a majority of the remaining directors, although less than a quorum of the board of directors. Such vacancy may also be filled by affirmative vote of the majority of the shareholders. A director elected to fill a vacancy shall be elected for the unexpired term of his or her predecessor in office or until his or her death, resignation, retirement, disqualification, or removal.

Section 3.5 Resignation of Directors. Any director may resign from office at any time by delivering a written resignation to the secretary of the corporation, and such resignation shall be effective upon delivery of such resignation to the secretary.

Section 3.6 Removal of Directors. Any director may be removed with or without cause at any time by the shareholders.

Section 3.7 Place of Meetings. Regular or special meetings of the board of directors may be held either within or without the State of Missouri.

Section 3.8 Regular Meetings. Regular meetings of the board of directors may be held without notice at such times and places as may be designated from time to time as may be determined by the board of directors.

Section 3.9 Special Meetings. Special meetings of the board of directors may be called by the president or any director on twenty-four (24) hours notice to each director, either personally or by telephone, mail, telegram or other means of telecommunications. Neither the business to be transacted at, nor the purpose of, any special meeting of the board of directors need be specified in the notice or waiver of notice of any special meeting.

Section 3.10 Quorum of Directors. At all meetings of the board of directors, a majority of the directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business and the act or a majority of the directors present at any meeting at which there is a quorum shall be an act of the board of directors. If a quorum is not present at a meeting, a majority of the directors present may adjourn the meeting from time to time, without notice other than an announcement at the meeting, until a quorum is present.

Section 3.11 Committees. The board of directors may, by resolution passed by a majority of the entire board, designate one or more committees, including, if they shall so determine, an executive committee, each such committee to consist of one or more of the directors of the corporation. Any such designated committee shall have and may exercise such of the powers and authority of the board of directors in the management of the business and affairs of the corporation as may be provided in such resolution, except that no such committee shall have the power or authority of the board of directors in reference to amending the articles of incorporation, adopting an agreement of merger or consolidation, recommending to the shareholders the sale, lease or exchange of all or substantially all of the corporation's property and assets, recommending to the shareholders a dissolution of the corporation or a revocation of a dissolution of the corporation, or amending, altering or repealing the bylaws or adopting new bylaws for the corporation and, unless such resolution or the articles of incorporation expressly so provides, no such committee shall have the power or authority to authorize the issuance of stock. The board of directors shall have the power at any time to change the number and members of any such committee, to fill vacancies and to discharge any such committee.

Section 3.12 Compensation of Directors. Persons serving as directors shall not receive any compensation for their services as directors; however, a director shall be entitled to reimbursement for reasonable and customary expenses incurred by such director in carrying out his duties as approved by the president of the corporation.

Section 3.13 Action by Unanimous Written Consent. Any action required or permitted to be taken at a meeting of the board of directors or any committee may be taken without a meeting if a consent in writing, setting forth the actions so taken, is signed by all of the members of the board of directors or such committee, as the case may be.

Section 3.14 Minutes of Meetings. The board of directors shall keep regular minutes of its proceedings and such minutes shall be placed in the minute book of the corporation. Committees of the board of directors shall maintain a separate record of the minutes of their proceedings.

ARTICLE IV

NOTICES AND TELEPHONE MEETINGS

Section 4.1 Notice. Any notice to directors or shareholders shall be in writing and shall be delivered personally or by mail, telegram, telex, cable, telecopier or similar means to the directors or shareholders at their respective addresses appearing on the books of the corporation. Notice by mail shall be deemed to be given at the time when the same shall be deposited in the United States mail, postage prepaid. Any notice required or permitted to be given by telegram, telex, cable, telecopier, or similar means shall be deemed to be delivered and given at the time transmitted.

Section 4.2 Waiver of Notice. Whenever by law, the articles of incorporation, or these bylaws, notice is required to be given to any shareholder, director, or committee member of the corporation, a waiver thereof in writing signed by the person or persons entitled to such notice, whether before or after the time notice should have been given, shall be equivalent to the giving of such notice. Attendance of a director at a meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting, except where a director attends a meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business on the ground that the meeting is not lawfully called or convened.

Section 4.3 Telephone and Similar Meetings. Shareholders, directors, or committee members may participate in and hold a meeting by means of a conference telephone or similar communications equipment by means of which persons participating in the meeting can hear each other. Participation in such a meeting shall constitute presence in person at such meeting, except where a person participates in the meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business on the ground that the meeting is not lawfully called or convened.

ARTICLE V

OFFICERS

Section 5.1 Officers. The corporation shall have a president and a secretary and such other officers and assistant officers as the board may deem desirable to conduct the affairs of the corporation. The position of chairman of the board of directors shall not be an office of the corporation. Any two or more offices may be held by the same person. No officer need be a shareholder or a director.

Section 5.2 Powers and Duties of Officers. The officers of the corporation shall have the powers and duties generally ascribed to the respective offices, and such additional authority or duty as may from time to time be established by the board of directors.

Section 5.3 Removal and Resignation. Any officer appointed by the board of directors may be removed by the board of directors whenever, in the judgment of the board of directors, the best interests of the corporation will be served thereby. Any officer may resign at any time by giving written notice to the corporation. Any such resignation shall take effect at the date of receipt of such notice or at a later time specified therein, and unless otherwise specified therein, the acceptance of such resignation shall not be necessary to make it effective.

Section 5.4 Term and Vacancies. The officers of the corporation shall hold office until their successors are elected or appointed, or until their death, resignation, or removal from office. Any vacancy occurring in any office of the corporation by death, resignation, removal, or otherwise, may be filled by the board of directors.

Section 5.5 Compensation. The salaries of all officers of the corporation shall be fixed by the board of directors. The board of directors shall have the power to enter into contracts for the employment and compensation of officers on such terms as the board of directors deems advisable. No officer shall be disqualified from receiving a salary or other compensation by reason of the fact that he or she is also a director of the corporation.

CERTIFICATES AND SHAREHOLDERS

Section 6.1 Certificates for Shares. The certificates for shares of stock of the Corporation shall be in such form as shall be approved by the board of directors in conformity with law and the articles of incorporation. Every certificate for shares issued by the corporation must be signed by the President or a Vice President and the Secretary or an Assistant Secretary under the seal of the corporation. Any or all of the signatures on the face of the certificate may be facsimile. Such certificates shall bear a legend or legends in the form and containing the restrictions to be stated thereon by the General and Business Corporation Law of Missouri, other provisions of law, the articles of incorporation or these bylaws. Certificates shall be consecutively numbered and shall be entered as they are issued. Each certificate shall state on the face thereof the holder's name, the number and class of shares, the par value of such shares, and such other matters as may be required by law, the articles of incorporation or these bylaws.

Section 6.2 Lost, Stolen, or Destroyed Certificates. The board of directors, the executive committee, or the president of the corporation may direct a new certificate or certificates representing shares to be issued in place of any certificate or certificates theretofore issued by the corporation alleged to have been lost, stolen, or destroyed, upon the making of an affidavit of the fact by the person claiming the certificate or certificates to be lost, stolen, or destroyed. When authorizing such issue of a new certificate the board of directors, the executive committee or the president may require the owner of such lost, stolen, or destroyed certificate, or his or her legal representative, to advertise the same in such manner as it or he or she shall require and/or give the corporation a bond in such sum as it may direct as indemnity against any claim that may be made against the corporation with respect to the certificate alleged to have been lost, stolen or destroyed.

Section 6.3 Transfer of Shares. Shares of stock of the corporation shall be transferable only on the books of the corporation by the holder thereof in person or by the holder's duly authorized attorneys or legal representatives. Upon surrender to the corporation or the transfer agent of the corporation of a certificate representing shares duly endorsed or accompanied by proper evidence of succession, assignment, or authority to transfer, the corporation or its transfer agent shall issue a new certificate to the person entitled thereto, cancel the old certificate, and record the transaction upon its books.

Section 6.4 Registered Shareholders. The corporation shall be entitled to recognize the exclusive right of a person registered on its books as the owner of shares to receive dividends, and to vote as such owner, and to hold liable for calls and assessments, a person registered on its books as the owner of shares, and shall not be bound to recognize any equitable or other claim to or interest in such shares on the part of any person, whether or not it shall have actual or other notice thereof, except as otherwise provided by law.

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

Section 7.1 Dividends. Dividends upon the outstanding shares of the corporation, subject to the provisions of the applicable statutes and of the articles of incorporation, may be declared by the board of directors at any annual, regular or special meeting. Dividends may be declared and paid in cash, in property, or in shares of the corporation, or in any combination thereof.

Section 7.2 Reserves. There may be set aside out of any funds of the corporation available for dividends such sum or sums as the board of directors from time to time in their sole and absolute discretion think proper as a reserve to meet contingencies, or to equalize dividends, or to repair or maintain any property of the corporation, or for such other purpose as the board of directors shall think conducive to the interest of the corporation, and the board of directors may modify or abolish any such reserve in the manner in which it was created.

Section 7.3 Signature of Negotiable Instruments. All checks or demands for money and notes of the corporation shall be signed by such officer or officers or such other person or persons as the board of directors may from time to time designate.

Section 7.4 Fiscal Year. The fiscal year of the corporation shall be fixed by the board of directors; provided, that if such fiscal year is not fixed by the board of directors it shall be the calendar year.

Section 7.5 Books of the Corporation. The books of the corporation may be kept, subject to the provisions of the applicable statutes, within or outside of the State of Missouri, at such place or places as may from time to time be designated by the board of directors or as the business of the corporation may require.

Section 7.6 Seal. The seal, if any, of the corporation shall be in such form as may be approved from time to time by the board of directors. If the board of directors approves a seal, the affixation of such seal shall not be required to create a valid and binding obligation against the corporation.

Section 7.7 Securities of Other Corporations. Unless otherwise ordered by the board of directors, the president or the secretary of the corporation shall have full power and authority on behalf of the corporation to attend, to vote and to grant proxies to be used at any meeting of shareholders of such other corporation in which the corporation may hold stock. The board of directors may confer like powers upon any other person or persons.

Section 7.8 Fixed Record Date. In order that the corporation may determine the shareholders entitled to notice of or to vote at any meeting of shareholders or any adjournment thereof, or to express consent to corporate action in writing without a meeting, or entitled to receive payment of any dividend or other distribution or allotment of any rights, or entitled to exercise any rights in respect of any change, conversion or exchange of stock for the purpose of any other lawful action, the board of directors may fix, in advance, a record date which shall be not more than sixty 60 days before the date of such meeting, nor more than 60 days prior to any other action.

Section 7.9 Amendment. The power to alter, amend, or repeal these bylaws or to adopt new bylaws is vested in the board of directors.

Section 7.10 Right to Indemnification.

(A) Each person (hereinafter an "indemnitee") who was or is made a party or is threatened to be made a party to or is otherwise involved in any action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (hereinafter a "proceeding"), by reason of the fact that he or she was a director, officer or agent of the corporation or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation or of a partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, including service with respect to an employee benefit plan, whether the basis of such proceeding is alleged action in an official capacity as a director, officer, employee or agent, shall be indemnified and held harmless by the corporation to the fullest extent authorized by the General and Business Corporation Law of Missouri, as the same exists or may hereafter be amended (but, in the case of any such amendment, only to the extent that such amendment permits the corporation to provide broader indemnification rights than permitted prior thereto), against all expense, liability and loss (including attorney's fees, judgments, fines, ERISA excise taxes or penalties and amounts paid in settlement) reasonably incurred or suffered by such indemnitee in connection therewith, and such indemnification shall continue with respect to an indemnitee who has ceased to be a director, officer, employee or agent and shall inure to the benefit of the indemnitee's heirs, executors and administrators; provided, however, that, except as provided in paragraph (B) hereof with respect to proceedings to enforce rights to indemnification, the corporation shall indemnify any such indemnitee only if such proceeding (or part thereof) was authorized by the board of directors of the corporation. The right to indemnification conferred in this section shall be a contract right and shall include the right to be paid by the corporation the expenses incurred in defending any such proceeding in advance of its final disposition (hereinafter an "advancement of expenses"); provided, however, that, if the General and Business Corporation Law of Missouri requires, an advancement of expenses incurred by an indemnitee shall be made only upon delivery to the corporation of an undertaking (hereinafter an "undertaking"), by or on behalf of such indemnitee, to repay all amounts so advanced if it shall ultimately be determined by final judicial decision from which there is no further right to appeal (hereinafter a "final adjudication") that such indemnitee is not entitled to be indemnified for such expenses under this section or otherwise.

(B) If a claim under paragraph (A) of this section is not paid in full by the corporation within 60 days after a written claim has been received by the corporation, except in the case of a claim for an advancement of expenses, in which case the applicable period shall be 20 days, the indemnitee may at any time thereafter bring suit against the corporation to recover the unpaid amount of such suit, or in a suit brought by the corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking, the indemnitee shall be entitled to be paid also the expense of prosecuting or defending such suit. In (i) any suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right to indemnification hereunder (but not in a suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right to an advancement of expenses) it shall be a defense that, and (ii) any suit by the corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking the corporation shall be entitled to recover such expenses upon a final adjudication that, the indemnitee has not met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in the General and Business Corporation Law of Missouri. Neither the failure of the corporation (including its board of directors, independent legal counsel, or its shareholders) to have made a determination prior to the commencement of such suit that indemnification of the indemnitee is proper in the circumstances because the indemnitee has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in the General and Business Corporation Law of Missouri, nor an actual determination by the corporation (including its board of directors, independent legal counsel, or its shareholders) that the indemnitee has not met such applicable standard of conduct shall create a presumption that the indemnitee has not met the applicable standard of conduct or, in the case of such a suit brought by the indemnitee, be a defense of such suit. In any suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right of indemnification or to an advancement of expenses hereunder, or by the corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking, the burden of proving that the indemnitee is not entitled to be indemnified, or to such advancement of expenses, under this section or otherwise shall be on the corporation.

(C) The rights to indemnification and to the advancement of expenses conferred in this section shall not be exclusive of any other right which any person may have or hereafter acquire under any statute, the corporation's certificate of incorporation, by agreement, by vote of shareholders or by disinterested directors or otherwise.

(D) The corporation may maintain insurance, at its expense, to protect itself and any director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation or another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise against any expense, liability or loss, whether or not the corporation would have the power to indemnify such person against such expense, liability or loss under the General and Business Corporation Law of Missouri.

Section 7.11 Invalid Provisions. If any provision of these bylaws is held to be illegal, invalid, or unenforceable under present or future laws, such provision shall be fully severable; these bylaws shall be construed and enforced as if such illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision had never comprised a part hereof; and the remaining provisions hereof shall remain in full force and effect and shall not be affected by the illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision or by its severance herefrom. Furthermore, in lieu of such illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision there shall be added automatically as a part of these bylaws a provision as similar in terms to such illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision as may be possible and be legal, valid, and enforceable.

Section 7.12 Headings. The headings used in these bylaws are for reference purposes only and do not affect in any way the meaning or interpretation of these bylaws.

The above bylaws were duly adopted as the bylaws of the corporation effective as of the 28th day of April, 2006.

FARMINGTON MISSOURI HOSPITAL COMPANY, LLC

This Limited Liability Company Operating Agreement (“Agreement”) is declared to be effective as of the 28th day of April, 2006, by Farmington Hospital Corporation, as the sole Member (such corporation and any successor hereunder, the “Member”) of Farmington Missouri Hospital Company, LLC (the “Company”), pursuant to the provisions of the Missouri Limited Liability Company Act (the “Act”).

THE COMPANY

- 1.1. Formation. The initial Member is forming the Company as a limited liability company pursuant to the provisions of the Act and upon the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement.
 - 1.2. Company Name. The name of the Company shall be as set forth in the Articles from time to time, and all business of the Company shall be conducted in such name. The Member may change the name of the Company at any time.
 - 1.3. Purpose. The purpose of the Company shall be as set forth in the Articles from time to time.
 - 1.4. Principal Place of Business. The principal place of business and address of the Company shall be at any place within or without the State of Missouri as determined by the Member.
 - 1.5. Existence. The existence of the Company shall commence on the date the Company’s Articles of Organization (as amended from time to time, the “Articles”) is filed in the office of the Secretary of State of Missouri in accordance with the Act and shall continue until the winding up and liquidation of the Company following a Liquidating Event as provided in Section 8 hereof.
 - 1.6. Title to Property. All real and personal property owned by the Company shall be owned by the Company as an entity.
 - 1.7. Independent Activities; Transactions With Affiliates.
 - (a) The Member shall be required to devote only such time to the affairs of the Company as the Member determines in its sole discretion may be necessary or appropriate, and the Member shall be free to serve any other Person or enterprise in any capacity that he may deem appropriate in his discretion.
 - (b) Insofar as permitted by applicable law, the Member may, notwithstanding this Agreement, engage in whatever activities it chooses, whether the same are competitive with the Company or otherwise, without having or incurring any obligation to offer any interest in such activities to the Company, and neither this Agreement nor any activity undertaken pursuant hereto shall prevent the Member from engaging in such activities or require the Member to permit the Company to participate in any such activities.

1.8. Definitions. Certain capitalized words and phrases used in this Agreement have the following meanings:

“Interest” means the entire limited liability company interest in the Company of a Member or Interest Holder at any particular time, including the right of such Member or Interest Holder to any and all benefits to which the Member or Interest Holder may be entitled as provided in this Agreement, together with the obligations of such Member to comply with all the terms and provisions of this Agreement.

“Interest Holder” means any Person who holds an Interest, regardless of whether such Person has been admitted to the Company as a Member. “Interest Holders” means all such Persons.

“Net Cash Flow” means the gross cash proceeds from Company operations and from all sales and other dispositions and refinancings of Property, less the portion thereof used to pay or establish reserves for Company expenses, debt payments, capital improvements, replacements, and contingencies, all as determined by the Member. “Net Cash Flow” shall not be reduced by depreciation, amortization, cost recovery deductions, or similar allowances, but shall be increased by any reductions of reserves previously established pursuant to the first sentence of this definition.

“Person” means any individual, partnership, limited liability company, corporation, trust, or other entity.

“Property” means all real and personal property acquired by the Company and any improvements thereto, and shall include both tangible and intangible property.

“Transfer” means, as a noun, any voluntary or involuntary transfer, sale or other disposition and, as a verb, voluntarily or involuntarily to transfer, sell, or otherwise dispose of. “Transferred” shall have a correlative meaning.

Section 2 CAPITAL CONTRIBUTIONS

2.1 Initial Capital Contribution of Member. The interest in the Company shall be divided into units (“Units”). The total number of Units that the Company is initially authorized to issue is 100 Units. The Member has been issued the number of Units listed on Exhibit A hereto attached. The Member may, but shall not be required to, make additional capital contributions to the Company from time to time.

2.2 Certificates for Units. Certificates representing Units shall be in such form as may be determined by the Member. Such certificates shall be signed by the President or Vice President of the Member, if such offices be created and filled, or signed by an officer designated by the Member to sign such certificates. The signature of such officer upon such certificates may be signed manually or by facsimile. All certificates for Units shall be consecutively numbered. The name of the person owning the Units represented thereby, with the number of Units and date of issue, shall be entered on the books of the Company. All certificates surrendered to the Company for transfer shall be canceled and no new certificates shall be issued until the former certificates for a like number of Units shall have been surrendered and canceled, except that, in case of a lost, destroyed or mutilated certificate, a new one may be issued therefore upon such terms and indemnity to the Company as the Member may prescribe.

TAX ALLOCATIONS

3.1. No Allocations in Single-Member Entity. Farmington Hospital Corporation, as the only Member, intends for the Company, as such a wholly-owned entity, to be disregarded for accounting and income tax purposes. Accordingly, all items of income, gain, loss, deduction, and credit that would, but for such single-member status, belong to the Company shall belong to the Member.

DISTRIBUTIONS

4.1. Distributions. Subject to the Act, Net Cash Flow, if any, and any item of Property chosen by the Member, shall be distributed to or as directed by the Member, at such times as the Member may determine.

MANAGEMENT

5.1. Authority and Duties of Member. The overall management and control of the Company shall be vested in the Member and the Member shall have the right and authority to enter into transactions on behalf of the Company, to bind the Company and to conduct, and to make decisions relating to, the day-to-day operations of the Company. Without limiting the foregoing and in each case without any further act, vote or approval, the Member is hereby specifically authorized for, and in the name of and on behalf of, the Company from time to time to:

- (a) Amend the Articles;
- (b) Issue Interests in the Company and admit other Persons as Members;
- (c) Acquire by purchase, lease, or otherwise any real or personal property;
- (d) Loan money to the Company, its affiliates or other third parties, upon such terms and conditions as the Member may determine;
- (e) Operate, maintain, finance, improve, construct, own, grant options with respect to, sell, convey, assign, mortgage, and lease any real or personal property;
- (f) Designate, authorize and direct one or more Persons to execute any and all agreements, contracts, documents, certifications, and instruments on behalf of the Company that are necessary or convenient in connection with the management, maintenance and operation of Property or managing the Company's affairs, including executing amendments to the Agreement and the Articles in accordance with the terms of the Agreement, both as authorized agent for the Company and, if required, as attorney-in-fact for the Member pursuant to a power of attorney.

(g) Appoint individuals designated as officers and/or managers of the Company and delegate such authority to such officers and/or managers as the Member deems advisable.

(h) Borrow money and issue evidences of indebtedness (including bonds, notes and debentures) necessary, convenient or incidental to the accomplishment of the purposes of the Company, and secure the same by mortgage, pledge, or other lien on any Property;

(i) Care for and distribute funds to the Interest Holders by way of income, return of capital, or otherwise;

(j) Contract on behalf of the Company for the employment and services of employees and/or independent contractors, such as lawyers and accountants, and delegate to such Persons the duty to manage or supervise any of the Property or operations of the Company;

(k) Engage in any kind of activity and perform and carry out contracts of any kind as may be lawfully engaged in, carried out, or performed by a limited liability company under the laws of each state in which the Company is then formed or qualified; and

(l) Make any and all elections for federal, state, and local tax purposes.

5.2 Indemnification of Member.

(a) The Company, its receiver, or its trustee (in the case of its receiver or trustee, to the extent of Company Property) shall indemnify, save harmless, and pay all judgments and claims against the Member relating to any liability or damage incurred by reason of: (i) ownership of an Interest in the Company, and (ii) any act performed or omitted to be performed by the Member in connection with the business of the Company, in any case including attorneys' fees incurred by the Member in connection with the defense of any action based on any of the foregoing.

(b) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in Section 5.2(a) above, in the event that any provision in such Section is determined to be invalid in whole or in part, such Section shall be enforced to the maximum extent permitted by law.

ROLE OF THE MEMBER

6.1. Compensation. The Member may from time to time receive a salary, fee, or draw for services rendered to or on behalf of the Company in such amount as the Member deems appropriate.

6.2. Expenses. The Member may charge the Company for any expenses reasonably incurred by it in connection with the Company's business.

6.3. Loans. If the Member shall make any loan or loans to the Company or advance money on its behalf, the amount of any such loan or advance shall not be treated as a capital contribution but shall be a debt due from the Company. The amount of any such loan or advance by the Member shall be repayable out of the Company's cash and shall bear interest at such rate as the Company and the Member shall agree but not in excess of the maximum rate permitted by law. The Member shall not be obligated to make any loan or advance to, or on behalf of, the Company.

TRANSFERS OF INTERESTS

7.1. No Restriction on Transfers. The Member may Transfer all or any portion of its Interest at any time.

7.2. Admission of Transferees as Members. Unless otherwise indicated in writing at the time of any Transfer of an Interest, a transferee of an Interest (including a transferee by operation of law) shall be admitted to the Company as a substituted Member and shall be bound by the terms of this Agreement upon such transferee's written notice to the Company at the address set forth in Section 1.4.

DISSOLUTION AND WINDING UP

8.1. Liquidating Events. The death, retirement, bankruptcy or dissolution of the Member, or the occurrence of any other event that terminates the continued membership of a member in the Company, shall not cause the Company to be dissolved and its affairs wound up, but rather the business of the Company shall be continued without dissolution, provided that there remains at least one Member (including a transferee of one or more Interests who becomes a Member). The Company shall dissolve and commence winding up and liquidating upon the first to occur of any of the following events (the "Liquidating Events"):

- (a) The written consent of the Member or any successor Member;
- (b) There is no Member or transferee of one or more Interests who becomes a Member; or
- (c) The occurrence of any other event causing the dissolution of the Company under Act.

8.2. Winding Up. Upon the occurrence of a Liquidating Event, the Company shall continue solely for the purposes of winding up its affairs in an orderly manner, liquidating its assets, and satisfying the claims of its creditors and the Member. To the extent not inconsistent with the foregoing, the terms of this Agreement shall continue in full force and effect until such time as all of the Property (including the proceeds of sales of Property) has been distributed pursuant to this Section 8.2 and the Company's existence has been terminated in accordance with the Act. The Member (or, in the event there is no remaining Member, any Person elected by those persons succeeding to ownership of the Member's Interest) shall be responsible for overseeing the winding up of the Company, shall take full account of the Company's liabilities and Property, shall cause the Property other than cash to be liquidated as promptly as is consistent with obtaining the fair value thereof, and shall cause the proceeds therefrom, to the extent sufficient therefore, to be applied and distributed in the following order:

- (a) First, to the payment and discharge of all of the Company's debts and liabilities to creditors; and
- (b) The balance, if any, to the Member.

Section 9
MISCELLANEOUS

- 9.1. Amendment. The Member may amend this Agreement at any time.
- 9.2. Headings. Section and other headings contained in this Agreement are for reference purposes only and are not intended to describe, interpret, define, or limit the scope, extent, or intent of this Agreement or any provision hereof.
- 9.3. Severability. Every provision of this Agreement is intended to be severable. If any term or provision hereof is illegal or invalid for any reason whatsoever, such illegality or invalidity shall not affect the validity or legality of the remainder of this Agreement.
- 9.4. Variation of Pronouns. All pronouns and any variations thereof shall be deemed to refer to masculine, feminine, or neuter, singular or plural, as the identity of the person or persons may require.
- 9.5. Governing Law. The laws of the State of Missouri shall govern the validity of this Agreement, the construction of its terms, and the interpretation of the rights and duties of the Member.

The undersigned has executed this Agreement as of the day and year first above set forth.

ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION OF KIRKSVILLE HOSPITAL CORPORATION

The undersigned natural person of the age of eighteen years or more, acting as incorporator of a corporation under the General and Business Corporation Law of Missouri (the "Missouri Code"), adopt the following Articles of Incorporation:

ARTICLE ONE

The name of the Corporation is Kirksville Hospital Corporation.

ARTICLE TWO

The street address of its initial registered office is 221 Bolivar Street, Jefferson City, Missouri 65101, and the name of its initial registered agent at such address is Corporation Service Company d/b/a CSC-Lawyers Incorporating Service Company.

ARTICLE THREE

The aggregate number, class and par value, if any, of shares which the corporation shall have authority to issue shall be One Thousand (1,000) shares of $.01 par value common stock.

The preferences, qualifications, limitations, restrictions, and the special or relative rights, including convertible rights, if any, in respect to the shares of each class are as follows:

The corporation shall have one class of stock and such common stock shall have unlimited voting rights and the right to receive the net assets of the corporation upon dissolution of the corporation.

ARTICLE FOUR

The extent, if any, to which the preemptive right of a shareholder to acquire additional shares is limited or denied.

Shareholders of the corporation shall have no preemptive rights to acquire additional shares of the corporation.

ARTICLE FIVE

The name and place of residence of each incorporator is as follows:

Virginia D. Lancaster

Brentwood, TN 37027

ARTICLE SIX

The number of directors to constitute the first board of directors is three. Thereafter the number of directors shall be fixed by, or in the manner provided by the bylaws. Any changes in the number will be reported to the Secretary of State within thirty calendar days of such change.

ARTICLE SEVEN

The duration of the corporation is perpetual.

ARTICLE EIGHT

The corporation is formed for the following purposes:

The purpose of the Corporation is to own and operate health care facilities and to engage in any lawful act or activity for which corporations may be organized under the Missouri Code.

ARTICLE NINE

A director of the Corporation shall not be personally liable to the Corporation or its stockholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director, except for liability (i) for any breach of the director's duty of loyalty to the Corporation or its stockholders, (ii) for acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of the law, (iii) under Section 351.345 of the Missouri Code, or (iv) for any transaction from which the director derived any improper personal benefit. If the Missouri Code is amended hereafter to authorize corporate action further eliminating or limiting the personal liability of directors, then the liability of a director of the Corporation shall be eliminated or limited to the fullest extent permitted by the Missouri Code, as so amended.

Any repeal or modification of the foregoing paragraph by the stockholders of the Corporation shall not adversely affect any right or protection of a director of the Corporation existing at the time of such repeal or modification.

indemnitee has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in the Missouri Code, nor an actual determination by the Corporation (including its Board of Directors, independent legal counsel or its stockholders) that the indemnitee has not met such applicable standard of conduct, or in the case of such a suit brought by the indemnitee, shall be a defense to such suit. In any suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right to indemnification or to an advancement of expenses hereunder or by the Corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking, the burden of proving that the indemnitee is not entitled under this Article or otherwise to be indemnified, or to such advancement of expenses, shall be on the Corporation.

C. Non-Exclusivity of Rights. The rights to indemnification and to the advancement of expenses conferred in this Article shall not be exclusive of any other right which any person may have or hereafter acquire under these Articles of Incorporation or any Bylaw, agreement, vote of stockholders or disinterested directors or otherwise.

D. Insurance. The Corporation may maintain insurance, at its expense, to protect itself and any indemnitee against any expense, liability or loss, whether or not the Corporation would have the power to indemnify such person against such expense, liability or loss under the Missouri Code.

E. Indemnity of Employees and Agents of the Corporation. The Corporation may, to the extent authorized from time to time by the Board of Directors, grant rights to indemnification and to the advancement of expenses to any employee or agent of the Corporation to the fullest extent of the provisions of this Article or as otherwise permitted under the Missouri Code with respect to the indemnification and advancement of expenses of directors and officers of the Corporation.

ARTICLE ELEVEN

The Board of Directors of the Corporation shall have the power to adopt and amend the Bylaws of the Corporation.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, these Articles of Incorporation have been signed this 2nd day of June, 2000.

Section 2.4 Notice. Written notice stating the place, day and hour of the meeting and, in the case of a special meeting, the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is called, shall be given not less than ten nor more than sixty days before the date of the meeting, either personally or by mail.

Section 2.5 Quorum of Shareholders. The holders of a majority of the shares issued and outstanding and entitled to vote at such meeting, present in person or represented by proxy shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at all meetings of the shareholders.

Section 2.6 Voting of Shares. Except as otherwise provided by statute or the articles of incorporation, each holder of record of shares of stock of the Corporation having voting power shall be entitled at each meeting of the shareholders to one vote for every share of such stock standing in his or her name on the record books of shareholders of the corporation on the date on which such notice of the meeting is mailed, unless some other day is fixed by the board of directors for the determination of shareholders of record.

Section 2.7 Voting List. The officer who has charge of the stock transfer books for shares of the corporation shall prepare at least ten days before every meeting of shareholders, a complete list of the shareholders entitled to vote at such meeting, arranged in alphabetical order, including the address of each shareholder and the number of voting shares held by each shareholder. For a period of ten days prior to such meeting, such list shall be kept open to the examination of any shareholder, for any purpose germane to the meeting, during ordinary business hours, either at a place within the city where the meeting is to be held and which place shall be specified in the notice of the meeting, or, if not so specified, at the place where said meeting is to be held. Such list shall be produced at such meeting and at all times during such meeting shall be subject to inspection by any shareholder. The original stock transfer books shall be prima facie evidence as to who are the shareholders entitled to examine such list or stock transfer books.

Section 2.8 Treasury Stock. The corporation shall not vote, directly or indirectly, shares of its own stock owned by it and such shares shall not be counted for quorum purposes.

Section 2.9 Consent of Shareholders in Lieu of Meeting. Whenever the vote of shareholders at a meeting thereof is required or permitted to be taken for or in connection with any corporate action, the meeting, the notice thereof, and the vote of shareholders can be dispensed with, if a consent in writing, setting forth the action so taken, shall be signed by the holders of stock having not less than the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to authorize or take such action at a meeting at which all shares entitled to vote thereof were present and voted, provided that prompt notice must be given to all shareholders of the taking of corporate action without a meeting by less than unanimous written consent.

Section 2.10 Minutes of Meetings. The secretary of the corporation shall keep regular minutes of all meetings of shareholders and such minutes shall be placed in the minute book of the corporation.

ARTICLE III

DIRECTORS

Section 3.1 Powers of Directors. The business and affairs of the corporation shall be managed by its board of directors which shall have and may exercise all such powers of the corporation, subject to the restrictions imposed by law, the articles of incorporation, or these bylaws.

Section 3.2 Number and Qualification. The number of directors which shall constitute the entire board of directors shall be determined by resolution of the Board of Directors at any meeting thereof or by the Shareholders at any meeting thereof. Directors need not be residents of Missouri or Shareholders of the corporation.

Section 3.3 Election and Term of Office. The directors shall be elected annually by the shareholders, except as provided in Section 3.4 of these bylaws. Each director shall hold office until the next succeeding annual meeting of shareholders and until his or her successor shall have been elected or until his or her earlier death, resignation, or removal. The board of directors may, by resolution, appoint one of its members as chairman to preside over meetings of the board of directors. The position of chairman of the board of directors shall not be an office of the corporation.

Section 3.4 Vacancies. Any vacancy occurring in the board of directors by reason of death, resignation, or removal may be filled by affirmative vote of a majority of the remaining directors, although less than a quorum of the board of directors. Such vacancy may also be filled by affirmative vote of the majority of the shareholders. A director elected to fill a vacancy shall be elected for the unexpired term of his or her predecessor in office or until his or her death, resignation, retirement, disqualification, or removal.

Section 3.5 Resignation of Directors. Any director may resign from office at any time by delivering a written resignation to the secretary of the corporation, and such resignation shall be effective upon delivery of such resignation to the secretary.

Section 3.6 Removal of Directors. Any director may be removed with or without cause at any time by the shareholders.

Section 3.7 Place of Meetings. Regular or special meetings of the board of directors may be held either within or without the State of Missouri.

Section 3.8 Regular Meetings. Regular meetings of the board of directors may be held without notice at such times and places as may be designated from time to time as may be determined by the board of directors.

Section 3.9 Special Meetings. Special meetings of the board of directors may be called by the president or any director on twenty-four (24) hours notice to each director, either personally or by telephone, mail, telegram or other means of telecommunications. Neither the business to be transacted at, nor the purpose of, any special meeting of the board of directors need be specified in the notice or waiver of notice of any special meeting.

Section 3.10 Quorum of Directors. At all meetings of the board of directors, a majority of the directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business and the act or a majority of the directors present at any meeting at which there is a quorum shall be an act of the board of directors. If a quorum is not present at a meeting, a majority of the directors present may adjourn the meeting from time to time, without notice other than an announcement at the meeting, until a quorum is present.

Section 3.11 Committees. The board of directors may, by resolution passed by a majority of the entire board, designate one or more committees, including, if they shall so determine, an executive committee, each such committee to consist of one or more of the directors of the corporation. Any such designated committee shall have and may exercise such of the powers and authority of the board of directors in the management of the business and affairs of the corporation as may be provided in such resolution, except that no such committee shall have the power or authority of the board of directors in reference to amending the articles of incorporation, adopting an agreement of merger or consolidation, recommending to the shareholders the sale, lease or exchange of all or substantially all of the corporation's property and assets, recommending to the shareholders a dissolution of the corporation or a revocation of a dissolution of the corporation, or amending, altering or repealing the bylaws or adopting new bylaws for the corporation and, unless such resolution or the articles of incorporation expressly so provides, no such committee shall have the power or authority to authorize the issuance of stock. The board of directors shall have the power at any time to change the number and members of any such committee, to fill vacancies and to discharge any such committee.

Section 3.12 Compensation of Directors. Persons serving as directors shall not receive any compensation for their services as directors; however, a director shall be entitled to reimbursement for reasonable and customary expenses incurred by such director in carrying out his duties as approved by the president of the corporation.

Section 3.13 Action by Unanimous Written Consent. Any action required or permitted to be taken at a meeting of the board of directors or any committee may be taken without a meeting if a consent in writing, setting forth the actions so taken, is signed by all of the members of the board of directors or such committee, as the case may be.

Section 3.14 Minutes of Meetings. The board of directors shall keep regular minutes of its proceedings and such minutes shall be placed in the minute book of the corporation. Committees of the board of directors shall maintain a separate record of the minutes of their proceedings.

ARTICLE IV

NOTICES AND TELEPHONE MEETINGS

Section 4.1 Notice. Any notice to directors or shareholders shall be in writing and shall be delivered personally or by mail, telegram, telex, cable, telecopier or similar means to the directors or shareholders at their respective addresses appearing on the books of the corporation. Notice by mail shall be deemed to be given at the time when the same shall be deposited in the United States mail, postage prepaid. Any notice required or permitted to be given by telegram, telex, cable, telecopier, or similar means shall be deemed to be delivered and given at the time transmitted.

Section 4.2 Waiver of Notice. Whenever by law, the articles of incorporation, or these bylaws, notice is required to be given to any shareholder, director, or committee member of the corporation, a waiver thereof in writing signed by the person or persons entitled to such notice, whether before or after the time notice should have been given, shall be equivalent to the giving of such notice. Attendance of a director at a meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting, except where a director attends a meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business on the ground that the meeting is not lawfully called or convened.

Section 4.3 Telephone and Similar Meetings. Shareholders, directors, or committee members may participate in and hold a meeting by means of a conference telephone or similar communications equipment by means of which persons participating in the meeting can hear each other. Participation in such a meeting shall constitute presence in person at such meeting, except where a person participates in the meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business on the ground that the meeting is not lawfully called or convened.

ARTICLE V OFFICERS

Section 5.1 Officers. The corporation shall have a president and a secretary and such other officers and assistant officers as the board may deem desirable to conduct the affairs of the corporation. The position of chairman of the board of directors shall not be an office of the corporation. Any two or more offices may be held by the same person. No officer need be a shareholder or a director.

Section 5.2 Powers and Duties of Officers. The officers of the corporation shall have the powers and duties generally ascribed to the respective offices, and such additional authority or duty as may from time to time be established by the board of directors.

Section 5.3 Removal and Resignation. Any officer appointed by the board of directors may be removed by the board of directors whenever, in the judgment of the board of directors, the best interests of the corporation will be served thereby. Any officer may resign at any time by giving written notice to the corporation. Any such resignation shall take effect at the date of receipt of such notice or at a later time specified therein, and unless otherwise specified therein, the acceptance of such resignation shall not be necessary to make it effective:

Section 5.4 Term and Vacancies. The officers of the corporation shall hold office until their successors are elected or appointed, or until their death, resignation, or removal from office. Any vacancy occurring in any office of the corporation by death, resignation, removal, or otherwise, may be filled by the board of directors.

Section 5.5 Compensation. The salaries of all officers of the corporation shall be fixed by the board of directors. The board of directors shall have the power to enter into contracts for the employment and compensation of officers on such terms as the board of directors deems advisable. No officer shall be disqualified from receiving a salary or other compensation by reason of the fact that he or she is also a director of the corporation.

CERTIFICATES AND SHAREHOLDERS

Section 6.1 Certificates for Shares. The certificates for shares of stock of the Corporation shall be in such form as shall be approved by the board of directors in conformity with law and the articles of incorporation. Every certificate for shares issued by the corporation must be signed by the President or a Vice President and the Secretary or an Assistant Secretary under the seal of the corporation. Any or all of the signatures on the face of the certificate may be facsimile. Such certificates shall bear a legend or legends in the form and containing the restrictions to be stated thereon by the General and Business Corporation Law of Missouri, other provisions of law, the articles of incorporation or these bylaws. Certificates shall be consecutively numbered and shall be entered as they are issued. Each certificate shall state on the face thereof the holder's name, the number and class of shares, the par value of such shares, and such other matters as may be required by law, the articles of incorporation or these bylaws.

Section 6.2 Lost, Stolen, or Destroyed Certificates. The board of directors, the executive committee, or the president of the corporation may direct a new certificate or certificates representing shares to be issued in place of any certificate or certificates theretofore issued by the corporation alleged to have been lost, stolen, or destroyed, upon the making of an affidavit of the fact by the person claiming the certificate or certificates to be lost, stolen, or destroyed. When authorizing such issue of a new certificate the board of directors, the executive committee or the president may require the owner of such lost, stolen, or destroyed certificate, or his or her legal representative, to advertise the same in such manner as it or he or she shall require and/or give the corporation a bond in such sum as it may direct as indemnity against any claim that may be made against the corporation with respect to the certificate alleged to have been lost, stolen or destroyed.

Section 6.3 Transfer of Shares. Shares of stock of the corporation shall be transferable only on the books of the corporation by the holder thereof in person or by the holder's duly authorized attorneys or legal representatives. Upon surrender to the corporation or the transfer agent of the corporation of a certificate representing shares duly endorsed or accompanied by proper evidence of succession, assignment, or authority to transfer, the corporation or its transfer agent shall issue a new certificate to the person entitled thereto, cancel the old certificate, and record the transaction upon its books.

Section 6.4 Registered Shareholders. The corporation shall be entitled to recognize the exclusive right of a person registered on its books as the owner of shares to receive dividends, and to vote as such owner, and to hold liable for calls and assessments, a person registered on its books as the owner of shares, and shall not be bound to recognize any equitable or other claim to or interest in such shares on the part of any person, whether or not it shall have actual or other notice thereof, except as otherwise provided by law.

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

Section 7.1 Dividends. Dividends upon the outstanding shares of the corporation, subject to the provisions of the applicable statutes and of the articles of incorporation, may be declared by the board of directors at any annual, regular or special meeting. Dividends may be declared and paid in cash, in property, or in shares of the corporation, or in any combination thereof.

Section 7.2 Reserves. There may be set aside out of any funds of the corporation available for dividends such sum or sums as the board of directors from time to time in their sole and absolute discretion think proper as a reserve to meet contingencies, or to equalize dividends, or to repair or maintain any property of the corporation, or for such other purpose as the board of directors shall think conducive to the interest of the corporation, and the board of directors may modify or abolish any such reserve in the manner in which it was created.

Section 7.3 Signature of Negotiable Instruments. All checks or demands for money and notes of the corporation shall be signed by such officer or officers or such other person or persons as the board of directors may from time to time designate.

Section 7.4 Fiscal Year. The fiscal year of the corporation shall be fixed by the board of directors; provided, that if such fiscal year is not fixed by the board of directors it shall be the calendar year.

Section 7.5 Books of the Corporation. The books of the corporation may be kept, subject to the provisions of the applicable statutes, within or outside of the State of Missouri, at such place or places as may from time to time be designated by the board of directors or as the business of the corporation may require.

Section 7.6 Seal. The seal, if any, of the corporation shall be in such form as may be approved from time to time by the board of directors. If the board of directors approves a seal, the affixation of such seal shall not be required to create a valid and binding obligation against the corporation.

Section 7.7 Securities of Other Corporations. Unless otherwise ordered by the board of directors, the president or the secretary of the corporation shall have full power and authority on behalf of the corporation to attend, to vote and to grant proxies to be used at any meeting of shareholders of such other corporation in which the corporation may hold stock. The board of directors may confer like powers upon any other person or persons.

Section 7.8 Fixed Record Date. In order that the corporation may determine the shareholders entitled to notice of or to vote at any meeting of shareholders or any adjournment thereof, or to express consent to corporate action in writing without a meeting, or entitled to receive payment of any dividend or other distribution or allotment of any rights, or entitled to exercise any rights in respect of any change, conversion or exchange of stock for the purpose of any other lawful action, the board of directors may fix, in advance, a record date which shall be not more than sixty 60 days before the date of such meeting, nor more than 60 days prior to any other action.

Section 7.9 Amendment. The power to alter, amend, or repeal these bylaws or to adopt new bylaws is vested in the board of directors.

Section 7.10 Right to Indemnification.

right to be paid by the corporation the expenses incurred in defending any such proceeding in advance of its final disposition (hereinafter an “advancement of expenses”); provided, however, that, if the General and Business Corporation Law of Missouri requires, an advancement of expenses incurred by an indemnitee shall be made only upon delivery to the corporation of an undertaking (hereinafter an “undertaking”), by or on behalf of such indemnitee, to repay all amounts so advanced if it shall ultimately be determined by final judicial decision from which there is no further right to appeal (hereinafter a “final adjudication”) that such indemnitee is not entitled to be indemnified for such expenses under this section or otherwise.

(B) If a claim under paragraph (A) of this section is not paid in full by the corporation within 60 days after a written claim has been received by the corporation, except in the case of a claim for an advancement of expenses, in which case the applicable period shall be 20 days, the indemnitee may at any time thereafter bring suit against the corporation to recover the unpaid amount of such suit, or in a suit brought by the corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking, the indemnitee shall be entitled to be paid also the expense of prosecuting or defending such suit. In (i) any suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right to indemnification hereunder (but not in a suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right to an advancement of expenses) it shall be a defense that, and (ii) any suit by the corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking the corporation shall be entitled to recover such expenses upon a final adjudication that, the indemnitee has not met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in the General and Business Corporation Law of Missouri. Neither the failure of the corporation (including its board of directors, independent legal counsel, or its shareholders) to have made a determination prior to the commencement of such suit that indemnification of the indemnitee is proper in the circumstances because the indemnitee has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in the General and Business Corporation Law of Missouri, nor an actual determination by the corporation (including its board of directors, independent legal counsel, or its shareholders) that the indemnitee has not met such applicable standard of conduct shall create a presumption that the indemnitee has not met the applicable standard of conduct or, in the case of such a suit brought by the indemnitee, be a defense of such suit. In any suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right of indemnification or to an advancement of expenses hereunder, or by the corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking, the burden of proving that the indemnitee is not entitled to be indemnified, or to such advancement of expenses, under this section or otherwise shall be on the corporation.

(C) The rights to indemnification and to the advancement of expenses conferred in this section shall not be exclusive of any other right which any person may have or hereafter acquire under any statute, the corporation’s certificate of incorporation, by agreement, by vote of shareholders or by disinterested directors or otherwise.

(D) The corporation may maintain insurance, at its expense, to protect itself and any director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation or another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise against any expense, liability or loss, whether or not the corporation would have the power to indemnify such person against such expense, liability or loss under the General and Business Corporation Law of Missouri.

Section 7.11 Invalid Provisions. If any provision of these bylaws is held to be illegal, invalid, or unenforceable under present or future laws, such provision shall be fully severable; these bylaws shall be construed and enforced as if such illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision had never comprised a part hereof; and the remaining provisions hereof shall remain in full force and effect and shall not be affected by the illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision or by its severance herefrom. Furthermore, in lieu of such illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision there shall be added automatically as a part of these bylaws a provision as similar in terms to such illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision as may be possible and be legal, valid, and enforceable.

Section 7.12 Headings. The headings used in these bylaws are for reference purposes only and do not affect in any way the meaning or interpretation of these bylaws.

The above bylaws were duly adopted as the bylaws of the corporation effective as of the 5th day of June, 2000.

CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION ISSUED
SEP 7 1993
Judith K. Moriarty
SECRETARY OF STATE

Articles of Incorporation
(To be submitted in duplicate by an attorney or an incorporator.)

The undersigned natural person(s) of the age of eighteen years or more for the purpose of forming a corporation under The General and Business Corporation Law of Missouri adopt the following Articles of Incorporation:

Article One

The name of the corporation is Moberly Hospital, Inc.

Article Two

The address including street and number, if any, of the corporation's initial registered office in this state is 235 East High Street, Jefferson City, MO 65102 and the name of its initial agent at such address is Corporation Service Company d/b/a CSC Incorporating Service Company.

Article Three

The aggregate number class and par value, if any, of shares which the corporation shall have authority to issue shall be: The number of shares that the corporation is authorized to issue is One Thousand (1,000) shares of $.01 par value common stock.

The preferences, qualifications, limitations, restrictions, and the special or relative rights, including convertible rights, if any, in respect to the shares of each class are as follows: The corporation shall have one class of stock and such common stock shall have unlimited voting rights and the right to receive the net assets of the corporation upon dissolution of the corporation.

Article Four

The extent, if any, to which the preemptive right of a shareholder to acquire additional shares is limited or denied.

Shareholders of the corporation shall have no preemptive rights to acquire additional shares of the corporation.

Article Five

The name and place of residence of each incorporator is as follows: Sara Martin-Michels, 414 Union Street, Suite 1200, Nashville, TN 37219.

Article Six

(Designate which and complete the applicable paragraph.)

The number of directors to constitute the first board of directors is 3. Thereafter the number of directors shall be fixed by, or in the manner provided by the bylaws. Any changes in the number will be reported to the Secretary of State within thirty calendar days of such change.

OR

The number of directors to constitute the board of directors is _____. (The number of directors to constitute the board of directors must be stated herein if there are to be less than three directors. The person to constitute the first board of directors may, but need not, be named.)

Article Seven

The duration of the corporation is perpetual.

Article Eight

The corporation is formed for the following purposes: The purpose of the Corporation is to own and operate health care facilities and to engage in any lawful act or activity for which corporations may be organized under the Missouri General and Business Corporation Law (the "Missouri Code").

Article Nine

A director of the Corporation shall not be personally liable to the Corporation or its stockholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director, except for liability (i) for any breach of the director's duty of loyalty to the Corporation or its stockholders, (ii) for acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law, (iii) under Section 351.345 of the Missouri Code or (iv) for any transaction from which the director derived any improper personal benefit. If the Missouri Code is amended hereafter to authorize corporate action further eliminating or limiting the personal liability of directors, then the liability of a director of the Corporation shall be eliminated or limited to the fullest extent permitted by the Missouri Code, as so amended.

Any repeal or modification of the foregoing paragraph by the stockholders of the Corporation shall not adversely affect any right or protection of a director of the Corporation existing at the time of such repeal or modification.

Article Ten

A. RIGHTS TO INDEMNIFICATION. Each person who was or is made a party or is threatened to be made a party to or is otherwise involved in any action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (hereinafter a “proceeding”), by reason of the fact that he or she, or a person of whom he or she is the legal representative, is or was a director or officer of the Corporation or is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director or officer of another corporation or of a partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, including service with respect to an employee benefit plan (hereinafter an “indemnitee”), whether the basis of such proceeding is alleged action in an official capacity as a director or officer or in any other capacity while serving as a director or officer, shall be indemnified and held harmless by the Corporation to the fullest extent authorized by the Missouri Code, as the same exists or may hereafter be amended (but, in the case of any such amendment, only to the extent that such amendment permits the Corporation to provide broader indemnification rights than permitted prior thereto), against all expense, liability and loss (including, without limitation, attorneys’ fees, judgments, fines, excise taxes or penalties and amounts paid or to be paid in settlement) incurred or suffered by such indemnitee in connection therewith and such indemnification shall continue with respect to an indemnitee who has ceased to be a director or officer and shall inure to the benefit of the indemnitee’s heirs, executors and administrators; provided, however, that except as provided in paragraph (B) hereof with respect to proceedings to enforce rights to indemnification, the Corporation shall indemnify any such indemnitee in connection with a proceeding initiated by such indemnitee only if such proceeding was authorized by the Board of Directors of the Corporation. The right to indemnification conferred in this Article shall be a contract right and shall include the right to be paid by the Corporation the expenses incurred in defending any such proceeding in advance of its final disposition (hereinafter an “advancement of expenses”); provided, however, that, if the Missouri Code requires, an advancement of expenses incurred by an indemnitee shall be made only upon delivery to the Corporation of an undertaking (hereinafter an “undertaking”), by or on behalf of such indemnitee, to repay all amounts so advanced if it shall ultimately be determined by final judicial decision from which there is no further right to appeal (hereinafter a “final adjudication”) that such indemnitee is not entitled to be indemnified for such expenses under this Article or otherwise.

B. RIGHT OF INDEMNITEE TO BRING SUIT. If a claim under paragraph (A) of this Article is not paid in full by the Corporation within sixty days after a written claim has been received by the Corporation (except in the case of a claim for an advancement of expenses, in which case the applicable period shall be twenty days), the indemnitee may at any time thereafter bring suit against the Corporation to recover the unpaid amount of the claim. If successful in whole or in part in any such suit, the indemnitee shall also be entitled to be paid the expense of prosecuting or defending such suit. In (i) any suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right to indemnification hereunder (but not in a suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right to an advancement of expenses) it shall be a defense that, and (ii) in any suit by the Corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking, the Corporation shall be entitled to recover such expenses upon a final adjudication that, the indemnitee has not met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in the Missouri Code. Neither the failure of the Corporation (including its Board of Directors, independent legal counsel or its stockholders) to have made a determination prior to the commencement of such suit that indemnification of the indemnitee has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in the Missouri Code, nor an actual determination by the Corporation (including its Board of Directors, independent legal counsel, or its stockholders) that the indemnitee has not met such applicable standard of conduct, shall create a presumption that the indemnitee has not met the applicable standard of conduct, or in the case of such a suit brought by the indemnitee, be a defense to such suit. In any suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right to indemnification or to an advancement of expenses hereunder or by the Corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking, the burden of proving that the indemnitee is not entitled under this Article or otherwise to be indemnified, or to such advancement of expenses, shall be on the Corporation.

C. NON-EXCLUSIVITY OF RIGHTS. The rights to indemnification and to the advancement of expenses conferred in this Article shall not be exclusive of any other right which any person may have or hereafter acquire under this Certificate of Incorporation or any Bylaw, agreement, vote of stockholders or disinterested directors or otherwise.

D. INSURANCE. The Corporation may maintain insurance, at its expense, to protect itself and any indemnitee against any expense, liability or loss, whether or not the Corporation would have the power to indemnify such person against such expense, liability or loss under the Missouri Code.

E. INDEMNITY OF EMPLOYEES AND AGENTS OF THE CORPORATION. The Corporation may, to the extent authorized from time to time by the Board of Directors, grant rights to indemnification and to the advancement of expenses to any employee or agent of the Corporation to the fullest extent of the provisions of this Article or as otherwise permitted under the Missouri Code with respect to the indemnification and advancement of expenses of directors and officers of the Corporation.

Article Eleven

The Board of Directors of the Corporation shall have the power to adopt and amend the Bylaws of the Corporation.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, these Articles of Incorporation have been signed this 3rd day of September, 1993.

RE: REINSTATEMENT OF CORPORATION RIGHTS OF: MOBERLY HOSPITAL, INC.
CORPORATION NO: 00385375
UNDER SECTION 351.488, RSMo

Dear Mr. Soudan:

In response to the corporation's request, a review of the tax records has been completed. There are no delinquencies with respect to Missouri state taxes.

This letter does not limit the authority of the Department of Revenue to conduct audits or reviews of the taxpayer's records. Further this letter does not restrict the Department from pursuing collection of liabilities arising from such audits or reviews. This letter does not constitute reinstatement of corporation status or rights. To be reinstated, this letter must be presented to the Missouri Secretary of State, along with the required affidavit and any other information requested by the Office of the Secretary of State. THIS LETTER REMAINS VALID FOR 30 DAYS FROM THE ISSUANCE DATE.

Sincerely,

/s/ Michael J. Roggero

BYLAWS OF
MOBERLY HOSPITAL, INC.

ARTICLE I
OFFICES

Section 1.1 Registered Office. The registered office shall be in the City of Jefferson, State of Missouri.

Section 1.2 Other Offices. The corporation may also have offices at such other places both within and without the State of Missouri, as the board of directors may from time to time determine or the business of the corporation may require.

ARTICLE II
MEETINGS OF SHAREHOLDERS

Section 2.1 Annual Meeting. An annual meeting of shareholders of the corporation shall be held on such date and at such time as shall be designated from time to time by the board of directors and stated in the notice of the meeting. At such meeting, the shareholders shall elect directors and transact such other business as may properly be brought before the meeting.

Section 2.2 Special Meetings. Special meetings of the shareholders for any purpose whatsoever may be called at any time by the president, the board of directors, or the holders of not less than ten percent of all shares entitled to vote at such meeting.

Section 2.3 Place of Meetings. All meetings of shareholders for any purpose or purposes may be held at such places, within or without the State of Missouri, as may from time to time be fixed by the board of directors or as shall be stated in the notice of the meeting or in a duly executed waiver of notice thereof.

Section 2.4 Notice. Written notice stating the place, day and hour of the meeting and, in the case of a special meeting, the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is called, shall be given not less than ten nor more than sixty days before the date of the meeting, either personally or by mail.

Section 2.5 Quorum of Shareholders. The holders of a majority of the shares issued and outstanding and entitled to vote at such meeting, present in person or represented by proxy shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at all meetings of the shareholders.

Section 2.6 Voting of Shares. Except as otherwise provided by statute or the articles of incorporation, each holder of record of shares of stock of the Corporation having voting power shall be entitled at each meeting of the shareholders to one vote for every share of such stock standing in his or her name on the record books of shareholders of the corporation on the date on which such notice of the meeting is mailed, unless some other day is fixed by the board of directors for the determination of shareholders of record.

Section 2.7 Voting List. The officer who has charge of the stock transfer books for shares of the corporation shall prepare at least ten days before every meeting of shareholders, a complete list of the shareholders entitled to vote at such meeting, arranged in alphabetical order, including the address of each shareholder and the number of voting shares held by each shareholder. For a period of ten days prior to such meeting, such list shall be kept open to the examination of any shareholder, for any purpose germane to the meeting, during ordinary business hours, either at a place within the city where the meeting is to be held and which place shall be specified in the notice of the meeting, or, if not so specified, at the place where said meeting is to be held. Such list shall be produced at such meeting and at all times during such meeting shall be subject to inspection by any shareholder. The original stock transfer books shall be prima facie evidence as to who are the shareholders entitled to examine such list or stock transfer books.

Section 2.8 Treasury Stock. The corporation shall not vote, directly or indirectly, shares of its own stock owned by it and such shares shall not be counted for quorum purposes.

Section 2.9 Consent of Shareholders in Lieu of Meeting. Whenever the vote of shareholders at a meeting thereof is required or permitted to be taken for or in connection with any corporate action, the meeting, the notice thereof, and the vote of shareholders can be dispensed with, if a consent in writing, setting forth the action so taken, shall be signed by the holders of stock having not less than the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to authorize or take such action at a meeting at which all shares entitled to vote thereof were present and voted, provided that prompt notice must be given to all shareholders of the taking of corporate action without a meeting by less than unanimous written consent.

ARTICLE III DIRECTORS

Section 3.1 Powers of Directors. The business and affairs of the corporation shall be managed by its board of directors which shall have and may exercise all such powers of the corporation, subject to the restrictions imposed by law, the articles of incorporation, or these bylaws.

Section 3.2 Number and Qualification. The number of directors which shall constitute the entire board of directors shall be determined by resolution of the board of directors at any meeting thereof or by the shareholders at any meeting thereof. Directors need not be residents of Missouri or shareholders of the corporation.

Section 3.3 Election and Term of Office. The directors shall be elected annually by the shareholders, except as provided in Section 3.4 of these bylaws. Each director shall hold office until the next succeeding annual meeting of shareholders and until his or her successor shall have been elected or until his or her earlier death, resignation, or removal. The board of directors may, by resolution, appoint one of its members as chairman to preside over meetings of the board of directors. The position of chairman of the board of directors shall not be an office of the corporation.

Section 3.4 Vacancies. Any vacancy occurring in the board of directors by reason of death, resignation, or removal may be filled by affirmative vote of a majority of the remaining directors, although less than a quorum of the board of directors. Such vacancy may also be filled by affirmative vote of the majority of the shareholders. A director elected to fill a vacancy shall be elected for the unexpired term of his or her predecessor in office or until his or her death, resignation, retirement, disqualification, or removal.

Section 3.5 Resignation of Directors. Any director may resign from office at any time by delivering a written resignation to the secretary of the corporation, and such resignation shall be effective upon delivery of such resignation to the secretary.

Section 3.6 Removal of Directors. Any director may be removed with or without cause at any time by the shareholders.

Section 3.7 Place of Meetings. Regular or special meetings of the board of directors may be held either within or without the State of Missouri.

Section 3.8 Regular Meetings. Regular meetings of the board of directors may be held without notice at such times and places as may be designated from time to time as may be determined by the board of directors.

Section 3.9 Special Meetings. Special meetings of the board of directors may be called by the president or any director on twenty-four (24) hours notice to each director, either personally or by telephone, mail, telegram or other means of telecommunications. Neither the business to be transacted at, nor the purpose of, any special meeting of the board of directors need be specified in the notice or waiver of notice of any special meeting.

Section 3.10 Quorum of Directors. At all meetings of the board of directors, a majority of the directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business and the act or a majority of the directors present at any meeting at which there is a quorum shall be an act of the board of directors. If a quorum is not present at a meeting, a majority of the directors present may adjourn the meeting from time to time, without notice other than an announcement at the meeting, until a quorum is present.

Section 3.11 Committees. The board of directors may, by resolution passed by a majority of the entire board, designate one or more committees, including, if they shall so determine, an executive committee, each such committee to consist of one or more of the directors of the corporation. Any such designated committee shall have and may exercise such of the powers and authority of the board of directors in the management of the business and affairs of the corporation as may be provided in such resolution, except that no such committee shall have the power or authority of the board of directors in reference to amending the articles of incorporation, adopting an agreement of merger or consolidation, recommending to the shareholders the sale, lease or exchange of all or substantially all of the corporation's property and assets, recommending to the shareholders a dissolution of the corporation or a revocation of a dissolution of the corporation, or amending, altering or repealing the bylaws or adopting new bylaws for the corporation and, unless such resolution or the articles of incorporation expressly so provides, no such committee shall have the power or authority to authorize the issuance of stock. The board of directors shall have the power at any time to change the number and members of any such committee, to fill vacancies and to discharge any such committee.

Section 3.12 Compensation of Directors. The board of directors shall have authority to determine, from time to time, the amount of compensation, if any, which shall be paid to its members for their services as directors and as members of committees of the board of directors. The board of directors shall also have power in its discretion to provide for and to pay to directors rendering services to the corporation not ordinarily rendered by directors as such, special compensation appropriate to the value of such services as determined by the board of directors from time to time. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to preclude any director from serving the corporation in any other capacity and receiving compensation therefor.

Section 3.13 Action by Unanimous Written Consent. Any action required or permitted to be taken at a meeting of the board of directors or any committee may be taken without a meeting if a consent in writing, setting forth the actions so taken, is signed by all of the members of the board of directors or such committee, as the case may be.

Section 3.14 Minutes of Meetings. The board of directors shall keep regular minutes of its proceedings and such minutes shall be placed in the minute book of the corporation. Committees of the board of directors shall maintain a separate record of the minutes of their proceedings.

ARTICLE IV NOTICES AND TELEPHONE MEETINGS

Section 4.1 Notice. Any notice to directors or shareholders shall be in writing and shall be delivered personally or by mail, telegram, telex, cable, telecopier or similar means to the directors or shareholders at their respective addresses appearing on the books of the corporation. Notice by mail shall be deemed to be given at the time when the same shall be deposited in the United States mail, postage prepaid. Any notice required or permitted to be given by telegram, telex, cable, telecopier, or similar means shall be deemed to be delivered and given at the time transmitted.

Section 4.2 Waiver of Notice. Whenever by law, the articles of incorporation, or these bylaws, notice is required to be given to any shareholder, director, or committee member of the corporation, a waiver thereof in writing signed by the person or persons entitled to such notice, whether before or after the time notice should have been given, shall be equivalent to the giving of such notice. Attendance of a director at a meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting, except where a director attends a meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business on the ground that the meeting is not lawfully called or convened.

Section 4.3 Telephone and Similar Meetings. Shareholders, directors, or committee members may participate in and hold a meeting by means of a conference telephone or similar communications equipment by means of which persons participating in the meeting can hear each other. Participation in such a meeting shall constitute presence in person at such meeting, except where a person participates in the meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business on the ground that the meeting is not lawfully called or convened.

ARTICLE V OFFICERS

Section 5.1 Officers. The corporation shall have a president and a secretary and such other officers and assistant officers as the board may deem desirable to conduct the affairs of the corporation. The position of chairman of the board of directors shall not be an office of the corporation. Any two or more offices may be held by the same person. No officer need be a shareholder or a director.

Section 5.2 Powers and Duties of Officers. The officers of the corporation shall have the powers and duties generally ascribed to the respective offices, and such additional authority or duty as may from time to time be established by the board of directors.

Section 5.3 Removal and Resignation. Any officer appointed by the board of directors may be removed by the board of directors whenever, in the judgment of the board of directors, the best interests of the corporation will be served thereby. Any officer may resign at any time by giving written notice to the corporation. Any such resignation shall take effect at the date of receipt of such notice or at a later time specified therein, and unless otherwise specified therein, the acceptance of such resignation shall not be necessary to make it effective.

Section 5.4 Term and Vacancies. The officers of the corporation shall hold office until their successors are elected or appointed, or until their death, resignation, or removal from office. Any vacancy occurring in any office of the corporation by death, resignation, removal, or otherwise, may be filled by the board of directors.

Section 5.5 Compensation. The salaries of all officers of the corporation shall be fixed by the board of directors. The board of directors shall have the power to enter into contracts for the employment and compensation of officers on such terms as the board of directors deems advisable. No officer shall be disqualified from receiving a salary or other compensation by reason of the fact that he or she is also a director of the corporation.

CERTIFICATES AND SHAREHOLDERS

Section 6.1 Certificates for Shares. The certificates for shares of stock of the Corporation shall be in such form as shall be approved by the board of directors in conformity with law and the articles of incorporation. Every certificate for shares issued by the corporation must be signed by the President or a Vice President and the Secretary or an Assistant Secretary under the seal of the corporation. Any or all of the signatures on the face of the certificate may be facsimile. Such certificates shall bear a legend or legends in the form and containing the restrictions to be stated thereon by the Missouri General and Business Corporation Law (the "Missouri Code"), other provisions of law, the articles of incorporation or these bylaws. Certificates shall be consecutively numbered and shall be entered as they are issued. Each certificate shall state on the face thereof the holder's name, the number and class of shares, the par value of such shares, and such other matters as may be required by law, the articles of incorporation or these bylaws.

Section 6.2 Lost, Stolen, or Destroyed Certificates. The board of directors, the executive committee, or the president of the corporation may direct a new certificate or certificates representing shares to be issued in place of any certificate or certificates theretofore issued by the corporation alleged to have been lost, stolen, or destroyed, upon the making of an affidavit of the fact by the person claiming the certificate or certificates to be lost, stolen, or destroyed. When authorizing such issue of a new certificate the board of directors, the executive committee or the president may require the owner of such lost, stolen, or destroyed certificate, or his or her legal representative, to advertise the same in such manner as it or he or she shall require and/or give the corporation a bond in such sum as it may direct as indemnity against any claim that may be made against the corporation with respect to the certificate alleged to have been lost, stolen or destroyed.

Section 6.3 Transfer of Shares. Shares of stock of the corporation shall be transferable only on the books of the corporation by the holder thereof in person or by the holder's duly authorized attorneys or legal representatives. Upon surrender to the corporation or the transfer agent of the corporation of a certificate representing shares duly endorsed or accompanied by proper evidence of succession, assignment, or authority to transfer, the corporation or its transfer agent shall issue a new certificate to the person entitled thereto, cancel the old certificate, and record the transaction upon its books.

Section 6.4 Registered Shareholders. The corporation shall be entitled to recognize the exclusive right of a person registered on its books as the owner of shares to receive dividends, and to vote as such owner, and to hold liable for calls and assessments, a person registered on its books as the owner of shares, and shall not be bound to recognize any equitable or other claim to or interest in such shares on the part of any person, whether or not it shall have actual or other notice thereof, except as otherwise provided by law.

ARTICLE VII MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

Section 7.1 Dividends. Dividends upon the outstanding shares of the corporation, subject to the provisions of the applicable statutes and of the articles of incorporation, may be declared by the board of directors at any annual, regular or special meeting. Dividends may be declared and paid in cash, in property, or in shares of the corporation, or in any combination thereof.

Section 7.2 Reserves. There may be set aside out of any funds of the corporation available for dividends such sum or sums as the board of directors from time to time in their sole and absolute discretion think proper as a reserve to meet contingencies, or to equalize dividends, or to repair or maintain any property of the corporation, or for such other purpose as the board of directors shall think conducive to the interest of the corporation, and the board of directors may modify or abolish any such reserve in the manner in which it was created.

Section 7.3 Signature of Negotiable Instruments. All checks or demands for money and notes of the corporation shall be signed by such officer or officers or such other person or persons as the board of directors may from time to time designate.

Section 7.4 Fiscal Year. The fiscal year of the corporation shall be fixed by the board of directors; provided, that if such fiscal year is not fixed by the board of directors it shall be the calendar year.

Section 7.5 Books of the Corporation. The books of the corporation may be kept, subject to the provisions of the applicable statutes, within or outside of the State of Missouri, at such place or places as may from time to time be designated by the board of directors or as the business of the corporation may require.

Section 7.6 Seal. The seal, if any, of the corporation shall be in such form as may be approved from time to time by the board of directors. If the board of directors approves a seal, the affixation of such seal shall not be required to create a valid and binding obligation against the corporation.

Section 7.7 Securities of Other Corporations. Unless otherwise ordered by the board of directors, the president or the secretary of the corporation shall have full power and authority on behalf of the corporation to attend, to vote and to grant proxies to be used at any meeting of shareholders of such other corporation in which the corporation may hold stock. The board of directors may confer like powers upon any other person or persons.

Section 7.8 Fixed Record Date. In order that the corporation may determine the shareholders entitled to notice of or to vote at any meeting of shareholders or any adjournment thereof, or to express consent to corporate action in writing without a meeting, or entitled to receive payment of any dividend or other distribution or allotment of any rights, or entitled to exercise any rights in respect of any change, conversion or exchange of stock for the purpose of any other lawful action, the board of directors may fix, in advance, a record date which shall be not more than sixty 60 days before the date of such meeting, nor more than 60 days prior to any other action.

Section 7.9 Amendment. The power to alter, amend, or repeal these bylaws or to adopt new bylaws is vested in the board of directors.

Section 7.10 Right to Indemnification.

only upon delivery to the corporation of an undertaking (hereinafter an “undertaking”), by or on behalf of such indemnitee, to repay all amounts so advanced if it shall ultimately be determined by final judicial decision from which there is no further right to appeal (hereinafter a “final adjudication”) that such indemnitee is not entitled to be indemnified for such expenses under this section or otherwise.

(B) If a claim under paragraph (A) of this section is not paid in full by the corporation within 60 days after a written claim has been received by the corporation, except in the case of a claim for an advancement of expenses, in which case the applicable period shall be 20 days, the indemnitee may at any time thereafter bring suit against the corporation to recover the unpaid amount of such suit, or in a suit brought by the corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking, the indemnitee shall be entitled to be paid also the expense of prosecuting or defending such suit. In (i) any suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right to indemnification hereunder (but not in a suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right to an advancement of expenses) it shall be a defense that, and (ii) any suit by the corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking the corporation shall be entitled to recover such expenses upon a final adjudication that, the indemnitee has not met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in the Missouri Code. Neither the failure of the corporation (including its board of directors, independent legal counsel, or its shareholders) to have made a determination prior to the commencement of such suit that indemnification of the indemnitee is proper in the circumstances because the indemnitee has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in the Missouri Code, nor an actual determination by the corporation (including its board of directors, independent legal counsel, or its shareholders) that the indemnitee has not met such applicable standard of conduct shall create a presumption that the indemnitee has not met the applicable standard of conduct or, in the case of such a suit brought by the indemnitee, be a defense of such suit. In any suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right of indemnification or to an advancement of expenses hereunder, or by the corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking, the burden of proving that the indemnitee is not entitled to be indemnified, or to such advancement of expenses, under this section or otherwise shall be on the corporation.

(C) The rights to indemnification and to the advancement of expenses conferred in this section shall not be exclusive of any other right which any person may have or hereafter acquire under any statute, the corporation’s certificate of incorporation, by agreement, by vote of shareholders or by disinterested directors or otherwise.

(D) The corporation may maintain insurance, at its expense, to protect itself and any director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation or another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise against any expense, liability or loss, whether or not the corporation would have the power to indemnify such person against such expense, liability or loss under the Missouri Code.

Section 7.11 Invalid Provisions. If any provision of these bylaws is held to be illegal, invalid, or unenforceable under present or future laws, such provision shall be fully severable; these bylaws shall be construed and enforced as if such illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision had never comprised a part hereof; and the remaining provisions hereof shall remain in full force and effect and shall not be affected by the illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision or by its severance

herefrom. Furthermore, in lieu of such illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision there shall be added automatically as a part of these bylaws a provision as similar in terms to such illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision as may be possible and be legal, valid, and enforceable.

Section 7.12 Headings. The headings used in these bylaws are for reference purposes only and do not affect in any way the meaning or interpretation of these bylaws.

The undersigned officer of the corporation hereby confirms that the above bylaws were duly adopted as the bylaws of the corporation as of the 7th day of September, 1993.

OF
WILLIAMSTON HOSPITAL CORPORATION

Pursuant to §55-2-02 of the North Carolina Business Corporation Act, the undersigned does hereby submit these Articles of Incorporation for the purpose of forming a business corporation.

1. The name of the corporation is Williamston Hospital Corporation
2. The number of shares the corporation is authorized to issue is one thousand (1000) shares of $.01 par value per share common stock which shall have unlimited voting rights and the right to receive the net assets of the corporation upon dissolution of the corporation.
3. The street address of the corporation's initial registered office is 327 Hillsborough Street, Raleigh, Wake County, North Carolina 27603 and the name of the initial registered agent is Corporation Service Company.
4. The name and address of the corporation's incorporator is Virginia D. Lancaster, 155 Franklin Road, Suite 400, Brentwood, Tennessee 37027.
5. The purpose of the Corporation is to engage in any lawful act or activity for which a Corporation may be organized under the North Carolina Business Corporation Act (the "North Carolina Code").
6. The business and affairs of the corporation shall be managed by a Board of Directors. The number of directors and their term shall be specified in the Bylaws of the corporation.
7. A director of the corporation shall not be personally liable to the corporation or its stockholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director, except for liability (i) for any breach of the director's duty of loyalty to the corporation or its stockholders, (ii) for acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law, (iii) under § 55-8-33 of the North Carolina Code, or (iv) for any transaction from which the director derives an improper personal benefit. If the North Carolina Code is amended hereafter to authorize corporate action further eliminating or limiting the personal liability of directors, then the liability of a director of the corporation shall be eliminated or limited to the fullest extent permitted by the North Carolina Code, as so amended.

Any repeal or modification of the foregoing paragraph by the stockholders of the corporation shall not adversely affect any right or protection of a director of the corporation existing at the time of such repeal or modification.

A. Rights to Indemnification. Each person who was or is made a party or is threatened to be made a party to or is otherwise involved in any action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (hereinafter, a "proceeding"), by reason of the fact that he or she, or a person of whom he or she is a legal representative, or is or was a director or officer of the Corporation or is only serving at the request of the Corporation as a director or officer of another Corporation or of a partnership joint venture, trust or other enterprise, including service with respect to an employee benefit plan (hereinafter an "indemnatee"), whether the basis of such proceeding is alleged action in an official capacity or as a director or officer or in any other capacity while serving as a director or officer, shall be indemnified and held harmless by the Corporation to the fullest extent authorized by North Carolina law as the same exists or may hereafter be amended but, in the case of any such amendment, only to the extent that such amendment permits the Corporation to provide broader indemnification rights than permitted prior thereto), against all expense, liability and loss (including, without limitation, attorneys' fees, judgments, fines, excise taxes or penalties and amounts paid or to be paid in settlement) incurred or suffered by such indemnatee in connection therewith and such indemnification shall continue with respect to an indemnatee who has ceased to be a director or officer and shall inure to the benefit of the indemnatee's heirs, executors and administrators; provided, however, that except as provided in paragraph (B) hereof with respect to proceedings to enforce rights to indemnification, the Corporation shall indemnify any such indemnatee in connection with a proceeding initiated by such indemnatee only if such proceeding was authorized by the Board of Directors of the Corporation. The right to indemnification conferred in this Article shall be a contract right and shall include the right to be paid by the Corporation the expenses incurred in defending any such proceeding in advance of its final disposition (hereinafter an "advancement of expenses"); provided, however, that if the North Carolina Code requires, an advancement of expenses incurred by an indemnatee shall be made only upon delivery to the Corporation of an undertaking (hereinafter an "undertaking"), by or on behalf of such indemnatee, to repay all amounts so advanced if it shall ultimately be determined by final judicial decision from which there is no further right to appeal (hereinafter a "final adjudication") that such indemnatee is not entitled to be indemnified for such expenses under this Article or otherwise.

B. Rights of Indemnatee to Bring Suit. If a claim under paragraph (A) of this Article is not paid in full by the Corporation within sixty days after a written claim has been received by the Corporation (except in the case of a claim for an advancement of expenses, in which case the applicable period shall be twenty days), the indemnatee may at any time thereafter bring suit against the Corporation to recover the unpaid amount of the claim. If successful in whole or in part in any such suit, the indemnatee shall also be entitled to be paid the expense of prosecuting or defending such suit. In (i) any suit brought by the indemnatee to enforce a right to indemnification hereunder (but not a suit brought by the indemnatee to enforce a right to an advancement of expenses) it shall be a defense that, and (ii) in any suit by the Corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking, the Corporation shall be entitled to recover such expenses upon a final adjudication that, the indemnatee has not met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in the North Carolina Code. Neither the failure of the Corporation including its Board of Directors (independent counsel or its stockholders) to have made a determination prior to the commencement of such suit that indemnification of the indemnatee has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in the North Carolina Code, nor an actual determination by the Corporation (including its Board of Directors, independent legal counsel or its stockholders) that the indemnatee has not met such applicable standard of conduct, or in the case of such a suit brought by the indemnatee, shall be a defense to such suit. In any suit brought by the indemnatee to enforce a right to indemnification or to an advancement of expenses hereunder or by the Corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking, the burden of proving that the indemnatee is not entitled under this Article or otherwise to be indemnified, or to such advancement of expenses, shall be on the Corporation.

C. Non-Exclusivity of Rights. The rights to indemnification and to the advancement of expenses conferred in this Article shall not be exclusive of any other right which any person may have or hereafter acquire under these Articles of Incorporation or any Bylaw, agreement, vote of stockholders or disinterested directors or otherwise.

D. Insurance. The Corporation may maintain insurance, at its expense, to protect itself and any indemnitee against any expenses, liability or loss, whether or not the Corporation would have the power to indemnify such person against such expenses, liability or loss under the North Carolina Code.

E. Indemnity of Employees and Agents of the Corporation. The Corporation may, to the extent authorized from time to time by the Board of Directors, grant rights to indemnification and to the advancement of expenses to any employee or agent of the Corporation to the fullest extent of the provisions of this Article or as otherwise permitted under the North Carolina Code with respect to the indemnification and advancement of expenses of directors and officers of the Corporation.

9. The Bylaws of the Corporation may be altered, amended or repealed or new Bylaws may be adopted by the Board of Directors of the Corporation.

10. These articles will be effective upon filing.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand this 29th day of July, 1998.

BYLAWS OF
WILLIAMSTON HOSPITAL CORPORATION

ARTICLE I

OFFICES

Section 1.1 Registered Office. The registered office shall be in the City of Raleigh, County of Wake, State of North Carolina.

Section 1.2 Other Offices. The corporation may also have offices at such other places both within and without the State of North Carolina as the board of directors may from time to time determine or the business of the corporation may require.

ARTICLE II

MEETINGS OF SHAREHOLDERS

Section 2.1 Annual Meeting. An annual meeting of shareholders of the corporation shall be held on such date and at such time as shall be designated from time to time by the board of directors and stated in the notice of the meeting. At such meeting, the shareholders shall elect directors and transact such other business as may properly be brought before the meeting.

Section 2.2 Special Meetings. Special meetings of the shareholders for any purpose whatsoever may be called at any time by the president, the board of directors, or the holders of not less than ten percent of all shares entitled to vote at such meeting.

Section 2.3 Place of Meetings. All meetings of shareholders for any purpose or purposes may be held at such places, within or without the State of North Carolina, as may from time to time be fixed by the board of directors or as shall be stated in the notice of the meeting or in a duly executed waiver of notice thereof.

Section 2.4 Notice. Written notice stating the place, day and hour of the meeting and, in the case of a special meeting, the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is called, shall be given not less than ten nor more than sixty days before the date of the meeting, either personally or by mail.

Section 2.5 Quorum of Shareholders. The holders of a majority of the shares issued and outstanding and entitled to vote at such meeting, present in person or represented by proxy shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at all meetings of the shareholders.

Section 2.6 Voting of Shares. Except as otherwise provided by statute or the articles of incorporation, each holder of record of shares of stock of the Corporation having voting power shall be entitled at each meeting of the shareholders to one vote for every share of such stock standing in his or her name on the record books of shareholders of the corporation on the date on which such notice of the meetings mailed, unless some other day is fixed by the board of directors for the determination of shareholders of record.

Section 2.7 Voting List. The officer who has charge of the stock transfer books for shares of the corporation shall prepare at least ten days before every meeting of shareholders, a complete list of the shareholders entitled to vote at such meeting, arranged in alphabetical order, including the address of each shareholder and the number of voting shares held by each shareholder. For a period often days prior to such meeting, such list shall be kept open to the examination of any shareholder, for any purpose germane to the meeting, during ordinary business hours, either at a place within the city where the meeting is to be held and which place shall be specified in the notice of the meeting, or, if not so specified, at the place where said meeting is to be held. Such list shall be produced at such meeting and at all times during such meeting shall be subject to inspection by any shareholder. The original stock transfer books shall be prima facie evidence as to who are the shareholders entitled to examine such list or stock transfer books.

Section 2.8 Treasury Stock. The corporation shall not vote, directly or indirectly, shares of its own stock owned by it and such shares shall not be counted for quorum purposes.

Section 2.9 Consent of Shareholders in Lieu of Meeting. Whenever the vote of shareholders at a meeting thereof is required or permitted to be taken for or in connection with any corporate action, the meeting, the notice thereof, and the vote of shareholders can be dispensed with, if a consent in writing setting forth the action so taken, shall be signed by the holders of stock having not less than the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to authorize or take such action at a meeting at which all shares entitled to vote thereof were present and voted, provided that prompt notice must be given to all shareholders of the taking of corporate action without a meeting by less than unanimous written consent.

Section 2.10 Minutes of Meetings. The secretary of the corporation shall keep regular minutes of all meetings of shareholders and such minutes shall be placed in the minute book of the corporation.

ARTICLE III

DIRECTORS

Section 3.1 Powers of Directors. The business and affairs of the corporation shall be managed by its board of directors which shall have and may exercise all such powers of the corporation, subject to the restrictions imposed by law, the articles of incorporation, or these by-laws.

Section 3.2 Number and qualification. The number of directors which shall constitute the entire board of directors shall be determined by resolution of the Board of Directors at any meeting thereof or by the Shareholders at any meeting thereof. Directors need not be residents of North Carolina or Shareholders of the corporation.

Section 3.3 Election and Term of Office. The directors shall be elected annually by the shareholders, except as provided in Section 3.4 of these bylaws. Each director shall hold office until the next succeeding annual meeting of shareholders and until his or her successor shall have been elected or until his or her earlier death, resignation, or removal. The board of directors may, by resolution, appoint one of its members as chairman to preside over meetings of the board of directors. The position of chairman of the board of directors shall not be an office of the corporation.

Section 3.4 Vacancies. Any vacancy occurring in the board of directors by reason of death, resignation, or removal may be filled by affirmative vote of a majority of the remaining directors, although less than a quorum of the board of directors. Such vacancy may also be filled by affirmative vote of the majority of the shareholders. A director elected to fill a vacancy shall be elected for the unexpired term of his or her predecessor in office or until his or her death, resignation, retirement, disqualification, or removal.

Section 3.5 Resignation of Directors. Any director may resign from office at any time by delivering a written resignation to the secretary of the corporation, and such resignation shall be effective upon delivery of such resignation to the secretary.

Section 3.6 Removal of Directors. Any director may be removed with or without cause at any time by the shareholders.

Section 3.7 Place of Meetings. Regular or special meetings of the board of directors may be held either within or without the State of North Carolina.

Section 3.8 Regular Meetings. Regular meetings of the board of directors may be held without notice at such times and places as may be designated from time to time as may be determined by the board of directors.

Section 3.9 Special Meetings. Special meetings of the board of directors may be called by the president or any director on twenty-four (24) hours notice to each director, either personally or by telephone, mail, telegram or other means of telecommunications. Neither the business to be transacted at, nor the purpose of, any special meeting of the board of directors need be specified in the notice or waiver of notice of any special meeting.

Section 3.10 Quorum of Directors. At all meetings of the board of directors, a majority of the directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business and the act or a majority of the directors present at any meeting at which there is a quorum shall be an act of the board of directors. If a quorum is not present at a meeting, a majority of the directors present may adjourn the meeting from time to time, without notice other than an announcement at the meeting, until a quorum is present.

Section 3.11 Committees. The board of directors may, by resolution passed by a majority of the entire board, designate one or more committees, including, if they shall so determine, an executive committee, each such committee to consist of one or more of the directors of the corporation. Any such designated committee shall have and may exercise such of the powers and authority of the board of directors in the management of the business and affairs of the corporation as may be provided in such resolution, except that no such committee shall have the power or authority of the board of directors in reference to amending the articles of incorporation, adopting an agreement of merger or consolidation, recommending to the shareholders the sale, lease or exchange of all or substantially all of the corporation's property and assets, recommending to the shareholders a dissolution of the corporation or a revocation of a dissolution of the corporation, or amending, altering or repealing the bylaws or adopting new bylaws for the corporation and, unless such resolution or the articles of incorporation expressly so provides, no such committee shall have the power or authority to authorize the issuance of stock. The board of directors shall have the power at any time to change the number and members of any such committee, to fill vacancies and to discharge any such committee.

Section 3.12 Compensation of Directors. Persons serving as directors shall not receive any compensation for their services as directors; however, a director shall be entitled to reimbursement for reasonable and customary expenses incurred by such director in carrying out his duties as approved by the president of the corporation.

Section 3.13 Action by Unanimous Written Consent. Any action required or permitted to be taken at a meeting of the board of directors or any committee may be taken without a meeting if a consent in writing, setting forth the actions so taken, is signed by all of the members of the board of directors or such committee, as the case may be.

Section 3.14 Minutes of Meetings. The board of directors shall keep regular minutes of its proceedings and such minutes shall be placed in the minute book of the corporation. Committees of the board of directors shall maintain a separate record of the minutes of their proceedings.

ARTICLE IV

NOTICES AND TELEPHONE MEETINGS

Section 4.1 Notice. Any notice to directors or shareholders shall be in writing and shall be delivered personally or by mail, telegram, telex, cable, telecopier or similar means to the directors or shareholders at their respective addresses appearing on the books of the corporation. Notice by mail shall be deemed to be given at the time when the same shall be deposited in the United States mail, postage prepaid. Any notice required or permitted to be given by telegram, telex, cable, telecopier, or similar means shall be deemed to be delivered and given at the time transmitted.

Section 4.2 Waiver of Notice. Whenever by law, the articles of incorporation, or these bylaws, notice is required to be given to any shareholder, director, or committee member of the corporation, a waiver thereof in writing signed by the person or persons entitled to such notice, whether before or after the time notice should have been given, shall be equivalent to the giving of such notice. Attendance of a director at a meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting, except where a director attends a meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business on the ground that the meeting is not lawfully called or convened.

Section 4.3 Telephone and Similar Meetings. Shareholders, directors, or committee members may participate in and hold a meeting by means of a conference telephone or similar communications equipment by means of which persons participating in the meeting can hear each other. Participation in such a meeting shall constitute presence in person at such meeting, except where a person participates in the meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business on the ground that the meeting is not lawfully called or convened.

ARTICLE V

OFFICERS

Section 5.1 Officers. The corporation shall have a president and a secretary and such other officers and assistant officers as the board may deem desirable to conduct the affairs of the corporation. The position of chairman of the board of directors shall not be an office of the corporation. Any two or more offices may be held by the same person. No officer need be a shareholder or a director.

Section 5.2 Powers and Duties of Officers. The officers of the corporation shall have the powers and duties generally ascribed to the respective offices, and such additional authority or duty as may from time to time be established by the board of directors.

Section 5.3 Removal and Resignation. Any officer appointed by the board of directors may be removed by the board of directors whenever, in the judgment of the board of directors, the best interests of the corporation will be served thereby. Any officer may resign at any time by giving written notice to the corporation. Any such resignation shall take effect at the date of receipt of such notice or at a later time specified therein, and unless otherwise specified therein, the acceptance of such resignation shall not be necessary to make it effective.

Section 5.4 Term and Vacancies. The officers of the corporation shall hold office until their successors are elected or appointed, or until their death, resignation, or removal from office. Any vacancy occurring in any office of the corporation by death, resignation, removal, or otherwise, may be filled by the board of directors.

Section 5.5 Compensation. The salaries of all officers of the corporation shall be fixed by the board of directors. The board of directors shall have the power to enter into contracts for the employment and compensation of officers on such terms as the board of directors deems advisable. No officer shall be disqualified from receiving a salary or other compensation by reason of the fact that he or she is also a director of the corporation.

CERTIFICATES AND SHAREHOLDERS

Section 6.1 Certificates for Shares. The certificates for shares of stock of the Corporation shall be in such form as shall be approved by the board of directors in conformity with law and the articles of incorporation. Every certificate for shares issued by the corporation must be signed by the President or a Vice President and the Secretary or an Assistant Secretary under the seal of the corporation. Any or all of the signatures on the face of the certificate may be facsimile. Such certificates shall bear a legend or legends in the form and containing the restrictions to be stated thereon by the North Carolina Business Corporation Act (the "North Carolina Code"), other provisions of law, the articles of incorporation or these bylaws. Certificates shall be consecutively numbered and shall be entered as they are issued. Each certificate shall state on the face thereof the holder's name, the number and class of shares, the par value of such shares, and such other matters as may be required by law, the articles of incorporation or these bylaws

Section 6.2 Lost, Stolen, or Destroyed Certificates. The board of directors, the executive committee, or the president of the corporation may direct a new certificate or certificates representing shares to be issued in place of any certificate or certificates theretofore issued by the corporation alleged to have been lost, stolen, or destroyed, upon the making of an affidavit of the fact by the person claiming the certificate or certificates to be lost, stolen, or destroyed. When authorizing such issue of a new certificate the board of directors, the executive committee or the president may require the owner of such lost, stolen, or destroyed certificate, or his or her legal representative, to advertise the same in such manner as it or he or she shall require and/or give the corporation a bond in such sum as it may direct as indemnity against any claim that may be made against the corporation with respect to the certificate alleged to have been lost, stolen or destroyed.

Section 6.3 Transfer of Shares. Shares of stock of the corporation shall be transferable only on the books of the corporation by the holder thereof in person or by the holder's duly authorized attorneys or legal representatives. Upon surrender to the corporation or the transfer agent of the corporation of a certificate representing shares duly endorsed or accompanied by proper evidence of succession, assignment, or authority to transfer, the corporation or its transfer agent shall issue a new certificate to the person entitled thereto, cancel the old certificate, and record the transaction upon its books.

Section 6.4 Registered Shareholders. The corporation shall be entitled to recognize the exclusive right of a person registered on its books as the owner of shares to receive dividends, and to vote as such owner, and to hold liable for calls and assessments, a person registered on its books as the owner of shares, and shall not be bound to recognize any equitable or other claim to or interest in such shares on the part of any person, whether or not it shall have actual or other notice thereof, except as otherwise provided by law.

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

Section 7.1 Dividends. Dividends upon the outstanding shares of the corporation, subject to the provisions of the applicable statutes and of the articles of incorporation, may be declared by the board of directors at any annual, regular or special meeting. Dividends may be declared and paid in cash, in property, or in shares of the corporation, or in any combination thereof.

Section 7.2 Reserves. There may be set aside out of any funds of the corporation available for dividends such sum or sums as the board of directors from time to time in their sole and absolute discretion think proper as a reserve to meet contingencies, or to equalize dividends, or to repair or maintain any property of the corporation, or for such other purpose as the board of directors shall think conducive to the interest of the corporation, and the board of directors may modify or abolish any such reserve in the manner in which it was created.

Section 7.3 Signature of Negotiable Instruments. All checks or demands for money and notes of the corporation shall be signed by such officer or officers or such other person or persons as the board of directors may from time to time designate.

Section 7.4 Fiscal Year. The fiscal year of the corporation shall be fixed by the board of directors; provided, that if such fiscal year is not fixed by the board of directors it shall be the calendar year.

Section 7.5 Books of the Corporation. The books of the corporation may be kept, subject to the provisions of the applicable statutes, within or outside of the State of North Carolina, at such place or places as may from time to time be designated by the board of directors or as the business of the corporation may require.

Section 7.6 Seal. The seal, if any, of the corporation shall be in such form as may be approved from time to time by the board of directors. If the board of directors approves a seal, the affixation of such seal shall not be required to create a valid and binding obligation against the corporation.

Section 7.7 Securities of Other Corporations. Unless otherwise ordered by the board of directors, the president or the secretary of the corporation shall have full power and authority on behalf of the corporation to attend, to vote and to grant proxies to be used at any meeting of shareholders of such other corporation in which the corporation may hold stock. The board of directors may confer like powers upon any other person or persons.

Section 7.8 Fixed Record Date. In order that the corporation may determine the shareholders entitled to notice of or to vote at any meeting of shareholders or any adjournment thereof, or to express consent to corporate action in writing without a meeting, or entitled to receive payment of any dividend or other distribution or allotment of any rights, or entitled to exercise any rights in respect of any change, conversion or exchange of stock for the purpose of any other lawful action, the board of directors may fix in advance, a record date which shall be not more than sixty 60 days before the date of such meeting, nor more than 60 days prior to any other action.

Section 7.9 Amendment. The power to alter, amend, or repeal these bylaws or to adopt new bylaws is vested in the board of directors.

(A) Each person (hereinafter an “indemnitee”) who was or is made a party or is threatened to be made a party to or is otherwise involved in any action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (hereinafter a “proceeding”), by reason of the fact that he or she was a director, officer or agent of the corporation or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation or of a partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, including service with respect to an employee benefit plan, whether the basis of such proceedings alleged action in an official capacity as a director, officer, employee or agent, shall be indemnified and held harmless by the corporation to the fullest extent authorized by the North Carolina Code, as the same exists or may hereafter be amended but, in the case of any such amendment, only to the extent that such amendment permits the corporation to provide broader indemnification rights than permitted prior thereto), against all expense, liability and loss (including attorney’s fees, judgments, fines, ERISA excise taxes or penalties and amounts paid in settlement) reasonably incurred or suffered by such indemnitee in connection therewith, and such indemnification shall continue with respect to an indemnitee who has ceased to be a director, officer, employee or agent and shall inure to the benefit of the indemnitee’s heirs, executors and administrators; provided, however, that, except as provided in paragraph (B) hereof with respect to proceedings to enforce rights to indemnification, the corporation shall indemnify any such indemnitee only if such proceeding (or part thereof) was authorized by the board of directors of the corporation. The right to indemnification conferred in this section shall be a contract right and shall include the right to be paid by the corporation the expenses incurred in defending any such proceeding in advance of its final disposition hereinafter an advancement of expenses; provided, however, that, if the North Carolina Code requires, an advancement of expenses incurred by an indemnitee shall be made only upon delivery to the corporation of an undertaking (hereinafter an “undertaking”), by or on behalf of such indemnitee, to repay all amounts so advanced if it shall ultimately be determined by final judicial decision from which there is no further right to appeal (hereinafter a “final adjudication”) that such indemnitee is not entitled to be indemnified for such expenses under this section or otherwise.

(B) If a claim under paragraph (A) of this section is not paid in full by the corporation within 60 days after a written claim has been received by the corporation, except in the case of a claim for an advancement of expenses, in which case the applicable period shall be 20 days, the indemnitee may at any time thereafter bring suit against the corporation to recover the unpaid amount of such suit, or in a suit brought by the corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking, the indemnitee shall be entitled to be paid also the expense of prosecuting or defending such suit. In (i) any suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right to indemnification hereunder (but not in a suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right to an advancement of expenses) it shall be a defense that, and (ii) any suit by the corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking the corporation shall be entitled to recover such expenses upon a final adjudication that, the indemnitee has not met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in the North Carolina Code. Neither the failure of the corporation (including its board of directors, independent legal counsel, or its shareholders) to have made a determination prior to the commencement of such suit that indemnification of the indemnitee is proper in the circumstances because the indemnitee has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in the North Carolina Code, nor an actual determination by the corporation (including its board of directors, independent legal counsel, or its shareholders) that the indemnitee has not met such applicable standard of conduct shall create a presumption that the indemnitee has not met the applicable standard of conduct or, in the case of such a suit brought by the indemnitee, be a defense of such suit. In any suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right of indemnification or to an advancement of expenses hereunder, or by the corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking, the burden of proving that the indemnitee is not entitled to be indemnified, or to such advancement of expenses, under this section or otherwise shall be on the corporation.

(C) The rights to indemnification and to the advancement of expenses conferred in this section shall not be exclusive of any other right which any person may have or hereafter acquire under any statute, the corporation's certificate of incorporation, by agreement, by vote of shareholders or by disinterested directors or otherwise.

(D) The corporation may maintain insurance, at its expense, to protect itself and any director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation or another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise against any expense, liability or loss, whether or not the corporation would have the power to indemnify such person against such expense, liability or loss under the North Carolina Code.

Section 7.11 Invalid Provisions. If any provision of these bylaws is held to be illegal, invalid, or unenforceable under present or future laws, such provision shall be fully severable; these bylaws shall be construed and enforced as if such illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision had never comprised a part hereof, and the remaining provisions hereof shall remain in full force and effect and shall not be affected by the illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision or by its severance herefrom. Furthermore, in lieu of such illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision there shall be added automatically as a part of these bylaws a provision as similar in terms to such illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision as may be possible and be legal, valid, and enforceable.

Section 7.12 Headings. The headings used in these bylaws are for reference purposes only and do not affect in any way the meaning or interpretation of these bylaws.

The above bylaws were duly adopted as the bylaws of the corporation effective as of the 6th day of August, 1998.

OF
SALEM HOSPITAL CORPORATION

In compliance with the requirements of the applicable provisions of the New Jersey Business Corporation Act, as amended (the "New Jersey Act"), the undersigned natural person of the age of eighteen years or more, desiring to incorporate a corporation for profit hereby states the following:

ARTICLE I

The name of the Corporation is Salem Hospital Corporation.

ARTICLE II

The period of its duration is perpetual.

ARTICLE III

The purpose of the Corporation is to engage in any lawful act or activity for which corporations may be organized under the New Jersey Act.

ARTICLE IV

The total number of shares of all classes of stock that the Corporation shall have the authority to issue is one thousand (1,000) shares of $.01 per share par value Common Stock.

ARTICLE V

The address of the principal office of the Corporation's registered office in this State, and the name of its registered agent at such address is: Corporation Service Company, 830 Bear Tavern Road, Suite 305 West Trenton, NJ 08628

ARTICLE VI

The names and addresses of the Corporation's initial Board of Directors are:

Gary D. Newsome, 155 Franklin Road, Suite 400 Brentwood, TN 37027
Rachel A. Seifert, 155 Franklin Road, Suite 400 Brentwood, TN 37027
W. Larry Cash, 155 Franklin Road, Suite 400 Brentwood, TN 37027

ARTICLE VII

The name and mailing address of the incorporator is: Karen Palestini, Esquire Reed Smith, LLP, Princeton Forrestal Village, 136 Main Street, Princeton, New Jersey 08543

ARTICLE VIII

To the fullest extent permitted by New Jersey law, a director of the Corporation shall not be personally liable to the Corporation or its stockholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director, except for liability (i) for any breach of the director's duty of loyalty to the Corporation or its stockholders, (ii) for acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law, (iii) under Section 14A3-5 of the New Jersey Act or (iv) for any transaction from which the director derived any improper personal benefit. If the New Jersey Act is amended hereafter to authorize corporate action further eliminating or limiting the personal liability of directors, then the liability of a director of the Corporation shall be eliminated or limited to the fullest extent permitted by the New Jersey Act, as so amended.

Any repeal or modification of the foregoing paragraph by the stockholders of the Corporation shall not adversely affect any right or protection of a director of the Corporation existing at the time of such repeal or modification.

ARTICLE IX

A. Rights to Indemnification. Each person who was or is made a party or is threatened to be made a party to or is otherwise involved in any action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (hereinafter, a "proceeding"), by reason of the fact that he or she, or a person of whom he or she is a legal representative, or is or was a director or officer of the Corporation or is only serving at the request of the Corporation as a director or officer of another Corporation or of a partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, including service with respect to an employee benefit plan (hereinafter an "indemnitee"), whether the basis of such proceeding is alleged action in an official capacity or as a director or officer or in any other capacity while serving as a director or officer, shall be indemnified and held harmless by the Corporation to the fullest extent authorized by the New Jersey Act as the same exists or may hereafter be amended (but, in the case of any such amendment, only to the extent that such amendment permits the Corporation to provide broader indemnification rights than permitted prior thereto), against all expense, liability and loss (including, without limitation, attorneys' fees, judgments, fines, excise taxes or penalties and amounts paid or to be paid in settlement) incurred or suffered by such indemnitee in connection therewith and such indemnification shall continue with respect to an indemnitee who has ceased to be a director or officer and shall inure to the benefit of the indemnitee's heirs, executors and administrators; provided, however, that except as provided in paragraph (B) hereof with respect to proceedings to enforce rights to indemnification, the Corporation shall indemnify any such indemnitee in connection with a proceeding initiated by such indemnitee only if such proceeding was authorized by the Board of Directors of the Corporation. The right to indemnification conferred in this Article shall be a contract right and shall include the right to be paid by the Corporation the expenses incurred in defending any such proceeding in advance of its final disposition (hereinafter an “advancement of expenses”); provided, however, that if the New Jersey act requires, an advancement of expenses incurred by an indemnitee shall be made only upon delivery to the Corporation of an undertaking (hereinafter an “undertaking”), by or on behalf of such indemnitee, to repay all amounts so advanced if it shall ultimately be determined by final judicial decision from which there is no further right to appeal (hereinafter a “final adjudication”) that such indemnitee is not entitled to be indemnified for such expenses under this Article or otherwise.

B. Rights of Indemnitee to Bring Suit. If a claim under paragraph (A) of this Article is not paid in full by the Corporation within sixty days after a written claim has been received by the Corporation (except in the case of a claim for an advancement of expenses, in which case the applicable period shall be twenty days), the indemnitee may at any time thereafter bring suit against the Corporation to recover the unpaid amount of the claim. If successful in whole or in part in any such suit, the indemnitee shall also be entitled to be paid the expense of prosecuting or defending such suit. In (i) any suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right to indemnification hereunder (but not a suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right to an advancement of expenses) it shall be a defense that, and (ii) in any suit by the Corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking, the Corporation shall be entitled to recover such expenses upon a final adjudication that, the indemnitee has not met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in the New Jersey Act. Neither the failure of the Corporation (including its Board of Directors, independent counsel or its stockholders) to have made a determination prior to the commencement of such suit that indemnification of the indemnitee has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in the New Jersey Act, nor an actual determination by the Corporation (including its Board of Directors, independent legal counsel or its stockholders) that the indemnitee has not met such applicable standard of conduct, or in the case of such a suit brought by the indemnitee, shall be a defense to such suit. In any suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right to indemnification or to an advancement of expenses hereunder or by the Corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking, the burden of proving that the indemnitee is not entitled under this Article or otherwise to be indemnified, or to such advancement of expenses, shall be on the Corporation.

C. Non-Exclusivity of Rights. The rights to indemnification and to the advancement of expenses conferred in this Article shall not be exclusive of any other right which any person may have or hereafter acquire under these Articles of Incorporation or any Bylaw, agreement, vote of stockholders or disinterested directors or otherwise.

D. Insurance. The Corporation may maintain insurance, at its expense, to protect itself and any indemnitee against any expense, liability or loss, whether or not the Corporation would have the power to indemnify such person against such expense, liability or loss under the New Jersey Act.

E. Indemnity of Employees and Agents of the Corporation. The Corporation may, to the extent authorized from time to time by the Board of Directors, grant rights to indemnification and to the advancement of expenses to any employee or agent of the Corporation to the fullest extent of the provisions of this Article or as otherwise permitted under the New Jersey Act with respect to the indemnification and advancement of expenses of directors and officers of the Corporation.

ARTICLE X

The Bylaws of the Corporation may be altered, amended or repealed or new Bylaws may be adopted by the Board of Directors of the Corporation.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand this 30th day of October, 2001.

BYLAWS OF
SALEM HOSPITAL CORPORATION

ARTICLE I

OFFICES

Section 1.1 Registered Office. The registered office shall be in the City of West Trenton, County of Mercer, State of New Jersey.

Section 1.2 Other Offices. The corporation may also have offices at such other places both within and without the State of New Jersey as the board of directors may from time to time determine or the business of the corporation may require.

ARTICLE II

MEETINGS OF SHAREHOLDERS

Section 2.1 Annual Meeting. An annual meeting of shareholders of the corporation shall be held on such date and at such time as shall be designated from time to time by the board of directors and stated in the notice of the meeting. At such meeting, the shareholders shall elect directors and transact such other business as may properly be brought before the meeting.

Section 2.2 Special Meetings. Special meetings of the shareholders for any purpose whatsoever may be called at any time by the president, the board of directors, or the holders of not less than ten percent of all shares entitled to vote at such meeting.

Section 2.3 Place of Meetings. All meetings of shareholders for any purpose or purposes may be held at such places, within or without the State of New Jersey, as may from time to time be fixed by the board of directors or as shall be stated in the notice of the meeting or in a duly executed waiver of notice thereof.

Section 2.4 Notice. Written notice stating the place, day and hour of the meeting and, in the case of a special meeting, the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is called, shall be given not less than ten nor more than sixty days before the date of the meeting, either personally or by mail.

Section 2.5 Quorum of Shareholders. The holders of a majority of the shares issued and outstanding and entitled to vote at such meeting, present in person or represented by proxy shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at all meetings of the shareholders.

Section 2.6 Voting of Shares. Except as otherwise provided by statute or the articles of incorporation, each holder of record of shares of stock of the Corporation having voting power shall be entitled at each meeting of the shareholders to one vote for every share of such stock standing in his or her name on the record books of shareholders of the corporation on the date on which such notice of the meeting is mailed, unless some other day is fixed by the board of directors for the determination of shareholders of record.

Section 2.7 Voting List. The officer who has charge of the stock transfer books for shares of the corporation shall prepare at least ten days before every meeting of shareholders, a complete list of the shareholders entitled to vote at such meeting, arranged in alphabetical order, including the address of each shareholder and the number of voting shares held by each shareholder. For a period of ten days prior to such meeting, such list shall be kept open to the examination of any shareholder, for any purpose germane to the meeting, during ordinary business hours, either at a place within the city where the meeting is to be held and which place shall be specified in the notice of the meeting, or, if not so specified, at the place where said meeting is to be held. Such list shall be produced at such meeting and at all times during such meeting shall be subject to inspection by any shareholder. The original stock transfer books shall be prima facie evidence as to who are the shareholders entitled to examine such list or stock transfer books.

Section 2.8 Treasury Stock. The corporation shall not vote, directly or indirectly, shares of its own stock owned by it and such shares shall not be counted for quorum purposes.

Section 2.9 Consent of Shareholders in Lieu of Meeting. Whenever the vote of shareholders at a meeting thereof is required or permitted to be taken for or in connection with any corporate action, the meeting, the notice thereof, and the vote of shareholders can be dispensed with, if a consent in writing, setting forth the action so taken, shall be signed by the holders of stock having not less than the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to authorize or take such action at a meeting at which all shares entitled to vote thereof were present and voted, provided that prompt notice must be given to all shareholders of the taking of corporate action without a meeting by less than unanimous written consent.

Section 2.10 Minutes of Meetings. The secretary of the corporation shall keep regular minutes of all meetings of shareholders and such minutes shall be placed in the minute book of the corporation.

ARTICLE III

DIRECTORS

Section 3.1 Powers of Directors. The business and affairs of the corporation shall be managed by its board of directors which shall have and may exercise all such powers of the corporation, subject to the restrictions imposed by law, the articles of incorporation, or these bylaws.

Section 3.2 Number and Qualification. The number of directors which shall constitute the entire board of directors shall be determined by resolution of the Board of Directors at any meeting thereof or by the Shareholders at any meeting thereof. Directors need not be residents of New Jersey or Shareholders of the corporation.

Section 3.3 Election and Term of Office. The directors shall be elected annually by the shareholders, except as provided in Section 3.4 of these bylaws. Each director shall hold office until the next succeeding annual meeting of shareholders and until his or her successor shall have been elected or until his or her earlier death, resignation, or removal. The board of directors may, by resolution, appoint one of its members as chairman to preside over meetings of the board of directors. The position of chairman of the board of directors shall not be an office of the corporation.

Section 3.4 Vacancies. Any vacancy occurring in the board of directors by reason of death, resignation, or removal may be filled by affirmative vote of a majority of the remaining directors, although less than a quorum of the board of directors. Such vacancy may also be filled by affirmative vote of the majority of the shareholders. A director elected to fill a vacancy shall be elected for the unexpired term of his or her predecessor in office or until his or her death, resignation, retirement, disqualification, or removal.

Section 3.5 Resignation of Directors. Any director may resign from office at any time by delivering a written resignation to the secretary of the corporation, and such resignation shall be effective upon delivery of such resignation to the secretary.

Section 3.6 Removal of Directors. Any director may be removed with or without cause at any time by the shareholders.

Section 3.7 Place of Meetings. Regular or special meetings of the board of directors may be held either within or without the State of New Jersey.

Section 3.8 Regular Meetings. Regular meetings of the board of directors may be held without notice at such times and places as may be designated from time to time as may be determined by the board of directors.

Section 3.9 Special Meetings. Special meetings of the board of directors may be called by the president or any director on twenty-four (24) hours notice to each director, either personally or by telephone, mail, telegram or other means of telecommunications. Neither the business to be transacted at, nor the purpose of, any special meeting of the board of directors need be specified in the notice or waiver of notice of any special meeting.

Section 3.10 Quorum of Directors. At all meetings of the board of directors, a majority of the directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business and the act or a majority of the directors present at any meeting at which there is a quorum shall be an act of the board of directors. If a quorum is not present at a meeting, a majority of the directors present may adjourn the meeting from time to time, without notice other than an announcement at the meeting, until a quorum is present.

Section 3.11 Committees. The board of directors may, by resolution passed by a majority of the entire board, designate one or more committees, including, if they shall so determine, an executive committee, each such committee to consist of one or more of the directors of the corporation. Any such designated committee shall have and may exercise such of the powers and authority of the board of directors in the management of the business and affairs of the corporation as may be provided in such resolution, except that no such committee shall have the power or authority of the board of directors in reference to amending the articles of incorporation, adopting an agreement of merger or consolidation, recommending to the shareholders the sale, lease or exchange of all or substantially all of the corporation's property and assets, recommending to the shareholders a dissolution of the corporation or a revocation of a dissolution of the corporation, or amending, altering or repealing the bylaws or adopting new bylaws for the corporation and, unless such resolution or the articles of incorporation expressly so provides, no such committee shall have the power or authority to authorize the issuance of stock. The board of directors shall have the power at any time to change the number and members of any such committee, to fill vacancies and to discharge any such committee.

Section 3.12 Compensation of Directors. Persons serving as directors shall not receive any compensation for their services as directors; however, a director shall be entitled to reimbursement for reasonable and customary expenses incurred by such director in carrying out his duties as approved by the president of the corporation.

Section 3.13 Action by Unanimous Written Consent. Any action required or permitted to be taken at a meeting of the board of directors or any committee may be taken without a meeting if a consent in writing, setting forth the actions so taken, is signed by all of the members of the board of directors or such committee, as the case may be.

Section 3.14 Minutes of Meetings. The board of directors shall keep regular minutes of its proceedings and such minutes shall be placed in the minute book of the corporation. Committees of the board of directors shall maintain a separate record of the minutes of their proceedings.

ARTICLE IV

NOTICES AND TELEPHONE MEETINGS

Section 4.1 Notice. Any notice to directors or shareholders shall be in writing and shall be delivered personally or by mail, telegram, telex, cable, telecopier or similar means to the directors or shareholders at their respective addresses appearing on the books of the corporation. Notice by mail shall be deemed to be given at the time when the same shall be deposited in the United States mail, postage prepaid. Any notice required or permitted to be given by telegram, telex, cable, telecopier, or similar means shall be deemed to be delivered and given at the time transmitted.

Section 4.2 Waiver of Notice. Whenever by law, the articles of incorporation, or these bylaws, notice is required to be given to any shareholder, director, or committee member of the corporation, a waiver thereof in writing signed by the person or persons entitled to such notice, whether before or after the time notice should have been given, shall be equivalent to the giving of such notice. Attendance of a director at a meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting, except where a director attends a meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business on the ground that the meeting is not lawfully called or convened.

Section 4.3 Telephone and Similar Meetings. Shareholders, directors, or committee members may participate in and hold a meeting by means of a conference telephone or similar communications equipment by means of which persons participating in the meeting can hear each other. Participation in such a meeting shall constitute presence in person at such meeting, except where a person participates in the meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business on the ground that the meeting is not lawfully called or convened.

ARTICLE V

OFFICERS

Section 5.1 Officers. The corporation shall have a president and a secretary and such other officers and assistant officers as the board may deem desirable to conduct the affairs of the corporation. The position of chairman of the board of directors shall not be an office of the corporation. Any two or more offices may be held by the same person. No officer need be a shareholder or a director.

Section 5.2 Powers and Duties of Officers. The officers of the corporation shall have the powers and duties generally ascribed to the respective offices, and such additional authority or duty as may from time to time be established by the board of directors.

Section 5.3 Removal and Resignation. Any officer appointed by the board of directors may be removed by the board of directors whenever, in the judgment of the board of directors, the best interests of the corporation will be served thereby. Any officer may resign at any time by giving written notice to the corporation. Any such resignation shall take effect at the date of receipt of such notice or at a later time specified therein, and unless otherwise specified therein, the acceptance of such resignation shall not be necessary to make it effective.

Section 5.4 Term and Vacancies. The officers of the corporation shall hold office until their successors are elected or appointed, or until their death, resignation, or removal from office. Any vacancy occurring in any office of the corporation by death, resignation, removal, or otherwise, may be filled by the board of directors.

Section 5.5 Compensation. The salaries of all officers of the corporation shall be fixed by the board of directors. The board of directors shall have the power to enter into contracts for the employment and compensation of officers on such terms as the board of directors deems advisable. No officer shall be disqualified from receiving a salary or other compensation by reason of the fact that he or she is also a director of the corporation.

ARTICLE VI

CERTIFICATES AND SHAREHOLDERS

Section 6.1 Certificates for Shares. The certificates for shares of stock of the Corporation shall be in such form as shall be approved by the board of directors in conformity with law and the articles of incorporation. Every certificate for shares issued by the corporation must be signed by the President or a Vice President and the Secretary or an Assistant Secretary under the seal of the corporation. Any or all of the signatures on the face of the certificate may be facsimile. Such certificates shall bear a legend or legends in the form and containing the restrictions to be stated thereon by the New Jersey Business Corporation Act, as amended, other provisions of law, the articles of incorporation or these bylaws. Certificates shall be consecutively numbered and shall be entered as they are issued. Each certificate shall state on the face thereof the holder's name, the number and class of shares, the par value of such shares, and such other matters as may be required by law, the articles of incorporation or these bylaws.

Section 6.2 Lost, Stolen, or Destroyed Certificates. The board of directors, the executive committee, or the president of the corporation may direct a new certificate or certificates representing shares to be issued in place of any certificate or certificates theretofore issued by the corporation alleged to have been lost, stolen, or destroyed, upon the making of an affidavit of the fact by the person claiming the certificate or certificates to be lost, stolen, or destroyed. When authorizing such issue of a new certificate the board of directors, the executive committee or the president may require the owner of such lost, stolen, or destroyed certificate, or his or her legal representative, to advertise the same in such manner as it or he or she shall require and/or give the corporation a bond in such sum as it may direct as indemnity against any claim that may be made against the corporation with respect to the certificate alleged to have been lost, stolen or destroyed.

Section 6.3 Transfer of Shares. Shares of stock of the corporation shall be transferable only on the books of the corporation by the holder thereof in person or by the holder's duly authorized attorneys or legal representatives. Upon surrender to the corporation or the transfer agent of the corporation of a certificate representing shares duly endorsed or accompanied by proper evidence of succession, assignment, or authority to transfer, the corporation or its transfer agent shall issue a new certificate to the person entitled thereto, cancel the old certificate, and record the transaction upon its books.

Section 6.4 Registered Shareholders. The corporation shall be entitled to recognize the exclusive right of a person registered on its books as the owner of shares to receive dividends, and to vote as such owner, and to hold liable for calls and assessments, a person registered on its books as the owner of shares, and shall not be bound to recognize any equitable or other claim to or interest in such shares on the part of any person, whether or not it shall have actual or other notice thereof, except as otherwise provided by law.

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

Section 7.1 Dividends. Dividends upon the outstanding shares of the corporation, subject to the provisions of the applicable statutes and of the articles of incorporation, may be declared by the board of directors at any annual, regular or special meeting. Dividends may be declared and paid in cash, in property, or in shares of the corporation, or in any combination thereof.

Section 7.2 Reserves. There may be set aside out of any funds of the corporation available for dividends such sum or sums as the board of directors from time to time in their sole and absolute discretion think proper as a reserve to meet contingencies, or to equalize dividends, or to repair or maintain any property of the corporation, or for such other purpose as the board of directors shall think conducive to the interest of the corporation, and the board of directors may modify or abolish any such reserve in the manner in which it was created.

Section 7.3 Signature of Negotiable Instruments. All checks or demands for money and notes of the corporation shall be signed by such officer or officers or such other person or persons as the board of directors may from time to time designate.

Section 7.4 Fiscal Year. The fiscal year of the corporation shall be fixed by the board of directors; provided, that if such fiscal year is not fixed by the board of directors it shall be the calendar year.

Section 7.5 Books of the Corporation. The books of the corporation may be kept, subject to the provisions of the applicable statutes, within or outside of the State of New Jersey, at such place or places as may from time to time be designated by the board of directors or as the business of the corporation may require.

Section 7.6 Seal. The seal, if any, of the corporation shall be in such form as may be approved from time to time by the board of directors. If the board of directors approves a seal, the affixation of such seal shall not be required to create a valid and binding obligation against the corporation.

Section 7.7 Securities of Other Corporations. Unless otherwise ordered by the board of directors, the president or the secretary of the corporation shall have full power and authority on behalf of the corporation to attend, to vote and to grant proxies to be used at any meeting of shareholders of such other corporation in which the corporation may hold stock. The board of directors may confer like powers upon any other person or persons.

Section 7.8 Fixed Record Date. In order that the corporation may determine the shareholders entitled to notice of or to vote at any meeting of shareholders or any adjournment thereof, or to express consent to corporate action in writing without a meeting, or entitled to receive payment of any dividend or other distribution or allotment of any rights, or entitled to exercise any rights in respect of any change, conversion or exchange of stock for the purpose of any other lawful action, the board of directors may fix, in advance, a record date which shall be not more than sixty 60 days before the date of such meeting, nor more than 60 days prior to any other action.

Section 7.9 Amendment. The power to alter, amend, or repeal these bylaws or to adopt new bylaws is vested in the board of directors.

Section 7.10 Right to Indemnification.

(A) Each person (hereinafter an "indemnitee") who was or is made a party to or is threatened to be made a party to or is otherwise involved in any action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (hereinafter a "proceeding"), by reason of the fact that he or she was a director, officer or agent of the corporation or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation or of a partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, including service with respect to an employee benefit plan, whether the basis of such proceeding is alleged action in an official capacity as a director, officer, employee or agent, shall be indemnified and held harmless by the corporation to the fullest extent authorized by the New Jersey Business Corporation Act, as amended, as the same exists or may hereafter be amended (but, in the case of any such amendment, only to the extent that such amendment permits the corporation to provide broader indemnification rights than permitted prior thereto), against all expense, liability and loss (including attorney's fees, judgments, fines, ERISA excise taxes or penalties and amounts paid in settlement) reasonably incurred or suffered by such indemnitee in connection therewith, and such indemnification shall continue with respect to an indemnitee who has ceased to be a director, officer, employee or agent and shall inure to the benefit of the indemnitee's heirs, executors and administrators; provided, however, that, except as provided in paragraph (B) hereof with respect to proceedings to enforce rights to indemnification, the corporation shall indemnify any such indemnitee only if such proceeding (or part thereof) was authorized by the board of directors of the corporation. The right to indemnification conferred in this section shall be a contract right and shall include the right to be paid by the corporation the expenses incurred in defending any such proceeding in advance of its final disposition (hereinafter an “advancement of expenses”); provided, however, that, if the New Jersey Business Corporation Act, as amended, requires, an advancement of expenses incurred by an indemnitee shall be made only upon delivery to the corporation of an undertaking (hereinafter an “undertaking”), by or on behalf of such indemnitee, to repay all amounts so advanced if it shall ultimately be determined by final judicial decision from which there is no further right to appeal (hereinafter a “final adjudication”) that such indemnitee is not entitled to be indemnified for such expenses under this section or otherwise.

(B) If a claim under paragraph (A) of this section is not paid in full by the corporation within 60 days after a written claim has been received by the corporation, except in the case of a claim for an advancement of expenses, in which case the applicable period shall be 20 days, the indemnitee may at any time thereafter bring suit against the corporation to recover the unpaid amount of such suit, or in a suit brought by the corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking, the indemnitee shall be entitled to be paid also the expense of prosecuting or defending such suit. In (i) any suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right to indemnification hereunder (but not in a suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right to an advancement of expenses) it shall be a defense that, and (ii) any suit by the corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking the corporation shall be entitled to recover such expenses upon a final adjudication that, the indemnitee has not met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in the New Jersey Business Corporation Act, as amended. Neither the failure of the corporation (including its board of directors, independent legal counsel, or its shareholders) to have made a determination prior to the commencement of such suit that indemnification of the indemnitee is proper in the circumstances because the indemnitee has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in the New Jersey Business Corporation Act, as amended, nor an actual determination by the corporation (including its board of directors, independent legal counsel, or its shareholders) that the indemnitee has not met such applicable standard of conduct shall create a presumption that the indemnitee has not met the applicable standard of conduct or, in the case of such a suit brought by the indemnitee, be a defense of such suit. In any suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right of indemnification or to an advancement of expenses hereunder, or by the corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking, the burden of proving that the indemnitee is not entitled to be indemnified, or to such advancement of expenses, under this section or otherwise shall be on the corporation.

(C) The rights to indemnification and to the advancement of expenses conferred in this section shall not be exclusive of any other right which any person may have or hereafter acquire under any statute, the corporation’s certificate of incorporation, by agreement, by vote of shareholders or by disinterested directors or otherwise.

(D) The corporation may maintain insurance, at its expense, to protect itself and any director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation or another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise against any expense, liability or loss, whether or not the corporation would have the power to indemnify such person against such expense, liability or loss under the New Jersey Business Corporation Act, as amended.

Section 7.11 Invalid Provisions. If any provision of these bylaws is held to be illegal, invalid, or unenforceable under present or future laws, such provision shall be fully severable; these bylaws shall be construed and enforced as if such illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision had never comprised a part hereof; and the remaining provisions hereof shall remain in full force and effect and shall not be affected by the illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision or by its severance herefrom. Furthermore, in lieu of such illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision there shall be added automatically as a part of these bylaws a provision as similar in terms to such illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision as may be possible and be legal, valid, and enforceable.

Section 7.12 Headings. The headings used in these bylaws are for reference purposes only and do not affect in any way the meaning or interpretation of these bylaws.

The above bylaws were duly adopted as the bylaws of the corporation effective as of the 30th day of October, 2001.

ARTICLE NINE

A director of the Corporation shall not be personally liable to the Corporation or its stockholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director, unless such liability results from the director's breach or failure to perform the duties of the director's office as set forth in Section 53-12-2 (E)(1) and (E)(2) of the New Mexico Business Corporation Act. If the New Mexico Business Corporation Act is amended hereafter to authorize corporate action further eliminating or limiting the personal liability of directors, then the liability of a director of the Corporation shall be eliminated or limited to the fullest extent permitted by the New Mexico Business Corporation Act, as so amended.

Any repeal or modification of the foregoing paragraph by the stockholders of the Corporation shall not adversely affect any right or protection of a director of the Corporation existing at the time of such repeal or modification.

ARTICLE TEN

A. Rights to Indemnification. Each person who was or is made a party or is threatened to be made a party to or is otherwise involved in any action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (hereinafter a "proceeding"), by reason of the fact that he or she, or a person of whom he or she is the legal representative, or is or was a director or officer of the Corporation or is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director or officer of another corporation or of a partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, including service with respect to an employee benefit plan (hereinafter an "indemnitee"), whether the basis of such proceeding is alleged action in an official capacity as a director or officer or in any other capacity while serving as a director or officer, shall be indemnified and held harmless by the Corporation to the fullest extent authorized by the New Mexico Business Corporation Act as the same exists or may hereafter be amended (but, in the case of any such amendment, only to the extent that such amendment permits the Corporation to provide broader indemnification rights than permitted prior thereto), against all expense, liability and loss (including, without limitation, attorneys' fees, judgments, fines, excise taxes or penalties and amounts paid or to be paid in settlement) incurred or suffered by such indemnitee in connection therewith and such indemnification shall continue with respect to an indemnitee who has ceased to be a director or officer and shall inure to the benefit of the indemnitee's heirs, executors and administrators; provided, however, that except as provided in paragraph (B) hereof with respect to proceedings to enforce rights to indemnification, the Corporation shall indemnify any such indemnitee in connection with a proceeding initiated by such indemnitee only if such proceeding was authorized by the Board of Directors of the Corporation. The right to indemnification conferred in this Article shall be a contract right and shall include the right to be paid by the Corporation the expenses incurred in defending any such proceeding in advance of its final disposition (hereinafter an “advancement of expenses”); provided, however, that, if the New Mexico Business Corporation Act requires, an advancement of expenses incurred by an indemnitee shall be made only upon delivery to the Corporation of an undertaking (hereinafter an “undertaking”), by or on behalf of such indemnitee, to repay all amounts so advanced if it shall ultimately be determined by final judicial decision from which there is no further right to appeal (hereinafter a “final adjudication”) that such indemnitee is not entitled to be indemnified for such expenses under this Article or otherwise.

B. Right of Indemnitee to Bring Suit. If a claim under paragraph (A) of this Article is not paid in full by the Corporation within sixty days after a written claim has been received by the Corporation (except in the case of a claim for an advancement of expenses, in which case the applicable period shall be twenty days), the indemnitee may at any time thereafter bring suit against the Corporation to recover the unpaid amount of the claim. If successful in whole or in part in any such suit, the indemnitee shall also be entitled to be paid the expense of prosecuting or defending such suit. In (i) any suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right to indemnification hereunder (but not a suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right to an advancement of expenses) it shall be a defense that, and (ii) in any suit by the Corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking, the Corporation shall be entitled to recover such expenses upon a final adjudication that, the indemnitee has not met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in the New Mexico Business Corporation Act. Neither the failure of the Corporation (including its Board of Directors, independent legal counsel or its stockholders) to have made a determination prior to the commencement of such suit that indemnification of the indemnitee has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in the New Mexico Business Corporation Act, nor an actual determination by the Corporation (including its Board of Directors, independent legal counsel or its stockholders) that the indemnitee not met such applicable standard of conduct, or in the case of such a suit brought by the indemnitee, shall be a defense to such suit. In any suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right to indemnification or to an advancement of expenses hereunder or by the Corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking, the burden of proving that the indemnitee is not entitled under this Article or otherwise to be indemnified, or to such advancement of expenses, shall be on the Corporation.

C. Non-Exclusivity of Rights. The rights to indemnification and to the advancement of expenses conferred in this Article shall not be exclusive of any other right which any person may have or hereafter acquire under these Articles of Incorporation or any Bylaw, agreement, vote of stockholders or disinterested directors or otherwise.

D. Insurance. The Corporation may maintain insurance, at its expense, to protect itself and any indemnitee against any expense, liability or loss, whether or not the Corporation would have the power to indemnify such person against such expense, liability or loss under the New Mexico Business Corporation Act.

E. Indemnity of Employees and Agents of the Corporation. The Corporation may, to the extent authorized from time to time by the Board of Directors, grant rights to indemnification and to the advancement of expenses to any employee or agent of the Corporation to the fullest extent of the provisions of this Article or as otherwise permitted under the New Mexico Business Corporation Act with respect to the indemnification and advancement of expenses of directors and officers of the Corporation.

ARTICLE ELEVEN

The Bylaws of the Corporation may be altered, amended or repealed or new Bylaws may be adopted by the board of directors.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand, this 16th day of January, 1996.

BYLAWS OF
DEMING HOSPITAL CORPORATION

ARTICLE I

OFFICES

Section 1.1 Registered Office. The registered office shall be in the City of Santa Fe, State of New Mexico.

Section 1.2 Other Offices. The corporation may also have offices at such other places both within and without the State of New Mexico as the board of directors may from time to time determine or the business of the corporation may require.

ARTICLE II

MEETINGS OF SHAREHOLDERS

Section 2.1 Annual Meeting. An annual meeting of shareholders of the corporation shall be held on such date and at such time as shall be designated from time to time by the board of directors and stated in the notice of the meeting. At such meeting, the shareholders shall elect directors and transact such other business as may properly be brought before the meeting.

Section 2.2 Special Meetings. Special meetings of the shareholders for any purpose whatsoever may be called at any time by the president, the board of directors, or the holders of not less than ten percent of all shares entitled to vote at such meeting.

Section 2.3 Place of Meetings. All meetings of shareholders for any purpose or purposes may be held at such places, within or without the State of New Mexico, as may from time to time be fixed by the board of directors or as shall be stated in the notice of the meeting or in a duly executed waiver of notice thereof.

Section 2.4 Notice. Written notice stating the place, day and hour of the meeting and, in the case of a special meeting, the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is called, shall be given not less than ten nor more than sixty days before the date of the meeting, either personally or by mail.

Section 2.5 Quorum of Shareholders. The holders of a majority of the shares issued and outstanding and entitled to vote at such meeting, present in person or represented by proxy shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at all meetings of the shareholders.

Section 2.6 Voting of Shares. Except as otherwise provided by statute or the articles of incorporation, each holder of record of shares of stock of the Corporation having voting power shall be entitled at each meeting of the shareholders to one vote for every share of such stock standing in his or her name on the record books of shareholders of the corporation on the date on which such notice of the meeting is mailed, unless some other day is fixed by the board of directors for the determination of shareholders of record.

Section 2.7 Voting List. The officer who has charge of the stock transfer books for shares of the corporation shall prepare at least ten days before every meeting of shareholders, a complete list of the shareholders entitled to vote at such meeting, arranged in alphabetical order, including the address of each shareholder and the number of voting shares held by each shareholder. For a period of ten days prior to such meeting, such list shall be kept open to the examination of any shareholder, for any purpose germane to the meeting, during ordinary business hours, either at a place within the city where the meeting is to be held and which place shall be specified in the notice of the meeting, or, if not so specified, at the place where said meeting is to be held. Such list shall be produced at such meeting and at all times during such meeting shall be subject to inspection by any shareholder. The original stock transfer books shall be prima facie evidence as to who are the shareholders entitled to examine such list or stock transfer books.

Section 2.8 Treasury Stock. The corporation shall not vote, directly or indirectly, shares of its own stock owned by it and such shares shall not be counted for quorum purposes.

ARTICLE III

DIRECTORS

Section 3.1 Powers of Directors. The business and affairs of the corporation shall be managed by its board of directors which shall have and may exercise all such powers of the corporation, subject to the restrictions imposed by law, the articles of incorporation, or these bylaws.

Section 3.2 Number and Qualification. The number of directors which shall constitute the entire board of directors shall be determined by resolution of the board of directors at any meeting thereof or by the shareholders at any meeting thereof. Directors need not be residents of New Mexico or shareholders of the corporation.

Section 3.3 Election and Term of Office. The directors shall be elected annually by the shareholders, except as provided in Section 3.4 of these bylaws. Each director shall hold office until the next succeeding annual meeting of shareholders and until his or her successor shall have been elected or until his or her earlier death, resignation, or removal. The board of directors may, by resolution, appoint one of its members as chairman to preside over meetings of the board of directors. The position of chairman of the board of directors shall not be an office of the corporation.

Section 3.4 Vacancies. Any vacancy occurring in the board of directors by reason of death, resignation, or removal may be filled by affirmative vote of a majority of the remaining directors, although less than a quorum of the board of directors. Such vacancy may also be filled by affirmative vote of the majority of the shareholders. A director elected to fill a vacancy shall be elected for the unexpired term of his or her predecessor in office or until his or her death, resignation, retirement, disqualification, or removal.

Section 3.5 Resignation of Directors. Any director may resign from office at any time by delivering a written resignation to the secretary of the corporation, and such resignation shall be effective upon delivery of such resignation to the secretary.

Section 3.6 Removal of Directors. Any director may be removed with or without cause at any time by the shareholders.

Section 3.7 Place of Meetings. Regular or special meetings of the board of directors may be held either within or without the State of New Mexico.

Section 3.8 Regular Meetings. Regular meetings of the board of directors may be held without notice at such times and places as may be designated from time to time as may be determined by the board of directors.

Section 3.9 Special Meetings. Special meetings of the board of directors may be called by the president or any director on twenty-four (24) hours notice to each director, either personally or by telephone, mail, telegram or other means of telecommunications. Neither the business to be transacted at, nor the purpose of, any special meeting of the board of directors need be specified in the notice or waiver of notice of any special meeting.

Section 3.10 Quorum of Directors. At all meetings of the board of directors, a majority of the directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business and the act or a majority of the directors present at any meeting at which there is a quorum shall be an act of the board of directors. If a quorum is not present at a meeting, a majority of the directors present may adjourn the meeting from time to time, without notice other than an announcement at the meeting, until a quorum is present.

Section 3.11 Committees. The board of directors may, by resolution passed by a majority of the entire board, designate one or more committees, including, if they shall so determine, an executive committee, each such committee to consist of one or more of the directors of the corporation. Any such designated committee shall have and may exercise such of the powers and authority of the board of directors in the management of the business and affairs of the corporation as may be provided in such resolution, except that no such committee shall have the power or authority of the board of directors in reference to amending the articles of incorporation, adopting an agreement of merger or consolidation, recommending to the shareholders the sale, lease or exchange of all or substantially all of the corporation's property and assets, recommending to the shareholders a dissolution of the corporation or a revocation of a dissolution of the corporation, or amending, altering or repealing the bylaws or adopting new bylaws for the corporation and, unless such resolution or the articles of incorporation expressly so provides, no such committee shall have the power or authority to authorize the issuance of stock. The board of directors shall have the power at any time to change the number and members of any such committee, to fill vacancies and to discharge any such committee.

Section 3.12 Compensation of Directors. The board of directors shall have authority to determine, from time to time, the amount of compensation, if any, which shall be paid to its members for their services as directors and as members of committees of the board of directors. The board of directors shall also have power in its discretion to provide for and to pay to directors rendering services to the corporation not ordinarily rendered by directors as such, special compensation appropriate to the value of such services as determined by the board of directors from time to time. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to preclude any director from serving the corporation in any other capacity and receiving compensation therefor.

Section 3.13 Action by Unanimous Written Consent. Any action required or permitted to be taken at a meeting of the board of directors or any committee may be taken without a meeting if a consent in writing, setting forth the actions so taken, is signed by all of the members of the board of directors or such committee, as the case may be.

Section 3.14 Minutes of Meetings. The board of directors shall keep regular minutes of its proceedings and such minutes shall be placed in the minute book of the corporation. Committees of the board of directors shall maintain a separate record of the minutes of their proceedings.

ARTICLE IV

NOTICES AND TELEPHONE MEETINGS

Section 4.1 Notice. Any notice to directors or shareholders shall be in writing and shall be delivered personally or by mail, telegram, telex, cable, telecopier or similar means to the directors or shareholders at their respective addresses appearing on the books of the corporation. Notice by mail shall be deemed to be given at the time when the same shall be deposited in the United States mail, postage prepaid. Any notice required or permitted to be given by telegram, telex, cable, telecopier, or similar means shall be deemed to be delivered and given at the time transmitted.

Section 4.2 Waiver of Notice. Whenever by law, the articles of incorporation, or these bylaws, notice is required to be given to any shareholder, director, or committee member of the corporation, a waiver thereof in writing signed by the person or persons entitled to such notice, whether before or after the time notice should have been given, shall be equivalent to the giving of such notice. Attendance of a director at a meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting, except where a director attends a meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business on the ground that the meeting is not lawfully called or convened.

Section 4.3 Telephone and Similar Meetings. Shareholders, directors, or committee members may participate in and hold a meeting by means of a conference telephone or similar communications equipment by means of which persons participating in the meeting can hear each other. Participation in such a meeting shall constitute presence in person at such meeting, except where a person participates in the meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business on the ground that the meeting is not lawfully called or convened.

ARTICLE V

OFFICERS

Section 5.1 Officers. The corporation shall have a president and a secretary and such other officers and assistant officers as the board may deem desirable to conduct the affairs of the corporation. The position of chairman of the board of directors shall not be an office of the corporation. Any two or more offices may be held by the same person. No officer need be a shareholder or a director.

Section 5.2 Powers and Duties of Officers. The officers of the corporation shall have the powers and duties generally ascribed to the respective offices, and such additional authority or duty as may from time to time be established by the board of directors.

Section 5.3 Removal and Resignation. Any officer appointed by the board of directors may be removed by the board of directors whenever, in the judgment of the board of directors, the best interests of the corporation will be served thereby. Any officer may resign at any time by giving written notice to the corporation. Any such resignation shall take effect at the date of receipt of such notice or at a later time specified therein, and unless otherwise specified therein, the acceptance of such resignation shall not be necessary to make it effective.

Section 5.4 Term and Vacancies. The officers of the corporation shall hold office until their successors are elected or appointed, or until their death, resignation, or removal from office. Any vacancy occurring in any office of the corporation by death, resignation, removal, or otherwise, may be filled by the board of directors.

Section 5.5 Compensation. The salaries of all officers of the corporation shall be fixed by the board of directors. The board of directors shall have the power to enter into contracts for the employment and compensation of officers on such terms as the board of directors deems advisable. No officer shall be disqualified from receiving a salary or other compensation by reason of the fact that he or she is also a director of the corporation.

ARTICLE VI

CERTIFICATES AND SHAREHOLDERS

Section 6.1 Certificates for Shares. The certificates for shares of stock of the Corporation shall be in such form as shall be approved by the board of directors in conformity with law and the articles of incorporation. Every certificate for shares issued by the corporation must be signed by the President or a Vice President and the Secretary or an Assistant Secretary under the seal of the corporation. Any or all of the signatures on the face of the certificate may be facsimile. Such certificates shall bear a legend or legends in the form and containing the restrictions to be stated thereon by the New Mexico Business Corporation Act (the "New Mexico Code"), other provisions of law, the articles of incorporation or these bylaws. Certificates shall be consecutively numbered and shall be entered as they are issued. Each certificate shall state on the face thereof the holder's name, the number and class of shares, the par value of such shares, and such other matters as may be required by law, the articles of incorporation or these bylaws.

Section 6.2 Lost, Stolen, or Destroyed Certificates. The board of directors, the executive committee, or the president of the corporation may direct a new certificate or certificates representing shares to be issued in place of any certificate or certificates theretofore issued by the corporation alleged to have been lost, stolen, or destroyed, upon the making of an affidavit of the fact by the person claiming the certificate or certificates to be lost, stolen, or destroyed. When authorizing such issue of a new certificate the board of directors, the executive committee or the president may require the owner of such lost, stolen, or destroyed certificate, or his or her legal representative, to advertise the same in such manner as it or he or she shall require and/or give the corporation a bond in such sum as it may direct as indemnity against any claim that may be made against the corporation with respect to the certificate alleged to have been lost, stolen or destroyed.

Section 6.3 Transfer of Shares. Shares of stock of the corporation shall be transferable only on the books of the corporation by the holder thereof in person or by the holder's duly authorized attorneys or legal representatives. Upon surrender to the corporation or the transfer agent of the corporation of a certificate representing shares duly endorsed or accompanied by proper evidence of succession, assignment, or authority to transfer, the corporation or its transfer agent shall issue a new certificate to the person entitled thereto, cancel the old certificate, and record the transaction upon its books.

Section 6.4 Registered Shareholders. The corporation shall be entitled to recognize the exclusive right of a person registered on its books as the owner of shares to receive dividends, and to vote as such owner, and to hold liable for calls and assessments, a person registered on its books as the owner of shares, and shall not be bound to recognize any equitable or other claim to or interest in such shares on the part of any person, whether or not it shall have actual or other notice thereof, except as otherwise provided by law.

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

Section 7.1 Dividends. Dividends upon the outstanding shares of the corporation, subject to the provisions of the applicable statutes and of the articles of incorporation, may be declared by the board of directors at any annual, regular or special meeting. Dividends may be declared and paid in cash, in property, or in shares of the corporation, or in any combination thereof.

Section 7.2 Reserves. There may be set aside out of any funds of the corporation available for dividends such sum or sums as the board of directors from time to time in their sole and absolute discretion think proper as a reserve to meet contingencies, or to equalize dividends, or to repair or maintain any property of the corporation, or for such other purpose as the board of directors shall think conducive to the interest of the corporation, and the board of directors may modify or abolish any such reserve in the manner in which it was created.

Section 7.3 Signature of Negotiable Instruments. All checks or demands for money and notes of the corporation shall be signed by such officer or officers or such other person or persons as the board of directors may from time to time designate.

Section 7.4 Fiscal Year. The fiscal year of the corporation shall be fixed by the board of directors; provided, that if such fiscal year is not fixed by the board of directors it shall be the calendar year.

Section 7.5 Books of the Corporation. The books of the corporation may be kept, subject to the provisions of the applicable statutes, within or outside of the State of Florida, at such place or places as may from time to time be designated by the board of directors or as the business of the corporation may require.

Section 7.6 Seal. The seal, if any, of the corporation shall be in such form as may be approved from time to time by the board of directors. If the board of directors approves a seal, the affixation of such seal shall not be required to create a valid and binding obligation against the corporation.

Section 7.7 Securities of Other Corporations. Unless otherwise ordered by the board of directors, the president or the secretary of the corporation shall have full power and authority on behalf of the corporation to attend, to vote and to grant proxies to be used at any meeting of shareholders of such other corporation in which the corporation may hold stock. The board of directors may confer like powers upon any other person or persons.

Section 7.8 Fixed Record Date. In order that the corporation may determine the shareholders entitled to notice of or to vote at any meeting of shareholders or any adjournment thereof, or to express consent to corporate action in writing without a meeting, or entitled to receive payment of any dividend or other distribution or allotment of any rights, or entitled to exercise any rights in respect of any change, conversion or exchange of stock for the purpose of any other lawful action, the board of directors may fix, in advance, a record date which shall be not more than sixty 60 days before the date of such meeting, nor more than 60 days prior to any other action.

Section 7.9 Amendment. The power to alter, amend, or repeal these bylaws or to adopt new bylaws is vested in the board of directors.

Section 7.10 Right to Indemnification.

(A) Each person (hereinafter an "indemnitee") who was or is made a party or is threatened to be made a party to or is otherwise involved in any action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (hereinafter a "proceeding"), by reason of the fact that he or she was a director, officer or agent of the corporation or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation or of a partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, including service with respect to an employee benefit plan, whether the basis of such proceeding is alleged action in an official capacity as a director, officer, employee or agent, shall be indemnified and held harmless by the corporation to the fullest extent authorized by the New Mexico Code, as the same exists or may hereafter be amended (but, in the case of any such amendment, only to the extent that such amendment permits the corporation to provide broader indemnification rights than permitted prior thereto), against all expense, liability and loss (including attorney's fees, judgments, fines, ERISA excise taxes or penalties and amounts paid in settlement) reasonably incurred or suffered by such indemnitee in connection therewith, and such indemnification shall continue with respect to an indemnitee who has ceased to be a director, officer, employee or agent and shall inure to the benefit of the indemnitee's heirs, executors and administrators; provided, however, that, except as provided in paragraph (B) hereof with respect to proceedings to enforce rights to indemnification, the corporation shall indemnify any such indemnitee only if such proceeding (or part thereof) was authorized by the board of directors of the corporation. The right to indemnification conferred in this section shall be a contract right and shall include the right to be paid by the corporation the expenses incurred in defending any such proceeding in advance of its final disposition (hereinafter an "advancement of expenses"); provided, however, that, if the New Mexico Code requires, an advancement of expenses incurred by an indemnitee shall be made only upon delivery to the corporation of an undertaking (hereinafter an "undertaking"), by or on behalf of such indemnitee, to repay all amounts so advanced if it shall ultimately be determined by final judicial decision from which there is no further right to appeal (hereinafter a "final adjudication") that such indemnitee is not entitled to be indemnified for such expenses under this section or otherwise.

(B) If a claim under paragraph (A) of this section is not paid in full by the corporation within 60 days after a written claim has been received by the corporation, except in the case of a claim for an advancement of expenses, in which case the applicable period shall be 20 days, the indemnitee may at any time thereafter bring suit against the corporation to recover the unpaid amount of such suit, or in a suit brought by the corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking, the indemnitee shall be entitled to be paid also the expense of prosecuting or defending such suit. In (i) any suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right to indemnification hereunder (but not in a suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right to an advancement of expenses) it shall be a defense that, and (ii) any suit by the corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking the corporation shall be entitled to recover such expenses upon a final adjudication that, the indemnitee has not met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in the New Mexico Code. Neither the failure of the corporation (including its board of directors, independent legal counsel, or its shareholders) to have made a determination prior to the commencement of such suit that indemnification of the indemnitee is proper in the circumstances because the indemnitee has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in the New Mexico Code, nor an actual determination by the corporation (including its board of directors, independent legal counsel, or its shareholders) that the indemnitee has not met such applicable standard of conduct shall create a presumption that the indemnitee has not met the applicable standard of conduct or, in the case of such a suit brought by the indemnitee, be a defense of such suit. In any suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right of indemnification or to an advancement of expenses hereunder, or by the corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking, the burden of proving that the indemnitee is not entitled to be indemnified, or to such advancement of expenses, under this section or otherwise shall be on the corporation.

(C) The rights to indemnification and to the advancement of expenses conferred in this section shall not be exclusive of any other right which any person may have or hereafter acquire under any statute, the corporation's certificate of incorporation, by agreement, by vote of shareholders or by disinterested directors or otherwise.

(D) The corporation may maintain insurance, at its expense, to protect itself and any director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation or another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise against any expense, liability or loss, whether or not the corporation would have the power to indemnify such person against such expense, liability or loss under the New Mexico Code.

Section 7.11 Invalid Provisions. If any provision of these bylaws is held to be illegal, invalid, or unenforceable under present or future laws, such provision shall be fully severable; these bylaws shall be construed and enforced as if such illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision had never comprised a part hereof; and the remaining provisions hereof shall remain in full force and effect and shall not be affected by the illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision or by its severance herefrom. Furthermore, in lieu of such illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision there shall be added automatically as a part of these bylaws a provision as similar in terms to such illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision as may be possible and be legal, valid, and enforceable.

Section 7.12 Headings. The headings used in these bylaws are for reference purposes only and do not affect in any way the meaning or interpretation of these bylaws.

The above bylaws were duly adopted as the bylaws of the corporation effective as of the 22nd day of January, 1996.

ARTICLE NINE

A director of the Corporation shall not be personally liable to the Corporation or its stockholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director, unless such liability results from the director's breach or failure to perform the duties of the director's office as set forth in Section 53-12-2 (E)(1) and (E)(2) of the New Mexico Business Corporation Act. If the New Mexico Business Corporation Act is amended hereafter to authorize corporate action further eliminating or limiting the personal liability of directors, then the liability of a director of the Corporation shall be eliminated or limited to the fullest extent permitted by the New Mexico Business Corporation Act, as so amended.

Any repeal or modification of the foregoing paragraph by the stockholders of the Corporation shall not adversely affect any right or protection of a director of the Corporation existing at the time of such repeal or modification.

ARTICLE TEN

A. Rights to Indemnification. Each person who was or is made a party or is threatened to be made a party to or is otherwise involved in any action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (hereinafter, a "proceeding"), by reason of the fact that he or she, or a person of whom he or she is the legal representative, or is or was a director or officer of the Corporation or is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director or officer of another corporation or of a partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, including service with respect to an employee benefit plan (hereinafter an “indemnitee”), whether the basis of such proceeding is alleged action in an official capacity as a director or officer or in any other capacity while serving as a director or officer, shall be indemnified and held harmless by the Corporation to the fullest extent authorized by the New Mexico Business Corporation Act as the same exists or may hereafter be amended (but, in the case of any such amendment, only to the extent that such amendment permits the Corporation to provide broader indemnification rights than permitted prior thereto), against all expense, liability and loss (including, without limitation, attorneys’ fees, judgments, fines, excise taxes or penalties and amounts paid or to be paid in settlement) incurred or suffered by such indemnitee in connection therewith and such indemnification shall continue with respect to an indemnitee who has ceased to be a director or officer and shall inure to the benefit of the indemnitee’s heirs, executors and administrators; provided, however, that except as provided in paragraph (B) hereof with respect to proceedings to enforce rights to indemnification, the Corporation shall indemnify any such indemnitee in connection with a proceeding initiated by such indemnitee only if such proceeding was authorized by the Board of Directors of the Corporation. The right to indemnification conferred in this Article shall be a contract right and shall include the right to be paid by the Corporation the expenses incurred in defending any such proceeding in advance of its final disposition (hereinafter an “advancement of expenses”); provided, however, that, if the New Mexico Business Corporation Act requires, an advancement of expenses incurred by an indemnitee shall be made only upon delivery to the Corporation of an undertaking (hereinafter an “undertaking”), by or on behalf of such indemnitee, to repay all amounts so advanced if it shall ultimately be determined by final judicial decision from which there is no further right to appeal (hereinafter a “final adjudication”) that such indemnitee is not entitled to be indemnified for such expenses under this Article or otherwise.

B. Rights of Indemnitee to Bring Suit. If a claim under paragraph (A) of this Article is not paid in full by the Corporation within sixty days after a written claim has been received by the Corporation (except in the case of a claim for an advancement of expenses, in which case the applicable period shall be twenty days), the indemnitee may at any time thereafter bring suit against the Corporation to recover the unpaid amount of the claim. If successful in whole or in part in any such suit, the indemnitee shall also be entitled to be paid the expense of prosecuting or defending such suit. In (i) any suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right to indemnification hereunder (but not a suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right to an advancement of expenses) it shall be a defense that, and (ii) in any suit by the Corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking, the Corporation shall be entitled to recover such expenses upon a final adjudication that, the indemnitee has not met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in the New Mexico Business Corporation Act. Neither the failure of the Corporation (including its Board of Directors, independent legal counsel or its stockholders) to have made a determination prior to the commencement of such suit that indemnification of the indemnitee has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in the New Mexico Business Corporation Act, nor an actual determination by the Corporation (including its Board of Directors, independent legal counsel or its stockholders) that the indemnitee has not met such applicable standard of conduct, or in the case of such a suit brought by the indemnitee, shall be a defense to such suit. In any suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right to indemnification or to an advancement of expenses hereunder or by the Corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking, the burden of proving that the indemnitee is not entitled under this Article or otherwise to be indemnified, or to such advancement of expenses, shall be on the Corporation.

C. Non-Exclusivity of Rights. The rights to indemnification and to the advancement of expenses conferred in this Article shall not be exclusive of any other right which any person may have or hereafter acquire under these Articles of Incorporation or any Bylaw, agreement, vote of stockholders or disinterested directors or otherwise.

D. Insurance. The Corporation may maintain insurance, at its expense, to protect itself and any indemnitee against any expense, liability or loss, whether or not the Corporation would have the power to indemnify such person against such expense, liability or loss under the New Mexico Business Corporation Act.

E. Indemnity of Employees and Agents of the Corporation. The Corporation may, to the extent authorized from time to time by the Board of Directors, grant rights to indemnification and to the advancement of expenses to any employee or agent of the Corporation to the fullest extent of the provisions of this Article or as otherwise permitted under the New Mexico Business Corporation Act with respect to the indemnification and advancement of expenses of directors and officers of the Corporation.

ARTICLE ELEVEN

The Bylaws of the Corporation may be altered, amended or repealed or new Bylaws may be adopted by the Board of Directors of the Corporation.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand, this 6th day of February, 1998.

BYLAWS OF
ROSWELL HOSPITAL CORPORATION

ARTICLE I

OFFICES

Section 1.1 Registered Office. The registered office shall be in the City of Santa Fe, State of New Mexico.

Section 1.2 Other Offices. The corporation may also have offices at such other places both within and without the State of New Mexico as the board of directors may from time to time determine or the business of the corporation may require.

ARTICLE II

MEETINGS OF SHAREHOLDERS

Section 2.1 Annual Meeting. An annual meeting of shareholders of the corporation shall be held on such date and at such time as shall be designated from time to time by the board of directors and stated in the notice of the meeting. At such meeting, the shareholders shall elect directors and transact such other business as may properly be brought before the meeting.

Section 2.2 Special Meetings. Special meetings of the shareholders for any purpose whatsoever may be called at any time by the president, the board of directors, or the holders of not less than ten percent of all shares entitled to vote at such meeting.

Section 2.3 Place of Meetings. All meetings of shareholders for any purpose or purposes may be held at such places, within or without the State of New Mexico, as may from time to time be fixed by the board of directors or as shall be stated in the notice of the meeting or in a duly executed waiver of notice thereof.

Section 2.4 Notice. Written notice stating the place, day and hour of the meeting and, in the case of a special meeting, the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is called, shall be given not less than ten nor more than sixty days before the date of the meeting, either personally or by mail.

Section 2.5 Quorum of Shareholders. The holders of a majority of the shares issued and outstanding and entitled to vote at such meeting, present in person or represented by proxy shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at all meetings of the shareholders.

Section 2.6 Voting of Shares. Except as otherwise provided by statute or the articles of incorporation, each holder of record of shares of stock of the Corporation having voting power shall be entitled at each meeting of the shareholders to one vote for every share of such stock standing in his or her name on the record books of shareholders of the corporation on the date on which such notice of the meeting is mailed, unless some other day is fixed by the board of directors for the determination of shareholders of record.

Section 2.7 Voting List. The officer who has charge of the stock transfer books for shares of the corporation shall prepare at least ten days before every meeting of shareholders, a complete list of the shareholders entitled to vote at such meeting, arranged in alphabetical order, including the address of each shareholder and the number of voting shares held by each shareholder. For a period of ten days prior to such meeting, such list shall be kept open to the examination of any shareholder, for any purpose germane to the meeting, during ordinary business hours, either at a place within the city where the meeting is to be held and which place shall be specified in the notice of the meeting, or, if not so specified, at the place where said meeting is to be held. Such list shall be produced at such meeting and at all times during such meeting shall be subject to inspection by any shareholder. The original stock transfer books shall be prima facie evidence as to who are the shareholders entitled to examine such list or stock transfer books.

Section 2.8 Treasury Stock. The corporation shall not vote, directly or indirectly, shares of its own stock owned by it and such shares shall not be counted for quorum purposes.

Section 2.9 Consent of Shareholders in Lieu of Meeting. Whenever the vote of shareholders at a meeting thereof is required or permitted to be taken for or in connection with any corporate action, the meeting, the notice thereof, and the vote of shareholders can be dispensed with, if a consent in writing, setting forth the action so taken, shall be signed by the holders of stock having not less than the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to authorize or take such action at a meeting at which all shares entitled to vote thereof were present and voted, provided that prompt notice must be given to all shareholders of the taking of corporate action without a meeting by less than unanimous written consent.

Section 2.10 Minutes of Meetings. The secretary of the corporation shall keep regular minutes of all meetings of shareholders and such minutes shall be placed in the minute book of the corporation.

ARTICLE III

DIRECTORS

Section 3.1 Powers of Directors. The business and affairs of the corporation shall be managed by its board of directors which shall have and may exercise all such powers of the corporation, subject to the restrictions imposed by law, the articles of incorporation, or these bylaws.

Section 3.2 Number and Qualification. The number of directors which shall constitute the entire board of directors shall be determined by resolution of the board of directors at any meeting thereof or by the shareholders at any meeting thereof. Directors need not be residents of New Mexico or shareholders of the corporation.

Section 3.3 Election and Term of Office. The directors shall be elected annually by the shareholders, except as provided in Section 3.4 of these bylaws. Each director shall hold office until the next succeeding annual meeting of shareholders and until his or her successor shall have been elected or until his or her earlier death, resignation, or removal. The board of directors may, by resolution, appoint one of its members as chairman to preside over meetings of the board of directors. The position of chairman of the board of directors shall not be an office of the corporation.

Section 3.4 Vacancies. Any vacancy occurring in the board of directors by reason of death, resignation, or removal may be filled by affirmative vote of a majority of the remaining directors, although less than a quorum of the board of directors. Such vacancy may also be filled by affirmative vote of the majority of the shareholders. A director elected to fill a vacancy shall be elected for the unexpired term of his or her predecessor in office or until his or her death, resignation, retirement, disqualification, or removal.

Section 3.5 Resignation of Directors. Any director may resign from office at any time by delivering a written resignation to the secretary of the corporation, and such resignation shall be effective upon delivery of such resignation to the secretary.

Section 3.6 Removal of Directors. Any director may be removed with or without cause at any time by the shareholders.

Section 3.7 Place of Meetings. Regular or special meetings of the board of directors may be held either within or without the State of New Mexico.

Section 3.8 Regular Meetings. Regular meetings of the board of directors may be held without notice at such times and places as may be designated from time to time as may be determined by the board of directors.

Section 3.9 Special Meetings. Special meetings of the board of directors may be called by the president or any director on twenty-four (24) hours notice to each director, either personally or by telephone, mail, telegram or other means of telecommunications. Neither the business to be transacted at, nor the purpose of, any special meeting of the board of directors need be specified in the notice or waiver of notice of any special meeting.

Section 3.10 Quorum of Directors. At all meetings of the board of directors, a majority of the directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business and the act or a majority of the directors present at any meeting at which there is a quorum shall be an act of the board of directors. If a quorum is not present at a meeting, a majority of the directors present may adjourn the meeting from time to time, without notice other than an announcement at the meeting, until a quorum is present.

Section 3.11 Committees. The board of directors may, by resolution passed by a majority of the entire board, designate one or more committees, including, if they shall so determine, an executive committee, each such committee to consist of one or more of the directors of the corporation. Any such designated committee shall have and may exercise such of the powers and authority of the board of directors in the management of the business and affairs of the corporation as may be provided in such resolution, except that no such committee shall have the power or authority of the board of directors in reference to amending the articles of incorporation, adopting an agreement of merger or consolidation, recommending to the shareholders the sale, lease or exchange of all or substantially all of the corporation's property and assets, recommending to the shareholders a dissolution of the corporation or a revocation of a dissolution of the corporation, or amending, altering or repealing the bylaws or adopting new bylaws for the corporation and, unless such resolution or the articles of incorporation expressly so provides, no such committee shall have the power or authority to authorize the issuance of stock. The board of directors shall have the power at any time to change the number and members of any such committee, to fill vacancies and to discharge any such committee.

Section 3.12 Compensation of Directors. Persons serving as directors shall not receive any compensation for their services as directors; however, a director shall be entitled to reimbursement for reasonable and customary expenses incurred by such director in carrying out his duties as approved by the president of the corporation.

Section 3.13 Action by Unanimous Written Consent. Any action required or permitted to be taken at a meeting of the board of directors or any committee may be taken without a meeting if a consent in writing, setting forth the actions so taken, is signed by all of the members of the board of directors or such committee, as the case may be.

Section 3.14 Minutes of Meetings. The board of directors shall keep regular minutes of its proceedings and such minutes shall be placed in the minute book of the corporation. Committees of the board of directors shall maintain a separate record of the minutes of their proceedings.

ARTICLE IV

NOTICES AND TELEPHONE MEETINGS

Section 4.1 Notice. Any notice to directors or shareholders shall be in writing and shall be delivered personally or by mail, telegram, telex, cable, telecopier or similar means to the directors or shareholders at their respective addresses appearing on the books of the corporation. Notice by mail shall be deemed to be given at the time when the same shall be deposited in the United States mail, postage prepaid. Any notice required or permitted to be given by telegram, telex, cable, telecopier, or similar means shall be deemed to be delivered and given at the time transmitted.

Section 4.2 Waiver of Notice. Whenever by law, the articles of incorporation, or these bylaws, notice is required to be given to any shareholder, director, or committee member of the corporation, a waiver thereof in writing signed by the person or persons entitled to such notice, whether before or after the time notice should have been given, shall be equivalent to the giving of such notice. Attendance of a director at a meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting, except where a director attends a meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business on the ground that the meeting is not lawfully called or convened.

Section 4.3 Telephone and Similar Meetings. Shareholders, directors, or committee members may participate in and hold a meeting by means of a conference telephone or similar communications equipment by means of which persons participating in the meeting can hear each other. Participation in such a meeting shall constitute presence in person at such meeting, except where a person participates in the meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business on the ground that the meeting is not lawfully called or convened.

ARTICLE V

OFFICERS

Section 5.1 Officers. The corporation shall have a president and a secretary and such other officers and assistant officers as the board may deem desirable to conduct the affairs of the corporation. The position of chairman of the board of directors shall not be an office of the corporation. Any two or more offices may be held by the same person. No officer need be a shareholder or a director.

Section 5.2 Powers and Duties of Officers. The officers of the corporation shall have the powers and duties generally ascribed to the respective offices, and such additional authority or duty as may from time to time be established by the board of directors.

Section 5.3 Removal and Resignation. Any officer appointed by the board of directors may be removed by the board of directors whenever, in the judgment of the board of directors, the best interests of the corporation will be served thereby. Any officer may resign at any time by giving written notice to the corporation. Any such resignation shall take effect at the date of receipt of such notice or at a later time specified therein, and unless otherwise specified therein, the acceptance of such resignation shall not be necessary to make it effective.

Section 5.4 Term and Vacancies. The officers of the corporation shall hold office until their successors are elected or appointed, or until their death, resignation, or removal from office. Any vacancy occurring in any office of the corporation by death, resignation, removal, or otherwise, may be filled by the board of directors.

Section 5.5 Compensation. The salaries of all officers of the corporation shall be fixed by the board of directors. The board of directors shall have the power to enter into contracts for the employment and compensation of officers on such terms as the board of directors deems advisable. No officer shall be disqualified from receiving a salary or other compensation by reason of the fact that he or she is also a director of the corporation.

ARTICLE VI

CERTIFICATES AND SHAREHOLDERS

Section 6.1 Certificates for Shares. The certificates for shares of stock of the Corporation shall be in such form as shall be approved by the board of directors in conformity with law and the articles of incorporation. Every certificate for shares issued by the corporation must be signed by the President or a Vice President and the Secretary or an Assistant Secretary under the seal of the corporation. Any or all of the signatures on the face of the certificate may be facsimile. Such certificates shall bear a legend or legends in the form and containing the restrictions to be stated thereon by the New Mexico Business Corporation Act (the "New Mexico Code"), other provisions of law, the articles of incorporation or these bylaws. Certificates shall be consecutively numbered and shall be entered as they are issued. Each certificate shall state on the face thereof the holder's name, the number and class of shares, the par value of such shares, and such other matters as may be required by law, the articles of incorporation or these bylaws.

Section 6.2 Lost, Stolen, or Destroyed Certificates. The board of directors, the executive committee, or the president of the corporation may direct a new certificate or certificates representing shares to be issued in place of any certificate or certificates theretofore issued by the corporation alleged to have been lost, stolen, or destroyed, upon the making of an affidavit of the fact by the person claiming the certificate or certificates to be lost, stolen, or destroyed. When authorizing such issue of a new certificate the board of directors, the executive committee or the president may require the owner of such lost, stolen, or destroyed certificate, or his or her legal representative, to advertise the same in such manner as it or he or she shall require and/or give the corporation a bond in such sum as it may direct as indemnity against any claim that may be made against the corporation with respect to the certificate alleged to have been lost, stolen or destroyed.

Section 6.3 Transfer of Shares. Shares of stock of the corporation shall be transferable only on the books of the corporation by the holder thereof in person or by the holder's duly authorized attorneys or legal representatives. Upon surrender to the corporation or the transfer agent of the corporation of a certificate representing shares duly endorsed or accompanied by proper evidence of succession, assignment, or authority to transfer, the corporation or its transfer agent shall issue a new certificate to the person entitled thereto, cancel the old certificate, and record the transaction upon its books.

Section 6.4 Registered Shareholders. The corporation shall be entitled to recognize the exclusive right of a person registered on its books as the owner of shares to receive dividends, and to vote as such owner, and to hold liable for calls and assessments, a person registered on its books as the owner of shares, and shall not be bound to recognize any equitable or other claim to or interest in such shares on the part of any person, whether or not it shall have actual or other notice thereof, except as otherwise provided by law.

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

Section 7.1 Dividends. Dividends upon the outstanding shares of the corporation, subject to the provisions of the applicable statutes and of the articles of incorporation, may be declared by the board of directors at any annual, regular or special meeting. Dividends may be declared and paid in cash, in property, or in shares of the corporation, or in any combination thereof.

Section 7.2 Reserves. There may be set aside out of any funds of the corporation available for dividends such sum or sums as the board of directors from time to time in their sole and absolute discretion think proper as a reserve to meet contingencies, or to equalize dividends, or to repair or maintain any property of the corporation, or for such other purpose as the board of directors shall think conducive to the interest of the corporation, and the board of directors may modify or abolish any such reserve in the manner in which it was created.

Section 7.3 Signature of Negotiable Instruments. All checks or demands for money and notes of the corporation shall be signed by such officer or officers or such other person or persons as the board of directors may from time to time designate.

Section 7.4 Fiscal Year. The fiscal year of the corporation shall be fixed by the board of directors; provided, that if such fiscal year is not fixed by the board of directors it shall be the calendar year.

Section 7.5 Books of the Corporation. The books of the corporation may be kept, subject to the provisions of the applicable statutes, within or outside of the State of New Mexico, at such place or places as may from time to time be designated by the board of directors or as the business of the corporation may require.

Section 7.6 Seal. The seal, if any, of the corporation shall be in such form as may be approved from time to time by the board of directors. If the board of directors approves a seal, the affixation of such seal shall not be required to create a valid and binding obligation against the corporation.

Section 7.7 Securities of Other Corporations. Unless otherwise ordered by the board of directors, the president or the secretary of the corporation shall have full power and authority on behalf of the corporation to attend, to vote and to grant proxies to be used at any meeting of shareholders of such other corporation in which the corporation may hold stock. The board of directors may confer like powers upon any other person or persons.

Section 7.8 Fixed Record Date. In order that the corporation may determine the shareholders entitled to notice of or to vote at any meeting of shareholders or any adjournment thereof, or to express consent to corporate action in writing without a meeting, or entitled to receive payment of any dividend or other distribution or allotment of any rights, or entitled to exercise any rights in respect of any change, conversion or exchange of stock for the purpose of any other lawful action, the board of directors may fix, in advance, a record date which shall be not more than sixty 60 days before the date of such meeting, nor more than 60 days prior to any other action.

Section 7.9 Amendment. The power to alter, amend, or repeal these bylaws or to adopt new bylaws is vested in the board of directors.

Section 7.10 Right to Indemnification.

(A) Each person (hereinafter an "indemnitee") who was or is made a party to or is threatened to be made a party to or is otherwise involved in any action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (hereinafter a "proceeding"), by reason of the fact that he or she was a director, officer or agent of the corporation or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation or of a partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, including service with respect to an employee benefit plan, whether the basis of such proceeding is alleged action in an official capacity as a director, officer, employee or agent, shall be indemnified and held harmless by the corporation to the fullest extent authorized by the New Mexico Code, as the same exists or may hereafter be amended (but, in the case of any such amendment, only to the extent that such amendment permits the corporation to provide broader indemnification rights than permitted prior thereto), against all expense, liability and loss (including attorney's fees, judgments, fines, ERISA excise taxes or penalties and amounts paid in settlement) reasonably incurred or suffered by such indemnitee in connection therewith, and such indemnification shall continue with respect to an indemnitee who has ceased to be a director, officer, employee or agent and shall inure to the benefit of the indemnitee's heirs, executors and administrators; provided, however, that, except as provided in paragraph (B) hereof with respect to proceedings to enforce rights to indemnification, the corporation shall indemnify any such indemnitee only if such proceeding (or part thereof) was authorized by the board of directors of the corporation. The right to indemnification conferred in this section shall be a contract right and shall include the right to be paid by the corporation the expenses incurred in defending any such proceeding in advance of its final disposition (hereinafter an “advancement of expenses”); provided, however, that, if the New Mexico Code requires, an advancement of expenses incurred by an indemnitee shall be made only upon delivery to the corporation of an undertaking (hereinafter an “undertaking”), by or on behalf of such indemnitee, to repay all amounts so advanced if it shall ultimately be determined by final judicial decision from which there is no further right to appeal (hereinafter a “final adjudication”) that such indemnitee is not entitled to be indemnified for such expenses under this section or otherwise.

(B) If a claim under paragraph (A) of this section is not paid in full by the corporation within 60 days after a written claim has been received by the corporation, except in the case of a claim for an advancement of expenses, in which case the applicable period shall be 20 days, the indemnitee may at any time thereafter bring suit against the corporation to recover the unpaid amount of such suit, or in a suit brought by the corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking, the indemnitee shall be entitled to be paid also the expense of prosecuting or defending such suit. In (i) any suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right to indemnification hereunder (but not in a suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right to an advancement of expenses) it shall be a defense that, and (ii) any suit by the corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking the corporation shall be entitled to recover such expenses upon a final adjudication that, the indemnitee has not met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in the New Mexico Code. Neither the failure of the corporation (including its board of directors, independent legal counsel, or its shareholders) to have made a determination prior to the commencement of such suit that indemnification of the indemnitee is proper in the circumstances because the indemnitee has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in the New Mexico Code, nor an actual determination by the corporation (including its board of directors, independent legal counsel, or its shareholders) that the indemnitee has not met such applicable standard of conduct shall create a presumption that the indemnitee has not met the applicable standard of conduct or, in the case of such a suit brought by the indemnitee, be a defense of such suit. In any suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right of indemnification or to an advancement of expenses hereunder, or by the corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking, the burden of proving that the indemnitee is not entitled to be indemnified, or to such advancement of expenses, under this section or otherwise shall be on the corporation.

(C) The rights to indemnification and to the advancement of expenses conferred in this section shall not be exclusive of any other right which any person may have or hereafter acquire under any statute, the corporation’s certificate of incorporation, by agreement, by vote of shareholders or by disinterested directors or otherwise.

(D) The corporation may maintain insurance, at its expense, to protect itself and any director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation or another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise against any expense, liability or loss, whether or not the corporation would have the power to indemnify such person against such expense, liability or loss under the New Mexico Code.

Section 7.11 Invalid Provisions. If any provision of these bylaws is held to be illegal, invalid, or unenforceable under present or future laws, such provision shall be fully severable; these bylaws shall be construed and enforced as if such illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision had never comprised a part hereof; and the remaining provisions hereof shall remain in full force and effect and shall not be affected by the illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision or by its severance herefrom. Furthermore, in lieu of such illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision there shall be added automatically as a part of these bylaws a provision as similar in terms to such illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision as may be possible and be legal, valid, and enforceable.

Section 7.12 Headings. The headings used in these bylaws are for reference purposes only and do not affect in any way the meaning or interpretation of these bylaws.

The above bylaws were duly adopted as the bylaws of the corporation effective as of the 10th day of February, 1998.

ARTICLE NINE

A director of the Corporation shall not be personally liable to the Corporation or its stockholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director, unless such liability results from the director's breach or failure to perform the duties of the director's office as set forth in Section 53-12-2 (E)(1) and (E)(2) of the New Mexico Business Corporation Act. If the New Mexico Business Corporation Act is amended hereafter to authorize corporate action further eliminating or limiting the personal liability of directors, then the liability of a director of the Corporation shall be eliminated or limited to the fullest extent permitted by the New Mexico Business Corporation Act, as so amended.

Any repeal or modification of the foregoing paragraph by the stockholders of the Corporation shall not adversely affect any right or protection of a director of the Corporation existing at the time of such repeal or modification.

ARTICLE TEN

A. Rights to Indemnification. Each person who was or is made a party or is threatened to be made a party to or is otherwise involved in any action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (hereinafter, a "proceeding"), by reason of the fact that he or she, or a person of whom he or she is the legal representative, or is or was a director or officer of the Corporation or is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director or officer of another corporation or of a partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, including service with respect to an employee benefit plan (hereinafter an "indemnatee"), whether the basis of such proceeding is alleged action in an official capacity as a director or officer or in any other capacity while serving as a director or officer, shall be indemnified and held harmless by the Corporation to the fullest extent authorized by the New Mexico Business Corporation Act as the same exists or may hereafter be amended (but, in the case of any such amendment, only to the extent that such amendment permits the Corporation to provide broader indemnification rights than permitted prior thereto), against all expense, liability and loss (including, without limitation, attorneys' fees, judgments, fines, excise taxes or penalties and amounts paid or to be paid in settlement) incurred or suffered by such indemnatee in connection therewith and such indemnification shall continue with respect to an indemnatee who has ceased to be a director or officer and shall inure to the benefit of the indemnatee's heirs, executors and administrators; provided, however, that except as provided in paragraph (B) hereof with respect to proceedings to enforce rights to indemnification, the Corporation shall indemnify any such indemnatee in connection with a proceeding initiated by such indemnatee only if such proceeding was authorized by the Board of Directors of the Corporation. The right to indemnification conferred in this Article shall be a contract right and shall include the right to be paid by the Corporation the expenses incurred in defending any such proceeding in advance of its final disposition (hereinafter an "advancement of expenses"); provided, however, that, if the New Mexico Business Corporation Act requires, an advancement of expenses incurred by an indemnatee shall be made only upon delivery to the Corporation of an undertaking (hereinafter an "undertaking"), by or on behalf of such indemnatee, to repay all amounts so advanced if it shall ultimately be determined by final judicial decision from which there is no further right to appeal (hereinafter a "final adjudication") that such indemnatee is not entitled to be indemnified for such expenses under this Article or otherwise.

B. Rights of Indemnatee to Bring Suit. If a claim under paragraph (A) of this Article is not paid in full by the Corporation within sixty days after a written claim has been received by the Corporation (except in the case of a claim for an advancement of expenses, in which case the applicable period shall be twenty days), the indemnatee may at any time thereafter bring suit against the Corporation to recover the unpaid amount of the claim. If successful in whole or in part in any such suit, the indemnatee shall also be entitled to be paid the expense of prosecuting or defending such suit. In (i) any suit brought by the indemnatee to enforce a right to indemnification hereunder (but not a suit brought by the indemnatee to enforce a right to an advancement of expenses) it shall be a defense that, and (ii) in any suit by the Corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking, the Corporation shall be entitled to recover such expenses upon a final adjudication that, the indemnitee has not met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in the New Mexico Business Corporation Act. Neither the failure of the Corporation (including its Board of Directors, independent legal counsel or its stockholders) to have made a determination prior to the commencement of such suit that indemnification of the indemnitee has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in the New Mexico Business Corporation Act, nor an actual determination by the Corporation (including its Board of Directors, independent legal counsel or its stockholders) that the indemnitee has not met such applicable standard of conduct, or in the case of such a suit brought by the indemnitee, shall be a defense to such suit. In any suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right to indemnification or to an advancement of expenses hereunder or by the Corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking, the burden of proving that the indemnitee is not entitled under this Article or otherwise to be indemnified, or to such advancement of expenses, shall be on the Corporation.

C. Non-Exclusivity of Rights. The rights to indemnification and to the advancement of expenses conferred in this Article shall not be exclusive of any other right which any person may have or hereafter acquire under these Articles of Incorporation or any Bylaw, agreement, vote of stockholders or disinterested directors or otherwise.

D. Insurance. The Corporation may maintain insurance, at its expense, to protect itself and any indemnitee against any expense, liability or loss, whether or not the Corporation would have the power to indemnify such person against such expense, liability or loss under the New Mexico Business Corporation Act.

E. Indemnity of Employees and Agents of the Corporation. The Corporation may, to the extent authorized from time to time by the Board of Directors, grant rights to indemnification and to the advancement of expenses to any employee or agent of the Corporation to the fullest extent of the provisions of this Article or as otherwise permitted under the New Mexico Business Corporation Act with respect to the indemnification and advancement of expenses of directors and officers of the Corporation.

SAN MIGUEL HOSPITAL CORPORATION

ARTICLE I

OFFICES

Section 1.1 Registered Office. The registered office shall be in the City of Santa Fe, County of Santa Fe, New Mexico.

Section 1.2 Other Offices. The corporation may also have offices at such other places both within and without the State of New Mexico as the board of directors may from time to time determine or the business of the corporation may require.

ARTICLE II

MEETINGS OF SHAREHOLDERS

Section 2.1 Annual Meeting. An annual meeting of shareholders of the corporation shall be held on such date and at such time as shall be designated from time to time by the board of directors and stated in the notice of the meeting. At such meeting, the shareholders shall elect directors and transact such other business as may properly be brought before the meeting.

Section 2.2 Special Meetings. Special meetings of the shareholders for any purpose whatsoever may be called at any time by the president, the board of directors, or the holders of not less than ten percent of all shares entitled to vote at such meeting.

Section 2.3 Place of Meetings. All meetings of shareholders for any purpose or purposes may be held at such places, within or without the State of New Mexico, as may from time to time be fixed by the board of directors or as shall be stated in the notice of the meeting or in a duly executed waiver of notice thereof.

Section 2.4 Notice. Written notice stating the place, day and hour of the meeting and, in the case of a special meeting, the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is called, shall be given not less than ten nor more than sixty days before the date of the meeting, either personally or by mail.

Section 2.5 Quorum of Shareholders. The holders of a majority of the shares issued and outstanding and entitled to vote at such meeting, present in person or represented by proxy shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at all meetings of the shareholders.

Section 2.6 Voting of Shares. Except as otherwise provided by statute or the articles of incorporation, each holder of record of shares of stock of the Corporation having voting power shall be entitled at each meeting of the shareholders to one vote for every share of such stock standing in his or her name on the record books of shareholders of the corporation on the date on which such notice of the meeting is mailed, unless some other day is fixed by the board of directors for the determination of shareholders of record.

Section 2.7 Voting List. The officer who has charge of the stock transfer books for shares of the corporation shall prepare at least ten days before every meeting of shareholders, a complete list of the shareholders entitled to vote at such meeting, arranged in alphabetical order, including the address of each shareholder and the number of voting shares held by each shareholder. For a period of ten days prior to such meeting, such list shall be kept open to the examination of any shareholder, for any purpose germane to the meeting, during ordinary business hours, either at a place within the city where the meeting is to be held and which place shall be specified in the notice of the meeting, or, if not so specified, at the place where said meeting is to be held. Such list shall be produced at such meeting and at all times during such meeting shall be subject to inspection by any shareholder. The original stock transfer books shall be prima facie evidence as to who are the shareholders entitled to examine such list or stock transfer books.

Section 2.8 Treasury Stock. The corporation shall not vote, directly or indirectly, shares of its own stock owned by it and such shares shall not be counted for quorum purposes.

Section 2.9 Consent of Shareholders in Lieu of Meeting. Whenever the vote of shareholders at a meeting thereof is required or permitted to be taken for or in connection with any corporate action, the meeting, the notice thereof, and the vote of shareholders can be dispensed with, if a consent in writing, setting forth the action so taken, shall be signed by the holders of stock having not less than the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to authorize or take such action at a meeting at which all shares entitled to vote thereof were present and voted, provided that prompt notice must be given to all shareholders of the taking of corporate action without a meeting by less than unanimous written consent.

Section 2.10 Minutes of Meetings. The secretary of the corporation shall keep regular minutes of all meetings of shareholders and such minutes shall be placed in the minute book of the corporation.

ARTICLE III

DIRECTORS

Section 3.1 Powers of Directors. The business and affairs of the corporation shall be managed by its board of directors which shall have and may exercise all such powers of the corporation, subject to the restrictions imposed by law, the articles of incorporation, or these bylaws.

Section 3.2 Number and Qualification. The number of directors which shall constitute the entire board of directors shall be determined by resolution of the Board of Directors at any meeting thereof or by the Shareholders at any meeting thereof. Directors need not be residents of New Mexico or Shareholders of the corporation.

Section 3.3 Election and Term of Office. The directors shall be elected annually by the shareholders, except as provided in Section 3.4 of these bylaws. Each director shall hold office until the next succeeding annual meeting of shareholders and until his or her successor shall have been elected or until his or her earlier death, resignation, or removal. The board of directors may, by resolution, appoint one of its members as chairman to preside over meetings of the board of directors. The position of chairman of the board of directors shall not be an office of the corporation.

Section 3.4 Vacancies. Any vacancy occurring in the board of directors by reason of death, resignation, or removal may be filled by affirmative vote of a majority of the remaining directors, although less than a quorum of the board of directors. Such vacancy may also be filled by affirmative vote of the majority of the shareholders. A director elected to fill a vacancy shall be elected for the unexpired term of his or her predecessor in office or until his or her death, resignation, retirement, disqualification, or removal.

Section 3.5 Resignation of Directors. Any director may resign from office at any time by delivering a written resignation to the secretary of the corporation, and such resignation shall be effective upon delivery of such resignation to the secretary.

Section 3.6 Removal of Directors. Any director may be removed with or without cause at any time by the shareholders.

Section 3.7 Place of Meetings. Regular or special meetings of the board of directors may be held either within or without the State of New Mexico.

Section 3.8 Regular Meetings. Regular meetings of the board of directors may be held without notice at such times and places as may be designated from time to time as may be determined by the board of directors.

Section 3.9 Special Meetings. Special meetings of the board of directors may be called by the president or any director on twenty-four (24) hours notice to each director, either personally or by telephone, mail, telegram or other means of telecommunications. Neither the business to be transacted at, nor the purpose of, any special meeting of the board of directors need be specified in the notice or waiver of notice of any special meeting.

Section 3.10 Quorum of Directors. At all meetings of the board of directors, a majority of the directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business and the act or a majority of the directors present at any meeting at which there is a quorum shall be an act of the board of directors. If a quorum is not present at a meeting, a majority of the directors present may adjourn the meeting from time to time, without notice other than an announcement at the meeting, until a quorum is present.

Section 3.11 Committees. The board of directors may, by resolution passed by a majority of the entire board, designate one or more committees, including, if they shall so determine, an executive committee, each such committee to consist of one or more of the directors of the corporation. Any such designated committee shall have and may exercise such of the powers and authority of the board of directors in the management of the business and affairs of the corporation as may be provided in such resolution, except that no such committee shall have the power or authority of the board of directors in reference to amending the articles of incorporation, adopting an agreement of merger or consolidation, recommending to the shareholders the sale, lease or exchange of all or substantially all of the corporation's property and assets, recommending to the shareholders a dissolution of the corporation or a revocation of a dissolution of the corporation, or amending, altering or repealing the bylaws or adopting new bylaws for the corporation and, unless such resolution or the articles of incorporation expressly so provides, no such committee shall have the power or authority to authorize the issuance of stock. The board of directors shall have the power at any time to change the number and members of any such committee, to fill vacancies and to discharge any such committee.

Section 3.12 Compensation of Directors. Persons serving as directors shall not receive any compensation for their services as directors; however, a director shall be entitled to reimbursement for reasonable and customary expenses incurred by such director in carrying out his duties as approved by the president of the corporation.

Section 3.13 Action by Unanimous Written Consent. Any action required or permitted to be taken at a meeting of the board of directors or any committee may be taken without a meeting if a consent in writing, setting forth the actions so taken, is signed by all of the members of the board of directors or such committee, as the case may be.

Section 3.14 Minutes of Meetings. The board of directors shall keep regular minutes of its proceedings and such minutes shall be placed in the minute book of the corporation. Committees of the board of directors shall maintain a separate record of the minutes of their proceedings.

ARTICLE IV

NOTICES AND TELEPHONE MEETINGS

Section 4.1 Notice. Any notice to directors or shareholders shall be in writing and shall be delivered personally or by mail, telegram, telex, cable, telecopier or similar means to the directors or shareholders at their respective addresses appearing on the books of the corporation. Notice by mail shall be deemed to be given at the time when the same shall be deposited in the United States mail, postage prepaid. Any notice required or permitted to be given by telegram, telex, cable, telecopier, or similar means shall be deemed to be delivered and given at the time transmitted.

Section 4.2 Waiver of Notice. Whenever by law, the articles of incorporation, or these bylaws, notice is required to be given to any shareholder, director, or committee member of the corporation, a waiver thereof in writing signed by the person or persons entitled to such notice, whether before or after the time notice should have been given, shall be equivalent to the giving of such notice. Attendance of a director at a meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting, except where a director attends a meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business on the ground that the meeting is not lawfully called or convened.

Section 4.3 Telephone and Similar Meetings. Shareholders, directors, or committee members may participate in and hold a meeting by means of a conference telephone or similar communications equipment by means of which persons participating in the meeting can hear each other. Participation in such a meeting shall constitute presence in person at such meeting, except where a person participates in the meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business on the ground that the meeting is not lawfully called or convened.

ARTICLE V

OFFICERS

Section 5.1 Officers. The corporation shall have a president and a secretary and such other officers and assistant officers as the board may deem desirable to conduct the affairs of the corporation. The position of chairman of the board of directors shall not be an office of the corporation. Any two or more offices may be held by the same person. No officer need be a shareholder or a director.

Section 5.2 Powers and Duties of Officers. The officers of the corporation shall have the powers and duties generally ascribed to the respective offices, and such additional authority or duty as may from time to time be established by the board of directors.

Section 5.3 Removal and Resignation. Any officer appointed by the board of directors may be removed by the board of directors whenever, in the judgment of the board of directors, the best interests of the corporation will be served thereby. Any officer may resign at any time by giving written notice to the corporation. Any such resignation shall take effect at the date of receipt of such notice or at a later time specified therein, and unless otherwise specified therein, the acceptance of such resignation shall not be necessary to make it effective.

Section 5.4 Term and Vacancies. The officers of the corporation shall hold office until their successors are elected or appointed, or until their death, resignation, or removal from office. Any vacancy occurring in any office of the corporation by death, resignation, removal, or otherwise, may be filled by the board of directors.

Section 5.5 Compensation. The salaries of all officers of the corporation shall be fixed by the board of directors. The board of directors shall have the power to enter into contracts for the employment and compensation of officers on such terms as the board of directors deems advisable. No officer shall be disqualified from receiving a salary or other compensation by reason of the fact that he or she is also a director of the corporation.

ARTICLE VI

CERTIFICATES AND SHAREHOLDERS

Section 6.1 Certificates for Shares. The certificates for shares of stock of the Corporation shall be in such form as shall be approved by the board of directors in conformity with law and the articles of incorporation. Every certificate for shares issued by the corporation must be signed by the President or a Vice President and the Secretary or an Assistant Secretary under the seal of the corporation. Any or all of the signatures on the face of the certificate may be facsimile. Such certificates shall bear a legend or legends in the form and containing the restrictions to be stated thereon by the New Mexico Business Corporation Act, other provisions of law, the articles of incorporation or these bylaws. Certificates shall be consecutively numbered and shall be entered as they are issued. Each certificate shall state on the face thereof the holder's name, the number and class of shares, the par value of such shares, and such other matters as may be required by law, the articles of incorporation or these bylaws.

Section 6.2 Lost, Stolen, or Destroyed Certificates. The board of directors, the executive committee, or the president of the corporation may direct a new certificate or certificates representing shares to be issued in place of any certificate or certificates theretofore issued by the corporation alleged to have been lost, stolen, or destroyed, upon the making of an affidavit of the fact by the person claiming the certificate or certificates to be lost, stolen, or destroyed. When authorizing such issue of a new certificate the board of directors, the executive committee or the president may require the owner of such lost, stolen, or destroyed certificate, or his or her legal representative, to advertise the same in such manner as it or he or she shall require and/or give the corporation a bond in such sum as it may direct as indemnity against any claim that may be made against the corporation with respect to the certificate alleged to have been lost, stolen or destroyed.

Section 6.3 Transfer of Shares. Shares of stock of the corporation shall be transferable only on the books of the corporation by the holder thereof in person or by the holder's duly authorized attorneys or legal representatives. Upon surrender to the corporation or the transfer agent of the corporation of a certificate representing shares duly endorsed or accompanied by proper evidence of succession, assignment, or authority to transfer, the corporation or its transfer agent shall issue a new certificate to the person entitled thereto, cancel the old certificate, and record the transaction upon its books.

Section 6.4 Registered Shareholders. The corporation shall be entitled to recognize the exclusive right of a person registered on its books as the owner of shares to receive dividends, and to vote as such owner, and to hold liable for calls and assessments, a person registered on its books as the owner of shares, and shall not be bound to recognize any equitable or other claim to or interest in such shares on the part of any person, whether or not it shall have actual or other notice thereof, except as otherwise provided by law.

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

Section 7.1 Dividends. Dividends upon the outstanding shares of the corporation, subject to the provisions of the applicable statutes and of the articles of incorporation, may be declared by the board of directors at any annual, regular or special meeting. Dividends may be declared and paid in cash, in property, or in shares of the corporation, or in any combination thereof.

Section 7.2 Reserves. There may be set aside out of any funds of the corporation available for dividends such sum or sums as the board of directors from time to time in their sole and absolute discretion think proper as a reserve to meet contingencies, or to equalize dividends, or to repair or maintain any property of the corporation, or for such other purpose as the board of directors shall think conducive to the interest of the corporation, and the board of directors may modify or abolish any such reserve in the manner in which it was created.

Section 7.3 Signature of Negotiable Instruments. All checks or demands for money and notes of the corporation shall be signed by such officer or officers or such other person or persons as the board of directors may from time to time designate.

Section 7.4 Fiscal Year. The fiscal year of the corporation shall be fixed by the board of directors; provided, that if such fiscal year is not fixed by the board of directors it shall be the calendar year.

Section 7.5 Books of the Corporation. The books of the corporation may be kept, subject to the provisions of the applicable statutes, within or outside of the State of New Mexico, at such place or places as may from time to time be designated by the board of directors or as the business of the corporation may require.

Section 7.6 Seal. The seal, if any, of the corporation shall be in such form as may be approved from time to time by the board of directors. If the board of directors approves a seal, the affixation of such seal shall not be required to create a valid and binding obligation against the corporation.

Section 7.7 Securities of Other Corporations. Unless otherwise ordered by the board of directors, the president or the secretary of the corporation shall have full power and authority on behalf of the corporation to attend, to vote and to grant proxies to be used at any meeting of shareholders of such other corporation in which the corporation may hold stock. The board of directors may confer like powers upon any other person or persons.

Section 7.8 Fixed Record Date. In order that the corporation may determine the shareholders entitled to notice of or to vote at any meeting of shareholders or any adjournment thereof, or to express consent to corporate action in writing without a meeting, or entitled to receive payment of any dividend or other distribution or allotment of any rights, or entitled to exercise any rights in respect of any change, conversion or exchange of stock for the purpose of any other lawful action, the board of directors may fix, in advance, a record date which shall be not more than sixty 60 days before the date of such meeting, nor more than 60 days prior to any other action.

Section 7.9 Amendment. The power to alter, amend, or repeal these bylaws or to adopt new bylaws is vested in the board of directors.

Section 7.10 Right to Indemnification.

(A) Each person (hereinafter an "indemnitee") who was or is made a party to or is threatened to be made a party to or is otherwise involved in any action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (hereinafter a "proceeding"), by reason of the fact that he or she was a director, officer or agent of the corporation or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation or of a partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, including service with respect to an employee benefit plan, whether the basis of such proceeding is alleged action in an official capacity as a director, officer, employee or agent, shall be indemnified and held harmless by the corporation to the fullest extent authorized by the New Mexico Business Corporation Act, as the same exists or may hereafter be amended (but, in the case of any such amendment, only to the extent that such amendment permits the corporation to provide broader indemnification rights than permitted prior thereto), against all expense, liability and loss (including attorney's fees, judgments, fines, ERISA excise taxes or penalties and amounts paid in settlement) reasonably incurred or suffered by such indemnitee in connection therewith, and such indemnification shall continue with respect to an indemnitee who has ceased to be a director, officer, employee or agent and shall inure to the benefit of the indemnitee's heirs, executors and administrators; provided, however, that, except as provided in paragraph (B) hereof with respect to proceedings to enforce rights to indemnification, the corporation shall indemnify any such indemnitee only if such proceeding (or part thereof) was authorized by the board of directors of the corporation. The right to indemnification conferred in this section shall be a contract right and shall include the right to be paid by the corporation the expenses incurred in defending any such proceeding in advance of its final disposition (hereinafter an “advancement of expenses”); provided, however, that, if the New Mexico Business Corporation Act requires, an advancement of expenses incurred by an indemnitee shall be made only upon delivery to the corporation of an undertaking (hereinafter an “undertaking”), by or on behalf of such indemnitee, to repay all amounts so advanced if it shall ultimately be determined by final judicial decision from which there is no further right to appeal (hereinafter a “final adjudication”) that such indemnitee is not entitled to be indemnified for such expenses under this section or otherwise.

(B) If a claim under paragraph (A) of this section is not paid in full by the corporation within 60 days after a written claim has been received by the corporation, except in the case of a claim for an advancement of expenses, in which case the applicable period shall be 20 days, the indemnitee may at any time thereafter bring suit against the corporation to recover the unpaid amount of such suit, or in a suit brought by the corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking, the indemnitee shall be entitled to be paid also the expense of prosecuting or defending such suit. In (i) any suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right to indemnification hereunder (but not in a suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right to an advancement of expenses) it shall be a defense that, and (ii) any suit by the corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking the corporation shall be entitled to recover such expenses upon a final adjudication that, the indemnitee has not met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in the New Mexico Business Corporation Act. Neither the failure of the corporation (including its board of directors, independent legal counsel, or its shareholders) to have made a determination prior to the commencement of such suit that indemnification of the indemnitee is proper in the circumstances because the indemnitee has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in the New Mexico Business Corporation Act, nor an actual determination by the corporation (including its board of directors, independent legal counsel, or its shareholders) that the indemnitee has not met such applicable standard of conduct shall create a presumption that the indemnitee has not met the applicable standard of conduct or, in the case of such a suit brought by the indemnitee, be a defense of such suit. In any suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right of indemnification or to an advancement of expenses hereunder, or by the corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking, the burden of proving that the indemnitee is not entitled to be indemnified, or to such advancement of expenses, under this section or otherwise shall be on the corporation.

(C) The rights to indemnification and to the advancement of expenses conferred in this section shall not be exclusive of any other right which any person may have or hereafter acquire under any statute, the corporation’s certificate of incorporation, by agreement, by vote of shareholders or by disinterested directors or otherwise.

(D) The corporation may maintain insurance, at its expense, to protect itself and any director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation or another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise against any expense, liability or loss, whether or not the corporation would have the power to indemnify such person against such expense, liability or loss under the New Mexico Business Corporation Act.

Section 7.11 Invalid Provisions. If any provision of these bylaws is held to be illegal, invalid, or unenforceable under present or future laws, such provision shall be fully severable; these bylaws shall be construed and enforced as if such illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision had never comprised a part hereof; and the remaining provisions hereof shall remain in full force and effect and shall not be affected by the illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision or by its severance herefrom. Furthermore, in lieu of such illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision there shall be added automatically as a part of these bylaws a provision as similar in terms to such illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision as may be possible and be legal, valid, and enforceable.

Section 7.12 Headings. The headings used in these bylaws are for reference purposes only and do not affect in any way the meaning or interpretation of these bylaws.

The above bylaws were duly adopted as the bylaws of the corporation effective as of the 8th day of September, 1999.

CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION

CHS HOLDINGS CORP.

UNDER SECTION 402 OF THE BUSINESS CORPORATION LAW

THE UNDERSIGNED, being of the age of eighteen years or over, for the purpose of forming a corporation pursuant to Section 402 of the Business Corporation Law of the State of New York, hereby certifies:

FIRST: The name of the Corporation is CHS Holdings Corp.

SECOND: The purpose for which the Corporation is formed is to engage in any lawful act or activity for which corporations may be organized under the New York Business Corporation Law. The Corporation is not formed to engage in any act or activity requiring the consent or approval of any official, department, board, agency or other body of the State of New York without such consent or approval first being obtained.

THIRD: The office of the Corporation is to be located in the City of New York, County of New York, State of New York.

FOURTH: The aggregate number of shares which the Corporation shall have authority to issue shall be 1,000 shares, par value $.01 per share, all of which are to be of the same class and all of which are to be designated common shares.

1. Dividends. The holders of shares of Common Stock shall be entitled to receive, when and if declared by the Board of Directors, out of the assets of the Corporation which are by law available therefor, dividends payable either in cash, in property or in shares of Common Stock.

2. Voting Rights. At every annual or special meeting of shareholders of the Corporation, every holder of Common Stock shall be entitled to one vote, in person or by proxy, for each share of Common Stock standing in his name on the books of the Corporation in the election of directors and upon all other matters.

3. Dissolution, Liquidation or Winding Up. In the event of any dissolution, liquidation or winding up of the affairs of the Corporation, after payment or provision for payment of the debts and other liabilities of the Corporation, the holders of all outstanding shares of Common Stock shall be entitled to share ratably in the remaining net assets of the Corporation.

FIFTH: No shareholder of the Corporation shall, by reason of his holding shares of any class, have any preemptive or preferential right to purchase or subscribe to any shares of any class of the Corporation, now or hereafter to be authorized, or any other securities convertible into or carrying rights or options to purchase shares of any class, now or hereafter to be authorized, whether or not the issuance of any such shares or the issuance of shares upon exercise of any rights or options or upon conversion of such other securities would adversely affect the dividend or voting rights of such shareholder. The Board of Directors may issue, and grant rights or options to purchase, shares of any class of the Corporation, now or hereafter to be authorized, or any other securities convertible into or carrying rights or options to purchase shares of any class, now or hereafter to be authorized, without offering any such shares or other securities, either in whole or in part, to the shareholders of any class.

SIXTH: The Secretary of State is designated as the agent of the Corporation upon whom process against the Corporation may be served. The address to which the Secretary of State shall mail a copy of any process against the Corporation served upon him is c/o Fried, Frank, Harris, Shriver & Jacobson, One New York Plaza, New York, New York 10004, Attn: F. BY-LAWS
CHS HOLDINGS CORP.

OFFICES

- 1.1 PRINCIPAL OFFICE. The principal office of the Corporation within the State of New York shall be in the City of New York, County of New York.
- 1.2 OTHER OFFICES. The Corporation may also have an office or offices other than said principal office at such place or places, either within or without the State of New York, as the Board of Directors shall from time to time determine or the business of the Corporation may require.

MEETINGS OF SHAREHOLDERS

- 2.1 PLACE OF MEETINGS. All meetings of the shareholders for the election of directors or for any other purpose shall be held at such place as may be fixed from time to time by the Board of Directors, or at such other place, either within or without the State of New York, as shall be designated from time to time by the Board of Directors.
- 2.2 ANNUAL MEETING. The annual meeting of the shareholders of the Corporation for the election of directors and for the transaction of such other business as may properly come before the meeting, commencing with the year 1997, shall be held at such date and time as shall be designated from time to time by the Board of Directors.
- 2.3 SPECIAL MEETINGS. Special meetings of the shareholders, unless otherwise prescribed by statute, may be called at any time by the Board of Directors or the Chairman of the Board, if one shall have been elected, or the President.
- 2.4 NOTICE OF MEETINGS. Notice of the place, date and hour of holding of each annual and special meeting of the shareholders and, unless it is the annual meeting, the purpose or purposes thereof, shall be given personally or by mail in a postage prepaid envelope, not less than ten (10) nor more than sixty (60) days before the date of such meeting, to each shareholder entitled to vote at such meeting, and, if mailed, it shall be directed to such shareholder at his address as it appears on the record of shareholders, unless he shall have filed with the Secretary of the Corporation a written request that notices to him be mailed at some other address, in which case it shall be directed to him at such other address. Any such notice for any meeting other than the annual meeting shall indicate that it is being issued at the direction of the Board of Directors, the Chairman of the Board, or the President, whichever shall have called the meeting. Notice of any meeting of shareholders shall not be required to be given to any shareholder who shall attend such meeting in person or by proxy and shall not, prior to the conclusion of such meeting, protest the lack of notice thereof, or who shall, either before or after the meeting, submit a signed waiver of notice, in person or by proxy. Unless the Board of Directors shall fix a new record date for an adjourned meeting, notice of such adjourned meeting need not be given if the time and place to which the meeting shall be adjourned were announced at the meeting at which the adjournment is taken.

2.5 QUORUM. At all meetings of the shareholders the holders of a majority of the shares of the Corporation issued and outstanding and entitled to vote thereat shall be present in person or by proxy to constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, except as otherwise provided by statute. In the absence of a quorum, the holders of a majority of the shares present in person or by proxy and entitled to vote may adjourn the meeting from time to time. At any such adjourned meeting at which a quorum may be present any business may be transacted which might have been transacted at the meeting as originally called.

2.6 ORGANIZATION. At each meeting of the shareholders, the Chairman of the Board, if one shall have been elected, or in his absence or if one shall not have been elected the President, shall act as chairman of the meeting. The Secretary, or in his absence or inability to act the person whom the chairman of the meeting shall appoint secretary of the meeting, shall act as secretary of the meeting and keep the minutes thereof.

2.7 ORDER OF BUSINESS. The order of business at all meetings of the shareholders shall be as determined by the chairman of the meeting.

2.8 VOTING. Except as otherwise provided by statute or the Certificate of Incorporation, each holder of record of shares of the Corporation having voting power shall be entitled at each meeting of the shareholders to one vote for each share standing in his name on the record of shareholders of the Corporation:

(a) on the date fixed pursuant to the provisions of Section 5.6 of these By-Laws as the record date for the determination of the shareholders who shall be entitled to notice of and to vote at such meeting; or

(b) if no such record date shall have been so fixed, then at the close of business on the day next preceding the day on which notice thereof shall be given.

Each shareholder entitled to vote at any meeting of the shareholders may authorize another person or persons to act for him by a proxy signed by such shareholder or his attorney-in-fact. Any such proxy shall be delivered to the secretary of such meeting at or prior to the time designated in the order of business for so delivering such proxies. Except as otherwise provided by statute or the Certificate of Incorporation or these By-Laws, any corporate action to be taken by vote of the shareholders shall be authorized by a majority of the votes cast at a meeting of shareholders by the holders of shares present in person or represented by proxy and entitled to vote on such action. Unless required by statute, or determined by the chairman of the meeting to be advisable, the vote on any question need not be by ballot. On a vote by ballot, each ballot shall be signed by the shareholder voting, or by his proxy, if there be such proxy, and shall state the number of shares voted.

2.9 LIST OF SHAREHOLDERS. A list of shareholders as of the record date, certified by the Secretary of the Corporation or by the transfer agent for the Corporation, shall be produced at any meeting of the shareholders upon the request of any shareholder made at or prior to such meeting.

2.10 INSPECTORS. The Board of Directors may, in advance of any meeting of shareholders, appoint one or more inspectors to act at such meeting or any adjournment thereof. If any of the inspectors so appointed shall fail to appear or act or on the request of any shareholder entitled to vote at such meeting, the chairman of the meeting shall, or if inspectors shall not have been appointed the chairman of the meeting may, appoint one or more inspectors. Each inspector, before entering upon the discharge of his duties, shall take and sign an oath faithfully to execute the duties of inspector at such meeting with strict impartiality and according to the best of his ability. The inspectors shall determine the number of shares outstanding and the voting power of each, the number of shares represented at the meeting, the existence of a quorum, the validity and effect of proxies, and shall receive votes, ballots or consents, hear and determine all challenges and questions arising in connection with the right to vote, count and tabulate all votes, ballots or consents, determine the results, and do such acts as are proper to conduct the election or vote with fairness to all shareholders. On request of the chairman of the meeting or any shareholder entitled to vote thereat, the inspectors shall make a report in writing of any challenge, request or matter determined by them and shall execute a certificate of any fact found by them. No director or candidate for the office of director shall act as an inspector of an election of directors. Inspectors need not be shareholders.

2.11 ACTION BY CONSENT. Whenever shareholders are required or permitted to take any action by vote, such action may be taken without a meeting on written consent, setting forth the action so taken signed by the holders of all outstanding shares of the Corporation entitled to vote thereon.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

3.1 GENERAL POWERS. The business and affairs of the Corporation shall be managed under the direction of the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors may exercise all such authority and powers of the Corporation and do all such lawful acts and things as are not by statute or the Certificate of Incorporation directed or required to be exercised or done by the shareholders.

3.2 NUMBER, QUALIFICATIONS, ELECTION AND TERM OF OFFICE. The number of directors constituting the initial Board of Directors shall be two. Thereafter, the number of directors may be fixed, from time to time, by the affirmative vote of a majority of the entire Board of Directors or by action of the shareholders of the Corporation; provided, however, that the number of directors shall not be less than three, except that when all the shares of the Corporation are owned beneficially by less than three shareholders, the number of directors may be less than three but not less than the number of shareholders. Any decrease in the number of directors shall be effective at the time of the next succeeding annual meeting of the shareholders unless there shall be vacancies in the Board of Directors, in which case such decrease may become effective at any time prior to the next succeeding annual meeting to the extent of the number of such vacancies. All the directors shall be at least eighteen (18) years of age. Directors need not be shareholders. Except as otherwise provided by statute or these By-Laws, the directors (other than members of the initial Board of Directors) shall be elected at the annual meeting of the shareholders. At each meeting of the shareholders for the election of directors at which a quorum is present the persons receiving a plurality of the votes cast at such election shall be elected. Each director shall hold office until the next annual meeting of the shareholders and until his successor shall have been elected and qualified, or until his death, or until he shall have resigned, or have been removed, as hereinafter provided in these By-Laws.

3.3 PLACE OF MEETINGS. Meetings of the Board of Directors shall be held at the principal office of the Corporation in the State of New York or at such other place, within or without such State, as the Board of Directors may from time to time determine or as shall be specified in the notice of any such meeting.

3.4 FIRST MEETING. The Board of Directors shall meet for the purpose of organization, the election of officers and the transaction of other business, as soon as practicable after each annual meeting of the shareholders, on the same day and at the same place where such annual meeting shall be held. Notice of such meeting need not be given. Such meeting may be held at any other time or place (within or without the State of New York) which shall be specified in a notice thereof given as hereinafter provided in Section 3.7.

3.5 REGULAR MEETINGS. Regular meetings of the Board of Directors shall be held at such time and place as the Board of Directors may fix. Notice of regular meetings of the Board of Directors need not be given except as otherwise required by statute or these By-Laws.

3.6 SPECIAL MEETINGS. Special meetings of the Board of Directors may be called by the Chairman of the Board, if one shall have been elected, or by two or more directors of the Corporation or by the President.

3.7 NOTICE OF MEETINGS. Notice of each special meeting of the Board of Directors (and of each regular meeting for which notice shall be required) shall be given by the Secretary as hereinafter provided in this Section 3.7, in which notice shall be stated the time and place of the meeting. Except as otherwise required by these By-Laws, such notice need not state the purposes of such meeting. Notice of each such meeting shall be mailed, postage prepaid, to each director, addressed to him at his residence or usual place of business, by first-class mail, at least two days before the day on which such meeting is to be held, or shall be sent addressed to him at such place by telegraph, cable, telex, telecopier or other similar means, or be delivered to him personally or be given to him by telephone, or other similar means, at least twenty-four hours before the time at which such meeting is to be held. Notice of any such meeting need not be given to any director who shall, either before or after the meeting, submit a signed waiver of notice or who shall attend such meeting without protesting, prior to or at its commencement, the lack of notice to him.

3.8 QUORUM AND MANNER OF ACTING. A majority of the entire Board of Directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at any meeting of the Board of Directors, and, except as otherwise expressly required by statute or the Certificate of Incorporation or these By-Laws, the act of a majority of the directors present at any meeting at which a quorum is present shall be the act of the Board of Directors. In the absence of a quorum at any meeting of the Board of Directors, a majority of the directors present thereat may adjourn such meeting to another time and place. Notice of the time and place of any such adjourned meeting shall be given to the directors unless such time and place were announced at the meeting at which the adjournment was taken, to the other directors. At any adjourned meeting at which a quorum is present, any business may be transacted which might have been transacted at the meeting as originally called. The directors shall act only as a Board and the individual directors shall have no power as such.

3.9 ORGANIZATION. At each meeting of the Board of Directors, the Chairman of the Board, if one shall have been elected, or, in the absence of the Chairman of the Board or if one shall not have been elected, the President (or, in his absence, another director chosen by a majority of the directors present) shall act as chairman of the meeting and preside thereat. The Secretary (or, in his absence, any person who shall be an Assistant Secretary, if any of them shall be present at such meeting and appointed by the chairman) shall act as secretary of the meeting and keep the minutes thereof.

3.10 RESIGNATIONS. Any director of the Corporation may resign at any time by giving written notice of his resignation to the Board of Directors or the Chairman of the Board or the President or the Secretary. Any such resignation shall take effect at the time specified therein or, if the time when it shall become effective shall not be specified therein, immediately upon its receipt. Unless otherwise specified therein, the acceptance of such resignation shall not be necessary to make it effective.

3.11 VACANCIES. Subject to any express provision of the Certificate of Incorporation, any vacancy in the Board of Directors, whether arising from death, resignation, removal (with or without cause), an increase in the number of directors or any other cause, may be filled by the vote of a majority of the directors then in office, though less than a quorum, or by the shareholders at the next annual meeting thereof or at a special meeting thereof. Each director so elected shall hold office until the next meeting of the shareholders in which the election of directors is in the regular order of business and until his successor shall have been elected and qualified.

3.12 REMOVAL OF DIRECTORS. Except as otherwise provided by statute, any director may be removed, either with or without cause, at any time, by the shareholders at a special meeting thereof. Except as otherwise provided by statute, any director may be removed for cause by the Board of Directors at a special meeting thereof.

3.13 COMPENSATION. The Board of Directors shall have authority to fix the compensation, including fees and reimbursement of expenses, of directors for services to the Corporation in any capacity.

3.14 COMMITTEES. The Board of Directors may, by resolution passed by a majority of the entire Board of Directors, designate one or more committees, including an executive committee, each committee to consist of one or more of the directors of the Corporation. The Board of Directors may designate one or more directors as alternate members of any committee, who may replace any absent member at any meeting of the committee. Except to the extent restricted by statute or the Certificate of Incorporation, each such committee, to the extent provided in the resolution creating it, shall have and may exercise all the authority of the Board of Directors. Each such committee shall serve at the pleasure of the Board of Directors and have such name as may be determined from time to time by resolution adopted by the Board of Directors. Each committee shall keep regular minutes of its meetings and report the same to the Board of Directors.

3.15 ACTION BY CONSENT. Unless restricted by the Certificate of Incorporation, any action required or permitted to be taken by the Board of Directors or any committee thereof may be taken without a meeting if all members of the Board of Directors or such committee consent in writing to the adoption of a resolution authorizing the action. The resolution and the written consents thereto by the members of the Board of Directors or such committee shall be filed with the minutes of the proceedings of the Board of Directors or such committee.

3.16 TELEPHONIC MEETING. Unless restricted by the Certificate of Incorporation, any one or more members of the Board of Directors or any committee thereof may participate in a meeting of the Board of Directors or such committee by means of a conference telephone or similar communications equipment allowing all persons participating in the meeting to hear each other at the same time. Participation by such means shall constitute presence in person at a meeting.

ARTICLE 4 OFFICERS

4.1 NUMBER AND QUALIFICATIONS. The officers of the Corporation shall be elected by the Board of Directors and shall include the President, one or more Vice-Presidents, the Secretary, and the Treasurer. If the Board of Directors wishes, it may also elect as an officer of the Corporation a Chairman of the Board and may elect other officers (including one or more Assistant Treasurers and one or more Assistant Secretaries), as may be necessary or desirable for the business of the Corporation. Any two or more offices may be held by the same person, except the offices of President and Secretary; provided, however, that such two offices may be held by the same person if all of the outstanding shares of the Corporation are owned by such person. Each officer shall hold office until the first meeting of the Board of Directors following the next annual meeting of the shareholders, and until his successor shall have been elected and shall have qualified, or until his death, or until he shall have resigned or have been removed, as hereinafter provided in these By-Laws.

4.2 RESIGNATIONS. Any officer of the Corporation may resign at any time by giving written notice of his resignation to the Board of Directors or the Chairman of the Board or the President or the Secretary. Any such resignation shall take effect at the time specified therein or, if the time when it shall become effective shall not be specified therein, immediately upon its receipt. Unless otherwise specified therein, the acceptance of any such resignation shall not be necessary to make it effective.

4.3 REMOVAL. Any officer of the Corporation may be removed, either with or without cause, at any time, by the Board of Directors at any meeting thereof.

4.4 CHAIRMAN OF THE BOARD. The Chairman of the Board, if one shall have been elected, shall be a member of the Board, an officer of the Corporation and, if present, shall preside at each meeting of the Board of Directors or the shareholders. He shall advise and counsel with the President, and in his absence with other executives of the Corporation, and shall perform such other duties as may from time to time be assigned to him by the Board of Directors.

4.5 THE PRESIDENT. The President shall be the chief executive officer of the Corporation. He shall, in the absence of the Chairman of the Board or if a Chairman of the Board shall not have been elected, preside at each meeting of the Board of Directors or the shareholders. He shall perform all duties incident to the office of President and chief executive officer and such other duties as may from time to time be assigned to him by the Board of Directors.

4.6 VICE-PRESIDENT. Each Vice-President shall perform all such duties as from time to time may be assigned to him by the Board of Directors or the President. At the request of the President or in his absence or in the event of his inability or refusal to act, the Vice-President, or if there shall be more than one, the Vice-Presidents in the order determined by the Board of Directors (or if there be no such determination, then the Vice-Presidents in the order of their election), shall perform the duties of the President, and, when so acting, shall have the powers of and be subject to the restrictions placed upon the President in respect of the performance of such duties.

4.7 TREASURER. The Treasurer shall:

- (a) have charge and custody of, and be responsible for, all the funds and securities of the Corporation;
- (b) keep full and accurate accounts of receipts and disbursements in books belonging to the Corporation;
- (c) deposit all moneys and other valuables to the credit of the Corporation in such depositaries as may be designated by the Board of Directors or pursuant to its direction;
- (d) receive, and give receipts for, moneys due and payable to the Corporation from any source whatsoever;
- (e) disburse the funds of the Corporation and supervise the investments of its funds, taking proper vouchers therefor;
- (f) render to the Board of Directors, whenever the Board of Directors may require, an account of the financial condition of the Corporation; and
- (g) in general, perform all duties incident to the office of Treasurer and such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to him by the Board of Directors.

4.8 SECRETARY. The Secretary shall:

- (a) keep or cause to be kept in one or more books provided for the purpose, the minutes of all meetings of the Board of Directors, the committees of the Board of Directors and the shareholders;

(b) see that all notices are duly given in accordance with the provisions of these By-Laws and as required by law;

(c) be custodian of the records and the seal of the Corporation and affix and attest the seal to all certificates for shares of the Corporation (unless the seal of the Corporation on such certificates shall be a facsimile, as hereinafter provided) and affix and attest the seal to all other documents to be executed on behalf of the Corporation under its seal;

(d) see that the books, reports, statements, certificates and other documents and records required by law to be kept and filed are properly kept and filed; and

(e) in general, perform all duties incident to the office of Secretary and such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to him by the Board of Directors.

4.9 THE ASSISTANT TREASURER. The Assistant Treasurer, or if there shall be more than one, the Assistant Treasurers in the order determined by the Board of Directors (or if there be no such determination, then in the order of their election), shall, in the absence of the Treasurer or in the event of his inability or refusal to act, perform the duties and exercise the powers of the Treasurer and shall perform such other duties as from time to time may be assigned by the Board of Directors.

4.10 THE ASSISTANT SECRETARY. The Assistant Secretary, or if there be more than one, the Assistant Secretaries in the order determined by the Board of Directors (or if there be no such determination, then in the order of their election), shall, in the absence of the Secretary or in the event of his inability or refusal to act, perform the duties and exercise the powers of the Secretary and shall perform such other duties as from time to time may be assigned by the Board of Directors.

4.11 OFFICERS' BONDS OR OTHER SECURITY. If required by the Board of Directors, any officer of the Corporation shall give a bond or other security for the faithful performance of his duties, in such amount and with such surety or sureties as the Board of Directors may require.

4.12 COMPENSATION. The compensation of the officers of the Corporation for their services as such officers shall be fixed from time to time by the Board of Directors. An officer of the Corporation shall not be prevented from receiving compensation by reason of the fact that he is also a director of the Corporation.

SHARES

5.1 SHARE CERTIFICATES. Each owner of shares of the Corporation shall be entitled to have a certificate, in such form as shall be approved by the Board of Directors, certifying the number of shares of the Corporation owned by him. The certificates representing shares shall be signed in the name of the Corporation by the Chairman of the Board or the President or a Vice-President and by the Secretary, an Assistant Secretary, the Treasurer or an Assistant Treasurer and sealed with the seal of the Corporation (which seal may be a facsimile, engraved or printed); provided, however, that where any such certificate is countersigned by a transfer agent, or is registered by a registrar (other than the Corporation or one of its employees), the signatures of the Chairman of the Board, President, Vice-President, Secretary, Assistant Secretary, Treasurer or Assistant Treasurer upon such certificates may be facsimiles, engraved or printed. In case any officer who shall have signed any such certificate shall have ceased to be such officer before such certificate shall be issued, it may nevertheless be issued by the Corporation with the same effect as if such officer were still in office at the date of their issue. When the Corporation is authorized to issue shares of more than one class there shall be set forth upon the face or back of the certificate, or the certificate shall have a statement that the Corporation will furnish to any shareholder upon request and without charge, a full statement of the designation, relative rights, preferences, and limitations of the shares of each class authorized to be issued and, if the Corporation is authorized to issue any class of preferred shares in series, the designation, relative rights, preferences and limitations of each such series so far as the same have been fixed and the authority of the Board of Directors to designate and fix the tentative rights, preferences and limitations of other series.

5.2 BOOKS OF ACCOUNT AND RECORD OF SHAREHOLDERS. There shall be kept correct and complete books and records of account of all the business and transactions of the Corporation. There shall also be kept, at the office of the Corporation, in the State of New York, or at the office of its transfer agent in said State, a record containing the names and addresses of all shareholders of the Corporation, the number of shares held by each, and the dates when they became the holders of record thereof.

5.3 TRANSFER OF SHARES. Transfers of shares of the Corporation shall be made on the records of the Corporation only upon authorization by the registered holder thereof, or by his attorney thereunto authorized by power of attorney duly executed and filed with the Secretary or with a transfer agent, and on surrender of the certificate or certificates for such shares properly endorsed or accompanied by a duly executed stock transfer power and the payment of all taxes thereon. The person in whose name shares shall stand on the record of shareholders of the Corporation shall be deemed the owner thereof for all purposes as regards the Corporation. Whenever any transfer of shares shall be made for collateral security and not absolutely and written notice thereof shall be given to the Secretary or to a transfer agent, such fact shall be noted on the records of the Corporation.

5.4 TRANSFER AGENTS AND REGISTRARS. The Board of Directors may appoint, or authorize any officer or officers to appoint, one or more transfer agents and one or more registrars and may require all certificates for shares of stock to bear the signature of any of them.

5.5 REGULATIONS. The Board of Directors may make such additional rules and regulations, not inconsistent with these By-Laws, as it may deem expedient concerning the issue, transfer and registration of certificates for shares of the Corporation.

5.6 FIXING OF RECORD DATE. The Board of Directors may fix, in advance, a date not less than ten (10) nor more than fifty (50) days before the date then fixed for the holding of any meeting of the shareholders or before the last day on which the consent or dissent of the shareholders may be effectively expressed for any purpose without a meeting, as the time as of which the shareholders entitled to notice of and to vote at such meeting or whose consent or dissent is required or may be expressed for any purpose, as the case may be, shall be determined, and all persons who were shareholders of record of voting shares at such time, and no others, shall be entitled to notice of and to vote at such meeting or to express their consent or dissent, as the case may be. The Board of Directors may fix, in advance, a date not less than ten (10) nor more than fifty (50) days preceding the date fixed for the payment of any dividend or the making of any distribution or the allotment of rights to subscribe for securities of the Corporation, or for the delivery of evidences of rights or evidences of interests arising out of any change, conversion or exchange of shares or other securities, as the record date for the determination of the shareholders entitled to receive any such dividend, distribution, allotment, rights or interests, and in such case only the shareholders of record at the time so fixed shall be entitled to receive such dividend, distribution, allotment, rights or interests.

5.7 LOST, DESTROYED OR MUTILATED CERTIFICATES. The holder of any certificate representing shares of the Corporation shall immediately notify the Corporation of any loss, destruction or mutilation of such certificate, and the Corporation may issue a new certificate in the place of any certificate theretofore issued by it which the owner thereof shall allege to have been lost or destroyed or which shall have been mutilated. The Board of Directors may, in its discretion, require such owner or his legal representatives to give to the Corporation a bond in such sum, limited or unlimited, and in such form and with such surety or sureties as the Board of Directors in its absolute discretion shall determine, to indemnify the Corporation against any claim that may be made against it on account of the alleged loss or destruction of any such certificate, or the issuance of such new certificate.

INDEMNIFICATION

On the terms, to the extent, and subject to the conditions prescribed by statute and by such rules and regulations, not inconsistent with statute, as the Board of Directors may in its discretion impose in general or particular cases or classes of cases, (a) the Corporation shall indemnify any person made, or threatened to be made, a party to an action or proceeding, civil or criminal, including an action by or in the right of any other corporation of any type or kind, domestic or foreign, or any partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise which any director or officer of the Corporation served in any capacity at the request of the Corporation, by reason of the fact that he, his testator or intestate, was a director or officer of the Corporation, or served such other corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise in any capacity, against judgments, fines, amounts paid in settlement and reasonable expenses, including attorneys' fees, actually and necessarily incurred as a result of such action or proceeding, or any appeal therein, and (b) the Corporation may pay, in advance of final disposition of any such action or proceeding, expenses incurred by such person in defending such action or proceeding.

On the terms, to the extent, and subject to the conditions prescribed by statute and by such rules and regulations, not inconsistent with statute, as the Board of Directors may in its discretion impose in general or particular cases or classes of cases,

(a) the Corporation shall indemnify any person made a party to an action by or in the right of the Corporation to procure a judgment in its favor, by reason of the fact that he, his testator or intestate, is or was a director or officer of the Corporation, against the reasonable expenses, including attorneys' fees, actually and necessarily incurred by him in connection with the defense of such action, or in connection with an appeal therein, and

(b) the Corporation may pay, in advance of final disposition of any such action, expenses incurred by such person in defending such action or proceeding.

GENERAL PROVISIONS

7.1 DIVIDENDS. Subject to statute and the Certificate of Incorporation, dividends upon the shares of the Corporation may be declared by the Board of Directors at any regular or special meeting. Dividends may be paid in cash, in property or in shares of the Corporation, unless otherwise provided by statute or the Certificate of Incorporation.

7.2 RESERVES. Before payment of any dividend, there may be set aside out of any funds of the Corporation available for dividends such sum or sums as the Board of Directors may, from time to time, in its absolute discretion, think proper as a reserve or reserves to meet contingencies, or for equalizing dividends, or for repairing or maintaining any property of the Corporation or for such other purpose as the Board of Directors may think conducive to the interests of the Corporation. The Board of Directors may modify or abolish any such reserves in the manner in which it was created.

7.3 SEAL. The seal of the Corporation shall be in such form as shall be approved by the Board of Directors.

7.4 FISCAL YEAR. The fiscal year of the Corporation shall be fixed, and once fixed, may thereafter be changed, by resolution of the Board of Directors.

7.5 CHECKS, NOTES, DRAFTS, ETC. All checks, notes, drafts or other orders for the payment of money of the Corporation shall be signed, endorsed or accepted in the name of the Corporation by such officer, officers, person or persons as from time to time may be designated by the Board of Directors or by an officer or officers authorized by the Board of Directors to make such designation.

7.6 EXECUTION OF CONTRACTS, DEEDS, ETC. The Board of Directors may authorize any officer or officers, agent or agents, in the name and on behalf of the Corporation to enter into or execute and deliver any and all deeds, bonds, mortgages, contracts and other obligations or instruments, and such authority may be general or confined to specific instances.

7.7 VOTING OF STOCKS IN OTHER CORPORATIONS. Unless otherwise provided by resolution of the Board of Directors, the Chairman of the Board or the President, from time to time, may (or may appoint one or more attorneys or agents to) cast the votes which the Corporation may be entitled to cast as a shareholder or otherwise in any other corporation, any of whose shares or securities may be held by the Corporation, at meetings of the holders of the shares or other securities of such other corporation, or to consent in writing to any action by any such other corporation. In the event one or more attorneys or agents are appointed, the Chairman of the Board or the President may instruct the person or persons so appointed as to the manner of casting such votes or giving such consent. The Chairman of the Board or the President may, or may instruct the attorneys or agents appointed to, execute or cause to be executed in the name and on behalf of the Corporation and under its seal or otherwise, such written proxies, consents, waivers or other instruments as may be necessary or proper in the premises.

AMENDMENTS

These By-Laws may be amended or repealed or new By-Laws may be adopted at any annual or special meeting of shareholders at which a quorum is present or represented, by the vote of the holders of shares entitled to vote in the election of directors provided that notice of the proposed amendment or repeal or adoption of new By-Laws is contained in the notice of such meeting. These By-Laws may also be amended or repealed or new By-Laws may be adopted by the Board at any regular or special meeting of the Board of Directors. If any By-Law regulating an impending election of directors is adopted, amended or repealed by the Board of Directors, there shall be set forth in the notice of the next meeting of the shareholders for the election of directors the By-Law so adopted, amended or repealed, together with a concise statement of the changes made. By-Laws adopted by the Board of Directors may be amended or repealed by the shareholders.

HALLMARK HOLDINGS CORP.

UNDER SECTION 402 OF THE BUSINESS CORPORATION LAW

THE UNDERSIGNED, being of the age of eighteen years or over, for the purpose of forming a corporation pursuant to Section 402 of the Business Corporation Law of the State of New York, hereby certifies:

FIRST: The name of the Corporation is Hallmark Holdings Corp.

SECOND: The purpose for which the Corporation is formed is to engage in any lawful act or activity for which corporations may be organized under the New York Business Corporation Law. The Corporation is not formed to engage in any act or activity requiring the consent or approval of any official, department, board, agency or other body of the State of New York without such consent or approval first being obtained.

THIRD: The office of the Corporation is to be located in the City of New York, County of New York, State of New York.

FOURTH: The aggregate number of shares which the Corporation shall have authority to issue shall be 1,000 shares, par value $.01 per share, all of which are to be of the same class and all of which are to be designated common shares.

1. Dividends. The holders of shares of Common Stock shall be entitled to receive, when and if declared by the Board of Directors, out of the assets of the Corporation which are by law available therefor, dividends payable either in cash, in property or in shares of Common Stock.

2. Voting Rights. At every annual or special meeting of shareholders of the Corporation, every holder of Common Stock shall be entitled to one vote, in person or by proxy, for each share of Common Stock standing in his name on the books of the Corporation in the election of directors and upon all other matters.

3. Dissolution, Liquidation or Winding Up. In the event of any dissolution, liquidation or winding up of the affairs of the Corporation, after payment or provision for payment of the debts and other liabilities of the Corporation, the holders of all outstanding shares of Common Stock shall be entitled to share ratably in the remaining net assets of the Corporation.

FIFTH: No shareholder of the Corporation shall, by reason of his holding shares of any class, have any preemptive or preferential right to purchase or subscribe to any shares of any class of the Corporation, now or hereafter to be authorized, or any other securities convertible into or carrying rights or options to purchase shares of any class, now or hereafter to be authorized, whether or not the issuance of any such shares or the issuance of shares upon exercise of any rights or options or upon conversion of such other securities would adversely affect the dividend or voting rights of such shareholder. The Board of Directors may issue, and grant rights or options to purchase, shares of any class of the Corporation, now or hereafter to be authorized, or any other securities convertible into or carrying rights or options to purchase shares of any class, now or hereafter to be authorized, without offering any such shares or other securities, either in whole or in part, to the shareholders of any class.

SIXTH: The Secretary of State is designated as the agent of the Corporation upon whom process against the Corporation may be served. The address to which the Secretary of State shall mail a copy of any process against the Corporation served upon him is c/o Fried, Frank, Harris, Shriver & Jacobson, One New York Plaza, New York New York 10004, Attn: F. William Reindel.

SEVENTH: The Corporation reserves the right to amend, alter, change or repeal any provision contained in this certificate of incorporation in the manner now or hereafter prescribed by statute, and all rights conferred upon shareholders herein are granted subject to this reservation.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have made and signed this certificate this 13th day of March, 1997 and I affirm the statements contained therein are true under penalties of perjury.

BY-LAWS
OF
HALLMARK HOLDINGS CORP.

OFFICES

1.1 PRINCIPAL OFFICE. The principal office of the Corporation within the State of New York shall be in the City of New York, County of New York.

1.2 OTHER OFFICES. The Corporation may also have an office or offices other than said principal office at such place or places, either within or without the State of New York, as the Board of Directors shall from time to time determine or the business of the Corporation may require.

MEETINGS OF SHAREHOLDERS

2.1 PLACE OF MEETINGS. All meetings of the shareholders for the election of directors or for any other purpose shall be held at such place as may be fixed from time to time by the Board of Directors, or at such other place, either within or without the State of New York, as shall be designated from time to time by the Board of Directors.

2.2 ANNUAL MEETING. The annual meeting of the shareholders of the Corporation for the election of directors and for the transaction of such other business as may properly come before the meeting, commencing with the year 1997, shall be held at such date and time as shall be designated from time to time by the Board of Directors.

2.3 SPECIAL MEETINGS. Special meetings of the shareholders, unless otherwise prescribed by statute, may be called at any time by the Board of Directors or the Chairman of the Board, if one shall have been elected, or the President.

2.4 NOTICE OF MEETINGS. Notice of the place, date and hour of holding of each annual and special meeting of the shareholders and, unless it is the annual meeting, the purpose or purposes thereof, shall be given personally or by mail in a postage prepaid envelope, not less than ten (10) nor more than sixty (60) days before the date of such meeting, to each shareholder entitled to vote at such meeting, and, if mailed, it shall be directed to such shareholder at his address as it appears on the record of shareholders, unless he shall have filed with the Secretary of the Corporation a written request that notices to him be mailed at some other address, in which case it shall be directed to him at such other address. Any such notice for any meeting other than the annual meeting shall indicate that it is being issued at the direction of the Board of Directors, the Chairman of the Board, or the President, whichever shall have called the meeting. Notice of any meeting of shareholders shall not be required to be given to any shareholder who shall attend such meeting in person or by proxy and shall not, prior to the conclusion of such meeting, protest the lack of notice thereof, or who shall, either before or after the meeting, submit a signed waiver of notice, in person or by proxy. Unless the Board of Directors shall fix a new record date for an adjourned meeting, notice of such adjourned meeting need not be given if the time and place to which the meeting shall be adjourned were announced at the meeting at which the adjournment is taken.

2.5 QUORUM. At all meetings of the shareholders the holders of a majority of the shares of the Corporation issued and outstanding and entitled to vote thereat shall be present in person or by proxy to constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, except as otherwise provided by statute. In the absence of a quorum, the holders of a majority of the shares present in person or by proxy and entitled to vote may adjourn the meeting from time to time. At any such adjourned meeting at which a quorum may be present any business may be transacted which might have been transacted at the meeting as originally called.

2.6 ORGANIZATION. At each meeting of the shareholders, the Chairman of the Board, if one shall have been elected, or in his absence or if one shall not have been elected the President, shall act as chairman of the meeting. The Secretary, or in his absence or inability to act the person whom the chairman of the meeting shall appoint secretary of the meeting, shall act as secretary of the meeting and keep the minutes thereof.

2.7 ORDER OF BUSINESS. The order of business at all meetings of the shareholders shall be as determined by the chairman of the meeting.

2.8 VOTING. Except as otherwise provided by statute or the Certificate of Incorporation, each holder of record of shares of the Corporation having voting power shall be entitled at each meeting of the shareholders to one vote for each share standing in his name on the record of shareholders of the Corporation:

(a) on the date fixed pursuant to the provisions of Section 5.6 of these By-Laws as the record date for the determination of the shareholders who shall be entitled to notice of and to vote at such meeting; or

(b) if no such record date shall have been so fixed, then at the close of business on the day next preceding the day on which notice thereof shall be given.

Each shareholder entitled to vote at any meeting of the shareholders may authorize another person or persons to act for him by a proxy signed by such shareholder or his attorney-in-fact. Any such proxy shall be delivered to the secretary of such meeting at or prior to the time designated in the order of business for so delivering such proxies. Except as otherwise provided by statute or the Certificate of Incorporation or these By-Laws, any corporate action to be taken by vote of the shareholders shall be authorized by a majority of the votes cast at a meeting of shareholders by the holders of shares present in person or represented by proxy and entitled to vote on such action. Unless required by statute, or determined by the chairman of the meeting to be advisable, the vote on any question need not be by ballot. On a vote by ballot, each ballot shall be signed by the shareholder voting, or by his proxy, if there be such proxy, and shall state the number of shares voted.

2.9 LIST OF SHAREHOLDERS. A list of shareholders as of the record date, certified by the Secretary of the Corporation or by the transfer agent for the Corporation, shall be produced at any meeting of the shareholders upon the request of any shareholder made at or prior to such meeting.

2.10 INSPECTORS. The Board of Directors may, in advance of any meeting of shareholders, appoint one or more inspectors to act at such meeting or any adjournment thereof. If any of the inspectors so appointed shall fail to appear or act or on the request of any shareholder entitled to vote at such meeting, the chairman of the meeting shall, or if inspectors shall not have been appointed the chairman of the meeting may, appoint one or more inspectors. Each inspector, before entering upon the discharge of his duties, shall take and sign an oath faithfully to execute the duties of inspector at such meeting with strict impartiality and according to the best of his ability. The inspectors shall determine the number of shares outstanding and the voting power of each, the number of shares represented at the meeting, the existence of a quorum, the validity and effect of proxies, and shall receive votes, ballots or consents, hear and determine all challenges and questions arising in connection with the right to vote, count and tabulate all votes, ballots or consents, determine the results, and do such acts as are proper to conduct the election or vote with fairness to all shareholders. On request of the chairman of the meeting or any shareholder entitled to vote thereat, the inspectors shall make a report in writing of any challenge, request or matter determined by them and shall execute a certificate of any fact found by them. No director or candidate for the office of director shall act as an inspector of an election of directors. Inspectors need not be shareholders.

2.11 ACTION BY CONSENT. Whenever shareholders are required or permitted to take any action by vote, such action may be taken without a meeting on written consent, setting forth the action so taken signed by the holders of all outstanding shares of the Corporation entitled to vote thereon.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

3.1 GENERAL POWERS. The business and affairs of the Corporation shall be managed under the direction of the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors may exercise all such authority and powers of the Corporation and do all such lawful acts and things as are not by statute or the Certificate of Incorporation directed or required to be exercised or done by the shareholders.

3.2 NUMBER, QUALIFICATIONS, ELECTION AND TERM OF OFFICE. The number of directors constituting the initial Board of Directors shall be two. Thereafter, the number of directors may be fixed, from time to time, by the affirmative vote of a majority of the entire Board of Directors or by action of the shareholders of the Corporation; provided, however, that the number of directors shall not be less than three, except that when all the shares of the Corporation are owned beneficially by less than three shareholders, the number of directors may be less than three but not less than the number of shareholders. Any decrease in the number of directors shall be effective at the time of the next succeeding annual meeting of the shareholders unless there shall be vacancies in the Board of Directors, in which case such decrease may become effective at any time prior to the next succeeding annual meeting to the extent of the number of such vacancies. All the directors shall be at least eighteen (18) years of age. Directors need not be shareholders. Except as otherwise provided by statute or these By-Laws, the directors (other than members of the initial Board of Directors) shall be elected at the annual meeting of the shareholders. At each meeting of the shareholders for the election of directors at which a quorum is present the persons receiving a plurality of the votes cast at such election shall be elected. Each director shall hold office until the next annual meeting of the shareholders and until his successor shall have been elected and qualified, or until his death, or until he shall have resigned, or have been removed, as hereinafter provided in these By-Laws.

3.3 PLACE OF MEETINGS. Meetings of the Board of Directors shall be held at the principal office of the Corporation in the State of New York or at such other place, within or without such State, as the Board of Directors may from time to time determine or as shall be specified in the notice of any such meeting.

3.4 FIRST MEETING. The Board of Directors shall meet for the purpose of organization, the election of officers and the transaction of other business, as soon as practicable after each annual meeting of the shareholders, on the same day and at the same place where such annual meeting shall be held. Notice of such meeting need not be given. Such meeting may be held at any other time or place (within or without the State of New York) which shall be specified in a notice thereof given as hereinafter provided in Section 3.7.

3.5 REGULAR MEETINGS. Regular meetings of the Board of Directors shall be held at such time and place as the Board of Directors may fix. Notice of regular meetings of the Board of Directors need not be given except as otherwise required by statute or these By-Laws.

3.6 SPECIAL MEETINGS. Special meetings of the Board of Directors may be called by the Chairman of the Board, if one shall have been elected, or by two or more directors of the Corporation or by the President.

3.7 NOTICE OF MEETINGS. Notice of each special meeting of the Board of Directors (and of each regular meeting for which notice shall be required) shall be given by the Secretary as hereinafter provided in this Section 3.7, in which notice shall be stated the time and place of the meeting. Except as otherwise required by these By-Laws, such notice need not state the purposes of such meeting. Notice of each such meeting shall be mailed, postage prepaid, to each director, addressed to him at his residence or usual place of business, by first-class mail, at least two days before the day on which such meeting is to be held, or shall be sent addressed to him at such place by telegraph, cable, telex, telecopier or other similar means, or be delivered to him personally or be given to him by telephone, or other similar means, at least twenty-four hours before the time at which such meeting is to be held. Notice of any such meeting need not be given to any director who shall, either before or after the meeting, submit a signed waiver of notice or who shall attend such meeting without protesting, prior to or at its commencement, the lack of notice to him.

3.8 QUORUM AND MANNER OF ACTING. A majority of the entire Board of Directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at any meeting of the Board of Directors, and, except as otherwise expressly required by statute or the Certificate of Incorporation or these By-Laws, the act of a majority of the directors present at any meeting at which a quorum is present shall be the act of the Board of Directors. In the absence of a quorum at any meeting of the Board of Directors, a majority of the directors present thereat may adjourn such meeting to another time and place. Notice of the time and place of any such adjourned meeting shall be given to the directors unless such time and place were announced at the meeting at which the adjournment was taken, to the other directors. At any adjourned meeting at which a quorum is present, any business may be transacted which might have been transacted at the meeting as originally called. The directors shall act only as a Board and the individual directors shall have no power as such.

3.9 ORGANIZATION. At each meeting of the Board of Directors, the Chairman of the Board, if one shall have been elected, or, in the absence of the Chairman of the Board or if one shall not have been elected, the President (or, in his absence, another director chosen by a majority of the directors present) shall act as chairman of the meeting and preside thereat. The Secretary (or, in his absence, any person who shall be an Assistant Secretary, if any of them shall be present at such meeting and appointed by the chairman) shall act as secretary of the meeting and keep the minutes thereof.

3.10 RESIGNATIONS. Any director of the Corporation may resign at any time by giving written notice of his resignation to the Board of Directors or the Chairman of the Board or the President or the Secretary. Any such resignation shall take effect at the time specified therein or, if the time when it shall become effective shall not be specified therein, immediately upon its receipt. Unless otherwise specified therein, the acceptance of such resignation shall not be necessary to make it effective.

3.11 VACANCIES. Subject to any express provision of the Certificate of Incorporation, any vacancy in the Board of Directors, whether arising from death, resignation, removal (with or without cause), an increase in the number of directors or any other cause, may be filled by the vote of a majority of the directors then in office, though less than a quorum, or by the shareholders at the next annual meeting thereof or at a special meeting thereof. Each director so elected shall hold office until the next meeting of the shareholders in which the election of directors is in the regular order of business and until his successor shall have been elected and qualified.

3.12 REMOVAL OF DIRECTORS. Except as otherwise provided by statute, any director may be removed, either with or without cause, at any time, by the shareholders at a special meeting thereof. Except as otherwise provided by statute, any director may be removed for cause by the Board of Directors at a special meeting thereof.

3.13 COMPENSATION. The Board of Directors shall have authority to fix the compensation, including fees and reimbursement of expenses, of directors for services to the Corporation in any capacity.

3.14 COMMITTEES. The Board of Directors may, by resolution passed by a majority of the entire Board of Directors, designate one or more committees, including an executive committee, each committee to consist of one or more of the directors of the Corporation. The Board of Directors may designate one or more directors as alternate members of any committee, who may replace any absent member at any meeting of the committee. Except to the extent restricted by statute or the Certificate of Incorporation, each such committee, to the extent provided in the resolution creating it, shall have and may exercise all the authority of the Board of Directors. Each such committee shall serve at the pleasure of the Board of Directors and have such name as may be determined from time to time by resolution adopted by the Board of Directors. Each committee shall keep regular minutes of its meetings and report the same to the Board of Directors.

3.15 ACTION BY CONSENT. Unless restricted by the Certificate of Incorporation, any action required or permitted to be taken by the Board of Directors or any committee thereof may be taken without a meeting if all members of the Board of Directors or such committee consent in writing to the adoption of a resolution authorizing the action. The resolution and the written consents thereto by the members of the Board of Directors or such committee shall be filed with the minutes of the proceedings of the Board of Directors or such committee.

3.16 TELEPHONIC MEETING. Unless restricted by the Certificate of Incorporation, any one or more members of the Board of Directors or any committee thereof may participate in a meeting of the Board of Directors or such committee by means of a conference telephone or similar communications equipment allowing all persons participating in the meeting to hear each other at the same time. Participation by such means shall constitute presence in person at a meeting.

ARTICLE 4 OFFICERS

4.1 NUMBER AND QUALIFICATIONS. The officers of the Corporation shall be elected by the Board of Directors and shall include the President, one or more Vice-Presidents, the Secretary, and the Treasurer. If the Board of Directors wishes, it may also elect as an officer of the Corporation a Chairman of the Board and may elect other officers (including one or more Assistant Treasurers and one or more Assistant Secretaries), as may be necessary or desirable for the business of the Corporation. Any two or more offices may be held by the same person, except the offices of President and Secretary; provided, however, that such two offices may be held by the same person if all of the outstanding shares of the Corporation are owned by such person. Each officer shall hold office until the first meeting of the Board of Directors following the next annual meeting of the shareholders, and until his successor shall have been elected and shall have qualified, or until his death, or until he shall have resigned or have been removed, as hereinafter provided in these By-Laws.

4.2 RESIGNATIONS. Any officer of the Corporation may resign at any time by giving written notice of his resignation to the Board of Directors or the Chairman of the Board or the President or the Secretary. Any such resignation shall take effect at the time specified therein or, if the time when it shall become effective shall not be specified therein, immediately upon its receipt. Unless otherwise specified therein, the acceptance of any such resignation shall not be necessary to make it effective.

4.3 REMOVAL. Any officer of the Corporation may be removed, either with or without cause, at any time, by the Board of Directors at any meeting thereof.

4.4 CHAIRMAN OF THE BOARD. The Chairman of the Board, if one shall have been elected, shall be a member of the Board, an officer of the Corporation and, if present, shall preside at each meeting of the Board of Directors or the shareholders. He shall advise and counsel with the President, and in his absence with other executives of the Corporation, and shall perform such other duties as may from time to time be assigned to him by the Board of Directors.

4.5 THE PRESIDENT. The President shall be the chief executive officer of the Corporation. He shall, in the absence of the Chairman of the Board or if a Chairman of the Board shall not have been elected, preside at each meeting of the Board of Directors or the shareholders. He shall perform all duties incident to the office of President and chief executive officer and such other duties as may from time to time be assigned to him by the Board of Directors.

4.6 VICE-PRESIDENT. Each Vice-President shall perform all such duties as from time to time may be assigned to him by the Board of Directors or the President. At the request of the President or in his absence or in the event of his inability or refusal to act, the Vice-President, or if there shall be more than one, the Vice-Presidents in the order determined by the Board of Directors (or if there be no such determination, then the Vice-Presidents in the order of their election), shall perform the duties of the President, and, when so acting, shall have the powers of and be subject to the restrictions placed upon the President in respect of the performance of such duties.

4.7 TREASURER. The Treasurer shall:

- (a) have charge and custody of, and be responsible for, all the funds and securities of the Corporation;
- (b) keep full and accurate accounts of receipts and disbursements in books belonging to the Corporation;
- (c) deposit all moneys and other valuables to the credit of the Corporation in such depositories as may be designated by the Board of Directors or pursuant to its direction;
- (d) receive, and give receipts for, moneys due and payable to the Corporation from any source whatsoever;
- (e) disburse the funds of the Corporation and supervise the investments of its funds, taking proper vouchers therefor;
- (f) render to the Board of Directors, whenever the Board of Directors may require, an account of the financial condition of the Corporation; and
- (g) in general, perform all duties incident to the office of Treasurer and such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to him by the Board of Directors.

4.8 SECRETARY. The Secretary shall:

- (a) keep or cause to be kept in one or more books provided for the purpose, the minutes of all meetings of the Board of Directors, the committees of the Board of Directors and the shareholders;

(b) see that all notices are duly given in accordance with the provisions of these By-Laws and as required by law;

(c) be custodian of the records and the seal of the Corporation and affix and attest the seal to all certificates for shares of the Corporation (unless the seal of the Corporation on such certificates shall be a facsimile, as hereinafter provided) and affix and attest the seal to all other documents to be executed on behalf of the Corporation under its seal;

(d) see that the books, reports, statements, certificates and other documents and records required by law to be kept and filed are properly kept and filed; and

(e) in general, perform all duties incident to the office of Secretary and such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to him by the Board of Directors.

4.9 THE ASSISTANT TREASURER. The Assistant Treasurer, or if there shall be more than one, the Assistant Treasurers in the order determined by the Board of Directors (or if there be no such determination, then in the order of their election), shall, in the absence of the Treasurer or in the event of his inability or refusal to act, perform the duties and exercise the powers of the Treasurer and shall perform such other duties as from time to time may be assigned by the Board of Directors.

4.10 THE ASSISTANT SECRETARY. The Assistant Secretary, or if there be more than one, the Assistant Secretaries in the order determined by the Board of Directors (or if there be no such determination, then in the order of their election), shall, in the absence of the Secretary or in the event of his inability or refusal to act, perform the duties and exercise the powers of the Secretary and shall perform such other duties as from time to time may be assigned by the Board of Directors.

4.11 OFFICERS' BONDS OR OTHER SECURITY. If required by the Board of Directors, any officer of the Corporation shall give a bond or other security for the faithful performance of his duties, in such amount and with such surety or sureties as the Board of Directors may require.

4.12 COMPENSATION. The compensation of the officers of the Corporation for their services as such officers shall be fixed from time to time by the Board of Directors. An officer of the Corporation shall not be prevented from receiving compensation by reason of the fact that he is also a director of the Corporation.

SHARES

5.1 SHARE CERTIFICATES. Each owner of shares of the Corporation shall be entitled to have a certificate, in such form as shall be approved by the Board of Directors, certifying the number of shares of the Corporation owned by him. The certificates representing shares shall be signed in the name of the Corporation by the Chairman of the Board or the President or a Vice-President and by the Secretary, an Assistant Secretary, the Treasurer or an Assistant Treasurer and sealed with the seal of the Corporation (which seal may be a facsimile, engraved or printed); provided, however, that where any such certificate is countersigned by a transfer agent, or is registered by a registrar (other than the Corporation or one of its employees), the signatures of the Chairman of the Board, President, Vice-President, Secretary, Assistant Secretary, Treasurer or Assistant Treasurer upon such certificates may be facsimiles, engraved or printed. In case any officer who shall have signed any such certificate shall have ceased to be such officer before such certificate shall be issued, it may nevertheless be issued by the Corporation with the same effect as if such officer were still in office at the date of their issue. When the Corporation is authorized to issue shares of more than one class there shall be set forth upon the face or back of the certificate, or the certificate shall have a statement that the Corporation will furnish to any shareholder upon request and without charge, a full statement of the designation, relative rights, preferences, and limitations of the shares of each class authorized to be issued and, if the Corporation is authorized to issue any class of preferred shares in series, the designation, relative rights, preferences and limitations of each such series so far as the same have been fixed and the authority of the Board of Directors to designate and fix the tentative rights, preferences and limitations of other series.

5.2 BOOKS OF ACCOUNT AND RECORD OF SHAREHOLDERS. There shall be kept correct and complete books and records of account of all the business and transactions of the Corporation. There shall also be kept, at the office of the Corporation, in the State of New York, or at the office of its transfer agent in said State, a record containing the names and addresses of all shareholders of the Corporation, the number of shares held by each, and the dates when they became the holders of record thereof.

5.3 TRANSFER OF SHARES. Transfers of shares of the Corporation shall be made on the records of the Corporation only upon authorization by the registered holder thereof, or by his attorney thereunto authorized by power of attorney duly executed and filed with the Secretary or with a transfer agent, and on surrender of the certificate or certificates for such shares properly endorsed or accompanied by a duly executed stock transfer power and the payment of all taxes thereon. The person in whose name shares shall stand on the record of shareholders of the Corporation shall be deemed the owner thereof for all purposes as regards the Corporation. Whenever any transfer of shares shall be made for collateral security and not absolutely and written notice thereof shall be given to the Secretary or to a transfer agent, such fact shall be noted on the records of the Corporation.

5.4 TRANSFER AGENTS AND REGISTRARS. The Board of Directors may appoint, or authorize any officer or officers to appoint, one or more transfer agents and one or more registrars and may require all certificates for shares of stock to bear the signature of any of them.

5.5 REGULATIONS. The Board of Directors may make such additional rules and regulations, not inconsistent with these By-Laws, as it may deem expedient concerning the issue, transfer and registration of certificates for shares of the Corporation.

5.6 FIXING OF RECORD DATE. The Board of Directors may fix, in advance, a date not less than ten (10) nor more than fifty (50) days before the date then fixed for the holding of any meeting of the shareholders or before the last day on which the consent or dissent of the shareholders may be effectively expressed for any purpose without a meeting, as the time as of which the shareholders entitled to notice of and to vote at such meeting or whose consent or dissent is required or may be expressed for any purpose, as the case may be, shall be determined, and all persons who were shareholders of record of voting shares at such time, and no others, shall be entitled to notice of and to vote at such meeting or to express their consent or dissent, as the case may be. The Board of Directors may fix, in advance, a date not less than ten (10) nor more than fifty (50) days preceding the date fixed for the payment of any dividend or the making of any distribution or the allotment of rights to subscribe for securities of the Corporation, or for the delivery of evidences of rights or evidences of interests arising out of any change, conversion or exchange of shares or other securities, as the record date for the determination of the shareholders entitled to receive any such dividend, distribution, allotment, rights or interests, and in such case only the shareholders of record at the time so fixed shall be entitled to receive such dividend, distribution, allotment, rights or interests.

5.7 LOST, DESTROYED OR MUTILATED CERTIFICATES. The holder of any certificate representing shares of the Corporation shall immediately notify the Corporation of any loss, destruction or mutilation of such certificate, and the Corporation may issue a new certificate in the place of any certificate theretofore issued by it which the owner thereof shall allege to have been lost or destroyed or which shall have been mutilated. The Board of Directors may, in its discretion, require such owner or his legal representatives to give to the Corporation a bond in such sum, limited or unlimited, and in such form and with such surety or sureties as the Board of Directors in its absolute discretion shall determine, to indemnify the Corporation against any claim that may be made against it on account of the alleged loss or destruction of any such certificate, or the issuance of such new certificate.

INDEMNIFICATION

On the terms, to the extent, and subject to the conditions prescribed by statute and by such rules and regulations, not inconsistent with statute, as the Board of Directors may in its discretion impose in general or particular cases or classes of cases, (a) the Corporation shall indemnify any person made, or threatened to be made, a party to an action or proceeding, civil or criminal, including an action by or in the right of any other corporation of any type or kind, domestic or foreign, or any partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise which any director or officer of the Corporation served in any capacity at the request of the Corporation, by reason of the fact that he, his testator or intestate, was a director or officer of the Corporation, or served such other corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise in any capacity, against judgments, fines, amounts paid in settlement and reasonable expenses, including attorneys' fees, actually and necessarily incurred as a result of such action or proceeding, or any appeal therein, and (b) the Corporation may pay, in advance of final disposition of any such action or proceeding, expenses incurred by such person in defending such action or proceeding.

On the terms, to the extent, and subject to the conditions prescribed by statute and by such rules and regulations, not inconsistent with statute, as the Board of Directors may in its discretion impose in general or particular cases or classes of cases,

(a) the Corporation shall indemnify any person made a party to an action by or in the right of the Corporation to procure a judgment in its favor, by reason of the fact that he, his testator or intestate, is or was a director or officer of the Corporation, against the reasonable expenses, including attorneys' fees, actually and necessarily incurred by him in connection with the defense of such action, or in connection with an appeal therein, and

(b) the Corporation may pay, in advance of final disposition of any such action, expenses incurred by such person in defending such action or proceeding.

GENERAL PROVISIONS

7.1 DIVIDENDS. Subject to statute and the Certificate of Incorporation, dividends upon the shares of the Corporation may be declared by the Board of Directors at any regular or special meeting. Dividends may be paid in cash, in property or in shares of the Corporation, unless otherwise provided by statute or the Certificate of Incorporation.

7.2 RESERVES. Before payment of any dividend, there may be set aside out of any funds of the Corporation available for dividends such sum or sums as the Board of Directors may, from time to time, in its absolute discretion, think proper as a reserve or reserves to meet contingencies, or for equalizing dividends, or for repairing or maintaining any property of the Corporation or for such other purpose as the Board of Directors may think conducive to the interests of the Corporation. The Board of Directors may modify or abolish any such reserves in the manner in which it was created.

7.3 SEAL. The seal of the Corporation shall be in such form as shall be approved by the Board of Directors.

7.4 FISCAL YEAR. The fiscal year of the Corporation shall be fixed, and once fixed, may thereafter be changed, by resolution of the Board of Directors.

7.5 CHECKS, NOTES, DRAFTS, ETC. All checks, notes, drafts or other orders for the payment of money of the Corporation shall be signed, endorsed or accepted in the name of the Corporation by such officer, officers, person or persons as from time to time may be designated by the Board of Directors or by an officer or officers authorized by the Board of Directors to make such designation.

7.6 EXECUTION OF CONTRACTS, DEEDS, ETC. The Board of Directors may authorize any officer or officers, agent or agents, in the name and on behalf of the Corporation to enter into or execute and deliver any and all deeds, bonds, mortgages, contracts and other obligations or instruments, and such authority may be general or confined to specific instances.

7.7 VOTING OF STOCKS IN OTHER CORPORATIONS. Unless otherwise provided by resolution of the Board of Directors, the Chairman of the Board or the President, from time to time, may (or may appoint one or more attorneys or agents to) cast the votes which the Corporation may be entitled to cast as a shareholder or otherwise in any other corporation, any of whose shares or securities may be held by the Corporation, at meetings of the holders of the shares or other securities of such other corporation, or to consent in writing to any action by any such other corporation. In the event one or more attorneys or agents are appointed, the Chairman of the Board or the President may instruct the person or persons so appointed as to the manner of casting such votes or giving such consent. The Chairman of the Board or the President may, or may instruct the attorneys or agents appointed to, execute or cause to be executed in the name and on behalf of the Corporation and under its seal or otherwise, such written proxies, consents, waivers or other instruments as may be necessary or proper in the premises.

AMENDMENTS

These By-Laws may be amended or repealed or new By-Laws may be adopted at any annual or special meeting of shareholders at which a quorum is present or represented, by the vote of the holders of shares entitled to vote in the election of directors provided that notice of the proposed amendment or repeal or adoption of new By-Laws is contained in the notice of such meeting. These By-Laws may also be amended or repealed or new By-Laws may be adopted by the Board at any regular or special meeting of the Board of Directors. If any By-Law regulating an impending election of directors is adopted, amended or repealed by the Board of Directors, there shall be set forth in the notice of the next meeting of the shareholders for the election of directors the By-Law so adopted, amended or repealed, together with a concise statement of the changes made. By-Laws adopted by the Board of Directors may be amended or repealed by the shareholders.

Brentwood, Tennessee 37027

ARTICLE SEVEN

The complete address of the corporation's principal office is 7100 Commerce Way, Suite 100, Brentwood, Williamson County, Tennessee 37027.

ARTICLE EIGHT

Election of the Directors need not be by written ballot unless the Bylaws of the corporation shall so provide.

ARTICLE NINE

To the fullest extent permitted by Oklahoma law, a director of the Corporation shall not be personally liable to the Corporation or its stockholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director, except for liability (1) for any breach of the director's duty of loyalty to the Corporation or its stockholders, (ii) for acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law, (iii) under the Act or (iv) for any transaction from which the director derived an improper personal benefit, If the Act is amended hereafter to authorize corporate action further eliminating or limiting the personal liability of directors, then the liability of a director of the Corporation shall be eliminated or limited to the fullest extent permitted by the Act, as so amended.

Any repeal or modification of the foregoing paragraph by the stockholders of the Corporation shall not adversely affect any right or protection of a director of the Corporation existing at the time of such repeal or modification.

ARTICLE TEN

A. Rights to Indemnification. Each person who was or is made a party or is threatened to be made a party to or is otherwise involved in any action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (hereinafter a "proceeding"), by reason of the fact that he or she, or a person of whom he or she is the legal representative, is or was a director or officer of the Corporation or is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director or officer of another corporation or of a partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, including service with respect to an employee benefit plan (hereinafter an "Indemnitee"), whether the basis of such proceeding is alleged action in an official capacity as a director or officer or in any other capacity while serving as a director or officer, shall be indemnified and held harmless by the Corporation to the fullest extent authorized by the Act as the same exists or may hereafter be amended (but, in the case of any such amendment, only to the extent that such amendment permits the Corporation to provide broader indemnification rights than permitted prior thereto), against all expense, liability and loss (including, without limitation, attorneys' fees, judgments, fines, excise taxes or penalties and amounts paid or to be paid in settlement) incurred or suffered by such indemnitee in connection therewith and such indemnification shall continue with respect to an indemnitee who has ceased to be a director or officer and shall inure to the benefit of the indemnitee's heirs, executors and administrators; provided, however, that except as provided in paragraph (B) of this Article Ten with respect to proceedings to enforce rights to indemnification, the Corporation shall indemnify any such indemnitee in connection with a proceeding initiated by such indemnitee only if such proceeding was authorized by the Board of Directors of the Corporation. The right to indemnification conferred in this Article Ten shall be a contract right and shall include the right to be paid by the Corporation the expenses incurred in defending any such proceeding in advance of its final disposition (hereinafter an "advancement of expenses"); provided, however, that, if the Act requires, an advancement of expenses incurred by an indemnitee shall be made only upon delivery to the Corporation of an undertaking (hereinafter an "undertaking"), by or on behalf of such indemnitee, to repay all amounts so advanced if it shall ultimately be determined by final judicial decision from which there is no further right to appeal (hereinafter a "final adjudication") that such indemnitee is not entitled to be indemnified for such expenses under this Article Ten or otherwise.

B. Right of indemnitee to Bring Suit. If a claim under paragraph (A) of this Article Ten is not paid in full by the Corporation within sixty days after a written claim has been received by the Corporation (except in the case of a claim for an advancement of expenses, in which case the applicable period shall be twenty days), the indemnitee may at any time thereafter bring suit against the Corporation to recover the unpaid amount of the claim. If successful in whole or in part in any such suit, the indemnitee shall also be entitled to be paid the expense of prosecuting or defending such suit: In (i) any suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right to indemnification hereunder (but not a suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right to an advancement of expenses) it shall be a defense that, and (ii) in any suit by the Corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking, the Corporation shall be entitled to recover such expenses upon a final adjudication that the indemnitee has not met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in the Act. Neither the failure of the Corporation (including its Board of Directors, independent legal counsel or its stockholders) to have made a determination prior to the commencement of such suit that indemnification of the indemnitee has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in the Act, nor an actual determination by the Corporation (including its Board of Directors, independent legal counsel or its stockholders) that the indemnitee has not met such applicable standard of conduct, or in the case of such a suit brought by the indemnitee, shall be a defense to such suit. In any suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right to indemnification or to an advancement of expenses hereunder or by the Corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking, the burden of proving that the indemnitee is not entitled under this Article Ten or otherwise to be indemnified, or to such advancement of expenses, shall be on the Corporation:

C. Non-Exclusivity of The rights to indemnification and to the advancement of expenses conferred in this Article Ten shall not be exclusive of any other right which any person may have or hereafter acquire under this Certificate of Incorporation or any Bylaw, agreement, vote of stockholders or disinterested directors or otherwise.

D. Insurance. The Corporation may maintain insurance, at its expense, to protect itself and any indemnitee against any expense, liability or loss, whether or not the Corporation would have the power to indemnify such person against such expense, liability or loss under the Act.

E. Indemnity of Employees and Agents of the Corporation. The Corporation may, to the extent authorized from time to time by the Board of Directors, grant rights to indemnification and to the advancement of expenses to any employee or agent of the Corporation to the fullest extent of the provisions of this Article Ten or as otherwise permitted under the Act with respect to the Indemnification and advancement of expenses of directors and officers of the Corporation.

ARTICLE ELEVEN

The Bylaws of the Corporation may be altered, amended or repealed or new Bylaws may be adopted by the board of directors.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand, this 41h day of January, 2006. The undersigned incorporator hereby declares, under penalties of perjury, that the statements made in the foregoing Certificate of Incorporation are true.

BYLAWS OF KAY COUNTY HOSPITAL CORPORATION

ARTICLE I

OFFICES

Section 1.1 Registered Office. The registered office shall be in the City of Oklahoma City, County of Oklahoma, State of Oklahoma.

Section 1.2 Other Offices. The corporation may also have offices at such other places both within and without the State of Oklahoma as the board of directors may from time to time determine or the business of the corporation may require.

ARTICLE II

MEETINGS OF SHAREHOLDERS

Section 2.1 Annual Meeting. An annual meeting of shareholders of the corporation shall be held on such date and at such time as shall be designated from time to time by the board of directors and stated in the notice of the meeting. At such meeting, the shareholders shall elect directors and transact such other business as may properly be brought before the meeting.

Section 2.2 Special Meetings. Special meetings of the shareholders for any purpose whatsoever may be called at any time by the president, the board of directors, or the holders of not less than ten percent of all shares entitled to vote at such meeting.

Section 2.3 Place of Meetings. All meetings of shareholders for any purpose or purposes may be held at such places, within or without the State of Oklahoma, as may from time to time be fixed by the board of directors or as shall be stated in the notice of the meeting or in a duly executed waiver of notice thereof.

Section 2.4 Notice. Written notice stating the place, day and hour of the meeting and, in the case of a special meeting, the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is called, shall be given not less than ten nor more than sixty days before the date of the meeting, either personally or by mail.

Section 2.5 Quorum of Shareholders. The holders of a majority of the shares issued and outstanding and entitled to vote at such meeting, present in person or represented by proxy shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at all meetings of the shareholders.

Section 2.6 Voting of Shares. Except as otherwise provided by statute or the articles of incorporation, each holder of record of shares of stock of the Corporation having voting power shall be entitled at each meeting of the shareholders to one vote for every share of such stock standing in his or her name on the record books of shareholders of the corporation on the date on which such notice of the meeting is mailed, unless some other day is fixed by the board of directors for the determination of shareholders of record.

Section 2.7 Voting List. The officer who has charge of the stock transfer books for shares of the corporation shall prepare at least ten days before every meeting of shareholders, a complete list of the shareholders entitled to vote at such meeting, arranged in alphabetical order, including the address of each shareholder and the number of voting shares held by each shareholder. For a period of ten days prior to such meeting, such list shall be kept open to the examination of any shareholder, for any purpose germane to the meeting, during ordinary business hours, either at a place within the city where the meeting is to be held and which place shall be specified in the notice of the meeting, or, if not so specified, at the place where said meeting is to be held. Such list shall be produced at such meeting and at all times during such meeting shall be subject to inspection by any shareholder. The original stock transfer books shall be prima facie evidence as to who are the shareholders entitled to examine such list or stock transfer books.

Section 2.8 Treasury Stock. The corporation shall not vote, directly or indirectly, shares of its own stock owned by it and such shares shall not be counted for quorum purposes.

Section 2.9 Consent of Shareholders in Lieu of Meeting. Whenever the vote of shareholders at a meeting thereof is required or permitted to be taken for or in connection with any corporate action, the meeting, the notice thereof, and the vote of shareholders can be dispensed with, if a consent in writing, setting forth the action so taken, shall be signed by the holders of stock having not less than the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to authorize or take such action at a meeting at which all shares entitled to vote thereof were present and voted, provided that prompt notice must be given to all shareholders of the taking of corporate action without a meeting by less than unanimous written consent.

Section 2.10 Minutes of Meetings. The secretary of the corporation shall keep regular minutes of all meetings of shareholders and such minutes shall be placed in the minute book of the corporation.

ARTICLE III DIRECTORS

Section 3.1 Powers of Directors. The business and affairs of the corporation shall be managed by its board of directors which shall have and may exercise all such powers of the corporation, subject to the restrictions imposed by law, the articles of incorporation, or these bylaws.

Section 3.2 Number and Qualification. The number of directors which shall constitute the entire board of directors shall be determined by resolution of the Board of Directors at any meeting thereof or by the Shareholders at any meeting thereof. Directors need not be residents of Oklahoma or Shareholders of the corporation.

Section 3.3 Election and Term of Office. The directors shall be elected annually by the shareholders, except as provided in Section 3.4 of these bylaws. Each director shall hold office until the next succeeding annual meeting of shareholders and until his or her successor shall have been elected or until his or her earlier death, resignation, or removal. The board of directors may, by resolution, appoint one of its members as chairman to preside over meetings of the board of directors. The position of chairman of the board of directors shall not be an office of the corporation.

Section 3.4 Vacancies. Any vacancy occurring in the board of directors by reason of death, resignation, or removal may be filled by affirmative vote of a majority of the remaining directors, although less than a quorum of the board of directors. Such vacancy may also be filled by affirmative vote of the majority of the shareholders. A director elected to fill a vacancy shall be elected for the unexpired term of his or her predecessor in office or until his or her death, resignation, retirement, disqualification, or removal.

Section 3.5 Resignation of Directors. Any director may resign from office at any time by delivering a written resignation to the secretary of the corporation, and such resignation shall be effective upon delivery of such resignation to the secretary.

Section 3.6 Removal of Directors. Any director may be removed with or without cause at any time by the shareholders.

Section 3.7 Place of Meetings. Regular or special meetings of the board of directors may be held either within or without the State of Oklahoma.

Section 3.8 Regular Meetings. Regular meetings of the board of directors may be held without notice at such times and places as may be designated from time to time as may be determined by the board of directors.

Section 3.9 Special Meetings. Special meetings of the board of directors may be called by the president or any director on twenty-four (24) hours notice to each director, either personally or by telephone, mail, telegram or other means of telecommunications. Neither the business to be transacted at, nor the purpose of, any special meeting of the board of directors need be specified in the notice or waiver of notice of any special meeting.

Section 3.10 Quorum of Directors. At all meetings of the board of directors, a majority of the directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business and the act or a majority of the directors present at any meeting at which there is a quorum shall be an act of the board of directors. If a quorum is not present at a meeting, a majority of the directors present may adjourn the meeting from time to time, without notice other than an announcement at the meeting, until a quorum is present.

Section 3.11 Committees. The board of directors may, by resolution passed by a majority of the entire board, designate one or more committees, including, if they shall so determine, an executive committee, each such committee to consist of one or more of the directors of the corporation. Any such designated committee shall have and may exercise such of the powers and authority of the board of directors in the management of the business and affairs of the corporation as may be provided in such resolution, except that no such committee shall have the power or authority of the board of directors in reference to amending the articles of incorporation, adopting an agreement of merger or consolidation, recommending to the shareholders the sale, lease or exchange of all or substantially all of the corporation's property and assets, recommending to the shareholders a dissolution of the corporation or a revocation of a dissolution of the corporation, or amending, altering or repealing the bylaws or adopting new bylaws for the corporation and, unless such resolution or the articles of incorporation expressly so provides, no such committee shall have the power or authority to authorize the issuance of stock. The board of directors shall have the power at any time to change the number and members of any such committee, to fill vacancies and to discharge any such committee.

Section 3.12 Compensation of Directors. Persons serving as directors shall not receive any compensation for their services as directors; however, a director shall be entitled to reimbursement for reasonable and customary expenses incurred by such director in carrying out his duties as approved by the president of the corporation.

Section 3.13 Action by Unanimous Written Consent. Any action required or permitted to be taken at a meeting of the board of directors or any committee may be taken without a meeting if a consent in writing, setting forth the actions so taken, is signed by all of the members of the board of directors or such committee, as the case may be.

Section 3.14 Minutes of Meetings. The board of directors shall keep regular minutes of its proceedings and such minutes shall be placed in the minute book of the corporation. Committees of the board of directors shall maintain a separate record of the minutes of their proceedings.

ARTICLE IV

NOTICES AND TELEPHONE MEETINGS

Section 4.1 Notice. Any notice to directors or shareholders shall be in writing and shall be delivered personally or by mail, telegram, telex, cable, telecopier or similar means to the directors or shareholders at their respective addresses appearing on the books of the corporation. Notice by mail shall be deemed to be given at the time when the same shall be deposited in the United States mail, postage prepaid. Any notice required or permitted to be given by telegram, telex, cable, telecopier, or similar means shall be deemed to be delivered and given at the time transmitted.

Section 4.2 Waiver of Notice. Whenever by law, the articles of incorporation, or these bylaws, notice is required to be given to any shareholder, director, or committee member of the corporation, a waiver thereof in writing signed by the person or persons entitled to such notice, whether before or after the time notice should have been given, shall be equivalent to the giving of such notice. Attendance of a director at a meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting, except where a director attends a meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business on the ground that the meeting is not lawfully called or convened.

Section 4.3 Telephone and Similar Meetings. Shareholders, directors, or committee members may participate in and hold a meeting by means of a conference telephone or similar communications equipment by means of which persons participating in the meeting can hear each other. Participation in such a meeting shall constitute presence in person at such meeting, except where a person participates in the meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business on the ground that the meeting is not lawfully called or convened.

ARTICLE V OFFICERS

Section 5.1 Officers. The corporation shall have a president and a secretary and such other officers and assistant officers as the board may deem desirable to conduct the affairs of the corporation. The position of chairman of the board of directors shall not be an office of the corporation. Any two or more offices may be held by the same person. No officer need be a shareholder or a director.

Section 5.2 Powers and Duties of Officers. The officers of the corporation shall have the powers and duties generally ascribed to the respective offices, and such additional authority or duty as may from time to time be established by the board of directors.

Section 5.3 Removal and Resignation. Any officer appointed by the board of directors may be removed by the board of directors whenever, in the judgment of the board of directors, the best interests of the corporation will be served thereby. Any officer may resign at any time by giving written notice to the corporation. Any such resignation shall take effect at the date of receipt of such notice or at a later time specified therein, and unless otherwise specified therein, the acceptance of such resignation shall not be necessary to make it effective.

Section 5.4 Term and Vacancies. The officers of the corporation shall hold office until their successors are elected or appointed, or until their death, resignation, or removal from office. Any vacancy occurring in any office of the corporation by death, resignation, removal, or otherwise, may be filled by the board of directors.

Section 5.5 Compensation. The salaries of all officers of the corporation shall be fixed by the board of directors. The board of directors shall have the power to enter into contracts for the employment and compensation of officers on such terms as the board of directors deems advisable. No officer shall be disqualified from receiving a salary or other compensation by reason of the fact that he or she is also a director of the corporation.

ARTICLE VI

CERTIFICATES AND SHAREHOLDERS

Section 6.1 Certificates for Shares. The certificates for shares of stock of the Corporation shall be in such form as shall be approved by the board of directors in conformity with law and the articles of incorporation. Every certificate for shares issued by the corporation must be signed by the President or a Vice President and the Secretary or an Assistant Secretary under the seal of the corporation. Any or all of the signatures on the face of the certificate may be facsimile. Such certificates shall bear a legend or legends in the form and containing the restrictions to be stated thereon by the Oklahoma General Corporation Act, other provisions of law, the articles of incorporation or these bylaws. Certificates shall be consecutively numbered and shall be entered as they are issued. Each certificate shall state on the face thereof the holder's name, the number and class of shares, the par value of such shares, and such other matters as may be required by law, the articles of incorporation or these bylaws.

Section 6.2 Lost, Stolen, or Destroyed Certificates. The board of directors, the executive committee, or the president of the corporation may direct a new certificate or certificates representing shares to be issued in place of any certificate or certificates theretofore issued by the corporation alleged to have been lost, stolen, or destroyed, upon the making of an affidavit of the fact by the person claiming the certificate or certificates to be lost, stolen, or destroyed. When authorizing such issue of a new certificate the board of directors, the executive committee or the president may require the owner of such lost, stolen, or destroyed certificate, or his or her legal representative, to advertise the same in such manner as it or he or she shall require and/or give the corporation a bond in such sum as it may direct as indemnity against any claim that may be made against the corporation with respect to the certificate alleged to have been lost, stolen or destroyed.

Section 6.3 Transfer of Shares. Shares of stock of the corporation shall be transferable only on the books of the corporation by the holder thereof in person or by the holder's duly authorized attorneys or legal representatives. Upon surrender to the corporation or the transfer agent of the corporation of a certificate representing shares duly endorsed or accompanied by proper evidence of succession, assignment, or authority to transfer, the corporation or its transfer agent shall issue a new certificate to the person entitled thereto, cancel the old certificate, and record the transaction upon its books.

Section 6.4 Registered Shareholders. The corporation shall be entitled to recognize the exclusive right of a person registered on its books as the owner of shares to receive dividends, and to vote as such owner, and to hold liable for calls and assessments, a person registered on its books as the owner of shares, and shall not be bound to recognize any equitable or other claim to or interest in such shares on the part of any person, whether or not it shall have actual or other notice thereof, except as otherwise provided by law.

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

Section 7.1 Dividends. Dividends upon the outstanding shares of the corporation, subject to the provisions of the applicable statutes and of the articles of incorporation, may be declared by the board of directors at any annual, regular or special meeting. Dividends may be declared and paid in cash, in property, or in shares of the corporation, or in any combination thereof.

Section 7.2 Reserves. There may be set aside out of any funds of the corporation available for dividends such sum or sums as the board of directors from time to time in their sole and absolute discretion think proper as a reserve to meet contingencies, or to equalize dividends, or to repair or maintain any property of the corporation, or for such other purpose as the board of directors shall think conducive to the interest of the corporation, and the board of directors may modify or abolish any such reserve in the manner in which it was created.

Section 7.3 Signature of Negotiable Instruments. All checks or demands for money and notes of the corporation shall be signed by such officer or officers or such other person or persons as the board of directors may from time to time designate.

Section 7.4 Fiscal Year. The fiscal year of the corporation shall be fixed by the board of directors; provided, that if such fiscal year is not fixed by the board of directors it shall be the calendar year.

Section 7.5 Books of the Corporation. The books of the corporation may be kept, subject to the provisions of the applicable statutes, within or outside of the State of Oklahoma, at such place or places as may from time to time be designated by the board of directors or as the business of the corporation may require.

Section 7.6 Seal. The seal, if any, of the corporation shall be in such form as may be approved from time to time by the board of directors. If the board of directors approves a seal, the affixation of such seal shall not be required to create a valid and binding obligation against the corporation.

Section 7.7 Securities of Other Corporations. Unless otherwise ordered by the board of directors, the president or the secretary of the corporation shall have full power and authority on behalf of the corporation to attend, to vote and to grant proxies to be used at any meeting of shareholders of such other corporation in which the corporation may hold stock. The board of directors may confer like powers upon any other person or persons.

Section 7.8 Fixed Record Date. In order that the corporation may determine the shareholders entitled to notice of or to vote at any meeting of shareholders or any adjournment thereof, or to express consent to corporate action in writing without a meeting, or entitled to receive payment of any dividend or other distribution or allotment of any rights, or entitled to exercise any rights in respect of any change, conversion or exchange of stock for the purpose of any other lawful action, the board of directors may fix, in advance, a record date which shall be not more than sixty 60 days before the date of such meeting, nor more than 60 days prior to any other action.

Section 7.9 Amendment. The power to alter, amend, or repeal these bylaws or to adopt new bylaws is vested in the board of directors.

Section 7.10 Right to Indemnification.

(A) Each person (hereinafter an "indemnitee") who was or is made a party or is threatened to be made a party to or is otherwise involved in any action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (hereinafter a "proceeding"), by reason of the fact that he or she was a director, officer or agent of the corporation or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation or of a partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, including service with respect to an employee benefit plan, whether the basis of such proceeding is alleged action in an official capacity as a director, officer, employee or agent, shall be indemnified and held harmless by the corporation to the fullest extent authorized by the Oklahoma General Corporation Act, as amended, as the same exists or may hereafter be amended (but, in the case of any such amendment, only to the extent that such amendment permits the corporation to provide broader indemnification rights than permitted prior thereto), against all expense, liability and loss (including attorney's fees, judgments, fines, ERISA excise taxes or penalties and amounts paid in settlement) reasonably incurred or suffered by such indemnitee in connection therewith, and such indemnification shall continue with respect to an indemnitee who has ceased to be a director, officer, employee or agent and shall inure to the benefit of the indemnitee's heirs, executors and administrators; provided, however, that, except as provided in paragraph (B) hereof with respect to proceedings to enforce rights to indemnification, the corporation shall indemnify any such indemnitee only if such proceeding (or part thereof) was authorized by the board of directors of the corporation. The right to indemnification conferred in this section shall be a contract right and shall include the right to be paid by the corporation the expenses incurred in defending any such proceeding in advance of its final Oklahoma General Corporation Act, as amended, requires, an advancement of expenses incurred by an indemnitee shall be made only upon delivery to the corporation of an undertaking (hereinafter an "undertaking"), by or on behalf of such indemnitee, to repay all amounts so advanced if it shall ultimately be determined by final judicial decision from which there is no further right to appeal (hereinafter a "final adjudication") that such indemnitee is not entitled to be indemnified for such expenses under this section or otherwise.

(B) If a claim under paragraph (A) of this section is not paid in full by the corporation within 60 days after a written claim has been received by the corporation, except in the case of a claim for an advancement of expenses, in which case the applicable period shall be 20 days, the indemnitee may at any time thereafter bring suit against the corporation to recover the unpaid amount of such suit, or in a suit brought by the corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking, the indemnitee shall be entitled to be paid also the expense of prosecuting or defending such suit. In (i) any suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right to indemnification hereunder (but not in a suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right to an advancement of expenses) it shall be a defense that, and (ii) any suit by the corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking the corporation shall be entitled to recover such expenses upon a final adjudication that, the indemnitee has not met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in the Oklahoma General Corporation Act. Neither the failure of the corporation (including its board of directors, independent legal counsel, or its shareholders) to have made a determination prior to the commencement of such suit that indemnification of the indemnitee is proper in the circumstances because the indemnitee has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in the Oklahoma General Corporation Act, nor an actual determination by the corporation (including its board of directors, independent legal counsel, or its shareholders) that the indemnitee has not met such applicable standard of conduct shall create a presumption that the indemnitee has not met the applicable standard of conduct or, in the case of such a suit brought by the indemnitee, be a defense of such suit. In any suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right of indemnification or to an advancement of expenses hereunder, or by the corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking, the burden of proving that the indemnitee is not entitled to be indemnified, or to such advancement of expenses, under this section or otherwise shall be on the corporation.

(C) The rights to indemnification and to the advancement of expenses conferred in this section shall not be exclusive of any other right which any person may have or hereafter acquire under any statute, the corporation's certificate of incorporation, by agreement, by vote of shareholders or by disinterested directors or otherwise.

(D) The corporation may maintain insurance, at its expense, to protect itself and any director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation or another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise against any expense, liability or loss, whether or not the corporation would have the power to indemnify such person against such expense, liability or loss under the Oklahoma General Corporation Act.

Section 7.11 Invalid Provisions. If any provision of these bylaws is held to be illegal, invalid, or unenforceable under present or future laws, such provision shall be fully severable; these bylaws shall be construed and enforced as if such illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision had never comprised a part hereof; and the remaining provisions hereof shall remain in full force and effect and shall not be affected by the illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision or by its severance herefrom. Furthermore, in lieu of such illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision there shall be added automatically as a part of these bylaws a provision as similar in terms to such illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision as may be possible and be legal, valid, and enforceable.

Section 7.12 Headings. The headings used in these bylaws are for reference purposes only and do not affect in any way the meaning or interpretation of these bylaws.

The above bylaws were duly adopted as the bylaws of the corporation effective as of the 4th day of January, 2006.

FIRST AMENDMENT
TO
KAY COUNTY OKLAHOMA HOSPITAL COMPANY, LLC

This First Amendment to Operating Agreement of Kay County Oklahoma Hospital Company, LLC (“Amendment”) is made and entered into as of May 1, 2006, by Kay County Hospital Corporation, an Oklahoma corporation (“Member”).

WHEREAS, the Member has heretofore executed and delivered that certain Operating Agreement of Kay County Oklahoma Hospital Company, LLC (the “Company”) dated as of January 4, 2006 (the “Operating Agreement”); and

WHEREAS, the Member desires to amend the Operating Agreement to authorize the issuance and certification of units.

NOW THEREFORE, IT IS

RESOLVED, that the Operating Agreement is hereby amended by deleting Section 2.1 in its entirety and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

2.1 Initial Capital Contribution of Member. The interest in the Company shall be divided into units (“Units”). The total number of Units that the Company is initially authorized to issue is 100 Units. The Member has been issued the number of Units listed on Exhibit A hereto attached. The Member may, but shall not be required to, make additional capital contributions to the Company from time to time.

FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Operating Agreement is hereby amended to add the following text:

2.2 Certificates for Units. Certificates representing Units shall be in such form as may be determined by the Member. Such certificates shall be signed by the President or Vice President of the Member, if such offices be created and filled, or signed by an officer designated by the Member to sign such certificates. The signature of such officer upon such certificates may be signed manually or by facsimile. All certificates for Units shall be consecutively numbered. The name of the person owning the Units represented thereby, with the number of Units and date of issue, shall be entered on the books of the Company. All certificates surrendered to the Company for transfer shall be canceled and no new certificates shall be issued until the former certificates for a like number of Units shall have been surrendered and canceled, except that, in case of a lost, destroyed or mutilated certificate, a new one may be issued therefore upon such terms and indemnity to the Company as the Member may prescribe.

FURTHER RESOLVED, except as set forth in this Amendment, the terms and provisions of the Operating Agreement are hereby ratified and declared to be in full force and effect. This Amendment shall be governed by the provisions of the Operating Agreement; provided, however, to the extent that the terms of this Amendment and Operating Agreement conflict, the terms of this Amendment shall control.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the undersigned has executed this Amendment as of the day and year first above set forth.

KAY COUNTY OKLAHOMA HOSPITAL COMPANY, LLC

OPERATING AGREEMENT

This Operating Agreement (“Agreement”) is declared to be effective as of the 4th day of January, 2006, by Kay County Hospital Corporation, as the sole Member (such corporation and any successor hereunder, the “Member”) of Kay County Oklahoma Hospital Company, LLC (the “Company”), pursuant to the provisions of the Oklahoma Limited Liability Company Act (the “Act”).

Section 1. The Company.

1.1 Formation. The initial Member is forming the Company as a limited liability company pursuant to the provisions of the Act and upon the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement.

1.2 Company Name. The name of the Company shall be as set forth in the Articles from time to time, and all business of the Company shall be conducted in such name. The Member may change the name of the Company at any time.

1.3 Purpose. The purpose of the Company shall be as set forth in the Articles from time to time.

1.4 Principal Place of Business. The principal place of business and address of the Company shall be at any place within or without the State of Oklahoma as determined by the Member.

1.5 Existence. The existence of the Company shall commence on the date the Company’s Articles of Organization (as amended from time to time, the “Articles”) are filed in the office of the Secretary of State of Oklahoma in accordance with the Act and shall continue until the winding up and liquidation of the Company following a Liquidating Event as provided in Section 8 hereof.

1.6 Title to Property. All real and personal property owned by the Company shall be owned by the Company as an entity.

1.7 Independent Activities; Transactions With Affiliates.

(a) The Member shall be required to devote only such time to the affairs of the Company as the Member determines in its sole discretion may be necessary or appropriate, and the Member shall be free to serve any other Person in any capacity that he may deem appropriate in his discretion.

(b) Insofar as permitted by applicable law, the Member may, notwithstanding this Agreement, engage in whatever activities it chooses, whether the same are competitive with the Company or otherwise, without having or incurring any obligation to offer any interest in such activities to the Company, and neither this Agreement nor any activity undertaken pursuant hereto shall prevent the Member from engaging in such activities or require the Member to permit the Company to participate in any such activities.

1.8 Definitions. Certain capitalized words and phrases used in this Agreement have the following meanings:

“Interest” means the entire limited liability company interest in the Company of a Member or Interest Holder at any particular time, including the right of such Member or Interest Holder to any and all benefits to which the Member or Interest Holder may be entitled as provided in this Agreement, together with the obligations of such Member to comply with all the terms and provisions of this Agreement.

“Interest Holder” means any Person who holds an Interest, regardless of whether such Person has been admitted to the Company as a Member. “Interest Holders” means all such Persons.

“Net Cash Flow” means the gross cash proceeds from Company operations and from all sales and other dispositions and refinancings of Property, less the portion thereof used to pay or establish reserves for Company expenses, debt payments, capital improvements, replacements, and contingencies, all as determined by the Member. “Net Cash Flow” shall not be reduced by depreciation, amortization, cost recovery deductions, or similar allowances, but shall be increased by any reductions of reserves previously established pursuant to the first sentence of this definition.

“Person” means any individual, partnership, limited liability company, corporation, trust, or other entity.

“Property” means all real and personal property acquired by the Company and any improvements thereto, and shall include both tangible and intangible property.

“Transfer” means, as a noun, any voluntary or involuntary transfer, sale or other disposition and, as a verb, voluntarily or involuntarily to transfer, sell, or otherwise dispose of. “Transferred” shall have a correlative meaning.

Section 2. Capital Contributions.

2.1 Initial Capital Contributions. In exchange for all the Interests in the Company, the Member has, or may cause to be, contributed or will contribute to the capital of the Company, One Thousand and No/100 Dollars ($1,000.00) in cash.

Section 3. Tax Allocations.

3.1 No Allocations in Single-Member Entity. Kay County Hospital Corporation, as the only Member, intends for the Company, as such a wholly-owned entity, to be disregarded for accounting and income tax purposes. Accordingly, all items of income, gain, loss, deduction, and credit that would, but for such single-member status, belong to the Company shall belong to the Member.

Section 4. Distributions.

4.1 Distributions. Subject to the Act, Net Cash Flow, if any, and any item of Property chosen by the Member, shall be distributed to or as directed by the Member, at such times as the Member may determine.

Section 5. Management

5.1 Authority and Duties of Member. The overall management and control of the Company shall be vested in the Member and the Member shall have the right and authority to enter into transactions on behalf of the Company, to bind the Company and to conduct, and to make decisions relating to, the day-to-day operations of the Company. Without limiting the foregoing and in each case without any further act, vote or approval, the Member is hereby specifically authorized for, and in the name of and on behalf of, the Company from time to time to:

- (a) Amend the Articles;
- (b) Issue Interests in the Company and admit other Persons as Members;
- (c) Acquire by purchase, lease, or otherwise any real or personal property;
- (d) Loan money to the Company, its affiliates or other third parties, upon such terms and conditions as the Member may determine;
- (e) Operate, maintain, finance, improve, construct, own, grant options with respect to, sell, convey, assign, mortgage, and lease any real or personal property;
- (f) Designate, authorize and direct one or more Persons to execute any and all agreements, contracts, documents, certifications, and instruments on behalf of the Company that are necessary or convenient in connection with the management, maintenance and operation of Property or managing the Company's affairs, including executing amendments to the Agreement and the Articles in accordance with the terms of the Agreement, both as authorized agent for the Company and, if required, as attorney-in-fact for the Member pursuant to a power of attorney.
- (g) Appoint individuals designated as officers and/or managers of the Company and delegate such authority to such officers and/or managers as the Member deems advisable.
- (h) Borrow money and issue evidences of indebtedness (including bonds, notes and debentures) necessary, convenient or incidental to the accomplishment of the purposes of the Company, and secure the same by mortgage, pledge, or other lien on any Property;
- (i) Care for and distribute funds to the Interest Holders by way of income, return of capital, or otherwise;
- (j) Contract on behalf of the Company for the employment and services of employees and/or independent contractors, such as lawyers and accountants, and delegate to such Persons the duty to manage or supervise any of the Property or operations of the Company;

(k) Engage in any kind of activity and perform and carry out contracts of any kind as may be lawfully engaged in, carried out, or performed by a limited liability company under the laws of each state in which the Company is then formed or qualified; and

(1) Make any and all elections for federal, state, and local tax purposes.

5.2 Indemnification of Member.

(a) The Company, its receiver, or its trustee (in the case of its receiver or trustee, to the extent of Company Property) shall indemnify, save harmless, and pay all judgments and claims against the Member relating to any liability or damage incurred by reason of: (i) ownership of an Interest in the Company, and (ii) any act performed or omitted to be performed by the Member in connection with the business of the Company, in any case including attorneys' fees incurred by the Member in connection with the defense of any action based on any of the foregoing.

(b) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in Section 5.2(a) above, in the event that any provision in such Section is determined to be invalid in whole or in part, such Section shall be enforced to the maximum extent permitted by law.

Section 6. Role of Member.

6.1 Compensation. The Member may from time to time receive a salary, fee, or draw for services rendered to or on behalf of the Company in such amount as the Member deems appropriate.

6.2 Expenses. The Member may charge the Company for any expenses reasonably incurred by it in connection with the Company's business.

6.3 Loans. If the Member shall make any loan or loans to the Company or advance money on its behalf, the amount of any such loan or advance shall not be treated as a capital contribution but shall be a debt due from the Company. The amount of any such loan or advance by the Member shall be repayable out of the Company's cash and shall bear interest at such rate as the Company and the Member shall agree but not in excess of the maximum rate permitted by law. The Member shall not be obligated to make any loan or advance to, or on behalf of, the Company.

Section 7. Transfer of Interests.

7.1 No Restriction on Transfers. The Member may Transfer all or any portion of its Interest at any time.

7.2 Admission of Transferees as Members. Unless otherwise indicated in writing at the time of any Transfer of an Interest, a transferee of an Interest (including a transferee by operation of law) shall be admitted to the Company as a substituted Member and shall be bound by the terms of this Agreement upon such transferee's written notice to the Company at the address specified in Section 1.4.

Section 8. Dissolution and Winding Up.

8.1 Liquidating Events. The death, retirement, bankruptcy or dissolution of the Member, or the occurrence of any other event that terminates the continued membership of a member in the Company, shall not cause the Company to be dissolved and its affairs wound up, but rather the business of the Company shall be continued without dissolution, provided that there remains at least one Member (including a transferee of one or more Interests who becomes a Member). The Company shall dissolve and commence winding up and liquidating upon the first to occur of any of the following events (the "Liquidating Events"):

- (a) The written consent of the Member or any successor Member;
- (b) There is no Member or transferee of one or more Interests who becomes a Member; or
- (c) The occurrence of any other event causing the dissolution of the Company under the Act.

8.2 Winding Up. Upon the occurrence of a Liquidating Event, the Company shall continue solely for the purposes of winding up its affairs in an orderly manner, liquidating its assets, and satisfying the claims of its creditors and the Member. To the extent not inconsistent with the foregoing, the terms of this Agreement shall continue in full force and effect until such time as all of the Property (including the proceeds of sales of Property) has been distributed pursuant to this Section 8.2 and the Company's existence has been terminated in accordance with the Act. The Member (or, in the event there is no remaining Member, any Person elected by those Persons succeeding to ownership of the Member's Interest) shall be responsible for overseeing the winding up of the Company, shall take full account of the Company's liabilities and Property, shall cause the Property other than cash to be liquidated as promptly as is consistent with obtaining the fair value thereof, and shall cause the proceeds therefrom, to the extent sufficient therefor, to be applied and distributed in the following order:

- (a) First, to the payment and discharge of all of the Company's debts and liabilities to creditors; and
- (b) The balance, if any, to the Member.

Section 9. Miscellaneous.

9.1 Amendment. The Member may amend this Agreement at any time.

9.2 Headings. Section and other headings contained in this Agreement are for reference purposes only and are not intended to describe, interpret, define, or limit the scope, extent, or intent of this Agreement or any provision hereof.

9.3 Severability. Every provision of this Agreement is intended to be severable. If any term or provision hereof is illegal or invalid for any reason whatsoever, such illegality or invalidity shall not affect the validity or legality of the remainder of this Agreement.

9.4 Variation of Pronouns. All pronouns and any variations thereof shall be deemed to refer to masculine, feminine, or neuter, singular or plural, as the identity of the person or persons may require.

9.5 Governing Law. The laws of the State of Oklahoma shall govern the validity of this Agreement, the construction of its terms, and the interpretation of the rights and duties of the Member.

The undersigned has executed this Agreement as of the day and year first above set forth.

OF

CHS BERWICK HOSPITAL CORPORATION

In compliance with the requirements of the applicable provisions of the Pennsylvania Business Corporation Law of 1988, as amended (the "Pennsylvania BCL"), the undersigned natural person of the age of eighteen years or more, desiring to incorporate a corporation for profit hereby states the following:

ARTICLE I The name of the Corporation is CHS Berwick Hospital Corporation.

ARTICLE II The period of its duration is perpetual.

ARTICLE III The purpose of the Corporation is to engage in any lawful act or activity for which corporations may be organized under the Pennsylvania BCL.

ARTICLE IV The total number of shares of all classes of stock that the Corporation shall have the authority to issue is one thousand (1,000) shares of $.01 per share par value Common Stock.

ARTICLE V The address of the principal office of the Corporation's registered office in this State, and the name of its registered agent at such address is:

c/o Corporation Service Company
County of Dauphin

ARTICLE VI Election of the Directors need not be written ballot unless the Bylaws of the corporation shall so provide.

ARTICLE VII The name and mailing address of the incorporator is:

Virginia D. Lancaster
Community Health Systems, Inc.
Brentwood, Tennessee 37027

ARTICLE VIII To the fullest extent permitted by Pennsylvania law, a director of the Corporation shall not be personally liable to the Corporation or its stockholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director, except for liability (i) for any breach of the director's duty of loyalty to the Corporation or its stockholders, (ii) for acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law, (iii) under Section 1553 of the Pennsylvania BCL or (iv) for any transaction from which the director derived any improper personal benefit. If the Pennsylvania BCL is amended hereafter to authorize corporate action further eliminating or limiting the personal liability of directors, then the liability of a director of the Corporation shall be eliminated or limited to the fullest extent permitted by the Pennsylvania BCL, as so amended.

Any repeal or modification of the foregoing paragraph by the stockholders of the Corporation shall not adversely affect any right or protection of a director of the Corporation existing at the time of such repeal or modification.

ARTICLE IX A. Rights to Indemnification. Each person who was or is made a party or is threatened to be made a party to or is otherwise involved in any action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (hereinafter, a “proceeding”), by reason of the fact that he or she, or a person of whom he or she is a legal representative, or is or was a director or officer of the Corporation or is only serving at the request of the Corporation as a director or officer of another Corporation or of a partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, including service with respect to an employee benefit plan (hereinafter an “indemnitee”), whether the basis of such proceeding is alleged action in an official capacity or as a director or officer or in any other capacity while serving as a director or officer, shall be indemnified and held harmless by the Corporation to the fullest extent authorized by the Pennsylvania BCL as the same exists or may hereafter be amended (but, in the case of any such amendment, only to the extent that such amendment permits of the Corporation to provide broader indemnification rights than permitted prior thereto), against all expense, liability and loss (including, without limitation, attorneys’ fees, judgments, fines, excise taxes or penalties and amounts paid or to be paid in settlement) incurred or suffered by such indemnitee in connection therewith and such indemnification shall continue with respect to an indemnitee who has ceased to be a director or officer and shall inure to the benefit of the indemnitee’s heirs, executors and administrators; provided, however, that except as provided in paragraph (B) hereof with respect to proceedings to enforce rights to indemnification, the Corporation shall indemnify any such indemnitee in connection with a proceeding initiated by such indemnitee only if such proceeding was authorized by the Board of Directors of the Corporation. The right to indemnification conferred in this Article shall be a contract right and shall include the right to be paid by the Corporation the expenses incurred in defending any such proceeding in advance of its final disposition (hereinafter an “advancement of expenses”); provided, however, that if the Pennsylvania BCL requires, an advancement of expenses incurred by an indemnitee shall be made only upon delivery to the Corporation of an undertaking (hereinafter an “undertaking”), by or on behalf of such indemnitee, to repay all amounts so advanced if it shall ultimately be determined by final judicial decision from which there is no further right to appeal (hereinafter a “final adjudication”) that such indemnitee is not entitled to be indemnified for such expenses under this Article or otherwise.

B. Rights of Indemnitee to Bring Suit. If a claim under paragraph (A) of this Article is not paid in full by the Corporation within sixty days after a written claim has been received by the Corporation (except in the case of a claim for an advancement of expenses, in which case the applicable period shall be twenty days), the indemnitee may at any time thereafter bring suit against the Corporation to recover the unpaid amount of the claim. If successful in whole or in part in any such suit, the indemnitee shall also be entitled to be paid the expense of prosecuting or defending such suit. In (i) any suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right to indemnification hereunder (but not a suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right to an advancement of expenses) it shall be a defense that, and (ii) in any suit by the Corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking, the Corporation shall be entitled to recover such expenses upon a final adjudication that, the indemnitee has not met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in the Pennsylvania BCL. Neither the failure of the Corporation (including its Board of Directors, independent counsel or its stockholders) to have made a determination prior to the commencement of such suit that indemnification of the indemnitee has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in the Pennsylvania BCL, nor an actual determination by the Corporation (including its Board of Directors, independent legal counsel or its stockholders) that the indemnitee has not met such applicable standard of conduct, or in the case of such a suit brought by the indemnitee, shall he a defense to such suit. In any suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right to indemnification or to an advancement of expenses hereunder or by the Corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking, the burden of proving that the indemnitee is not entitled under this Article or otherwise to be indemnified, or to such advancement of expenses, shall be on the Corporation.

C. Non-Exclusivity of Rights. The rights to indemnification and to the advancement of expenses; conferred in this Article shall not be exclusive of any other right which any person may have or hereafter acquire under these Articles of Incorporation or any Bylaw, agreement, vote of stockholders or disinterested directors or otherwise.

D. Insurance. The Corporation may maintain insurance, at its expense, to protect itself and any indemnitee against any expense, liability or loss, whether or not the Corporation would have the power to indemnify such person against such expense, liability or loss under the Pennsylvania BCL.

E. Indemnity of Employees and Agents of the Corporation. The Corporation may, to the extent authorized from time to time by the Board of Directors, grant rights to indemnification and to the advancement of expenses to any employee or agent of the Corporation to the fullest extent of the provisions of this Article or as otherwise permitted under the Pennsylvania BCL with respect to the indemnification and advancement of expenses of directors and officers of the Corporation.

ARTICLE X The Bylaws of the Corporation may be altered, amended or repealed or new Bylaws may be adopted by the Board of Directors of the Corporation.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand this 4th day of September, 1998.

BYLAWS OF
CHS BERWICK HOSPITAL CORPORATION
ARTICLE I
OFFICES

Section 1.1 Registered Office. The registered office shall be in the City of Harrisburg, County of Dauphin, State of Pennsylvania.

Section 1.2 Other Offices. The corporation may also have offices at such other places both within and without the State of Pennsylvania as the board of directors may from time to time determine or the business of the corporation may require.

ARTICLE II
MEETINGS OF SHAREHOLDERS

Section 2.1 Annual Meeting. An annual meeting of shareholders of the corporation shall be held on such date and at such time as shall be designated from time to time by the board of directors and stated in the notice of the meeting. At such meeting, the shareholders shall elect directors and transact such other business as may properly be brought before the meeting.

Section 2.2 Special Meetings. Special meetings of the shareholders for any purpose whatsoever may be called at any time by the president, the board of directors, or the holders of not less than ten percent of all shares entitled to vote at such meeting.

Section 2.3 Place of Meetings. All meetings of shareholders for any purpose or purposes may be held at such places, within or without the State of Pennsylvania, as may from time to time be fixed by the board of directors or as shall be stated in the notice of the meeting or in a duly executed waiver of notice thereof.

Section 2.4 Notice. Written notice stating the place, day and hour of the meeting and, in the case of a special meeting, the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is called, shall be given not less than ten nor more than sixty days before the date of the meeting, either personally or by mail.

Section 2.5 Quorum of Shareholders. The holders of a majority of the shares issued and outstanding and entitled to vote at such meeting, present in person or represented by proxy shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at all meetings of the shareholders.

Section 2.6 Voting of Shares. Except as otherwise provided by statute or the articles of incorporation, each holder of record of shares of stock of the Corporation having voting power shall be entitled at each meeting of the shareholders to one vote for every share of such stock standing in his or her name on the record books of shareholders of the corporation on the date on which such notice of the meeting is mailed, unless some other day is fixed by the board of directors for the determination of shareholders of record.

Section 2.7 Voting List. The officer who has charge of the stock transfer books for shares of the corporation shall prepare at least ten days before every meeting of shareholders, a complete list of the shareholders entitled to vote at such meeting, arranged in alphabetical order, including the address of each shareholder and the number of voting shares held by each shareholder. For a period of ten days prior to such meeting, such list shall be kept open to the examination of any shareholder, for any purpose germane to the meeting, during ordinary business hours, either at a place within the city where the meeting is to be held and which place shall be specified in the notice of the meeting, or, if not so specified, at the place where said meeting is to be held. Such list shall be produced at such meeting and at all times during such meeting shall be subject to inspection by any shareholder. The original stock transfer books shall be prima facie evidence as to who are the shareholders entitled to examine such list or stock transfer books.

Section 2.8 Treasury Stock. The corporation shall not vote, directly or indirectly, shares of its own stock owned by it and such shares shall not be counted for quorum purposes.

Section 2.9 Consent of Shareholders in Lieu of Meeting. Whenever the vote of shareholders at a meeting thereof is required or permitted to be taken for or in connection with any corporate action, the meeting, the notice thereof, and the vote of shareholders can be dispensed with, if a consent in writing, setting forth the action so taken, shall be signed by the holders of stock having not less than the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to authorize or take such action at a meeting at which all shares entitled to vote thereof were present and voted, provided that prompt notice must be given to all shareholders of the taking of corporate action without a meeting by less than unanimous written consent.

Section 2.10 Minutes of Meetings. The secretary of the corporation shall keep regular minutes of all meetings of shareholders and such minutes shall be placed in the minute book of the corporation.

ARTICLE III

DIRECTORS

Section 3.1 Powers of Directors. The business and affairs of the corporation shall be managed by its board of directors which shall have and may exercise all such powers of the corporation, subject to the restrictions imposed by law, the articles of incorporation, or these bylaws.

Section 3.2 Number and Qualification. The number of directors which shall constitute the entire board of directors shall be determined by resolution of the Board of Directors at any meeting thereof or by the Shareholders at any meeting thereof. Directors need not be residents of Pennsylvania or Shareholders of the corporation.

Section 3.3 Election and Term of Office. The directors shall be elected annually by the shareholders, except as provided in Section 3.4 of these bylaws. Each director shall hold office until the next succeeding annual meeting of shareholders and until his or her successor shall have been elected or until his or her earlier death, resignation, or removal. The board of directors may, by resolution, appoint one of its members as chairman to preside over meetings of the board of directors. The position of chairman of the board of directors shall not be an office of the corporation.

Section 3.4 Vacancies. Any vacancy occurring in the board of directors by reason of death, resignation, or removal may be filled by affirmative vote of a majority of the remaining directors, although less than a quorum of the board of directors. Such vacancy may also be filled by affirmative vote of the majority of the shareholders. A director elected to fill a vacancy shall be elected for the unexpired term of his or her predecessor in office or until his or her death, resignation, retirement, disqualification, or removal.

Section 3.5 Resignation of Directors. Any director may resign from office at any time by delivering a written resignation to the secretary of the corporation, and such resignation shall be effective upon delivery of such resignation to the secretary.

Section 3.6 Removal of Directors. Any director may be removed with or without cause at any time by the shareholders.

Section 3.7 Place of Meetings. Regular or special meetings of the board of directors may be held either within or without the State of Pennsylvania.

Section 3.8 Regular Meetings. Regular meetings of the board of directors may be held without notice at such times and places as may be designated from time to time as may be determined by the board of directors.

Section 3.9 Special Meetings. Special meetings of the board of directors may be called by the president or any director on twenty-four (24) hours notice to each director, either personally or by telephone, mail, telegram or other means of telecommunications. Neither the business to be transacted at, nor the purpose of, any special meeting of the board of directors need be specified in the notice or waiver of notice of any special meeting.

Section 3.10 Quorum of Directors. At all meetings of the board of directors, a majority of the directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business and the act or a majority of the directors present at any meeting at which there is a quorum shall be an act of the board of directors. If a quorum is not present at a meeting, a majority of the directors present may adjourn the meeting from time to time, without notice other than an announcement at the meeting, until a quorum is present.

Section 3.11 Committees. The board of directors may, by resolution passed by a majority of the entire board, designate one or more committees, including, if they shall so determine, an executive committee, each such committee to consist of one or more of the directors of the corporation. Any such designated committee shall have and may exercise such of the powers and authority of the board of directors in the management of the business and affairs of the corporation as may be provided in such resolution, except that no such committee shall have the power or authority of the board of directors in reference to amending the articles of incorporation, adopting an agreement of merger or consolidation, recommending to the shareholders the sale, lease or exchange of all or substantially all of the corporation's property and assets, recommending to the shareholders a dissolution of the corporation or a revocation of a dissolution of the corporation, or amending, altering or repealing the bylaws or adopting new bylaws for the corporation and, unless such resolution or the articles of incorporation expressly so provides, no such committee shall have the power or authority to authorize the issuance of stock. The board of directors shall have the power at any time to change the number and members of any such committee, to fill vacancies and to discharge any such committee.

Section 3.12 Compensation of Directors. Persons serving as directors shall not receive any compensation for their services as directors; however, a director shall be entitled to reimbursement for reasonable and customary expenses incurred by such director in carrying out his duties as approved by the president of the corporation.

Section 3.13 Action by Unanimous Written Consent. Any action required or permitted to be taken at a meeting of the board of directors or any committee may be taken without a meeting if a consent in writing, setting forth the actions so taken, is signed by all of the members of the board of directors or such committee, as the case may be.

Section 3.14 Minutes of Meetings. The board of directors shall keep regular minutes of its proceedings and such minutes shall be placed in the minute book of the corporation. Committees of the board of directors shall maintain a separate record of the minutes of their proceedings.

ARTICLE IV

NOTICES AND TELEPHONE MEETINGS

Section 4.1 Notice. Any notice to directors or shareholders shall be in writing and shall be delivered personally or by mail, telegram, telex, cable, telecopier or similar means to the directors or shareholders at their respective addresses appearing on the books of the corporation. Notice by mail shall be deemed to be given at the time when the same shall be deposited in the United States mail, postage prepaid. Any notice required or permitted to be given by telegram, telex, cable, telecopier, or similar means shall be deemed to be delivered and given at the time transmitted.

Section 4.2 Waiver of Notice. Whenever by law, the articles of incorporation, or these bylaws, notice is required to be given to any shareholder, director, or committee member of the corporation, a waiver thereof in writing signed by the person or persons entitled to such notice, whether before or after the time notice should have been given, shall be equivalent to the giving of such notice. Attendance of a director at a meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting, except where a director attends a meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business on the ground that the meeting is not lawfully called or convened.

Section 4.3 Telephone and Similar Meetings. Shareholders, directors, or committee members may participate in and hold a meeting by means of a conference telephone or similar communications equipment by means of which persons participating in the meeting can hear each other. Participation in such a meeting shall constitute presence in person at such meeting, except where a person participates in the meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business on the ground that the meeting is not lawfully called or convened.

ARTICLE V

OFFICERS

Section 5.1 Officers. The corporation shall have a president and a secretary and such other officers and assistant officers as the board may deem desirable to conduct the affairs of the corporation. The position of chairman of the board of directors shall not be an office of the corporation. Any two or more offices may be held by the same person. No officer need be a shareholder or a director.

Section 5.2 Powers and Duties of Officers. The officers of the corporation shall have the powers and duties generally ascribed to the respective offices, and such additional authority or duty as may from time to time be established by the board of directors.

Section 5.3 Removal and Resignation. Any officer appointed by the board of directors may be removed by the board of directors whenever, in the judgment of the board of directors, the best interests of the corporation will be served thereby. Any officer may resign at any time by giving written notice to the corporation. Any such resignation shall take effect at the date of receipt of such notice or at a later time specified therein, and unless otherwise specified therein, the acceptance of such resignation shall not be necessary to make it effective.

Section 5.4 Term and Vacancies. The officers of the corporation shall hold office until their successors are elected or appointed, or until their death, resignation, or removal from office. Any vacancy occurring in any office of the corporation by death, resignation, removal, or otherwise, may be filled by the board of directors.

Section 5.5 Compensation. The salaries of all officers of the corporation shall be fixed by the board of directors. The board of directors shall have the power to enter into contracts for the employment and compensation of officers on such terms as the board of directors deems advisable. No officer shall be disqualified from receiving a salary or other compensation by reason of the fact that he or she is also a director of the corporation.

ARTICLE VI

CERTIFICATES AND SHAREHOLDERS

Section 6.1 Certificates for Shares. The certificates for shares of stock of the Corporation shall be in such form as shall be approved by the board of directors in conformity with law and the articles of incorporation. Every certificate for shares issued by the corporation must be signed by the President or a Vice President and the Secretary or an Assistant Secretary under the seal of the corporation. Any or all of the signatures on the face of the certificate may be facsimile. Such certificates shall bear a legend or legends in the form and containing the restrictions to be stated thereon by the Pennsylvania Business Corporation Law of 1988, as amended, other provisions of law, the articles of incorporation or these bylaws. Certificates shall be consecutively numbered and shall be entered as they are issued. Each certificate shall state on the face thereof the holder's name, the number and class of shares, the par value of such shares, and such other matters as may be required by law, the articles of incorporation or these bylaws.

Section 6.2 Lost, Stolen, or Destroyed Certificates. The board of directors, the executive committee, or the president of the corporation may direct a new certificate or certificates representing shares to be issued in place of any certificate or certificates theretofore issued by the corporation alleged to have been lost, stolen, or destroyed, upon the making of an affidavit of the fact by the person claiming the certificate or certificates to be lost, stolen, or destroyed. When authorizing such issue of a new certificate the board of directors, the executive committee or the president may require the owner of such lost, stolen, or destroyed certificate, or his or her legal representative, to advertise the same in such manner as it or he or she shall require and/or give the corporation a bond in such sum as it may direct as indemnity against any claim that may be made against the corporation with respect to the certificate alleged to have been lost, stolen or destroyed.

Section 6.3 Transfer of Shares. Shares of stock of the corporation shall be transferable only on the books of the corporation by the holder thereof in person or by the holder's duly authorized attorneys or legal representatives. Upon surrender to the corporation or the transfer agent of the corporation of a certificate representing shares duly endorsed or accompanied by proper evidence of succession, assignment, or authority to transfer, the corporation or its transfer agent shall issue a new certificate to the person entitled thereto, cancel the old certificate, and record the transaction upon its books.

Section 6.4 Registered Shareholders. The corporation shall be entitled to recognize the exclusive right of a person registered on its books as the owner of shares to receive dividends, and to vote as such owner, and to hold liable for calls and assessments, a person registered on its books as the owner of shares, and shall not be bound to recognize any equitable or other claim to or interest in such shares on the part of any person, whether or not it shall have actual or other notice thereof, except as otherwise provided by law.

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

Section 7.1 Dividends. Dividends upon the outstanding shares of the corporation, subject to the provisions of the applicable statutes and of the articles of incorporation, may be declared by the board of directors at any annual, regular or special meeting. Dividends may be declared and paid in cash, in property, or in shares of the corporation, or in any combination thereof.

Section 7.2 Reserves. There may be set aside out of any funds of the corporation available for dividends such sum or sums as the board of directors from time to time in their sole and absolute discretion think proper as a reserve to meet contingencies, or to equalize dividends, or to repair or maintain any property of the corporation, or for such other purpose as the board of directors shall think conducive to the interest of the corporation, and the board of directors may modify or abolish any such reserve in the manner in which it was created.

Section 7.3 Signature of Negotiable Instruments. All checks or demands for money and notes of the corporation shall be signed by such officer or officers or such other person or persons as the board of directors may from time to time designate.

Section 7.4 Fiscal Year. The fiscal year of the corporation shall be fixed by the board of directors; provided, that if such fiscal year is not fixed by the board of directors it shall be the calendar year.

Section 7.5 Books of the Corporation. The books of the corporation may be kept, subject to the provisions of the applicable statutes, within or outside of the State of Pennsylvania, at such place or places as may from time to time be designated by the board of directors or as the business of the corporation may require.

Section 7.6 Seal. The seal, if any, of the corporation shall be in such form as may be approved from time to time by the board of directors. If the board of directors approves a seal, the affixation of such seal shall not be required to create a valid and binding obligation against the corporation.

Section 7.7 Securities of Other Corporations. Unless otherwise ordered by the board of directors, the president or the secretary of the corporation shall have full power and authority on behalf of the corporation to attend, to vote and to grant proxies to be used at any meeting of shareholders of such other corporation in which the corporation may hold stock. The board of directors may confer like powers upon any other person or persons.

Section 7.8 Fixed Record Date. In order that the corporation may determine the shareholders entitled to notice of or to vote at any meeting of shareholders or any adjournment thereof, or to express consent to corporate action in writing without a meeting, or entitled to receive payment of any dividend or other distribution or allotment of any rights, or entitled to exercise any rights in respect of any change, conversion or exchange of stock for the purpose of any other lawful action, the board of directors may fix, in advance, a record date which shall be not more than sixty 60 days before the date of such meeting, nor more than 60 days prior to any other action.

Section 7.9 Amendment. The power to alter, amend, or repeal these bylaws or to adopt new bylaws is vested in the board of directors.

Section 7.10 Right to Indemnification.

(A) Each person (hereinafter an "indemnitee") who was or is made a party or is threatened to be made a party to or is otherwise involved in any action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (hereinafter a "proceeding"), by reason of the fact that he or she was a director, officer or agent of the corporation or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation or of a partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, including service with respect to an employee benefit plan, whether the basis of such proceeding is alleged action in an official capacity as a director, officer, employee or agent, shall be indemnified and held harmless by the corporation to the fullest extent authorized by the Pennsylvania Business Corporation Law of 1988, as amended, as the same exists or may hereafter be amended (but, in the case of any such amendment, only to the extent that such amendment permits the corporation to provide broader indemnification rights than permitted prior thereto), against all expense, liability and loss (including attorney's fees, judgments, fines, ERISA excise taxes or penalties and amounts paid in settlement) reasonably incurred or suffered by such indemnitee in connection therewith, and such indemnification shall continue with respect to an indemnitee who has ceased to be a director, officer, employee or agent and shall inure to the benefit of the indemnitee's heirs, executors and administrators; provided, however, that, except as provided in paragraph (B) hereof with respect to proceedings to enforce rights to indemnification, the corporation shall indemnify any such indemnitee only if such proceeding (or part thereof) was authorized by the board of directors of the corporation. The right to indemnification conferred in this section shall be a contract right and shall include the right to be paid by the corporation the expenses incurred in defending any such proceeding in advance of its final disposition (hereinafter an "advancement of expenses"); provided, however, that, if the Pennsylvania Business Corporation Law of 1988, as amended, requires, an advancement of expenses incurred by an indemnitee shall be made only upon delivery to the corporation of an undertaking (hereinafter an "undertaking"), by or on behalf of such indemnitee, to repay all amounts so advanced if it shall ultimately be determined by final judicial decision from which there is no further right to appeal (hereinafter a "final adjudication") that such indemnitee is not entitled to be indemnified for such expenses under this section or otherwise.

(B) If a claim under paragraph (A) of this section is not paid in full by the corporation within 60 days after a written claim has been received by the corporation, except in the case of a claim for an advancement of expenses, in which case the applicable period shall be 20 days, the indemnitee may at any time thereafter bring suit against the corporation to recover the unpaid amount of such suit, or in a suit brought by the corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking, the indemnitee shall be entitled to be paid also the expense of prosecuting or defending such suit. In (i) any suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right to indemnification hereunder (but not in a suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right to an advancement of expenses) it shall be a defense that, and (ii) any suit by the corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking the corporation shall be entitled to recover such expenses upon a final adjudication that, the indemnitee has not met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in the Pennsylvania Business Corporation Law of 1988, as amended. Neither the failure of the corporation (including its board of directors, independent legal counsel, or its shareholders) to have made a determination prior to the commencement of such suit that indemnification of the indemnitee is proper in the circumstances because the indemnitee has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in the Pennsylvania Business Corporation Law of 1988, as amended, nor an actual determination by the corporation (including its board of directors, independent legal counsel, or its shareholders) that the indemnitee has not met such applicable standard of conduct shall create a presumption that the indemnitee has not met the applicable standard of conduct or, in the case of such a suit brought by the indemnitee, be a defense of such suit. In any suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right of indemnification or to an advancement of expenses hereunder, or by the corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking, the burden of proving that the indemnitee is not entitled to be indemnified, or to such advancement of expenses, under this section or otherwise shall be on the corporation.

(C) The rights to indemnification and to the advancement of expenses conferred in this section shall not be exclusive of any other right which any person may have or hereafter acquire under any statute, the corporation's certificate of incorporation, by agreement, by vote of shareholders or by disinterested directors or otherwise.

(D) The corporation may maintain insurance, at its expense, to protect itself and any director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation or another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise against any expense, liability or loss, whether or not the corporation would have the power to indemnify such person against such expense, liability or loss under the Pennsylvania Business Corporation Law of 1988, as amended.

Section 7.11 Invalid Provisions. If any provision of these bylaws is held to be illegal, invalid, or unenforceable under present or future laws, such provision shall be fully severable; these bylaws shall be construed and enforced as if such illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision had never comprised a part hereof; and the remaining provisions hereof shall remain in full force and effect and shall not be affected by the illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision or by its severance herefrom. Furthermore, in lieu of such illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision there shall be added automatically as a part of these bylaws a provision as similar in terms to such illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision as may be possible and be legal, valid, and enforceable.

Section 7.12 Headings. The headings used in these bylaws are for reference purposes only and do not affect in any way the meaning or interpretation of these bylaws.

The above bylaws were duly adopted as the bylaws of the corporation effective as of the 8th day of September, 1998.

ARTICLE IX

A. Rights to Indemnification. Each person who was or is made a party or is threatened to he made a party to or is otherwise involved in any action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (hereinafter, a "proceeding"), by reason of the fact that he or she, or a person of whom he or she is a legal representative, or is or was a director or officer of the Corporation or is only serving at the request of the Corporation as a director or officer of another Corporation or of a partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, including service with respect 10 an employee benefit plan (hereinafter an "indemnatee"), whether the basis of such proceeding is alleged action in an official capacity or as a director or officer or in any other capacity while serving as a direr tor or officer, shall be indemnified and held harmless by the Corporation to the fullest extent authorized by the Pennsylvania BCL as the same exists or may hereafter be amended (but, in the case of any such amendment, only to the extent that such amendment permits the Corporation to provide broader indemnification rights than permitted prior thereto), against all expense, liability and loss (including, without limitation, attorneys' fees, judgments, fines, excise taxes or penalties and amounts paid or to be paid in settlement) incurred or suffered by such indemnatee in connection therewith and such indemnification shall continue with respect to an indemnatee who has ceased to be a director or officer and shall inure to the benefit of the indemnitce's heirs, executors and administrators; provided, however, that except as provided in paragraph (B) hereof with respect to proceedings to enforce rights to indemnification, the Corporation shall indemnify any such indemnatee in connection with a proceeding initiated by such indemnatee only if such proceeding was authorized by the Board of Directors of the Corporation. The right to indemnification conferred in this Article shall be a contract right and shall include the right to he paid by the Corporation the expenses incurred in defending any such proceeding in advance of its final disposition (hereinafter an "advancement of expenses"); provided, however, that i f the Pennsylvania I3CL requires, an advancement of expenses incurred by an indemnatee shall be made only upon delivery to the Corporation of an undertaking (hereinafter an "undertaking"), by or on behalf of such indemnatee, to repay all amounts so advanced if it shall ultimately be determined by final judicial decision from which there is no further right to appeal (hereinafter a "final adjudication') that such indemnatee is not entitled to be indemnified for such expenses under this Article or otherwise.

B. Rights of Indemnatee to Bring Suit. If a claim under paragraph (A) of this Article is not paid in full by the Corporation within sixty days after a written claim has been received by the Corporation (except in the case of a claim for an advancement of expenses, in which case the applicable period shall he twenty days), the indemnatee may at any time thereafter bring suit against the Corporation to recover the unpaid amount of the claim. If successful in whole or in part in any such suit, the indemnitee shall also be entitled to be paid the expense of prosecuting or defending such suit. In () any suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right to indemnification hereunder (but not a suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right to an advancement of expenses) it shall be a defense that, and (ii) in any suit by the Corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking, the Corporation shall be entitled to recover such expenses upon a final adjudication that, the indemnitee has not met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in the Pennsylvania BCL. Neither the failure of the Corporation (including its Board of Directors, independent counsel or its stockholders) to have made a determination prior to the commencement of such suit that indemnification of the indemnitee has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in the Pennsylvania BCL, nor an actual determination by the Corporation (including its Board of Directors, independent legal counsel or its stockholders) that the indemnitee has not met such applicable standard of conduct, or in the case of such a suit brought by the indemnitee, shall be a defense to such suit. In any suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right to indemnification or to an advancement of expenses hereunder or by the Corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking, the burden of proving that the indemnitee is not entitled under this Article or otherwise to be indemnified, or to such advancement of expenses, shall be on the Corporation.

C. Non-Exclusivity of Rights. The rights to indemnification and to the advancement of expenses conferred in this Article shall not be exclusive of any other right which any person may have or hereafter acquire under these Articles of Incorporation or any Bylaw, agreement, vote of stockholders or disinterested directors or otherwise.

D. Insurance. The Corporation may maintain insurance, at its expense, to protect itself and any indemnitee against any expense, liability or loss, whether or not the Corporation would have the power to indemnify such person against such expense, liability or loss under the Pennsylvania BCL.

E. Indemnity of Employees and Agents of the Corporation. The Corporation may, to the extent authorized from time to time by the Board of Directors, grant rights to indemnification and to the advancement of expenses to any employee or agent of the Corporation to the fullest extent of the provisions of this Article or as otherwise permitted under the Pennsylvania BCL with respect to the indemnification and advancement of expenses of directors and officers of the Corporation.

ARTICLE X

The Bylaws of the Corporation may be altered, amended or repealed or new Bylaws may be adopted by the Board of Directors of the Corporation.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand this 24th day of January, 2002.

BYLAWS OF
CLINTON HOSPITAL CORPORATION

ARTICLE I
OFFICES

Section 1.1 Registered Office. The registered office shall be in the City of Harrisburg, County of Dauphin, State of Pennsylvania.

Section 1.2 Other Offices. The corporation may also have offices at such other places both within and without the State of Pennsylvania as the board of directors may from time to time determine or the business of the corporation may require.

ARTICLE II
MEETINGS OF SHAREHOLDERS

Section 2.1 Annual Meeting. An annual meeting of shareholders of the corporation shall be held on such date and at such time as shall be designated from time to time by the board of directors and stated in the notice of the meeting. At such meeting, the shareholders shall elect directors and transact such other business as may properly be brought before the meeting.

Section 2.2 Special Meetings. Special meetings of the shareholders for any purpose whatsoever may be called at any time by the president, the board of directors, or the holders of not less than ten percent of all shares entitled to vote at such meeting.

Section 2.3 Place of Meetings. All meetings of shareholders for any purpose or purposes may be held at such places, within or without the State of Pennsylvania, as may from time to time be fixed by the board of directors or as shall be stated in the notice of the meeting or in a duly executed waiver of notice thereof.

Section 2.4 Notice. Written notice stating the place, day and hour of the meeting and, in the case of a special meeting, the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is called, shall be given not less than ten nor more than sixty days before the date of the meeting, either personally or by mail.

Section 2.5 Quorum of Shareholders. The holders of a majority of the shares issued and outstanding and entitled to vote at such meeting, present in person or represented by proxy shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at all meetings of the shareholders.

Section 2.6 Voting of Shares. Except as otherwise provided by statute or the articles of incorporation, each holder of record of shares of stock of the Corporation having voting power shall be entitled at each meeting of the shareholders to one vote for every share of such stock standing in his or her name on the record books of shareholders of the corporation on the date on which such notice of the meeting is mailed, unless some other day is fixed by the board of directors for the determination of shareholders of record.

Section 2.7 Voting List. The officer who has charge of the stock transfer books for shares of the corporation shall prepare at least ten days before every meeting of shareholders, a complete list of the shareholders entitled to vote at such meeting, arranged in alphabetical order, including the address of each shareholder and the number of voting shares held by each shareholder. For a period of ten days prior to such meeting, such list shall be kept open to the examination of any shareholder, for any purpose germane to the meeting, during ordinary business hours, either at a place within the city where the meeting is to be held and which place shall be specified in the notice of the meeting, or, if not so specified, at the place where said meeting is to be held. Such list shall be produced at such meeting and at all times during such meeting shall be subject to inspection by any shareholder. The original stock transfer books shall be prima facie evidence as to who are the shareholders entitled to examine such list or stock transfer books.

Section 2.8 Treasury Stock. The corporation shall not vote, directly or indirectly, shares of its own stock owned by it and such shares shall not be counted for quorum purposes.

Section 2.9 Consent of Shareholders in Lieu of Meeting. Whenever the vote of shareholders at a meeting thereof is required or permitted to be taken for or in connection with any corporate action, the meeting, the notice thereof, and the vote of shareholders can be dispensed with, if a consent in writing, setting forth the action so taken, shall be signed by the holders of stock having not less than the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to authorize or take such action at a meeting at which all shares entitled to vote thereof were present and voted, provided that prompt notice must be given to all shareholders of the taking of corporate action without a meeting by less than unanimous written consent.

Section 2.10 Minutes of Meetings. The secretary of the corporation shall keep regular minutes of all meetings of shareholders and such minutes shall be placed in the minute book of the corporation.

ARTICLE III

DIRECTORS

Section 3.1 Powers of Directors. The business and affairs of the corporation shall be managed by its board of directors which shall have and may exercise all such powers of the corporation, subject to the restrictions imposed by law, the articles of incorporation, or these bylaws.

Section 3.2 Number and Qualification. The number of directors which shall constitute the entire board of directors shall be determined by resolution of the Board of Directors at any meeting thereof or by the Shareholders at any meeting thereof. Directors need not be residents of Pennsylvania or Shareholders of the corporation.

Section 3.3 Election and Term of Office. The directors shall be elected annually by the shareholders, except as provided in Section 3.4 of these bylaws. Each director shall hold office until the next succeeding annual meeting of shareholders and until his or her successor shall have been elected or until his or her earlier death, resignation, or removal. The board of directors may, by resolution, appoint one of its members as chairman to preside over meetings of the board of directors. The position of chairman of the board of directors shall not be an office of the corporation.

Section 3.4 Vacancies. Any vacancy occurring in the board of directors by reason of death, resignation, or removal may be filled by affirmative vote of a majority of the remaining directors, although less than a quorum of the board of directors. Such vacancy may also be filled by affirmative vote of the majority of the shareholders. A director elected to fill a vacancy shall be elected for the unexpired term of his or her predecessor in office or until his or her death, resignation, retirement, disqualification, or removal.

Section 3.5 Resignation of Directors. Any director may resign from office at any time by delivering a written resignation to the secretary of the corporation, and such resignation shall be effective upon delivery of such resignation to the secretary.

Section 3.6 Removal of Directors. Any director may be removed with or without cause at any time by the shareholders.

Section 3.7 Place of Meetings. Regular or special meetings of the board of directors may be held either within or without the State of Pennsylvania.

Section 3.8 Regular Meetings. Regular meetings of the board of directors may be held without notice at such times and places as may be designated from time to time as may be determined by the board of directors.

Section 3.9 Special Meetings. Special meetings of the board of directors may be called by the president or any director on twenty-four (24) hours notice to each director, either personally or by telephone, mail, telegram or other means of telecommunications. Neither the business to be transacted at, nor the purpose of, any special meeting of the board of directors need be specified in the notice or waiver of notice of any special meeting.

Section 3.10 Quorum of Directors. At all meetings of the board of directors, a majority of the directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business and the act or a majority of the directors present at any meeting at which there is a quorum shall be an act of the board of directors. If a quorum is not present at a meeting, a majority of the directors present may adjourn the meeting from time to time, without notice other than an announcement at the meeting, until a quorum is present.

Section 3.11 Committees. The board of directors may, by resolution passed by a majority of the entire board, designate one or more committees, including, if they shall so determine, an executive committee, each such committee to consist of one or more of the directors of the corporation. Any such designated committee shall have and may exercise such of the powers and authority of the board of directors in the management of the business and affairs of the corporation as may be provided in such resolution, except that no such committee shall have the power or authority of the board of directors in reference to amending the articles of incorporation, adopting an agreement of merger or consolidation, recommending to the shareholders the sale, lease or exchange of all or substantially all of the corporation's property and assets, recommending to the shareholders a dissolution of the corporation or a revocation of a dissolution of the corporation, or amending, altering or repealing the bylaws or adopting new bylaws for the corporation and, unless such resolution or the articles of incorporation expressly so provides, no such committee shall have the power or authority to authorize the issuance of stock. The board of directors shall have the power at any time to change the number and members of any such committee, to fill vacancies and to discharge any such committee.

Section 3.12 Compensation of Directors. Persons serving as directors shall not receive any compensation for their services as directors; however, a director shall be entitled to reimbursement for reasonable and customary expenses incurred by such director in carrying out his duties as approved by the president of the corporation.

Section 3.13 Action by Unanimous Written Consent. Any action required or permitted to be taken at a meeting of the board of directors or any committee may be taken without a meeting if a consent in writing, setting forth the actions so taken, is signed by all of the members of the board of directors or such committee, as the case may be.

Section 3.14 Minutes of Meetings. The board of directors shall keep regular minutes of its proceedings and such minutes shall be placed in the minute book of the corporation. Committees of the board of directors shall maintain a separate record of the minutes of their proceedings.

ARTICLE IV

NOTICES AND TELEPHONE MEETINGS

Section 4.1 Notice. Any notice to directors or shareholders shall be in writing and shall be delivered personally or by mail, telegram, telex, cable, telecopier or similar means to the directors or shareholders at their respective addresses appearing on the books of the corporation. Notice by mail shall be deemed to be given at the time when the same shall be deposited in the United States mail, postage prepaid. Any notice required or permitted to be given by telegram, telex, cable, telecopier, or similar means shall be deemed to be delivered and given at the time transmitted.

Section 4.2 Waiver of Notice. Whenever by law, the articles of incorporation, or these bylaws, notice is required to be given to any shareholder, director, or committee member of the corporation, a waiver thereof in writing signed by the person or persons entitled to such notice, whether before or after the time notice should have been given, shall be equivalent to the giving of such notice. Attendance of a director at a meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting, except where a director attends a meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business on the ground that the meeting is not lawfully called or convened.

Section 4.3 Telephone and Similar Meetings. Shareholders, directors, or committee members may participate in and hold a meeting by means of a conference telephone or similar communications equipment by means of which persons participating in the meeting can hear each other. Participation in such a meeting shall constitute presence in person at such meeting, except where a person participates in the meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business on the ground that the meeting is not lawfully called or convened.

ARTICLE V

OFFICERS

Section 5.1 Officers. The corporation shall have a president and a secretary and such other officers and assistant officers as the board may deem desirable to conduct the affairs of the corporation. The position of chairman of the board of directors shall not be an office of the corporation. Any two or more offices may be held by the same person. No officer need be a shareholder or a director.

Section 5.2 Powers and Duties of Officers. The officers of the corporation shall have the powers and duties generally ascribed to the respective offices, and such additional authority or duty as may from time to time be established by the board of directors.

Section 5.3 Removal and Resignation. Any officer appointed by the board of directors may be removed by the board of directors whenever, in the judgment of the board of directors, the best interests of the corporation will be served thereby. Any officer may resign at any time by giving written notice to the corporation. Any such resignation shall take effect at the date of receipt of such notice or at a later time specified therein, and unless otherwise specified therein, the acceptance of such resignation shall not be necessary to make it effective.

Section 5.4 Term and Vacancies. The officers of the corporation shall hold office until their successors are elected or appointed, or until their death, resignation, or removal from office. Any vacancy occurring in any office of the corporation by death, resignation, removal, or otherwise, may be filled by the board of directors.

Section 5.5 Compensation. The salaries of all officers of the corporation shall be fixed by the board of directors. The board of directors shall have the power to enter into contracts for the employment and compensation of officers on such terms as the board of directors deems advisable. No officer shall be disqualified from receiving a salary or other compensation by reason of the fact that he or she is also a director of the corporation.

ARTICLE VI

CERTIFICATES AND SHAREHOLDERS

Section 6.1 Certificates for Shares. The certificates for shares of stock of the Corporation shall be in such form as shall be approved by the board of directors in conformity with law and the articles of incorporation. Every certificate for shares issued by the corporation must be signed by the President or a Vice President and the Secretary or an Assistant Secretary under the seal of the corporation. Any or all of the signatures on the face of the certificate may be facsimile. Such stated thereon by the Pennsylvania Business Corporation Law of 1988, as amended, other provisions of law, the articles of incorporation or these bylaws. Certificates shall be consecutively numbered and shall be entered as they are issued. Each certificate shall state on the face thereof the holder's name, the number and class of shares, the par value of such shares, and such other matters as may be required by law, the articles of incorporation or these bylaws.

Section 6.2 Lost, Stolen, or Destroyed Certificates. The board of directors, the executive committee, or the president of the corporation may direct a new certificate or certificates representing shares to be issued in place of any certificate or certificates theretofore issued by the corporation alleged to have been lost, stolen, or destroyed, upon the making of an affidavit of the fact by the person claiming the certificate or certificates to be lost, stolen, or destroyed. When authorizing such issue of a new certificate the board of directors, the executive committee or the president may require the owner of such lost, stolen, or destroyed certificate, or his or her legal representative, to advertise the same in such manner as it or he or she shall require and/or give the corporation a bond in such sum as it may direct as indemnity against any claim that may be made against the corporation with respect to the certificate alleged to have been lost, stolen or destroyed.

Section 6.3 Transfer of Shares. Shares of stock of the corporation shall be transferable only on the books of the corporation by the holder thereof in person or by the holder's duly authorized attorneys or legal representatives. Upon surrender to the corporation or the transfer agent of the corporation of a certificate representing shares duly endorsed or accompanied by proper evidence of succession, assignment, or authority to transfer, the corporation or its transfer agent shall issue a new certificate to the person entitled thereto, cancel the old certificate, and record the transaction upon its books.

Section 6.4 Registered Shareholders. The corporation shall be entitled to recognize the exclusive right of a person registered on its books as the owner of shares to receive dividends, and to vote as such owner, and to hold liable for calls and assessments, a person registered on its books as the owner of shares, and shall not be bound to recognize any equitable or other claim to or interest in such shares on the part of any person, whether or not it shall have actual or other notice thereof, except as otherwise provided by law.

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

Section 7.1 Dividends. Dividends upon the outstanding shares of the corporation, subject to the provisions of the applicable statutes and of the articles of incorporation, may be declared by the board of directors at any annual, regular or special meeting. Dividends may be declared and paid in cash, in property, or in shares of the corporation, or in any combination thereof.

Section 7.2 Reserves. There may be set aside out of any funds of the corporation available for dividends such sum or sums as the board of directors from time to time in their sole and absolute discretion think proper as a reserve to meet contingencies, or to equalize dividends, or to repair or maintain any property of the corporation, or for such other purpose as the board of directors shall think conducive to the interest of the corporation, and the board of directors may modify or abolish any such reserve in the manner in which it was created.

Section 7.3 Signature of Negotiable Instruments. All checks or demands for money and notes of the corporation shall be signed by such officer or officers or such other person or persons as the board of directors may from time to time designate.

Section 7.4 Fiscal Year. The fiscal year of the corporation shall be fixed by the board of directors; provided, that if such fiscal year is not fixed by the board of directors it shall be the calendar year.

Section 7.5 Books of the Corporation. The books of the corporation may be kept, subject to the provisions of the applicable statutes, within or outside of the State of Pennsylvania, at such place or places as may from time to time be designated by the board of directors or as the business of the corporation may require.

Section 7.6 Seal. The seal, if any, of the corporation shall be in such form as may be approved from time to time by the board of directors. If the board of directors approves a seal, the affixation of such seal shall not be required to create a valid and binding obligation against the corporation.

Section 7.7 Securities of Other Corporations. Unless otherwise ordered by the board of directors, the president or the secretary of the corporation shall have full power and authority on behalf of the corporation to attend, to vote and to grant proxies to be used at any meeting of shareholders of such other corporation in which the corporation may hold stock. The board of directors may confer like powers upon any other person or persons.

Section 7.8 Fixed Record Date. In order that the corporation may determine the shareholders entitled to notice of or to vote at any meeting of shareholders or any adjournment thereof, or to express consent to corporate action in writing without a meeting, or entitled to receive payment of any dividend or other distribution or allotment of any rights, or entitled to exercise any rights in respect of any change, conversion or exchange of stock for the purpose of any other lawful action, the board of directors may fix, in advance, a record date which shall be not more than sixty 60 days before the date of such meeting, nor more than 60 days prior to any other action.

Section 7.9 Amendment. The power to alter, amend, or repeal these bylaws or to adopt new bylaws is vested in the board of directors.

Section 7.10 Right to Indemnification.

(A) Each person (hereinafter an “indemnitee”) who was or is made a party or is threatened to be made a party to or is otherwise involved in any action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (hereinafter a “proceeding”), by reason of the fact that he or she was a director, officer or agent of the corporation or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation or of a partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, including service with respect to an employee benefit plan, whether the basis of such proceeding is alleged action in an official capacity as a director, officer, employee or agent, shall be indemnified and held harmless by the corporation to the fullest extent authorized by the Pennsylvania Business Corporation Law of 1988, as amended, as the same exists or may hereafter be amended (but, in the case of any such amendment, only to the extent that such amendment permits the corporation to provide broader indemnification rights than permitted prior thereto), against all expense, liability and loss (including attorney’s fees, judgments, fines, ERISA excise taxes or penalties and amounts paid in settlement) reasonably incurred or suffered by such indemnitee in connection therewith, and such indemnification shall continue with respect to an indemnitee who has ceased to be a director, officer, employee or agent and shall inure to the benefit of the indemnitee’s heirs, executors and administrators; provided, however, that, except as provided in paragraph (B) hereof with respect to proceedings to enforce rights to indemnification, the corporation shall indemnify any such indemnitee only if such proceeding (or part thereof) was authorized by the board of directors of the corporation. The right to indemnification conferred in this section shall be a contract right and shall include the right to be paid by the corporation the expenses incurred in defending any such proceeding in advance of its final disposition (hereinafter an “advancement of expenses”); provided, however, that, if the Pennsylvania Business Corporation Law of 1988, as amended, requires, an advancement of expenses incurred by an indemnitee shall be made only upon delivery to the corporation of an undertaking (hereinafter an “undertaking”), by or on behalf of such indemnitee, to repay all amounts so advanced if it shall ultimately be determined by final judicial decision from which there is no further right to appeal (hereinafter a “final adjudication”) that such indemnitee is not entitled to be indemnified for such expenses under this section or otherwise.

(B) If a claim under paragraph (A) of this section is not paid in full by the corporation within 60 days after a written claim has been received by the corporation, except in the case of a claim for an advancement of expenses, in which case the applicable period shall be 20 days, the indemnitee may at any time thereafter bring suit against the corporation to recover the unpaid amount of such suit, or in a suit brought by the corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking, the indemnitee shall be entitled to be paid also the expense of prosecuting or defending such suit. In (i) any suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right to indemnification hereunder (but not in a suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right to an advancement of expenses) it shall be a defense that, and (ii) any suit by the corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking the corporation shall be entitled to recover such expenses upon a final adjudication that, the indemnitee has not met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in the Pennsylvania Business Corporation Law of 1988, as amended. Neither the failure of the corporation (including its board of directors, independent legal counsel, or its shareholders) to have made a determination prior to the commencement of such suit that indemnification of the indemnitee is proper in the circumstances because the indemnitee has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in the Pennsylvania Business Corporation Law of 1988, as amended, nor an actual determination by the corporation (including its board of directors, independent legal counsel, or its shareholders) that the indemnitee has not met such applicable standard of conduct shall create a presumption that the indemnitee has not met the applicable standard of conduct or, in the case of such a suit brought by the indemnitee, be a defense of such suit. In any suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right of indemnification or to an advancement of expenses hereunder, or by the corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking, the burden of proving that the indemnitee is not entitled to be indemnified, or to such advancement of expenses, under this section or otherwise shall be on the corporation.

(C) The rights to indemnification and to the advancement of expenses conferred in this section shall not be exclusive of any other right which any person may have or hereafter acquire under any statute, the corporation's certificate of incorporation, by agreement, by vote of shareholders or by disinterested directors or otherwise.

(D) The corporation may maintain insurance, at its expense, to protect itself and any director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation or another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise against any expense, liability or loss, whether or not the corporation would have the power to indemnify such person against such expense, liability or loss under the Pennsylvania Business Corporation Law of 1988, as amended.

Section 7.11 Invalid Provisions. If any provision of these bylaws is held to be illegal, invalid, or unenforceable under present or future laws, such provision shall be fully severable; these bylaws shall be construed and enforced as if such illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision had never comprised a part hereof; and the remaining provisions hereof shall remain in full force and effect and shall not be affected by the illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision or by its severance herefrom. Furthermore, in lieu of such illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision there shall be added automatically as a part of these bylaws a provision as similar in terms to such illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision as may be possible and be legal, valid, and enforceable.

Section 7.12 Headings. The headings used in these bylaws are for reference purposes only and do not affect in any way the meaning or interpretation of these bylaws.

The above bylaws were duly adopted as the bylaws of the corporation effective as of the 25th day of January, 2002.

COATESVILLE HOSPITAL CORPORATION

In compliance with the requirements of the applicable provisions of the Pennsylvania Business Corporation Law of 1988, as amended (the "Pennsylvania BCL"), the undersigned natural person of the age of eighteen years or more, desiring to incorporate a corporation for profit hereby states the following:

ARTICLE I

The name of the Corporation is Coatesville Hospital Corporation.

ARTICLE II

The period of its duration is perpetual.

ARTICLE III

The purpose of the Corporation is to engage in any lawful act or activity for which corporations may be organized under the Pennsylvania BCL.

ARTICLE IV

The total number of shares of all classes of stock that the Corporation shall have the authority to issue is one thousand (1,000) shares of $.01 per share par value Common Stock.

ARTICLE V

The address of the principal office of the Corporation's registered office in this State, and the name of its registered agent at such address is:
Corporation Service Company Dauphin County

ARTICLE VI

Election of the Directors need not be written ballot unless the Bylaws of the corporation shall so provide.

ARTICLE VII

The name and mailing address of the incorporator is:

Virginia D. Lancaster
Community Health Systems, Inc.
155 Franklin Road, Suite 400
Brentwood, Tennessee 37027

ARTICLE VIII

To the fullest extent permitted by Pennsylvania law, a director of the Corporation shall not be personally liable to the Corporation or its stockholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director, except for liability (i) for any breach of the director's duty of loyalty to the Corporation or its stockholders, (ii) for acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law, (iii) under Section 1553 of the Pennsylvania BCL or (iv) for any transaction from which the director derived any improper personal benefit. If the Pennsylvania BCL is amended hereafter to authorize corporate action further eliminating or limiting the personal liability of directors, then the liability of a director of the Corporation shall be eliminated or limited to the fullest extent permitted by the Pennsylvania BCL, as so amended. Any repeal or modification of the foregoing paragraph by the stockholders of the Corporation shall not adversely affect any right or protection of a director of the Corporation existing at the time of such repeal or modification.

ARTICLE IX

A. Rights to Indemnification. Each person who was or is made a part) or is threatened to be made a party to or is otherwise involved in any action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (hereinafter, a "proceeding"). by reason of the fact that he or she, or a person of whom he or she is a legal representative, or is or was a director or officer of the Corporation or is only serving at the request of the Corporation as a director or officer of another Corporation or of a partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, including service with respect to an employee benefit plan (hereinafter an "indemnitee"), whether the basis of such proceeding is alleged action in an official capacity or as a director or officer or in any other capacity while serving as a director or officer, shall be indemnified and held harmless by the Corporation to the fullest extent authorized by the Pennsylvania BCL as the same exists or may hereafter be amended (but in the case of any such amendment, only to the extent that such amendment permits the Corporation to provide broader indemnification rights than permitted prior thereto), against all expense, liability and loss (including, without limitation, attorneys' fees, judgments, fines, excise taxes or penalties and amounts paid or to be paid in settlement) incurred or suffered by such indemnitee in connection therewith and such indemnification shall continue with respect to an indemnitee who has ceased to be a director or officer and shall inure to the benefit of the indemnitee's heirs, executors and administrators; provided, however, that except as provided in paragraph (13) hereof with respect to proceedings to enforce rights to indemnification. the Corporation shall indemnify any such indemnitee in connection with a proceeding initiated by such indemnitee only if such proceeding was authorized by the Board of Directors of the Corporation. The right to indemnification conferred in this Article shall be a contract right and shall include the right to be paid by the Corporation the expenses incurred in defending any such proceeding in advance of its final disposition (hereinafter an "advancement of expenses"); provided, however, that if the Pennsylvania BCL, requires, an advancement of expenses incurred by an indemnitee shall be made only upon delivery to the Corporation of an undertaking (hereinafter an "undertaking"), by or on behalf of such indemnitee, to repay all amounts so advanced if it shall ultimately be determined by final judicial decision from which there is no further right to appeal (hereinafter a "final adjudication") that such indemnitee is not entitled to be indemnified for such expenses under this Article or otherwise.

B. Rights of Indemnitee to Bring Suit. If a claim under paragraph (A) of this Article is not paid in full by the Corporation within sixty days after a written claim has been received by the Corporation (except in the case of a claim for an advancement of expenses, in which case the applicable period shall be twenty days), the indemnitee may at any time thereafter bring suit against the Corporation to recover the unpaid amount of the claim. If successful in whole or in part in any such suit, the indemnitee shall also be entitled to be paid the expense of prosecuting or defending such suit. In (i) any suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right to indemnification hereunder (but not a suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right to an advancement of expenses) it shall be a defense that, and (ii) in any suit by the Corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking, the Corporation shall be entitled to recover such expenses upon a final adjudication that, the indemnitee has not met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in the Pennsylvania BCL. Neither the failure of the Corporation (including its Board of Directors, independent counsel or its stockholders) to have made a determination prior to the commencement of such suit that indemnification of the indemnitee has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in the Pennsylvania BCL, nor an actual determination by the Corporation (including its Board of Directors, independent legal counsel or its stockholders) that the indemnitee has not met such applicable standard of conduct, or in the case of such a suit brought by the indemnitee, shall be a defense to such suit. In any suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right to indemnification or to an advancement of expenses hereunder or by the Corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking, the burden of proving that the indemnitee is not entitled under this Article or otherwise to be indemnified, or to such advancement of expenses, shall be on the Corporation.

C. Non-Exclusivity of Rights. The rights to indemnification and to the advancement of expenses conferred in this Article shall not be exclusive of any other right which any person may have or hereafter acquire under these Articles of Incorporation or any Bylaw, agreement, vote of stockholders or disinterested directors or otherwise.

D. Insurance. The Corporation may maintain insurance, at its expense, to protect itself and any indemnitee against any expense, liability or loss, whether or not the Corporation would have the power to indemnify such person against such expense, liability of loss under the Pennsylvania BCL.

E. Indemnity of Employees and Agents of the Corporation. The Corporation may, to the extent authorized from time to time by the Board of Directors, grant rights to indemnification and to the advancement of expenses to any employee or agent of the Corporation to the fullest extent of the provisions of this Article or as otherwise permitted under the Pennsylvania BCL with respect to the indemnification and advancement of expenses of directors and officers of the Corporation.

ARTICLE X

The Bylaws of the Corporation may be altered, amended or repealed or new Bylaws may be adopted by the Board of Directors of the Corporation.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand this 5th day of February.

BYLAWS OF
COATESVILLE HOSPITAL CORPORATION

ARTICLE I
OFFICES

Section 1.1 Registered Office. The registered office shall be in the City of Harrisburg, County of Dauphin, State of Pennsylvania.

Section 1.2 Other Offices. The corporation may also have offices at such other places both within and without the State of Pennsylvania as the board of directors may from time to time determine or the business of the corporation may require.

ARTICLE II
MEETINGS OF SHAREHOLDERS

Section 2.1 Annual Meeting. An annual meeting of shareholders of the corporation shall be held on such date and at such time as shall be designated from time to time by the board of directors and stated in the notice of the meeting. At such meeting, the shareholders shall elect directors and transact such other business as may properly be brought before the meeting.

Section 2.2 Special Meetings. Special meetings of the shareholders for any purpose whatsoever may be called at any time by the president, the board of directors, or the holders of not less than ten percent of all shares entitled to vote at such meeting.

Section 2.3 Place of Meetings. All meetings of shareholders for any purpose or purposes may be held at such places, within or without the State of Pennsylvania, as may from time to time be fixed by the board of directors or as shall be stated in the notice of the meeting or in a duly executed waiver of notice thereof.

Section 2.4 Notice. Written notice stating the place, day and hour of the meeting and, in the case of a special meeting, the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is called, shall be given not less than ten nor more than sixty days before the date of the meeting, either personally or by mail.

Section 2.5 Quorum of Shareholders. The holders of a majority of the shares issued and outstanding and entitled to vote at such meeting, present in person or represented by proxy shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at all meetings of the shareholders.

Section 2.6 Voting of Shares. Except as otherwise provided by statute or the articles of incorporation, each holder of record of shares of stock of the Corporation having voting power shall be entitled at each meeting of the shareholders to one vote for every share of such stock standing in his or her name on the record books of shareholders of the corporation on the date on which such notice of the meeting is mailed, unless some other day is fixed by the board of directors for the determination of shareholders of record.

Section 2.7 Voting List. The officer who has charge of the stock transfer books for shares of the corporation shall prepare at least ten days before every meeting of shareholders, a complete list of the shareholders entitled to vote at such meeting, arranged in alphabetical order, including the address of each shareholder and the number of voting shares held by each shareholder. For a period of ten days prior to such meeting, such list shall be kept open to the examination of any shareholder, for any purpose germane to the meeting, during ordinary business hours, either at a place within the city where the meeting is to be held and which place shall be specified in the notice of the meeting, or, if not so specified, at the place where said meeting is to be held. Such list shall be produced at such meeting and at all times during such meeting shall be subject to inspection by any shareholder. The original stock transfer books shall be prima facie evidence as to who are the shareholders entitled to examine such list or stock transfer books.

Section 2.8 Treasury Stock. The corporation shall not vote, directly or indirectly, shares of its own stock owned by it and such shares shall not be counted for quorum purposes.

Section 2.9 Consent of Shareholders in Lieu of Meeting. Whenever the vote of shareholders at a meeting thereof is required or permitted to be taken for or in connection with any corporate action, the meeting, the notice thereof, and the vote of shareholders can be dispensed with, if a consent in writing, setting forth the action so taken, shall be signed by the holders of stock having not less than the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to authorize or take such action at a meeting at which all shares entitled to vote thereof were present and voted, provided that prompt notice must be given to all shareholders of the taking of corporate action without a meeting by less than unanimous written consent.

Section 2.10 Minutes of Meetings. The secretary of the corporation shall keep regular minutes of all meetings of shareholders and such minutes shall be placed in the minute book of the corporation.

ARTICLE III

DIRECTORS

Section 3.1 Powers of Directors. The business and affairs of the corporation shall be managed by its board of directors which shall have and may exercise all such powers of the corporation, subject to the restrictions imposed by law, the articles of incorporation, or these bylaws.

Section 3.2 Number and Qualification. The number of directors which shall constitute the entire board of directors shall be determined by resolution of the Board of Directors at any meeting thereof or by the Shareholders at any meeting thereof. Directors need not be residents of Pennsylvania or Shareholders of the corporation.

Section 3.3 Election and Term of Office. The directors shall be elected annually by the shareholders, except as provided in Section 3.4 of these bylaws. Each director shall hold office until the next succeeding annual meeting of shareholders and until his or her successor shall have been elected or until his or her earlier death, resignation, or removal. The board of directors may, by resolution, appoint one of its members as chairman to preside over meetings of the board of directors. The position of chairman of the board of directors shall not be an office of the corporation.

Section 3.4 Vacancies. Any vacancy occurring in the board of directors by reason of death, resignation, or removal may be filled by affirmative vote of a majority of the remaining directors, although less than a quorum of the board of directors. Such vacancy may also be filled by affirmative vote of the majority of the shareholders. A director elected to fill a vacancy shall be elected for the unexpired term of his or her predecessor in office or until his or her death, resignation, retirement, disqualification, or removal.

Section 3.5 Resignation of Directors. Any director may resign from office at any time by delivering a written resignation to the secretary of the corporation, and such resignation shall be effective upon delivery of such resignation to the secretary.

Section 3.6 Removal of Directors. Any director may be removed with or without cause at any time by the shareholders.

Section 3.7 Place of Meetings. Regular or special meetings of the board of directors may be held either within or without the State of Pennsylvania.

Section 3.8 Regular Meetings. Regular meetings of the board of directors may be held without notice at such times and places as may be designated from time to time as may be determined by the board of directors.

Section 3.9 Special Meetings. Special meetings of the board of directors may be called by the president or any director on twenty-four (24) hours notice to each director, either personally or by telephone, mail, telegram or other means of telecommunications. Neither the business to be transacted at, nor the purpose of, any special meeting of the board of directors need be specified in the notice or waiver of notice of any special meeting.

Section 3.10 Quorum of Directors. At all meetings of the board of directors, a majority of the directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business and the act or a majority of the directors present at any meeting at which there is a quorum shall be an act of the board of directors. If a quorum is not present at a meeting, a majority of the directors present may adjourn the meeting from time to time, without notice other than an announcement at the meeting, until a quorum is present.

Section 3.11 Committees. The board of directors may, by resolution passed by a majority of the entire board, designate one or more committees, including, if they shall so determine, an executive committee, each such committee to consist of one or more of the directors of the corporation. Any such designated committee shall have and may exercise such of the powers and authority of the board of directors in the management of the business and affairs of the corporation as may be provided in such resolution, except that no such committee shall have the power or authority of the board of directors in reference to amending the articles of incorporation, adopting an agreement of merger or consolidation, recommending to the shareholders the sale, lease or exchange of all or substantially all of the corporation's property and assets, recommending to the shareholders a dissolution of the corporation or a revocation of a dissolution of the corporation, or amending, altering or repealing the bylaws or adopting new bylaws for the corporation and, unless such resolution or the articles of incorporation expressly so provides, no such committee shall have the power or authority to authorize the issuance of stock. The board of directors shall have the power at any time to change the number and members of any such committee, to fill vacancies and to discharge any such committee.

Section 3.12 Compensation of Directors. Persons serving as directors shall not receive any compensation for their services as directors; however, a director shall be entitled to reimbursement for reasonable and customary expenses incurred by such director in carrying out his duties as approved by the president of the corporation.

Section 3.13 Action by Unanimous Written Consent. Any action required or permitted to be taken at a meeting of the board of directors or any committee may be taken without a meeting if a consent in writing, setting forth the actions so taken, is signed by all of the members of the board of directors or such committee, as the case may be.

Section 3.14 Minutes of Meetings. The board of directors shall keep regular minutes of its proceedings and such minutes shall be placed in the minute book of the corporation. Committees of the board of directors shall maintain a separate record of the minutes of their proceedings.

ARTICLE IV

NOTICES AND TELEPHONE MEETINGS

Section 4.1 Notice. Any notice to directors or shareholders shall be in writing and shall be delivered personally or by mail, telegram, telex, cable, telecopier or similar means to the directors or shareholders at their respective addresses appearing on the books of the corporation. Notice by mail shall be deemed to be given at the time when the same shall be deposited in the United States mail, postage prepaid. Any notice required or permitted to be given by telegram, telex, cable, telecopier, or similar means shall be deemed to be delivered and given at the time transmitted.

Section 4.2 Waiver of Notice. Whenever by law, the articles of incorporation, or these bylaws, notice is required to be given to any shareholder, director, or committee member of the corporation, a waiver thereof in writing signed by the person or persons entitled to such notice, whether before or after the time notice should have been given, shall be equivalent to the giving of such notice. Attendance of a director at a meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting, except where a director attends a meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business on the ground that the meeting is not lawfully called or convened.

Section 4.3 Telephone and Similar Meetings. Shareholders, directors, or committee members may participate in and hold a meeting by means of a conference telephone or similar communications equipment by means of which persons participating in the meeting can hear each other. Participation in such a meeting shall constitute presence in person at such meeting, except where a person participates in the meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business on the ground that the meeting is not lawfully called or convened.

ARTICLE V

OFFICERS

Section 5.1 Officers. The corporation shall have a president and a secretary and such other officers and assistant officers as the board may deem desirable to conduct the affairs of the corporation. The position of chairman of the board of directors shall not be an office of the corporation. Any two or more offices may be held by the same person. No officer need be a shareholder or a director.

Section 5.2 Powers and Duties of Officers. The officers of the corporation shall have the powers and duties generally ascribed to the respective offices, and such additional authority or duty as may from time to time be established by the board of directors.

Section 5.3 Removal and Resignation. Any officer appointed by the board of directors may be removed by the board of directors whenever, in the judgment of the board of directors, the best interests of the corporation will be served thereby. Any officer may resign at any time by giving written notice to the corporation. Any such resignation shall take effect at the date of receipt of such notice or at a later time specified therein, and unless otherwise specified therein, the acceptance of such resignation shall not be necessary to make it effective.

Section 5.4 Term and Vacancies. The officers of the corporation shall hold office until their successors are elected or appointed, or until their death, resignation, or removal from office. Any vacancy occurring in any office of the corporation by death, resignation, removal, or otherwise, may be filled by the board of directors.

Section 5.5 Compensation. The salaries of all officers of the corporation shall be fixed by the board of directors. The board of directors shall have the power to enter into contracts for the employment and compensation of officers on such terms as the board of directors deems advisable. No officer shall be disqualified from receiving a salary or other compensation by reason of the fact that he or she is also a director of the corporation.

ARTICLE VI

CERTIFICATES AND SHAREHOLDERS

Section 6.1 Certificates for Shares. The certificates for shares of stock of the Corporation shall be in such form as shall be approved by the board of directors in conformity with law and the articles of incorporation. Every certificate for shares issued by the corporation must be signed by the President or a Vice President and the Secretary or an Assistant Secretary under the seal of the corporation. Any or all of the signatures on the face of the certificate may be facsimile. Such certificates shall bear a legend or legends in the form and containing the restrictions to be stated thereon by the Pennsylvania Business Corporation Law of 1988, as amended, other provisions of law, the articles of incorporation or these bylaws. Certificates shall be consecutively numbered and shall be entered as they are issued. Each certificate shall state on the face thereof the holder's name, the number and class of shares, the par value of such shares, and such other matters as may be required by law, the articles of incorporation or these bylaws.

Section 6.2 Lost, Stolen, or Destroyed Certificates. The board of directors, the executive committee, or the president of the corporation may direct a new certificate or certificates representing shares to be issued in place of any certificate or certificates theretofore issued by the corporation alleged to have been lost, stolen, or destroyed, upon the making of an affidavit of the fact by the person claiming the certificate or certificates to be lost, stolen, or destroyed. When authorizing such issue of a new certificate the board of directors, the executive committee or the president may require the owner of such lost, stolen, or destroyed certificate, or his or her legal representative, to advertise the same in such manner as it or he or she shall require and/or give the corporation a bond in such sum as it may direct as indemnity against any claim that may be made against the corporation with respect to the certificate alleged to have been lost, stolen or destroyed.

Section 6.3 Transfer of Shares. Shares of stock of the corporation shall be transferable only on the books of the corporation by the holder thereof in person or by the holder's duly authorized attorneys or legal representatives. Upon surrender to the corporation or the transfer agent of the corporation of a certificate representing shares duly endorsed or accompanied by proper evidence of succession, assignment, or authority to transfer, the corporation or its transfer agent shall issue a new certificate to the person entitled thereto, cancel the old certificate, and record the transaction upon its books.

Section 6.4 Registered Shareholders. The corporation shall be entitled to recognize the exclusive right of a person registered on its books as the owner of shares to receive dividends, and to vote as such owner, and to hold liable for calls and assessments, a person registered on its books as the owner of shares, and shall not be bound to recognize any equitable or other claim to or interest in such shares on the part of any person, whether or not it shall have actual or other notice thereof, except as otherwise provided by law.

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

Section 7.1 Dividends. Dividends upon the outstanding shares of the corporation, subject to the provisions of the applicable statutes and of the articles of incorporation, may be declared by the board of directors at any annual, regular or special meeting. Dividends may be declared and paid in cash, in property, or in shares of the corporation, or in any combination thereof

Section 7.2 Reserves. There may be set aside out of any funds of the corporation available for dividends such sum or sums as the board of directors from time to time in their sole and absolute discretion think proper as a reserve to meet contingencies, or to equalize dividends, or to repair or maintain any property of the corporation, or for such other purpose as the board of directors shall think conducive to the interest of the corporation, and the board of directors may modify or abolish any such reserve in the manner in which it was created.

Section 7.3 Signature of Negotiable Instruments. All checks or demands for money and notes of the corporation shall be signed by such officer or officers or such other person or persons as the board of directors may from time to time designate.

Section 7.4 Fiscal Year. The fiscal year of the corporation shall be fixed by the board of directors; provided, that if such fiscal year is not fixed by the board of directors it shall be the calendar year.

Section 7.5 Books of the Corporation. The books of the corporation may be kept, subject to the provisions of the applicable statutes, within or outside of the State of Pennsylvania, at such place or places as may from time to time be designated by the board of directors or as the business of the corporation may require.

Section 7.6 Seal. The seal, if any, of the corporation shall be in such form as may be approved from time to time by the board of directors. If the board of directors approves a seal, the affixation of such seal shall not be required to create a valid and binding obligation against the corporation.

Section 7.7 Securities of Other Corporations. Unless otherwise ordered by the board of directors, the president or the secretary of the corporation shall have full power and authority on behalf of the corporation to attend, to vote and to grant proxies to be used at any meeting of shareholders of such other corporation in which the corporation may hold stock. The board of directors may confer like powers upon any other person or persons.

Section 7.8 Fixed Record Date. In order that the corporation may determine the shareholders entitled to notice of or to vote at any meeting of shareholders or any adjournment thereof, or to express consent to corporate action in writing without a meeting, or entitled to receive payment of any dividend or other distribution or allotment of any rights, or entitled to exercise any rights in respect of any change, conversion or exchange of stock for the purpose of any other lawful action, the board of directors may fix, in advance, a record date which shall be not more than sixty 60 days before the date of such meeting, nor more than 60 days prior to any other action.

Section 7.9 Amendment. The power to alter, amend, or repeal these bylaws or to adopt new bylaws is vested in the board of directors.

Section 7.10 Right to Indemnification.

(A) Each person (hereinafter an “indemnitee”) who was or is made a party or is threatened to be made a party to or is otherwise involved in any action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (hereinafter a “proceeding”), by reason of the fact that he or she was a director, officer or agent of the corporation or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation or of a partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, including service with respect to an employee benefit plan, whether the basis of such proceeding is alleged action in an official capacity as a director, officer, employee or agent, shall be indemnified and held harmless by the corporation to the fullest extent authorized by the Pennsylvania Business Corporation Law of 1988, as amended, as the same exists or may hereafter be amended (but, in the case of any such amendment, only to the extent that such amendment permits the corporation to provide broader indemnification rights than permitted prior thereto), against all expense, liability and loss (including attorney’s fees, judgments, fines, ERISA excise taxes or penalties and amounts paid in settlement) reasonably incurred or suffered by such indemnitee in connection therewith, and such indemnification shall continue with respect to an indemnitee who has ceased to be a director, officer, employee or agent and shall inure to the benefit of the indemnitee’s heirs, executors and administrators; provided, however, that, except as provided in paragraph

(B) hereof with respect to proceedings to enforce rights to indemnification, the corporation shall indemnify any such indemnitee only if such proceeding (or part thereof) was authorized by the board of directors of the corporation. The right to indemnification conferred in this section shall be a contract right and shall include the right to be paid by the corporation the expenses incurred in defending any such proceeding in advance of its final disposition (hereinafter an “advancement of expenses”); provided, however, that, if the Pennsylvania Business Corporation Law of 1988, as amended, requires, an advancement of expenses incurred by an indemnitee shall be made only upon delivery to the corporation of an undertaking (hereinafter an “undertaking”), by or on behalf of such indemnitee, to repay all amounts so advanced if it shall ultimately be determined by final judicial decision from which there is no further right to appeal (hereinafter a “final adjudication”) that such indemnitee is not entitled to be indemnified for such expenses under this section or otherwise.

(B) If a claim under paragraph (A) of this section is not paid in full by the corporation within 60 days after a written claim has been received by the corporation, except in the case of a claim for an advancement of expenses, in which case the applicable period shall be 20 days, the indemnitee may at any time thereafter bring suit against the corporation to recover the unpaid amount of such suit, or in a suit brought by the corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking, the indemnitee shall be entitled to be paid also the expense of prosecuting or defending such suit. In (i) any suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right to indemnification hereunder (but not in a suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right to an advancement of expenses) it shall be a defense that, and (ii) any suit by the corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking the corporation shall be entitled to recover such expenses upon a final adjudication that, the indemnitee has not met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in the Pennsylvania Business Corporation Law of 1988, as amended. Neither the failure of the corporation (including its board of directors, independent legal counsel, or its shareholders) to have made a determination prior to the commencement of such suit that indemnification of the indemnitee is proper in the circumstances because the indemnitee has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in the Pennsylvania Business Corporation Law of 1988, as amended, nor an actual determination by the corporation (including its board of directors, independent legal counsel, or its shareholders) that the indemnitee has not met such applicable standard of conduct shall create a presumption that the indemnitee has not met the applicable standard of conduct or, in the case of such a suit brought by the indemnitee, be a defense of such suit. In any suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right of indemnification or to an advancement of expenses hereunder, or by the corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking, the burden of proving that the indemnitee is not entitled to be indemnified, or to such advancement of expenses, under this section or otherwise shall be on the corporation.

(C) The rights to indemnification and to the advancement of expenses conferred in this section shall not be exclusive of any other right which any person may have or hereafter acquire under any statute, the corporation's certificate of incorporation, by agreement, by vote of shareholders or by disinterested directors or otherwise.

(D) The corporation may maintain insurance, at its expense, to protect itself and any director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation or another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise against any expense, liability or loss, whether or not the corporation would have the power to indemnify such person against such expense, liability or loss under the Pennsylvania Business Corporation Law of 1988, as amended.

Section 7.11 Invalid Provisions. If any provision of these bylaws is held to be illegal, invalid, or unenforceable under present or future laws, such provision shall be fully severable; these bylaws shall be construed and enforced as if such illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision had never comprised a part hereof; and the remaining provisions hereof shall remain in full force and effect and shall not be affected by the illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision or by its severance herefrom. Furthermore, in lieu of such illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision there shall be added automatically as a part of these bylaws a provision as similar in terms to such illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision as may be possible and be legal, valid, and enforceable.

Section 7.12 Headings. The headings used in these bylaws are for reference purposes only and do not affect in any way the meaning or interpretation of these bylaws.

The above bylaws were duly adopted as the bylaws of the corporation effective as of the 6th day of February, 2001.

OF

3010288

In compliance with the requirements of the applicable provisions of the Pennsylvania Business Corporation Law of 1988, as amended (the "Pennsylvania BCL"), the undersigned natural person of the age of eighteen years or more, desiring to incorporate a corporation for profit hereby states the following:

ARTICLE I

The name of the Corporation is Northampton Hospital Corporation.

ARTICLE II

The period of its duration is perpetual.

ARTICLE III

The purpose of the Corporation is to engage in any lawful act or activity for which corporations may be organized under the Pennsylvania BCL.

ARTICLE IV

The total number of shares of all classes of stock that the Corporation shall have the authority to issue is one thousand (1,000) shares of $.01 per share par value Common Stock.

ARTICLE V

The address of the principal office of the Corporation's registered office in this State, and the name of its registered agent at such address is:

Corporation Service Company
Dauphin County

ARTICLE VI

Election of the Directors need not be written ballot unless the Bylaws of the corporation shall so provide.

ARTICLE VII

The name and mailing address of the incorporator is:

Virginia D. Lancaster
Community Health Systems, Inc.
155 Franklin Road, Suite 400
Brentwood, Tennessee 37027

ARTICLE VIII

To the fullest extent permitted by Pennsylvania law, a director of the Corporation shall not be personally liable to the Corporation or its stockholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director, except for liability (i) for any breach of the director's duty of loyalty to the Corporation or its stockholders, (ii) for acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law, (iii) under Section 1553 of the Pennsylvania BCL, or (iv) for any transaction from which the director derived any improper personal benefit. If the Pennsylvania BCE is amended hereafter to authorize corporate action further eliminating or limiting the personal liability of directors, then the liability of a director of the Corporation shall be eliminated or limited to the fullest extent permitted by the Pennsylvania BCL, as so amended.

Any repeal or modification of the foregoing paragraph by the stockholders of the Corporation shall not adversely affect any right or protection of a director of the Corporation existing at the time of such repeal or modification.

ARTICLE IX

A. Rights to Indemnification. Each person who was or is made a party or is threatened to be made a party to or is otherwise involved in any action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (hereinafter, a "proceeding"), by reason of the fact that he or she, or a person of whom he or she is a legal representative or is or was a director or officer of the Corporation or is only serving at the request of the Corporation as a director or officer of another Corporation or of a partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, including service with respect to an employee benefit plan (hereinafter an "indemnitee"), whether the basis of such proceeding is alleged action in an official capacity or as a director or officer or in any other capacity while serving as a director or officer, shall be indemnified and held harmless by the Corporation to the fullest extent authorized by the Pennsylvania BO, as the same exists or may hereafter be Amended (but, in the case of any such amendment, only to the extent that such amendment permits the Corporation to provide broader indemnification rights than permitted prior thereto), against all expense, liability and loss (including, without limitation, attorneys' fees, judgments, fines, excise taxes or penalties and amounts paid or to be paid in settlement) incurred or suffered by such indemnitee in connection therewith and such indemnification shall continue with respect to an indemnitee who has ceased to be a director or officer and shall insure to the benefit of the indemnitee's heirs, executors and administrators; provided, however, that except as provided in paragraph 113) hereof with respect to proceedings to enforce rights to indemnification, the Corporation shall indemnify any such indemnitee in connection with a proceeding initiated by such indemnitee only if such proceeding was authorized by the Board of Directors of the Corporation. The right to indemnification conferred in this Article shall be a contract right and shall include the right to be paid by the Corporation the expenses incurred in defending any such proceeding in advance of its final disposition (hereinafter an “advancement of expenses”); provided, however, that if the Pennsylvania BCE requires, an advancement of expenses incurred by an indemnitee shall be made only upon delivery to the Corporation of an undertaking (hereinafter an “undertaking”), by or on behalf of such indemnitee, to repay all amounts so advanced if it shall ultimately be determined by final judicial decision from which there is no further right to appeal (hereinafter a “final adjudication”) that such indemnitee is not entitled to be indemnified for such expenses under this Article or otherwise.

B. Rights of Indemnitee to Bring Suit. If a claim under paragraph (A) of this Article is not paid in full by the Corporation within sixty days after a written claim has been received by the Corporation (except in the case of a claim for an advancement of expenses, in which case the applicable period shall be twenty days), the indemnitee may at any time thereafter bring suit against the Corporation to recover the unpaid amount of the claim. If successful in whole or in part in any such suit, the indemnitee shall also be entitled to be paid the expense of prosecuting or defending such suit. In (i) any suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right to indemnification hereunder (but not a suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right to an advancement of expenses) it shall be a defense that, and (ii) in any suit by the Corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking, the Corporation shall be entitled to recover such expenses upon a final adjudication that, the indemnitee has not met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in the Pennsylvania BCL. Neither the failure of the Corporation (including its Board of Directors, independent counsel or its stockholders) to have made a determination prior to the commencement of such suit that indemnification of the indemnitee has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in the Pennsylvania BCL, nor an actual determination by the Corporation (including its Board of Directors, independent legal counsel or its stockholders) that the indemnitee has not met such applicable standard of conduct, or in the case of such a suit brought by the indemnitee, shall be a defense to such suit. In any suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right to indemnification or to an advancement of expenses hereunder or by the Corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking, the burden of proving that the indemnitee is not entitled under this Article or otherwise to be indemnified, or to such advancement of expenses, shall be on the Corporation.

C. Non-Exclusivity of Rights. The rights to indemnification and to the advancement of expenses conferred in this Article shall not be exclusive of any other right which any person may have or hereafter acquire under these Articles of Incorporation or any Bylaw, agreement, vote of stockholders or disinterested directors or otherwise.

D. Insurance. The Corporation may maintain insurance, at its expense, to protect itself and any indemnitee against any expense, liability or loss, whether or not the Corporation would have the power to indemnify such person against such expense, liability or loss under the Pennsylvania BCL.

E. Indemnity of Employees and Agents of the Corporation. The Corporation may, to the extent authorized from time to time by the Board of Directors, grant rights to indemnification and to the advancement of expenses to any employee or agent of the Corporation to the fullest extent of the provisions of this Article or as otherwise permitted under the Pennsylvania BCL, with respect to the indemnification and advancement of expenses of directors and officers of the Corporation.

ARTICLE X

The Bylaws of the Corporation may be altered, amended or repealed or new Bylaws may be adopted by the Board of Directors of the Corporation.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand this 12th day of June,

/s/Virginia D. Lancaster

BYLAWS OF NORTHAMPTON HOSPITAL CORPORATION

ARTICLE I

OFFICES

Section 1.1 Registered Office. The registered office shall be in the City of Harrisburg, County of Dauphin, State of Pennsylvania.

Section 1.2 Other Offices. The corporation may also have offices at such other places both within and without the State of Pennsylvania as the board of directors may from time to time determine or the business of the corporation may require.

ARTICLE II

MEETINGS OF SHAREHOLDERS

Section 2.1 Annual Meeting. An annual meeting of shareholders of the corporation shall be held on such date and at such time as shall be designated from time to time by the board of directors and stated in the notice of the meeting. At such meeting, the shareholders shall elect directors and transact such other business as may properly be brought before the meeting.

Section 2.2 Special Meetings. Special meetings of the shareholders for any purpose whatsoever may be called at any time by the president, the board of directors, or the holders of not less than ten percent of all shares entitled to vote at such meeting.

Section 2.3 Place of Meetings. All meetings of shareholders for any purpose or purposes may be held at such places, within or without the State of Pennsylvania, as may from time to time be fixed by the board of directors or as shall be stated in the notice of the meeting or in a duly executed waiver of notice thereof

Section 2.4 Notice. Written notice stating the place, day and hour of the meeting and, in the case of a special meeting, the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is called, shall be given not less than ten nor more than sixty days before the date of the meeting, either personally or by mail.

Section 2.5 Quorum of Shareholders. The holders of a majority of the shares issued and outstanding and entitled to vote at such meeting, present in person or represented by proxy shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at all meetings of the shareholders.

Section 2.6 Voting of Shares. Except as otherwise provided by statute or the articles of incorporation, each holder of record of shares of stock of the Corporation having voting power shall be entitled at each meeting of the shareholders to one vote for every share of such stock standing in his or her name on the record books of shareholders of the corporation on the date on which such notice of the meeting is mailed, unless some other day is fixed by the board of directors for the determination of shareholders of record.

Section 2.7 Voting List. The officer who has charge of the stock transfer books for shares of the corporation shall prepare at least ten days before every meeting of shareholders, a complete list of the shareholders entitled to vote at such meeting, arranged in alphabetical order, including the address of each shareholder and the number of voting shares held by each shareholder. For a period of ten days prior to such meeting, such list shall be kept open to the examination of any shareholder, for any purpose germane to the meeting, during ordinary business hours, either at a place within the city where the meeting is to be held and which place shall be specified in the notice of the meeting, or, if not so specified, at the place where said meeting is to be held. Such list shall be produced at such meeting and at all times during such meeting shall be subject to inspection by any shareholder. The original stock transfer books shall be prima facie evidence as to who are the shareholders entitled to examine such list or stock transfer books.

Section 2.8 Treasury Stock. The corporation shall not vote, directly or indirectly, shares of its own stock owned by it and such shares shall not be counted for quorum purposes.

Section 2.9 Consent of Shareholders in Lieu of Meeting. Whenever the vote of shareholders at a meeting thereof is required or permitted to be taken for or in connection with any corporate action, the meeting, the notice thereof, and the vote of shareholders can be dispensed with, if a consent in writing, setting forth the action so taken, shall be signed by the holders of stock having not less than the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to authorize or take such action at a meeting at which all shares entitled to vote thereof were present and voted, provided that prompt notice must be given to all shareholders of the taking of corporate action without a meeting by less than unanimous written consent.

Section 2.10 Minutes of Meetings. The secretary of the corporation shall keep regular minutes of all meetings of shareholders and such minutes shall be placed in the minute book of the corporation.

ARTICLE III

DIRECTORS

Section 3.1 Powers of Directors. The business and affairs of the corporation shall be managed by its board of directors which shall have and may exercise all such powers of the corporation, subject to the restrictions imposed by law, the articles of incorporation, or these bylaws.

Section 3.2 Number and Qualification. The number of directors which shall constitute the entire board of directors shall be determined by resolution of the Board of Directors at any meeting thereof or by the Shareholders at any meeting thereof. Directors need not be residents of Pennsylvania or Shareholders of the corporation.

Section 3.3 Election and Term of Office. The directors shall be elected annually by the shareholders, except as provided in Section 3.4 of these bylaws. Each director shall hold office until the next succeeding annual meeting of shareholders and until his or her successor shall have been elected or until his or her earlier death, resignation, or removal. The board of directors may, by resolution, appoint one of its members as chairman to preside over meetings of the board of directors. The position of chairman of the board of directors shall not be an office of the corporation.

Section 3.4 Vacancies. Any vacancy occurring in the board of directors by reason of death, resignation, or removal may be filled by affirmative vote of a majority of the remaining directors, although less than a quorum of the board of directors. Such vacancy may also be filled by affirmative vote of the majority of the shareholders. A director elected to fill a vacancy shall be elected for the unexpired term of his or her predecessor in office or until his or her death, resignation, retirement, disqualification, or removal.

Section 3.5 Resignation of Directors. Any director may resign from office at any time by delivering a written resignation to the secretary of the corporation, and such resignation shall be effective upon delivery of such resignation to the secretary.

Section 3.6 Removal of Directors. Any director may be removed with or without cause at any time by the shareholders.

Section 3.7 Place of Meetings. Regular or special meetings of the board of directors may be held either within or without the State of Pennsylvania.

Section 3.8 Regular Meetings. Regular meetings of the board of directors may be held without notice at such times and places as may be designated from time to time as may be determined by the board of directors.

Section 3.9 Special Meetings. Special meetings of the board of directors may be called by the president or any director on twenty-four (24) hours notice to each director, either personally or by telephone, mail, telegram or other means of telecommunications. Neither the business to be transacted at, nor the purpose of, any special meeting of the board of directors need be specified in the notice or waiver of notice of any special meeting.

Section 3.10 Quorum of Directors. At all meetings of the board of directors, a majority of the directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business and the act or a majority of the directors present at any meeting at which there is a quorum shall be an act of the board of directors. If a quorum is not present at a meeting, a majority of the directors present may adjourn the meeting from time to time, without notice other than an announcement at the meeting, until a quorum is present.

Section 3.11 Committees. The board of directors may, by resolution passed by a majority of the entire board, designate one or more committees, including, if they shall so determine, an executive committee, each such committee to consist of one or more of the directors of the corporation. Any such designated committee shall have and may exercise such of the powers and authority of the board of directors in the management of the business and affairs of the corporation as may be provided in such resolution, except that no such committee shall have the power or authority of the board of directors in reference to amending the articles of incorporation, adopting an agreement of merger or consolidation, recommending to the shareholders the sale, lease or exchange of all or substantially all of the corporation's property and assets, recommending to the shareholders a dissolution of the corporation or a revocation of a dissolution of the corporation, or amending, altering or repealing the bylaws or adopting new bylaws for the corporation and, unless such resolution or the articles of incorporation expressly so provides, no such committee shall have the power or authority to authorize the issuance of stock. The board of directors shall have the power at any time to change the number and members of any such committee, to fill vacancies and to discharge any such committee.

Section 3.12 Compensation of Directors. Persons serving as directors shall not receive any compensation for their services as directors; however, a director shall be entitled to reimbursement for reasonable and customary expenses incurred by such director in carrying out his duties as approved by the president of the corporation.

Section 3.13 Action by Unanimous Written Consent. Any action required or permitted to be taken at a meeting of the board of directors or any committee may be taken without a meeting if a consent in writing, setting forth the actions so taken, is signed by all of the members of the board of directors or such committee, as the case may be.

Section 3.14 Minutes of Meetings. The board of directors shall keep regular minutes of its proceedings and such minutes shall be placed in the minute book of the corporation. Committees of the board of directors shall maintain a separate record of the minutes of their proceedings.

ARTICLE IV

NOTICES AND TELEPHONE MEETINGS

Section 4.1 Notice. Any notice to directors or shareholders shall be in writing and shall be delivered personally or by mail, telegram, telex, cable, telecopier or similar means to the directors or shareholders at their respective addresses appearing on the books of the corporation. Notice by mail shall be deemed to be given at the time when the same shall be deposited in the United States mail, postage prepaid. Any notice required or permitted to be given by telegram, telex, cable, telecopier, or similar means shall be deemed to be delivered and given at the time transmitted.

Section 4.2 Waiver of Notice. Whenever by law, the articles of incorporation, or these bylaws, notice is required to be given to any shareholder, director, or committee member of the corporation, a waiver thereof in writing signed by the person or persons entitled to such notice, whether before or after the time notice should have been given, shall be equivalent to the giving of such notice. Attendance of a director at a meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting, except where a director attends a meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business on the ground that the meeting is not lawfully called or convened.

Section 4.3 Telephone and Similar Meetings. Shareholders, directors, or committee members may participate in and hold a meeting by means of a conference telephone or similar communications equipment by means of which persons participating in the meeting can hear each other. Participation in such a meeting shall constitute presence in person at such meeting, except where a person participates in the meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business on the ground that the meeting is not lawfully called or convened.

ARTICLE V

OFFICERS

Section 5.1 Officers. The corporation shall have a president and a secretary and such other officers and assistant officers as the board may deem desirable to conduct the affairs of the corporation. The position of chairman of the board of directors shall not be an office of the corporation. Any two or more offices may be held by the same person. No officer need be a shareholder or a director.

Section 5.2 Powers and Duties of Officers. The officers of the corporation shall have the powers and duties generally ascribed to the respective offices, and such additional authority or duty as may from time to time be established by the board of directors.

Section 5.3 Removal and Resignation. Any officer appointed by the board of directors may be removed by the board of directors whenever, in the judgment of the board of directors, the best interests of the corporation will be served thereby. Any officer may resign at any time by giving written notice to the corporation. Any such resignation shall take effect at the date of receipt of such notice or at a later time specified therein, and unless otherwise specified therein, the acceptance of such resignation shall not be necessary to make it effective.

Section 5.4 Term and Vacancies. The officers of the corporation shall hold office until their successors are elected or appointed, or until their death, resignation, or removal from office. Any vacancy occurring in any office of the corporation by death, resignation, removal, or otherwise, may be filled by the board of directors.

Section 5.5 Compensation. The salaries of all officers of the corporation shall be fixed by the board of directors. The board of directors shall have the power to enter into contracts for the employment and compensation of officers on such terms as the board of directors deems advisable. No officer shall be disqualified from receiving a salary or other compensation by reason of the fact that he or she is also a director of the corporation.

ARTICLE VI

CERTIFICATES AND SHAREHOLDERS

Section 6.1 Certificates for Shares. The certificates for shares of stock of the Corporation shall be in such form as shall be approved by the board of directors in conformity with law and the articles of incorporation. Every certificate for shares issued by the corporation must be signed by the President or a Vice President and the Secretary or an Assistant Secretary under the seal of the corporation. Any or all of the signatures on the face of the certificate may be facsimile. Such certificates shall bear a legend or legends in the form and containing the restrictions to be stated thereon by the Pennsylvania Business Corporation Law of 1988, as amended, other provisions of law, the articles of incorporation or these bylaws. Certificates shall be consecutively numbered and shall be entered as they are issued. Each certificate shall state on the face thereof the holder's name, the number and class of shares, the par value of such shares, and such other matters as may be required by law, the articles of incorporation or these bylaws.

Section 6.2 Lost, Stolen, or Destroyed Certificates. The board of directors, the executive committee, or the president of the corporation may direct a new certificate or certificates representing shares to be issued in place of any certificate or certificates theretofore issued by the corporation alleged to have been lost, stolen, or destroyed, upon the making of an affidavit of the fact by the person claiming the certificate or certificates to be lost, stolen, or destroyed. When authorizing such issue of a new certificate the board of directors, the executive committee or the president may require the owner of such lost, stolen, or destroyed certificate, or his or her legal representative, to advertise the same in such manner as it or he or she shall require and/or give the corporation a bond in such sum as it may direct as indemnity against any claim that may be made against the corporation with respect to the certificate alleged to have been lost, stolen or destroyed.

Section 6.3 Transfer of Shares. Shares of stock of the corporation shall be transferable only on the books of the corporation by the holder thereof in person or by the holder's duly authorized attorneys or legal representatives. Upon surrender to the corporation or the transfer agent of the corporation of a certificate representing shares duly endorsed or accompanied by proper evidence of succession, assignment, or authority to transfer, the corporation or its transfer agent shall issue a new certificate to the person entitled thereto, cancel the old certificate, and record the transaction upon its books.

Section 6.4 Registered Shareholders. The corporation shall be entitled to recognize the exclusive right of a person registered on its books as the owner of shares to receive dividends, and to vote as such owner, and to hold liable for calls and assessments, a person registered on its books as the owner of shares, and shall not be bound to recognize any equitable or other claim to or interest in such shares on the part of any person, whether or not it shall have actual or other notice thereof, except as otherwise provided by law.

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

Section 7.1 Dividends. Dividends upon the outstanding shares of the corporation, subject to the provisions of the applicable statutes and of the articles of incorporation, may be declared by the board of directors at any annual, regular or special meeting. Dividends may be declared and paid in cash, in property, or in shares of the corporation, or in any combination thereof

Section 7.2 Reserves. There may be set aside out of any funds of the corporation available for dividends such sum or sums as the board of directors from time to time in their sole and absolute discretion think proper as a reserve to meet contingencies, or to equalize dividends, or to repair or maintain any property of the corporation, or for such other purpose as the board of directors shall think conducive to the interest of the corporation, and the board of directors may modify or abolish any such reserve in the manner in which it was created.

Section 7.3 Signature of Negotiable Instruments. All checks or demands for money and notes of the corporation shall be signed by such officer or officers or such other person or persons as the board of directors may from time to time designate.

Section 7.4 Fiscal Year. The fiscal year of the corporation shall be fixed by the board of directors; provided, that if such fiscal year is not fixed by the board of directors it shall be the calendar year.

Section 7.5 Books of the Corporation. The books of the corporation may be kept, subject to the provisions of the applicable statutes, within or outside of the State of Pennsylvania, at such place or places as may from time to time be designated by the board of directors or as the business of the corporation may require.

Section 7.6 Seal. The seal, if any, of the corporation shall be in such form as may be approved from time to time by the board of directors. If the board of directors approves a seal, the affixation of such seal shall not be required to create a valid and binding obligation against the corporation.

Section 7.7 Securities of Other Corporations. Unless otherwise ordered by the board of directors, the president or the secretary of the corporation shall have full power and authority on behalf of the corporation to attend, to vote and to grant proxies to be used at any meeting of shareholders of such other corporation in which the corporation may hold stock. The board of directors may confer like powers upon any other person or persons.

Section 7.8 Fixed Record Date. In order that the corporation may determine the shareholders entitled to notice of or to vote at any meeting of shareholders or any adjournment thereof, or to express consent to corporate action in writing without a meeting, or entitled to receive payment of any dividend or other distribution or allotment of any rights, or entitled to exercise any rights in respect of any change, conversion or exchange of stock for the purpose of any other lawful action, the board of directors may fix, in advance, a record date which shall be not more than sixty 60 days before the date of such meeting, nor more than 60 days prior to any other action.

Section 7.9 Amendment. The power to alter, amend, or repeal these bylaws or to adopt new bylaws is vested in the board of directors.

Section 7.10 Right to Indemnification.

indemnitee only if such proceeding (or part thereof) was authorized by the board of directors of the corporation. The right to indemnification conferred in this section shall be a contract right and shall include the right to be paid by the corporation the expenses incurred in defending any such proceeding in advance of its final disposition (hereinafter an “advancement of expenses”); provided, however, that, if the Pennsylvania Business Corporation Law of 1988, as amended, requires, an advancement of expenses incurred by an indemnitee shall be made only upon delivery to the corporation of an undertaking (hereinafter an “undertaking”), by or on behalf of such indemnitee, to repay all amounts so advanced if it shall ultimately be determined by final judicial decision from which there is no further right to appeal (hereinafter a “final adjudication”) that such indemnitee is not entitled to be indemnified for such expenses under this section or otherwise.

(B) If a claim under paragraph (A) of this section is not paid in full by the corporation within 60 days after a written claim has been received by the corporation, except in the case of a claim for an advancement of expenses, in which case the applicable period shall be 20 days, the indemnitee may at any time thereafter bring suit against the corporation to recover the unpaid amount of such suit, or in a suit brought by the corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking, the indemnitee shall be entitled to be paid also the expense of prosecuting or defending such suit. In (i) any suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right to indemnification hereunder (but not in a suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right to an advancement of expenses) it shall be a defense that, and (ii) any suit by the corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking the corporation shall be entitled to recover such expenses upon a final adjudication that, the indemnitee has not met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in the Pennsylvania Business Corporation Law of 1988, as amended. Neither the failure of the corporation (including its board of directors, independent legal counsel, or its shareholders) to have made a determination prior to the commencement of such suit that indemnification of the indemnitee is proper in the circumstances because the indemnitee has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in the Pennsylvania Business Corporation Law of 1988, as amended, nor an actual determination by the corporation (including its board of directors, independent legal counsel, or its shareholders) that the indemnitee has not met such applicable standard of conduct shall create a presumption that the indemnitee has not met the applicable standard of conduct or, in the case of such a suit brought by the indemnitee, be a defense of such suit. In any suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right of indemnification or to an advancement of expenses hereunder, or by the corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking, the burden of proving that the indemnitee is not entitled to be indemnified, or to such advancement of expenses, under this section or otherwise shall be on the corporation.

(C) The rights to indemnification and to the advancement of expenses conferred in this section shall not be exclusive of any other right which any person may have or hereafter acquire under any statute, the corporation’s certificate of incorporation, by agreement, by vote of shareholders or by disinterested directors or otherwise.

(D) The corporation may maintain insurance, at its expense, to protect itself and any director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation or another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise against any expense, liability or loss, whether or not the corporation would have the power to indemnify such person against such expense, liability or loss under the Pennsylvania Business Corporation Law of 1988, as amended.

Section 7.11 Invalid Provisions. If any provision of these bylaws is held to be illegal, invalid, or unenforceable under present or future laws, such provision shall be fully severable; these bylaws shall be construed and enforced as if such illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision had never comprised a part hereof; and the remaining provisions hereof shall remain in full force and effect and shall not be affected by the illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision or by its severance herefrom. Furthermore, in lieu of such illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision there shall be added automatically as a part of these bylaws a provision as similar in terms to such illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision as may be possible and be legal, valid, and enforceable.

Section 7.12 Headings. The headings used in these bylaws are for reference purposes only and do not affect in any way the meaning or interpretation of these bylaws.

The above bylaws were duly adopted as the bylaws of the corporation effective as of the 13th day of June, 2001.

SUNBURY HOSPITAL CORPORATION

In compliance with the requirements of the applicable provisions of the Pennsylvania Business Corporation Law of 1988, as amended (the "Pennsylvania BCL"), the undersigned natural person of the age of eighteen years or more, desiring to incorporate a corporation for profit hereby states the following;

ARTICLE I

The name of the Corporation is Sunbury Hospital Corporation.

ARTICLE II

The period of its duration is perpetual.

ARTICLE III

The purpose of the Corporation is to engage in any lawful act or activity for which corporations may be organized under the Pennsylvania BCL.

ARTICLE IV

The total number of shares of all classes of stock that the Corporation shall have the authority to issue is one thousand (1,000) shares of $.01 per share par value Common Stock.

ARTICLE V

The name of the Corporation's initial commercial registered office provider is National Registered Agents, Inc. and the county of venue is Dauphin County.

ARTICLE VI

Election of the Directors need not be written ballot unless the Bylaws of the corporation shall so provide.

ARTICLE VII

The name and mailing address of the incorporator is:

Robin J. Keck
Community Health Systems
155 Franklin Road, Suite 400
Brentwood, Tennessee 37027

ARTICLE VIII

To the fullest extent permitted by Pennsylvania law, a director of the Corporation shall not be personally liable to the Corporation or its stockholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director, except for liability (i) for any breach of the director's duty of loyalty to the Corporation or its stockholders, (ii) for acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law, (iii) under Section 1553 of the Pennsylvania BCL or (iv) for any transaction from which the director derived any improper personal benefit. If the Pennsylvania BCL is amended hereafter to authorize corporate action further eliminating or limiting the personal liability of directors, then the liability of a director of the Corporation shall be eliminated or limited to the fullest extent permitted by the Pennsylvania BCL, as so amended.

Any repeal or modification of the foregoing paragraph by the stockholders of the Corporation shall not adversely affect any right or protection of a director of the Corporation existing at the time of such repeal or modification.

ARTICLE IX

A. Rights to Indemnification. Each person who was or is made a party or is threatened to be made a party to or is otherwise involved in any action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (hereinafter, a "proceeding"), by reason of the fact that he or she, or a person of whom he or she is a legal representative, or is or was a director or officer of the Corporation or is only serving at the request of the Corporation as a director or officer of another Corporation or of a partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, including service with respect to an employee benefit plan (hereinafter an "indemnatee"), whether the basis of such proceeding is an alleged action in an official capacity or as a director or officer or in any other capacity while serving as a director or officer, shall be indemnified and held harmless by the Corporation to the fullest extent authorized by the Pennsylvania BCL as the same exists or may hereafter be amended (but, in the case of any such amendment, only to the extent that such amendment permits the Corporation to provide broader indemnification rights than permitted prior thereto), against all expense, liability and loss (including, without limitation, attorneys' fees, judgments, fines, excise taxes or penalties and amounts paid or to be paid in settlement) incurred or suffered by such indemnatee in connection therewith and such indemnification shall continue with respect to an indemnatee who has ceased to be a director or officer and shall inure to the benefit of the indemnatee's heirs, executors and administrators; provided, however, that except as provided in paragraph (B) hereof with respect to proceedings to enforce rights to indemnification, the Corporation shall indemnify any such indemnatee in connection with a proceeding initiated by such indemnatee only if such proceeding was authorized by the Board of Directors of the Corporation. The right to indemnification conferred in this Article shall be a contract right and shall include the right to be paid by the Corporation the expenses incurred in defending any such proceeding in advance of its final disposition (hereinafter an "advancement of expenses"); provided, however, that if the Pennsylvania BCL requires, an advancement of expenses incurred by an indemnatee shall be made only upon delivery to the Corporation of an undertaking (hereinafter an "undertaking"), by or on behalf of such indemnatee, to repay all amounts so advanced if it shall ultimately be determined by final judicial decision from which there is no further right to appeal (hereinafter a "final adjudication") that such indemnatee is not entitled to be indemnified for such expenses under this Article or otherwise.

B. Rights of Indemnitee to Bring Suit. If a claim under paragraph (A) of this Article is not paid in full by the Corporation within sixty days after a written claim has been received by the Corporation (except in the case of a claim for an advancement of expenses, in which case the applicable period shall be twenty days), the indemnitee may at any time thereafter bring suit against the Corporation to recover the unpaid amount of the claim. If successful in whole or in part in any such suit, the indemnitee shall also be entitled to be paid the expense of prosecuting or defending such suit. In (i) any suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right to indemnification hereunder (but not a suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right to an advancement of expenses) it shall be a defense that, and (ii) in any suit by the Corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking, the Corporation shall be entitled to recover such expenses upon a final adjudication that, the indemnitee has not met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in the Pennsylvania BCL. Neither the failure of the Corporation (including its Board of Directors, independent counsel or its stockholders) to have made a determination prior to the commencement of such suit that indemnification of the indemnitee has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in the Pennsylvania BCL, nor an actual determination by the Corporation (including its Board of Directors, independent counsel or its stockholders) to have made a determination prior to the commencement of such suit that indemnification of the indemnitee has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in the Pennsylvania BCL, nor an actual determination by the Corporation (including its Board of Directors, independent legal counsel or its stockholders) that the indemnitee has not met such applicable standard of conduct, or in the case of such a suit brought by the indemnitee, shall be a defense to such suit. In any suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right to indemnification or to an advancement of expenses hereunder or by the Corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking, the burden of proving that the indemnitee is not entitled under this Article or otherwise to be indemnified, or to such advancement of expenses, shall be on the Corporation.

C. Non-Exclusivity of Rights. The rights to indemnification and to the advancement of expenses conferred in this Article shall not be exclusive of any other right which any person may have or hereafter acquire under these Articles of Incorporation or any Bylaw, agreement, vote of stockholders or disinterested directors or otherwise.

D. Insurance. The Corporation may maintain insurance, at its expense, to protect itself and any indemnitee against any expense, liability or loss, whether or not the Corporation would have the power to indemnify such person against such expense, liability or loss under the Pennsylvania BCL.

E. Indemnity of Employees and Agents of the Corporation. The Corporation may, to the extent authorized from time to time by the Board of Directors, grant rights to indemnification and to the advancement of expenses to any employee or agent of the Corporation to the fullest extent of the provisions of this Article or as otherwise permitted under the Pennsylvania BCL with respect to the indemnification and advancement of expenses of directors and officers of the Corporation.

ARTICLE X

The Bylaws of the Corporation may be altered, amended or repealed or new Bylaws may be adopted by the Board of Directors of the Corporation.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand this 17th day of August, 2005.

BYLAWS OF SUNBURY HOSPITAL CORPORATION

ARTICLE I

OFFICES

Section 1.1 Registered Office. The registered office shall be in the City of Harrisburg, County of Dauphin, State of Pennsylvania.

Section 1.2 Other Offices. The corporation may also have offices at such other places both within and without the State of Pennsylvania as the board of directors may from time to time determine or the business of the corporation may require.

ARTICLE II

MEETINGS OF SHAREHOLDERS

Section 2.1 Annual Meeting. An annual meeting of shareholders of the corporation shall be held on such date and at such time as shall be designated from time to time by the board of directors and stated in the notice of the meeting. At such meeting, the shareholders shall elect directors and transact such other business as may properly be brought before the meeting.

Section 2.2 Special Meetings. Special meetings of the shareholders for any purpose whatsoever may be called at any time by the president, the board of directors, or the holders of not less than ten percent of all shares entitled to vote at such meeting.

Section 2.3 Place of Meetings. All meetings of shareholders for any purpose or purposes may be held at such places, within or without the State of Pennsylvania, as may from time to time be fixed by the board of directors or as shall be stated in the notice of the meeting or in a duly executed waiver of notice thereof.

Section 2.4 Notice. Written notice stating the place, day and hour of the meeting and, in the case of a special meeting, the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is called, shall be given not less than ten nor more than sixty days before the date of the meeting, either personally or by mail.

Section 2.5 Quorum of Shareholders. The holders of a majority of the shares issued and outstanding and entitled to vote at such meeting, present in person or represented by proxy shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at all meetings of the shareholders.

Section 2.6 Voting of Shares. Except as otherwise provided by statute or the articles of incorporation, each holder of record of shares of stock of the Corporation having voting power shall be entitled at each meeting of the shareholders to one vote for every share of such stock standing in his or her name on the record books of shareholders of the corporation on the date on which such notice of the meeting is mailed, unless some other day is fixed by the board of directors for the determination of shareholders of record.

Section 2.7 Voting List. The officer who has charge of the stock transfer books for shares of the corporation shall prepare at least ten days before every meeting of shareholders, a complete list of the shareholders entitled to vote at such meeting, arranged in alphabetical order, including the address of each shareholder and the number of voting shares held by each shareholder. For a period of ten days prior to such meeting, such list shall be kept open to the examination of any shareholder, for any purpose germane to the meeting, during ordinary business hours, either at a place within the city where the meeting is to be held and which place shall be specified in the notice of the meeting, or, if not so specified, at the place where said meeting is to be held. Such list shall be produced at such meeting and at all times during such meeting shall be subject to inspection by any shareholder. The original stock transfer books shall be prima facie evidence as to who are the shareholders entitled to examine such list or stock transfer books.

Section 2.8 Treasury Stock. The corporation shall not vote, directly or indirectly, shares of its own stock owned by it and such shares shall not be counted for quorum purposes.

Section 2.9 Consent of Shareholders in Lieu of Meeting. Whenever the vote of shareholders at a meeting thereof is required or permitted to be taken for or in connection with any corporate action, the meeting, the notice thereof, and the vote of shareholders can be dispensed with, if a consent in writing, setting forth the action so taken, shall be signed by the holders of stock having not less than the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to authorize or take such action at a meeting at which all shares entitled to vote thereof were present and voted, provided that prompt notice must be given to all shareholders of the taking of corporate action without a meeting by less than unanimous written consent.

Section 2.10 Minutes of Meetings. The secretary of the corporation shall keep regular minutes of all meetings of shareholders and such minutes shall be placed in the minute book of the corporation.

ARTICLE III

DIRECTORS

Section 3.1 Powers of Directors. The business and affairs of the corporation shall be managed by its board of directors which shall have and may exercise all such powers of the corporation, subject to the restrictions imposed by law, the articles of incorporation, or these bylaws.

Section 3.2 Number and Qualification. The number of directors which shall constitute the entire board of directors shall be determined by resolution of the Board of Directors at any meeting thereof or by the Shareholders at any meeting thereof. Directors need not be residents of Pennsylvania or Shareholders of the corporation.

Section 3.3 Election and Term of Office. The directors shall be elected annually by the shareholders, except as provided in Section 3.4 of these bylaws. Each director shall hold office until the next succeeding annual meeting of shareholders and until his or her successor shall have been elected or until his or her earlier death, resignation, or removal. The board of directors may, by resolution, appoint one of its members as chairman to preside over meetings of the board of directors. The position of chairman of the board of directors shall not be an office of the corporation.

Section 3.4 Vacancies. Any vacancy occurring in the board of directors by reason of death, resignation, or removal may be filled by affirmative vote of a majority of the remaining directors, although less than a quorum of the board of directors. Such vacancy may also be filled by affirmative vote of the majority of the shareholders. A director elected to fill a vacancy shall be elected for the unexpired term of his or her predecessor in office or until his or her death, resignation, retirement, disqualification, or removal.

Section 3.5 Resignation of Directors. Any director may resign from office at any time by delivering a written resignation to the secretary of the corporation, and such resignation shall be effective upon delivery of such resignation to the secretary.

Section 3.6 Removal of Directors. Any director may be removed with or without cause at any time by the shareholders.

Section 3.7 Place of Meetings. Regular or special meetings of the board of directors may be held either within or without the State of Pennsylvania.

Section 3.8 Regular Meetings. Regular meetings of the board of directors may be held without notice at such times and places as may be designated from time to time as may be determined by the board of directors.

Section 3.9 Special Meetings. Special meetings of the board of directors may be called by the president or any director on twenty-four (24) hours notice to each director, either personally or by telephone, mail, telegram or other means of telecommunications. Neither the business to be transacted at, nor the purpose of, any special meeting of the board of directors need be specified in the notice or waiver of notice of any special meeting.

Section 3.10 Quorum of Directors. At all meetings of the board of directors, a majority of the directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business and the act or a majority of the directors present at any meeting at which there is a quorum shall be an act of the board of directors. If a quorum is not present at a meeting, a majority of the directors present may adjourn the meeting from time to time, without notice other than an announcement at the meeting, until a quorum is present.

Section 3.11 Committees. The board of directors may, by resolution passed by a majority of the entire board, designate one or more committees, including, if they shall so determine, an executive committee, each such committee to consist of one or more of the directors of the corporation. Any such designated committee shall have and may exercise such of the powers and authority of the board of directors in the management of the business and affairs of the corporation as may be provided in such resolution, except that no such committee shall have the power or authority of the board of directors in reference to amending the articles of incorporation, adopting an agreement of merger or consolidation, recommending to the shareholders the sale, lease or exchange of all or substantially all of the corporation's property and assets, recommending to the shareholders a dissolution of the corporation or a revocation of a dissolution of the corporation, or amending, altering or repealing the bylaws or adopting new bylaws for the corporation and, unless such resolution or the articles of incorporation expressly so provides, no such committee shall have the power or authority to authorize the issuance of stock. The board of directors shall have the power at any time to change the number and members of any such committee, to fill vacancies and to discharge any such committee.

Section 3.12 Compensation of Directors. Persons serving as directors shall not receive any compensation for their services as directors; however, a director shall be entitled to reimbursement for reasonable and customary expenses incurred by such director in carrying out his duties as approved by the president of the corporation.

Section 3.13 Action by Unanimous Written Consent. Any action required or permitted to be taken at a meeting of the board of directors or any committee may be taken without a meeting if a consent in writing, setting forth the actions so taken, is signed by all of the members of the board of directors or such committee, as the case may be.

Section 3.14 Minutes of Meetings. The board of directors shall keep regular minutes of its proceedings and such minutes shall be placed in the minute book of the corporation. Committees of the board of directors shall maintain a separate record of the minutes of their proceedings.

ARTICLE IV

NOTICES AND TELEPHONE MEETINGS

Section 4.1 Notice. Any notice to directors or shareholders shall be in writing and shall be delivered personally or by mail, telegram, telex, cable, telecopier or similar means to the directors or shareholders at their respective addresses appearing on the books of the corporation. Notice by mail shall be deemed to be given at the time when the same shall be deposited in the United States mail, postage prepaid. Any notice required or permitted to be given by telegram, telex, cable, telecopier, or similar means shall be deemed to be delivered and given at the time transmitted.

Section 4.2 Waiver of Notice. Whenever by law, the articles of incorporation, or these bylaws, notice is required to be given to any shareholder, director, or committee member of the corporation, a waiver thereof in writing signed by the person or persons entitled to such notice, whether before or after the time notice should have been given, shall be equivalent to the giving of such notice. Attendance of a director at a meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting, except where a director attends a meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business on the ground that the meeting is not lawfully called or convened.

Section 4.3 Telephone and Similar Meetings. Shareholders, directors, or committee members may participate in and hold a meeting by means of a conference telephone or similar communications equipment by means of which persons participating in the meeting can hear each other. Participation in such a meeting shall constitute presence in person at such meeting, except where a person participates in the meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business on the ground that the meeting is not lawfully called or convened.

ARTICLE V

OFFICERS

Section 5.1 Officers. The corporation shall have a president and a secretary and such other officers and assistant officers as the board may deem desirable to conduct the affairs of the corporation. The position of chairman of the board of directors shall not be an office of the corporation. Any two or more offices may be held by the same person. No officer need be a shareholder or a director.

Section 5.2 Powers and Duties of Officers. The officers of the corporation shall have the powers and duties generally ascribed to the respective offices, and such additional authority or duty as may from time to time be established by the board of directors.

Section 5.3 Removal and Resignation. Any officer appointed by the board of directors may be removed by the board of directors whenever, in the judgment of the board of directors, the best interests of the corporation will be served thereby. Any officer may resign at any time by giving written notice to the corporation. Any such resignation shall take effect at the date of receipt of such notice or at a later time specified therein, and unless otherwise specified therein, the acceptance of such resignation shall not be necessary to make it effective.

Section 5.4 Term and Vacancies. The officers of the corporation shall hold office until their successors are elected or appointed, or until their death, resignation, or removal from office. Any vacancy occurring in any office of the corporation by death, resignation, removal, or otherwise, may be filled by the board of directors.

Section 5.5 Compensation. The salaries of all officers of the corporation shall be fixed by the board of directors. The board of directors shall have the power to enter into contracts for the employment and compensation of officers on such terms as the board of directors deems advisable. No officer shall be disqualified from receiving a salary or other compensation by reason of the fact that he or she is also a director of the corporation.

ARTICLE VI

CERTIFICATES AND SHAREHOLDERS

Section 6.1 Certificates for Shares. The certificates for shares of stock of the Corporation shall be in such form as shall be approved by the board of directors in conformity with law and the articles of incorporation. Every certificate for shares issued by the corporation must be signed by the President or a Vice President and the Secretary or an Assistant Secretary under the seal of the corporation. Any or all of the signatures on the face of the certificate may be facsimile. Such certificates shall bear a legend or legends in the form and containing the restrictions to be stated thereon by the Pennsylvania Business Corporation Law of 1988, as amended, other provisions of law, the articles of incorporation or these bylaws. Certificates shall be consecutively numbered and shall be entered as they are issued. Each certificate shall state on the face thereof the holder's name, the number and class of shares, the par value of such shares, and such other matters as may be required by law, the articles of incorporation or these bylaws.

Section 6.2 Lost, Stolen, or Destroyed Certificates. The board of directors, the executive committee, or the president of the corporation may direct a new certificate or certificates representing shares to be issued in place of any certificate or certificates theretofore issued by the corporation alleged to have been lost, stolen, or destroyed, upon the making of an affidavit of the fact by the person claiming the certificate or certificates to be lost, stolen, or destroyed. When authorizing such issue of a new certificate the board of directors, the executive committee or the president may require the owner of such lost, stolen, or destroyed certificate, or his or her legal representative, to advertise the same in such manner as it or he or she shall require and/or give the corporation a bond in such sum as it may direct as indemnity against any claim that may be made against the corporation with respect to the certificate alleged to have been lost, stolen or destroyed.

Section 6.3 Transfer of Shares. Shares of stock of the corporation shall be transferable only on the books of the corporation by the holder thereof in person or by the holder's duly authorized attorneys or legal representatives. Upon surrender to the corporation or the transfer agent of the corporation of a certificate representing shares duly endorsed or accompanied by proper evidence of succession, assignment, or authority to transfer, the corporation or its transfer agent shall issue a new certificate to the person entitled thereto, cancel the old certificate, and record the transaction upon its books.

Section 6.4 Registered Shareholders. The corporation shall be entitled to recognize the exclusive right of a person registered on its books as the owner of shares to receive dividends, and to vote as such owner, and to hold liable for calls and assessments, a person registered on its books as the owner of shares, and shall not be bound to recognize any equitable or other claim to or interest in such shares on the part of any person, whether or not it shall have actual or other notice thereof, except as otherwise provided by law.

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

Section 7.1 Dividends. Dividends upon the outstanding shares of the corporation, subject to the provisions of the applicable statutes and of the articles of incorporation, may be declared by the board of directors at any annual, regular or special meeting. Dividends may be declared and paid in cash, in property, or in shares of the corporation, or in any combination thereof.

Section 7.2 Reserves. There may be set aside out of any funds of the corporation available for dividends such sum or sums as the board of directors from time to time in their sole and absolute discretion think proper as a reserve to meet contingencies, or to equalize dividends, or to repair or maintain any property of the corporation, or for such other purpose as the board of directors shall think conducive to the interest of the corporation, and the board of directors may modify or abolish any such reserve in the manner in which it was created.

Section 7.3 Signature of Negotiable Instruments. All checks or demands for money and notes of the corporation shall be signed by such officer or officers or such other person or persons as the board of directors may from time to time designate.

Section 7.4 Fiscal Year. The fiscal year of the corporation shall be fixed by the board of directors; provided, that if such fiscal year is not fixed by the board of directors it shall be the calendar year.

Section 7.5 Books of the Corporation. The books of the corporation may be kept, subject to the provisions of the applicable statutes, within or outside of the State of Pennsylvania, at such place or places as may from time to time be designated by the board of directors or as the business of the corporation may require.

Section 7.6 Seal. The seal, if any, of the corporation shall be in such form as may be approved from time to time by the board of directors. If the board of directors approves a seal, the affixation of such seal shall not be required to create a valid and binding obligation against the corporation.

Section 7.7 Securities of Other Corporations. Unless otherwise ordered by the board of directors, the president or the secretary of the corporation shall have full power and authority on behalf of the corporation to attend, to vote and to grant proxies to be used at any meeting of shareholders of such other corporation in which the corporation may hold stock. The board of directors may confer like powers upon any other person or persons.

Section 7.8 Fixed Record Date. In order that the corporation may determine the shareholders entitled to notice of or to vote at any meeting of shareholders or any adjournment thereof, or to express consent to corporate action in writing without a meeting, or entitled to receive payment of any dividend or other distribution or allotment of any rights, or entitled to exercise any rights in respect of any change, conversion or exchange of stock for the purpose of any other lawful action, the board of directors may fix, in advance, a record date which shall be not more than sixty 60 days before the date of such meeting, nor more than 60 days prior to any other action.

Section 7.9 Amendment. The power to alter, amend, or repeal these bylaws or to adopt new bylaws is vested in the board of directors.

Section 7.10 Right to Indemnification.

indemnitee only if such proceeding (or part thereof) was authorized by the board of directors of the corporation. The right to indemnification conferred in this section shall be a contract right and shall include the right to be paid by the corporation the expenses incurred in defending any such proceeding in advance of its final disposition (hereinafter an “advancement of expenses”); provided, however, that, if the Pennsylvania Business Corporation Law of 1988, as amended, requires, an advancement of expenses incurred by an indemnitee shall be made only upon delivery to the corporation of an undertaking (hereinafter an “undertaking”), by or on behalf of such indemnitee, to repay all amounts so advanced if it shall ultimately be determined by final judicial decision from which there is no further right to appeal (hereinafter a “final adjudication”) that such indemnitee is not entitled to be indemnified for such expenses under this section or otherwise.

(B) If a claim under paragraph (A) of this section is not paid in full by the corporation within 60 days after a written claim has been received by the corporation, except in the case of a claim for an advancement of expenses, in which case the applicable period shall be 20 days, the indemnitee may at any time thereafter bring suit against the corporation to recover the unpaid amount of such suit, or in a suit brought by the corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking, the indemnitee shall be entitled to be paid also the expense of prosecuting or defending such suit. In (i) any suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right to indemnification hereunder (but not in a suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right to an advancement of expenses) it shall be a defense that, and (ii) any suit by the corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking the corporation shall be entitled to recover such expenses upon a final adjudication that, the indemnitee has not met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in the Pennsylvania Business Corporation Law of 1988, as amended. Neither the failure of the corporation (including its board of directors, independent legal counsel, or its shareholders) to have made a determination prior to the commencement of such suit that indemnification of the indemnitee is proper in the circumstances because the indemnitee has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in the Pennsylvania Business Corporation Law of 1988, as amended, nor an actual determination by the corporation (including its board of directors, independent legal counsel, or its shareholders) that the indemnitee has not met such applicable standard of conduct shall create a presumption that the indemnitee has not met the applicable standard of conduct or, in the case of such a suit brought by the indemnitee, be a defense of such suit. In any suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right of indemnification or to an advancement of expenses hereunder, or by the corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking, the burden of proving that the indemnitee is not entitled to be indemnified, or to such advancement of expenses, under this section or otherwise shall be on the corporation.

(C) The rights to indemnification and to the advancement of expenses conferred in this section shall not be exclusive of any other right which any person may have or hereafter acquire under any statute, the corporation’s certificate of incorporation, by agreement, by vote of shareholders or by disinterested directors or otherwise.

(D) The corporation may maintain insurance, at its expense, to protect itself and any director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation or another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise against any expense, liability or loss, whether or not the corporation would have the power to indemnify such person against such expense, liability or loss under the Pennsylvania Business Corporation Law of 1988, as amended.

Section 7.11 Invalid Provisions. If any provision of these bylaws is held to be illegal, invalid, or unenforceable under present or future laws, such provision shall be fully severable; these bylaws shall be construed and enforced as if such illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision had never comprised a part hereof; and the remaining provisions hereof shall remain in full force and effect and shall not be affected by the illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision or by its severance herefrom. Furthermore, in lieu of such illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision there shall be added automatically as a part of these bylaws a provision as similar in terms to such illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision as may be possible and be legal, valid, and enforceable.

Section 7.12 Headings. The headings used in these bylaws are for reference purposes only and do not affect in any way the meaning or interpretation of these bylaws.

The above bylaws were duly adopted as the bylaws of the corporation effective as of the 17th day of August, 2005.

OF

WEST GROVE HOSPITAL CORPORATION

In compliance with the requirements of the applicable provisions of the Pennsylvania Business Corporation Law of 1988, as amended (the "Pennsylvania BCL"), the undersigned natural person of the age of eighteen years or more, desiring to incorporate a corporation for profit hereby states the following:

ARTICLE I

The name of the Corporation is West Grove Hospital Corporation

ARTICLE II

The period of its duration is perpetual

ARTICLE III

The purpose of the Corporation is to engage in any lawful act or activity for which corporations may be organized under the Pennsylvania BCL.

ARTICLE IV

The total number of shares of all classes of stock that the Corporation shall have the authority to issue is one thousand (1,000) shares of $.01 per share par value Common Stock.

ARTICLE V

The address of the principal office of the Corporation's registered and the name of its registered agent at such address is:

Corporation Service Company
Dauphin County

ARTICLE VI

Election of the Directors need not be written ballot unless the Bylaws of the corporation shall so provide.

ARTICLE VII

The name and mailing address of the incorporator is:

Virginia D. Lancaster
Community Health Systems, Inc.
155 Franklin Road, Suite 400
Brentwood, Tennessee 37027

ARTICLE VIII

To the fullest extent permitted by Pennsylvania law, a director of the Corporation shall not be personally liable to the Corporation or its stockholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director, except for liability (i) for any breach of the director's duty of loyalty to the Corporation or its stockholders, (ii) for acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law, (iii) under Section 1553 of the Pennsylvania BCE, or (iv) for any transaction from which the director derived any improper personal benefit. If the Pennsylvania BCL is amended hereafter to authorize corporate action further eliminating or limiting the personal liability of directors, then the liability of a director of the Corporation shall be eliminated or limited to the fullest extent permitted by the Pennsylvania BCL, as so amended.

Any repeal or modification of the foregoing paragraph by the stockholders of the Corporation shall not adversely affect any right or protection of a director of the Corporation existing at the time of such repeal or modification.

ARTICLE IX

A. Rights to Indemnification. Each person who was or is made a party or is threatened to be made a party to or is otherwise involved in any action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (hereinafter, a "proceeding"), by reason of the fact that he or she, or a person of whom he or she is a legal representative, or is or was a director or officer of the Corporation or is only serving at the request of the Corporation as a director or officer of another Corporation or of a partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, including service with respect to an employee benefit plan (hereinafter an "indemnitee"), whether the basis of such proceeding is alleged action in an official capacity or as a director or officer or in any other capacity while serving as a director or officer, shall be indemnified and held harmless by the Corporation to the fullest extent authorized by the Pennsylvania BCL as the same exists or may hereafter be amended (but, in the case of any such amendment, only to the extent that such amendment permits the Corporation to provide broader indemnification rights than permitted prior thereto), against all expense, liability and loss (including, without limitation, attorneys' fees, judgments, fines, excise taxes or penalties and amounts paid or to be paid in settlement) incurred or suffered by such indemnitee in connection therewith and such indemnification shall continue with respect to an indemnitee who has ceased to be a director or officer and shall inure to the benefit of the indemnitee's heirs, executors and administrators; provided, however, that except as provided in paragraph (B) hereof with respect to proceedings to enforce rights to indemnification, the Corporation shall indemnify any such indemnitee in connection with a proceeding initiated by such indemnitee only if such proceeding was authorized by the Board of Directors of the Corporation. The right to indemnification conferred in this Article shall be a contract right and shall include the right to be paid by the Corporation the expenses incurred in defending any such proceeding in advance of its final disposition (hereinafter an “advancement of expenses”); provided, however, that if the Pennsylvania BCL requires, an advancement of expenses incurred by an indemnitee shall be made only upon delivery to the Corporation of an undertaking (hereinafter an “undertaking”), by or on behalf of such indemnitee, to repay all amounts so advanced if it shall ultimately be determined by final judicial decision from which there is no further right to appeal (hereinafter a “final adjudication”) that such indemnitee is not entitled to be indemnified for such expenses under this Article or otherwise.

B. Rights of Indemnitee to Bring Suit. If a claim under paragraph (A) of this Article is not paid in full by the Corporation within sixty days after a written claim has been received by the Corporation (except in the case of a claim for an advancement of expenses, in which case the applicable period shall be twenty days), the indemnitee may at any time thereafter bring suit against the Corporation to recover the unpaid amount of the claim. If successful in whole or in part in any such suit, the indemnitee shall also be entitled to be paid the expense of prosecuting or defending such suit. In (i) any suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right to indemnification hereunder (but not a suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right to an advancement of expenses) it shall be a defense that, and (ii) in any suit by the Corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking, the Corporation shall be entitled to recover such expenses upon a final adjudication that, the indemnitee has not met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in the Pennsylvania BCL. Neither the failure of the Corporation (including its Board of Directors, independent counsel or its stockholders) to have made a determination prior to the commencement of such suit that indemnification of the indemnitee has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in the Pennsylvania BCL, nor an actual determination by the Corporation (including its Board of Directors, independent legal counsel or its stockholders) that the indemnitee has not met such applicable standard of conduct, or in the case of such a suit brought by the indemnitee, shall be a defense to such suit. In any suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right to indemnification or to an advancement of expenses hereunder or by the Corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking, the burden of proving that the indemnitee is not entitled under this Article or otherwise to be indemnified, or to such advancement of expenses, shall be on the Corporation.

C. Non-Exclusivity of Rights. The rights to indemnification and to the advancement of expenses conferred in this Article shall not be exclusive of any other right which any person may have or hereafter acquire under these Articles of Incorporation or any Bylaw, agreement, vote of stockholders or disinterested directors or otherwise.

D: Insurance. The Corporation may maintain insurance, at its expense, to protect itself and any indemnitee against any expense, liability or loss, whether or not the Corporation would have the power to indemnify such person against such expense, liability or Pennsylvania BCL.

E. Indemnity of Employees and Agents of the Corporation. The Corporation to the extent authorized from time to time by the Board of Directors, grant rights to indemnification and to the advancement of expenses to any employee or agent of the Corporation to the fullest extent of the provisions of this Article or as otherwise permitted under the Pennsylvania BCL with respect to the indemnification and advancement of expenses of directors and officers of the Corporation.

ARTICLE X

The Bylaws of the Corporation may be altered, amended or repealed or new Bylaws may be adopted by the Board of Directors of the Corporation.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand this 5th day of July, 2001.

ARTICLE I

OFFICES

Section 1.1 Registered Office. The registered office shall be in the City of Harrisburg, County of Dauphin, State of Pennsylvania.

Section 1.2 Other Offices. The corporation may also have offices at such other places both within and without the State of Pennsylvania as the board of directors may from time to time determine or the business of the corporation may require.

ARTICLE II

MEETINGS OF SHAREHOLDERS

Section 2.1 Annual Meeting. An annual meeting of shareholders of the corporation shall be held on such date and at such time as shall be designated from time to time by the board of directors and stated in the notice of the meeting. At such meeting, the shareholders shall elect directors and transact such other business as may properly be brought before the meeting.

Section 2.2 Special Meetings. Special meetings of the shareholders for any purpose whatsoever may be called at any time by the president, the board of directors, or the holders of not less than ten percent of all shares entitled to vote at such meeting.

Section 2.3 Place of Meetings. All meetings of shareholders for any purpose or purposes may be held at such places, within or without the State of Pennsylvania, as may from time to time be fixed by the board of directors or as shall be stated in the notice of the meeting or in a duly executed waiver of notice thereof.

Section 2.4 Notice. Written notice stating the place, day and hour of the meeting and, in the case of a special meeting, the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is called, shall be given not less than ten nor more than sixty days before the date of the meeting, either personally or by mail.

Section 2.5 Quorum of Shareholders. The holders of a majority of the shares issued and outstanding and entitled to vote at such meeting, present in person or represented by proxy shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at all meetings of the shareholders.

Section 2.6 Voting of Shares. Except as otherwise provided by statute or the articles of incorporation, each holder of record of shares of stock of the Corporation having voting power shall be entitled at each meeting of the shareholders to one vote for every share of such stock standing in his or her name on the record books of shareholders of the corporation on the date on which such notice of the meeting is mailed, unless some other day is fixed by the board of directors for the determination of shareholders of record.

Section 2.7 Voting List. The officer who has charge of the stock transfer books for shares of the corporation shall prepare at least ten days before every meeting of shareholders, a complete list of the shareholders entitled to vote at such meeting, arranged in alphabetical order, including the address of each shareholder and the number of voting shares held by each shareholder. For a period of ten days prior to such meeting, such list shall be kept open to the examination of any shareholder, for any purpose germane to the meeting, during ordinary business hours, either at a place within the city where the meeting is to be held and which place shall be specified in the notice of the meeting, or, if not so specified, at the place where said meeting is to be held. Such list shall be produced at such meeting and at all times during such meeting shall be subject to inspection by any shareholder. The original stock transfer books shall be prima facie evidence as to who are the shareholders entitled to examine such list or stock transfer books.

Section 2.8 Treasury Stock. The corporation shall not vote, directly or indirectly, shares of its own stock owned by it and such shares shall not be counted for quorum purposes.

Section 2.9 Consent of Shareholders in Lieu of Meeting. Whenever the vote of shareholders at a meeting thereof is required or permitted to be taken for or in connection with any corporate action, the meeting, the notice thereof, and the vote of shareholders can be dispensed with, if a consent in writing, setting forth the action so taken, shall be signed by the holders of stock having not less than the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to authorize or take such action at a meeting at which all shares entitled to vote thereof were present and voted, provided that prompt notice must be given to all shareholders of the taking of corporate action without a meeting by less than unanimous written consent.

Section 2.10 Minutes of Meetings. The secretary of the corporation shall keep regular minutes of all meetings of shareholders and such minutes shall be placed in the minute book of the corporation.

ARTICLE III

DIRECTORS

Section 3.1 Powers of Directors. The business and affairs of the corporation shall be managed by its board of directors which shall have and may exercise all such powers of the corporation, subject to the restrictions imposed by law, the articles of incorporation, or these bylaws.

Section 3.2 Number and Qualification. The number of directors which shall constitute the entire board of directors shall be determined by resolution of the Board of Directors at any meeting thereof or by the Shareholders at any meeting thereof. Directors need not be residents of Pennsylvania or Shareholders of the corporation.

Section 3.3 Election and Term of Office. The directors shall be elected annually by the shareholders, except as provided in Section 3.4 of these bylaws. Each director shall hold office until the next succeeding annual meeting of shareholders and until his or her successor shall have been elected or until his or her earlier death, resignation, or removal. The board of directors may, by resolution, appoint one of its members as chairman to preside over meetings of the board of directors. The position of chairman of the board of directors shall not be an office of the corporation.

Section 3.4 Vacancies. Any vacancy occurring in the board of directors by reason of death, resignation, or removal may be filled by affirmative vote of a majority of the remaining directors, although less than a quorum of the board of directors. Such vacancy may also be filled by affirmative vote of the majority of the shareholders. A director elected to fill a vacancy shall be elected for the unexpired term of his or her predecessor in office or until his or her death, resignation, retirement, disqualification, or removal.

Section 3.5 Resignation of Directors. Any director may resign from office at any time by delivering a written resignation to the secretary of the corporation, and such resignation shall be effective upon delivery of such resignation to the secretary.

Section 3.6 Removal of Directors. Any director may be removed with or without cause at any time by the shareholders.

Section 3.7 Place of Meetings. Regular or special meetings of the board of directors may be held either within or without the State of Pennsylvania.

Section 3.8 Regular Meetings. Regular meetings of the board of directors may be held without notice at such times and places as may be designated from time to time as may be determined by the board of directors.

Section 3.9 Special Meetings. Special meetings of the board of directors may be called by the president or any director on twenty-four (24) hours notice to each director, either personally or by telephone, mail, telegram or other means of telecommunications. Neither the business to be transacted at, nor the purpose of, any special meeting of the board of directors need be specified in the notice or waiver of notice of any special meeting.

Section 3.10 Quorum of Directors. At all meetings of the board of directors, a majority of the directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business and the act or a majority of the directors present at any meeting at which there is a quorum shall be an act of the board of directors. If a quorum is not present at a meeting, a majority of the directors present may adjourn the meeting from time to time, without notice other than an announcement at the meeting, until a quorum is present.

Section 3.11 Committees. The board of directors may, by resolution passed by a majority of the entire board, designate one or more committees, including, if they shall so determine, an executive committee, each such committee to consist of one or more of the directors of the corporation. Any such designated committee shall have and may exercise such of the powers and authority of the board of directors in the management of the business and affairs of the corporation as may be provided in such resolution, except that no such committee shall have the power or authority of the board of directors in reference to amending the articles of incorporation, adopting an agreement of merger or consolidation, recommending to the shareholders the sale, lease or exchange of all or substantially all of the corporation's property and assets, recommending to the shareholders a dissolution of the corporation or a revocation of a dissolution of the corporation, or amending, altering or repealing the bylaws or adopting new bylaws for the corporation and, unless such resolution or the articles of incorporation expressly so provides, no such committee shall have the power or authority to authorize the issuance of stock. The board of directors shall have the power at any time to change the number and members of any such committee, to fill vacancies and to discharge any such committee.

Section 3.12 Compensation of Directors. Persons serving as directors shall not receive any compensation for their services as directors; however, a director shall be entitled to reimbursement for reasonable and customary expenses incurred by such director in carrying out his duties as approved by the president of the corporation.

Section 3.13 Action by Unanimous Written Consent. Any action required or permitted to be taken at a meeting of the board of directors or any committee may be taken without a meeting if a consent in writing, setting forth the actions so taken, is signed by all of the members of the board of directors or such committee, as the case may be.

Section 3.14 Minutes of Meetings. The board of directors shall keep regular minutes of its proceedings and such minutes shall be placed in the minute book of the corporation. Committees of the board of directors shall maintain a separate record of the minutes of their proceedings.

ARTICLE IV

NOTICES AND TELEPHONE MEETINGS

Section 4.1 Notice. Any notice to directors or shareholders shall be in writing and shall be delivered personally or by mail, telegram, telex, cable, telecopier or similar means to the directors or shareholders at their respective addresses appearing on the books of the corporation. Notice by mail shall be deemed to be given at the time when the same shall be deposited in the United States mail, postage prepaid. Any notice required or permitted to be given by telegram, telex, cable, telecopier, or similar means shall be deemed to be delivered and given at the time transmitted.

Section 4.2 Waiver of Notice. Whenever by law, the articles of incorporation, or these bylaws, notice is required to be given to any shareholder, director, or committee member of the corporation, a waiver thereof in writing signed by the person or persons entitled to such notice, whether before or after the time notice should have been given, shall be equivalent to the giving of such notice. Attendance of a director at a meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting, except where a director attends a meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business on the ground that the meeting is not lawfully called or convened.

Section 4.3 Telephone and Similar Meetings. Shareholders, directors, or committee members may participate in and hold a meeting by means of a conference telephone or similar communications equipment by means of which persons participating in the meeting can hear each other. Participation in such a meeting shall constitute presence in person at such meeting, except where a person participates in the meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business on the ground that the meeting is not lawfully called or convened.

ARTICLE V

OFFICERS

Section 5.1 Officers. The corporation shall have a president and a secretary and such other officers and assistant officers as the board may deem desirable to conduct the affairs of the corporation. The position of chairman of the board of directors shall not be an office of the corporation. Any two or more offices may be held by the same person. No officer need be a shareholder or a director.

Section 5.2 Powers and Duties of Officers. The officers of the corporation shall have the powers and duties generally ascribed to the respective offices, and such additional authority or duty as may from time to time be established by the board of directors.

Section 5.3 Removal and Resignation. Any officer appointed by the board of directors may be removed by the board of directors whenever, in the judgment of the board of directors, the best interests of the corporation will be served thereby. Any officer may resign at any time by giving written notice to the corporation. Any such resignation shall take effect at the date of receipt of such notice or at a later time specified therein, and unless otherwise specified therein, the acceptance of such resignation shall not be necessary to make it effective.

Section 5.4 Term and Vacancies. The officers of the corporation shall hold office until their successors are elected or appointed, or until their death, resignation, or removal from office. Any vacancy occurring in any office of the corporation by death, resignation, removal, or otherwise, may be filled by the board of directors.

Section 5.5 Compensation. The salaries of all officers of the corporation shall be fixed by the board of directors. The board of directors shall have the power to enter into contracts for the employment and compensation of officers on such terms as the board of directors deems advisable. No officer shall be disqualified from receiving a salary or other compensation by reason of the fact that he or she is also a director of the corporation.

ARTICLE VI

CERTIFICATES AND SHAREHOLDERS

Section 6.1 Certificates for Shares. The certificates for shares of stock of the Corporation shall be in such form as shall be approved by the board of directors in conformity with law and the articles of incorporation. Every certificate for shares issued by the corporation must be signed by the President or a Vice President and the Secretary or an Assistant Secretary under the seal of the corporation. Any or all of the signatures on the face of the certificate may be facsimile. Such certificates shall bear a legend or legends in the form and containing the restrictions to be stated thereon by the Pennsylvania Business Corporation Law of 1988, as amended, other provisions of law, the articles of incorporation or these bylaws. Certificates shall be consecutively numbered and shall be entered as they are issued. Each certificate shall state on the face thereof the holder's name, the number and class of shares, the par value of such shares, and such other matters as may be required by law, the articles of incorporation or these bylaws.

Section 6.2 Lost, Stolen, or Destroyed Certificates. The board of directors, the executive committee, or the president of the corporation may direct a new certificate or certificates representing shares to be issued in place of any certificate or certificates theretofore issued by the corporation alleged to have been lost, stolen, or destroyed, upon the making of an affidavit of the fact by the person claiming the certificate or certificates to be lost, stolen, or destroyed. When authorizing such issue of a new certificate the board of directors, the executive committee or the president may require the owner of such lost, stolen, or destroyed certificate, or his or her legal representative, to advertise the same in such manner as it or he or she shall require and/or give the corporation a bond in such sum as it may direct as indemnity against any claim that may be made against the corporation with respect to the certificate alleged to have been lost, stolen or destroyed.

Section 6.3 Transfer of Shares. Shares of stock of the corporation shall be transferable only on the books of the corporation by the holder thereof in person or by the holder's duly authorized attorneys or legal representatives. Upon surrender to the corporation or the transfer agent of the corporation of a certificate representing shares duly endorsed or accompanied by proper evidence of succession, assignment, or authority to transfer, the corporation or its transfer agent shall issue a new certificate to the person entitled thereto, cancel the old certificate, and record the transaction upon its books.

Section 6.4 Registered Shareholders. The corporation shall be entitled to recognize the exclusive right of a person registered on its books as the owner of shares to receive dividends, and to vote as such owner, and to hold liable for calls and assessments, a person registered on its books as the owner of shares, and shall not be bound to recognize any equitable or other claim to or interest in such shares on the part of any person, whether or not it shall have actual or other notice thereof, except as otherwise provided by law.

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

Section 7.1 Dividends. Dividends upon the outstanding shares of the corporation, subject to the provisions of the applicable statutes and of the articles of incorporation, may be declared by the board of directors at any annual, regular or special meeting. Dividends may be declared and paid in cash, in property, or in shares of the corporation, or in any combination thereof.

Section 7.2 Reserves. There may be set aside out of any funds of the corporation available for dividends such sum or sums as the board of directors from time to time in their sole and absolute discretion think proper as a reserve to meet contingencies, or to equalize dividends, or to repair or maintain any property of the corporation, or for such other purpose as the board of directors shall think conducive to the interest of the corporation, and the board of directors may modify or abolish any such reserve in the manner in which it was created.

Section 7.3 Signature of Negotiable Instruments. All checks or demands for money and notes of the corporation shall be signed by such officer or officers or such other person or persons as the board of directors may from time to time designate.

Section 7.4 Fiscal Year. The fiscal year of the corporation shall be fixed by the board of directors; provided, that if such fiscal year is not fixed by the board of directors it shall be the calendar year.

Section 7.5 Books of the Corporation. The books of the corporation may be kept, subject to the provisions of the applicable statutes, within or outside of the State of Pennsylvania, at such place or places as may from time to time be designated by the board of directors or as the business of the corporation may require.

Section 7.6 Seal. The seal, if any, of the corporation shall be in such form as may be approved from time to time by the board of directors. If the board of directors approves a seal, the affixation of such seal shall not be required to create a valid and binding obligation against the corporation.

Section 7.7 Securities of Other Corporations. Unless otherwise ordered by the board of directors, the president or the secretary of the corporation shall have full power and authority on behalf of the corporation to attend, to vote and to grant proxies to be used at any meeting of shareholders of such other corporation in which the corporation may hold stock. The board of directors may confer like powers upon any other person or persons.

Section 7.8 Fixed Record Date. In order that the corporation may determine the shareholders entitled to notice of or to vote at any meeting of shareholders or any adjournment thereof, or to express consent to corporate action in writing without a meeting, or entitled to receive payment of any dividend or other distribution or allotment of any rights, or entitled to exercise any rights in respect of any change, conversion or exchange of stock for the purpose of any other lawful action, the board of directors may fix, in advance, a record date which shall be not more than sixty 60 days before the date of such meeting, nor more than 60 days prior to any other action.

Section 7.9 Amendment. The power to alter, amend, or repeal these bylaws or to adopt new bylaws is vested in the board of directors.

Section 7.10 Right to Indemnification.

indemnitee only if such proceeding (or part thereof) was authorized by the board of directors of the corporation. The right to indemnification conferred in this section shall be a contract right and shall include the right to be paid by the corporation the expenses incurred in defending any such proceeding in advance of its final disposition (hereinafter an “advancement of expenses”); provided, however, that, if the Pennsylvania Business Corporation Law of 1988, as amended, requires, an advancement of expenses incurred by an indemnitee shall be made only upon delivery to the corporation of an undertaking (hereinafter an “undertaking”), by or on behalf of such indemnitee, to repay all amounts so advanced if it shall ultimately be determined by final judicial decision from which there is no further right to appeal (hereinafter a “final adjudication”) that such indemnitee is not entitled to be indemnified for such expenses under this section or otherwise.

(B) If a claim under paragraph (A) of this section is not paid in full by the corporation within 60 days after a written claim has been received by the corporation, except in the case of a claim for an advancement of expenses, in which case the applicable period shall be 20 days, the indemnitee may at any time thereafter bring suit against the corporation to recover the unpaid amount of such suit, or in a suit brought by the corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking, the indemnitee shall be entitled to be paid also the expense of prosecuting or defending such suit. In (i) any suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right to indemnification hereunder (but not in a suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right to an advancement of expenses) it shall be a defense that, and (ii) any suit by the corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking the corporation shall be entitled to recover such expenses upon a final adjudication that, the indemnitee has not met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in the Pennsylvania Business Corporation Law of 1988, as amended. Neither the failure of the corporation (including its board of directors, independent legal counsel, or its shareholders) to have made a determination prior to the commencement of such suit that indemnification of the indemnitee is proper in the circumstances because the indemnitee has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in the Pennsylvania Business Corporation Law of 1988, as amended, nor an actual determination by the corporation (including its board of directors, independent legal counsel, or its shareholders) that the indemnitee has not met such applicable standard of conduct shall create a presumption that the indemnitee has not met the applicable standard of conduct or, in the case of such a suit brought by the indemnitee, be a defense of such suit. In any suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right of indemnification or to an advancement of expenses hereunder, or by the corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking, the burden of proving that the indemnitee is not entitled to be indemnified, or to such advancement of expenses, under this section or otherwise shall be on the corporation.

(C) The rights to indemnification and to the advancement of expenses conferred in this section shall not be exclusive of any other right which any person may have or hereafter acquire under any statute, the corporation’s certificate of incorporation, by agreement, by vote of shareholders or by disinterested directors or otherwise.

(D) The corporation may maintain insurance, at its expense, to protect itself and any director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation or another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise against any expense, liability or loss, whether or not the corporation would have the power to indemnify such person against such expense, liability or loss under the Pennsylvania Business Corporation Law of 1988, as amended.

Section 7.11 Invalid Provisions. If any provision of these bylaws is held to be illegal, invalid, or unenforceable under present or future laws, such provision shall be fully severable; these bylaws shall be construed and enforced as if such illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision had never comprised a part hereof; and the remaining provisions hereof shall remain in full force and effect and shall not be affected by the illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision or by its severance herefrom. Furthermore, in lieu of such illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision there shall be added automatically as a part of these bylaws a provision as similar in terms to such illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision as may be possible and be legal, valid, and enforceable.

Section 7.12 Headings. The headings used in these bylaws are for reference purposes only and do not affect in any way the meaning or interpretation of these bylaws.

The above bylaws were duly adopted as the bylaws of the corporation effective as of the 6th day of July, 2001.

CHARTER
BROWNSVILLE HOSPITAL CORPORATION

The undersigned person, having capacity to contract and acting as the incorporator of a corporation for profit under the Tennessee Business Corporation Act, hereby adopts the following Charter for such corporation:

1. The name of the corporation is: Brownsville Hospital Corporation.
 2. The corporation's initial registered office is located at 2908 Poston Avenue, Nashville, Tennessee 37203, County of Davidson, The initial registered agent at that office is Corporation Service Company.
 3. The name and address of the incorporator is Kimberly A. Wright, Suite 400, 155 Franklin Road, Brentwood, Tennessee 37027,
 4. The address of the principal office of the corporation shall be Suite 400, 155 Franklin Road, Brentwood, Tennessee 37027.
 5. The corporation is for profit.
 6. The corporation is authorized to issue one thousand (1,000) shares of common stock, no par value.
 7. The business and affairs of the corporation shall be managed by a Board of Directors:
 - a. The number of directors and their term shall be specified in the Bylaws of the corporation;
 - b. Whenever the Board of Directors is required or permitted to take any action by vote, such action may be taken without a meeting on written consent setting forth the action so taken, signed by all of the directors, indicating each signing director's vote or abstention. The affirmative vote of the number of directors that would be necessary to authorize or to take such action at a meeting is an act of the Board of Directors;
 - c. Any or all of the directors may be removed with cause by a majority vote of the entire Board of Directors.
 8. To the fullest extent permitted by the Tennessee Business Corporation Act as the same may be amended from time to time, a director, officer or incorporator of the corporation shall not be liable to the corporation or its shareholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty in such capacity. If the Tennessee Business Corporation Act is amended, after approval by the shareholders of this provision, to authorize corporate action further eliminating or limiting the personal liability of a director, officer or incorporator then the liability of a director, officer or incorporator of the corporation shall be eliminated or limited to the fullest extent permitted by the Tennessee Business Corporation Act, as so amended from time to time. Any repeal or modification of this Section 8 by the shareholders of the corporation shall not adversely affect any right or protection of a director, officer or incorporator of the corporation existing at the time of such repeal or modification or with respect to events occurring prior to such time.

9. Each person who was or is made a party or is threatened to be made a party to or is otherwise involved in any action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative and whether formal or informal (hereafter a "proceeding"), by reason of the fact that he or she is or was a director, officer or incorporator of the corporation or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, manager or incorporator of another corporation or as a partner or trustee of a partnership, joint venture, limited liability company, trust or other enterprise, including service with respect to employee benefit plans (hereinafter an "Indemnitee"), whether the basis of such proceeding is alleged action in an official capacity as a director, officer, manager or incorporator or in any other capacity while serving as a director, officer, manager or incorporator, shall be indemnified and held harmless by the corporation to the fullest extent authorized by the Tennessee Business Corporation Act, as the same may be amended (but, in the case of any such amendment, only to the extent that such amendment permits the corporation to provide broader indemnification rights than such law permitted the corporation to provide prior to such amendment), against all expense, liability and loss (including but not limited to counsel fees, judgments, fines, ERISA, excise taxes or penalties and amounts paid in settlement) reasonably incurred or suffered by such Indemnitee in connection therewith and such indemnification shall continue as to an Indemnitee who has ceased to be a director, officer, manager or incorporator and shall inure to the benefit of the Indemnitee's heirs, executors and administrators. The right to indemnification conferred in this Section 9 shall be a contract right and shall include the right to be paid by the corporation the expenses incurred in any such proceeding in advance of its final disposition (hereinafter an "advancement of expenses"); provided, however, that an advancement of expenses incurred by an Indemnitee shall be made only upon delivery to the corporation of an undertaking, by or on behalf of such Indemnitee, to repay all amounts so advanced if it shall ultimately be determined by final judicial decision from which there is no further right to appeal that such Indemnitee is not entitled to be indemnified for such expenses under this Section 9 or otherwise, the Indemnitee furnishes the corporation with a written affirmation of his or her good faith belief that he or she has met the standards for indemnification under the Tennessee Business Corporation Act, and a determination is made that the facts then known to those making the determination would not preclude indemnification.

The corporation may indemnify and advance expenses to an officer, employee or agent who is not a director to the same extent as to a director by specific action of the corporation's Board of Directors or by contract.

The rights to indemnification and to the advancement of expenses conferred in this Section 9 shall not be exclusive of any other right that any person may have or hereafter acquire under any statute, this Charter, Bylaw, agreement, vote of stockholders or disinterested directors or otherwise, and the corporation is hereby permitted to grant additional rights to indemnification and advancement of expenses, to the fullest extent permitted by law, by resolution of directors, or an agreement providing for such rights.

The corporation may maintain insurance, at its expense, to protect itself and any director, officer, manager, employee or agent of the corporation or of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, limited liability company, trust or other enterprise against any expense, liability or loss, whether or not the corporation would have the power to indemnify such person against such expense, liability or loss under the Tennessee Business Corporation Act.

BYLAWS OF BROWNSVILLE HOSPITAL CORPORATION

ARTICLE I

OFFICES

Section 1.1 Registered Office. The registered office shall be in the City of Nashville, County of Davidson, State of Tennessee.

Section 1.2 Other Offices. The corporation may also have offices at such other places both within and without the State of Tennessee as the board of directors may from time to time determine or the business of the corporation may require.

ARTICLE II

MEETINGS OF SHAREHOLDERS

Section 2.1 Annual Meeting. An annual meeting of shareholders of the corporation shall be held on such date and at such time as shall be designated from time to time by the board of directors and stated in the notice of the meeting. At such meeting, the shareholders shall elect directors and transact such other business as may properly be brought before the meeting.

Section 2.2 Special Meetings. Special meetings of the shareholders for any purpose whatsoever may be called at any time by the president, the board of directors, or the holders of not less than ten percent of all shares entitled to vote at such meeting.

Section 2.3 Place of Meetings. All meetings of shareholders for any purpose or purposes may be held at such places, within or without the State of Tennessee, as may from time to time be fixed by the board of directors or as shall be stated in the notice of the meeting or in a duly executed waiver of notice thereof.

Section 2.4 Notice. Written notice stating the place, day and hour of the meeting and, in the case of a special meeting, the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is called, shall be given not less than ten nor more than sixty days before the date of the meeting, either personally or by mail.

Section 2.5 Quorum of Shareholders. The holders of a majority of the shares issued and outstanding and entitled to vote at such meeting, present in person or represented by proxy shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at all meetings of the shareholders.

Section 2.6 Voting of Shares. Except as otherwise provided by statute or the articles of incorporation, each holder of record of shares of stock of the Corporation having voting power shall be entitled at each meeting of the shareholders to one vote for every share of such stock standing in his or her name on the record books of shareholders of the corporation on the date on which such notice of the meeting is mailed, unless some other day is fixed by the board of directors for the determination of shareholders of record.

Section 2.7 Voting List. The officer who has charge of the stock transfer books for shares of the corporation shall prepare at least ten days before every meeting of shareholders, a complete list of the shareholders entitled to vote at such meeting, arranged in alphabetical order, including the address of each shareholder and the number of voting shares held by each shareholder. For a period of ten days prior to such meeting, such list shall be kept open to the examination of any shareholder, for any purpose germane to the meeting, during ordinary business hours, either at a place within the city where the meeting is to be held and which place shall be specified in the notice of the meeting, or, if not so specified, at the place where said meeting is to be held. Such list shall be produced at such meeting and at all times during such meeting shall be subject to inspection by any shareholder. The original stock transfer books shall be prima facie evidence as to who are the shareholders entitled to examine such list or stock transfer books.

Section 2.8 Treasury Stock. The corporation shall not vote, directly or indirectly, shares of its own stock owned by it and such shares shall not be counted for quorum purposes.

Section 2.9 Consent of Shareholders in Lieu of Meeting. Whenever the vote of shareholders at a meeting thereof is required or permitted to be taken for or in connection with any corporate action, the meeting, the notice thereof, and the vote of shareholders can be dispensed with, if a consent in writing, setting forth the action so taken, shall be signed by the holders of stock having not less than the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to authorize or take such action at a meeting at which all shares entitled to vote thereof were present and voted, provided that prompt notice must be given to all shareholders of the taking of corporate action without a meeting by less than unanimous written consent.

Section 2.10 Minutes of Meetings. The secretary of the corporation shall keep regular minutes of all meetings of shareholders and such minutes shall be placed in the minute book of the corporation.

ARTICLE III

DIRECTORS

Section 3.1 Powers of Directors. The business and affairs of the corporation shall be managed by its board of directors which shall have and may exercise all such powers of the corporation, subject to the restrictions imposed by law, the articles of incorporation, or these bylaws.

Section 3.2 Number and Qualification. The number of directors which shall constitute the entire board of directors shall be determined by resolution of the Board of Directors at any meeting thereof or by the Shareholders at any meeting thereof. Directors need not be residents of Tennessee or Shareholders of the corporation.

Section 3.3 Election and Term of Office. The directors shall be elected annually by the shareholders, except as provided in Section 3.4 of these bylaws. Each director shall hold office until the next succeeding annual meeting of shareholders and until his or her successor shall have been elected or until his or her earlier death, resignation, or removal. The board of directors may, by resolution, appoint one of its members as chairman to preside over meetings of the board of directors. The position of chairman of the board of directors shall not be an office of the corporation.

Section 3.4 Vacancies. Any vacancy occurring in the board of directors by reason of death, resignation, or removal may be filled by affirmative vote of a majority of the remaining directors, although less than a quorum of the board of directors. Such vacancy may also be filled by affirmative vote of the majority of the shareholders. A director elected to fill a vacancy shall be elected for the unexpired term of his or her predecessor in office or until his or her death, resignation, retirement, disqualification, or removal.

Section 3.5 Resignation of Directors. Any director may resign from office at any time by delivering a written resignation to the secretary of the corporation, and such resignation shall be effective upon delivery of such resignation to the secretary.

Section 3.6 Removal of Directors. Any director may be removed with or without cause at any time by the shareholders.

Section 3.7 Place of Meetings. Regular or special meetings of the board of directors may be held either within or without the State of Tennessee.

Section 3.8 Regular Meetings. Regular meetings of the board of directors may be held without notice at such times and places as may be designated from time to time as may be determined by the board of directors.

Section 3.9 Special Meetings. Special meetings of the board of directors may be called by the president or any director on twenty-four (24) hours notice to each director, either personally or by telephone, mail, telegram or other means of telecommunications. Neither the business to be transacted at, nor the purpose of, any special meeting of the board of directors need be specified in the notice or waiver of notice of any special meeting.

Section 3.10 Quorum of Directors. At all meetings of the board of directors, a majority of the directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business and the act or a majority of the directors present at any meeting at which there is a quorum shall be an act of the board of directors. If a quorum is not present at a meeting, a majority of the directors present may adjourn the meeting from time to time, without notice other than an announcement at the meeting, until a quorum is present.

Section 3.11 Committees. The board of directors may, by resolution passed by a majority of the entire board, designate one or more committees, including, if they shall so determine, an executive committee, each such committee to consist of one or more of the directors of the corporation. Any such designated committee shall have and may exercise such of the powers and authority of the board of directors in the management of the business and affairs of the corporation as may be provided in such resolution, except that no such committee shall have the power or authority of the board of directors in reference to amending the articles of incorporation, adopting an agreement of merger or consolidation, recommending to the shareholders the sale, lease or exchange of all or substantially all of the corporation's property and assets, recommending to the shareholders a dissolution of the corporation or a revocation of a dissolution of the corporation, or amending, altering or repealing the bylaws or adopting new bylaws for the corporation and, unless such resolution or the articles of incorporation expressly so provides, no such committee shall have the power or authority to authorize the issuance of stock. The board of directors shall have the power at any time to change the number and members of any such committee, to fill vacancies and to discharge any such committee.

Section 3.12 Compensation of Directors. Persons serving as directors shall not receive any compensation for their services as directors; however, a director shall be entitled to reimbursement for reasonable and customary expenses incurred by such director in carrying out his duties as approved by the president of the corporation.

Section 3.13 Action by Unanimous Written Consent. Any action required or permitted to be taken at a meeting of the board of directors or any committee may be taken without a meeting if a consent in writing, setting forth the actions so taken, is signed by all of the members of the board of directors or such committee, as the case may be.

Section 3.14 Minutes of Meetings. The board of directors shall keep regular minutes of its proceedings and such minutes shall be placed in the minute book of the corporation. Committees of the board of directors shall maintain a separate record of the minutes of their proceedings.

ARTICLE IV

NOTICES AND TELEPHONE MEETINGS

Section 4.1 Notice. Any notice to directors or shareholders shall be in writing and shall be delivered personally or by mail, telegram, telex, cable, telecopier or similar means to the directors or shareholders at their respective addresses appearing on the books of the corporation. Notice by mail shall be deemed to be given at the time when the same shall be deposited in the United States mail, postage prepaid. Any notice required or permitted to be given by telegram, telex, cable, telecopier, or similar means shall be deemed to be delivered and given at the time transmitted.

Section 4.2 Waiver of Notice. Whenever by law, the articles of incorporation, or these bylaws, notice is required to be given to any shareholder, director, or committee member of the corporation, a waiver thereof in writing signed by the person or persons entitled to such notice, whether before or after the time notice should have been given, shall be equivalent to the giving of such notice. Attendance of a director at a meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting, except where a director attends a meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business on the ground that the meeting is not lawfully called or convened.

Section 4.3 Telephone and Similar Meetings. Shareholders, directors, or committee members may participate in and hold a meeting by means of a conference telephone or similar communications equipment by means of which persons participating in the meeting can hear each other. Participation in such a meeting shall constitute presence in person at such meeting, except where a person participates in the meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business on the ground that the meeting is not lawfully called or convened.

ARTICLE V

OFFICERS

Section 5.1 Officers. The corporation shall have a president and a secretary and such other officers and assistant officers as the board may deem desirable to conduct the affairs of the corporation. The position of chairman of the board of directors shall not be an office of the corporation. Any two or more offices may be held by the same person. No officer need be a shareholder or a director.

Section 5.2 Powers and Duties of Officers. The officers of the corporation shall have the powers and duties generally ascribed to the respective offices, and such additional authority or duty as may from time to time be established by the board of directors.

Section 5.3 Removal and Resignation. Any officer appointed by the board of directors may be removed by the board of directors whenever, in the judgment of the board of directors, the best interests of the corporation will be served thereby. Any officer may resign at any time by giving written notice to the corporation. Any such resignation shall take effect at the date of receipt of such notice or at a later time specified therein, and unless otherwise specified therein, the acceptance of such resignation shall not be necessary to make it effective.

Section 5.4 Term and Vacancies. The officers of the corporation shall hold office until their successors are elected or appointed, or until their death, resignation, or removal from office. Any vacancy occurring in any office of the corporation by death, resignation, removal, or otherwise, may be filled by the board of directors.

Section 5.5 Compensation. The salaries of all officers of the corporation shall be fixed by the board of directors. The board of directors shall have the power to enter into contracts for the employment and compensation of officers on such terms as the board of directors deems advisable. No officer shall be disqualified from receiving a salary or other compensation by reason of the fact that he or she is also a director of the corporation.

ARTICLE VI

CERTIFICATES AND SHAREHOLDERS

Section 6.1 Certificates for Shares. The certificates for shares of stock of the Corporation shall be in such form as shall be approved by the board of directors in conformity with law and the articles of incorporation. Every certificate for shares issued by the corporation must be signed by the President or a Vice President and the Secretary or an Assistant Secretary under the seal of the corporation. Any or all of the signatures on the face of the certificate may be facsimile. Such certificates shall bear a legend or legends in the form and containing the restrictions to be stated thereon by the Tennessee Business Corporation Law of 1988, as amended, other provisions of law, the articles of incorporation or these bylaws. Certificates shall be consecutively numbered and shall be entered as they are issued. Each certificate shall state on the face thereof the holder's name, the number and class of shares, the par value of such shares, and such other matters as may be required by law, the articles of incorporation or these bylaws.

Section 6.2 Lost, Stolen, or Destroyed Certificates. The board of directors, the executive committee, or the president of the corporation may direct a new certificate or certificates representing shares to be issued in place of any certificate or certificates theretofore issued by the corporation alleged to have been lost, stolen, or destroyed, upon the making of an affidavit of the fact by the person claiming the certificate or certificates to be lost, stolen, or destroyed. When authorizing such issue of a new certificate the board of directors, the executive committee or the president may require the owner of such lost, stolen, or destroyed certificate, or his or her legal representative, to advertise the same in such manner as it or he or she shall require and/or give the corporation a bond in such sum as it may direct as indemnity against any claim that may be made against the corporation with respect to the certificate alleged to have been lost, stolen or destroyed.

Section 6.4 Registered Shareholders. The corporation shall be entitled to recognize the exclusive right of a person registered on its books as the owner of shares to receive dividends, and to vote as such owner, and to hold liable for calls and assessments, a person registered on its books as the owner of shares, and shall not be bound to recognize any equitable or other claim to or interest in such shares on the part of any person, whether or not it shall have actual or other notice thereof, except as otherwise provided by law.

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

Section 7.1 Dividends. Dividends upon the outstanding shares of the corporation, subject to the provisions of the applicable statutes and of the articles of incorporation, may be declared by the board of directors at any annual, regular or special meeting. Dividends may be declared and paid in cash, in property, or in shares of the corporation, or in any combination thereof.

Section 7.2 Reserves. There may be set aside out of any funds of the corporation available for dividends such sum or sums as the board of directors from time to time in their sole and absolute discretion think proper as a reserve to meet contingencies, or to equalize dividends, or to repair or maintain any property of the corporation, or for such other purpose as the board of directors shall think conducive to the interest of the corporation, and the board of directors may modify or abolish any such reserve in the manner in which it was created.

Section 7.3 Signature of Negotiable Instruments. All checks or demands for money and notes of the corporation shall be signed by such officer or officers or such other person or persons as the board of directors may from time to time designate.

Section 7.4 Fiscal Year. The fiscal year of the corporation shall be fixed by the board of directors; provided, that if such fiscal year is not fixed by the board of directors it shall be the calendar year.

Section 7.5 Books of the Corporation. The books of the corporation may be kept, subject to the provisions of the applicable statutes, within or outside of the State of Tennessee, at such place or places as may from time to time be designated by the board of directors or as the business of the corporation may require.

Section 7.6 Seal. The seal, if any, of the corporation shall be in such form as may be approved from time to time by the board of directors. If the board of directors approves a seal, the affixation of such seal shall not be required to create a valid and binding obligation against the corporation.

Section 7.7 Securities of Other Corporations. Unless otherwise ordered by the board of directors, the president or the secretary of the corporation shall have full power and authority on behalf of the corporation to attend, to vote and to grant proxies to be used at any meeting of shareholders of such other corporation in which the corporation may hold stock. The board of directors may confer like powers upon any other person or persons.

Section 7.8 Fixed Record Date. In order that the corporation may determine the shareholders entitled to notice of or to vote at any meeting of shareholders or any adjournment thereof, or to express consent to corporate action in writing without a meeting, or entitled to receive payment of any dividend or other distribution or allotment of any rights, or entitled to exercise any rights in respect of any change, conversion or exchange of stock for the purpose of any other lawful action, the board of directors may fix, in advance, a record date which shall be not more than sixty 60 days before the date of such meeting, nor more than 60 days prior to any other action.

Section 7.9 Amendment. The power to alter, amend, or repeal these bylaws or to adopt new bylaws is vested in the board of directors.

Section 7.10 Right to Indemnification.

(A) Each person (hereinafter an “indemnitee”) who was or is made a party or is threatened to be made a party to or is otherwise involved in any action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (hereinafter a “proceeding”), by reason of the fact that he or she was a director, officer or agent of the corporation or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation or of a partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, including service with respect to an employee benefit plan, whether the basis of such proceeding is alleged action in an official capacity as a director, officer, employee or agent, shall be indemnified and held harmless by the corporation to the fullest extent authorized by the Tennessee Business Corporation Law of 1988, as amended, as the same exists or may hereafter be amended (but, in the case of any such amendment, only to the extent that such amendment permits the corporation to provide broader indemnification rights than permitted prior thereto), against all expense, liability and loss (including attorney’s fees, judgments, fines, ERISA excise taxes or penalties and amounts paid in settlement) reasonably incurred or suffered by such indemnitee in connection therewith, and such indemnification shall continue with respect to an indemnitee who has ceased to be a director, officer, employee or agent and shall inure to the benefit of the indemnitee’s heirs, executors and administrators; provided, however, that, except as provided in paragraph (B) hereof with respect to proceedings to enforce rights to indemnification, the corporation shall indemnify any such indemnitee only if such proceeding (or part thereof) was authorized by the board of directors of the corporation. The right to indemnification conferred in this section shall be a contract right and shall include the right to be paid by the corporation the expenses incurred in defending any such proceeding in advance of its final disposition (hereinafter an “advancement of expenses”); provided, however, that, if the Tennessee Business Corporation Law of 1988, as amended, requires, an advancement of expenses incurred by an indemnitee shall be made only upon delivery to the corporation of an undertaking (hereinafter an “undertaking”), by or on behalf of such indemnitee, to repay all amounts so advanced if it shall ultimately be determined by final judicial decision from which there is no further right to appeal (hereinafter a “final adjudication”) that such indemnitee is not entitled to be indemnified for such expenses under this section or otherwise.

(B) If a claim under paragraph (A) of this section is not paid in full by the corporation within 60 days after a written claim has been received by the corporation, except in the case of a claim for an advancement of expenses, in which case the applicable period shall be 20 days, the indemnitee may at any time thereafter bring suit against the corporation to recover the unpaid amount of such suit, or in a suit brought by the corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking, the indemnitee shall be entitled to be paid also the expense of prosecuting or defending such suit. In (i) any suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right to indemnification hereunder (but not in a suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right to an advancement of expenses) it shall be a defense that, and (ii) any suit by the corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking the corporation shall be entitled to recover such expenses upon a final adjudication that, the indemnitee has not met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in the Tennessee Business Corporation Law of 1988, as amended. Neither the failure of the corporation (including its board of directors, independent legal counsel, or its shareholders) to have made a determination prior to the commencement of such suit that indemnification of the indemnitee is proper in the circumstances because the indemnitee has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in the Tennessee Business Corporation Law of 1988, as amended, nor an actual determination by the corporation (including its board of directors, independent legal counsel, or its shareholders) that the indemnitee has not met such applicable standard of conduct shall create a presumption that the indemnitee has not met the applicable standard of conduct or, in the case of such a suit brought by the indemnitee, be a defense of such suit. In any suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right of indemnification or to an advancement of expenses hereunder, or by the corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking, the burden of proving that the indemnitee is not entitled to be indemnified, or to such advancement of expenses, under this section or otherwise shall be on the corporation.

(C) The rights to indemnification and to the advancement of expenses conferred in this section shall not be exclusive of any other right which any person may have or hereafter acquire under any statute, the corporation's certificate of incorporation, by agreement, by vote of shareholders or by disinterested directors or otherwise.

(D) The corporation may maintain insurance, at its expense, to protect itself and any director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation or another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise against any expense, liability or loss, whether or not the corporation would have the power to indemnify such person against such expense, liability or loss under the Tennessee Business Corporation Law of 1988, as amended.

Section 7.11 Invalid Provisions. If any provision of these bylaws is held to be illegal, invalid, or unenforceable under present or future laws, such provision shall be fully severable; these bylaws shall be construed and enforced as if such illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision had never comprised a part hereof; and the remaining provisions hereof shall remain in full force and effect and shall not be affected by the illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision or by its severance herefrom. Furthermore, in lieu of such illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision there shall be added automatically as a part of these bylaws a provision as similar in terms to such illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision as may be possible and be legal, valid, and enforceable.

Section 7.12 Headings. The headings used in these bylaws are for reference purposes only and do not affect in any way the meaning or interpretation of these bylaws.

The above bylaws were duly adopted as the bylaws of the corporation effective as of the 29th day of October, 2002.

CLEVELAND HOSPITAL CORPORATION

The undersigned natural person of the age of eighteen years or more, acting as incorporator of a corporation under the Tennessee Business Corporation Act, as amended, hereby adopts the following charter for such corporation:

ARTICLE ONE

The name of the Corporation is Cleveland Hospital Corporation.

ARTICLE TWO

The period of its duration is perpetual.

ARTICLE THREE

The corporation is for profit.

ARTICLE FOUR

The purpose for which the Corporation is organized is to engage in the transaction of any or all lawful business for which corporations may be incorporated under the Tennessee Business Corporation Act (the "Tennessee Code").

ARTICLE FIVE

The aggregate number of shares which the Corporation shall have authority to issue is One Thousand (1,000) shares of $.01 par value per share common stock.

ARTICLE SIX

The Corporation will not commence business until it has received for the issuance of its shares consideration of the value of at least One Thousand Dollars ($1,000), consisting of money, labor done or property actually received.

ARTICLE SEVEN

The street address of its initial registered office is 306 Gay Street, Suite 200, Nashville, , Davidson County, Tennessee, 37201 and the name of its initial registered agent at such address is Corporation Service Company.

ARTICLE EIGHT

The complete address of the corporation's principal office is 155 Franklin Road, Suite 400, Brentwood, Williamson County, Tennessee 37027.

ARTICLE NINE

Election of the Directors need not be by written ballot unless the Bylaws of the corporation shall so provide.

ARTICLE TEN The name and address of the incorporator is:

Robin J. Payton

414 Union Street, Suite 1600

ARTICLE ELEVEN

To the greatest extent permitted by Tennessee law, a director of the Corporation shall not be personally liable to the Corporation or its stockholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director, except for liability (i) for any breach of the director's duty of loyalty to the Corporation or its stockholders, (ii) for acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law, (iii) under Section 48-18304 of the Tennessee Code or (iv) for any transaction from which the director derives an improper personal benefit. If the Tennessee Code is amended hereafter to authorize corporate action further eliminating or limiting the personal liability of directors, then the liability of a director of the Corporation shall be eliminated or limited to the fullest extent permitted by the Tennessee Code, as so amended.

Any repeal or modification of the foregoing paragraph by the stockholders of the Corporation shall not adversely affect any right or protection of a director of the Corporation existing at the time of such repeal or modification.

ARTICLE TWELVE:

A. Rights to Indemnification. Each person who was or is made a party or is threatened to be made a party to or is otherwise involved in any action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (hereinafter a "proceeding"), by reason of the fact that he or she, or a person of whom he or she is the legal representative, or is or was a director or officer of the Corporation or is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director or officer of another corporation or of a partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, including service with respect to an employee benefit plan (hereinafter an "indemnitee"), whether the basis of such proceeding is alleged action in an official capacity as a director or officer or in any other capacity while serving as a director or officer, shall be indemnified and held harmless by the Corporation to the fullest extent authorized by the Tennessee Code as the same exists or may hereafter be amended (but, in the case of any such amendment, only to the extent that such amendment permits the Corporation to provide broader indemnification rights than permitted prior thereto), against all expense, liability and loss (including, without limitation, attorneys' fees, judgments, fines, excise taxes or penalties and amounts paid or to 'be paid in settlement) incurred or suffered by such indemnitee in connection therewith and such indemnification shall continue with respect to an indemnitee who has ceased to be a director or officer and shall inure to the benefit of the indemnitee's heirs, executors and administrators; provided, however, that except as provided in paragraph (8) hereof with respect to proceedings to enforce rights to indemnification, the Corporation shall indemnify any such indemnitee in connection with a proceeding initiated by such indemnitee only if such proceeding was authorized by the Board of Directors of the Corporation. The right to indemnification conferred in this Article shall be a contract right and shall include the right to be paid by the Corporation the expenses incurred in defending any such proceeding in advance of its final disposition (hereinafter an "advancement of expenses"); provided, however, that, if the Tennessee Code requires, an advancement of expenses incurred by an indemnitee shall be made only upon delivery to the Corporation of an undertaking (hereinafter an "undertaking"), by or on behalf of such indemnitee, to repay all amounts so advanced if it shall ultimately be determined by final judicial decision from which there is no further right to appeal (hereinafter a "final adjudication") that such indemnitee is not entitled to be indemnified for such expenses under this Article or otherwise.

B. Right of Indemnitee to Bring Suit. If a claim under paragraph (A) of this Article is not paid in full by the Corporation within sixty days after a written claim has been received by the Corporation (except in the case of a claim for an advancement of expenses, in which case the applicable period shall be twenty days), the indemnitee may at any time thereafter bring suit against the Corporation to recover the unpaid amount of the claim. If successful in whole or in part in any such suit, the indemnitee shall also be entitled to be paid the expense of prosecuting or defending such suit. In (1) any suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right to indemnification hereunder (but not a suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right to an advancement of expenses) it shall be a defense that, and (ii) in any suit by the Corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking, the Corporation shall be entitled to recover such expenses upon a final adjudication that the indemnitee has not met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in the Tennessee Code. Neither the failure of the Corporation (including its Board of Directors, independent legal counsel or its stockholders) to have made a determination prior to the commencement of such suit that indemnification of the indemnitee has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in the Tennessee Code, nor an actual determination by the Corporation (including its Board of Directors, independent legal counsel or its stockholders) that the indemnitee has not met such applicable standard of conduct, or in the case of such a suit brought by the indemnitee, shall be a defense to such suit. In any suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right to indemnification or to an advancement of expenses hereunder or by the Corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking, the burden of proving that the indemnitee is not entitled under this Article or otherwise to be indemnified, or to such advancement of expenses, shall be on the Corporation.

C. Non-Exclusivity of Rights. The rights to indemnification and to the advancement of expenses conferred in this Article shall not be exclusive of any other right which any person may have or hereafter acquire under this Certificate of Incorporation or any Bylaw, agreement, vote of stockholders or disinterested directors or otherwise.

D. Insurance. The Corporation may maintain insurance, at its expense, to protect itself and any indemnitee against any expense, liability or loss, whether or not the Corporation would have the power to indemnify such person against such expense, liability or loss under the Tennessee Code.

E. Indemnity of Employees and Agents of the Corporation. The Corporation may, to the extent authorized from time to time by the Board of Directors, grant rights to indemnification and to the advancement of expenses to any employee or agent of the Corporation to the fullest extent of the provisions of this Article or as otherwise permitted under the Tennessee Code with respect to the indemnification and advancement of expenses of directors and officers of the Corporation.

ARTICLE THIRTEEN

The Bylaws of the Corporation may be altered, amended or repealed or new Bylaws may be adopted by the board of directors.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand, this 10th day of January, 1995.

BYLAWS OF
CLEVELAND HOSPITAL CORPORATION
ARTICLE I
OFFICES

Section 1.1 Registered Office. The registered office shall be in the City of Nashville, State of Tennessee.

Section 1.2 Other Offices. The corporation may also have offices at such other places both within and without the State of Tennessee as the board of directors may from time to time determine or the business of the corporation may require.

ARTICLE II

MEETINGS OF SHAREHOLDERS

Section 2.1 Annual Meeting. An annual meeting of shareholders of the corporation shall be held on such date and at such time as shall be designated from time to time by the board of directors and stated in the notice of the meeting. At such meeting, the shareholders shall elect directors and transact such other business as may properly be brought before the meeting.

Section 2.2 Special Meetings. Special meetings of the shareholders for any purpose whatsoever may be called at any time by the president, the board of directors, or the holders of not less than ten percent of all shares entitled to vote at such meeting.

Section 2.3 Place of Meetings. All meetings of shareholders for any purpose or purposes may be held at such places, within or without the State of Tennessee, as may from time to time be fixed by the board of directors or as shall be stated in the notice of the meeting or in a duly executed waiver of notice thereof.

Section 2.4 Notice. Written notice stating the place, day and hour of the meeting and, in the case of a special meeting, the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is called, shall be given not less than ten nor more than sixty days before the date of the meeting, either personally or by mail.

Section 2.5 Quorum of Shareholders. The holders of a majority of the shares issued and outstanding and entitled to vote at such meeting, present in person or represented by proxy shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at all meetings of the shareholders.

Section 2.6 Voting of Shares. Except as otherwise provided by statute or the articles of incorporation, each holder of record of shares of stock of the Corporation having voting power shall be entitled at each meeting of the shareholders to one vote for every share of such stock standing in his or her name on the record books of shareholders of the corporation on the date on which such notice of the meeting is mailed, unless some other day is fixed by the board of directors for the determination of shareholders of record.

Section 2.7 Voting List. The officer who has charge of the stock transfer books for shares of the corporation shall prepare at least ten days before every meeting of shareholders, a complete list of the shareholders entitled to vote at such meeting, arranged in alphabetical order, including the address of each shareholder and the number of voting shares held by each shareholder. For a period of ten days prior to such meeting, such list shall be kept open to the examination of any shareholder, for any purpose germane to the meeting, during ordinary business hours, either at a place within the city where the meeting is to be held and which place shall be specified in the notice of the meeting, or, if not so specified, at the place where said meeting is to be held. Such list shall be produced at such meeting and at all times during such meeting shall be subject to inspection by any shareholder. The original stock transfer books shall be prima facie evidence as to who are the shareholders entitled to examine such list or stock transfer books.

Section 2.8 Treasury Stock. The corporation shall not vote, directly or indirectly, shares of its own stock owned by it and such shares shall not be counted for quorum purposes.

Section 2.9 Consent of Shareholders in Lieu of Meeting. Whenever the vote of shareholders at a meeting thereof is required or permitted to be taken for or in connection with any corporate action, the meeting, the notice thereof, and the vote of shareholders can be dispensed with, if a consent in writing, setting forth the action so taken, shall be signed by the holders of stock having not less than the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to authorize or take such action at a meeting at which all shares entitled to vote thereof were present and voted, provided that prompt notice must be given to all shareholders of the taking of corporate action without a meeting by less than unanimous written consent.

ARTICLE III DIRECTORS

Section 3.1 Powers of Directors. The business and affairs of the corporation shall be managed by its board of directors which shall have and may exercise all such powers of the corporation, subject to the restrictions imposed by law, the articles of incorporation, or these bylaws.

Section 3.2 Number and Qualification. The number of directors which shall constitute the entire board of directors shall be determined by resolution of the board of directors at any meeting thereof or by the shareholders at any meeting thereof. Directors need not be residents of Tennessee or shareholders of the corporation.

Section 3.3 Election and Term of Office. The directors shall be elected annually by the shareholders, except as provided in Section 3.4 of these bylaws. Each director shall hold office until the next succeeding annual meeting of shareholders and until his or her successor shall have been elected or until his or her earlier death, resignation, or removal. The board of directors may, by resolution, appoint one of its members as chairman to preside over meetings of the board of directors. The position of chairman of the board of directors shall not be an office of the corporation.

Section 3.4 Vacancies. Any vacancy occurring in the board of directors by reason of death, resignation, or removal may be filled by affirmative vote of a majority of the remaining directors, although less than a quorum of the board of directors. Such vacancy may also be filled by affirmative vote of the majority of the shareholders. A director elected to fill a vacancy shall be elected for the unexpired term of his or her predecessor in office or until his or her death, resignation, retirement, disqualification, or removal.

Section 3.5 Resignation of Directors. Any director may resign from office at any time by delivering a written resignation to the secretary of the corporation, and such resignation shall be effective upon delivery of such resignation to the secretary.

Section 3.6 Removal of Directors. Any director may be removed with or without cause at any time by the shareholders.

Section 3.7 Place of Meetings. Regular or special meetings of the board of directors may be held either within or without the State of Tennessee.

Section 3.8 Regular Meetings. Regular meetings of the board of directors may be held without notice at such times and places as may be designated from time to time as may be determined by the board of directors.

Section 3.9 Special Meetings. Special meetings of the board of directors may be called by the president or any director on twenty-four (24) hours notice to each director, either personally or by telephone, mail, telegram or other means of telecommunications. Neither the business to be transacted at, nor the purpose of, any special meeting of the board of directors need be specified in the notice or waiver of notice of any special meeting.

Section 3.10 Quorum of Directors. At all meetings of the board of directors, a majority of the directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business and the act or a majority of the directors present at any meeting at which there is a quorum shall be an act of the board of directors. If a quorum is not present at a meeting, a majority of the directors present may adjourn the meeting from time to time, without notice other than an announcement at the meeting, until a quorum is present.

Section 3.11 Committees. The board of directors may, by resolution passed by a majority of the entire board, designate one or more committees, including, if they shall so determine, an executive committee, each such committee to consist of one or more of the directors of the corporation. Any such designated committee shall have and may exercise such of the powers and authority of the board of directors in the management of the business and affairs of the corporation as may be provided in such resolution, except that no such committee shall have the power or authority of the board of directors in reference to amending the articles of incorporation, adopting an agreement of merger or consolidation, recommending to the shareholders the sale, lease or exchange of all or substantially all of the corporation's property and assets, recommending to the shareholders a dissolution of the corporation or a revocation of a dissolution of the corporation, or amending, altering or repealing the bylaws or adopting new bylaws for the corporation and, unless such resolution or the articles of incorporation expressly so provides, no such committee shall have the power or authority to authorize the issuance of stock. The board of directors shall have the power at any time to change the number and members of any such committee, to fill vacancies and to discharge any such committee.

Section 3.12 Compensation of Directors. The board of directors shall have authority to determine, from time to time, the amount of compensation, if any, which shall be paid to its members for their services as directors and as members of committees of the board of directors. The board of directors shall also have power in its discretion to provide for and to pay to directors rendering services to the corporation not ordinarily rendered by directors as such, special compensation appropriate to the value of such services as determined by the board of directors from time to time. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to preclude any director from serving the corporation in any other capacity and receiving compensation therefor.

Section 3.13 Action by Unanimous Written Consent. Any action required or permitted to be taken at a meeting of the board of directors or any committee may be taken without a meeting if a consent in writing, setting forth the actions so taken, is signed by all of the members of the board of directors or such committee, as the case may be.

Section 3.14 Minutes of Meetings. The board of directors shall keep regular minutes of its proceedings and such minutes shall be placed in the minute book of the corporation. Committees of the board of directors shall maintain a separate record of the minutes of their proceedings.

ARTICLE IV

NOTICES AND TELEPHONE MEETINGS

Section 4.1 Notice. Any notice to directors or shareholders shall be in writing and shall be delivered personally or by mail, telegram, telex, cable, telecopier or similar means to the directors or shareholders at their respective addresses appearing on the books of the corporation. Notice by mail shall be deemed to be given at the time when the same shall be deposited in the United States mail, postage prepaid. Any notice required or permitted to be given by telegram, telex, cable, telecopier, or similar means shall be deemed to be delivered and given at the time transmitted.

Section 4.2 Waiver of Notice. Whenever by law, the articles of incorporation, or these bylaws, notice is required to be given to any shareholder, director, or committee member of the corporation, a waiver thereof in writing signed by the person or persons entitled to such notice, whether before or after the time notice should have been given, shall be equivalent to the giving of such notice. Attendance of a director at a meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting, except where a director attends a meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business on the ground that the meeting is not lawfully called or convened.

Section 4.3 Telephone and Similar Meetings. Shareholders, directors, or committee members may participate in and hold a meeting by means of a conference telephone or similar communications equipment by means of which persons participating in the meeting can hear each other. Participation in such a meeting shall constitute presence in person at such meeting, except where a person participates in the meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business on the ground that the meeting is not lawfully called or convened.

ARTICLE V

OFFICERS

Section 5.1 Officers. The corporation shall have a president and a secretary and such other officers and assistant officers as the board may deem desirable to conduct the affairs of the corporation. The position of chairman of the board of directors shall not be an office of the corporation. Any two or more offices may be held by the same person. No officer need be a shareholder or a director.

Section 5.2 Powers and Duties of Officers. The officers of the corporation shall have the powers and duties generally ascribed to the respective offices, and such additional authority or duty as may from time to time be established by the board of directors.

Section 5.3 Removal and Resignation. Any officer appointed by the board of directors may be removed by the board of directors whenever, in the judgment of the board of directors, the best interests of the corporation will be served thereby. Any officer may resign at any time by giving written notice to the corporation. Any such resignation shall take effect at the date of receipt of such notice or at a later time specified therein, and unless otherwise specified therein, the acceptance of such resignation shall not be necessary to make it effective.

Section 5.4 Term and Vacancies. The officers of the corporation shall hold office until their successors are elected or appointed, or until their death, resignation, or removal from office. Any vacancy occurring in any office of the corporation by death, resignation, removal, or otherwise, may be filled by the board of directors.

Section 5.5 Compensation. The salaries of all officers of the corporation shall be fixed by the board of directors. The board of directors shall have the power to enter into contracts for the employment and compensation of officers on such terms as the board of directors deems advisable. No officer shall be disqualified from receiving a salary or other compensation by reason of the fact that he or she is also a director of the corporation.

ARTICLE VI

CERTIFICATES AND SHAREHOLDERS

Section 6.1 Certificates for Shares. The certificates for shares of stock of the Corporation shall be in such form as shall be approved by the board of directors in conformity with law and the articles of incorporation. Every certificate for shares issued by the corporation must be signed by the President or a Vice President and the Secretary or an Assistant Secretary under the seal of the corporation. Any or all of the signatures on the face of the certificate may be facsimile. Such certificates shall bear a legend or legends in the form and containing the restrictions to be stated thereon by the Tennessee Business Corporation Act (the "Tennessee Code"), other provisions of law, the articles of incorporation or these bylaws. Certificates shall be consecutively numbered and shall be entered as they are issued. Each certificate shall state on the face thereof the holder's name, the number and class of shares, the par value of such shares, and such other matters as may be required by law, the articles of incorporation or these bylaws.

Section 6.2 Lost, Stolen, or Destroyed Certificates. The board of directors, the executive committee, or the president of the corporation may direct a new certificate or certificates representing shares to be issued in place of any certificate or certificates theretofore issued by the corporation alleged to have been lost, stolen, or destroyed, upon the making of an affidavit of the fact by the person claiming the certificate or certificates to be lost, stolen, or destroyed. When authorizing such issue of a new certificate the board of directors, the executive committee or the president may require the owner of such lost, stolen, or destroyed certificate, or his or her legal representative, to advertise the same in such manner as it or he or she shall require and/or give the corporation a bond in such sum as it may direct as indemnity against any claim that may be made against the corporation with respect to the certificate alleged to have been lost, stolen or destroyed.

Section 6.3 Transfer of Shares. Shares of stock of the corporation shall be transferable only on the books of the corporation by the holder thereof in person or by the holder's duly authorized attorneys or legal representatives. Upon surrender to the corporation or the transfer agent of the corporation of a certificate representing shares duly endorsed or accompanied by proper evidence of succession, assignment, or authority to transfer, the corporation or its transfer agent shall issue a new certificate to the person entitled thereto, cancel the old certificate, and record the transaction upon its books.

Section 6.4 Registered Shareholders. The corporation shall be entitled to recognize the exclusive right of a person registered on its books as the owner of shares to receive dividends, and to vote as such owner, and to hold liable for calls and assessments, a person registered on its books as the owner of shares, and shall not be bound to recognize any equitable or other claim to or interest in such shares on the part of any person, whether or not it shall have actual or other notice thereof, except as otherwise provided by law.

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

Section 7.1 Dividends. Dividends upon the outstanding shares of the corporation, subject to the provisions of the applicable statutes and of the articles of incorporation, may be declared by the board of directors at any annual, regular or special meeting. Dividends may be declared and paid in cash, in property, or in shares of the corporation, or in any combination thereof.

Section 7.2 Reserves. There may be set aside out of any funds of the corporation available for dividends such sum or sums as the board of directors from time to time in their sole and absolute discretion think proper as a reserve to meet contingencies, or to equalize dividends, or to repair or maintain any property of the corporation, or for such other purpose as the board of directors shall think conducive to the interest of the corporation, and the board of directors may modify or abolish any such reserve in the manner in which it was created.

Section 7.3 Signature of Negotiable Instruments. All checks or demands for money and notes of the corporation shall be signed by such officer or officers or such other person or persons as the board of directors may from time to time designate.

Section 7.4 Fiscal Year. The fiscal year of the corporation shall be fixed by the board of directors; provided, that if such fiscal year is not fixed by the board of directors it shall be the calendar year.

Section 7.5 Books of the Corporation. The books of the corporation may be kept, subject to the provisions of the applicable statutes, within or outside of the State of Florida, at such place or places as may from time to time be designated by the board of directors or as the business of the corporation may require.

Section 7.6 Seal. The seal, if any, of the corporation shall be in such form as may be approved from time to time by the board of directors. If the board of directors approves a seal, the affixation of such seal shall not be required to create a valid and binding obligation against the corporation.

Section 7.7 Securities of Other Corporations. Unless otherwise ordered by the board of directors, the president or the secretary of the corporation shall have full power and authority on behalf of the corporation to attend, to vote and to grant proxies to be used at any meeting of shareholders of such other corporation in which the corporation may hold stock. The board of directors may confer like powers upon any other person or persons.

Section 7.8 Fixed Record Date. In order that the corporation may determine the shareholders entitled to notice of or to vote at any meeting of shareholders or any adjournment thereof, or to express consent to corporate action in writing without a meeting, or entitled to receive payment of any dividend or other distribution or allotment of any rights, or entitled to exercise any rights in respect of any change, conversion or exchange of stock for the purpose of any other lawful action, the board of directors may fix, in advance, a record date which shall be not more than sixty 60 days before the date of such meeting, nor more than 60 days prior to any other action.

Section 7.9 Amendment. The power to alter, amend, or repeal these bylaws or to adopt new bylaws is vested in the board of directors.

Section 7.10 Right to Indemnification.

(A) Each person (hereinafter an "indemnitee") who was or is made a party or is threatened to be made a party to or is otherwise involved in any action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (hereinafter a "proceeding"), by reason of the fact that he or she was a director, officer or agent of the corporation or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation or of a partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, including service with respect to an employee benefit plan, whether the basis of such proceeding is alleged action in an official capacity as a director, officer, employee or agent, shall be indemnified and held harmless by the corporation to the fullest extent authorized by the Tennessee Code, as the same exists or may hereafter be amended (but, in the case of any such amendment, only to the extent that such amendment permits the corporation to provide broader indemnification rights than permitted prior thereto), against all expense, liability and loss (including attorney's fees, judgments, fines, ERISA excise taxes or penalties and amounts paid in settlement) reasonably incurred or suffered by such indemnitee in connection therewith, and such indemnification shall continue with respect to an indemnitee who has ceased to be a director, officer, employee or agent and shall inure to the benefit of the indemnitee's heirs, executors and administrators; provided, however, that, except as provided in paragraph (B) hereof with respect to proceedings to enforce rights to indemnification, the corporation shall indemnify any such indemnitee only if such proceeding (or part thereof) was authorized by the board of directors of the corporation. The right to indemnification conferred in this section shall be a contract right and shall include the right to be paid by the corporation the expenses incurred in defending any such proceeding in advance of its final disposition (hereinafter an "advancement of expenses"); provided, however, that, if the Tennessee Code requires, an advancement of expenses incurred by an indemnitee shall be made only upon delivery to the corporation of an undertaking (hereinafter an "undertaking"), by or on behalf of such indemnitee, to repay all amounts so advanced if it shall ultimately be determined by final judicial decision from which there is no further right to appeal (hereinafter a "final adjudication") that such indemnitee is not entitled to be indemnified for such expenses under this section or otherwise.

(B) If a claim under paragraph (A) of this section is not paid in full by the corporation within 60 days after a written claim has been received by the corporation, except in the case of a claim for an advancement of expenses, in which case the applicable period shall be 20 days, the indemnitee may at any time thereafter bring suit against the corporation to recover the unpaid amount of such suit, or in a suit brought by the corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking, the indemnitee shall be entitled to be paid also the expense of prosecuting or defending such suit. In (i) any suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right to indemnification hereunder (but not in a suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right to an advancement of expenses) it shall be a defense that, and (ii) any suit by the corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking the corporation shall be entitled to recover such expenses upon a final adjudication that, the indemnitee has not met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in the Tennessee Code. Neither the failure of the corporation (including its board of directors, independent legal counsel, or its shareholders) to have made a determination prior to the commencement of such suit that indemnification of the indemnitee is proper in the circumstances because the indemnitee has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in the Tennessee Code, nor an actual determination by the corporation (including its board of directors, independent legal counsel, or its shareholders) that the indemnitee has not met such applicable standard of conduct shall create a presumption that the indemnitee has not met the applicable standard of conduct or, in the case of such a suit brought by the indemnitee, be a defense of such suit. In any suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right of indemnification or to an advancement of expenses hereunder, or by the corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking, the burden of proving that the indemnitee is not entitled to be indemnified, or to such advancement of expenses, under this section or otherwise shall be on the corporation.

(C) The rights to indemnification and to the advancement of expenses conferred in this section shall not be exclusive of any other right which any person may have or hereafter acquire under any statute, the corporation's certificate of incorporation, by agreement, by vote of shareholders or by disinterested directors or otherwise.

(D) The corporation may maintain insurance, at its expense, to protect itself and any director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation or another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise against any expense, liability or loss, whether or not the corporation would have the power to indemnify such person against such expense, liability or loss under the Tennessee Code.

Section 7.11 Invalid Provisions. If any provision of these bylaws is held to be illegal, invalid, or unenforceable under present or future laws, such provision shall be fully severable; these bylaws shall be construed and enforced as if such illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision had never comprised a part hereof; and the remaining provisions hereof shall remain in full force and effect and shall not be affected by the illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision or by its severance herefrom. Furthermore, in lieu of such illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision there shall be added automatically as a part of these bylaws a provision as similar in terms to such illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision as may be possible and be legal, valid, and enforceable.

Section 7.12 Headings. The headings used in these bylaws are for reference purposes only and do not affect in any way the meaning or interpretation of these bylaws.

The above bylaws were duly adopted as the bylaws of the corporation effective as of the 10th day of January, 1995.

DYERSBURG HOSPITAL CORPORATION

The undersigned person, having capacity to contract and acting as the incorporator of a corporation for profit under the Tennessee Business Corporation Act, hereby adopts the following Charter for such corporation:

1. The name of the corporation is: Dyersburg Hospital Corporation.
 2. The corporation's initial registered office is located at 2908 Poston Avenue, Nashville, Tennessee 37203, County of Davidson. The initial registered agent at that office is Corporation Service Company.
 3. The name and address of the incorporator is Kimberly A. Wright, Suite 400, 155 Franklin Road, Brentwood, Tennessee 37027.
 4. The address of the principal office of the corporation shall be Suite 400, 155 Franklin Road, Brentwood, Tennessee 37027.
 5. The corporation is for profit.
 6. The corporation is authorized to issue one thousand (1,000) shares of common stock, no par value.
 7. The business and affairs of the corporation shall be managed by a Board of Directors:
 - a. The number of directors and their term shall be specified in the Bylaws of the corporation;
 - b. Whenever the Board of Directors is required or permitted to take any action by vote, such action may be taken without a meeting on written consent setting forth the action so taken, signed by all of the directors, indicating each signing directors vote or abstention. The affirmative vote of the number of directors that would be necessary to authorize or to take such action at a meeting is an act of the Board of Directors;
 - c. Any or all of the directors may be removed with cause by a majority vote of the entire Board of Directors.
 8. To the fullest extent permitted by the Tennessee Business Corporation Act as the same may be amended from time to time, a director, officer or incorporator of the corporation shall not be liable to the corporation or its shareholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty in such capacity. If the Tennessee Business Corporation Act is amended, after approval by the shareholders of this provision, to authorize corporate action further eliminating or limiting the personal liability of a director, officer or incorporator then the liability of a director, officer or incorporator of the corporation shall be eliminated or limited to the fullest extent permitted by the Tennessee Business Corporation Act, as so amended from time to time. Any repeal or modification of this Section 8 by the shareholders of the corporation shall not adversely affect any right or protection of a director, officer or incorporator of the corporation existing at the time of such repeal or modification or with respect to events occurring prior to such time.

9. Each person who was or is made a party or is threatened to be made a party to or is otherwise involved in any action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative and whether formal or informal (hereafter a "proceeding"), by reason of the fact that he or she is or was a director, officer or incorporator of the corporation or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, manager or incorporator of another corporation or as a partner or trustee of a partnership, joint venture, limited liability company, trust or other enterprise, including service with respect to employee benefit plans (hereinafter an "Indemnitee"), whether the basis of such proceeding is alleged action in an official capacity as a director, officer, manager or incorporator or in any other capacity while serving as a director, officer, manager or incorporator, shall be indemnified and held harmless by the corporation to the fullest extent authorized by the Tennessee Business Corporation Act, as the same may be amended (but, in the case of any such amendment, only to the extent that such amendment permits the corporation to provide broader indemnification rights than such law permitted the corporation to provide prior to such amendment), against all expense, liability and loss (including but not limited to counsel fees, judgments, fines, ERISA, excise taxes or penalties and amounts paid in settlement) reasonably incurred or suffered by such Indemnitee in connection therewith and such indemnification shall continue as to an Indemnitee who has ceased to be a director, officer, manager or incorporator and shall inure to the benefit of the Indemnitee's heirs, executors and administrators. The right to indemnification conferred in this Section 9 shall be a contract right and shall include the right to be paid by the corporation the expenses incurred in any such proceeding in advance of its final disposition (hereinafter an "advancement of expenses"); provided, however, that an advancement of expenses incurred by an Indemnitee shall be made only upon delivery to the corporation of an undertaking, by or on behalf of such Indemnitee, to repay all amounts so advanced if it shall ultimately be determined by final judicial decision from which there is no further right to appeal that such Indemnitee is not entitled to be indemnified for such expenses under this Section 9 or otherwise, the Indemnitee furnishes the corporation with a written affirmation of his or her good faith belief that he or she has met the standards for indemnification under the Tennessee Business Corporation Act, and a determination is made that the facts then known to those making the determination would not preclude indemnification.

The corporation may indemnify and advance expenses to an officer, employee or agent who is not a director to the same extent as to a director by specific action of the corporation's Board of Directors or by contract.

The rights to indemnification and to the advancement of expenses conferred in this Section 9 shall not be exclusive of any other right that any person may have or hereafter acquire under any statute, this Charter, Bylaw, agreement, vote of stockholders or disinterested directors or otherwise, and the corporation is hereby permitted to grant additional rights to indemnification and advancement of expenses, to the fullest extent permitted by law, by resolution of directors, or an agreement providing for such rights.

The corporation may maintain insurance, at its expense, to protect itself and any director, officer, manager, employee or agent of the corporation or of another corporation, partnership joint venture, limited liability company, trust or other enterprise against any expense, liability or loss, whether or not the corporation would have the power to indemnify such person against such expense, liability or loss under the Tennessee Business Corporation Act.

Dated this 28th day of October, 2002.

BYLAWS OF
DYERSBURG HOSPITAL CORPORATION

ARTICLE I

OFFICES

Section 1.1 Registered Office. The registered office shall be in the City of Nashville, County of Davidson, State of Tennessee.

Section 1.2 Other Offices. The corporation may also have offices at such other places both within and without the State of Tennessee as the board of directors may from time to time determine or the business of the corporation may require.

ARTICLE II

MEETINGS OF SHAREHOLDERS

Section 2.1 Annual Meeting. An annual meeting of shareholders of the corporation shall be held on such date and at such time as shall be designated from time to time by the board of directors and stated in the notice of the meeting. At such meeting, the shareholders shall elect directors and transact such other business as may properly be brought before the meeting.

Section 2.2 Special Meetings. Special meetings of the shareholders for any purpose whatsoever may be called at any time by the president, the board of directors, or the holders of not less than ten percent of all shares entitled to vote at such meeting.

Section 2.3 Place of Meetings. All meetings of shareholders for any purpose or purposes may be held at such places, within or without the State of Tennessee, as may from time to time be fixed by the board of directors or as shall be stated in the notice of the meeting or in a duly executed waiver of notice thereof.

Section 2.4 Notice. Written notice stating the place, day and hour of the meeting and, in the case of a special meeting, the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is called, shall be given not less than ten nor more than sixty days before the date of the meeting, either personally or by mail.

Section 2.5 Quorum of Shareholders. The holders of a majority of the shares issued and outstanding and entitled to vote at such meeting, present in person or represented by proxy shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at all meetings of the shareholders.

Section 2.6 Voting of Shares. Except as otherwise provided by statute or the articles of incorporation, each holder of record of shares of stock of the Corporation having voting power shall be entitled at each meeting of the shareholders to one vote for every share of such stock standing in his or her name on the record books of shareholders of the corporation on the date on which such notice of the meeting is mailed, unless some other day is fixed by the board of directors for the determination of shareholders of record.

Section 2.7 Voting List. The officer who has charge of the stock transfer books for shares of the corporation shall prepare at least ten days before every meeting of shareholders, a complete list of the shareholders entitled to vote at such meeting, arranged in alphabetical order, including the address of each shareholder and the number of voting shares held by each shareholder. For a period of ten days prior to such meeting, such list shall be kept open to the examination of any shareholder, for any purpose germane to the meeting, during ordinary business hours, either at a place within the city where the meeting is to be held and which place shall be specified in the notice of the meeting, or, if not so specified, at the place where said meeting is to be held. Such list shall be produced at such meeting and at all times during such meeting shall be subject to inspection by any shareholder. The original stock transfer books shall be prima facie evidence as to who are the shareholders entitled to examine such list or stock transfer books.

Section 2.8 Treasury Stock. The corporation shall not vote, directly or indirectly, shares of its own stock owned by it and such shares shall not be counted for quorum purposes.

Section 2.9 Consent of Shareholders in Lieu of Meeting. Whenever the vote of shareholders at a meeting thereof is required or permitted to be taken for or in connection with any corporate action, the meeting, the notice thereof, and the vote of shareholders can be dispensed with, if a consent in writing, setting forth the action so taken, shall be signed by the holders of stock having not less than the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to authorize or take such action at a meeting at which all shares entitled to vote thereof were present and voted, provided that prompt notice must be given to all shareholders of the taking of corporate action without a meeting by less than unanimous written consent.

Section 2.10 Minutes of Meetings. The secretary of the corporation shall keep regular minutes of all meetings of shareholders and such minutes shall be placed in the minute book of the corporation.

ARTICLE III

DIRECTORS

Section 3.1 Powers of Directors. The business and affairs of the corporation shall be managed by its board of directors which shall have and may exercise all such powers of the corporation, subject to the restrictions imposed by law, the articles of incorporation, or these bylaws.

Section 3.2 Number and Qualification. The number of directors which shall constitute the entire board of directors shall be determined by resolution of the Board of Directors at any meeting thereof or by the Shareholders at any meeting thereof. Directors need not be residents of Tennessee or Shareholders of the corporation.

Section 3.3 Election and Term of Office. The directors shall be elected annually by the shareholders, except as provided in Section 3.4 of these bylaws. Each director shall hold office until the next succeeding annual meeting of shareholders and until his or her successor shall have been elected or until his or her earlier death, resignation, or removal. The board of directors may, by resolution, appoint one of its members as chairman to preside over meetings of the board of directors. The position of chairman of the board of directors shall not be an office of the corporation.

Section 3.4 Vacancies. Any vacancy occurring in the board of directors by reason of death, resignation, or removal may be filled by affirmative vote of a majority of the remaining directors, although less than a quorum of the board of directors. Such vacancy may also be filled by affirmative vote of the majority of the shareholders. A director elected to fill a vacancy shall be elected for the unexpired term of his or her predecessor in office or until his or her death, resignation, retirement, disqualification, or removal.

Section 3.5 Resignation of Directors. Any director may resign from office at any time by delivering a written resignation to the secretary of the corporation, and such resignation shall be effective upon delivery of such resignation to the secretary.

Section 3.6 Removal of Directors. Any director may be removed with or without cause at any time by the shareholders.

Section 3.7 Place of Meetings. Regular or special meetings of the board of directors may be held either within or without the State of Tennessee.

Section 3.8 Regular Meetings. Regular meetings of the board of directors may be held without notice at such times and places as may be designated from time to time as may be determined by the board of directors.

Section 3.9 Special Meetings. Special meetings of the board of directors may be called by the president or any director on twenty-four (24) hours notice to each director, either personally or by telephone, mail, telegram or other means of telecommunications. Neither the business to be transacted at, nor the purpose of, any special meeting of the board of directors need be specified in the notice or waiver of notice of any special meeting.

Section 3.10 Quorum of Directors. At all meetings of the board of directors, a majority of the directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business and the act or a majority of the directors present at any meeting at which there is a quorum shall be an act of the board of directors. If a quorum is not present at a meeting, a majority of the directors present may adjourn the meeting from time to time, without notice other than an announcement at the meeting, until a quorum is present.

Section 3.11 Committees. The board of directors may, by resolution passed by a majority of the entire board, designate one or more committees, including, if they shall so determine, an executive committee, each such committee to consist of one or more of the directors of the corporation. Any such designated committee shall have and may exercise such of the powers and authority of the board of directors in the management of the business and affairs of the corporation as may be provided in such resolution, except that no such committee shall have the power or authority of the board of directors in reference to amending the articles of incorporation, adopting an agreement of merger or consolidation, recommending to the shareholders the sale, lease or exchange of all or substantially all of the corporation's property and assets, recommending to the shareholders a dissolution of the corporation or a revocation of a dissolution of the corporation, or amending, altering or repealing the bylaws or adopting new bylaws for the corporation and, unless such resolution or the articles of incorporation expressly so provides, no such committee shall have the power or authority to authorize the issuance of stock. The board of directors shall have the power at any time to change the number and members of any such committee, to fill vacancies and to discharge any such committee.

Section 3.12 Compensation of Directors. Persons serving as directors shall not receive any compensation for their services as directors; however, a director shall be entitled to reimbursement for reasonable and customary expenses incurred by such director in carrying out his duties as approved by the president of the corporation.

Section 3.13 Action by Unanimous Written Consent. Any action required or permitted to be taken at a meeting of the board of directors or any committee may be taken without a meeting if a consent in writing, setting forth the actions so taken, is signed by all of the members of the board of directors or such committee, as the case may be.

Section 3.14 Minutes of Meetings. The board of directors shall keep regular minutes of its proceedings and such minutes shall be placed in the minute book of the corporation. Committees of the board of directors shall maintain a separate record of the minutes of their proceedings.

ARTICLE IV

NOTICES AND TELEPHONE MEETINGS

Section 4.1 Notice. Any notice to directors or shareholders shall be in writing and shall be delivered personally or by mail, telegram, telex, cable, telecopier or similar means to the directors or shareholders at their respective addresses appearing on the books of the corporation. Notice by mail shall be deemed to be given at the time when the same shall be deposited in the United States mail, postage prepaid. Any notice required or permitted to be given by telegram, telex, cable, telecopier, or similar means shall be deemed to be delivered and given at the time transmitted.

Section 4.2 Waiver of Notice. Whenever by law, the articles of incorporation, or these bylaws, notice is required to be given to any shareholder, director, or committee member of the corporation, a waiver thereof in writing signed by the person or persons entitled to such notice, whether before or after the time notice should have been given, shall be equivalent to the giving of such notice. Attendance of a director at a meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting, except where a director attends a meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business on the ground that the meeting is not lawfully called or convened.

Section 4.3 Telephone and Similar Meetings. Shareholders, directors, or committee members may participate in and hold a meeting by means of a conference telephone or similar communications equipment by means of which persons participating in the meeting can hear each other. Participation in such a meeting shall constitute presence in person at such meeting, except where a person participates in the meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business on the ground that the meeting is not lawfully called or convened.

ARTICLE V

OFFICERS

Section 5.1 Officers. The corporation shall have a president and a secretary and such other officers and assistant officers as the board may deem desirable to conduct the affairs of the corporation. The position of chairman of the board of directors shall not be an office of the corporation. Any two or more offices may be held by the same person. No officer need be a shareholder or a director.

Section 5.2 Powers and Duties of Officers. The officers of the corporation shall have the powers and duties generally ascribed to the respective offices, and such additional authority or duty as may from time to time be established by the board of directors.

Section 5.3 Removal and Resignation. Any officer appointed by the board of directors may be removed by the board of directors whenever, in the judgment of the board of directors, the best interests of the corporation will be served thereby. Any officer may resign at any time by giving written notice to the corporation. Any such resignation shall take effect at the date of receipt of such notice or at a later time specified therein, and unless otherwise specified therein, the acceptance of such resignation shall not be necessary to make it effective.

Section 5.4 Term and Vacancies. The officers of the corporation shall hold office until their successors are elected or appointed, or until their death, resignation, or removal from office. Any vacancy occurring in any office of the corporation by death, resignation, removal, or otherwise, may be filled by the board of directors.

Section 5.5 Compensation. The salaries of all officers of the corporation shall be fixed by the board of directors. The board of directors shall have the power to enter into contracts for the employment and compensation of officers on such terms as the board of directors deems advisable. No officer shall be disqualified from receiving a salary or other compensation by reason of the fact that he or she is also a director of the corporation.

ARTICLE VI

CERTIFICATES AND SHAREHOLDERS

Section 6.1 Certificates for Shares. The certificates for shares of stock of the Corporation shall be in such form as shall be approved by the board of directors in conformity with law and the articles of incorporation. Every certificate for shares issued by the corporation must be signed by the President or a Vice President and the Secretary or an Assistant Secretary under the seal of the corporation. Any or all of the signatures on the face of the certificate may be facsimile. Such certificates shall bear a legend or legends in the form and containing the restrictions to be stated thereon by the Tennessee Business Corporation Law of 1988, as amended, other provisions of law, the articles of incorporation or these bylaws. Certificates shall be consecutively numbered and shall be entered as they are issued. Each certificate shall state on the face thereof the holder's name, the number and class of shares, the par value of such shares, and such other matters as may be required by law, the articles of incorporation or these bylaws.

Section 6.2 Lost, Stolen, or Destroyed Certificates. The board of directors, the executive committee, or the president of the corporation may direct a new certificate or certificates representing shares to be issued in place of any certificate or certificates theretofore issued by the corporation alleged to have been lost, stolen, or destroyed, upon the making of an affidavit of the fact by the person claiming the certificate or certificates to be lost, stolen, or destroyed. When authorizing such issue of a new certificate the board of directors, the executive committee or the president may require the owner of such lost, stolen, or destroyed certificate, or his or her legal representative, to advertise the same in such manner as it or he or she shall require and/or give the corporation a bond in such sum as it may direct as indemnity against any claim that may be made against the corporation with respect to the certificate alleged to have been lost, stolen or destroyed.

Section 6.3 Transfer of Shares. Shares of stock of the corporation shall be transferable only on the books of the corporation by the holder thereof in person or by the holder's duly authorized attorneys or legal representatives. Upon surrender to the corporation or the transfer agent of the corporation of a certificate representing shares duly endorsed or accompanied by proper evidence of succession, assignment, or authority to transfer, the corporation or its transfer agent shall issue a new certificate to the person entitled thereto, cancel the old certificate, and record the transaction upon its books.

Section 6.4 Registered Shareholders. The corporation shall be entitled to recognize the exclusive right of a person registered on its books as the owner of shares to receive dividends, and to vote as such owner, and to hold liable for calls and assessments, a person registered on its books as the owner of shares, and shall not be bound to recognize any equitable or other claim to or interest in such shares on the part of any person, whether or not it shall have actual or other notice thereof, except as otherwise provided by law.

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

Section 7.1 Dividends. Dividends upon the outstanding shares of the corporation, subject to the provisions of the applicable statutes and of the articles of incorporation, may be declared by the board of directors at any annual, regular or special meeting. Dividends may be declared and paid in cash, in property, or in shares of the corporation, or in any combination thereof.

Section 7.2 Reserves. There may be set aside out of any funds of the corporation available for dividends such sum or sums as the board of directors from time to time in their sole and absolute discretion think proper as a reserve to meet contingencies, or to equalize dividends, or to repair or maintain any property of the corporation, or for such other purpose as the board of directors shall think conducive to the interest of the corporation, and the board of directors may modify or abolish any such reserve in the manner in which it was created.

Section 7.3 Signature of Negotiable Instruments. All checks or demands for money and notes of the corporation shall be signed by such officer or officers or such other person or persons as the board of directors may from time to time designate.

Section 7.4 Fiscal Year. The fiscal year of the corporation shall be fixed by the board of directors; provided, that if such fiscal year is not fixed by the board of directors it shall be the calendar year.

Section 7.5 Books of the Corporation. The books of the corporation may be kept, subject to the provisions of the applicable statutes, within or outside of the State of Tennessee, at such place or places as may from time to time be designated by the board of directors or as the business of the corporation may require.

Section 7.6 Seal. The seal, if any, of the corporation shall be in such form as may be approved from time to time by the board of directors. If the board of directors approves a seal, the affixation of such seal shall not be required to create a valid and binding obligation against the corporation.

Section 7.7 Securities of Other Corporations. Unless otherwise ordered by the board of directors, the president or the secretary of the corporation shall have full power and authority on behalf of the corporation to attend, to vote and to grant proxies to be used at any meeting of shareholders of such other corporation in which the corporation may hold stock. The board of directors may confer like powers upon any other person or persons.

Section 7.8 Fixed Record Date. In order that the corporation may determine the shareholders entitled to notice of or to vote at any meeting of shareholders or any adjournment thereof, or to express consent to corporate action in writing without a meeting, or entitled to receive payment of any dividend or other distribution or allotment of any rights, or entitled to exercise any rights in respect of any change, conversion or exchange of stock for the purpose of any other lawful action, the board of directors may fix, in advance, a record date which shall be not more than sixty 60 days before the date of such meeting, nor more than 60 days prior to any other action.

Section 7.9 Amendment. The power to alter, amend, or repeal these bylaws or to adopt new bylaws is vested in the board of directors.

Section 7.10 Right to Indemnification.

(A) Each person (hereinafter an "indemnitee") who was or is made a party to or is threatened to be made a party to or is otherwise involved in any action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (hereinafter a "proceeding"), by reason of the fact that he or she was a director, officer or agent of the corporation or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation or of a partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, including service with respect to an employee benefit plan, whether the basis of such proceeding is alleged action in an official capacity as a director, officer, employee or agent, shall be indemnified and held harmless by the corporation to the fullest extent authorized by the Tennessee Business Corporation Law of 1988, as amended, as the same exists or may hereafter be amended (but, in the case of any such amendment, only to the extent that such amendment permits the corporation to provide broader indemnification rights than permitted prior thereto), against all expense, liability and loss (including attorney's fees, judgments, fines, ERISA excise taxes or penalties and amounts paid in settlement) reasonably incurred or suffered by such indemnitee in connection therewith, and such indemnification shall continue with respect to an indemnitee who has ceased to be a director, officer, employee or agent and shall inure to the benefit of the indemnitee's heirs, executors and administrators; provided, however, that, except as provided in paragraph (B) hereof with respect to proceedings to enforce rights to indemnification, the corporation shall indemnify any such indemnitee only if such proceeding (or part thereof) was authorized by the board of directors of the corporation. The right to indemnification conferred in this section shall be a contract right and shall include the right to be paid by the corporation the expenses incurred in defending any such proceeding in advance of its final disposition (hereinafter an “advancement of expenses”); provided, however, that, if the Tennessee Business Corporation Law of 1988, as amended, requires, an advancement of expenses incurred by an indemnitee shall be made only upon delivery to the corporation of an undertaking (hereinafter an “undertaking”), by or on behalf of such indemnitee, to repay all amounts so advanced if it shall ultimately be determined by final judicial decision from which there is no further right to appeal (hereinafter a “final adjudication”) that such indemnitee is not entitled to be indemnified for such expenses under this section or otherwise.

(B) If a claim under paragraph (A) of this section is not paid in full by the corporation within 60 days after a written claim has been received by the corporation, except in the case of a claim for an advancement of expenses, in which case the applicable period shall be 20 days, the indemnitee may at any time thereafter bring suit against the corporation to recover the unpaid amount of such suit, or in a suit brought by the corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking, the indemnitee shall be entitled to be paid also the expense of prosecuting or defending such suit. In (i) any suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right to indemnification hereunder (but not in a suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right to an advancement of expenses) it shall be a defense that, and (ii) any suit by the corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking the corporation shall be entitled to recover such expenses upon a final adjudication that, the indemnitee has not met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in the Tennessee Business Corporation Law of 1988, as amended. Neither the failure of the corporation (including its board of directors, independent legal counsel, or its shareholders) to have made a determination prior to the commencement of such suit that indemnification of the indemnitee is proper in the circumstances because the indemnitee has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in the Tennessee Business Corporation Law of 1988, as amended, nor an actual determination by the corporation (including its board of directors, independent legal counsel, or its shareholders) that the indemnitee has not met such applicable standard of conduct shall create a presumption that the indemnitee has not met the applicable standard of conduct or, in the case of such a suit brought by the indemnitee, be a defense of such suit. In any suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right of indemnification or to an advancement of expenses hereunder, or by the corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking, the burden of proving that the indemnitee is not entitled to be indemnified, or to such advancement of expenses, under this section or otherwise shall be on the corporation.

(C) The rights to indemnification and to the advancement of expenses conferred in this section shall not be exclusive of any other right which any person may have or hereafter acquire under any statute, the corporation’s certificate of incorporation, by agreement, by vote of shareholders or by disinterested directors or otherwise.

(D) The corporation may maintain insurance, at its expense, to protect itself and any director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation or another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise against any expense, liability or loss, whether or not the corporation would have the power to indemnify such person against such expense, liability or loss under the Tennessee Business Corporation Law of 1988, as amended.

Section 7.11 Invalid Provisions. If any provision of these bylaws is held to be illegal, invalid, or unenforceable under present or future laws, such provision shall be fully severable; these bylaws shall be construed and enforced as if such illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision had never comprised a part hereof; and the remaining provisions hereof shall remain in full force and effect and shall not be affected by the illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision or by its severance herefrom. Furthermore, in lieu of such illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision there shall be added automatically as a part of these bylaws a provision as similar in terms to such illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision as may be possible and be legal, valid, and enforceable.

Section 7.12 Headings. The headings used in these bylaws are for reference purposes only and do not affect in any way the meaning or interpretation of these bylaws.

The above bylaws were duly adopted as the bylaws of the corporation effective as of the 29th day of October, 2002.

HOSPITAL OF MORRISTOWN, INC.

The undersigned, having capacity to contract and acting as the Incorporator for the above listed corporation under the Tennessee Business Corporation Act, adopts the following charter for such corporation:

- I. The name of the corporation is Hospital of Morristown, Inc.
2. (a) The complete address of the corporation's initial registered office in Tennessee is 530 Gay Street, Knox County, Knoxville, Tennessee 37902.
(b) The name of the initial registered agent, to be located at the address listed in 2(a) is C T Corporation System.
3. The name and complete address of the incorporator is Sara Martin-Michels, 414 Union Street, Suite 1200, Davidson County, Nashville, Tennessee 37219-1777.
4. The complete address of the corporation's principal office is 726 McFarland Street, Hamblen County, Morristown, Tennessee 37814.
5. The corporation is for profit.
6. The number of shares that the corporation is authorized to issue is Thousand (1,000) shares of $.01 par value common stock which shall have unlimited voting rights and the right to receive the net assets of the corporation upon dissolution of the corporation.
7. The business and affairs of the corporation shall be managed by a Board of Directors. The number of directors and their term shall be specified in the Bylaws of the corporation.
8. A director of the Corporation shall not be personally liable to the Corporation or its stockholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director, except for liability (i) for any breach of the director's duty of loyalty to the Corporation or its stockholders, (ii) for acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law, (iii) under Section 48-18-304 of the Tennessee Business Corporation Act (the "Tennessee Code") or (iv) for any transaction from which the director derives an improper personal benefit. If the Tennessee Code is amended hereafter to authorize corporate action further eliminating or limiting the personal liability of directors, then the usability of a director of the Corporation shall be eliminated or limited to the fullest extent permitted by the Tennessee Code, as so amended.

Any repeal modification of the foregoing paragraph by the stockholders of the Corporation shall not adversely affect any right or protection of a director of the Corporation at the time of repeal or modification.

9. Indemnification:

A. Rights to Indemnification. Each person who was or is made a party or is threatened to be made a party to or is otherwise involved in any action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (hereinafter a “proceeding”), by reason of the fact that he or she, or a person of whom he or she is the legal representative, or is or was a director or officer of the Corporation or is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director or officer of another corporation or of a partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, including service with respect to an employee benefit plan (hereinafter an “indemnatee”), whether the basis of such proceeding is alleged action in an official capacity as a director or officer or in any other capacity while serving as a director or officer, shall be indemnified and held harmless by the Corporation to the fullest extent authorized by the Tennessee as the same exists or may hereafter be amended (but, in the case of any such amendment, only to the extent that such amendment permits the Corporation to provide broader indemnification rights than permitted prior thereto), against all expense, liability and loss (including, without limitation, attorneys’ fees, judgments, fines, excise taxes or penalties and amounts paid or to be paid in settlement) incurred or suffered by such indemnatee in connection therewith and such indemnification shall continue with respect to an indemnatee who has ceased to be a director or officer and shall inure to the benefit of the indemnatee’s heirs, executors and administrators; provided, however, that except as provided in paragraph (B) hereof with respect to proceedings to enforce rights to indemnification, the Corporation shall indemnify any such indemnatee in connection with a proceeding initiated by such indemnatee only if such proceeding was authorized by the Board of Directors of the Corporation. The right to indemnification conferred in this Article shall be a contract right and shall include the right to be paid by the Corporation the expenses incurred in defending any such proceeding advance of its final disposition (hereinafter an “advancement of expenses”); provided, however, that, if the Tennessee Code requires, an advancement of expenses incurred by an indemnatee shall be made only upon delivery to the Corporation of an undertaking (hereinafter an “undertaking”), by or on behalf of such indemnatee, to repay all amounts so advanced if it shall ultimately be determined by final judicial decision from which there is no further right to appeal (hereinafter a “final adjudication”) that such indemnatee is not entitled to be indemnified for such expenses under this Article or otherwise.

B. Right of Indemnatee to Bring Suit. if a claim under paragraph (A) of this Article is not paid in full by the Corporation within sixty days after a written claim has been received by the Corporation (except in the case of a claim for an advancement of expenses, in which case the applicable period shall be twenty days), the indemnatee may at any time thereafter bring suit against the Corporation to recover the unpaid amount of the claim. If successful in whole or in part in any such suit, the indemnatee shall also be entitled to be paid the expense of prosecuting or defending such suit. In (i) any suit brought by the indemnatee to enforce a right to indemnification hereunder (but not a suit brought by the indemnatee to enforce a right to an advancement of expenses) shall be a defense that, and (u) in any suit by the Corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking, the Corporation shall be entitled to such expenses upon a final adjudication that, the indemnatee has not met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in the Tennessee Code. Neither the failure of the Corporation (including its Board of Directors, independent legal counsel or its stockholders) to have made a determination prior to the commencement of such suit that indemnification of the indemnatee has met the applicable standard of conduct forth in the Tennessee Code, nor an actual determination by the Corporation (including its Board of Directors, independent legal counsel or its stockholders) that the indemnatee has not met such applicable standard of conduct, or in the case of such a suit brought by the indemnatee, shall be a defense to such suit. In any suit brought by the indemnatee to enforce a right to indemnification or to an advancement of expenses hereunder or by the Corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking, the burden of proving that the indemnatee is not entitled under this Article or otherwise to be indemnified, or to such advancement of expenses, shall be on the Corporation.

C. Non-Exclusivity of Rights. The rights to indemnification and to the advancement of expenses conferred in this Article shall not be exclusive of any other right which any person may have or hereafter acquire under this Charter or any Bylaw, agreement, vote of stockholders or disinterested directors or otherwise.

D. Insurance. The Corporation may maintain insurance, at its expense, to protect itself and any indemnitee against any expense, liability or loss, whether or not the Corporation would have the power to indemnify such person against such expense, liability or loss under the Tennessee Code.

E. Indemnity of Employees and Agents of the Corporation. The Corporation may, to the extent authorized from time to time by the Board of Directors, grant rights to indemnification and to the advancement of expenses to any employee or agent of the Corporation to the fullest extent of the provisions of this Article or as otherwise permitted under the Tennessee Code with respect to the indemnification and advancement of expenses of directors and officers of the Corporation.

Dated this 13th day of April, 1993.

BYLAWS OF
HOSPITAL OF MORRISTOWN, INC.

ARTICLE I
OFFICES

Section 1.1 Registered Office. The registered office shall be in the City of Knoxville, State of Tennessee.

ARTICLE H
MEETINGS OF SHAREHOLDERS

Section 2.1 Annual Meeting. An annual meeting of shareholders of the corporation shall be held on such date and at such time as shall be designated from time to time by the board of directors and stated in the notice of the meeting. At such meeting, the shareholders shall elect directors and transact such other business as may properly be brought before the meeting.

Section 2.2 Special Meetings. Special meetings of the shareholders for any purpose whatsoever may be called at any time by the president, the board of directors, or the holders of not less than ten percent of all shares entitled to vote at such meeting.

Section 2.3 Place of Meetings. All meetings of shareholders for any purpose or purposes may be held at such places, within or without the State of Tennessee, as may from time to time be fixed by the board of directors or as shall be stated in the notice of the meeting or in a duly executed waiver of notice thereof.

Section 2.4 Notice. Written notice stating the place, day and hour of the meeting and, in the case of a special meeting, the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is called, shall be given not less than ten nor more than sixty days before the date of the meeting, either personally or by mail.

Section 2.5 Quorum of Shareholders. The holders of a majority of the shares issued and outstanding and entitled to vote at such meeting, present in person or represented by proxy shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at all meetings of the shareholders.

Section 2.6 Voting of Shares. Except as otherwise provided by statute or the articles of incorporation, each holder of record of shares of stock of the Corporation having voting power shall be entitled at each meeting of the shareholders to one vote for every share of such stock standing in his or her name on the record books of shareholders of the corporation on the date on which such notice of the meeting is mailed, unless some other day is fixed by the board of directors for the determination of shareholders of record.

Section 2.7 Voting List. The officer who has charge of the stock transfer books for shares of the corporation shall prepare at least ten days before every meeting of shareholders, a complete list of the shareholders entitled to vote at such meeting, arranged in alphabetical order, including the address of each shareholder and the number of voting shares held by each shareholder. For a period of ten days prior to such meeting, such list shall be kept open to the examination of any shareholder, for any purpose germane to the meeting, during ordinary business hours, either at a place within the city where the meeting is to be held and which place shall be specified in the notice of the meeting, or, if not so specified, at the place where said meeting is to be held. Such list shall be produced at such meeting and at all times during such meeting shall be subject to inspection by any shareholder. The original stock transfer books shall be prima facie evidence as to who are the shareholders entitled to examine such list or stock transfer books.

Section 2.8 Treasury Stock. The corporation shall not vote, directly or indirectly, shares of its own stock owned by it and such shares shall not be counted for quorum purposes.

Section 2.9 Consent of Shareholders in Lieu of Meeting. Whenever the vote of shareholders at a meeting thereof is required or permitted to be taken for or in connection with any corporate action, the meeting, the notice thereof, and the vote of shareholders can be dispensed with, if a consent in writing, setting forth the action so taken, shall be signed by the holders of stock having not less than the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to authorize or take such action at a meeting at which all shares entitled to vote thereof were present and voted, provided that prompt notice must be given to all shareholders of the taking of corporate action without a meeting by less than unanimous written consent.

ARTICLE DIRECTORS

Section 3.1 Powers of Directors. The business and affairs of the corporation shall be managed by its board of directors which shall have and may exercise all such powers of the corporation, subject to the restrictions imposed by law, the articles of incorporation, or these bylaws.

Section 3.2 Number and Qualification. The number of directors which shall constitute the entire board of directors shall be determined by resolution of the board of directors at any meeting thereof or by the shareholders at any meeting thereof. Directors need not be residents of Tennessee or shareholders of the corporation.

Section 3.3 Election and Term of Office. The directors shall be elected annually by the shareholders, except as provided in Section 3.4 of these bylaws. Each director shall hold office until the next succeeding annual meeting of shareholders and until his or her successor shall have been elected or until his or her earlier death, resignation, or removal. The board of directors may, by resolution, appoint one of its members as chairman to preside over meetings of the board of directors. The position of chairman of the board of directors shall not be an office of the corporation.

Section 3.4 Vacancies. Any vacancy occurring in the board of directors by reason of death, resignation, or removal may be filled by affirmative vote of a majority of the remaining directors, although less than a quorum of the board of directors. Such vacancy may also be filled by affirmative vote of the majority of the shareholders. A director elected to fill a vacancy shall be elected for the unexpired term of his or her predecessor in office or until his or her death, resignation, retirement, disqualification, or removal.

Section 3.5 Resignation of Directors. Any director may resign from office at any time by delivering a written resignation to the secretary of the corporation, and such resignation shall be effective upon delivery of such resignation to the secretary.

Section 3.6 Removal of Directors. Any director may be removed with or without cause at any time by the shareholders.

Section 3.7 Place of Meetings. Regular or special meetings of the board of directors may be held either within or without the State of Tennessee.

Section 3.8 Regular Meetings. Regular meetings of the board of directors may be held without notice at such times and places as may be designated from time to time as may be determined by the board of directors.

Section 3.9 Special Meetings. Special meetings of the board of directors may be called by the president or any director on twenty-four (24) hours notice to each director, either personally or by telephone, mail, telegram or other means of telecommunications. Neither the business to be transacted at, nor the purpose of, any special meeting of the board of directors need be specified in the notice or waiver of notice of any special meeting.

Section 3.10 Quorum of Directors. At all meetings of the board of directors, a majority of the directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business and the act of a majority of the directors present at any meeting at which there is a quorum shall be an act of the board of directors. If a quorum is not present at a meeting, a majority of the directors present may adjourn the meeting from time to time, without notice other than an announcement at the meeting, until a quorum is present.

Section 3.11 Committees. The board of directors may, by resolution passed by a majority of the entire board, designate one or more committees, including, if they shall so determine, an executive committee, each such committee to consist of one or more of the directors of the corporation. Any such designated committee shall have and may exercise such of the powers and authority of the board of directors in the management of the business and affairs of the corporation as may be provided in such resolution, except that no such committee shall have the power or authority of the board of directors in reference to amending the articles of incorporation, adopting an agreement of merger or consolidation, recommending to the shareholders the sale, lease or exchange of all or substantially all of the corporation's property and assets, recommending to the shareholders a dissolution of the corporation or a revocation of a dissolution of the corporation, or amending, altering or repealing the bylaws or adopting new bylaws for the corporation and, unless such resolution or the articles of incorporation expressly so provides, no such committee shall have the power or authority to authorize the issuance of stock. The board of directors shall have the power at any time to change the number and members of any such committee, to fill vacancies and to discharge any such committee.

Section 3.12 Compensation of Directors. The board of directors shall have authority to determine, from time to time, the amount of compensation, if any, which shall be paid to its members for their services as directors and as members of committees of the board of directors. The board of directors shall also have power in its discretion to provide for and to pay to directors rendering services to the corporation not ordinarily rendered by directors as such, special compensation appropriate to the value of such services as determined by the board of directors from time to time. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to preclude any director from serving the corporation in any other capacity and receiving compensation therefor.

Section 3.13 Action by Unanimous Written Consent. Any action required or permitted to be taken at a meeting of the board of directors or any committee may be taken without a meeting if a consent in writing, setting forth the actions so taken, is signed by all of the members of the board of directors or such committee, as the case may be.

Section 3.14 Minutes of Meetings. The board of directors shall keep regular minutes of its proceedings and such minutes shall be placed in the minute book of the corporation. Committees of the board of directors shall maintain a separate record of the minutes of their proceedings.

ARTICLE IV

NOTICES AND TELEPHONE MEETINGS

Section 4.1 Notice. Any notice to directors or shareholders shall be in writing and shall be delivered personally or by mail, telegram, telex, cable, telecopier or similar means to the directors or shareholders at their respective addresses appearing on the books of the corporation. Notice by mail shall be deemed to be given at the time when the same shall be deposited in the United States mail, postage prepaid. Any notice required or permitted to be given by telegram, telex, cable, telecopier, or similar means shall be deemed to be delivered and given at the time transmitted.

Section 4.2 Waiver of Notice. Whenever by law, the articles of incorporation, or these bylaws, notice is required to be given to any shareholder, director, or committee member of the corporation, a waiver thereof in writing signed by the person or persons entitled to such notice, whether before or after the time notice should have been given, shall be equivalent to the giving of such notice. Attendance of a director at a meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting, except where a director attends a meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business on the ground that the meeting is not lawfully called or convened.

Section 4.3 Telephone and Similar Meetings. Shareholders, directors, or committee members may participate in and hold a meeting by means of a conference telephone or similar communications equipment by means of which persons participating in the meeting can hear each other. Participation in such a meeting shall constitute presence in person at such meeting, except where a person participates in the meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business on the ground that the meeting is not lawfully called or convened.

ARTICLE V OFFICERS

Section 5.1 Officers. The corporation shall have a president and a secretary and such other officers and assistant officers as the board may deem desirable to conduct the affairs of the corporation. The position of chairman of the board of directors shall not be an office of the corporation. Any two or more offices may be held by the same person. No officer need be a shareholder or a director.

Section 5.2 Powers and Duties of Officers. The officers of the corporation shall have the powers and duties generally ascribed to the respective offices, and such additional authority or duty as may from time to time be established by the board of directors.

Section 5.3 Removal and Resignation. Any officer appointed by the board of directors may be removed by the board of directors whenever, in the judgment of the board of directors, the best interests of the corporation will be served thereby. Any officer may resign at any time by giving written notice to the corporation. Any such resignation shall take effect at the date of receipt of such notice or at a later time specified therein, and unless otherwise specified therein, the acceptance of such resignation shall not be necessary to make it effective.

Section 5.4 Term and Vacancies. The officers of the corporation shall hold office until their successors are elected or appointed, or until their death, resignation, or removal from office. Any vacancy occurring in any office of the corporation by death, resignation, removal, or otherwise, may be filled by the board of directors.

Section 5.5 Compensation. The salaries of all officers of the corporation shall be fixed by the board of directors. The board of directors shall have the power to enter into contracts for the employment and compensation of officers on such terms as the board of directors deems advisable. No officer shall be disqualified from receiving a salary or other compensation by reason of the fact that he or she is also a director of the corporation.

ARTICLE VI

CERTIFICATES AND SHAREHOLDERS

Section 6.1 Certificates for Shares. The certificates for shares of stock of the Corporation shall be in such form as shall be approved by the board of directors in conformity with law and the articles of incorporation. Every certificate for shares issued by the corporation must be signed by the President or a Vice President and the Secretary or an Assistant Secretary under the seal of the corporation. Any or all of the signatures on the face of the certificate may be facsimile. Such certificates shall bear a legend or legends in the form and containing the restrictions to be stated thereon by the Tennessee Business Corporation Act (the "Tennessee Code"), other provisions of law, the articles of incorporation or these bylaws. Certificates shall be consecutively numbered and shall be entered as they are issued. Each certificate shall state on the face thereof the holder's name, the number and class of shares, the par value of such shares, and such other matters as may be required by law, the articles of incorporation or these bylaws.

Section 6.2 Lost, Stolen, or Destroyed Certificates. The board of directors, the executive committee, or the president of the corporation may direct a new certificate or certificates representing shares to be issued in place of any certificate or certificates theretofore issued by the corporation alleged to have been lost, stolen, or destroyed, upon the making of an affidavit of the fact by the person claiming the certificate or certificates to be lost, stolen, or destroyed. When authorizing such issue of a new certificate the board of directors, the executive committee or the president may require the owner of such lost, stolen, or destroyed certificate, or his or her legal representative, to advertise the same in such manner as it or he or she shall require and/or give the corporation a bond in such sum as it may direct as indemnity against any claim that may be made against the corporation with respect to the certificate alleged to have been lost, stolen or destroyed.

Section 6.3 Transfer of Shares. Shares of stock of the corporation shall be transferable only on the books of the corporation by the holder thereof in person or by the holder's duly authorized attorneys or legal representatives. Upon surrender to the corporation or the transfer agent of the corporation of a certificate representing shares duly endorsed or accompanied by proper evidence of succession, assignment, or authority to transfer, the corporation or its transfer agent shall issue a new certificate to the person entitled thereto, cancel the old certificate, and record the transaction upon its books.

Section 6.4 Registered Shareholders. The corporation shall be entitled to recognize the exclusive right of a person registered on its books as the owner of shares to receive dividends, and to vote as such owner, and to hold liable for calls and assessments, a person registered on its books as the owner of shares, and shall not be bound to recognize any equitable or other claim to or interest in such shares on the part of any person, whether or not it shall have actual or other notice thereof, except as otherwise provided by law.

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

Section 7.1 Dividends. Dividends upon the outstanding shares of the corporation, subject to the provisions of the applicable statutes and of the articles of incorporation, may be declared by the board of directors at any annual, regular or special meeting. Dividends may be declared and paid in cash, in property, or in shares of the corporation, or in any combination thereof.

Section 7.2 Reserves. There may be set aside out of any funds of the corporation available for dividends such sum or sums as the board of directors from time to time in their sole and absolute discretion think proper as a reserve to meet contingencies, or to equalize dividends, or to repair or maintain any property of the corporation, or for such other purpose as the board of directors shall think conducive to the interest of the corporation, and the board of directors may modify or abolish any such reserve in the manner in which it was created.

Section 7.3 Signature of Negotiable Instruments. All checks or demands for money and notes of the corporation shall be signed by such officer or officers or such other person or persons as the board of directors may from time to time designate.

Section 7.4 Fiscal Year. The fiscal year of the corporation shall be fixed by the board of directors; provided, that if such fiscal year is not fixed by the board of directors it shall be the calendar year.

Section 7.5 Books of the Corporation. The books of the corporation may be kept, subject to the provisions of the applicable statutes, within or outside of the State of Tennessee, at such place or places as may from time to time be designated by the board of directors or as the business of the corporation may require.

Section 7.6 Seal. The seal, if any, of the corporation shall be in such form as may be approved from time to time by the board of directors. If the board of directors approves a seal, the affixation of such seal shall not be required to create a valid and binding obligation against the corporation.

Section 7.7 Securities of Other Corporations. Unless otherwise ordered by the board of directors, the president or the secretary of the corporation shall have full power and authority on behalf of the corporation to attend, to vote and to grant proxies to be used at any meeting of shareholders of such other corporation in which the corporation may hold stock. The board of directors may confer like powers upon any other person or persons.

Section 7.8 Fixed Record Date. In order that the corporation may determine the shareholders entitled to notice of or to vote at any meeting of shareholders or any adjournment thereof, or to express consent to corporate action in writing without a meeting, or entitled to receive payment of any dividend or other distribution or allotment of any rights, or entitled to exercise any rights in respect of any change, conversion or exchange of stock for the purpose of any other lawful action, the board of directors may fix, in advance, a record date which shall be not more than sixty 60 days before the date of such meeting, nor more than 60 days prior to any other action.

Section 7.9 Amendment. The power to alter, amend, or repeal these bylaws or to adopt new bylaws is vested in the board of directors.

Section 7.10 Right to Indemnification.

(A) Each person (hereinafter an "indemnitee") who was or is made a party to or is threatened to be made a party to or is otherwise involved in any action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (hereinafter a "proceeding"), by reason of the fact that he or she was a director, officer or agent of the corporation or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation or of a partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, including service with respect to an employee benefit plan, whether the basis of such proceeding is alleged action in an official capacity as a director, officer, employee or agent, shall be indemnified and held harmless by the corporation to the fullest extent authorized by the Tennessee Code, as the same exists or may hereafter be amended (but, in the case of any such amendment, only to the extent that such amendment permits the corporation to provide broader indemnification rights than permitted prior thereto), against all expense, liability and loss (including attorney's fees, judgments, fines, ERISA excise taxes or penalties and amounts paid in settlement) reasonably incurred or suffered by such indemnitee in connection therewith, and such indemnification shall continue with respect to an indemnitee who has ceased to be a director, officer, employee or agent and shall inure to the benefit of the indemnitee's heirs, executors and administrators; provided, however, that, except as provided in paragraph (B) hereof with respect to proceedings to enforce rights to indemnification, the corporation shall indemnify any such indemnitee only if such proceeding (or part thereof) was authorized by the board of directors of the corporation. The right to indemnification conferred in this section shall be a contract right and shall include the right to be paid by the corporation the expenses incurred in defending any such proceeding in advance of its final disposition (hereinafter an "advancement of expenses"); provided, however, that, if the Tennessee Code requires, an advancement of expenses incurred by an indemnitee shall be made only upon delivery to the corporation of an undertaking (hereinafter an “undertaking”), by or on behalf of such indemnitee, to repay all amounts so advanced if it shall ultimately be determined by final judicial decision from which there is no further right to appeal (hereinafter a “final adjudication”) that such indemnitee is not entitled to be indemnified for such expenses under this section or otherwise.

(B) If a claim under paragraph (A) of this section is not paid in full by the corporation within 60 days after a written claim has been received by the corporation, except in the case of a claim for an advancement of expenses, in which case the applicable period shall be 20 days, the indemnitee may at any time thereafter bring suit against the corporation to recover the unpaid amount of such suit, or in a suit brought by the corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking, the indemnitee shall be entitled to be paid also the expense of prosecuting or defending such suit. In (i) any suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right to indemnification hereunder (but not in a suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right to an advancement of expenses) it shall be a defense that, and (ii) any suit by the corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking the corporation shall be entitled to recover such expenses upon a final adjudication that, the indemnitee has not met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in the Tennessee Code. Neither the failure of the corporation (including its board of directors, independent legal counsel, or its shareholders) to have made a determination prior to the commencement of such suit that indemnification of the indemnitee is proper in the circumstances because the indemnitee has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in the Tennessee Code, nor an actual determination by the corporation (including its board of directors, independent legal counsel, or its shareholders) that the indemnitee has not met such applicable standard of conduct shall create a presumption that the indemnitee has not met the applicable standard of conduct or, in the case of such a suit brought by the indemnitee, be a defense of such suit. In any suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right of indemnification or to an advancement of expenses hereunder, or by the corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking, the burden of proving that the indemnitee is not entitled to be indemnified, or to such advancement of expenses, under this section or otherwise shall be on the corporation.

(C) The rights to indemnification and to the advancement of expenses conferred in this section shall not be exclusive of any other right which any person may have or hereafter acquire under any statute, the corporation’s certificate of incorporation, by agreement, by vote of shareholders or by disinterested directors or otherwise.

(D) The corporation may maintain insurance, at its expense, to protect itself and any director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation or another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise against any expense, liability or loss, whether or not the corporation would have the power to indemnify such person against such expense, liability or loss under the Tennessee Code.

Section 7.11 Invalid Provisions. If any provision of these bylaws is held to be illegal, invalid, or unenforceable under present or future laws, such provision shall be fully severable; these bylaws shall be construed and enforced as if such illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision had never comprised a part hereof; and the remaining provisions hereof shall remain in full force and effect and shall not be affected by the illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision or by its severance herefrom. Furthermore, in lieu of such illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision there shall be added automatically as a part of these bylaws a provision as similar in terms to such illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision as may be possible and be legal, valid, and enforceable.

Section 7.12 Headings. The headings used in these bylaws are for reference purposes only and do not affect in any way the meaning or interpretation of these bylaws.

The undersigned officer of the corporation hereby confirms that the above bylaws were duly adopted as the bylaws of the corporation as of the 28th day of May, 1993.

 - a. The number of directors and their term shall be specified in the Bylaws of the corporation;
 - b. Whenever the Board of Directors is required or permitted to take any action by vote, such action may be taken without a meeting on written consent setting forth the action so taken, signed by all of the directors, indicating each signing director's vote or abstention. The affirmative vote of the number of directors that would be necessary to authorize or to take such action at a meeting is an act of the Board of Directors;
 - c. Any or all of the directors may be removed with cause by a majority vote of the entire Board of Directors.
8. To the fullest extent permitted by the Tennessee Business Corporation Act as the same may be amended from time to time, a director, officer or incorporator of the corporation shall not be liable to the corporation or its shareholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty in such capacity. If the Tennessee Business Corporation Act is amended, after approval by the shareholders of this provision, to authorize corporate action further eliminating or limiting the personal liability of a director, officer or incorporator then the liability of a director, officer or incorporator of the corporation shall be eliminated or limited to the fullest extent permitted by the Tennessee Business Corporation Act, as so amended from time to time. Any repeal or modification of this Section 8 by the shareholders of the corporation shall not adversely affect any right or protection of a director, officer or incorporator of the corporation existing at the time of such repeal or modification or with respect to events occurring prior to such time.

9. Each person who was or is made a party or is threatened to be made a party to or is otherwise involved in any action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative and whether formal or informal (hereafter a "proceeding"), by reason of the fact that he or she is or was a director, officer or incorporator of the corporation or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, manager or incorporator of another corporation or as a partner or trustee of a partnership, joint venture, limited liability company, trust or other enterprise, including service with respect to employee benefit plans (hereinafter an "Indemnitee"), whether the basis of such proceeding is alleged action in an official capacity as a director, officer, manager or incorporator or in any other capacity while serving as a director, officer, manager or incorporator, shall be indemnified and held harmless by the corporation to the fullest extent authorized by the Tennessee Business Corporation Act, as the same may be amended (but, in the case of any such amendment, only to the extent that such amendment permits the corporation to provide broader indemnification rights than such law permitted the corporation to provide prior to such amendment), against all expense, liability and loss (including but not limited to counsel fees, judgments, fines, ERISA, excise taxes or penalties and amounts paid in settlement) reasonably incurred or suffered by such Indemnitee in connection therewith and such indemnification shall continue as to an Indemnitee who has ceased to be a director, officer, manager or incorporator and shall inure to the benefit of the Indemnitee's heirs, executors and administrators. The right to indemnification conferred in this Section 9 shall be a contract right and shall include the right to be paid by the corporation the expenses incurred in any such proceeding in advance of its final disposition (hereinafter an "advancement of expenses"); provided, however, that an advancement of expenses incurred by an Indemnitee shall be made only upon delivery to the corporation of an undertaking, by or on behalf of such Indemnitee, to repay all amounts so advanced if it shall ultimately be determined by final judicial decision from which there is no further right to appeal that such Indemnitee is not entitled to be indemnified for such expenses under this Section 9 or otherwise, the Indemnitee furnishes the corporation with a written affirmation of his or her good faith belief that he or she has met the standards for indemnification under the Tennessee Business Corporation Act, and a determination is made that the facts then known to those making the determination would not preclude indemnification.

The corporation may indemnify and advance expenses to an officer, employee or agent who is not a director to the same extent as to a director by specific action of the corporation's Board of Directors or by contract.

The rights to indemnification and to the advancement of expenses conferred in this Section 9 shall not be exclusive of any other right that any person may have or hereafter acquire under any statute, this Charter, Bylaw, agreement, vote of stockholders or disinterested directors or otherwise, and the corporation is hereby permitted to grant additional rights to indemnification and advancement of expenses, to the fullest extent permitted by law, by resolution of directors, or an agreement providing for such rights.

The corporation may maintain insurance, at its expense, to protect itself and any director, officer, manager, employee or agent of the corporation or of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, limited liability company, trust or other enterprise against any expense, liability or loss, whether or not the corporation would have the power to indemnify such person against such expense, liability or loss under the Tennessee Business Corporation Act.

Dated this 28th day of October, 2002.

BYLAWS OF JACKSON HOSPITAL CORPORATION

ARTICLE I

OFFICES

Section 1.1 Registered Office. The registered office shall be in the City of Nashville, County of Davidson, State of Tennessee.

Section 1.2 Other Offices. The corporation may also have offices at such other places both within and without the State of Tennessee as the board of directors may from time to time determine or the business of the corporation may require.

ARTICLE II

MEETINGS OF SHAREHOLDERS

Section 2.1 Annual Meeting. An annual meeting of shareholders of the corporation shall be held on such date and at such time as shall be designated from time to time by the board of directors and stated in the notice of the meeting. At such meeting, the shareholders shall elect directors and transact such other business as may properly be brought before the meeting.

Section 2.2 Special Meetings. Special meetings of the shareholders for any purpose whatsoever may be called at any time by the president, the board of directors, or the holders of not less than ten percent of all shares entitled to vote at such meeting.

Section 2.3 Place of Meetings. All meetings of shareholders for any purpose or purposes may be held at such places, within or without the State of Tennessee, as may from time to time be fixed by the board of directors or as shall be stated in the notice of the meeting or in a duly executed waiver of notice thereof

Section 2.4 Notice. Written notice stating the place, day and hour of the meeting and, in the case of a special meeting, the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is called, shall be given not less than ten nor more than sixty days before the date of the meeting, either personally or by mail.

Section 2.5 Quorum of Shareholders. The holders of a majority of the shares issued and outstanding and entitled to vote at such meeting, present in person or represented by proxy shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at all meetings of the shareholders.

Section 2.6 Voting of Shares. Except as otherwise provided by statute or the articles of incorporation, each holder of record of shares of stock of the Corporation having voting power shall be entitled at each meeting of the shareholders to one vote for every share of such stock standing in his or her name on the record books of shareholders of the corporation on the date on which such notice of the meeting is mailed, unless some other day is fixed by the board of directors for the determination of shareholders of record.

Section 2.7 Voting List. The officer who has charge of the stock transfer books for shares of the corporation shall prepare at least ten days before every meeting of shareholders, a complete list of the shareholders entitled to vote at such meeting, arranged in alphabetical order, including the address of each shareholder and the number of voting shares held by each shareholder. For a period of ten days prior to such meeting, such list shall be kept open to the examination of any shareholder, for any purpose germane to the meeting, during ordinary business hours, either at a place within the city where the meeting is to be held and which place shall be specified in the notice of the meeting, or, if not so specified, at the place where said meeting is to be held. Such list shall be produced at such meeting and at all times during such meeting shall be subject to inspection by any shareholder. The original stock transfer books shall be prima facie evidence as to who are the shareholders entitled to examine such list or stock transfer books.

Section 2.8 Treasury Stock. The corporation shall not vote, directly or indirectly, shares of its own stock owned by it and such shares shall not be counted for quorum purposes.

Section 2.9 Consent of Shareholders in Lieu of Meeting. Whenever the vote of shareholders at a meeting thereof is required or permitted to be taken for or in connection with any corporate action, the meeting, the notice thereof, and the vote of shareholders can be dispensed with, if a consent in writing, setting forth the action so taken, shall be signed by the holders of stock having not less than the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to authorize or take such action at a meeting at which all shares entitled to vote thereof were present and voted, provided that prompt notice must be given to all shareholders of the taking of corporate action without a meeting by less than unanimous written consent.

Section 2.10 Minutes of Meetings. The secretary of the corporation shall keep regular minutes of all meetings of shareholders and such minutes shall be placed in the minute book of the corporation.

ARTICLE III

DIRECTORS

Section 3.1 Powers of Directors. The business and affairs of the corporation shall be managed by its board of directors which shall have and may exercise all such powers of the corporation, subject to the restrictions imposed by law, the articles of incorporation, or these bylaws.

Section 3.2 Number and Qualification. The number of directors which shall constitute the entire board of directors shall be determined by resolution of the Board of Directors at any meeting thereof or by the Shareholders at any meeting thereof. Directors need not be residents of Tennessee or Shareholders of the corporation.

Section 3.3 Election and Term of Office. The directors shall be elected annually by the shareholders, except as provided in Section 3.4 of these bylaws. Each director shall hold office until the next succeeding annual meeting of shareholders and until his or her successor shall have been elected or until his or her earlier death, resignation, or removal. The board of directors may, by resolution, appoint one of its members as chairman to preside over meetings of the board of directors. The position of chairman of the board of directors shall not be an office of the corporation.

Section 3.4 Vacancies. Any vacancy occurring in the board of directors by reason of death, resignation, or removal may be filled by affirmative vote of a majority of the remaining directors, although less than a quorum of the board of directors. Such vacancy may also be filled by affirmative vote of the majority of the shareholders. A director elected to fill a vacancy shall be elected for the unexpired term of his or her predecessor in office or until his or her death, resignation, retirement, disqualification, or removal.

Section 3.5 Resignation of Directors. Any director may resign from office at any time by delivering a written resignation to the secretary of the corporation, and such resignation shall be effective upon delivery of such resignation to the secretary.

Section 3.6 Removal of Directors. Any director may be removed with or without cause at any time by the shareholders.

Section 3.7 Place of Meetings. Regular or special meetings of the board of directors may be held either within or without the State of Tennessee.

Section 3.8 Regular Meetings. Regular meetings of the board of directors may be held without notice at such times and places as may be designated from time to time as may be determined by the board of directors.

Section 3.9 Special Meetings. Special meetings of the board of directors may be called by the president or any director on twenty-four (24) hours notice to each director, either personally or by telephone, mail, telegram or other means of telecommunications. Neither the business to be transacted at, nor the purpose of, any special meeting of the board of directors need be specified in the notice or waiver of notice of any special meeting.

Section 3.10 Quorum of Directors. At all meetings of the board of directors, a majority of the directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business and the act or a majority of the directors present at any meeting at which there is a quorum shall be an act of the board of directors. If a quorum is not present at a meeting, a majority of the directors present may adjourn the meeting from time to time, without notice other than an announcement at the meeting, until a quorum is present.

Section 3.11 Committees. The board of directors may, by resolution passed by a majority of the entire board, designate one or more committees, including, if they shall so determine, an executive committee, each such committee to consist of one or more of the directors of the corporation. Any such designated committee shall have and may exercise such of the powers and authority of the board of directors in the management of the business and affairs of the corporation as may be provided in such resolution, except that no such committee shall have the power or authority of the board of directors in reference to amending the articles of incorporation, adopting an agreement of merger or consolidation, recommending to the shareholders the sale, lease or exchange of all or substantially all of the corporation's property and assets, recommending to the shareholders a dissolution of the corporation or a revocation of a dissolution of the corporation, or amending, altering or repealing the bylaws or adopting new bylaws for the corporation and, unless such resolution or the articles of incorporation expressly so provides, no such committee shall have the power or authority to authorize the issuance of stock. The board of directors shall have the power at any time to change the number and members of any such committee, to fill vacancies and to discharge any such committee.

Section 3.12 Compensation of Directors. Persons serving as directors shall not receive any compensation for their services as directors; however, a director shall be entitled to reimbursement for reasonable and customary expenses incurred by such director in carrying out his duties as approved by the president of the corporation.

Section 3.13 Action by Unanimous Written Consent. Any action required or permitted to be taken at a meeting of the board of directors or any committee may be taken without a meeting if a consent in writing, setting forth the actions so taken, is signed by all of the members of the board of directors or such committee, as the case may be.

Section 3.14 Minutes of Meetings. The board of directors shall keep regular minutes of its proceedings and such minutes shall be placed in the minute book of the corporation. Committees of the board of directors shall maintain a separate record of the minutes of their proceedings.

ARTICLE IV

NOTICES AND TELEPHONE MEETINGS

Section 4.1 Notice. Any notice to directors or shareholders shall be in writing and shall be delivered personally or by mail, telegram, telex, cable, telecopier or similar means to the directors or shareholders at their respective addresses appearing on the books of the corporation. Notice by mail shall be deemed to be given at the time when the same shall be deposited in the United States mail, postage prepaid. Any notice required or permitted to be given by telegram, telex, cable, telecopier, or similar means shall be deemed to be delivered and given at the time transmitted.

Section 4.2 Waiver of Notice. Whenever by law, the articles of incorporation, or these bylaws, notice is required to be given to any shareholder, director, or committee member of the corporation, a waiver thereof in writing signed by the person or persons entitled to such notice, whether before or after the time notice should have been given, shall be equivalent to the giving of such notice. Attendance of a director at a meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting, except where a director attends a meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business on the ground that the meeting is not lawfully called or convened.

Section 4.3 Telephone and Similar Meetings. Shareholders, directors, or committee members may participate in and hold a meeting by means of a conference telephone or similar communications equipment by means of which persons participating in the meeting can hear each other. Participation in such a meeting shall constitute presence in person at such meeting, except where a person participates in the meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business on the ground that the meeting is not lawfully called or convened.

ARTICLE V

OFFICERS

Section 5.1 Officers. The corporation shall have a president and a secretary and such other officers and assistant officers as the board may deem desirable to conduct the affairs of the corporation. The position of chairman of the board of directors shall not be an office of the corporation. Any two or more offices may be held by the same person. No officer need be a shareholder or a director.

Section 5.2 Powers and Duties of Officers. The officers of the corporation shall have the powers and duties generally ascribed to the respective offices, and such additional authority or duty as may from time to time be established by the board of directors.

Section 5.3 Removal and Resignation. Any officer appointed by the board of directors may be removed by the board of directors whenever, in the judgment of the board of directors, the best interests of the corporation will be served thereby. Any officer may resign at any time by giving written notice to the corporation. Any such resignation shall take effect at the date of receipt of such notice or at a later time specified therein, and unless otherwise specified therein, the acceptance of such resignation shall not be necessary to make it effective.

Section 5.4 Term and Vacancies. The officers of the corporation shall hold office until their successors are elected or appointed, or until their death, resignation, or removal from office. Any vacancy occurring in any office of the corporation by death, resignation, removal, or otherwise, may be filled by the board of directors.

Section 5.5 Compensation. The salaries of all officers of the corporation shall be fixed by the board of directors. The board of directors shall have the power to enter into contracts for the employment and compensation of officers on such terms as the board of directors deems advisable. No officer shall be disqualified from receiving a salary or other compensation by reason of the fact that he or she is also a director of the corporation.

ARTICLE VI

CERTIFICATES AND SHAREHOLDERS

Section 6.1 Certificates for Shares. The certificates for shares of stock of the Corporation shall be in such form as shall be approved by the board of directors in conformity with law and the articles of incorporation. Every certificate for shares issued by the corporation must be signed by the President or a Vice President and the Secretary or an Assistant Secretary under the seal of the corporation. Any or all of the signatures on the face of the certificate may be facsimile. Such certificates shall bear a legend or legends in the form and containing the restrictions to be stated thereon by the Tennessee Business Corporation Law of 1988, as amended, other provisions of law, the articles of incorporation or these bylaws. Certificates shall be consecutively numbered and shall be entered as they are issued. Each certificate shall state on the face thereof the holder's name, the number and class of shares, the par value of such shares, and such other matters as may be required by law, the articles of incorporation or these bylaws.

Section 6.2 Lost, Stolen, or Destroyed Certificates. The board of directors, the executive committee, or the president of the corporation may direct a new certificate or certificates representing shares to be issued in place of any certificate or certificates theretofore issued by the corporation alleged to have been lost, stolen, or destroyed, upon the making of an affidavit of the fact by the person claiming the certificate or certificates to be lost, stolen, or destroyed. When authorizing such issue of a new certificate the board of directors, the executive committee or the president may require the owner of such lost, stolen, or destroyed certificate, or his or her legal representative, to advertise the same in such manner as it or he or she shall require and/or give the corporation a bond in such sum as it may direct as indemnity against any claim that may be made against the corporation with respect to the certificate alleged to have been lost, stolen or destroyed.

Section 6.3 Transfer of Shares. Shares of stock of the corporation shall be transferable only on the books of the corporation by the holder thereof in person or by the holder's duly authorized attorneys or legal representatives. Upon surrender to the corporation or the transfer agent of the corporation of a certificate representing shares duly endorsed or accompanied by proper evidence of succession, assignment, or authority to transfer, the corporation or its transfer agent shall issue a new certificate to the person entitled thereto, cancel the old certificate, and record the transaction upon its books.

Section 6.4 Registered Shareholders. The corporation shall be entitled to recognize the exclusive right of a person registered on its books as the owner of shares to receive dividends, and to vote as such owner, and to hold liable for calls and assessments, a person registered on its books as the owner of shares, and shall not be bound to recognize any equitable or other claim to or interest in such shares on the part of any person, whether or not it shall have actual or other notice thereof, except as otherwise provided by law.

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

Section 7.1 Dividends. Dividends upon the outstanding shares of the corporation, subject to the provisions of the applicable statutes and of the articles of incorporation, may be declared by the board of directors at any annual, regular or special meeting. Dividends may be declared and paid in cash, in property, or in shares of the corporation, or in any combination thereof.

Section 7.2 Reserves. There may be set aside out of any funds of the corporation available for dividends such sum or sums as the board of directors from time to time in their sole and absolute discretion think proper as a reserve to meet contingencies, or to equalize dividends, or to repair or maintain any property of the corporation, or for such other purpose as the board of directors shall think conducive to the interest of the corporation, and the board of directors may modify or abolish any such reserve in the manner in which it was created.

Section 7.3 Signature of Negotiable Instruments. All checks or demands for money and notes of the corporation shall be signed by such officer or officers or such other person or persons as the board of directors may from time to time designate.

Section 7.4 Fiscal Year. The fiscal year of the corporation shall be fixed by the board of directors; provided, that if such fiscal year is not fixed by the board of directors it shall be the calendar year.

Section 7.5 Books of the Corporation. The books of the corporation may be kept, subject to the provisions of the applicable statutes, within or outside of the State of Tennessee, at such place or places as may from time to time be designated by the board of directors or as the business of the corporation may require.

Section 7.6 Seal. The seal, if any, of the corporation shall be in such form as may be approved from time to time by the board of directors. If the board of directors approves a seal, the affixation of such seal shall not be required to create a valid and binding obligation against the corporation.

Section 7.7 Securities of Other Corporations. Unless otherwise ordered by the board of directors, the president or the secretary of the corporation shall have full power and authority on behalf of the corporation to attend, to vote and to grant proxies to be used at any meeting of shareholders of such other corporation in which the corporation may hold stock. The board of directors may confer like powers upon any other person or persons.

Section 7.8 Fixed Record Date. In order that the corporation may determine the shareholders entitled to notice of or to vote at any meeting of shareholders or any adjournment thereof, or to express consent to corporate action in writing without a meeting, or entitled to receive payment of any dividend or other distribution or allotment of any rights, or entitled to exercise any rights in respect of any change, conversion or exchange of stock for the purpose of any other lawful action, the board of directors may fix, in advance, a record date which shall be not more than sixty 60 days before the date of such meeting, nor more than 60 days prior to any other action.

Section 7.9 Amendment. The power to alter, amend, or repeal these bylaws or to adopt new bylaws is vested in the board of directors.

Section 7.10 Right to Indemnification.

(A) Each person (hereinafter an "indemnitee") who was or is made a party to or is threatened to be made a party to or is otherwise involved in any action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (hereinafter a "proceeding"), by reason of the fact that he or she was a director, officer or agent of the corporation or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation or of a partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, including service with respect to an employee benefit plan, whether the basis of such proceeding is alleged action in an official capacity as a director, officer, employee or agent, shall be indemnified and held harmless by the corporation to the fullest extent authorized by the Tennessee Business Corporation Law of 1988, as amended, as the same exists or may hereafter be amended (but, in the case of any such amendment, only to the extent that such amendment permits the corporation to provide broader indemnification rights than permitted prior thereto), against all expense, liability and loss (including attorney's fees, judgments, fines, ERISA excise taxes or penalties and amounts paid in settlement) reasonably incurred or suffered by such indemnitee in connection therewith, and such indemnification shall continue with respect to an indemnitee who has ceased to be a director, officer, employee or agent and shall inure to the benefit of the indemnitee's heirs, executors and administrators; provided, however, that, except as provided in paragraph (B) hereof with respect to proceedings to enforce rights to indemnification, the corporation shall indemnify any such indemnitee only if such proceeding (or part thereof) was authorized by the board of directors of the corporation. The right to indemnification conferred in this section shall be a contract right and shall include the right to be paid by the corporation the expenses incurred in defending any such proceeding in advance of its final disposition (hereinafter an “advancement of expenses”); provided, however, that, if the Tennessee Business Corporation Law of 1988, as amended, requires, an advancement of expenses incurred by an indemnitee shall be made only upon delivery to the corporation of an undertaking (hereinafter an “undertaking”), by or on behalf of such indemnitee, to repay all amounts so advanced if it shall ultimately be determined by final judicial decision from which there is no further right to appeal (hereinafter a “final adjudication”) that such indemnitee is not entitled to be indemnified for such expenses under this section or otherwise.

(B) If a claim under paragraph (A) of this section is not paid in full by the corporation within 60 days after a written claim has been received by the corporation, except in the case of a claim for an advancement of expenses, in which case the applicable period shall be 20 days, the indemnitee may at any time thereafter bring suit against the corporation to recover the unpaid amount of such suit, or in a suit brought by the corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking, the indemnitee shall be entitled to be paid also the expense of prosecuting or defending such suit. In (i) any suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right to indemnification hereunder (but not in a suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right to an advancement of expenses) it shall be a defense that, and (ii) any suit by the corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking the corporation shall be entitled to recover such expenses upon a final adjudication that, the indemnitee has not met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in the Tennessee Business Corporation Law of 1988, as amended. Neither the failure of the corporation (including its board of directors, independent legal counsel, or its shareholders) to have made a determination prior to the commencement of such suit that indemnification of the indemnitee is proper in the circumstances because the indemnitee has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in the Tennessee Business Corporation Law of 1988, as amended, nor an actual determination by the corporation (including its board of directors, independent legal counsel, or its shareholders) that the indemnitee has not met such applicable standard of conduct shall create a presumption that the indemnitee has not met the applicable standard of conduct or, in the case of such a suit brought by the indemnitee, be a defense of such suit. In any suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right of indemnification or to an advancement of expenses hereunder, or by the corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking, the burden of proving that the indemnitee is not entitled to be indemnified, or to such advancement of expenses, under this section or otherwise shall be on the corporation.

(C) The rights to indemnification and to the advancement of expenses conferred in this section shall not be exclusive of any other right which any person may have or hereafter acquire under any statute, the corporation’s certificate of incorporation, by agreement, by vote of shareholders or by disinterested directors or otherwise.

(D) The corporation may maintain insurance, at its expense, to protect itself and any director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation or another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise against any expense, liability or loss, whether or not the corporation would have the power to indemnify such person against such expense, liability or loss under the Tennessee Business Corporation Law of 1988, as amended.

Section 7.11 Invalid Provisions. If any provision of these bylaws is held to be illegal, invalid, or unenforceable under present or future laws, such provision shall be fully severable; these bylaws shall be construed and enforced as if such illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision had never comprised a part hereof; and the remaining provisions hereof shall remain in full force and effect and shall not be affected by the illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision or by its severance herefrom. Furthermore, in lieu of such illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision there shall be added automatically as a part of these bylaws a provision as similar in terms to such illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision as may be possible and be legal, valid, and enforceable.

Section 7.12 Headings. The headings used in these bylaws are for reference purposes only and do not affect in any way the meaning or interpretation of these bylaws.

The above bylaws were duly adopted as the bylaws of the corporation effective as of the 29th day of October, 2002.

OPERATING AGREEMENT

This Operating Agreement (“Agreement”) is declared to be effective as of the 12th day of February, 2003, by Jackson Hospital Corporation, as the sole Member (such corporation and any successor hereunder, the “Member”) of Jackson, Tennessee Hospital Company, LLC (the “Company”), pursuant to the provisions of the Tennessee Limited Liability Company Act (the “Act”).

Section 1. The Company.

1.1 Formation. The initial Member is forming the Company as a limited liability company pursuant to the provisions of the Act and upon the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement.

1.2 Company Name. The name of the Company shall be as set forth in the Articles from time to time, and all business of the Company shall be conducted in such name. The Member may change the name of the Company at any time.

1.3 Purpose. The purpose of the Company shall be as set forth in the Articles from time to time.

1.4 Principal Place of Business. The principal place of business and address of the Company shall be at any place within or without the State of Tennessee as determined by the Member.

1.5 Existence. The existence of the Company shall commence on the date the Company’s Articles of Organization (as amended from time to time, the “Articles”) are filed in the office of the Secretary of State of Tennessee in accordance with the Act and shall continue until the winding up and liquidation of the Company following a Liquidating Event as provided in Section 8 hereof.

1.6 Title to Property. All real and personal property owned by the Company shall be owned by the Company as an entity.

1.7 Independent Activities; Transactions With Affiliates.

(a) The Member shall be required to devote only such time to the affairs of the Company as the Member determines in its sole discretion may be necessary or appropriate, and the Member shall be free to serve any other Person in any capacity that he may deem appropriate in his discretion.

(b) Insofar as permitted by applicable law, the Member may, notwithstanding this Agreement, engage in whatever activities it chooses, whether the same are competitive with the Company or otherwise, without having or incurring any obligation to offer any interest in such activities to the Company, and neither this Agreement nor any activity undertaken pursuant hereto shall prevent the Member from engaging in such activities or require the Member to permit the Company to participate in any such activities.

1.8 Definitions. Certain capitalized words and phrases used in this Agreement have the following meanings:

“Interest” means the entire limited liability company interest in the Company of a Member or Interest Holder at any particular time, including the right of such Member or Interest Holder to any and all benefits to which the Member or Interest Holder may be entitled as provided in this Agreement, together with the obligations of such Member to comply with all the terms and provisions of this Agreement.

“Interest Holder” means any Person who holds an Interest, regardless of whether such Person has been admitted to the Company as a Member. “Interest Holders” means all such Persons.

“Net Cash Flow” means the gross cash proceeds from Company operations and from all sales and other dispositions and refinancings of Property, less the portion thereof used to pay or establish reserves for Company expenses, debt payments, capital improvements, replacements, and contingencies, all as determined by the Member. “Net Cash Flow” shall not be reduced by depreciation, amortization, cost recovery deductions, or similar allowances, but shall be increased by any reductions of reserves previously established pursuant to the first sentence of this definition.

“Person” means any individual, partnership, limited liability company, corporation, trust, or other entity.

“Property” means all real and personal property acquired by the Company and any improvements thereto, and shall include both tangible and intangible property.

“Transfer” means, as a noun, any voluntary or involuntary transfer, sale or other disposition and, as a verb, voluntarily or involuntarily to transfer, sell, or otherwise dispose of. “Transferred” shall have a correlative meaning.

Section 2. Capital Contributions.

2.1 Initial Capital Contributions. In exchange for all the Interests in the Company, the Member has, or may cause to be, contributed or will contribute to the capital of the Company, One Thousand and No/100 Dollars ($1,000.00) in cash.

Section 3. Tax Allocations.

3.1 No Allocations in Single-Member Entity. Jackson Hospital Corporation, as the only Member, intends for the Company, as such a wholly-owned entity, to be disregarded for accounting and income tax purposes. Accordingly, all items of income, gain, loss, deduction, and credit that would, but for such single-member status, belong to the Company shall belong to the Member.

Section 4. Distributions.

4.1 Distributions. Subject to the Act, Net Cash Flow, if any, and any item of Property chosen by the Member, shall be distributed to or as directed by the Member, at such times as the Member may determine.

Section 5. Management

5.1 Authority and Duties of Member. The overall management and control of the Company shall be vested in the Member and the Member shall have the right and authority to enter into transactions on behalf of the Company, to bind the Company and to conduct, and to make decisions relating to, the day-to-day operations of the Company. Without limiting the foregoing and in each case without any further act, vote or approval, the Member is hereby specifically authorized for, and in the name of and on behalf of, the Company from time to time to:

- (a) Amend the Articles;
- (b) Issue Interests in the Company and admit other Persons as Members;
- (c) Acquire by purchase, lease, or otherwise any real or personal property;
- (d) Loan money to the Company, its affiliates or other third parties, upon such terms and conditions as the Member may determine;
- (e) Operate, maintain, finance, improve, construct, own, grant options with respect to, sell, convey, assign, mortgage, and lease any real or personal property;
- (f) Designate, authorize and direct one or more Persons to execute any and all agreements, contracts, documents, certifications, and instruments on behalf of the Company that are necessary or convenient in connection with the management, maintenance and operation of Property or managing the Company's affairs, including executing amendments to the Agreement and the Articles in accordance with the terms of the Agreement, both as authorized agent for the Company and, if required, as attorney-in-fact for the Member pursuant to a power of attorney.
- (g) Appoint individuals designated as officers and/or managers of the Company and delegate such authority to such officers and/or managers as the Member deems advisable.
- (h) Borrow money and issue evidences of indebtedness (including bonds, notes and debentures) necessary, convenient or incidental to the accomplishment of the purposes of the Company, and secure the same by mortgage, pledge, or other lien on any Property;
- (i) Care for and distribute funds to the Interest Holders by way of income, return of capital, or otherwise;
- (j) Contract on behalf of the Company for the employment and services of employees and/or independent contractors, such as lawyers and accountants, and delegate to such Persons the duty to manage or supervise any of the Property or operations of the Company;
- (k) Engage in any kind of activity and perform and carry out contracts of any kind as may be lawfully engaged in, carried out, or performed by a limited liability company under the laws of each state in which the Company is then formed or qualified; and
- (l) Make any and all elections for federal, state, and local tax purposes.

5.2 Indemnification of Member.

(a) The Company, its receiver, or its trustee (in the case of its receiver or trustee, to the extent of Company Property) shall indemnify, save harmless, and pay all judgments and claims against the Member relating to any liability or damage incurred by reason of: (i) ownership of an Interest in the Company, and (ii) any act performed or omitted to be performed by the Member in connection with the business of the Company, in any case including attorneys' fees incurred by the Member in connection with the defense of any action based on any of the foregoing.

(b) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in Section 5.2(a) above, in the event that any provision in such Section is determined to be invalid in whole or in part, such Section shall be enforced to the maximum extent permitted by law.

Section 6. Role of Member.

6.1 Compensation. The Member may from time to time receive a salary, fee, or draw for services rendered to or on behalf of the Company in such amount as the Member deems appropriate.

6.2 Expenses. The Member may charge the Company for any expenses reasonably incurred by it in connection with the Company's business.

6.3 Loans. If the Member shall make any loan or loans to the Company or advance money on its behalf, the amount of any such loan or advance shall not be treated as a capital contribution but shall be a debt due from the Company. The amount of any such loan or advance by the Member shall be repayable out of the Company's cash and shall bear interest at such rate as the Company and the Member shall agree but not in excess of the maximum rate permitted by law. The Member shall not be obligated to make any loan or advance to, or on behalf of, the Company.

Section 7. Transfer of Interests.

7.1 No Restriction on Transfers. The Member may Transfer all or any portion of its Interest at any time.

7.2 Admission of Transferees as Members. Unless otherwise indicated in writing at the time of any Transfer of an Interest, a transferee of an Interest (including a transferee by operation of law) shall be admitted to the Company as a substituted Member and shall be bound by the terms of this Agreement upon such transferee's written notice to the Company at the address specified in Section 1.4.

Section 8. Dissolution and Winding Up.

8.1 Liquidating Events. The death, retirement, bankruptcy or dissolution of the Member, or the occurrence of any other event that terminates the continued membership of a member in the Company, shall not cause the Company to be dissolved and its affairs wound up, but rather the business of the Company shall be continued without dissolution, provided that there remains at least one Member (including a transferee of one or more Interests who becomes a Member). The Company shall dissolve and commence winding up and liquidating upon the first to occur of any of the following events (the "Liquidating Events"):

- (a) The written consent of the Member or any successor Member;
- (b) There is no Member or transferee of one or more Interests who becomes a Member; or
- (c) The occurrence of any other event causing the dissolution of the Company under the Act.

8.2 Winding Up. Upon the occurrence of a Liquidating Event, the Company shall continue solely for the purposes of winding up its affairs in an orderly manner, liquidating its assets, and satisfying the claims of its creditors and the Member. To the extent not inconsistent with the foregoing, the terms of this Agreement shall continue in full force and effect until such time as all of the Property (including the proceeds of sales of Property) has been distributed pursuant to this Section 8.2 and the Company's existence has been terminated in accordance with the Act. The Member (or, in the event there is no remaining Member, any Person elected by those Persons succeeding to ownership of the Member's Interest) shall be responsible for overseeing the winding up of the Company, shall take full account of the Company's liabilities and Property, shall cause the Property other than cash to be liquidated as promptly as is consistent with obtaining the fair value thereof, and shall cause the proceeds therefrom, to the extent sufficient therefor, to be applied and distributed in the following order:

- (a) First, to the payment and discharge of all of the Company's debts and liabilities to creditors; and
- (b) The balance, if any, to the Member.

Section 9. Miscellaneous.

9.1 Amendment. The Member may amend this Agreement at any time.

9.2 Headings. Section and other headings contained in this Agreement are for reference purposes only and are not intended to describe, interpret, define, or limit the scope, extent, or intent of this Agreement or any provision hereof.

9.3 Severability. Every provision of this Agreement is intended to be severable. If any term or provision hereof is illegal or invalid for any reason whatsoever, such illegality or invalidity shall not affect the validity or legality of the remainder of this Agreement.

9.4 Variation of Pronouns. All pronouns and any variations thereof shall be deemed to refer to masculine, feminine, or neuter, singular or plural, as the identity of the person or persons may require.

9.5 Governing Law. The laws of the State of Tennessee shall govern the validity of this Agreement, the construction of its terms, and the interpretation of the rights and duties of the Member.

The undersigned has executed this Agreement as of the day and year first above set forth.

7. The business and affairs of the corporation shall be managed by a Board of Directors. The number of directors and their term shall be specified in the Bylaws of the corporation.
8. A director of the Corporation shall not be personally liable to the Corporation or its stockholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director, except for liability (i) for any breach of the director's duty of loyalty to the Corporation or its stockholders. (ii) for acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law, (iii) under Section 48-18-304 of the Tennessee Business Corporation Act (the "Tennessee Code") or (iv) for any transaction from which the director derives an improper personal benefit. If the Tennessee Code is amended hereafter to authorize corporate action further eliminating or limiting the personal liability of directors, then the liability of a director of the Corporation shall be eliminated or limited to the fullest extent permitted by the Tennessee Code, as so amended.

Any repeal or modification of the foregoing paragraph by the stockholders of the Corporation shall not adversely affect any right or protection of a director of the Corporation the of such repeal or modification.

9. Indemnification:

A. Rights to Indemnification. Each person who was or is made a party or is threatened to be made a party to or is otherwise involved in any action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (hereinafter a "proceeding"), by reason of the fact that he or she, or a person of whom he or she is the legal representative, or is or was a director or officer of the Corporation or is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director or officer of another corporation or of a partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, including service with respect to an employee benefit plan (hereinafter an indemnitee whether the basis of such proceeding is alleged action in an official capacity as a director or officer or in any other capacity while serving as a director or officer, shall be indemnified and held harmless by the Corporation to the Mat extent authorized by the Tennessee as the same exists or may hereafter be amended (but, in the case of any such amendment, only to the extent that such amendment permits the Corporation to provide broader indemnification rights titan permitted prior thereto), against all expense, liability and loss including, without limitation, attorneys' fees, judgments, fines, excise taxes or penalties and amounts paid or to be paid in settlement) incurred or suffered by such indemnitee in connection therewith and such indemnification shall continue with respect to an indemnitee who has ceased to be a director or officer and shall inure to the benefit of the indemnitee's heirs, executors and administrators; provided, however, that except as provided in paragraph (B) hereof with respect to proceedings to enforce rights to indemnification, the Corporation shall indemnify, any such indemnitee in connection with a proceeding initiated by such indemnitee only if such proceeding was authorized by the Board of Directors of the Corporation. The right to indemnification conferred in this Article shall be a contract right and shall include the right to be paid by the Corporation the expenses incurred in defending any such proceeding in advance of its final disposition (hereinafter an 'advancement of expenses*'); provided, however, that, if the Tennessee Code requires, an advancement of expenses incurred by an indemnitee shall be made only upon delivery to the Corporation of an undertaking (hereinafter an "undertaking"), by or on behalf of such indemnitee, to repay all amounts so advanced if it shall ultimately be determined by final judicial decision from which there is no further right to appeal (hereinafter a "final adjudication") that such indemnitee is not entitled to be indemnified for such expenses under this Article or otherwise.

B. Right of Indemnitee to Bring Suit. If a claim under paragraph (A) of this Article is not paid in full by the Corporation within sixty days after a written claim has been received by the Corporation (except in the case of a claim for an advancement of expenses, in which case the applicable period shall be twenty days), the indemnitee may at any time thereafter bring suit against the Corporation to recover the unpaid amount of the claim. If successful in whole or in part in any such suit, the indemnitee shall also be entitled to be paid the expense of prosecuting or defending such suit. In (1) any suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right to indemnification hereunder (but not a suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right to an advancement of expenses) it shall be a defense that, and (ii) in any suit by the Corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking, the Corporation to recover such expenses upon a final adjudication that, the indemnitee has not met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in the Tennessee Code. Neither the failure of the Corporation (including its Board of Directors, independent legal counsel or its stockholders) to have made a determination prior to the commencement of such suit that indemnification of the indemnitee has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in the Tennessee Code, nor an _____ determination by the Corporation (including its Board of Directors, independent legal counsel or its stockholders) that the indemnitee has not met such applicable standard of conduct, or in the case of such a suit brought by the indemnitee, shall be a defense to such suit. In any suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right to indemnification or to an advancement of expenses hereunder or by the Corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking, the burden of proving that the indemnitee is not entitled under this Article or otherwise to be indemnified, or to such advancement of expenses, shall be on the Corporation.

C. Non-Exclusivity of Rights. The rights to indemnification and to the advancement of expenses conferred in this Article shall not be exclusive of any other right which any person may have or hereafter acquire under this Charter or any Bylaw, agreement, vote of stockholders or disinterested directors or otherwise.

D. Insurance. The Corporation may maintain insurance, at its expense, to protect itself and any indemnitee against any expense, liability or loss, whether or not the Corporation would have the power to indemnify such person against such expense. liability or loss under the Tennessee Code.

E. Indemnity of Employees and Agents of the Corporation. The Corporation may, to the extent authorized from time to time by the Board of Directors, grant rights to indemnification and to the advancement of expenses to any employee or agent of the Corporation to the fullest extent of the provisions of this Article or as otherwise permitted under the Tennessee Code with respect to the indemnification and advancement of expenses of directors and officers of the Corporation.

Dated this 14th day of April, 1994.

ARTICLES OF AMENDMENT TO THE CHARTER

LAKEWAY HOSPITAL CORPORATION SEP -5 PM 1:59

Corporate Control Number: 0278113

Pursuant to the provisions of Section 48-20-106 of the Tennessee Business Corporation Act, as amended, the undersigned corporation adopts the following articles of amendment to its charter:

1. The name of the corporation, as it appears of record, is Lakeway Hospital Corporation.
2. These Articles of Amendment are to be effective when filed by the Secretary of State.
3. Pursuant to these Articles of Amendment, Article VI of the State of Tennessee Charter of Lakeway Hospital Corporation is hereby amended in its entirety to read as follows:

“Article VI

The aggregate number of shares which the Corporation shall have authority to issue is Two Million, Five Hundred Thousand (2,500,000) shares of $0.01 par value common stock which shall have unlimited voting rights and the right to receive the net assets of the corporation upon dissolution of the Corporation. Each One Million, Five Hundred Thousand (1,500,000) shares of the Corporation’s common stock issued and outstanding or held in the Corporation’s treasury immediately prior to the close of business on August 28, 2006 (“Effective Date”), shall be combined into one (1) fully paid and non-assessable share of common stock, par value of one cent ($.01) per share, of the Corporation (“Post-Split Common Stock”). Each certificate that immediately prior to the Effective Date represented shares of common stock (“Pre-Split Common Stock”) shall thereafter represent the number of shares of Post-Split Common Stock into which the shares of Pre-Split Common Stock represented by such certificates shall be combined; provided, however, that each person holding of record a stock certificate(s) that represented shares of Pre-Split Common Stock shall receive, upon surrender of such certificate(s), a new certificate(s) representing the number of shares of Post-Split Common Stock to which such person is entitled by reason of the combination. The Corporation shall not issue fractional shares of Post-Split Common Stock with respect to the combination of shares provided for herein. The Corporation shall pay in cash the fair value of fractions of a share, based on a value of $26.19 per share of Pre-Split Common Stock, as of the Effective Date to any shareholder who is entitled to receive a fractional share as a result of the combination of shares provided for herein.”

4. Lakeway Hospital Corporation is for profit corporation.
5. The amendment described herein was duly adopted by the shareholders of Lakeway Hospital Corporation on August 28, 2006, at a meeting duly held and constituted.

Dated: August 28, 2006.

BYLAWS OF
LAKEWAY HOSPITAL CORPORATION

ARTICLE I

OFFICES

Section 1.1 Registered Office. The registered office shall be in the City of Nashville, Davidson County, State of Tennessee.

Section 1.2 Other Offices. The corporation may also have offices at such other places both within and without the State of Tennessee, as the board of directors may from time to time determine or the business of the corporation may require.

ARTICLE II

MEETINGS OF SHAREHOLDERS

Section 2.1 Annual Meeting. An annual meeting of shareholders of the corporation shall be held on such date and at such time as shall be designated from time to time by the board of directors and stated in the notice of the meeting. At such meeting, the shareholders shall elect directors and transact such other business as may properly be brought before the meeting.

Section 2.2 Special Meetings. Special meetings of the shareholders for any purpose whatsoever may be called at any time by the president, the board of directors, or the holders of not less than ten percent of all shares entitled to vote at such meeting.

Section 2.3 Place of Meetings. All meetings of shareholders for any purpose or purposes may be held at such places, within or without the State of Tennessee, as may from time to time be fixed by the board of directors or as shall be stated in the notice of the meeting or in a duly executed waiver of notice thereof.

Section 2.4 Notice. Written notice stating the place, day and hour of the meeting and, in the case of a special meeting, the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is called, shall be given not less than ten nor more than sixty days before the date of the meeting, either personally or by mail.

Section 2.5 Quorum of Shareholders. The holders of a majority of the shares issued and outstanding and entitled to vote at such meeting, present in person or represented by proxy shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at all meetings of the shareholders.

Section 2.6 Voting of Shares. Except as otherwise provided by statute or the charter, each holder of record of shares of stock of the Corporation having voting power shall be entitled at each meeting of the shareholders to one vote for every share of such stock standing in his or her name on the record books of shareholders of the corporation on the date on which such notice of the meeting is mailed, unless some other day is fixed by the board of directors for the determination of shareholders of record:

Section 2.7 Voting List. The officer who has charge of the stock transfer books for shares of the corporation shall prepare at least ten days before every meeting of shareholders, a complete list of the shareholders entitled to vote at such meeting, arranged in alphabetical order, including the address of each shareholder and the number of voting shares held by each shareholder. For a period of ten days prior to such meeting, such list shall be kept open to the examination of any shareholder, for any purpose germane to the meeting, during ordinary business hours, either at a place within the city where the meeting is to be held and which place shall be specified in the notice of the meeting, or, if not so specified, at the place where said meeting is to be held. Such list shall be produced at such meeting and at all times during such meeting shall be subject to inspection by any shareholder. The original stock transfer books shall be prima facie evidence as to who are the shareholders entitled to examine such list or stock transfer books.

Section 2.8 Treasury Stock. The corporation shall not vote, directly or indirectly, shares of its own stock owned by it and such shares shall not be counted for quorum purposes.

Section 2.9 Consent of Shareholders in Lieu of Meeting. Whenever the vote of shareholders at a meeting thereof is required or permitted to be taken for or in connection with any corporate action, the meeting, the notice thereof, and the vote of shareholders can be dispensed with, if a consent in writing, setting forth the action so taken, shall be signed by the holders of stock having not less than the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to authorize or take such action at a meeting at which all shares entitled to vote thereof were present and voted, provided that prompt notice must be given to all shareholders of the taking of corporate action without a meeting by less than unanimous written consent.

ARTICLE III DIRECTORS

Section 3.1 Powers of Directors. The business and affairs of the corporation shall be managed by its board of directors which shall have and may exercise all such powers of the corporation, subject to the restrictions imposed by law, the charter, or these bylaws.

Section 3.2 Number and Qualification. The number of directors which shall constitute the entire board of directors shall be determined by resolution of the board of directors at any meeting thereof or by the shareholders at any meeting thereof. Directors need not be residents of Tennessee or shareholders of the corporation.

Section 3.3 Election and Term of Office. The directors shall be elected annually by the shareholders, except as provided in Section 3.4 of these bylaws. Each director shall hold office until the next succeeding annual meeting of shareholders and until his or her successor shall have been elected or until his or her earlier death, resignation, or removal. The board of directors may, by resolution, appoint one of its members as chairman to preside over meetings of the board of directors. The position of chairman of the board of directors shall not be an office of the corporation.

Section 3.4 Vacancies. Any vacancy occurring in the board of directors by reason of death, resignation, or removal may be filled by affirmative vote of a majority of the remaining directors, although less than a quorum of the board of directors. Such vacancy may also be filled by affirmative vote of the majority of the shareholders. A director elected to fill a vacancy shall be elected for the unexpired term of his or her predecessor in office or until his or her death, resignation, retirement, disqualification, or removal.

Section 3.5 Resignation of Directors. Any director may resign from office at any time by delivering a written resignation to the secretary of the corporation, and such resignation shall be effective upon delivery of such resignation to the secretary.

Section 3.6 Removal of Directors. Any director may be removed with or without cause at any time by the shareholders.

Section 3.7 Place of Meetings. Regular or special meetings of the board of directors may be held either within or without the State of Tennessee.

Section 3.8 Regular Meetings. Regular meetings of the board of directors may be held without notice at such times and places as may be designated from time to time as may be determined by the board of directors.

Section 3.9 Special Meetings. Special meetings of the board of directors may be called by the president or any director on twenty-four (24) hours notice to each director, either personally or by telephone, mail, telegram or other means of telecommunications. Neither the business to be transacted at, nor the purpose of, any special meeting of the board of directors need be specified in the notice or waiver of notice of any special meeting.

Section 3.10 Quorum of Directors. At all meetings of the board of directors, a majority of the directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business and the act of a majority of the directors present at any meeting at which there is a quorum shall be an act of the board of directors. If a quorum is not present at a meeting, a majority of the directors present may adjourn the meeting from time to time, without notice other than an announcement at the meeting, until a quorum is present.

Section 3.11 Committees. The board of directors may, by resolution passed by a majority of the entire board, designate one or more committees, including, if they shall so determine, an executive committee, each such committee to consist of one or more of the directors of the corporation. Any such designated committee shall have and may exercise such of the powers and authority of the board of directors in the management of the business and affairs of the corporation as may be provided in such resolution, except that no such committee shall have the power or authority of the board of directors in reference to amending the charter, adopting an agreement of merger or consolidation, recommending to the shareholders the sale, lease or exchange of all or substantially all of the corporation's property and assets, recommending to the shareholders a dissolution of the corporation or a revocation of a dissolution of the corporation, or amending, altering or repealing the bylaws or adopting new bylaws for the corporation and, unless such resolution or the charter expressly so provides, no such committee shall have the power or authority to authorize the issuance of stock. The board of directors shall have the power at any time to change the number and members of any such committee, to fill vacancies and to discharge any such committee.

Section 3.12 Compensation The board of directors shall have authority to determine, from time to time, the amount of compensation, if any, which shall be paid to its members for their services as directors and as members of committees of the board of directors. The board of directors shall also have power in its discretion to provide for and to pay to directors rendering services to the corporation not ordinarily rendered by directors as such, special compensation appropriate to the value of such services as determined by the board of directors from time to time. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to preclude any director from serving the corporation in any other capacity and receiving compensation therefor.

Section 3.13 Action by Unanimous Written Consent. Any action required or permitted to be taken at a meeting of the board of directors or any committee may be taken without a meeting if a consent in writing, setting forth the actions so taken, is signed by all of the members of the board of directors or such committee, as the case may be.

Section 3.14 Minutes of Meetings. The board of directors shall keep regular minutes of its proceedings and such minutes shall be placed in the minute book of the corporation. Committees of the board of directors shall maintain a separate record of the minutes of their proceedings.

ARTICLE IV

NOTICES AND TELEPHONE MEETINGS

Section 4.1 Notice. Any notice to directors or shareholders shall be in writing and shall be delivered personally or by mail, telegram, telex, cable, telecopier or similar means to the directors or shareholders at their respective addresses appearing on the books of the corporation. Notice by mail shall be deemed to be given at the time when the same shall be deposited in the United States mail, postage prepaid. Any notice required or permitted to be given by telegram, telex, cable, telecopier, or similar means shall be deemed to be delivered and given at the time transmitted.

Section 4.2 Waiver of Notice. Whenever by law, the charter, or these bylaws, notice is required to be given to any shareholder, director, or committee member of the corporation, a waiver thereof in writing signed by the person or persons entitled to such notice, whether before or after the time notice should have been given, shall be equivalent to the giving of such notice. Attendance of a director at a meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting, except where a director attends a meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business on the ground that the meeting is not lawfully called or convened.

Section 4.3 Telephone and Similar Meetings. Shareholders, directors, or committee members may participate in and hold a meeting by means of a conference telephone or similar communications equipment by means of which persons participating in the meeting can hear each other. Participation in such a meeting shall constitute presence in person at such meeting, except where a person participates in the meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business on the ground that the meeting is not lawfully called or convened.

ARTICLE V OFFICERS

Section 5.1 Officers. The corporation shall have a president and a secretary and such other officers and assistant officers as the board may deem desirable to conduct the affairs of the corporation. The position of chairman of the board of directors shall not be an office of the corporation. Any two or more offices may be held by the same person. No officer need be a shareholder or a director.

Section 5.2 Powers and Duties of Officers. The officers of the corporation shall have the powers and duties generally ascribed to the respective offices, and such additional authority or duty as may from time to time be established by the board of directors.

Section 5.3 Removal and Resignation. Any officer appointed by the board of directors may be removed by the board of directors whenever, in the judgment of the board of directors, the best interests of the corporation will be served thereby. Any officer may resign at any time by giving written notice to the corporation. Any such resignation shall take effect at the date of receipt of such notice or at a later time specified therein, and unless otherwise specified therein, the acceptance of such resignation shall not be necessary to make it effective.

Section 5.4 Term and Vacancies. The officers of the corporation shall hold office until their successors are elected or appointed, or until their death, resignation, or removal from office. Any vacancy occurring in any office of the corporation by death, resignation, removal, or otherwise, may be filled by the board of directors.

Section 5.5 Compensation. The salaries of all officers of the corporation shall be fixed by the board of directors. The board of directors shall have the power to enter into contracts for the employment and compensation of officers on such terms as the board of directors deems advisable. No officer shall be disqualified from receiving a salary or other compensation by reason of the fact that he or she is also a director of the corporation.

ARTICLE VI

CERTIFICATES AND SHAREHOLDERS

Section 6.1 Certificates for Shares. The certificates for shares of stock of the Corporation shall be in such form as shall be approved by the board of directors in conformity with law and the charter. Every certificate for shares issued by the corporation must be signed by the President or a Vice President and the Secretary or an Assistant Secretary under the seal of the corporation. Any or all of the signatures on the face of the certificate may be facsimile. Such certificates shall bear a legend or legends in the form and containing the restrictions to be stated thereon by the Tennessee Business Corporation Act (the "Tennessee Code"), other provisions of law, the charter or these bylaws. Certificates shall be consecutively numbered and shall be entered as they are issued. Each certificate shall state on the face thereof the holder's name, the number and class of shares, the par value of such shares, and such other matters as may be required by law, the charter or these bylaws.

Section 6.2 Lost, Stolen, or Destroyed Certificates. The board of directors, the executive committee, or the president of the corporation may direct a new certificate or certificates representing shares to be issued in place of any certificate or certificates theretofore issued by the corporation alleged to have been lost, stolen, or destroyed, upon the making of an affidavit of the fact by the person claiming the certificate or certificates to be lost, stolen, or destroyed. When authorizing such issue of a new certificate the board of directors, the executive committee or the president may require the owner of such lost, stolen, or destroyed certificate, or his or her legal representative, to advertise the same in such manner as it or he or she shall require and/or give the corporation a bond in such sum as it may direct as indemnity against any claim that may be made against the corporation with respect to the certificate alleged to have been lost, stolen or destroyed.

Section 6.3 Transfer of Shares. Shares of stock of the corporation shall be transferable only on the books of the corporation by the holder thereof in person or by the holder's duly authorized attorneys or legal representatives. Upon surrender to the corporation or the transfer agent of the corporation of a certificate representing shares duly endorsed or accompanied by proper evidence of succession, assignment, or authority to transfer, the corporation or its transfer agent shall issue a new certificate to the person entitled thereto, cancel the old certificate, and record the transaction upon its books.

Section 6.4 Registered Shareholders. The corporation shall be entitled to recognize the exclusive right of a person registered on its books as the owner of shares to receive dividends, and to vote as such owner, and to hold liable for calls and assessments, a person registered on its books as the owner of shares, and shall not be bound to recognize any equitable or other claim to or interest in such shares on the part of any person, whether or not it shall have actual or other notice thereof, except as otherwise provided by law.

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

Section 7.1 Dividends. Dividends upon the outstanding shares of the corporation, subject to the provisions of the applicable statutes and of the charter, may be declared by the board of directors at any annual, regular or special meeting. Dividends may be declared and paid in cash, in property, or in shares of the corporation, or in any combination thereof.

Section 7.2 Reserves. There may be set aside out of any funds of the corporation available for dividends such sum or sums as the board of directors from time to time in their sole and absolute discretion think proper as a reserve to meet contingencies, or to equalize dividends, or to repair or maintain any property of the corporation, or for such other purpose as the board of directors shall think conducive to the interest of the corporation, and the board of directors may modify or abolish any such reserve in the manner in which it was created.

Section 7.3 Signature of Negotiable Instruments. All checks or demands for money and notes of the corporation shall be signed by such officer or officers or such other person or persons as the board of directors may from time to time designate.

Section 7.4 Fiscal Year. The fiscal year of the corporation shall be fixed by the board of directors; provided, that if such fiscal year is not fixed by the board of directors it shall be the calendar year.

Section 7.5 Books of the Corporation. The books of the corporation may be kept, subject to the provisions of the applicable statutes, within or outside of the State of Tennessee, at such place or places as may from time to time be designated by the board of directors or as the business of the corporation may require.

Section 7.6 Seal. The seal, if any, of the corporation shall be in such form as may be approved from time to time by the board of directors. If the board of directors approves a seal, the affixation of such seal shall not be required to create a valid and binding obligation against the corporation.

Section 7.7 Securities of Other Corporations. Unless otherwise ordered by the board of directors, the president or the secretary of the corporation shall have full power and authority on behalf of the corporation to attend, to vote and to grant proxies to be used at any meeting of shareholders of such other corporation in which the corporation may hold stock. The board of directors may confer like powers upon any other person or persons.

Section 7.8 Fixed Record Date. In order that the corporation may determine the shareholders entitled to notice of or to vote at any meeting of shareholders or any adjournment thereof, or to express consent to corporate action in writing without a meeting, or entitled to receive payment of any dividend or other distribution or allotment of any rights, or entitled to exercise any rights in respect of any change, conversion or exchange of stock for the purpose of any other lawful action, the board of directors may fix, in advance, a record date which shall be not more than sixty 60 days before the date of such meeting, nor more than 60 days prior to any other action.

Section 7.9 Amendment. The power to alter, amend, or repeal these bylaws or to adopt new bylaws is vested in the board of directors.

Section 7.10 Right to Indemnification.

(A) Each person (hereinafter an "indemnitee") who was or is made a party to or is threatened to be made a party to or is otherwise involved in any action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (hereinafter a "proceeding"), by reason of the fact that he or she was a director, officer or agent of the corporation or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation or of a partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, including service with respect to an employee benefit plan, whether the basis of such proceeding is alleged action in an official capacity as a director, officer, employee or agent, shall be indemnified and held harmless by the corporation to the fullest extent authorized by the Tennessee Code, as the same exists or may hereafter be amended (but, in the case of any such amendment, only to the extent that such amendment permits the corporation to provide broader indemnification rights than permitted prior thereto), against all expense, liability and loss (including attorney's fees, judgments, fines, ERISA excise taxes or penalties and amounts paid in settlement) reasonably incurred or suffered by such indemnitee in connection therewith, and such indemnification shall continue with respect to an indemnitee who has ceased to be a director, officer, employee or agent and shall inure to the benefit of the indemnitee's heirs, executors and administrators; provided, however, that, except as provided in paragraph (B) hereof with respect to proceedings to enforce rights to indemnification, the corporation shall indemnify any such indemnitee only if such proceeding (or part thereof) was authorized by the board of directors of the corporation. The right to indemnification conferred in this section shall be a contract right and shall include the right to be paid by the corporation the expenses incurred in defending any such proceeding in advance of its final disposition (hereinafter an "advancement of expenses"); provided, however, that, if the Tennessee Code requires, an advancement of expenses incurred by an indemnitee shall be made only upon delivery to the corporation of an undertaking (hereinafter an “undertaking”), by or on behalf of such indemnitee, to repay all amounts so advanced if it shall ultimately be determined by final judicial decision from which there is no further right to appeal (hereinafter a “final adjudication”) that such indemnitee is not entitled to be indemnified for such expenses under this section or otherwise.

(B) If a claim under paragraph (A) of this section is not paid in full by the corporation within 60 days after a written claim has been received by the corporation, except in the case of a claim for an advancement of expenses, in which case the applicable period shall be 20 days, the indemnitee may at any time thereafter bring suit against the corporation to recover the unpaid amount of such suit, or in a suit brought by the corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking, the indemnitee shall be entitled to be paid also the expense of prosecuting or defending such suit. In (i) any suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right to indemnification hereunder (but not in a suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right to an advancement of expenses) it shall be a defense that, and (ii) any suit by the corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking the corporation shall be entitled to recover such expenses upon a final adjudication that, the indemnitee has not met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in the Tennessee Code. Neither the failure of the corporation (including its board of directors, independent legal counsel, or its shareholders) to have made a determination prior to the commencement of such suit that indemnification of the indemnitee is proper in the circumstances because the indemnitee has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in the Tennessee Code, nor an actual determination by the corporation (including its board of directors, independent legal counsel, or its shareholders) that the indemnitee has not met such applicable standard of conduct shall create a presumption that the indemnitee has not met the applicable standard of conduct or, in the case of such a suit brought by the indemnitee, be a defense of such suit. In any suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right of indemnification or to an advancement of expenses hereunder, or by the corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking, the burden of proving that the indemnitee is not entitled to be indemnified, or to such advancement of expenses, under this section or otherwise shall be on the corporation.

(C) The rights to indemnification and to the advancement of expenses conferred in this section shall not be exclusive of any other right which any person may have or hereafter acquire under any statute, the corporation’s certificate of incorporation, by agreement, by vote of shareholders or by disinterested directors or otherwise.

(D) The corporation may maintain insurance, at its expense, to protect itself and any director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation or another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise against any expense, liability or loss, whether or not the corporation would have the power to indemnify such person against such expense, liability or loss under the Tennessee Code.

Section 7.11 Invalid Provisions. If any provision of these bylaws is held to be illegal, invalid, or unenforceable under present or future laws, such provision shall be fully severable; these bylaws shall be construed and enforced as if such illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision had never comprised a part hereof; and the remaining provisions hereof shall remain in full force and effect and shall not be affected by the illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision or by its severance herefrom. Furthermore, in lieu of such illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision there shall be added automatically as a part of these bylaws a provision as similar in terms to such illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision as may be possible and be legal, valid, and enforceable.

Section 7.12 Headings. The headings used in these bylaws are for reference purposes only and do not affect in any way the meaning or interpretation of these bylaws.

The undersigned officer of the corporation hereby confirms that the above bylaws were duly adopted as the bylaws of the corporation as of the 15th day of April, 1994.

LEXINGTON HOSPITAL CORPORATION

The undersigned person, having capacity to contract and acting as the incorporator of a corporation for profit under the Tennessee Business Corporation Act, hereby adopts the following Charter for such corporation:

1. The name of the corporation is: Lexington Hospital Corporation.
2. The corporation's initial registered office is located at 2908 Poston Avenue, Nashville, Tennessee 37203, County of Davidson. The initial registered agent at that office is Corporation Service Company.
3. The name and address of the incorporator is Kimberly A: Wright, Suite 400, 155 Franklin Road, Brentwood, Tennessee 37027.
4. The address of the principal office of the corporation shall be Suite 400, 155 Franklin Road, Brentwood, Tennessee 37027.
5. The corporation is for profit.
6. The corporation is authorized to issue one thousand (1,000) shares of common stock, no par value.
7. The business and affairs of the corporation shall be managed by a Board of Directors:
 - a. The number of directors and their term shall be specified in the Bylaws of the corporation;
 - b. Whenever the Board of Directors is required or permitted to take any action by vote, such action may be taken without a meeting on written consent setting forth the action so taken, signed by all of the directors, indicating each signing director's vote or abstention. The affirmative vote of the number of directors that would be necessary to authorize or to take such action at a meeting is an act of the Board of Directors;
 - c. Any or all of the directors may be removed with cause by a majority vote of the entire Board of Directors.
8. To the fullest extent permitted by the Tennessee Business Corporation Act as the same may be amended from time to time, a director, officer or incorporator of the corporation shall not be liable to the corporation or its shareholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty in such capacity. If the Tennessee Business Corporation Act is amended, after approval by the shareholders of this provision, to authorize corporate action further eliminating or limiting the personal liability of a director, officer or incorporator then the liability of a director, officer or incorporator of the corporation shall be eliminated or limited to the fullest extent permitted by the Tennessee Business Corporation Act, as so amended from time to time. Any repeal or modification of this Section 8 by the shareholders of the corporation shall not adversely affect any right or protection of a director, officer or incorporator of the corporation existing at the time of such repeal or modification or with respect to events occurring prior to such time.

9. Each person who was or is made a party or is threatened to be made a party to or is otherwise involved in any action, suit or proceeding, whether civil criminal, administrative or investigative and whether formal or informal (hereafter a "proceeding"), by reason of the fact that he or she is or was a director, officer or incorporator of the corporation or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, manager or incorporator of another corporation or as a partner or trustee of a partnership, joint venture, limited liability company, trust or other enterprise. Including service with respect to employee benefit plans (hereinafter an "Indemnitee"), whether the basis of such proceeding is alleged action in an official capacity as a director, officer, manager or incorporator or in any other capacity while serving as a director, officer, manager or incorporator, shall be indemnified and held harmless by the corporation to the fullest extent authorized by the Tennessee Business Corporation Act, as the same may be amended (but, in the case of any such amendment, only to the extent that such amendment permits the corporation to provide broader indemnification rights than such law permitted the corporation to provide prior to such amendment), against all expense, liability and loss (including but not limited to counsel fees, judgments, fines, ERISA, excise taxes or penalties and amounts paid in settlement) reasonably incurred or suffered by such Indemnitee in connection therewith and such indemnification shall continue as to an Indemnitee who has ceased to be a director, officer, manager or incorporator and shall inure to the benefit of the indemnitee's heirs, executors and administrators. The right to indemnification conferred in this Section 9 shall be a contract right and shall include the right to be paid by the corporation the expenses incurred in any such proceeding in advance of its final disposition (hereinafter an "advancement of expenses"); provided however, that an advancement of expenses incurred by an Indemnitee shall be made only upon delivery to the corporation of an undertaking, by or on behalf of such Indemnitee, to repay all amounts so advanced if it shall ultimately be determined by final judicial decision from which there is no further right to appeal that such Indemnitee is not entitled to be indemnified for such expenses under this Section 9 or otherwise, the Indemnitee furnishes the corporation with a written affirmation of his or her good faith belief that he or she has met the standards for indemnification under the Tennessee Business Corporation Act, and a determination is made that the facts then known to those making the determination would not preclude indemnification.

The corporation may indemnify and advance expenses to an officer, employee or agent who is not a director to the same extent as to a director by specific action of the corporation's Board of Directors or by contract.

The rights to indemnification and to the advancement of expenses conferred in this Section 9 shall not be exclusive of any other right that any person may have or hereafter acquire under any statute, this Charter, Bylaw, agreement, vote of stockholders or disinterested directors or otherwise, and the corporation is hereby permitted to grant additional rights to indemnification and advancement of expenses, to the fullest extent permitted by law, by resolution of directors, or an agreement providing for such rights.

The corporation may maintain insurance, at its expense, to protect itself and any director, officer, manager, employee or agent of the corporation or of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, limited liability company, trust or other enterprise against any expense, liability or loss, whether or not the corporation would have the power to indemnify such person against such expense, liability or loss under the Tennessee Business Corporation Act.

Dated this 28th day of October, 2002.

BYLAWS OF
LEXINGTON HOSPITAL CORPORATION

ARTICLE I

OFFICES

Section 1.1 Registered Office. The registered office shall be in the City of Nashville, County of Davidson, State of Tennessee.

Section 1.2 Other Offices. The corporation may also have offices at such other places both within and without the State of Tennessee as the board of directors may from time to time determine or the business of the corporation may require.

ARTICLE II

MEETINGS OF SHAREHOLDERS

Section 2.1 Annual Meeting. An annual meeting of shareholders of the corporation shall be held on such date and at such time as shall be designated from time to time by the board of directors and stated in the notice of the meeting. At such meeting, the shareholders shall elect directors and transact such other business as may properly be brought before the meeting.

Section 2.2 Special Meetings. Special meetings of the shareholders for any purpose whatsoever may be called at any time by the president, the board of directors, or the holders of not less than ten percent of all shares entitled to vote at such meeting.

Section 2.3 Place of Meetings. All meetings of shareholders for any purpose or purposes may be held at such places, within or without the State of Tennessee, as may from time to time be fixed by the board of directors or as shall be stated in the notice of the meeting or in a duly executed waiver of notice thereof.

Section 2.4 Notice. Written notice stating the place, day and hour of the meeting and, in the case of a special meeting, the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is called, shall be given not less than ten nor more than sixty days before the date of the meeting, either personally or by mail.

Section 2.5 Quorum of Shareholders. The holders of a majority of the shares issued and outstanding and entitled to vote at such meeting, present in person or represented by proxy shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at all meetings of the shareholders.

Section 2.6 Voting of Shares. Except as otherwise provided by statute or the articles of incorporation, each holder of record of shares of stock of the Corporation having voting power shall be entitled at each meeting of the shareholders to one vote for every share of such stock standing in his or her name on the record books of shareholders of the corporation on the date on which such notice of the meeting is mailed, unless some other day is fixed by the board of directors for the determination of shareholders of record.

Section 2.7 Voting List. The officer who has charge of the stock transfer books for shares of the corporation shall prepare at least ten days before every meeting of shareholders, a complete list of the shareholders entitled to vote at such meeting, arranged in alphabetical order, including the address of each shareholder and the number of voting shares held by each shareholder. For a period of ten days prior to such meeting, such list shall be kept open to the examination of any shareholder, for any purpose germane to the meeting, during ordinary business hours, either at a place within the city where the meeting is to be held and which place shall be specified in the notice of the meeting, or, if not so specified, at the place where said meeting is to be held. Such list shall be produced at such meeting and at all times during such meeting shall be subject to inspection by any shareholder. The original stock transfer books shall be prima facie evidence as to who are the shareholders entitled to examine such list or stock transfer books.

Section 2.8 Treasury Stock. The corporation shall not vote, directly or indirectly, shares of its own stock owned by it and such shares shall not be counted for quorum purposes.

Section 2.9 Consent of Shareholders in Lieu of Meeting. Whenever the vote of shareholders at a meeting thereof is required or permitted to be taken for or in connection with any corporate action, the meeting, the notice thereof, and the vote of shareholders can be dispensed with, if a consent in writing, setting forth the action so taken, shall be signed by the holders of stock having not less than the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to authorize or take such action at a meeting at which all shares entitled to vote thereof were present and voted, provided that prompt notice must be given to all shareholders of the taking of corporate action without a meeting by less than unanimous written consent.

Section 2.10 Minutes of Meetings. The secretary of the corporation shall keep regular minutes of all meetings of shareholders and such minutes shall be placed in the minute book of the corporation.

ARTICLE III

DIRECTORS

Section 3.1 Powers of Directors. The business and affairs of the corporation shall be managed by its board of directors which shall have and may exercise all such powers of the corporation, subject to the restrictions imposed by law, the articles of incorporation, or these bylaws.

Section 3.2 Number and Qualification. The number of directors which shall constitute the entire board of directors shall be determined by resolution of the Board of Directors at any meeting thereof or by the Shareholders at any meeting thereof. Directors need not be residents of Tennessee or Shareholders of the corporation.

Section 3.3 Election and Term of Office. The directors shall be elected annually by the shareholders, except as provided in Section 3.4 of these bylaws. Each director shall hold office until the next succeeding annual meeting of shareholders and until his or her successor shall have been elected or until his or her earlier death, resignation, or removal. The board of directors may, by resolution, appoint one of its members as chairman to preside over meetings of the board of directors. The position of chairman of the board of directors shall not be an office of the corporation.

Section 3.4 Vacancies. Any vacancy occurring in the board of directors by reason of death, resignation, or removal may be filled by affirmative vote of a majority of the remaining directors, although less than a quorum of the board of directors. Such vacancy may also be filled by affirmative vote of the majority of the shareholders. A director elected to fill a vacancy shall be elected for the unexpired term of his or her predecessor in office or until his or her death, resignation, retirement, disqualification, or removal.

Section 3.5 Resignation of Directors. Any director may resign from office at any time by delivering a written resignation to the secretary of the corporation, and such resignation shall be effective upon delivery of such resignation to the secretary.

Section 3.6 Removal of Directors. Any director may be removed with or without cause at any time by the shareholders.

Section 3.7 Place of Meetings. Regular or special meetings of the board of directors may be held either within or without the State of Tennessee.

Section 3.8 Regular Meetings. Regular meetings of the board of directors may be held without notice at such times and places as may be designated from time to time as may be determined by the board of directors.

Section 3.9 Special Meetings. Special meetings of the board of directors may be called by the president or any director on twenty-four (24) hours notice to each director, either personally or by telephone, mail, telegram or other means of telecommunications. Neither the business to be transacted at, nor the purpose of, any special meeting of the board of directors need be specified in the notice or waiver of notice of any special meeting.

Section 3.10 Quorum of Directors. At all meetings of the board of directors, a majority of the directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business and the act or a majority of the directors present at any meeting at which there is a quorum shall be an act of the board of directors. If a quorum is not present at a meeting, a majority of the directors present may adjourn the meeting from time to time, without notice other than an announcement at the meeting, until a quorum is present.

Section 3.11 Committees. The board of directors may, by resolution passed by a majority of the entire board, designate one or more committees, including, if they shall so determine, an executive committee, each such committee to consist of one or more of the directors of the corporation. Any such designated committee shall have and may exercise such of the powers and authority of the board of directors in the management of the business and affairs of the corporation as may be provided in such resolution, except that no such committee shall have the power or authority of the board of directors in reference to amending the articles of incorporation, adopting an agreement of merger or consolidation, recommending to the shareholders the sale, lease or exchange of all or substantially all of the corporation's property and assets, recommending to the shareholders a dissolution of the corporation or a revocation of a dissolution of the corporation, or amending, altering or repealing the bylaws or adopting new bylaws for the corporation and, unless such resolution or the articles of incorporation expressly so provides, no such committee shall have the power or authority to authorize the issuance of stock. The board of directors shall have the power at any time to change the number and members of any such committee, to fill vacancies and to discharge any such committee.

Section 3.12 Compensation of Directors. Persons serving as directors shall not receive any compensation for their services as directors; however, a director shall be entitled to reimbursement for reasonable and customary expenses incurred by such director in carrying out his duties as approved by the president of the corporation.

Section 3.13 Action by Unanimous Written Consent. Any action required or permitted to be taken at a meeting of the board of directors or any committee may be taken without a meeting if a consent in writing, setting forth the actions so taken, is signed by all of the members of the board of directors or such committee, as the case may be.

Section 3.14 Minutes of Meetings. The board of directors shall keep regular minutes of its proceedings and such minutes shall be placed in the minute book of the corporation. Committees of the board of directors shall maintain a separate record of the minutes of their proceedings.

ARTICLE IV

NOTICES AND TELEPHONE MEETINGS

Section 4.1 Notice. Any notice to directors or shareholders shall be in writing and shall be delivered personally or by mail, telegram, telex, cable, telecopier or similar means to the directors or shareholders at their respective addresses appearing on the books of the corporation. Notice by mail shall be deemed to be given at the time when the same shall be deposited in the United States mail, postage prepaid. Any notice required or permitted to be given by telegram, telex, cable, telecopier, or similar means shall be deemed to be delivered and given at the time transmitted.

Section 4.2 Waiver of Notice. Whenever by law, the articles of incorporation, or these bylaws, notice is required to be given to any shareholder, director, or committee member of the corporation, a waiver thereof in writing signed by the person or persons entitled to such notice, whether before or after the time notice should have been given, shall be equivalent to the giving of such notice. Attendance of a director at a meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting, except where a director attends a meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business on the ground that the meeting is not lawfully called or convened.

Section 4.3 Telephone and Similar Meetings. Shareholders, directors, or committee members may participate in and hold a meeting by means of a conference telephone or similar communications equipment by means of which persons participating in the meeting can hear each other. Participation in such a meeting shall constitute presence in person at such meeting, except where a person participates in the meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business on the ground that the meeting is not lawfully called or convened.

ARTICLE V

OFFICERS

Section 5.1 Officers. The corporation shall have a president and a secretary and such other officers and assistant officers as the board may deem desirable to conduct the affairs of the corporation. The position of chairman of the board of directors shall not be an office of the corporation. Any two or more offices may be held by the same person. No officer need be a shareholder or a director.

Section 5.2 Powers and Duties of Officers. The officers of the corporation shall have the powers and duties generally ascribed to the respective offices, and such additional authority or duty as may from time to time be established by the board of directors.

Section 5.3 Removal and Resignation. Any officer appointed by the board of directors may be removed by the board of directors whenever, in the judgment of the board of directors, the best interests of the corporation will be served thereby. Any officer may resign at any time by giving written notice to the corporation. Any such resignation shall take effect at the date of receipt of such notice or at a later time specified therein, and unless otherwise specified therein, the acceptance of such resignation shall not be necessary to make it effective.

Section 5.4 Term and Vacancies. The officers of the corporation shall hold office until their successors are elected or appointed, or until their death, resignation, or removal from office. Any vacancy occurring in any office of the corporation by death, resignation, removal, or otherwise, may be filled by the board of directors.

Section 5.5 Compensation. The salaries of all officers of the corporation shall be fixed by the board of directors. The board of directors shall have the power to enter into contracts for the employment and compensation of officers on such terms as the board of directors deems advisable. No officer shall be disqualified from receiving a salary or other compensation by reason of the fact that he or she is also a director of the corporation.

ARTICLE VI

CERTIFICATES AND SHAREHOLDERS

Section 6.1 Certificates for Shares. The certificates for shares of stock of the Corporation shall be in such form as shall be approved by the board of directors in conformity with law and the articles of incorporation. Every certificate for shares issued by the corporation must be signed by the President or a Vice President and the Secretary or an Assistant Secretary under the seal of the corporation. Any or all of the signatures on the face of the certificate may be facsimile. Such certificates shall bear a legend or legends in the form and containing the restrictions to be stated thereon by the Tennessee Business Corporation Law of 1988, as amended, other provisions of law, the articles of incorporation or these bylaws. Certificates shall be consecutively numbered and shall be entered as they are issued. Each certificate shall state on the face thereof the holder's name, the number and class of shares, the par value of such shares, and such other matters as may be required by law, the articles of incorporation or these bylaws.

Section 6.2 Lost, Stolen, or Destroyed Certificates. The board of directors, the executive committee, or the president of the corporation may direct a new certificate or certificates representing shares to be issued in place of any certificate or certificates theretofore issued by the corporation alleged to have been lost, stolen, or destroyed, upon the making of an affidavit of the fact by the person claiming the certificate or certificates to be lost, stolen, or destroyed. When authorizing such issue of a new certificate the board of directors, the executive committee or the president may require the owner of such lost, stolen, or destroyed certificate, or his or her legal representative, to advertise the same in such manner as it or he or she shall require and/or give the corporation a bond in such sum as it may direct as indemnity against any claim that may be made against the corporation with respect to the certificate alleged to have been lost, stolen or destroyed.

Section 6.3 Transfer of Shares. Shares of stock of the corporation shall be transferable only on the books of the corporation by the holder thereof in person or by the holder's duly authorized attorneys or legal representatives. Upon surrender to the corporation or the transfer agent of the corporation of a certificate representing shares duly endorsed or accompanied by proper evidence of succession, assignment, or authority to transfer, the corporation or its transfer agent shall issue a new certificate to the person entitled thereto, cancel the old certificate, and record the transaction upon its books.

Section 6.4 Registered Shareholders. The corporation shall be entitled to recognize the exclusive right of a person registered on its books as the owner of shares to receive dividends, and to vote as such owner, and to hold liable for calls and assessments, a person registered on its books as the owner of shares, and shall not be bound to recognize any equitable or other claim to or interest in such shares on the part of any person, whether or not it shall have actual or other notice thereof, except as otherwise provided by law.

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

Section 7.1 Dividends. Dividends upon the outstanding shares of the corporation, subject to the provisions of the applicable statutes and of the articles of incorporation, may be declared by the board of directors at any annual, regular or special meeting. Dividends may be declared and paid in cash, in property, or in shares of the corporation, or in any combination thereof.

Section 7.2 Reserves. There may be set aside out of any funds of the corporation available for dividends such sum or sums as the board of directors from time to time in their sole and absolute discretion think proper as a reserve to meet contingencies, or to equalize dividends, or to repair or maintain any property of the corporation, or for such other purpose as the board of directors shall think conducive to the interest of the corporation, and the board of directors may modify or abolish any such reserve in the manner in which it was created.

Section 7.3 Signature of Negotiable Instruments. All checks or demands for money and notes of the corporation shall be signed by such officer or officers or such other person or persons as the board of directors may from time to time designate.

Section 7.4 Fiscal Year. The fiscal year of the corporation shall be fixed by the board of directors; provided, that if such fiscal year is not fixed by the board of directors it shall be the calendar year.

Section 7.5 Books of the Corporation. The books of the corporation may be kept, subject to the provisions of the applicable statutes, within or outside of the State of Tennessee, at such place or places as may from time to time be designated by the board of directors or as the business of the corporation may require.

Section 7.6 Seal. The seal, if any, of the corporation shall be in such form as may be approved from time to time by the board of directors. If the board of directors approves a seal, the affixation of such seal shall not be required to create a valid and binding obligation against the corporation.

Section 7.7 Securities of Other Corporations. Unless otherwise ordered by the board of directors, the president or the secretary of the corporation shall have full power and authority on behalf of the corporation to attend, to vote and to grant proxies to be used at any meeting of shareholders of such other corporation in which the corporation may hold stock. The board of directors may confer like powers upon any other person or persons.

Section 7.8 Fixed Record Date. In order that the corporation may determine the shareholders entitled to notice of or to vote at any meeting of shareholders or any adjournment thereof, or to express consent to corporate action in writing without a meeting, or entitled to receive payment of any dividend or other distribution or allotment of any rights, or entitled to exercise any rights in respect of any change, conversion or exchange of stock for the purpose of any other lawful action, the board of directors may fix, in advance, a record date which shall be not more than sixty 60 days before the date of such meeting, nor more than 60 days prior to any other action.

Section 7.9 Amendment. The power to alter, amend, or repeal these bylaws or to adopt new bylaws is vested in the board of directors.

Section 7.10 Right to Indemnification.

(A) Each person (hereinafter an "indemnitee") who was or is made a party to or is threatened to be made a party to or is otherwise involved in any action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (hereinafter a "proceeding"), by reason of the fact that he or she was a director, officer or agent of the corporation or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation or of a partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, including service with respect to an employee benefit plan, whether the basis of such proceeding is alleged action in an official capacity as a director, officer, employee or agent, shall be indemnified and held harmless by the corporation to the fullest extent authorized by the Tennessee Business Corporation Law of 1988, as amended, as the same exists or may hereafter be amended (but, in the case of any such amendment, only to the extent that such amendment permits the corporation to provide broader indemnification rights than permitted prior thereto), against all expense, liability and loss (including attorney's fees, judgments, fines, ERISA excise taxes or penalties and amounts paid in settlement) reasonably incurred or suffered by such indemnitee in connection therewith, and such indemnification shall continue with respect to an indemnitee who has ceased to be a director, officer, employee or agent and shall inure to the benefit of the indemnitee's heirs, executors and administrators; provided, however, that, except as provided in paragraph (B) hereof with respect to proceedings to enforce rights to indemnification, the corporation shall indemnify any such indemnitee only if such proceeding (or part thereof) was authorized by the board of directors of the corporation. The right to indemnification conferred in this section shall be a contract right and shall include the right to be paid by the corporation the expenses incurred in defending any such proceeding in advance of its final disposition (hereinafter an “advancement of expenses”); provided, however, that, if the Tennessee Business Corporation Law of 1988, as amended, requires, an advancement of expenses incurred by an indemnitee shall be made only upon delivery to the corporation of an undertaking (hereinafter an “undertaking”), by or on behalf of such indemnitee, to repay all amounts so advanced if it shall ultimately be determined by final judicial decision from which there is no further right to appeal (hereinafter a “final adjudication”) that such indemnitee is not entitled to be indemnified for such expenses under this section or otherwise.

(B) If a claim under paragraph (A) of this section is not paid in full by the corporation within 60 days after a written claim has been received by the corporation, except in the case of a claim for an advancement of expenses, in which case the applicable period shall be 20 days, the indemnitee may at any time thereafter bring suit against the corporation to recover the unpaid amount of such suit, or in a suit brought by the corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking, the indemnitee shall be entitled to be paid also the expense of prosecuting or defending such suit. In (i) any suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right to indemnification hereunder (but not in a suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right to an advancement of expenses) it shall be a defense that, and (ii) any suit by the corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking the corporation shall be entitled to recover such expenses upon a final adjudication that, the indemnitee has not met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in the Tennessee Business Corporation Law of 1988, as amended. Neither the failure of the corporation (including its board of directors, independent legal counsel, or its shareholders) to have made a determination prior to the commencement of such suit that indemnification of the indemnitee is proper in the circumstances because the indemnitee has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in the Tennessee Business Corporation Law of 1988, as amended, nor an actual determination by the corporation (including its board of directors, independent legal counsel, or its shareholders) that the indemnitee has not met such applicable standard of conduct shall create a presumption that the indemnitee has not met the applicable standard of conduct or, in the case of such a suit brought by the indemnitee, be a defense of such suit. In any suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right of indemnification or to an advancement of expenses hereunder, or by the corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking, the burden of proving that the indemnitee is not entitled to be indemnified, or to such advancement of expenses, under this section or otherwise shall be on the corporation.

(C) The rights to indemnification and to the advancement of expenses conferred in this section shall not be exclusive of any other right which any person may have or hereafter acquire under any statute, the corporation’s certificate of incorporation, by agreement, by vote of shareholders or by disinterested directors or otherwise.

(D) The corporation may maintain insurance, at its expense, to protect itself and any director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation or another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise against any expense, liability or loss, whether or not the corporation would have the power to indemnify such person against such expense, liability or loss under the Tennessee Business Corporation Law of 1988, as amended.

Section 7.11 Invalid Provisions. If any provision of these bylaws is held to be illegal, invalid, or unenforceable under present or future laws, such provision shall be fully severable; these bylaws shall be construed and enforced as if such illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision had never comprised a part hereof; and the remaining provisions hereof shall remain in full force and effect and shall not be affected by the illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision or by its severance herefrom. Furthermore, in lieu of such illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision there shall be added automatically as a part of these bylaws a provision as similar in terms to such illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision as may be possible and be legal, valid, and enforceable.

Section 7.12 Headings. The headings used in these bylaws are for reference purposes only and do not affect in any way the meaning or interpretation of these bylaws.

The above bylaws were duly adopted as the bylaws of the corporation effective as of the 29th day of October, 2002.

MARTIN HOSPITAL CORPORATION

The undersigned person, having capacity to contract and acting as the incorporator of a corporation for profit under the Tennessee Business Corporation Act, hereby adopts the following Charter for such corporation:

1. The name of the corporation is: Martin Hospital Corporation.
2. The corporation's initial registered office is located at 2908 Poston Avenue, Nashville, Tennessee 37203, County of Davidson. The initial registered agent at that office is Corporation Service Company.
3. The name and address of the incorporator is Kimberly A. Wright, Suite 400, 155 Franklin Road, Brentwood, Tennessee 37027.
4. The address of the principal office of the corporation shall be Suite 400, 155 Franklin Road, Brentwood, Tennessee 37027.
5. The corporation is for profit.
6. The corporation is authorized to issue one thousand (1,000) shares of common stock, no par value.
7. The business and affairs of the corporation shall be managed by a Board of Directors:
 - a. The number of directors and their term shall be specified in the Bylaws of the corporation;
 - b. Whenever the Board of Directors is required or permitted to take any action by vote, such action may be taken without a meeting on written consent setting forth the action so taken, signed by all of the directors, indicating each signing director's vote or abstention. The affirmative vote of the number of directors that would be necessary to authorize or to take such action at a meeting is an act of the Board of Directors;
 - c. Any or all of the directors may be removed with cause by a majority vote of the entire Board of Directors.
8. To the fullest extent permitted by the Tennessee Business Corporation Act as the same may be amended from time to time, a director, officer or incorporator of the corporation shall not be liable to the corporation or its shareholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty in such capacity. If the Tennessee Business Corporation Act is amended, after approval by the shareholders of this provision, to authorize corporate action further eliminating or limiting the personal liability of a director, officer or incorporator then the liability of a director, officer or incorporator of the corporation shall be eliminated or limited to the fullest extent permitted by the Tennessee Business Corporation Act, as so amended from time to time. Any repeal or modification of this Section 8 by the shareholders of the corporation shall not adversely affect any right or protection of a director, officer or incorporator of the corporation existing at the time of such repeal or modification or with respect to events occurring prior to such time.

9. Each person who was or is made a party or is threatened to be made a party to or is otherwise involved in any action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative and whether formal or informal (hereafter a "proceeding"), by reason of the fact that he or she is or was a director, officer or incorporator of the corporation or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, manager or incorporator of another corporation or as a partner or trustee of a partnership, joint venture, limited liability company, trust or other enterprise, including service with respect to employee benefit plans (hereinafter an "Indemnitee"), whether the basis of such proceeding is alleged action in an official capacity as a director, officer, manager or incorporator or in any other capacity while serving as a director, officer, manager or incorporator, shall be indemnified and held harmless by the corporation to the fullest extent authorized by the Tennessee Business Corporation Act, as the same may be amended (but, in the case of any such amendment, only to the extent that such amendment permits the corporation to provide broader indemnification rights than such law permitted the corporation to provide prior to such amendment) against all expense, liability and loss (including but not limited to counsel fees, judgments, fines, ERISA, excise taxes or penalties and amounts paid in settlement) reasonably incurred or suffered by such Indemnitee in connection therewith and such indemnification shall continue as to an Indemnitee who has ceased to be a director, officer, manager or incorporator and shall inure to the benefit of the Indemnitee's heirs, executors and administrators. The right to indemnification conferred in this Section 9 shall be a contract right and shall include the right to be paid by the corporation the expenses incurred in any such proceeding in advance of its final disposition (hereinafter an "advancement of expenses"); provided, however, that an advancement of expenses incurred by an Indemnitee shall be made only upon delivery to the corporation of an undertaking, by or on behalf of such Indemnitee, to repay all amounts so advanced if it shall ultimately be determined by final judicial decision from which there is no further right to appeal that such Indemnitee is not entitled to be indemnified for such expenses under this Section 9 or otherwise, the Indemnitee furnishes the corporation with a written affirmation of his or her good faith belief that he or she has met the standards for indemnification under the Tennessee Business Corporation Act, and a determination is made that the facts then known to those making the determination would not preclude indemnification.

The corporation may indemnify and advance expenses to an officer, employee or agent who is not a director to the same extent as to a director by specific action of the corporation's Board of Directors or by contract.

The rights to indemnification and to the advancement of expenses conferred in this Section 9 shall not be exclusive of any other right that any person may have or hereafter acquire under any statute, this Charter, Bylaw, agreement, vote of stockholders or disinterested directors or otherwise, and the corporation is hereby permitted to grant additional rights to indemnification and advancement of expenses, to the fullest extent permitted by law, by resolution of directors, or an agreement providing for such rights.

The corporation may maintain insurance, at its expense, to protect itself and any director, officer, manager, employee or agent of the corporation or of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, limited liability company, trust or other enterprise against any expense, liability or loss, whether or not the corporation would have the power to indemnify such person against such expense, liability or loss under the Tennessee Business Corporation Act.

Dated this 28th day of October, 2002.

BYLAWS OF
MARTIN HOSPITAL CORPORATION

ARTICLE I

OFFICES

Section 1.1 Registered Office. The registered office shall be in the City of Nashville, County of Davidson, State of Tennessee.

Section 1.2 Other Offices. The corporation may also have offices at such other places both within and without the State of Tennessee as the board of directors may from time to time determine or the business of the corporation may require.

ARTICLE II

MEETINGS OF SHAREHOLDERS

Section 2.1 Annual Meeting. An annual meeting of shareholders of the corporation shall be held on such date and at such time as shall be designated from time to time by the board of directors and stated in the notice of the meeting. At such meeting, the shareholders shall elect directors and transact such other business as may properly be brought before the meeting.

Section 2.2 Special Meetings. Special meetings of the shareholders for any purpose whatsoever may be called at any time by the president, the board of directors, or the holders of not less than ten percent of all shares entitled to vote at such meeting.

Section 2.3 Place of Meetings. All meetings of shareholders for any purpose or purposes may be held at such places, within or without the State of Tennessee, as may from time to time be fixed by the board of directors or as shall be stated in the notice of the meeting or in a duly executed waiver of notice thereof.

Section 2.4 Notice. Written notice stating the place, day and hour of the meeting and, in the case of a special meeting, the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is called, shall be given not less than ten nor more than sixty days before the date of the meeting, either personally or by mail.

Section 2.5 Quorum of Shareholders. The holders of a majority of the shares issued and outstanding and entitled to vote at such meeting, present in person or represented by proxy shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at all meetings of the shareholders.

Section 2.6 Voting of Shares. Except as otherwise provided by statute or the articles of incorporation, each holder of record of shares of stock of the Corporation having voting power shall be entitled at each meeting of the shareholders to one vote for every share of such stock standing in his or her name on the record books of shareholders of the corporation on the date on which such notice of the meeting is mailed, unless some other day is fixed by the board of directors for the determination of shareholders of record.

Section 2.7 Voting List. The officer who has charge of the stock transfer books for shares of the corporation shall prepare at least ten days before every meeting of shareholders, a complete list of the shareholders entitled to vote at such meeting, arranged in alphabetical order, including the address of each shareholder and the number of voting shares held by each shareholder. For a period of ten days prior to such meeting, such list shall be kept open to the examination of any shareholder, for any purpose germane to the meeting, during ordinary business hours, either at a place within the city where the meeting is to be held and which place shall be specified in the notice of the meeting, or, if not so specified, at the place where said meeting is to be held. Such list shall be produced at such meeting and at all times during such meeting shall be subject to inspection by any shareholder. The original stock transfer books shall be prima facie evidence as to who are the shareholders entitled to examine such list or stock transfer books.

Section 2.8 Treasury Stock. The corporation shall not vote, directly or indirectly, shares of its own stock owned by it and such shares shall not be counted for quorum purposes.

Section 2.9 Consent of Shareholders in Lieu of Meeting. Whenever the vote of shareholders at a meeting thereof is required or permitted to be taken for or in connection with any corporate action, the meeting, the notice thereof, and the vote of shareholders can be dispensed with, if a consent in writing, setting forth the action so taken, shall be signed by the holders of stock having not less than the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to authorize or take such action at a meeting at which all shares entitled to vote thereof were present and voted, provided that prompt notice must be given to all shareholders of the taking of corporate action without a meeting by less than unanimous written consent.

Section 2.10 Minutes of Meetings. The secretary of the corporation shall keep regular minutes of all meetings of shareholders and such minutes shall be placed in the minute book of the corporation.

ARTICLE III

DIRECTORS

Section 3.1 Powers of Directors. The business and affairs of the corporation shall be managed by its board of directors which shall have and may exercise all such powers of the corporation, subject to the restrictions imposed by law, the articles of incorporation, or these bylaws.

Section 3.2 Number and Qualification. The number of directors which shall constitute the entire board of directors shall be determined by resolution of the Board of Directors at any meeting thereof or by the Shareholders at any meeting thereof. Directors need not be residents of Tennessee or Shareholders of the corporation.

Section 3.3 Election and Term of Office. The directors shall be elected annually by the shareholders, except as provided in Section 3.4 of these bylaws. Each director shall hold office until the next succeeding annual meeting of shareholders and until his or her successor shall have been elected or until his or her earlier death, resignation, or removal. The board of directors may, by resolution, appoint one of its members as chairman to preside over meetings of the board of directors. The position of chairman of the board of directors shall not be an office of the corporation.

Section 3.4 Vacancies. Any vacancy occurring in the board of directors by reason of death, resignation, or removal may be filled by affirmative vote of a majority of the remaining directors, although less than a quorum of the board of directors. Such vacancy may also be filled by affirmative vote of the majority of the shareholders. A director elected to fill a vacancy shall be elected for the unexpired term of his or her predecessor in office or until his or her death, resignation, retirement, disqualification, or removal.

Section 3.5 Resignation of Directors. Any director may resign from office at any time by delivering a written resignation to the secretary of the corporation, and such resignation shall be effective upon delivery of such resignation to the secretary.

Section 3.6 Removal of Directors. Any director may be removed with or without cause at any time by the shareholders.

Section 3.7 Place of Meetings. Regular or special meetings of the board of directors may be held either within or without the State of Tennessee.

Section 3.8 Regular Meetings. Regular meetings of the board of directors may be held without notice at such times and places as may be designated from time to time as may be determined by the board of directors.

Section 3.9 Special Meetings. Special meetings of the board of directors may be called by the president or any director on twenty-four (24) hours notice to each director, either personally or by telephone, mail, telegram or other means of telecommunications. Neither the business to be transacted at, nor the purpose of, any special meeting of the board of directors need be specified in the notice or waiver of notice of any special meeting.

Section 3.10 Quorum of Directors. At all meetings of the board of directors, a majority of the directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business and the act or a majority of the directors present at any meeting at which there is a quorum shall be an act of the board of directors. If a quorum is not present at a meeting, a majority of the directors present may adjourn the meeting from time to time, without notice other than an announcement at the meeting, until a quorum is present.

Section 3.11 Committees. The board of directors may, by resolution passed by a majority of the entire board, designate one or more committees, including, if they shall so determine, an executive committee, each such committee to consist of one or more of the directors of the corporation. Any such designated committee shall have and may exercise such of the powers and authority of the board of directors in the management of the business and affairs of the corporation as may be provided in such resolution, except that no such committee shall have the power or authority of the board of directors in reference to amending the articles of incorporation, adopting an agreement of merger or consolidation, recommending to the shareholders the sale, lease or exchange of all or substantially all of the corporation's property and assets, recommending to the shareholders a dissolution of the corporation or a revocation of a dissolution of the corporation, or amending, altering or repealing the bylaws or adopting new bylaws for the corporation and, unless such resolution or the articles of incorporation expressly so provides, no such committee shall have the power or authority to authorize the issuance of stock. The board of directors shall have the power at any time to change the number and members of any such committee, to fill vacancies and to discharge any such committee.

Section 3.12 Compensation of Directors. Persons serving as directors shall not receive any compensation for their services as directors; however, a director shall be entitled to reimbursement for reasonable and customary expenses incurred by such director in carrying out his duties as approved by the president of the corporation.

Section 3.13 Action by Unanimous Written Consent. Any action required or permitted to be taken at a meeting of the board of directors or any committee may be taken without a meeting if a consent in writing, setting forth the actions so taken, is signed by all of the members of the board of directors or such committee, as the case may be.

Section 3.14 Minutes of Meetings. The board of directors shall keep regular minutes of its proceedings and such minutes shall be placed in the minute book of the corporation. Committees of the board of directors shall maintain a separate record of the minutes of their proceedings.

ARTICLE IV

NOTICES AND TELEPHONE MEETINGS

Section 4.1 Notice. Any notice to directors or shareholders shall be in writing and shall be delivered personally or by mail, telegram, telex, cable, telecopier or similar means to the directors or shareholders at their respective addresses appearing on the books of the corporation. Notice by mail shall be deemed to be given at the time when the same shall be deposited in the United States mail, postage prepaid. Any notice required or permitted to be given by telegram, telex, cable, telecopier, or similar means shall be deemed to be delivered and given at the time transmitted.

Section 4.2 Waiver of Notice. Whenever by law, the articles of incorporation, or these bylaws, notice is required to be given to any shareholder, director, or committee member of the corporation, a waiver thereof in writing signed by the person or persons entitled to such notice, whether before or after the time notice should have been given, shall be equivalent to the giving of such notice. Attendance of a director at a meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting, except where a director attends a meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business on the ground that the meeting is not lawfully called or convened.

Section 4.3 Telephone and Similar Meetings. Shareholders, directors, or committee members may participate in and hold a meeting by means of a conference telephone or similar communications equipment by means of which persons participating in the meeting can hear each other. Participation in such a meeting shall constitute presence in person at such meeting, except where a person participates in the meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business on the ground that the meeting is not lawfully called or convened.

ARTICLE V

OFFICERS

Section 5.1 Officers. The corporation shall have a president and a secretary and such other officers and assistant officers as the board may deem desirable to conduct the affairs of the corporation. The position of chairman of the board of directors shall not be an office of the corporation. Any two or more offices may be held by the same person. No officer need be a shareholder or a director.

Section 5.2 Powers and Duties of Officers. The officers of the corporation shall have the powers and duties generally ascribed to the respective offices, and such additional authority or duty as may from time to time be established by the board of directors.

Section 5.3 Removal and Resignation. Any officer appointed by the board of directors may be removed by the board of directors whenever, in the judgment of the board of directors, the best interests of the corporation will be served thereby. Any officer may resign at any time by giving written notice to the corporation. Any such resignation shall take effect at the date of receipt of such notice or at a later time specified therein, and unless otherwise specified therein, the acceptance of such resignation shall not be necessary to make it effective.

Section 5.4 Term and Vacancies. The officers of the corporation shall hold office until their successors are elected or appointed, or until their death, resignation, or removal from office. Any vacancy occurring in any office of the corporation by death, resignation, removal, or otherwise, may be filled by the board of directors.

Section 5.5 Compensation. The salaries of all officers of the corporation shall be fixed by the board of directors. The board of directors shall have the power to enter into contracts for the employment and compensation of officers on such terms as the board of directors deems advisable. No officer shall be disqualified from receiving a salary or other compensation by reason of the fact that he or she is also a director of the corporation.

ARTICLE VI

CERTIFICATES AND SHAREHOLDERS

Section 6.1 Certificates for Shares. The certificates for shares of stock of the Corporation shall be in such form as shall be approved by the board of directors in conformity with law and the articles of incorporation. Every certificate for shares issued by the corporation must be signed by the President or a Vice President and the Secretary or an Assistant Secretary under the seal of the corporation. Any or all of the signatures on the face of the certificate may be facsimile. Such certificates shall bear a legend or legends in the form and containing the restrictions to be stated thereon by the Tennessee Business Corporation Law of 1988, as amended, other provisions of law, the articles of incorporation or these bylaws. Certificates shall be consecutively numbered and shall be entered as they are issued. Each certificate shall state on the face thereof the holder's name, the number and class of shares, the par value of such shares, and such other matters as may be required by law, the articles of incorporation or these bylaws.

Section 6.2 Lost, Stolen, or Destroyed Certificates. The board of directors, the executive committee, or the president of the corporation may direct a new certificate or certificates representing shares to be issued in place of any certificate or certificates theretofore issued by the corporation alleged to have been lost, stolen, or destroyed, upon the making of an affidavit of the fact by the person claiming the certificate or certificates to be lost, stolen, or destroyed. When authorizing such issue of a new certificate the board of directors, the executive committee or the president may require the owner of such lost, stolen, or destroyed certificate, or his or her legal representative, to advertise the same in such manner as it or he or she shall require and/or give the corporation a bond in such sum as it may direct as indemnity against any claim that may be made against the corporation with respect to the certificate alleged to have been lost, stolen or destroyed.

Section 6.3 Transfer of Shares. Shares of stock of the corporation shall be transferable only on the books of the corporation by the holder thereof in person or by the holder's duly authorized attorneys or legal representatives. Upon surrender to the corporation or the transfer agent of the corporation of a certificate representing shares duly endorsed or accompanied by proper evidence of succession, assignment, or authority to transfer, the corporation or its transfer agent shall issue a new certificate to the person entitled thereto, cancel the old certificate, and record the transaction upon its books.

Section 6.4 Registered Shareholders. The corporation shall be entitled to recognize the exclusive right of a person registered on its books as the owner of shares to receive dividends, and to vote as such owner, and to hold liable for calls and assessments, a person registered on its books as the owner of shares, and shall not be bound to recognize any equitable or other claim to or interest in such shares on the part of any person, whether or not it shall have actual or other notice thereof, except as otherwise provided by law.

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

Section 7.1 Dividends. Dividends upon the outstanding shares of the corporation, subject to the provisions of the applicable statutes and of the articles of incorporation, may be declared by the board of directors at any annual, regular or special meeting. Dividends may be declared and paid in cash, in property, or in shares of the corporation, or in any combination thereof.

Section 7.2 Reserves. There may be set aside out of any funds of the corporation available for dividends such sum or sums as the board of directors from time to time in their sole and absolute discretion think proper as a reserve to meet contingencies, or to equalize dividends, or to repair or maintain any property of the corporation, or for such other purpose as the board of directors shall think conducive to the interest of the corporation, and the board of directors may modify or abolish any such reserve in the manner in which it was created.

Section 7.3 Signature of Negotiable Instruments. All checks or demands for money and notes of the corporation shall be signed by such officer or officers or such other person or persons as the board of directors may from time to time designate.

Section 7.4 Fiscal Year. The fiscal year of the corporation shall be fixed by the board of directors; provided, that if such fiscal year is not fixed by the board of directors it shall be the calendar year.

Section 7.5 Books of the Corporation. The books of the corporation may be kept, subject to the provisions of the applicable statutes, within or outside of the State of Tennessee, at such place or places as may from time to time be designated by the board of directors or as the business of the corporation may require.

Section 7.6 Seal. The seal, if any, of the corporation shall be in such form as may be approved from time to time by the board of directors. If the board of directors approves a seal, the affixation of such seal shall not be required to create a valid and binding obligation against the corporation.

Section 7.7 Securities of Other Corporations. Unless otherwise ordered by the board of directors, the president or the secretary of the corporation shall have full power and authority on behalf of the corporation to attend, to vote and to grant proxies to be used at any meeting of shareholders of such other corporation in which the corporation may hold stock. The board of directors may confer like powers upon any other person or persons.

Section 7.8 Fixed Record Date. In order that the corporation may determine the shareholders entitled to notice of or to vote at any meeting of shareholders or any adjournment thereof, or to express consent to corporate action in writing without a meeting, or entitled to receive payment of any dividend or other distribution or allotment of any rights, or entitled to exercise any rights in respect of any change, conversion or exchange of stock for the purpose of any other lawful action, the board of directors may fix, in advance, a record date which shall be not more than sixty 60 days before the date of such meeting, nor more than 60 days prior to any other action.

Section 7.9 Amendment. The power to alter, amend, or repeal these bylaws or to adopt new bylaws is vested in the board of directors.

Section 7.10 Right to Indemnification.

(A) Each person (hereinafter an "indemnitee") who was or is made a party to or is threatened to be made a party to or is otherwise involved in any action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (hereinafter a "proceeding"), by reason of the fact that he or she was a director, officer or agent of the corporation or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation or of a partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, including service with respect to an employee benefit plan, whether the basis of such proceeding is alleged action in an official capacity as a director, officer, employee or agent, shall be indemnified and held harmless by the corporation to the fullest extent authorized by the Tennessee Business Corporation Law of 1988, as amended, as the same exists or may hereafter be amended (but, in the case of any such amendment, only to the extent that such amendment permits the corporation to provide broader indemnification rights than permitted prior thereto), against all expense, liability and loss (including attorney's fees, judgments, fines, ERISA excise taxes or penalties and amounts paid in settlement) reasonably incurred or suffered by such indemnitee in connection therewith, and such indemnification shall continue with respect to an indemnitee who has ceased to be a director, officer, employee or agent and shall inure to the benefit of the indemnitee's heirs, executors and administrators; provided, however, that, except as provided in paragraph (B) hereof with respect to proceedings to enforce rights to indemnification, the corporation shall indemnify any such indemnitee only if such proceeding (or part thereof) was authorized by the board of directors of the corporation. The right to indemnification conferred in this section shall be a contract right and shall include the right to be paid by the corporation the expenses incurred in defending any such proceeding in advance of its final disposition (hereinafter an “advancement of expenses”); provided, however, that, if the Tennessee Business Corporation Law of 1988, as amended, requires, an advancement of expenses incurred by an indemnitee shall be made only upon delivery to the corporation of an undertaking (hereinafter an “undertaking”), by or on behalf of such indemnitee, to repay all amounts so advanced if it shall ultimately be determined by final judicial decision from which there is no further right to appeal (hereinafter a “final adjudication”) that such indemnitee is not entitled to be indemnified for such expenses under this section or otherwise.

(B) If a claim under paragraph (A) of this section is not paid in full by the corporation within 60 days after a written claim has been received by the corporation, except in the case of a claim for an advancement of expenses, in which case the applicable period shall be 20 days, the indemnitee may at any time thereafter bring suit against the corporation to recover the unpaid amount of such suit, or in a suit brought by the corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking, the indemnitee shall be entitled to be paid also the expense of prosecuting or defending such suit. In (i) any suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right to indemnification hereunder (but not in a suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right to an advancement of expenses) it shall be a defense that, and (ii) any suit by the corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking the corporation shall be entitled to recover such expenses upon a final adjudication that, the indemnitee has not met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in the Tennessee Business Corporation Law of 1988, as amended. Neither the failure of the corporation (including its board of directors, independent legal counsel, or its shareholders) to have made a determination prior to the commencement of such suit that indemnification of the indemnitee is proper in the circumstances because the indemnitee has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in the Tennessee Business Corporation Law of 1988, as amended, nor an actual determination by the corporation (including its board of directors, independent legal counsel, or its shareholders) that the indemnitee has not met such applicable standard of conduct shall create a presumption that the indemnitee has not met the applicable standard of conduct or, in the case of such a suit brought by the indemnitee, be a defense of such suit. In any suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right of indemnification or to an advancement of expenses hereunder, or by the corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking, the burden of proving that the indemnitee is not entitled to be indemnified, or to such advancement of expenses, under this section or otherwise shall be on the corporation.

(C) The rights to indemnification and to the advancement of expenses conferred in this section shall not be exclusive of any other right which any person may have or hereafter acquire under any statute, the corporation’s certificate of incorporation, by agreement, by vote of shareholders or by disinterested directors or otherwise.

(D) The corporation may maintain insurance, at its expense, to protect itself and any director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation or another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise against any expense, liability or loss, whether or not the corporation would have the power to indemnify such person against such expense, liability or loss under the Tennessee Business Corporation Law of 1988, as amended.

Section 7.11 Invalid Provisions. If any provision of these bylaws is held to be illegal, invalid, or unenforceable under present or future laws, such provision shall be fully severable; these bylaws shall be construed and enforced as if such illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision had never comprised a part hereof; and the remaining provisions hereof shall remain in full force and effect and shall not be affected by the illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision or by its severance herefrom. Furthermore, in lieu of such illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision there shall be added automatically as a part of these bylaws a provision as similar in terms to such illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision as may be possible and be legal, valid, and enforceable.

Section 7.12 Headings. The headings used in these bylaws are for reference purposes only and do not affect in any way the meaning or interpretation of these bylaws.

The above bylaws were duly adopted as the bylaws of the corporation effective as of the 29th day of October, 2002.

MCKENZIE HOSPITAL CORPORATION

The undersigned person, having capacity to contract and acting as the incorporator of a corporation for profit under the Tennessee Business Corporation Act, hereby adopts the following Charter for such corporation:

1. The name of the corporation is: McKenzie Hospital Corporation.
2. The corporation's initial registered office is located at 2908 Poston Avenue, Nashville, Tennessee 37203, County of Davidson. The initial registered agent at that office is Corporation Service Company.
3. The name and address of the incorporator is Kimberly A. Wright, Suite 400, 155 Franklin Road, Brentwood, Tennessee 37027.
4. The address of the principal office of the corporation shall be Suite 400, 155 Franklin Road, Brentwood, Tennessee 37027.
5. The corporation is for profit.
6. The corporation is authorized to issue one thousand (1,000) shares of common stock, no par value.
7. The business and affairs of the corporation shall be managed by a Board of Directors:
 - a. The number of directors and their term shall be specified in the Bylaws of the corporation;
 - b. Whenever the Board of Directors is required or permitted to take any action by vote, such action may be taken without a meeting on written consent setting forth the action so taken, signed by all of the directors, indicating each signing director's vote or abstention. The affirmative vote of the number of directors that would be necessary to authorize or to take such action at a meeting is an act of the Board of Directors;
 - c. Any or all of the directors may be removed with cause by a majority vote of the entire Board of Directors.
8. To the fullest extent permitted by the Tennessee Business Corporation Act as the same may be amended from time to time, a director, officer or incorporator of the corporation shall not be liable to the corporation or its shareholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty in such capacity. If the Tennessee Business Corporation Act is amended, after approval by the shareholders of this provision, to authorize corporate action further eliminating or limiting the personal liability of a director, officer or incorporator then the liability of a director, officer or incorporator of the corporation shall be eliminated or limited to the fullest extent permitted by the Tennessee Business Corporation Act, as so amended from time to time. Any repeal or modification of this Section 8 by the shareholders of the corporation shall not adversely affect any right or protection of a director, officer or incorporator of the corporation existing at the time of such repeal or modification or with respect to events occurring prior to such time.

9. Each person who was or is made a party or is threatened to be made a party to or is otherwise involved in any action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative and whether formal or informal (hereafter a "proceeding"), by reason of the fact that he or she is or was a director, officer or incorporator of the corporation or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, manager or incorporator of another corporation or as a partner or trustee of a partnership, joint venture, limited liability company, trust or other enterprise, including service with respect to employee benefit plans (hereinafter an "Indemnitee"), whether the basis of such proceeding is alleged action in an official capacity as a director, officer, manager or incorporator or in any other capacity while serving as a director, officer, manager or incorporator, shall be indemnified and held harmless by the corporation to the fullest extent authorized by the Tennessee Business Corporation Act, as the same may be amended (but, in the case of any such amendment, only to the extent that such amendment permits the corporation to provide broader indemnification rights than such law permitted the corporation to provide prior to such amendment), against all expense, liability and loss (including but not limited to counsel fees, judgments, fines, ERISA, excise taxes or penalties and amounts paid in settlement) reasonably incurred or suffered by such Indemnitee in connection therewith and such indemnification shall continue as to an Indemnitee who has ceased to be a director, officer, manager or incorporator and shall inure to the benefit of the Indemnitee's heirs, executors and administrators. The right to indemnification conferred in this Section 9 shall be a contract right and shall include the right to be paid by the corporation the expenses incurred in any such proceeding in advance of its final disposition (hereinafter an "advancement of expenses"); provided, however, that an advancement of expenses incurred by an Indemnitee shall be made only upon delivery to the corporation of an undertaking, by or on behalf of such Indemnitee, to repay all amounts so advanced if it shall ultimately be determined by final judicial decision from which there is no further right to appeal that such Indemnitee is not entitled to be indemnified for such expenses under this Section 9 or otherwise the Indemnitee furnishes the corporation with a written affirmation of his or her good faith belief that he or she has met the standards for indemnification under the Tennessee Business Corporation Act, and a determination is made that the facts then known to those making the determination would not preclude indemnification.

The corporation may indemnify and advance expenses to an officer, employee or agent who is not a director to the same extent as to a director by specific action of the corporation's Board of Directors or by contract.

The rights to indemnification and to the advancement of expenses conferred in this Section 9 shall not be exclusive of any other right that any person may have or hereafter acquire under any statute, this Charter, Bylaw, agreement, vote of stockholders or disinterested directors or otherwise, and the corporation is hereby permitted to grant additional rights to indemnification and advancement of expenses, to the fullest extent permitted by law, by resolution of directors, or an agreement providing for such rights.

The corporation may maintain insurance, at its expense, to protect itself and any director, officer, manager, employee or agent of the corporation or of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, limited liability company, trust or other enterprise against any expense, liability or loss, whether or not the corporation would have the power to indemnify such person against such expense, liability or loss under the Tennessee Business Corporation Act.

Dated this 28th day of October, 2002.

BYLAWS OF
MCKENZIE HOSPITAL CORPORATION

ARTICLE I
OFFICES

Section 1.1 Registered Office. The registered office shall be in the City of Nashville, County of Davidson, State of Tennessee.

Section 1.2 Other Offices. The corporation may also have offices at such other places both within and without the State of Tennessee as the board of directors may from time to time determine or the business of the corporation may require.

ARTICLE II
MEETINGS OF SHAREHOLDERS

Section 2.1 Annual Meeting. An annual meeting of shareholders of the corporation shall be held on such date and at such time as shall be designated from time to time by the board of directors and stated in the notice of the meeting. At such meeting, the shareholders shall elect directors and transact such other business as may properly be brought before the meeting.

Section 2.2 Special Meetings. Special meetings of the shareholders for any purpose whatsoever may be called at any time by the president, the board of directors, or the holders of not less than ten percent of all shares entitled to vote at such meeting.

Section 2.3 Place of Meetings. All meetings of shareholders for any purpose or purposes may be held at such places, within or without the State of Tennessee, as may from time to time be fixed by the board of directors or as shall be stated in the notice of the meeting or in a duly executed waiver of notice thereof.

Section 2.4 Notice. Written notice stating the place, day and hour of the meeting and, in the case of a special meeting, the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is called, shall be given not less than ten nor more than sixty days before the date of the meeting, either personally or by mail.

Section 2.5 Quorum of Shareholders. The holders of a majority of the shares issued and outstanding and entitled to vote at such meeting, present in person or represented by proxy shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at all meetings of the shareholders.

Section 2.6 Voting of Shares. Except as otherwise provided by statute or the articles of incorporation, each holder of record of shares of stock of the Corporation having voting power shall be entitled at each meeting of the shareholders to one vote for every share of such stock standing in his or her name on the record books of shareholders of the corporation on the date on which such notice of the meeting is mailed, unless some other day is fixed by the board of directors for the determination of shareholders of record.

Section 2.7 Voting List. The officer who has charge of the stock transfer books for shares of the corporation shall prepare at least ten days before every meeting of shareholders, a complete list of the shareholders entitled to vote at such meeting, arranged in alphabetical order, including the address of each shareholder and the number of voting shares held by each shareholder. For a period of ten days prior to such meeting, such list shall be kept open to the examination of any shareholder, for any purpose germane to the meeting, during ordinary business hours, either at a place within the city where the meeting is to be held and which place shall be specified in the notice of the meeting, or, if not so specified, at the place where said meeting is to be held. Such list shall be produced at such meeting and at all times during such meeting shall be subject to inspection by any shareholder. The original stock transfer books shall be prima facie evidence as to who are the shareholders entitled to examine such list or stock transfer books.

Section 2.8 Treasury Stock. The corporation shall not vote, directly or indirectly, shares of its own stock owned by it and such shares shall not be counted for quorum purposes.

Section 2.9 Consent of Shareholders in Lieu of Meeting. Whenever the vote of shareholders at a meeting thereof is required or permitted to be taken for or in connection with any corporate action, the meeting, the notice thereof, and the vote of shareholders can be dispensed with, if a consent in writing, setting forth the action so taken, shall be signed by the holders of stock having not less than the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to authorize or take such action at a meeting at which all shares entitled to vote thereof were present and voted, provided that prompt notice must be given to all shareholders of the taking of corporate action without a meeting by less than unanimous written consent.

Section 2.10 Minutes of Meetings. The secretary of the corporation shall keep regular minutes of all meetings of shareholders and such minutes shall be placed in the minute book of the corporation.

ARTICLE III DIRECTORS

Section 3.1 Powers of Directors. The business and affairs of the corporation shall be managed by its board of directors which shall have and may exercise all such powers of the corporation, subject to the restrictions imposed by law, the articles of incorporation, or these bylaws.

Section 3.2 Number and Qualification. The number of directors which shall constitute the entire board of directors shall be determined by resolution of the Board of Directors at any meeting thereof or by the Shareholders at any meeting thereof. Directors need not be residents of Tennessee or Shareholders of the corporation.

Section 3.3 Election and Term of Office. The directors shall be elected annually by the shareholders, except as provided in Section 3.4 of these bylaws. Each director shall hold office until the next succeeding annual meeting of shareholders and until his or her successor shall have been elected or until his or her earlier death, resignation, or removal. The board of directors may, by resolution, appoint one of its members as chairman to preside over meetings of the board of directors. The position of chairman of the board of directors shall not be an office of the corporation.

Section 3.4 Vacancies. Any vacancy occurring in the board of directors by reason of death, resignation, or removal may be filled by affirmative vote of a majority of the remaining directors, although less than a quorum of the board of directors. Such vacancy may also be filled by affirmative vote of the majority of the shareholders. A director elected to fill a vacancy shall be elected for the unexpired term of his or her predecessor in office or until his or her death, resignation, retirement, disqualification, or removal.

Section 3.5 Resignation of Directors. Any director may resign from office at any time by delivering a written resignation to the secretary of the corporation, and such resignation shall be effective upon delivery of such resignation to the secretary.

Section 3.6 Removal of Directors. Any director may be removed with or without cause at any time by the shareholders.

Section 3.7 Place of Meetings. Regular or special meetings of the board of directors may be held either within or without the State of Tennessee.

Section 3.8 Regular Meetings. Regular meetings of the board of directors may be held without notice at such times and places as may be designated from time to time as may be determined by the board of directors.

Section 3.9 Special Meetings. Special meetings of the board of directors may be called by the president or any director on twenty-four (24) hours notice to each director, either personally or by telephone, mail, telegram or other means of telecommunications. Neither the business to be transacted at, nor the purpose of, any special meeting of the board of directors need be specified in the notice or waiver of notice of any special meeting.

Section 3.10 Quorum of Directors. At all meetings of the board of directors, a majority of the directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business and the act or a majority of the directors present at any meeting at which there is a quorum shall be an act of the board of directors. If a quorum is not present at a meeting, a majority of the directors present may adjourn the meeting from time to time, without notice other than an announcement at the meeting, until a quorum is present.

Section 3.11 Committees. The board of directors may, by resolution passed by a majority of the entire board, designate one or more committees, including, if they shall so determine, an executive committee, each such committee to consist of one or more of the directors of the corporation. Any such designated committee shall have and may exercise such of the powers and authority of the board of directors in the management of the business and affairs of the corporation as may be provided in such resolution, except that no such committee shall have the power or authority of the board of directors in reference to amending the articles of incorporation, adopting an agreement of merger or consolidation, recommending to the shareholders the sale, lease or exchange of all or substantially all of the corporation's property and assets, recommending to the shareholders a dissolution of the corporation or a revocation of a dissolution of the corporation, or amending, altering or repealing the bylaws or adopting new bylaws for the corporation and, unless such resolution or the articles of incorporation expressly so provides, no such committee shall have the power or authority to authorize the issuance of stock. The board of directors shall have the power at any time to change the number and members of any such committee, to fill vacancies and to discharge any such committee.

Section 3.12 Compensation of Directors. Persons serving as directors shall not receive any compensation for their services as directors; however, a director shall be entitled to reimbursement for reasonable and customary expenses incurred by such director in carrying out his duties as approved by the president of the corporation.

Section 3.13 Action by Unanimous Written Consent. Any action required or permitted to be taken at a meeting of the board of directors or any committee may be taken without a meeting if a consent in writing, setting forth the actions so taken, is signed by all of the members of the board of directors or such committee, as the case may be.

Section 3.14 Minutes of Meetings. The board of directors shall keep regular minutes of its proceedings and such minutes shall be placed in the minute book of the corporation. Committees of the board of directors shall maintain a separate record of the minutes of their proceedings.

ARTICLE IV NOTICES AND TELEPHONE MEETINGS

Section 4.1 Notice. Any notice to directors or shareholders shall be in writing and shall be delivered personally or by mail, telegram, telex, cable, telecopier or similar means to the directors or shareholders at their respective addresses appearing on the books of the corporation. Notice by mail shall be deemed to be given at the time when the same shall be deposited in the United States mail, postage prepaid. Any notice required or permitted to be given by telegram, telex, cable, telecopier, or similar means shall be deemed to be delivered and given at the time transmitted.

Section 4.2 Waiver of Notice. Whenever by law, the articles of incorporation, or these bylaws, notice is required to be given to any shareholder, director, or committee member of the corporation, a waiver thereof in writing signed by the person or persons entitled to such notice, whether before or after the time notice should have been given, shall be equivalent to the giving of such notice. Attendance of a director at a meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting, except where a director attends a meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business on the ground that the meeting is not lawfully called or convened.

Section 4.3 Telephone and Similar Meetings. Shareholders, directors, or committee members may participate in and hold a meeting by means of a conference telephone or similar communications equipment by means of which persons participating in the meeting can hear each other. Participation in such a meeting shall constitute presence in person at such meeting, except where a person participates in the meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business on the ground that the meeting is not lawfully called or convened.

ARTICLE V
OFFICERS

Section 5.1 Officers. The corporation shall have a president and a secretary and such other officers and assistant officers as the board may deem desirable to conduct the affairs of the corporation. The position of chairman of the board of directors shall not be an office of the corporation. Any two or more offices may be held by the same person. No officer need be a shareholder or a director.

Section 5.2 Powers and Duties of Officers. The officers of the corporation shall have the powers and duties generally ascribed to the respective offices, and such additional authority or duty as may from time to time be established by the board of directors.

Section 5.3 Removal and Resignation. Any officer appointed by the board of directors may be removed by the board of directors whenever, in the judgment of the board of directors, the best interests of the corporation will be served thereby. Any officer may resign at any time by giving written notice to the corporation. Any such resignation shall take effect at the date of receipt of such notice or at a later time specified therein, and unless otherwise specified therein, the acceptance of such resignation shall not be necessary to make it effective.

Section 5.4 Term and Vacancies. The officers of the corporation shall hold office until their successors are elected or appointed, or until their death, resignation, or removal from office. Any vacancy occurring in any office of the corporation by death, resignation, removal, or otherwise, may be filled by the board of directors.

Section 5.5 Compensation. The salaries of all officers of the corporation shall be fixed by the board of directors. The board of directors shall have the power to enter into contracts for the employment and compensation of officers on such terms as the board of directors deems advisable. No officer shall be disqualified from receiving a salary or other compensation by reason of the fact that he or she is also a director of the corporation.

ARTICLE VI
CERTIFICATES AND SHAREHOLDERS

Section 6.1 Certificates for Shares. The certificates for shares of stock of the Corporation shall be in such form as shall be approved by the board of directors in conformity with law and the articles of incorporation. Every certificate for shares issued by the corporation must be signed by the President or a Vice President and the Secretary or an Assistant Secretary under the seal of the corporation. Any or all of the signatures on the face of the certificate may be facsimile. Such certificates shall bear a legend or legends in the form and containing the restrictions to be stated thereon by the Tennessee Business Corporation Law of 1988, as amended, other provisions of law, the articles of incorporation or these bylaws. Certificates shall be consecutively numbered and shall be entered as they are issued. Each certificate shall state on the face thereof the holder's name, the number and class of shares, the par value of such shares, and such other matters as may be required by law, the articles of incorporation or these bylaws.

Section 6.2 Lost, Stolen, or Destroyed Certificates. The board of directors, the executive committee, or the president of the corporation may direct a new certificate or certificates representing shares to be issued in place of any certificate or certificates theretofore issued by the corporation alleged to have been lost, stolen, or destroyed, upon the making of an affidavit of the fact by the person claiming the certificate or certificates to be lost, stolen, or destroyed. When authorizing such issue of a new certificate the board of directors, the executive committee or the president may require the owner of such lost, stolen, or destroyed certificate, or his or her legal representative, to advertise the same in such manner as it or he or she shall require and/or give the corporation a bond in such sum as it may direct as indemnity against any claim that may be made against the corporation with respect to the certificate alleged to have been lost, stolen or destroyed.

Section 6.3 Transfer of Shares. Shares of stock of the corporation shall be transferable only on the books of the corporation by the holder thereof in person or by the holder's duly authorized attorneys or legal representatives. Upon surrender to the corporation or the transfer agent of the corporation of a certificate representing shares duly endorsed or accompanied by proper evidence of succession, assignment, or authority to transfer, the corporation or its transfer agent shall issue a new certificate to the person entitled thereto, cancel the old certificate, and record the transaction upon its books.

Section 6.4 Registered Shareholders. The corporation shall be entitled to recognize the exclusive right of a person registered on its books as the owner of shares to receive dividends, and to vote as such owner, and to hold liable for calls and assessments, a person registered on its books as the owner of shares, and shall not be bound to recognize any equitable or other claim to or interest in such shares on the part of any person, whether or not it shall have actual or other notice thereof, except as otherwise provided by law.

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

Section 7.1 Dividends. Dividends upon the outstanding shares of the corporation, subject to the provisions of the applicable statutes and of the articles of incorporation, may be declared by the board of directors at any annual, regular or special meeting. Dividends may be declared and paid in cash, in property, or in shares of the corporation, or in any combination thereof.

Section 7.2 Reserves. There may be set aside out of any funds of the corporation available for dividends such sum or sums as the board of directors from time to time in their sole and absolute discretion think proper as a reserve to meet contingencies, or to equalize dividends, or to repair or maintain any property of the corporation, or for such other purpose as the board of directors shall think conducive to the interest of the corporation, and the board of directors may modify or abolish any such reserve in the manner in which it was created.

Section 7.3 Signature of Negotiable Instruments. All checks or demands for money and notes of the corporation shall be signed by such officer or officers or such other person or persons as the board of directors may from time to time designate.

Section 7.4 Fiscal Year. The fiscal year of the corporation shall be fixed by the board of directors; provided, that if such fiscal year is not fixed by the board of directors it shall be the calendar year.

Section 7.5 Books of the Corporation. The books of the corporation may be kept, subject to the provisions of the applicable statutes, within or outside of the State of Tennessee, at such place or places as may from time to time be designated by the board of directors or as the business of the corporation may require.

Section 7.6 Seal. The seal, if any, of the corporation shall be in such form as may be approved from time to time by the board of directors. If the board of directors approves a seal, the affixation of such seal shall not be required to create a valid and binding obligation against the corporation.

Section 7.7 Securities of Other Corporations. Unless otherwise ordered by the board of directors, the president or the secretary of the corporation shall have full power and authority on behalf of the corporation to attend, to vote and to grant proxies to be used at any meeting of shareholders of such other corporation in which the corporation may hold stock. The board of directors may confer like powers upon any other person or persons.

Section 7.8 Fixed Record Date. In order that the corporation may determine the shareholders entitled to notice of or to vote at any meeting of shareholders or any adjournment thereof, or to express consent to corporate action in writing without a meeting, or entitled to receive payment of any dividend or other distribution or allotment of any rights, or entitled to exercise any rights in respect of any change, conversion or exchange of stock for the purpose of any other lawful action, the board of directors may fix, in advance, a record date which shall be not more than sixty 60 days before the date of such meeting, nor more than 60 days prior to any other action.

Section 7.9 Amendment. The power to alter, amend, or repeal these bylaws or to adopt new bylaws is vested in the board of directors.

Section 7.10 Right to Indemnification.

indemnification shall continue with respect to an indemnitee who has ceased to be a director, officer, employee or agent and shall inure to the benefit of the indemnitee's heirs, executors and administrators; provided, however, that, except as provided in paragraph (B) hereof with respect to proceedings to enforce rights to indemnification, the corporation shall indemnify any such indemnitee only if such proceeding (or part thereof) was authorized by the board of directors of the corporation. The right to indemnification conferred in this section shall be a contract right and shall include the right to be paid by the corporation the expenses incurred in defending any such proceeding in advance of its final disposition (hereinafter an "advancement of expenses"); provided, however, that, if the Tennessee Business Corporation Law of 1988, as amended, requires, an advancement of expenses incurred by an indemnitee shall be made only upon delivery to the corporation of an undertaking (hereinafter an "undertaking"), by or on behalf of such indemnitee, to repay all amounts so advanced if it shall ultimately be determined by final judicial decision from which there is no further right to appeal (hereinafter a "final adjudication") that such indemnitee is not entitled to be indemnified for such expenses under this section or otherwise.

(B) If a claim under paragraph (A) of this section is not paid in full by the corporation within 60 days after a written claim has been received by the corporation, except in the case of a claim for an advancement of expenses, in which case the applicable period shall be 20 days, the indemnitee may at any time thereafter bring suit against the corporation to recover the unpaid amount of such suit, or in a suit brought by the corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking, the indemnitee shall be entitled to be paid also the expense of prosecuting or defending such suit. In (i) any suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right to indemnification hereunder (but not in a suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right to an advancement of expenses) it shall be a defense that, and (ii) any suit by the corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking the corporation shall be entitled to recover such expenses upon a final adjudication that, the indemnitee has not met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in the Tennessee Business Corporation Law of 1988, as amended. Neither the failure of the corporation (including its board of directors, independent legal counsel, or its shareholders) to have made a determination prior to the commencement of such suit that indemnification of the indemnitee is proper in the circumstances because the indemnitee has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in the Tennessee Business Corporation Law of 1988, as amended, nor an actual determination by the corporation (including its board of directors, independent legal counsel, or its shareholders) that the indemnitee has not met such applicable standard of conduct shall create a presumption that the indemnitee has not met the applicable standard of conduct or, in the case of such a suit brought by the indemnitee, be a defense of such suit. In any suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right of indemnification or to an advancement of expenses hereunder, or by the corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking, the burden of proving that the indemnitee is not entitled to be indemnified, or to such advancement of expenses, under this section or otherwise shall be on the corporation.

(C) The rights to indemnification and to the advancement of expenses conferred in this section shall not be exclusive of any other right which any person may have or hereafter acquire under any statute, the corporation's certificate of incorporation, by agreement, by vote of shareholders or by disinterested directors or otherwise.

(D) The corporation may maintain insurance, at its expense, to protect itself and any director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation or another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise against any expense, liability or loss, whether or not the corporation would have the power to indemnify such person against such expense, liability or loss under the Tennessee Business Corporation Law of 1988, as amended.

Section 7.11 Invalid Provisions. If any provision of these bylaws is held to be illegal, invalid, or unenforceable under present or future laws, such provision shall be fully severable; these bylaws shall be construed and enforced as if such illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision had never comprised a part hereof; and the remaining provisions hereof shall remain in full force and effect and shall not be affected by the illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision or by its severance herefrom. Furthermore, in lieu of such illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision there shall be added automatically as a part of these bylaws a provision as similar in terms to such illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision as may be possible and be legal, valid, and enforceable.

Section 7.12 Headings. The headings used in these bylaws are for reference purposes only and do not affect in any way the meaning or interpretation of these bylaws.

The above bylaws were duly adopted as the bylaws of the corporation effective as of the 29th day of October, 2002.

MCNAIRY HOSPITAL CORPORATION

The undersigned person, having capacity to contract and acting as the incorporator of a corporation for profit under the Tennessee Business Corporation Act, hereby adopts the following Charter for such corporation:

1. The name of the corporation is: McNairy Hospital Corporation.
2. The corporation's initial registered office is located at 2908 Poston Avenue, Nashville, Tennessee 37203, County of Davidson. The initial registered agent at that office is Corporation Service Company.
3. The name and address of the incorporator is Kimberly A. Wright, Suite 400, 155 Franklin Road, Brentwood, Tennessee 37027.
4. The address of the principal office of the corporation shall be Suite 400, 155 Franklin Road, Brentwood, Tennessee 37027.
5. The corporation is for profit.
6. The corporation is authorized to issue one thousand (1,000) shares of common stock, no par value.
7. The business and affairs of the corporation shall be managed by a Board of Directors:
 - a. The number of directors and their term shall be specified in the Bylaws of the corporation;
 - b. Whenever the Board of Directors is required or permitted to take any action by vote, such action may be taken without a meeting on written consent setting forth the action so taken, signed by all of the directors, indicating each signing director's vote or abstention. The affirmative vote of the number of directors that would be necessary to authorize or to take such action at a meeting is an act of the Board of Directors;
 - c. Any or all of the directors may be removed with cause by a majority vote of the entire Board of Directors.
8. To the fullest extent permitted by the Tennessee Business Corporation Act as the same may be amended from time to time, a director, officer or incorporator of the corporation shall not be liable to the corporation or its shareholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty in such capacity. If the Tennessee Business Corporation Act is amended, after approval by the shareholders of this provision, to authorize corporate action further eliminating or limiting the personal liability of a director, officer or incorporator then the liability of a director, officer or incorporator of the corporation shall be eliminated or limited to the fullest extent permitted by the Tennessee Business Corporation Act, as so amended from time to time. Any repeal or modification of this Section 8 by the shareholders of the corporation shall not adversely affect any right or protection of a director, officer or incorporator of the corporation existing at the time of such repeal or modification or with respect to events occurring prior to such time.

9. Each person who was or is made a party or is threatened to be made a party to or is otherwise involved in any action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative and whether formal or informal (hereafter a "proceeding"), by reason of the fact that he or she is or was a director, officer or incorporator of the corporation or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, manager or incorporator of another corporation or as a partner or trustee of a partnership, joint venture, limited liability company, trust or other enterprise, including service with respect to employee benefit plans (hereinafter an "Indemnitee"), whether the basis of such proceeding is alleged action in an official capacity as a director, officer, manager or incorporator or in any other capacity while serving as a director, officer, manager or incorporator, shall be indemnified and held harmless by the corporation to the fullest extent authorized by the Tennessee Business Corporation Act, as the same may be amended (but, in the case of any such amendment, only to the extent that such amendment permits the corporation to provide broader indemnification rights than such law permitted the corporation to provide prior to such amendment), against all expense, liability and loss (including but not limited to counsel fees, judgments, fines, ERISA, excise taxes or penalties and amounts paid in settlement) reasonably incurred or suffered by such Indemnitee in connection therewith and such indemnification shall continue as to an Indemnitee who has ceased to be a director, officer, manager or incorporator and shall inure to the benefit of the Indemnitee's heirs, executors and administrators. The right to indemnification conferred in this Section 9 shall be a contract right and shall include the right to be paid by the corporation the expenses incurred in any such proceeding in advance of its final disposition (hereinafter an "advancement of expenses"): provided, however, that an advancement of expenses incurred by an Indemnitee shall be made only upon delivery to the corporation of an undertaking, by or on behalf of such Indemnitee, to repay all amounts so advanced if it shall ultimately be determined by final judicial decision from which there is no further right to appeal that such Indemnitee is not entitled to be indemnified for such expenses under this Section 9 or otherwise, the Indemnitee furnishes the corporation with a written affirmation of his or her good faith belief that he or she has met the standards for indemnification under the Tennessee Business Corporation Act, and a determination is made that the facts then known to those making the determination would not preclude indemnification.

The corporation may indemnify and advance expenses to an officer, employee or agent who is not a director to the same extent as to a director by specific action of the corporation's Board of Directors or by contract.

The rights to indemnification and to the advancement of expenses conferred in this Section 9 shall not be exclusive of any other right that any person may have or hereafter acquire under any statute, this Charter, Bylaw, agreement, vote of stockholders or disinterested directors or otherwise, and the corporation is hereby permitted to grant additional rights to indemnification and advancement of expenses, to the fullest extent permitted by law, by resolution of directors, or an agreement providing for such rights.

The corporation may maintain insurance, at its expense, to protect itself and any director, officer, manager, employee or agent of the corporation or of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, limited liability company, trust or other enterprise against any expense, liability or loss, whether or not the corporation would have the power to indemnify such person against such expense, liability or loss under the Tennessee Business Corporation Act.

Dated this 28th day of October, 2002.

BYLAWS OF
MCNAIRY HOSPITAL CORPORATION

ARTICLE I
OFFICES

Section 1.1 Registered Office. The registered office shall be in the City of Nashville, County of Davidson, State of Tennessee.

Section 1.2 Other Offices. The corporation may also have offices at such other places both within and without the State of Tennessee as the board of directors may from time to time determine or the business of the corporation may require.

ARTICLE II
MEETINGS OF SHAREHOLDERS

Section 2.1 Annual Meeting. An annual meeting of shareholders of the corporation shall be held on such date and at such time as shall be designated from time to time by the board of directors and stated in the notice of the meeting. At such meeting, the shareholders shall elect directors and transact such other business as may properly be brought before the meeting.

Section 2.2 Special Meetings. Special meetings of the shareholders for any purpose whatsoever may be called at any time by the president, the board of directors, or the holders of not less than ten percent of all shares entitled to vote at such meeting.

Section 2.3 Place of Meetings. All meetings of shareholders for any purpose or purposes may be held at such places, within or without the State of Tennessee, as may from time to time be fixed by the board of directors or as shall be stated in the notice of the meeting or in a duly executed waiver of notice thereof.

Section 2.4 Notice. Written notice stating the place, day and hour of the meeting and, in the case of a special meeting, the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is called, shall be given not less than ten nor more than sixty days before the date of the meeting, either personally or by mail.

Section 2.5 Quorum of Shareholders. The holders of a majority of the shares issued and outstanding and entitled to vote at such meeting, present in person or represented by proxy shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at all meetings of the shareholders.

Section 2.6 Voting of Shares. Except as otherwise provided by statute or the articles of incorporation, each holder of record of shares of stock of the Corporation having voting power shall be entitled at each meeting of the shareholders to one vote for every share of such stock standing in his or her name on the record books of shareholders of the corporation on the date on which such notice of the meeting is mailed, unless some other day is fixed by the board of directors for the determination of shareholders of record.

Section 2.7 Voting List. The officer who has charge of the stock transfer books for shares of the corporation shall prepare at least ten days before every meeting of shareholders, a complete list of the shareholders entitled to vote at such meeting, arranged in alphabetical order, including the address of each shareholder and the number of voting shares held by each shareholder. For a period of ten days prior to such meeting, such list shall be kept open to the examination of any shareholder, for any purpose germane to the meeting, during ordinary business hours, either at a place within the city where the meeting is to be held and which place shall be specified in the notice of the meeting, or, if not so specified, at the place where said meeting is to be held. Such list shall be produced at such meeting and at all times during such meeting shall be subject to inspection by any shareholder. The original stock transfer books shall be prima facie evidence as to who are the shareholders entitled to examine such list or stock transfer books.

Section 2.8 Treasury Stock. The corporation shall not vote, directly or indirectly, shares of its own stock owned by it and such shares shall not be counted for quorum purposes.

Section 2.9 Consent of Shareholders in Lieu of Meeting. Whenever the vote of shareholders at a meeting thereof is required or permitted to be taken for or in connection with any corporate action, the meeting, the notice thereof, and the vote of shareholders can be dispensed with, if a consent in writing, setting forth the action so taken, shall be signed by the holders of stock having not less than the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to authorize or take such action at a meeting at which all shares entitled to vote thereof were present and voted, provided that prompt notice must be given to all shareholders of the taking of corporate action without a meeting by less than unanimous written consent.

Section 2.10 Minutes of Meetings. The secretary of the corporation shall keep regular minutes of all meetings of shareholders and such minutes shall be placed in the minute book of the corporation.

ARTICLE III DIRECTORS

Section 3.1 Powers of Directors. The business and affairs of the corporation shall be managed by its board of directors which shall have and may exercise all such powers of the corporation, subject to the restrictions imposed by law, the articles of incorporation, or these bylaws.

Section 3.2 Number and Qualification. The number of directors which shall constitute the entire board of directors shall be determined by resolution of the Board of Directors at any meeting thereof or by the Shareholders at any meeting thereof. Directors need not be residents of Tennessee or Shareholders of the corporation.

Section 3.3 Election and Term of Office. The directors shall be elected annually by the shareholders, except as provided in Section 3.4 of these bylaws. Each director shall hold office until the next succeeding annual meeting of shareholders and until his or her successor shall have been elected or until his or her earlier death, resignation, or removal. The board of directors may, by resolution, appoint one of its members as chairman to preside over meetings of the board of directors. The position of chairman of the board of directors shall not be an office of the corporation.

Section 3.4 Vacancies. Any vacancy occurring in the board of directors by reason of death, resignation, or removal may be filled by affirmative vote of a majority of the remaining directors, although less than a quorum of the board of directors. Such vacancy may also be filled by affirmative vote of the majority of the shareholders. A director elected to fill a vacancy shall be elected for the unexpired term of his or her predecessor in office or until his or her death, resignation, retirement, disqualification, or removal.

Section 3.5 Resignation of Directors. Any director may resign from office at any time by delivering a written resignation to the secretary of the corporation, and such resignation shall be effective upon delivery of such resignation to the secretary.

Section 3.6 Removal of Directors. Any director may be removed with or without cause at any time by the shareholders.

Section 3.7 Place of Meetings. Regular or special meetings of the board of directors may be held either within or without the State of Tennessee.

Section 3.8 Regular Meetings. Regular meetings of the board of directors may be held without notice at such times and places as may be designated from time to time as may be determined by the board of directors.

Section 3.9 Special Meetings. Special meetings of the board of directors may be called by the president or any director on twenty-four (24) hours notice to each director, either personally or by telephone, mail, telegram or other means of telecommunications. Neither the business to be transacted at, nor the purpose of, any special meeting of the board of directors need be specified in the notice or waiver of notice of any special meeting.

Section 3.10 Quorum of Directors. At all meetings of the board of directors, a majority of the directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business and the act or a majority of the directors present at any meeting at which there is a quorum shall be an act of the board of directors. If a quorum is not present at a meeting, a majority of the directors present may adjourn the meeting from time to time, without notice other than an announcement at the meeting, until a quorum is present.

Section 3.11 Committees. The board of directors may, by resolution passed by a majority of the entire board, designate one or more committees, including, if they shall so determine, an executive committee, each such committee to consist of one or more of the directors of the corporation. Any such designated committee shall have and may exercise such of the powers and authority of the board of directors in the management of the business and affairs of the corporation as may be provided in such resolution, except that no such committee shall have the power or authority of the board of directors in reference to amending the articles of incorporation, adopting an agreement of merger or consolidation, recommending to the shareholders the sale, lease or exchange of all or substantially all of the corporation's property and assets, recommending to the shareholders a dissolution of the corporation or a revocation of a dissolution of the corporation, or amending, altering or repealing the bylaws or adopting new bylaws for the corporation and, unless such resolution or the articles of incorporation expressly so provides, no such committee shall have the power or authority to authorize the issuance of stock. The board of directors shall have the power at any time to change the number and members of any such committee, to fill vacancies and to discharge any such committee.

Section 3.12 Compensation of Directors. Persons serving as directors shall not receive any compensation for their services as directors; however, a director shall be entitled to reimbursement for reasonable and customary expenses incurred by such director in carrying out his duties as approved by the president of the corporation.

Section 3.13 Action by Unanimous Written Consent. Any action required or permitted to be taken at a meeting of the board of directors or any committee may be taken without a meeting if a consent in writing, setting forth the actions so taken, is signed by all of the members of the board of directors or such committee, as the case may be.

Section 3.14 Minutes of Meetings. The board of directors shall keep regular minutes of its proceedings and such minutes shall be placed in the minute book of the corporation. Committees of the board of directors shall maintain a separate record of the minutes of their proceedings.

ARTICLE IV NOTICES AND TELEPHONE MEETINGS

Section 4.1 Notice. Any notice to directors or shareholders shall be in writing and shall be delivered personally or by mail, telegram, telex, cable, telecopier or similar means to the directors or shareholders at their respective addresses appearing on the books of the corporation. Notice by mail shall be deemed to be given at the time when the same shall be deposited in the United States mail, postage prepaid. Any notice required or permitted to be given by telegram, telex, cable, telecopier, or similar means shall be deemed to be delivered and given at the time transmitted.

Section 4.2 Waiver of Notice. Whenever by law, the articles of incorporation, or these bylaws, notice is required to be given to any shareholder, director, or committee member of the corporation, a waiver thereof in writing signed by the person or persons entitled to such notice, whether before or after the time notice should have been given, shall be equivalent to the giving of such notice. Attendance of a director at a meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting, except where a director attends a meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business on the ground that the meeting is not lawfully called or convened.

Section 4.3 Telephone and Similar Meetings. Shareholders, directors, or committee members may participate in and hold a meeting by means of a conference telephone or similar communications equipment by means of which persons participating in the meeting can hear each other. Participation in such a meeting shall constitute presence in person at such meeting, except where a person participates in the meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business on the ground that the meeting is not lawfully called or convened.

ARTICLE V
OFFICERS

Section 5.1 Officers. The corporation shall have a president and a secretary and such other officers and assistant officers as the board may deem desirable to conduct the affairs of the corporation. The position of chairman of the board of directors shall not be an office of the corporation. Any two or more offices may be held by the same person. No officer need be a shareholder or a director.

Section 5.2 Powers and Duties of Officers. The officers of the corporation shall have the powers and duties generally ascribed to the respective offices, and such additional authority or duty as may from time to time be established by the board of directors.

Section 5.3 Removal and Resignation. Any officer appointed by the board of directors may be removed by the board of directors whenever, in the judgment of the board of directors, the best interests of the corporation will be served thereby. Any officer may resign at any time by giving written notice to the corporation. Any such resignation shall take effect at the date of receipt of such notice or at a later time specified therein, and unless otherwise specified therein, the acceptance of such resignation shall not be necessary to make it effective.

Section 5.4 Term and Vacancies. The officers of the corporation shall hold office until their successors are elected or appointed, or until their death, resignation, or removal from office. Any vacancy occurring in any office of the corporation by death, resignation, removal, or otherwise, may be filled by the board of directors.

Section 5.5 Compensation. The salaries of all officers of the corporation shall be fixed by the board of directors. The board of directors shall have the power to enter into contracts for the employment and compensation of officers on such terms as the board of directors deems advisable. No officer shall be disqualified from receiving a salary or other compensation by reason of the fact that he or she is also a director of the corporation.

ARTICLE VI
CERTIFICATES AND SHAREHOLDERS

Section 6.1 Certificates for Shares. The certificates for shares of stock of the Corporation shall be in such form as shall be approved by the board of directors in conformity with law and the articles of incorporation. Every certificate for shares issued by the corporation must be signed by the President or a Vice President and the Secretary or an Assistant Secretary under the seal of the corporation. Any or all of the signatures on the face of the certificate may be facsimile. Such certificates shall bear a legend or legends in the form and containing the restrictions to be stated thereon by the Tennessee Business Corporation Law of 1988, as amended, other provisions of law, the articles of incorporation or these bylaws. Certificates shall be consecutively numbered and shall be entered as they are issued. Each certificate shall state on the face thereof the holder's name, the number and class of shares, the par value of such shares, and such other matters as may be required by law, the articles of incorporation or these bylaws.

Section 6.2 Lost, Stolen, or Destroyed Certificates. The board of directors, the executive committee, or the president of the corporation may direct a new certificate or certificates representing shares to be issued in place of any certificate or certificates theretofore issued by the corporation alleged to have been lost, stolen, or destroyed, upon the making of an affidavit of the fact by the person claiming the certificate or certificates to be lost, stolen, or destroyed. When authorizing such issue of a new certificate the board of directors, the executive committee or the president may require the owner of such lost, stolen, or destroyed certificate, or his or her legal representative, to advertise the same in such manner as it or he or she shall require and/or give the corporation a bond in such sum as it may direct as indemnity against any claim that may be made against the corporation with respect to the certificate alleged to have been lost, stolen or destroyed.

Section 6.3 Transfer of Shares. Shares of stock of the corporation shall be transferable only on the books of the corporation by the holder thereof in person or by the holder's duly authorized attorneys or legal representatives. Upon surrender to the corporation or the transfer agent of the corporation of a certificate representing shares duly endorsed or accompanied by proper evidence of succession, assignment, or authority to transfer, the corporation or its transfer agent shall issue a new certificate to the person entitled thereto, cancel the old certificate, and record the transaction upon its books.

Section 6.4 Registered Shareholders. The corporation shall be entitled to recognize the exclusive right of a person registered on its books as the owner of shares to receive dividends, and to vote as such owner, and to hold liable for calls and assessments, a person registered on its books as the owner of shares, and shall not be bound to recognize any equitable or other claim to or interest in such shares on the part of any person, whether or not it shall have actual or other notice thereof, except as otherwise provided by law.

ARTICLE VII

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

Section 7.1 Dividends. Dividends upon the outstanding shares of the corporation, subject to the provisions of the applicable statutes and of the articles of incorporation, may be declared by the board of directors at any annual, regular or special meeting. Dividends may be declared and paid in cash, in property, or in shares of the corporation, or in any combination thereof.

Section 7.2 Reserves. There may be set aside out of any funds of the corporation available for dividends such sum or sums as the board of directors from time to time in their sole and absolute discretion think proper as a reserve to meet contingencies, or to equalize dividends, or to repair or maintain any property of the corporation, or for such other purpose as the board of directors shall think conducive to the interest of the corporation, and the board of directors may modify or abolish any such reserve in the manner in which it was created.

Section 7.3 Signature of Negotiable Instruments. All checks or demands for money and notes of the corporation shall be signed by such officer or officers or such other person or persons as the board of directors may from time to time designate.

Section 7.4 Fiscal Year. The fiscal year of the corporation shall be fixed by the board of directors; provided, that if such fiscal year is not fixed by the board of directors it shall be the calendar year.

Section 7.5 Books of the Corporation. The books of the corporation may be kept, subject to the provisions of the applicable statutes, within or outside of the State of Tennessee, at such place or places as may from time to time be designated by the board of directors or as the business of the corporation may require.

Section 7.6 Seal. The seal, if any, of the corporation shall be in such form as may be approved from time to time by the board of directors. If the board of directors approves a seal, the affixation of such seal shall not be required to create a valid and binding obligation against the corporation.

Section 7.7 Securities of Other Corporations. Unless otherwise ordered by the board of directors, the president or the secretary of the corporation shall have full power and authority on behalf of the corporation to attend, to vote and to grant proxies to be used at any meeting of shareholders of such other corporation in which the corporation may hold stock. The board of directors may confer like powers upon any other person or persons.

Section 7.8 Fixed Record Date. In order that the corporation may determine the shareholders entitled to notice of or to vote at any meeting of shareholders or any adjournment thereof, or to express consent to corporate action in writing without a meeting, or entitled to receive payment of any dividend or other distribution or allotment of any rights, or entitled to exercise any rights in respect of any change, conversion or exchange of stock for the purpose of any other lawful action, the board of directors may fix, in advance, a record date which shall be not more than sixty 60 days before the date of such meeting, nor more than 60 days prior to any other action.

Section 7.9 Amendment. The power to alter, amend, or repeal these bylaws or to adopt new bylaws is vested in the board of directors.

Section 7.10 Right to Indemnification.

(A) Each person (hereinafter an "indemnitee") who was or is made a party or is threatened to be made a party to or is otherwise involved in any action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (hereinafter a "proceeding"), by reason of the fact that he or she was a director, officer or agent of the corporation or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation or of a partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, including service with respect to an employee benefit plan, whether the basis of such proceeding is alleged action in an official capacity as a director, officer, employee or agent, shall be indemnified and held harmless by the corporation to the fullest extent authorized by the Tennessee Business Corporation Law of 1988, as amended, as the same exists or may hereafter be amended (but, in the case of any such amendment, only to the extent that such amendment permits the corporation to provide broader indemnification rights than permitted prior thereto), against all expense, liability and loss (including attorney's fees, judgments, fines, ERISA excise taxes or penalties and amounts paid in settlement) reasonably incurred or suffered by such indemnitee in connection therewith, and such indemnification shall continue with respect to an indemnitee who has ceased to be a director, officer, employee or agent and shall inure to the benefit of the indemnitee's heirs, executors and administrators; provided, however, that, except as provided in paragraph (B) hereof with respect to proceedings to enforce rights to indemnification, the corporation shall indemnify any such indemnitee only if such proceeding (or part thereof) was authorized by the board of directors of the corporation. The right to indemnification conferred in this section shall be a contract right and shall include the right to be paid by the corporation the expenses incurred in defending any such proceeding in advance of its final disposition (hereinafter an "advancement of expenses"); provided, however, that, if the Tennessee Business Corporation Law of 1988, as amended, requires, an advancement of expenses incurred by an indemnitee shall be made only upon delivery to the corporation of an undertaking (hereinafter an "undertaking"), by or on behalf of such indemnitee, to repay all amounts so advanced if it shall ultimately be determined by final judicial decision from which there is no further right to appeal (hereinafter a "final adjudication") that such indemnitee is not entitled to be indemnified for such expenses under this section or otherwise.

(B) If a claim under paragraph (A) of this section is not paid in full by the corporation within 60 days after a written claim has been received by the corporation, except in the case of a claim for an advancement of expenses, in which case the applicable period shall be 20 days, the indemnitee may at any time thereafter bring suit against the corporation to recover the unpaid amount of such suit, or in a suit brought by the corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking, the indemnitee shall be entitled to be paid also the expense of prosecuting or defending such suit. In (i) any suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right to indemnification hereunder (but not in a suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right to an advancement of expenses) it shall be a defense that, and (ii) any suit by the corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking the corporation shall be entitled to recover such expenses upon a final adjudication that, the indemnitee has not met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in the Tennessee Business Corporation Law of 1988, as amended. Neither the failure of the corporation (including its board of directors, independent legal counsel, or its shareholders) to have made a determination prior to the commencement of such suit that indemnification of the indemnitee is proper in the circumstances because the indemnitee has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in the Tennessee Business Corporation Law of 1988, as amended, nor an actual determination by the corporation (including its board of directors, independent legal counsel, or its shareholders) that the indemnitee has not met such applicable standard of conduct shall create a presumption that the indemnitee has not met the applicable standard of conduct or, in the case of such a suit brought by the indemnitee, be a defense of such suit. In any suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right of indemnification or to an advancement of expenses hereunder, or by the corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking, the burden of proving that the indemnitee is not entitled to be indemnified, or to such advancement of expenses, under this section or otherwise shall be on the corporation.

(C) The rights to indemnification and to the advancement of expenses conferred in this section shall not be exclusive of any other right which any person may have or hereafter acquire under any statute, the corporation's certificate of incorporation, by agreement, by vote of shareholders or by disinterested directors or otherwise.

(D) The corporation may maintain insurance, at its expense, to protect itself and any director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation or another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise against any expense, liability or loss, whether or not the corporation would have the power to indemnify such person against such expense, liability or loss under the Tennessee Business Corporation Law of 1988, as amended.

Section 7.11 Invalid Provisions. If any provision of these bylaws is held to be illegal, invalid, or unenforceable under present or future laws, such provision shall be fully severable; these bylaws shall be construed and enforced as if such illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision had never comprised a part hereof; and the remaining provisions hereof shall remain in full force and effect and shall not be affected by the illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision or by its severance herefrom. Furthermore, in lieu of such illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision there shall be added automatically as a part of these bylaws a provision as similar in terms to such illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision as may be possible and be legal, valid, and enforceable.

Section 7.12 Headings. The headings used in these bylaws are for reference purposes only and do not affect in any way the meaning or interpretation of these bylaws.

The above bylaws were duly adopted as the bylaws of the corporation effective as of the 29th day of October, 2002.

SHELBYVILLE HOSPITAL CORPORATION

The undersigned person, having capacity to contract and acting as the incorporator of a corporation for profit under the Tennessee Business Corporation Act, hereby adopts the following Charter for such corporation:

1. The name of the corporation is: Shelbyville Hospital Corporation.
 2. The corporation's initial registered office is located at 155 Franklin Road, Suite 400, Brentwood, Tennessee 37027, County of Williamson. The initial registered agent at that office is Rachel A. Seifert.
 3. The name and address of the incorporator is Robin J. Keck, 155 Franklin Road, Suite 400, Brentwood, Tennessee 37027.
 4. The address of the principal office of the corporation shall be 155 Franklin Road, Suite 400, Brentwood, Tennessee 37027.
 5. The corporation is for profit.
 6. The corporation is authorized to issue one thousand (1,000) shares of $.01 par value per share common stock.
 - 7 The business and affairs of the corporation shall be managed by a Board of Directors:
 - a. The number of directors and their term shall be specified in the Bylaws of the corporation;
 - b. Whenever the Board of Directors is required or permitted to take any action by vote, such action may be taken without a meeting on written consent setting forth the action so taken, signed by all of the directors, indicating each signing director's vote or abstention. The affirmative vote of the number of directors that would be necessary to authorize or to take such action at a meeting is an act of the Board of Directors;
 - c. Any or all of the directors may be removed with cause by a majority vote of the entire Board of Directors.
 8. To the fullest extent permitted by the Tennessee Business Corporation Act as the same may be amended from time to time, a director, officer or incorporator of the corporation shall not be liable to the corporation or its shareholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty in such capacity. If the Tennessee Business Corporation Act is amended, after approval by the shareholders of this provision, to authorize corporate action further eliminating or limiting the personal liability of a director, officer or incorporator then the liability of a director, officer or incorporator of the corporation shall be eliminated or limited to the fullest extent permitted by the Tennessee Business Corporation Act, as so amended from time to time. Any repeal or modification of this Section 8 by the shareholders of the corporation shall not adversely affect any right or protection of a director, officer or incorporator of the corporation existing at the time of such repeal or modification or with respect to events occurring prior to such time.

9. Each person who was or is made a party or is threatened to be made a party to or is otherwise involved in any action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative and whether formal or informal (hereafter a "proceeding"), by reason of the fact that he or she is or was a director, officer or incorporator of the corporation or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, manager or incorporator of another corporation or as a partner or trustee of a partnership, joint venture, limited liability company, trust or other enterprise, including service with respect to employee benefit plans (hereinafter an "Indemnitee"), whether the basis of such proceeding is alleged action in an official capacity as a director, officer, manager or incorporator or in any other capacity while serving as a director, officer, manager or incorporator, shall be indemnified and held harmless by the corporation to the fullest extent authorized by the Tennessee Business Corporation Act, as the same may be amended (but, in the case of any such amendment, only to the extent that such amendment permits the corporation to provide broader indemnification rights than such law permitted the corporation to provide prior to such amendment), against all expense, liability and loss (including but not limited to counsel fees, judgments, fines, ERISA, excise taxes or penalties and amounts paid in settlement) reasonably incurred or suffered by such Indemnitee in connection therewith and such indemnification shall continue as to an Indemnitee who has ceased to be a director, officer, manager or incorporator and shall inure to the benefit of the Indemnitee's heirs, executors and administrators. The right to indemnification conferred in this Section 9 shall be a contract right and shall include the right to be paid by the corporation the expenses incurred in any such proceeding in advance of its final disposition (hereinafter an "advancement of expenses"); provided, however, that an advancement of expenses incurred by an Indemnitee shall be made only upon delivery to the corporation of an undertaking, by or on behalf of such Indemnitee, to repay all amounts so advanced if it shall ultimately be determined by final judicial decision from which there is no further right to appeal that such Indemnitee is not entitled to be indemnified for such expenses under this Section 9 or otherwise, the Indemnitee furnishes the corporation with a written affirmation of his or her good faith belief that he or she has met the standards for indemnification under the Tennessee Business Corporation Act, and a determination is made that the facts then known to those making the determination would not preclude indemnification.

The corporation may indemnify and advance expenses to an officer, employee or agent who is not a director to the same extent as to a director by specific action of the corporation's Board of Directors or by contract.

The rights to indemnification and to the advancement of expenses conferred in this Section 9 shall not be exclusive of any other right that any person may have or hereafter acquire under any statute, this Charter, Bylaws, agreement, vote of stockholders or disinterested directors or otherwise, and the corporation is hereby permitted to grant additional rights to indemnification and advancement of expenses, to the fullest extent permitted by law, by resolution of directors, or an agreement providing for such rights.

The corporation may maintain insurance, at its expense, to protect itself and any director, officer, manager, employee or agent of the corporation or of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, limited liability company, trust or other enterprise against any expense, liability or loss, whether or not the corporation would have the power to indemnify such person against such expense, liability or loss under the Tennessee Business Corporation Act.

Dated this 24th day of May, 2005.

BYLAWS OF
SHELBYVILLE HOSPITAL CORPORATION

ARTICLE I

OFFICES

Section 1.1 Registered Office. The initial registered office shall be in the City of Brentwood, County of Williamson, State of Tennessee.

Section 1.2 Other Offices. The corporation may also have offices at such other places both within and without the State of Tennessee as the board of directors may from time to time determine or the business of the corporation may require.

ARTICLE II

MEETINGS OF SHAREHOLDERS

Section 2.1 Annual Meeting. An annual meeting of shareholders of the corporation shall be held on such date and at such time as shall be designated from time to time by the board of directors and stated in the notice of the meeting. At such meeting, the shareholders shall elect directors and transact such other business as may properly be brought before the meeting.

Section 2.2 Special Meetings. Special meetings of the shareholders for any purpose whatsoever may be called at any time by the president, the board of directors, or the holders of not less than ten percent of all shares entitled to vote at such meeting.

Section 2.3 Place of Meetings. All meetings of shareholders for any purpose or purposes may be held at such places, within or without the State of Tennessee, as may from time to time be fixed by the board of directors or as shall be stated in the notice of the meeting or in a duly executed waiver of notice thereof.

Section 2.4 Notice. Written notice stating the place, day and hour of the meeting and, in the case of a special meeting, the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is called, shall be given not less than ten nor more than sixty days before the date of the meeting, either personally or by mail.

Section 2.5 Quorum of Shareholders. The holders of a majority of the shares issued and outstanding and entitled to vote at such meeting, present in person or represented by proxy shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at all meetings of the shareholders.

Section 2.6 Voting of Shares. Except as otherwise provided by statute or the articles of incorporation, each holder of record of shares of stock of the Corporation having voting power shall be entitled at each meeting of the shareholders to one vote for every share of such stock standing in his or her name on the record books of shareholders of the corporation on the date on which such notice of the meeting is mailed, unless some other day is fixed by the board of directors for the determination of shareholders of record.

Section 2.7 Voting List. The officer who has charge of the stock transfer books for shares of the corporation shall prepare at least ten days before every meeting of shareholders, a complete list of the shareholders entitled to vote at such meeting, arranged in alphabetical order, including the address of each shareholder and the number of voting shares held by each shareholder. For a period of ten days prior to such meeting, such list shall be kept open to the examination of any shareholder, for any purpose germane to the meeting, during ordinary business hours, either at a place within the city where the meeting is to be held and which place shall be specified in the notice of the meeting, or, if not so specified, at the place where said meeting is to be held. Such list shall be produced at such meeting and at all times during such meeting shall be subject to inspection by any shareholder. The original stock transfer books shall be prima facie evidence as to who are the shareholders entitled to examine such list or stock transfer books.

Section 2.8 Treasury Stock. The corporation shall not vote, directly or indirectly, shares of its own stock owned by it and such shares shall not be counted for quorum purposes.

Section 2.9 Consent of Shareholders in Lieu of Meeting. Whenever the vote of shareholders at a meeting thereof is required or permitted to be taken for or in connection with any corporate action, the meeting, the notice thereof, and the vote of shareholders can be dispensed with, if a consent in writing, setting forth the action so taken, shall be signed by the holders of stock having not less than the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to authorize or take such action at a meeting at which all shares entitled to vote thereof were present and voted, provided that prompt notice must be given to all shareholders of the taking of corporate action without a meeting by less than unanimous written consent.

Section 2.10 Minutes of Meetings. The secretary of the corporation shall keep regular minutes of all meetings of shareholders and such minutes shall be placed in the minute book of the corporation.

ARTICLE III

DIRECTORS

Section 3.1 Powers of Directors. The business and affairs of the corporation shall be managed by its board of directors which shall have and may exercise all such powers of the corporation, subject to the restrictions imposed by law, the articles of incorporation, or these bylaws.

Section 3.2 Number and Qualification. The number of directors which shall constitute the entire board of directors shall be determined by resolution of the Board of Directors at any meeting thereof or by the Shareholders at any meeting thereof. Directors need not be residents of Tennessee or Shareholders of the corporation.

Section 3.3 Election and Term of Office. The directors shall be elected annually by the shareholders, except as provided in Section 3.4 of these bylaws. Each director shall hold office until the next succeeding annual meeting of shareholders and until his or her successor shall have been elected or until his or her earlier death, resignation, or removal. The board of directors may, by resolution, appoint one of its members as chairman to preside over meetings of the board of directors. The position of chairman of the board of directors shall not be an office of the corporation.

Section 3.4 Vacancies. Any vacancy occurring in the board of directors by reason of death, resignation, or removal may be filled by affirmative vote of a majority of the remaining directors, although less than a quorum of the board of directors. Such vacancy may also be filled by affirmative vote of the majority of the shareholders. A director elected to fill a vacancy shall be elected for the unexpired term of his or her predecessor in office or until his or her death, resignation, retirement, disqualification, or removal.

Section 3.5 Resignation of Directors. Any director may resign from office at any time by delivering a written resignation to the secretary of the corporation, and such resignation shall be effective upon delivery of such resignation to the secretary.

Section 3.6 Removal of Directors. Any director may be removed with or without cause at any time by the shareholders.

Section 3.7 Place of Meetings. Regular or special meetings of the board of directors may be held either within or without the State of Tennessee.

Section 3.8 Regular Meetings. Regular meetings of the board of directors may be held without notice at such times and places as may be designated from time to time as may be determined by the board of directors.

Section 3.9 Special Meetings. Special meetings of the board of directors may be called by the president or any director on twenty-four (24) hours notice to each director, either personally or by telephone, mail, telegram or other means of telecommunications. Neither the business to be transacted at, nor the purpose of, any special meeting of the board of directors need be specified in the notice or waiver of notice of any special meeting.

Section 3.10 Quorum of Directors. At all meetings of the board of directors, a majority of the directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business and the act or a majority of the directors present at any meeting at which there is a quorum shall be an act of the board of directors. If a quorum is not present at a meeting, a majority of the directors present may adjourn the meeting from time to time, without notice other than an announcement at the meeting, until a quorum is present.

Section 3.11 Committees. The board of directors may, by resolution passed by a majority of the entire board, designate one or more committees, including, if they shall so determine, an executive committee, each such committee to consist of one or more of the directors of the corporation. Any such designated committee shall have and may exercise such of the powers and authority of the board of directors in the management of the business and affairs of the corporation as may be provided in such resolution, except that no such committee shall have the power or authority of the board of directors in reference to amending the articles of incorporation, adopting an agreement of merger or consolidation, recommending to the shareholders the sale, lease or exchange of all or substantially all of the corporation's property and assets, recommending to the shareholders a dissolution of the corporation or a revocation of a dissolution of the corporation, or amending, altering or repealing the bylaws or adopting new bylaws for the corporation and, unless such resolution or the articles of incorporation expressly so provides, no such committee shall have the power or authority to authorize the issuance of stock. The board of directors shall have the power at any time to change the number and members of any such committee, to fill vacancies and to discharge any such committee.

Section 3.12 Compensation of Directors. Persons serving as directors shall not receive any compensation for their services as directors; however, a director shall be entitled to reimbursement for reasonable and customary expenses incurred by such director in carrying out his duties as approved by the president of the corporation.

Section 3.13 Action by Unanimous Written Consent. Any action required or permitted to be taken at a meeting of the board of directors or any committee may be taken without a meeting if a consent in writing, setting forth the actions so taken, is signed by all of the members of the board of directors or such committee, as the case may be.

Section 3.14 Minutes of Meetings. The board of directors shall keep regular minutes of its proceedings and such minutes shall be placed in the minute book of the corporation. Committees of the board of directors shall maintain a separate record of the minutes of their proceedings.

ARTICLE IV

NOTICES AND TELEPHONE MEETINGS

Section 4.1 Notice. Any notice to directors or shareholders shall be in writing and shall be delivered personally or by mail, telegram, telex, cable, telecopier or similar means to the directors or shareholders at their respective addresses appearing on the books of the corporation. Notice by mail shall be deemed to be given at the time when the same shall be deposited in the United States mail, postage prepaid. Any notice required or permitted to be given by telegram, telex, cable, telecopier, or similar means shall be deemed to be delivered and given at the time transmitted.

Section 4.2 Waiver of Notice. Whenever by law, the articles of incorporation, or these bylaws, notice is required to be given to any shareholder, director, or committee member of the corporation, a waiver thereof in writing signed by the person or persons entitled to such notice, whether before or after the time notice should have been given, shall be equivalent to the giving of such notice. Attendance of a director at a meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting, except where a director attends a meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business on the ground that the meeting is not lawfully called or convened.

Section 4.3 Telephone and Similar Meetings. Shareholders, directors, or committee members may participate in and hold a meeting by means of a conference telephone or similar communications equipment by means of which persons participating in the meeting can hear each other. Participation in such a meeting shall constitute presence in person at such meeting, except where a person participates in the meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business on the ground that the meeting is not lawfully called or convened.

ARTICLE V

OFFICERS

Section 5.1 Officers. The corporation shall have a president and a secretary and such other officers and assistant officers as the board may deem desirable to conduct the affairs of the corporation. The position of chairman of the board of directors shall not be an office of the corporation. Any two or more offices may be held by the same person. No officer need be a shareholder or a director.

Section 5.2 Powers and Duties of Officers. The officers of the corporation shall have the powers and duties generally ascribed to the respective offices, and such additional authority or duty as may from time to time be established by the board of directors.

Section 5.3 Removal and Resignation. Any officer appointed by the board of directors may be removed by the board of directors whenever, in the judgment of the board of directors, the best interests of the corporation will be served thereby. Any officer may resign at any time by giving written notice to the corporation. Any such resignation shall take effect at the date of receipt of such notice or at a later time specified therein, and unless otherwise specified therein, the acceptance of such resignation shall not be necessary to make it effective.

Section 5.4 Term and Vacancies. The officers of the corporation shall hold office until their successors are elected or appointed, or until their death, resignation, or removal from office. Any vacancy occurring in any office of the corporation by death, resignation, removal, or otherwise, may be filled by the board of directors.

Section 5.5 Compensation. The salaries of all officers of the corporation shall be fixed by the board of directors. The board of directors shall have the power to enter into contracts for the employment and compensation of officers on such terms as the board of directors deems advisable. No officer shall be disqualified from receiving a salary or other compensation by reason of the fact that he or she is also a director of the corporation.

ARTICLE VI

CERTIFICATES AND SHAREHOLDERS

Section 6.1 Certificates for Shares. The certificates for shares of stock of the Corporation shall be in such form as shall be approved by the board of directors in conformity with law and the articles of incorporation. Every certificate for shares issued by the corporation must be signed by the President or a Vice President and the Secretary or an Assistant Secretary under the seal of the corporation. Any or all of the signatures on the face of the certificate may be facsimile. Such certificates shall bear a legend or legends in the form and containing the restrictions to be stated thereon by the Tennessee Business Corporation Act (the "Tennessee Code"), other provisions of law, the articles of incorporation or these bylaws. Certificates shall be consecutively numbered and shall be entered as they are issued. Each certificate shall state on the face thereof the holder's name, the number and class of shares, the par value of such shares, and such other matters as may be required by law, the articles of incorporation or these bylaws.

Section 6.2 Lost, Stolen, or Destroyed Certificates. The board of directors, the executive committee, or the president of the corporation may direct a new certificate or certificates representing shares to be issued in place of any certificate or certificates theretofore issued by the corporation alleged to have been lost, stolen, or destroyed, upon the making of an affidavit of the fact by the person claiming the certificate or certificates to be lost, stolen, or destroyed. When authorizing such issue of a new certificate the board of directors, the executive committee or the president may require the owner of such lost, stolen, or destroyed certificate, or his or her legal representative, to advertise the same in such manner as it or he or she shall require and/or give the corporation a bond in such sum as it may direct as indemnity against any claim that may be made against the corporation with respect to the certificate alleged to have been lost, stolen or destroyed.

Section 6.3 Transfer of Shares. Shares of stock of the corporation shall be transferable only on the books of the corporation by the holder thereof in person or by the holder's duly authorized attorneys or legal representatives. Upon surrender to the corporation or the transfer agent of the corporation of a certificate representing shares duly endorsed or accompanied by proper evidence of succession, assignment, or authority to transfer, the corporation or its transfer agent shall issue a new certificate to the person entitled thereto, cancel the old certificate, and record the transaction upon its books.

Section 6.4 Registered Shareholders. The corporation shall be entitled to recognize the exclusive right of a person registered on its books as the owner of shares to receive dividends, and to vote as such owner, and to hold liable for calls and assessments, a person registered on its books as the owner of shares, and shall not be bound to recognize any equitable or other claim to or interest in such shares on the part of any person, whether or not it shall have actual or other notice thereof, except as otherwise provided by law.

ARTICLE VII

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

Section 7.1 Dividends. Dividends upon the outstanding shares of the corporation, subject to the provisions of the applicable statutes and of the articles of incorporation, may be declared by the board of directors at any annual, regular or special meeting. Dividends may be declared and paid in cash, in property, or in shares of the corporation, or in any combination thereof.

Section 7.2 Reserves. There may be set aside out of any funds of the corporation available for dividends such sum or sums as the board of directors from time to time in their sole and absolute discretion think proper as a reserve to meet contingencies, or to equalize dividends, or to repair or maintain any property of the corporation, or for such other purpose as the board of directors shall think conducive to the interest of the corporation, and the board of directors may modify or abolish any such reserve in the manner in which it was created.

Section 7.3 Signature of Negotiable Instruments. All checks or demands for money and notes of the corporation shall be signed by such officer or officers or such other person or persons as the board of directors may from time to time designate.

Section 7.4 Fiscal Year. The fiscal year of the corporation shall be fixed by the board of directors; provided, that if such fiscal year is not fixed by the board of directors it shall be the calendar year.

Section 7.5 Books of the Corporation. The books of the corporation may be kept, subject to the provisions of the applicable statutes, within or outside of the State of Tennessee, at such place or places as may from time to time be designated by the board of directors or as the business of the corporation may require.

Section 7.6 Seal. The seal, if any, of the corporation shall be in such form as may be approved from time to time by the board of directors. If the board of directors approves a seal, the affixation of such seal shall not be required to create a valid and binding obligation against the corporation.

Section 7.7 Securities of Other Corporations. Unless otherwise ordered by the board of directors, the president or the secretary of the corporation shall have full power and authority on behalf of the corporation to attend, to vote and to grant proxies to be used at any meeting of shareholders of such other corporation in which the corporation may hold stock. The board of directors may confer like powers upon any other person or persons.

Section 7.8 Fixed Record Date. In order that the corporation may determine the shareholders entitled to notice of or to vote at any meeting of shareholders or any adjournment thereof, or to express consent to corporate action in writing without a meeting, or entitled to receive payment of any dividend or other distribution or allotment of any rights, or entitled to exercise any rights in respect of any change, conversion or exchange of stock for the purpose of any other lawful action, the board of directors may fix, in advance, a record date which shall be not more than sixty 60 days before the date of such meeting, nor more than 60 days prior to any other action.

Section 7.9 Amendment. The power to alter, amend, or repeal these bylaws or to adopt new bylaws is vested in the board of directors.

Section 7.10 Right to Indemnification.

(A) Each person (hereinafter an "indemnitee") who was or is made a party to or is threatened to be made a party to or is otherwise involved in any action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (hereinafter a "proceeding"), by reason of the fact that he or she was a director, officer or agent of the corporation or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation or of a partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, including service with respect to an employee benefit plan, whether the basis of such proceeding is alleged action in an official capacity as a director, officer, employee or agent, shall be indemnified and held harmless by the corporation to the fullest extent authorized by the Tennessee Code, as amended, as the same exists or may hereafter be amended (but, in the case of any such amendment, only to the extent that such amendment permits the corporation to provide broader indemnification rights than permitted prior thereto), against all expense, liability and loss (including attorney's fees, judgments, fines, ERISA excise taxes or penalties and amounts paid in settlement) reasonably incurred or suffered by such indemnitee in connection therewith, and such indemnification shall continue with respect to an indemnitee who has ceased to be a director, officer, employee or agent and shall inure to the benefit of the indemnitee's heirs, executors and administrators; provided, however, that, except as provided in paragraph (B) hereof with respect to proceedings to enforce rights to indemnification, the corporation shall indemnify any such indemnitee only if such proceeding (or part thereof) was authorized by the board of directors of the corporation. The right to indemnification conferred in this section shall be a contract right and shall include the right to be paid by the corporation the expenses incurred in defending any such proceeding in advance of its final disposition (hereinafter an “advancement of expenses”); provided, however, that, if the Tennessee Code, as amended, requires, an advancement of expenses incurred by an indemnitee shall be made only upon delivery to the corporation of an undertaking (hereinafter an “undertaking”), by or on behalf of such indemnitee, to repay all amounts so advanced if it shall ultimately be determined by final judicial decision from which there is no further right to appeal (hereinafter a “final adjudication”) that such indemnitee is not entitled to be indemnified for such expenses under this section or otherwise.

(B) If a claim under paragraph (A) of this section is not paid in full by the corporation within 60 days after a written claim has been received by the corporation, except in the case of a claim for an advancement of expenses, in which case the applicable period shall be 20 days, the indemnitee may at any time thereafter bring suit against the corporation to recover the unpaid amount of such suit, or in a suit brought by the corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking, the indemnitee shall be entitled to be paid also the expense of prosecuting or defending such suit. In (i) any suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right to indemnification hereunder (but not in a suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right to an advancement of expenses) it shall be a defense that, and (ii) any suit by the corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking the corporation shall be entitled to recover such expenses upon a final adjudication that, the indemnitee has not met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in the Tennessee Code, as amended. Neither the failure of the corporation (including its board of directors, independent legal counsel, or its shareholders) to have made a determination prior to the commencement of such suit that indemnification of the indemnitee is proper in the circumstances because the indemnitee has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in the Tennessee Code, as amended, nor an actual determination by the corporation (including its board of directors, independent legal counsel, or its shareholders) that the indemnitee has not met such applicable standard of conduct shall create a presumption that the indemnitee has not met the applicable standard of conduct or, in the case of such a suit brought by the indemnitee, be a defense of such suit. In any suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right of indemnification or to an advancement of expenses hereunder, or by the corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking, the burden of proving that the indemnitee is not entitled to be indemnified, or to such advancement of expenses, under this section or otherwise shall be on the corporation.

(C) The rights to indemnification and to the advancement of expenses conferred in this section shall not be exclusive of any other right which any person may have or hereafter acquire under any statute, the corporation’s certificate of incorporation, by agreement, by vote of shareholders or by disinterested directors or otherwise.

(D) The corporation may maintain insurance, at its expense, to protect itself and any director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation or another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise against any expense, liability or loss, whether or not the corporation would have the power to indemnify such person against such expense, liability or loss under the Tennessee Code, as amended.

Section 7.11 Invalid Provisions. If any provision of these bylaws is held to be illegal, invalid, or unenforceable under present or future laws, such provision shall be fully severable; these bylaws shall be construed and enforced as if such illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision had never comprised a part hereof; and the remaining provisions hereof shall remain in full force and effect and shall not be affected by the illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision or by its severance herefrom. Furthermore, in lieu of such illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision there shall be added automatically as a part of these bylaws a provision as similar in terms to such illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision as may be possible and be legal, valid, and enforceable.

Section 7.12 Headings. The headings used in these bylaws are for reference purposes only and do not affect in any way the meaning or interpretation of these bylaws.

The above bylaws were duly adopted as the bylaws of the corporation effective as of the 25th day of May, 2005.

SPARTA HOSPITAL CORPORATION

The undersigned natural person of the age of eighteen years or more, acting as incorporator of a corporation under the Tennessee Business Corporation Act, as amended, hereby adopts the following charter for such corporation:

ARTICLE ONE

The name of the Corporation is Sparta Hospital Corporation.

ARTICLE TWO

The period of its duration is perpetual.

ARTICLE THREE

The corporation is for profit.

ARTICLE FOUR

The purpose for which the Corporation is organized is to engage in the transaction of any or all lawful business for which corporations may be incorporated under the Tennessee Business Corporation Act (the "Tennessee Code").

ARTICLE FIVE

The aggregate number of shares which the Corporation shall have authority to issue is One Thousand (1,000) shares of $.01 par value per share common stock.

ARTICLE SIX

The Corporation will not commence business until it has received for the issuance of its shares consideration of the value of at least One Thousand Dollars ($1,000), consisting of money, labor done or property actually received.

ARTICLE SEVEN

The street address of its initial registered office is 306 Guy Street, Suite 200, Nashville, Davidson County, Tennessee 37201 and the name of its initial registered agent at such address is Corporation Service Company.

ARTICLE EIGHT

The complete address of the corporation's principal office is 155 Franklin Road, Suite 400, Brentwood, Williamson County, Tennessee 37027.

ARTICLE NINE

Election of the Directors need not be by written ballot unless the Bylaws of the corporation shall so provide.

ARTICLE TEN

The name and address of the incorporator is:

Robin J. Payton
414 Union Street, Suite 1600
Nashville, TN 37219

ARTICLE ELEVEN

To the greatest extent permitted by Tennessee law, a director of the Corporation shall not be personally liable to the Corporation or its stockholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director, except for liability (i) for any breach of the director's duty of loyalty to the Corporation or its stockholders, (ii) for acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law, (iii) under Section 48-18-304 of the Tennessee Code or (iv) for any transaction from which the director derives an improper personal benefit. If the Tennessee Code is amended hereafter to authorize corporate action further eliminating or limiting the personal liability of directors, then the liability of a director of the Corporation shall be eliminated or limited to the fullest extent permitted by the Tennessee Code, as so amended.

Any repeal or modification of the foregoing paragraph by the stockholders of the Corporation shall not adversely affect any right or protection of a director of the Corporation existing at the time of such repeal or modification.

ARTICLE TWELVE

A. Right to Indemnification. Each person who was or is made a party or is threatened to be made a party to or is otherwise involved in any action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (hereinafter a "proceeding"), by reason of the fact that he or she, or a person of whom he or she is the legal representative, or is or was a director or officer of the Corporation or is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director or officer of another corporation or of a partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, including service with respect to an employee benefit plan (hereinafter an "indemnitee"), whether the basis of such proceeding is alleged action in an official capacity as a director or officer or in any other capacity while serving as a director or officer, shall be indemnified and held harmless by the Corporation to the fullest extent authorized by the Tennessee Code as the same exists or may hereafter be amended (but, in the case of any such amendment, only to the extent that such amendment permits the Corporation to provide broader indemnification rights than permitted prior thereto), against all expense, liability and loss (including, without limitation, attorneys' fees, judgments, fines, excise taxes or penalties and amounts paid or to be paid in settlement) incurred or suffered by such indemnitee in connection therewith and such indemnification shall continue with respect to an indemnitee who has ceased to be a director or officer and shall inure to the benefit of the indemnitee's heirs, executors and administrators; provided, however, that except as provided in paragraph (B) hereof with respect to proceedings to enforce rights to indemnification, the Corporation shall indemnify any such indemnitee in connection with a proceeding initiated by such indemnitee only if such proceeding was authorized by the Board of Directors of the Corporation. The right to indemnification conferred in this Article shall be a contract right and shall include the right to be paid by the Corporation the expenses incurred in defending any such proceeding in advance of its final disposition (hereinafter an "advancement of expenses"); provided, however, that if the Tennessee Code requires, an advancement of expenses incurred by an indemnitee shall be made only upon delivery to the Corporation of an undertaking (hereinafter an "undertaking"), by or on behalf of such indemnitee, to repay all amounts so advanced if it shall ultimately be determined by final judicial decision from which there is no further right to appeal (hereinafter a "final adjudication") that such indemnitee is not entitled to be indemnified for such expenses under this Article or otherwise.

B. Right of Indemnitee to Bring Suit. If a claim under paragraph (A) of this Article is not paid in full by the Corporation within sixty days after a written claim has been received by the Corporation (except in the case of a claim for an advancement of expenses, in which case the applicable period shall be twenty days), the indemnitee may at any time thereafter bring suit against the Corporation to recover the unpaid amount of the claim. If successful in whole or in part in any such suit, the indemnitee shall also be entitled to be paid the expense of prosecuting or defending such suit. In (i) any suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right to indemnification hereunder (but not a suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right to an advancement of expenses) it shall be a defense that, and (ii) in any suit by the Corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking, the Corporation shall be entitled to recover such expenses upon a final adjudication that the indemnitee has not met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in the Tennessee Code. Neither the failure of the Corporation (including its Board of Directors, independent legal counsel or its stockholders) to have made a determination prior to the commencement of such suit that indemnification of the indemnitee has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in the Tennessee Code, nor an actual determination by the Corporation (including its Board of Directors, independent legal counsel or its stockholders) that the indemnitee has not met such applicable standard of conduct, or in the case of such a suit brought by the indemnitee, shall be a defense to such suit. In any suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right to indemnification or to an advancement of expenses hereunder or by the Corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking, the burden of proving that the indemnitee is not entitled under this Article or otherwise to be indemnified, or to such advancement of expenses, shall be on the Corporation.

C. Non-Exclusivity of Rights. The rights to indemnification and to the advancement of expenses conferred in this Article shall not be exclusive of any other right which any person may have or hereafter acquire under this Certificate of Incorporation or any Bylaw, agreement, vote of stockholders or disinterested directors or otherwise.

D. Insurance. The Corporation may maintain insurance, at its expense, to protect itself and any indemnitee against any expense, liability or loss, whether or not the Corporation would have the power to indemnify such person against such expense, liability or loss under the Tennessee Code.

E. Indemnity of Employees and Agents of the Corporation. The Corporation may, to the extent authorized from time to time by the Board of Directors, grant rights to indemnification and to the advancement of expenses to any employee or agent of the Corporation to the fullest extent of the provisions of this Article or as otherwise permitted under the Tennessee Code with respect to the indemnification and advancement of expenses of directors and officers of the Corporation.

ARTICLE THIRTEEN

The Bylaws of the Corporation may be altered, amended or repealed or new Bylaws may be adopted by the board of directors.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand, this 20th day of December, 1994.

ARTICLES OF CORRECTION

To the Secretary of State of the State of Tennessee:

Pursuant to the provisions of Section 48-11-305 of the Tennessee Business Corporation Act, as amended, the undersigned corporation hereby submits this application:

1. The name of the corporation is Sparta Hospital Corporation.
2. A copy of the incorrect document, as filed, is attached hereto.
3. A description of the incorrect document, filed December 30, 1994, is set forth below:

The Articles of Merger of Sparta Hospital Corporation contained the following incorrect statement in the plan of merger description listed as item 1:

“The stock of Sparta Hospital Corporation shall be cancelled and the stock of Sparta Hospital Corporation shall remain outstanding as the shares of the surviving corporation.”

4. The following correct statement substitutes the first occurrence of the words “Sparta Hospital Corporation” with the words “Hospital Corporation of White County”:

“The stock of Hospital Corporation of White County shall be cancelled and the stock of Sparta Hospital Corporation shall remain outstanding as the shares of the surviving corporation.”

5. These Articles of Correction are effective as of the effective time and date of the incorrect document, being corrected hereby, as to all persons except those persons relying on the incorrect document and adversely affected by the correction, as to whom these Articles of Correction are effective when filed with the Secretary of State of the State of Tennessee.

BYLAWS OF SPARTA HOSPITAL CORPORATION

ARTICLE I

OFFICES

Section 1.1 Registered Office. The registered office shall be in the City of Nashville, State of Tennessee.

Section 1.2 Other Offices. The corporation may also have offices at such other places both within and without the State of Tennessee as the board of directors may from time to time determine or the business of the corporation may require.

ARTICLE II

MEETINGS OF SHAREHOLDERS

Section 2.1 Annual Meeting. An annual meeting of shareholders of the corporation shall be held on such date and at such time as shall be designated from time to time by the board of directors and stated in the notice of the meeting. At such meeting, the shareholders shall elect directors and transact such other business as may properly be brought before the meeting.

Section 2.2 Special Meetings. Special meetings of the shareholders for any purpose whatsoever may be called at any time by the president, the board of directors, or the holders of not less than ten percent of all shares entitled to vote at such meeting.

Section 2.3 Place of Meetings. All meetings of shareholders for any purpose or purposes may be held at such places, within or without the State of Tennessee, as may from time to time be fixed by the board of directors or as shall be stated in the notice of the meeting or in a duly executed waiver of notice thereof.

Section 2.4 Notice. Written notice stating the place, day and hour of the meeting and, in the case of a special meeting, the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is called, shall be given not less than ten nor more than sixty days before the date of the meeting, either personally or by mail.

Section 2.5 Quorum of Shareholders. The holders of a majority of the shares issued and outstanding and entitled to vote at such meeting, present in person or represented by proxy shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at all meetings of the shareholders.

Section 2.6 Voting of Shares. Except as otherwise provided by statute or the articles of incorporation, each holder of record of shares of stock of the Corporation having voting power shall be entitled at each meeting of the shareholders to one vote for every share of such stock standing in his or her name on the record books of shareholders of the corporation on the date on which such notice of the meeting is mailed, unless some other day is fixed by the board of directors for the determination of shareholders of record.

Section 2.7 Voting List. The officer who has charge of the stock transfer books for shares of the corporation shall prepare at least ten days before every meeting of shareholders, a complete list of the shareholders entitled to vote at such meeting, arranged in alphabetical order, including the address of each shareholder and the number of voting shares held by each shareholder. For a period of ten days prior to such meeting, such list shall be kept open to the examination of any shareholder, for any purpose germane to the meeting, during ordinary business hours, either at a place within the city where the meeting is to be held and which place shall be specified in the notice of the meeting, or, if not so specified, at the place where said meeting is to be held. Such list shall be produced at such meeting and at all times during such meeting shall be subject to inspection by any shareholder. The original stock transfer books shall be prima facie evidence as to who are the shareholders entitled to examine such list or stock transfer books.

Section 2.8 Treasury Stock. The corporation shall not vote, directly or indirectly, shares of its own stock owned by it and such shares shall not be counted for quorum purposes.

Section 2.9 Consent of Shareholders in Lieu of Meeting. Whenever the vote of shareholders at a meeting thereof is required or permitted to be taken for or in connection with any corporate action, the meeting, the notice thereof, and the vote of shareholders can be dispensed with, if a consent in writing, setting forth the action so taken, shall be signed by the holders of stock having not less than the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to authorize or take such action at a meeting at which all shares entitled to vote thereof were present and voted, provided that prompt notice must be given to all shareholders of the taking of corporate action without a meeting by less than unanimous written consent.

ARTICLE III DIRECTORS

Section 3.1 Powers of Directors. The business and affairs of the corporation shall be managed by its board of directors which shall have and may exercise all such powers of the corporation, subject to the restrictions imposed by law, the articles of incorporation, or these bylaws.

Section 3.2 Number and Qualification. The number of directors which shall constitute the entire board of directors shall be determined by resolution of the board of directors at any meeting thereof or by the shareholders at any meeting thereof. Directors need not be residents of Tennessee or shareholders of the corporation.

Section 3.3 Election and Term of Office. The directors shall be elected annually by the shareholders, except as provided in Section 3.4 of these bylaws. Each director shall hold office until the next succeeding annual meeting of shareholders and until his or her successor shall have been elected or until his or her earlier death, resignation, or removal. The board of directors may, by resolution, appoint one of its members as chairman to preside over meetings of the board of directors. The position of chairman of the board of directors shall not be an office of the corporation.

Section 3.4 Vacancies. Any vacancy occurring in the board of directors by reason of death, resignation, or removal may be filled by affirmative vote of a majority of the remaining directors, although less than a quorum of the board of directors. Such vacancy may also be filled by affirmative vote of the majority of the shareholders. A director elected to fill a vacancy shall be elected for the unexpired term of his or her predecessor in office or until his or her death, resignation, retirement, disqualification, or removal.

Section 3.5 Resignation of Directors. Any director may resign from office at any time by delivering a written resignation to the secretary of the corporation, and such resignation shall be effective upon delivery of such resignation to the secretary.

Section 3.6 Removal of Directors. Any director may be removed with or without cause at any time by the shareholders.

Section 3.7 Place of Meetings. Regular or special meetings of the board of directors may be held either within or without the State of Tennessee.

Section 3.8 Regular Meetings. Regular meetings of the board of directors may be held without notice at such times and places as may be designated from time to time as may be determined by the board of directors.

Section 3.9 Special Meetings. Special meetings of the board of directors may be called by the president or any director on twenty-four (24) hours notice to each director, either personally or by telephone, mail, telegram or other means of telecommunications. Neither the business to be transacted at, nor the purpose of, any special meeting of the board of directors need be specified in the notice or waiver of notice of any special meeting.

Section 3.10 Quorum of Directors. At all meetings of the board of directors, a majority of the directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business and the act or a majority of the directors present at any meeting at which there is a quorum shall be an act of the board of directors. If a quorum is not present at a meeting, a majority of the directors present may adjourn the meeting from time to time, without notice other than an announcement at the meeting, until a quorum is present.

Section 3.11 Committees. The board of directors may, by resolution passed by a majority of the entire board, designate one or more committees, including, if they shall so determine, an executive committee, each such committee to consist of one or more of the directors of the corporation. Any such designated committee shall have and may exercise such of the powers and authority of the board of directors in the management of the business and affairs of the corporation as may be provided in such resolution, except that no such committee shall have the power or authority of the board of directors in reference to amending the articles of incorporation, adopting an agreement of merger or consolidation, recommending to the shareholders the sale, lease or exchange of all or substantially all of the corporation's property and assets, recommending to the shareholders a dissolution of the corporation or a revocation of a dissolution of the corporation, or amending, altering or repealing the bylaws or adopting new bylaws for the corporation and, unless such resolution or the articles of incorporation expressly so provides, no such committee shall have the power or authority to authorize the issuance of stock. The board of directors shall have the power at any time to change the number and members of any such committee, to fill vacancies and to discharge any such committee.

Section 3.12 Compensation of Directors. The board of directors shall have authority to determine, from time to time, the amount of compensation, if any, which shall be paid to its members for their services as directors and as members of committees of the board of directors. The board of directors shall also have power in its discretion to provide for and to pay to directors rendering services to the corporation not ordinarily rendered by directors as such, special compensation appropriate to the value of such services as determined by the board of directors from time to time. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to preclude any director from serving the corporation in any other capacity and receiving compensation therefor.

Section 3.13 Action by Unanimous Written Consent. Any action required or permitted to be taken at a meeting of the board of directors or any committee may be taken without a meeting if a consent in writing, setting forth the actions so taken, is signed by all of the members of the board of directors or such committee, as the case may be.

Section 3.14 Minutes of Meetings. The board of directors shall keep regular minutes of its proceedings and such minutes shall be placed in the minute book of the corporation. Committees of the board of directors shall maintain a separate record of the minutes of their proceedings.

ARTICLE IV

NOTICES AND TELEPHONE MEETINGS

Section 4.1 Notice. Any notice to directors or shareholders shall be in writing and shall be delivered personally or by mail, telegram, telex, cable, telecopier or similar means to the directors or shareholders at their respective addresses appearing on the books of the corporation. Notice by mail shall be deemed to be given at the time when the same shall be deposited in the United States mail, postage prepaid. Any notice required or permitted to be given by telegram, telex, cable, telecopier, or similar means shall be deemed to be delivered and given at the time transmitted.

Section 4.2 Waiver of Notice. Whenever by law, the articles of incorporation, or these bylaws, notice is required to be given to any shareholder, director, or committee member of the corporation, a waiver thereof in writing signed by the person or persons entitled to such notice, whether before or after the time notice should have been given, shall be equivalent to the giving of such notice. Attendance of a director at a meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting, except where a director attends a meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business on the ground that the meeting is not lawfully called or convened.

Section 4.3 Telephone and Similar Meetings. Shareholders, directors, or committee members may participate in and hold a meeting by means of a conference telephone or similar communications equipment by means of which persons participating in the meeting can hear each other. Participation in such a meeting shall constitute presence in person at such meeting, except where a person participates in the meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business on the ground that the meeting is not lawfully called or convened.

ARTICLE V OFFICERS

Section 5.1 Officers. The corporation shall have a president and a secretary and such other officers and assistant officers as the board may deem desirable to conduct the affairs of the corporation. The position of chairman of the board of directors shall not be an office of the corporation. Any two or more offices may be held by the same person. No officer need be a shareholder or a director.

Section 5.2 Powers and Duties of Officers. The officers of the corporation shall have the powers and duties generally ascribed to the respective offices, and such additional authority or duty as may from time to time be established by the board of directors.

Section 5.3 Removal and Resignation. Any officer appointed by the board of directors may be removed by the board of directors whenever, in the judgment of the board of directors, the best interests of the corporation will be served thereby. Any officer may resign at any time by giving written notice to the corporation. Any such resignation shall take effect at the date of receipt of such notice or at a later time specified therein, and unless otherwise specified therein, the acceptance of such resignation shall not be necessary to make it effective.

Section 5.4 Term and Vacancies. The officers of the corporation shall hold office until their successors are elected or appointed, or until their death, resignation, or removal from office. Any vacancy occurring in any office of the corporation by death, resignation, removal, or otherwise, may be filled by the board of directors.

Section 5.5 Compensation. The salaries of all officers of the corporation shall be fixed by the board of directors. The board of directors shall have the power to enter into contracts for the employment and compensation of officers on such terms as the board of directors deems advisable. No officer shall be disqualified from receiving a salary or other compensation by reason of the fact that he or she is also a director of the corporation.

ARTICLE VI

CERTIFICATES AND SHAREHOLDERS

Section 6.1 Certificates for Shares. The certificates for shares of stock of the Corporation shall be in such form as shall be approved by the board of directors in conformity with law and the articles of incorporation. Every certificate for shares issued by the corporation must be signed by the President or a Vice President and the Secretary or an Assistant Secretary under the seal of the corporation. Any or all of the signatures on the face of the certificate may be facsimile. Such certificates shall bear a legend or legends in the form and containing the restrictions to be stated thereon by the Tennessee Business Corporation Act (the "Tennessee Code"), other provisions of law, the articles of incorporation or these bylaws. Certificates shall be consecutively numbered and shall be entered as they are issued. Each certificate shall state on the face thereof the holder's name, the number and class of shares, the par value of such shares, and such other matters as may be required by law, the articles of incorporation or these bylaws.

Section 6.2 Lost, Stolen, or Destroyed Certificates. The board of directors, the executive committee, or the president of the corporation may direct a new certificate or certificates representing shares to be issued in place of any certificate or certificates theretofore issued by the corporation alleged to have been lost, stolen, or destroyed, upon the making of an affidavit of the fact by the person claiming the certificate or certificates to be lost, stolen, or destroyed. When authorizing such issue of a new certificate the board of directors, the executive committee or the president may require the owner of such lost, stolen, or destroyed certificate, or his or her legal representative, to advertise the same in such manner as it or he or she shall require and/or give the corporation a bond in such sum as it may direct as indemnity against any claim that may be made against the corporation with respect to the certificate alleged to have been lost, stolen or destroyed.

Section 6.3 Transfer of Shares. Shares of stock of the corporation shall be transferable only on the books of the corporation by the holder thereof in person or by the holder's duly authorized attorneys or legal representatives. Upon surrender to the corporation or the transfer agent of the corporation of a certificate representing shares duly endorsed or accompanied by proper evidence of succession, assignment, or authority to transfer, the corporation or its transfer agent shall issue a new certificate to the person entitled thereto, cancel the old certificate, and record the transaction upon its books.

Section 6.4 Registered Shareholders. The corporation shall be entitled to recognize the exclusive right of a person registered on its books as the owner of shares to receive dividends, and to vote as such owner, and to hold liable for calls and assessments, a person registered on its books as the owner of shares, and shall not be bound to recognize any equitable or other claim to or interest in such shares on the part of any person, whether or not it shall have actual or other notice thereof, except as otherwise provided by law.

ARTICLE VII

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

Section 7.1 Dividends. Dividends upon the outstanding shares of the corporation, subject to the provisions of the applicable statutes and of the articles of incorporation, may be declared by the board of directors at any annual, regular or special meeting. Dividends may be declared and paid in cash, in property, or in shares of the corporation, or in any combination thereof.

Section 7.2 Reserves. There may be set aside out of any funds of the corporation available for dividends such sum or sums as the board of directors from time to time in their sole and absolute discretion think proper as a reserve to meet contingencies, or to equalize dividends, or to repair or maintain any property of the corporation, or for such other purpose as the board of directors shall think conducive to the interest of the corporation, and the board of directors may modify or abolish any such reserve in the manner in which it was created.

Section 7.3 Signature of Negotiable Instruments. All checks or demands for money and notes of the corporation shall be signed by such officer or officers or such other person or persons as the board of directors may from time to time designate.

Section 7.4 Fiscal Year. The fiscal year of the corporation shall be fixed by the board of directors; provided, that if such fiscal year is not fixed by the board of directors it shall be the calendar year.

Section 7.5 Books of the Corporation. The books of the corporation may be kept, subject to the provisions of the applicable statutes, within or outside of the State of Florida, at such place or places as may from time to time be designated by the board of directors or as the business of the corporation may require.

Section 7.6 Seal. The seal, if any, of the corporation shall be in such form as may be approved from time to time by the board of directors. If the board of directors approves a seal, the affixation of such seal shall not be required to create a valid and binding obligation against the corporation.

Section 7.7 Securities of Other Corporations. Unless otherwise ordered by the board of directors, the president or the secretary of the corporation shall have full power and authority on behalf of the corporation to attend, to vote and to grant proxies to be used at any meeting of shareholders of such other corporation in which the corporation may hold stock. The board of directors may confer like powers upon any other person or persons.

Section 7.8 Fixed Record Date. In order that the corporation may determine the shareholders entitled to notice of or to vote at any meeting of shareholders or any adjournment thereof, or to express consent to corporate action in writing without a meeting, or entitled to receive payment of any dividend or other distribution or allotment of any rights, or entitled to exercise any rights in respect of any change, conversion or exchange of stock for the purpose of any other lawful action, the board of directors may fix, in advance, a record date which shall be not more than sixty 60 days before the date of such meeting, nor more than 60 days prior to any other action.

Section 7.9 Amendment. The power to alter, amend, or repeal these bylaws or to adopt new bylaws is vested in the board of directors.

Section 7.10 Right to Indemnification.

(A) Each person (hereinafter an "indemnitee") who was or is made a party to or is threatened to be made a party to or is otherwise involved in any action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (hereinafter a "proceeding"), by reason of the fact that he or she was a director, officer or agent of the corporation or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation or of a partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, including service with respect to an employee benefit plan, whether the basis of such proceeding is alleged action in an official capacity as a director, officer, employee or agent, shall be indemnified and held harmless by the corporation to the fullest extent authorized by the Tennessee Code, as the same exists or may hereafter be amended (but, in the case of any such amendment, only to the extent that such amendment permits the corporation to provide broader indemnification rights than permitted prior thereto), against all expense, liability and loss (including attorney's fees, judgments, fines, ERISA excise taxes or penalties and amounts paid in settlement) reasonably incurred or suffered by such indemnitee in connection therewith, and such indemnification shall continue with respect to an indemnitee who has ceased to be a director, officer, employee or agent and shall inure to the benefit of the indemnitee's heirs, executors and administrators; provided, however, that, except as provided in paragraph (B) hereof with respect to proceedings to enforce rights to indemnification, the corporation shall indemnify any such indemnitee only if such proceeding (or part thereof) was authorized by the board of directors of the corporation. The right to indemnification conferred in this section shall be a contract right and shall include the right to be paid by the corporation the expenses incurred in defending any such proceeding in advance of its final disposition (hereinafter an "advancement of expenses"); provided, however, that, if the Tennessee Code requires, an advancement of expenses incurred by an indemnitee shall be made only upon delivery to the corporation of an undertaking (hereinafter an “undertaking”), by or on behalf of such indemnitee, to repay all amounts so advanced if it shall ultimately be determined by final judicial decision from which there is no further right to appeal (hereinafter a “final adjudication”) that such indemnitee is not entitled to be indemnified for such expenses under this section or otherwise.

(B) If a claim under paragraph (A) of this section is not paid in full by the corporation within 60 days after a written claim has been received by the corporation, except in the case of a claim for an advancement of expenses, in which case the applicable period shall be 20 days, the indemnitee may at any time thereafter bring suit against the corporation to recover the unpaid amount of such suit, or in a suit brought by the corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking, the indemnitee shall be entitled to be paid also the expense of prosecuting or defending such suit. In (i) any suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right to indemnification hereunder (but not in a suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right to an advancement of expenses) it shall be a defense that, and (ii) any suit by the corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking the corporation shall be entitled to recover such expenses upon a final adjudication that, the indemnitee has not met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in the Tennessee Code. Neither the failure of the corporation (including its board of directors, independent legal counsel, or its shareholders) to have made a determination prior to the commencement of such suit that indemnification of the indemnitee is proper in the circumstances because the indemnitee has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in the Tennessee Code, nor an actual determination by the corporation (including its board of directors, independent legal counsel, or its shareholders) that the indemnitee has not met such applicable standard of conduct shall create a presumption that the indemnitee has not met the applicable standard of conduct or, in the case of such a suit brought by the indemnitee, be a defense of such suit. In any suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right of indemnification or to an advancement of expenses hereunder, or by the corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking, the burden of proving that the indemnitee is not entitled to be indemnified, or to such advancement of expenses, under this section or otherwise shall be on the corporation.

(C) The rights to indemnification and to the advancement of expenses conferred in this section shall not be exclusive of any other right which any person may have or hereafter acquire under any statute, the corporation’s certificate of incorporation, by agreement, by vote of shareholders or by disinterested directors or otherwise.

(D) The corporation may maintain insurance, at its expense, to protect itself and any director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation or another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise against any expense, liability or loss, whether or not the corporation would have the power to indemnify such person against such expense, liability or loss under the Tennessee Code.

Section 7.11 Invalid Provisions. If any provision of these bylaws is held to be illegal, invalid, or unenforceable under present or future laws, such provision shall be fully severable; these bylaws shall be construed and enforced as if such illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision had never comprised a part hereof; and the remaining provisions hereof shall remain in full force and effect and shall not be affected by the illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision or by its severance herefrom. Furthermore, in lieu of such illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision there shall be added automatically as a part of these bylaws a provision as similar in terms to such illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision as may be possible and be legal, valid, and enforceable.

Section 7.12 Headings. The headings used in these bylaws are for reference purposes only and do not affect in any way the meaning or interpretation of these bylaws.

The above bylaws were duly adopted as the bylaws of the corporation effective as of the 20th day of December, 1994.

ARTICLE NINE

A director of the Corporation shall not be personally liable to the Corporation or its stockholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director, except for liability (1) for any breach of the director's duty of loyalty to the Corporation or its stockholders, (ii) for acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law, (iii) under Section 2 41 of the Texas Business Corporation Act or (iv) for any transaction from which the director derives an improper personal benefit If the Texas Business Corporation Act is amended hereafter to authorize corporate action further eliminating or limiting the personal liability of directors, then the liability of a director of the Corporation shall be eliminated or limited to the fullest extent permitted by the Texas Business Corporation Act, as so amended.

Any repeal or modification of the foregoing paragraph by the stockholders of the Corporation shall not adversely affect any right or protection of a director of the Corporation existing at the time of such repeal or modification.

ARTICLE TEN

A. Rights to Indemnification Each person who was or is made a party or is threatened to be made a party to or is otherwise involved in any action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (hereinafter a "proceeding"), by reason of the fact that he or she, or a person of whom he or she is the legal representative, or is or was a director or officer of the Corporation or is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director or officer of another corporation or of a partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, including service with respect to an employee benefit plan (hereinafter an "indemnatee"), whether the basis of such proceeding is alleged action in an official capacity as a director or officer or in any other capacity while serving as a director or officer, shall be indemnified and held harmless by the Corporation to the fullest extent authorized by the Texas Business Corporation Act as the same exists or may hereafter be amended (but, in the case of any such amendment, only to the extent that such amendment permits the Corporation to provide broader indemnification rights than permitted prior thereto), against all expense, liability and loss (including, without limitation, attorneys' fees, judgments, fines, excise taxes or penalties and amounts paid or to be paid in settlement) incurred or suffered by such indemnitee in connection therewith and such indemnification shall continue with respect to an indemnitee who has ceased to be a director or officer and shall inure to the benefit of the indemnitee's heirs, executors and administrators, provided, however, that except as provided in paragraph (B) hereof with respect to proceedings to enforce rights to indemnification, the Corporation shall indemnify any such indemnitee in connection with a proceeding initiated by such indemnitee only if such proceeding was authorized by the Board of Directors of the Corporation. The right to indemnification conferred in this Article Ten shall be a contract right and shall include the right to be paid by the Corporation the expenses incurred in defending any such proceeding in advance of its final disposition (hereinafter an "advancement of expenses"); provided, however, that, if the Texas Business Corporation Act requires, an advancement of expenses incurred by an indemnitee shall be made only upon delivery to the Corporation of an undertaking (hereinafter an "undertaking"), by or on behalf of such indemnitee, to repay all amounts so advanced if it shall ultimately be determined by final judicial decision from which there is no further right to appeal (hereinafter a "final adjudication") that such indemnitee is not entitled to be indemnified for such expenses under this Article Ten or otherwise.

B. Right of Indemnitee to Bring Suit If a claim under paragraph (A) of this Article Ten is not paid in full by the Corporation within sixty days after a written claim has been received by the Corporation (except in the case of a claim for an advancement of expenses, in which case the applicable period shall be twenty days), the indemnitee may at any time thereafter bring suit against the Corporation to recover the unpaid amount of the claim. If successful in whole or in part in any such suit, the indemnitee shall also be entitled to be paid the expense of prosecuting or defending such suit. In (1) any suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right to indemnification hereunder (but not a suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right to an advancement of expenses) it shall be a defense that, and (ii) in any suit by the Corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking, the Corporation shall be entitled to recover such expenses upon a final adjudication that, the indemnitee has not met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in the Texas Business Corporation Act. Neither the failure of the Corporation (including its Board of Directors, independent legal counsel or its stockholders) to have made a determination prior to the commencement of such suit that indemnification of the indemnitee has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in the Texas Business Corporation Act, nor an actual determination by the Corporation (including its Board of Directors, independent legal counsel or its stockholders) that the indemnitee has not met such applicable standard of conduct, or in the case of such a suit brought by the indemnitee, shall be a defense to such suit. In any suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right to indemnification or to an advancement of expenses hereunder or by the Corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking, the burden of proving that the indemnitee is not entitled under this Article Ten or otherwise to be indemnified, or to such advancement of expenses, shall be on the Corporation.

C. Non-Exclusivity of Rights The rights to indemnification and to the advancement of expenses conferred in this Article Ten shall not be exclusive of any other right which any person may have or hereafter acquire under these Articles of Incorporation or any Bylaw, agreement, vote of stockholders or disinterested directors or otherwise.

D. Insurance The Corporation may maintain insurance, at its expense, to protect itself and any indemnitee against any expense, liability or loss, whether or not the Corporation would have the power to indemnify such person against such expense, liability or loss under the Texas Business Corporation Act

E. Indemnity of Employees and Agents of the Corporation The Corporation may, to the extent authorized from time to time by the Board of Directors, grant rights to indemnification and to the advancement of expenses to any employee or agent of the Corporation to the fullest extent of the provisions of this Article Ten or as otherwise permitted under the Texas Business Corporation Act with respect to the indemnification and advancement of expenses of directors and officers of the Corporation

The Bylaws of the Corporation may be altered, amended or repealed or new Bylaws may be adopted by the board of directors.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand, this 21st day of July, 1997

INSTRUCTIONS

1. It is recommended that you call (512) 463-5555 to verify the information in items 3 and 5 as it currently appears on the records of the secretary of state before submitting the statement for filing. You also may e-mail an inquiry to corpinfo@sos.state.tx.us. As information on out-of-state financial institutions is maintained on a separate database, a financial institution must call (512) 463-5701 to verify registered agent and registered office information. If the information on the form is inconsistent with the records of this office, the statement will be returned.

2. You are required by law to provide a street address in item 4 unless the registered office is located in a city with a population of 5,000 or less. The purpose of this requirement is to provide the public with notice of a physical location at which process may be served on the registered agent. A statement submitted with a post office box address or a lock box address will not be filed.

3. An authorized officer of the corporation or financial institution must sign the statement. In the case of a limited liability company, an authorized member or manager of a limited liability company must sign the statement. A general partner must sign the statement on behalf of a limited partnership. A person commits an offense under the Texas Business Corporation Act, the Texas Non-Profit Corporation Act or the Texas Limited Liability Company Act if the person signs a document the person knows is false in any material respect with the intent that the document be delivered to the secretary of state for filing. The offense is a Class A misdemeanor.

4. Please attach the appropriate fee:

Business Corporation	$15.00
Financial Institution, other than Credit Unions	$15.00
Financial Institution that is a Credit Union	$ 5.00
Non-Profit Corporation	$ 5.00
Limited Liability Company	$10.00
Limited Partnership	$50.00

Personal checks and MasterCard®, Visa®, and Discover® are accepted in payment of the filing fee. Checks or money orders must be payable through a U.S. bank or other financial institution and made payable to the secretary of state. Fees paid by credit card are subject to a statutorily authorized processing cost of 2.1% of the total fees.

5. Two copies of the form along with the filing fee should be mailed to the address shown in the heading of this form. The delivery address is: Secretary of State, Statutory Filings Division, Corporations Section, James Earl Rudder Office Building, 1019 Brazos, Austin, Texas 78701.

We will place one document on record and return a file stamped copy, if a duplicate copy is provided for such purpose. The telephone number is (512) 463-5555, TDD: (800) 735-2989, FAX: (512) 463-5709.

BYLAWS OF BIG BEND HOSPITAL CORPORATION

ARTICLE I

OFFICES

Section 1.1 Registered Office. The registered office shall be in the City of Dallas, State of Texas.

Section 1.2 Other Offices. The corporation may also have offices at such other places both within and without the State of Texas, as the board of directors may from time to time determine or the business of the corporation may require.

ARTICLE II

MEETINGS OF SHAREHOLDERS

Section 2.1 Annual Meeting. An annual meeting of shareholders of the corporation shall be held on such date and at such time as shall be designated from time to time by the board of directors and stated in the notice of the meeting. At such meeting, the shareholders shall elect directors and transact such other business as may properly be brought before the meeting.

Section 2.2 Special Meetings. Special meetings of the shareholders for any purpose whatsoever may be called at any time by the president, the board of directors, or the holders of not less than ten percent of all shares entitled to vote at such meeting.

Section 2.3 Place of Meetings. All meetings of shareholders for any purpose or purposes may be held at such places, within or without the State of Texas, as may from time to time be fixed by the board of directors or as shall be stated in the notice of the meeting or in a duly executed waiver of notice thereof:

Section 2.4 Notice. Written notice stating the place, day and hour of the meeting and, in the case of a special meeting, the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is called, shall be given not less than ten nor more than sixty days before the date of the meeting, either personally or by mail.

Section 2.5 Quorum of Shareholders. The holders of a majority of the shares issued and outstanding and entitled to vote at such meeting, present in person or represented by proxy shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at all meetings of the shareholders.

Section 2.6 Voting of Shares. Except as otherwise provided by statute or the articles of incorporation, each holder of record of shares of stock of the Corporation having voting power shall be entitled at each meeting of the shareholders to one vote for every share of such stock standing in his or her name on the record books of shareholders of the corporation on the date on which such notice of the meeting is mailed, unless some other day is fixed by the board of directors for the determination of shareholders of record.

Section 2.7 Voting List. The officer who has charge of the stock transfer books for shares of the corporation shall prepare at least ten days before every meeting of shareholders, a complete list of the shareholders entitled to vote at such meeting, arranged in alphabetical order, including the address of each shareholder and the number of voting shares held by each shareholder. For a period of ten days prior to such meeting, such list shall be kept open to the examination of any shareholder, for any purpose germane to the meeting, during ordinary business hours, either at a place within the city where the meeting is to be held and which place shall be specified in the notice of the meeting, or, if not so specified, at the place where said meeting is to be held. Such list shall be produced at such meeting and at all times during such meeting shall be subject to inspection by any shareholder. The original stock transfer books shall be prima facie evidence as to who are the shareholders entitled to examine such list or stock transfer books.

Section 2.8 Treasury Stock. The corporation shall not vote, directly or indirectly, shares of its own stock owned by it and such shares shall not be counted for quorum purposes.

Section 2.9 Action by Unanimous Written Consent. Any action required or permitted to be taken at a meeting of the shareholders may be taken without a meeting if a consent in writing, setting forth the actions so taken, is signed by all of the shareholders.

ARTICLE III DIRECTORS

Section 3.1 Powers of Directors. The business and affairs of the corporation shall be managed by its board of directors which shall have and may exercise all such powers of the corporation, subject to the restrictions imposed by law, the articles of incorporation, or these bylaws.

Section 3.2 Number and Qualification. The number of directors which shall constitute the entire board of directors shall be determined by resolution of the board of directors at any meeting thereof or by the shareholders at any meeting thereof. Directors need not be residents of Texas or shareholders of the corporation.

Section 3.3 Election and Term of Office. The directors shall be elected annually by the shareholders, except as provided in Section 3.4 of these bylaws. Each director shall hold office until the next succeeding annual meeting of shareholders and until his or her successor shall have been elected or until his or her earlier death, resignation, or removal. The board of directors may, by resolution, appoint one of its members as chairman to preside over meetings of the board of directors. The position of chairman of the board of directors shall not be an office of the corporation.

Section 3.4 Vacancies. Any vacancy occurring in the board of directors by reason of death, resignation, or removal may be filled by affirmative vote of a majority of the remaining directors, although less than a quorum of the board of directors. Such vacancy may also be filled by affirmative vote of the majority of the shareholders. A director elected to fill a vacancy shall be elected for the unexpired term of his or her predecessor in office or until his or her death, resignation, retirement, disqualification, or removal.

Section 3.5 Resignation of Directors. Any director may resign from office at any time by delivering a written resignation to the secretary of the corporation, and such resignation shall be effective upon delivery of such resignation to the secretary.

Section 3.6 Removal of Directors. Any director may be removed with or without cause at any time by the shareholders.

Section 3.7 Place of Meetings. Regular or special meetings of the board of directors may be held either within or without the State of Texas.

Section 3.8 Regular Meetings. Regular meetings of the board of directors may be held without notice at such times and places as may be designated from time to time as may be determined by the board of directors.

Section 3.9 Special Meetings. Special meetings of the board of directors may be called by the president or any director on twenty-four (24) hours notice to each director, either personally or by telephone, mail, telegram or other means of telecommunications. Neither the business to be transacted at, nor the purpose of, any special meeting of the board of directors need be specified in the notice or waiver of notice of any special meeting.

Section 3.10 Quorum of Directors. At all meetings of the board of directors, a majority of the directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business and the act or a majority of the directors present at any meeting at which there is a quorum shall be an act of the board of directors. If a quorum is not present at a meeting, a majority of the directors present may adjourn the meeting from time to time, without notice other than an announcement at the meeting, until a quorum is present.

Section 3.11 Committees. The board of directors may, by resolution passed by a majority of the entire board, designate one or more committees, including, if they shall so determine, an executive committee, each such committee to consist of one or more of the directors of the corporation. Any such designated committee shall have and may exercise such of the powers and authority of the board of directors in the management of the business and affairs of the corporation as may be provided in such resolution, except that no such committee shall have the power or authority of the board of directors in reference to amending the articles of incorporation, adopting an agreement of merger or consolidation, recommending to the shareholders the sale, lease or exchange of all or substantially all of the corporation's property and assets, recommending to the shareholders a dissolution of the corporation or a revocation of a dissolution of the corporation, or amending, altering or repealing the bylaws or adopting new bylaws for the corporation and, unless such resolution or the articles of incorporation expressly so provides, no such committee shall have the power or authority to authorize the issuance of stock. The board of directors shall have the power at any time to change the number and members of any such committee, to fill vacancies and to discharge any such committee.

Section 3.12 Compensation of Directors. The board of directors shall have authority to determine, from time to time, the amount of compensation, if any, which shall be paid to its members for their services as directors and as members of committees of the board of directors. The board of directors shall also have power in its discretion to provide for and to pay to directors rendering services to the corporation not ordinarily rendered by directors as such, special compensation appropriate to the value of such services as determined by the board of directors from time to time. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to preclude any director from serving the corporation in any other capacity and receiving compensation therefor.

Section 3.13 Action by Unanimous Written Consent. Any action required or permitted to be taken at a meeting of the board of directors or any committee may be taken without a meeting if a consent in writing, setting forth the actions so taken, is signed by all of the members of the board of directors or such committee, as the case may be.

Section 3.14 Minutes of Meetings. The board of directors shall keep regular minutes of its proceedings and such minutes shall be placed in the minute book of the corporation. Committees of the board of directors shall maintain a separate record of the minutes of their proceedings.

ARTICLE IV

NOTICES AND TELEPHONE MEETINGS

Section 4.1 Notice. Any notice to directors or shareholders shall be in writing and shall be delivered personally or by mail, telegram, telex, cable, telecopier or similar means to the directors or shareholders at their respective addresses appearing on the books of the corporation.

Notice by mail shall be deemed to be given at the time when the same shall be deposited in the United States mail, postage prepaid. Any notice required or permitted to be given by telegram, telex, cable, telecopier, or similar means shall be deemed to be delivered and given at the time transmitted.

Section 4.2 Waiver of Notice. Whenever by law, the articles of incorporation, or these bylaws, notice is required to be given to any shareholder, director, or committee member of the corporation, a waiver thereof in writing signed by the person or persons entitled to such notice, whether before or after the time notice should have been given, shall be equivalent to the giving of such notice. Attendance of a director at a meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting, except where a director attends a meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business on the ground that the meeting is not lawfully called or convened.

Section 4.3 Telephone and Similar Meetings: Shareholders, directors, or committee members may participate in and hold a meeting by means of a conference telephone or similar communications equipment by means of which persons participating in the meeting can hear each other. Participation in such a meeting shall constitute presence in person at such meeting, except where a person participates in the meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business on the ground that the meeting is not lawfully called or convened.

ARTICLE V OFFICERS

Section 5.1 Officers. The corporation shall have a president and a secretary and such other officers and assistant officers as the board may deem desirable to conduct the affairs of the corporation. The position of chairman of the board of directors shall not be an office of the corporation. Any two or more offices may be held by the same person. No officer need be a shareholder or a director.

Section 5.2 Powers and Duties of Officers. The officers of the corporation shall have the powers and duties generally ascribed to the respective offices, and such additional authority or duty as may from time to time be established by the board of directors.

Section 5.3 Removal and Resignation. Any officer appointed by the board of directors may be removed by the board of directors whenever, in the judgment of the board of directors, the best interests of the corporation will be served thereby. Any officer may resign at any time by giving written notice to the corporation. Any such resignation shall take effect at the date of receipt of such notice or at a later time specified therein, and unless otherwise specified therein, the acceptance of such resignation shall not be necessary to make it effective.

Section 5.4 Term and Vacancies. The officers of the corporation shall hold office until their successors are elected or appointed, or until their death, resignation, or removal from office. Any vacancy occurring in any office of the corporation by death, resignation, removal, or otherwise, may be filled by the board of directors.

Section 5.5 Compensation. The salaries of all officers of the corporation shall be fixed by the board of directors. The board of directors shall have the power to enter into contracts for the employment and compensation of officers on such terms as the board of directors deems advisable. No officer shall be disqualified from receiving a salary or other compensation by reason of the fact that he or she is also a director of the corporation.

ARTICLE VI

CERTIFICATES AND SHAREHOLDERS

Section 6.1 Certificates for Shares. The certificates for shares of stock of the Corporation shall be in such form as shall be approved by the board of directors in conformity with law and the articles of incorporation. Every certificate for shares issued by the corporation must be signed by the President or a Vice President and the Secretary or an Assistant Secretary under the seal of the corporation. Any or all of the signatures on the face of the certificate may be facsimile. Such certificates shall bear a legend or legends in the form and containing the restrictions to be stated thereon by the Texas Business Corporation Act (the "Texas Code"), other provisions of law, the articles of incorporation or these bylaws. Certificates shall be consecutively numbered and shall be entered as they are issued. Each certificate shall state on the face thereof the holder's name, the number and class of shares, the par value of such shares, and such other matters as may be required by law, the articles of incorporation or these bylaws.

Section 6.2 Lost, Stolen, or Destroyed Certificates. The board of directors, the executive committee, or the president of the corporation may direct a new certificate or certificates representing shares to be issued in place of any certificate or certificates theretofore issued by the corporation alleged to have been lost, stolen, or destroyed, upon the making of an affidavit of the fact by the person claiming the certificate or certificates to be lost, stolen, or destroyed. When authorizing such issue of a new certificate the board of directors, the executive committee or the president may require the owner of such lost, stolen, or destroyed certificate, or his or her legal representative, to advertise the same in such manner as it or he or she shall require and/or give the corporation a bond in such sum as it may direct as indemnity against any claim that may be made against the corporation with respect to the certificate alleged to have been lost, stolen or destroyed.

Section 6.3 Transfer of Shares. Shares of stock of the corporation shall be transferable only on the books of the corporation by the holder thereof in person or by the holder's duly authorized attorneys or legal representatives. Upon surrender to the corporation or the transfer agent of the corporation of a certificate representing shares duly endorsed or accompanied by proper evidence of succession, assignment, or authority to transfer, the corporation or its transfer agent shall issue a new certificate to the person entitled thereto, cancel the old certificate, and record the transaction upon its books.

Section 6.4 Registered Shareholders. The corporation shall be entitled to recognize the exclusive right of a person registered on its books as the owner of shares to receive dividends, and to vote as such owner, and to hold liable for calls and assessments, a person registered on its books as the owner of shares, and shall not be bound to recognize any equitable or other claim to or interest in such shares on the part of any person, whether or not it shall have actual or other notice thereof, except as otherwise provided by law.

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

Section 7.1 Dividends. Dividends upon the outstanding shares of the corporation, subject to the provisions of the applicable statutes and of the articles of incorporation, may be declared by the board of directors at any annual, regular or special meeting. Dividends may be declared and paid in cash, in property, or in shares of the corporation, or in any combination thereof.

Section 7.2 Reserves. There may be set aside out of any funds of the corporation available for dividends such sum or sums as the board of directors from time to time in their sole and absolute discretion think proper as a reserve to meet contingencies, or to equalize dividends, or to repair or maintain any property of the corporation, or for such other purpose as the board of directors shall think conducive to the interest of the corporation, and the board of directors may modify or abolish any such reserve in the manner in which it was created.

Section 7.3 Signature of Negotiable Instruments. All checks or demands for money and notes of the corporation shall be signed by such officer or officers or such other person or persons as the board of directors may from time to time designate.

Section 7.4 Fiscal Year. The fiscal year of the corporation shall be fixed by the board of directors; provided, that if such fiscal year is not fixed by the board of directors it shall be the calendar year.

Section 7.5 Books of the Corporation. The books of the corporation may be kept, subject to the provisions of the applicable statutes, within or outside of the State of Texas, at such place or places as may from time to time be designated by the board of directors or as the business of the corporation may require.

Section 7.6 Seal. The seal, if any, of the corporation shall be in such form as may be approved from time to time by the board of directors. If the board of directors approves a seal, the affixation of such seal shall not be required to create a valid and binding obligation against the corporation.

Section 7.7 Securities of Other Corporations. Unless otherwise ordered by the board of directors, the president or the secretary of the corporation shall have full power and authority on behalf of the corporation to attend, to vote and to grant proxies to be used at any meeting of shareholders of such other corporation in which the corporation may hold stock. The board of directors may confer like powers upon any other person or persons.

Section 7.8 Fixed Record Date. In order that the corporation may determine the shareholders entitled to notice of or to vote at any meeting of shareholders or any adjournment thereof, or to express consent to corporate action in writing without a meeting, or entitled to receive payment of any dividend or other distribution or allotment of any rights, or entitled to exercise any rights in respect of any change, conversion or exchange of stock for the purpose of any other lawful action, the board of directors may fix, in advance, a record date which shall be not more than sixty 60 days before the date of such meeting, nor more than 60 days prior to any other action.

Section 7.9 Amendment. The power to alter, amend, or repeal these bylaws or to adopt new bylaws is vested in the board of directors.

Section 7.10 Right to Indemnification.

(A) Each person (hereinafter an “indemnitee”) who was or is made a party or is threatened to be made a party to or is otherwise involved in any action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (hereinafter a “proceeding”), by reason of the fact that he or she was a director, officer or agent of the corporation or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation or of a partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, including service with respect to an employee benefit plan, whether the basis of such proceeding is alleged action in an official capacity as a director, officer, employee or agent, shall be indemnified and held harmless by the corporation to the fullest extent authorized by the Texas Code, as the same exists or may hereafter be amended (but, in the case of any such amendment, only to the extent that such amendment permits the corporation to provide broader indemnification rights than permitted prior thereto), against all expense, liability and loss (including attorney’s fees, judgments, fines, ERISA excise taxes or penalties and amounts paid in settlement) reasonably incurred or suffered by such indemnitee in connection therewith, and such indemnification shall continue with respect to an indemnitee who has ceased to be a director, officer, employee or agent and shall inure to the benefit of the indemnitee’s heirs, executors and administrators; provided, however, that, except as provided in paragraph (B) hereof with respect to proceedings to enforce rights to indemnification, the corporation shall indemnify any such indemnitee only if such proceeding (or part thereof) was authorized by the board of directors of the corporation. The right to indemnification conferred in this section shall be a contract right and shall include the right to be paid by the corporation the expenses incurred in defending any such proceeding in advance of its final disposition (hereinafter an “advancement of expenses”); provided, however, that, if the Texas Code requires, an advancement of expenses incurred by an indemnitee shall be made only upon delivery to the corporation of an undertaking (hereinafter an “undertaking”), by or on behalf of such indemnitee, to repay all amounts so advanced if it shall ultimately be determined by final judicial decision from which there is no further right to appeal (hereinafter a “final adjudication”) that such indemnitee is not entitled to be indemnified for such expenses under this section or otherwise.

(B) If a claim under paragraph (A) of this section is not paid in full by the corporation within 60 days after a written claim has been received by the corporation, except in the case of a claim for an advancement of expenses, in which case the applicable period shall be 20 days, the indemnitee may at any time thereafter bring suit against the corporation to recover the unpaid amount of such suit, or in a suit brought by the corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking, the indemnitee shall be entitled to be paid also the expense of prosecuting or defending such suit. In (i) any suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right to indemnification hereunder (but not in a suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right to an advancement of expenses) it shall be a defense that, and (ii) any suit by the corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking the corporation shall be entitled to recover such expenses upon a final adjudication that, the indemnitee has not met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in the Texas Code. Neither the failure of the corporation (including its board of directors, independent legal counsel, or its shareholders) to have made a determination prior to the commencement of such suit that indemnification of the indemnitee is proper in the circumstances because the indemnitee has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in the Texas Code, nor an actual determination by the corporation (including its board of directors, independent legal counsel, or its shareholders) that the indemnitee has not met such applicable standard of conduct shall create a presumption that the indemnitee has not met the applicable standard of conduct or, in the case of such a suit brought by the indemnitee, be a defense of such suit. In any suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right of indemnification or to an advancement of expenses hereunder, or by the corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking, the burden of proving that the indemnitee is not entitled to be indemnified, or to such advancement of expenses, under this section or otherwise shall be on the corporation.

(C) The rights to indemnification and to the advancement of expenses conferred in this section shall not be exclusive of any other right which any person may have or hereafter acquire under any statute, the corporation's certificate of incorporation, by agreement, by vote of shareholders or by disinterested directors or otherwise.

(D) The corporation may maintain insurance, at its expense, to protect itself and any director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation or another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise against any expense, liability or loss, whether or not the corporation would have the power to indemnify such person against such expense, liability or loss under the Texas Code.

Section 7.11 Invalid Provisions. If any provision of these bylaws is held to be illegal, invalid, or unenforceable under present or future laws, such provision shall be fully severable; these bylaws shall be construed and enforced as if such illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision had never comprised a part hereof; and the remaining provisions hereof shall remain in full force and effect and shall not be affected by the illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision or by its severance herefrom. Furthermore, in lieu of such illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision there shall be added automatically as a part of these bylaws a provision as similar in terms to such illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision as may be possible and be legal, valid, and enforceable.

Section 7.12 Headings. The headings used in these bylaws are for reference purposes only and do not affect in any way the meaning or interpretation of these bylaws.

The above bylaws were duly adopted as the bylaws of the corporation effective as of the 22nd day of July, 1997.

ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION

OF

BIG SPRING HOSPITAL CORPORATION

FILED in the Office of the Secretary of State of Texas

DEC 20 1994

Corporations Section

The undersigned natural person of the age of eighteen years or more, acting as incorporator of a corporation under the Texas Business Corporation Act, does hereby adopt the following Articles of Incorporation for such corporation:

ARTICLE ONE

The name of the Corporation is Big Spring Hospital Corporation.

ARTICLE TWO

The period of its duration is perpetual.

ARTICLE THREE

The purpose for which the Corporation is organized is to engage in the transaction of any or all lawful business for which corporations may be incorporated under the Texas Business Corporation Act.

ARTICLE FOUR

The aggregate number of shares which the Corporation shall have authority to issue is One Thousand (1,000) shares of $.01 par value per share common stock.

ARTICLE FIVE

The Corporation will not commence business until it has received for the issuance of its shares consideration of the value of at least One Thousand Dollars ($1,000), consisting of money, labor done or property actually received.

ARTICLE SIX

The street address of its initial registered office is 100 Congress Avenue, Suite 1100, Austin, Texas 78701, and the name of its initial registered agent at such address is Corporation Service Company d/b/a CSC-Lawyers Incorporating Service Company.

ARTICLE SEVEN

The number of directors of the Corporation may be fixed by the Bylaws.

The number of directors constituting the initial board of directors is three (3), and the names and addresses of the persons who are to serve as directors until the first annual meeting of the shareholders or until a successor is elected and qualified are:

Tyree G. Wilburn
155 Franklin Road, Suite 400
Brentwood, TN 37027

Deborah G. Moffett
3707 FM 1960 West, Suite 500
Houston, TX 77068

T. Mark Buford
3707 FM 1960 West, Suite 500
Houston, TX 77068

ARTICLE EIGHT

The name and address of the incorporator is:

Robin J. Payton
414 Union Street, Suite 1600
Nashville, Tennessee 37219

ARTICLE NINE

A director of the Corporation shall not be personally liable to the Corporation or its stockholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director, except for liability (i) for any breach of the director's duty of loyalty to the Corporation or its stockholders, (ii) for acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law, (iii) under Section 2.02-1 C of the Texas Business Corporation Act or (iv) for any transaction from which the director derives an improper personal benefit. If the Texas Business Corporation Act is amended hereafter to authorize corporate action further eliminating or limiting the personal liability of directors, then the liability of a director of the Corporation shall be eliminated or limited to the fullest extent permitted by the Texas Business Corporation Act, as so amended.

Any repeal or modification of the foregoing paragraph by the stockholders of the Corporation shall not adversely affect any right or protection of a director of the Corporation existing at the time of such repeal or modification.

ARTICLE TEN

A. Rights to Indemnification. Each person who was or is made a party or is threatened to be made a party to or is otherwise involved in any action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (hereinafter a “proceeding”), by reason of the fact that he or she, or a person of whom he or she is the legal representative, or is or was a director or officer of the Corporation or is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director or officer of another corporation or of a partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, including service with respect to an employee benefit plan (hereinafter an “indemnitee”), whether the basis of such proceeding is alleged action in an official capacity as a director or officer or in any other capacity while serving as a director or officer, shall be indemnified and held harmless by the Corporation to the fullest extent authorized by the Texas Business Corporation Act as the same exists or may hereafter be amended (but, in the case of any such amendment, only to the extent that such amendment permits the Corporation to provide broader indemnification rights than permitted prior thereto), against all expense, liability and loss (including, without limitation, attorneys’ fees, judgments, fines, excise taxes or penalties and amounts paid or to be paid in settlement) incurred or suffered by such indemnitee in connection therewith and such indemnification shall continue with respect to an indemnitee who has ceased to be a director or officer and shall inure to the benefit of the indemnitee’s heirs, executors and administrators; provided, however, that except as provided in paragraph (B) hereof with respect to proceedings to enforce rights to indemnification, the Corporation shall indemnify any such indemnitee in connection with a proceeding initiated by such indemnitee only if such proceeding was authorized by the Board of Directors of the Corporation. The right to indemnification conferred in this Article shall be a contract right and shall include the right to be paid by the Corporation the expenses incurred in defending any such proceeding in advance of its final disposition (hereinafter an “advancement of expenses”); provided, however, that, if the Texas Business Corporation Act requires, an advancement of expenses incurred by an indemnitee shall be made only upon delivery to the Corporation of an undertaking (hereinafter an “undertaking”), by or on behalf of such indemnitee, to repay all amounts so advanced if it shall ultimately be determined by final judicial decision from which there is no further right to appeal (hereinafter a “final adjudication”) that such indemnitee is not entitled to be indemnified for such expenses under this Article or otherwise.

B. Right of Indemnitee to Bring Suit. If a claim under paragraph (A) of this Article is not paid in full by the Corporation within sixty days after a written claim has been received by the Corporation (except in the case of a claim for an advancement of expenses, in which case the applicable period shall be twenty days), the indemnitee may at any time thereafter bring suit against the Corporation to recover the unpaid amount of the claim. If successful in whole or in part in any such suit, the indemnitee shall also be entitled to be paid the expense of prosecuting or defending such suit. In (i) any suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right to indemnification hereunder (but not a suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right to an advancement of expenses) it shall be a defense that, and (ii) in any suit by the Corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking, the Corporation shall be entitled to recover such expenses upon a final adjudication that, the indemnitee has not met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in the Texas Business Corporation Act. Neither the failure of the Corporation (including its Board of Directors, independent legal counsel or its stockholders) to have made a determination prior to the commencement of such suit that indemnification of the indemnitee has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in the Texas Business Corporation Act, nor an actual determination by the Corporation (including its Board of Directors, independent legal counsel or its stockholders) that the indemnitee has not met such applicable standard of conduct, or in the case of such a suit brought by the indemnitee, shall be a defense to such suit. In any suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right to indemnification or to an advancement of expenses hereunder or by the Corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking, the burden of proving that the indemnitee is not entitled under this Article or otherwise to be indemnified, or to such advancement of expenses, shall be on the Corporation.

C. Non-Exclusivity of Rights. The rights to indemnification and to the advancement of expenses conferred in this Article shall not be exclusive of any other right which any person may have or hereafter acquire under these Articles of Incorporation or any Bylaw, agreement, vote of stockholders or disinterested directors or otherwise.

D. Insurance. The Corporation may maintain insurance, at its expense, to protect itself and any indemnitee against any expense, liability or loss, whether or not the Corporation would have the power to indemnify such person against such expense, liability or loss under the Texas Business Corporation Act.

E. Indemnity of Employees and Agents of the Corporation. The Corporation may, to the extent authorized from time to time by the Board of Directors, grant rights to indemnification and to the advancement of expenses to any employee or agent of the Corporation to the fullest extent of the provisions of this Article or as otherwise permitted under the Texas Business Corporation Act with respect to the indemnification and advancement of expenses of directors and officers of the Corporation.

ARTICLE ELEVEN

The Bylaws of the Corporation may be altered, amended or repealed or new Bylaws may be adopted by the board of directors.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand, this 19th day of December, 1994.

INSTRUCTIONS

1. It is recommended that you call (512) 463-5555 to verify the information in items 3 and 5 as it currently appears on the records of the secretary of state before submitting the statement for filing. You also may e-mail an inquiry to corpinfo@sos.state.tx.us. As information on out-of-state financial institutions is maintained on a separate database, a financial institution must call (512) 463-5701 to verify registered agent and registered office information. If the information on the form is inconsistent with the records of this office, the statement will be returned.

2. You are required by law to provide a street address in item 4 unless the registered office is located in a city with a population of 5,000 or less. The purpose of this requirement is to provide the public with notice of a physical location at which process may be served on the registered agent. A statement submitted with a post office box address or a lock box address will not be filed.

3. An authorized officer of the corporation or financial institution must sign the statement. In the case of a limited liability company, an authorized member or manager of a limited liability company must sign the statement. A general partner must sign the statement on behalf of a limited partnership. A person commits an offense under the Texas Business Corporation Act, the Texas Non-Profit Corporation Act or the Texas Limited Liability Company Act if the person signs a document the person knows is false in any material respect with the intent that the document be delivered to the secretary of state for filing. The offense is a Class A misdemeanor.

4. Please attach the appropriate fee:

Business Corporation	$15.00
Financial Institution, other than Credit Unions	$15.00
Financial Institution that is a Credit Union	$ 5.00
Non-Profit Corporation	$ 5.00
Limited Liability Company	$10.00
Limited Partnership	$50.00

Personal checks and MasterCard®, Visa®, and Discover® are accepted in payment of the filing fee. Checks or money orders must be payable through a U.S. bank or other financial institution and made payable to the secretary of state. Fees paid by credit card are subject to a statutorily authorized processing cost of 2.1% of the total fees.

5. Two copies of the form along with the filing fee should be mailed to the address shown in the heading of this form. The delivery address is: Secretary of State, Statutory Filings Division, Corporations Section, James Earl Rudder Office Building, 1019 Brazos, Austin, Texas 78701. We will place one document on record and return a file stamped copy, if a duplicate copy is provided for such purpose. The telephone number is (512) 463-5555, TDD: (800) 735-2989, FAX: (512) 463-5709.

BYLAWS OF
BIG SPRING HOSPITAL CORPORATION

ARTICLE I OFFICES

Section 1.1 Registered Office. The registered office shall be in the City of Austin, State of Texas.

Section 1.2 Other Offices. The corporation may also have offices at such other places both within and without the State of Texas, as the board of directors may from time to time determine or the business of the corporation may require.

ARTICLE II MEETINGS OF SHAREHOLDERS

Section 2.1 Annual Meeting. An annual meeting of shareholders of the corporation shall be held on such date and at such time as shall be designated from time to time by the board of directors and stated in the notice of the meeting. At such meeting, the shareholders shall elect directors and transact such other business as may properly be brought before the meeting.

Section 2.2 Special Meetings. Special meetings of the shareholders for any purpose whatsoever may be called at any time by the president, the board of directors, or the holders of not less than ten percent of all shares entitled to vote at such meeting.

Section 2.3 Place of Meetings. All meetings of shareholders for any purpose or purposes may be held at such places, within or without the State of Texas, as may from time to time be fixed by the board of directors or as shall be stated in the notice of the meeting or in a duly executed waiver of notice thereof.

Section 2.4 Notice. Written notice stating the place, day and hour of the meeting and, in the case of a special meeting, the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is called, shall be given not less than ten nor more than sixty days before the date of the meeting, either personally or by mail.

Section 2.5 Quorum of Shareholders. The holders of a majority of the shares issued and outstanding and entitled to vote at such meeting, present in person or represented by proxy shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at all meetings of the shareholders.

Section 2.6 Voting of Shares. Except as otherwise provided by statute or the articles of incorporation, each holder of record of shares of stock of the Corporation having voting power shall be entitled at each meeting of the shareholders to one vote for every share of such stock standing in his or her name on the record books of shareholders of the corporation on the date on which such notice of the meeting is mailed, unless some other day is fixed by the board of directors for the determination of shareholders of record.

Section 2.7 Voting List. The officer who has charge of the stock transfer books for shares of the corporation shall prepare at least ten days before every meeting of shareholders, a complete list of the shareholders entitled to vote at such meeting, arranged in alphabetical order, including the address of each shareholder and the number of voting shares held by each shareholder. For a period of ten days prior to such meeting, such list shall be kept open to the examination of any shareholder, for any purpose germane to the meeting, during ordinary business hours, either at a place within the city where the meeting is to be held and which place shall be specified in the notice of the meeting, or, if not so specified, at the place where said meeting is to be held. Such list shall be produced at such meeting and at all times during such meeting shall be subject to inspection by any shareholder. The original stock transfer books shall be prima facie evidence as to who are the shareholders entitled to examine such list or stock transfer books.

Section 2.8 Treasury Stock. The corporation shall not vote, directly or indirectly, shares of its own stock owned by it and such shares shall not be counted for quorum purposes.

Section 2.9 Consent of Shareholders in Lieu of Meeting. Whenever the vote of shareholders at a meeting thereof is required or permitted to be taken for or in connection with any corporate action, the meeting, the notice thereof, and the vote of shareholders can be dispensed with, if a consent in writing, setting forth the action so taken, shall be signed by the holders of stock having not less than the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to authorize or take such action at a meeting at which all shares entitled to vote thereof were present and voted, provided that prompt notice must be given to all shareholders of the taking of corporate action without a meeting by less than unanimous written consent.

ARTICLE III DIRECTORS

Section 3.1 Powers of Directors. The business and affairs of the corporation shall be managed by its board of directors which shall have and may exercise all such powers of the corporation, subject to the restrictions imposed by law, the articles of incorporation, or these bylaws.

Section 3.2 Number and Qualification. The number of directors which shall constitute the entire board of directors shall be determined by resolution of the board of directors at any meeting thereof or by the shareholders at any meeting thereof. Directors need not be residents of Texas or shareholders of the corporation.

Section 3.3 Election and Term of Office. The directors shall be elected annually by the shareholders, except as provided in Section 3.4 of these bylaws. Each director shall hold office until the next succeeding annual meeting of shareholders and until his or her successor shall have been elected or until his or her earlier death, resignation, or removal. The board of directors may, by resolution, appoint one of its members as chairman to preside over meetings of the board of directors. The position of chairman of the board of directors shall not be an office of the corporation.

Section 3.4 Vacancies. Any vacancy occurring in the board of directors by reason of death, resignation, or removal may be filled by affirmative vote of a majority of the remaining directors, although less than a quorum of the board of directors. Such vacancy may also be filled by affirmative vote of the majority of the shareholders. A director elected to fill a vacancy shall be elected for the unexpired term of his or her predecessor in office or until his or her death, resignation, retirement, disqualification, or removal.

Section 3.5 Resignation of Directors. Any director may resign from office at any time by delivering a written resignation to the secretary of the corporation, and such resignation shall be effective upon delivery of such resignation to the secretary.

Section 3.6 Removal of Directors. Any director may be removed with or without cause at any time by the shareholders.

Section 3.7 Place of Meetings. Regular or special meetings of the board of directors may be held either within or without the State of Texas.

Section 3.8 Regular Meetings. Regular meetings of the board of directors may be held without notice at such times and places as may be designated from time to time as may be determined by the board of directors.

Section 3.9 Special Meetings. Special meetings of the board of directors may be called by the president or any director on twenty-four (24) hours notice to each director, either personally or by telephone, mail, telegram or other means of telecommunications. Neither the business to be transacted at, nor the purpose of, any special meeting of the board of directors need be specified in the notice or waiver of notice of any special meeting.

Section 3.10 Quorum of Directors. At all meetings of the board of directors, a majority of the directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business and the act or a majority of the directors present at any meeting at which there is a quorum shall be an act of the board of directors. If a quorum is not present at a meeting, a majority of the directors present may adjourn the meeting from time to time, without notice other than an announcement at the meeting, until a quorum is present.

Section 3.11 Committees. The board of directors may, by resolution passed by a majority of the entire board, designate one or more committees, including, if they shall so determine, an executive committee, each such committee to consist of one or more of the directors of the corporation. Any such designated committee shall have and may exercise such of the powers and authority of the board of directors in the management of the business and affairs of the corporation as may be provided in such resolution, except that no such committee shall have the power or authority of the board of directors in reference to amending the articles of incorporation, adopting an agreement of merger or consolidation, recommending to the shareholders the sale, lease or exchange of all or substantially all of the corporation's property and assets, recommending to the shareholders a dissolution of the corporation or a revocation of a dissolution of the corporation, or amending, altering or repealing the bylaws or adopting new bylaws for the corporation and, unless such resolution or the articles of incorporation expressly so provides, no such committee shall have the power or authority to authorize the issuance of stock. The board of directors shall have the power at any time to change the number and members of any such committee, to fill vacancies and to discharge any such committee.

Section 3.12 Compensation of Directors. The board of directors shall have authority to determine, from time to time, the amount of compensation, if any, which shall be paid to its members for their services as directors and as members of committees of the board of directors. The board of directors shall also have power in its discretion to provide for and to pay to directors rendering services to the corporation not ordinarily rendered by directors as such, special compensation appropriate to the value of such services as determined by the board of directors from time to time. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to preclude any director from serving the corporation in any other capacity and receiving compensation therefor.

Section 3.13 Action by Unanimous Written Consent. Any action required or permitted to be taken at a meeting of the board of directors or any committee may be taken without a meeting if a consent in writing, setting forth the actions so taken, is signed by all of the members of the board of directors or such committee, as the case may be.

Section 3.14 Minutes of Meetings. The board of directors shall keep regular minutes of its proceedings and such minutes shall be placed in the minute book of the corporation. Committees of the board of directors shall maintain a separate record of the minutes of their proceedings.

ARTICLE IV NOTICES AND TELEPHONE MEETINGS

Section 4.1 Notice. Any notice to directors or shareholders shall be in writing and shall be delivered personally or by mail, telegram, telex, cable, telecopier or similar means to the directors or shareholders at their respective addresses appearing on the books of the corporation. Notice by mail shall be deemed to be given at the time when the same shall be deposited in the United States mail, postage prepaid. Any notice required or permitted to be given by telegram, telex, cable, telecopier, or similar means shall be deemed to be delivered and given at the time transmitted.

Section 4.2 Waiver of Notice. Whenever by law, the articles of incorporation, or these bylaws, notice is required to be given to any shareholder, director, or committee member of the corporation, a waiver thereof in writing signed by the person or persons entitled to such notice, whether before or after the time notice should have been given, shall be equivalent to the giving of such notice. Attendance of a director at a meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting, except where a director attends a meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business on the ground that the meeting is not lawfully called or convened.

Section 4.3 Telephone and Similar Meetings. Shareholders, directors, or committee members may participate in and hold a meeting by means of a conference telephone or similar communications equipment by means of which persons participating in the meeting can hear each other. Participation in such a meeting shall constitute presence in person at such meeting, except where a person participates in the meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business on the ground that the meeting is not lawfully called or convened.

ARTICLE V OFFICERS

Section 5.1 Officers. The corporation shall have a president and a secretary and such other officers and assistant officers as the board may deem desirable to conduct the affairs of the corporation. The position of chairman of the board of directors shall not be an office of the corporation. Any two or more offices may be held by the same person. No officer need be a shareholder or a director.

Section 5.2 Powers and Duties of Officers. The officers of the corporation shall have the powers and duties generally ascribed to the respective offices, and such additional authority or duty as may from time to time be established by the board of directors.

Section 5.3 Removal and Resignation. Any officer appointed by the board of directors may be removed by the board of directors whenever, in the judgment of the board of directors, the best interests of the corporation will be served thereby. Any officer may resign at any time by giving written notice to the corporation. Any such resignation shall take effect at the date of receipt of such notice or at a later time specified therein, and unless otherwise specified therein, the acceptance of such resignation shall not be necessary to make it effective.

Section 5.4 Term and Vacancies. The officers of the corporation shall hold office until their successors are elected or appointed, or until their death, resignation, or removal from office. Any vacancy occurring in any office of the corporation by death, resignation, removal, or otherwise, may be filled by the board of directors.

Section 5.5 Compensation. The salaries of all officers of the corporation shall be fixed by the board of directors. The board of directors shall have the power to enter into contracts for the employment and compensation of officers on such terms as the board of directors deems advisable. No officer shall be disqualified from receiving a salary or other compensation by reason of the fact that he or she is also a director of the corporation.

ARTICLE VI CERTIFICATES AND SHAREHOLDERS

Section 6.1 Certificates for Shares. The certificates for shares of stock of the Corporation shall be in such form as shall be approved by the board of directors in conformity with law and the articles of incorporation. Every certificate for shares issued by the corporation must be signed by the President or a Vice President and the Secretary or an Assistant Secretary under the seal of the corporation. Any or all of the signatures on the face of the certificate may be facsimile. Such certificates shall bear a legend or legends in the form and containing the restrictions to be stated thereon by the Texas Business Corporation Act (the "Texas Code"), other provisions of law, the articles of incorporation or these bylaws. Certificates shall be consecutively numbered and shall be entered as they are issued. Each certificate shall state on the face thereof the holder's name, the number and class of shares, the par value of such shares, and such other matters as may be required by law, the articles of incorporation or these bylaws.

Section 6.2 Lost, Stolen, or Destroyed Certificates. The board of directors, the executive committee, or the president of the corporation may direct a new certificate or certificates representing shares to be issued in place of any certificate or certificates theretofore issued by the corporation alleged to have been lost, stolen, or destroyed, upon the making of an affidavit of the fact by the person claiming the certificate or certificates to be lost, stolen, or destroyed. When authorizing such issue of a new certificate the board of directors, the executive committee or the president may require the owner of such lost, stolen, or destroyed certificate, or his or her legal representative, to advertise the same in such manner as it or he or she shall require and/or give the corporation a bond in such sum as it may direct as indemnity against any claim that may be made against the corporation with respect to the certificate alleged to have been lost, stolen or destroyed.

Section 6.3 Transfer of Shares. Shares of stock of the corporation shall be transferable only on the books of the corporation by the holder thereof in person or by the holder's duly authorized attorneys or legal representatives. Upon surrender to the corporation or the transfer agent of the corporation of a certificate representing shares duly endorsed or accompanied by proper evidence of succession, assignment, or authority to transfer, the corporation or its transfer agent shall issue a new certificate to the person entitled thereto, cancel the old certificate, and record the transaction upon its books.

Section 6.4 Registered Shareholders. The corporation shall be entitled to recognize the exclusive right of a person registered on its books as the owner of shares to receive dividends, and to vote as such owner, and to hold liable for calls and assessments, a person registered on its books as the owner of shares, and shall not be bound to recognize any equitable or other claim to or interest in such shares on the part of any person, whether or not it shall have actual or other notice thereof, except as otherwise provided by law.

ARTICLE VII MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

Section 7.1 Dividends. Dividends upon the outstanding shares of the corporation, subject to the provisions of the applicable statutes and of the articles of incorporation, may be declared by the board of directors at any annual, regular or special meeting. Dividends may be declared and paid in cash, in property, or in shares of the corporation, or in any combination thereof.

Section 7.2 Reserves. There may be set aside out of any funds of the corporation available for dividends such sum or sums as the board of directors from time to time in their sole and absolute discretion think proper as a reserve to meet contingencies, or to equalize dividends, or to repair or maintain any property of the corporation, or for such other purpose as the board of directors shall think conducive to the interest of the corporation, and the board of directors may modify or abolish any such reserve in the manner in which it was created.

Section 7.3 Signature of Negotiable Instruments. All checks or demands for money and notes of the corporation shall be signed by such officer or officers or such other person or persons as the board of directors may from time to time designate.

Section 7.4 Fiscal Year. The fiscal year of the corporation shall be fixed by the board of directors; provided, that if such fiscal year is not fixed by the board of directors it shall be the calendar year.

Section 7.5 Books of the Corporation. The books of the corporation may be kept, subject to the provisions of the applicable statutes, within or outside of the State of Texas, at such place or places as may from time to time be designated by the board of directors or as the business of the corporation may require.

Section 7.6 Seal. The seal, if any, of the corporation shall be in such form as may be approved from time to time by the board of directors. If the board of directors approves a seal, the affixation of such seal shall not be required to create a valid and binding obligation against the corporation.

Section 7.7 Securities of Other Corporations. Unless otherwise ordered by the board of directors, the president or the secretary of the corporation shall have full power and authority on behalf of the corporation to attend, to vote and to grant proxies to be used at any meeting of shareholders of such other corporation in which the corporation may hold stock. The board of directors may confer like powers upon any other person or persons.

Section 7.8 Fixed Record Date. In order that the corporation may determine the shareholders entitled to notice of or to vote at any meeting of shareholders or any adjournment thereof, or to express consent to corporate action in writing without a meeting, or entitled to receive payment of any dividend or other distribution or allotment of any rights, or entitled to exercise any rights in respect of any change, conversion or exchange of stock for the purpose of any other lawful action, the board of directors may fix, in advance, a record date which shall be not more than sixty 60 days before the date of such meeting, nor more than 60 days prior to any other action.

Section 7.9 Amendment. The power to alter, amend, or repeal these bylaws or to adopt new bylaws is vested in the board of directors.

Section 7.10 Right to Indemnification.

(A) Each person (hereinafter an “indemnitee”) who was or is made a party or is threatened to be made a party to or is otherwise involved in any action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (hereinafter a “proceeding”), by reason of the fact that he or she was a director, officer or agent of the corporation or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation or of a partnership, joint venture, trust of other enterprise, including service with respect to an employee benefit plan, whether the basis of such proceeding is alleged action in an official capacity as a director, officer, employee or agent, shall be indemnified and held harmless by the corporation to the fullest extent authorized by the Texas Code, as the same exists or may hereafter be amended (but, in the case of any such amendment, only to the extent that such amendment permits the corporation to provide broader indemnification rights than permitted prior thereto), against all expense, liability and loss (including attorney’s fees, judgments, fines, ERISA excise taxes or penalties and amounts paid in settlement) reasonably incurred or suffered by such indemnitee in connection therewith, and such indemnification shall continue with respect to an indemnitee who has ceased to be a director, officer, employee or agent and shall inure to the benefit of the indemnitee’s heirs, executors and administrators; provided, however, that, except as provided in paragraph (B) hereof with respect to proceedings to enforce rights to indemnification, the corporation shall indemnify any such indemnitee only if such proceeding (or part thereof) was authorized by the board of directors of the corporation. The right to indemnification conferred in this section shall be a contract right and shall include the right to be paid by the corporation the expenses incurred in defending any such proceeding in advance of its final disposition (hereinafter an “advancement of expenses”); provided, however, that, if the Texas Code requires, an advancement of expenses incurred by an indemnitee shall be made only upon delivery to the corporation of an undertaking (hereinafter an “undertaking”), by or on behalf of such indemnitee, to repay all amounts so advanced if it shall ultimately be determined by final judicial decision from which there is no further right to appeal (hereinafter a “final adjudication”) that such indemnitee is not entitled to be indemnified for such expenses under this section or otherwise.

(B) If a claim under paragraph (A) of this section is not paid in full by the corporation within 60 days after a written claim has been received by the corporation, except in the case of a claim for an advancement of expenses, in which case the applicable period shall be 20 days, the indemnitee may at any time thereafter bring suit against the corporation to recover the unpaid amount of such suit, or in a suit brought by the corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking, the indemnitee shall be entitled to be paid also the expense of prosecuting or defending such suit. In (i) any suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right to indemnification hereunder (but not in a suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right to an advancement of expenses) it shall be a defense that, and (ii) any suit by the corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking the corporation shall be entitled to recover such expenses upon a final adjudication that, the indemnitee has not met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in the Texas Code. Neither the failure of the corporation (including its board of directors, independent legal counsel, or its shareholders) to have made a determination prior to the commencement of such suit that indemnification of the indemnitee is proper in the circumstances because the indemnitee has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in the Texas Code, nor an actual determination by the corporation (including its board of directors, independent legal counsel, or its shareholders) that the indemnitee has not met such applicable standard of conduct shall create a presumption that the indemnitee has not met the applicable standard of conduct or, in the case of such a suit brought by the indemnitee, be a defense of such suit. In any suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right of indemnification or to an advancement of expenses hereunder, or by the corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking, the burden of proving that the indemnitee is not entitled to be indemnified, or to such advancement of expenses, under this section or otherwise shall be on the corporation.

(C) The rights to indemnification and to the advancement of expenses conferred in this section shall not be exclusive of any other right which any person may have or hereafter acquire under any statute, the corporation's certificate of incorporation, by agreement, by vote of shareholders or by disinterested directors or otherwise.

(D) The corporation may maintain insurance, at its expense, to protect itself and any director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation or another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise against any expense, liability or loss, whether or not the corporation would have the power to indemnify such person against such expense, liability or loss under the Texas Code.

Section 7.11 Invalid Provisions. If any provision of these bylaws is held to be illegal, invalid, or unenforceable under present or future laws, such provision shall be fully severable; these bylaws shall be construed and enforced as if such illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision had never comprised a part hereof; and the remaining provisions hereof shall remain in full force and effect and shall not be affected by the illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision or by its severance herefrom. Furthermore, in lieu of such illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision there shall be added automatically as a part of these bylaws a provision as similar in terms to such illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision as may be possible and be legal, valid, and enforceable.

Section 7.12 Headings. The headings used in these bylaws are for reference purposes only and do not affect in any way the meaning or interpretation of these bylaws.

The above bylaws were duly adopted as the bylaws of the corporation effective as of the 20th day of December, 1994.

ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION
OF
GRANBURY HOSPITAL CORPORATION

FILED
In the Office of the Secretary of State of Texas
DEC 18 1996
Corporations Section

The undersigned natural person of the age of eighteen years or more, acting as incorporator of a corporation under the Texas Business Corporation Act, does hereby adopt the following Articles of Incorporation for such corporation:

ARTICLE ONE

The name of the Corporation is Granbury Hospital Corporation.

ARTICLE TWO

The period of its duration is perpetual.

ARTICLE THREE

The purpose for which the Corporation is organized is to engage in the transaction of any or all lawful business for which corporations may be incorporated under the Texas Business Corporation Act

ARTICLE FOUR

The aggregate number of shares which the Corporation shall have authority to issue is One Thousand (1,000) shares of $ 01 par value per share common stock.

ARTICLE FIVE

The Corporation will not commence business until it has received for the issuance of its shares consideration of the value of at least One Thousand Dollars ($1,000), consisting of money, labor done or property actually received

ARTICLE SIX

The street address of its initial registered office is 400 North St. Paul, Dallas, Texas 75201; and the name of its initial registered agent at such address is Corporation Service Company d/b/a CSC-Lawyers Incorporating Service Company

ARTICLE SEVEN

The number of directors of the Corporation may be fixed by the Bylaws

The number of directors constituting the initial board of directors is three (3), and the names and addresses of the persons who are to serve as directors until the first annual meeting of the shareholders or until a successor is elected and qualified are:

Ernest Bacon
155 Franklin Road, Suite 400
Brentwood, TN 37027

T. Mark Buford
155 Franklin Road, Suite 400
Brentwood, TN 37027

Linda K. Parsons
155 Franklin Road, Suite 400
Brentwood, TN 37027

ARTICLE EIGHT

The name and address of the incorporator is:

Robin J. Payton
414 Union Street, Suite 1600 Nashville,
Tennessee 37219

ARTICLE NINE

A director of the Corporation shall not be personally liable to the Corporation or its stockholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director, except for liability (1) for any breach of the director's duty of loyalty to the Corporation or its stockholders, (ii) for acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law, (iii) under Section 2.41 of the Texas Business Corporation Act or (iv) for any transaction from which the director derives an improper personal benefit. If the Texas Business Corporation Act is amended hereafter to authorize corporate action further eliminating or limiting the personal liability of directors, then the liability of a director of the Corporation shall be eliminated or limited to the fullest extent permitted by the Texas Business Corporation Act, as so amended.

Any repeal or modification of the foregoing paragraph by the stockholders of the Corporation shall not adversely affect any right or protection of a director of the Corporation existing at the time of such repeal or modification.

ARTICLE TEN

A. Rights to Indemnification. Each person who was or is made a party or is threatened to be made a party to or is otherwise involved in any action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (hereinafter a "proceeding"), by reason of the fact that he or she, or a person of whom he or she is the legal representative, or is or was a director or officer of the Corporation or is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director or officer of another corporation or of a partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, including service with respect to an employee benefit plan (hereinafter an "indemnitee"), whether the basis of such proceeding is alleged action in an official capacity as a director or officer or in any other capacity while serving as a director or officer, shall be indemnified and held harmless by the Corporation to the fullest extent authorized by the Texas Business Corporation Act as the same exists or may hereafter be amended (but, in the case of any such amendment, only to the extent that such amendment permits the Corporation to provide broader indemnification rights than permitted prior thereto), against all expense, liability and loss (including, without limitation, attorneys' fees, judgments, fines, excise taxes or penalties and amounts paid or to be paid in settlement) incurred or suffered by such indemnitee in connection therewith and such indemnification shall continue with respect to an indemnitee who has ceased to be a director or officer and shall inure to the benefit of the indemnitee's heirs, executors and administrators; provided, however, that except as provided in paragraph (B) hereof with respect to proceedings to enforce rights to indemnification, the Corporation shall indemnify any such indemnitee in connection with a proceeding initiated by such indemnitee only if such proceeding was authorized by the Board of Directors of the Corporation. The right to indemnification conferred in this Article Ten shall be a contract right and shall include the right to be paid by the Corporation the expenses incurred in defending any such proceeding in advance of its final disposition (hereinafter an "advancement of expenses"); provided, however, that, if the Texas Business Corporation Act requires, an advancement of expenses incurred by an indemnitee shall be made only upon delivery to the Corporation of an undertaking (hereinafter an "undertaking"), by or on behalf of such indemnitee, to repay all amounts so advanced if it shall ultimately be determined by final judicial decision from which there is no further right to appeal (hereinafter a "final adjudication") that such indemnitee is not entitled to be indemnified for such expenses under this Article Ten or otherwise

B. Right of Indemnitee to Bring Suit. If a claim under paragraph (A) of this Article Ten is not paid in full by the Corporation within sixty days after a written claim has been received by the Corporation (except in the case of a claim for an advancement of expenses, in which case the applicable period shall be twenty days), the indemnitee may at any time thereafter bring suit against the Corporation to recover the unpaid amount of the claim. If successful in whole or in part in any such suit, the indemnitee shall also be entitled to be paid the expense of prosecuting or defending such suit. In (i) any suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right to indemnification hereunder (but not a suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right to an advancement of expenses) it shall be a defense that, and (ii) in any suit by the Corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking, the Corporation shall be entitled to recover such expenses upon a final adjudication that, the indemnitee has not met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in the Texas Business Corporation Act. Neither the failure of the Corporation (including its Board of Directors, independent legal counsel or its stockholders) to have made a determination prior to the commencement of such suit that indemnification of the indemnitee has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in the Texas Business Corporation Act, nor an actual determination by the Corporation (including its Board of Directors, independent legal counsel or its stockholders) that the indemnitee has not met such applicable standard of conduct, or in the case of such a suit brought by the indemnitee, shall be a defense to such suit. In any suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right to indemnification or to an advancement of expenses hereunder or by the Corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking, the burden of proving that the indemnitee is not entitled under this Article Ten or otherwise to be indemnified, or to such advancement of expenses, shall be on the Corporation.

C. Non-Exclusivity of Rights. The rights to indemnification and to the advancement of expenses conferred in this Article Ten shall not be exclusive of any other right which any person may have or hereafter acquire under these Articles of Incorporation or any Bylaw, agreement, vote of stockholders or disinterested directors or otherwise.

D. Insurance. The Corporation may maintain insurance, at its expense, to protect itself and any indemnitee against any expense, liability or loss, whether or not the Corporation would have the power to indemnify such person against such expense, liability or loss under the Texas Business Corporation Act.

E. INSTRUCTIONS

1. It is recommended that you call (512) 463-5555 to verify the information in items 3 and 5 as it currently appears on the records of the secretary of state before submitting the statement for filing. You also may e-mail an inquiry to corpinfo@sos.state.tx.us. As information on out-of-state financial institutions is maintained on a separate database, a financial institution must call (512) 463-5701 to verify registered agent and registered office information. If the information on the form is inconsistent with the records of this office, the statement will be returned.

2. You are required by law to provide a street address in item 4 unless the registered office is located in a city with a population of 5,000 or less. The purpose of this requirement is to provide the public with notice of a physical location at which process may be served on the registered agent. A statement submitted with a post office box address or a lock box address will not be filed.

3. An authorized officer of the corporation or financial institution must sign the statement. In the case of a limited liability company, an authorized member or manager of a limited liability company must sign the statement. A general partner must sign the statement on behalf of a limited partnership. A person commits an offense under the Texas Business Corporation Act, the Texas Non-Profit Corporation Act or the Texas Limited Liability Company Act if the person signs a document the person knows is false in any material respect with the intent that the document be delivered to the secretary of state for filing. The offense is a Class A misdemeanor.

4. Please attach the appropriate fee:

Business Corporation $15.00

Financial Institution, other than Credit Unions $15.00

Financial Institution that is a Credit Union $ 5.00

Non-Profit Corporation $ 5.00

Limited Liability Company $10.00

Limited Partnership $50.00

Personal checks and MasterCard®, Visa®, and Discover® are accepted in payment of the filing fee. Checks or money orders must be payable through a U.S. bank or other financial institution and made payable to the secretary of state. Fees paid by credit card are subject to a statutorily authorized processing cost of 2.1% of the total fees.

5. Two copies of the form along with the filing fee should be mailed to the address shown in the heading of this form. The delivery address is: Secretary of State, Statutory Filings Division, Corporations Section, James Earl Rudder Office Building, 1019 Brazos, Austin, Texas 78701. We will place one document on record and return a file stamped copy, if a duplicate copy is provided for such purpose. AGREEMENT AND PLAN OF MERGER

GRANBURY HOSPITAL CORPORATION — ASC

AND

GRANBURY HOSPITAL CORPORATION

AGREEMENT AND PLAN OF MERGER entered into on February 27, 2004, by Granbury Hospital Corporation - ASC, a business corporation of the State of Texas, and approved by resolution adopted by its Board of Directors on February 27, 2004, and entered into on February 27, 2004 by Granbury Hospital Corporation, a business corporation of the State of Texas, and approved by resolution adopted by its Board of Directors on February 27, 2004.

WHEREAS, Granbury Hospital Corporation — ASC is a business corporation of the State of Texas with its registered office therein located at 1614 Sidney Baker Street, Kerrville, Texas 78028; and

WHEREAS, the total number of shares of stock which Granbury Hospital Corporation -ASC has authority to issue is 1,000, all of which are of one class and of a par value of $.01 each; and

WHEREAS, Granbury Hospital Corporation is a business corporation of the State of Texas with its registered office therein located 1614 Sidney Baker Street, Kerrville, Texas 78028; and

WHEREAS, the total number of authorized shares of stock which Granbury Hospital Corporation has authority to issue is 1,000, all of which are of one class and of a par value of $.01 each; and

WHEREAS, the Texas Business Corporation Act permits the merger of a business corporation with and into a business corporation of the State of Texas; and

WHEREAS, Granbury Hospital Corporation -ASC and Granbury Hospital Corporation and the respective Boards of Directors thereof deem it advisable and to the advantage, welfare, and the best interests of said corporations and their respective shareholders to merge Granbury Hospital Corporation — ASC with and into Granbury Hospital Corporation pursuant to the provisions of the Texas Business Corporation Act upon the terms and conditions hereinafter set forth;

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the premises of the mutual agreement of the parties hereto, being thereunto duly entered into by Granbury Hospital Corporation — ASC and approved by a joint resolution adopted by its Sole Shareholder and Board of Directors and being thereunto duly entered into by Granbury Hospital Corporation and approved by a Joint resolution adopted by its Sole Shareholder and Board of Directors, the Agreement and Plan of Merger and the terms and conditions thereof and the mode of carrying the same into effect, together with any provisions required or permitted to be set forth therein, are hereby determined and agreed upon as hereinafter in this Agreement set forth.

1. Granbury Hospital Corporation — ASC and Granbury Hospital Corporation shall, pursuant to the provisions of the Texas Business Corporation Act, be merged with and into a single corporation, to wit, Granbury Hospital Corporation, which shall be the surviving corporation from and after the effective time of the merger, and which is sometimes hereinafter referred to as the “surviving corporation”, and which shall continue to exist as said surviving corporation under its present name, pursuant to the provisions of the Texas Business Corporation Act. The separate existence of Granbury Hospital Corporation — ASC, which is sometimes hereinafter referred to as the “terminating corporation”, shall cease at said effective time in accordance with the provisions of the Texas Business Corporation Act.
 2. The Articles of Incorporation of the surviving corporation in force and in effect in the State of Texas at the effective time of the merger herein provided for shall continue to be the Articles of Incorporation of said surviving corporation until amended and changed pursuant to the provisions of the Texas Business Corporation Act.
 3. The present bylaws of the surviving corporation will be the bylaws of said surviving corporation and will continue in full force and effect until changed, altered, or amended as therein provided and the manner prescribed by the provisions of the Texas Business Corporation Act.
 4. The directors and officers in office of the surviving corporation at the effective time of the merger shall be the members of the Board of Directors and the officers of the surviving corporation at the time of the merger, all of whom shall hold their directorships and offices until the election and qualification of their respective successors or until their tenure is otherwise terminated in accordance with the by-laws of the surviving corporation.
 5. Each issued share of the terminating corporation shall, from the effective time of the merger, cease to exist and all certificates for such stock shall be canceled and no shares of the surviving corporation shall be exchanged therefore. The issued shares of the surviving corporation shall not be converted or exchanged in any manner, but each said share which is issued at the effective time of the merger shall continue to represent one issued share of the surviving corporation.
 6. The surviving corporation does hereby agree that it may be served with process in the State of Texas in any proceeding for enforcement of any obligation of the terminating corporation, as well as for enforcement of any obligation of the surviving corporation arising from the merger herein provided for, including any suit or other proceeding to enforce the right of any stockholder of the terminating corporation as and when determined in appraisal proceedings pursuant to the provisions of the law of the State of Texas, does hereby irrevocably appoint the Secretary of State of the State of Texas as its agent to accept service of process in any such suit or other proceedings; and does hereby specify the following address to which a copy of such process shall be mailed by the Secretary of State of the State of Texas: Granbury Hospital Corporation, c/o National Registered Agents, Inc., 1614 Sidney Baker Street, Kerrville, TX 78028.
 7. In the event that this Agreement and Plan of Merger shall have been fully approved and adopted in accordance with the provisions of the Texas Business Corporation Act, the said corporations agree that they will cause to be executed and filed and recorded any document or documents prescribed by the laws of the State of Texas, and that they will cause to be performed all necessary acts within the State of Texas and elsewhere to effectuate the merger herein provided for.

8. The Board of Directors and the proper officers of the terminating corporation and of the surviving corporation are hereby authorized, empowered, and directed to do any and all acts and things, and to make, execute, deliver, file, and record any and all instruments, papers, and documents which shall be or become necessary, proper, or convenient to carry out or put into effect any of the provisions of this Agreement and Plan of Merger or of the merger herein provided for, to be effective on the 1st day of March, 2004.

BYLAWS OF
GRANBURY HOSPITAL CORPORATION

ARTICLE I

OFFICES

Section 1.1 Registered Office. The registered office shall be in the City of Dallas, State of Texas.

Section 1.2 Other Offices. The corporation may also have offices at such other places both within and without the State of Texas, as the board of directors may from time to time determine or the business of the corporation may require.

ARTICLE II

MEETINGS OF SHAREHOLDERS

Section 2.1 Annual Meeting. An annual meeting of shareholders of the corporation shall be held on such date and at such time as shall be designated from time to time by the board of directors and stated in the notice of the meeting. At such meeting, the shareholders shall elect directors and transact such other business as may properly be brought before the meeting.

Section 2.2 Special Meetings. Special meetings of the shareholders for any purpose whatsoever may be called at any time by the president, the board of directors, or the holders of not less than ten percent of all shares entitled to vote at such meeting.

Section 2.3 Place of Meetings. All meetings of shareholders for any purpose or purposes may be held at such places, within or without the State of Texas, as may from time to time be fixed by the board of directors or as shall be stated in the notice of the meeting or in a duly executed waiver of notice thereof.

Section 2.4 Notice. Written notice stating the place, day and hour of the meeting and, in the case of a special meeting, the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is called, shall be given not less than ten nor more than sixty days before the date of the meeting, either personally or by mail.

Section 2.5 Quorum of Shareholders. The holders of a majority of the shares issued and outstanding and entitled to vote at such meeting, present in person or represented by proxy shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at all meetings of the shareholders.

Section 2.6 Voting of Shares. Except as otherwise provided by statute or the articles of incorporation, each holder of record of shares of stock of the Corporation having voting power shall be entitled at each meeting of the shareholders to one vote for every share of such stock standing in his or her name on the record books of shareholders of the corporation on the date on which such notice of the meeting is mailed, unless some other day is fixed by the board of directors for the determination of shareholders of record.

Section 2.7 Voting List. The officer who has charge of the stock transfer books for shares of the corporation shall prepare at least ten days before every meeting of shareholders, a complete list of the shareholders entitled to vote at such meeting, arranged in alphabetical order, including the address of each shareholder and the number of voting shares held by each shareholder. For a period of ten days prior to such meeting, such list shall be kept open to the examination of any shareholder, for any purpose germane to the meeting, during ordinary business hours, either at a place within the city where the meeting is to be held and which place shall be specified in the notice of the meeting, or, if not so specified, at the place where said meeting is to be held. Such list shall be produced at such meeting and at all times during such meeting shall be subject to inspection by any shareholder. The original stock transfer books shall be prima facie evidence as to who are the shareholders entitled to examine such list or stock transfer books.

Section 2.8 Treasury Stock. The corporation shall not vote, directly or indirectly, shares of its own stock owned by it and such shares shall not be counted for quorum purposes.

Section 2.9 Consent of Shareholders in Lieu of Meeting. Whenever the vote of shareholders at a meeting thereof is required or permitted to be taken for or in connection with any corporate action, the meeting, the notice thereof, and the vote of shareholders can be dispensed with, if a consent in writing, setting forth the action so taken, shall be signed by the holders of stock having not less than the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to authorize or take such action at a meeting at which all shares entitled to vote thereof were present and voted, provided that prompt notice must be given to all shareholders of the taking of corporate action without a meeting by less than unanimous written consent.

ARTICLE III

DIRECTORS

Section 3.1 Powers of Directors. The business and affairs of the corporation shall be managed by its board of directors which shall have and may exercise all such powers of the corporation, subject to the restrictions imposed by law, the articles of incorporation, or these bylaws.

Section 3.2 Number and Qualification. The number of directors which shall constitute the entire board of directors shall be determined by resolution of the board of directors at any meeting thereof or by the shareholders at any meeting thereof. Directors need not be residents of Texas or shareholders of the corporation.

Section 3.3 Election and Term of Office. The directors shall be elected annually by the shareholders, except as provided in Section 3.4 of these bylaws. Each director shall hold office until the next succeeding annual meeting of shareholders and until his or her successor shall have been elected or until his or her earlier death, resignation, or removal. The board of directors may, by resolution, appoint one of its members as chairman to preside over meetings of the board of directors. The position of chairman of the board of directors shall not be an office of the corporation.

Section 3.4 Vacancies. Any vacancy occurring in the board of directors by reason of death, resignation, or removal may be filled by affirmative vote of a majority of the remaining directors, although less than a quorum of the board of directors. Such vacancy may also be filled by affirmative vote of the majority of the shareholders. A director elected to fill a vacancy shall be elected for the unexpired term of his or her predecessor in office or until his or her death, resignation, retirement, disqualification, or removal.

Section 3.5 Resignation of Directors. Any director may resign from office at any time by delivering a written resignation to the secretary of the corporation, and such resignation shall be effective upon delivery of such resignation to the secretary.

Section 3.6 Removal of Directors. Any director may be removed with or without cause at any time by the shareholders.

Section 3.7 Place of Meetings. Regular or special meetings of the board of directors may be held either within or without the State of Texas.

Section 3.8 Regular Meetings. Regular meetings of the board of directors may be held without notice at such times and places as may be designated from time to time as may be determined by the board of directors.

Section 3.9 Special Meetings. Special meetings of the board of directors may be called by the president or any director on twenty-four (24) hours notice to each director, either personally or by telephone, mail, telegram or other means of telecommunications. Neither the business to be transacted at, nor the purpose of, any special meeting of the board of directors need be specified in the notice or waiver of notice of any special meeting.

Section 3.10 Quorum of Directors. At all meetings of the board of directors, a majority of the directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business and the act or a majority of the directors present at any meeting at which there is a quorum shall be an act of the board of directors. If a quorum is not present at a meeting, a majority of the directors present may adjourn the meeting from time to time, without notice other than an announcement at the meeting, until a quorum is present.

Section 3.11 Committees. The board of directors may, by resolution passed by a majority of the entire board, designate one or more committees, including, if they shall so determine, an executive committee, each such committee to consist of one or more of the directors of the corporation. Any such designated committee shall have and may exercise such of the powers and authority of the board of directors in the management of the business and affairs of the corporation as may be provided in such resolution, except that no such committee shall have the power or authority of the board of directors in reference to amending the articles of incorporation, adopting an agreement of merger or consolidation, recommending to the shareholders the sale, lease or exchange of all or substantially all of the corporation's property and assets, recommending to the shareholders a dissolution of the corporation or a revocation of a dissolution of the corporation, or amending, altering or repealing the bylaws or adopting new bylaws for the corporation and, unless such resolution or the articles of incorporation expressly so provides, no such committee shall have the power or authority to authorize the issuance of stock. The board of directors shall have the power at any time to change the number and members of any such committee, to fill vacancies and to discharge any such committee.

Section 3.12 Compensation of Directors. The board of directors shall have authority to determine, from time to time, the amount of compensation, if any, which shall be paid to its members for their services as directors and as members of committees of the board of directors. The board of directors shall also have power in its discretion to provide for and to pay to directors rendering services to the corporation not ordinarily rendered by directors as such, special compensation appropriate to the value of such services as determined by the board of directors from time to time. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to preclude any director from serving the corporation in any other capacity and receiving compensation therefor.

Section 3.13 Action by Unanimous Written Consent. Any action required or permitted to be taken at a meeting of the board of directors or any committee may be taken without a meeting if a consent in writing, setting forth the actions so taken, is signed by all of the members of the board of directors or such committee, as the case may be.

Section 3.14 Minutes of Meetings. The board of directors shall keep regular minutes of its proceedings and such minutes shall be placed in the minute book of the corporation. Committees of the board of directors shall maintain a separate record of the minutes of their proceedings.

ARTICLE IV

NOTICES AND TELEPHONE MEETINGS

Section 4.1 Notice. Any notice to directors or shareholders shall be in writing and shall be delivered personally or by mail, telegram, telex, cable, telecopier or similar means to the directors or shareholders at their respective addresses appearing on the books of the corporation. Notice by mail shall be deemed to be given at the time when the same shall be deposited in the United States mail, postage prepaid. Any notice required or permitted to be given by telegram, telex, cable, telecopier, or similar means shall be deemed to be delivered and given at the time transmitted.

Section 4.2 Waiver of Notice. Whenever by law, the articles of incorporation, or these bylaws, notice is required to be given to any shareholder, director, or committee member of the corporation, a waiver thereof in writing signed by the person or persons entitled to such notice, whether before or after the time notice should have been given, shall be equivalent to the giving of such notice. Attendance of a director at a meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting, except where a director attends a meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business on the ground that the meeting is not lawfully called or convened.

Section 4.3 Telephone and Similar Meetings. Shareholders, directors, or committee members may participate in and hold a meeting by means of a conference telephone or similar communications equipment by means of which persons participating in the meeting can hear each other. Participation in such a meeting shall constitute presence in person at such meeting, except where a person participates in the meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business on the ground that the meeting is not lawfully called or convened.

ARTICLE V

OFFICERS

Section 5.1 Officers. The corporation shall have a president and a secretary and such other officers and assistant officers as the board may deem desirable to conduct the affairs of the corporation. The position of chairman of the board of directors shall not be an office of the corporation. Any two or more offices may be held by the same person. No officer need be a shareholder or a director.

Section 5.2 Powers and Duties of Officers. The officers of the corporation shall have the powers and duties generally ascribed to the respective offices, and such additional authority or duty as may from time to time be established by the board of directors.

Section 5.3 Removal and Resignation. Any officer appointed by the board of directors may be removed by the board of directors whenever, in the judgment of the board of directors, the best interests of the corporation will be served thereby. Any officer may resign at any time by giving written notice to the corporation. Any such resignation shall take effect at the date of receipt of such notice or at a later time specified therein, and unless otherwise specified therein, the acceptance of such resignation shall not be necessary to make it effective.

Section 5.4 Term and Vacancies. The officers of the corporation shall hold office until their successors are elected or appointed, or until their death, resignation, or removal from office. Any vacancy occurring in any office of the corporation by death, resignation, removal, or otherwise, may be filled by the board of directors.

Section 5.5 Compensation. The salaries of all officers of the corporation shall be fixed by the board of directors. The board of directors shall have the power to enter into contracts for the employment and compensation of officers on such terms as the board of directors deems advisable. No officer shall be disqualified from receiving a salary or other compensation by reason of the fact that he or she is also a director of the corporation.

ARTICLE VI

CERTIFICATES AND SHAREHOLDERS

Section 6.1 Certificates for Shares. The certificates for shares of stock of the Corporation shall be in such form as shall be approved by the board of directors in conformity with law and the articles of incorporation. Every certificate for shares issued by the corporation must be signed by the President or a Vice President and the Secretary or an Assistant Secretary under the seal of the corporation. Any or all of the signatures on the face of the certificate may be facsimile. Such certificates shall bear a legend or legends in the form and containing the restrictions to be stated thereon by the Texas Business Corporation Act (the "Texas Code"), other provisions of law, the articles of incorporation or these bylaws. Certificates shall be consecutively numbered and shall be entered as they are issued. Each certificate shall state on the face thereof the holder's name, the number and class of shares, the par value of such shares, and such other matters as may be required by law, the articles of incorporation or these bylaws.

Section 6.2 Lost, Stolen, or Destroyed Certificates. The board of directors, the executive committee, or the president of the corporation may direct a new certificate or certificates representing shares to be issued in place of any certificate or certificates theretofore issued by the corporation alleged to have been lost, stolen, or destroyed, upon the making of an affidavit of the fact by the person claiming the certificate or certificates to be lost, stolen, or destroyed. When authorizing such issue of a new certificate the board of directors, the executive committee or the president may require the owner of such lost, stolen, or destroyed certificate, or his or her legal representative, to advertise the same in such manner as it or he or she shall require and/or give the corporation a bond in such sum as it may direct as indemnity against any claim that may be made against the corporation with respect to the certificate alleged to have been lost, stolen or destroyed.

Section 6.3 Transfer of Shares. Shares of stock of the corporation shall be transferable only on the books of the corporation by the holder thereof in person or by the holder's duly authorized attorneys or legal representatives. Upon surrender to the corporation or the transfer agent of the corporation of a certificate representing shares duly endorsed or accompanied by proper evidence of succession, assignment, or authority to transfer, the corporation or its transfer agent shall issue a new certificate to the person entitled thereto, cancel the old certificate, and record the transaction upon its books.

Section 6.4 Registered Shareholders. The corporation shall be entitled to recognize the exclusive right of a person registered on its books as the owner of shares to receive dividends, and to vote as such owner, and to hold liable for calls and assessments, a person registered on its books as the owner of shares, and shall not be bound to recognize any equitable or other claim to or interest in such shares on the part of any person, whether or not it shall have actual or other notice thereof, except as otherwise provided by law.

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

Section 7.1 Dividends. Dividends upon the outstanding shares of the corporation, subject to the provisions of the applicable statutes and of the articles of incorporation, may be declared by the board of directors at any annual, regular or special meeting. Dividends may be declared and paid in cash, in property, or in shares of the corporation, or in any combination thereof.

Section 7.2 Reserves. There may be set aside out of any funds of the corporation available for dividends such sum or sums as the board of directors from time to time in their sole and absolute discretion think proper as a reserve to meet contingencies, or to equalize dividends, or to repair or maintain any property of the corporation, or for such other purpose as the board of directors shall think conducive to the interest of the corporation, and the board of directors may modify or abolish any such reserve in the manner in which it was created.

Section 7.3 Signature of Negotiable Instruments. All checks or demands for money and notes of the corporation shall be signed by such officer or officers or such other person or persons as the board of directors may from time to time designate.

Section 7.4 Fiscal Year. The fiscal year of the corporation shall be fixed by the board of directors; provided, that if such fiscal year is not fixed by the board of directors it shall be the calendar year.

Section 7.5 Books of the Corporation. The books of the corporation may be kept, subject to the provisions of the applicable statutes, within or outside of the State of Texas, at such place or places as may from time to time be designated by the board of directors or as the business of the corporation may require.

Section 7.6 Seal. The seal, if any, of the corporation shall be in such form as may be approved from time to time by the board of directors. If the board of directors approves a seal, the affixation of such seal shall not be required to create a valid and binding obligation against the corporation.

Section 7.7 Securities of Other Corporations. Unless otherwise ordered by the board of directors, the president or the secretary of the corporation shall have full power and authority on behalf of the corporation to attend, to vote and to grant proxies to be used at any meeting of shareholders of such other corporation in which the corporation may hold stock. The board of directors may confer like powers upon any other person or persons.

Section 7.8 Fixed Record Date. In order that the corporation may determine the shareholders entitled to notice of or to vote at any meeting of shareholders or any adjournment thereof, or to express consent to corporate action in writing without a meeting, or entitled to receive payment of any dividend or other distribution or allotment of any rights, or entitled to exercise any rights in respect of any change, conversion or exchange of stock for the purpose of any other lawful action, the board of directors may fix, in advance, a record date which shall be not more than sixty 60 days before the date of such meeting, nor more than 60 days prior to any other action.

Section 7.9 Amendment. The power to alter, amend, or repeal these bylaws or to adopt new bylaws is vested in the board of directors.

Section 7.10 Right to Indemnification.

(A) Each person (hereinafter an "indemnitee") who was or is made a party to or is threatened to be made a party to or is otherwise involved in any action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (hereinafter a "proceeding"), by reason of the fact that he or she was a director, officer or agent of the corporation or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation or of a partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, including service with respect to an employee benefit plan, whether the basis of such proceeding is alleged action in an official capacity as a director, officer, employee or agent, shall be indemnified and held harmless by the corporation to the fullest extent authorized by the Texas Code, as the same exists or may hereafter be amended (but, in the case of any such amendment, only to the extent that such amendment permits the corporation to provide broader indemnification rights than permitted prior thereto), against all expense, liability and loss (including attorney's fees, judgments, fines, ERISA excise taxes or penalties and amounts paid in settlement) reasonably incurred or suffered by such indemnitee in connection therewith, and such indemnification shall continue with respect to an indemnitee who has ceased to be a director, officer, employee or agent and shall inure to the benefit of the indemnitee's heirs, executors and administrators; provided, however, that, except as provided in paragraph (B) hereof with respect to proceedings to enforce rights to indemnification, the corporation shall indemnify any such indemnitee only if such proceeding (or part thereof) was authorized by the board of directors of the corporation. The right to indemnification conferred in this section shall be a contract right and shall include the right to be paid by the corporation the expenses incurred in defending any such proceeding in advance of its final disposition (hereinafter an “advancement of expenses”); provided, however, that, if the Texas Code requires, an advancement of expenses incurred by an indemnitee shall be made only upon delivery to the corporation of an undertaking (hereinafter an “undertaking”), by or on behalf of such indemnitee, to repay all amounts so advanced if it shall ultimately be determined by final judicial decision from which there is no further right to appeal (hereinafter a “final adjudication”) that such indemnitee is not entitled to be indemnified for such expenses under this section or otherwise.

(B) If a claim under paragraph (A) of this section is not paid in full by the corporation within 60 days after a written claim has been received by the corporation, except in the case of a claim for an advancement of expenses, in which case the applicable period shall be 20 days, the indemnitee may at any time thereafter bring suit against the corporation to recover the unpaid amount of such suit, or in a suit brought by the corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking, the indemnitee shall be entitled to be paid also the expense of prosecuting or defending such suit. In (i) any suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right to indemnification hereunder (but not in a suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right to an advancement of expenses) it shall be a defense that, and (ii) any suit by the corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking the corporation shall be entitled to recover such expenses upon a final adjudication that, the indemnitee has not met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in the Texas Code. Neither the failure of the corporation (including its board of directors, independent legal counsel, or its shareholders) to have made a determination prior to the commencement of such suit that indemnification of the indemnitee is proper in the circumstances because the indemnitee has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in the Texas Code, nor an actual determination by the corporation (including its board of directors, independent legal counsel, or its shareholders) that the indemnitee has not met such applicable standard of conduct shall create a presumption that the indemnitee has not met the applicable standard of conduct or, in the case of such a suit brought by the indemnitee, be a defense of such suit. In any suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right of indemnification or to an advancement of expenses hereunder, or by the corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking, the burden of proving that the indemnitee is not entitled to be indemnified, or to such advancement of expenses, under this section or otherwise shall be on the corporation.

(C) The rights to indemnification and to the advancement of expenses conferred in this section shall not be exclusive of any other right which any person may have or hereafter acquire under any statute, the corporation’s certificate of incorporation, by agreement, by vote of shareholders or by disinterested directors or otherwise.

(D) The corporation may maintain insurance, at its expense, to protect itself and any director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation or another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise against any expense, liability or loss, whether or not the corporation would have the power to indemnify such person against such expense, liability or loss under the Texas Code.

Section 7.11 Invalid Provisions. If any provision of these bylaws is held to be illegal, invalid, or unenforceable under present or future laws, such provision shall be fully severable; these bylaws shall be construed and enforced as if such illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision had never comprised a part hereof; and the remaining provisions hereof shall remain in full force and effect and shall not be affected by the illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision or by its severance herefrom. Furthermore, in lieu of such illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision there shall be added automatically as a part of these bylaws a provision as similar in terms to such illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision as may be possible and be legal, valid, and enforceable.

Section 7.12 Headings. The headings used in these bylaws are for reference purposes only and do not affect in any way the meaning or interpretation of these bylaws.

The above bylaws were duly adopted as the bylaws of the corporation effective as of the 18th day of December, 1996.

ARTICLE NINE

To the fullest extent permitted by Texas law, a director of the Corporation shall not be personally liable to the Corporation or its stockholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director, except for liability (i) for any breach of the director's duty of loyalty to the Corporation or its stockholders, (ii) for acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law, (iii) under Section 2.41 of the Texas Business Corporation Act or (iv) for any transaction from which the director derived any improper personal benefit. If the Texas Business Corporation Act is amended hereafter to authorize corporate action further eliminating or limiting the personal liability of directors, then the liability of a director of the Corporation shall be eliminated or limited to the fullest extent permitted by the Texas Business Corporation Act, as so amended.

Any repeal or modification of the foregoing paragraph by the stockholders of the Corporation shall not adversely affect any right or protection of a director of the Corporation existing at the time of such repeal or modification.

ARTICLE TEN

A, Rights to Indemnification. Each person who was or is made a party or is threatened to be made a party to or is otherwise involved in any action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (hereinafter, a "proceeding"), by reason of the fact that he or she, or a person of whom he or she is a legal representative, or is or was a director or officer of the Corporation or is only serving at the request of the Corporation as a director or officer of another Corporation or of a partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, including service with respect to an employee benefit plan (hereinafter an "indemnitee"), whether the basis of such proceeding is alleged action in an official capacity or as a director or officer or in any other capacity while serving as a director or officer, shall be indemnified and held harmless by the Corporation to the fullest extent authorized by the Texas Business Corporation Act as the same exists or may hereafter be amended (but, in the case of any such amendment, only to the extent that such amendment permits the Corporation to provide broader indemnification rights than permitted prior thereto), against all expense, liability and loss (including, without limitation, attorneys' fees, judgments, fines, excise taxes or penalties and amounts paid or to be paid in settlement) incurred or suffered by such indemnitee in connection therewith and such indemnification shall continue with respect to an indemnitee who has ceased to be a director or officer and shall inure to the benefit of the indemnitee's heirs, executors and administrators; provided, however, that except as provided in paragraph (B) hereof with respect to proceedings to enforce rights to indemnification, the Corporation shall indemnify any such indemnitee in connection with a proceeding initiated by such indemnitee only if such proceeding was authorized by the Board of Directors of the Corporation. The right to indemnification conferred in this Article shall be a contract right and shall include the right to be paid by the Corporation the expenses incurred in defending any such proceeding in advance of its final disposition (hereinafter an "advancement of expenses"); provided, however, that if the Texas Business Corporation Act requires, an advancement of expenses incurred by an indemnitee shall be made only upon delivery to the Corporation of an undertaking (hereinafter an "undertaking"), by or on behalf of such indemnitee, to repay all amounts so advanced if it shall ultimately be determined by final judicial decision from which there is no further right to appeal (hereinafter a "final adjudication") that such indemnitee is not entitled to be indemnified for such expenses under this Article or otherwise.

B. Rights of Indemnitee to Bring Suit. If a claim under paragraph (A) of this Article is not paid in full by the Corporation within sixty days after a written claim has been received by the Corporation (except in the case of a claim for an advancement of expenses, in which case the applicable period shall be twenty days), the indemnitee may at any time thereafter bring suit against the Corporation to recover the unpaid amount of the claim. If successful in whole or in part in any such suit, the indemnitee shall also be entitled to be paid the expense of prosecuting or defending such suit. In (i) any suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right to indemnification hereunder (but not a suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right to an advancement of expenses) it shall be a defense that, and (ii) in any suit by the Corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking, the Corporation shall be entitled to recover such expenses upon a final adjudication that, the indemnitee has not met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in the Texas Business Corporation Act. Neither the failure of the Corporation (including its Board of Directors, independent counsel or its stockholders) to have made a determination prior to the commencement of such suit that indemnification of the indemnitee has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in the Texas Business Corporation Act, nor an actual determination by the Corporation (including its Board of Directors, independent legal counsel or its stockholders) that the indemnitee has not met such applicable standard of conduct, or in the case of such a suit brought by the indemnitee, shall be a defense to such suit. In any suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right to indemnification or to an advancement of expenses hereunder or by the Corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking, the burden of proving that the indemnitee is not entitled under this Article or otherwise to be indemnified, or to such advancement of expenses, shall be on the Corporation.

C. Non-Exclusivity of Rights. The rights to indemnification and to the advancement of expenses conferred in this Article shall not be exclusive of any other right which any person may have or hereafter acquire under these Articles of Incorporation or any Bylaw, agreement, vote of stockholders or disinterested directors or otherwise.

D. Insurance. The Corporation may maintain insurance, at its expense, to protect itself and any indemnitee against any expense, liability or loss, whether or not the Corporation would have the power to indemnify such person against such expense, liability or loss under the Texas Business Corporation Act.

E. Indemnity of Employees and Agents of the Corporation. The Corporation may, to the extent authorized from time to time by the Board of Directors, grant rights to indemnification and to the advancement of expenses to any employee or agent of the Corporation to the fullest extent of the provisions of this Article or as otherwise permitted under the Texas Business Corporation Act. with respect to the indemnification and advancement of expenses of directors and officers of the Corporation.

ARTICLE ELEVEN

The Bylaws of the Corporation may be altered, amended or repealed or new Bylaws may be adopted by the Board of Directors of the Corporation,

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand this 13th day of August, 2001.

INSTRUCTIONS

1. It is recommended that you call (512) 463-5555 to verify the information in items 3 and 5 as it currently appears on the records of the secretary of state before submitting the statement for filing. You also may e-mail an inquiry to corpinfo@sos.state.tx.us. As information on out-of-state financial institutions is maintained on a separate database, a financial institution must call (512) 463-5701 to verify registered agent and registered office information. If the information on the form is inconsistent with the records of this office, the statement will be returned.

2. You are required by law to provide a street address in item 4 unless the registered office is located in a city with a population of 5,000 or less. The purpose of this requirement is to provide the public with notice of a physical location at which process may be served on the registered agent. A statement submitted with a post office box address or a lock box address will not be filed.

3. An authorized officer of the corporation or financial institution must sign the statement. In the case of a limited liability company, an authorized member or manager of a limited liability company must sign the statement. A general partner must sign the statement on behalf of a limited partnership. A person commits an offense under the Texas Business Corporation Act, the Texas Non-Profit Corporation Act or the Texas Limited Liability Company Act if the person signs a document the person knows is false in any material respect with the intent that the document be delivered to the secretary of state for filing. The offense is a Class A misdemeanor.

4. Please attach the appropriate fee:

Business Corporation	$15.00
Financial Institution, other than Credit Unions	$15.00
Financial Institution that is a Credit Union	$ 5.00
Non-Profit Corporation	$ 5.00
Limited Liability Company	$10.00
Limited Partnership	$50.00

Personal checks and MasterCard®, Visa®, and Discover® are accepted in payment of the filing fee. Checks or money orders must be payable through a U.S. bank or other financial institution and made payable to the secretary of state. Fees paid by credit card are subject to a statutorily authorized processing cost of 2.1% of the total fees.

5. Two copies of the form along with the filing fee should be mailed to the address shown in the heading of this form. The delivery address is: Secretary of State, Statutory Filings Division, Corporations Section, James Earl Rudder Office Building, 1019 Brazos, Austin, Texas 78701. We will place one document on record and return a file stamped copy, if a duplicate copy is provided for such purpose. The telephone number is (512) 463-5555, TDD: (800) 735-2989, FAX: (512) 463-5709.

BYLAWS OF
JOURDANTON HOSPITAL CORPORATION

ARTICLE I

OFFICES

Section 1.1 Registered Office. The registered office shall be in the City of Austin, County of Travis, Texas.

Section 1.2 Other Offices. The corporation may also have offices at such other places both within and without the State of Texas as the board of directors may from time to time determine or the business of the corporation may require.

ARTICLE II

MEETINGS OF SHAREHOLDERS

Section 2.1 Annual Meeting. An annual meeting of shareholders of the corporation shall be held on such date and at such time as shall be designated from time to time by the board of directors and stated in the notice of the meeting. At such meeting, the shareholders shall elect directors and transact such other business as may properly be brought before the meeting.

Section 2.2 Special Meetings. Special meetings of the shareholders for any purpose whatsoever may be called at any time by the president, the board of directors, or the holders of not less than ten percent of all shares entitled to vote at such meeting.

Section 2.3 Place of Meetings. All meetings of shareholders for any purpose or purposes may be held at such places, within or without the State of Texas, as may from time to time be fixed by the board of directors or as shall be stated in the notice of the meeting or in a duly executed waiver of notice thereof.

Section 2.4 Notice. Written notice stating the place, day and hour of the meeting and, in the case of a special meeting, the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is called, shall be given not less than ten nor more than sixty days before the date of the meeting, either personally or by mail.

Section 2.5 Quorum of Shareholders. The holders of a majority of the shares issued and outstanding and entitled to vote at such meeting, present in person or represented by proxy shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at all meetings of the shareholders.

Section 2.6 Voting of Shares. Except as otherwise provided by statute or the articles of incorporation, each holder of record of shares of stock of the Corporation having voting power shall be entitled at each meeting of the shareholders to one vote for every share of such stock standing in his or her name on the record books of shareholders of the corporation on the date on which such notice of the meeting is mailed, unless some other day is fixed by the board of directors for the determination of shareholders of record.

Section 2.7 Voting List. The officer who has charge of the stock transfer books for shares of the corporation shall prepare at least ten days before every meeting of shareholders, a complete list of the shareholders entitled to vote at such meeting, arranged in alphabetical order, including the address of each shareholder and the number of voting shares held by each shareholder. For a period of ten days prior to such meeting, such list shall be kept open to the examination of any shareholder, for any purpose germane to the meeting, during ordinary business hours, either at a place within the city where the meeting is to be held and which place shall be specified in the notice of the meeting, or, if not so specified, at the place where said meeting is to be held. Such list shall be produced at such meeting and at all times during such meeting shall be subject to inspection by any shareholder. The original stock transfer books shall be prima facie evidence as to who are the shareholders entitled to examine such list or stock transfer books.

Section 2.8 Treasury Stock. The corporation shall not vote, directly or indirectly, shares of its own stock owned by it and such shares shall not be counted for quorum purposes.

Section 2.9 Consent of Shareholders in Lieu of Meeting. Whenever the vote of shareholders at a meeting thereof is required or permitted to be taken for or in connection with any corporate action, the meeting, the notice thereof, and the vote of shareholders can be dispensed with, if a consent in writing, setting forth the action so taken, shall be signed by the holders of stock having not less than the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to authorize or take such action at a meeting at which all shares entitled to vote thereof were present and voted, provided that prompt notice must be given to all shareholders of the taking of corporate action without a meeting by less than unanimous written consent.

Section 2.10 Minutes of Meetings. The secretary of the corporation shall keep regular minutes of all meetings of shareholders and such minutes shall be placed in the minute book of the corporation.

ARTICLE III DIRECTORS

Section 3.1 Powers of Directors. The business and affairs of the corporation shall be managed by its board of directors which shall have and may exercise all such powers of the corporation, subject to the restrictions imposed by law, the articles of incorporation, or these bylaws.

Section 3.2 Number and Qualification. The number of directors which shall constitute the entire board of directors shall be determined by resolution of the Board of Directors at any meeting thereof or by the Shareholders at any meeting thereof. Directors need not be residents of Texas or Shareholders of the corporation.

Section 3.3 Election and Term of Office. The directors shall be elected annually by the shareholders, except as provided in Section 3.4 of these bylaws. Each director shall hold office until the next succeeding annual meeting of shareholders and until his or her successor shall have been elected or until his or her earlier death, resignation, or removal. The board of directors may, by resolution, appoint one of its members as chairman to preside over meetings of the board of directors. The position of chairman of the board of directors shall not be an office of the corporation.

Section 3.4 Vacancies. Any vacancy occurring in the board of directors by reason of death, resignation, or removal may be filled by affirmative vote of a majority of the remaining directors, although less than a quorum of the board of directors. Such vacancy may also be filled by affirmative vote of the majority of the shareholders. A director elected to fill a vacancy shall be elected for the unexpired term of his or her predecessor in office or until his or her death, resignation, retirement, disqualification, or removal.

Section 3.5 Resignation of Directors. Any director may resign from office at any time by delivering a written resignation to the secretary of the corporation, and such resignation shall be effective upon delivery of such resignation to the secretary.

Section 3.6 Removal of Directors. Any director may be removed with or without cause at any time by the shareholders.

Section 3.7 Place of Meetings. Regular or special meetings of the board of directors may be held either within or without the State of Texas.

Section 3.8 Regular Meetings. Regular meetings of the board of directors may be held without notice at such times and places as may be designated from time to time as may be determined by the board of directors.

Section 3.9 Special Meetings. Special meetings of the board of directors may be called by the president or any director on twenty-four (24) hours notice to each director, either personally or by telephone, mail, telegram or other means of telecommunications. Neither the business to be transacted at, nor the purpose of, any special meeting of the board of directors need be specified in the notice or waiver of notice of any special meeting.

Section 3.10 Quorum of Directors. At all meetings of the board of directors, a majority of the directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business and the act or a majority of the directors present at any meeting at which there is a quorum shall be an act of the board of directors. If a quorum is not present at a meeting, a majority of the directors present may adjourn the meeting from time to time, without notice other than an announcement at the meeting, until a quorum is present.

Section 3.11 Committees. The board of directors may, by resolution passed by a majority of the entire board, designate one or more committees, including, if they shall so determine, an executive committee, each such committee to consist of one or more of the directors of the corporation. Any such designated committee shall have and may exercise such of the powers and authority of the board of directors in the management of the business and affairs of the corporation as may be provided in such resolution, except that no such committee shall have the power or authority of the board of directors in reference to amending the articles of incorporation, adopting an agreement of merger or consolidation, recommending to the shareholders the sale, lease or exchange of all or substantially all of the corporation's property and assets, recommending to the shareholders a dissolution of the corporation or a revocation of a dissolution of the corporation, or amending, altering or repealing the bylaws or adopting new bylaws for the corporation and, unless such resolution or the articles of incorporation expressly so provides, no such committee shall have the power or authority to authorize the issuance of stock. The board of directors shall have the power at any time to change the number and members of any such committee, to fill vacancies and to discharge any such committee.

Section 3.12 Compensation of Directors. Persons serving as directors shall not receive any compensation for their services as directors; however, a director shall be entitled to reimbursement for reasonable and customary expenses incurred by such director in carrying out his duties as approved by the president of the corporation.

Section 3.13 Action by Unanimous Written Consent. Any action required or permitted to be taken at a meeting of the board of directors or any committee may be taken without a meeting if a consent in writing, setting forth the actions so taken, is signed by all of the members of the board of directors or such committee, as the case may be.

Section 3.14 Minutes of Meetings. The board of directors shall keep regular minutes of its proceedings and such minutes shall be placed in the minute book of the corporation. Committees of the board of directors shall maintain a separate record of the minutes of their proceedings.

ARTICLE IV

NOTICES AND TELEPHONE MEETINGS

Section 4.1 Notice. Any notice to directors or shareholders shall be in writing and shall be delivered personally or by mail, telegram, telex, cable, telecopier or similar means to the directors or shareholders at their respective addresses appearing on the books of the corporation. Notice by mail shall be deemed to be given at the time when the same shall be deposited in the United States mail, postage prepaid. Any notice required or permitted to be given by telegram, telex, cable, telecopier, or similar means shall be deemed to be delivered and given at the time transmitted.

Section 4.2 Waiver of Notice. Whenever by law, the articles of incorporation, or these bylaws, notice is required to be given to any shareholder, director, or committee member of the corporation, a waiver thereof in writing signed by the person or persons entitled to such notice, whether before or after the time notice should have been given, shall be equivalent to the giving of such notice. Attendance of a director at a meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting, except where a director attends a meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business on the ground that the meeting is not lawfully called or convened.

Section 4.3 Telephone and Similar Meetings. Shareholders, directors, or committee members may participate in and hold a meeting by means of a conference telephone or similar communications equipment by means of which persons participating in the meeting can hear each other. Participation in such a meeting shall constitute presence in person at such meeting, except where a person participates in the meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business on the ground that the meeting is not lawfully called or convened.

ARTICLE V OFFICERS

Section 5.1 Officers. The corporation shall have a president and a secretary and such other officers and assistant officers as the board may deem desirable to conduct the affairs of the corporation. The position of chairman of the board of directors shall not be an office of the corporation. Any two or more offices may be held by the same person. No officer need be a shareholder or a director.

Section 5.2 Powers and Duties of Officers. The officers of the corporation shall have the powers and duties generally ascribed to the respective offices, and such additional authority or duty as may from time to time be established by the board of directors.

Section 5.3 Removal and Resignation. Any officer appointed by the board of directors may be removed by the board of directors whenever, in the judgment of the board of directors, the best interests of the corporation will be served thereby. Any officer may resign at any time by giving written notice to the corporation. Any such resignation shall take effect at the date of receipt of such notice or at a later time specified therein, and unless otherwise specified therein, the acceptance of such resignation shall not be necessary to make it effective.

Section 5.4 Term and Vacancies. The officers of the corporation shall hold office until their successors are elected or appointed, or until their death, resignation, or removal from office. Any vacancy occurring in any office of the corporation by death, resignation, removal, or otherwise, may be filled by the board of directors.

Section 5.5 Compensation. The salaries of all officers of the corporation shall be fixed by the board of directors. The board of directors shall have the power to enter into contracts for the employment and compensation of officers on such terms as the board of directors deems advisable. No officer shall be disqualified from receiving a salary or other compensation by reason of the fact that he or she is also a director of the corporation.

ARTICLE VI

CERTIFICATES AND SHAREHOLDERS

Section 6.1 Certificates for Shares. The certificates for shares of stock of the Corporation shall be in such form as shall be approved by the board of directors in conformity with law and the articles of incorporation. Every certificate for shares issued by the corporation must be signed by the President or a Vice President and the Secretary or an Assistant Secretary under the seal of the corporation. Any or all of the signatures on the face of the certificate may be facsimile. Such certificates shall bear a legend or legends in the form and containing the restrictions to be stated thereon by the Texas Business Corporation Act, other provisions of law, the articles of incorporation or these bylaws. Certificates shall be consecutively numbered and shall be entered as they are issued. Each certificate shall state on the face thereof the holder's name, the number and class of shares, the par value of such shares, and such other matters as may be required by law, the articles of incorporation or these bylaws.

Section 6.2 Lost, Stolen, or Destroyed Certificates. The board of directors, the executive committee, or the president of the corporation may direct a new certificate or certificates representing shares to be issued in place of any certificate or certificates theretofore issued by the corporation alleged to have been lost, stolen, or destroyed, upon the making of an affidavit of the fact by the person claiming the certificate or certificates to be lost, stolen, or destroyed. When authorizing such issue of a new certificate the board of directors, the executive committee or the president may require the owner of such lost, stolen, or destroyed certificate, or his or her legal representative, to advertise the same in such manner as it or he or she shall require and/or give the corporation a bond in such sum as it may direct as indemnity against any claim that may be made against the corporation with respect to the certificate alleged to have been lost, stolen or destroyed.

Section 6.3 Transfer of Shares. Shares of stock of the corporation shall be transferable only on the books of the corporation by the holder thereof in person or by the holder's duly authorized attorneys or legal representatives. Upon surrender to the corporation or the transfer agent of the corporation of a certificate representing shares duly endorsed or accompanied by proper evidence of succession, assignment, or authority to transfer, the corporation or its transfer agent shall issue a new certificate to the person entitled thereto, cancel the old certificate, and record the transaction upon its books.

Section 6.4 Registered Shareholders. The corporation shall be entitled to recognize the exclusive right of a person registered on its books as the owner of shares to receive dividends, and to vote as such owner, and to hold liable for calls and assessments, a person registered on its books as the owner of shares, and shall not be bound to recognize any equitable or other claim to or interest in such shares on the part of any person, whether or not it shall have actual or other notice thereof, except as otherwise provided by law.

ARTICLE VII

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

Section 7.1 Dividends. Dividends upon the outstanding shares of the corporation, subject to the provisions of the applicable statutes and of the articles of incorporation, may be declared by the board of directors at any annual, regular or special meeting. Dividends may be declared and paid in cash, in property, or in shares of the corporation, or in any combination thereof.

Section 7.2 Reserves. There may be set aside out of any funds of the corporation available for dividends such sum or sums as the board of directors from time to time in their sole and absolute discretion think proper as a reserve to meet contingencies, or to equalize dividends, or to repair or maintain any property of the corporation, or for such other purpose as the board of directors shall think conducive to the interest of the corporation, and the board of directors may modify or abolish any such reserve in the manner in which it was created.

Section 7.3 Signature of Negotiable Instruments. All checks or demands for money and notes of the corporation shall be signed by such officer or officers or such other person or persons as the board of directors may from time to time designate.

Section 7.4 Fiscal Year. The fiscal year of the corporation shall be fixed by the board of directors; provided, that if such fiscal year is not fixed by the board of directors it shall be the calendar year.

Section 7.5 Books of the Corporation. The books of the corporation may be kept, subject to the provisions of the applicable statutes, within or outside of the State of Texas, at such place or places as may from time to time be designated by the board of directors or as the business of the corporation may require.

Section 7.6 Seal. The seal, if any, of the corporation shall be in such form as may be approved from time to time by the board of directors. If the board of directors approves a seal, the affixation of such seal shall not be required to create a valid and binding obligation against the corporation.

Section 7.7 Securities of Other Corporations. Unless otherwise ordered by the board of directors, the president or the secretary of the corporation shall have full power and authority on behalf of the corporation to attend, to vote and to grant proxies to be used at any meeting of shareholders of such other corporation in which the corporation may hold stock. The board of directors may confer like powers upon any other person or persons.

Section 7.8 Fixed Record Date. In order that the corporation may determine the shareholders entitled to notice of or to vote at any meeting of shareholders or any adjournment thereof, or to express consent to corporate action in writing without a meeting, or entitled to receive payment of any dividend or other distribution or allotment of any rights, or entitled to exercise any rights in respect of any change, conversion or exchange of stock for the purpose of any other lawful action, the board of directors may fix, in advance, a record date which shall be not more than sixty 60 days before the date of such meeting, nor more than 60 days prior to any other action.

Section 7.9 Amendment. The power to alter, amend, or repeal these bylaws or to adopt new bylaws is vested in the board of directors.

Section 7.10 Right to Indemnification.

(A) Each person (hereinafter an "indemnitee") who was or is made a party or is threatened to be made a party to or is otherwise involved in any action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (hereinafter a "proceeding"), by reason of the fact that he or she was a director, officer or agent of the corporation or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation or of a partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, including service with respect to an employee benefit plan, whether the basis of such proceeding is alleged action in an official capacity as a director, officer, employee or agent, shall be indemnified and held harmless by the corporation to the fullest extent authorized by the Texas Business Corporation Act, as the same exists or may hereafter be amended (but, in the case of any such amendment, only to the extent that such amendment permits the corporation to provide broader indemnification rights than permitted prior thereto), against all expense, liability and loss (including attorney's fees, judgments, fines, ERISA excise taxes or penalties and amounts paid in settlement) reasonably incurred or suffered by such indemnitee in connection therewith, and such indemnification shall continue with respect to an indemnitee who has ceased to be a director, officer, employee or agent and shall inure to the benefit of the indemnitee's heirs, executors and administrators; provided, however, that, except as provided in paragraph (B) hereof with respect to proceedings to enforce rights to indemnification, the corporation shall indemnify any such indemnitee only if such proceeding (or part thereof) was authorized by the board of directors of the corporation. The right to indemnification conferred in this section shall be a contract right and shall include the right to be paid by the corporation the expenses incurred in defending any such proceeding in advance of its final disposition (hereinafter an “advancement of expenses”); provided, however, that, if the Texas Business Corporation Act requires, an advancement of expenses incurred by an indemnitee shall be made only upon delivery to the corporation of an undertaking (hereinafter an “undertaking”), by or on behalf of such indemnitee, to repay all amounts so advanced if it shall ultimately be determined by final judicial decision from which there is no further right to appeal (hereinafter a “final adjudication”) that such indemnitee is not entitled to be indemnified for such expenses under this section or otherwise.

(B) If a claim under paragraph (A) of this section is not paid in full by the corporation within 60 days after a written claim has been received by the corporation, except in the case of a claim for an advancement of expenses, in which case the applicable period shall be 20 days, the indemnitee may at any time thereafter bring suit against the corporation to recover the unpaid amount of such suit, or in a suit brought by the corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking, the indemnitee shall be entitled to be paid also the expense of prosecuting or defending such suit. In (i) any suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right to indemnification hereunder (but not in a suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right to an advancement of expenses) it shall be a defense that, and (ii) any suit by the corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking the corporation shall be entitled to recover such expenses upon a final adjudication that, the indemnitee has not met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in the Texas Business Corporation Act. Neither the failure of the corporation (including its board of directors, independent legal counsel, or its shareholders) to have made a determination prior to the commencement of such suit that indemnification of the indemnitee is proper in the circumstances because the indemnitee has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in the Texas Business Corporation Act, nor an actual determination by the corporation (including its board of directors, independent legal counsel, or its shareholders) that the indemnitee has not met such applicable standard of conduct shall create a presumption that the indemnitee has not met the applicable standard of conduct or, in the case of such a suit brought by the indemnitee, be a defense of such suit. In any suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right of indemnification or to an advancement of expenses hereunder, or by the corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking, the burden of proving that the indemnitee is not entitled to be indemnified, or to such advancement of expenses, under this section or otherwise shall be on the corporation.

(C) The rights to indemnification and to the advancement of expenses conferred in this section shall not be exclusive of any other right which any person may have or hereafter acquire under any statute, the corporation’s certificate of incorporation, by agreement, by vote of shareholders or by disinterested directors or otherwise.

(D) The corporation may maintain insurance, at its expense, to protect itself and any director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation or another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise against any expense, liability or loss, whether or not the corporation would have the power to indemnify such person against such expense, liability or loss under the Texas Business Corporation Act.

Section 7.11 Invalid Provisions. If any provision of these bylaws is held to be illegal, invalid, or unenforceable under present or future laws, such provision shall be fully severable; these bylaws shall be construed and enforced as if such illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision had never comprised a part hereof; and the remaining provisions hereof shall remain in full force and effect and shall not be affected by the illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision or by its severance herefrom. Furthermore, in lieu of such illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision there shall be added automatically as a part of these bylaws a provision as similar in terms to such illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision as may be possible and be legal, valid, and enforceable.

Section 7.12 Headings. The headings used in these bylaws are for reference purposes only and do not affect in any way the meaning or interpretation of these bylaws.

The above bylaws were duly adopted as the bylaws of the corporation effective as of the 14th day of August, 2001.

INSTRUCTIONS

1. It is recommended that you call (512) 463-5555 to verify the information in items 3 and 5 as it currently appears on the records of the secretary of state before submitting the statement for filing. You also may e-mail an inquiry to corpinfo@state.tx.us. As information on out-of-state financial institutions is maintained on a separate database, a financial institution must call (512) 463-5701 to verify registered agent and registered office information. If the information on the form is inconsistent with the records of this office, the statement will be returned.

2. You are required by law to provide a street address in item 4 unless the registered office is located in a city with a population of 5,000 or less. The purpose of this requirement is to provide the public with notice of a physical location at which process may be served on the registered agent. A statement submitted with a post office box address or a lock box address will not be filed.

3. An authorized officer of the corporation or financial institution must sign the statement. In the case of a limited liability company, an authorized member or manager of a limited liability company must sign the statement. A general partner must sign the statement on behalf of a limited partnership. A person commits an offense under the Texas Business Corporation Act, the Texas Non-Profit Corporation Act or the Texas Limited Liability Company Act if the person signs a document the person knows is false in any material respect with the intent that the document be delivered to the secretary of state for filing. The offense is a Class A misdemeanor.

4. Please attach the appropriate fee:

Business Corporation	$15.00
Financial Institution, other than Credit Unions	$15.00
Financial Institution that is a Credit Union	$ 5.00
Non-Profit Corporation	$ 5.00
Limited Liability Company	$10.00
Limited Partnership	$50.00

Personal checks and MasterCard®, Visa®, and Discover® are accepted in payment of the filing fee. Checks or money orders must be payable through a U.S. bank or other financial institution and made payable to the secretary of state. Fees paid by credit card are subject to a statutorily authorized processing cost of 2.1% of the total fees.

5. Two copies of the form along with the filing fee should be mailed to the address shown in the heading of this form. The delivery address is: Secretary of State, Statutory Filings Division, Corporations Section, James Earl Rudder Office Building, 1019 Brazos, Austin, Texas 78701. We will place one document on record and return a file stamped copy, if a duplicate copy is provided for such purpose. The telephone number is (512) 463-5555, TDD: (800) 735-2989, FAX: (512) 463-5709.

BYLAWS
NHCI OF HILLSBORO, INC.

ARTICLE I
OFFICES

Section 1.1 Registered Office. The registered office shall be in the City of Austin, State of Texas.

Section 1.2 Other Offices. The corporation may also have offices at such other places both within and without the State of Texas, as the Board of Directors may from time to time determine or the business of the corporation may require.

ARTICLE II
MEETINGS OF STOCKHOLDERS

Section 2.1 Annual Meeting. An annual meeting of Stockholders of the corporation shall be held within ninety (90) days of the fiscal year end of the corporation, as selected by the Board of Directors, or on such other date and at such time as shall be designated from time to time by the Board of Directors and stated in the notice of the meeting. At such meeting, the Stockholders shall elect Directors and transact such other business as may properly be brought before the meeting.

Section 2.2 Special Meetings. Special meetings of the Stockholders for any purpose whatsoever may be called at any time by the President, the Board of Directors, or the holders of not less than ten percent of all stock entitled to vote at such meeting.

Section 2.3 Place of Meetings. All meetings of Stockholders for any purpose or purposes may be held at such places, within or without the State of Texas, as may from time to time be fixed by the Board of Directors or as shall be stated in the notice of the meeting or in a duly executed waiver of notice thereof.

Section 2.4 Notice. Written notice stating the place, day and hour of the meeting and, in the case of a special meeting, the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is called, shall be given not less than ten nor more than sixty days before the date of the meeting, either personally or by mail.

Section 2.5 Quorum of Stockholders. The holders of a majority of the stock issued and outstanding and entitled to vote at such meeting, present in person or represented by proxy shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at all meetings of the Stockholders.

Section 2.6 Voting of Stock. Except as otherwise provided by statute or the certificate of incorporation, each holder of record of shares of stock of the Corporation having voting power shall be entitled at each meeting of the Stockholders to one vote for every share of such stock standing in his or her name on the record books of Stockholders of the corporation on the date on which such notice of the meeting is mailed, unless some other day is fixed by the Board of Directors for the determination of Stockholders of record.

Section 2.7 Voting List. The officer who has charge of the stock transfer books for stock of the corporation shall prepare at least ten days before every meeting of Stockholders, a complete list of the Stockholders entitled to vote at such meeting, arranged in alphabetical order, including the address of each Stockholder and the number of voting shares of stock held by each Stockholder. For a period of ten days prior to such meeting, such list shall be kept open to the examination of any Stockholder, for any purpose germane to the meeting, during ordinary business hours, either at a place within the city where the meeting is to be held and which place shall be specified in the notice of the meeting, or, if not so specified, at the place where said meeting is to be held. Such list shall be produced at such meeting and at all times during such meeting shall be subject to inspection by any Stockholder. The original stock transfer books shall be prima facie evidence as to who are the Stockholders entitled to examine such list or stock transfer books.

Section 2.8 Treasury Stock. The corporation shall not vote, directly or indirectly, shares of its own stock owned by it and such shares of stock shall not be counted for quorum purposes.

Section 2.9 Consent of Stockholders in Lieu of Meeting. Stockholder action may be taken by a consent in writing, setting forth the action so taken, signed by the holders of stock having not less than the minimum number of votes necessary to authorize or take such action at a meeting, provided that prompt notice must be given to all Stockholders who have not so consented.

ARTICLE III DIRECTORS

Section 3.1 Powers of Directors. The business and affairs of the corporation shall be managed by its Board of Directors which shall have and may exercise all such powers of the corporation, subject to the restrictions imposed by law, the certificate of incorporation, or these bylaws.

Section 3.2 Number and Qualification. The number of members that shall constitute the entire Board of Directors shall be determined by resolution of the Board of Directors at any meeting thereof or by the Stockholders at any meeting thereof. Directors need not be residents of Texas or Stockholders of the corporation.

Section 3.3 Election and Term of Office. The Directors shall be elected annually by the Stockholders, except as provided in Section 3.4 of these bylaws. Each Director shall hold office until the next succeeding annual meeting of Stockholders and until his or her successor shall have been elected or until his or her earlier death, resignation, or removal. The Board of Directors may, by resolution, appoint one of its members as chairman to preside over meetings of the Board of Directors. The position of chairman of the Board of Directors shall not be an office of the corporation.

Section 3.4 Vacancies. Any vacancy occurring in the Board of Directors by reason of death, resignation, or removal may be filled by affirmative vote of a majority of the remaining Directors, although less than a quorum of the Board of Directors. Such vacancy may also be filled by affirmative vote of the majority of the Stockholders. A Director elected to fill a vacancy shall be elected for the unexpired term of his or her predecessor in office or until his or her death, resignation, retirement, disqualification, or removal.

Section 3.5 Resignation of Directors. Any Director may resign from office at any time by delivering a written resignation to the Secretary of the corporation, and such resignation shall be effective upon delivery of such resignation to the Secretary.

Section 3.6 Removal of Directors. Any Director may be removed with or without cause at any time by the Stockholders.

Section 3.7 Place of Meetings. Regular or special meetings of the Board of Directors may be held either within or without the State of Texas.

Section 3.8 Regular Meetings. Regular meetings of the Board of Directors may be held without notice at such times and places as may be designated from time to time as may be determined by the Board of Directors.

Section 3.9 Special Meetings. Special meetings of the Board of Directors may be called by the President or any Director on twenty-four (24) hours notice to each Director, either personally or by telephone, mail, telegram or other means of telecommunications. Neither the business to be transacted at, nor the purpose of, any special meeting of the Board of Directors need be specified in the notice or waiver of notice of any special meeting.

Section 3.10 Quorum of Directors. At all meetings of the Board of Directors, a majority of the Directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business and the act of a majority of the Directors present at any meeting at which there is a quorum shall be an act of the Board of Directors. If a quorum is not present at a meeting, a majority of the Directors present may adjourn the meeting from time to time, without notice other than an announcement at the meeting, until a quorum is present.

Section 3.11 Committees. The Board of Directors may, by resolution passed by a majority of the entire board, designate one or more committees, including, if they shall so determine, an executive committee, each such committee to consist of one or more of the Directors of the corporation. Any such designated committee shall have and may exercise such of the powers and authority of the Board of Directors in the management of the business and affairs of the corporation as may be provided in such resolution, except that no such committee shall have the power or authority of the Board of Directors in reference to amending the certificate of incorporation, adopting an agreement of merger or consolidation, recommending to the Stockholders the sale, lease or exchange of all or substantially all of the corporation's property and assets, recommending to the Stockholders a dissolution of the corporation or a revocation of a dissolution of the corporation, or amending, altering or repealing the bylaws or adopting new bylaws for the corporation and, unless such resolution or the certificate of incorporation expressly so provides, no such committee shall have the power or authority to authorize the issuance of stock. The Board of Directors shall have the power at any time to change the number and members of any such committee, to fill vacancies and to discharge any such committee.

Section 3.12 Compensation of Directors. The Board of Directors shall have authority to determine, from time to time, the amount of compensation, if any, which shall be paid to its members for their services as Directors and as members of committees of the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors shall also have power in its discretion to provide for and to pay to Directors rendering services to the corporation not ordinarily rendered by Directors as such, special compensation appropriate to the value of such services as determined by the Board of Directors from time to time. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to preclude any Director from serving the corporation in any other capacity and receiving compensation therefor.

Section 3.13 Action by Unanimous Written Consent. Any action required or permitted to be taken at a meeting of the Board of Directors or any committee may be taken without a meeting if a consent in writing, setting forth the actions so taken, is signed by all of the members of the Board of Directors or such committee, as the case may be.

Section 3.14 Minutes of Meetings. The Board of Directors shall keep regular minutes of its proceedings and such minutes shall be placed in the minute book of the corporation. Committees of the Board of Directors shall maintain a separate record of the minutes of their proceedings.

ARTICLE IV

NOTICES AND TELEPHONE MEETINGS

Section 4.1 Notice. Any notice to Directors or Stockholders shall be in writing and shall be delivered personally or by mail, telegram, telex, cable, telecopier or similar means to the Directors or Stockholders at their respective addresses appearing on the books of the corporation. Notice by mail shall be deemed to be given at the time when the same shall be deposited in the United States mail, postage prepaid. Any notice required or permitted to be given by telegram, telex, cable, telecopier, or similar means shall be deemed to be delivered and given at the time transmitted.

Section 4.2 Waiver of Notice. Whenever by law, the certificate of incorporation, or these bylaws, notice is required to be given to any Stockholder, Director, or committee member of the corporation, a waiver thereof in writing signed by the person or persons entitled to such notice, whether before or after the time notice should have been given, shall be equivalent to the giving of such notice. Attendance of a Director at a meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting, except where a Director attends a meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business on the ground that the meeting is not lawfully called or convened.

Section 4.3 Telephone and Similar Meetings. Stockholders, Directors, or committee members may participate in and hold a meeting by means of a conference telephone or similar communications equipment by means of which persons participating in the meeting can hear each other. Participation in such a meeting shall constitute presence in person at such meeting, except where a person participates in the meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business on the ground that the meeting is not lawfully called or convened.

ARTICLE V OFFICERS

Section 5.1 Officers. The corporation shall have a President and a Secretary and such other officers and assistant officers as the board may deem desirable to conduct the affairs of the corporation. Any two or more offices may be held by the same person. No officer need be a Stockholder or a Director.

Section 5.2 Powers and Duties of Officers. The officers of the corporation shall have the powers and duties generally ascribed to the respective offices, and such additional authority or duty as may from time to time be established by the Board of Directors.

Section 5.3 Removal and Resignation. Any officer appointed by the Board of Directors may be removed by the Board of Directors whenever, in the judgment of the Board of Directors, the best interests of the corporation will be served thereby. Any officer may resign at any time by giving written notice to the corporation. Any such resignation shall take effect at the date of receipt of such notice or at a later time specified therein, and unless otherwise specified therein, the acceptance of such resignation shall not be necessary to make it effective.

Section 5.4 Term and Vacancies. The officers of the corporation shall hold office until their successors are elected or appointed, or until their death, resignation, or removal from office. Any vacancy occurring in any office of the corporation by death, resignation, removal, or otherwise, may be filled by the Board of Directors.

Section 5.5 Compensation. The salaries of all officers of the corporation shall be fixed by the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors shall have the power to enter into contracts for the employment and compensation of officers on such terms as the Board of Directors deems advisable. No officer shall be disqualified from receiving a salary or other compensation by reason of the fact that he or she is also a Director of the corporation.

ARTICLE VI

CERTIFICATES AND STOCKHOLDERS

Section 6.1 Certificates for Stock. The certificates for shares of stock of the Corporation shall be in such form as shall be approved by the Board of Directors in conformity with law and the certificate of incorporation. Every certificate for shares of stock issued by the corporation must be signed by the President or a Vice President and the Secretary or an Assistant Secretary under the seal of the corporation. Any or all of the signatures on the face of the certificate may be facsimile. Such certificates shall bear a legend or legends in the form and containing the restrictions to be stated thereon by the Texas Business Corporation Act, other provisions of law, the certificate of incorporation or these bylaws. Certificates shall be consecutively numbered and shall be entered as they are issued. Each certificate shall state on the face thereof the holder's name, the number and class of shares of stock, the par value of such shares of stock, and such other matters as may be required by law, the certificate of incorporation or these bylaws.

Section 6.2 Lost, Stolen, or Destroyed Certificates. The Board of Directors or the President of the corporation may direct a new certificate or certificates representing shares of stock to be issued in place of any certificate or certificates theretofore issued by the corporation alleged to have been lost, stolen, or destroyed, upon the making of an affidavit of the fact by the person claiming the certificate or certificates to be lost, stolen, or destroyed. When authorizing such issue of a new certificate the Board of Directors or the President may require the owner of such lost, stolen, or destroyed certificate, or his or her legal representative, to advertise the same in such manner as it or he or she shall require and/or give the corporation a bond in such sum as it may direct as indemnity against any claim that may be made against the corporation with respect to the certificate alleged to have been lost, stolen or destroyed.

Section 6.3 Transfer of Stock. Shares of stock of the corporation shall be transferable only on the books of the corporation by the holder thereof in person or by the holder's duly authorized attorneys or legal representatives. Upon surrender to the corporation or the transfer agent of the corporation of a certificate representing shares of stock duly endorsed or accompanied by proper evidence of succession, assignment, or authority to transfer, the corporation or its transfer agent shall issue a new certificate to the person entitled thereto, cancel the old certificate, and record the transaction upon its books.

Section 6.4 Registered Stockholders. The corporation shall be entitled to recognize the exclusive right of a person registered on its books as the owner of shares of stock to receive dividends, and to vote as such owner, and to hold liable for calls and assessments, a person registered on its books as the owner of shares of stock, and shall not be bound to recognize any equitable or other claim to or interest in such shares of stock on the part of any person, whether or not it shall have actual or other notice thereof, except as otherwise provided by law.

ARTICLE VII

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

Section 7.1 Dividends. Dividends upon the outstanding shares of stock of the corporation, subject to the provisions of the applicable statutes and of the certificate of incorporation, may be declared by the Board of Directors at any annual, regular or special meeting. Dividends may be declared and paid in cash, in property, or in shares of stock of the corporation, or in any combination thereof.

Section 7.2 Reserves. There may be set aside out of any funds of the corporation available for dividends such sum or sums as the Board of Directors from time to time in their sole and absolute discretion think proper as a reserve to meet contingencies, or to equalize dividends, or to repair or maintain any property of the corporation, or for such other purpose as the Board of Directors shall think conducive to the interest of the corporation, and the Board of Directors may modify or abolish any such reserve in the manner in which it was created.

Section 7.3 Signature of Negotiable Instruments. All checks or demands for money and notes of the corporation shall be signed by such officer or officers or such other person or persons as the Board of Directors may from time to time designate.

Section 7.4 Fiscal Year. The fiscal year of the corporation shall be fixed by the Board of Directors; provided, that if such fiscal year is not fixed by the Board of Directors it shall be the calendar year.

Section 7.5 Books of the Corporation. The books of the corporation may be kept, subject to the provisions of the applicable statutes, within or outside of the State of Texas, at such place or places as may from time to time be designated by the Board of Directors or as the business of the corporation may require.

Section 7.6 Seal. The seal, if any, of the corporation shall be in such form as may be approved from time to time by the Board of Directors. If the Board of Directors approves a seal, the affixation of such seal shall not be required to create a valid and binding obligation against the corporation.

Section 7.7 Securities of Other Corporations. Unless otherwise ordered by the Board of Directors, the President or the Secretary of the corporation shall have full power and authority on behalf of the corporation to attend, to vote and to grant proxies to be used at any meeting of Stockholders of such other corporation in which the corporation may hold stock. The Board of Directors may confer like powers upon any other person or persons.

Section 7.8 Fixed Record Date. In order that the corporation may determine the Stockholders entitled to notice of or to vote at any meeting of Stockholders or any adjournment thereof, or to express consent to corporate action in writing without a meeting, or entitled to receive payment of any dividend or other distribution or allotment of any rights, or entitled to exercise any rights in respect of any change, conversion or exchange of stock for the purpose of any other lawful action, the Board of Directors may fix, in advance, a record date which shall be not more than sixty 60 days before the date of such meeting, nor more than 60 days prior to any other action.

Section 7.9 Amendment. The power to alter, amend, or repeal these bylaws or to adopt new bylaws is vested in the Board of Directors.

Section 7.10 Right to Indemnification.

(A) Each person (hereinafter an "indemnitee") who was or is made a party to or is threatened to be made a party to or is otherwise involved in any action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (hereinafter a "proceeding"), by reason of the fact that he or she was a Director, officer or agent of the corporation or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation or of a partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, including service with respect to an employee benefit plan, whether the basis of such proceeding is alleged action in an official capacity as a Director, officer, employee or agent, shall be indemnified and held harmless by the corporation to the fullest extent authorized by the Texas Business Corporation Act, as the same exists or may hereafter be amended (but, in the case of any such amendment, only to the extent that such amendment permits the corporation to provide broader indemnification rights than permitted prior thereto), against all expense, liability and loss (including attorney's fees, judgments, fines, ERISA excise taxes or penalties and amounts paid in settlement) reasonably incurred or suffered by such indemnitee in connection therewith, and such indemnification shall continue with respect to an indemnitee who has ceased to be a Director, officer, employee or agent and shall inure to the benefit of the indemnitee's heirs, executors and administrators; provided, however, that, except as provided in paragraph (B) hereof with respect to proceedings to enforce rights to indemnification, the corporation shall indemnify any such indemnitee only if such proceeding (or part thereof) was authorized by the Board of Directors of the corporation. The right to indemnification conferred in this section shall be a contract right and shall include the right to be paid by the corporation the expenses incurred in defending any such proceeding in advance of its final disposition (hereinafter an "advancement of expenses"); provided, however, that, if the Texas Business Corporation Act requires, an advancement of expenses incurred by an indemnitee shall be made only upon delivery to the corporation of an undertaking (hereinafter an “undertaking”), by or on behalf of such indemnitee, to repay all amounts so advanced if it shall ultimately be determined by final judicial decision from which there is no further right to appeal (hereinafter a “final adjudication”) that such indemnitee is not entitled to be indemnified for such expenses under this section or otherwise.

(B) If a claim under paragraph (A) of this section is not paid in full by the corporation within 60 days after a written claim has been received by the corporation, except in the case of a claim for an advancement of expenses, in which case the applicable period shall be 20 days, the indemnitee may at any time thereafter bring suit against the corporation to recover the unpaid amount of such suit, or in a suit brought by the corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking, the indemnitee shall be entitled to be paid also the expense of prosecuting or defending such suit. In (i) any suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right to indemnification hereunder (but not in a suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right to an advancement of expenses) it shall be a defense that, and (ii) any suit by the corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking the corporation shall be entitled to recover such expenses upon a final adjudication that, the indemnitee has not met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in the Texas Business Corporation Act. Neither the failure of the corporation (including its Board of Directors, independent legal counsel, or its Stockholders) to have made a determination prior to the commencement of such suit that indemnification of the indemnitee is proper in the circumstances because the indemnitee has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in the Texas Business Corporation Act, nor an actual determination by the corporation (including its Board of Directors, independent legal counsel, or its Stockholders) that the indemnitee has not met such applicable standard of conduct shall create a presumption that the indemnitee has not met the applicable standard of conduct or, in the case of such a suit brought by the indemnitee, be a defense of such suit. In any suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right of indemnification or to an advancement of expenses hereunder, or by the corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking, the burden of proving that the indemnitee is not entitled to be indemnified, or to such advancement of expenses, under this section or otherwise shall be on the corporation.

(C) The rights to indemnification and to the advancement of expenses conferred in this section shall not be exclusive of any other right which any person may have or hereafter acquire under any statute, the corporation’s certificate of incorporation, by agreement, by vote of Stockholders or by disinterested Directors or otherwise.

(D) The corporation may maintain insurance, at its expense, to protect itself and any Director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation or another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise against any expense, liability or loss, whether or not the corporation would have the power to indemnify such person against such expense, liability or loss under the Texas Business Corporation Act.

Section 7.11 Invalid Provisions. If any provision of these bylaws is held to be illegal, invalid, or unenforceable under present or future laws, such provision shall be fully severable; these bylaws shall be construed and enforced as if such illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision had never comprised a part hereof; and the remaining provisions hereof shall remain in full force and effect and shall not be affected by the illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision or by its severance herefrom. Furthermore, in lieu of such illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision there shall be added automatically as a part of these bylaws a provision as similar in terms to such illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision as may be possible and be legal, valid, and enforceable.

Section 7.12 Headings. The headings used in these bylaws are for reference purposes only and do not affect in any way the meaning or interpretation of these bylaws.

ARTICLE NINE

To the fullest extent permitted by Texas law, a director of the Corporation shall not be personally liable to the Corporation or its stockholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director, except for liability (i) for any breach of the director's duty of loyalty to the Corporation or its stockholders, (ii) for acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law, (iii) under Section 2.41 of the Texas Business Corporation Act or (iv) for any transaction from which the director derived any improper personal benefit. If the Texas Business Corporation Act is amended hereafter to authorize corporate action further eliminating or limiting the personal liability of directors, then the liability of a director of the Corporation shall be eliminated or limited to the fullest extent permitted by the Texas Business Corporation Act, as so amended.

Any repeal or modification of the foregoing paragraph by the stockholders of the Corporation shall not adversely affect any right or protection of a director of the Corporation existing at the time of such repeal or modification.

ARTICLE TEN

A. Rights to Indemnification. Each person who was or is made a party to or is threatened to be made a party to or is otherwise involved in any action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (hereinafter, a “proceeding”), by reason of the fact that he or she, or a person of whom he or she is a legal representative, or is or was a director or officer of the Corporation or is only serving at the request of the Corporation as a director or officer of another Corporation or of a partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, including service with respect to an employee benefit plan (hereinafter an “indemnatee”), whether the basis of such proceeding is alleged action in an official capacity or as a director or officer or in any other capacity while serving as a director or officer, shall be indemnified and held harmless by the Corporation to the fullest extent authorized by the Texas Business Corporation Act as the same exists or may hereafter be amended (but, in the case of any such amendment, only to the extent that such amendment permits the Corporation to provide broader indemnification rights than permitted prior thereto), against all expense, liability and loss (including, without limitation, attorneys’ fees, judgments, fines, excise taxes or penalties and amounts paid or to be paid in settlement) incurred or suffered by such indemnatee in connection therewith and such indemnification shall continue with respect to an indemnatee who has ceased to be a director or officer and shall inure to the benefit of the indemnatee’s heirs, executors and administrators; provided, however, that except as provided in paragraph (B) hereof with respect to proceedings to enforce rights to indemnification, the Corporation shall indemnify any such indemnatee in connection with a proceeding initiated by such indemnatee only if such proceeding was authorized by the Board of Directors of the Corporation. The right to indemnification conferred in this Article shall be a contract right and shall include the right to be paid by the Corporation the expenses incurred in defending any such proceeding in advance of its final disposition (hereinafter an “advancement of expenses”); provided, however, that if the Texas Business Corporation Act requires, an advancement of expenses incurred by an indemnatee shall be made only upon delivery to the Corporation of an undertaking (hereinafter an “undertaking”), by or on behalf of such indemnatee, to repay all amounts so advanced if it shall ultimately be determined by final judicial decision from which there is no further right to appeal (hereinafter a “final adjudication”) that such indemnatee is not entitled to be indemnified for such expenses under this Article or otherwise.

B. Rights of Indemnatee to Bring Suit. If a claim under paragraph (A) of this Article is not paid in full by the Corporation within sixty days after a written claim has been received by the Corporation (except in the case of a claim for an advancement of expenses, in which case the applicable period shall be twenty days), the indemnatee may at any time thereafter bring suit against the Corporation to recover the unpaid amount of the claim. If successful in whole or in part in any such suit, the indemnatee shall also be entitled to be paid the expense of prosecuting or defending such suit. In (i) any suit brought by the indemnatee to enforce a right to indemnification hereunder (but not a suit brought by the indemnatee to enforce a right to an advancement of expenses) it shall be a defense that, and (ii) in any suit by the Corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking, the Corporation shall be entitled to recover such expenses upon a final adjudication that, the indemnatee has not met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in the Texas Business Corporation Act. Neither the failure of the Corporation (including its Board of Directors, independent counsel or its stockholders) to have made a determination prior to the commencement of such suit that indemnifications of the indemnatee has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in the Texas Business Corporation Act, nor an actual determination by the Corporation (including its Board of Directors, independent legal counsel or its stockholders) that the indemnatee has not met such applicable standard of conduct, or in the case of such a suit brought by the indemnatee, shall be a defense to such suit. In any suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right to indemnification or to an advancement of expenses hereunder or by the Corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking, the burden of proving that the indemnitee is not entitled under this Article or otherwise to be indemnified, or to such advancement of expenses, shall be on the Corporation.

C. Non-Exclusivity of Rights. The rights to indemnification and to the advancement of expenses conferred in this Article shall not be exclusive of any other right which any person may have or hereafter acquire under these Articles of Incorporation or any Bylaw, agreement, vote of stockholders or disinterested directors or otherwise.

D. Insurance. The Corporation may maintain insurance, at its expense, to protect itself and any indemnitee against any expense, liability or loss, whether or not the Corporation would have the power to indemnify such person against such expense, liability or loss under the Texas Business Corporation Act.

E. Indemnity of Employees and Agents of the Corporation. The Corporation may, to the extent authorized from time to time by the Board of Directors, grant rights to indemnification and to the advancement of expenses to any employee or agent of the Corporation to the fullest extent of the provisions of this Article or as otherwise permitted under the Texas Business Corporation Act, with respect to the indemnification and advancement of expenses of directors and officers of the Corporation.

ARTICLE ELEVEN

The Bylaws of the Corporation may be altered, amended or repealed or new Bylaws may be adopted by the Board of Directors of the Corporation.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand this 6th day of October, 2006.

BYLAWS OF
WEATHERFORD HOSPITAL CORPORATION

ARTICLE I

OFFICES

Section 1.1 Registered Office. The registered office shall be in the City of Kerrville, County of Kerr, Texas.

Section 1.2 Other Offices. The corporation may also have offices at such other places both within and without the State of Texas as the board of directors may from time to time determine or the business of the corporation may require.

ARTICLE II

MEETINGS OF SHAREHOLDERS

Section 2.1 Annual Meeting. An annual meeting of shareholders of the corporation shall be held on such date and at such time as shall be designated from time to time by the board of directors and stated in the notice of the meeting. At such meeting, the shareholders shall elect directors and transact such other business as may properly be brought before the meeting.

Section 2.2 Special Meetings. Special meetings of the shareholders for any purpose whatsoever may be called at any time by the president, the board of directors, or the holders of not less than ten percent of all shares entitled to vote at such meeting.

Section 2.3 Place of Meetings. All meetings of shareholders for any purpose or purposes may be held at such places, within or without the State of Texas, as may from time to time be fixed by the board of directors or as shall be stated in the notice of the meeting or in a duly executed waiver of notice thereof.

Section 2.4 Notice. Written notice stating the place, day and hour of the meeting and, in the case of a special meeting, the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is called, shall be given not less than ten nor more than sixty days before the date of the meeting, either personally or by mail.

Section 2.5 Quorum of Shareholders. The holders of a majority of the shares issued and outstanding and entitled to vote at such meeting, present in person or represented by proxy shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at all meetings of the shareholders.

Section 2.6 Voting of Shares. Except as otherwise provided by statute or the articles of incorporation, each holder of record of shares of stock of the Corporation having voting power shall be entitled at each meeting of the shareholders to one vote for every share of such stock standing in his or her name on the record books of shareholders of the corporation on the date on which such notice of the meeting is mailed, unless some other day is fixed by the board of directors for the determination of shareholders of record.

Section 2.7 Voting List. The officer who has charge of the stock transfer books for shares of the corporation shall prepare at least ten days before every meeting of shareholders, a complete list of the shareholders entitled to vote at such meeting, arranged in alphabetical order, including the address of each shareholder and the number of voting shares held by each shareholder. For a period of ten days prior to such meeting, such list shall be kept open to the examination of any shareholder, for any purpose germane to the meeting, during ordinary business hours, either at a place within the city where the meeting is to be held and which place shall be specified in the notice of the meeting, or, if not so specified, at the place where said meeting is to be held. Such list shall be produced at such meeting and at all times during such meeting shall be subject to inspection by any shareholder. The original stock transfer books shall be prima facie evidence as to who are the shareholders entitled to examine such list or stock transfer books.

Section 2.8 Treasury Stock. The corporation shall not vote, directly or indirectly, shares of its own stock owned by it and such shares shall not be counted for quorum purposes.

Section 2.9 Consent of Shareholders in Lieu of Meeting. Whenever the vote of shareholders at a meeting thereof is required or permitted to be taken for or in connection with any corporate action, the meeting, the notice thereof, and the vote of shareholders can be dispensed with, if a consent in writing, setting forth the action so taken, shall be signed by the holders of stock having not less than the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to authorize or take such action at a meeting at which all shares entitled to vote thereof were present and voted, provided that prompt notice must be given to all shareholders of the taking of corporate action without a meeting by less than unanimous written consent.

Section 2.10 Minutes of Meetings. The secretary of the corporation shall keep regular minutes of all meetings of shareholders and such minutes shall be placed in the minute book of the corporation.

ARTICLE III DIRECTORS

Section 3.1 Powers of Directors. The business and affairs of the corporation shall be managed by its board of directors which shall have and may exercise all such powers of the corporation, subject to the restrictions imposed by law, the articles of incorporation, or these bylaws.

Section 3.2 Number and Qualification. The number of directors which shall constitute the entire board of directors shall be determined by resolution of the Board of Directors at any meeting thereof or by the Shareholders at any meeting thereof. Directors need not be residents of Texas or Shareholders of the corporation.

Section 3.3 Election and Term of Office. The directors shall be elected annually by the shareholders, except as provided in Section 3.4 of these bylaws. Each director shall hold office until the next succeeding annual meeting of shareholders and until his or her successor shall have been elected or until his or her earlier death, resignation, or removal. The board of directors may, by resolution, appoint one of its members as chairman to preside over meetings of the board of directors. The position of chairman of the board of directors shall not be an office of the corporation.

Section 3.4 Vacancies. Any vacancy occurring in the board of directors by reason of death, resignation, or removal may be filled by affirmative vote of a majority of the remaining directors, although less than a quorum of the board of directors. Such vacancy may also be filled by affirmative vote of the majority of the shareholders. A director elected to fill a vacancy shall be elected for the unexpired term of his or her predecessor in office or until his or her death, resignation, retirement, disqualification, or removal.

Section 3.5 Resignation of Directors. Any director may resign from office at any time by delivering a written resignation to the secretary of the corporation, and such resignation shall be effective upon delivery of such resignation to the secretary.

Section 3.6 Removal of Directors. Any director may be removed with or without cause at any time by the shareholders.

Section 3.7 Place of Meetings. Regular or special meetings of the board of directors may be held either within or without the State of Texas.

Section 3.8 Regular Meetings. Regular meetings of the board of directors may be held without notice at such times and places as may be designated from time to time as may be determined by the board of directors.

Section 3.9 Special Meetings. Special meetings of the board of directors may be called by the president or any director on twenty-four (24) hours notice to each director, either personally or by telephone, mail, telegram or other means of telecommunications. Neither the business to be transacted at, nor the purpose of, any special meeting of the board of directors need be specified in the notice or waiver of notice of any special meeting.

Section 3.10 Quorum of Directors. At all meetings of the board of directors, a majority of the directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business and the act or a majority of the directors present at any meeting at which there is a quorum shall be an act of the board of directors. If a quorum is not present at a meeting, a majority of the directors present may adjourn the meeting from time to time, without notice other than an announcement at the meeting, until a quorum is present.

Section 3.11 Committees. The board of directors may, by resolution passed by a majority of the entire board, designate one or more committees, including, if they shall so determine, an executive committee, each such committee to consist of one or more of the directors of the corporation. Any such designated committee shall have and may exercise such of the powers and authority of the board of directors in the management of the business and affairs of the corporation as may be provided in such resolution, except that no such committee shall have the power or authority of the board of directors in reference to amending the articles of incorporation, adopting an agreement of merger or consolidation, recommending to the shareholders the sale, lease or exchange of all or substantially all of the corporation's property and assets, recommending to the shareholders a dissolution of the corporation or a revocation of a dissolution of the corporation, or amending, altering or repealing the bylaws or adopting new bylaws for the corporation and, unless such resolution or the articles of incorporation expressly so provides, no such committee shall have the power or authority to authorize the issuance of stock. The board of directors shall have the power at any time to change the number and members of any such committee, to fill vacancies and to discharge any such committee.

Section 3.12 Compensation of Directors. Persons serving as directors shall not receive any compensation for their services as directors; however, a director shall be entitled to reimbursement for reasonable and customary expenses incurred by such director in carrying out his duties as approved by the president of the corporation.

Section 3.13 Action by Unanimous Written Consent. Any action required or permitted to be taken at a meeting of the board of directors or any committee may be taken without a meeting if a consent in writing, setting forth the actions so taken, is signed by all of the members of the board of directors or such committee, as the case may be.

Section 3.14 Minutes of Meetings. The board of directors shall keep regular minutes of its proceedings and such minutes shall be placed in the minute book of the corporation. Committees of the board of directors shall maintain a separate record of the minutes of their proceedings.

ARTICLE IV

NOTICES AND TELEPHONE MEETINGS

Section 4.1 Notice. Any notice to directors or shareholders shall be in writing and shall be delivered personally or by mail, telegram, telex, cable, telecopier or similar means to the directors or shareholders at their respective addresses appearing on the books of the corporation. Notice by mail shall be deemed to be given at the time when the same shall be deposited in the United States mail, postage prepaid. Any notice required or permitted to be given by telegram, telex, cable, telecopier, or similar means shall be deemed to be delivered and given at the time transmitted.

Section 4.2 Waiver of Notice. Whenever by law, the articles of incorporation, or these bylaws, notice is required to be given to any shareholder, director, or committee member of the corporation, a waiver thereof in writing signed by the person or persons entitled to such notice, whether before or after the time notice should have been given, shall be equivalent to the giving of such notice. Attendance of a director at a meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting, except where a director attends a meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business on the ground that the meeting is not lawfully called or convened.

Section 4.3 Telephone and Similar Meetings. Shareholders, directors, or committee members may participate in and hold a meeting by means of a conference telephone or similar communications equipment by means of which persons participating in the meeting can hear each other. Participation in such a meeting shall constitute presence in person at such meeting, except where a person participates in the meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business on the ground that the meeting is not lawfully called or convened.

ARTICLE V OFFICERS

Section 5.1 Officers. The corporation shall have a president and a secretary and such other officers and assistant officers as the board may deem desirable to conduct the affairs of the corporation. The position of chairman of the board of directors shall not be an office of the corporation. Any two or more offices may be held by the same person. No officer need be a shareholder or a director.

Section 5.2 Powers and Duties of Officers. The officers of the corporation shall have the powers and duties generally ascribed to the respective offices, and such additional authority or duty as may from time to time be established by the board of directors.

Section 5.3 Removal and Resignation. Any officer appointed by the board of directors may be removed by the board of directors whenever, in the judgment of the board of directors, the best interests of the corporation will be served thereby. Any officer may resign at any time by giving written notice to the corporation. Any such resignation shall take effect at the date of receipt of such notice or at a later time specified therein, and unless otherwise specified therein, the acceptance of such resignation shall not be necessary to make it effective.

Section 5.4 Term and Vacancies. The officers of the corporation shall hold office until their successors are elected or appointed, or until their death, resignation, or removal from office. Any vacancy occurring in any office of the corporation by death, resignation, removal, or otherwise, may be filled by the board of directors.

Section 5.5 Compensation. The salaries of all officers of the corporation shall be fixed by the board of directors. The board of directors shall have the power to enter into contracts for the employment and compensation of officers on such terms as the board of directors deems advisable. No officer shall be disqualified from receiving a salary or other compensation by reason of the fact that he or she is also a director of the corporation.

ARTICLE VI

CERTIFICATES AND SHAREHOLDERS

Section 6.1 Certificates for Shares. The certificates for shares of stock of the Corporation shall be in such form as shall be approved by the board of directors in conformity with law and the articles of incorporation. Every certificate for shares issued by the corporation must be signed by the President or a Vice President and the Secretary or an Assistant Secretary under the seal of the corporation. Any or all of the signatures on the face of the certificate may be facsimile. Such certificates shall bear a legend or legends in the form and containing the restrictions to be stated thereon by the Texas Business Corporation Act, other provisions of law, the articles of incorporation or these bylaws. Certificates shall be consecutively numbered and shall be entered as they are issued. Each certificate shall state on the face thereof the holder's name, the number and class of shares, the par value of such shares, and such other matters as may be required by law, the articles of incorporation or these bylaws.

Section 6.2 Lost, Stolen, or Destroyed Certificates. The board of directors, the executive committee, or the president of the corporation may direct a new certificate or certificates representing shares to be issued in place of any certificate or certificates theretofore issued by the corporation alleged to have been lost, stolen, or destroyed, upon the making of an affidavit of the fact by the person claiming the certificate or certificates to be lost, stolen, or destroyed. When authorizing such issue of a new certificate the board of directors, the executive committee or the president may require the owner of such lost, stolen, or destroyed certificate, or his or her legal representative, to advertise the same in such manner as it or he or she shall require and/or give the corporation a bond in such sum as it may direct as indemnity against any claim that may be made against the corporation with respect to the certificate alleged to have been lost, stolen or destroyed.

Section 6.3 Transfer of Shares. Shares of stock of the corporation shall be transferable only on the books of the corporation by the holder thereof in person or by the holder's duly authorized attorneys or legal representatives. Upon surrender to the corporation or the transfer agent of the corporation of a certificate representing shares duly endorsed or accompanied by proper evidence of succession, assignment, or authority to transfer, the corporation or its transfer agent shall issue a new certificate to the person entitled thereto, cancel the old certificate, and record the transaction upon its books.

Section 6.4 Registered Shareholders. The corporation shall be entitled to recognize the exclusive right of a person registered on its books as the owner of shares to receive dividends, and to vote as such owner, and to hold liable for calls and assessments, a person registered on its books as the owner of shares, and shall not be bound to recognize any equitable or other claim to or interest in such shares on the part of any person, whether or not it shall have actual or other notice thereof, except as otherwise provided by law.

ARTICLE VII

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

Section 7.1 Dividends. Dividends upon the outstanding shares of the corporation, subject to the provisions of the applicable statutes and of the articles of incorporation, may be declared by the board of directors at any annual, regular or special meeting. Dividends may be declared and paid in cash, in property, or in shares of the corporation, or in any combination thereof.

Section 7.2 Reserves. There may be set aside out of any funds of the corporation available for dividends such sum or sums as the board of directors from time to time in their sole and absolute discretion think proper as a reserve to meet contingencies, or to equalize dividends, or to repair or maintain any property of the corporation, or for such other purpose as the board of directors shall think conducive to the interest of the corporation, and the board of directors may modify or abolish any such reserve in the manner in which it was created.

Section 7.3 Signature of Negotiable Instruments. All checks or demands for money and notes of the corporation shall be signed by such officer or officers or such other person or persons as the board of directors may from time to time designate.

Section 7.4 Fiscal Year. The fiscal year of the corporation shall be fixed by the board of directors; provided, that if such fiscal year is not fixed by the board of directors it shall be the calendar year.

Section 7.5 Books of the Corporation. The books of the corporation may be kept, subject to the provisions of the applicable statutes, within or outside of the State of Texas, at such place or places as may from time to time be designated by the board of directors or as the business of the corporation may require.

Section 7.6 Seal. The seal, if any, of the corporation shall be in such form as may be approved from time to time by the board of directors. If the board of directors approves a seal, the affixation of such seal shall not be required to create a valid and binding obligation against the corporation.

Section 7.7 Securities of Other Corporations. Unless otherwise ordered by the board of directors, the president or the secretary of the corporation shall have full power and authority on behalf of the corporation to attend, to vote and to grant proxies to be used at any meeting of shareholders of such other corporation in which the corporation may hold stock. The board of directors may confer like powers upon any other person or persons.

Section 7.8 Fixed Record Date. In order that the corporation may determine the shareholders entitled to notice of or to vote at any meeting of shareholders or any adjournment thereof, or to express consent to corporate action in writing without a meeting, or entitled to receive payment of any dividend or other distribution or allotment of any rights, or entitled to exercise any rights in respect of any change, conversion or exchange of stock for the purpose of any other lawful action, the board of directors may fix, in advance, a record date which shall be not more than sixty 60 days before the date of such meeting, nor more than 60 days prior to any other action.

Section 7.9 Amendment. The power to alter, amend, or repeal these bylaws or to adopt new bylaws is vested in the board of directors.

Section 7.10 Right to Indemnification.

(A) Each person (hereinafter an "indemnitee") who was or is made a party or is threatened to be made a party to or is otherwise involved in any action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (hereinafter a "proceeding"), by reason of the fact that he or she was a director, officer or agent of the corporation or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation or of a partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, including service with respect to an employee benefit plan, whether the basis of such proceeding is alleged action in an official capacity as a director, officer, employee or agent, shall be indemnified and held harmless by the corporation to the fullest extent authorized by the Texas Business Corporation Act, as the same exists or may hereafter be amended (but, in the case of any such amendment, only to the extent that such amendment permits the corporation to provide broader indemnification rights than permitted prior thereto), against all expense, liability and loss (including attorney's fees, judgments, fines, ERISA excise taxes or penalties and amounts paid in settlement) reasonably incurred or suffered by such indemnitee in connection therewith, and such indemnification shall continue with respect to an indemnitee who has ceased to be a director, officer, employee or agent and shall inure to the benefit of the indemnitee's heirs, executors and administrators; provided, however, that, except as provided in paragraph (B) hereof with respect to proceedings to enforce rights to indemnification, the corporation shall indemnify any such indemnitee only if such proceeding (or part thereof) was authorized by the board of directors of the corporation. The right to indemnification conferred in this section shall be a contract right and shall include the right to be paid by the corporation the expenses incurred in defending any such proceeding in advance of its final disposition (hereinafter an “advancement of expenses”); provided, however, that, if the Texas Business Corporation Act requires, an advancement of expenses incurred by an indemnitee shall be made only upon delivery to the corporation of an undertaking (hereinafter an “undertaking”), by or on behalf of such indemnitee, to repay all amounts so advanced if it shall ultimately be determined by final judicial decision from which there is no further right to appeal (hereinafter a “final adjudication”) that such indemnitee is not entitled to be indemnified for such expenses under this section or otherwise.

(B) If a claim under paragraph (A) of this section is not paid in full by the corporation within 60 days after a written claim has been received by the corporation, except in the case of a claim for an advancement of expenses, in which case the applicable period shall be 20 days, the indemnitee may at any time thereafter bring suit against the corporation to recover the unpaid amount of such suit, or in a suit brought by the corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking, the indemnitee shall be entitled to be paid also the expense of prosecuting or defending such suit. In (i) any suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right to indemnification hereunder (but not in a suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right to an advancement of expenses) it shall be a defense that, and (ii) any suit by the corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking the corporation shall be entitled to recover such expenses upon a final adjudication that, the indemnitee has not met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in the Texas Business Corporation Act. Neither the failure of the corporation (including its board of directors, independent legal counsel, or its shareholders) to have made a determination prior to the commencement of such suit that indemnification of the indemnitee is proper in the circumstances because the indemnitee has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in the Texas Business Corporation Act, nor an actual determination by the corporation (including its board of directors, independent legal counsel, or its shareholders) that the indemnitee has not met such applicable standard of conduct shall create a presumption that the indemnitee has not met the applicable standard of conduct or, in the case of such a suit brought by the indemnitee, be a defense of such suit. In any suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right of indemnification or to an advancement of expenses hereunder, or by the corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking, the burden of proving that the indemnitee is not entitled to be indemnified, or to such advancement of expenses, under this section or otherwise shall be on the corporation.

(C) The rights to indemnification and to the advancement of expenses conferred in this section shall not be exclusive of any other right which any person may have or hereafter acquire under any statute, the corporation’s certificate of incorporation, by agreement, by vote of shareholders or by disinterested directors or otherwise.

(D) The corporation may maintain insurance, at its expense, to protect itself and any director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation or another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise against any expense, liability or loss, whether or not the corporation would have the power to indemnify such person against such expense, liability or loss under the Texas Business Corporation Act.

Section 7.11 Invalid Provisions. If any provision of these bylaws is held to be illegal, invalid, or unenforceable under present or future laws, such provision shall be fully severable; these bylaws shall be construed and enforced as if such illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision had never comprised a part hereof; and the remaining provisions hereof shall remain in full force and effect and shall not be affected by the illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision or by its severance herefrom. Furthermore, in lieu of such illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision there shall be added automatically as a part of these bylaws a provision as similar in terms to such illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision as may be possible and be legal, valid, and enforceable.

Section 7.12 Headings. The headings used in these bylaws are for reference purposes only and do not affect in any way the meaning or interpretation of these bylaws.

The above bylaws were duly adopted as the bylaws of the corporation effective as of the 9th day of October, 2006.

LIMITED LIABILITY COMPANY OPERATING AGREEMENT
OF
WEATHERFORD TEXAS HOSPITAL COMPANY, LLC

This Limited Liability Company Operating Agreement (“Agreement”) is declared to be effective as of the 9th day of October, 2006, by Weatherford Hospital Corporation, as the sole Member (such corporation and any successor hereunder, the “Member”) of Weatherford Texas Hospital Company, LLC (the “Company”), pursuant to the provisions of the Texas Business Organizations Code (the “Code”).

Section 1
THE COMPANY

- 1.1. Formation. The initial Member is forming the Company as a limited liability company pursuant to the provisions of the Code and upon the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement.
 - 1.2. Company Name. The name of the Company shall be as set forth in the Articles from time to time, and all business of the Company shall be conducted in such name. The Member may change the name of the Company at any time.
 - 1.3. Purpose. The purpose of the Company shall be as set forth in the Articles from time to time.
 - 1.4 Principal Place of Business. The principal place of business and address of the Company shall be at any place within or without the State of Texas as determined by the Member.
 - 1.5 Existence. The existence of the Company shall commence on the date the Company’s Certificate of Formation (as amended from time to time, the “Articles”) is filed in the office of the Secretary of State of Texas in accordance with the Code and shall continue until the winding up and liquidation of the Company following a Liquidating Event as provided in Section 8 hereof.
 - 1.6 Title to Property. All real and personal property owned by the Company shall be owned by the Company as an entity.
 - 1.7 Independent Activities; Transactions With Affiliates.
 - (a) The Member shall be required to devote only such time to the affairs of the Company as the Member determines in its sole discretion may be necessary or appropriate, and the Member shall be free to serve any other Person or enterprise in any capacity that he may deem appropriate in his discretion.
 - (b) Insofar as permitted by applicable law, the Member may, notwithstanding this Agreement, engage in whatever activities it chooses, whether the same are competitive with the Company or otherwise, without having or incurring any obligation to offer any interest in such activities to the Company, and neither this Agreement nor any activity undertaken pursuant hereto shall prevent the Member from engaging in such activities or require the Member to permit the Company to participate in any such activities.

1.8 Definitions. Certain capitalized words and phrases used in this Agreement have the following meanings:

“Interest” means the entire limited liability company interest in the Company of a Member or Interest Holder at any particular time, including the right of such Member or Interest Holder to any and all benefits to which the Member or Interest Holder may be entitled as provided in this Agreement, together with the obligations of such Member to comply with all the terms and provisions of this Agreement.

“Interest Holder” means any Person who holds an Interest, regardless of whether such Person has been admitted to the Company as a Member. “Interest Holders” means all such Persons.

“Net Cash Flow” means the gross cash proceeds from Company operations and from all sales and other dispositions and refinancings of Property, less the portion thereof used to pay or establish reserves for Company expenses, debt payments, capital improvements, replacements, and contingencies, all as determined by the Member. “Net Cash Flow” shall not be reduced by depreciation, amortization, cost recovery deductions, or similar allowances, but shall be increased by any reductions of reserves previously established pursuant to the first sentence of this definition.

“Person” means any individual, partnership, limited liability company, corporation, trust, or other entity.

“Property” means all real and personal property acquired by the Company and any improvements thereto, and shall include both tangible and intangible property.

“Transfer” means, as a noun, any voluntary or involuntary transfer, sale or other disposition and, as a verb, voluntarily or involuntarily to transfer, sell, or otherwise dispose of “Transferred” shall have a correlative meaning.

Section 2

CAPITAL CONTRIBUTIONS

2.1 Initial Capital Contribution of Member. The interest in the Company shall be divided into units (“Units”). The total number of Units that the Company is initially authorized to issue is 100 Units. The Member has been issued the number of Units listed on Exhibit A hereto attached. The Member may, but shall not be required to, make additional capital contributions to the Company from time to time.

2.2 Certificates for Units. Certificates representing Units shall be in such form as may be determined by the Member. Such certificates shall be signed by the President or Vice President of the Member, if such offices be created and filled, or signed by an officer designated by the Member to sign such certificates. The signature of such officer upon such certificates may be signed manually or by facsimile. All certificates for Units shall be consecutively numbered. The name of the person owning the Units represented thereby, with the number of Units and date of issue, shall be entered on the books of the Company. All certificates surrendered to the Company for transfer shall be canceled and no new certificates shall be issued until the former certificates for a like number of Units shall have been surrendered and canceled, except that, in case of a lost, destroyed or mutilated certificate, a new one may be issued therefore upon such terms and indemnity to the Company as the Member may prescribe.

Section 3
TAX ALLOCATIONS

3.1. No Allocations in Single-Member Entity. Weatherford Hospital Corporation, as the only Member, intends for the Company, as such a wholly-owned entity, to be disregarded for accounting and income tax purposes. Accordingly, all items of income, gain, loss, deduction, and credit that would, but for such single-member status, belong to the Company shall belong to the Member.

Section 4
DISTRIBUTIONS

4.1. Distributions. Subject to the Code, Net Cash Flow, if any, and any item of Property chosen by the Member, shall be distributed to or as directed by the Member, at such times as the Member may determine.

Section 5
MANAGEMENT

5.1. Authority and Duties of Member. The overall management and control of the Company shall be vested in the Member and the Member shall have the right and authority to enter into transactions on behalf of the Company, to bind the Company and to conduct, and to make decisions relating to, the day-to-day operations of the Company. Without limiting the foregoing and in each case without any further act, vote or approval, the Member is hereby specifically authorized for, and in the name of and on behalf of, the Company from time to time to:

- (a) Amend the Articles;
- (b) Issue Interests in the Company and admit other Persons as Members;
- (c) Acquire by purchase, lease, or otherwise any real or personal property;
- (d) Loan money to the Company, its affiliates or other third parties, upon such terms and conditions as the Member may determine;
- (e) Operate, maintain, finance, improve, construct, own, grant options with respect to, sell, convey, assign, mortgage, and lease any real or personal property;
- (f) Designate, authorize and direct one or more Persons to execute any and all agreements, contracts, documents, certifications, and instruments on behalf of the Company that are necessary or convenient in connection with the management, maintenance and operation of Property or managing the Company's affairs, including executing amendments to the Agreement
