Section 13. If required by the board of directors, the treasurer shall give the corporation a bond (which shall be renewed every six (6) years) in such sum and with such surety or sureties as shall be satisfactory to the board of directors for the faithful performance of the duties of his office and for the restoration to the corporation, in case of his death, resignation, retirement or removal from office, of all books, papers, vouchers, money and other property of whatever kind in his possession or under his control belonging to the corporation.

Article VI

STOCK

Section 1. The board of directors may provide by resolution or resolutions that some or all of any class or series of the corporation's stock shall be uncertificated and may be evidenced by a book-entry system maintained by the corporation's transfer agent or registrar. Except as otherwise provided by law, the rights and obligations of the holders of any uncertificated shares and the rights and obligations of the holders of certificates representing shares of the same class and series shall be identical. If the corporation's shares are represented by certificates, such certificates may signed by, or in the name of the corporation by (a) the chairman of the board, chief executive officer, president or any vice-president, and (b) the treasurer or an assistant treasurer, or the secretary or an assistant secretary of the corporation.

Partly paid shares shall be identified as such by proper notation in the records of the corporation and its transfer agent or registrar, describing the total amount of the consideration to be paid therefor and the amount paid thereon, and in the case of certificated shares, upon the face or back of the certificates issued to represent any such partly paid shares.

If the corporation shall be authorized to issue more than one class of stock or more than one series of any class, and such shares are certificated, the powers, designations, preferences and relative, participating, optional or ether special rights of each class of stock or series thereof and the qualification, limitations or restrictions of such preferences and/ or rights shall be set forth in fill or summarized on the face or back of the certificate which the corporation shall issue to represent such class or series of stock, provided that, except as otherwise provided in Section 202 of the General Corporation Law of Delaware, in lien of the foregoing requirements, there may be set forth on the face or back of the certificate which the corporation shall issue to represent such class or series of stock, a statement that the corporation shall furnish without charge to each stockholder who so requests the powers, designations, preferences and relative, participating, optional or other special rights of each class of stock or series thereof and the qualifications, limitations or restrictions of such preferences and/or rights.

Section 2. Any of or all the signatures on any certificate may be facsimile. In case any officer, transfer agent or registrar who has signed or whose facsimile signature has been placed upon a certificate shall have ceased to be such officer, transfer agent or registrar before such certificate is issued, it may be issued by the corporation with the same effect as if he were such officer, transfer agent or registrar at the date of issue.

LOST CERTIFICATES

Section 3. The board of directors may direct a new certificate or certificates to be issued in place of any certificate or certificates theretofore issued by the corporation alleged to have been lost, stolen or destroyed, upon the making of an affidavit of that fact by the person claiming the certificate of stock to be lost, stolen or destroyed. When authorizing such issue of a new certificate or certificates, the board of directors may, in its discretion and as a condition precedent to the issuance thereof, require the owner of such lost, stolen or destroyed certificate or certificates, or his legal representative, to advertise the same in such manner as it shall require and/or to give the corporation a bond in such sum as it may direct as indemnity against any claim that may be made against the corporation with respect to the certificate alleged to have been lost, stolen or destroyed.

TRANSFER OF STOCK

Section 4. Upon submission to the corporation of proper evidence of succession, assignation or authority to transfer, the corporation shall record the transaction upon its books and direct its transfer agent or registrar to record such transaction. In the event that the corporation's shares are certificated, the corporation shall also require the surrender to the corporation or the transfer agent or registrar of the corporation of a certificate for such shares duly endorsed and shall cancel such certificate and record such shares as owned by the person entitled thereto.

FIXING RECORD DATE

Section 5. In order that the corporation may determine the stockholders entitled to notice of or to vote at any meeting of stockholders or any adjournment thereof, or to express consent to corporate action in writing without a meeting, or entitled to receive payment of any dividend or other distribution or allotment of any rights, or entitled to exercise any rights in respect of any change, conversion or exchange of stock or for the purpose of any other lawful action, the board of directors may fix, in advance, a record date, which shall not be more than sixty (60) nor less than ten (10) days before the date of such meeting, nor more than sixty (60) days prior to any other action. A determination of stockholders of record entitled to notice of or to vote at a meeting of stockholders shall apply to any adjournment of the meeting; provided, however, that the board of directors may fix a new record date for the adjourned meeting.

REGISTERED STOCKHOLDERS

Section 6. The corporation shall be entitled to recognize the exclusive right of a person registered on its books as the owner of shares to receive dividends, and to vote as such owner, and to hold liable for calls and assessments a person registered on its books as the owner of shares, and shall not be bound to recognize any equitable or other claim to or interest in such share or shares on the part of any other person, whether or not it shall have express or other notice thereof, except as otherwise provided by the laws of Delaware.

WHEREAS, upon formation of the Partnership, General Partner and Limited Partner made the initial capital contributions and received the partnership interest and the number of partnership units set forth in Paragraph 5.01 of this Agreement; and

2.01 Place of Business. The Partnership's principal place of business is located at the following address: 5811 Pelican Bay Blvd., Suite 500, Naples, FL 34108. The General Partner may from time to time change the Partnership's principal place of business to another location or add additional places of business.

2.02 Registered Agent. The registered agent for the Partnership shall be the Partnership's registered agent for service of process against the Partnership as stated in the Certificate of Limited Partnership: The Company Trust Company, Company Trust Center, 1209 Orange Street, in the City of Wilmington, Delaware 19801.

3.01 Purpose. The Partnership's purpose is to engage in any lawful business permitted under the Act. The Partnership shall have the power to do any and all acts necessary, appropriate, proper, advisable, incidental or convenient to or in furtherance of the purpose of the Partnership and shall have without limitation, any and all powers that may be exercised on behalf of the Partnership by the General Partner pursuant to this Agreement or the Act.

SECTION 4.
Term of Partnership

4.01 Initial Term. The Partnership began on the date of filing of the Certificate of Limited Partnership and shall continue until the winding up and liquidation of the Partnership and its business is completed, as provided in this Agreement, unless terminated sooner pursuant to this Agreement.

SECTION 5.

6.02 Allocation to General Partner. 6.04 Assignment of Dissolution. In the event of an assignment of a partnership interest or of the dissolution or termination of any Partner, profits and losses shall be allocated on the basis of the number of days in the particular year during which each Partner owned its partnership interest, or on any other reasonable basis consistent with applicable United States tax laws and regulations.

6.05 Taxes. The Partnership shall be taxed as a corporation and the Partnership will make such filings as are necessary and consistent with such election.

B. Whenever the General Partner determines it to be in the best interest of the Partnership that it be dissolved.

11.02 Upon Dissolution. Upon its dissolution, the Partnership will terminate and immediately commence to wind up its affairs. The Partners shall continue to share in profits and losses during liquidation in the same manner and proportions as they did before dissolution. The partnership's assets may be sold, if a price deemed reasonable by the General Partner may be obtained. The proceeds from liquidation of Partnership assets shall be applied as follows:

A. First, to the Partnership's debts and liabilities to persons other than Partners, which shall be paid and discharged in the order of priority as provided by law;

B. Second, to debts and liabilities, including the balance of unpaid guaranteed payments, if any, to Partners, which shall be paid and discharged in the order of priority as provided by law; and

C. Third, the remaining assets shall be distributed proportionately first, to the Limited Partner, second, to the General Partner, in the proportion in which net profits and net losses are allocated under Paragraph 6.01 above.

11.03 Winding Up. The winding up of Partnership affairs and the liquidation and distribution of its assets shall be conducted by the General Partner, who is hereby authorized to do any and all acts and things authorized by law in order to effect such liquidation and distribution of the Partnership's assets.

SECTION 12.
Miscellaneous

12.01 Non-Waiver. Any party's failure to seek redress for violation of or to insist upon the strict performance of any provision of this Agreement shall not be deemed a waiver and will not prevent a subsequent act, which would have originally constituted a violation, from having the effect of an original violation.

12.02 Severability. Every provision of this Agreement is intended to be severable. If any term or provision hereof is invalid for any reason whatsoever, its invalidity will not affect the validity of the remainder of the Agreement.

12.03 Good Faith. The doing of any act or the failure to do any act by a Partner or the Partnership, the effect of which causes any loss or damage to the Partnership, will not subject such Partner or the Partnership to any liability, if done in good faith to promote the Partnership's best interests.

12.04 Governing Law. This Agreement is to be construed according to the laws of the State of Delaware.

12.05 Other Business Activities. Every Partner may also engage in whatever business activities he, she or it chooses without having or incurring any obligation to offer any interest in such activities to any party hereof.

12.06 Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts with the same effect as if all parties hereto had all signed the same document. All counterparts shall be construed together and shall constitute one agreement.

12.07 Waiver of Partition. Each of the parties waives during the term of the Partnership any right that it may have to maintain any action for partition with respect to the Partnership's property or assets.

12.08 Binding Terms. The terms of this Agreement are binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties and, to the extent permitted by this Agreement, the administrators, legal representatives, successors and assigns of such party.

12.09 Personal Property. The interests of each Partner in the Partnership are personal property.

A vacancy that will occur at a specific later date may be filled before the vacancy occurs, but the new director may not take office until the vacancy occurs.

10.6 Compensation of Directors. Directors on the Board shall not be entitled to receive a fee for the director's services as a director on the Board.

10.7 Meetings. The Board may hold regular or special meetings in or out of the State of Delaware. The Board may permit any or all directors to participate in a regular or special meeting by, or conduct the meeting through the use of, any means of communication by which all directors participating may simultaneously hear each other during the meeting. A director participating in a meeting by this means shall be deemed to be present in person at the meeting.

10.8 Special Meetings. Special meetings of the Board may be called by, or at the request of, the Chairman, if any, or the chief executive officer of the Company. All special meetings of the Board shall be held at the principal office or such other place as may be specified in the notice of the meeting.

10.9 Action Without Meeting. Any action required or permitted to be taken at a Board meeting may be taken without a meeting, without prior notice and without a vote if a consent or consents in writing, setting forth the action so taken, shall be signed by the directors having not less than the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to authorize or take such action at a meeting at which all directors entitled to vote thereon were present and voted.

10.11 Notice of Meetings. Meetings of the Board may be held without notice of the date, time, place or purpose of the meeting.

10.12 Quorum and Voting. A majority of the number of directors fixed by, or determined in accordance with, this Agreement shall constitute a quorum of the Board. If a quorum is present, an affirmative vote by a majority of the number of directors present shall constitute an act of the Board. A director who is present at a meeting of the Board or a committee of the Board when action is taken shall be deemed to have assented to the action taken unless (i) the director objects at the beginning of the meeting, or promptly upon the director' s arrival, to holding the meeting or transacting business at the meeting or (ii) the director's dissent or abstention from the action taken is entered in the minutes of the meeting or the director delivers written notice of the director's dissent or abstention to the presiding officer of the meeting before its adjournment or to the Company immediately after adjournment of the meeting. The right of dissent or abstention shall not be available to a director who votes in favor of the action taken.

10.13 Chairman and Vice Chairman of the Board. The Board may appoint one of its members as Chairman of the Board ("Chairman"). The Board may also appoint one of its members as Vice Chairman of the Board, and such individual shall serve in the absence of the Chairman and perform such additional duties as may be assigned to such person by the Board.

11. OFFICERS.

11.1 Officers Generally. The Company shall have the officers appointed by the Board in accordance with this Agreement. The same individual may simultaneously hold more than one office in the Company. Section 11.10 delegates to the Secretary, if such office be created and filled, the required responsibility of preparing minutes of the Board's and the Member's meetings and for authenticating records of the Company. If such office shall not be created and filled, then the Board shall delegate to one of the officers of the Company such responsibility.

11.2 Duties of Officers. Each officer of the Company shall have the authority and shall perform the duties set forth in this Agreement for such office or, to the extent consistent with this Agreement, the duties prescribed by the Board or by direction of an officer authorized by the Board to prescribe the duties of other officers.

11.3 Appointment and Term of Office. The officers of the Company shall be appointed by the Board. Vacancies may be filled or new offices created and filled at any meeting of the Board. Each officer shall hold office until such officer's successor shall be duly appointed or until the officer's death or until the officer shall resign or shall have been removed in the manner hereinafter provided.

11.4 Resignation and Removal of Officers. An officer may resign at any time by delivering notice to the Company. A resignation shall be effective when the notice is delivered unless the notice specifies a later effective date. If a resignation is made effective at a later date and the Company accepts the future effective date, the Board may fill the pending vacancy before the effective date if the Board provides that the successor shall not take office until the effective date. The Board may remove any officer at any time with or without cause.

11.5 Contract Rights of Officers. Appointment of an officer or agent shall not of itself create contract rights. An officer's removal shall not affect the officer's contract rights, if any, with the Company. An officer's resignation shall not affect the Company's contract rights, if any, with the officer.

11.6 Chairman of the Board. The Chairman, if that office be created and filled, may, at the discretion of the Board, be the chief executive officer of the Company and, if such, shall, in general, supervise and control the affairs and business of the Company, subject to control by the Board. The Chairman shall preside at all meetings of the Member and the Board.

11.7 President. The President, if that office be created and filled, shall be the chief executive officer of the Company, unless a Chairman is appointed and designated chief executive officer pursuant to Section 11.6. If no Chairman has been appointed or, in the absence of the Chairman, the President shall preside at all meetings of the Member. The President may sign certificates for Units, any deeds, mortgages, bonds, contracts or other instruments which the Board has authorized to be executed, except in cases where the signing and execution thereof shall be expressly delegated by the Board or by this Agreement to some other officer or agent of the Company, or shall be required by law to be otherwise signed or executed. The President shall, in general, perform all duties incident to the office of President of a Delaware corporation and such other duties as may be prescribed by the Board or the Chairman from time to time. Unless otherwise ordered by the Board, the President shall have full power and authority on behalf of the Company to attend, act and vote in person or by proxy at any meetings of shareholders of any corporation in which the Company may hold stock, and at any such meeting shall hold and may exercise all rights incident to the ownership of such stock which the Company, as owner, would have had and could have exercised if present. The Board may confer like powers on any other person or persons.

11.8 Vice President. In the absence of the President, or in the event of the President's death, inability or refusal to act, the Vice President (or, in the event there be more than one Vice President, the Vice Presidents in order designated at the time of their appointment, or in the absence of any designation, then in the order of their appointment), if that office be created and filled, shall perform the duties of the President and when so acting shall have all the powers of, and be subject to all the restrictions upon, the President. Any Vice President may sign certificates for Units and shall perform such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to such person by the Chairman, the President or by the Board.

11.9 Treasurer. The Treasurer, if that office be created and filled, shall have charge and custody of, and be responsible for, all funds and securities of the Company, receive and give receipts for monies due and payable to the Company from any source whatsoever, and deposit all such monies in the name of the Company in such banks, trust companies and other depositories as shall be selected in accordance with the provisions of Section 6.1, and in general, perform all the duties incident to the office of Treasurer of a Delaware corporation and such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to such person by the Chairman, the President or the Board. If required by the Board, the Treasurer shall give a bond for the faithful discharge of such officer's duties in such sum and with such surety or sureties as the Board shall determine.

11.10 Secretary. The Secretary, if that office be created and filled, shall keep the minutes of the Member's meetings and of the Board's meetings in one or more books provided for that purpose, see that all notices are duly given in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement or as required by law, be custodian of the Company records and of the seal, if any, of the Company, be responsible for authenticating records of the Company, keep a register of the mailing address of the Member, which shall be furnished to the Secretary by the Member, have general charge of the transfer books of the Company, and, in general, perform all duties incident to the office of Secretary of a Delaware corporation and such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to such person by the Chairman, the President or the Board.

11.11 Assistant Treasurers and Assistant Secretaries.

(a) Assistant Treasurer. The Assistant Treasurer, if that office be created and filled, shall, if required by the Board, give bond for the faithful discharge of such officer's duty in such sum and with such surety as the Board shall determine.

(b) Assistant Secretary. The Assistant Secretary, if that office be created and filled, and if authorized by the Board, may sign, with the President or Vice President, certificates for Units.

(c) Additional Duties. The Assistant Treasurers and Assistant Secretaries, in general, shall perform such additional duties as shall be assigned to them by the Treasurer or the Secretary, respectively, or by the Chairman, the President or the Board.

12. STANDARD OF CARE OF DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS; INDEMNIFICATION.

12.1 Standard of Care. The directors and officers of the Company shall not be liable, responsible or accountable in damages to the Member or the Company on account of such director's or officer's status as a director or officer of the Company or by reason of any act or omission related to the business of the Company performed or omitted by them in good faith with the care an officer of a Delaware corporation of like position would exercise under similar circumstances and in a manner reasonably believed by them to be in the best interests of the Company, and, with respect to any criminal proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe their conduct was unlawful. To the extent that, at law or in equity, a director or officer of the Company has duties (including fiduciary duties) and liabilities relating thereto to the Company, the Member or any other person, such director or officer acting under this Agreement shall not be liable to the Company the Member or any other person for breach of fiduciary duty for its good faith reliance on the provisions of this Agreement, and the provisions of this Agreement , to the extent that they restrict or eliminate the duties (including fiduciary duties) and liabilities relating thereto of a director or officer otherwise existing at law or in equity, are agreed by the Member and the Company to replace such other duties and liabilities of such director or officer.

(a) The Company shall indemnify and hold harmless each director or officer of the Company against reasonable expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees), judgments, taxes, penalties, fines (including any excise tax assessed with respect to an employee benefit plan) and amounts paid in settlement (collectively "Liability"), incurred by such person in connection with defending any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding (whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, and whether formal or informal) to which such person is, or is threatened to be made, a party because such person is or was a director or officer of the Company, or is or was serving at the request of the Company as a director, officer, partner, member, employee or agent of another domestic or foreign corporation, partnership, limited liability company, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, including service with respect to employee benefit plans, provided that the director or officer has met the standard of conduct described in Section 12.1. A director or officer shall be considered to be serving an employee benefit plan at the Company's request if such person's duties to the Company also impose duties on or otherwise involve services by such person to the plan or to participants in or beneficiaries of the plan. The indemnities hereunder shall survive the termination of the Company and this Agreement.

(b) At the request of the director or officer entitled to indemnification hereunder, the Company shall pay or reimburse reasonable expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees) incurred by a director or officer who is a party to a proceeding in advance of final disposition of such proceeding if:

(1) The director or officer furnishes the Company a written affirmation of his good faith belief that he has met the standard of conduct described in Section 12.1;

(2) The director or officer furnishes the Company a written undertaking, executed personally or on the director's or officer's behalf, to repay the advance if it is ultimately determined that the director or officer did not meet the standard of conduct or is otherwise not entitled to indemnification hereunder. Such undertaking shall be an unlimited general obligation of the director or officer, but shall not be required to be secured and may be accepted without reference to financial ability to make repayment; and

(3) A determination is made that the facts then known to those making the determination would not preclude indemnification under the provisions of this Section 12.2.

(c) The indemnification against Liability and advancement of expenses provided by, or granted pursuant to, this Section 12.2 shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which those seeking indemnification or advancement may be, or hereafter become, entitled under any agreement, action of the Member or disinterested directors or otherwise, both as to action in their official capacity and as to action in another capacity while holding such office of the Company, shall continue as to a person who has ceased to be a director or officer of the Company, and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors and administrators of such a person.

Any repeal or modification of this Section 12.2 by the Member shall not adversely affect any right or protection of a director or officer of the Company under this Section 12.2 with respect to any act or omission occurring prior to the time of such repeal or modification.

13. OTHER ACTIVITIES; RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS.

13.1 Other Activities. The directors and officers shall devote such of their time to the affairs of the Company's business as they shall deem necessary. The Member, directors, officers and their Affiliates (as hereinafter defined) may engage in, or possess an interest in, other business ventures of any nature and description, independently or with others, whether or not such activities are competitive with those of the Company. Neither the Company nor the Member shall have any rights by virtue of this Agreement in and to such independent ventures, or to the income or profits derived therefrom. The Member shall not be obligated to present any particular business opportunity of a character which, if presented to the Company, could be taken by the Company, and the Member and its Affiliates shall have the right to take for their own account, or to recommend to others, any such particular business opportunity to the exclusion of the Company. For purposes of this Agreement, the term "Affiliate" shall mean any person, corporation, partnership, limited liability company, trust or other entity (directly or indirectly) controlling, controlled by, or under common control with, another person.

13.2 Related Party Transactions. The fact that a director, officer or their Affiliates are directly or indirectly interested in or connected with any person, firm or corporation employed by the Company to render or perform a service, or to or from whom the Company may purchase, sell or lease property, shall not prohibit the Company from employing such person, firm or corporation or from otherwise dealing with him or it, and neither the Company, nor the Member, shall have any rights in or to any income or profits derived therefrom. All such dealings with a director or such director's Affiliates will be on terms which are competitive and comparable with amounts charged by independent third parties.

14. MEMBERS.

14.1 Limitation on Participation in Management. Except as expressly authorized by this Agreement or as expressly required by the Act, the Member, solely by virtue of its status as the Member, shall not participate in the management or control of the Company's business, transact any business for the Company or have the power to act for or bind the Company, said powers being vested solely and exclusively in the Board and the officers.

14.2 Assignment of Member's Interest. The Member may freely sell, assign, transfer, pledge, hypothecate, encumber or otherwise dispose of the Member's Units. If the member transfers all of its Units, the transferee of such Units shall automatically become a substitute Member in the place of the Member. The Board shall amend Exhibit A from time to time to reflect transfers made in accordance with this Section 14.2.

14.3 Bankruptcy, Dissolution, Etc. of Member. Upon the occurrence of any of the events set forth in Sections 18-304 or 18-705 of the Act with respect to the member, the successor-in-interest or personal representative of the Member shall automatically become a substitute Member in place of the Member.

14.4 Certificates for Units.

(a) Certificates representing Units shall be in such form as may be determined by the Board. Such certificates shall be signed by the President or Vice President. The signature of such officer upon such certificates may be signed manually or by facsimile. All certificates for Units shall be consecutively numbered. The name of the person owning the Units represented thereby, with the number of Units and date of issue, shall be entered on the books of the Company. All certificates surrendered to the Company for transfer shall be canceled and no new certificates shall be issued until the former certificates for a like number of Units shall have been surrendered and canceled, except that, in case of a lost, destroyed or mutilated certificate, a new certificate may be issued therefor upon such terms and indemnity to the Company as the Board may prescribe.

(b) A Unit in the Company evidenced by a certificate shall constitute a security governed by Article 8 of the Uniform Commercial Code. Each certificate evidencing membership interests in the Company shall bear the following legend: "This certificate evidences an interest in «Entity Name», LLC and shall be a security for purposes of Article 8 of the Uniform Commercial Code." No change to this provision shall be effective until all outstanding certificates have been surrendered for cancellation and any new certificates thereafter issued shall not bear the foregoing legend.

15. DISSOLUTION.

15.1 Dissolution. Except as otherwise provided in the Act, the Company shall dissolve upon the decision of the Member to dissolve the Company or the sale or other disposition of all, or substantially all, of the assets of the Company and the sale and/or collection of any evidence of indebtedness received in connection therewith. Dissolution of the Company shall be effective upon the date specified in the Member's resolution or upon the sale or other disposition of all, or substantially all of the Assets of the Company and the sale and/or collection of any evidence of indebtedness received in connection therewith as applicable, but the Company shall not terminate until the assets of the Company shall have been distributed as provided in Section 15.3 and a certificate of cancellation of the certificate of formation of the Company is filed with the office of the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware pursuant to Section 18-203 of the Act. Notwithstanding dissolution of the Company, prior to the liquidation and termination of the Company, the Company shall continue to be governed by this Agreement.

15.2 Sale of Assets Upon Dissolution. Following the dissolution of the Company, the Company shall be wound up and the Board shall determine whether the assets of the Company are to be sold or whether some or all of such assets are to be distributed to the Member in kind in liquidation of the Company.

15.3 Distributions Upon Dissolution. Upon the dissolution of the Company, the properties of the Company to be sold shall be liquidated in orderly fashion and the proceeds thereof, and the property to be distributed in kind, shall be distributed as follows:

(a) First, to the payment and discharge of all of the Company's debts and liabilities, to the necessary expenses of liquidation and to the establishment of any cash reserves which the Member determines to create for unmatured and/or contingent liabilities or obligations of the Company.

(b) Second, to the Member.

16. GENERAL.

16.1 Amendment.

(a) Except as provided in Section 16.1(b), this Agreement may be modified or amended from time to time only upon the consent of the Member.

(b) In addition to any amendments authorized by Section 16.1(a), this Agreement may be amended from time to time by the Board without the consent of the Member to cure any ambiguity, to correct or supplement any provision hereof which may be inconsistent with any other provision hereof, or to make any other provisions with respect to matters or questions arising under this Agreement which will not be inconsistent with the provisions of this Agreement.

16.2 Captions; Section References. Section titles or captions contained in this Agreement are inserted only as a matter of convenience and reference, and in no way define, limit, extend or describe the scope of this Agreement, or the intent of any provision hereof. All references herein to Sections shall refer to Sections of this Agreement unless the context clearly requires otherwise.

16.3 Number and Gender. Unless the context otherwise requires, when used herein, the singular shall include the plural, the plural shall include the singular, and all nouns, pronouns and any variations thereof shall be deemed to refer to the masculine, feminine or neuter, as the identity of the person or persons may require.

16.4 Severability. If any provision of this Agreement, or the application thereof to any person, entity or circumstances, shall be invalid or unenforceable to any extent, the remainder of this Agreement, and the application of such provision to other persons, entities or circumstances, shall not be affected thereby and shall be enforced to the greatest extent permitted by law.

16.5 Binding Agreement. Except as otherwise provided herein, this Agreement shall be binding upon, and inure to the benefit of, the parties hereto and their respective executors, administrators, heirs, successors and assigns.

16.6 Applicable Law. This Agreement shall be governed by, and construed in accordance with, the laws of the State of Delaware without regard to its conflict of laws rules.

16.7 Entire Agreement. This Agreement contains the entire agreement with respect to the subject matter hereof.

3.1 Purpose. The purposes of the Company are as follows:

(a) To acquire, own, manage and operate certain healthcare facilities.

(b) To engage in such other lawful activities in which a limited liability company may engage under the Act as is determined by the Board from time to time.

(c) To do all other things necessary or desirable in connection with the foregoing, or otherwise contemplated in this Agreement.

3.2 Company's Power. In furtherance of the purpose of the Company as set forth in Section 3.1, the Company shall have the power to do any and all things whatsoever necessary, appropriate or advisable in connection with such purpose, or as otherwise contemplated in this Agreement.

3.3 Term. The term of the Company as a limited liability company shall commence as of the date of the filing of a Certificate of Formation with the Delaware Secretary of State's Office, and shall continue until dissolved in accordance with Section 15.

4. CAPITAL.

4.1 Initial Capital Contribution of Member. The limited liability company interests in the Company shall be divided into units ("Units"). The total number of Units that the Company is initially authorized to issue is 100 Units. The Member has contributed the cash or other property identified on, and has been issued the number of Units listed on, Exhibit A. The Member may, but shall not be required to, make additional capital contributions to the Company from time to time.

4.2 No Liability of Member. Except as otherwise specifically provided in the Act, the Member shall not have any personal liability for the obligations of the Company. Except as provided in Section 4.1, the Member shall not be obligated to contribute funds or loan money to the Company.

4.3 No Interest on Capital Contributions. The Member shall not be entitled to interest on any capital contributions made to the Company.

5. ACCOUNTING.

5.1 Books and Records. The Company shall maintain full and accurate books of the Company at the Company's principal place of business, or such other place as the Board shall determine, showing all receipts and expenditures, assets and liabilities, net income and loss, and all other records necessary for recording the Company's business and affairs. Such books and records shall be open to the inspection and examination of the Member in person or by its duly authorized representatives at all reasonable times.

7. NET INCOME AND NET LOSS.

7.1 Net Income and Net Loss. All net income or net loss of the Company shall be for the account of the Member.

8. FEDERAL INCOME TAX ELECTIONS.

8.1 Tax Treatment. It is the intention of the Member that for Federal, state and local income tax purposes the Company be disregarded as an entity separate from the Member in accordance with the provisions of Treas. Reg. §§ 301.7701-2(c)(2)(i) and 301.7701-3(b)(1)(ii). The Member shall take all actions which may be necessary or required in order for the Company to be so disregarded for income tax purposes.

9. DISTRIBUTIONS.

9.1 Distributions. The Board shall determine, in the Board's sole discretion, the amount and timing of any distributions to the Member and whether such distributions shall be paid in cash or property.

10. BOARD OF DIRECTORS.

10.2 Number, Election and Term. The Board shall consist of not less than one, nor more than seven individual directors, the exact number of which shall be determined by the Board from time to time. Initially, there shall be three directors, Martin G. Schweinhart, W. Larry Cash and Rachel A. Seifert. Except as otherwise expressly provided herein, directors shall be elected at the organizational meeting of the Member and at each annual meeting thereafter. A decrease in the number of directors shall not shorten an incumbent director's term. Each director shall hold office until such director resigns or is removed. Despite the expiration of a director's term, such director shall continue to serve until the director's successor is elected and qualifies, until there is a decrease in the number of directors or the director is removed.

10.3 Resignation of Directors. A director may resign at any time by delivering written notice to the Board, its Chairman (as hereinafter defined), if any, or the Company. A resignation shall be effective when the notice is delivered unless the notice specifies a later effective date.

10.4 Removal of Directors by Member. A director shall be removed by the Member only at a meeting called for the purpose of removing such director and the meeting notice shall state that the purpose, or one of the purposes, of the meeting is removal of the director. The Member may remove one or more directors with or without cause.

10.5 Vacancy on Board. If a vacancy occurs on the Board, including a vacancy resulting from an increase in the number of directors, the Board shall fill the vacancy, and if the directors remaining in office constitute fewer than a quorum of the Board, they may fill the vacancy by the affirmative vote of a majority of all the directors remaining in office. A vacancy that will occur at a specific later date may be filled before the vacancy occurs, but the new director may not take office until the vacancy occurs.

10.6 Compensation of Directors. Directors on the Board shall not be entitled to receive a fee for the director's services as a director on the Board.

10.7 Meetings. The Board may hold regular or special meetings in or out of the State of Delaware. The Board may permit any or all directors to participate in a regular or special meeting by, or conduct the meeting through the use of, any means of communication by which all directors participating may simultaneously hear each other during the meeting. A director participating in a meeting by this means shall be deemed to be present in person at the meeting.

10.8 Special Meetings. Special meetings of the Board may be called by, or at the request of, the Chairman, if any, or the chief executive officer of the Company. All special meetings of the Board shall be held at the principal office or such other place as may be specified in the notice of the meeting.

10.9 Action Without Meeting. Any action required or permitted to be taken at a Board meeting may be taken without a meeting, without prior notice and without a vote if a consent or consents in writing, setting forth the action so taken, shall be signed by the directors having not less than the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to authorize or take such action at a meeting at which all directors entitled to vote thereon were present and voted.

10.11 Notice of Meetings. Meetings of the Board may be held without notice of the date, time, place or purpose of the meeting.

10.12 Quorum and Voting. A majority of the number of directors fixed by, or determined in accordance with, this Agreement shall constitute a quorum of the Board. If a quorum is present, an affirmative vote by a majority of the number of directors present shall constitute an act of the Board. A director who is present at a meeting of the Board or a committee of the Board when action is taken shall be deemed to have assented to the action taken unless (i) the director objects at the beginning of the meeting, or promptly upon the director' s arrival, to holding the meeting or transacting business at the meeting or (ii) the director's dissent or abstention from the action taken is entered in the minutes of the meeting or the director delivers written notice of the director's dissent or abstention to the presiding officer of the meeting before its adjournment or to the Company immediately after adjournment of the meeting. The right of dissent or abstention shall not be available to a director who votes in favor of the action taken.

10.13 Chairman and Vice Chairman of the Board. The Board may appoint one of its members as Chairman of the Board ("Chairman"). The Board may also appoint one of its members as Vice Chairman of the Board, and such individual shall serve in the absence of the Chairman and perform such additional duties as may be assigned to such person by the Board.

11. OFFICERS.

11.1 Officers Generally. The Company shall have the officers appointed by the Board in accordance with this Agreement. The same individual may simultaneously hold more than one office in the Company. Section 11.10 delegates to the Secretary, if such office be created and filled, the required responsibility of preparing minutes of the Board's and the Member's meetings and for authenticating records of the Company. If such office shall not be created and filled, then the Board shall delegate to one of the officers of the Company such responsibility.

11.2 Duties of Officers. Each officer of the Company shall have the authority and shall perform the duties set forth in this Agreement for such office or, to the extent consistent with this Agreement, the duties prescribed by the Board or by direction of an officer authorized by the Board to prescribe the duties of other officers.

11.3 Appointment and Term of Office. The officers of the Company shall be appointed by the Board. Vacancies may be filled or new offices created and filled at any meeting of the Board. Each officer shall hold office until such officer's successor shall be duly appointed or until the officer's death or until the officer shall resign or shall have been removed in the manner hereinafter provided.

11.4 Resignation and Removal of Officers. An officer may resign at any time by delivering notice to the Company. A resignation shall be effective when the notice is delivered unless the notice specifies a later effective date. If a resignation is made effective at a later date and the Company accepts the future effective date, the Board may fill the pending vacancy before the effective date if the Board provides that the successor shall not take office until the effective date. The Board may remove any officer at any time with or without cause.

11.5 Contract Rights of Officers. Appointment of an officer or agent shall not of itself create contract rights. An officer's removal shall not affect the officer's contract rights, if any, with the Company. An officer's resignation shall not affect the Company's contract rights, if any, with the officer.

11.6 Chairman of the Board. The Chairman, if that office be created and filled, may, at the discretion of the Board, be the chief executive officer of the Company and, if such, shall, in general, supervise and control the affairs and business of the Company, subject to control by the Board. The Chairman shall preside at all meetings of the Member and the Board.

11.7 President. The President, if that office be created and filled, shall be the chief executive officer of the Company, unless a Chairman is appointed and designated chief executive officer pursuant to Section 11.6. If no Chairman has been appointed or, in the absence of the Chairman, the President shall preside at all meetings of the Member. The President may sign certificates for Units, any deeds, mortgages, bonds, contracts or other instruments which the Board has authorized to be executed, except in cases where the signing and execution thereof shall be expressly delegated by the Board or by this Agreement to some other officer or agent of the Company, or shall be required by law to be otherwise signed or executed. The President shall, in general, perform all duties incident to the office of President of a Delaware corporation and such other duties as may be prescribed by the Board or the Chairman from time to time. Unless otherwise ordered by the Board, the President shall have full power and authority on behalf of the Company to attend, act and vote in person or by proxy at any meetings of shareholders of any corporation in which the Company may hold stock, and at any such meeting shall hold and may exercise all rights incident to the ownership of such stock which the Company, as owner, would have had and could have exercised if present. The Board may confer like powers on any other person or persons.

11.8 Vice President. In the absence of the President, or in the event of the President's death, inability or refusal to act, the Vice President (or, in the event there be more than one Vice President, the Vice Presidents in order designated at the time of their appointment, or in the absence of any designation, then in the order of their appointment), if that office be created and filled, shall perform the duties of the President and when so acting shall have all the powers of, and be subject to all the restrictions upon, the President. Any Vice President may sign certificates for Units and shall perform such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to such person by the Chairman, the President or by the Board.

11.9 Treasurer. The Treasurer, if that office be created and filled, shall have charge and custody of, and be responsible for, all funds and securities of the Company, receive and give receipts for monies due and payable to the Company from any source whatsoever, and deposit all such monies in the name of the Company in such banks, trust companies and other depositories as shall be selected in accordance with the provisions of Section 6.1, and in general, perform all the duties incident to the office of Treasurer of a Delaware corporation and such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to such person by the Chairman, the President or the Board. If required by the Board, the Treasurer shall give a bond for the faithful discharge of such officer's duties in such sum and with such surety or sureties as the Board shall determine.

11.10 Secretary. The Secretary, if that office be created and filled, shall keep the minutes of the Member's meetings and of the Board's meetings in one or more books provided for that purpose, see that all notices are duly given in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement or as required by law, be custodian of the Company records and of the seal, if any, of the Company, be responsible for authenticating records of the Company, keep a register of the mailing address of the Member, which shall be furnished to the Secretary by the Member, have general charge of the transfer books of the Company, and, in general, perform all duties incident to the office of Secretary of a Delaware corporation and such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to such person by the Chairman, the President or the Board.

11.11 Assistant Treasurers and Assistant Secretaries.

(a) Assistant Treasurer. The Assistant Treasurer, if that office be created and filled, shall, if required by the Board, give bond for the faithful discharge of such officer's duty in such sum and with such surety as the Board shall determine.

(b) Assistant Secretary. The Assistant Secretary, if that office be created and filled, and if authorized by the Board, may sign, with the President or Vice President, certificates for Units.

(c) Additional Duties. The Assistant Treasurers and Assistant Secretaries, in general, shall perform such additional duties as shall be assigned to them by the Treasurer or the Secretary, respectively, or by the Chairman, the President or the Board.

12. STANDARD OF CARE OF DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS; INDEMNIFICATION.

12.1 Standard of Care. The directors and officers of the Company shall not be liable, responsible or accountable in damages to the Member or the Company on account of such director's or officer's status as a director or officer of the Company or by reason of any act or omission related to the business of the Company performed or omitted by them in good faith with the care an officer of a Delaware corporation of like position would exercise under similar circumstances and in a manner reasonably believed by them to be in the best interests of the Company, and, with respect to any criminal proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe their conduct was unlawful. To the extent that, at law or in equity, a director or officer of the Company has duties (including fiduciary duties) and liabilities relating thereto to the Company, the Member or any other person, such director or officer acting under this Agreement shall not be liable to the Company the Member or any other person for breach of fiduciary duty for its good faith reliance on the provisions of this Agreement, and the provisions of this Agreement , to the extent that they restrict or eliminate the duties (including fiduciary duties) and liabilities relating thereto of a director or officer otherwise existing at law or in equity, are agreed by the Member and the Company to replace such other duties and liabilities of such director or officer.

(a) The Company shall indemnify and hold harmless each director or officer of the Company against reasonable expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees), judgments, taxes, penalties, fines (including any excise tax assessed with respect to an employee benefit plan) and amounts paid in settlement (collectively "Liability"), incurred by such person in connection with defending any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding (whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, and whether formal or informal) to which such person is, or is threatened to be made, a party because such person is or was a director or officer of the Company, or is or was serving at the request of the Company as a director, officer, partner, member, employee or agent of another domestic or foreign corporation, partnership, limited liability company, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, including service with respect to employee benefit plans, provided that the director or officer has met the standard of conduct described in Section 12.1. A director or officer shall be considered to be serving an employee benefit plan at the Company's request if such person's duties to the Company also impose duties on or otherwise involve services by such person to the plan or to participants in or beneficiaries of the plan. The indemnities hereunder shall survive the termination of the Company and this Agreement.

(b) At the request of the director or officer entitled to indemnification hereunder, the Company shall pay or reimburse reasonable expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees) incurred by a director or officer who is a party to a proceeding in advance of final disposition of such proceeding if:

(2) The director or officer furnishes the Company a written undertaking, executed personally or on the director's or officer's behalf, to repay the advance if it is ultimately determined that the director or officer did not meet the standard of conduct or is otherwise not entitled to indemnification hereunder. Such undertaking shall be an unlimited general obligation of the director or officer, but shall not be required to be secured and may be accepted without reference to financial ability to make repayment; and

(3) A determination is made that the facts then known to those making the determination would not preclude indemnification under the provisions of this Section 12.2.

hereafter become, entitled under any agreement, action of the Member or disinterested directors or otherwise, both as to action in their official capacity and as to action in another capacity while holding such office of the Company, shall continue as to a person who has ceased to be a director or officer of the Company, and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors and administrators of such a person.

Any repeal or modification of this Section 12.2 by the Member shall not adversely affect any right or protection of a director or officer of the Company under this Section 12.2 with respect to any act or omission occurring prior to the time of such repeal or modification.

13. OTHER ACTIVITIES; RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS.

13.1 Other Activities. The directors and officers shall devote such of their time to the affairs of the Company's business as they shall deem necessary. The Member, directors, officers and their Affiliates (as hereinafter defined) may engage in, or possess an interest in, other business ventures of any nature and description, independently or with others, whether or not such activities are competitive with those of the Company. Neither the Company nor the Member shall have any rights by virtue of this Agreement in and to such independent ventures, or to the income or profits derived therefrom. The Member shall not be obligated to present any particular business opportunity of a character which, if presented to the Company, could be taken by the Company, and the Member and its Affiliates shall have the right to take for their own account, or to recommend to others, any such particular business opportunity to the exclusion of the Company. For purposes of this Agreement, the term "Affiliate" shall mean any person, corporation, partnership, limited liability company, trust or other entity (directly or indirectly) controlling, controlled by, or under common control with, another person.

13.2 Related Party Transactions. The fact that a director, officer or their Affiliates are directly or indirectly interested in or connected with any person, firm or corporation employed by the Company to render or perform a service, or to or from whom the Company may purchase, sell or lease property, shall not prohibit the Company from employing such person, firm or corporation or from otherwise dealing with him or it, and neither the Company, nor the Member, shall have any rights in or to any income or profits derived therefrom. All such dealings with a director or such director's Affiliates will be on terms which are competitive and comparable with amounts charged by independent third parties.

14. MEMBERS.

14.1 Limitation on Participation in Management. Except as expressly authorized by this Agreement or as expressly required by the Act, the Member, solely by virtue of its status as the Member, shall not participate in the management or control of the Company's business, transact any business for the Company or have the power to act for or bind the Company, said powers being vested solely and exclusively in the Board and the officers.

14.2 Assignment of Member's Interest. The Member may freely sell, assign, transfer, pledge, hypothecate, encumber or otherwise dispose of the Member's Units. If the member transfers all of its Units, the transferee of such Units shall automatically become a substitute Member in the place of the Member. The Board shall amend Exhibit A from time to time to reflect transfers made in accordance with this Section 14.2.

14.3 Bankruptcy, Dissolution, Etc. of Member. Upon the occurrence of any of the events set forth in Sections 18-304 or 18-705 of the Act with respect to the member, the successor-in-interest or personal representative of the Member shall automatically become a substitute Member in place of the Member.

14.4 Certificates for Units.

(b) A Unit in the Company evidenced by a certificate shall constitute a security governed by Article 8 of the Uniform Commercial Code. Each certificate evidencing membership interests in the Company shall bear the following legend: "This certificate evidences an interest in «Entity Name», LLC and shall be a security for purposes of Article 8 of the Uniform Commercial Code." No change to this provision shall be effective until all outstanding certificates have been surrendered for cancellation and any new certificates thereafter issued shall not bear the foregoing legend.

15. DISSOLUTION.

15.1 Dissolution. Except as otherwise provided in the Act, the Company shall dissolve upon the decision of the Member to dissolve the Company or the sale or other disposition of all, or substantially all, of the assets of the Company and the sale and/or collection of any evidence of indebtedness received in connection therewith. Dissolution of the Company shall be effective upon the date specified in the Member's resolution or upon the sale or other disposition of all, or substantially all of the Assets of the Company and the sale and/or collection of any evidence of indebtedness received in connection therewith as applicable, but the Company shall not terminate until the assets of the Company shall have been distributed as provided in Section 15.3 and a certificate of cancellation of the certificate of formation of the Company is filed with the office of the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware pursuant to Section 18-203 of the Act. Notwithstanding dissolution of the Company, prior to the liquidation and termination of the Company, the Company shall continue to be governed by this Agreement.

15.2 Sale of Assets Upon Dissolution. Following the dissolution of the Company, the Company shall be wound up and the Board shall determine whether the assets of the Company are to be sold or whether some or all of such assets are to be distributed to the Member in kind in liquidation of the Company.

15.3 Distributions Upon Dissolution. Upon the dissolution of the Company, the properties of the Company to be sold shall be liquidated in orderly fashion and the proceeds thereof, and the property to be distributed in kind, shall be distributed as follows:

(a) First, to the payment and discharge of all of the Company's debts and liabilities, to the necessary expenses of liquidation and to the establishment of any cash reserves which the Member determines to create for unmatured and/or contingent liabilities or obligations of the Company.

(b) Second, to the Member.

16. GENERAL.

16.1 Amendment.

(a) Except as provided in Section 16.1(b), this Agreement may be modified or amended from time to time only upon the consent of the Member.

(b) In addition to any amendments authorized by Section 16.1(a), this Agreement may be amended from time to time by the Board without the consent of the Member to cure any ambiguity, to correct or supplement any provision hereof which may be inconsistent with any other provision hereof, or to make any other provisions with respect to matters or questions arising under this Agreement which will not be inconsistent with the provisions of this Agreement.

16.2 Captions; Section References. Section titles or captions contained in this Agreement are inserted only as a matter of convenience and reference, and in no way define, limit, extend or describe the scope of this Agreement, or the intent of any provision hereof. All references herein to Sections shall refer to Sections of this Agreement unless the context clearly requires otherwise.

Unless the context otherwise requires, when used herein, the singular shall include the plural, the plural shall include the singular, and all nouns, pronouns and any variations thereof shall be deemed to refer to the masculine, feminine or neuter, as the identity of the person or persons may require.

16.4 Severability. If any provision of this Agreement, or the application thereof to any person, entity or circumstances, shall be invalid or unenforceable to any extent, the remainder of this Agreement, and the application of such provision to other persons, entities or circumstances, shall not be affected thereby and shall be enforced to the greatest extent permitted by law.

16.5 Binding Agreement. Except as otherwise provided herein, this Agreement shall be binding upon, and inure to the benefit of, the parties hereto and their respective executors, administrators, heirs, successors and assigns.

16.6 Applicable Law. This Agreement shall be governed by, and construed in accordance with, the laws of the State of Delaware without regard to its conflict of laws rules.

16.7 Entire Agreement. This Agreement contains the entire agreement with respect to the subject matter hereof.

10.11 Quorum and Voting. A majority of the number of directors fixed by, or determined in accordance with, this Agreement shall constitute a quorum of the Board. If a quorum is present, an affirmative vote by a majority of the number of directors present shall constitute an act of the Board. A director who is present at a meeting of the Board or a committee of the Board when action is taken shall be deemed to have assented to the action taken unless (i) the director objects at the beginning of the meeting, or promptly upon the director' s arrival, to holding the meeting or transacting business at the meeting or (ii) the director's dissent or abstention from the action taken is entered in the minutes of the meeting or the director delivers written notice of the director's dissent or abstention to the presiding officer of the meeting before its adjournment or to the Company immediately after adjournment of the meeting. The right of dissent or abstention shall not be available to a director who votes in favor of the action taken.

10.12 Chairman and Vice Chairman of the Board. The Board may appoint one of its members as Chairman of the Board ("Chairman"). The Board may also appoint one of its members as Vice Chairman of the Board, and such individual shall serve in the absence of the Chairman and perform such additional duties as may be assigned to such person by the Board.

11. OFFICERS.

11.1 Officers Generally. The Company shall have the officers appointed by the Board in accordance with this Agreement. The same individual may simultaneously hold more than one office in the Company. Section 11.10 delegates to the Secretary, if such office be created and filled, the required responsibility of preparing minutes of the Board's and the Member's meetings and for authenticating records of the Company. If such office shall not be created and filled, then the Board shall delegate to one of the officers of the Company such responsibility.

11.2 Duties of Officers. Each officer of the Company shall have the authority and shall perform the duties set forth in this Agreement for such office or, to the extent consistent with this Agreement, the duties prescribed by the Board or by direction of an officer authorized by the Board to prescribe the duties of other officers.

11.3 Appointment and Term of Office. The officers of the Company shall be appointed by the Board. Vacancies may be filled or new offices created and filled at any meeting of the Board. Each officer shall hold office until such officer's successor shall be duly appointed or until the officer's death or until the officer shall resign or shall have been removed in the manner hereinafter provided.

11.4 Resignation and Removal of Officers. An officer may resign at any time by delivering notice to the Company. A resignation shall be effective when the notice is delivered unless the notice specifies a later effective date. If a resignation is made effective at a later date and the Company accepts the future effective date, the Board may fill the pending vacancy before the effective date if the Board provides that the successor shall not take office until the effective date. The Board may remove any officer at any time with or without cause.

11.5 Contract Rights of Officers. Appointment of an officer or agent shall not of itself create contract rights. An officer's removal shall not affect the officer's contract rights, if any, with the Company. An officer's resignation shall not affect the Company's contract rights, if any, with the officer.

11.6 Chairman of the Board. The Chairman, if that office be created and filled, may, at the discretion of the Board, be the chief executive officer of the Company and, if such, shall, in general, supervise and control the affairs and business of the Company, subject to control by the Board. The Chairman shall preside at all meetings of the Member and the Board.

11.7 President. The President, if that office be created and filled, shall be the chief executive officer of the Company, unless a Chairman is appointed and designated chief executive officer pursuant to Section 11.6. If no Chairman has been appointed or, in the absence of the Chairman, the President shall preside at all meetings of the Member. The President may sign certificates for Units, any deeds, mortgages, bonds, contracts or other instruments which the Board has authorized to be executed, except in cases where the signing and execution thereof shall be expressly delegated by the Board or by this Agreement to some other officer or agent of the Company, or shall be required by law to be otherwise signed or executed. The President shall, in general, perform all duties incident to the office of President of a Tennessee corporation and such other duties as may be prescribed by the Board or the Chairman from time to time. Unless otherwise ordered by the Board, the President shall have full power and authority on behalf of the Company to attend, act and vote in person or by proxy at any meetings of shareholders of any corporation in which the Company may hold stock, and at any such meeting shall hold and may exercise all rights incident to the ownership of such stock which the Company, as owner, would have had and could have exercised if present. The Board may confer like powers on any other person or persons.

11.8 Vice President. In the absence of the President, or in the event of the President's death, inability or refusal to act, the Vice President (or, in the event there be more than one Vice President, the Vice Presidents in order designated at the time of their appointment, or in the absence of any designation, then in the order of their appointment), if that office be created and filled, shall perform the duties of the President and when so acting shall have all the powers of, and be subject to all the restrictions upon, the President. Any Vice President may sign certificates for Units and shall perform such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to such person by the Chairman, the President or by the Board.

11.9 Treasurer. The Treasurer, if that office be created and filled, shall have charge and custody of, and be responsible for, all funds and securities of the Company, receive and give receipts for monies due and payable to the Company from any source whatsoever, and deposit all such monies in the name of the Company in such banks, trust companies and other depositories as shall be selected in accordance with the provisions of Section 6.1, and in general, perform all the duties incident to the office of Treasurer of a Tennessee corporation and such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to such person by the Chairman, the President or the Board. If required by the Board, the Treasurer shall give a bond for the faithful discharge of such officer's duties in such sum and with such surety or sureties as the Board shall determine.

11.10 Secretary. The Secretary, if that office be created and filled, shall keep the minutes of the Member's meetings and of the Board's meetings in one or more books provided for that purpose, see that all notices are duly given in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement or as required by law, be custodian of the Company records and of the seal, if any, of the Company, be responsible for authenticating records of the Company, keep a register of the mailing address of the Member, which shall be furnished to the Secretary by the Member, have general charge of the transfer books of the Company, and, in general, perform all duties incident to the office of Secretary of a Tennessee corporation and such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to such person by the Chairman, the President or the Board.

11.11 Assistant Treasurers and Assistant Secretaries.

(a) Assistant Treasurer. The Assistant Treasurer, if that office be created and filled, shall, if required by the Board, give bond for the faithful discharge of such officer's duty in such sum and with such surety as the Board shall determine.

(b) Assistant Secretary. The Assistant Secretary, if that office be created and filled, and if authorized by the Board, may sign, with the President or Vice President, certificates for Units.

(c) Additional Duties. The Assistant Treasurers and Assistant Secretaries, in general, shall perform such additional duties as shall be assigned to them by the Treasurer or the Secretary, respectively, or by the Chairman, the President or the Board.

12. STANDARD OF CARE OF DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS; INDEMNIFICATION.

circumstances and, in a manner reasonably believed by them to be in the best interests of the Company, and, with respect to any criminal proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe their conduct was unlawful. To the extent that, at law or in equity, a director or officer of the Company has duties (including fiduciary duties) and liabilities relating thereto to the Company, the Member or any other person, such director or officer acting under this Agreement shall not be liable to the Company, the Member or any other person for breach of fiduciary duty for its good faith reliance on the provisions of this Agreement, and the provisions of this Agreement , to the extent that they restrict or eliminate the duties (including fiduciary duties) and liabilities relating thereto of a director or officer otherwise existing at law or in equity, are agreed by the Member and the Company to replace such other duties and liabilities of such director or officer.

12.2 Indemnification.

(a) The Company shall indemnify and hold harmless each director or officer of the Company against reasonable expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees), judgments, taxes, penalties, fines (including any excise tax assessed with respect to an employee benefit plan) and amounts paid in settlement (collectively "Liability"), incurred by such person in connection with defending any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding (whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, and whether formal or informal) to which such person is, or is threatened to be made, a party because such person is or was a director or officer of the Company, or is or was serving at the request of the Company as a director, officer, partner, member, employee or agent of another domestic or foreign corporation, partnership, limited liability company, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, including service with respect to employee benefit plans, provided that the director or officer has met the standard of conduct described in Section 12.1. A director or officer shall be considered to be serving an employee benefit plan at the Company's request if such person's duties to the Company also impose duties on or otherwise involve services by such person to the plan or to participants in or beneficiaries of the plan. The indemnities hereunder shall survive the termination of the Company and this Agreement.

(b) At the request of the director or officer entitled to indemnification hereunder, the Company shall pay or reimburse reasonable expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees) incurred by a director or officer who is a party to a proceeding in advance of final disposition of such proceeding if:

(2) The director or officer furnishes the Company a written undertaking, executed personally or on the director's or officer's behalf, to repay the advance if it is ultimately determined that the director or officer did not meet the standard of conduct or is otherwise not entitled to indemnification hereunder. Such undertaking shall be an unlimited general obligation of the director or officer, but shall not be required to be secured and may be accepted without reference to financial ability to make repayment; and

(c) The indemnification against Liability and advancement of expenses provided by, or granted pursuant to, this Section 12.2 shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which those seeking indemnification or advancement may be, or hereafter become, entitled under any agreement, action of the Member or disinterested directors or otherwise, both as to action in their official capacity and as to action in another capacity while holding such office of the Company, shall continue as to a person who has ceased to be a director or officer of the Company, and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors and administrators of such a person.

Any repeal or modification of this Section 12.2 by the Member shall not adversely affect any right or protection of a director or officer of the Company under this Section 12.2 with respect to any act or omission occurring prior to the time of such repeal or modification.

13. OTHER ACTIVITIES; RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS.

13.1 Other Activities. The directors and officers shall devote such of their time to the affairs of the Company's business as they shall deem necessary. The Member, directors, officers and their Affiliates (as hereinafter defined) may engage in, or possess an interest in, other business ventures of any nature and description, independently or with others, whether or not such activities are competitive with those of the Company. Neither the Company nor the Member shall have any rights by virtue of this Agreement in and to such independent ventures, or to the income or profits derived therefrom. The Member shall not be obligated to present any particular business opportunity of a character which, if presented to the Company, could be taken by the Company, and the Member and its Affiliates shall have the right to take for their own account, or to recommend to others, any such particular business opportunity to the exclusion of the Company. For purposes of this Agreement, the term "Affiliate" shall mean any person, corporation, partnership, limited liability company, trust or other entity (directly or indirectly) controlling, controlled by, or under common control with, another person.

13.2 Related Party Transactions. The fact that a director, officer or their Affiliates are directly or indirectly interested in or connected with any person, firm or corporation employed by the Company to render or perform a service, or to or from whom the Company may purchase, sell or lease property, shall not prohibit the Company from employing such person, firm or corporation or from otherwise dealing with him or it, and neither the Company, nor the Member, shall have any rights in or to any income or profits derived therefrom. All such dealings with a director or such director's Affiliates will be on terms which are competitive and comparable with amounts charged by independent third parties.

14. MEMBERS.

14.1 Limitation on Participation in Management. Except as expressly authorized by this Agreement or as expressly required by the Act, the Member, solely by virtue of its status as the Member, shall not participate in the management or control of the Company's business, transact any business for the Company or have the power to act for or bind the Company, said powers being vested solely and exclusively in the Board and the officers.

14.2 Assignment of Member's Interest. The Member may freely sell, assign, transfer, pledge, hypothecate, encumber or otherwise dispose of the Member's Units. If the member transfers all of its Units, the transferee of such Units shall automatically become a substitute Member in the place of the Member. The Board shall amend Exhibit A from time to time to reflect transfers made in accordance with this Section 14.2.

14.3 Bankruptcy, Dissolution, Etc. of Member. Upon the occurrence of any of the events set forth in Sections 48-249-503(a)(7) – (a)(12) of the Act with respect to the member, the successor-in-interest or personal representative of the Member shall automatically become a substitute Member in place of the Member.

14.4 Certificates for Units.

(a) Certificates representing Units shall be in such form as may be determined by the Board. Such certificates shall be signed by the President or Vice President. The signature of such officer upon such certificates may be signed manually or by facsimile. All certificates for Units shall be consecutively numbered. The name of the person owning the Units represented thereby, with the number of Units and date of issue, shall be entered on the books of the Company. All certificates surrendered to the Company for transfer shall be canceled and no new certificates shall be issued until the former certificates for a like number of Units shall have been surrendered and canceled, except that, in case of a lost, destroyed or mutilated certificate, a new certificate may be issued therefor upon such terms and indemnity to the Company as the Board may prescribe.

(b) A Unit in the Company evidenced by a certificate shall constitute a security governed by Article 8 of the Uniform Commercial Code. Each certificate evidencing membership interests in the Company shall bear the following legend: "This certificate evidences an interest in HMA Fentress County General Hospital, LLC and shall be a security for purposes of Article 8 of the Uniform Commercial Code." No change to this provision shall be effective until all outstanding certificates have been surrendered for cancellation and any new certificates thereafter issued shall not bear the foregoing legend.

15. DISSOLUTION.

15.1 Dissolution. Except as otherwise provided in the Act, the Company shall dissolve upon the decision of the Member to dissolve the Company or the sale or other disposition of all, or substantially all, of the assets of the Company and the sale and/or collection of any evidence of indebtedness received in connection therewith. Dissolution of the Company shall be effective upon the date specified in the Member's resolution or upon the sale or other disposition of all, or substantially all of the Assets of the Company and the sale and/or collection of any evidence of indebtedness received in connection therewith as applicable, but the Company shall not terminate until the assets of the Company shall have been distributed as provided in Section 15.3 and articles of termination of the articles of organization of the Company are filed with the office of the Secretary of State of the State of Tennessee pursuant to Section 48-249-612 of the Act. Notwithstanding dissolution of the Company, prior to the liquidation and termination of the Company, the Company shall continue to be governed by this Agreement.

15.2 Sale of Assets Upon Dissolution. Following the dissolution of the Company, the Company shall be wound up and the Board shall determine whether the assets of the Company are to be sold or whether some or all of such assets are to be distributed to the Member in kind in liquidation of the Company.

15.3 Distributions Upon Dissolution. Upon the dissolution of the Company, the properties of the Company to be sold shall be liquidated in orderly fashion and the proceeds thereof, and the property to be distributed in kind, shall be distributed as follows:

(a) First, to the payment and discharge of all of the Company's debts and liabilities, to the necessary expenses of liquidation and to the establishment of any cash reserves which the Member determines to create for unmatured and/or contingent liabilities or obligations of the Company.

(b) Second, to the Member.

16. GENERAL.

16.1 Amendment.

(a) Except as provided in Section 16.1(b), this Agreement may be modified or amended from time to time only upon the consent of the Member.

(b) In addition to any amendments authorized by Section 16.1(a), this Agreement may be amended from time to time by the Board without the consent of the Member to cure any ambiguity, to correct or supplement any provision hereof which may be inconsistent with any other provision hereof, or to make any other provisions with respect to matters or questions arising under this Agreement which will not be inconsistent with the provisions of this Agreement.

16.2 Captions; Section References. Section titles or captions contained in this Agreement are inserted only as a matter of convenience and reference, and in no way define, limit, extend or describe the scope of this Agreement, or the intent of any provision hereof. All references herein to Sections shall refer to Sections of this Agreement unless the context clearly requires otherwise.

16.3 Number and Gender. Unless the context otherwise requires, when used herein, the singular shall include the plural, the plural shall include the singular, and all nouns, pronouns and any variations thereof shall be deemed to refer to the masculine, feminine or neuter, as the identity of the person or persons may require.

16.4 Severability. If any provision of this Agreement, or the application thereof to any person, entity or circumstances, shall be invalid or unenforceable to any extent, the remainder of this Agreement, and the application of such provision to other persons, entities or circumstances, shall not be affected thereby and shall be enforced to the greatest extent permitted by law.

16.5 Binding Agreement. Except as otherwise provided herein, this Agreement shall be binding upon, and inure to the benefit of, the parties hereto and their respective executors, administrators, heirs, successors and assigns.

16.6 Applicable Law. This Agreement shall be governed by, and construed in accordance with, the laws of the State of Tennessee without regard to its conflict of laws rules.

16.7 Entire Agreement. This Agreement contains the entire agreement with respect to the subject matter hereof.

WHEREAS, upon formation of the Partnership, General Partner and Limited Partner made the initial capital contributions and received the partnership interest and the number of partnership units set forth in Paragraph 5.01 of this Agreement; and

WHEREAS, the Partners desire to enter into this Agreement to govern the affairs of the Partnership and its business under the Act.

NOW, THEREFORE, it is mutually agreed as follows:

SECTION 2.
Place of Business and Registered Agent

2.01 Place of Business. The Partnership's principal place of business is located at the following address: 5811 Pelican Bay Blvd., Suite 500, Naples, FL 34108. The General Partner may from time to time change the Partnership's principal place of business to another location or add additional places of business.

2.02 Registered Agent. The registered agent for the Partnership shall be the Partnership's registered agent for service of process against the Partnership as stated in the Certificate of Limited Partnership: The Company Trust Company, Company Trust Center, 1209 Orange Street, in the City of Wilmington, Delaware 19801.

SECTION 3.
Business

3.01 Purpose. The Partnership's purpose is to engage in any lawful business permitted under the Act. The Partnership shall have the power to do any and all acts necessary, appropriate, proper, advisable, incidental or convenient to or in furtherance of the purpose of the Partnership and shall have without limitation, any and all powers that may be exercised on behalf of the Partnership by the General Partner pursuant to this Agreement or the Act.

SECTION 4.
Term of Partnership

4.01 Initial Term. The Partnership began on the date of filing of the Certificate of Limited Partnership and shall continue until the winding up and liquidation of the Partnership and its business is completed, as provided in this Agreement, unless terminated sooner pursuant to this Agreement.

SECTION 5.
Capital and Capital Accounts

5.01 Capital Contributions. Each of the Partners has contributed to the capital of the Partnership, in cash or other consideration, set forth opposite its name and therefore possess the partnership interest and number of partnership units indicated:

Name	Capital Contribution	Partnership Interest	Partnership Units
Health Management General Partner, LLC	$ 1.00	1%	1
Health Management Associates, Inc.	Membership Interest in HMA Hospitals Holdings, LLC	99%	99

5.02 Each Partner's Share. A Capital Account shall be maintained for each Partner and shall be credited with the amount of its capital contribution to the Partnership. If unit certificates are issued, the number of partnership units held by a Partner shall be designated on that Partner's unit certificate. Name	Percent
Health Management General Partner, LLC	1%
Health Management Associates, Inc.	99%

Notwithstanding any other provision of this Paragraph, income, deduction, gain, loss, and credit with respect to property contributed to the Partnership by a Partner shall be shared among the Partners so as to take account of any variation between the basis of the property so contributed and its fair market value at the time of contribution, in accordance with the Code and any applicable Treasury Regulations. No Limited Partner will be liable for any debts, liabilities or other obligations of the Partnership in excess of the amount of its capital contribution.

6.02 Allocation to General Partner. Notwithstanding any provision of this Agreement to the contrary, at all times during the existence of the Partnership, the interest of the General Partner in each item of income, deduction, gain, loss, or credit will be equal to at least 1% of each such item.

6.03 Distributions of Profits. The Partnership shall distribute profits at such times and in such amounts as determined by the General Partner, after setting aside such amounts as may be deemed necessary to create adequate reserves for future capital needs. All distributions to the Partners shall be made in proportions in which net profits and losses are allocated under Paragraph 6.1 above.

6.04 Assignment of Dissolution. In the event of an assignment of a partnership interest or of the dissolution or termination of any Partner, profits and losses shall be allocated on the basis of the number of days in the particular year during which each Partner owned its partnership interest, or on any other reasonable basis consistent with applicable United States tax laws and regulations.

6.05 Taxes. The Partnership shall be taxed as a corporation and the Partnership will make such filings as are necessary and consistent with such election.

SECTION 7.

SECTION 11.
Dissolution

11.01 Causes for Dissolution. The Partnership shall be dissolved upon any of the following events:

However, if, within six (6) months from such General Partner's withdrawal, dissolution, or adjudication of bankruptcy, the other Partners elect to continue the Partnership, then the Partnership will continue under this Agreement.

B. Whenever the General Partner determines it to be in the best interest of the Partnership that it be dissolved.

11.02 Upon Dissolution. Upon its dissolution, the Partnership will terminate and immediately commence to wind up its affairs. The Partners shall continue to share in profits and losses during liquidation in the same manner and proportions as they did before dissolution. The partnership's assets may be sold, if a price deemed reasonable by the General Partner may be obtained. The proceeds from liquidation of Partnership assets shall be applied as follows:

A. First, to the Partnership's debts and liabilities to persons other than Partners, which shall be paid and discharged in the order of priority as provided by law;

B. Second, to debts and liabilities, including the balance of unpaid guaranteed payments, if any, to Partners, which shall be paid and discharged in the order of priority as provided by law; and

C. Third, the remaining assets shall be distributed proportionately first, to the Limited Partner, second, to the General Partner, in the proportion in which net profits and net losses are allocated under Paragraph 6.01 above.

11.03 Winding Up. The winding up of Partnership affairs and the liquidation and distribution of its assets shall be conducted by the General Partner, who is hereby authorized to do any and all acts and things authorized by law in order to effect such liquidation and distribution of the Partnership's assets.

SECTION 12.
Miscellaneous

12.01 Non-Waiver. Any party's failure to seek redress for violation of or to insist upon the strict performance of any provision of this Agreement shall not be deemed a waiver and will not prevent a subsequent act, which would have originally constituted a violation, from having the effect of an original violation.

12.02 Severability. Every provision of this Agreement is intended to be severable. If any term or provision hereof is invalid for any reason whatsoever, its invalidity will not affect the validity of the remainder of the Agreement.

12.03 Good Faith. The doing of any act or the failure to do any act by a Partner or the Partnership, the effect of which causes any loss or damage to the Partnership, will not subject such Partner or the Partnership to any liability, if done in good faith to promote the Partnership's best interests.

12.04 Governing Law. This Agreement is to be construed according to the laws of the State of Delaware.

3.1 Purpose. The purposes of the Company are as follows:

(a) To acquire, own, manage and operate certain healthcare facilities.

(b) To engage in such other lawful activities in which a limited liability company may engage under the Act as is determined by the Board from time to time.

(c) To do all other things necessary or desirable in connection with the foregoing, or otherwise contemplated in this Agreement.

3.2 Company's Power. In furtherance of the purpose of the Company as set forth in Section 3.1, the Company shall have the power to do any and all things whatsoever necessary, appropriate or advisable in connection with such purpose, or as otherwise contemplated in this Agreement.

3.3 Term. The term of the Company as a limited liability company shall commence as of the date of the filing of a Articles of Organization with the Florida Secretary of State's Office, and shall continue until dissolved in accordance with Section 15.

4. CAPITAL.

5. ACCOUNTING.

5.1 Books and Records. The Company shall maintain full and accurate books of the Company at the Company's principal place of business, or such other place as the Board shall determine, showing all receipts and expenditures, assets and liabilities, net income and loss, and all other records necessary for recording the Company's business and affairs. Reg. §§ 301.7701-2(c)(2)(i) and 301.7701-3(b)(1)(ii). The Member shall take all actions which may be necessary or required in order for the Company to be so disregarded for income tax purposes.

9. DISTRIBUTIONS.

9.1 Distributions. The Board shall determine, in the Board's sole discretion, the amount and timing of any distributions to the Member and whether such distributions shall be paid in cash or property.

10. BOARD OF MANAGERS.

10.1 General Powers. All powers of the Company shall be exercised by or under the authority of, and the business and affairs of the Company managed under the direction of, its Board of Managers ("Board").

10.2 Number, Election and Term. The Board shall consist of not less than one, nor more than seven individual managers, the exact number of which shall be determined by the Board from time to time. Initially, there shall be three managers, Martin G. Schweinhart, W. Larry Cash and Rachel A. Seifert. Except as otherwise expressly provided herein, managers shall be elected at the organizational meeting of the Member and at each annual meeting thereafter. A decrease in the number of managers shall not shorten an incumbent manager's term. Each manager shall hold office until such manager resigns or is removed. Despite the expiration of a manager's term, such manager shall continue to serve until the manager's successor is elected and qualifies, until there is a decrease in the number of managers or the manager is removed.

10.3 Resignation of Managers. A manager may resign at any time by delivering written notice to the Board, its Chairman (as hereinafter defined), if any, or the Company. A resignation shall be effective when the notice is delivered unless the notice specifies a later effective date.

10.4 Removal of Managers by Member. A manager shall be removed by the Member only at a meeting called for the purpose of removing such manager and the meeting notice shall state that the purpose, or one of the purposes, of the meeting is removal of the manager. The Member may remove one or more managers with or without cause.

10.5 Vacancy on Board. If a vacancy occurs on the Board, including a vacancy resulting from an increase in the number of managers, the Board shall fill the vacancy, and if the managers remaining in office constitute fewer than a quorum of the Board, they may fill the vacancy by the affirmative vote of a majority of all the managers remaining in office. A vacancy that will occur at a specific later date may be filled before the vacancy occurs, but the new manager may not take office until the vacancy occurs.

10.6 Compensation of Managers. Managers on the Board shall not be entitled to receive a fee for the manager's services as a manager on the Board.

10.7 Meetings. The Board may hold regular or special meetings in or out of the State of Florida. The Board may permit any or all managers to participate in a regular or special meeting by, or conduct the meeting through the use of, any means of communication by which all managers participating may simultaneously hear each other during the meeting. A manager participating in a meeting by this means shall be deemed to be present in person at the meeting.

10.8 Special Meetings. Special meetings of the Board may be called by, or at the request of, the Chairman, if any, or the chief executive officer of the Company. All special meetings of the Board shall be held at the principal office or such other place as may be specified in the notice of the meeting.

10.9 Action Without Meeting. Any action required or permitted to be taken at a Board meeting may be taken without a meeting, without prior notice and without a vote if a consent or consents in writing, setting forth the action so taken, shall be signed by the managers having not less than the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to authorize or take such action at a meeting at which all managers entitled to vote thereon were present and voted.

10.11 Notice of Meetings. Meetings of the Board may be held without notice of the date, time, place or purpose of the meeting.

10.12 Quorum and Voting. A majority of the number of managers fixed by, or determined in accordance with, this Agreement shall constitute a quorum of the Board. If a quorum is present, an affirmative vote by a majority of the number of managers present shall constitute an act of the Board. A manager who is present at a meeting of the Board or a committee of the Board when action is taken shall be deemed to have assented to the action taken unless (i) the manager objects at the beginning of the meeting, or promptly upon the manager's arrival, to holding the meeting or transacting business at the meeting or (ii) the manager's dissent or abstention from the action taken is entered in the minutes of the meeting or the manager delivers written notice of the manager's dissent or abstention to the presiding officer of the meeting before its adjournment or to the Company immediately after adjournment of the meeting. The right of dissent or abstention shall not be available to a manager who votes in favor of the action taken.

10.13 Chairman and Vice Chairman of the Board. The Board may appoint one of its members as Chairman of the Board ("Chairman"). The Board may also appoint one of its members as Vice Chairman of the Board, and such individual shall serve in the absence of the Chairman and perform such additional duties as may be assigned to such person by the Board.

11. OFFICERS.

11.1 Officers Generally. The Company shall have the officers appointed by the Board in accordance with this Agreement. The same individual may simultaneously hold more than one office in the Company. Section 11.10 delegates to the Secretary, if such office be created and filled, the required responsibility of preparing minutes of the Board's and the Member's meetings and for authenticating records of the Company. If such office shall not be created and filled, then the Board shall delegate to one of the officers of the Company such responsibility.

11.2 Duties of Officers. Each officer of the Company shall have the authority and shall perform the duties set forth in this Agreement for such office or, to the extent consistent with this Agreement, the duties prescribed by the Board or by direction of an officer authorized by the Board to prescribe the duties of other officers.

11.3 Appointment and Term of Office. The officers of the Company shall be appointed by the Board. Vacancies may be filled or new offices created and filled at any meeting of the Board. Each officer shall hold office until such officer's successor shall be duly appointed or until the officer's death or until the officer shall resign or shall have been removed in the manner hereinafter provided.

11.4 Resignation and Removal of Officers. An officer may resign at any time by delivering notice to the Company. A resignation shall be effective when the notice is delivered unless the notice specifies a later effective date. If a resignation is made effective at a later date and the Company accepts the future effective date, the Board may fill the pending vacancy before the effective date if the Board provides that the successor shall not take office until the effective date. The Board may remove any officer at any time with or without cause.

11.5 Contract Rights of Officers. Appointment of an officer or agent shall not of itself create contract rights. An officer's removal shall not affect the officer's contract rights, if any, with the Company. An officer's resignation shall not affect the Company's contract rights, if any, with the officer.

11.6 Chairman of the Board. The Chairman, if that office be created and filled, may, at the discretion of the Board, be the chief executive officer of the Company and, if such, shall, in general, supervise and control the affairs and business of the Company, subject to control by the Board. The Chairman shall preside at all meetings of the Member and the Board.

11.7 President. The President, if that office be created and filled, shall be the chief executive officer of the Company, unless a Chairman is appointed and designated chief executive officer pursuant to Section 11.6. If no Chairman has been appointed or, in the absence of the Chairman, the President shall preside at all meetings of the Member. The President may sign certificates for Units, any deeds, mortgages, bonds, contracts or other instruments which the Board has authorized to be executed, except in cases where the signing and execution thereof shall be expressly delegated by the Board or by this Agreement to some other officer or agent of the Company, or shall be required by law to be otherwise signed or executed. The President shall, in general, perform all duties incident to the office of President of a Florida limited liability company and such other duties as may be prescribed by the Board or the Chairman from time to time. Unless otherwise ordered by the Board, the President shall have full power and authority on behalf of the Company to attend, act and vote in person or by proxy at any meetings of shareholders of any corporation in which the Company may hold stock, and at any such meeting shall hold and may exercise all rights incident to the ownership of such stock which the Company, as owner, would have had and could have exercised if present. The Board may confer like powers on any other person or persons.

11.8 Vice President. In the absence of the President, or in the event of the President's death, inability or refusal to act, the Vice President (or, in the event there be more than one Vice President, the Vice Presidents in order designated at the time of their appointment, or in the absence of any designation, then in the order of their appointment), if that office be created and filled, shall perform the duties of the President and when so acting shall have all the powers of, and be subject to all the restrictions upon, the President. Any Vice President may sign certificates for Units and shall perform such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to such person by the Chairman, the President or by the Board.

11.9 Treasurer. The Treasurer, if that office be created and filled, shall have charge and custody of, and be responsible for, all funds and securities of the Company, receive and give receipts for monies due and payable to the Company from any source whatsoever, and deposit all such monies in the name of the Company in such banks, trust companies and other depositories as shall be selected in accordance with the provisions of Section 6.1, and in general, perform all the duties incident to the office of Treasurer of a Florida limited liability company and such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to such person by the Chairman, the President or the Board. If required by the Board, the Treasurer shall give a bond for the faithful discharge of such officer's duties in such sum and with such surety or sureties as the Board shall determine.

11.10 Secretary. The Secretary, if that office be created and filled, shall keep the minutes of the Member's meetings and of the Board's meetings in one or more books provided for that purpose, see that all notices are duly given in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement or as required by law, be custodian of the Company records and of the seal, if any, of the Company, be responsible for authenticating records of the Company, keep a register of the mailing address of the Member, which shall be furnished to the Secretary by the Member, have general charge of the transfer books of the Company, and, in general, perform all duties incident to the office of Secretary of a Florida limited liability company and such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to such person by the Chairman, the President or the Board.

11.11 Assistant Treasurers and Assistant Secretaries.

(a) Assistant Treasurer. The Assistant Treasurer, if that office be created and filled, shall, if required by the Board, give bond for the faithful discharge of such officer's duty in such sum and with such surety as the Board shall determine.

(b) Assistant Secretary. The Assistant Secretary, if that office be created and filled, and if authorized by the Board, may sign, with the President or Vice President, certificates for Units.

(c) Additional Duties. The Assistant Treasurers and Assistant Secretaries, in general, shall perform such additional duties as shall be assigned to them by the Treasurer or the Secretary, respectively, or by the Chairman, the President or the Board.

12. STANDARD OF CARE OF MANAGERS AND OFFICERS; INDEMNIFICATION.

12.1 Standard of Care. The managers and officers of the Company shall not be liable, responsible or accountable in damages to the Member or the Company on account of such manager's or officer's status as a manager or officer of the Company or by reason of any act or omission related to the business of the Company performed or omitted by them in good faith with the care an officer of a Florida limited liability company of like position would exercise under similar circumstances and in a manner reasonably believed by them to be in the best interests of the Company, and, with respect to any criminal proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe their conduct was unlawful. To the extent that, at law or in equity, a manager or officer of the Company has duties (including fiduciary duties) and liabilities relating thereto to the Company, the Member or any other person, such manager or officer acting under this Agreement shall not be liable to the Company, the Member or any other person for breach of fiduciary duty for its good faith reliance on the provisions of this Agreement, and the provisions of this Agreement, to the extent that they restrict or eliminate the duties (including fiduciary duties) and liabilities relating thereto of a manager or officer otherwise existing at law or in equity, are agreed by the Member and the Company to replace such other duties and liabilities of such manager or officer; provided, however, that the foregoing shall not be interpreted or construed so as to eliminate or restrict any fiduciary duty, including, but not limited to, the duties of loyalty, care, good faith and fair dealing, in such a manner as to be contrary to the provisions of Section 605.0105 of the Act.

(a) The Company shall indemnify and hold harmless each manager or officer of the Company against reasonable expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees), judgments, taxes, penalties, fines (including any excise tax assessed with respect to an employee benefit plan) and amounts paid in settlement (collectively "Liability"), incurred by such person in connection with defending any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding (whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, and whether formal or informal) to which such person is, or is threatened to be made, a party because such person is or was a manager or officer of the Company, or is or was serving at the request of the Company as a manager, officer, partner, member, employee or agent of another domestic or foreign corporation, partnership, limited liability company, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, including service with respect to employee benefit plans, provided that (i) the manager or officer has met the standard of conduct described in Section 12.1, and (ii) indemnification under this paragraph does not violate the provisions of Section 605.0105 A manager or officer shall be considered to be serving an employee benefit plan at the Company's request if such person's duties to the Company also impose duties on or otherwise involve services by such person to the plan or to participants in or beneficiaries of the plan. The indemnities hereunder shall survive the termination of the Company and this Agreement.

(b) At the request of the manager or officer entitled to indemnification hereunder, the Company shall pay or reimburse reasonable expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees) incurred by a manager or officer who is a party to a proceeding in advance of final disposition of such proceeding if:

(1) The manager or officer furnishes the Company a written affirmation of his good faith belief that he has met the standard of conduct described in Section 12.1;

(2) The manager or officer furnishes the Company a written undertaking, executed personally or on the manager's or officer's behalf, to repay the advance if it is ultimately determined that the manager or officer did not meet the standard of conduct or is otherwise not entitled to indemnification hereunder. Such undertaking shall be an unlimited general obligation of the manager or officer, but shall not be required to be secured and may be accepted without reference to financial ability to make repayment; and

(3) A determination is made that the facts then known to those making the determination would not preclude indemnification under the provisions of this Section 12.2.

(c) The indemnification against Liability and advancement of expenses provided by, or granted pursuant to, this Section 12.2 shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which those seeking indemnification or advancement may be, or hereafter become, entitled under any agreement, action of the Member or disinterested

managers or otherwise, both as to action in their official capacity and as to action in another capacity while holding such office of the Company, shall continue as to a person who has ceased to be a manager or officer of the Company, and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors and administrators of such a person.

Any repeal or modification of this Section 12.2 by the Member shall not adversely affect any right or protection of a manager or officer of the Company under this Section 12.2 with respect to any act or omission occurring prior to the time of such repeal or modification.

13. OTHER ACTIVITIES; RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS.

13.1 Other Activities. The managers and officers shall devote such of their time to the affairs of the Company's business as they shall deem necessary. The Member, managers, officers and their Affiliates (as hereinafter defined) may engage in, or possess an interest in, other business ventures of any nature and description, independently or with others, whether or not such activities are competitive with those of the Company. Neither the Company nor the Member shall have any rights by virtue of this Agreement in and to such independent ventures, or to the income or profits derived therefrom. The Member shall not be obligated to present any particular business opportunity of a character which, if presented to the Company, could be taken by the Company, and the Member and its Affiliates shall have the right to take for their own account, or to recommend to others, any such particular business opportunity to the exclusion of the Company. For purposes of this Agreement, the term "Affiliate" shall mean any person, corporation, partnership, limited liability company, trust or other entity (directly or indirectly) controlling, controlled by, or under common control with, another person.

13.2 Related Party Transactions. The fact that a manager, officer or their Affiliates are directly or indirectly interested in or connected with any person, firm or corporation employed by the Company to render or perform a service, or to or from whom the Company may purchase, sell or lease property, shall not prohibit the Company from employing such person, firm or corporation or from otherwise dealing with him or it, and neither the Company, nor the Member, shall have any rights in or to any income or profits derived therefrom. All such dealings with a manager or such manager's Affiliates will be on terms which are competitive and comparable with amounts charged by independent third parties.

14. MEMBERS.

14.1 Limitation on Participation in Management. Except as expressly authorized by this Agreement or as expressly required by the Act, the Member, solely by virtue of its status as the Member, shall not participate in the management or control of the Company's business, transact any business for the Company or have the power to act for or bind the Company, said powers being vested solely and exclusively in the Board and the officers.

14.2 Assignment of Member's Interest. The Member may freely sell, assign, transfer, pledge, hypothecate, encumber or otherwise dispose of the Member's Units. If the member transfers all of its Units, the transferee of such Units shall automatically become a substitute Member in the place of the Member. The Board shall amend Exhibit A from time to time to reflect transfers made in accordance with this Section 14.2.

14.3 Dissociation of Member. Upon the occurrence of any of the events set forth in Section 605.0602 of the Act with respect to the member, the successor-in-interest or personal representative of the Member shall automatically become a substitute Member in place of the Member.

14.4 Certificates for Units.

(b) A Unit in the Company evidenced by a certificate shall constitute a security governed by Article 8 of the Uniform Commercial Code. Each certificate evidencing membership interests in the Company shall bear the following legend: "This certificate evidences an interest in HMA Santa Rosa Medical Center, LLC and shall be a security for purposes of Article 8 of the Uniform Commercial Code." No change to this provision shall be effective until all outstanding certificates have been surrendered for cancellation and any new certificates thereafter issued shall not bear the foregoing legend.

15. DISSOLUTION.

15.1 Dissolution. Except as otherwise provided in the Act, the Company shall dissolve upon the decision of the Member to dissolve the Company or the sale or other disposition of all, or substantially all, of the assets of the Company and the sale and/or collection of any evidence of indebtedness received in connection therewith. Dissolution of the Company shall be effective upon the date specified in the Member's resolution or upon the sale or other disposition of all, or substantially all of the Assets of the Company and the sale and/or collection of any evidence of indebtedness received in connection therewith as applicable, but the Company shall not terminate until the assets of the Company shall have been distributed as provided in Section 15.3 and articles of dissolution are filed with the office of the Secretary of State of the State of Florida pursuant to Section 605.0707 of the Act. Notwithstanding dissolution of the Company, prior to the liquidation and termination of the Company, the Company shall continue to be governed by this Agreement.

15.2 Sale of Assets Upon Dissolution. Following the dissolution of the Company, the Company shall be wound up and the Board shall determine whether the assets of the Company are to be sold or whether some or all of such assets are to be distributed to the Member in kind in liquidation of the Company.

2.2 Principal Office. The principal office of the Company shall be at 4000 Meridian Blvd., Franklin, Tennessee 37067, or at such other place as shall be determined by the Board (as hereinafter defined). The books of the Company shall be maintained at such principal place of business or such other place that the Board shall deem appropriate. The registered agent of the Company for service of process at such address is Corporation Service Company. Such registered office and registered agent may be changed by the Board from time to time.

3. PURPOSE AND TERM.

3.1 Purpose. The purposes of the Company are as follows:

(a) To acquire, own, manage and operate certain healthcare facilities.

(b) To engage in such other lawful activities in which a limited liability company may engage under the Act as is determined by the Board from time to time.

(c) To do all other things necessary or desirable in connection with the foregoing, or otherwise contemplated in this Agreement.

3.2 Company's Power. In furtherance of the purpose of the Company as set forth in Section 3.1, the Company shall have the power to do any and all things whatsoever necessary, appropriate or advisable in connection with such purpose, or as otherwise contemplated in this Agreement.

3.3 Term. The term of the Company as a limited liability company shall commence as of the date of the filing of a Certificate of Formation with the Delaware Secretary of State's Office, and shall continue until dissolved in accordance with Section 15.

4. CAPITAL.

4.1 Initial Capital Contribution of Member. The limited liability company interests in the Company shall be divided into units ("Units"). The total number of Units that the Company is initially authorized to issue is 100 Units. The Member has contributed the cash or other property identified on, and has been issued the number of Units listed on, Exhibit A. The Member may, but shall not be required to, make additional capital contributions to the Company from time to time.

4.2 No Liability of Member. Except as otherwise specifically provided in the Act, the Member shall not have any personal liability for the obligations of the Company. Except as provided in Section 4.1, the Member shall not be obligated to contribute funds or loan money to the Company.

4.3 No Interest on Capital Contributions. The Member shall not be entitled to interest on any capital contributions made to the Company.

5. ACCOUNTING.

5.1 Books and Records. The Company shall maintain full and accurate books of the Company at the Company's principal place of business, or such other place as the Board shall determine, showing all receipts and expenditures, assets and liabilities, net income and loss, and all other records necessary for recording the Company's business and affairs. Such books and records shall be open to the inspection and examination of the Member in person or by its duly authorized representatives at all reasonable times.

5.2 Fiscal Year. The fiscal year of the Company shall be the calendar year.

6. BANK ACCOUNTS.

6.1 Bank Accounts. All funds of the Company shall be deposited in its name into such checking, savings and/or money market accounts or time certificates as shall be designated by the Board. Withdrawals therefrom shall be made upon such signature or signatures as the Board may designate. The Board shall be entitled to make withdrawals from such accounts to invest such funds in connection with the cash management system employed by CHS/Community Health Systems, Inc. on behalf of its affiliated hospitals and health care facilities.

7. NET INCOME AND NET LOSS.

7.1 Net Income and Net Loss. All net income or net loss of the Company shall be for the account of the Member.

8. FEDERAL INCOME TAX ELECTIONS.

8.1 Tax Treatment. It is the intention of the Member that for Federal, state and local income tax purposes the Company be disregarded as an entity separate from the Member in accordance with the provisions of Treas. Reg. §§ 301.7701-2(c)(2)(i) and 301.7701-3(b)(1)(ii). The Member shall take all actions which may be necessary or required in order for the Company to be so disregarded for income tax purposes.

9. DISTRIBUTIONS.

9.1 Distributions. The Board shall determine, in the Board's sole discretion, the amount and timing of any distributions to the Member and whether such distributions shall be paid in cash or property.

10. BOARD OF DIRECTORS.

10.2 Number, Election and Term. The Board shall consist of not less than one, nor more than seven individual directors, the exact number of which shall be determined by the Board from time to time. Initially, there shall be three directors, Martin G. Schweinhart, W. Larry Cash and Rachel A. Seifert. Except as otherwise expressly provided herein, directors shall be elected at the organizational meeting of the Member and at each annual meeting thereafter. A decrease in the number of directors shall not shorten an incumbent director's term. Each director shall hold office until such director resigns or is removed. Despite the expiration of a director's term, such director shall continue to serve until the director's successor is elected and qualifies, until there is a decrease in the number of directors or the director is removed.

10.3 Resignation of Directors. A director may resign at any time by delivering written notice to the Board, its Chairman (as hereinafter defined), if any, or the Company. A resignation shall be effective when the notice is delivered unless the notice specifies a later effective date.

10.5 Vacancy on Board. If a vacancy occurs on the Board, including a vacancy resulting from an increase in the number of directors, the Board shall fill the vacancy, and if the directors remaining in office constitute fewer than a quorum of the Board, they may fill the vacancy by the affirmative vote of a majority of all the directors remaining in office. A vacancy that will occur at a specific later date may be filled before the vacancy occurs, but the new director may not take office until the vacancy occurs.

10.6 Compensation of Directors. Directors on the Board shall not be entitled to receive a fee for the director's services as a director on the Board.

10.7 Meetings. The Board may hold regular or special meetings in or out of the State of Delaware. The Board may permit any or all directors to participate in a regular or special meeting by, or conduct the meeting through the use of, any means of communication by which all directors participating may simultaneously hear each other during the meeting. A director participating in a meeting by this means shall be deemed to be present in person at the meeting.

10.8 Special Meetings. Special meetings of the Board may be called by, or at the request of, the Chairman, if any, or the chief executive officer of the Company. All special meetings of the Board shall be held at the principal office or such other place as may be specified in the notice of the meeting.

10.9 Action Without Meeting. Any action required or permitted to be taken at a Board meeting may be taken without a meeting, without prior notice and without a vote if a consent or consents in writing, setting forth the action so taken, shall be signed by the directors having not less than the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to authorize or take such action at a meeting at which all directors entitled to vote thereon were present and voted.

10.10 Notice of Meetings. Meetings of the Board may be held without notice of the date, time, place or purpose of the meeting.

10.11 Quorum and Voting. A majority of the number of directors fixed by, or determined in accordance with, this Agreement shall constitute a quorum of the Board. If a quorum is present, an affirmative vote by a majority of the number of directors present shall constitute an act of the Board. A director who is present at a meeting of the Board or a committee of the Board when action is taken shall be deemed to have assented to the action taken unless (i) the director objects at the beginning of the meeting, or promptly upon the director' s arrival, to holding the meeting or transacting business at the meeting or (ii) the director's dissent or abstention from the action taken is entered in the minutes of the meeting or the director delivers written notice of the director's dissent or abstention to the presiding officer of the meeting before its adjournment or to the Company immediately after adjournment of the meeting. The right of dissent or abstention shall not be available to a director who votes in favor of the action taken.

10.12 Chairman and Vice Chairman of the Board. The Board may appoint one of its members as Chairman of the Board ("Chairman"). The Board may also appoint one of its members as Vice Chairman of the Board, and such individual shall serve in the absence of the Chairman and perform such additional duties as may be assigned to such person by the Board.

11. OFFICERS.

11.1 Officers Generally. The Company shall have the officers appointed by the Board in accordance with this Agreement. The same individual may simultaneously hold more than one office in the Company. Section 11.10 delegates to the Secretary, if such office be created and filled, the required responsibility of preparing minutes of the Board's and the Member's meetings and for authenticating records of the Company. If such office shall not be created and filled, then the Board shall delegate to one of the officers of the Company such responsibility.

11.2 Duties of Officers. Each officer of the Company shall have the authority and shall perform the duties set forth in this Agreement for such office or, to the extent consistent with this Agreement, the duties prescribed by the Board or by direction of an officer authorized by the Board to prescribe the duties of other officers.

11.3 Appointment and Term of Office. The officers of the Company shall be appointed by the Board. Vacancies may be filled or new offices created and filled at any meeting of the Board. Each officer shall hold office until such officer's successor shall be duly appointed or until the officer's death or until the officer shall resign or shall have been removed in the manner hereinafter provided.

11.4 Resignation and Removal of Officers. An officer may resign at any time by delivering notice to the Company. A resignation shall be effective when the notice is delivered unless the notice specifies a later effective date. If a resignation is made effective at a later date and the Company accepts the future effective date, the Board may fill the pending vacancy before the effective date if the Board provides that the successor shall not take office until the effective date. The Board may remove any officer at any time with or without cause.

11.5 Contract Rights of Officers. Appointment of an officer or agent shall not of itself create contract rights. An officer's removal shall not affect the officer's contract rights, if any, with the Company. An officer's resignation shall not affect the Company's contract rights, if any, with the officer.

11.6 Chairman of the Board. The Chairman, if that office be created and filled, may, at the discretion of the Board, be the chief executive officer of the Company and, if such, shall, in general, supervise and control the affairs and business of the Company, subject to control by the Board. The Chairman shall preside at all meetings of the Member and the Board.

11.7 President. The President, if that office be created and filled, shall be the chief executive officer of the Company, unless a Chairman is appointed and designated chief executive officer pursuant to Section 11.6. If no Chairman has been appointed or, in the absence of the Chairman, the President shall preside at all meetings of the Member. The President may sign certificates for Units, any deeds, mortgages, bonds, contracts or other instruments which the Board has authorized to be executed, except in cases where the signing and execution thereof shall be expressly delegated by the Board or by this Agreement to some other officer or agent of the Company, or shall be required by law to be otherwise signed or executed. The President shall, in general, perform all duties incident to the office of President of a Delaware corporation and such other duties as may be prescribed by the Board or the Chairman from time to time. Unless otherwise ordered by the Board, the President shall have full power and authority on behalf of the Company to attend, act and vote in person or by proxy at any meetings of shareholders of any corporation in which the Company may hold stock, and at any such meeting shall hold and may exercise all rights incident to the ownership of such stock which the Company, as owner, would have had and could have exercised if present. The Board may confer like powers on any other person or persons.

11.8 Vice President. In the absence of the President, or in the event of the President's death, inability or refusal to act, the Vice President (or, in the event there be more than one Vice President, the Vice Presidents in order designated at the time of their appointment, or in the absence of any designation, then in the order of their appointment), if that office be created and filled, shall perform the duties of the President and when so acting shall have all the powers of, and be subject to all the restrictions upon, the President. Any Vice President may sign certificates for Units and shall perform such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to such person by the Chairman, the President or by the Board.

11.9 Treasurer. The Treasurer, if that office be created and filled, shall have charge and custody of, and be responsible for, all funds and securities of the Company, receive and give receipts for monies due and payable to the Company from any source whatsoever, and deposit all such monies in the name of the Company in such banks, trust companies and other depositories as shall be selected in accordance with the provisions of Section 6.1, and in general, perform all the duties incident to the office of Treasurer of a Delaware corporation and such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to such person by the Chairman, the President or the Board. If required by the Board, the Treasurer shall give a bond for the faithful discharge of such officer's duties in such sum and with such surety or sureties as the Board shall determine.

11.10 Secretary. The Secretary, if that office be created and filled, shall keep the minutes of the Member's meetings and of the Board's meetings in one or more books provided for that purpose, see that all notices are duly given in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement or as required by law, be custodian of the Company records and of the seal, if any, of the Company, be responsible for authenticating records of the Company, keep a register of the mailing address of the Member, which shall be furnished to the Secretary by the Member, have general charge of the transfer books of the Company, and, in general, perform all duties incident to the office of Secretary of a Delaware corporation and such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to such person by the Chairman, the President or the Board.

11.11 Assistant Treasurers and Assistant Secretaries.

(a) Assistant Treasurer. The Assistant Treasurer, if that office be created and filled, shall, if required by the Board, give bond for the faithful discharge of such officer's duty in such sum and with such surety as the Board shall determine.

(b) Assistant Secretary. The Assistant Secretary, if that office be created and filled, and if authorized by the Board, may sign, with the President or Vice President, certificates for Units.

(c) Additional Duties. The Assistant Treasurers and Assistant Secretaries, in general, shall perform such additional duties as shall be assigned to them by the Treasurer or the Secretary, respectively, or by the Chairman, the President or the Board.

12. STANDARD OF CARE OF DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS; INDEMNIFICATION.

12.1 Standard of Care. The directors and officers of the Company shall not be liable, responsible or accountable in damages to the Member or the Company on account of such director's or officer's status as a director or officer of the Company or by reason of any act or omission related to the business of the Company performed or omitted by them in good faith with the care an officer of a Delaware corporation of like position would exercise under similar circumstances and in a manner reasonably believed by them to be in the best interests of the Company, and, with respect to any criminal proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe their conduct was unlawful. To the extent that, at law or in equity, a director or officer of the Company has duties (including fiduciary duties) and liabilities relating thereto to the Company, the Member or any other person, such director or officer acting under this Agreement shall not be liable to the Company the Member or any other person for breach of fiduciary duty for its good faith reliance on the provisions of this Agreement, and the provisions of this Agreement , to the extent that they restrict or eliminate the duties (including fiduciary duties) and liabilities relating thereto of a director or officer otherwise existing at law or in equity, are agreed by the Member and the Company to replace such other duties and liabilities of such director or officer.

(a) The Company shall indemnify and hold harmless each director or officer of the Company against reasonable expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees), judgments, taxes, penalties, fines (including any excise tax assessed with respect to an employee benefit plan) and amounts paid in settlement (collectively "Liability"), incurred by such person in connection with defending any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding (whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, and whether formal or informal) to which such person is, or is threatened to be made, a party because such person is or was a director or officer of the Company, or is or was serving at the request of the Company as a director, officer, partner, member, employee or agent of another domestic or foreign corporation, partnership, limited liability company, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, including service with respect to employee benefit plans, provided that the director or officer has met the standard of conduct described in Section 12.1. A director or officer shall be considered to be serving an employee benefit plan at the Company's request if such person's duties to the Company also impose duties on or otherwise involve services by such person to the plan or to participants in or beneficiaries of the plan. The indemnities hereunder shall survive the termination of the Company and this Agreement.

(b) At the request of the director or officer entitled to indemnification hereunder, the Company shall pay or reimburse reasonable expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees) incurred by a director or officer who is a party to a proceeding in advance of final disposition of such proceeding if:

(1) The director or officer furnishes the Company a written affirmation of his good faith belief that he has met the standard of conduct described in Section 12.1;

(2) The director or officer furnishes the Company a written undertaking, executed personally or on the director's or officer's behalf, to repay the advance if it is ultimately determined that the director or officer did not meet the standard of conduct or is otherwise not entitled to indemnification hereunder. Such undertaking shall be an unlimited general obligation of the director or officer, but shall not be required to be secured and may be accepted without reference to financial ability to make repayment; and

(3) A determination is made that the facts then known to those making the determination would not preclude indemnification under the provisions of this Section 12.2.

hereafter become, entitled under any agreement, action of the Member or disinterested directors or otherwise, both as to action in their official capacity and as to action in another capacity while holding such office of the Company, shall continue as to a person who has ceased to be a director or officer of the Company, and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors and administrators of such a person.

Any repeal or modification of this Section 12.2 by the Member shall not adversely affect any right or protection of a director or officer of the Company under this Section 12.2 with respect to any act or omission occurring prior to the time of such repeal or modification.

13. OTHER ACTIVITIES; RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS.

13.1 Other Activities. The directors and officers shall devote such of their time to the affairs of the Company's business as they shall deem necessary. The Member, directors, officers and their Affiliates (as hereinafter defined) may engage in, or possess an interest in, other business ventures of any nature and description, independently or with others, whether or not such activities are competitive with those of the Company. Neither the Company nor the Member shall have any rights by virtue of this Agreement in and to such independent ventures, or to the income or profits derived therefrom. The Member shall not be obligated to present any particular business opportunity of a character which, if presented to the Company, could be taken by the Company, and the Member and its Affiliates shall have the right to take for their own account, or to recommend to others, any such particular business opportunity to the exclusion of the Company. For purposes of this Agreement, the term "Affiliate" shall mean any person, corporation, partnership, limited liability company, trust or other entity (directly or indirectly) controlling, controlled by, or under common control with, another person.

13.2 Related Party Transactions. The fact that a director, officer or their Affiliates are directly or indirectly interested in or connected with any person, firm or corporation employed by the Company to render or perform a service, or to or from whom the Company may purchase, sell or lease property, shall not prohibit the Company from employing such person, firm or corporation or from otherwise dealing with him or it, and neither the Company, nor the Member, shall have any rights in or to any income or profits derived therefrom. All such dealings with a director or such director's Affiliates will be on terms which are competitive and comparable with amounts charged by independent third parties.

14. MEMBERS.

14.1 Limitation on Participation in Management. Except as expressly authorized by this Agreement or as expressly required by the Act, the Member, solely by virtue of its status as the Member, shall not participate in the management or control of the Company's business, transact any business for the Company or have the power to act for or bind the Company, said powers being vested solely and exclusively in the Board and the officers.

14.2 Assignment of Member's Interest. The Member may freely sell, assign, transfer, pledge, hypothecate, encumber or otherwise dispose of the Member's Units. If the member transfers all of its Units, the transferee of such Units shall automatically become a substitute Member in the place of the Member. The Board shall amend Exhibit A from time to time to reflect transfers made in accordance with this Section 14.2.

14.3 Bankruptcy, Dissolution, Etc. of Member. Upon the occurrence of any of the events set forth in Sections 18-304 or 18-705 of the Act with respect to the member, the successor-in-interest or personal representative of the Member shall automatically become a substitute Member in place of the Member.

14.4 Certificates for Units.

(a) Certificates representing Units shall be in such form as may be determined by the Board. Such certificates shall be signed by the President or Vice President. The signature of such officer upon such certificates may be signed manually or by facsimile. All certificates for Units shall be consecutively numbered. The name of the person owning the Units represented thereby, with the number of Units and date of issue, shall be entered on the books of the Company. All certificates surrendered to the Company for transfer shall be canceled and no new certificates shall be issued until the former certificates for a like number of Units shall have been surrendered and canceled, except that, in case of a lost, destroyed or mutilated certificate, a new certificate may be issued therefor upon such terms and indemnity to the Company as the Board may prescribe.

(b) A Unit in the Company evidenced by a certificate shall constitute a security governed by Article 8 of the Uniform Commercial Code. Each certificate evidencing membership interests in the Company shall bear the following legend: "This certificate evidences an interest in «Entity Name», LLC and shall be a security for purposes of Article 8 of the Uniform Commercial Code." No change to this provision shall be effective until all outstanding certificates have been surrendered for cancellation and any new certificates thereafter issued shall not bear the foregoing legend.

15. DISSOLUTION.

15.1 Dissolution. Except as otherwise provided in the Act, the Company shall dissolve upon the decision of the Member to dissolve the Company or the sale or other disposition of all, or substantially all, of the assets of the Company and the sale and/or collection of any evidence of indebtedness received in connection therewith. Dissolution of the Company shall be effective upon the date specified in the Member's resolution or upon the sale or other disposition of all, or substantially all of the Assets of the Company and the sale and/or collection of any evidence of indebtedness received in connection therewith as applicable, but the Company shall not terminate until the assets of the Company shall have been distributed as provided in Section 15.3 and a certificate of cancellation of the certificate of formation of the Company is filed with the office of the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware pursuant to Section 18-203 of the Act. Notwithstanding dissolution of the Company, prior to the liquidation and termination of the Company, the Company shall continue to be governed by this Agreement.

15.2 Sale of Assets Upon Dissolution. Following the dissolution of the Company, the Company shall be wound up and the Board shall determine whether the assets of the Company are to be sold or whether some or all of such assets are to be distributed to the Member in kind in liquidation of the Company.

15.3 Distributions Upon Dissolution. Upon the dissolution of the Company, the properties of the Company to be sold shall be liquidated in orderly fashion and the proceeds thereof, and the property to be distributed in kind, shall be distributed as follows:

(a) First, to the payment and discharge of all of the Company's debts and liabilities, to the necessary expenses of liquidation and to the establishment of any cash reserves which the Member determines to create for unmatured and/or contingent liabilities or obligations of the Company.

(b) Second, to the Member.

16. GENERAL.

16.1 Amendment.

(a) Except as provided in Section 16.1(b), this Agreement may be modified or amended from time to time only upon the consent of the Member.

(b) In addition to any amendments authorized by Section 16.1(a), this Agreement may be amended from time to time by the Board without the consent of the Member to cure any ambiguity, to correct or supplement any provision hereof which may be inconsistent with any other provision hereof, or to make any other provisions with respect to matters or questions arising under this Agreement which will not be inconsistent with the provisions of this Agreement.

16.2 Captions; Section References. Section titles or captions contained in this Agreement are inserted only as a matter of convenience and reference, and in no way define, limit, extend or describe the scope of this Agreement, or the intent of any provision hereof. All references herein to Sections shall refer to Sections of this Agreement unless the context clearly requires otherwise.

16.3 Number and Gender. Unless the context otherwise requires, when used herein, the singular shall include the plural, the plural shall include the singular, and all nouns, pronouns and any variations thereof shall be deemed to refer to the masculine, feminine or neuter, as the identity of the person or persons may require.

16.4 Severability. If any provision of this Agreement, or the application thereof to any person, entity or circumstances, shall be invalid or unenforceable to any extent, the remainder of this Agreement, and the application of such provision to other persons, entities or circumstances, shall not be affected thereby and shall be enforced to the greatest extent permitted by law.

16.5 Binding Agreement. Except as otherwise provided herein, this Agreement shall be binding upon, and inure to the benefit of, the parties hereto and their respective executors, administrators, heirs, successors and assigns.

16.6 Applicable Law. This Agreement shall be governed by, and construed in accordance with, the laws of the State of Delaware without regard to its conflict of laws rules.

16.7 Entire Agreement. This Agreement contains the entire agreement with respect to the subject matter hereof.

2.2 Principal Office. The principal office of the Company shall be at 4000 Meridian Blvd., Franklin, Tennessee 37067, or at such other place as shall be determined by the Board (as hereinafter defined). The books of the Company shall be maintained at such principal place of business or such other place that the Board shall deem appropriate. The registered office in the State of Florida is located at 1201 Hays Street, Tallahassee, Florida 32301. The registered agent of the Company for service of process at such address is Corporation Service Company. Such registered office and registered agent may be changed by the Board from time to time.

3. PURPOSE AND TERM.

3.1 Purpose. The purposes of the Company are as follows:

(a) To acquire, own, manage and operate certain healthcare facilities.

(b) To engage in such other lawful activities in which a limited liability company may engage under the Act as is determined by the Board from time to time.

(c) To do all other things necessary or desirable in connection with the foregoing, or otherwise contemplated in this Agreement.

3.2 Company's Power. In furtherance of the purpose of the Company as set forth in Section 3.1, the Company shall have the power to do any and all things whatsoever necessary, appropriate or advisable in connection with such purpose, or as otherwise contemplated in this Agreement.

3.3 Term. The term of the Company as a limited liability company shall commence as of the date of the filing of a Articles of Organization with the Florida Secretary of State's Office, and shall continue until dissolved in accordance with Section 15.

4. CAPITAL.

4.1 Initial Capital Contribution of Member. The limited liability company interests in the Company shall be divided into units ("Units"). The total number of Units that the Company is initially authorized to issue is 100 Units. The Member has contributed the cash or other property identified on, and has been issued the number of Units listed on, Exhibit A. The Member may, but shall not be required to, make additional capital contributions to the Company from time to time.

4.2 No Liability of Member. Except as otherwise specifically provided in the Act, the Member shall not have any personal liability for the obligations of the Company. Except as provided in Section 4.1, the Member shall not be obligated to contribute funds or loan money to the Company.

4.3 No Interest on Capital Contributions. The Member shall not be entitled to interest on any capital contributions made to the Company.

5. ACCOUNTING.

5.1 Books and Records. The Company shall maintain full and accurate books of the Company at the Company's principal place of business, or such other place as the Board shall determine, showing all receipts and expenditures, assets and liabilities, net income and loss, and all other records necessary for recording the Company's business and affairs. Such books and records shall be open to the inspection and examination of the Member in person or by its duly authorized representatives at all reasonable times.

5.2 Fiscal Year. The fiscal year of the Company shall be the calendar year.

6. BANK ACCOUNTS.

6.1 Bank Accounts. All funds of the Company shall be deposited in its name into such checking, savings and/or money market accounts or time certificates as shall be designated by the Board. Withdrawals therefrom shall be made upon such signature or signatures as the Board may designate. The Board shall be entitled to make withdrawals from such accounts to invest such funds in connection with the cash management system employed by CHS/Community Health Systems, Inc., an affiliated company, on behalf of its affiliated hospitals and health care facilities.

7. NET INCOME AND NET LOSS.

7.1 Net Income and Net Loss. All net income or net loss of the Company shall be for the account of the Member.

8. FEDERAL INCOME TAX ELECTIONS.

8.1 Tax Treatment. It is the intention of the Member that for Federal, state and local income tax purposes the Company be disregarded as an entity separate from the Member in accordance with the provisions of Treas. Reg. §§ 301.7701-2(c)(2)(i) and 301.7701-3(b)(1)(ii). The Member shall take all actions which may be necessary or required in order for the Company to be so disregarded for income tax purposes.

9. DISTRIBUTIONS.

9.1 Distributions. The Board shall determine, in the Board's sole discretion, the amount and timing of any distributions to the Member and whether such distributions shall be paid in cash or property.

10. BOARD OF MANAGERS.

10.1 General Powers. All powers of the Company shall be exercised by or under the authority of, and the business and affairs of the Company managed under the direction of, its Board of Managers ("Board").

10.2 Number, Election and Term. The Board shall consist of not less than one, nor more than seven individual managers, the exact number of which shall be determined by the Board from time to time. Initially, there shall be three managers, Martin G. Schweinhart, W. Larry Cash and Rachel A. Seifert. Except as otherwise expressly provided herein, managers shall be elected at the organizational meeting of the Member and at each annual meeting thereafter. A decrease in the number of managers shall not shorten an incumbent manager's term. Each manager shall hold office until such manager resigns or is removed. Despite the expiration of a manager's term, such manager shall continue to serve until the manager's successor is elected and qualifies, until there is a decrease in the number of managers or the manager is removed.

10.3 Resignation of Managers. A manager may resign at any time by delivering written notice to the Board, its Chairman (as hereinafter defined), if any, or the Company. A resignation shall be effective when the notice is delivered unless the notice specifies a later effective date.

10.4 Removal of Managers by Member. A manager shall be removed by the Member only at a meeting called for the purpose of removing such manager and the meeting notice shall state that the purpose, or one of the purposes, of the meeting is removal of the manager. The Member may remove one or more managers with or without cause.

10.5 Vacancy on Board. If a vacancy occurs on the Board, including a vacancy resulting from an increase in the number of managers, the Board shall fill the vacancy, and if the managers remaining in office constitute fewer than a quorum of the Board, they may fill the vacancy by the affirmative vote of a majority of all the managers remaining in office. A vacancy that will occur at a specific later date may be filled before the vacancy occurs, but the new manager may not take office until the vacancy occurs.

10.6 Compensation of Managers. Managers on the Board shall not be entitled to receive a fee for the manager's services as a manager on the Board.

10.7 Meetings. The Board may hold regular or special meetings in or out of the State of Florida. The Board may permit any or all managers to participate in a regular or special meeting by, or conduct the meeting through the use of, any means of communication by which all managers participating may simultaneously hear each other during the meeting. A manager participating in a meeting by this means shall be deemed to be present in person at the meeting.

10.8 Special Meetings. Special meetings of the Board may be called by, or at the request of, the Chairman, if any, or the chief executive officer of the Company. All special meetings of the Board shall be held at the principal office or such other place as may be specified in the notice of the meeting.

10.9 Action Without Meeting. Any action required or permitted to be taken at a Board meeting may be taken without a meeting, without prior notice and without a vote if a consent or consents in writing, setting forth the action so taken, shall be signed by the managers having not less than the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to authorize or take such action at a meeting at which all managers entitled to vote thereon were present and voted.

10.10 Notice of Meetings. Meetings of the Board may be held without notice of the date, time, place or purpose of the meeting.

10.11 Quorum and Voting. A majority of the number of managers fixed by, or determined in accordance with, this Agreement shall constitute a quorum of the Board. If a quorum is present, an affirmative vote by a majority of the number of managers present shall constitute an act of the Board. A manager who is present at a meeting of the Board or a committee of the Board when action is taken shall be deemed to have assented to the action taken unless (i) the manager objects at the beginning of the meeting, or promptly upon the manager' s arrival, to holding the meeting or transacting business at the meeting or (ii) the manager's dissent or abstention from the action taken is entered in the minutes of the meeting or the manager delivers written notice of the manager's dissent or abstention to the presiding officer of the meeting before its adjournment or to the Company immediately after adjournment of the meeting. The right of dissent or abstention shall not be available to a manager who votes in favor of the action taken.

10.12 Chairman and Vice Chairman of the Board. The Board may appoint one of its members as Chairman of the Board ("Chairman"). The Board may also appoint one of its members as Vice Chairman of the Board, and such individual shall serve in the absence of the Chairman and perform such additional duties as may be assigned to such person by the Board.

11. OFFICERS.

11.1 Officers Generally. The Company shall have the officers appointed by the Board in accordance with this Agreement. The same individual may simultaneously hold more than one office in the Company. Section 11.10 delegates to the Secretary, if such office be created and filled, the required responsibility of preparing minutes of the Board's and the Member's meetings and for authenticating records of the Company. If such office shall not be created and filled, then the Board shall delegate to one of the officers of the Company such responsibility.

11.2 Duties of Officers. Each officer of the Company shall have the authority and shall perform the duties set forth in this Agreement for such office or, to the extent consistent with this Agreement, the duties prescribed by the Board or by direction of an officer authorized by the Board to prescribe the duties of other officers.

11.3 Appointment and Term of Office. The officers of the Company shall be appointed by the Board. Vacancies may be filled or new offices created and filled at any meeting of the Board. Each officer shall hold office until such officer's successor shall be duly appointed or until the officer's death or until the officer shall resign or shall have been removed in the manner hereinafter provided.

11.4 Resignation and Removal of Officers. An officer may resign at any time by delivering notice to the Company. A resignation shall be effective when the notice is delivered unless the notice specifies a later effective date. If a resignation is made effective at a later date and the Company accepts the future effective date, the Board may fill the pending vacancy before the effective date if the Board provides that the successor shall not take office until the effective date. The Board may remove any officer at any time with or without cause.

11.5 Contract Rights of Officers. Appointment of an officer or agent shall not of itself create contract rights. An officer's removal shall not affect the officer's contract rights, if any, with the Company. An officer's resignation shall not affect the Company's contract rights, if any, with the officer.

11.6 Chairman of the Board. The Chairman, if that office be created and filled, may, at the discretion of the Board, be the chief executive officer of the Company and, if such, shall, in general, supervise and control the affairs and business of the Company, subject to control by the Board. The Chairman shall preside at all meetings of the Member and the Board.

11.7 President. The President, if that office be created and filled, shall be the chief executive officer of the Company, unless a Chairman is appointed and designated chief executive officer pursuant to Section 11.6. If no Chairman has been appointed or, in the absence of the Chairman, the President shall preside at all meetings of the Member. The President may sign certificates for Units, any deeds, mortgages, bonds, contracts or other instruments which the Board has authorized to be executed, except in cases where the signing and execution thereof shall be expressly delegated by the Board or by this Agreement to some other officer or agent of the Company, or shall be required by law to be otherwise signed or executed. The President shall, in general, perform all duties incident to the office of President of a Florida limited liability company and such other duties as may be prescribed by the Board or the Chairman from time to time. Unless otherwise ordered by the Board, the President shall have full power and authority on behalf of the Company to attend, act and vote in person or by proxy at any meetings of shareholders of any corporation in which the Company may hold stock, and at any such meeting shall hold and may exercise all rights incident to the ownership of such stock which the Company, as owner, would have had and could have exercised if present. The Board may confer like powers on any other person or persons.

11.8 Vice President. In the absence of the President, or in the event of the President's death, inability or refusal to act, the Vice President (or, in the event there be more than one Vice President, the Vice Presidents in order designated at the time of their appointment, or in the absence of any designation, then in the order of their appointment), if that office be created and filled, shall perform the duties of the President and when so acting shall have all the powers of, and be subject to all the restrictions upon, the President. Any Vice President may sign certificates for Units and shall perform such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to such person by the Chairman, the President or by the Board.

11.9 Treasurer. The Treasurer, if that office be created and filled, shall have charge and custody of, and be responsible for, all funds and securities of the Company, receive and give receipts for monies due and payable to the Company from any source whatsoever, and deposit all such monies in the name of the Company in such banks, trust companies and other depositories as shall be selected in accordance with the provisions of Section 6.1, and in general, perform all the duties incident to the office of Treasurer of a Florida limited liability company and such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to such person by the Chairman, the President or the Board. If required by the Board, the Treasurer shall give a bond for the faithful discharge of such officer's duties in such sum and with such surety or sureties as the Board shall determine.

11.10 Secretary. The Secretary, if that office be created and filled, shall keep the minutes of the Member's meetings and of the Board's meetings in one or more books provided for that purpose, see that all notices are duly given in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement or as required by law, be custodian of the Company records and of the seal, if any, of the Company, be responsible for authenticating records of the Company, keep a register of the mailing address of the Member, which shall be furnished to the Secretary by the Member, have general charge of the transfer books of the Company, and, in general, perform all duties incident to the office of Secretary of a Florida limited liability company and such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to such person by the Chairman, the President or the Board.

11.11 Assistant Treasurers and Assistant Secretaries.

(a) Assistant Treasurer. The Assistant Treasurer, if that office be created and filled, shall, if required by the Board, give bond for the faithful discharge of such officer's duty in such sum and with such surety as the Board shall determine.

(b) Assistant Secretary. The Assistant Secretary, if that office be created and filled, and if authorized by the Board, may sign, with the President or Vice President, certificates for Units.

(c) Additional Duties. The Assistant Treasurers and Assistant Secretaries, in general, shall perform such additional duties as shall be assigned to them by the Treasurer or the Secretary, respectively, or by the Chairman, the President or the Board.

12. STANDARD OF CARE OF MANAGERS AND OFFICERS; INDEMNIFICATION.

12.1 Standard of Care. The managers and officers of the Company shall not be liable, responsible or accountable in damages to the Member or the Company on account of such manager's or officer's status as a manager or officer of the Company or by reason of any act or omission related to the business of the Company performed or omitted by them in good faith with the care an officer of a Florida limited liability company of like position would exercise under similar circumstances and in a manner reasonably believed by them to be in the best interests of the Company, and, with respect to any criminal proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe their conduct was unlawful. To the extent that, at law or in equity, a manager or officer of the Company has duties (including fiduciary duties) and liabilities relating thereto to the Company, the Member or any other person, such manager or officer acting under this Agreement shall not be liable to the Company, the Member or any other person for breach of fiduciary duty for its good faith reliance on the provisions of this Agreement, and the provisions of this Agreement, to the extent that they restrict or eliminate the duties (including fiduciary duties) and liabilities relating thereto of a manager or officer otherwise existing at law or in equity, are agreed by the Member and the Company to replace such other duties and liabilities of such manager or officer; provided, however, that the foregoing shall not be interpreted or construed so as to eliminate or restrict any fiduciary duty, including, but not limited to, the duties of loyalty, care, good faith and fair dealing, in such a manner as to be contrary to the provisions of Section 605.0105 of the Act.

(a) The Company shall indemnify and hold harmless each manager or officer of the Company against reasonable expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees), judgments, taxes, penalties, fines (including any excise tax assessed with respect to an employee benefit plan) and amounts paid in settlement (collectively "Liability"), incurred by such person in connection with defending any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding (whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, and whether formal or informal) to which such person is, or is threatened to be made, a party because such person is or was a manager or officer of the Company, or is or was serving at the request of the Company as a manager, officer, partner, member, employee or agent of another domestic or foreign corporation, partnership, limited liability company, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, including service with respect to employee benefit plans, provided that (i) the manager or officer has met the standard of conduct described in Section 12.1, and (ii) indemnification under this paragraph does not violate the provisions of Section 605.0105 A manager or officer shall be considered to be serving an employee benefit plan at the Company's request if such person's duties to the Company also impose duties on or otherwise involve services by such person to the plan or to participants in or beneficiaries of the plan. The indemnities hereunder shall survive the termination of the Company and this Agreement.

(b) At the request of the manager or officer entitled to indemnification hereunder, the Company shall pay or reimburse reasonable expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees) incurred by a manager or officer who is a party to a proceeding in advance of final disposition of such proceeding if:

(1) The manager or officer furnishes the Company a written affirmation of his good faith belief that he has met the standard of conduct described in Section 12.1;

(2) The manager or officer furnishes the Company a written undertaking, executed personally or on the manager's or officer's behalf, to repay the advance if it is ultimately determined that the manager or officer did not meet the standard of conduct or is otherwise not entitled to indemnification hereunder. Such undertaking shall be an unlimited general obligation of the manager or officer, but shall not be required to be secured and may be accepted without reference to financial ability to make repayment; and

(3) A determination is made that the facts then known to those making the determination would not preclude indemnification under the provisions of this Section 12.2.

(c) The indemnification against Liability and advancement of expenses provided by, or granted pursuant to, this Section 12.2 shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which those seeking indemnification or advancement may be, or hereafter become, entitled under any agreement, action of the Member or disinterested

managers or otherwise, both as to action in their official capacity and as to action in another capacity while holding such office of the Company, shall continue as to a person who has ceased to be a manager or officer of the Company, and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors and administrators of such a person.

Any repeal or modification of this Section 12.2 by the Member shall not adversely affect any right or protection of a manager or officer of the Company under this Section 12.2 with respect to any act or omission occurring prior to the time of such repeal or modification.

13. OTHER ACTIVITIES; RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS.

13.1 Other Activities. The managers and officers shall devote such of their time to the affairs of the Company's business as they shall deem necessary. The Member, managers, officers and their Affiliates (as hereinafter defined) may engage in, or possess an interest in, other business ventures of any nature and description, independently or with others, whether or not such activities are competitive with those of the Company. Neither the Company nor the Member shall have any rights by virtue of this Agreement in and to such independent ventures, or to the income or profits derived therefrom. The Member shall not be obligated to present any particular business opportunity of a character which, if presented to the Company, could be taken by the Company, and the Member and its Affiliates shall have the right to take for their own account, or to recommend to others, any such particular business opportunity to the exclusion of the Company. For purposes of this Agreement, the term "Affiliate" shall mean any person, corporation, partnership, limited liability company, trust or other entity (directly or indirectly) controlling, controlled by, or under common control with, another person.

13.2 Related Party Transactions. The fact that a manager, officer or their Affiliates are directly or indirectly interested in or connected with any person, firm or corporation employed by the Company to render or perform a service, or to or from whom the Company may purchase, sell or lease property, shall not prohibit the Company from employing such person, firm or corporation or from otherwise dealing with him or it, and neither the Company, nor the Member, shall have any rights in or to any income or profits derived therefrom. All such dealings with a manager or such manager's Affiliates will be on terms which are competitive and comparable with amounts charged by independent third parties.

14. MEMBERS.

14.1 Limitation on Participation in Management. Except as expressly authorized by this Agreement or as expressly required by the Act, the Member, solely by virtue of its status as the Member, shall not participate in the management or control of the Company's business, transact any business for the Company or have the power to act for or bind the Company, said powers being vested solely and exclusively in the Board and the officers.

14.2 Assignment of Member's Interest. The Member may freely sell, assign, transfer, pledge, hypothecate, encumber or otherwise dispose of the Member's Units. If the member transfers all of its Units, the transferee of such Units shall automatically become a substitute Member in the place of the Member. The Board shall amend Exhibit A from time to time to reflect transfers made in accordance with this Section 14.2.

14.3 Dissociation of Member. Upon the occurrence of any of the events set forth in Section 605.0602 of the Act with respect to the member, the successor-in-interest or personal representative of the Member shall automatically become a substitute Member in place of the Member.

14.4 Certificates for Units.

(a) Certificates representing Units shall be in such form as may be determined by the Board. Such certificates shall be signed by the President or Vice President. The signature of such officer upon such certificates may be signed manually or by facsimile. All certificates for Units shall be consecutively numbered. The name of the person owning the Units represented thereby, with the number of Units and date of issue, shall be entered on the books of the Company. All certificates surrendered to the Company for transfer shall be canceled and no new certificates shall be issued until the former certificates for a like number of Units shall have been surrendered and canceled, except that, in case of a lost, destroyed or mutilated certificate, a new certificate may be issued therefor upon such terms and indemnity to the Company as the Board may prescribe.

(b) A Unit in the Company evidenced by a certificate shall constitute a security governed by Article 8 of the Uniform Commercial Code. Each certificate evidencing membership interests in the Company shall bear the following legend: "This certificate evidences an interest in Hospital Management Associates, LLC and shall be a security for purposes of Article 8 of the Uniform Commercial Code." No change to this provision shall be effective until all outstanding certificates have been surrendered for cancellation and any new certificates thereafter issued shall not bear the foregoing legend.

15. DISSOLUTION.

15.1 Dissolution. Except as otherwise provided in the Act, the Company shall dissolve upon the decision of the Member to dissolve the Company or the sale or other disposition of all, or substantially all, of the assets of the Company and the sale and/or collection of any evidence of indebtedness received in connection therewith. Dissolution of the Company shall be effective upon the date specified in the Member's resolution or upon the sale or other disposition of all, or substantially all of the Assets of the Company and the sale and/or collection of any evidence of indebtedness received in connection therewith as applicable, but the Company shall not terminate until the assets of the Company shall have been distributed as provided in Section 15.3 and articles of dissolution are filed with the office of the Secretary of State of the State of Florida pursuant to Section 605.0707 of the Act. Notwithstanding dissolution of the Company, prior to the liquidation and termination of the Company, the Company shall continue to be governed by this Agreement.

15.2 Sale of Assets Upon Dissolution. Following the dissolution of the Company, the Company shall be wound up and the Board shall determine whether the assets of the Company are to be sold or whether some or all of such assets are to be distributed to the Member in kind in liquidation of the Company.

15.3 Distributions Upon Dissolution. Upon the dissolution of the Company, the properties of the Company to be sold shall be liquidated in orderly fashion and the proceeds thereof, and the property to be distributed in kind, shall be distributed as follows:

(a) First, to the payment and discharge of all of the Company's debts and liabilities, to the necessary expenses of liquidation and to the establishment of any cash reserves which the Member determines to create for unmatured and/or contingent liabilities or obligations of the Company.

(b) Second, to the Member.

16. GENERAL.

16.1 Amendment.

(a) Except as provided in Section 16.1(b), this Agreement may be modified or amended from time to time only upon the consent of the Member.

(b) In addition to any amendments authorized by Section 16.1(a), this Agreement may be amended from time to time by the Board without the consent of the Member to cure any ambiguity, to correct or supplement any provision hereof which may be inconsistent with any other provision hereof, or to make any other provisions with respect to matters or questions arising under this Agreement which will not be inconsistent with the provisions of this Agreement.

16.2 Captions; Section References. Section titles or captions contained in this Agreement are inserted only as a matter of convenience and reference, and in no way define, limit, extend or describe the scope of this Agreement, or the intent of any provision hereof. All references herein to Sections shall refer to Sections of this Agreement unless the context clearly requires otherwise.

Unless the context otherwise requires, when used herein, the singular shall include the plural, the plural shall include the singular, and all nouns, pronouns and any variations thereof shall be deemed to refer to the masculine, feminine or neuter, as the identity of the person or persons may require.

16.4 Severability. If any provision of this Agreement, or the application thereof to any person, entity or circumstances, shall be invalid or unenforceable to any extent, the remainder of this Agreement, and the application of such provision to other persons, entities or circumstances, shall not be affected thereby and shall be enforced to the greatest extent permitted by law.

16.5 Binding Agreement. Except as otherwise provided herein, this Agreement shall be binding upon, and inure to the benefit of, the parties hereto and their respective executors, administrators, heirs, successors and assigns.

12.02 Severability. Every provision of this Agreement is intended to be severable. If any term or provision hereof is invalid for any reason whatsoever, its invalidity will not affect the validity of the remainder of the Agreement.

12.03 Good Faith. The doing of any act or the failure to do any act by a Partner or the Partnership, the effect of which causes any loss or damage to the Partnership, will not subject such Partner or the Partnership to any liability, if done in good faith to promote the Partnership's best interests.

(b) To engage in such other lawful activities in which a limited liability company may engage under the Act as is determined by the Board from time to time.

(c) To do all other things necessary or desirable in connection with the foregoing, or otherwise contemplated in this Agreement.

3.2 Company's Power. In furtherance of the purpose of the Company as set forth in Section 3.1, the Company shall have the power to do any and all things whatsoever necessary, appropriate or advisable in connection with such purpose, or as otherwise contemplated in this Agreement.

3.3 Term. The term of the Company as a limited liability company shall commence as of the date of the filing of a Certificate of Formation with the Mississippi Secretary of State's Office, and shall continue until dissolved in accordance with Section 15.

4. CAPITAL.

4.1 Initial Capital Contribution of Member. The limited liability company interests in the Company shall be divided into units ("Units"). The total number of Units that the Company is initially authorized to issue is 100 Units. The Member has contributed the cash or other property identified on, and has been issued the number of Units listed on, Exhibit A. The Member may, but shall not be required to, make additional capital contributions to the Company from time to time.

4.2 No Liability of Member. Except as otherwise specifically provided in the Act, the Member shall not have any personal liability for the obligations of the Company. Except as provided in Section 4.1, the Member shall not be obligated to contribute funds or loan money to the Company.

4.3 No Interest on Capital Contributions. The Member shall not be entitled to interest on any capital contributions made to the Company.

5. ACCOUNTING.

5.1 Books and Records. The Company shall maintain full and accurate books of the Company at the Company's principal place of business, or such other place as the Board shall determine, showing all receipts and expenditures, assets and liabilities, net income and loss, and all other records necessary for recording the Company's business and affairs. Such books and records shall be open to the inspection and examination of the Member in person or by its duly authorized representatives at all reasonable times.

7. NET INCOME AND NET LOSS.

7.1 Net Income and Net Loss. All net income or net loss of the Company shall be for the account of the Member.

8. FEDERAL INCOME TAX ELECTIONS.

8.1 Tax Treatment. It is the intention of the Member that for Federal, state and local income tax purposes the Company be disregarded as an entity separate from the Member in accordance with the provisions of Treas. Reg. §§ 301.7701-2(c)(2)(i) and 301.7701-3(b)(1)(ii). The Member shall take all actions which may be necessary or required in order for the Company to be so disregarded for income tax purposes.

9. DISTRIBUTIONS.

9.1 Distributions. The Board shall determine, in the Board's sole discretion, the amount and timing of any distributions to the Member and whether such distributions shall be paid in cash or property.

10. BOARD OF DIRECTORS.

10.1 General Powers. All powers of the Company shall be exercised by or under the authority of, and the business and affairs of the Company managed under the direction of, its Board of Directors ("Board"). Each director shall have all of the powers, rights, duties, and responsibilities of a "manager" under the Act.

10.2 Number, Election and Term. The Board shall consist of not less than one, nor more than seven individual directors, the exact number of which shall be determined by the Member from time to time. Initially, there shall be three directors, Martin G. Schweinhart, W. Larry Cash, and Rachel A. Seifert. Except as otherwise expressly provided herein, directors shall be elected at the organizational meeting of the Member and at each annual meeting thereafter. A decrease in the number of directors shall not shorten an incumbent director's term. Each director shall hold office until such director resigns or is removed. Despite the expiration of a director's term, such director shall continue to serve until the director's successor is elected and qualifies, until there is a decrease in the number of directors or the director is removed.

10.3 Resignation of Directors. A director may resign at any time by delivering written notice to the Board, its Chairman (as hereinafter defined), if any, or the Company. A resignation shall be effective when the notice is delivered unless the notice specifies a later effective date.

10.4 Removal of Directors by Member. A director shall be removed by the Member only at a meeting called for the purpose of removing such director and the meeting notice shall state that the purpose, or one of the purposes, of the meeting is removal of the director. The Member may remove one or more directors with or without cause.

10.5 Vacancy on Board. If a vacancy occurs on the Board, including a vacancy resulting from an increase in the number of directors, the Member shall fill the vacancy. A vacancy that will occur at a specific later date may be filled before the vacancy occurs, but the new director may not take office until the vacancy occurs.

10.6 Compensation of Directors. Directors on the Board shall not be entitled to receive a fee for the director's services as a director on the Board.

10.7 Meetings. The Board may hold regular or special meetings in or out of the State of Mississippi. The Board may permit any or all directors to participate in a regular or special meeting by, or conduct the meeting through the use of, any means of communication by which all directors participating may simultaneously hear each other during the meeting. A director participating in a meeting by this means shall be deemed to be present in person at the meeting.

10.8 Special Meetings. Special meetings of the Board may be called by, or at the request of, the Chairman, if any, or the chief executive officer of the Company. All special meetings of the Board shall be held at the principal office or such other place as may be specified in the notice of the meeting.

10.9 Action Without Meeting. Any action required or permitted to be taken at a Board meeting may be taken without a meeting, without prior notice and without a vote if a consent or consents in writing, setting forth the action so taken, shall be signed by the directors having not less than the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to authorize or take such action at a meeting at which all directors entitled to vote thereon were present and voted.

10.10 Notice of Meetings. Meetings of the Board may be held without notice of the date, time, place or purpose of the meeting.

10.11 Quorum and Voting. A majority of the number of directors fixed by, or determined in accordance with, this Agreement shall constitute a quorum of the Board. If a quorum is present, an affirmative vote by a majority of the number of directors present shall constitute an act of the Board. A director who is present at a meeting of the Board or a committee of the Board when action is taken shall be deemed to have assented to the action taken unless (i) the director objects at the beginning of the meeting, or promptly upon the director's arrival, to holding the meeting or transacting business at the meeting or (ii) the director's dissent or abstention from the action taken is entered in the minutes of the meeting or the director delivers written notice of the director's dissent or abstention to the presiding officer of the meeting before its adjournment or to the Company immediately after adjournment of the meeting. The right of dissent or abstention shall not be available to a director who votes in favor of the action taken.

10.12 Chairman and Vice Chairman of the Board. The Board may appoint one of its members as Chairman of the Board ("Chairman"). The Board may also appoint one of its members as Vice Chairman of the Board, and such individual shall serve in the absence of the Chairman and perform such additional duties as may be assigned to such person by the Board.

11. OFFICERS.

11.1 Officers Generally. The Company shall have the officers appointed by the Board in accordance with this Agreement. The same individual may simultaneously hold more than one office in the Company. Section 11.10 delegates to the Secretary, if such office be created and filled, the required responsibility of preparing minutes of the Board's and the Member's meetings and for authenticating records of the Company. If such office shall not be created and filled, then the Board shall delegate to one of the officers of the Company such responsibility.

11.2 Duties of Officers. Each officer of the Company shall have the authority and shall perform the duties set forth in this Agreement for such office or, to the extent consistent with this Agreement, the duties prescribed by the Board or by direction of an officer authorized by the Board to prescribe the duties of other officers.

11.3 Appointment and Term of Office. The officers of the Company shall be appointed by the Board. Vacancies may be filled or new offices created and filled at any meeting of the Board. Each officer shall hold office until such officer's successor shall be duly appointed or until the officer's death or until the officer shall resign or shall have been removed in the manner hereinafter provided.

11.4 Resignation and Removal of Officers. An officer may resign at any time by delivering notice to the Company. A resignation shall be effective when the notice is delivered unless the notice specifies a later effective date. If a resignation is made effective at a later date and the Company accepts the future effective date, the Board may fill the pending vacancy before the effective date if the Board provides that the successor shall not take office until the effective date. The Board may remove any officer at any time with or without cause.

11.5 Contract Rights of Officers. Appointment of an officer or agent shall not of itself create contract rights. An officer's removal shall not affect the officer's contract rights, if any, with the Company. An officer's resignation shall not affect the Company's contract rights, if any, with the officer.

11.6 Chairman of the Board. The Chairman, if that office be created and filled, may, at the discretion of the Board, be the chief executive officer of the Company and, if such, shall, in general, supervise and control the affairs and business of the Company, subject to control by the Board. The Chairman shall preside at all meetings of the Member and the Board.

11.7 President. The President, if that office be created and filled, shall be the chief executive officer of the Company, unless a Chairman is appointed and designated chief executive officer pursuant to Section 11.6. If no Chairman has been appointed or, in the absence of the Chairman, the President shall preside at all meetings of the Member. The President may sign certificates for Units, any deeds, mortgages, bonds, contracts or other instruments which the Board has authorized to be executed, except in cases where the signing and execution thereof shall be expressly delegated by the Board or by this Agreement to some other officer or agent of the Company, or shall be required by law to be otherwise signed or executed. The President shall, in general, perform all duties incident to the office of President of a Mississippi corporation and such other duties as may be prescribed by the Board or the Chairman from time to time. Unless otherwise ordered by the Board, the President shall have full power and authority on behalf of the Company to attend, act and vote in person or by proxy at any meetings of shareholders of any corporation in which the Company may hold stock, and at any such meeting shall hold and may exercise all rights incident to the ownership of such stock which the Company, as owner, would have had and could have exercised if present. The Board may confer like powers on any other person or persons.

11.8 Vice President. In the absence of the President, or in the event of the President's death, inability or refusal to act, the Vice President (or, in the event there be more than one Vice President, the Vice Presidents in order designated at the time of their appointment, or in the absence of any designation, then in the order of their appointment), if that office be created and filled, shall perform the duties of the President and when so acting shall have all the powers of, and be subject to all the restrictions upon, the President. Any Vice President may sign certificates for Units and shall perform such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to such person by the Chairman, the President or by the Board.

11.9 Treasurer. The Treasurer, if that office be created and filled, shall have charge and custody of, and be responsible for, all funds and securities of the Company, receive and give receipts for monies due and payable to the Company from any source whatsoever, and deposit all such monies in the name of the Company in such banks, trust companies and other depositories as shall be selected in accordance with the provisions of Section 6.1, and in general, perform all the duties incident to the office of Treasurer of a Mississippi corporation and such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to such person by the Chairman, the President or the Board. If required by the Board, the Treasurer shall give a bond for the faithful discharge of such officer's duties in such sum and with such surety or sureties as the Board shall determine.

11.10 Secretary. The Secretary, if that office be created and filled, shall keep the minutes of the Member's meetings and of the Board's meetings in one or more books provided for that purpose, see that all notices are duly given in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement or as required by law, be custodian of the Company records and of the seal, if any, of the Company, be responsible for authenticating records of the Company, keep a register of the mailing address of the Member, which shall be furnished to the Secretary by the Member, have general charge of the transfer books of the Company, and, in general, perform all duties incident to the office of Secretary of a Mississippi corporation and such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to such person by the Chairman, the President or the Board.

11.11 Assistant Treasurers and Assistant Secretaries.

(a) Assistant Treasurer. The Assistant Treasurer, if that office be created and filled, shall, if required by the Board, give bond for the faithful discharge of such officer's duty in such sum and with such surety as the Board shall determine.

(b) Assistant Secretary. The Assistant Secretary, if that office be created and filled, and if authorized by the Board, may sign, with the President or Vice President, certificates for Units.

(c) Additional Duties. The Assistant Treasurers and Assistant Secretaries, in general, shall perform such additional duties as shall be assigned to them by the Treasurer or the Secretary, respectively, or by the Chairman, the President or the Board.

12. STANDARD OF CARE OF DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS; INDEMNIFICATION.

under similar circumstances and in a manner reasonably believed by them to be in the best interests of the Company. To the extent that, at law or in equity, a director or officer of the Company has duties (including fiduciary duties) and liabilities relating thereto to the Company, the Member or any other person, such director or officer acting under this Agreement shall not be liable to the Company the Member or any other person for breach of fiduciary duty for its good faith reliance on the provisions of this Agreement, and the provisions of this Agreement , to the extent that they restrict or eliminate the duties (including fiduciary duties) and liabilities relating thereto of a director or officer otherwise existing at law or in equity, are agreed by the Member and the Company to replace such other duties and liabilities of such director or officer.

12.2 Indemnification.

(a) The Company shall indemnify and hold harmless each director or officer of the Company against reasonable expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees), judgments, taxes, penalties, fines (including any excise tax assessed with respect to an employee benefit plan) and amounts paid in settlement (collectively "Liability"), incurred by such person in connection with defending any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding (whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, and whether formal or informal) to which such person is, or is threatened to be made, a party because such person is or was a director or officer of the Company, or is or was serving at the request of the Company as a director, officer, partner, member, employee or agent of another domestic or foreign corporation, partnership, limited liability company, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, including service with respect to employee benefit plans, provided that the director or officer has met the standard of conduct described in Section 12.1. A director or officer shall be considered to be serving an employee benefit plan at the Company's request if such person's duties to the Company also impose duties on or otherwise involve services by such person to the plan or to participants in or beneficiaries of the plan. The indemnities hereunder shall survive the termination of the Company and this Agreement.

(b) At the request of the director or officer entitled to indemnification hereunder, the Company shall pay or reimburse reasonable expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees) incurred by a director or officer who is a party to a proceeding in advance of final disposition of such proceeding if:

(2) The director or officer furnishes the Company a written undertaking, executed personally or on the director's or officer's behalf, to repay the advance if it is ultimately determined that the director or officer did not meet the standard of conduct or is otherwise not entitled to indemnification hereunder. Such undertaking shall be an unlimited general obligation of the director or officer, but shall not be required to be secured and may be accepted without reference to financial ability to make repayment; and

(c) The indemnification against Liability and advancement of expenses provided by, or granted pursuant to, this Section 12.2 shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which those seeking indemnification or advancement may be, or hereafter become, entitled under any agreement, action of the Member or disinterested directors or otherwise, both as to action in their official capacity and as to action in another capacity while holding such office of the Company, shall continue as to a person who has ceased to be a director or officer of the Company, and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors and administrators of such a person.

Any repeal or modification of this Section 12.2 by the Member shall not adversely affect any right or protection of a director or officer of the Company under this Section 12.2 with respect to any act or omission occurring prior to the time of such repeal or modification.

13. OTHER ACTIVITIES; RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS.

13.1 Other Activities. The directors and officers shall devote such of their time to the affairs of the Company's business as they shall deem necessary. The Member, directors, officers and their Affiliates (as hereinafter defined) may engage in, or possess an interest in, other business ventures of any nature and description, independently or with others, whether or not such activities are competitive with those of the Company. Neither the Company nor the Member shall have any rights by virtue of this Agreement in and to such independent ventures, or to the income or profits derived therefrom. The Member shall not be obligated to present any particular business opportunity of a character which, if presented to the Company, could be taken by the Company, and the Member and its Affiliates shall have the right to take for their own account, or to recommend to others, any such particular business opportunity to the exclusion of the Company. For purposes of this Agreement, the term "Affiliate" shall mean any person, corporation, partnership, limited liability company, trust or other entity (directly or indirectly) controlling, controlled by, or under common control with, another person.

13.2 Related Party Transactions. The fact that a director, officer or their Affiliates are directly or indirectly interested in or connected with any person, firm or corporation employed by the Company to render or perform a service, or to or from whom the Company may purchase, sell or lease property, shall not prohibit the Company from employing such person, firm or corporation or from otherwise dealing with him or it, and neither the Company, nor the Member, shall have any rights in or to any income or profits derived therefrom. All such dealings with a director or such director's Affiliates will be on terms which are competitive and comparable with amounts charged by independent third parties.

14. MEMBERS.

14.1 Limitation on Participation in Management. Except as expressly authorized by this Agreement or as expressly required by the Act, the Member, solely by virtue of its status as the Member, shall not participate in the management or control of the Company's business, transact any business for the Company or have the power to act for or bind the Company, said powers being vested solely and exclusively in the Board and the officers.

14.2 Assignment of Member's Interest. The Member may freely sell, assign, transfer, pledge, hypothecate, encumber or otherwise dispose of the Member's Units. If the member transfers all of its Units, the transferee of such Units shall automatically become a substitute Member in the place of the Member. The Board shall amend Exhibit A from time to time to reflect transfers made in accordance with this Section 14.2.

14.3 Bankruptcy, Dissolution, Etc. of Member. Upon the occurrence of any of the events set forth in Sections 79-29-313(3) or 79-29-709 of the Act with respect to the member, the successor-in-interest or personal representative of the Member shall automatically become a substitute Member in place of the Member.

14.4 Certificates for Units.

(a) Certificates representing Units shall be in such form as may be determined by the Board. Such certificates shall be signed by the President or Vice President. The signature of such officer upon such certificates may be signed manually or by facsimile. All certificates for Units shall be consecutively numbered. The name of the person owning the Units represented thereby, with the number of Units and date of issue, shall be entered on the books of the Company. All certificates surrendered to the Company for transfer shall be canceled and no new certificates shall be issued until the former certificates for a like number of Units shall have been surrendered and canceled, except that, in case of a lost, destroyed or mutilated certificate, a new certificate may be issued therefor upon such terms and indemnity to the Company as the Board may prescribe.

(b) A Unit in the Company evidenced by a certificate shall constitute a security governed by Article 8 of the Uniform Commercial Code. Each certificate evidencing membership interests in the Company shall bear the following legend: "This certificate evidences an interest in Jackson HMA, LLC and shall be a security or purposes of Article 8 of the Uniform Commercial Code." No change to this provision shall be effective until all outstanding certificates have been surrendered for cancellation and any new certificates thereafter issued shall not bear the foregoing legend.

15. DISSOLUTION.

15.1 Dissolution. Except as otherwise provided in the Act, the Company shall dissolve upon the decision of the Member to dissolve the Company or the sale or other disposition of all, or substantially all, of the assets of the Company and the sale and/or collection of any evidence of indebtedness received in connection therewith. Dissolution of the Company shall be effective upon the date specified in the Member's resolution or upon the sale or other disposition of all, or substantially all of the Assets of the Company and the sale and/or collection of any evidence of indebtedness received in connection therewith as applicable, but the Company shall not terminate until the assets of the Company shall have been distributed as provided in Section 15.3 and a certificate of dissolution of the certificate of formation of the Company is filed with the office of the Secretary of State of the State of Mississippi pursuant to Section 79-29-205 of the Act. Notwithstanding dissolution of the Company, prior to the liquidation and termination of the Company, the Company shall continue to be governed by this Agreement.

15.2 Sale of Assets Upon Dissolution. Following the dissolution of the Company, the Company shall be wound up and the Board shall determine whether the assets of the Company are to be sold or whether some or all of such assets are to be distributed to the Member in kind in liquidation of the Company.

15.3 Distributions Upon Dissolution. Upon the dissolution of the Company, the properties of the Company to be sold shall be liquidated in orderly fashion and the proceeds thereof, and the property to be distributed in kind, shall be distributed as follows:

(a) First, to the payment and discharge of all of the Company's debts and liabilities, to the necessary expenses of liquidation and to the establishment of any cash reserves which the Member determines to create for unmatured and/or contingent liabilities or obligations of the Company.

(b) Second, to the Member.

16. GENERAL.

16.1* Amendment.

(a) Except as provided in Section 16.1(b), this Agreement may be modified or amended from time to time only upon the consent of the Member.

(b) In addition to any amendments authorized by Section 16.1(a), this Agreement may be amended from time to time by the Board without the consent of the Member to cure any ambiguity, to correct or supplement any provision hereof which may be inconsistent with any other provision hereof, or to make any other provisions with respect to matters or questions arising under this Agreement which will not be inconsistent with the provisions of this Agreement.

16.2 Captions; Section References. Section titles or captions contained in this Agreement are inserted only as a matter of convenience and reference, and in no way define, limit, extend or describe the scope of this Agreement, or the intent of any provision hereof. All references herein to Sections shall refer to Sections of this Agreement unless the context clearly requires otherwise.

Unless the context otherwise requires, when used herein, the singular shall include the plural, the plural shall include the singular, and all nouns, pronouns and any variations thereof shall be deemed to refer to the masculine, feminine or neuter, as the identity of the person or persons may require.

16.4 Severability. If any provision of this Agreement, or the application thereof to any person, entity or circumstances, shall be invalid or unenforceable to any extent, the remainder of this Agreement, and the application of such provision to other persons, entities or circumstances, shall not be affected thereby and shall be enforced to the greatest extent permitted by law.

16.5 Binding Agreement. Except as otherwise provided herein, this Agreement shall be binding upon, and inure to the benefit of, the parties hereto and their respective executors, administrators, heirs, successors and assigns.

16.6 Applicable Law. This Agreement shall be governed by, and construed in accordance with, the laws of the State of Mississippi without regard to its conflict of laws rules.

16.7 Entire Agreement. This Agreement contains the entire agreement with respect to the subject matter hereof.

The Member has contributed the cash or other property identified on, and has been issued the number of Units listed on, Exhibit A. The Member may, but shall not be required to, make additional capital contributions to the Company from time to time.

4.2 No Liability of Member. Except as otherwise specifically provided in the Act, the Member shall not have any personal liability for the obligations of the Company. Except as provided in Section 4.l, the Member shall not be obligated to contribute funds or loan money to the Company.

4.3 No Interest on Capital Contributions. The Member shall not be entitled to interest on any capital contributions made to the Company.

5. ACCOUNTING.

5.1 Books and Records. The Company shall maintain full and accurate books of the Company at the Company's principal place of business, or such other place as the Board shall determine, showing all receipts and expenditures, assets and liabilities, net income and loss, and all other records necessary for recording the Company's business and affairs. Such books and records shall be open to the inspection and examination of the Member in person or by its duly authorized representatives at all reasonable times.

5.2 Fiscal Year. The fiscal year of the Company shall be the calendar year.

6. BANK ACCOUNTS.

6.1 Bank Accounts. All funds of the Company shall be deposited in its name into such checking, savings and/or money market accounts or time certificates as shall be designated by the Board. Withdrawals therefrom shall be made upon such signature or signatures as the Board may designate. The Board shall be entitled to make withdrawals from such accounts to invest such funds in connection with the cash management system employed by CHS/Community Health Systems, Inc. on behalf of its affiliated hospitals and health care facilities.

7. NET INCOME AND NET LOSS.

7.1 Net Income and Net Loss. All net income or net loss of the Company shall be for the account of the Member.

8. FEDERAL INCOME TAX ELECTIONS.

8.1 Tax Treatment. It is the intention of the Member that for Federal, state and local income tax purposes the Company be disregarded as an entity separate from the Member in accordance with the provisions of Treas. Reg. §§ 301.7701-2(c)(2)(i) and 301.7701-3(b)(1)(ii). The Member shall take all actions which may be necessary or required in order for the Company to be so disregarded for income tax purposes.

9. DISTRIBUTIONS.

9.1 Distributions. The Board shall determine, in the Board's sole discretion, the amount and timing of any distributions to the Member and whether such distributions shall be paid in cash or property.

10. BOARD OF DIRECTORS.

10.1 General Powers. All powers of the Company shall be exercised by or under the authority of, and the business and affairs of the Company managed under the direction of, its Board of Directors ("Board"). Each director shall have all of the powers, rights, duties, and responsibilities of a "manager" under the Act.

10.2 Number, Election and Term. The Board shall consist of not less than one, nor more than seven individual directors, the exact number of which shall be determined by the Board from time to time. Initially, there shall be three directors, Martin G. Schweinhart, W. Larry Cash, and Rachel A. Seifert. Except as otherwise expressly provided herein, directors shall be elected at the organizational meeting of the Member and at each annual meeting thereafter. A decrease in the number of directors shall not shorten an incumbent director's term. Each director shall hold office until such director resigns or is removed. Despite the expiration of a director's term, such director shall continue to serve until the director's successor is elected and qualifies, until there is a decrease in the number of directors or the director is removed.

10.3 Resignation of Directors. A director may resign at any time by delivering written notice to the Board, its Chairman (as hereinafter defined), if any, or the Company. A resignation shall be effective when the notice is delivered unless the notice specifies a later effective date.

10.4 Removal of Directors by Member. A director shall be removed by the Member only at a meeting called for the purpose of removing such director and the meeting notice shall state that the purpose, or one of the purposes, of the meeting is removal of the director. The Member may remove one or more directors with or without cause.

10.5 Vacancy on Board. If a vacancy occurs on the Board, including a vacancy resulting from an increase in the number of directors, the Member shall fill the vacancy. A vacancy that will occur at a specific later date may be filled before the vacancy occurs, but the new director may not take office until the vacancy occurs.

10.6 Compensation of Directors. Directors on the Board shall not be entitled to receive a fee for the director's services as a director on the Board.

10.7 Meetings. The Board may hold regular or special meetings in or out of the State of Tennessee. The Board may permit any or all directors to participate in a regular or special meeting by, or conduct the meeting through the use of, any means of communication by which all directors participating may simultaneously hear each other during the meeting. A director participating in a meeting by this means shall be deemed to be present in person at the meeting.

10.8 Special Meetings. Special meetings of the Board may be called by, or at the request of, the Chairman, if any, or the chief executive officer of the Company. All special meetings of the Board shall be held at the principal office or such other place as may be specified in the notice of the meeting.

10.9 Action Without Meeting. Any action required or permitted to be taken at a Board meeting may be taken without a meeting, without prior notice and without a vote if a consent or consents in writing, setting forth the action so taken, shall be signed by the directors having not less than the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to authorize or take such action at a meeting at which all directors entitled to vote thereon were present and voted.

10.10 Notice of Meetings. Meetings of the Board may be held without notice of the date, time, place or purpose of the meeting.

10.11 Quorum and Voting. A majority of the number of directors fixed by, or determined in accordance with, this Agreement shall constitute a quorum of the Board. If a quorum is present, an affirmative vote by a majority of the number of directors present shall constitute an act of the Board. A director who is present at a meeting of the Board or a committee of the Board when action is taken shall be deemed to have assented to the action taken unless (i) the director objects at the beginning of the meeting, or promptly upon the director's arrival, to holding the meeting or transacting business at the meeting or (ii) the director's dissent or abstention from the action taken is entered in the minutes of the meeting or the director delivers written notice of the director's dissent or abstention to the presiding officer of the meeting before its adjournment or to the Company immediately after adjournment of the meeting. The right of dissent or abstention shall not be available to a director who votes in favor of the action taken.

10.12 Chairman and Vice Chairman of the Board. The Board may appoint one of its members as Chairman of the Board ("Chairman"). The Board may also appoint one of its members as Vice Chairman of the Board, and such individual shall serve in the absence of the Chairman and perform such additional duties as may be assigned to such person by the Board.

11. OFFICERS.

11.1 Officers Generally. The Company shall have the officers appointed by the Board in accordance with this Agreement. The same individual may simultaneously hold more than one office in the Company. Section 11.10 delegates to the Secretary, if such office be created and filled, the required responsibility of preparing minutes of the Board's and the Member's meetings and for authenticating records of the Company. If such office shall not be created and filled, then the Board shall delegate to one of the officers of the Company such responsibility.

11.2 Duties of Officers. Each officer of the Company shall have the authority and shall perform the duties set forth in this Agreement for such office or, to the extent consistent with this Agreement, the duties prescribed by the Board or by direction of an officer authorized by the Board to prescribe the duties of other officers.

11.3 Appointment and Term of Office. The officers of the Company shall be appointed by the Board. Vacancies may be filled or new offices created and filled at any meeting of the Board. Each officer shall hold office until such officer's successor shall be duly appointed or until the officer's death or until the officer shall resign or shall have been removed in the manner hereinafter provided.

11.4 Resignation and Removal of Officers. An officer may resign at any time by delivering notice to the Company. A resignation shall be effective when the notice is delivered unless the notice specifies a later effective date. If a resignation is made effective at a later date and the Company accepts the future effective date, the Board may fill the pending vacancy before the effective date if the Board provides that the successor shall not take office until the effective date. The Board may remove any officer at any time with or without cause.

11.5 Contract Rights of Officers. Appointment of an officer or agent shall not of itself create contract rights. An officer's removal shall not affect the officer's contract rights, if any, with the Company. An officer's resignation shall not affect the Company's contract rights, if any, with the officer.

11.6 Chairman of the Board. The Chairman, if that office be created and filled, may, at the discretion of the Board, be the chief executive officer of the Company and, if such, shall, in general, supervise and control the affairs and business of the Company, subject to control by the Board. The Chairman shall preside at all meetings of the Member and the Board.

11.7 President. The President, if that office be created and filled, shall be the chief executive officer of the Company, unless a Chairman is appointed and designated chief executive officer pursuant to Section 11.6. If no Chairman has been appointed or, in the absence of the Chairman, the President shall preside at all meetings of the Member. The President may sign certificates for Units, any deeds, mortgages, bonds, contracts or other instruments which the Board has authorized to be executed, except in cases where the signing and execution thereof shall be expressly delegated by the Board or by this Agreement to some other officer or agent of the Company, or shall be required by law to be otherwise signed or executed. The President shall, in general, perform all duties incident to the office of President of a Tennessee corporation and such other duties as may be prescribed by the Board or the Chairman from time to time. Unless otherwise ordered by the Board, the President shall have full power and authority on behalf of the Company to attend, act and vote in person or by proxy at any meetings of shareholders of any corporation in which the Company may hold stock, and at any such meeting shall hold and may exercise all rights incident to the ownership of such stock which the Company, as owner, would have had and could have exercised if present. The Board may confer like powers on any other person or persons.

11.8 Vice President. In the absence of the President, or in the event of the President's death, inability or refusal to act, the Vice President (or, in the event there be more than one Vice President, the Vice Presidents in order designated at the time of their appointment, or in the absence of any designation, then in the order of their appointment), if that office be created and filled, shall perform the duties of the President and when so acting shall have all the powers of, and be subject to all the restrictions upon, the President. Any Vice President may sign certificates for Units and shall perform such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to such person by the Chairman, the President or by the Board.

11.9 Treasurer. The Treasurer, if that office be created and filled, shall have charge and custody of, and be responsible for, all funds and securities of the Company, receive and give receipts for monies due and payable to the Company from any source whatsoever, and deposit all such monies in the name of the Company in such banks, trust companies and other depositories as shall be selected in accordance with the provisions of Section 6.1, and in general, perform all the duties incident to the office of Treasurer of a Tennessee corporation and such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to such person by the Chairman, the President or the Board. If required by the Board, the Treasurer shall give a bond for the faithful discharge of such officer's duties in such sum and with such surety or sureties as the Board shall determine.

11.10 Secretary. The Secretary, if that office be created and filled, shall keep the minutes of the Member's meetings and of the Board's meetings in one or more books provided for that purpose, see that all notices are duly given in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement or as required by law, be custodian of the Company records and of the seal, if any, of the Company, be responsible for authenticating records of the Company, keep a register of the mailing address of the Member, which shall be furnished to the Secretary by the Member, have general charge of the transfer books of the Company, and, in general, perform all duties incident to the office of Secretary of a Tennessee corporation and such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to such person by the Chairman, the President or the Board.

11.11 Assistant Treasurers and Assistant Secretaries.

(a) Assistant Treasurer. The Assistant Treasurer, if that office be created and filled, shall, if required by the Board, give bond for the faithful discharge of such officer's duty in such sum and with such surety as the Board shall determine.

(b) Assistant Secretary. The Assistant Secretary, if that office be created and filled, and if authorized by the Board, may sign, with the President or Vice President, certificates for Units.

(c) Additional Duties. The Assistant Treasurers and Assistant Secretaries, in general, shall perform such additional duties as shall be assigned to them by the Treasurer or the Secretary, respectively, or by the Chairman, the President or the Board.

12. STANDARD OF CARE OF DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS; INDEMNIFICATION.

circumstances and, in a manner reasonably believed by them to be in the best interests of the Company, and, with respect to any criminal proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe their conduct was unlawful. To the extent that, at law or in equity, a director or officer of the Company has duties (including fiduciary duties) and liabilities relating thereto to the Company, the Member or any other person, such director or officer acting under this Agreement shall not be liable to the Company, the Member or any other person for breach of fiduciary duty for its good faith reliance on the provisions of this Agreement, and the provisions of this Agreement , to the extent that they restrict or eliminate the duties (including fiduciary duties) and liabilities relating thereto of a director or officer otherwise existing at law or in equity, are agreed by the Member and the Company to replace such other duties and liabilities of such director or officer.

12.2 Indemnification.

(a) The Company shall indemnify and hold harmless each director or officer of the Company against reasonable expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees), judgments, taxes, penalties, fines (including any excise tax assessed with respect to an employee benefit plan) and amounts paid in settlement (collectively "Liability"), incurred by such person in connection with defending any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding (whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, and whether formal or informal) to which such person is, or is threatened to be made, a party because such person is or was a director or officer of the Company, or is or was serving at the request of the Company as a director, officer, partner, member, employee or agent of another domestic or foreign corporation, partnership, limited liability company, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, including service with respect to employee benefit plans, provided that the director or officer has met the standard of conduct described in Section 12.1. A director or officer shall be considered to be serving an employee benefit plan at the Company's request if such person's duties to the Company also impose duties on or otherwise involve services by such person to the plan or to participants in or beneficiaries of the plan. The indemnities hereunder shall survive the termination of the Company and this Agreement.

(b) At the request of the director or officer entitled to indemnification hereunder, the Company shall pay or reimburse reasonable expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees) incurred by a director or officer who is a party to a proceeding in advance of final disposition of such proceeding if:

(2) The director or officer furnishes the Company a written undertaking, executed personally or on the director's or officer's behalf, to repay the advance if it is ultimately determined that the director or officer did not meet the standard of conduct or is otherwise not entitled to indemnification hereunder. Such undertaking shall be an unlimited general obligation of the director or officer, but shall not be required to be secured and may be accepted without reference to financial ability to make repayment; and

(c) The indemnification against Liability and advancement of expenses provided by, or granted pursuant to, this Section 12.2 shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which those seeking indemnification or advancement may be, or hereafter become, entitled under any agreement, action of the Member or disinterested directors or otherwise, both as to action in their official capacity and as to action in another capacity while holding such office of the Company, shall continue as to a person who has ceased to be a director or officer of the Company, and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors and administrators of such a person.

Any repeal or modification of this Section 12.2 by the Member shall not adversely affect any right or protection of a director or officer of the Company under this Section 12.2 with respect to any act or omission occurring prior to the time of such repeal or modification.

13. OTHER ACTIVITIES; RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS.

13.1 Other Activities. The directors and officers shall devote such of their time to the affairs of the Company's business as they shall deem necessary. The Member, directors, officers and their Affiliates (as hereinafter defined) may engage in, or possess an interest in, other business ventures of any nature and description, independently or with others, whether or not such activities are competitive with those of the Company. Neither the Company nor the Member shall have any rights by virtue of this Agreement in and to such independent ventures, or to the income or profits derived therefrom. The Member shall not be obligated to present any particular business opportunity of a character which, if presented to the Company, could be taken by the Company, and the Member and its Affiliates shall have the right to take for their own account, or to recommend to others, any such particular business opportunity to the exclusion of the Company. For purposes of this Agreement, the term "Affiliate" shall mean any person, corporation, partnership, limited liability company, trust or other entity (directly or indirectly) controlling, controlled by, or under common control with, another person.

13.2 Related Party Transactions. The fact that a director, officer or their Affiliates are directly or indirectly interested in or connected with any person, firm or corporation employed by the Company to render or perform a service, or to or from whom the Company may purchase, sell or lease property, shall not prohibit the Company from employing such person, firm or corporation or from otherwise dealing with him or it, and neither the Company, nor the Member, shall have any rights in or to any income or profits derived therefrom. All such dealings with a director or such director's Affiliates will be on terms which are competitive and comparable with amounts charged by independent third parties.

14. MEMBERS.

14.1 Limitation on Participation in Management. Except as expressly authorized by this Agreement or as expressly required by the Act, the Member, solely by virtue of its status as the Member, shall not participate in the management or control of the Company's business, transact any business for the Company or have the power to act for or bind the Company, said powers being vested solely and exclusively in the Board and the officers.

14.2 Assignment of Member's Interest. The Member may freely sell, assign, transfer, pledge, hypothecate, encumber or otherwise dispose of the Member's Units. If the member transfers all of its Units, the transferee of such Units shall automatically become a substitute Member in the place of the Member. The Board shall amend Exhibit A from time to time to reflect transfers made in accordance with this Section 14.2.

14.3 Bankruptcy, Dissolution, Etc. of Member. Upon the occurrence of any of the events set forth in Sections 48-249-503(a)(7) – (a)(12) of the Act with respect to the member, the successor-in-interest or personal representative of the Member shall automatically become a substitute Member in place of the Member.

14.4 Certificates for Units.

(a) Certificates representing Units shall be in such form as may be determined by the Board. Such certificates shall be signed by the President or Vice President. The signature of such officer upon such certificates may be signed manually or by facsimile. All certificates for Units shall be consecutively numbered. The name of the person owning the Units represented thereby, with the number of Units and date of issue, shall be entered on the books of the Company. All certificates surrendered to the Company for transfer shall be canceled and no new certificates shall be issued until the former certificates for a like number of Units shall have been surrendered and canceled, except that, in case of a lost, destroyed or mutilated certificate, a new certificate may be issued therefor upon such terms and indemnity to the Company as the Board may prescribe.

(b) A Unit in the Company evidenced by a certificate shall constitute a security governed by Article 8 of the Uniform Commercial Code. Each certificate evidencing membership interests in the Company shall bear the following legend: "This certificate evidences an interest in Jefferson County HMA, LLC and shall be a security for purposes of Article 8 of the Uniform Commercial Code." No change to this provision shall be effective until all outstanding certificates have been surrendered for cancellation and any new certificates thereafter issued shall not bear the foregoing legend.

15. DISSOLUTION.

15.1 Dissolution. Except as otherwise provided in the Act, the Company shall dissolve upon the decision of the Member to dissolve the Company or the sale or other disposition of all, or substantially all, of the assets of the Company and the sale and/or collection of any evidence of indebtedness received in connection therewith. Dissolution of the Company shall be effective upon the date specified in the Member's resolution or upon the sale or other disposition of all, or substantially all of the Assets of the Company and the sale and/or collection of any evidence of indebtedness received in connection therewith as applicable, but the Company shall not terminate until the assets of the Company shall have been distributed as provided in Section 15.3 and articles of termination of the articles of organization of the Company are filed with the office of the Secretary of State of the State of Tennessee pursuant to Section 48-249-612 of the Act. Notwithstanding dissolution of the Company, prior to the liquidation and termination of the Company, the Company shall continue to be governed by this Agreement.

15.2 Sale of Assets Upon Dissolution. Following the dissolution of the Company, the Company shall be wound up and the Board shall determine whether the assets of the Company are to be sold or whether some or all of such assets are to be distributed to the Member in kind in liquidation of the Company.

15.3 Distributions Upon Dissolution. Upon the dissolution of the Company, the properties of the Company to be sold shall be liquidated in orderly fashion and the proceeds thereof, and the property to be distributed in kind, shall be distributed as follows:

(a) First, to the payment and discharge of all of the Company's debts and liabilities, to the necessary expenses of liquidation and to the establishment of any cash reserves which the Member determines to create for unmatured and/or contingent liabilities or obligations of the Company.

(b) Second, to the Member.

16. GENERAL.

16.1 Amendment.

(a) Except as provided in Section 16.1(b), this Agreement may be modified or amended from time to time only upon the consent of the Member.

(b) In addition to any amendments authorized by Section 16.1(a), this Agreement may be amended from time to time by the Board without the consent of the Member to cure any ambiguity, to correct or supplement any provision hereof which may be inconsistent with any other provision hereof, or to make any other provisions with respect to matters or questions arising under this Agreement which will not be inconsistent with the provisions of this Agreement.

16.2 Captions; Section References. Section titles or captions contained in this Agreement are inserted only as a matter of convenience and reference, and in no way define, limit, extend or describe the scope of this Agreement, or the intent of any provision hereof. All references herein to Sections shall refer to Sections of this Agreement unless the context clearly requires otherwise.

16.3 Number and Gender. Unless the context otherwise requires, when used herein, the singular shall include the plural, the plural shall include the singular, and all nouns, pronouns and any variations thereof shall be deemed to refer to the masculine, feminine or neuter, as the identity of the person or persons may require.

16.4 Severability. If any provision of this Agreement, or the application thereof to any person, entity or circumstances, shall be invalid or unenforceable to any extent, the remainder of this Agreement, and the application of such provision to other persons, entities or circumstances, shall not be affected thereby and shall be enforced to the greatest extent permitted by law.

16.5 Binding Agreement. Except as otherwise provided herein, this Agreement shall be binding upon, and inure to the benefit of, the parties hereto and their respective executors, administrators, heirs, successors and assigns.

16.6 Applicable Law. This Agreement shall be governed by, and construed in accordance with, the laws of the State of Tennessee without regard to its conflict of laws rules.

16.7 Entire Agreement. This Agreement contains the entire agreement with respect to the subject matter hereof.

8. FEDERAL INCOME TAX ELECTIONS.

8.1 Tax Treatment. It is the intention of the Member that for Federal, state and local income tax purposes the Company be disregarded as an entity separate from the Member in accordance with the provisions of Treas. Reg. §§ 301.7701-2(c)(2)(i) and 301.7701-3(b)(1)(ii). The Member shall take all actions which may be necessary or required in order for the Company to be so disregarded for income tax purposes.

9. DISTRIBUTIONS.

9.1 Distributions. The Board shall determine, in the Board's sole discretion, the amount and timing of any distributions to the Member and whether such distributions shall be paid in cash or property.

10. BOARD OF DIRECTORS.

10.1 General Powers. All powers of the Company shall be exercised by or under the authority of, and the business and affairs of the Company managed under the direction of, its Board of Directors ("Board"). Any reference to a "director" of the Company in this Agreement shall be deemed to be the equivalent of a "manager" as that term is used under the Act.

10.2 Number, Election and Term. The Board shall consist of not less than one, nor more than seven individual directors, the exact number of which shall be determined by the Board from time to time. Initially, there shall be three directors, Martin G. Schweinhart, W. Larry Cash, and Rachel A. Seifert. Except as otherwise expressly provided herein, directors shall be elected at the organizational meeting of the Member and at each annual meeting thereafter. A decrease in the number of directors shall not shorten an incumbent director's term. Each director shall hold office until such director resigns or is removed. Despite the expiration of a director's term, such director shall continue to serve until the director's successor is elected and qualifies, until there is a decrease in the number of directors or the director is removed.

10.3 Resignation of Directors. A director may resign at any time by delivering written notice to the Board, its Chairman (as hereinafter defined), if any, or the Company. A resignation shall be effective when the notice is delivered unless the notice specifies a later effective date.

10.4 Removal of Directors by Member. A director shall be removed by the Member only at a meeting called for the purpose of removing such director and the meeting notice shall state that the purpose, or one of the purposes, of the meeting is removal of the director. The Member may remove one or more directors with or without cause.

10.5 Vacancy on Board. If a vacancy occurs on the Board, including a vacancy resulting from an increase in the number of directors, the Board shall fill the vacancy, and if the directors remaining in office constitute fewer than a quorum of the Board, they may fill the vacancy by the affirmative vote of a majority of all the directors remaining in office. A vacancy that will occur at a specific later date may be filled before the vacancy occurs, but the new director may not take office until the vacancy occurs.

10.6 Compensation of Directors. Directors on the Board shall not be entitled to receive a fee for the director's services as a director on the Board.

10.7 Meetings. The Board may hold regular or special meetings in or out of the State of Missouri. The Board may permit any or all directors to participate in a regular or special meeting by, or conduct the meeting through the use of, any means of communication by which all directors participating may simultaneously hear each other during the meeting. A director participating in a meeting by this means shall be deemed to be present in person at the meeting.

10.8 Special Meetings. Special meetings of the Board may be called by, or at the request of, the Chairman, if any, or the chief executive officer of the Company. All special meetings of the Board shall be held at the principal office or such other place as may be specified in the notice of the meeting.

10.9 Action Without Meeting. Any action required or permitted to be taken at a Board meeting may be taken without a meeting, without prior notice and without a vote if a consent or consents in writing, setting forth the action so taken, shall be signed by the directors having not less than the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to authorize or take such action at a meeting at which all directors entitled to vote thereon were present and voted.

10.10 Notice of Meetings. Meetings of the Board may be held without notice of the date, time, place or purpose of the meeting.

10.11 Quorum and Voting. A majority of the number of directors fixed by, or determined in accordance with, this Agreement shall constitute a quorum of the Board. If a quorum is present, an affirmative vote by a majority of the number of directors present shall constitute an act of the Board. A director who is present at a meeting of the Board or a committee of the Board when action is taken shall be deemed to have assented to the action taken unless (i) the director objects at the beginning of the meeting, or promptly upon the director' s arrival, to holding the meeting or transacting business at the meeting or (ii) the director's dissent or abstention from the action taken is entered in the minutes of the meeting or the director delivers written notice of the director's dissent or abstention to the presiding officer of the meeting before its adjournment or to the Company immediately after adjournment of the meeting. The right of dissent or abstention shall not be available to a director who votes in favor of the action taken.

10.12 Chairman and Vice Chairman of the Board. The Board may appoint one of its members as Chairman of the Board ("Chairman"). The Board may also appoint one of its members as Vice Chairman of the Board, and such individual shall serve in the absence of the Chairman and perform such additional duties as may be assigned to such person by the Board.

11. OFFICERS.

11.1 Officers Generally. The Company shall have the officers appointed by the Board in accordance with this Agreement. The same individual may simultaneously hold more than one office in the Company. Section 11.10 delegates to the Secretary, if such office be created and filled, the required responsibility of preparing minutes of the Board's and the Member's meetings and for authenticating records of the Company. If such office shall not be created and filled, then the Board shall delegate to one of the officers of the Company such responsibility.

11.2 Duties of Officers. Each officer of the Company shall have the authority and shall perform the duties set forth in this Agreement for such office or, to the extent consistent with this Agreement, the duties prescribed by the Board or by direction of an officer authorized by the Board to prescribe the duties of other officers.

11.3 Appointment and Term of Office. The officers of the Company shall be appointed by the Board. Vacancies may be filled or new offices created and filled at any meeting of the Board. Each officer shall hold office until such officer's successor shall be duly appointed or until the officer's death or until the officer shall resign or shall have been removed in the manner hereinafter provided.

11.4 Resignation and Removal of Officers. An officer may resign at any time by delivering notice to the Company. A resignation shall be effective when the notice is delivered unless the notice specifies a later effective date. If a resignation is made effective at a later date and the Company accepts the future effective date, the Board may fill the pending vacancy before the effective date if the Board provides that the successor shall not take office until the effective date. The Board may remove any officer at any time with or without cause.

11.5 Contract Rights of Officers. Appointment of an officer or agent shall not of itself create contract rights. An officer's removal shall not affect the officer's contract rights, if any, with the Company. An officer's resignation shall not affect the Company's contract rights, if any, with the officer.

11.6 Chairman of the Board. The Chairman, if that office be created and filled, may, at the discretion of the Board, be the chief executive officer of the Company and, if such, shall, in general, supervise and control the affairs and business of the Company, subject to control by the Board. The Chairman shall preside at all meetings of the Member and the Board.

11.7 President. The President, if that office be created and filled, shall be the chief executive officer of the Company, unless a Chairman is appointed and designated chief executive officer pursuant to Section 11.6. If no Chairman has been appointed or, in the absence of the Chairman, the President shall preside at all meetings of the Member. The President may sign certificates for Units, any deeds, mortgages, bonds, contracts or other instruments which the Board has authorized to be executed, except in cases where the signing and execution thereof shall be expressly delegated by the Board or by this Agreement to some other officer or agent of the Company, or shall be required by law to be otherwise signed or executed. The President shall, in general, perform all duties incident to the office of President of a Missouri corporation and such other duties as may be prescribed by the Board or the Chairman from time to time. Unless otherwise ordered by the Board, the President shall have full power and authority on behalf of the Company to attend, act and vote in person or by proxy at any meetings of shareholders of any corporation in which the Company may hold stock, and at any such meeting shall hold and may exercise all rights incident to the ownership of such stock which the Company, as owner, would have had and could have exercised if present. The Board may confer like powers on any other person or persons.

11.8 Vice President. In the absence of the President, or in the event of the President's death, inability or refusal to act, the Vice President (or, in the event there be more than one Vice President, the Vice Presidents in order designated at the time of their appointment, or in the absence of any designation, then in the order of their appointment), if that office be created and filled, shall perform the duties of the President and when so acting shall have all the powers of, and be subject to all the restrictions upon, the President. Any Vice President may sign certificates for Units and shall perform such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to such person by the Chairman, the President or by the Board.

11.9 Treasurer. The Treasurer, if that office be created and filled, shall have charge and custody of, and be responsible for, all funds and securities of the Company, receive and give receipts for monies due and payable to the Company from any source whatsoever, and deposit all such monies in the name of the Company in such banks, trust companies and other depositories as shall be selected in accordance with the provisions of Section 6.1, and in general, perform all the duties incident to the office of Treasurer of a Missouri corporation and such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to such person by the Chairman, the President or the Board. If required by the Board, the Treasurer shall give a bond for the faithful discharge of such officer's duties in such sum and with such surety or sureties as the Board shall determine.

11.10 Secretary. The Secretary, if that office be created and filled, shall keep the minutes of the Member's meetings and of the Board's meetings in one or more books provided for that purpose, see that all notices are duly given in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement or as required by law, be custodian of the Company records and of the seal, if any, of the Company, be responsible for authenticating records of the Company, keep a register of the mailing address of the Member, which shall be furnished to the Secretary by the Member, have general charge of the transfer books of the Company, and, in general, perform all duties incident to the office of Secretary of a Missouri corporation and such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to such person by the Chairman, the President or the Board.

11.11 Assistant Treasurers and Assistant Secretaries.

(a) Assistant Treasurer. The Assistant Treasurer, if that office be created and filled, shall, if required by the Board, give bond for the faithful discharge of such officer's duty in such sum and with such surety as the Board shall determine.

(b) Assistant Secretary. The Assistant Secretary, if that office be created and filled, and if authorized by the Board, may sign, with the President or Vice President, certificates for Units.

(c) Additional Duties. The Assistant Treasurers and Assistant Secretaries, in general, shall perform such additional duties as shall be assigned to them by the Treasurer or the Secretary, respectively, or by the Chairman, the President or the Board.

12. STANDARD OF CARE OF DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS; INDEMNIFICATION.

12.1 Standard of Care. The directors and officers of the Company shall not be liable, responsible or accountable in damages to the Member or the Company on account of such director's or officer's status as a director or officer of the Company or by reason of any act or omission related to the business of the Company performed or omitted by them in good faith with the care an officer of a Missouri corporation of like position would exercise under similar circumstances and in a manner reasonably believed by them to be in the best interests of the Company, and, with respect to any criminal proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe their conduct was unlawful. To the extent that, at law or in equity, a director or officer of the Company has duties (including fiduciary duties) and liabilities relating thereto to the Company, the Member or any other person, such director or officer acting under this Agreement shall not be liable to the Company the Member or any other person for breach of fiduciary duty for its good faith reliance on the provisions of this Agreement, and the provisions of this Agreement , to the extent that they restrict or eliminate the duties (including fiduciary duties) and liabilities relating thereto of a director or officer otherwise existing at law or in equity, are agreed by the Member and the Company to replace such other duties and liabilities of such director or officer.

(a) The Company shall indemnify and hold harmless each director or officer of the Company against reasonable expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees), judgments, taxes, penalties, fines (including any excise tax assessed with respect to an employee benefit plan) and amounts paid in settlement (collectively "Liability"), incurred by such person in connection with defending any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding (whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, and whether formal or informal) to which such person is, or is threatened to be made, a party because such person is or was a director or officer of the Company, or is or was serving at the request of the Company as a director, officer, partner, member, employee or agent of another domestic or foreign corporation, partnership, limited liability company, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, including service with respect to employee benefit plans, provided that the director or officer has met the standard of conduct described in Section 12.1. A director or officer shall be considered to be serving an employee benefit plan at the Company's request if such person's duties to the Company also impose duties on or otherwise involve services by such person to the plan or to participants in or beneficiaries of the plan. The indemnities hereunder shall survive the termination of the Company and this Agreement.

(b) At the request of the director or officer entitled to indemnification hereunder, the Company shall pay or reimburse reasonable expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees) incurred by a director or officer who is a party to a proceeding in advance of final disposition of such proceeding if:

(1) The director or officer furnishes the Company a written affirmation of his good faith belief that he has met the standard of conduct described in Section 12.1;

(2) The director or officer furnishes the Company a written undertaking, executed personally or on the director's or officer's behalf, to repay the advance if it is ultimately determined that the director or officer did not meet the standard of conduct or is otherwise not entitled to indemnification hereunder. Such undertaking shall be an unlimited general obligation of the director or officer, but shall not be required to be secured and may be accepted without reference to financial ability to make repayment; and

(3) A determination is made that the facts then known to those making the determination would not preclude indemnification under the provisions of this Section 12.2.

(c) The indemnification against Liability and advancement of expenses provided by, or granted pursuant to, this Section 12.2 shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which those seeking indemnification or advancement may be, or hereafter become, entitled under any agreement, action of the Member or disinterested directors or otherwise, both as to action in their official capacity and as to action in another capacity while holding such office of the Company, shall continue as to a person who has ceased to be a director or officer of the Company, and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors and administrators of such a person.

Any repeal or modification of this Section 12.2 by the Member shall not adversely affect any right or protection of a director or officer of the Company under this Section 12.2 with respect to any act or omission occurring prior to the time of such repeal or modification.

13. OTHER ACTIVITIES; RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS.

13.1 Other Activities. The directors and officers shall devote such of their time to the affairs of the Company's business as they shall deem necessary. The Member, directors, officers and their Affiliates (as hereinafter defined) may engage in, or possess an interest in, other business ventures of any nature and description, independently or with others, whether or not such activities are competitive with those of the Company. Neither the Company nor the Member shall have any rights by virtue of this Agreement in and to such independent ventures, or to the income or profits derived therefrom. The Member shall not be obligated to present any particular business opportunity of a character which, if presented to the Company, could be taken by the Company, and the Member and its Affiliates shall have the right to take for their own account, or to recommend to others, any such particular business opportunity to the exclusion of the Company. For purposes of this Agreement, the term "Affiliate" shall mean any person, corporation, partnership, limited liability company, trust or other entity (directly or indirectly) controlling, controlled by, or under common control with, another person.

13.2 Related Party Transactions. The fact that a director, officer or their Affiliates are directly or indirectly interested in or connected with any person, firm or corporation employed by the Company to render or perform a service, or to or from whom the Company may purchase, sell or lease property, shall not prohibit the Company from employing such person, firm or corporation or from otherwise dealing with him or it, and neither the Company, nor the Member, shall have any rights in or to any income or profits derived therefrom. All such dealings with a director or such director's Affiliates will be on terms which are competitive and comparable with amounts charged by independent third parties.

14. MEMBERS.

14.1 Limitation on Participation in Management. Except as expressly authorized by this Agreement or as expressly required by the Act, the Member, solely by virtue of its status as the Member, shall not participate in the management or control of the Company's business, transact any business for the Company or have the power to act for or bind the Company, said powers being vested solely and exclusively in the Board and the officers.

14.2 Assignment of Member's Interest. The Member may freely sell, assign, transfer, pledge, hypothecate, encumber or otherwise dispose of the Member's Units. If the member transfers all of its Units, the transferee of such Units shall automatically become a substitute Member in the place of the Member. The Board shall amend Exhibit A from time to time to reflect transfers made in accordance with this Section 14.2.

14.3 Death, Incompetence, Dissolution, Etc. of Member. Upon the occurrence of any of the events set forth in Section 347.117 of the Act with respect to the member, the successor-in-interest or personal representative of the Member shall automatically become a substitute Member in place of the Member.

14.4 Certificates for Units.

(a) Certificates representing Units shall be in such form as may be determined by the Board. Such certificates shall be signed by the President or Vice President. The signature of such officer upon such certificates may be signed manually or by facsimile. All certificates for Units shall be consecutively numbered. The name of the person owning the Units represented thereby, with the number of Units and date of issue, shall be entered on the books of the Company. All certificates surrendered to the Company for transfer shall be canceled and no new certificates shall be issued until the former certificates for a like number of Units shall have been surrendered and canceled, except that, in case of a lost, destroyed or mutilated certificate, a new certificate may be issued therefor upon such terms and indemnity to the Company as the Board may prescribe.

(b) A Unit in the Company evidenced by a certificate shall constitute a security governed by Article 8 of the Uniform Commercial Code. Each certificate evidencing membership interests in the Company shall bear the following legend: "This certificate evidences an interest in Kennett HMA, LLC and shall be a security for purposes of Article 8 of the Uniform Commercial Code." No change to this provision shall be effective until all outstanding certificates have been surrendered for cancellation and any new certificates thereafter issued shall not bear the foregoing legend.

15. DISSOLUTION.

15.1 Dissolution. Except as otherwise provided in the Act, the Company shall dissolve upon the decision of the Member to dissolve the Company or the sale or other disposition of all, or substantially all, of the assets of the Company and the sale and/or collection of any evidence of indebtedness received in connection therewith. Dissolution of the Company shall be effective upon the date specified in the Member's resolution or upon the sale or other disposition of all, or substantially all of the assets of the Company and the sale and/or collection of any evidence of indebtedness received in connection therewith as applicable, but the Company shall not terminate until the assets of the Company shall have been distributed as provided in Section 15.3 and a Notice of Winding Up for Limited Liability Company and Articles of Termination for Limited Liability Company are filed with the office of the Secretary of State of the State of Missouri pursuant to Sections 347.137 and 347.045 of the Act. Notwithstanding dissolution of the Company, prior to the liquidation and termination of the Company, the Company shall continue to be governed by this Agreement.

15.2 Sale of Assets Upon Dissolution. Following the dissolution of the Company, the Company shall be wound up and the Board shall determine whether the assets of the Company are to be sold or whether some or all of such assets are to be distributed to the Member in kind in liquidation of the Company.

15.3 Distributions Upon Dissolution. Upon the dissolution of the Company, the properties of the Company to be sold shall be liquidated in orderly fashion and the proceeds thereof, and the property to be distributed in kind, shall be distributed as follows:

(a) First, to the payment and discharge of all of the Company's debts and liabilities, to the necessary expenses of liquidation and to the establishment of any cash reserves which the Member determines to create for unmatured and/or contingent liabilities or obligations of the Company.

(b) Second, to the Member.

16. GENERAL.

16.1 Amendment.

(a) Except as provided in Section 16.1(b), this Agreement may be modified or amended from time to time only upon the consent of the Member.

(b) In addition to any amendments authorized by Section 16.1(a), this Agreement may be amended from time to time by the Board without the consent of the Member to cure any ambiguity, to correct or supplement any provision hereof which may be inconsistent with any other provision hereof, or to make any other provisions with respect to matters or questions arising under this Agreement which will not be inconsistent with the provisions of this Agreement.

16.2 Captions; Section References. Section titles or captions contained in this Agreement are inserted only as a matter of convenience and reference, and in no way define, limit, extend or describe the scope of this Agreement, or the intent of any provision hereof. All references herein to Sections shall refer to Sections of this Agreement unless the context clearly requires otherwise.

16.3 Number and Gender. Unless the context otherwise requires, when used herein, the singular shall include the plural, the plural shall include the singular, and all nouns, pronouns and any variations thereof shall be deemed to refer to the masculine, feminine or neuter, as the identity of the person or persons may require.

16.4 Severability. If any provision of this Agreement, or the application thereof to any person, entity or circumstances, shall be invalid or unenforceable to any extent, the remainder of this Agreement, and the application of such provision to other persons, entities or circumstances, shall not be affected thereby and shall be enforced to the greatest extent permitted by law.

16.5 Binding Agreement. Except as otherwise provided herein, this Agreement shall be binding upon, and inure to the benefit of, the parties hereto and their respective executors, administrators, heirs, successors and assigns.

16.6 Applicable Law. This Agreement shall be governed by, and construed in accordance with, the laws of the State of Missouri without regard to its conflict of laws rules.

16.7 Entire Agreement. This Agreement contains the entire agreement with respect to the subject matter hereof.

A decrease in the number of managers shall not shorten an incumbent manager's term. Each manager shall hold office until such manager resigns or is removed. Despite the expiration of a manager's term, such manager shall continue to serve until the manager's successor is elected and qualifies, until there is a decrease in the number of managers or the manager is removed.

10.3 Resignation of Managers. A manager may resign at any time by delivering written notice to the Board, its Chairman (as hereinafter defined), if any, or the Company. A resignation shall be effective when the notice is delivered unless the notice specifies a later effective date.

10.4 Removal of Managers by Member. A manager shall be removed by the Member only at a meeting called for the purpose of removing such manager and the meeting notice shall state that the purpose, or one of the purposes, of the meeting is removal of the manager. The Member may remove one or more managers with or without cause.

10.5 Vacancy on Board. If a vacancy occurs on the Board, including a vacancy resulting from an increase in the number of managers, the Board shall fill the vacancy, and if the managers remaining in office constitute fewer than a quorum of the Board, they may fill the vacancy by the affirmative vote of a majority of all the managers remaining in office. A vacancy that will occur at a specific later date may be filled before the vacancy occurs, but the new manager may not take office until the vacancy occurs.

10.6 Compensation of Managers. Managers on the Board shall not be entitled to receive a fee for the manager's services as a manager on the Board.

10.7 Meetings. The Board may hold regular or special meetings in or out of the State of Florida. The Board may permit any or all managers to participate in a regular or special meeting by, or conduct the meeting through the use of, any means of communication by which all managers participating may simultaneously hear each other during the meeting. A manager participating in a meeting by this means shall be deemed to be present in person at the meeting.

10.8 Special Meetings. Special meetings of the Board may be called by, or at the request of, the Chairman, if any, or the chief executive officer of the Company. All special meetings of the Board shall be held at the principal office or such other place as may be specified in the notice of the meeting.

10.9 Action Without Meeting. Any action required or permitted to be taken at a Board meeting may be taken without a meeting, without prior notice and without a vote if a consent or consents in writing, setting forth the action so taken, shall be signed by the managers having not less than the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to authorize or take such action at a meeting at which all managers entitled to vote thereon were present and voted.

10.10 Notice of Meetings. Meetings of the Board may be held without notice of the date, time, place or purpose of the meeting.

10.11 Quorum and Voting. A majority of the number of managers fixed by, or determined in accordance with, this Agreement shall constitute a quorum of the Board. If a quorum is present, an affirmative vote by a majority of the number of managers present shall constitute an act of the Board. A manager who is present at a meeting of the Board or a committee of the Board when action is taken shall be deemed to have assented to the action taken unless (i) the manager objects at the beginning of the meeting, or promptly upon the manager's arrival, to holding the meeting or transacting business at the meeting or (ii) the manager's dissent or abstention from the action taken is entered in the minutes of the meeting or the manager delivers written notice of the manager's dissent or abstention to the presiding officer of the meeting before its adjournment or to the Company immediately after adjournment of the meeting. The right of dissent or abstention shall not be available to a manager who votes in favor of the action taken.

10.12 Chairman and Vice Chairman of the Board. The Board may appoint one of its members as Chairman of the Board ("Chairman"). The Board may also appoint one of its members as Vice Chairman of the Board, and such individual shall serve in the absence of the Chairman and perform such additional duties as may be assigned to such person by the Board.

11. OFFICERS.

11.1 Officers Generally. The Company shall have the officers appointed by the Board in accordance with this Agreement. The same individual may simultaneously hold more than one office in the Company. Section 11.10 delegates to the Secretary, if such office be created and filled, the required responsibility of preparing minutes of the Board's and the Member's meetings and for authenticating records of the Company. If such office shall not be created and filled, then the Board shall delegate to one of the officers of the Company such responsibility.

11.2 Duties of Officers. Each officer of the Company shall have the authority and shall perform the duties set forth in this Agreement for such office or, to the extent consistent with this Agreement, the duties prescribed by the Board or by direction of an officer authorized by the Board to prescribe the duties of other officers.

11.3 Appointment and Term of Office. The officers of the Company shall be appointed by the Board. Vacancies may be filled or new offices created and filled at any meeting of the Board. Each officer shall hold office until such officer's successor shall be duly appointed or until the officer's death or until the officer shall resign or shall have been removed in the manner hereinafter provided.

11.4 Resignation and Removal of Officers. An officer may resign at any time by delivering notice to the Company. A resignation shall be effective when the notice is delivered unless the notice specifies a later effective date. If a resignation is made effective at a later date and the Company accepts the future effective date, the Board may fill the pending vacancy before the effective date if the Board provides that the successor shall not take office until the effective date. The Board may remove any officer at any time with or without cause.

11.5 Contract Rights of Officers. Appointment of an officer or agent shall not of itself create contract rights. An officer's removal shall not affect the officer's contract rights, if any, with the Company. An officer's resignation shall not affect the Company's contract rights, if any, with the officer.

11.6 Chairman of the Board. The Chairman, if that office be created and filled, may, at the discretion of the Board, be the chief executive officer of the Company and, if such, shall, in general, supervise and control the affairs and business of the Company, subject to control by the Board. The Chairman shall preside at all meetings of the Member and the Board.

11.7 President. The President, if that office be created and filled, shall be the chief executive officer of the Company, unless a Chairman is appointed and designated chief executive officer pursuant to Section 11.6. If no Chairman has been appointed or, in the absence of the Chairman, the President shall preside at all meetings of the Member. The President may sign certificates for Units, any deeds, mortgages, bonds, contracts or other instruments which the Board has authorized to be executed, except in cases where the signing and execution thereof shall be expressly delegated by the Board or by this Agreement to some other officer or agent of the Company, or shall be required by law to be otherwise signed or executed. The President shall, in general, perform all duties incident to the office of President of a Florida limited liability company and such other duties as may be prescribed by the Board or the Chairman from time to time. Unless otherwise ordered by the Board, the President shall have full power and authority on behalf of the Company to attend, act and vote in person or by proxy at any meetings of shareholders of any corporation in which the Company may hold stock, and at any such meeting shall hold and may exercise all rights incident to the ownership of such stock which the Company, as owner, would have had and could have exercised if present. The Board may confer like powers on any other person or persons.

11.8 Vice President. In the absence of the President, or in the event of the President's death, inability or refusal to act, the Vice President (or, in the event there be more than one Vice President, the Vice Presidents in order designated at the time of their appointment, or in the absence of any designation, then in the order of their appointment), if that office be created and filled, shall perform the duties of the President and when so acting shall have all the powers of, and be subject to all the restrictions upon, the President. Any Vice President may sign certificates for Units and shall perform such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to such person by the Chairman, the President or by the Board.

11.9 Treasurer. The Treasurer, if that office be created and filled, shall have charge and custody of, and be responsible for, all funds and securities of the Company, receive and give receipts for monies due and payable to the Company from any source whatsoever, and deposit all such monies in the name of the Company in such banks, trust companies and other depositories as shall be selected in accordance with the provisions of Section 6.1, and in general, perform all the duties incident to the office of Treasurer of a Florida limited liability company and such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to such person by the Chairman, the President or the Board. If required by the Board, the Treasurer shall give a bond for the faithful discharge of such officer's duties in such sum and with such surety or sureties as the Board shall determine.

11.10 Secretary. The Secretary, if that office be created and filled, shall keep the minutes of the Member's meetings and of the Board's meetings in one or more books provided for that purpose, see that all notices are duly given in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement or as required by law, be custodian of the Company records and of the seal, if any, of the Company, be responsible for authenticating records of the Company, keep a register of the mailing address of the Member, which shall be furnished to the Secretary by the Member, have general charge of the transfer books of the Company, and, in general, perform all duties incident to the office of Secretary of a Florida limited liability company and such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to such person by the Chairman, the President or the Board.

11.11 Assistant Treasurers and Assistant Secretaries.

(a) Assistant Treasurer. The Assistant Treasurer, if that office be created and filled, shall, if required by the Board, give bond for the faithful discharge of such officer's duty in such sum and with such surety as the Board shall determine.

(b) Assistant Secretary. The Assistant Secretary, if that office be created and filled, and if authorized by the Board, may sign, with the President or Vice President, certificates for Units.

(c) Additional Duties. The Assistant Treasurers and Assistant Secretaries, in general, shall perform such additional duties as shall be assigned to them by the Treasurer or the Secretary, respectively, or by the Chairman, the President or the Board.

12. STANDARD OF CARE OF MANAGERS AND OFFICERS; INDEMNIFICATION.

12.1 Standard of Care. The managers and officers of the Company shall not be liable, responsible or accountable in damages to the Member or the Company on account of such manager's or officer's status as a manager or officer of the Company or by reason of any act or omission related to the business of the Company performed or omitted by them in good faith with the care an officer of a Florida limited liability company of like position would exercise under similar circumstances and in a manner reasonably believed by them to be in the best interests of the Company, and, with respect to any criminal proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe their conduct was unlawful. To the extent that, at law or in equity, a manager or officer of the Company has duties (including fiduciary duties) and liabilities relating thereto to the Company, the Member or any other person, such manager or officer acting under this Agreement shall not be liable to the Company, the Member or any other person for breach of fiduciary duty for its good faith reliance on the provisions of this Agreement, and the provisions of this Agreement, to the extent that they restrict or eliminate the duties (including fiduciary duties) and liabilities relating thereto of a manager or officer otherwise existing at law or in equity, are agreed by the Member and the Company to replace such other duties and liabilities of such manager or officer; provided, however, that the foregoing shall not be interpreted or construed so as to eliminate or restrict any fiduciary duty, including, but not limited to, the duties of loyalty, care, good faith and fair dealing, in such a manner as to be contrary to the provisions of Section 605.0105 of the Act.

12.2. Indemnification.

(a) The Company shall indemnify and hold harmless each manager or officer of the Company against reasonable expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees), judgments, taxes, penalties, fines (including any excise tax assessed with respect to an employee benefit plan) and amounts paid in settlement (collectively "Liability"), incurred by such person in connection with defending any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding (whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, and whether formal or informal) to which such person is, or is threatened to be made, a party because such person is or was a manager or officer of the Company, or is or was serving at the request of the Company as a manager, officer, partner, member, employee or agent of another domestic or foreign corporation, partnership, limited liability company, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, including service with respect to employee benefit plans, provided that (i) the manager or officer has met the standard of conduct described in Section 12.1, and (ii) indemnification under this paragraph does not violate the provisions of Section 605.0105 A manager or officer shall be considered to be serving an employee benefit plan at the Company's request if such person's duties to the Company also impose duties on or otherwise involve services by such person to the plan or to participants in or beneficiaries of the plan. The indemnities hereunder shall survive the termination of the Company and this Agreement.

(b) At the request of the manager or officer entitled to indemnification hereunder, the Company shall pay or reimburse reasonable expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees) incurred by a manager or officer who is a party to a proceeding in advance of final disposition of such proceeding if:

(1) The manager or officer furnishes the Company a written affirmation of his good faith belief that he has met the standard of conduct described in Section 12.1;

(2) The manager or officer furnishes the Company a written undertaking, executed personally or on the manager's or officer's behalf, to repay the advance if it is ultimately determined that the manager or officer did not meet the standard of conduct or is otherwise not entitled to indemnification hereunder. Such undertaking shall be an unlimited general obligation of the manager or officer, but shall not be required to be secured and may be accepted without reference to financial ability to make repayment; and

(3) A determination is made that the facts then known to those making the determination would not preclude indemnification under the provisions of this Section 12.2.

(c) The indemnification against Liability and advancement of expenses provided by, or granted pursuant to, this Section 12.2 shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which those seeking indemnification or advancement may be, or hereafter become, entitled under any agreement, action of the Member or disinterested managers or otherwise, both as to action in their official capacity and as to action in another capacity while holding such office of the Company, shall continue as to a person who has ceased to be a manager or officer of the Company, and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors and administrators of such a person.

Any repeal or modification of this Section 12.2 by the Member shall not adversely affect any right or protection of a manager or officer of the Company under this Section 12.2 with respect to any act or omission occurring prior to the time of such repeal or modification.

13. OTHER ACTIVITIES; RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS.

13.1 Other Activities. The managers and officers shall devote such of their time to the affairs of the Company's business as they shall deem necessary. The Member, managers, officers and their Affiliates (as hereinafter defined) may engage in, or possess an interest in, other business ventures of any nature and description, independently or with others, whether or not such activities are competitive with those of the Company. Neither the Company nor the Member shall have any rights by virtue of this Agreement in and to such independent ventures, or to the income or profits derived therefrom. The Member shall not be obligated to present any particular business opportunity of a character which, if presented to the Company, could be taken by the Company, and the Member and its Affiliates shall have the right to take for their own account, or to recommend to others, any such particular business opportunity to the exclusion of the Company. For purposes of this Agreement, the term "Affiliate" shall mean any person, corporation, partnership, limited liability company, trust or other entity (directly or indirectly) controlling, controlled by, or under common control with, another person.

13.2 Related Party Transactions. The fact that a manager, officer or their Affiliates are directly or indirectly interested in or connected with any person, firm or corporation employed by the Company to render or perform a service, or to or from whom the Company may purchase, sell or lease property, shall not prohibit the Company from employing such person, firm or corporation or from otherwise dealing with him or it, and neither the Company, nor the Member, shall have any rights in or to any income or profits derived therefrom. All such dealings with a manager or such manager's Affiliates will be on terms which are competitive and comparable with amounts charged by independent third parties.

14. MEMBERS.

14.1 Limitation on Participation in Management. Except as expressly authorized by this Agreement or as expressly required by the Act, the Member, solely by virtue of its status as the Member, shall not participate in the management or control of the Company's business, transact any business for the Company or have the power to act for or bind the Company, said powers being vested solely and exclusively in the Board and the officers.

14.2 Assignment of Member's Interest. The Member may freely sell, assign, transfer, pledge, hypothecate, encumber or otherwise dispose of the Member's Units. If the member transfers all of its Units, the transferee of such Units shall automatically become a substitute Member in the place of the Member. The Board shall amend Exhibit A from time to time to reflect transfers made in accordance with this Section 14.2.

14.3 Dissociation of Member. Upon the occurrence of any of the events set forth in Section 605.0602 of the Act with respect to the member, the successor-in-interest or personal representative of the Member shall automatically become a substitute Member in place of the Member.

14.4 Certificates for Units.

(a) Certificates representing Units shall be in such form as may be determined by the Board. Such certificates shall be signed by the President or Vice President. The signature of such officer upon such certificates may be signed manually or by facsimile. All certificates for Units shall be consecutively numbered. The name of the person owning the Units represented thereby, with the number of Units and date of issue, shall be entered on the books of the Company. All certificates surrendered to the Company for transfer shall be canceled and no new certificates shall be issued until the former certificates for a like number of Units shall have been surrendered and canceled, except that, in case of a lost, destroyed or mutilated certificate, a new certificate may be issued therefor upon such terms and indemnity to the Company as the Board may prescribe.

(b) A Unit in the Company evidenced by a certificate shall constitute a security governed by Article 8 of the Uniform Commercial Code. Each certificate evidencing membership interests in the Company shall bear the following legend: "This certificate evidences an interest in Key West HMA, LLC and shall be a security for purposes of Article 8 of the Uniform Commercial Code." No change to this provision shall be effective until all outstanding certificates have been surrendered for cancellation and any new certificates thereafter issued shall not bear the foregoing legend.

15. DISSOLUTION.

15.1 Dissolution. Except as otherwise provided in the Act, the Company shall dissolve upon the decision of the Member to dissolve the Company or the sale or other disposition of all, or substantially all, of the assets of the Company and the sale and/or collection of any evidence of indebtedness received in connection therewith. Dissolution of the Company shall be effective upon the date specified in the Member's resolution or upon the sale or other disposition of all, or substantially all of the Assets of the Company and the sale and/or collection of any evidence of indebtedness received in connection therewith as applicable, but the Company shall not terminate until the assets of the Company shall have been distributed as provided in Section 15.3 and articles of dissolution are filed with the office of the Secretary of State of the State of Florida pursuant to Section 605.0707 of the Act. Notwithstanding dissolution of the Company, prior to the liquidation and termination of the Company, the Company shall continue to be governed by this Agreement.

15.2 Sale of Assets Upon Dissolution. Following the dissolution of the Company, the Company shall be wound up and the Board shall determine whether the assets of the Company are to be sold or whether some or all of such assets are to be distributed to the Member in kind in liquidation of the Company.

15.3 Distributions Upon Dissolution. Upon the dissolution of the Company, the properties of the Company to be sold shall be liquidated in orderly fashion and the proceeds thereof, and the property to be distributed in kind, shall be distributed as follows:

(a) First, to the payment and discharge of all of the Company's debts and liabilities, to the necessary expenses of liquidation and to the establishment of any cash reserves which the Member determines to create for unmatured and/or contingent liabilities or obligations of the Company.

(b) Second, to the Member.

16. GENERAL.

16.1 Amendment.

(a) Except as provided in Section 16.1(b), this Agreement may be modified or amended from time to time only upon the consent of the Member.

(b) In addition to any amendments authorized by Section 16.1(a), this Agreement may be amended from time to time by the Board without the consent of the Member to cure any ambiguity, to correct or supplement any provision hereof which may be inconsistent with any other provision hereof, or to make any other provisions with respect to matters or questions arising under this Agreement which will not be inconsistent with the provisions of this Agreement.

16.2 Captions; Section References. Section titles or captions contained in this Agreement are inserted only as a matter of convenience and reference, and in no way define, limit, extend or describe the scope of this Agreement, or the intent of any provision hereof. All references herein to Sections shall refer to Sections of this Agreement unless the context clearly requires otherwise.

16.3 Number and Gender. Unless the context otherwise requires, when used herein, the singular shall include the plural, the plural shall include the singular, and all nouns, pronouns and any variations thereof shall be deemed to refer to the masculine, feminine or neuter, as the identity of the person or persons may require.

16.4 Severability. If any provision of this Agreement, or the application thereof to any person, entity or circumstances, shall be invalid or unenforceable to any extent, the remainder of this Agreement, and the application of such provision to other persons, entities or circumstances, shall not be affected thereby and shall be enforced to the greatest extent permitted by law.

16.5 Binding Agreement. Except as otherwise provided herein, this Agreement shall be binding upon, and inure to the benefit of, the parties hereto and their respective executors, administrators, heirs, successors and assigns.

16.6 Applicable Law. This Agreement shall be governed by, and construed in accordance with, the laws of the State of Florida without regard to its conflict of laws rules.

16.7 Entire Agreement. This Agreement contains the entire agreement with respect to the subject matter hereof.

All special meetings of the Board shall be held at the principal office or such other place as may be specified in the notice of the meeting.

10.9 Action Without Meeting. Any action required or permitted to be taken at a Board meeting may be taken without a meeting, without prior notice and without a vote if a consent or consents in writing, setting forth the action so taken, shall be signed by the directors having not less than the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to authorize or take such action at a meeting at which all directors entitled to vote thereon were present and voted.

10.10 Notice of Meetings. Meetings of the Board may be held without notice of the date, time, place or purpose of the meeting.

10.11 Quorum and Voting. A majority of the number of directors fixed by, or determined in accordance with, this Agreement shall constitute a quorum of the Board. If a quorum is present, an affirmative vote by a majority of the number of directors present shall constitute an act of the Board. A director who is present at a meeting of the Board or a committee of the Board when action is taken shall be deemed to have assented to the action taken unless (i) the director objects at the beginning of the meeting, or promptly upon the director's arrival, to holding the meeting or transacting business at the meeting or (ii) the director's dissent or abstention from the action taken is entered in the minutes of the meeting or the director delivers written notice of the director's dissent or abstention to the presiding officer of the meeting before its adjournment or to the Company immediately after adjournment of the meeting. The right of dissent or abstention shall not be available to a director who votes in favor of the action taken.

10.12 Chairman and Vice Chairman of the Board. The Board may appoint one of its members as Chairman of the Board ("Chairman"). The Board may also appoint one of its members as Vice Chairman of the Board, and such individual shall serve in the absence of the Chairman and perform such additional duties as may be assigned to such person by the Board.

11. OFFICERS.

11.1 Officers Generally. The Company shall have the officers appointed by the Board in accordance with this Agreement. The same individual may simultaneously hold more than one office in the Company. Section 11.10 delegates to the Secretary, if such office be created and filled, the required responsibility of preparing minutes of the Board's and the Member's meetings and for authenticating records of the Company. If such office shall not be created and filled, then the Board shall delegate to one of the officers of the Company such responsibility.

11.2 Duties of Officers. Each officer of the Company shall have the authority and shall perform the duties set forth in this Agreement for such office or, to the extent consistent with this Agreement, the duties prescribed by the Board or by direction of an officer authorized by the Board to prescribe the duties of other officers.

11.3 Appointment and Term of Office. The officers of the Company shall be appointed by the Board. Vacancies may be filled or new offices created and filled at any meeting of the Board. Each officer shall hold office until such officer's successor shall be duly appointed or until the officer's death or until the officer shall resign or shall have been removed in the manner hereinafter provided.

11.4 Resignation and Removal of Officers. An officer may resign at any time by delivering notice to the Company. A resignation shall be effective when the notice is delivered unless the notice specifies a later effective date. If a resignation is made effective at a later date and the Company accepts the future effective date, the Board may fill the pending vacancy before the effective date if the Board provides that the successor shall not take office until the effective date. The Board may remove any officer at any time with or without cause.

11.5 Contract Rights of Officers. Appointment of an officer or agent shall not of itself create contract rights. An officer's removal shall not affect the officer's contract rights, if any, with the Company. An officer's resignation shall not affect the Company's contract rights, if any, with the officer.

11.6 Chairman of the Board. The Chairman, if that office be created and filled, may, at the discretion of the Board, be the chief executive officer of the Company and, if such, shall, in general, supervise and control the affairs and business of the Company, subject to control by the Board. The Chairman shall preside at all meetings of the Member and the Board.

11.7 President. The President, if that office be created and filled, shall be the chief executive officer of the Company, unless a Chairman is appointed and designated chief executive officer pursuant to Section 11.6. If no Chairman has been appointed or, in the absence of the Chairman, the President shall preside at all meetings of the Member. The President may sign certificates for Units, any deeds, mortgages, bonds, contracts or other instruments which the Board has authorized to be executed, except in cases where the signing and execution thereof shall be expressly delegated by the Board or by this Agreement to some other officer or agent of the Company, or shall be required by law to be otherwise signed or executed. The President shall, in general, perform all duties incident to the office of President of a Tennessee corporation and such other duties as may be prescribed by the Board or the Chairman from time to time. Unless otherwise ordered by the Board, the President shall have full power and authority on behalf of the Company to attend, act and vote in person or by proxy at any meetings of shareholders of any corporation in which the Company may hold stock, and at any such meeting shall hold and may exercise all rights incident to the ownership of such stock which the Company, as owner, would have had and could have exercised if present. The Board may confer like powers on any other person or persons.

11.8 Vice President. In the absence of the President, or in the event of the President's death, inability or refusal to act, the Vice President (or, in the event there be more than one Vice President, the Vice Presidents in order designated at the time of their appointment, or in the absence of any designation, then in the order of their appointment), if that office be created and filled, shall perform the duties of the President and when so acting shall have all the powers of, and be subject to all the restrictions upon, the President. Any Vice President may sign certificates for Units and shall perform such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to such person by the Chairman, the President or by the Board.

11.9 Treasurer. The Treasurer, if that office be created and filled, shall have charge and custody of, and be responsible for, all funds and securities of the Company, receive and give receipts for monies due and payable to the Company from any source whatsoever, and deposit all such monies in the name of the Company in such banks, trust companies and other depositories as shall be selected in accordance with the provisions of Section 6.1, and in general, perform all the duties incident to the office of Treasurer of a Tennessee corporation and such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to such person by the Chairman, the President or the Board. If required by the Board, the Treasurer shall give a bond for the faithful discharge of such officer's duties in such sum and with such surety or sureties as the Board shall determine.

11.10 Secretary. The Secretary, if that office be created and filled, shall keep the minutes of the Member's meetings and of the Board's meetings in one or more books provided for that purpose, see that all notices are duly given in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement or as required by law, be custodian of the Company records and of the seal, if any, of the Company, be responsible for authenticating records of the Company, keep a register of the mailing address of the Member, which shall be furnished to the Secretary by the Member, have general charge of the transfer books of the Company, and, in general, perform all duties incident to the office of Secretary of a Tennessee corporation and such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to such person by the Chairman, the President or the Board.

11.11 Assistant Treasurers and Assistant Secretaries.

(a) Assistant Treasurer. The Assistant Treasurer, if that office be created and filled, shall, if required by the Board, give bond for the faithful discharge of such officer's duty in such sum and with such surety as the Board shall determine.

(b) Assistant Secretary. The Assistant Secretary, if that office be created and filled, and if authorized by the Board, may sign, with the President or Vice President, certificates for Units.

(c) Additional Duties. The Assistant Treasurers and Assistant Secretaries, in general, shall perform such additional duties as shall be assigned to them by the Treasurer or the Secretary, respectively, or by the Chairman, the President or the Board.

12. STANDARD OF CARE OF DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS; INDEMNIFICATION.

12.1 Standard of Care. The directors and officers of the Company shall not be liable, responsible or accountable in damages to the Member or the Company on account of such director's or officer's status as a director or officer of the Company or by reason of any act or omission related to the business of the Company performed or omitted by them in good faith with the care and ordinarily prudent person in a like position would exercise under similar circumstances and, in a manner reasonably believed by them to be in the best interests of the Company, and, with respect to any criminal proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe their conduct was unlawful. To the extent that, at law or in equity, a director or officer of the Company has duties (including fiduciary duties) and liabilities relating thereto to the Company, the Member or any other person, such director or officer acting under this Agreement shall not be liable to the Company, the Member or any other person for breach of fiduciary duty for its good faith reliance on the provisions of this Agreement, and the provisions of this Agreement, to the extent that they restrict or eliminate the duties (including fiduciary duties) and liabilities relating thereto of a director or officer otherwise existing at law or in equity, are agreed by the Member and the Company to replace such other duties and liabilities of such director or officer.

12.2 Indemnification.

(a) The Company shall indemnify and hold harmless each director or officer of the Company against reasonable expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees), judgments, taxes, penalties, fines (including any excise tax assessed with respect to an employee benefit plan) and amounts paid in settlement (collectively "Liability"), incurred by such person in connection with defending any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding (whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, and whether formal or informal) to which such person is, or is threatened to be made, a party because such person is or was a director or officer of the Company, or is or was serving at the request of the Company as a director, officer, partner, member, employee or agent of another domestic or foreign corporation, partnership, limited liability company, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, including service with respect to employee benefit plans, provided that the director or officer has met the standard of conduct described in Section 12.1. A director or officer shall be considered to be serving an employee benefit plan at the Company's request if such person's duties to the Company also impose duties on or otherwise involve services by such person to the plan or to participants in or beneficiaries of the plan. The indemnities hereunder shall survive the termination of the Company and this Agreement.

(b) At the request of the director or officer entitled to indemnification hereunder, the Company shall pay or reimburse reasonable expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees) incurred by a director or officer who is a party to a proceeding in advance of final disposition of such proceeding if:

(1) The director or officer furnishes the Company a written affirmation of his good faith belief that he has met the standard of conduct described in Section 12.1;

(2) The director or officer furnishes the Company a written undertaking, executed personally or on the director's or officer's behalf, to repay the advance if it is ultimately determined that the director or officer did not meet the standard of conduct or is otherwise not entitled to indemnification hereunder. Such undertaking shall be an unlimited general obligation of the director or officer, but shall not be required to be secured and may be accepted without reference to financial ability to make repayment; and

(3) A determination is made that the facts then known to those making the determination would not preclude indemnification under the provisions of this Section 12.2.

(c) The indemnification against Liability and advancement of expenses provided by, or granted pursuant to, this Section 12.2 shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which those seeking indemnification or advancement may be, or hereafter become, entitled under any agreement, action of the Member or disinterested directors or otherwise, both as to action in their official capacity and as to action in another capacity while holding such office of the Company, shall continue as to a person who has ceased to be a director or officer of the Company, and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors and administrators of such a person.

Any repeal or modification of this Section 12.2 by the Member shall not adversely affect any right or protection of a director or officer of the Company under this Section 12.2 with respect to any act or omission occurring prior to the time of such repeal or modification.

13. OTHER ACTIVITIES; RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS.

13.1 Other Activities. The directors and officers shall devote such of their time to the affairs of the Company's business as they shall deem necessary. The Member, directors, officers and their Affiliates (as hereinafter defined) may engage in, or possess an interest in, other business ventures of any nature and description, independently or with others, whether or not such activities are competitive with those of the Company. Neither the Company nor the Member shall have any rights by virtue of this Agreement in and to such independent ventures, or to the income or profits derived therefrom. The Member shall not be obligated to present any particular business opportunity of a character which, if presented to the Company, could be taken by the Company, and the Member and its Affiliates shall have the right to take for their own account, or to recommend to others, any such particular business opportunity to the exclusion of the Company. For purposes of this Agreement, the term "Affiliate" shall mean any person, corporation, partnership, limited liability company, trust or other entity (directly or indirectly) controlling, controlled by, or under common control with, another person.

13.2 Related Party Transactions. The fact that a director, officer or their Affiliates are directly or indirectly interested in or connected with any person, firm or corporation employed by the Company to render or perform a service, or to or from whom the Company may purchase, sell or lease property, shall not prohibit the Company from employing such person, firm or corporation or from otherwise dealing with him or it, and neither the Company, nor the Member, shall have any rights in or to any income or profits derived therefrom. All such dealings with a director or such director's Affiliates will be on terms which are competitive and comparable with amounts charged by independent third parties.

14. MEMBERS.

14.1 Limitation on Participation in Management. Except as expressly authorized by this Agreement or as expressly required by the Act, the Member, solely by virtue of its status as the Member, shall not participate in the management or control of the Company's business, transact any business for the Company or have the power to act for or bind the Company, said powers being vested solely and exclusively in the Board and the officers.

14.2 Assignment of Member's Interest. The Member may freely sell, assign, transfer, pledge, hypothecate, encumber or otherwise dispose of the Member's Units. If the member transfers all of its Units, the transferee of such Units shall automatically become a substitute Member in the place of the Member. The Board shall amend Exhibit A from time to time to reflect transfers made in accordance with this Section 14.2.

14.3 Bankruptcy, Dissolution, Etc. of Member. Upon the occurrence of any of the events set forth in Sections 48-249-503(a)(7) – (a)(12) of the Act with respect to the member, the successor-in-interest or personal representative of the Member shall automatically become a substitute Member in place of the Member.

14.4 Certificates for Units.

(a) Certificates representing Units shall be in such form as may be determined by the Board. Such certificates shall be signed by the President or Vice President. The signature of such officer upon such certificates may be signed manually or by facsimile. All certificates for Units shall be consecutively numbered. The name of the person owning the Units represented thereby, with the number of Units and date of issue, shall be entered on the books of the Company. All certificates surrendered to the Company for transfer shall be canceled and no new certificates shall be issued until the former certificates for a like number of Units shall have been surrendered and canceled, except that, in case of a lost, destroyed or mutilated certificate, a new certificate may be issued therefor upon such terms and indemnity to the Company as the Board may prescribe.

(b) A Unit in the Company evidenced by a certificate shall constitute a security governed by Article 8 of the Uniform Commercial Code. Each certificate evidencing membership interests in the Company shall bear the following legend: "This certificate evidences an interest in Knoxville HMA Holdings, LLC and shall be a security for purposes of Article 8 of the Uniform Commercial Code." No change to this provision shall be effective until all outstanding certificates have been surrendered for cancellation and any new certificates thereafter issued shall not bear the foregoing legend.

15. DISSOLUTION.

15.1 Dissolution. Except as otherwise provided in the Act, the Company shall dissolve upon the decision of the Member to dissolve the Company or the sale or other disposition of all, or substantially all, of the assets of the Company and the sale and/or collection of any evidence of indebtedness received in connection therewith. Dissolution of the Company shall be effective upon the date specified in the Member's resolution or upon the sale or other disposition of all, or substantially all of the Assets of the Company and the sale and/or collection of any evidence of indebtedness received in connection therewith as applicable, but the Company shall not terminate until the assets of the Company shall have been distributed as provided in Section 15.3 and articles of termination of the articles of organization of the Company are filed with the office of the Secretary of State of the State of Tennessee pursuant to Section 48-249-612 of the Act. Notwithstanding dissolution of the Company, prior to the liquidation and termination of the Company, the Company shall continue to be governed by this Agreement.

15.2 Sale of Assets Upon Dissolution. Following the dissolution of the Company, the Company shall be wound up and the Board shall determine whether the assets of the Company are to be sold or whether some or all of such assets are to be distributed to the Member in kind in liquidation of the Company.

15.3 Distributions Upon Dissolution. Upon the dissolution of the Company, the properties of the Company to be sold shall be liquidated in orderly fashion and the proceeds thereof, and the property to be distributed in kind, shall be distributed as follows:

(a) First, to the payment and discharge of all of the Company's debts and liabilities, to the necessary expenses of liquidation and to the establishment of any cash reserves which the Member determines to create for unmatured and/or contingent liabilities or obligations of the Company.

(b) Second, to the Member.

16. GENERAL.

16.1 Amendment.

(a) Except as provided in Section 16.1(b), this Agreement may be modified or amended from time to time only upon the consent of the Member.

(b) In addition to any amendments authorized by Section 16.1(a), this Agreement may be amended from time to time by the Board without the consent of the Member to cure any ambiguity, to correct or supplement any provision hereof which may be inconsistent with any other provision hereof, or to make any other provisions with respect to matters or questions arising under this Agreement which will not be inconsistent with the provisions of this Agreement.

16.2 Captions; Section References. Section titles or captions contained in this Agreement are inserted only as a matter of convenience and reference, and in no way define, limit, extend or describe the scope of this Agreement, or the intent of any provision hereof. All references herein to Sections shall refer to Sections of this Agreement unless the context clearly requires otherwise.

16.3 Number and Gender. Unless the context otherwise requires, when used herein, the singular shall include the plural, the plural shall include the singular, and all nouns, pronouns and any variations thereof shall be deemed to refer to the masculine, feminine or neuter, as the identity of the person or persons may require.

16.4 Severability. If any provision of this Agreement, or the application thereof to any person, entity or circumstances, shall be invalid or unenforceable to any extent, the remainder of this Agreement, and the application of such provision to other persons, entities or circumstances, shall not be affected thereby and shall be enforced to the greatest extent permitted by law.

16.5 Binding Agreement. Except as otherwise provided herein, this Agreement shall be binding upon, and inure to the benefit of, the parties hereto and their respective executors, administrators, heirs, successors and assigns.

16.6 Applicable Law. This Agreement shall be governed by, and construed in accordance with, the laws of the State of Tennessee without regard to its conflict of laws rules.

16.7 Entire Agreement. This Agreement contains the entire agreement with respect to the subject matter hereof.

(a) To acquire, own, manage and operate certain healthcare facilities.

(b) To engage in such other lawful activities in which a limited liability company may engage under the Act as is determined by the Board from time to time.

(c) To do all other things necessary or desirable in connection with the foregoing, or otherwise contemplated in this Agreement.

3.2 Company's Power. In furtherance of the purpose of the Company as set forth in Section 3.1, the Company shall have the power to do any and all things whatsoever necessary, appropriate or advisable in connection with such purpose, or as otherwise contemplated in this Agreement.

3.3 Term. The term of the Company as a limited liability company shall commence as of the date of the filing of a Articles of Organization with the Florida Secretary of State's Office, and shall continue until dissolved in accordance with Section 15.

4. CAPITAL.

4.3 No Interest on Capital Contributions. The Member shall not be entitled to interest on any capital contributions made to the Company.

5. ACCOUNTING.

5.1 Books and Records. The Company shall maintain full and accurate books of the Company at the Company's principal place of business, or such other place as the Board shall determine, showing all receipts and expenditures, assets and liabilities, net income and loss, and all other records necessary for recording the Company's business and affairs. 7.1 Net Income and Net Loss. All net income or net loss of the Company shall be for the account of the Member.

8. FEDERAL INCOME TAX ELECTIONS.

8.1 Tax Treatment. Reg. §§ 301.7701-2(c)(2)(i) and 301.7701-3(b)(1)(ii). The Member shall take all actions which may be necessary or required in order for the Company to be so disregarded for income tax purposes.

9. DISTRIBUTIONS.

9.1 Distributions. The Board shall determine, in the Board's sole discretion, the amount and timing of any distributions to the Member and whether such distributions shall be paid in cash or property.

10. BOARD OF MANAGERS.

10.1 General Powers. All powers of the Company shall be exercised by or under the authority of, and the business and affairs of the Company managed under the direction of, its Board of Managers ("Board").

10.2 Number, Election and Term. The Board shall consist of not less than one, nor more than seven individual managers, the exact number of which shall be determined by the Board from time to time. Initially, there shall be three managers, Martin G. Schweinhart, W. Larry Cash and Rachel A. Seifert. Except as otherwise expressly provided herein, managers shall be elected at the organizational meeting of the Member and at each annual meeting thereafter. A decrease in the number of managers shall not shorten an incumbent manager's term. Each manager shall hold office until such manager resigns or is removed. Despite the expiration of a manager's term, such manager shall continue to serve until the manager's successor is elected and qualifies, until there is a decrease in the number of managers or the manager is removed.

10.3 Resignation of Managers. A manager may resign at any time by delivering written notice to the Board, its Chairman (as hereinafter defined), if any, or the Company. A resignation shall be effective when the notice is delivered unless the notice specifies a later effective date.

10.4 Removal of Managers by Member. A manager shall be removed by the Member only at a meeting called for the purpose of removing such manager and the meeting notice shall state that the purpose, or one of the purposes, of the meeting is removal of the manager. The Member may remove one or more managers with or without cause.

10.5 Vacancy on Board. If a vacancy occurs on the Board, including a vacancy resulting from an increase in the number of managers, the Board shall fill the vacancy, and if the managers remaining in office constitute fewer than a quorum of the Board, they may fill the vacancy by the affirmative vote of a majority of all the managers remaining in office. A vacancy that will occur at a specific later date may be filled before the vacancy occurs, but the new manager may not take office until the vacancy occurs.

10.6 Compensation of Managers. Managers on the Board shall not be entitled to receive a fee for the manager's services as a manager on the Board.

10.7 Meetings. The Board may hold regular or special meetings in or out of the State of Florida. The Board may permit any or all managers to participate in a regular or special meeting by, or conduct the meeting through the use of, any means of communication by which all managers participating may simultaneously hear each other during the meeting. A manager participating in a meeting by this means shall be deemed to be present in person at the meeting.

10.8 Special Meetings. Special meetings of the Board may be called by, or at the request of, the Chairman, if any, or the chief executive officer of the Company. All special meetings of the Board shall be held at the principal office or such other place as may be specified in the notice of the meeting.

10.9 Action Without Meeting. Any action required or permitted to be taken at a Board meeting may be taken without a meeting, without prior notice and without a vote if a consent or consents in writing, setting forth the action so taken, shall be signed by the managers having not less than the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to authorize or take such action at a meeting at which all managers entitled to vote thereon were present and voted.

10.11 Notice of Meetings. Meetings of the Board may be held without notice of the date, time, place or purpose of the meeting.

10.12 Quorum and Voting. A majority of the number of managers fixed by, or determined in accordance with, this Agreement shall constitute a quorum of the Board. If a quorum is present, an affirmative vote by a majority of the number of managers present shall constitute an act of the Board. A manager who is present at a meeting of the Board or a committee of the Board when action is taken shall be deemed to have assented to the action taken unless (i) the manager objects at the beginning of the meeting, or promptly upon the manager's arrival, to holding the meeting or transacting business at the meeting or (ii) the manager's dissent or abstention from the action taken is entered in the minutes of the meeting or the manager delivers written notice of the manager's dissent or abstention to the presiding officer of the meeting before its adjournment or to the Company immediately after adjournment of the meeting. The right of dissent or abstention shall not be available to a manager who votes in favor of the action taken.

10.13 Chairman and Vice Chairman of the Board. The Board may appoint one of its members as Chairman of the Board ("Chairman"). The Board may also appoint one of its members as Vice Chairman of the Board, and such individual shall serve in the absence of the Chairman and perform such additional duties as may be assigned to such person by the Board.

11. OFFICERS.

11.1 Officers Generally. The Company shall have the officers appointed by the Board in accordance with this Agreement. The same individual may simultaneously hold more than one office in the Company. Section 11.10 delegates to the Secretary, if such office be created and filled, the required responsibility of preparing minutes of the Board's and the Member's meetings and for authenticating records of the Company. If such office shall not be created and filled, then the Board shall delegate to one of the officers of the Company such responsibility.

11.2 Duties of Officers. Each officer of the Company shall have the authority and shall perform the duties set forth in this Agreement for such office or, to the extent consistent with this Agreement, the duties prescribed by the Board or by direction of an officer authorized by the Board to prescribe the duties of other officers.

11.3 Appointment and Term of Office. The officers of the Company shall be appointed by the Board. Vacancies may be filled or new offices created and filled at any meeting of the Board. Each officer shall hold office until such officer's successor shall be duly appointed or until the officer's death or until the officer shall resign or shall have been removed in the manner hereinafter provided.

11.4 Resignation and Removal of Officers. An officer may resign at any time by delivering notice to the Company. A resignation shall be effective when the notice is delivered unless the notice specifies a later effective date. If a resignation is made effective at a later date and the Company accepts the future effective date, the Board may fill the pending vacancy before the effective date if the Board provides that the successor shall not take office until the effective date. The Board may remove any officer at any time with or without cause.

11.5 Contract Rights of Officers. Appointment of an officer or agent shall not of itself create contract rights. An officer's removal shall not affect the officer's contract rights, if any, with the Company. An officer's resignation shall not affect the Company's contract rights, if any, with the officer.

11.6 Chairman of the Board. The Chairman, if that office be created and filled, may, at the discretion of the Board, be the chief executive officer of the Company and, if such, shall, in general, supervise and control the affairs and business of the Company, subject to control by the Board. The Chairman shall preside at all meetings of the Member and the Board.

11.7 President. The President, if that office be created and filled, shall be the chief executive officer of the Company, unless a Chairman is appointed and designated chief executive officer pursuant to Section 11.6. If no Chairman has been appointed or, in the absence of the Chairman, the President shall preside at all meetings of the Member. The President may sign certificates for Units, any deeds, mortgages, bonds, contracts or other instruments which the Board has authorized to be executed, except in cases where the signing and execution thereof shall be expressly delegated by the Board or by this Agreement to some other officer or agent of the Company, or shall be required by law to be otherwise signed or executed. The President shall, in general, perform all duties incident to the office of President of a Florida limited liability company and such other duties as may be prescribed by the Board or the Chairman from time to time. Unless otherwise ordered by the Board, the President shall have full power and authority on behalf of the Company to attend, act and vote in person or by proxy at any meetings of shareholders of any corporation in which the Company may hold stock, and at any such meeting shall hold and may exercise all rights incident to the ownership of such stock which the Company, as owner, would have had and could have exercised if present. The Board may confer like powers on any other person or persons.

11.8 Vice President. In the absence of the President, or in the event of the President's death, inability or refusal to act, the Vice President (or, in the event there be more than one Vice President, the Vice Presidents in order designated at the time of their appointment, or in the absence of any designation, then in the order of their appointment), if that office be created and filled, shall perform the duties of the President and when so acting shall have all the powers of, and be subject to all the restrictions upon, the President. Any Vice President may sign certificates for Units and shall perform such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to such person by the Chairman, the President or by the Board.

11.9 Treasurer. The Treasurer, if that office be created and filled, shall have charge and custody of, and be responsible for, all funds and securities of the Company, receive and give receipts for monies due and payable to the Company from any source whatsoever, and deposit all such monies in the name of the Company in such banks, trust companies and other depositories as shall be selected in accordance with the provisions of Section 6.1, and in general, perform all the duties incident to the office of Treasurer of a Florida limited liability company and such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to such person by the Chairman, the President or the Board. If required by the Board, the Treasurer shall give a bond for the faithful discharge of such officer's duties in such sum and with such surety or sureties as the Board shall determine.

11.10 Secretary. The Secretary, if that office be created and filled, shall keep the minutes of the Member's meetings and of the Board's meetings in one or more books provided for that purpose, see that all notices are duly given in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement or as required by law, be custodian of the Company records and of the seal, if any, of the Company, be responsible for authenticating records of the Company, keep a register of the mailing address of the Member, which shall be furnished to the Secretary by the Member, have general charge of the transfer books of the Company, and, in general, perform all duties incident to the office of Secretary of a Florida limited liability company and such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to such person by the Chairman, the President or the Board.

11.11 Assistant Treasurers and Assistant Secretaries.

(a) Assistant Treasurer. The Assistant Treasurer, if that office be created and filled, shall, if required by the Board, give bond for the faithful discharge of such officer's duty in such sum and with such surety as the Board shall determine.

(b) Assistant Secretary. The Assistant Secretary, if that office be created and filled, and if authorized by the Board, may sign, with the President or Vice President, certificates for Units.

(c) Additional Duties. The Assistant Treasurers and Assistant Secretaries, in general, shall perform such additional duties as shall be assigned to them by the Treasurer or the Secretary, respectively, or by the Chairman, the President or the Board.

12. STANDARD OF CARE OF MANAGERS AND OFFICERS; INDEMNIFICATION.

12.1 Standard of Care. The managers and officers of the Company shall not be liable, responsible or accountable in damages to the Member or the Company on account of such manager's or officer's status as a manager or officer of the Company or by reason of any act or omission related to the business of the Company performed or omitted by them in good faith with the care an officer of a Florida limited liability company of like position would exercise under similar circumstances and in a manner reasonably believed by them to be in the best interests of the Company, and, with respect to any criminal proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe their conduct was unlawful. To the extent that, at law or in equity, a manager or officer of the Company has duties (including fiduciary duties) and liabilities relating thereto to the Company, the Member or any other person, such manager or officer acting under this Agreement shall not be liable to the Company, the Member or any other person for breach of fiduciary duty for its good faith reliance on the provisions of this Agreement, and the provisions of this Agreement, to the extent that they restrict or eliminate the duties (including fiduciary duties) and liabilities relating thereto of a manager or officer otherwise existing at law or in equity, are agreed by the Member and the Company to replace such other duties and liabilities of such manager or officer; provided, however, that the foregoing shall not be interpreted or construed so as to eliminate or restrict any fiduciary duty, including, but not limited to, the duties of loyalty, care, good faith and fair dealing, in such a manner as to be contrary to the provisions of Section 605.0105 of the Act.

12.2. Indemnification.

(a) The Company shall indemnify and hold harmless each manager or officer of the Company against reasonable expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees), judgments, taxes, penalties, fines (including any excise tax assessed with respect to an employee benefit plan) and amounts paid in settlement (collectively "Liability"), incurred by such person in connection with defending any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding (whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, and whether formal or informal) to which such person is, or is threatened to be made, a party because such person is or was a manager or officer of the Company, or is or was serving at the request of the Company as a manager, officer, partner, member, employee or agent of another domestic or foreign corporation, partnership, limited liability company, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, including service with respect to employee benefit plans, provided that (i) the manager or officer has met the standard of conduct described in Section 12.1, and (ii) indemnification under this paragraph does not violate the provisions of Section 605.0105 A manager or officer shall be considered to be serving an employee benefit plan at the Company's request if such person's duties to the Company also impose duties on or otherwise involve services by such person to the plan or to participants in or beneficiaries of the plan. The indemnities hereunder shall survive the termination of the Company and this Agreement.

(b) At the request of the manager or officer entitled to indemnification hereunder, the Company shall pay or reimburse reasonable expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees) incurred by a manager or officer who is a party to a proceeding in advance of final disposition of such proceeding if:

(1) The manager or officer furnishes the Company a written affirmation of his good faith belief that he has met the standard of conduct described in Section 12.1;

(2) The manager or officer furnishes the Company a written undertaking, executed personally or on the manager's or officer's behalf, to repay the advance if it is ultimately determined that the manager or officer did not meet the standard of conduct or is otherwise not entitled to indemnification hereunder. Such undertaking shall be an unlimited general obligation of the manager or officer, but shall not be required to be secured and may be accepted without reference to financial ability to make repayment; and

(3) A determination is made that the facts then known to those making the determination would not preclude indemnification under the provisions of this Section 12.2.

(c) The indemnification against Liability and advancement of expenses provided by, or granted pursuant to, this Section 12.2 shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which those seeking indemnification or advancement may be, or hereafter become, entitled under any agreement, action of the Member or disinterested managers or otherwise, both as to action in their official capacity and as to action in another capacity while holding such office of the Company, shall continue as to a person who has ceased to be a manager or officer of the Company, and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors and administrators of such a person.

Any repeal or modification of this Section 12.2 by the Member shall not adversely affect any right or protection of a manager or officer of the Company under this Section 12.2 with respect to any act or omission occurring prior to the time of such repeal or modification.

13. OTHER ACTIVITIES; RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS.

13.1 Other Activities. The managers and officers shall devote such of their time to the affairs of the Company's business as they shall deem necessary. The Member, managers, officers and their Affiliates (as hereinafter defined) may engage in, or possess an interest in, other business ventures of any nature and description, independently or with others, whether or not such activities are competitive with those of the Company. Neither the Company nor the Member shall have any rights by virtue of this Agreement in and to such independent ventures, or to the income or profits derived therefrom. The Member shall not be obligated to present any particular business opportunity of a character which, if presented to the Company, could be taken by the Company, and the Member and its Affiliates shall have the right to take for their own account, or to recommend to others, any such particular business opportunity to the exclusion of the Company. For purposes of this Agreement, the term "Affiliate" shall mean any person, corporation, partnership, limited liability company, trust or other entity (directly or indirectly) controlling, controlled by, or under common control with, another person.

13.2 Related Party Transactions. The fact that a manager, officer or their Affiliates are directly or indirectly interested in or connected with any person, firm or corporation employed by the Company to render or perform a service, or to or from whom the Company may purchase, sell or lease property, shall not prohibit the Company from employing such person, firm or corporation or from otherwise dealing with him or it, and neither the Company, nor the Member, shall have any rights in or to any income or profits derived therefrom. All such dealings with a manager or such manager's Affiliates will be on terms which are competitive and comparable with amounts charged by independent third parties.

14. MEMBERS.

14.1 Limitation on Participation in Management. Except as expressly authorized by this Agreement or as expressly required by the Act, the Member, solely by virtue of its status as the Member, shall not participate in the management or control of the Company's business, transact any business for the Company or have the power to act for or bind the Company, said powers being vested solely and exclusively in the Board and the officers.

14.2 Assignment of Member's Interest. The Member may freely sell, assign, transfer, pledge, hypothecate, encumber or otherwise dispose of the Member's Units. If the member transfers all of its Units, the transferee of such Units shall automatically become a substitute Member in the place of the Member. The Board shall amend Exhibit A from time to time to reflect transfers made in accordance with this Section 14.2.

14.3 Dissociation of Member. Upon the occurrence of any of the events set forth in Section 605.0602 of the Act with respect to the member, the successor-in-interest or personal representative of the Member shall automatically become a substitute Member in place of the Member.

14.4 Certificates for Units.

(a) Certificates representing Units shall be in such form as may be determined by the Board. Such certificates shall be signed by the President or Vice President. The signature of such officer upon such certificates may be signed manually or by facsimile. All certificates for Units shall be consecutively numbered. The name of the person owning the Units represented thereby, with the number of Units and date of issue, shall be entered on the books of the Company. All certificates surrendered to the Company for transfer shall be canceled and no new certificates shall be issued until the former certificates for a like number of Units shall have been surrendered and canceled, except that, in case of a lost, destroyed or mutilated certificate, a new certificate may be issued therefor upon such terms and indemnity to the Company as the Board may prescribe.

(b) A Unit in the Company evidenced by a certificate shall constitute a security governed by Article 8 of the Uniform Commercial Code. Each certificate evidencing membership interests in the Company shall bear the following legend: "This certificate evidences an interest in Lehigh HMA, LLC and shall be a security for purposes of Article 8 of the Uniform Commercial Code." No change to this provision shall be effective until all outstanding certificates have been surrendered for cancellation and any new certificates thereafter issued shall not bear the foregoing legend.

15. DISSOLUTION.

15.1 Dissolution. Except as otherwise provided in the Act, the Company shall dissolve upon the decision of the Member to dissolve the Company or the sale or other disposition of all, or substantially all, of the assets of the Company and the sale and/or collection of any evidence of indebtedness received in connection therewith. Dissolution of the Company shall be effective upon the date specified in the Member's resolution or upon the sale or other disposition of all, or substantially all of the Assets of the Company and the sale and/or collection of any evidence of indebtedness received in connection therewith as applicable, but the Company shall not terminate until the assets of the Company shall have been distributed as provided in Section 15.3 and articles of dissolution are filed with the office of the Secretary of State of the State of Florida pursuant to Section 605.0707 of the Act. Notwithstanding dissolution of the Company, prior to the liquidation and termination of the Company, the Company shall continue to be governed by this Agreement.

15.2 Sale of Assets Upon Dissolution. Following the dissolution of the Company, the Company shall be wound up and the Board shall determine whether the assets of the Company are to be sold or whether some or all of such assets are to be distributed to the Member in kind in liquidation of the Company.

15.3 Distributions Upon Dissolution. Upon the dissolution of the Company, the properties of the Company to be sold shall be liquidated in orderly fashion and the proceeds thereof, and the property to be distributed in kind, shall be distributed as follows:

(a) First, to the payment and discharge of all of the Company's debts and liabilities, to the necessary expenses of liquidation and to the establishment of any cash reserves which the Member determines to create for unmatured and/or contingent liabilities or obligations of the Company.

(b) Second, to the Member.

16. GENERAL.

16.1 Amendment.

(a) Except as provided in Section 16.1(b), this Agreement may be modified or amended from time to time only upon the consent of the Member.

(b) In addition to any amendments authorized by Section 16.1(a), this Agreement may be amended from time to time by the Board without the consent of the Member to cure any ambiguity, to correct or supplement any provision hereof which may be inconsistent with any other provision hereof, or to make any other provisions with respect to matters or questions arising under this Agreement which will not be inconsistent with the provisions of this Agreement.

16.2 Captions; Section References. Section titles or captions contained in this Agreement are inserted only as a matter of convenience and reference, and in no way define, limit, extend or describe the scope of this Agreement, or the intent of any provision hereof. All references herein to Sections shall refer to Sections of this Agreement unless the context clearly requires otherwise.

16.3 Number and Gender. Unless the context otherwise requires, when used herein, the singular shall include the plural, the plural shall include the singular, and all nouns, pronouns and any variations thereof shall be deemed to refer to the masculine, feminine or neuter, as the identity of the person or persons may require.

16.4 Severability. If any provision of this Agreement, or the application thereof to any person, entity or circumstances, shall be invalid or unenforceable to any extent, the remainder of this Agreement, and the application of such provision to other persons, entities or circumstances, shall not be affected thereby and shall be enforced to the greatest extent permitted by law.

16.5 Binding Agreement. Except as otherwise provided herein, this Agreement shall be binding upon, and inure to the benefit of, the parties hereto and their respective executors, administrators, heirs, successors and assigns.

16.7 Entire Agreement. This Agreement contains the entire agreement with respect to the subject matter hereof.

WHEREAS, the Mesquite General, Mesquite Limited and MHI, desire to enter into this agreement to govern the affairs of the Partnership and its business under the Act;

NOW, THEREFORE, the parties hereby agree as follows:

ARTICLE 1
THE PARTNERSHIP

Section 1.1 Formation. The Partners hereby acknowledge that the Partnership was formed as a limited partnership pursuant to the provisions of the Act on February 22, 2002. Simultaneous with the formation of the Partnership, Mesquite HMA General, LLC was admitted as the General Partner and Mesquite HMA Limited, LLC was admitted as a Limited Partner.

Section 1.2 Name. The name of the Partnership is Lone Star HMA, L.P., a Delaware limited partnership, and all business of the Partnership shall be conducted in such name or, in the discretion of the General Partner, under any other name, provided that the name of the Partnership and the name in which its business is conducted shall not include the name of any Partner or any Affiliate of any Partner or any trade name associated with the business of any Partner or any Affiliate of any Partner without the consent of that Partner or Affiliate, and provided further that the General Partner may change the name of the Partnership upon ten (10) days written notice to the Limited Partners.

Section 1.3 Purpose/Powers. The purpose of the Partnership is to engage in any lawful business permitted under the Act. The Partnership shall have the power to do any and all acts necessary, appropriate, proper, advisable, incidental or convenient to or in furtherance of the purpose of the Partnership and shall have without limitation, any and all powers that may be exercised on behalf of the Partnership by the General Partner pursuant to this Agreement or the Act.

Section 1.4 Principal Place of Business. The principal place of business of the Partnership shall be at 5811 Pelican Bay Boulevard, Suite 500, Naples, Florida 34108-2710. The General Partner may change the principal place of business of the Partnership to any other place within or without the State of Delaware upon ten (10) days written notice to the Limited Partners. The registered office of the Partnership in the State of Delaware is located at 1209 Orange Street, Wilmington, Delaware 19801.

Section 1.5 Term. The term of the Partnership commenced on the date the certificate of limited partnership described in Section 17-201 of the Act (the "Certificate") was filed in the office of the Secretary of State of Delaware in accordance with the Act and shall continue until the winding up and liquidation of the Partnership and its business is completed following a Liquidating Event, as provided in Article 11.

Section 1.6 Filings; Agent for Service of Process.

(a) The General Partner caused the Certificate to be filed in the office of the Secretary of State of Delaware in accordance with the provisions of the Act. Subject to Section 5.3 of this Agreement: (i) the General Partner shall take any and all other actions, including without limitation the filing of amendments to the Certificate or new certificates, necessary to perfect and maintain the status of the Partnership as a limited partnership under the laws of Delaware or any other states or jurisdictions in which the Partnership is engaged in business; or (ii) the General Partner shall cause amendments to the Certificate to be filed whenever required by the Act.

(b) The registered agent for service of process on the Partnership in the State of Delaware shall be The Corporation Trust Company or any successor as appointed by the General Partner in accordance with the Act.

Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, the Partnership shall hold all of its property in the name of the Partnership and not in the name of any Partner.

Section 1.8 Payments of Individual Obligations. The Partnership's credit and assets shall be used solely for the benefit of the Partnership, and no asset of the Partnership shall be Transferred or encumbered for or in payment of any individual obligation of any Partner.

Section 1.9 Definitions. In addition to the other definitions contained in the preamble of this Agreement or defined elsewhere in this Agreement, the following terms will, when used in this Agreement, have the following respective meanings:

(a) "Act" means the Delaware Revised Uniform Limited Partnership Act, as set forth in 6 Delaware Code, Chapter 17, as amended, modified or supplemented from time to time (or any corresponding provisions of succeeding law).

(b) "Additional Capital Contributions" means, with respect to each Partner, the Capital Contributions made by such Partner pursuant to Section 2.3, reduced by the amount of any liabilities of such Partner assumed by the Partnership in connection with such Capital Contribution or which are secured by any property contributed by such Partner as a part of such Capital Contribution. In the event all or a portion of an Interest is transferred in accordance with the terms of this Agreement, the transferee shall succeed to the Additional Capital Contributions of the transferor to the extent they relate to the transferred Interest.

(c) "Adjusted Capital Account Deficit" means, with respect to any Limited Partner, the deficit balance, if any, in such Limited Partner's Capital Account as of the end of the relevant Allocation Year, after giving effect to the following adjustments:

(i) Credit to such Capital Account any amounts which such Limited Partner is obligated to restore pursuant to any provision of this Agreement or is deemed to be obligated to restore pursuant to the penultimate sentences of Section 1.704-2(g)(l) and Section 1.704-2(i)(5) of the Regulations; and

(ii) Debit to such Capital Account the items described in Section 1.704-l(b)(2)(ii)(d)(4), Section 1.704-l(b)(2)(ii)(d)(5) and Section 1.704-l(b)(2)(ii)(d)(6) of the Regulations.

The foregoing definition of "Adjusted Capital Account Deficit" is intended to comply with the provisions of Section 1.704-1(b)(2)(ii)(d) of the Regulations and shall be interpreted consistently therewith.

(d) "Affiliate" means, with respect to any Person, any Persons directly or indirectly controlling, controlled by, or under common control with, such other Person at any time during the period for which the determination of affiliation is being made. For purposes of this definition, the term "control" (including the correlative meanings of the terms "controlled by" and "under common control with"), as used with respect to any Person, means the possession, directly or indirectly, of the power to direct or cause the direction of management policies of such Person, whether through the ownership of voting securities or by contract or otherwise.

(e) "Agreement" or "Partnership Agreement" means this Agreement of Limited Partnership, as amended from time to time. All references in this Agreement to "Section" or "Sections" are to a section or sections of this Agreement unless otherwise specified.

(f) "Allocation Year" means (i) the period commencing on the Effective Date and ending on September 30, 2002, (ii) any subsequent period commencing on October 1 and ending on the following September 30, or (iii) any portion of the period described in clause (ii) for which the Partnership is required to allocate Profits, Losses and other items of Partnership income, gain, loss or deduction pursuant to Article 3.

(g) "Annual Measurement Period" shall have the meaning given it by Section 4.2(b).

(h) "Budget" means the written statement of estimated revenues, estimated expenses and estimated capital expenditures for the Partnership for any Fiscal Year, which will be presented to the Partners no later than the end of each Fiscal Year immediately preceding the Fiscal Year in question; provided, however, that no Budget will include, without the express consent of the MCI Partner, any expenditures or other obligations with respect to any action for which the consent of the MCI Partner is required under Section 5.3

(i) "Capital Account" means, with respect to any Partner, the Capital Account maintained for such Partner in accordance with the following provisions:

(i) To each Partner's Capital Account there shall be credited such Partner's Capital Contributions, such Partner's distributive share of Profits and any items in the nature of income or gain which are specially allocated pursuant to Section 3.2 or Section 3.3, and the amount of any Partnership liabilities assumed by such Partner or which are secured by any Partnership Property distributed to such Partner.

(ii) To each Partner's Capital Account there shall be debited the amount of cash and the Gross Asset Value of any Partnership Property distributed to such Partner pursuant to any provision of this Agreement, such Partner's distributive share of Losses and any items in the nature of expenses or losses which are specially allocated pursuant to Section 3.2 or Section 3.3, and the amount of any liabilities of such Partner assumed by the Partnership or which are secured by any property contributed by such Partner to the Partnership.

(iii) In the event all or a portion of an Interest is transferred in accordance with the terms of this Agreement, the transferee shall succeed to the Capital Account of the transferor to the extent it relates to the transferred Interest.

(iv) In determining the amount of any liability for purposes of subparagraphs (i) and (ii) and the definitions of "Additional Capital Contribution," there shall be taken into account Section 752(c) of the Code and any other applicable provisions of the Code and Regulations.

The foregoing provisions and the other provisions of this Agreement relating to the maintenance of Capital Accounts are intended to comply with Section 1.704-1(b) of the Regulations, and shall be interpreted and applied in a manner consistent with such Regulations. In the event the General Partner shall determine that it is prudent to modify the manner in which the Capital Accounts, or any debits or credits thereto (including, without limitation, debits or credits relating to liabilities which are secured by contributed or distributed property or which are assumed by the Partnership or any Partner), are computed in order to comply with such Regulations, the General Partner may make such modification, provided that it is not likely to have a material adverse effect on the amounts distributable to any Partner pursuant to Article 11 upon the dissolution of the Partnership. (d) Gross Income Allocation. In the event any Limited Partner has a deficit Capital Account at the end of any Allocation Year which is in excess of the sum of (i) the amount such Limited Partner is obligated to restore pursuant to any provision of this Agreement, and (ii) the amount such Limited Partner is deemed to be obligated to restore pursuant to the penultimate sentences of Section 1.704-2(g)(l) and Section 1.704-2(i)(5) of the Regulations, each such Limited Partner shall be specially allocated items of Partnership income and gain in the amount of such excess as quickly as possible, provided that an allocation pursuant to this Section 3.2(d) shall be made only if and to the extent that such Limited Partner would have a deficit Capital Account in excess of such sum after all other allocations provided for in this Article 3 have been made as if Section 3.2(c) and this Section 3.2(d) were not in the Agreement.

allocated to the Partners in accordance with their interests in the Partnership in the event Section 1.704-l(b)(2)(iv)(m)(2) of the Regulations applies, or to the Partner to whom such distribution was made in the event Section 1.704-l(b)(2)(iv)(m)(4) of the Regulations applies.

(h) Allocations Relating to Taxable Issuance of Partnership Interests. Any income, gain, loss, or deduction realized as a direct or indirect result of the issuance of an Interest by the Partnership to a Partner (the "Issuance Items") shall be allocated among the Partners so that, to the extent possible, the net amount of such Issuance Items, together with all other allocations under this Agreement to each Partner, shall be equal to the net amount that would have been allocated to each such Partner if the Issuance Items had not been realized.

Section 3.3 Curative Allocations. The allocations set forth in Section 3.2(a) through Section 3.2(g) (the "Regulatory Allocations") are intended to comply with certain requirements of the Regulations. It is the intent of the Partners that, to the extent possible, all Regulatory Allocations shall be offset either with other Regulatory Allocations or with special allocations of other items of Partnership income, gain, loss, or deduction pursuant to this Section 3.3. Therefore, notwithstanding any other provision of this Article 3 (other than the Regulatory Allocations), the General Partner shall make such offsetting special allocations of Partnership income, gain, loss, or deduction in whatever manner it determines appropriate so that, after such offsetting allocations are made, each Partner's Capital Account balance is, to the extent possible, equal to the Capital Account balance such Partner would have had if the Regulatory Allocations were not part of the Agreement and all Partnership items were allocated pursuant to Section 3.1 and Section 3.2(h). In exercising its discretion under this Section 3.3, the General Partner shall take into account future Regulatory Allocations under Section 3.2(a) and Section 3.2(b) that, although not yet made, are likely to offset other Regulatory Allocations previously made under Section 3.2(e) and Section 3.2(f).

Section 3.4 Loss Limitation. Losses allocated pursuant to Section 3.l(b) hereof shall not exceed the maximum amount of losses that can be allocated without causing any Limited Partner to have an Adjusted Capital Account Deficit at the end of any Allocation Year. All Losses in excess of the limitations set forth in this Section 3.4 shall be allocated to the General Partner.

Section 3.5 Other Allocation Rules.

(a) Profits, Losses and any other items of income, gain, loss or deduction shall be allocated to the Partners pursuant to this Article 3 as of the last day of each Allocation Year; provided that Profits, Losses and such other items shall also be allocated at such times as the Gross Asset Values of Partnership Property are adjusted pursuant to subparagraph (ii) of the definition of Gross Asset Value in Section 1.9.

(b) For purposes of determining the Profits, Losses, or any other items allocable to any period, Profits, Losses, and any such other items shall be determined on a daily, monthly, or other basis, as determined by the General Partner using any permissible method under Section 706 of the Code and the Regulations thereunder.

(c) The Partners are aware of the income tax consequences of the allocations made by this Article 3 and hereby agree to be bound by the provisions of this Article 3 in reporting their shares of Partnership income and loss for income tax purposes, except to the extent otherwise required by law.

(d) Solely for purposes of determining a Partner's proportionate share of the "excess nonrecourse liabilities" of the Partnership within the meaning of Section 1.752-3(a)(3) of the Regulations, the Partners' interests in Partnership profits are in proportion to their Percentage Interests.

(e) To the extent permitted by Section 1.704-2(h)(3) of the Regulations, the General Partner shall endeavor to treat distributions of Net Cash Flow as having been made from the proceeds of a Nonrecourse Liability or a Partner Nonrecourse Debt only to the extent that such distributions would cause or increase an Adjusted Capital Account Deficit for any Limited Partner.

Section 3.6 Tax Allocations: Code Section 704(c). In accordance with Section 704(c) of the Code and the Regulations thereunder, income, gain, loss, and deduction with respect to any property contributed to the capital of the Partnership shall, solely for tax purposes, be allocated among the Partners so as to take account of any variation between the adjusted basis of such property to the Partnership for federal income tax purposes and its initial Gross Asset Value (computed in accordance with subparagraph (i) of the definition of "Gross Asset Value" in Section 1.9). In the event the Gross Asset Value of any Partnership asset is adjusted pursuant to subparagraph (ii) of the definition of "Gross Asset Value" in Section 1.9, subsequent allocations of income, gain, loss, and deduction with respect to such asset shall take account of any variation between the adjusted basis of such asset for federal income tax purposes and its Gross Asset Value in the same manner as under Section 704(c) of the Code and the Regulations thereunder. Any elections or other decisions relating to such allocations shall be made by the General Partner in any manner that reasonably reflects the purpose and intention of this Agreement, provided that the Partnership shall elect to apply the traditional allocation method permitted by the Regulations under Section 704(c) of the Code. Allocations pursuant to this Section 3.6 are solely for purposes of federal, state, and local taxes and shall not affect, or in any way be taken into account in computing, any Partner's Capital Account or share of Profits, Losses, other items, or distributions pursuant to any other provision of this Agreement. Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, all items of Partnership income, gain, loss, deduction, and any other allocations not otherwise provided for shall be divided among the Partners in the same proportions as they share Profits or Losses, as the case may be, for the Allocation Year.

The existence of these relationships and acting in such capacities will not result in the Limited Partner being deemed to be participating in the control of the business of the Partnership or otherwise affect the limited liability of the Limited Partner.

Section 6.1 Indemnification of the Partners.

(a) Subject to Section 6.l(e), the Partnership, its receiver or its trustee (in the case of its receiver or trustee, to the extent of Partnership Property) shall indemnify, save harmless, and pay all Expenses of the General Partner or any officers, directors, members, managers, employees or agents of the General Partner relating to any Expenses incurred by reason of any act performed or omitted to be performed by such General Partner, officer, director, member, manager, employee or agent in connection with the business of the Partnership.

(b) Subject to Section 6.l(e), in the event of any action by a Limited Partner against the General Partner or officer, director, member, manager, employee or agent of the General Partner, including a Partnership derivative suit, the Partnership, its receiver or its trustee (in the case of a receiver or trustee, to the extent of Partnership Property) shall indemnify, save harmless, and pay all Expenses of the General Partner, officer, director, member, manager, employee or agent, incurred in the defense of such action, provided that the General Partner, officer, director, member, manager, employee or agent obtains a non-appealable judgment in its favor in such action.

(c) Subject to Section 6.1(e), the Partnership, its receiver or its trustee (in the case of its receiver or trustee, to the extent of Partnership Property) shall indemnify, save harmless, and pay all Expenses of a Limited Partner or any officers, directors, members, managers, employees or agents of the Limited Partner relating to any liability or obligation of the Partnership to any third-party in connection with the Business of the Partnership; provided, however, that nothing under this Section 6.1(c) shall relieve any Limited Partner of its obligations under this Agreement.

(d) Subject to Section 6.l(e), the Partnership its receiver or its trustee (in the case of a receiver or trustee, to the extent of Partnership Property) shall indemnify, save harmless, and pay all Expenses of any General Partner incurred in connection with such Partner having made, for the benefit of the Partnership, any deposit, acquired any option, or made any other similar payment or assumed any obligation in accordance with this Agreement and in connection with the acquisition of any property by the Partnership.

In addition to the foregoing, neither a Limited Partner nor General Partner will be indemnified with respect to any liability or obligation that was caused by or related to such Limited Partner or General Partner breaching the terms and conditions of this Agreement or exceeding its authority as a Limited Partner or General Partner.

(f) All indemnities provided for in this Agreement shall survive the transfer of an Interest.

Section 6.2 Indemnification Procedures.

(a) In the event any claim is made by a third party against a Partner or Liquidator or any officer or successor or assign of any of them (each of them being referred to as an "Indemnitee"), with respect to an actual or potential liability for which any such Person is otherwise entitled to be indemnified under any provisions of this Article 6 and any such Person wishes to be indemnified with respect thereto, such Person shall promptly notify the Partnership, its receiver or trustee (the "Indemnitor"); provided that the failure of any such Person to notify any Indemnitor shall not relieve such Indemnitor from any liability which it otherwise may have to such Person hereunder.

(b) Each Indemnitee may by notice to the Indemnitor take control of all aspects of the investigation and defense of all claims asserted against it and may employ counsel of its choice and at the expense of the Indemnitor; provided that (A) the amount of any settlement such Indemnitee may enter into must be consented to by the Indemnitor and no Indemnitee may in connection with any such investigation, defense or settlement, without the consent of the Indemnitor, require the Indemnitor or any of its subsidiaries to take or refrain from taking any action (other than payment of such a settlement amount) or to make any public statement, which such Person reasonably considers to materially adversely affect its interest, and (B) such Indemnitee may not take control of any investigation, defense or settlement which could entail a risk of criminal liability to the Indemnitor or any of its subsidiaries. Upon the request of the Indemnitor, each Indemnitee shall use its best efforts to keep the Indemnitor reasonably apprised of the status of those aspects of such investigation and defense controlled by such Indemnitee and shall provide such information with respect thereto as the Indemnitor may reasonably request. The Indemnitor shall cooperate with the Indemnitee in all reasonable respects with respect thereto.

(c) Any Indemnitor may, by notice to the Indemnitees, take control of all aspects of the investigation and defense of all claims asserted against it, and may employ counsel of its choice and at its expense; provided that (A) no Indemnitor may without the consent of any Indemnitee agree to any settlement that requires such Indemnitee to make any payment that is not indemnified hereunder, or does not grant a general release to such Indemnitee, and in any event such Indemnitor may not in connection with any such investigation, defense or settlement, without the consent of any Indemnitee, take or refrain from taking any action which would reasonably be expected to materially impair the indemnification of such Indemnitee hereunder or would require such Indemnitee to take or refrain from taking any action or to make any public statement, which such Person reasonably considers to materially adversely affect its interests, (B) no Indemnitor may take control of any investigation, defense or settlement, without the consent of any Indemnitee, if the liabilities involved in such proceedings involve any material risk of the sale, forfeiture or loss of, or the creation of any Lien on, any property of such Indemnitee and (C) no Indemnitor may take control of any investigation, defense or settlement which could entail a risk of criminal liability to any Indemnitee. Upon the request of any Indemnitee, the Indemnitor shall use its best efforts to keep such Indemnitee reasonably apprised of the status of those aspects of such investigation and defense controlled by such Indemnitor and shall provide such information with respect thereto as such Indemnitee may reasonably request. The Indemnitees shall cooperate with the Indemnitor in all reasonable respects with respect thereto.

The MCI Partner's rights of access and inspection provided by this Section 7.l(c) will be made available at reasonable dates and times and in such a manner as not to interfere unreasonably with the operation of the Partnership. The rights granted to a Partner pursuant to this Section 7.1 (c) are expressly subject to compliance by such Partner with the confidentiality procedures and guidelines of the Partnership, as such procedures and guidelines may be established from time to time. The foregoing will not be deemed or construed in any way to limit or restrict any rights or entitlements which the MCI Partner may have under applicable law to inspect, review and/or have access to the Partnership's premises, facilities, books, records and employees.

Section 7.2 Financial Information and Reports.

(a) Preparation and Delivery. The General Partner shall be responsible for the preparation of financial reports of the Partnership and the coordination of financial matters of the Partnership with the Partnership's accountants. Within 30 days following the end of each calendar month, the Partnership will deliver to the Limited Partners true and complete copies of the unaudited balance sheets and related unaudited statements of revenues and expenses of the Partnership for the month then ended, which will be certified by the chief financial officer of the Partnership as having been prepared in accordance with GAAP and as fairly presenting in all material respects the financial position and results of operations of the Partnership as of the date and for the period indicated.

(b) Audit Rights of MCI Partner. The MCI Partner will have the right, at its own cost and expense and within a reasonable time after the close of each Fiscal Year of the Partnership, to have the annual financial statements of the Partnership for that Fiscal Year reviewed or audited by such firm of independent accountants as the MCI Partner may determine. The MCI Partner will also have the right, at its own cost and expense, to have so reviewed or audited all accounting records pertaining to any provision of management services to the Partnership performed by an Affiliate of HMA or the General Partner. The General Partner will cooperate in all reasonable respects with the MCI Partner and its accounting firm(s) in providing access to the Partnership's books and records for the purposes contemplated by this Section 7.2(b); provided, however, that: (i) such cooperation and access will be provided at reasonable dates and times and in such a manner as not to interfere unreasonably with the operation of the Partnership; and (ii) all out-of-pocket expenses incurred by the Partnership or the General Partner or its Affiliates in providing such cooperation and access will be promptly reimbursed by the MCI Partners upon verification of the amount thereof.

Section 7.3 Tax Information.

(a) The General Partner is authorized to make any and all elections for federal, state, and local tax purposes including, without limitation, any election, if permitted by applicable law: (i) to make the election provided for in Section 623l(a)(l)(B)(ii) of the Code or take any other action necessary to cause the provisions of Section 6221 through Section 6231 of the Code to apply to the Partnership, (ii) to adjust the basis of Partnership Property pursuant to Section 754, Section 734(b) and Section 743(b) of the Code, or comparable provisions of state or local law, in connection with Transfers of Partnership Interests and Partnership distributions; (iii) with the unanimous consent of the Limited Partners, to extend the statute of limitations for assessment of tax deficiencies against the Partners with respect to adjustments to the Partnership's federal, state, or local tax returns; and (iv) to the extent provided in Section 6221 through Section 6231 of the Code, to represent the Partnership and the Partners before taxing authorities or courts of competent jurisdiction in tax matters affecting the Partnership or the Partners in their capacities as Partners, and to file any tax returns and execute any agreements or other documents relating to or affecting such tax matters, including agreements or other documents that bind the Partners with respect to such tax matters or otherwise affect the rights of the Partnership and the Partners. The General Partner is specifically authorized to act as the "Tax Matters Partner" under the Code and in any similar capacity under state or local law.

(b) Upon the request of the MCI Partner or the Permitted Transferee thereof, the General Partner shall cause the Partnership to make the election under Section 754 of the Code.

(c) Necessary tax information shall be delivered to each Partner as soon as practicable after the end of each Fiscal Year of the Partnership but not later than four (4) months after the end of each Fiscal Year. The Tax Matters Partner shall file tax returns for the Partnership prepared in accordance with the Code and the Regulations.

Section 7.4 Proprietary Information. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Article 7, the Limited Partners shall not have access to any information contemplated by Section 17-305(h) of the Act.

ARTICLE 8

Following such proposal, the General Partner shall submit to the Partners a verbatim statement of any proposed amendment, providing that counsel for the Partnership shall have approved of the same in writing as to form, and the General Partner shall include in any such submission a recommendation as to the proposed amendment. The General Partner shall seek the written vote of the Partners on the proposed amendment or shall call a meeting to vote thereon and to transact any other business that it may deem appropriate. Subject to Section 5.3, a proposed amendment shall be adopted and be effective as an amendment to this Agreement if it receives the affirmative vote of a majority of the Partners.

Section 8.2 Meetings of the Partners.

(a) Notice. Meetings of the Partners may be called by the General Partner and shall be called upon the written request of any Limited Partner. The call shall state the nature of the business to be transacted. Notice of any such meeting shall be given to all Partners not less than ten (10) or more than sixty (60) days prior to the date of such meeting. Partners may vote in person, by proxy or by telephone at such meeting. Whenever the vote or consent of Partners is permitted or required under this Agreement, such vote or consent may be given at a meeting of Partners or may be given in accordance with the procedure prescribed in Section 8.3. Except as otherwise expressly provided in this Agreement, the vote of a majority of the Partners shall control.

(b) Record Date. For the purpose of determining the Partners entitled to vote on, or to vote at, any meeting of the Partners or any adjournment thereof, the General Partner or the Partners requesting such meeting may fix, in advance, a date as the record date for any such determination. Such date shall not be more than sixty (60) days or less than ten (10) days before any such meeting.

(c) Quorum. At all meetings of the Partners, except as otherwise provided by law, there shall be present, in person or represented by proxy, Partners with at least a majority of the Interests entitled to vote thereat, in order to constitute a quorum; but if there be no quorum, the Partners present or represented may, by majority vote, adjourn the meeting from time to time, but not for a period of over thirty (30) days at any one time, without notice other than by announcement at the meeting, until a quorum shall attend. At any such adjourned meeting at which a quorum shall attend, any business may be transacted which might have been transacted at the meeting as originally called. When a quorum is once present, it is not broken by the subsequent withdrawal of any Partner.

(d) Proxies. Each Partner may authorize any Person or Persons to act for it by proxy on all matters in which the Partner is entitled to participate, including waiving notice of any meeting, or voting or participating at a meeting. Every proxy must be signed by the Partner or its attorney-in-fact. No proxy shall be valid after the expiration of eleven (11) months from the date thereof unless otherwise provided in the proxy. Every proxy shall be revocable at the pleasure of the Partner executing it.

(e) Presiding Partner or Person. Each meeting of Partners shall be conducted by the General Partner or such other Person as the General Partner may appoint pursuant to such rules for the conduct of the meeting as the General Partner or such other Person deems appropriate.

Section 8.3 Written Consent. Subject to Section 5.3, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement any action that is required to be taken by action of the Partners may be taken without a meeting, without prior notice and without a vote, if a consent or consents, in writing, setting forth the action so taken, shall be signed by a sufficient number of Partners having at least the minimum number of Interests necessary to authorize such action at a duly called meeting with all Partners present. The General Partner shall deliver a copy of any action so taken by less than unanimous written consent to all Partners promptly after the taking of such action. Notwithstanding the foregoing or anything else contained in this Agreement, any consent of the MCI Partner or MCI Partner Designee may be given orally.

TRANSFERS

Section 9.1 Restriction on Transfers. No MCI Partner will Transfer any Interest now or hereafter owned by it except for the following Transfers to the following Persons (each, a "Permitted Transferee"), and only after compliance with the provisions of Section 9.2:

(a) any Transfer to any other Person with the prior written consent of the General Partner; or

(b) any Transfer to any Person which is, both immediately before and immediately after such Transfer, an Affiliate directly or indirectly wholly-owned by MCI; or

(c) any Transfer to any Person in full compliance with the provisions of Article 3 of the Put and First Refusal Agreement.

The parties agree that they will not cause or permit the Transfer on the books of the Partnership of any Interests now or hereafter owned by any MCI Partner unless the Transfer is made as permitted by this Section 9.1 and after compliance with Section 9.2. Any Permitted Transferee who satisfies the conditions of Section 9.2 shall be deemed admitted as a Limited Partner for all purposes of this Agreement and the Act. If a Permitted Transferee does not satisfy the conditions of Section 9.2 such Transfer shall be deemed null and void and of no force an effect with respect to all rights associated with such Interest.

Section 9.2 Agreement of Certain Transferees. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement to the contrary, no Transfer of any Interest of an MCI Partner to a Permitted Transferee or a transfer by a HMA Partner will be effective unless each such Permitted Transferee or transferee of a HMA Partner, as a precondition to the Transfer, satisfies the following conditions:

(a) The Permitted Transferee or transferee of a HMA Partner becomes a party to this Agreement by dating and executing a copy of this Agreement and delivering it to the General Partner. In such event, such Permitted Transferee or transferee of a HMA Partner will be bound, as of the date of such execution and delivery, by all of the terms and conditions hereof as they apply to the Partner who transferred such Interest.

(b) The Permitted Transferee or transferee of a HMA Partner provides the Partnership with its taxpayer identification number, sufficient information to determine the transferee's initial tax basis in the Interest Transferred, and any other information reasonably necessary to permit the Partnership to file all required federal and state tax returns and other legally required information statements or returns. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Partnership shall not be required to make any distribution otherwise provided for in this Agreement with respect to any transferred Interest until it has received such information.

Section 9.3 Rights of Unadmitted Assignees; Admission of Substitute Partners.

(a) In General. A Person who acquires an Interest but who is not admitted as a substituted Partner pursuant to Section 9.3(b) or (c), as appropriate, shall be entitled only to allocations and distributions with respect to such Interest in accordance with this Agreement, and shall have no right to any information or accounting of the affairs of the Partnership, shall not be entitled to inspect the books or records of the Partnership, and shall not have any of the rights of a General Partner or a Limited Partner under the Act or this Agreement.

(b) General Partner. A transferee who acquires an Interest from a General Partner hereunder by means of a Transfer but who is not admitted as a General Partner, shall have no authority to act for or bind the Partnership, to inspect the Partnership's books, or otherwise to be treated as a General Partner. Following such a Transfer, the transferor shall not cease to be a general partner of the Partnership and shall continue to be a General Partner until: (i) such transferee is admitted as a General Partner by the vote of the Limited Partners under Section 10.3; and (ii) such transferee becomes a party to this Agreement by dating and executing a copy of this Agreement in accordance with Section 9.2.

(c) Limited Partners. If a Limited Partner, other than one subject to the restrictions of Section 9.1, Transfers an Interest to a transferee, the Limited partner transferring such Interest shall not cease to be a Limited Partner of the Partnership and shall continue to be a Limited Partner until such time as the transferee is admitted as a Limited Partner. Such a transferee shall be deemed admitted as a Limited Partner upon: (i) the written consent of the General Partner and (2) the compliance with such transferee of the requirements of Section 9.2.

(d) Timing of Admission of New Partners. If the transferee of an Interest from a Partner is admitted as a Partner under this Agreement, such transferee shall be deemed admitted to the Partnership as a substituted Partner immediately prior to the Transfer, and such transferee shall continue the business of the Partnership without dissolution.

Section 9.4 Representations; Legend. Each Partner hereby agrees that the following legend may be placed upon any counterpart of this Agreement, the Certificate, or any other document or instrument evidencing ownership of Interests:

> "Transfer of the Interests represented is restricted by the terms of a certain Agreement of Limited Partnership, dated May 1, 2002 among the Lone Star HMA, L.P. and its Partners, a copy of which is on file at the office of the Partnership."

Section 9.5 Distributions and Allocations in Respect of Transferred Interests. If any Interest is Transferred during any Fiscal Year in compliance with the provisions of this Article 9, Profits, Losses, each item thereof, and all other items attributable to the Transferred Interest for such Fiscal Year shall be divided and allocated between the transferor and the transferee by taking into account their varying Percentage Interests during the Fiscal Year in accordance with Section 706(d) of the Code, using any conventions permitted by law and selected by the General Partner. All distributions on or before the date of such Transfer shall be made to the transferor, and all distributions thereafter shall be made to the transferee. Solely for purposes of making such allocations and distributions, the Partnership shall recognize such Transfer not later than the end of the calendar month during which it is given notice of such Transfer, provided that, if the Partnership is given notice of a Transfer at least twenty (20) days prior to the Transfer, the Partnership shall recognize such Transfer as of the date of such Transfer, and provided further that if the Partnership does not receive a notice stating the date such Interest was Transferred and such other information as the General Partner may reasonably require within thirty (30) days after the end of the Fiscal Year during which the Transfer occurs, then all such items shall be allocated, and all distributions shall be made, to the Person who, according to the books and records of the Partnership, was the owner of the Interest on the last day of such Fiscal Year. Neither the Partnership nor any General Partner shall incur any liability for making allocations and distributions in accordance with the provisions of this Section 9.5, whether or not any General Partner or the Partnership has knowledge of any Transfer of ownership of any Interest.

REMOVAL AND ELECTION OF GENERAL PARTNER

Section 10.1 Covenant Not to Withdraw, Transfer, or Dissolve. Except as otherwise permitted by this Agreement, the General Partner hereby covenants and agrees not to (a) take any action to file a certificate of dissolution or its equivalent with respect to itself, (b) withdraw or attempt to withdraw from the Partnership, (c) exercise any power under the Act to dissolve the Partnership, (d) Transfer all or any portion of its Interest as a General Partner, or (f) petition for judicial dissolution of the Partnership. Further, the General Partner hereby covenants and agrees to continue to carry out the duties of a General Partner hereunder until the Partnership is dissolved and liquidated pursuant to Article 11.

Section 10.2 Termination of Status as General Partner.

(a) The General Partner shall cease to be a General Partner upon the first to occur of (i) the bankruptcy of the General Partner; (ii) the Transfer of the General Partner's entire Interest as a General Partner, provided that the transferee is admitted as a substituted General Partner pursuant to Section 9.3(a); (iii) the involuntary Transfer by operation of law of such General Partner's entire Interest in the Partnership, provided that the transferee is admitted as a substituted General Partner pursuant to Section 9.3(a) (iv) the vote of a majority of the Limited Partners to approve a request by such General Partner to retire, or (v) the vote of a majority of the Limited Partners to remove such General Partner after such General Partner has committed any act or suffered any other condition that would justify a decree of dissolution of the Partnership under the laws of the State of Delaware. In the event a Person ceases to be a General Partner without having Transferred its entire Interest as a General Partner, such Person shall be treated as an unadmitted transferee of an Interest as a result of a Transfer. If a Person ceases to be a General Partner for any reason under this Agreement, such Person shall continue to be liable as a General Partner for all debts and obligations of the Partnership existing at the time such Person ceases to be a General Partner, regardless of whether, at such time, such debts or liabilities were known or unknown, actual or contingent. A Person shall not be liable as a General Partner for Partnership debts and obligations arising after such Person ceases to be a General Partner. Any debts, obligations, or liabilities in damages to the Partnership of any Person who ceases to be a General Partner shall be collectible by any legal means and the Partnership is authorized, in addition to any other remedies at law or in equity, to apply any amounts otherwise distributable or payable by the Partnership to such Person to satisfy such debts, obligations, or liabilities.

(b) If at the time a Person ceases to be a General Partner such Person is also a Limited Partner with respect to an Interest other than its Interest as a General Partner, such cessation shall not affect such Person's rights and obligations with respect to such Interest.

Section 10.3 Election of New General Partners. Provided the Partnership has one General Partner, any Partner may nominate one or more Persons for election as additional General Partners. The election of an additional General Partner shall require an affirmative vote of a majority in interest of the Limited Partners. If there is only one General Partner and the status of such General Partner terminates for any reason under Section 10.2, the HMA Partners and the MCI Partner agree to vote their Interests to elect the successor General Partner nominated by the HMA Partners, so as to avoid the occurrence of a Liquidating Event; provided, however, that if the HMA Partners fail to nominate and to vote their Interests in favor of the successor General Partner within twenty days after any termination contemplated by Section 10.2 and such failure is not remedied within twenty (20) days after the HMA Partners receive written notice from the MCI Partner of such failure, then the MCI Partner shall have the right to appoint such successor General Partner upon the expiration of such 20-day period.

DISSOLUTION AND WINDING UP

Section 11.1 Liquidating Events. The Partnership shall dissolve and commence winding up and liquidating upon the first to occur of any of the following (each a "Liquidating Event"):

(a) The sale of all or substantially all of the Partnership Property;

(b) The unanimous vote of the Partners to dissolve, wind up, and liquidate the Partnership;

(c) The happening of any other event that makes it unlawful, impossible, or impractical to carry on the business of the Partnership; or

(d) The withdrawal or removal of the General Partner, the assignment by the General Partner of its entire Interest, or any other event that causes the General Partner to cease to be a general partner under the Act, provided that any such event shall not constitute a Liquidating Event if the Partnership is continued pursuant to this Section 11.1.

The Partners hereby agree that, notwithstanding any provision of the Act, the Partnership shall not dissolve prior to the occurrence of a Liquidating Event. Upon the occurrence of any event set forth in Section 11.l(d) (so long as no other Liquidating Event has occurred), the Partnership shall not be dissolved or required to be wound up if (x) at the time of such event there is at least one remaining General Partner and that General Partner carries on the business of the Partnership (any such remaining General Partner being hereby authorized to carry on the business of the Partnership), or (y) within ninety (90) days after such event all remaining Partners agree in writing to continue the business of the Partnership and to the appointment, effective as of the date of such event, of one or more additional General Partners. If it is determined, by a court of competent jurisdiction, that the Partnership has dissolved prior to the occurrence of a Liquidating Event, or if upon the occurrence of an event specified in Section 11.1(d), the Partners fail to appoint a substitute General Partner effective as of such event and to agree to continue the business of the Partnership as provided in this Section 11.1, then within an additional ninety (90) days after such determination or the last day of such ninety (90) day period, as the case may be (the "Reconstitution Period"), a two-thirds majority of the Partners may elect to reconstitute the Partnership and continue its business on the same terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement by forming a new limited partnership on terms identical to those set forth in this Agreement and having as a general partner a Person elected by such two-thirds majority. Upon any such election by a two-thirds majority of the Partners, all Partners shall be bound thereby and shall be deemed to have consented thereto. Unless such an election is made within the Reconstitution Period, the Partnership shall wind up its affairs in accordance with Section 11.2. If such an election is made within the Reconstitution Period, then:

(i) The reconstituted limited partnership shall continue until the occurrence of a Liquidating Event as provided in this Section 11.1;

(ii) If the successor general partner is not a former General Partner, then the Interest of any former General Partner shall be treated thenceforth as the Interest of a Limited Partner; and

(iii) All necessary steps shall be taken to cancel this Agreement and the Certificate and to enter into a new partnership agreement and certificate of limited partnership, and the successor general partner may for this purpose exercise the powers of attorney granted the General Partner pursuant to Section 5.5 and shall cause such certificate of limited partnership for the reconstituted partnership to be filed in the office of the Secretary of State of Delaware in accordance with the Act; provided that the right of a two-thirds majority of the Partners to select a successor general partner and to reconstitute and continue the business of the Partnership shall not exist and may not be exercised unless the Partnership has received an opinion of counsel that the exercise of the right would not result in the loss of limited liability of any Limited Partner and neither the Partnership nor the reconstituted partnership would cease to be treated as a partnership for federal income tax purposes upon the exercise of such right to continue.

Section 11.2 Winding Up. Upon the occurrence of a Liquidating Event, the Partnership shall continue solely for the purposes of winding up its affairs in an orderly manner, liquidating its assets, and satisfying the claims of its creditors and Partners and no Partner shall take any action that is inconsistent with, or not necessary to or appropriate for, the winding up of the Partnership's business and affairs. To the extent not inconsistent with the foregoing, all covenants contained in this Agreement and obligations provided for in this Agreement shall continue to be fully binding on the Partners until such time as the Partnership Property has been distributed pursuant to this Section 11.2 and the Certificate has been canceled in accordance with the Act. The Liquidator shall be responsible for overseeing the winding up and dissolution of the Partnership, shall take full account of the Partnership's liabilities and property, shall cause the Partnership Property to be liquidated as promptly as is consistent with obtaining the fair value thereof unless the Partners unanimously consent to distributions of all or any part of the Partnership Property in kind, and shall cause the Partnership Property or the proceeds therefrom, to the extent sufficient therefor, to be applied and distributed in the following order:

(a) First, to creditors other than the General Partner in satisfaction of all of the Partnership's debts and liabilities other than liabilities for which reasonable provision for payment has been made and liabilities for distributors under Section 17-606 of the Act;

(b) Second, to the payment and discharge of all of the Partnership's debts and liabilities to the General Partner to the extent adequate provision therefore has not been made; and

(c) The balance, if any, to the Partners in accordance with their positive Capital Accounts, after giving effect to all contributions, distributions, and allocations for all periods.

The General Partner shall not receive any additional compensation for any services performed pursuant to this Article 11. The General Partner understands and agrees that by accepting the provisions of this Section 11.2 setting forth the priority of the distribution of the assets of the Partnership to be made upon its liquidation, the General Partner expressly waives any right which it, as a creditor of the Partnership, might otherwise have under the Act to receive distributions of assets pari passu with the other creditors of the Partnership in connection with a distribution of assets of the Partnership in satisfaction of any liability of the Partnership, and hereby subordinates to said creditors any such right.

Section 11.3 Limitations on Distributions. In the discretion of the Liquidator, a pro rata portion of the distributions that would otherwise be made to the Partners pursuant to this Article 11 may be:

(a) Distributed to a trust established for the benefit of the Partners solely for the purposes of liquidating Partnership Property, collecting amounts owed to the Partnership, and paying any contingent or unforeseen liabilities or obligations of the Partnership or of the General Partner arising out of or in connection with the Partnership. The assets of any such trust shall be distributed to the Partners from time to time, in the reasonable discretion of the Liquidator in the same proportions as the amount distributed to such trust by the Partnership would otherwise have been distributed to the Partners pursuant to Section 11.2; or

(b) Withheld to provide a reasonable reserve for Partnership liabilities (contingent or otherwise) and to allow for the collection of the unrealized portion of any installment obligations owed to the Partnership, provided that such withheld amounts shall be distributed to the Partners as soon as practicable.

The portion of the distributions that would otherwise have been made to each of the Partners that is instead distributed to a trust pursuant to Section 11.3(a) or withheld to provide a reserve pursuant to Section 11.3(b) shall be determined in the same manner as the expense or deduction would have been allocated if the Partnership had realized an expense equal to such amounts immediately prior to distributions being made pursuant to Section 11.2.

Section 11.4 Compliance With Certain Requirements of Regulations; Deficit Capital Accounts. In the event the Partnership is "liquidated" within the meaning of Section 1.704- l(b)(2)(ii)(g) of the Regulations, (x) distributions shall be made pursuant to this Article 11 to the Partners who have positive Capital Accounts in compliance with Section 1.704-l(b)(2)(ii)(b)(2) of the Regulations, and (y) if any General Partner's Capital Account has a deficit balance (after giving effect to all contributions, distributions, and allocations for all taxable years, including the taxable year during which such liquidation occurs), such General Partner shall contribute to the capital of the Partnership the amount necessary to restore such deficit balance to zero in compliance with Section 1.704-1(b)(2)(ii)(b)(3) of the Regulations. If any Limited Partner has a deficit balance in its Capital Account (after giving effect to all contributions, distributions, and allocations for all taxable years, including the taxable year during which such liquidation occurs), such Limited Partner shall have no obligation to make any contribution to the capital of the Partnership with respect to such deficit, and such deficit shall not be considered a debt owed to the Partnership or to any other Person for any purpose whatsoever. In the discretion of the Liquidator, a pro rata portion of the distributions that would otherwise be made to the Partners pursuant to this Article 11 may be:

(a) Distributed to a trust established for the benefit of the Partners solely for the purposes of liquidating Partnership Property, collecting amounts owed to the Partnership, and paying any contingent or unforeseen liabilities or obligations of the Partnership or of the General Partner arising out of or in connection with the Partnership. The assets of any such trust shall be distributed to the Partners from time to time, in the reasonable discretion of the Liquidator in the same proportions as the amount distributed to such trust by the Partnership would otherwise have been distributed to the Partners pursuant to Section 11.2; or

(b) Withheld to provide a reasonable reserve for Partnership liabilities (contingent or otherwise) and to allow for the collection of the unrealized portion of any installment obligations owed to the Partnership, provided that such withheld amounts shall be distributed to the Partners as soon as practicable.

The portion of the distributions that would otherwise have been made to each of the Partners that is instead distributed to a trust pursuant to Section 11.3(a) or withheld to provide a reserve pursuant to Section 11.3(b) shall be determined in the same manner as the expense or deduction would have been allocated if the Partnership had realized an expense equal to such amounts immediately prior to distributions being made pursuant to Section 11.2.

Section 11.5 Deemed Contribution and Distribution. In the event the Partnership is liquidated within the meaning of Section 1.704-1 (b)(2)(ii)(g) of the Regulations but no Liquidating Event has occurred, the Partnership Property shall not be liquidated, the Partnership's liabilities shall not be paid or discharged, and the Partnership's affairs shall not be wound up. Instead, solely for federal income tax purposes, the Partnership shall be deemed to have contributed all Partnership Property and liabilities to a new limited partnership in exchange for an interest in such new limited partnership and, immediately thereafter, the Partnership will be deemed to liquidate by distributing interests in the new limited partnership to the Partners.

Section 11.6 Rights of Partners. Each Partner shall look solely to the assets of the Partnership for the return of its Capital Contribution and shall have no right or power to demand or receive property other than cash from the Partnership, and no Partner shall have priority over any other Partner as to the return of its Capital Contributions or distributions.

Section 11.7 Notice of Dissolution. In the event a Liquidating Event occurs or an event occurs that would, but for provisions of Section 11.1, result in a dissolution of the Partnership, the General Partner shall, within thirty (30) days thereafter, provide written notice thereof to each of the Partners and to all other parties with whom the Partnership regularly conducts business (as determined in the discretion of the General Partner) and shall publish notice thereof in a newspaper of general circulation in each place in which the Partnership regularly conducts business (as determined in the discretion of the General Partner).

Section 11.8 Character of Liquidating Distributions. All payments made in liquidation of the Interest of a retiring Partner pursuant to Article 11 shall be made in exchange for the interest of such Partner in Partnership Property pursuant to Section 736(b)(1) of the Code, including the interest of such Partner in Partnership goodwill.

Section 11.9 The Liquidator.

(a) Definition. The "Liquidator" shall mean the General Partner; provided that either (i) if a Bankruptcy has occurred with respect to the General Partner, or (ii) if there is no remaining General Partner, then a "Liquidator" shall be appointed by the Limited Partners, which Person may be the General Partner.

(b) Fees. In the event that the Liquidator is other than a General Partner, the Partnership is authorized to pay a reasonable fee to the Liquidator for its services performed pursuant to this Article 11 and to reimburse the Liquidator for its reasonable costs and expenses incurred in performing those services.

(c) Indemnification. In the event that the Liquidator is a Person other than a General Partner, the Partnership, or in the event that the Partnership has terminated, the General Partner, shall indemnify, save harmless, and pay all judgments and claims against, such Liquidator or any officers, directors, agents or employees of the Liquidator relating to any liability or damage incurred by reason of any act performed or omitted to be performed by the Liquidator, officer, director, agents or employees in connection with the liquidation of the Partnership, including reasonable attorneys' fees incurred by the Liquidator, officer, director, agent or employee in connection with the defense of any action based on any such act or omission, which attorneys' fees may be paid as incurred, except to the extent such liability or damage is caused by the gross negligence, fraud, or willful misconduct of the Liquidator or any partners, officers, directors, agents or employees of the Liquidator.

RESTRICTIVE COVENANT

Section 12.1 Restrictive Covenant. The parties hereby acknowledge that the HMAPartners and their Affiliates are subject to and bound by the terms of a certain restrictive covenant contained in Section 10.3 of a certain Partnership Interest Purchase Agreement, dated February 25, 2002, by and among, Health Management Associates, Inc., Manor Care, Inc. and the Partners..

ARTICLE 13
PRE-EMPTIVE RIGHTS

Section 13.1 Generally. The Partnership will not authorize, issue, offer or sell, or cause to be authorized, issued, offered or sold, any Interests unless the Partnership has first offered such Interests to the MCI Partner in accordance with the procedure provided by Section 13.l(a).

(a) Prior to the authorization, issuance, offer or sale of any Interests (each, an "Offering"), the Partnership will offer to the MCI Partner such additional amount of Interests as will enable the MCI Partner to maintain the same Percentage Interest immediately after consummation of the Offering as the MCI Partner had immediately prior to consummation of the Offering (the "MCI Pro Rata Share"). For a 60-day period after the Partnership gives written notice to the MCI Partner of the terms and conditions of any Offering, the MCI Partner will be entitled to subscribe for the MCI Pro Rata Share of the Interests being offered, on the same terms and conditions (including price and payment terms) as pertain to the Offering. If the MCI Partner fails to subscribe for the MCI Pro Rata Share of the offered Interests within such 60-day period, or if the MCI Partner subscribes therefor but fails to consummate the purchase of the MCI Pro Rata Share in accordance with the terms and conditions that pertain to the Offering, then the MCI Partner will have no further rights whatsoever with respect to the Interests subject to the Offering.

(b) The amount paid by the MCI Partner to purchase the MCI Pro Rata Share of the offered Interests will be a Capital Contribution of the MCI Partner, and after payment thereof, the parties' respective Percentage Interests will be recalculated to reflect the same.

PARENT GUARANTY

Section 14.1 Guaranty of Parent Entities. HMA hereby ensures and guarantees to the MCI Partner the full and timely performance by the HMA Partners of all of their duties, responsibilities and obligations under and pursuant to this Agreement. MCI hereby ensures and guarantees to the HMA Partners the full and timely performance by the MCI Partner of all of its duties, responsibilities and obligations under and pursuant to this Agreement. Nothing contained in this Section 14.1 will be construed as giving rise to any rights to or in any third-party against HMA or MCI, including, but not limited to any creditors of the Partnership.

MISCELLANEOUS

Section 15.1 Notices. Any notice, payment, demand, or communication required or permitted to be given by any provision of this Agreement shall be in writing or by facsimile and shall be deemed to have been delivered, given, and received for all purposes (i) if delivered personally, to the Person or to an officer of the Person to whom the same is directed or (ii) when the same is actually received, if sent by registered or certified mail or by overnight courier, postage and charges prepaid or by facsimile, if such facsimile is followed by a hard copy of the facsimilied communication sent by registered or certified mail or by overnight courier, charges prepaid, addressed as follows, or to such other address as such Person may from time to time specify by notice to the Partners:

(a) If to the Partnership, to the Partnership at the address set forth in Section 1.4;

(b) If to a General Partner, to the address set forth in Section 2.1; and

(c) If to a Limited Partner, to the address set forth in Section 2.2.

Any Person may from time to time specify a different address by notice to the Partnership and the Partners.

Section 15.2 Effect. This Agreement, together with the Put and First Refusal Agreement, supersedes all prior agreements and constitutes the entire agreement of whatsoever kind or nature existing among the parties representing the within subject matter, and no party will be entitled to benefits other than those specified herein and therein. The parties specifically acknowledge that in entering into and executing this Agreement, the parties rely solely upon the representations and agreements contained herein and therein and no others. All prior representations or agreements, whether written or oral, are superseded unless and until made in writing and signed by the party sought to be charged therewith. This Agreement may be amended, and the terms hereof may be modified, only by a writing executed by MCI and HMA, and any matter referred to herein as mutually agreed to or designated by the parties must be evidenced by such a writing. Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, every covenant, term, and provision of this Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the Partners and their respective successors, transferees, and assigns.

Section 15.3 Construction. Every covenant, term, and provision of this Agreement shall be construed simply according to its fair meaning and not strictly for or against any Partner. The terms of this Agreement are intended to embody the economic relationship among the Partners and shall not be subject to modification by, or be conformed with, any actions by the Internal Revenue Service except as this Agreement may be explicitly so amended and except as may relate specifically to the filing of tax returns.

Section 15.4 Headings. Section and other headings contained in this Agreement are for reference purposes only and are not intended to describe, interpret, define, or limit the scope, extent, or intent of this Agreement or any provision.

Section 15.5 Severability. Except as otherwise provided in the succeeding sentence, every provision of this Agreement is intended to be severable, and if any term or provision is illegal or invalid for any reason whatsoever, such illegality or invalidity shall not affect the validity or legality of the remainder of this Agreement. The preceding sentence of this Section 15.5 shall be of no force or effect if the consequence of enforcing the remainder of this Agreement without such illegal or invalid term or provision would be to cause any Partner to lose the benefit of its economic bargain.

Section 15.6 Incorporation by Reference. Every exhibit, schedule, and other appendix attached to this Agreement and referred to herein is not incorporated in this Agreement by reference unless this Agreement expressly otherwise provides.

Section 15.7 Further Action. Each Partner, upon the request of the General Partner, agrees to perform all further acts and execute, acknowledge, and deliver any documents which may be reasonably necessary, appropriate, or desirable to carry out the provisions of this Agreement.

Section 15.8 Variation of Pronouns. All pronouns and any variations thereof shall be deemed to refer to masculine, feminine, or neuter, singular or plural, as the identity of the Person or Persons may require.

Section 15.9 Governing Law; Venue.

(a) This Agreement will be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Delaware without regard to its principles of conflicts of laws. The parties agree that, except as otherwise provided by Section 13.9(b), the sole and exclusive forum for any claim, demand, action, suit or proceeding related to this Agreement, the interpretation or construction hereof and the transactions contemplated hereby will be the Court of Chancery of and for the County of New Castle, State of Delaware. Each party unconditionally and irrevocably agrees not to bring any claim, demand, action, suit or proceeding in any other forum and not to plead or otherwise attempt to defeat the trial of such a matter in such court, whether by asserting that such court is an inconvenient forum, lacks jurisdiction (personal or other) or otherwise. EACH PARTY RECOGNIZES THAT IT IS NOT ENTITLED TO TRIAL BY JURY IN THE COURT OF CHANCERY.

(b) No party will resort to litigation against another party regarding a dispute arising out of this Agreement without first attempting to resolve the dispute by non-binding mediation. Any party may initiate a mediation proceeding by written request to all of the other parties. For a reasonable time thereafter, the parties will be obligated to engage in good faith in mediation, which will be conducted in accordance with the Center for Public Resources Model Procedure for Mediation of Business Disputes. The expenses of such mediation will be borne by the non-prevailing party of such mediation or as otherwise determined in such mediation proceeding.

Section 15.10 Waiver of Action for Partition; No Bill For Partnership Accounting. Each Partner irrevocably waives any right that it may have to maintain any action for partition with respect to any of the Partnership Property. To the fullest extent permitted by law, each Partner covenants that it will not (except with the consent of the General Partner) file a bill for Partnership accounting.

Section 15.11 Enforcement Expenses. In the event any party elects to incur legal expenses in connection with any legal or equitable proceeding to enforce, defend or interpret any provision of this Agreement, as between it and any other party, the prevailing party will be entitled to recover from the other party such legal expenses, including reasonable attorney's fees, costs and necessary disbursements, in addition to any other relief to which such party may be entitled.

Section 15.12 Counterpart Execution. This Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts with the same effect as if all the Partners had signed the same document. All counterparts shall be construed together and shall constitute one agreement.

Section 15.13 Sole and Absolute Discretion. Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, all actions which the General Partner may take and all determinations which the General Partner may make pursuant to this Agreement may be taken and made at the sole and absolute discretion of the General Partner.

Section 15.14 Specific Performance. Each Partner agrees with the other Partners that the other Partners would be irreparably damaged if any of the provisions of this Agreement are not performed in accordance with their specific terms and that monetary damages would not provide an adequate remedy in such event. Accordingly, it is agreed that, in addition to any other remedy to which the nonbreaching Partners may be entitled, at law or in equity, the nonbreaching Partners shall be entitled to injunctive relief to prevent breaches of the provisions of this Agreement and specifically to enforce the terms and provisions in any action instituted in any court of the United States or any state thereof having subject matter jurisdiction thereof.

Section 15.15 Waiver of Jury Trial. Each of the Partners irrevocably waives to the extent permitted by law all rights to trial by jury in any action, proceeding or counterclaim arising out of or relating to this Agreement.

10. BOARD OF DIRECTORS.

All powers of the Company shall be exercised by or under the authority of, and the business and affairs of the Company managed under the direction of, its Board of Directors ("Board"). A decrease in the number of directors shall not shorten an incumbent director's term. Each director shall hold office until such director resigns or is removed. Despite the expiration of a director's term, such director shall continue to serve until the director's successor is elected and qualifies, until there is a decrease in the number of directors or the director is removed.

10.3 Resignation of Directors. A director may resign at any time by delivering written notice to the Board, its Chairman (as hereinafter defined), if any, or the Company. A resignation shall be effective when the notice is delivered unless the notice specifies a later effective date.

10.4 Removal of Directors by Member. A director shall be removed by the Member only at a meeting called for the purpose of removing such director and the meeting notice shall state that the purpose, or one of the purposes, of the meeting is removal of the director. The Member may remove one or more directors with or without cause.

10.6 Compensation of Directors. Directors on the Board shall not be entitled to receive a fee for the director's services as a director on the Board.

10.7 Meetings. The Board may hold regular or special meetings in or out of the State of Mississippi. The Board may permit any or all directors to participate in a regular or special meeting by, or conduct the meeting through the use of, any means of communication by which all directors participating may simultaneously hear each other during the meeting. A director participating in a meeting by this means shall be deemed to be present in person at the meeting.

10.8 Special Meetings. Special meetings of the Board may be called by, or at the request of, the Chairman, if any, or the chief executive officer of the Company. All special meetings of the Board shall be held at the principal office or such other place as may be specified in the notice of the meeting.

10.9 Action Without Meeting. Any action required or permitted to be taken at a Board meeting may be taken without a meeting, without prior notice and without a vote if a consent or consents in writing, setting forth the action so taken, shall be signed by the directors having not less than the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to authorize or take such action at a meeting at which all directors entitled to vote thereon were present and voted.

10.10 Notice of Meetings. Meetings of the Board may be held without notice of the date, time, place or purpose of the meeting.

10.11 Quorum and Voting. A majority of the number of directors fixed by, or determined in accordance with, this Agreement shall constitute a quorum of the Board. If a quorum is present, an affirmative vote by a majority of the number of directors present shall constitute an act of the Board. A director who is present at a meeting of the Board or a committee of the Board when action is taken shall be deemed to have assented to the action taken unless (i) the director objects at the beginning of the meeting, or promptly upon the director' s arrival, to holding the meeting or transacting business at the meeting or (ii) the director's dissent or abstention from the action taken is entered in the minutes of the meeting or the director delivers written notice of the director's dissent or abstention to the presiding officer of the meeting before its adjournment or to the Company immediately after adjournment of the meeting. The right of dissent or abstention shall not be available to a director who votes in favor of the action taken.

10.12 Chairman and Vice Chairman of the Board. The Board may appoint one of its members as Chairman of the Board ("Chairman"). The Board may also appoint one of its members as Vice Chairman of the Board, and such individual shall serve in the absence of the Chairman and perform such additional duties as may be assigned to such person by the Board.

11. OFFICERS.

11.1 Officers Generally. The Company shall have the officers appointed by the Board in accordance with this Agreement. The same individual may simultaneously hold more than one office in the Company. Section 11.10 delegates to the Secretary, if such office be created and filled, the required responsibility of preparing minutes of the Board's and the Member's meetings and for authenticating records of the Company. If such office shall not be created and filled, then the Board shall delegate to one of the officers of the Company such responsibility.

11.2 Duties of Officers. Each officer of the Company shall have the authority and shall perform the duties set forth in this Agreement for such office or, to the extent consistent with this Agreement, the duties prescribed by the Board or by direction of an officer authorized by the Board to prescribe the duties of other officers.

11.3 Appointment and Term of Office. The officers of the Company shall be appointed by the Board. Vacancies may be filled or new offices created and filled at any meeting of the Board. Each officer shall hold office until such officer's successor shall be duly appointed or until the officer's death or until the officer shall resign or shall have been removed in the manner hereinafter provided.

11.4 Resignation and Removal of Officers. An officer may resign at any time by delivering notice to the Company. A resignation shall be effective when the notice is delivered unless the notice specifies a later effective date. If a resignation is made effective at a later date and the Company accepts the future effective date, the Board may fill the pending vacancy before the effective date if the Board provides that the successor shall not take office until the effective date. The Board may remove any officer at any time with or without cause.

11.5 Contract Rights of Officers. Appointment of an officer or agent shall not of itself create contract rights. An officer's removal shall not affect the officer's contract rights, if any, with the Company. An officer's resignation shall not affect the Company's contract rights, if any, with the officer.

11.6 Chairman of the Board. The Chairman, if that office be created and filled, may, at the discretion of the Board, be the chief executive officer of the Company and, if such, shall, in general, supervise and control the affairs and business of the Company, subject to control by the Board. The Chairman shall preside at all meetings of the Member and the Board.

11.7 President. The President, if that office be created and filled, shall be the chief executive officer of the Company, unless a Chairman is appointed and designated chief executive officer pursuant to Section 11.6. If no Chairman has been appointed or, in the absence of the Chairman, the President shall preside at all meetings of the Member. The President may sign certificates for Units, any deeds, mortgages, bonds, contracts or other instruments which the Board has authorized to be executed, except in cases where the signing and execution thereof shall be expressly delegated by the Board or by this Agreement to some other officer or agent of the Company, or shall be required by law to be otherwise signed or executed. The President shall, in general, perform all duties incident to the office of President of a Mississippi corporation and such other duties as may be prescribed by the Board or the Chairman from time to time. Unless otherwise ordered by the Board, the President shall have full power and authority on behalf of the Company to attend, act and vote in person or by proxy at any meetings of shareholders of any corporation in which the Company may hold stock, and at any such meeting shall hold and may exercise all rights incident to the ownership of such stock which the Company, as owner, would have had and could have exercised if present. The Board may confer like powers on any other person or persons.

11.8 Vice President. In the absence of the President, or in the event of the President's death, inability or refusal to act, the Vice President (or, in the event there be more than one Vice President, the Vice Presidents in order designated at the time of their appointment, or in the absence of any designation, then in the order of their appointment), if that office be created and filled, shall perform the duties of the President and when so acting shall have all the powers of, and be subject to all the restrictions upon, the President. Any Vice President may sign certificates for Units and shall perform such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to such person by the Chairman, the President or by the Board.

11.9 Treasurer. The Treasurer, if that office be created and filled, shall have charge and custody of, and be responsible for, all funds and securities of the Company, receive and give receipts for monies due and payable to the Company from any source whatsoever, and deposit all such monies in the name of the Company in such banks, trust companies and other depositories as shall be selected in accordance with the provisions of Section 6.1, and in general, perform all the duties incident to the office of Treasurer of a Mississippi corporation and such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to such person by the Chairman, the President or the Board. If required by the Board, the Treasurer shall give a bond for the faithful discharge of such officer's duties in such sum and with such surety or sureties as the Board shall determine.

11.10 Secretary. The Secretary, if that office be created and filled, shall keep the minutes of the Member's meetings and of the Board's meetings in one or more books provided for that purpose, see that all notices are duly given in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement or as required by law, be custodian of the Company records and of the seal, if any, of the Company, be responsible for authenticating records of the Company, keep a register of the mailing address of the Member, which shall be furnished to the Secretary by the Member, have general charge of the transfer books of the Company, and, in general, perform all duties incident to the office of Secretary of a Mississippi corporation and such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to such person by the Chairman, the President or the Board.

11.11 Assistant Treasurers and Assistant Secretaries.

(a) Assistant Treasurer. The Assistant Treasurer, if that office be created and filled, shall, if required by the Board, give bond for the faithful discharge of such officer's duty in such sum and with such surety as the Board shall determine.

(b) Assistant Secretary. The Assistant Secretary, if that office be created and filled, and if authorized by the Board, may sign, with the President or Vice President, certificates for Units.

(c) Additional Duties. The Assistant Treasurers and Assistant Secretaries, in general, shall perform such additional duties as shall be assigned to them by the Treasurer or the Secretary, respectively, or by the Chairman, the President or the Board.

12. STANDARD OF CARE OF DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS; INDEMNIFICATION.

12.1 Standard of Care. The directors and officers of the Company shall not be liable, responsible or accountable in damages to the Member or the Company on account of such director's or officer's status as a director or officer of the Company or by reason of any act or omission related to the business of the Company performed or omitted by them in good faith and with fair dealing, with the care an ordinarily prudent person in a like position would exercise

under similar circumstances and in a manner reasonably believed by them to be in the best interests of the Company. To the extent that, at law or in equity, a director or officer of the Company has duties (including fiduciary duties) and liabilities relating thereto to the Company, the Member or any other person, such director or officer acting under this Agreement shall not be liable to the Company the Member or any other person for breach of fiduciary duty for its good faith reliance on the provisions of this Agreement, and the provisions of this Agreement , to the extent that they restrict or eliminate the duties (including fiduciary duties) and liabilities relating thereto of a director or officer otherwise existing at law or in equity, are agreed by the Member and the Company to replace such other duties and liabilities of such director or officer.

12.2 Indemnification.

(a) The Company shall indemnify and hold harmless each director or officer of the Company against reasonable expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees), judgments, taxes, penalties, fines (including any excise tax assessed with respect to an employee benefit plan) and amounts paid in settlement (collectively "Liability"), incurred by such person in connection with defending any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding (whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, and whether formal or informal) to which such person is, or is threatened to be made, a party because such person is or was a director or officer of the Company, or is or was serving at the request of the Company as a director, officer, partner, member, employee or agent of another domestic or foreign corporation, partnership, limited liability company, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, including service with respect to employee benefit plans, provided that the director or officer has met the standard of conduct described in Section 12.1. A director or officer shall be considered to be serving an employee benefit plan at the Company's request if such person's duties to the Company also impose duties on or otherwise involve services by such person to the plan or to participants in or beneficiaries of the plan. The indemnities hereunder shall survive the termination of the Company and this Agreement.

(b) At the request of the director or officer entitled to indemnification hereunder, the Company shall pay or reimburse reasonable expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees) incurred by a director or officer who is a party to a proceeding in advance of final disposition of such proceeding if:

(1) The director or officer furnishes the Company a written affirmation of his good faith belief that he has met the standard of conduct described in Section 12.1;

(2) The director or officer furnishes the Company a written undertaking, executed personally or on the director's or officer's behalf, to repay the advance if it is ultimately determined that the director or officer did not meet the standard of conduct or is otherwise not entitled to indemnification hereunder. Such undertaking shall be an unlimited general obligation of the director or officer, but shall not be required to be secured and may be accepted without reference to financial ability to make repayment; and

(3) A determination is made that the facts then known to those making the determination would not preclude indemnification under the provisions of this Section 12.2.

(c) The indemnification against Liability and advancement of expenses provided by, or granted pursuant to, this Section 12.2 shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which those seeking indemnification or advancement may be, or hereafter become, entitled under any agreement, action of the Member or disinterested directors or otherwise, both as to action in their official capacity and as to action in another capacity while holding such office of the Company, shall continue as to a person who has ceased to be a director or officer of the Company, and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors and administrators of such a person.

Any repeal or modification of this Section 12.2 by the Member shall not adversely affect any right or protection of a director or officer of the Company under this Section 12.2 with respect to any act or omission occurring prior to the time of such repeal or modification.

13. OTHER ACTIVITIES; RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS.

13.1 Other Activities. The directors and officers shall devote such of their time to the affairs of the Company's business as they shall deem necessary. The Member, directors, officers and their Affiliates (as hereinafter defined) may engage in, or possess an interest in, other business ventures of any nature and description, independently or with others, whether or not such activities are competitive with those of the Company. Neither the Company nor the Member shall have any rights by virtue of this Agreement in and to such independent ventures, or to the income or profits derived therefrom. The Member shall not be obligated to present any particular business opportunity of a character which, if presented to the Company, could be taken by the Company, and the Member and its Affiliates shall have the right to take for their own account, or to recommend to others, any such particular business opportunity to the exclusion of the Company. For purposes of this Agreement, the term "Affiliate" shall mean any person, corporation, partnership, limited liability company, trust or other entity (directly or indirectly) controlling, controlled by, or under common control with, another person.

13.2 Related Party Transactions. The fact that a director, officer or their Affiliates are directly or indirectly interested in or connected with any person, firm or corporation employed by the Company to render or perform a service, or to or from whom the Company may purchase, sell or lease property, shall not prohibit the Company from employing such person, firm or corporation or from otherwise dealing with him or it, and neither the Company, nor the Member, shall have any rights in or to any income or profits derived therefrom. All such dealings with a director or such director's Affiliates will be on terms which are competitive and comparable with amounts charged by independent third parties.

14. MEMBERS.

14.1 Limitation on Participation in Management. Except as expressly authorized by this Agreement or as expressly required by the Act, the Member, solely by virtue of its status as the Member, shall not participate in the management or control of the Company's business, transact any business for the Company or have the power to act for or bind the Company, said powers being vested solely and exclusively in the Board and the officers.

14.2 Assignment of Member's Interest. The Member may freely sell, assign, transfer, pledge, hypothecate, encumber or otherwise dispose of the Member's Units. If the member transfers all of its Units, the transferee of such Units shall automatically become a substitute Member in the place of the Member. The Board shall amend Exhibit A from time to time to reflect transfers made in accordance with this Section 14.2.

14.3 Bankruptcy, Dissolution, Etc. of Member. Upon the occurrence of any of the events set forth in Sections 79-29-313(3) or 79-29-709 of the Act with respect to the member, the successor-in-interest or personal representative of the Member shall automatically become a substitute Member in place of the Member.

14.4 Certificates for Units.

(a) Certificates representing Units shall be in such form as may be determined by the Board. Such certificates shall be signed by the President or Vice President. The signature of such officer upon such certificates may be signed manually or by facsimile. All certificates for Units shall be consecutively numbered. The name of the person owning the Units represented thereby, with the number of Units and date of issue, shall be entered on the books of the Company. All certificates surrendered to the Company for transfer shall be canceled and no new certificates shall be issued until the former certificates for a like number of Units shall have been surrendered and canceled, except that, in case of a lost, destroyed or mutilated certificate, a new certificate may be issued therefor upon such terms and indemnity to the Company as the Board may prescribe.

(b) A Unit in the Company evidenced by a certificate shall constitute a security governed by Article 8 of the Uniform Commercial Code. Each certificate evidencing membership interests in the Company shall bear the following legend: "This certificate evidences an interest in Madison HMA, LLC and shall be a security or purposes of Article 8 of the Uniform Commercial Code." No change to this provision shall be effective until all outstanding certificates have been surrendered for cancellation and any new certificates thereafter issued shall not bear the foregoing legend.

15. DISSOLUTION.

15.1 Dissolution. Except as otherwise provided in the Act, the Company shall dissolve upon the decision of the Member to dissolve the Company or the sale or other disposition of all, or substantially all, of the assets of the Company and the sale and/or collection of any evidence of indebtedness received in connection therewith. Dissolution of the Company shall be effective upon the date specified in the Member's resolution or upon the sale or other disposition of all, or substantially all of the Assets of the Company and the sale and/or collection of any evidence of indebtedness received in connection therewith as applicable, but the Company shall not terminate until the assets of the Company shall have been distributed as provided in Section 15.3 and a certificate of dissolution of the certificate of formation of the Company is filed with the office of the Secretary of State of the State of Mississippi pursuant to Section 79-29-205 of the Act. Notwithstanding dissolution of the Company, prior to the liquidation and termination of the Company, the Company shall continue to be governed by this Agreement.

15.2 Sale of Assets Upon Dissolution. Following the dissolution of the Company, the Company shall be wound up and the Board shall determine whether the assets of the Company are to be sold or whether some or all of such assets are to be distributed to the Member in kind in liquidation of the Company.

15.3 Distributions Upon Dissolution. Upon the dissolution of the Company, the properties of the Company to be sold shall be liquidated in orderly fashion and the proceeds thereof, and the property to be distributed in kind, shall be distributed as follows:

(a) First, to the payment and discharge of all of the Company's debts and liabilities, to the necessary expenses of liquidation and to the establishment of any cash reserves which the Member determines to create for unmatured and/or contingent liabilities or obligations of the Company.

(b) Second, to the Member.

16. GENERAL.

16.1 Amendment.

(a) Except as provided in Section 16.1(b), this Agreement may be modified or amended from time to time only upon the consent of the Member.

(b) In addition to any amendments authorized by Section 16.1(a), this Agreement may be amended from time to time by the Board without the consent of the Member to cure any ambiguity, to correct or supplement any provision hereof which may be inconsistent with any other provision hereof, or to make any other provisions with respect to matters or questions arising under this Agreement which will not be inconsistent with the provisions of this Agreement.

16.2 Captions; Section References. Section titles or captions contained in this Agreement are inserted only as a matter of convenience and reference, and in no way define, limit, extend or describe the scope of this Agreement, or the intent of any provision hereof. All references herein to Sections shall refer to Sections of this Agreement unless the context clearly requires otherwise.

Unless the context otherwise requires, when used herein, the singular shall include the plural, the plural shall include the singular, and all nouns, pronouns and any variations thereof shall be deemed to refer to the masculine, feminine or neuter, as the identity of the person or persons may require.

16.4 Severability. If any provision of this Agreement, or the application thereof to any person, entity or circumstances, shall be invalid or unenforceable to any extent, the remainder of this Agreement, and the application of such provision to other persons, entities or circumstances, shall not be affected thereby and shall be enforced to the greatest extent permitted by law.

16.5 Binding Agreement. Except as otherwise provided herein, this Agreement shall be binding upon, and inure to the benefit of, the parties hereto and their respective executors, administrators, heirs, successors and assigns.

16.6 Applicable Law. This Agreement shall be governed by, and construed in accordance with, the laws of the State of Mississippi without regard to its conflict of laws rules.

16.7 Entire Agreement. This Agreement contains the entire agreement with respect to the subject matter hereof.

2.1 Name. The name of the Company shall be Melbourne HMA, LLC.

2.2 Principal Office. The principal office of the Company shall be at 4000 Meridian Blvd., Franklin, Tennessee 37067, or at such other place as shall be determined by the Board (as hereinafter defined). 3. PURPOSE AND TERM.

3.1 Purpose. The purposes of the Company are as follows:

(a) To acquire, own, manage and operate certain healthcare facilities.

(b) To engage in such other lawful activities in which a limited liability company may engage under the Act as is determined by the Board from time to time.

(c) To do all other things necessary or desirable in connection with the foregoing, or otherwise contemplated in this Agreement.

3.2 Company's Power. In furtherance of the purpose of the Company as set forth in Section 3.1, the Company shall have the power to do any and all things whatsoever necessary, appropriate or advisable in connection with such purpose, or as otherwise contemplated in this Agreement.

3.3 Term. The term of the Company as a limited liability company shall commence as of the date of the filing of a Articles of Organization with the Florida Secretary of State's Office, and shall continue until dissolved in accordance with Section 15.

4. CAPITAL.

4.1 Initial Capital Contribution of Member. The limited liability company interests in the Company shall be divided into units ("Units"). The total number of Units that the Company is initially authorized to issue is 100 Units. The Member has contributed the cash or other property identified on, and has been issued the number of Units listed on, Exhibit A. The Member may, but shall not be required to, make additional capital contributions to the Company from time to time.

4.2 No Liability of Member. Except as otherwise specifically provided in the Act, the Member shall not have any personal liability for the obligations of the Company. Except as provided in Section 4.1, the Member shall not be obligated to contribute funds or loan money to the Company.

4.3 No Interest on Capital Contributions. The Member shall not be entitled to interest on any capital contributions made to the Company.

5. ACCOUNTING.

5.1 Books and Records. The Company shall maintain full and accurate books of the Company at the Company's principal place of business, or such other place as the Board shall determine, showing all receipts and expenditures, assets and liabilities, net income and loss, and all other records necessary for recording the Company's business and affairs. Such books and records shall be open to the inspection and examination of the Member in person or by its duly authorized representatives at all reasonable times.

5.2 Fiscal Year. The fiscal year of the Company shall be the calendar year.

6. BANK ACCOUNTS.

6.1 Bank Accounts. All funds of the Company shall be deposited in its name into such checking, savings and/or money market accounts or time certificates as shall be designated by the Board. Withdrawals therefrom shall be made upon such signature or signatures as the Board may designate. The Board shall be entitled to make withdrawals from such accounts to invest such funds in connection with the cash management system employed by CHS/Community Health Systems, Inc., an affiliated company, on behalf of its affiliated hospitals and health care facilities.

7. NET INCOME AND NET LOSS.

7.1 Net Income and Net Loss. All net income or net loss of the Company shall be for the account of the Member.

8. FEDERAL INCOME TAX ELECTIONS.

8.1 Tax Treatment. It is the intention of the Member that for Federal, state and local income tax purposes the Company be disregarded as an entity separate from the Member in accordance with the provisions of Treas. Reg. §§ 301.7701-2(c)(2)(i) and 301.7701-3(b)(1)(ii). The Member shall take all actions which may be necessary or required in order for the Company to be so disregarded for income tax purposes.

9. DISTRIBUTIONS.

9.1 Distributions. The Board shall determine, in the Board's sole discretion, the amount and timing of any distributions to the Member and whether such distributions shall be paid in cash or property.

10. BOARD OF MANAGERS.

10.1 General Powers. All powers of the Company shall be exercised by or under the authority of, and the business and affairs of the Company managed under the direction of, its Board of Managers ("Board").

10.2 Number, Election and Term. The Board shall consist of not less than one, nor more than seven individual managers, the exact number of which shall be determined by the Board from time to time. Initially, there shall be three managers, Martin G. Schweinhart, W. Larry Cash and Rachel A. Seifert. Except as otherwise expressly provided herein, managers shall be elected at the organizational meeting of the Member and at each annual meeting thereafter. A decrease in the number of managers shall not shorten an incumbent manager's term. Each manager shall hold office until such manager resigns or is removed. Despite the expiration of a manager's term, such manager shall continue to serve until the manager's successor is elected and qualifies, until there is a decrease in the number of managers or the manager is removed.

10.3 Resignation of Managers. A manager may resign at any time by delivering written notice to the Board, its Chairman (as hereinafter defined), if any, or the Company. A resignation shall be effective when the notice is delivered unless the notice specifies a later effective date.

10.4 Removal of Managers by Member. A manager shall be removed by the Member only at a meeting called for the purpose of removing such manager and the meeting notice shall state that the purpose, or one of the purposes, of the meeting is removal of the manager. The Member may remove one or more managers with or without cause.

10.5 Vacancy on Board. If a vacancy occurs on the Board, including a vacancy resulting from an increase in the number of managers, the Board shall fill the vacancy, and if the managers remaining in office constitute fewer than a quorum of the Board, they may fill the vacancy by the affirmative vote of a majority of all the managers remaining in office. A vacancy that will occur at a specific later date may be filled before the vacancy occurs, but the new manager may not take office until the vacancy occurs.

10.6 Compensation of Managers. Managers on the Board shall not be entitled to receive a fee for the manager's services as a manager on the Board.

10.7 Meetings. The Board may hold regular or special meetings in or out of the State of Florida. The Board may permit any or all managers to participate in a regular or special meeting by, or conduct the meeting through the use of, any means of communication by which all managers participating may simultaneously hear each other during the meeting. A manager participating in a meeting by this means shall be deemed to be present in person at the meeting.

10.8 Special Meetings. Special meetings of the Board may be called by, or at the request of, the Chairman, if any, or the chief executive officer of the Company. All special meetings of the Board shall be held at the principal office or such other place as may be specified in the notice of the meeting.

10.9 Action Without Meeting. Any action required or permitted to be taken at a Board meeting may be taken without a meeting, without prior notice and without a vote if a consent or consents in writing, setting forth the action so taken, shall be signed by the managers having not less than the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to authorize or take such action at a meeting at which all managers entitled to vote thereon were present and voted.

10.11 Notice of Meetings. Meetings of the Board may be held without notice of the date, time, place or purpose of the meeting.

10.12 Quorum and Voting. A majority of the number of managers fixed by, or determined in accordance with, this Agreement shall constitute a quorum of the Board. If a quorum is present, an affirmative vote by a majority of the number of managers present shall constitute an act of the Board. A manager who is present at a meeting of the Board or a committee of the Board when action is taken shall be deemed to have assented to the action taken unless (i) the manager objects at the beginning of the meeting, or promptly upon the manager's arrival, to holding the meeting or transacting business at the meeting or (ii) the manager's dissent or abstention from the action taken is entered in the minutes of the meeting or the manager delivers written notice of the manager's dissent or abstention to the presiding officer of the meeting before its adjournment or to the Company immediately after adjournment of the meeting. The right of dissent or abstention shall not be available to a manager who votes in favor of the action taken.

10.13 Chairman and Vice Chairman of the Board. The Board may appoint one of its members as Chairman of the Board ("Chairman"). The Board may also appoint one of its members as Vice Chairman of the Board, and such individual shall serve in the absence of the Chairman and perform such additional duties as may be assigned to such person by the Board.

11. OFFICERS.

11.1 Officers Generally. The Company shall have the officers appointed by the Board in accordance with this Agreement. The same individual may simultaneously hold more than one office in the Company. Section 11.10 delegates to the Secretary, if such office be created and filled, the required responsibility of preparing minutes of the Board's and the Member's meetings and for authenticating records of the Company. If such office shall not be created and filled, then the Board shall delegate to one of the officers of the Company such responsibility.

11.2 Duties of Officers. Each officer of the Company shall have the authority and shall perform the duties set forth in this Agreement for such office or, to the extent consistent with this Agreement, the duties prescribed by the Board or by direction of an officer authorized by the Board to prescribe the duties of other officers.

11.3 Appointment and Term of Office. The officers of the Company shall be appointed by the Board. Vacancies may be filled or new offices created and filled at any meeting of the Board. Each officer shall hold office until such officer's successor shall be duly appointed or until the officer's death or until the officer shall resign or shall have been removed in the manner hereinafter provided.

11.4 Resignation and Removal of Officers. An officer may resign at any time by delivering notice to the Company. A resignation shall be effective when the notice is delivered unless the notice specifies a later effective date. If a resignation is made effective at a later date and the Company accepts the future effective date, the Board may fill the pending vacancy before the effective date if the Board provides that the successor shall not take office until the effective date. The Board may remove any officer at any time with or without cause.

11.5 Contract Rights of Officers. Appointment of an officer or agent shall not of itself create contract rights. An officer's removal shall not affect the officer's contract rights, if any, with the Company. An officer's resignation shall not affect the Company's contract rights, if any, with the officer.

11.6 Chairman of the Board. The Chairman, if that office be created and filled, may, at the discretion of the Board, be the chief executive officer of the Company and, if such, shall, in general, supervise and control the affairs and business of the Company, subject to control by the Board. The Chairman shall preside at all meetings of the Member and the Board.

11.7 President. The President, if that office be created and filled, shall be the chief executive officer of the Company, unless a Chairman is appointed and designated chief executive officer pursuant to Section 11.6. If no Chairman has been appointed or, in the absence of the Chairman, the President shall preside at all meetings of the Member. The President may sign certificates for Units, any deeds, mortgages, bonds, contracts or other instruments which the Board has authorized to be executed, except in cases where the signing and execution thereof shall be expressly delegated by the Board or by this Agreement to some other officer or agent of the Company, or shall be required by law to be otherwise signed or executed. The President shall, in general, perform all duties incident to the office of President of a Florida limited liability company and such other duties as may be prescribed by the Board or the Chairman from time to time. Unless otherwise ordered by the Board, the President shall have full power and authority on behalf of the Company to attend, act and vote in person or by proxy at any meetings of shareholders of any corporation in which the Company may hold stock, and at any such meeting shall hold and may exercise all rights incident to the ownership of such stock which the Company, as owner, would have had and could have exercised if present. The Board may confer like powers on any other person or persons.

11.8 Vice President. In the absence of the President, or in the event of the President's death, inability or refusal to act, the Vice President (or, in the event there be more than one Vice President, the Vice Presidents in order designated at the time of their appointment, or in the absence of any designation, then in the order of their appointment), if that office be created and filled, shall perform the duties of the President and when so acting shall have all the powers of, and be subject to all the restrictions upon, the President. Any Vice President may sign certificates for Units and shall perform such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to such person by the Chairman, the President or by the Board.

11.9 Treasurer. The Treasurer, if that office be created and filled, shall have charge and custody of, and be responsible for, all funds and securities of the Company, receive and give receipts for monies due and payable to the Company from any source whatsoever, and deposit all such monies in the name of the Company in such banks, trust companies and other depositories as shall be selected in accordance with the provisions of Section 6.1, and in general, perform all the duties incident to the office of Treasurer of a Florida limited liability company and such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to such person by the Chairman, the President or the Board. If required by the Board, the Treasurer shall give a bond for the faithful discharge of such officer's duties in such sum and with such surety or sureties as the Board shall determine.

11.10 Secretary. The Secretary, if that office be created and filled, shall keep the minutes of the Member's meetings and of the Board's meetings in one or more books provided for that purpose, see that all notices are duly given in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement or as required by law, be custodian of the Company records and of the seal, if any, of the Company, be responsible for authenticating records of the Company, keep a register of the mailing address of the Member, which shall be furnished to the Secretary by the Member, have general charge of the transfer books of the Company, and, in general, perform all duties incident to the office of Secretary of a Florida limited liability company and such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to such person by the Chairman, the President or the Board.

11.11 Assistant Treasurers and Assistant Secretaries.

(a) Assistant Treasurer. The Assistant Treasurer, if that office be created and filled, shall, if required by the Board, give bond for the faithful discharge of such officer's duty in such sum and with such surety as the Board shall determine.

(b) Assistant Secretary. The Assistant Secretary, if that office be created and filled, and if authorized by the Board, may sign, with the President or Vice President, certificates for Units.

(c) Additional Duties. The Assistant Treasurers and Assistant Secretaries, in general, shall perform such additional duties as shall be assigned to them by the Treasurer or the Secretary, respectively, or by the Chairman, the President or the Board.

12. STANDARD OF CARE OF MANAGERS AND OFFICERS; INDEMNIFICATION.

12.1 Standard of Care. The managers and officers of the Company shall not be liable, responsible or accountable in damages to the Member or the Company on account of such manager's or officer's status as a manager or officer of the Company or by reason of any act or omission related to the business of the Company performed or omitted by them in good faith with the care an officer of a Florida limited liability company of like position would exercise under similar circumstances and in a manner reasonably believed by them to be in the best interests of the Company, and, with respect to any criminal proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe their conduct was unlawful. To the extent that, at law or in equity, a manager or officer of the Company has duties (including fiduciary duties) and liabilities relating thereto to the Company, the Member or any other person, such manager or officer acting under this Agreement shall not be liable to the Company, the Member or any other person for breach of fiduciary duty for its good faith reliance on the provisions of this Agreement, and the provisions of this Agreement, to the extent that they restrict or eliminate the duties (including fiduciary duties) and liabilities relating thereto of a manager or officer otherwise existing at law or in equity, are agreed by the Member and the Company to replace such other duties and liabilities of such manager or officer; provided, however, that the foregoing shall not be interpreted or construed so as to eliminate or restrict any fiduciary duty, including, but not limited to, the duties of loyalty, care, good faith and fair dealing, in such a manner as to be contrary to the provisions of Section 605.0105 of the Act.

12.2. Indemnification.

(a) The Company shall indemnify and hold harmless each manager or officer of the Company against reasonable expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees), judgments, taxes, penalties, fines (including any excise tax assessed with respect to an employee benefit plan) and amounts paid in settlement (collectively "Liability"), incurred by such person in connection with defending any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding (whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, and whether formal or informal) to which such person is, or is threatened to be made, a party because such person is or was a manager or officer of the Company, or is or was serving at the request of the Company as a manager, officer, partner, member, employee or agent of another domestic or foreign corporation, partnership, limited liability company, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, including service with respect to employee benefit plans, provided that (i) the manager or officer has met the standard of conduct described in Section 12.1, and (ii) indemnification under this paragraph does not violate the provisions of Section 605.0105 A manager or officer shall be considered to be serving an employee benefit plan at the Company's request if such person's duties to the Company also impose duties on or otherwise involve services by such person to the plan or to participants in or beneficiaries of the plan. The indemnities hereunder shall survive the termination of the Company and this Agreement.

(b) At the request of the manager or officer entitled to indemnification hereunder, the Company shall pay or reimburse reasonable expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees) incurred by a manager or officer who is a party to a proceeding in advance of final disposition of such proceeding if:

(1) The manager or officer furnishes the Company a written affirmation of his good faith belief that he has met the standard of conduct described in Section 12.1;

(2) The manager or officer furnishes the Company a written undertaking, executed personally or on the manager's or officer's behalf, to repay the advance if it is ultimately determined that the manager or officer did not meet the standard of conduct or is otherwise not entitled to indemnification hereunder. Such undertaking shall be an unlimited general obligation of the manager or officer, but shall not be required to be secured and may be accepted without reference to financial ability to make repayment; and

(3) A determination is made that the facts then known to those making the determination would not preclude indemnification under the provisions of this Section 12.2.

(c) The indemnification against Liability and advancement of expenses provided by, or granted pursuant to, this Section 12.2 shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which those seeking indemnification or advancement may be, or hereafter become, entitled under any agreement, action of the Member or disinterested managers or otherwise, both as to action in their official capacity and as to action in another capacity while holding such office of the Company, shall continue as to a person who has ceased to be a manager or officer of the Company, and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors and administrators of such a person.

Any repeal or modification of this Section 12.2 by the Member shall not adversely affect any right or protection of a manager or officer of the Company under this Section 12.2 with respect to any act or omission occurring prior to the time of such repeal or modification.

13. OTHER ACTIVITIES; RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS.

13.1 Other Activities. The managers and officers shall devote such of their time to the affairs of the Company's business as they shall deem necessary. The Member, managers, officers and their Affiliates (as hereinafter defined) may engage in, or possess an interest in, other business ventures of any nature and description, independently or with others, whether or not such activities are competitive with those of the Company. Neither the Company nor the Member shall have any rights by virtue of this Agreement in and to such independent ventures, or to the income or profits derived therefrom. The Member shall not be obligated to present any particular business opportunity of a character which, if presented to the Company, could be taken by the Company, and the Member and its Affiliates shall have the right to take for their own account, or to recommend to others, any such particular business opportunity to the exclusion of the Company. For purposes of this Agreement, the term "Affiliate" shall mean any person, corporation, partnership, limited liability company, trust or other entity (directly or indirectly) controlling, controlled by, or under common control with, another person.

13.2 Related Party Transactions. The fact that a manager, officer or their Affiliates are directly or indirectly interested in or connected with any person, firm or corporation employed by the Company to render or perform a service, or to or from whom the Company may purchase, sell or lease property, shall not prohibit the Company from employing such person, firm or corporation or from otherwise dealing with him or it, and neither the Company, nor the Member, shall have any rights in or to any income or profits derived therefrom. All such dealings with a manager or such manager's Affiliates will be on terms which are competitive and comparable with amounts charged by independent third parties.

14. MEMBERS.

14.1 Limitation on Participation in Management. Except as expressly authorized by this Agreement or as expressly required by the Act, the Member, solely by virtue of its status as the Member, shall not participate in the management or control of the Company's business, transact any business for the Company or have the power to act for or bind the Company, said powers being vested solely and exclusively in the Board and the officers.

14.2 Assignment of Member's Interest. The Member may freely sell, assign, transfer, pledge, hypothecate, encumber or otherwise dispose of the Member's Units. If the member transfers all of its Units, the transferee of such Units shall automatically become a substitute Member in the place of the Member. The Board shall amend Exhibit A from time to time to reflect transfers made in accordance with this Section 14.2.

14.3 Dissociation of Member. Upon the occurrence of any of the events set forth in Section 605.0602 of the Act with respect to the member, the successor-in-interest or personal representative of the Member shall automatically become a substitute Member in place of the Member.

14.4 Certificates for Units.

(a) Certificates representing Units shall be in such form as may be determined by the Board. Such certificates shall be signed by the President or Vice President. The signature of such officer upon such certificates may be signed manually or by facsimile. All certificates for Units shall be consecutively numbered. The name of the person owning the Units represented thereby, with the number of Units and date of issue, shall be entered on the books of the Company. All certificates surrendered to the Company for transfer shall be canceled and no new certificates shall be issued until the former certificates for a like number of Units shall have been surrendered and canceled, except that, in case of a lost, destroyed or mutilated certificate, a new certificate may be issued therefor upon such terms and indemnity to the Company as the Board may prescribe.

(b) A Unit in the Company evidenced by a certificate shall constitute a security governed by Article 8 of the Uniform Commercial Code. Each certificate evidencing membership interests in the Company shall bear the following legend: "This certificate evidences an interest in Melbourne HMA, LLC and shall be a security for purposes of Article 8 of the Uniform Commercial Code." No change to this provision shall be effective until all outstanding certificates have been surrendered for cancellation and any new certificates thereafter issued shall not bear the foregoing legend.

15. DISSOLUTION.

15.1 Dissolution. Except as otherwise provided in the Act, the Company shall dissolve upon the decision of the Member to dissolve the Company or the sale or other disposition of all, or substantially all, of the assets of the Company and the sale and/or collection of any evidence of indebtedness received in connection therewith. Dissolution of the Company shall be effective upon the date specified in the Member's resolution or upon the sale or other disposition of all, or substantially all of the Assets of the Company and the sale and/or collection of any evidence of indebtedness received in connection therewith as applicable, but the Company shall not terminate until the assets of the Company shall have been distributed as provided in Section 15.3 and articles of dissolution are filed with the office of the Secretary of State of the State of Florida pursuant to Section 605.0707 of the Act. Notwithstanding dissolution of the Company, prior to the liquidation and termination of the Company, the Company shall continue to be governed by this Agreement.

15.2 Sale of Assets Upon Dissolution. Following the dissolution of the Company, the Company shall be wound up and the Board shall determine whether the assets of the Company are to be sold or whether some or all of such assets are to be distributed to the Member in kind in liquidation of the Company.

15.3 Distributions Upon Dissolution. Upon the dissolution of the Company, the properties of the Company to be sold shall be liquidated in orderly fashion and the proceeds thereof, and the property to be distributed in kind, shall be distributed as follows:

(a) First, to the payment and discharge of all of the Company's debts and liabilities, to the necessary expenses of liquidation and to the establishment of any cash reserves which the Member determines to create for unmatured and/or contingent liabilities or obligations of the Company.

(b) Second, to the Member.

16. GENERAL.

16.1 Amendment.

(a) Except as provided in Section 16.1(b), this Agreement may be modified or amended from time to time only upon the consent of the Member.

(b) In addition to any amendments authorized by Section 16.1(a), this Agreement may be amended from time to time by the Board without the consent of the Member to cure any ambiguity, to correct or supplement any provision hereof which may be inconsistent with any other provision hereof, or to make any other provisions with respect to matters or questions arising under this Agreement which will not be inconsistent with the provisions of this Agreement.

16.2 Captions; Section References. Section titles or captions contained in this Agreement are inserted only as a matter of convenience and reference, and in no way define, limit, extend or describe the scope of this Agreement, or the intent of any provision hereof. All references herein to Sections shall refer to Sections of this Agreement unless the context clearly requires otherwise.

16.3 Number and Gender. Unless the context otherwise requires, when used herein, the singular shall include the plural, the plural shall include the singular, and all nouns, pronouns and any variations thereof shall be deemed to refer to the masculine, feminine or neuter, as the identity of the person or persons may require.

16.4 Severability. If any provision of this Agreement, or the application thereof to any person, entity or circumstances, shall be invalid or unenforceable to any extent, the remainder of this Agreement, and the application of such provision to other persons, entities or circumstances, shall not be affected thereby and shall be enforced to the greatest extent permitted by law.

16.5 Binding Agreement. Except as otherwise provided herein, this Agreement shall be binding upon, and inure to the benefit of, the parties hereto and their respective executors, administrators, heirs, successors and assigns.

16.6 Applicable Law. This Agreement shall be governed by, and construed in accordance with, the laws of the State of Florida without regard to its conflict of laws rules.

16.7 Entire Agreement. This Agreement contains the entire agreement with respect to the subject matter hereof.

2.1 Name. The name of the Company shall be Mesquite HMA General, LLC.

2.2 Principal Office. The principal office of the Company shall be at 4000 Meridian Blvd., Franklin, Tennessee 37067, or at such other place as shall be determined by the Board (as hereinafter defined). The books of the Company shall be maintained at such principal place of business or such other place that the Board shall deem appropriate. The registered office in the State of Delaware is located at 2711 Centerville Road, Suite 400, Wilmington, DE 19808, County of New Castle. The registered agent of the Company for service of process at such address is Corporation Service Company. Such registered office and registered agent may be changed by the Board from time to time.

3. PURPOSE AND TERM.

3.1 Purpose. The purposes of the Company are as follows:

(a) To acquire, own, manage and operate certain healthcare facilities.

(b) To engage in such other lawful activities in which a limited liability company may engage under the Act as is determined by the Board from time to time.

(c) To do all other things necessary or desirable in connection with the foregoing, or otherwise contemplated in this Agreement.

3.2 Company's Power. In furtherance of the purpose of the Company as set forth in Section 3.1, the Company shall have the power to do any and all things whatsoever necessary, appropriate or advisable in connection with such purpose, or as otherwise contemplated in this Agreement.

3.3 Term. The term of the Company as a limited liability company shall commence as of the date of the filing of a Certificate of Formation with the Delaware Secretary of State's Office, and shall continue until dissolved in accordance with Section 15.

4. CAPITAL.

4.1 Initial Capital Contribution of Member. The limited liability company interests in the Company shall be divided into units ("Units"). The total number of Units that the Company is initially authorized to issue is 100 Units. The Member has contributed the cash or other property identified on, and has been issued the number of Units listed on, Exhibit A. The Member may, but shall not be required to, make additional capital contributions to the Company from time to time.

4.2 No Liability of Member. Except as otherwise specifically provided in the Act, the Member shall not have any personal liability for the obligations of the Company. Except as provided in Section 4.1, the Member shall not be obligated to contribute funds or loan money to the Company.

4.3 No Interest on Capital Contributions. The Member shall not be entitled to interest on any capital contributions made to the Company.

5. ACCOUNTING.

5.1 Books and Records. The Company shall maintain full and accurate books of the Company at the Company's principal place of business, or such other place as the Board shall determine, showing all receipts and expenditures, assets and liabilities, net income and loss, and all other records necessary for recording the Company's business and affairs. Such books and records shall be open to the inspection and examination of the Member in person or by its duly authorized representatives at all reasonable times.

5.2 Fiscal Year. The fiscal year of the Company shall be the calendar year.

6. BANK ACCOUNTS.

6.1 Bank Accounts. All funds of the Company shall be deposited in its name into such checking, savings and/or money market accounts or time certificates as shall be designated by the Board. Withdrawals therefrom shall be made upon such signature or signatures as the Board may designate. The Board shall be entitled to make withdrawals from such accounts to invest such funds in connection with the cash management system employed by CHS/Community Health Systems, Inc. on behalf of its affiliated hospitals and health care facilities.

7. NET INCOME AND NET LOSS.

7.1 Net Income and Net Loss. All net income or net loss of the Company shall be for the account of the Member.

8. FEDERAL INCOME TAX ELECTIONS.

8.1 Tax Treatment. It is the intention of the Member that for Federal, state and local income tax purposes the Company be disregarded as an entity separate from the Member in accordance with the provisions of Treas. Reg. §§ 301.7701-2(c)(2)(i) and 301.7701-3(b)(1)(ii). The Member shall take all actions which may be necessary or required in order for the Company to be so disregarded for income tax purposes.

9. DISTRIBUTIONS.

9.1 Distributions. The Board shall determine, in the Board's sole discretion, the amount and timing of any distributions to the Member and whether such distributions shall be paid in cash or property.

10. BOARD OF DIRECTORS.

10.1 General Powers. All powers of the Company shall be exercised by or under the authority of, and the business and affairs of the Company managed under the direction of, its Board of Directors ("Board").

10.2 Number, Election and Term. The Board shall consist of not less than one, nor more than seven individual directors, the exact number of which shall be determined by the Board from time to time. Initially, there shall be three directors, Martin G. Schweinhart, W. Larry Cash and Rachel A. Seifert. Except as otherwise expressly provided herein, directors shall be elected at the organizational meeting of the Member and at each annual meeting thereafter. A decrease in the number of directors shall not shorten an incumbent director's term. Each director shall hold office until such director resigns or is removed. Despite the expiration of a director's term, such director shall continue to serve until the director's successor is elected and qualifies, until there is a decrease in the number of directors or the director is removed.

10.3 Resignation of Directors. A director may resign at any time by delivering written notice to the Board, its Chairman (as hereinafter defined), if any, or the Company. A resignation shall be effective when the notice is delivered unless the notice specifies a later effective date.

10.4 Removal of Directors by Member. A director shall be removed by the Member only at a meeting called for the purpose of removing such director and the meeting notice shall state that the purpose, or one of the purposes, of the meeting is removal of the director. The Member may remove one or more directors with or without cause.

10.5 Vacancy on Board. If a vacancy occurs on the Board, including a vacancy resulting from an increase in the number of directors, the Board shall fill the vacancy, and if the directors remaining in office constitute fewer than a quorum of the Board, they may fill the vacancy by the affirmative vote of a majority of all the directors remaining in office. A vacancy that will occur at a specific later date may be filled before the vacancy occurs, but the new director may not take office until the vacancy occurs.

10.6 Compensation of Directors. Directors on the Board shall not be entitled to receive a fee for the director's services as a director on the Board.

10.7 Meetings. The Board may hold regular or special meetings in or out of the State of Delaware. The Board may permit any or all directors to participate in a regular or special meeting by, or conduct the meeting through the use of, any means of communication by which all directors participating may simultaneously hear each other during the meeting. A director participating in a meeting by this means shall be deemed to be present in person at the meeting.

10.8 Special Meetings. Special meetings of the Board may be called by, or at the request of, the Chairman, if any, or the chief executive officer of the Company. All special meetings of the Board shall be held at the principal office or such other place as may be specified in the notice of the meeting.

10.9 Action Without Meeting. Any action required or permitted to be taken at a Board meeting may be taken without a meeting, without prior notice and without a vote if a consent or consents in writing, setting forth the action so taken, shall be signed by the directors having not less than the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to authorize or take such action at a meeting at which all directors entitled to vote thereon were present and voted.

10.11 Notice of Meetings. Meetings of the Board may be held without notice of the date, time, place or purpose of the meeting.

10.12 Quorum and Voting. A majority of the number of directors fixed by, or determined in accordance with, this Agreement shall constitute a quorum of the Board. If a quorum is present, an affirmative vote by a majority of the number of directors present shall constitute an act of the Board. A director who is present at a meeting of the Board or a committee of the Board when action is taken shall be deemed to have assented to the action taken unless (i) the director objects at the beginning of the meeting, or promptly upon the director' s arrival, to holding the meeting or transacting business at the meeting or (ii) the director's dissent or abstention from the action taken is entered in the minutes of the meeting or the director delivers written notice of the director's dissent or abstention to the presiding officer of the meeting before its adjournment or to the Company immediately after adjournment of the meeting. The right of dissent or abstention shall not be available to a director who votes in favor of the action taken.

10.13 Chairman and Vice Chairman of the Board. The Board may appoint one of its members as Chairman of the Board ("Chairman"). The Board may also appoint one of its members as Vice Chairman of the Board, and such individual shall serve in the absence of the Chairman and perform such additional duties as may be assigned to such person by the Board.

11. OFFICERS.

11.1 Officers Generally. The Company shall have the officers appointed by the Board in accordance with this Agreement. The same individual may simultaneously hold more than one office in the Company. Section 11.10 delegates to the Secretary, if such office be created and filled, the required responsibility of preparing minutes of the Board's and the Member's meetings and for authenticating records of the Company. If such office shall not be created and filled, then the Board shall delegate to one of the officers of the Company such responsibility.

11.2 Duties of Officers. Each officer of the Company shall have the authority and shall perform the duties set forth in this Agreement for such office or, to the extent consistent with this Agreement, the duties prescribed by the Board or by direction of an officer authorized by the Board to prescribe the duties of other officers.

11.3 Appointment and Term of Office. The officers of the Company shall be appointed by the Board. Vacancies may be filled or new offices created and filled at any meeting of the Board. Each officer shall hold office until such officer's successor shall be duly appointed or until the officer's death or until the officer shall resign or shall have been removed in the manner hereinafter provided.

11.4 Resignation and Removal of Officers. An officer may resign at any time by delivering notice to the Company. A resignation shall be effective when the notice is delivered unless the notice specifies a later effective date. If a resignation is made effective at a later date and the Company accepts the future effective date, the Board may fill the pending vacancy before the effective date if the Board provides that the successor shall not take office until the effective date. The Board may remove any officer at any time with or without cause.

11.5 Contract Rights of Officers. Appointment of an officer or agent shall not of itself create contract rights. An officer's removal shall not affect the officer's contract rights, if any, with the Company. An officer's resignation shall not affect the Company's contract rights, if any, with the officer.

11.6 Chairman of the Board. The Chairman, if that office be created and filled, may, at the discretion of the Board, be the chief executive officer of the Company and, if such, shall, in general, supervise and control the affairs and business of the Company, subject to control by the Board. The Chairman shall preside at all meetings of the Member and the Board.

11.7 President. The President, if that office be created and filled, shall be the chief executive officer of the Company, unless a Chairman is appointed and designated chief executive officer pursuant to Section 11.6. If no Chairman has been appointed or, in the absence of the Chairman, the President shall preside at all meetings of the Member. The President may sign certificates for Units, any deeds, mortgages, bonds, contracts or other instruments which the Board has authorized to be executed, except in cases where the signing and execution thereof shall be expressly delegated by the Board or by this Agreement to some other officer or agent of the Company, or shall be required by law to be otherwise signed or executed. The President shall, in general, perform all duties incident to the office of President of a Delaware corporation and such other duties as may be prescribed by the Board or the Chairman from time to time. Unless otherwise ordered by the Board, the President shall have full power and authority on behalf of the Company to attend, act and vote in person or by proxy at any meetings of shareholders of any corporation in which the Company may hold stock, and at any such meeting shall hold and may exercise all rights incident to the ownership of such stock which the Company, as owner, would have had and could have exercised if present. The Board may confer like powers on any other person or persons.

11.8 Vice President. In the absence of the President, or in the event of the President's death, inability or refusal to act, the Vice President (or, in the event there be more than one Vice President, the Vice Presidents in order designated at the time of their appointment, or in the absence of any designation, then in the order of their appointment), if that office be created and filled, shall perform the duties of the President and when so acting shall have all the powers of, and be subject to all the restrictions upon, the President. Any Vice President may sign certificates for Units and shall perform such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to such person by the Chairman, the President or by the Board.

11.9 Treasurer. The Treasurer, if that office be created and filled, shall have charge and custody of, and be responsible for, all funds and securities of the Company, receive and give receipts for monies due and payable to the Company from any source whatsoever, and deposit all such monies in the name of the Company in such banks, trust companies and other depositories as shall be selected in accordance with the provisions of Section 6.1, and in general, perform all the duties incident to the office of Treasurer of a Delaware corporation and such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to such person by the Chairman, the President or the Board. If required by the Board, the Treasurer shall give a bond for the faithful discharge of such officer's duties in such sum and with such surety or sureties as the Board shall determine.

11.10 Secretary. The Secretary, if that office be created and filled, shall keep the minutes of the Member's meetings and of the Board's meetings in one or more books provided for that purpose, see that all notices are duly given in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement or as required by law, be custodian of the Company records and of the seal, if any, of the Company, be responsible for authenticating records of the Company, keep a register of the mailing address of the Member, which shall be furnished to the Secretary by the Member, have general charge of the transfer books of the Company, and, in general, perform all duties incident to the office of Secretary of a Delaware corporation and such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to such person by the Chairman, the President or the Board.

11.11 Assistant Treasurers and Assistant Secretaries.

(a) Assistant Treasurer. The Assistant Treasurer, if that office be created and filled, shall, if required by the Board, give bond for the faithful discharge of such officer's duty in such sum and with such surety as the Board shall determine.

(b) Assistant Secretary. The Assistant Secretary, if that office be created and filled, and if authorized by the Board, may sign, with the President or Vice President, certificates for Units.

(c) Additional Duties. The Assistant Treasurers and Assistant Secretaries, in general, shall perform such additional duties as shall be assigned to them by the Treasurer or the Secretary, respectively, or by the Chairman, the President or the Board.

12. STANDARD OF CARE OF DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS; INDEMNIFICATION.

12.1 Standard of Care. The directors and officers of the Company shall not be liable, responsible or accountable in damages to the Member or the Company on account of such director's or officer's status as a director or officer of the Company or by reason of any act or omission related to the business of the Company performed or omitted by them in good faith with the care an officer of a Delaware corporation of like position would exercise under similar circumstances and in a manner reasonably believed by them to be in the best interests of the Company, and, with respect to any criminal proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe their conduct was unlawful. To the extent that, at law or in equity, a director or officer of the Company has duties (including fiduciary duties) and liabilities relating thereto to the Company, the Member or any other person, such director or officer acting under this Agreement shall not be liable to the Company the Member or any other person for breach of fiduciary duty for its good faith reliance on the provisions of this Agreement, and the provisions of this Agreement , to the extent that they restrict or eliminate the duties (including fiduciary duties) and liabilities relating thereto of a director or officer otherwise existing at law or in equity, are agreed by the Member and the Company to replace such other duties and liabilities of such director or officer.

(a) The Company shall indemnify and hold harmless each director or officer of the Company against reasonable expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees), judgments, taxes, penalties, fines (including any excise tax assessed with respect to an employee benefit plan) and amounts paid in settlement (collectively "Liability"), incurred by such person in connection with defending any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding (whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, and whether formal or informal) to which such person is, or is threatened to be made, a party because such person is or was a director or officer of the Company, or is or was serving at the request of the Company as a director, officer, partner, member, employee or agent of another domestic or foreign corporation, partnership, limited liability company, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, including service with respect to employee benefit plans, provided that the director or officer has met the standard of conduct described in Section 12.1. A director or officer shall be considered to be serving an employee benefit plan at the Company's request if such person's duties to the Company also impose duties on or otherwise involve services by such person to the plan or to participants in or beneficiaries of the plan. The indemnities hereunder shall survive the termination of the Company and this Agreement.

(b) At the request of the director or officer entitled to indemnification hereunder, the Company shall pay or reimburse reasonable expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees) incurred by a director or officer who is a party to a proceeding in advance of final disposition of such proceeding if:

(1) The director or officer furnishes the Company a written affirmation of his good faith belief that he has met the standard of conduct described in Section 12.1;

(2) The director or officer furnishes the Company a written undertaking, executed personally or on the director's or officer's behalf, to repay the advance if it is ultimately determined that the director or officer did not meet the standard of conduct or is otherwise not entitled to indemnification hereunder. Such undertaking shall be an unlimited general obligation of the director or officer, but shall not be required to be secured and may be accepted without reference to financial ability to make repayment; and

(3) A determination is made that the facts then known to those making the determination would not preclude indemnification under the provisions of this Section 12.2.

(c) The indemnification against Liability and advancement of expenses provided by, or granted pursuant to, this Section 12.2 shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which those seeking indemnification or advancement may be, or hereafter become, entitled under any agreement, action of the Member or disinterested directors or otherwise, both as to action in their official capacity and as to action in another capacity while holding such office of the Company, shall continue as to a person who has ceased to be a director or officer of the Company, and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors and administrators of such a person.

Any repeal or modification of this Section 12.2 by the Member shall not adversely affect any right or protection of a director or officer of the Company under this Section 12.2 with respect to any act or omission occurring prior to the time of such repeal or modification.

13. OTHER ACTIVITIES; RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS.

13.1 Other Activities. The directors and officers shall devote such of their time to the affairs of the Company's business as they shall deem necessary. The Member, directors, officers and their Affiliates (as hereinafter defined) may engage in, or possess an interest in, other business ventures of any nature and description, independently or with others, whether or not such activities are competitive with those of the Company. Neither the Company nor the Member shall have any rights by virtue of this Agreement in and to such independent ventures, or to the income or profits derived therefrom. The Member shall not be obligated to present any particular business opportunity of a character which, if presented to the Company, could be taken by the Company, and the Member and its Affiliates shall have the right to take for their own account, or to recommend to others, any such particular business opportunity to the exclusion of the Company. For purposes of this Agreement, the term "Affiliate" shall mean any person, corporation, partnership, limited liability company, trust or other entity (directly or indirectly) controlling, controlled by, or under common control with, another person.

13.2 Related Party Transactions. The fact that a director, officer or their Affiliates are directly or indirectly interested in or connected with any person, firm or corporation employed by the Company to render or perform a service, or to or from whom the Company may purchase, sell or lease property, shall not prohibit the Company from employing such person, firm or corporation or from otherwise dealing with him or it, and neither the Company, nor the Member, shall have any rights in or to any income or profits derived therefrom. All such dealings with a director or such director's Affiliates will be on terms which are competitive and comparable with amounts charged by independent third parties.

14. MEMBERS.

14.1 Limitation on Participation in Management. Except as expressly authorized by this Agreement or as expressly required by the Act, the Member, solely by virtue of its status as the Member, shall not participate in the management or control of the Company's business, transact any business for the Company or have the power to act for or bind the Company, said powers being vested solely and exclusively in the Board and the officers.

14.2 Assignment of Member's Interest. The Member may freely sell, assign, transfer, pledge, hypothecate, encumber or otherwise dispose of the Member's Units. If the member transfers all of its Units, the transferee of such Units shall automatically become a substitute Member in the place of the Member. The Board shall amend Exhibit A from time to time to reflect transfers made in accordance with this Section 14.2.

14.3 Bankruptcy, Dissolution, Etc. of Member. Upon the occurrence of any of the events set forth in Sections 18-304 or 18-705 of the Act with respect to the member, the successor-in-interest or personal representative of the Member shall automatically become a substitute Member in place of the Member.

14.4 Certificates for Units.

(a) Certificates representing Units shall be in such form as may be determined by the Board. Such certificates shall be signed by the President or Vice President. The signature of such officer upon such certificates may be signed manually or by facsimile. All certificates for Units shall be consecutively numbered. The name of the person owning the Units represented thereby, with the number of Units and date of issue, shall be entered on the books of the Company. All certificates surrendered to the Company for transfer shall be canceled and no new certificates shall be issued until the former certificates for a like number of Units shall have been surrendered and canceled, except that, in case of a lost, destroyed or mutilated certificate, a new certificate may be issued therefor upon such terms and indemnity to the Company as the Board may prescribe.

(b) A Unit in the Company evidenced by a certificate shall constitute a security governed by Article 8 of the Uniform Commercial Code. Each certificate evidencing membership interests in the Company shall bear the following legend: "This certificate evidences an interest in «Entity Name», LLC and shall be a security for purposes of Article 8 of the Uniform Commercial Code." No change to this provision shall be effective until all outstanding certificates have been surrendered for cancellation and any new certificates thereafter issued shall not bear the foregoing legend.

15. DISSOLUTION.

15.1 Dissolution. Except as otherwise provided in the Act, the Company shall dissolve upon the decision of the Member to dissolve the Company or the sale or other disposition of all, or substantially all, of the assets of the Company and the sale and/or collection of any evidence of indebtedness received in connection therewith. Dissolution of the Company shall be effective upon the date specified in the Member's resolution or upon the sale or other disposition of all, or substantially all of the Assets of the Company and the sale and/or collection of any evidence of indebtedness received in connection therewith as applicable, but the Company shall not terminate until the assets of the Company shall have been distributed as provided in Section 15.3 and a certificate of cancellation of the certificate of formation of the Company is filed with the office of the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware pursuant to Section 18-203 of the Act. (b) To engage in such other lawful activities in which a limited liability company may engage under the Act as is determined by the Board from time to time.

(c) To do all other things necessary or desirable in connection with the foregoing, or otherwise contemplated in this Agreement.

3.2 Company's Power. In furtherance of the purpose of the Company as set forth in Section 3.1, the Company shall have the power to do any and all things whatsoever necessary, appropriate or advisable in connection with such purpose, or as otherwise contemplated in this Agreement.

3.3 Term. The term of the Company as a limited liability company shall commence as of the date of the filing of Articles of Organization with the Tennessee Secretary of State's Office, and shall continue until dissolved in accordance with Section 15.

4. CAPITAL.

4.1 Initial Capital Contribution of Member. The limited liability company interests in the Company shall be divided into units ("Units"). The total number of Units that the Company is initially authorized to issue is 100 Units. The Member has contributed the cash or other property identified on, and has been issued the number of Units listed on, Exhibit A. The Member may, but shall not be required to, make additional capital contributions to the Company from time to time.

4.2 No Liability of Member. Except as otherwise specifically provided in the Act, the Member shall not have any personal liability for the obligations of the Company. Except as provided in Section 4.1, the Member shall not be obligated to contribute funds or loan money to the Company.

4.3 No Interest on Capital Contributions. The Member shall not be entitled to interest on any capital contributions made to the Company.

5. ACCOUNTING.

5.1 Books and Records. The Company shall maintain full and accurate books of the Company at the Company's principal place of business, or such other place as the Board shall determine, showing all receipts and expenditures, assets and liabilities, net income and loss, and all other records necessary for recording the Company's business and affairs. 7.1 Net Income and Net Loss. All net income or net loss of the Company shall be for the account of the Member.

8. FEDERAL INCOME TAX ELECTIONS.

8.1 Tax Treatment. It is the intention of the Member that for Federal, state and local income tax purposes the Company be disregarded as an entity separate from the Member in accordance with the provisions of Treas. Reg. §§ 301.7701-2(c)(2)(i) and 301.7701-3(b)(1)(ii). The Member shall take all actions which may be necessary or required in order for the Company to be so disregarded for income tax purposes.

9. DISTRIBUTIONS.

9.1 Distributions. The Board shall determine, in the Board's sole discretion, the amount and timing of any distributions to the Member and whether such distributions shall be paid in cash or property.

10. BOARD OF DIRECTORS.

10.1 General Powers. All powers of the Company shall be exercised by or under the authority of, and the business and affairs of the Company managed under the direction of, its Board of Directors ("Board"). Each director shall have all of the powers, rights, duties, and responsibilities of a "manager" under the Act.

10.2 Number, Election and Term. The Board shall consist of not less than one, nor more than seven individual directors, the exact number of which shall be determined by the Board from time to time. Initially, there shall be three directors, Martin G. Schweinhart, W. Larry Cash, and Rachel A. Seifert. Except as otherwise expressly provided herein, directors shall be elected at the organizational meeting of the Member and at each annual meeting thereafter. A decrease in the number of directors shall not shorten an incumbent director's term. Each director shall hold office until such director resigns or is removed. Despite the expiration of a director's term, such director shall continue to serve until the director's successor is elected and qualifies, until there is a decrease in the number of directors or the director is removed.

10.3 Resignation of Directors. A director may resign at any time by delivering written notice to the Board, its Chairman (as hereinafter defined), if any, or the Company. A resignation shall be effective when the notice is delivered unless the notice specifies a later effective date.

10.4 Removal of Directors by Member. A director shall be removed by the Member only at a meeting called for the purpose of removing such director and the meeting notice shall state that the purpose, or one of the purposes, of the meeting is removal of the director. The Member may remove one or more directors with or without cause.

10.5 Vacancy on Board. If a vacancy occurs on the Board, including a vacancy resulting from an increase in the number of directors, the Member shall fill the vacancy. A vacancy that will occur at a specific later date may be filled before the vacancy occurs, but the new director may not take office until the vacancy occurs.

10.6 Compensation of Directors. Directors on the Board shall not be entitled to receive a fee for the director's services as a director on the Board.

10.7 Meetings. The Board may hold regular or special meetings in or out of the State of Tennessee. The Board may permit any or all directors to participate in a regular or special meeting by, or conduct the meeting through the use of, any means of communication by which all directors participating may simultaneously hear each other during the meeting. A director participating in a meeting by this means shall be deemed to be present in person at the meeting.

10.8 Special Meetings. Special meetings of the Board may be called by, or at the request of, the Chairman, if any, or the chief executive officer of the Company. All special meetings of the Board shall be held at the principal office or such other place as may be specified in the notice of the meeting.

10.9 Action Without Meeting. Any action required or permitted to be taken at a Board meeting may be taken without a meeting, without prior notice and without a vote if a consent or consents in writing, setting forth the action so taken, shall be signed by the directors having not less than the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to authorize or take such action at a meeting at which all directors entitled to vote thereon were present and voted.

10.10 Notice of Meetings. Meetings of the Board may be held without notice of the date, time, place or purpose of the meeting.

10.11 Quorum and Voting. A majority of the number of directors fixed by, or determined in accordance with, this Agreement shall constitute a quorum of the Board. If a quorum is present, an affirmative vote by a majority of the number of directors present shall constitute an act of the Board. A director who is present at a meeting of the Board or a committee of the Board when action is taken shall be deemed to have assented to the action taken unless (i) the director objects at the beginning of the meeting, or promptly upon the director' s arrival, to holding the meeting or transacting business at the meeting or (ii) the director's dissent or abstention from the action taken is entered in the minutes of the meeting or the director delivers written notice of the director's dissent or abstention to the presiding officer of the meeting before its adjournment or to the Company immediately after adjournment of the meeting. The right of dissent or abstention shall not be available to a director who votes in favor of the action taken.

10.12 Chairman and Vice Chairman of the Board. The Board may appoint one of its members as Chairman of the Board ("Chairman"). The Board may also appoint one of its members as Vice Chairman of the Board, and such individual shall serve in the absence of the Chairman and perform such additional duties as may be assigned to such person by the Board.

11. OFFICERS.

11.1 Officers Generally. The Company shall have the officers appointed by the Board in accordance with this Agreement. The same individual may simultaneously hold more than one office in the Company. Section 11.10 delegates to the Secretary, if such office be created and filled, the required responsibility of preparing minutes of the Board's and the Member's meetings and for authenticating records of the Company. If such office shall not be created and filled, then the Board shall delegate to one of the officers of the Company such responsibility.

11.2 Duties of Officers. Each officer of the Company shall have the authority and shall perform the duties set forth in this Agreement for such office or, to the extent consistent with this Agreement, the duties prescribed by the Board or by direction of an officer authorized by the Board to prescribe the duties of other officers.

11.3 Appointment and Term of Office. The officers of the Company shall be appointed by the Board. Vacancies may be filled or new offices created and filled at any meeting of the Board. Each officer shall hold office until such officer's successor shall be duly appointed or until the officer's death or until the officer shall resign or shall have been removed in the manner hereinafter provided.

11.4 Resignation and Removal of Officers. An officer may resign at any time by delivering notice to the Company. A resignation shall be effective when the notice is delivered unless the notice specifies a later effective date. If a resignation is made effective at a later date and the Company accepts the future effective date, the Board may fill the pending vacancy before the effective date if the Board provides that the successor shall not take office until the effective date. The Board may remove any officer at any time with or without cause.

11.5 Contract Rights of Officers. Appointment of an officer or agent shall not of itself create contract rights. An officer's removal shall not affect the officer's contract rights, if any, with the Company. An officer's resignation shall not affect the Company's contract rights, if any, with the officer.

11.6 Chairman of the Board. The Chairman, if that office be created and filled, may, at the discretion of the Board, be the chief executive officer of the Company and, if such, shall, in general, supervise and control the affairs and business of the Company, subject to control by the Board. The Chairman shall preside at all meetings of the Member and the Board.

11.7 President. The President, if that office be created and filled, shall be the chief executive officer of the Company, unless a Chairman is appointed and designated chief executive officer pursuant to Section 11.6. If no Chairman has been appointed or, in the absence of the Chairman, the President shall preside at all meetings of the Member. The President may sign certificates for Units, any deeds, mortgages, bonds, contracts or other instruments which the Board has authorized to be executed, except in cases where the signing and execution thereof shall be expressly delegated by the Board or by this Agreement to some other officer or agent of the Company, or shall be required by law to be otherwise signed or executed. The President shall, in general, perform all duties incident to the office of President of a Tennessee corporation and such other duties as may be prescribed by the Board or the Chairman from time to time. Unless otherwise ordered by the Board, the President shall have full power and authority on behalf of the Company to attend, act and vote in person or by proxy at any meetings of shareholders of any corporation in which the Company may hold stock, and at any such meeting shall hold and may exercise all rights incident to the ownership of such stock which the Company, as owner, would have had and could have exercised if present. The Board may confer like powers on any other person or persons.

11.8 Vice President. In the absence of the President, or in the event of the President's death, inability or refusal to act, the Vice President (or, in the event there be more than one Vice President, the Vice Presidents in order designated at the time of their appointment, or in the absence of any designation, then in the order of their appointment), if that office be created and filled, shall perform the duties of the President and when so acting shall have all the powers of, and be subject to all the restrictions upon, the President. Any Vice President may sign certificates for Units and shall perform such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to such person by the Chairman, the President or by the Board.

11.9 Treasurer. The Treasurer, if that office be created and filled, shall have charge and custody of, and be responsible for, all funds and securities of the Company, receive and give receipts for monies due and payable to the Company from any source whatsoever, and deposit all such monies in the name of the Company in such banks, trust companies and other depositories as shall be selected in accordance with the provisions of Section 6.1, and in general, perform all the duties incident to the office of Treasurer of a Tennessee corporation and such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to such person by the Chairman, the President or the Board. If required by the Board, the Treasurer shall give a bond for the faithful discharge of such officer's duties in such sum and with such surety or sureties as the Board shall determine.

11.10 Secretary. The Secretary, if that office be created and filled, shall keep the minutes of the Member's meetings and of the Board's meetings in one or more books provided for that purpose, see that all notices are duly given in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement or as required by law, be custodian of the Company records and of the seal, if any, of the Company, be responsible for authenticating records of the Company, keep a register of the mailing address of the Member, which shall be furnished to the Secretary by the Member, have general charge of the transfer books of the Company, and, in general, perform all duties incident to the office of Secretary of a Tennessee corporation and such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to such person by the Chairman, the President or the Board.

11.11 Assistant Treasurers and Assistant Secretaries.

(a) Assistant Treasurer. The Assistant Treasurer, if that office be created and filled, shall, if required by the Board, give bond for the faithful discharge of such officer's duty in such sum and with such surety as the Board shall determine.

(b) Assistant Secretary. The Assistant Secretary, if that office be created and filled, and if authorized by the Board, may sign, with the President or Vice President, certificates for Units.

(c) Additional Duties. The Assistant Treasurers and Assistant Secretaries, in general, shall perform such additional duties as shall be assigned to them by the Treasurer or the Secretary, respectively, or by the Chairman, the President or the Board.

12. STANDARD OF CARE OF DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS; INDEMNIFICATION.

12.1 Standard of Care. The directors and officers of the Company shall not be liable, responsible or accountable in damages to the Member or the Company on account of such director's or officer's status as a director or officer of the Company or by reason of any act or omission related to the business of the Company performed or omitted by them in good faith with the care and ordinarily prudent person in a like position would exercise under similar circumstances and, in a manner reasonably believed by them to be in the best interests of the Company, and, with respect to any criminal proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe their conduct was unlawful. To the extent that, at law or in equity, a director or officer of the Company has duties (including fiduciary duties) and liabilities relating thereto to the Company, the Member or any other person, such director or officer acting under this Agreement shall not be liable to the Company, the Member or any other person for breach of fiduciary duty for its good faith reliance on the provisions of this Agreement, and the provisions of this Agreement , to the extent that they restrict or eliminate the duties (including fiduciary duties) and liabilities relating thereto of a director or officer otherwise existing at law or in equity, are agreed by the Member and the Company to replace such other duties and liabilities of such director or officer.

12.2 Indemnification.

(a) The Company shall indemnify and hold harmless each director or officer of the Company against reasonable expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees), judgments, taxes, penalties, fines (including any excise tax assessed with respect to an employee benefit plan) and amounts paid in settlement (collectively "Liability"), incurred by such person in connection with defending any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding (whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, and whether formal or informal) to which such person is, or is threatened to be made, a party because such person is or was a director or officer of the Company, or is or was serving at the request of the Company as a director, officer, partner, member, employee or agent of another domestic or foreign corporation, partnership, limited liability company, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, including service with respect to employee benefit plans, provided that the director or officer has met the standard of conduct described in Section 12.1. A director or officer shall be considered to be serving an employee benefit plan at the Company's request if such person's duties to the Company also impose duties on or otherwise involve services by such person to the plan or to participants in or beneficiaries of the plan. The indemnities hereunder shall survive the termination of the Company and this Agreement.

(b) At the request of the director or officer entitled to indemnification hereunder, the Company shall pay or reimburse reasonable expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees) incurred by a director or officer who is a party to a proceeding in advance of final disposition of such proceeding if:

(1) The director or officer furnishes the Company a written affirmation of his good faith belief that he has met the standard of conduct described in Section 12.1;

(2) The director or officer furnishes the Company a written undertaking, executed personally or on the director's or officer's behalf, to repay the advance if it is ultimately determined that the director or officer did not meet the standard of conduct or is otherwise not entitled to indemnification hereunder. Such undertaking shall be an unlimited general obligation of the director or officer, but shall not be required to be secured and may be accepted without reference to financial ability to make repayment; and

(3) A determination is made that the facts then known to those making the determination would not preclude indemnification under the provisions of this Section 12.2.

(c) The indemnification against Liability and advancement of expenses provided by, or granted pursuant to, this Section 12.2 shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which those seeking indemnification or advancement may be, or hereafter become, entitled under any agreement, action of the Member or disinterested directors or otherwise, both as to action in their official capacity and as to action in another capacity while holding such office of the Company, shall continue as to a person who has ceased to be a director or officer of the Company, and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors and administrators of such a person.

Any repeal or modification of this Section 12.2 by the Member shall not adversely affect any right or protection of a director or officer of the Company under this Section 12.2 with respect to any act or omission occurring prior to the time of such repeal or modification.

13. OTHER ACTIVITIES; RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS.

13.1 Other Activities. The directors and officers shall devote such of their time to the affairs of the Company's business as they shall deem necessary. The Member, directors, officers and their Affiliates (as hereinafter defined) may engage in, or possess an interest in, other business ventures of any nature and description, independently or with others, whether or not such activities are competitive with those of the Company. Neither the Company nor the Member shall have any rights by virtue of this Agreement in and to such independent ventures, or to the income or profits derived therefrom. The Member shall not be obligated to present any particular business opportunity of a character which, if presented to the Company, could be taken by the Company, and the Member and its Affiliates shall have the right to take for their own account, or to recommend to others, any such particular business opportunity to the exclusion of the Company. For purposes of this Agreement, the term "Affiliate" shall mean any person, corporation, partnership, limited liability company, trust or other entity (directly or indirectly) controlling, controlled by, or under common control with, another person.

13.2 Related Party Transactions. The fact that a director, officer or their Affiliates are directly or indirectly interested in or connected with any person, firm or corporation employed by the Company to render or perform a service, or to or from whom the Company may purchase, sell or lease property, shall not prohibit the Company from employing such person, firm or corporation or from otherwise dealing with him or it, and neither the Company, nor the Member, shall have any rights in or to any income or profits derived therefrom. All such dealings with a director or such director's Affiliates will be on terms which are competitive and comparable with amounts charged by independent third parties.

14. MEMBERS.

14.1 Limitation on Participation in Management. Except as expressly authorized by this Agreement or as expressly required by the Act, the Member, solely by virtue of its status as the Member, shall not participate in the management or control of the Company's business, transact any business for the Company or have the power to act for or bind the Company, said powers being vested solely and exclusively in the Board and the officers.

14.2 Assignment of Member's Interest. The Member may freely sell, assign, transfer, pledge, hypothecate, encumber or otherwise dispose of the Member's Units. If the member transfers all of its Units, the transferee of such Units shall automatically become a substitute Member in the place of the Member. The Board shall amend Exhibit A from time to time to reflect transfers made in accordance with this Section 14.2.

14.3 Bankruptcy, Dissolution, Etc. of Member. Upon the occurrence of any of the events set forth in Sections 48-249-503(a)(7) – (a)(12) of the Act with respect to the member, the successor-in-interest or personal representative of the Member shall automatically become a substitute Member in place of the Member.

14.4 Certificates for Units.

(a) Certificates representing Units shall be in such form as may be determined by the Board. Such certificates shall be signed by the President or Vice President. The signature of such officer upon such certificates may be signed manually or by facsimile. All certificates for Units shall be consecutively numbered. The name of the person owning the Units represented thereby, with the number of Units and date of issue, shall be entered on the books of the Company. All certificates surrendered to the Company for transfer shall be canceled and no new certificates shall be issued until the former certificates for a like number of Units shall have been surrendered and canceled, except that, in case of a lost, destroyed or mutilated certificate, a new certificate may be issued therefor upon such terms and indemnity to the Company as the Board may prescribe.

(b) A Unit in the Company evidenced by a certificate shall constitute a security governed by Article 8 of the Uniform Commercial Code. Each certificate evidencing membership interests in the Company shall bear the following legend: "This certificate evidences an interest in Metro Knoxville HMA, LLC and shall be a security for purposes of Article 8 of the Uniform Commercial Code." No change to this provision shall be effective until all outstanding certificates have been surrendered for cancellation and any new certificates thereafter issued shall not bear the foregoing legend.

15. DISSOLUTION.

15.1 Dissolution. Except as otherwise provided in the Act, the Company shall dissolve upon the decision of the Member to dissolve the Company or the sale or other disposition of all, or substantially all, of the assets of the Company and the sale and/or collection of any evidence of indebtedness received in connection therewith. Dissolution of the Company shall be effective upon the date specified in the Member's resolution or upon the sale or other disposition of all, or substantially all of the Assets of the Company and the sale and/or collection of any evidence of indebtedness received in connection therewith as applicable, but the Company shall not terminate until the assets of the Company shall have been distributed as provided in Section 15.3 and articles of termination of the articles of organization of the Company are filed with the office of the Secretary of State of the State of Tennessee pursuant to Section 48-249-612 of the Act. Notwithstanding dissolution of the Company, prior to the liquidation and termination of the Company, the Company shall continue to be governed by this Agreement.

15.2 Sale of Assets Upon Dissolution. Following the dissolution of the Company, the Company shall be wound up and the Board shall determine whether the assets of the Company are to be sold or whether some or all of such assets are to be distributed to the Member in kind in liquidation of the Company.

15.3 Distributions Upon Dissolution. Upon the dissolution of the Company, the properties of the Company to be sold shall be liquidated in orderly fashion and the proceeds thereof, and the property to be distributed in kind, shall be distributed as follows:

(a) First, to the payment and discharge of all of the Company's debts and liabilities, to the necessary expenses of liquidation and to the establishment of any cash reserves which the Member determines to create for unmatured and/or contingent liabilities or obligations of the Company.

(b) Second, to the Member.

16. GENERAL.

16.1 Amendment.

(a) Except as provided in Section 16.1(b), this Agreement may be modified or amended from time to time only upon the consent of the Member.

(b) In addition to any amendments authorized by Section 16.1(a), this Agreement may be amended from time to time by the Board without the consent of the Member to cure any ambiguity, to correct or supplement any provision hereof which may be inconsistent with any other provision hereof, or to make any other provisions with respect to matters or questions arising under this Agreement which will not be inconsistent with the provisions of this Agreement.

16.2 Captions; Section References. Section titles or captions contained in this Agreement are inserted only as a matter of convenience and reference, and in no way define, limit, extend or describe the scope of this Agreement, or the intent of any provision hereof. All references herein to Sections shall refer to Sections of this Agreement unless the context clearly requires otherwise.

16.3 Number and Gender. Unless the context otherwise requires, when used herein, the singular shall include the plural, the plural shall include the singular, and all nouns, pronouns and any variations thereof shall be deemed to refer to the masculine, feminine or neuter, as the identity of the person or persons may require.

16.4 Severability. If any provision of this Agreement, or the application thereof to any person, entity or circumstances, shall be invalid or unenforceable to any extent, the remainder of this Agreement, and the application of such provision to other persons, entities or circumstances, shall not be affected thereby and shall be enforced to the greatest extent permitted by law.

16.5 Binding Agreement. Except as otherwise provided herein, this Agreement shall be binding upon, and inure to the benefit of, the parties hereto and their respective executors, administrators, heirs, successors and assigns.

1. FORMATION.

1.1 Formation. The Member does hereby form a limited liability company (the "Company") pursuant to the provisions of the Delaware Limited Liability Company Act ("Act").

2. NAME AND OFFICE.

2.1 Name. The name of the Company shall be Mississippi HMA Holdings I, LLC.

2.2 Principal Office. The principal office of the Company shall be at 4000 Meridian Blvd., Franklin, Tennessee 37067, or at such other place as shall be determined by the Board (as hereinafter defined). The books of the Company shall be maintained at such principal place of business or such other place that the Board shall deem appropriate. The registered office in the State of Delaware is located at 2711 Centerville Road, Suite 400, Wilmington, DE 19808, County of New Castle. The registered agent of the Company for service of process at such address is Corporation Service Company. Such registered office and registered agent may be changed by the Board from time to time.

3. PURPOSE AND TERM.

3.1 Purpose. The purposes of the Company are as follows:

(a) To acquire, own, manage and operate certain healthcare facilities.

(b) To engage in such other lawful activities in which a limited liability company may engage under the Act as is determined by the Board from time to time.

(c) To do all other things necessary or desirable in connection with the foregoing, or otherwise contemplated in this Agreement.

3.2 Company's Power. In furtherance of the purpose of the Company as set forth in Section 3.1, the Company shall have the power to do any and all things whatsoever necessary, appropriate or advisable in connection with such purpose, or as otherwise contemplated in this Agreement.

3.3 Term. The term of the Company as a limited liability company shall commence as of the date of the filing of a Certificate of Formation with the Delaware Secretary of State's Office, and shall continue until dissolved in accordance with Section 15.

4. CAPITAL.

4.1 Initial Capital Contribution of Member. The limited liability company interests in the Company shall be divided into units ("Units"). The total number of Units that the Company is initially authorized to issue is 100 Units. The Member has contributed the cash or other property identified on, and has been issued the number of Units listed on, Exhibit A. The Member may, but shall not be required to, make additional capital contributions to the Company from time to time.

4.2 No Liability of Member. Except as otherwise specifically provided in the Act, the Member shall not have any personal liability for the obligations of the Company. Except as provided in Section 4.1, the Member shall not be obligated to contribute funds or loan money to the Company.

4.3 No Interest on Capital Contributions. The Member shall not be entitled to interest on any capital contributions made to the Company.

5. ACCOUNTING.

5.1 Books and Records. The Company shall maintain full and accurate books of the Company at the Company's principal place of business, or such other place as the Board shall determine, showing all receipts and expenditures, assets and liabilities, net income and loss, and all other records necessary for recording the Company's business and affairs. Such books and records shall be open to the inspection and examination of the Member in person or by its duly authorized representatives at all reasonable times.

5.2 Fiscal Year. The fiscal year of the Company shall be the calendar year.

6. BANK ACCOUNTS.

6.1 Bank Accounts. All funds of the Company shall be deposited in its name into such checking, savings and/or money market accounts or time certificates as shall be designated by the Board. Withdrawals therefrom shall be made upon such signature or signatures as the Board may designate. The Board shall be entitled to make withdrawals from such accounts to invest such funds in connection with the cash management system employed by CHS/Community Health Systems, Inc. on behalf of its affiliated hospitals and health care facilities.

7. NET INCOME AND NET LOSS.

7.1 Net Income and Net Loss. All net income or net loss of the Company shall be for the account of the Member.

8. FEDERAL INCOME TAX ELECTIONS.

8.1 Tax Treatment. It is the intention of the Member that for Federal, state and local income tax purposes the Company be disregarded as an entity separate from the Member in accordance with the provisions of Treas. Reg. §§ 301.7701-2(c)(2)(i) and 301.7701-3(b)(1)(ii). The Member shall take all actions which may be necessary or required in order for the Company to be so disregarded for income tax purposes.

9. DISTRIBUTIONS.

9.1 Distributions. The Board shall determine, in the Board's sole discretion, the amount and timing of any distributions to the Member and whether such distributions shall be paid in cash or property.

10. BOARD OF DIRECTORS.

10.1 General Powers. All powers of the Company shall be exercised by or under the authority of, and the business and affairs of the Company managed under the direction of, its Board of Directors ("Board").

10.2 Number, Election and Term. The Board shall consist of not less than one, nor more than seven individual directors, the exact number of which shall be determined by the Board from time to time. Initially, there shall be three directors, Martin G. Schweinhart, W. Larry Cash and Rachel A. Seifert. Except as otherwise expressly provided herein, directors shall be elected at the organizational meeting of the Member and at each annual meeting thereafter. A decrease in the number of directors shall not shorten an incumbent director's term. Each director shall hold office until such director resigns or is removed. Despite the expiration of a director's term, such director shall continue to serve until the director's successor is elected and qualifies, until there is a decrease in the number of directors or the director is removed.

10.3 Resignation of Directors. A director may resign at any time by delivering written notice to the Board, its Chairman (as hereinafter defined), if any, or the Company. A resignation shall be effective when the notice is delivered unless the notice specifies a later effective date.

10.4 Removal of Directors by Member. A director shall be removed by the Member only at a meeting called for the purpose of removing such director and the meeting notice shall state that the purpose, or one of the purposes, of the meeting is removal of the director. The Member may remove one or more directors with or without cause.

10.5 Vacancy on Board. If a vacancy occurs on the Board, including a vacancy resulting from an increase in the number of directors, the Board shall fill the vacancy, and if the directors remaining in office constitute fewer than a quorum of the Board, they may fill the vacancy by the affirmative vote of a majority of all the directors remaining in office. A vacancy that will occur at a specific later date may be filled before the vacancy occurs, but the new director may not take office until the vacancy occurs.

10.6 Compensation of Directors. Directors on the Board shall not be entitled to receive a fee for the director's services as a director on the Board.

10.7 Meetings. The Board may hold regular or special meetings in or out of the State of Delaware. The Board may permit any or all directors to participate in a regular or special meeting by, or conduct the meeting through the use of, any means of communication by which all directors participating may simultaneously hear each other during the meeting. A director participating in a meeting by this means shall be deemed to be present in person at the meeting.

10.8 Special Meetings. Special meetings of the Board may be called by, or at the request of, the Chairman, if any, or the chief executive officer of the Company. All special meetings of the Board shall be held at the principal office or such other place as may be specified in the notice of the meeting.

10.9 Action Without Meeting. Any action required or permitted to be taken at a Board meeting may be taken without a meeting, without prior notice and without a vote if a consent or consents in writing, setting forth the action so taken, shall be signed by the directors having not less than the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to authorize or take such action at a meeting at which all directors entitled to vote thereon were present and voted.

10.11 Notice of Meetings. Meetings of the Board may be held without notice of the date, time, place or purpose of the meeting.

10.12 Quorum and Voting. A majority of the number of directors fixed by, or determined in accordance with, this Agreement shall constitute a quorum of the Board. If a quorum is present, an affirmative vote by a majority of the number of directors present shall constitute an act of the Board. A director who is present at a meeting of the Board or a committee of the Board when action is taken shall be deemed to have assented to the action taken unless (i) the director objects at the beginning of the meeting, or promptly upon the director' s arrival, to holding the meeting or transacting business at the meeting or (ii) the director's dissent or abstention from the action taken is entered in the minutes of the meeting or the director delivers written notice of the director's dissent or abstention to the presiding officer of the meeting before its adjournment or to the Company immediately after adjournment of the meeting. The right of dissent or abstention shall not be available to a director who votes in favor of the action taken.

10.13 Chairman and Vice Chairman of the Board. The Board may appoint one of its members as Chairman of the Board ("Chairman"). The Board may also appoint one of its members as Vice Chairman of the Board, and such individual shall serve in the absence of the Chairman and perform such additional duties as may be assigned to such person by the Board.

11. OFFICERS.

11.1 Officers Generally. The Company shall have the officers appointed by the Board in accordance with this Agreement. The same individual may simultaneously hold more than one office in the Company. Section 11.10 delegates to the Secretary, if such office be created and filled, the required responsibility of preparing minutes of the Board's and the Member's meetings and for authenticating records of the Company. If such office shall not be created and filled, then the Board shall delegate to one of the officers of the Company such responsibility.

11.2 Duties of Officers. Each officer of the Company shall have the authority and shall perform the duties set forth in this Agreement for such office or, to the extent consistent with this Agreement, the duties prescribed by the Board or by direction of an officer authorized by the Board to prescribe the duties of other officers.

11.3 Appointment and Term of Office. The officers of the Company shall be appointed by the Board. Vacancies may be filled or new offices created and filled at any meeting of the Board. Each officer shall hold office until such officer's successor shall be duly appointed or until the officer's death or until the officer shall resign or shall have been removed in the manner hereinafter provided.

11.4 Resignation and Removal of Officers. An officer may resign at any time by delivering notice to the Company. A resignation shall be effective when the notice is delivered unless the notice specifies a later effective date. If a resignation is made effective at a later date and the Company accepts the future effective date, the Board may fill the pending vacancy before the effective date if the Board provides that the successor shall not take office until the effective date. The Board may remove any officer at any time with or without cause.

11.5 Contract Rights of Officers. Appointment of an officer or agent shall not of itself create contract rights. An officer's removal shall not affect the officer's contract rights, if any, with the Company. An officer's resignation shall not affect the Company's contract rights, if any, with the officer.

11.6 Chairman of the Board. The Chairman, if that office be created and filled, may, at the discretion of the Board, be the chief executive officer of the Company and, if such, shall, in general, supervise and control the affairs and business of the Company, subject to control by the Board. The Chairman shall preside at all meetings of the Member and the Board.

11.7 President. The President, if that office be created and filled, shall be the chief executive officer of the Company, unless a Chairman is appointed and designated chief executive officer pursuant to Section 11.6. If no Chairman has been appointed or, in the absence of the Chairman, the President shall preside at all meetings of the Member. The President may sign certificates for Units, any deeds, mortgages, bonds, contracts or other instruments which the Board has authorized to be executed, except in cases where the signing and execution thereof shall be expressly delegated by the Board or by this Agreement to some other officer or agent of the Company, or shall be required by law to be otherwise signed or executed. The President shall, in general, perform all duties incident to the office of President of a Delaware corporation and such other duties as may be prescribed by the Board or the Chairman from time to time. Unless otherwise ordered by the Board, the President shall have full power and authority on behalf of the Company to attend, act and vote in person or by proxy at any meetings of shareholders of any corporation in which the Company may hold stock, and at any such meeting shall hold and may exercise all rights incident to the ownership of such stock which the Company, as owner, would have had and could have exercised if present. The Board may confer like powers on any other person or persons.

11.8 Vice President. In the absence of the President, or in the event of the President's death, inability or refusal to act, the Vice President (or, in the event there be more than one Vice President, the Vice Presidents in order designated at the time of their appointment, or in the absence of any designation, then in the order of their appointment), if that office be created and filled, shall perform the duties of the President and when so acting shall have all the powers of, and be subject to all the restrictions upon, the President. Any Vice President may sign certificates for Units and shall perform such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to such person by the Chairman, the President or by the Board.

11.9 Treasurer. The Treasurer, if that office be created and filled, shall have charge and custody of, and be responsible for, all funds and securities of the Company, receive and give receipts for monies due and payable to the Company from any source whatsoever, and deposit all such monies in the name of the Company in such banks, trust companies and other depositories as shall be selected in accordance with the provisions of Section 6.1, and in general, perform all the duties incident to the office of Treasurer of a Delaware corporation and such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to such person by the Chairman, the President or the Board. If required by the Board, the Treasurer shall give a bond for the faithful discharge of such officer's duties in such sum and with such surety or sureties as the Board shall determine.

11.10 Secretary. The Secretary, if that office be created and filled, shall keep the minutes of the Member's meetings and of the Board's meetings in one or more books provided for that purpose, see that all notices are duly given in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement or as required by law, be custodian of the Company records and of the seal, if any, of the Company, be responsible for authenticating records of the Company, keep a register of the mailing address of the Member, which shall be furnished to the Secretary by the Member, have general charge of the transfer books of the Company, and, in general, perform all duties incident to the office of Secretary of a Delaware corporation and such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to such person by the Chairman, the President or the Board.

11.11 Assistant Treasurers and Assistant Secretaries.

(a) Assistant Treasurer. The Assistant Treasurer, if that office be created and filled, shall, if required by the Board, give bond for the faithful discharge of such officer's duty in such sum and with such surety as the Board shall determine.

(b) Assistant Secretary. The Assistant Secretary, if that office be created and filled, and if authorized by the Board, may sign, with the President or Vice President, certificates for Units.

(c) Additional Duties. The Assistant Treasurers and Assistant Secretaries, in general, shall perform such additional duties as shall be assigned to them by the Treasurer or the Secretary, respectively, or by the Chairman, the President or the Board.

12. STANDARD OF CARE OF DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS; INDEMNIFICATION.

12.1 Standard of Care. The directors and officers of the Company shall not be liable, responsible or accountable in damages to the Member or the Company on account of such director's or officer's status as a director or officer of the Company or by reason of any act or omission related to the business of the Company performed or omitted by them in good faith with the care an officer of a Delaware corporation of like position would exercise under similar circumstances and in a manner reasonably believed by them to be in the best interests of the Company, and, with respect to any criminal proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe their conduct was unlawful. To the extent that, at law or in equity, a director or officer of the Company has duties (including fiduciary duties) and liabilities relating thereto to the Company, the Member or any other person, such director or officer acting under this Agreement shall not be liable to the Company the Member or any other person for breach of fiduciary duty for its good faith reliance on the provisions of this Agreement, and the provisions of this Agreement , to the extent that they restrict or eliminate the duties (including fiduciary duties) and liabilities relating thereto of a director or officer otherwise existing at law or in equity, are agreed by the Member and the Company to replace such other duties and liabilities of such director or officer.

(a) The Company shall indemnify and hold harmless each director or officer of the Company against reasonable expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees), judgments, taxes, penalties, fines (including any excise tax assessed with respect to an employee benefit plan) and amounts paid in settlement (collectively "Liability"), incurred by such person in connection with defending any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding (whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, and whether formal or informal) to which such person is, or is threatened to be made, a party because such person is or was a director or officer of the Company, or is or was serving at the request of the Company as a director, officer, partner, member, employee or agent of another domestic or foreign corporation, partnership, limited liability company, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, including service with respect to employee benefit plans, provided that the director or officer has met the standard of conduct described in Section 12.1. A director or officer shall be considered to be serving an employee benefit plan at the Company's request if such person's duties to the Company also impose duties on or otherwise involve services by such person to the plan or to participants in or beneficiaries of the plan. The indemnities hereunder shall survive the termination of the Company and this Agreement.

(b) At the request of the director or officer entitled to indemnification hereunder, the Company shall pay or reimburse reasonable expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees) incurred by a director or officer who is a party to a proceeding in advance of final disposition of such proceeding if:

(1) The director or officer furnishes the Company a written affirmation of his good faith belief that he has met the standard of conduct described in Section 12.1;

(2) The director or officer furnishes the Company a written undertaking, executed personally or on the director's or officer's behalf, to repay the advance if it is ultimately determined that the director or officer did not meet the standard of conduct or is otherwise not entitled to indemnification hereunder. Such undertaking shall be an unlimited general obligation of the director or officer, but shall not be required to be secured and may be accepted without reference to financial ability to make repayment; and

(3) A determination is made that the facts then known to those making the determination would not preclude indemnification under the provisions of this Section 12.2.

(c) The indemnification against Liability and advancement of expenses provided by, or granted pursuant to, this Section 12.2 shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which those seeking indemnification or advancement may be, or hereafter become, entitled under any agreement, action of the Member or disinterested directors or otherwise, both as to action in their official capacity and as to action in another capacity while holding such office of the Company, shall continue as to a person who has ceased to be a director or officer of the Company, and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors and administrators of such a person.

Any repeal or modification of this Section 12.2 by the Member shall not adversely affect any right or protection of a director or officer of the Company under this Section 12.2 with respect to any act or omission occurring prior to the time of such repeal or modification.

13. OTHER ACTIVITIES; RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS.

13.1 Other Activities. The directors and officers shall devote such of their time to the affairs of the Company's business as they shall deem necessary. The Member, directors, officers and their Affiliates (as hereinafter defined) may engage in, or possess an interest in, other business ventures of any nature and description, independently or with others, whether or not such activities are competitive with those of the Company. Neither the Company nor the Member shall have any rights by virtue of this Agreement in and to such independent ventures, or to the income or profits derived therefrom. The Member shall not be obligated to present any particular business opportunity of a character which, if presented to the Company, could be taken by the Company, and the Member and its Affiliates shall have the right to take for their own account, or to recommend to others, any such particular business opportunity to the exclusion of the Company. For purposes of this Agreement, the term "Affiliate" shall mean any person, corporation, partnership, limited liability company, trust or other entity (directly or indirectly) controlling, controlled by, or under common control with, another person.

13.2 Related Party Transactions. The fact that a director, officer or their Affiliates are directly or indirectly interested in or connected with any person, firm or corporation employed by the Company to render or perform a service, or to or from whom the Company may purchase, sell or lease property, shall not prohibit the Company from employing such person, firm or corporation or from otherwise dealing with him or it, and neither the Company, nor the Member, shall have any rights in or to any income or profits derived therefrom. All such dealings with a director or such director's Affiliates will be on terms which are competitive and comparable with amounts charged by independent third parties.

14. MEMBERS.

14.1 Limitation on Participation in Management. Except as expressly authorized by this Agreement or as expressly required by the Act, the Member, solely by virtue of its status as the Member, shall not participate in the management or control of the Company's business, transact any business for the Company or have the power to act for or bind the Company, said powers being vested solely and exclusively in the Board and the officers.

14.2 Assignment of Member's Interest. The Member may freely sell, assign, transfer, pledge, hypothecate, encumber or otherwise dispose of the Member's Units. If the member transfers all of its Units, the transferee of such Units shall automatically become a substitute Member in the place of the Member. The Board shall amend Exhibit A from time to time to reflect transfers made in accordance with this Section 14.2.

14.3 Bankruptcy, Dissolution, Etc. of Member. Upon the occurrence of any of the events set forth in Sections 18-304 or 18-705 of the Act with respect to the member, the successor-in-interest or personal representative of the Member shall automatically become a substitute Member in place of the Member.

14.4 Certificates for Units.

(a) Certificates representing Units shall be in such form as may be determined by the Board. Such certificates shall be signed by the President or Vice President. The signature of such officer upon such certificates may be signed manually or by facsimile. All certificates for Units shall be consecutively numbered. The name of the person owning the Units represented thereby, with the number of Units and date of issue, shall be entered on the books of the Company. All certificates surrendered to the Company for transfer shall be canceled and no new certificates shall be issued until the former certificates for a like number of Units shall have been surrendered and canceled, except that, in case of a lost, destroyed or mutilated certificate, a new certificate may be issued therefor upon such terms and indemnity to the Company as the Board may prescribe.

(b) A Unit in the Company evidenced by a certificate shall constitute a security governed by Article 8 of the Uniform Commercial Code. Each certificate evidencing membership interests in the Company shall bear the following legend: "This certificate evidences an interest in «Entity Name», LLC and shall be a security for purposes of Article 8 of the Uniform Commercial Code." No change to this provision shall be effective until all outstanding certificates have been surrendered for cancellation and any new certificates thereafter issued shall not bear the foregoing legend.

15. DISSOLUTION.

15.1 Dissolution. Except as otherwise provided in the Act, the Company shall dissolve upon the decision of the Member to dissolve the Company or the sale or other disposition of all, or substantially all, of the assets of the Company and the sale and/or collection of any evidence of indebtedness received in connection therewith. Dissolution of the Company shall be effective upon the date specified in the Member's resolution or upon the sale or other disposition of all, or substantially all of the Assets of the Company and the sale and/or collection of any evidence of indebtedness received in connection therewith as applicable, but the Company shall not terminate until the assets of the Company shall have been distributed as provided in Section 15.3 and a certificate of cancellation of the certificate of formation of the Company is filed with the office of the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware pursuant to Section 18-203 of the Act. Notwithstanding dissolution of the Company, prior to the liquidation and termination of the Company, the Company shall continue to be governed by this Agreement.

15.2 Sale of Assets Upon Dissolution. Following the dissolution of the Company, the Company shall be wound up and the Board shall determine whether the assets of the Company are to be sold or whether some or all of such assets are to be distributed to the Member in kind in liquidation of the Company.

15.3 Distributions Upon Dissolution. Upon the dissolution of the Company, the properties of the Company to be sold shall be liquidated in orderly fashion and the proceeds thereof, and the property to be distributed in kind, shall be distributed as follows:

(a) First, to the payment and discharge of all of the Company's debts and liabilities, to the necessary expenses of liquidation and to the establishment of any cash reserves which the Member determines to create for unmatured and/or contingent liabilities or obligations of the Company.

(b) Second, to the Member.

16. GENERAL.

16.1 Amendment.

(a) Except as provided in Section 16.1(b), this Agreement may be modified or amended from time to time only upon the consent of the Member.

(b) In addition to any amendments authorized by Section 16.1(a), this Agreement may be amended from time to time by the Board without the consent of the Member to cure any ambiguity, to correct or supplement any provision hereof which may be inconsistent with any other provision hereof, or to make any other provisions with respect to matters or questions arising under this Agreement which will not be inconsistent with the provisions of this Agreement.

16.2 Captions; Section References. Section titles or captions contained in this Agreement are inserted only as a matter of convenience and reference, and in no way define, limit, extend or describe the scope of this Agreement, or the intent of any provision hereof. All references herein to Sections shall refer to Sections of this Agreement unless the context clearly requires otherwise.

16.3 Number and Gender. Unless the context otherwise requires, when used herein, the singular shall include the plural, the plural shall include the singular, and all nouns, pronouns and any variations thereof shall be deemed to refer to the masculine, feminine or neuter, as the identity of the person or persons may require.

16.4 Severability. If any provision of this Agreement, or the application thereof to any person, entity or circumstances, shall be invalid or unenforceable to any extent, the remainder of this Agreement, and the application of such provision to other persons, entities or circumstances, shall not be affected thereby and shall be enforced to the greatest extent permitted by law.

16.5 Binding Agreement. Except as otherwise provided herein, this Agreement shall be binding upon, and inure to the benefit of, the parties hereto and their respective executors, administrators, heirs, successors and assigns.

16.7 Entire Agreement. This Agreement contains the entire agreement with respect to the subject matter hereof.

(b) To engage in such other lawful activities in which a limited liability company may engage under the Act as is determined by the Board from time to time.

(c) To do all other things necessary or desirable in connection with the foregoing, or otherwise contemplated in this Agreement.

3.2 Company's Power. In furtherance of the purpose of the Company as set forth in Section 3.1, the Company shall have the power to do any and all things whatsoever necessary, appropriate or advisable in connection with such purpose, or as otherwise contemplated in this Agreement.

3.3 Term. The term of the Company as a limited liability company shall commence as of the date of the filing of a Certificate of Formation with the Delaware Secretary of State's Office, and shall continue until dissolved in accordance with Section 15.

4. CAPITAL.

4.1 Initial Capital Contribution of Member. The limited liability company interests in the Company shall be divided into units ("Units"). The total number of Units that the Company is initially authorized to issue is 100 Units. The Member may, but shall not be required to, make additional capital contributions to the Company from time to time.

4.2 No Liability of Member. Except as otherwise specifically provided in the Act, the Member shall not have any personal liability for the obligations of the Company. Except as provided in Section 4.1, the Member shall not be obligated to contribute funds or loan money to the Company.

4.3 No Interest on Capital Contributions. The Member shall not be entitled to interest on any capital contributions made to the Company.

5. ACCOUNTING.

5.1 Books and Records. The Company shall maintain full and accurate books of the Company at the Company's principal place of business, or such other place as the Board shall determine, showing all receipts and expenditures, assets and liabilities, net income and loss, and all other records necessary for recording the Company's business and affairs. 6.1 Bank Accounts. All funds of the Company shall be deposited in its name into such checking, savings and/or money market accounts or time certificates as shall be designated by the Board. Withdrawals therefrom shall be made upon such signature or signatures as the Board may designate. The Board shall be entitled to make withdrawals from such accounts to invest such funds in connection with the cash management system employed by CHS/Community Health Systems, Inc. on behalf of its affiliated hospitals and health care facilities.

7. NET INCOME AND NET LOSS.

7.1 Net Income and Net Loss. All net income or net loss of the Company shall be for the account of the Member.

8. FEDERAL INCOME TAX ELECTIONS.

8.1 Tax Treatment. It is the intention of the Member that for Federal, state and local income tax purposes the Company be disregarded as an entity separate from the Member in accordance with the provisions of Treas. Reg. §§ 301.7701-2(c)(2)(i) and 301.7701-3(b)(1)(ii). The Member shall take all actions which may be necessary or required in order for the Company to be so disregarded for income tax purposes.

9. DISTRIBUTIONS.

9.1 Distributions. The Board shall determine, in the Board's sole discretion, the amount and timing of any distributions to the Member and whether such distributions shall be paid in cash or property.

10. BOARD OF DIRECTORS.

10.1 General Powers. All powers of the Company shall be exercised by or under the authority of, and the business and affairs of the Company managed under the direction of, its Board of Directors ("Board").

10.2 Number, Election and Term. The Board shall consist of not less than one, nor more than seven individual directors, the exact number of which shall be determined by the Board from time to time. Initially, there shall be three directors, Martin G. Schweinhart, W. Larry Cash and Rachel A. Seifert. Except as otherwise expressly provided herein, directors shall be elected at the organizational meeting of the Member and at each annual meeting thereafter. A decrease in the number of directors shall not shorten an incumbent director's term. Each director shall hold office until such director resigns or is removed. Despite the expiration of a director's term, such director shall continue to serve until the director's successor is elected and qualifies, until there is a decrease in the number of directors or the director is removed.

10.3 Resignation of Directors. A director may resign at any time by delivering written notice to the Board, its Chairman (as hereinafter defined), if any, or the Company. A resignation shall be effective when the notice is delivered unless the notice specifies a later effective date.

10.4 Removal of Directors by Member. A director shall be removed by the Member only at a meeting called for the purpose of removing such director and the meeting notice shall state that the purpose, or one of the purposes, of the meeting is removal of the director. The Member may remove one or more directors with or without cause.

10.5 Vacancy on Board. If a vacancy occurs on the Board, including a vacancy resulting from an increase in the number of directors, the Board shall fill the vacancy, and if the directors remaining in office constitute fewer than a quorum of the Board, they may fill the vacancy by the affirmative vote of a majority of all the directors remaining in office. A vacancy that will occur at a specific later date may be filled before the vacancy occurs, but the new director may not take office until the vacancy occurs.

10.6 Compensation of Directors. Directors on the Board shall not be entitled to receive a fee for the director's services as a director on the Board.

10.7 Meetings. The Board may hold regular or special meetings in or out of the State of Delaware. The Board may permit any or all directors to participate in a regular or special meeting by, or conduct the meeting through the use of, any means of communication by which all directors participating may simultaneously hear each other during the meeting. A director participating in a meeting by this means shall be deemed to be present in person at the meeting.

10.8 Special Meetings. Special meetings of the Board may be called by, or at the request of, the Chairman, if any, or the chief executive officer of the Company. All special meetings of the Board shall be held at the principal office or such other place as may be specified in the notice of the meeting.

10.9 Action Without Meeting. Any action required or permitted to be taken at a Board meeting may be taken without a meeting, without prior notice and without a vote if a consent or consents in writing, setting forth the action so taken, shall be signed by the directors having not less than the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to authorize or take such action at a meeting at which all directors entitled to vote thereon were present and voted.

10.11 Notice of Meetings. Meetings of the Board may be held without notice of the date, time, place or purpose of the meeting.

10.12 Quorum and Voting. A majority of the number of directors fixed by, or determined in accordance with, this Agreement shall constitute a quorum of the Board. If a quorum is present, an affirmative vote by a majority of the number of directors present shall constitute an act of the Board. A director who is present at a meeting of the Board or a committee of the Board when action is taken shall be deemed to have assented to the action taken unless (i) the director objects at the beginning of the meeting, or promptly upon the director' s arrival, to holding the meeting or transacting business at the meeting or (ii) the director's dissent or abstention from the action taken is entered in the minutes of the meeting or the director delivers written notice of the director's dissent or abstention to the presiding officer of the meeting before its adjournment or to the Company immediately after adjournment of the meeting. The right of dissent or abstention shall not be available to a director who votes in favor of the action taken.

10.13 Chairman and Vice Chairman of the Board. The Board may appoint one of its members as Chairman of the Board ("Chairman"). The Board may also appoint one of its members as Vice Chairman of the Board, and such individual shall serve in the absence of the Chairman and perform such additional duties as may be assigned to such person by the Board.

11. OFFICERS.

11.1 Officers Generally. The Company shall have the officers appointed by the Board in accordance with this Agreement. The same individual may simultaneously hold more than one office in the Company. Section 11.10 delegates to the Secretary, if such office be created and filled, the required responsibility of preparing minutes of the Board's and the Member's meetings and for authenticating records of the Company. If such office shall not be created and filled, then the Board shall delegate to one of the officers of the Company such responsibility.

11.2 Duties of Officers. Each officer of the Company shall have the authority and shall perform the duties set forth in this Agreement for such office or, to the extent consistent with this Agreement, the duties prescribed by the Board or by direction of an officer authorized by the Board to prescribe the duties of other officers.

11.3 Appointment and Term of Office. The officers of the Company shall be appointed by the Board. Vacancies may be filled or new offices created and filled at any meeting of the Board. Each officer shall hold office until such officer's successor shall be duly appointed or until the officer's death or until the officer shall resign or shall have been removed in the manner hereinafter provided.

11.4 Resignation and Removal of Officers. An officer may resign at any time by delivering notice to the Company. A resignation shall be effective when the notice is delivered unless the notice specifies a later effective date. If a resignation is made effective at a later date and the Company accepts the future effective date, the Board may fill the pending vacancy before the effective date if the Board provides that the successor shall not take office until the effective date. The Board may remove any officer at any time with or without cause.

11.5 Contract Rights of Officers. Appointment of an officer or agent shall not of itself create contract rights. An officer's removal shall not affect the officer's contract rights, if any, with the Company. An officer's resignation shall not affect the Company's contract rights, if any, with the officer.

11.6 Chairman of the Board. The Chairman, if that office be created and filled, may, at the discretion of the Board, be the chief executive officer of the Company and, if such, shall, in general, supervise and control the affairs and business of the Company, subject to control by the Board. The Chairman shall preside at all meetings of the Member and the Board.

11.7 President. The President, if that office be created and filled, shall be the chief executive officer of the Company, unless a Chairman is appointed and designated chief executive officer pursuant to Section 11.6. If no Chairman has been appointed or, in the absence of the Chairman, the President shall preside at all meetings of the Member. The President may sign certificates for Units, any deeds, mortgages, bonds, contracts or other instruments which the Board has authorized to be executed, except in cases where the signing and execution thereof shall be expressly delegated by the Board or by this Agreement to some other officer or agent of the Company, or shall be required by law to be otherwise signed or executed. The President shall, in general, perform all duties incident to the office of President of a Delaware corporation and such other duties as may be prescribed by the Board or the Chairman from time to time. Unless otherwise ordered by the Board, the President shall have full power and authority on behalf of the Company to attend, act and vote in person or by proxy at any meetings of shareholders of any corporation in which the Company may hold stock, and at any such meeting shall hold and may exercise all rights incident to the ownership of such stock which the Company, as owner, would have had and could have exercised if present. The Board may confer like powers on any other person or persons.

11.8 Vice President. In the absence of the President, or in the event of the President's death, inability or refusal to act, the Vice President (or, in the event there be more than one Vice President, the Vice Presidents in order designated at the time of their appointment, or in the absence of any designation, then in the order of their appointment), if that office be created and filled, shall perform the duties of the President and when so acting shall have all the powers of, and be subject to all the restrictions upon, the President. Any Vice President may sign certificates for Units and shall perform such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to such person by the Chairman, the President or by the Board.

11.9 Treasurer. The Treasurer, if that office be created and filled, shall have charge and custody of, and be responsible for, all funds and securities of the Company, receive and give receipts for monies due and payable to the Company from any source whatsoever, and deposit all such monies in the name of the Company in such banks, trust companies and other depositories as shall be selected in accordance with the provisions of Section 6.1, and in general, perform all the duties incident to the office of Treasurer of a Delaware corporation and such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to such person by the Chairman, the President or the Board. If required by the Board, the Treasurer shall give a bond for the faithful discharge of such officer's duties in such sum and with such surety or sureties as the Board shall determine.

11.10 Secretary. The Secretary, if that office be created and filled, shall keep the minutes of the Member's meetings and of the Board's meetings in one or more books provided for that purpose, see that all notices are duly given in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement or as required by law, be custodian of the Company records and of the seal, if any, of the Company, be responsible for authenticating records of the Company, keep a register of the mailing address of the Member, which shall be furnished to the Secretary by the Member, have general charge of the transfer books of the Company, and, in general, perform all duties incident to the office of Secretary of a Delaware corporation and such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to such person by the Chairman, the President or the Board.

11.11 Assistant Treasurers and Assistant Secretaries.

(a) Assistant Treasurer. The Assistant Treasurer, if that office be created and filled, shall, if required by the Board, give bond for the faithful discharge of such officer's duty in such sum and with such surety as the Board shall determine.

(b) Assistant Secretary. The Assistant Secretary, if that office be created and filled, and if authorized by the Board, may sign, with the President or Vice President, certificates for Units.

(c) Additional Duties. The Assistant Treasurers and Assistant Secretaries, in general, shall perform such additional duties as shall be assigned to them by the Treasurer or the Secretary, respectively, or by the Chairman, the President or the Board.

12. STANDARD OF CARE OF DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS; INDEMNIFICATION.

12.1 Standard of Care. The directors and officers of the Company shall not be liable, responsible or accountable in damages to the Member or the Company on account of such director's or officer's status as a director or officer of the Company or by reason of any act or omission related to the business of the Company performed or omitted by them in good faith with the care an officer of a Delaware corporation of like position would exercise under similar circumstances and in a manner reasonably believed by them to be in the best interests of the Company, and, with respect to any criminal proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe their conduct was unlawful. To the extent that, at law or in equity, a director or officer of the Company has duties (including fiduciary duties) and liabilities relating thereto to the Company, the Member or any other person, such director or officer acting under this Agreement shall not be liable to the Company the Member or any other person for breach of fiduciary duty for its good faith reliance on the provisions of this Agreement, and the provisions of this Agreement , to the extent that they restrict or eliminate the duties (including fiduciary duties) and liabilities relating thereto of a director or officer otherwise existing at law or in equity, are agreed by the Member and the Company to replace such other duties and liabilities of such director or officer.

(a) The Company shall indemnify and hold harmless each director or officer of the Company against reasonable expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees), judgments, taxes, penalties, fines (including any excise tax assessed with respect to an employee benefit plan) and amounts paid in settlement (collectively "Liability"), incurred by such person in connection with defending any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding (whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, and whether formal or informal) to which such person is, or is threatened to be made, a party because such person is or was a director or officer of the Company, or is or was serving at the request of the Company as a director, officer, partner, member, employee or agent of another domestic or foreign corporation, partnership, limited liability company, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, including service with respect to employee benefit plans, provided that the director or officer has met the standard of conduct described in Section 12.1. A director or officer shall be considered to be serving an employee benefit plan at the Company's request if such person's duties to the Company also impose duties on or otherwise involve services by such person to the plan or to participants in or beneficiaries of the plan. The indemnities hereunder shall survive the termination of the Company and this Agreement.

(b) At the request of the director or officer entitled to indemnification hereunder, the Company shall pay or reimburse reasonable expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees) incurred by a director or officer who is a party to a proceeding in advance of final disposition of such proceeding if:

(1) The director or officer furnishes the Company a written affirmation of his good faith belief that he has met the standard of conduct described in Section 12.1;

(2) The director or officer furnishes the Company a written undertaking, executed personally or on the director's or officer's behalf, to repay the advance if it is ultimately determined that the director or officer did not meet the standard of conduct or is otherwise not entitled to indemnification hereunder. Such undertaking shall be an unlimited general obligation of the director or officer, but shall not be required to be secured and may be accepted without reference to financial ability to make repayment; and

(3) A determination is made that the facts then known to those making the determination would not preclude indemnification under the provisions of this Section 12.2.

(c) The indemnification against Liability and advancement of expenses provided by, or granted pursuant to, this Section 12.2 shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which those seeking indemnification or advancement may be, or hereafter become, entitled under any agreement, action of the Member or disinterested directors or otherwise, both as to action in their official capacity and as to action in another capacity while holding such office of the Company, shall continue as to a person who has ceased to be a director or officer of the Company, and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors and administrators of such a person.

Any repeal or modification of this Section 12.2 by the Member shall not adversely affect any right or protection of a director or officer of the Company under this Section 12.2 with respect to any act or omission occurring prior to the time of such repeal or modification.

13. OTHER ACTIVITIES; RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS.

13.1 Other Activities. The directors and officers shall devote such of their time to the affairs of the Company's business as they shall deem necessary. The Member, directors, officers and their Affiliates (as hereinafter defined) may engage in, or possess an interest in, other business ventures of any nature and description, independently or with others, whether or not such activities are competitive with those of the Company. Neither the Company nor the Member shall have any rights by virtue of this Agreement in and to such independent ventures, or to the income or profits derived therefrom. The Member shall not be obligated to present any particular business opportunity of a character which, if presented to the Company, could be taken by the Company, and the Member and its Affiliates shall have the right to take for their own account, or to recommend to others, any such particular business opportunity to the exclusion of the Company. For purposes of this Agreement, the term "Affiliate" shall mean any person, corporation, partnership, limited liability company, trust or other entity (directly or indirectly) controlling, controlled by, or under common control with, another person.

13.2 Related Party Transactions. The fact that a director, officer or their Affiliates are directly or indirectly interested in or connected with any person, firm or corporation employed by the Company to render or perform a service, or to or from whom the Company may purchase, sell or lease property, shall not prohibit the Company from employing such person, firm or corporation or from otherwise dealing with him or it, and neither the Company, nor the Member, shall have any rights in or to any income or profits derived therefrom. All such dealings with a director or such director's Affiliates will be on terms which are competitive and comparable with amounts charged by independent third parties.

14. MEMBERS.

14.1 Limitation on Participation in Management. Except as expressly authorized by this Agreement or as expressly required by the Act, the Member, solely by virtue of its status as the Member, shall not participate in the management or control of the Company's business, transact any business for the Company or have the power to act for or bind the Company, said powers being vested solely and exclusively in the Board and the officers.

14.2 Assignment of Member's Interest. The Member may freely sell, assign, transfer, pledge, hypothecate, encumber or otherwise dispose of the Member's Units. If the member transfers all of its Units, the transferee of such Units shall automatically become a substitute Member in the place of the Member. The Board shall amend Exhibit A from time to time to reflect transfers made in accordance with this Section 14.2.

14.3 Bankruptcy, Dissolution, Etc. of Member. Upon the occurrence of any of the events set forth in Sections 18-304 or 18-705 of the Act with respect to the member, the successor-in-interest or personal representative of the Member shall automatically become a substitute Member in place of the Member.

14.4 Certificates for Units.

(a) Certificates representing Units shall be in such form as may be determined by the Board. Such certificates shall be signed by the President or Vice President. The signature of such officer upon such certificates may be signed manually or by facsimile. All certificates for Units shall be consecutively numbered. The name of the person owning the Units represented thereby, with the number of Units and date of issue, shall be entered on the books of the Company. All certificates surrendered to the Company for transfer shall be canceled and no new certificates shall be issued until the former certificates for a like number of Units shall have been surrendered and canceled, except that, in case of a lost, destroyed or mutilated certificate, a new certificate may be issued therefor upon such terms and indemnity to the Company as the Board may prescribe.

(b) A Unit in the Company evidenced by a certificate shall constitute a security governed by Article 8 of the Uniform Commercial Code. Each certificate evidencing membership interests in the Company shall bear the following legend: "This certificate evidences an interest in «Entity Name», LLC and shall be a security for purposes of Article 8 of the Uniform Commercial Code." No change to this provision shall be effective until all outstanding certificates have been surrendered for cancellation and any new certificates thereafter issued shall not bear the foregoing legend.

15. DISSOLUTION.

15.1 Dissolution. Except as otherwise provided in the Act, the Company shall dissolve upon the decision of the Member to dissolve the Company or the sale or other disposition of all, or substantially all, of the assets of the Company and the sale and/or collection of any evidence of indebtedness received in connection therewith. Dissolution of the Company shall be effective upon the date specified in the Member's resolution or upon the sale or other disposition of all, or substantially all of the Assets of the Company and the sale and/or collection of any evidence of indebtedness received in connection therewith as applicable, but the Company shall not terminate until the assets of the Company shall have been distributed as provided in Section 15.3 and a certificate of cancellation of the certificate of formation of the Company is filed with the office of the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware pursuant to Section 18-203 of the Act. Notwithstanding dissolution of the Company, prior to the liquidation and termination of the Company, the Company shall continue to be governed by this Agreement.

15.2 Sale of Assets Upon Dissolution. Following the dissolution of the Company, the Company shall be wound up and the Board shall determine whether the assets of the Company are to be sold or whether some or all of such assets are to be distributed to the Member in kind in liquidation of the Company.

15.3 Distributions Upon Dissolution. Upon the dissolution of the Company, the properties of the Company to be sold shall be liquidated in orderly fashion and the proceeds thereof, and the property to be distributed in kind, shall be distributed as follows:

(a) First, to the payment and discharge of all of the Company's debts and liabilities, to the necessary expenses of liquidation and to the establishment of any cash reserves which the Member determines to create for unmatured and/or contingent liabilities or obligations of the Company.

(b) Second, to the Member.

16. GENERAL.

16.1 Amendment.

(a) Except as provided in Section 16.1(b), this Agreement may be modified or amended from time to time only upon the consent of the Member.

(b) In addition to any amendments authorized by Section 16.1(a), this Agreement may be amended from time to time by the Board without the consent of the Member to cure any ambiguity, to correct or supplement any provision hereof which may be inconsistent with any other provision hereof, or to make any other provisions with respect to matters or questions arising under this Agreement which will not be inconsistent with the provisions of this Agreement.

16.2 Captions; Section References. Section titles or captions contained in this Agreement are inserted only as a matter of convenience and reference, and in no way define, limit, extend or describe the scope of this Agreement, or the intent of any provision hereof. All references herein to Sections shall refer to Sections of this Agreement unless the context clearly requires otherwise.

16.3 Number and Gender. Unless the context otherwise requires, when used herein, the singular shall include the plural, the plural shall include the singular, and all nouns, pronouns and any variations thereof shall be deemed to refer to the masculine, feminine or neuter, as the identity of the person or persons may require.

16.4 Severability. If any provision of this Agreement, or the application thereof to any person, entity or circumstances, shall be invalid or unenforceable to any extent, the remainder of this Agreement, and the application of such provision to other persons, entities or circumstances, shall not be affected thereby and shall be enforced to the greatest extent permitted by law.

16.5 Binding Agreement. Except as otherwise provided herein, this Agreement shall be binding upon, and inure to the benefit of, the parties hereto and their respective executors, administrators, heirs, successors and assigns.

16.6 Applicable Law. This Agreement shall be governed by, and construed in accordance with, the laws of the State of Delaware without regard to its conflict of laws rules.

16.7 Entire Agreement. This Agreement contains the entire agreement with respect to the subject matter hereof.

2.1 Name. The name of the Company shall be Monroe HMA, LLC.

2.2 Principal Office. The principal office of the Company shall be at 4000 Meridian Blvd., Franklin, Tennessee 37067, or at such other place as shall be determined by the Board (as hereinafter defined). The books of the Company shall be maintained at such principal place of business or such other place that the Board shall deem appropriate. 3. PURPOSE AND TERM.

3.1 Purpose. The purposes of the Company are as follows:

(a) To acquire, own, manage and operate certain healthcare facilities.

(b) To engage in such other lawful activities in which a limited liability company may engage under the Act as is determined by the Board from time to time.

(c) To do all other things necessary or desirable in connection with the foregoing, or otherwise contemplated in this Agreement.

3.2 Company's Power. In furtherance of the purpose of the Company as set forth in Section 3.1, the Company shall have the power to do any and all things whatsoever necessary, appropriate or advisable in connection with such purpose, or as otherwise contemplated in this Agreement.

3.3 Term. The term of the Company as a limited liability company commenced as of the date of the filing of Articles of Organization with the Georgia Secretary of State's Office, and shall continue until dissolved in accordance with Section 15.

4. CAPITAL.

4.1 Initial Capital Contribution of Member. The limited liability company interests in the Company shall be divided into units ("Units"). The total number of Units that the Company is initially authorized to issue is 100 Units. The Member has contributed the cash or other property identified on, and has been issued the number of Units listed on, Exhibit A. The Member may, but shall not be required to, make additional capital contributions to the Company from time to time.

4.2 No Liability of Member. Except as otherwise specifically provided in the Act, the Member shall not have any personal liability for the obligations of the Company. Except as provided in Section 4.1, the Member shall not be obligated to contribute funds or loan money to the Company.

4.3 No Interest on Capital Contributions. The Member shall not be entitled to interest on any capital contributions made to the Company.

5. ACCOUNTING.

5.1 Books and Records. The Company shall maintain full and accurate books of the Company at the Company's principal place of business, or such other place as the Board shall determine, showing all receipts and expenditures, assets and liabilities, net income and loss, and all other records necessary for recording the Company's business and affairs. Such books and records shall be open to the inspection and examination of the Member in person or by its duly authorized representatives at all reasonable times.

5.2 Fiscal Year. The fiscal year of the Company shall be the calendar year.

6. BANK ACCOUNTS.

6.1 Bank Accounts. All funds of the Company shall be deposited in its name into such checking, savings and/or money market accounts or time certificates as shall be designated by the Board. Withdrawals therefrom shall be made upon such signature or signatures as the Board may designate. The Board shall be entitled to make withdrawals from such accounts to invest such funds in connection with the cash management system employed by CHS/Community Health Systems, Inc. on behalf of its affiliated hospitals and health care facilities.

7. NET INCOME AND NET LOSS.

7.1 Net Income and Net Loss. All net income or net loss of the Company shall be for the account of the Member.

8. FEDERAL INCOME TAX ELECTIONS.

8.1 Tax Treatment. It is the intention of the Member that for Federal, state and local income tax purposes the Company be disregarded as an entity separate from the Member in accordance with the provisions of Treas. Reg. §§ 301.7701-2(c)(2)(i) and 301.7701-3(b)(1)(ii). The Member shall take all actions which may be necessary or required in order for the Company to be so disregarded for income tax purposes.

9. DISTRIBUTIONS.

9.1 Distributions. The Board shall determine, in the Board's sole discretion, the amount and timing of any distributions to the Member and whether such distributions shall be paid in cash or property.

10. BOARD OF MANAGERS.

10.1 General Powers. All powers of the Company shall be exercised by or under the authority of, and the business and affairs of the Company managed under the direction of, its Board of Manager ("Board").

10.2 Number, Election and Term. The Board shall consist of not less than one, nor more than seven individual managers, the exact number of which shall be determined by the Board from time to time. Initially, there shall be three managers, Martin G. Schweinhart, W. Larry Cash and Rachel A. Seifert. Except as otherwise expressly provided herein, managers shall be elected at the organizational meeting of the Member and at each annual meeting thereafter. A decrease in the number of managers shall not shorten an incumbent manager's term. Each manager shall hold office until such manager resigns or is removed. Despite the expiration of a manager's term, such manager shall continue to serve until the manager's successor is elected and qualifies, until there is a decrease in the number of managers or the manager is removed.

10.3 Resignation of Managers. A manager may resign at any time by delivering written notice to the Board, its Chairman (as hereinafter defined), if any, or the Company. A resignation shall be effective when the notice is delivered unless the notice specifies a later effective date.

10.4 Removal of Managers by Member. A manager shall be removed by the Member only at a meeting called for the purpose of removing such manager and the meeting notice shall state that the purpose, or one of the purposes, of the meeting is removal of the manager. The Member may remove one or more managers with or without cause.

10.5 Vacancy on Board. If a vacancy occurs on the Board, including a vacancy resulting from an increase in the number of managers, the Board shall fill the vacancy, and if the managers remaining in office constitute fewer than a quorum of the Board, they may fill the vacancy by the affirmative vote of a majority of all the managers remaining in office. A vacancy that will occur at a specific later date may be filled before the vacancy occurs, but the new manager may not take office until the vacancy occurs.

10.6 Compensation of Managers. Managers on the Board shall not be entitled to receive a fee for the manager's services as a manager on the Board.

10.7 Meetings. The Board may hold regular or special meetings in or out of the State of Georgia. The Board may permit any or all managers to participate in a regular or special meeting by, or conduct the meeting through the use of, any means of communication by which all managers participating may simultaneously hear each other during the meeting. A manager participating in a meeting by this means shall be deemed to be present in person at the meeting.

10.8 Special Meetings. Special meetings of the Board may be called by, or at the request of, the Chairman, if any, or the chief executive officer of the Company. All special meetings of the Board shall be held at the principal office or such other place as may be specified in the notice of the meeting.

10.9 Action Without Meeting. Any action required or permitted to be taken at a Board meeting may be taken without a meeting, without prior notice and without a vote if a consent or consents in writing, setting forth the action so taken, shall be signed by the managers having not less than the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to authorize or take such action at a meeting at which all managers entitled to vote thereon were present and voted.

10.11 Notice of Meetings. Meetings of the Board may be held without notice of the date, time, place or purpose of the meeting.

10.12 Quorum and Voting. A majority of the number of managers fixed by, or determined in accordance with, this Agreement shall constitute a quorum of the Board. If a quorum is present, an affirmative vote by a majority of the number of managers present shall constitute an act of the Board. A manager who is present at a meeting of the Board or a committee of the Board when action is taken shall be deemed to have assented to the action taken unless (i) the manager objects at the beginning of the meeting, or promptly upon the manager's arrival, to holding the meeting or transacting business at the meeting or (ii) the manager's dissent or abstention from the action taken is entered in the minutes of the meeting or the manager delivers written notice of the manager's dissent or abstention to the presiding officer of the meeting before its adjournment or to the Company immediately after adjournment of the meeting. The right of dissent or abstention shall not be available to a manager who votes in favor of the action taken.

10.13 Chairman and Vice Chairman of the Board. The Board may appoint one of its members as Chairman of the Board ("Chairman"). The Board may also appoint one of its members as Vice Chairman of the Board, and such individual shall serve in the absence of the Chairman and perform such additional duties as may be assigned to such person by the Board.

11. OFFICERS.

11.1 Officers Generally. The Company shall have the officers appointed by the Board in accordance with this Agreement. The same individual may simultaneously hold more than one office in the Company. Section 11.10 delegates to the Secretary, if such office be created and filled, the required responsibility of preparing minutes of the Board's and the Member's meetings and for authenticating records of the Company. If such office shall not be created and filled, then the Board shall delegate to one of the officers of the Company such responsibility.

11.2 Duties of Officers. Each officer of the Company shall have the authority and shall perform the duties set forth in this Agreement for such office or, to the extent consistent with this Agreement, the duties prescribed by the Board or by direction of an officer authorized by the Board to prescribe the duties of other officers.

11.3 Appointment and Term of Office. The officers of the Company shall be appointed by the Board. Vacancies may be filled or new offices created and filled at any meeting of the Board. Each officer shall hold office until such officer's successor shall be duly appointed or until the officer's death or until the officer shall resign or shall have been removed in the manner hereinafter provided.

11.4 Resignation and Removal of Officers. An officer may resign at any time by delivering notice to the Company. A resignation shall be effective when the notice is delivered unless the notice specifies a later effective date. If a resignation is made effective at a later date and the Company accepts the future effective date, the Board may fill the pending vacancy before the effective date if the Board provides that the successor shall not take office until the effective date. The Board may remove any officer at any time with or without cause.

11.5 Contract Rights of Officers. Appointment of an officer or agent shall not of itself create contract rights. An officer's removal shall not affect the officer's contract rights, if any, with the Company. An officer's resignation shall not affect the Company's contract rights, if any, with the officer.

11.6 Chairman of the Board. The Chairman, if that office be created and filled, may, at the discretion of the Board, be the chief executive officer of the Company and, if such, shall, in general, supervise and control the affairs and business of the Company, subject to control by the Board. The Chairman shall preside at all meetings of the Member and the Board.

11.7 President. The President, if that office be created and filled, shall be the chief executive officer of the Company, unless a Chairman is appointed and designated chief executive officer pursuant to Section 11.6. If no Chairman has been appointed or, in the absence of the Chairman, the President shall preside at all meetings of the Member. The President may sign certificates for Units, any deeds, mortgages, bonds, contracts or other instruments which the Board has authorized to be executed, except in cases where the signing and execution thereof shall be expressly delegated by the Board or by this Agreement to some other officer or agent of the Company, or shall be required by law to be otherwise signed or executed. The President shall, in general, perform all duties incident to the office of President of a Georgia corporation and such other duties as may be prescribed by the Board or the Chairman from time to time. Unless otherwise ordered by the Board, the President shall have full power and authority on behalf of the Company to attend, act and vote in person or by proxy at any meetings of shareholders of any corporation in which the Company may hold stock, and at any such meeting shall hold and may exercise all rights incident to the ownership of such stock which the Company, as owner, would have had and could have exercised if present. The Board may confer like powers on any other person or persons.

11.8 Vice President. In the absence of the President, or in the event of the President's death, inability or refusal to act, the Vice President (or, in the event there be more than one Vice President, the Vice Presidents in order designated at the time of their appointment, or in the absence of any designation, then in the order of their appointment), if that office be created and filled, shall perform the duties of the President and when so acting shall have all the powers of, and be subject to all the restrictions upon, the President. Any Vice President may sign certificates for Units and shall perform such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to such person by the Chairman, the President or by the Board.

11.9 Treasurer. The Treasurer, if that office be created and filled, shall have charge and custody of, and be responsible for, all funds and securities of the Company, receive and give receipts for monies due and payable to the Company from any source whatsoever, and deposit all such monies in the name of the Company in such banks, trust companies and other depositories as shall be selected in accordance with the provisions of Section 6.1, and in general, perform all the duties incident to the office of Treasurer of a Georgia corporation and such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to such person by the Chairman, the President or the Board. If required by the Board, the Treasurer shall give a bond for the faithful discharge of such officer's duties in such sum and with such surety or sureties as the Board shall determine.

11.10 Secretary. The Secretary, if that office be created and filled, shall keep the minutes of the Member's meetings and of the Board's meetings in one or more books provided for that purpose, see that all notices are duly given in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement or as required by law, be custodian of the Company records and of the seal, if any, of the Company, be responsible for authenticating records of the Company, keep a register of the mailing address of the Member, which shall be furnished to the Secretary by the Member, have general charge of the transfer books of the Company, and, in general, perform all duties incident to the office of Secretary of a Georgia corporation and such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to such person by the Chairman, the President or the Board.

11.11 Assistant Treasurers and Assistant Secretaries.

(a) Assistant Treasurer. The Assistant Treasurer, if that office be created and filled, shall, if required by the Board, give bond for the faithful discharge of such officer's duty in such sum and with such surety as the Board shall determine.

(b) Assistant Secretary. The Assistant Secretary, if that office be created and filled, and if authorized by the Board, may sign, with the President or Vice President, certificates for Units.

(c) Additional Duties. The Assistant Treasurers and Assistant Secretaries, in general, shall perform such additional duties as shall be assigned to them by the Treasurer or the Secretary, respectively, or by the Chairman, the President or the Board.

12. STANDARD OF CARE OF MANAGERS AND OFFICERS; INDEMNIFICATION.

12.1 Standard of Care. The managers and officers of the Company shall not be liable, responsible or accountable in damages to the Member or the Company on account of such manager's or officer's status as a manager or officer of the Company or by reason of any act or omission related to the business of the Company performed or omitted by them in good faith with the care an officer of a Georgia corporation of like position would exercise under similar circumstances and in a manner reasonably believed by them to be in the best interests of the Company, and, with respect to any criminal proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe their conduct was unlawful. To the extent that, at law or in equity, a manager or officer of the Company has duties (including fiduciary duties) and liabilities relating thereto to the Company, the Member or any other person, such manager or officer acting under this Agreement shall not be liable to the Company the Member or any other person for breach of fiduciary duty for its good faith reliance on the provisions of this Agreement, and the provisions of this Agreement , to the extent that they restrict or eliminate the duties (including fiduciary duties) and liabilities relating thereto of a manager or officer otherwise existing at law or in equity, are agreed by the Member and the Company to replace such other duties and liabilities of such manager or officer.

12.2. Indemnification.

(a) The Company shall indemnify and hold harmless each manager or officer of the Company against reasonable expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees), judgments, taxes, penalties, fines (including any excise tax assessed with respect to an employee benefit plan) and amounts paid in settlement (collectively "Liability"), incurred by such person in connection with defending any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding (whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, and whether formal or informal) to which such person is, or is threatened to be made, a party because such person is or was a manager or officer of the Company, or is or was serving at the request of the Company as a manager, officer, partner, member, employee or agent of another domestic or foreign corporation, partnership, limited liability company, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, including service with respect to employee benefit plans, provided that the manager or officer has met the standard of conduct described in Section 12.1. A manager or officer shall be considered to be serving an employee benefit plan at the Company's request if such person's duties to the Company also impose duties on or otherwise involve services by such person to the plan or to participants in or beneficiaries of the plan. The indemnities hereunder shall survive the termination of the Company and this Agreement.

(b) At the request of the manager or officer entitled to indemnification hereunder, the Company shall pay or reimburse reasonable expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees) incurred by a manager or officer who is a party to a proceeding in advance of final disposition of such proceeding if:

(1) The manager or officer furnishes the Company a written affirmation of his good faith belief that he has met the standard of conduct described in Section 12.1;

(2) The manager or officer furnishes the Company a written undertaking, executed personally or on the manager's or officer's behalf, to repay the advance if it is ultimately determined that the manager or officer did not meet the standard of conduct or is otherwise not entitled to indemnification hereunder. Such undertaking shall be an unlimited general obligation of the manager or officer, but shall not be required to be secured and may be accepted without reference to financial ability to make repayment; and

(3) A determination is made that the facts then known to those making the determination would not preclude indemnification under the provisions of this Section 12.2.

(c) The indemnification against Liability and advancement of expenses provided by, or granted pursuant to, this Section 12.2 shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which those seeking indemnification or advancement may be, or hereafter become, entitled under any agreement, action of the Member or disinterested managers or otherwise, both as to action in their official capacity and as to action in another capacity while holding such office of the Company, shall continue as to a person who has ceased to be a manager or officer of the Company, and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors and administrators of such a person.

Any repeal or modification of this Section 12.2 by the Member shall not adversely affect any right or protection of a manager or officer of the Company under this Section 12.2 with respect to any act or omission occurring prior to the time of such repeal or modification.

13. OTHER ACTIVITIES; RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS.

13.1 Other Activities. The managers and officers shall devote such of their time to the affairs of the Company's business as they shall deem necessary. The Member, managers, officers and their Affiliates (as hereinafter defined) may engage in, or possess an interest in, other business ventures of any nature and description, independently or with others, whether or not such activities are competitive with those of the Company. Neither the Company nor the Member shall have any rights by virtue of this Agreement in and to such independent ventures, or to the income or profits derived therefrom. The Member shall not be obligated to present any particular business opportunity of a character which, if presented to the Company, could be taken by the Company, and the Member and its Affiliates shall have the right to take for their own account, or to recommend to others, any such particular business opportunity to the exclusion of the Company. For purposes of this Agreement, the term "Affiliate" shall mean any person, corporation, partnership, limited liability company, trust or other entity (directly or indirectly) controlling, controlled by, or under common control with, another person.

13.2 Related Party Transactions. The fact that a manager, officer or their Affiliates are directly or indirectly interested in or connected with any person, firm or corporation employed by the Company to render or perform a service, or to or from whom the Company may purchase, sell or lease property, shall not prohibit the Company from employing such person, firm or corporation or from otherwise dealing with him or it, and neither the Company, nor the Member, shall have any rights in or to any income or profits derived therefrom. All such dealings with a manager or such manager's Affiliates will be on terms which are competitive and comparable with amounts charged by independent third parties.

14. MEMBERS.

14.1 Limitation on Participation in Management. Except as expressly authorized by this Agreement or as expressly required by the Act, the Member, solely by virtue of its status as the Member, shall not participate in the management or control of the Company's business, transact any business for the Company or have the power to act for or bind the Company, said powers being vested solely and exclusively in the Board and the officers.

14.2 Assignment of Member's Interest. The Member may freely sell, assign, transfer, pledge, hypothecate, encumber or otherwise dispose of the Member's Units. If the member transfers all of its Units, the transferee of such Units shall automatically become a substitute Member in the place of the Member. The Board shall amend Exhibit A from time to time to reflect transfers made in accordance with this Section 14.2.

14.3 Bankruptcy, Dissolution, Etc. of Member. Upon the occurrence of any of the events set forth in Section 14-11-601.1 of the Act with respect to the Member, the successor-in-interest or personal representative of the Member shall automatically become a substitute Member in place of the Member.

14.4 Certificates for Units.

(a) Certificates representing Units shall be in such form as may be determined by the Board. Such certificates shall be signed by the President or Vice President. The signature of such officer upon such certificates may be signed manually or by facsimile. All certificates for Units shall be consecutively numbered. The name of the person owning the Units represented thereby, with the number of Units and date of issue, shall be entered on the books of the Company. All certificates surrendered to the Company for transfer shall be canceled and no new certificates shall be issued until the former certificates for a like number of Units shall have been surrendered and canceled, except that, in case of a lost, destroyed or mutilated certificate, a new certificate may be issued therefor upon such terms and indemnity to the Company as the Board may prescribe.

(b) A Unit in the Company evidenced by a certificate shall constitute a security governed by Article 8 of the Uniform Commercial Code. Each certificate evidencing membership interests in the Company shall bear the following legend: "This certificate evidences an interest in Monroe HMA, LLC and shall be a security for purposes of Article 8 of the Uniform Commercial Code." No change to this provision shall be effective until all outstanding certificates have been surrendered for cancellation and any new certificates thereafter issued shall not bear the foregoing legend.

15. DISSOLUTION.

15.1 Dissolution. Except as otherwise provided in the Act, the Company shall dissolve upon the decision of the Member to dissolve the Company or the sale or other disposition of all, or substantially all, of the assets of the Company and the sale and/or collection of any evidence of indebtedness received in connection therewith. Dissolution of the Company shall be effective upon the date specified in the Member's resolution or upon the sale or other disposition of all, or substantially all of the Assets of the Company and the sale and/or collection of any evidence of indebtedness received in connection therewith as applicable, but the Company shall not terminate until the assets of the Company shall have been distributed as provided in Section 15.3 and a certificate of termination of the Company is filed with the office of the Secretary of State of the State of Georgia pursuant to Section 14-11-610 of the Act.
Notwithstanding dissolution of the Company, prior to the liquidation and termination of the Company, the Company shall continue to be governed by this Agreement.

15.2 Sale of Assets Upon Dissolution. Following the dissolution of the Company, the Company shall be wound up and the Board shall determine whether the assets of the Company are to be sold or whether some or all of such assets are to be distributed to the Member in kind in liquidation of the Company.

15.3 Distributions Upon Dissolution. Upon the dissolution of the Company, the properties of the Company to be sold shall be liquidated in orderly fashion and the proceeds thereof, and the property to be distributed in kind, shall be distributed as follows:

(a) First, to the payment and discharge of all of the Company's debts and liabilities, to the necessary expenses of liquidation and to the establishment of any cash reserves which the Member determines to create for unmatured and/or contingent liabilities or obligations of the Company.

(b) Second, to the Member.

16. GENERAL.

16.1 Amendment.

(a) Except as provided in Section 16.1(b), this Agreement may be modified or amended from time to time only upon the consent of the Member.

(b) In addition to any amendments authorized by Section 16.1(a), this Agreement may be amended from time to time by the Board without the consent of the Member to cure any ambiguity, to correct or supplement any provision hereof which may be inconsistent with any other provision hereof, or to make any other provisions with respect to matters or questions arising under this Agreement which will not be inconsistent with the provisions of this Agreement.

16.2 Captions; Section References. Section titles or captions contained in this Agreement are inserted only as a matter of convenience and reference, and in no way define, limit, extend or describe the scope of this Agreement, or the intent of any provision hereof. All references herein to Sections shall refer to Sections of this Agreement unless the context clearly requires otherwise.

16.3 Number and Gender. Unless the context otherwise requires, when used herein, the singular shall include the plural, the plural shall include the singular, and all nouns, pronouns and any variations thereof shall be deemed to refer to the masculine, feminine or neuter, as the identity of the person or persons may require.

16.4 Severability. If any provision of this Agreement, or the application thereof to any person, entity or circumstances, shall be invalid or unenforceable to any extent, the remainder of this Agreement, and the application of such provision to other persons, entities or circumstances, shall not be affected thereby and shall be enforced to the greatest extent permitted by law.

16.5 Binding Agreement. Except as otherwise provided herein, this Agreement shall be binding upon, and inure to the benefit of, the parties hereto and their respective executors, administrators, heirs, successors and assigns.

16.6 Applicable Law. This Agreement shall be governed by, and construed in accordance with, the laws of the State of Georgia without regard to its conflict of laws rules.

1. FORMATION.

The books of the Company shall be maintained at such principal place of business or such other place that the Board shall deem appropriate. The registered office in the State of Delaware is located at 2711 Centerville Road, Suite 400, Wilmington, DE 19808, County of New Castle. The registered agent of the Company for service of process at such address is Corporation Service Company. Such registered office and registered agent may be changed by the Board from time to time.

(c) To do all other things necessary or desirable in connection with the foregoing, or otherwise contemplated in this Agreement.

2.4 Company's Power. In furtherance of the purpose of the Company as set forth in Section 2.3, the Company shall have the power to do any and all things whatsoever necessary, appropriate or advisable in connection with such purpose, or as otherwise contemplated in this Agreement.

2.5 Term. The term of the Company commenced as of the date of the filing of a Certificate of Formation with the Delaware Secretary of State's Office, and shall continue until dissolved in accordance with Section 14.

3. CAPITAL.

3.1 Issuance of Units to Members. The interests of the Members shall be divided into units ("Units"). The total number of Units that the Company is initially authorized to issue is 1,000 Units. Each of the Members has been issued the number of Units listed on Exhibit A.

3.2 Additional Capital Contributions. In order to raise additional capital or for any other proper purpose, the Board is authorized (without the consent of the Members) to issue additional Units from time to time to Members or to other persons and to admit such persons as Members. The Board shall have sole and complete discretion in determining the consideration and terms and conditions with respect to any future issuance of Units. In addition, the Board is authorized to cause the issuance of any other type of security (including, without limitation, secured or unsecured debt securities and securities convertible into or otherwise granting a right to acquire any class of Units) from time to time to Members or other persons on terms and conditions established in the sole and complete discretion of the Board. In connection with future issuances of Units, the Board shall do all things necessary to comply with the Act and is authorized and directed to do all things it deems to be necessary or advisable in connection with any such future issuances, including compliance with any statute, rule, regulation or guideline of any federal, state or other governmental agency or any stock exchange on which the Units are listed for trading.

3.3 Loans from Interest Holders. If the Company has a temporary need for funds, the Company may borrow such funds from, among others, one or more of its Members or assignees of interests in the Company who are not admitted as substitute Members (Members and such unadmitted assignees are hereinafter collectively referred to as "Interest Holders") on such terms and conditions as shall be agreed to by the Board and such Interest Holders.

3.4 No Liability of Interest Holders. Except as otherwise specifically provided in the Act, no Interest Holder shall have any personal liability for the obligations of the Company. Except as provided in Section 3.1, no Interest Holder shall be obligated to contribute funds or loan money to the Company.

3.5 No Interest on Capital Contributions. No Interest Holder shall be entitled to interest on any capital contributions made to the Company.

3.6 No Withdrawal of Capital. No Member shall be entitled to withdraw any part of the Member's capital contributions to the Company, except as provided in Section 14. No Member shall be entitled to demand or receive any property from the Company other than cash, except as otherwise expressly provided for herein.

3.7 Capital Account. There shall be established on the books of the Company a capital account ("Capital Account") for each Interest Holder. It is the intention of the Members that such Capital Account be maintained in accordance with the provisions of Treas. Reg. § 1.704-1(b)(2)(iv), and this Agreement shall be so construed. Accordingly, such Capital Account shall initially be credited with the initial capital contribution of the Interest Holder and thereafter shall be increased by (i) any cash or the fair market value of any property contributed by such Interest Holder (net of any liabilities assumed by the Company or to which the contributed property is subject) and (ii) the amount of all net income (whether or not exempt from tax) and gain allocated to such Interest Holder hereunder, and decreased by (i) the amount of all net losses allocated to such Interest Holder hereunder (including expenditures described in section 705(a)(2)(B) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended ("Code"), or treated as such an expenditure by reason of Treas. Reg. § 1.704-I(b)(2)(iv)(i)) and (ii) the amount of cash, and the fair market value of property (net of any liabilities assumed by such Interest Holder or to which the distributed property is subject), distributed to such Interest Holder pursuant to Sections 8 and 14. If the Company has made an election under section 754 of the Code, Capital Accounts shall also be adjusted to the extent required by Treas. Reg. § 1.704-1(b)(2)(iv)(m). If an Interest Holder transfers all or any part of such Interest Holder's Units in accordance with the terms of this Agreement, the Capital Account of the transferor shall become the Capital Account of the transferee to the extent of the Units transferred.

3.8 No Preemptive Rights. No Interest Holder shall have any preemptive, preferential or other right with respect to (i) additional contributions to the capital of the Company, (ii) issuance or sale of Units, whether unissued or treasury, (iii) issuance of any obligations, evidences of indebtedness or other securities of the Company convertible into or exchangeable for, or carrying or accompanied by any rights to receive, purchase or subscribe to, any such unissued or treasury Units, (iv) issuance of any right of subscription to or right to receive, or any warrant or option for the purchase of, any of the foregoing securities or (v) issuance or sale of any other securities that may be issued or sold by the Company.

4. ACCOUNTING.

4.1 Books and Records. The Company shall maintain full and accurate books of the Company at the Company's principal place of business, or such other place as the Board shall determine, showing all receipts and expenditures, assets and liabilities, net income and loss, and all other records necessary for recording the Company's business and affairs. Upon reasonable request of a Member, such books and records shall be open to the inspection and examination by such Member in person or by such Member's duly authorized representatives during normal business hours and may be copied at such Member's expense.

4.2 Fiscal Year. The fiscal year of the Company shall be the calendar year ("Fiscal Year").

5. BANK ACCOUNTS.

5.1 Bank Accounts. All funds of the Company shall be deposited in its name into such checking, savings and/or money market accounts or time certificates as shall be designated by the Board. Withdrawals therefrom shall be made upon such signature or signatures as the Board may designate. The Board shall be entitled to make withdrawals from such accounts to invest such funds in connection with the cash management system employed by Community Health System, Inc. on behalf of its affiliated hospitals and health care facilities.

6. ALLOCATION OF NET INCOME AND NET LOSS.

6.1 Net Income and Net Loss.

(a) Except as otherwise provided herein, the net income and net loss of the Company for each Fiscal Year, computed without regard to net gains resulting from the sale or other disposition of any hospital owned by the Company, shall be allocated to the Interest Holders in accordance with their respective Percentage Interests. For purposes of this Agreement, the term "Percentage Interest" shall mean the percentage that the number of Units owned by an Interest Holder bears to the aggregate number of Units owned by all of the Interest Holders.

(b) Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, if an Interest Holder has a deficit balance in such Interest Holder's Capital Account (excluding from such Interest Holder's deficit Capital Account any amount which such Interest Holder is obligated to restore in accordance with Treas. Reg. § 1.704-1 (b)(2)(ii)(c), as well as any amount such Interest Holder is treated as obligated to restore under Treas. Reg. §§ 1.704-2(g)(l) and 1.704-2(i)(5)) and unexpectedly receives an adjustment, allocation or distribution described in Treas. Reg. § 1.704-1 (b)(2)(ii)(d)(4), (5) or (6), then such Interest Holder will be allocated items of income and gain in an amount and manner sufficient to eliminate the deficit balance in such Interest Holder's Capital Account as quickly as possible. If there is an allocation to an Interest Holder pursuant to this Section 6.1(b), then future allocations of net income pursuant to Section 6.1 shall be adjusted so that those Interest Holders who were allocated less income, or a greater amount of loss, by reason of the allocation made pursuant to this Section 6.1(b), shall be allocated additional net income in an equal amount. It is the intention of the parties that the provisions of this Section 6.1(b) constitute a "qualified income offset" within the meaning of Treas. Reg. § 1.704-1 (b)(2)(ii)(d), and such provisions shall be so construed.

(c) If there is a net decrease in the Company's Minimum Gain (within the meaning of Treas. Reg. § 1.704-2(b)(2)) or Partner Nonrecourse Debt Minimum Gain (within the meaning of Treas. Reg. § 1.704-2(i)(3)) during any Fiscal Year, each Interest Holder shall be allocated, before any other allocations hereunder, items of income and gain for such Fiscal Year

(and subsequent Fiscal Years, if necessary), in an amount equal to such Interest Holder's share (determined in accordance with Treas. Reg. §§ 1.704-2(g) and 1.704-2(i)(5), as applicable) of the net decrease in the Company's Minimum Gain or Partner Nonrecourse Debt Minimum Gain, as applicable, for such Fiscal Year; provided, however, that no such allocation shall be required if any of the exceptions set forth in Treas. Reg. §§ 1.704-2(f) or 1.704-2(i)(4) apply. It is the intention of the parties that this provision constitute a "minimum gain chargeback" within the meaning of Treas. Reg. §§ 1.704-2(f) and 1.704-2(i)(4), and this provision shall be so construed.

(d) Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the Company's partner nonrecourse deductions (within the meaning of Treas. Reg. § 1.704-2(i)(2)) shall be allocated solely to the Interest Holder who has the economic risk of loss with respect to the partner nonrecourse liability related thereto in accordance with the provisions of Treas. Reg. § 1.704-2(i)(l).

(e) Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 6.1(a), no net losses shall be allocated to an Interest Holder if such allocation would result in such Interest Holder having a deficit balance in such Interest Holder's Capital Account (excluding from such Interest Holder's deficit Capital Account any amount such Interest Holder is obligated to restore in accordance with Treas. Reg. § 1.704-1 (b)(2)(ii)(c), as well as any amount such Interest Holder is treated as obligated to restore under Treas. Reg. §§ 1.704-2(g)(l) and 1.704-2(i)(5)). In such case, the net loss that would have been allocated to such Interest Holder shall be allocated to the other Interest Holders to whom such loss can be allocated without violation of the provisions of this Section 6.1(e) in proportion to their respective Percentage Interests among themselves.

(f) Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 6.1(a), to the extent losses are allocated to the Interest Holders by virtue of Section 6.1(e), the net income of the Company thereafter recognized shall be allocated to such Interest Holders (in proportion to the losses previously allocated to them pursuant to Section 6.1(e)) until such time as the net income of the Company allocated to them pursuant to this Section 6.1(f) equals the net losses allocated to them pursuant to Section 6.1(e).

(g) For Federal, state and local income tax purposes only, with respect to any assets contributed by an Interest Holder to the Company ("Contributed Assets") which have an agreed fair market value on the date of their contribution which differs from the Interest Holder's adjusted basis as of the date of contribution, the allocation of depreciation and gain or loss with respect to such Contributed Assets shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of section 704(c) of the Code and the regulations promulgated thereunder using the method selected by the Board. For purposes of this Agreement, an asset shall be deemed a Contributed Asset if it has a basis determined, in whole or in part, by reference to the basis of a Contributed Asset (including an asset previously deemed to be a Contributed Asset pursuant to this sentence). Notwithstanding the foregoing, if the gain from the sale of any Contributed Asset is being reported on the installment method for income tax purposes, then the total amount of gain which is to be recognized by each of the Interest Holders in accordance with the above provision in all taxable years shall be computed and the amount of gain to be recognized by each of the Interest Holders in each taxable year shall be in proportion to the total gain to be recognized by each of the Interest Holders in all taxable years.

6.2 Allocation of Excess Non recourse Liabilities. For purposes of section 752 of the Code and the regulations thereunder, the excess nonrecourse liabilities of the Company (within the meaning of Treas. Reg. § 1.752-3(a)(3)), if any, shall be allocated to the Interest Holders as follows:

(a) First, such excess nonrecourse liabilities shall be allocated to the Interest Holders up to the amount of built-in gain allocable to such Interest Holders on section 704(c) property (as defined in Treas. Reg. § 1.704-3(a)(3(ii)) or property for which reverse section 704(c) allocations are applicable (as described in Treas. Reg. § 1.704-3(a)(6)(i)) where such property is subject to the nonrecourse liability, to the extent such gain exceeds the gain described in Treas. Reg. § 1.752-3(a)(2).

(b) Second, the balance of such excess nonrecourse liabilities, if any, shall be allocated to the Interest Holders in accordance with their respective Percentage Interests.

6.3 Allocations in Event of Transfer, Admission of New Member, Etc. In the event of (i) the transfer of all or any part of an Interest Holder's Units (in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement), (ii) the admission of a new Member or (iii) disproportionate capital contributions, at any time other than at the end of a Fiscal Year, the transferring Interest Holder's, new Member's or Interest Holders' shares of the Company's income, gain, loss, deductions and credits allocable to such Units, as computed both for accounting purposes and for Federal income tax purposes, shall be allocated between the transferor Interest Holder and the transferee Interest Holder (or Interest Holders), the new Member and the other Interest Holders, or among the Interest Holders, as the case may be, in the same ratio as the number of days in such Fiscal Year before and after the date of such transfer, admission or disproportionate capital contributions; provided, however, that the Board shall have the option to treat the periods before and after the date of such transfer; admission or disproportionate capital contributions as separate Fiscal Years and allocate the Company's net income, gain, net loss, deductions and credits for each of such deemed separate Fiscal Years in accordance with the Interest Holders' respective interests in the Company for such deemed separate Fiscal Years. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if the Company uses the cash receipts and disbursements method of accounting, the Company's "allocable cash basis items," as that term is used in section 706(d)(2)(B) of the Code, shall be allocated as required by section 706(d)(2) of the Code and the regulations promulgated thereunder.

7. DISTRIBUTIVE SHARES AND FEDERAL INCOME TAX ELECTIONS.

7.1 Distributive Shares. For purposes of Subchapter K of the Code, the distributive shares of the Interest Holders of each item of Company taxable income, gains, losses, deductions or credits for any Fiscal Year shall be in the same proportions as their respective shares of the net income or net loss of the Company allocated to them pursuant to Section 6.1. Notwithstanding the foregoing, to the extent not inconsistent with the allocation of gain provided for in Section 6.1, gain recognized by the Company which represents recapture of depreciation or cost recovery deductions for Federal income tax purposes shall be allocated in the manner provided in Treas. Reg. § 1.1245-l(e) (regardless of whether real property or personal property is involved).

7.2 Elections. The election permitted to be made by section 754 of the Code, and any other elections required or permitted to be made by the Company under the Code, shall be made in such a manner as shall be determined by the Board.

7.3 Partnership Tax Treatment. It is the intention of the Members that the Company be treated as a partnership for Federal, state and local income tax purposes, and the Interest Holders shall not take any position or make any election, in a tax return or otherwise, inconsistent with such treatment.

7.4 Tax Matters Partner.

(a) The tax matters partner ("TMP") for the Company shall be Triad of Oregon, LLC so long as it is a Member. The TMP shall have such authority as is granted a TMP under the Code.

(b) The TMP shall employ experienced tax counsel to represent the Company in connection with any audit or investigation of the Company by the Internal Revenue Service and in connection with all subsequent administrative and judicial proceedings arising out of such audit. The fees and expenses of such counsel, as well as all other expenses incurred by the TMP in serving as the TMP, shall be a Company expense and shall be paid by the Company.

(c) The Company shall indemnify and hold harmless the TMP against judgments, fines, amounts paid in settlement and expenses (including attorneys' fees) reasonably incurred by the TMP in any civil, criminal or investigative proceeding in which the TMP is involved or threatened to be involved by reason of it being the TMP, provided that the TMP acted in good faith, within what the TMP reasonably believed to be the scope of the TMP's authority and for a purpose which the TMP reasonably believed to be in the best interests of the Company or the Interest Holders. The TMP shall not be indemnified under this provision against any liability to the Company or its Interest Holders to which the TMP would otherwise be subject by reason of willful misconduct or gross negligence in its duties involved in acting as TMP.

9. BOARD OF DIRECTORS.

9.1 General Powers. All powers of the Company shall be exercised by or under the authority of, and the business and affairs of the Company managed under the direction of, its Board of Directors ("Board").

9.2 Number, Election and Term. The Board shall consist of not less than one, nor more than seven individuals, the exact number of which shall be determined by the Board from time to time. Initially, there shall be three directors, Martin G. Schweinhart, W. Larry Cash and Rachel A. Seifert. Directors shall be elected at the first annual members' meeting and at each annual meeting thereafter. A decrease in the number of directors shall not shorten an incumbent director's term. Each director shall hold office until the director resigns or is removed. Despite the expiration of a director's term, such director shall continue to serve until the director's successor is elected and qualifies, until there is a decrease in the number of directors or the director is removed.

9.3 Resignation of Directors. A director may resign at any time by delivering written notice to the Board, its Chairman (as hereinafter defined), if any, or the Company. A resignation shall be effective when the notice is delivered unless the notice specifies a later effective date.

9.4 Removal of Directors by Members. A director shall be removed by the Members only at a meeting called for the purpose of removing such director and the meeting notice shall state that the purpose, or one of the purposes, of the meeting is removal of the director. The Members may remove one or more directors with or without cause.

9.5 Vacancy on Board. If a vacancy occurs on the Board, including a vacancy resulting from an increase in the number of directors, the Board shall fill the vacancy, and if the directors remaining in office constitute fewer than a quorum of the Board, they may fill the vacancy by the affirmative vote of a majority of all the directors remaining in office. A vacancy that will occur at a specific later date may be filled before the vacancy occurs, but the new director may not take office until the vacancy occurs.

9.6 Compensation of Directors. Directors on the Board shall not be entitled to receive a fee for the director's services as a director on the Board.

9.7 Meetings. The Board may hold regular or special meetings in or out of the State of Delaware. The Board may permit any or all directors to participate in a regular or special meeting by, or conduct the meeting through the use of, any means of communication by which all directors participating may simultaneously hear each other during the meeting. A director participating in a meeting by this means shall be deemed to be present in person at the meeting.

9.8 Special Meetings. Special meetings of the Board may be called by, or at the request of, the Chairman, if any, or the chief executive officer of the Company. All special meetings of the Board shall be held at the principal office or such other place as may be specified in the notice of the meeting.

9.9 Action Without Meeting. Any action required or permitted to be taken at a Board meeting may be taken without a meeting, without prior notice and without a vote if a consent or consents in writing, setting forth the action so taken, shall be signed by the directors having not less than the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to authorize or take such action at a meeting at which all directors entitled to vote thereon were present and voted.

9.10 Notice of Meetings. Meetings of the Board may be held without notice of the date, time, place or purpose of the meeting.

taken unless (i) the director objects at the beginning of the meeting, or promptly upon the director's arrival, to holding it or transacting business at the meeting or (ii) the director's dissent or abstention from the action taken is entered in the minutes of the meeting or the director delivers written notice of the director's dissent or abstention to the presiding officer of the meeting before its adjournment or to the Company immediately after adjournment of the meeting. The right of dissent or abstention shall not be available to a director who votes in favor of the action taken.

9.12 Chairman and Vice-Chairman of the Board. The Board may appoint one of its members Chairman of the Board ("Chairman"). The Board may also appoint one of its members as Vice-Chairman of the Board, and such individual shall serve in the absence of the Chairman and perform such additional duties as may be assigned to such person by the Board.

10. OFFICERS.

10.1 Officers Generally. The Company shall have the officers appointed by the Board in accordance with this Agreement. A duly appointed officer may appoint one or more officers or assistant officers as provided in Section 10.11. The same individual may simultaneously hold more than one office in the Company. Section 10.10 delegates to the Secretary, if such office be created and filled, the required responsibility of preparing minutes of the Board's and Members' meetings and for authenticating records of the Company. If such office shall not be created and filled, then the Board shall delegate to one of the officers of the Company such responsibility.

10.2 Duties of Officers. Each officer of the Company shall have the authority and shall perform the duties set forth in this Agreement for such office or, to the extent consistent with this Agreement, the duties prescribed by the Board or by direction of an officer authorized by the Board to prescribe the duties of other officers.

10.3 Appointment and Term of Office. The officers of the Company shall be appointed by the Board. Vacancies may be filled or new offices created and filled at any meeting of the Board. Each officer shall hold office until such officer's successor shall be duly appointed or until the officer's death or until the officer shall resign or shall have been removed in the manner hereinafter provided.

10.4 Resignation and Removal of Officers. An officer may resign at any time by delivering notice to the Company. A resignation shall be effective when the notice is delivered unless the notice specifies a later effective date. If a resignation is made effective at a later date and the Company accepts the future effective date, the Board may fill the pending vacancy before the effective date if the Board provides that the successor shall not take office until the effective date. The Board may remove any officer at any time with or without cause.

10.5 Contract Rights of Officers. Appointment of an officer or agent shall not of itself create contract rights. An officer's removal shall not affect the officer's contract rights, if any, with the Company. An officer's resignation shall not affect the Company's contract rights, if any, with the officer.

10.6 Chairman of the Board. The Chairman, if that office be created and filled, may, at the discretion of the Board, be the chief executive officer of the Company and, if such, shall, in general, supervise and control the affairs and business of the Company, subject to control by the Board. The Chairman shall preside at all meetings of the Members and the Board.

10.7 President. The President, if that office be created and filled, shall be the chief executive officer of the Company, unless a Chairman is appointed and designated chief executive officer pursuant to Section 10.6. If no Chairman has been appointed or, in the absence of the Chairman, the President shall preside at all meetings of the Members. The President may sign certificates for Units, any deeds, mortgages, bonds, contracts or other instruments which the Board has authorized to be executed, except in cases where the signing and execution thereof shall be expressly delegated by the Board or by this Agreement to some other officer or agent of the Company, or shall be required by law to be otherwise signed or executed. The President shall, in general, perform all duties incident to the office of President of a Delaware corporation and such other duties as may be prescribed by the Board or the Chairman from time to time. Unless otherwise ordered by the Board, the President shall have full power and authority on behalf of the Company to attend, act and vote in person or by proxy at any meetings of shareholders of any corporation in which the Company may hold stock, and at any such meeting shall hold and may exercise all rights incident to the ownership of such stock which the Company, as owner, would have had and could have exercised if present. The Board may confer like powers on any other person or persons.

10.8 Vice-President. In the absence of the President, or in the event of the President's death, inability or refusal to act, the Vice-President (or, in the event there be more than one Vice-President, the Vice-Presidents in order designated at the time of their appointment, or in the absence of any designation, then in the order of their appointment), if that office be created and filled, shall perform the duties of the President and when so acting shall have all the powers of, and be subject to all the restrictions upon, the President. Any Vice-President may sign, with the Secretary or an assistant secretary, certificates for Units and shall perform such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to such person by the Chairman, the President or by the Board.

10.9 Treasurer. The Treasurer, if that office be created and filled, shall have charge and custody of, and be responsible for, all funds and securities of the Company, receive and give receipts for monies due and payable to the Company from any source whatsoever, and deposit all such monies in the name of the Company in such banks, trust companies and other depositories as shall be selected in accordance with the provisions of Section 5.1, and in general, perform all the duties incident to the office of Treasurer of a Delaware corporation and such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to such person by the Chairman, the President or the Board. If required by the Board, the Treasurer shall give a bond for the faithful discharge of such officer's duties in such sum and with such surety or sureties as the Board shall determine.

10.10 Secretary. The Secretary, if that office be created and filled, shall keep the minutes of the Members' meetings and of the Board's meetings in one or more books provided for that purpose, see that all notices are duly given in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement or as required by law, be custodian of the Company records and of the seal, if any, of the Company, be responsible for authenticating records of the Company, keep a register of the mailing address of the Members, which shall be furnished to the Secretary by the Members, sign with the President or a Vice-President certificates for Units, have general charge of the transfer books of the Company, and, in general, perform all duties incident to the office of Secretary of a Delaware corporation and such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to such person by the Chairman, the President or the Board.

10.11 Assistant Treasurers and Assistant Secretaries.

(a) Assistant Treasurer. The Assistant Treasurer, if that office be created and filled, shall, if required by the Board, give bond for the faithful discharge of such officer's duty in such sum and with such surety as the Board shall determine.

(b) Assistant Secretary. The Assistant Secretary, if that office be created and filled, and if authorized by the Board, may sign, with the President or Vice-President, certificates for Units.

(c) Additional Duties. The Assistant Treasurers and Assistant Secretaries, in general, shall perform such additional duties as shall be assigned to them by the Treasurer or the Secretary, respectively, or by the Chairman, the President or the Board.

11. STANDARD OF CARE OF DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS; INDEMNIFICATION.

11.2 Indemnification.

(a) To the fullest extent permitted by the Act, the Company shall indemnify each director or officer of the Company against reasonable expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees), judgments, taxes, penalties, fines (including any excise tax assessed with respect to an employee benefit plan) and amounts paid in settlement (collectively "Liability"), incurred by such person in connection with defending any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding (whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, and whether formal or informal) to which such person is, or is threatened to be made, a party because such person is or was a director or officer of the Company, or is or was serving at the request of the Company as a director, officer, partner, member, employee or agent of another domestic or foreign corporation, partnership, limited liability company, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, including service with respect to employee benefit plans, provided that the director or officer has met the standard of conduct described in Section 11.1. A director or officer shall be considered to be serving an employee benefit plan at the Company's request if such person's duties to the Company also impose duties on or otherwise involve services by such person to the plan or to participants in or beneficiaries of the plan.

(b) To the fullest extent authorized or permitted by the Act, the Company shall pay or reimburse reasonable expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees) incurred by a director or officer who is a party to a proceeding in advance of final disposition of such proceeding if:

(1) The director or officer furnishes the Company a written affirmation of his good faith belief that he has met the standard of conduct described in Section 11.1;

(2) The director or officer furnishes the Company a written undertaking, executed personally or on the director's or officer's behalf, to repay the advance if it is ultimately determined that the director or officer did not meet the standard of conduct. Such undertaking shall be an unlimited general obligation of the director or officer, but shall not be required to be secured and may be accepted without reference to financial ability to make repayment; and

(3) A determination is made that the facts then known to those making the determination would not preclude indemnification under the provisions of this Section 11.2.

(c) The indemnification against Liability and advancement of expenses provided by, or granted pursuant to, this Section 11.2 shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which those seeking indemnification or advancement may be entitled under any agreement, action of the Members or disinterested directors or otherwise, both as to action in their official capacity and as to action in another capacity while holding such office of the Company, shall continue as to a person who has ceased to be a director or officer of the Company, and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors and administrators of such a person.

(d) Any repeal or modification of this Section 11.2 by the Members shall not adversely affect any right or protection of a director or officer of the Company under this Section 11.2 with respect to any act or omission occurring prior to the time of such repeal or modification.

12. OTHER ACTIVITIES; RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS.

12.1 Other Activities. The directors and officers shall devote such of their time to the affairs of the Company's business as they shall deem necessary. The Interest Holders, directors, officers and their Affiliates (as hereinafter defined) may engage in, or possess an interest in, other business ventures of any nature and description, independently or with others, whether or not such activities are competitive with those of the Company. Neither the Company nor any Interest Holder shall have any rights by virtue of this Agreement in and to such independent ventures, or to the income or profits derived therefrom. The Interest Holders shall not be obligated to present any particular noncompeting business opportunity of a character which, if presented to the Company, could be taken by the Company and each Interest Holder and their Affiliates shall not have the right to take for their own account, or to recommend to others, any such particular business opportunity to the exclusion of the Company and the Interest Holders. For purposes of this Agreement, the term "Affiliate" shall mean any person, corporation, partnership, limited liability company, trust or other entity (directly or indirectly) controlling, controlled by, or under common control with, another person.

12.2 Related Party Transactions. The fact that a director, officer or their Affiliates are directly or indirectly interested in or connected with any person, firm or corporation employed by the Company to render or perform a service, or to or from whom the Company may purchase, sell or lease property, shall not prohibit the Company from employing such person, firm or corporation or from otherwise dealing with him or it, and neither the Company, nor any of the Interest Holders, shall have any rights in or to any income or profits derived there from. All such dealings with a director or such director's Affiliates will be on terms which are competitive and comparable with amounts charged by independent third parties.

13.1 Limitation on Participation in Management. Except as expressly authorized by this Agreement or as expressly required by the Act, no Member, solely by virtue of his or her status as a Member, shall participate in the management or control of the Company's business, transact any business for the Company or have the power to act for or bind the Company, said powers being vested solely and exclusively in the Board and the officers. No Interest Holder shall have any right to participate in the management or control of the Company's business.

13.2 Meetings. Meetings of the Members may be called by the Chairman, the chief executive officer or the Board, and shall be called by the chief executive officer at the demand of the holders of at least 20% of all votes entitled to be cast on any issue proposed to be considered at the proposed meeting, provided that such requisite number of Members sign, date and deliver to the Secretary of the Company one or more written demands for the meeting describing the purpose or purposes for which it is to be held. Unless otherwise fixed in this Agreement, the record date for determining Members entitled to demand a meeting shall be the date the first Member signs the demand.

13.3 Place of Members' Meeting. The Board may designate any place within or without the State of Delaware as the place for any meeting of the Members called by the Board. If no designation of place is properly made, the place of the meeting shall be at the principal office. If a meeting is called at the demand of the Members and the Members designate any place, either within or without the State of Delaware, as the place for the holding of such meeting, the meeting shall take place at the place designated. If no designation is properly made, the place of meeting shall be at the principal office.

13.4 Action Without Meeting. Any action required or permitted by the Act or this Agreement to be taken at a Members' meeting may be taken without a meeting, without prior notice and without a vote if a consent or consents in writing, setting forth the action so taken, shall be signed by the Members having not less than the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to authorize or take such action at a meeting at which all Members entitled to vote thereon were present and voted.

13.5 Notice of Meetings. Meetings of the Members may be held without notice of the date, time, place or purpose of the meeting.

13.6 Quorum and Voting. Members shall be entitled to take action on a matter at a meeting only if a quorum exists. Unless this Agreement provides otherwise, a majority of those votes entitled to be cast on the matter shall constitute a quorum for action on that matter. Members shall be entitled to one vote for each Unit owned. Unless this Agreement provides otherwise, if a quorum exists, action on any matter shall be approved if the votes cast favoring the action exceed the votes cast opposing the action.

13.7 Record Date. The Board may fix a record date of the Members of not more than 70 days before the meeting or action requiring a determination of the Members in order to determine the Members entitled to notice of a Members' meeting, to demand a special meeting, to vote or to take any other action. A determination of Members entitled to notice of, or to vote at, a Members' meeting shall be effective for any adjournment of the meeting unless the Board fixes a new record date, which it shall do if the meeting is adjourned to a date more than 120 days after the date fixed for the original meeting. If not otherwise fixed by the Board in accordance with this Agreement, the record date for determining the Members entitled to notice of and to vote at an annual or special Members' meeting shall be the day before the first notice is delivered to the Members, and the record date for any consent action taken by the Members without a meeting and evidenced by one or more written consents shall be the first date upon which a signed written consent setting forth such action is delivered to the Company at its principal office.

13.8 Proxies. At all meetings of the Members, the Members may vote their Units in person or by proxy. A Member may appoint a proxy to vote or otherwise act for the Member by signing an appointment form, either personally or by the Member's duly authorized attorney-in-fact. An appointment of a proxy shall be effective when the appointment form is received by the Secretary, or other officer or agent authorized to tabulate votes. An appointment shall be valid for 11 months unless a longer, or shorter, period is expressly provided in the appointment form. An appointment of proxy shall be revocable by the Member unless the appointment form conspicuously states that it is irrevocable and the appointment is coupled with an interest. The revocation of an appointment of proxy shall not be effective until the Secretary or such other officer or agent authorized to tabulate votes has received written notice thereof. All proxies shall be filed with the Secretary or the person authorized to tabulate votes before or at the time of the meeting.

14. DISSOLUTION.

14.1 Dissolution. Except as otherwise provided in the Act, the Company shall dissolve upon the decision of the Members to dissolve the Company or the sale or other disposition of all, or substantially all, of the assets of the Company and the sale and/or collection of any evidence of indebtedness received in connection therewith. Dissolution of the Company shall be effective upon the date specified in the Members' resolution, but the Company shall not terminate until the assets of the Company shall have been distributed as provided in Section 14.3. Notwithstanding dissolution of the Company, prior to the liquidation and termination of the Company, the Company shall continue to be governed by this Agreement.

14.2 Sale of Assets Upon Dissolution. Following the dissolution of the Company, the Company shall be wound up and the Board shall determine whether the assets of the Company are to be sold or whether some or all of such assets are to be distributed to the Interest Holders in kind in liquidation of the Company.

14.3 Distributions Upon Dissolution. Upon the dissolution of the Company, the properties of the Company to be sold shall be liquidated in orderly fashion and the proceeds thereof, and the property to be distributed in kind, shall be distributed as follows:

(a) First, to the payment and discharge of all of the Company's debts and liabilities, to the necessary expenses of liquidation and to the establishment of any cash reserves which the Board determines to create for unmatured and/or contingent liabilities or obligations of the Company.

(b) Second, to the Interest Holders, in accordance with their respective Capital Accounts; provided, however, that if the Board has established any reserves in accordance with the provisions of Section 14.3(a), then the distributions pursuant to this Section 14.3(b) (including distributions of such reserve) shall be pro rata in accordance with the balances of the Interest Holders' Capital Accounts.

15. WITHDRAWAL, ASSIGNMENT AND ADDITION OF MEMBERS.

15.1 Assignment of an Interest Holder's Units. An Interest Holder may freely sell, assign, transfer, pledge, hypothecate, encumber or otherwise dispose of the Interest Holder's Units. If the Interest Holder was a Member, the transferee of the Units shall automatically become a substitute Member in the place of the Member.

15.2 Bankruptcy, Dissolution, Etc. of Interest Holders. Upon the occurrence of any of the events set forth in Sections 18-304 or 18-705 of the Act, the successor-in-interest of such Member shall have all of the rights of a Member for the purposes of managing such Member's affairs and, if the Interest Holder was a Member, automatically become a substitute Member in place of the Member.

15.3 Certificates for Units. (a) Certificates representing Units shall be in such form as may be determined by the Board. Such certificates shall be signed by the President or Vice President and by the Secretary or Assistant Secretary, if such offices shall be created and filled, or signed by two officers designated by the Member to sign such certificates. The signature of such officers upon such certificates may be signed manually or by facsimile. All certificates for Units shall be consecutively numbered. The name of the person owning the Units represented thereby, with the number of Units and date of issue, shall be entered on the books of the Company. All certificates surrendered to the Company for transfer shall be canceled and no new certificates shall be issued until the former certificates for a like number of Units shall have been surrendered and canceled, except that, in case of a lost, destroyed or mutilated certificate, a new certificate may be issued therefor upon such terms and indemnity to the Company as the Board may prescribe.

(b) A Unit in the Company evidenced by a certificate shall constitute a security governed by Article 8 of the Uniform Commercial Code. Each certificate evidencing membership interests in the Company shall bear the following legend: "This certificate evidences an interest in MWMC Holdings, LLC and shall be a security for purposes of Article 8 of the Uniform Commercial Code." No change to this provision shall be effective until all outstanding certificates have been surrendered for cancellation and any new certificates thereafter issued shall not bear the foregoing legend.

16.1 Notices.

(a) All notices, requests, demands or other communications required or permitted under this Agreement shall be in writing and be personally delivered against a written receipt, delivered to a reputable messenger service (such as FedEx, DHL Courier, United Parcel Service, etc.) for overnight delivery or transmitted by mail, registered, express or certified, return receipt requested, postage prepaid, addressed as follows:

(1) If given to the Company, to the Company at its principal office; and

(2) If given to an Interest Holder, to the Interest Holder at the address set forth in the records of the Company.

(b) All notices, demands and requests shall be effective upon being properly personally delivered, upon being delivered to a reputable messenger service or upon being deposited in the United States mail in the manner provided in Section 16.1. However, the time period in which a response to any such notice, demand or request must be given shall commence to run from the date of personal delivery, the date of delivery by a reputable messenger service or the date on the return receipt, as applicable; provided, however, that if any party rejects delivery, then the time for a response shall commence to run two days following the mailing of the notice.

16.2 Amendment.

(a) Except as provided in Section 16.2(b), this Agreement may be modified or amended from time to time only upon the consent of the holders of a majority of the Units.

(b) In addition to any amendments authorized by Section 16.1(a), this Agreement may be amended from time to time by the Board without the consent of the Members to cure any ambiguity, to correct or supplement any provision hereof which may be inconsistent with any other provision, hereof, or to make any other provisions with respect to matters or questions arising under this Agreement which will not be inconsistent with the provisions of this Agreement.

16.3 Captions; Section References. Section titles or captions contained in this Agreement are inserted only as a matter of convenience and reference, and in no way define, limit, extend or describe the scope of this Agreement, or the intent of any pro-vision hereof. All references herein to Sections shall refer to Sections of this Agreement unless the context clearly requires otherwise.

16.4 Confidentiality.

(a) Each Interest Holder agrees not to divulge, communicate, use to the detriment of the Company or for the benefit of any other person, or misuse in any way, any confidential information or trade secrets of the Company, including personnel information, secret processes, know-how, customer lists, formulas or other technical data, except as may be required by law; provided, however, that this prohibition shall not apply to (i) any information which, through no improper action of such Interest Holder, is publicly available or generally known in the industry or (ii) any information which is disclosed upon the consent of the Board. Each Interest Holder acknowledges and agrees that any information or data such Interest Holder has acquired on any of these matters or items were received in confidence and as a fiduciary of the Company.

(b) Each Interest Holder agrees that the Company would be irreparably damaged by reason of any violation of the provisions of Section 16.4(a), and that any remedy at law for a breach of such provisions would be inadequate. Therefore, the Company shall be entitled to seek and obtain injunctive or other equitable relief (including, but not limited to, a temporary restraining order, a temporary injunction or a permanent injunction) against any Interest Holder, for a breach or threatened breach of such provisions and without the necessity of proving actual monetary loss. It is expressly understood among the parties that this injunctive or other equitable relief shall not be the Company's exclusive remedy for any breach of this Section 16.4 and the Company shall be entitled to seek any other relief or remedy that the Company may have by contract, statute, law or otherwise for any breach hereof, and it is agreed that the Company shall also be entitled to recover its attorneys' fees and expenses in any successful action or suit against any Interest Holder relating to any such breach.

16.5 Number and Gender. Unless the context otherwise requires, when used herein, the singular shall include the plural, the plural shall include the singular, and all nouns, pronouns and any variations thereof shall be deemed to refer to the masculine, feminine or neuter, as the identity of the person or persons may require.

16.6 Severability. If any provision of this Agreement, or the application thereof to any person, entity or circum-stances, shall be invalid or unenforceable to any extent, the remainder of this Agreement, and the application of such provision to other persons, entities or circumstances, shall not be affected thereby and shall be enforced to the greatest extent permitted by law.

16.7 Binding Agreement. Except as otherwise provided herein, this Agreement shall be binding upon, and inure to the benefit of, the parties hereto and their respective executors, administrators, heirs, successors and assigns.

16.8 Applicable Law. This Agreement shall be governed by, and construed in accordance with, the laws of the State of Delaware without regard to its conflict of laws rules.

16.9 Entire Agreement. This Agreement contains the entire agreement with respect to the subject matter hereof.

16.10 Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts and all such counterparts shall, for all purposes, constitute one agreement, binding upon the parties hereto, notwithstanding that all parties are not signatory to the same counterpart.

3.1 Purpose. The purposes of the Company are as follows:

(a) To acquire, own, manage and operate certain healthcare facilities.

(b) To engage in such other lawful activities in which a limited liability company may engage under the Act as is determined by the Board from time to time.

(c) To do all other things necessary or desirable in connection with the foregoing, or otherwise contemplated in this Agreement.

3.2 Company's Power. In furtherance of the purpose of the Company as set forth in Section 3.1, the Company shall have the power to do any and all things whatsoever necessary, appropriate or advisable in connection with such purpose, or as otherwise contemplated in this Agreement.

3.3 Term. The term of the Company as a limited liability company shall commence as of the date of the filing of a Articles of Organization with the Florida Secretary of State's Office, and shall continue until dissolved in accordance with Section 15.

4. CAPITAL.

4.1 Initial Capital Contribution of Member. The limited liability company interests in the Company shall be divided into units ("Units"). The total number of Units that the Company is initially authorized to issue is 100 Units. The Member has contributed the cash or other property identified on, and has been issued the number of Units listed on, Exhibit A. The Member may, but shall not be required to, make additional capital contributions to the Company from time to time.

4.2 No Liability of Member. Except as otherwise specifically provided in the Act, the Member shall not have any personal liability for the obligations of the Company. Except as provided in Section 4.1, the Member shall not be obligated to contribute funds or loan money to the Company.

4.3 No Interest on Capital Contributions. The Member shall not be entitled to interest on any capital contributions made to the Company.

5. ACCOUNTING.

5.1 Books and Records. The Company shall maintain full and accurate books of the Company at the Company's principal place of business, or such other place as the Board shall determine, showing all receipts and expenditures, assets and liabilities, net income and loss, and all other records necessary for recording the Company's business and affairs. Such books and records shall be open to the inspection and examination of the Member in person or by its duly authorized representatives at all reasonable times.

7. NET INCOME AND NET LOSS.

7.1 Net Income and Net Loss. All net income or net loss of the Company shall be for the account of the Member.

8. FEDERAL INCOME TAX ELECTIONS.

8.1 Tax Treatment. It is the intention of the Member that for Federal, state and local income tax purposes the Company be disregarded as an entity separate from the Member in accordance with the provisions of Treas. Reg. §§ 301.7701-2(c)(2)(i) and 301.7701-3(b)(1)(ii). The Member shall take all actions which may be necessary or required in order for the Company to be so disregarded for income tax purposes.

9. DISTRIBUTIONS.

9.1 Distributions. The Board shall determine, in the Board's sole discretion, the amount and timing of any distributions to the Member and whether such distributions shall be paid in cash or property.

10. BOARD OF MANAGERS.

10.1 General Powers. All powers of the Company shall be exercised by or under the authority of, and the business and affairs of the Company managed under the direction of, its Board of Managers ("Board").

10.2 Number, Election and Term. The Board shall consist of not less than one, nor more than seven individual managers, the exact number of which shall be determined by the Board from time to time. Initially, there shall be three managers, Martin G. Schweinhart, W. Larry Cash and Rachel A. Seifert. Except as otherwise expressly provided herein, managers shall be elected at the organizational meeting of the Member and at each annual meeting thereafter. A decrease in the number of managers shall not shorten an incumbent manager's term. Each manager shall hold office until such manager resigns or is removed. Despite the expiration of a manager's term, such manager shall continue to serve until the manager's successor is elected and qualifies, until there is a decrease in the number of managers or the manager is removed.

10.3 Resignation of Managers. A manager may resign at any time by delivering written notice to the Board, its Chairman (as hereinafter defined), if any, or the Company. A resignation shall be effective when the notice is delivered unless the notice specifies a later effective date.

10.4 Removal of Managers by Member. A manager shall be removed by the Member only at a meeting called for the purpose of removing such manager and the meeting notice shall state that the purpose, or one of the purposes, of the meeting is removal of the manager. The Member may remove one or more managers with or without cause.

10.5 Vacancy on Board. If a vacancy occurs on the Board, including a vacancy resulting from an increase in the number of managers, the Board shall fill the vacancy, and if the managers remaining in office constitute fewer than a quorum of the Board, they may fill the vacancy by the affirmative vote of a majority of all the managers remaining in office. A vacancy that will occur at a specific later date may be filled before the vacancy occurs, but the new manager may not take office until the vacancy occurs.

10.6 Compensation of Managers. Managers on the Board shall not be entitled to receive a fee for the manager's services as a manager on the Board.

10.7 Meetings. The Board may hold regular or special meetings in or out of the State of Florida. The Board may permit any or all managers to participate in a regular or special meeting by, or conduct the meeting through the use of, any means of communication by which all managers participating may simultaneously hear each other during the meeting. A manager participating in a meeting by this means shall be deemed to be present in person at the meeting.

10.8 Special Meetings. Special meetings of the Board may be called by, or at the request of, the Chairman, if any, or the chief executive officer of the Company. All special meetings of the Board shall be held at the principal office or such other place as may be specified in the notice of the meeting.

10.9 Action Without Meeting. Any action required or permitted to be taken at a Board meeting may be taken without a meeting, without prior notice and without a vote if a consent or consents in writing, setting forth the action so taken, shall be signed by the managers having not less than the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to authorize or take such action at a meeting at which all managers entitled to vote thereon were present and voted.

10.11 Notice of Meetings. Meetings of the Board may be held without notice of the date, time, place or purpose of the meeting.

10.12 Quorum and Voting. A majority of the number of managers fixed by, or determined in accordance with, this Agreement shall constitute a quorum of the Board. If a quorum is present, an affirmative vote by a majority of the number of managers present shall constitute an act of the Board. A manager who is present at a meeting of the Board or a committee of the Board when action is taken shall be deemed to have assented to the action taken unless (i) the manager objects at the beginning of the meeting, or promptly upon the manager' s arrival, to holding the meeting or transacting business at the meeting or (ii) the manager's dissent or abstention from the action taken is entered in the minutes of the meeting or the manager delivers written notice of the manager's dissent or abstention to the presiding officer of the meeting before its adjournment or to the Company immediately after adjournment of the meeting. The right of dissent or abstention shall not be available to a manager who votes in favor of the action taken.

10.13 Chairman and Vice Chairman of the Board. The Board may appoint one of its members as Chairman of the Board ("Chairman"). The Board may also appoint one of its members as Vice Chairman of the Board, and such individual shall serve in the absence of the Chairman and perform such additional duties as may be assigned to such person by the Board.

11. OFFICERS.

11.1 Officers Generally. The Company shall have the officers appointed by the Board in accordance with this Agreement. The same individual may simultaneously hold more than one office in the Company. Section 11.10 delegates to the Secretary, if such office be created and filled, the required responsibility of preparing minutes of the Board's and the Member's meetings and for authenticating records of the Company. If such office shall not be created and filled, then the Board shall delegate to one of the officers of the Company such responsibility.

11.2 Duties of Officers. Each officer of the Company shall have the authority and shall perform the duties set forth in this Agreement for such office or, to the extent consistent with this Agreement, the duties prescribed by the Board or by direction of an officer authorized by the Board to prescribe the duties of other officers.

11.3 Appointment and Term of Office. The officers of the Company shall be appointed by the Board. Vacancies may be filled or new offices created and filled at any meeting of the Board. Each officer shall hold office until such officer's successor shall be duly appointed or until the officer's death or until the officer shall resign or shall have been removed in the manner hereinafter provided.

11.4 Resignation and Removal of Officers. An officer may resign at any time by delivering notice to the Company. A resignation shall be effective when the notice is delivered unless the notice specifies a later effective date. If a resignation is made effective at a later date and the Company accepts the future effective date, the Board may fill the pending vacancy before the effective date if the Board provides that the successor shall not take office until the effective date. The Board may remove any officer at any time with or without cause.

11.5 Contract Rights of Officers. Appointment of an officer or agent shall not of itself create contract rights. An officer's removal shall not affect the officer's contract rights, if any, with the Company. An officer's resignation shall not affect the Company's contract rights, if any, with the officer.

11.6 Chairman of the Board. The Chairman, if that office be created and filled, may, at the discretion of the Board, be the chief executive officer of the Company and, if such, shall, in general, supervise and control the affairs and business of the Company, subject to control by the Board. The Chairman shall preside at all meetings of the Member and the Board.

11.7 President. The President, if that office be created and filled, shall be the chief executive officer of the Company, unless a Chairman is appointed and designated chief executive officer pursuant to Section 11.6. If no Chairman has been appointed or, in the absence of the Chairman, the President shall preside at all meetings of the Member. The President may sign certificates for Units, any deeds, mortgages, bonds, contracts or other instruments which the Board has authorized to be executed, except in cases where the signing and execution thereof shall be expressly delegated by the Board or by this Agreement to some other officer or agent of the Company, or shall be required by law to be otherwise signed or executed. The President shall, in general, perform all duties incident to the office of President of a Florida limited liability company and such other duties as may be prescribed by the Board or the Chairman from time to time. Unless otherwise ordered by the Board, the President shall have full power and authority on behalf of the Company to attend, act and vote in person or by proxy at any meetings of shareholders of any corporation in which the Company may hold stock, and at any such meeting shall hold and may exercise all rights incident to the ownership of such stock which the Company, as owner, would have had and could have exercised if present. The Board may confer like powers on any other person or persons.

11.8 Vice President. In the absence of the President, or in the event of the President's death, inability or refusal to act, the Vice President (or, in the event there be more than one Vice President, the Vice Presidents in order designated at the time of their appointment, or in the absence of any designation, then in the order of their appointment), if that office be created and filled, shall perform the duties of the President and when so acting shall have all the powers of, and be subject to all the restrictions upon, the President. Any Vice President may sign certificates for Units and shall perform such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to such person by the Chairman, the President or by the Board.

11.9 Treasurer. The Treasurer, if that office be created and filled, shall have charge and custody of, and be responsible for, all funds and securities of the Company, receive and give receipts for monies due and payable to the Company from any source whatsoever, and deposit all such monies in the name of the Company in such banks, trust companies and other depositories as shall be selected in accordance with the provisions of Section 6.1, and in general, perform all the duties incident to the office of Treasurer of a Florida limited liability company and such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to such person by the Chairman, the President or the Board. If required by the Board, the Treasurer shall give a bond for the faithful discharge of such officer's duties in such sum and with such surety or sureties as the Board shall determine.

11.10 Secretary. The Secretary, if that office be created and filled, shall keep the minutes of the Member's meetings and of the Board's meetings in one or more books provided for that purpose, see that all notices are duly given in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement or as required by law, be custodian of the Company records and of the seal, if any, of the Company, be responsible for authenticating records of the Company, keep a register of the mailing address of the Member, which shall be furnished to the Secretary by the Member, have general charge of the transfer books of the Company, and, in general, perform all duties incident to the office of Secretary of a Florida limited liability company and such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to such person by the Chairman, the President or the Board.

11.11 Assistant Treasurers and Assistant Secretaries.

(a) Assistant Treasurer. The Assistant Treasurer, if that office be created and filled, shall, if required by the Board, give bond for the faithful discharge of such officer's duty in such sum and with such surety as the Board shall determine.

(b) Assistant Secretary. The Assistant Secretary, if that office be created and filled, and if authorized by the Board, may sign, with the President or Vice President, certificates for Units.

(c) Additional Duties. The Assistant Treasurers and Assistant Secretaries, in general, shall perform such additional duties as shall be assigned to them by the Treasurer or the Secretary, respectively, or by the Chairman, the President or the Board.

12. STANDARD OF CARE OF MANAGERS AND OFFICERS; INDEMNIFICATION.

12.1 Standard of Care. The managers and officers of the Company shall not be liable, responsible or accountable in damages to the Member or the Company on account of such manager's or officer's status as a manager or officer of the Company or by reason of any act or omission related to the business of the Company performed or omitted by them in good faith with the care an officer of a Florida limited liability company of like position would exercise under similar circumstances and in a manner reasonably believed by them to be in the best interests of the Company, and, with respect to any criminal proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe their conduct was unlawful. To the extent that, at law or in equity, a manager or officer of the Company has duties (including fiduciary duties) and liabilities relating thereto to the Company, the Member or any other person, such manager or officer acting under this Agreement shall not be liable to the Company, the Member or any other person for breach of fiduciary duty for its good faith reliance on the provisions of this Agreement, and the provisions of this Agreement, to the extent that they restrict or eliminate the duties (including fiduciary duties) and liabilities relating thereto of a manager or officer otherwise existing at law or in equity, are agreed by the Member and the Company to replace such other duties and liabilities of such manager or officer; provided, however, that the foregoing shall not be interpreted or construed so as to eliminate or restrict any fiduciary duty, including, but not limited to, the duties of loyalty, care, good faith and fair dealing, in such a manner as to be contrary to the provisions of Section 605.0105 of the Act.

12.2. Indemnification.

(a) The Company shall indemnify and hold harmless each manager or officer of the Company against reasonable expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees), judgments, taxes, penalties, fines (including any excise tax assessed with respect to an employee benefit plan) and amounts paid in settlement (collectively "Liability"), incurred by such person in connection with defending any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding (whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, and whether formal or informal) to which such person is, or is threatened to be made, a party because such person is or was a manager or officer of the Company, or is or was serving at the request of the Company as a manager, officer, partner, member, employee or agent of another domestic or foreign corporation, partnership, limited liability company, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, including service with respect to employee benefit plans, provided that (i) the manager or officer has met the standard of conduct described in Section 12.1, and (ii) indemnification under this paragraph does not violate the provisions of Section 605.0105 A manager or officer shall be considered to be serving an employee benefit plan at the Company's request if such person's duties to the Company also impose duties on or otherwise involve services by such person to the plan or to participants in or beneficiaries of the plan. The indemnities hereunder shall survive the termination of the Company and this Agreement.

(b) At the request of the manager or officer entitled to indemnification hereunder, the Company shall pay or reimburse reasonable expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees) incurred by a manager or officer who is a party to a proceeding in advance of final disposition of such proceeding if:

(1) The manager or officer furnishes the Company a written affirmation of his good faith belief that he has met the standard of conduct described in Section 12.1;

(2) The manager or officer furnishes the Company a written undertaking, executed personally or on the manager's or officer's behalf, to repay the advance if it is ultimately determined that the manager or officer did not meet the standard of conduct or is otherwise not entitled to indemnification hereunder. Such undertaking shall be an unlimited general obligation of the manager or officer, but shall not be required to be secured and may be accepted without reference to financial ability to make repayment; and

(3) A determination is made that the facts then known to those making the determination would not preclude indemnification under the provisions of this Section 12.2.

(c) The indemnification against Liability and advancement of expenses provided by, or granted pursuant to, this Section 12.2 shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which those seeking indemnification or advancement may be, or hereafter become, entitled under any agreement, action of the Member or disinterested managers or otherwise, both as to action in their official capacity and as to action in another capacity while holding such office of the Company, shall continue as to a person who has ceased to be a manager or officer of the Company, and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors and administrators of such a person.

Any repeal or modification of this Section 12.2 by the Member shall not adversely affect any right or protection of a manager or officer of the Company under this Section 12.2 with respect to any act or omission occurring prior to the time of such repeal or modification.

13. OTHER ACTIVITIES; RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS.

13.1 Other Activities. The managers and officers shall devote such of their time to the affairs of the Company's business as they shall deem necessary. The Member, managers, officers and their Affiliates (as hereinafter defined) may engage in, or possess an interest in, other business ventures of any nature and description, independently or with others, whether or not such activities are competitive with those of the Company. Neither the Company nor the Member shall have any rights by virtue of this Agreement in and to such independent ventures, or to the income or profits derived therefrom. The Member shall not be obligated to present any particular business opportunity of a character which, if presented to the Company, could be taken by the Company, and the Member and its Affiliates shall have the right to take for their own account, or to recommend to others, any such particular business opportunity to the exclusion of the Company. For purposes of this Agreement, the term "Affiliate" shall mean any person, corporation, partnership, limited liability company, trust or other entity (directly or indirectly) controlling, controlled by, or under common control with, another person.

13.2 Related Party Transactions. The fact that a manager, officer or their Affiliates are directly or indirectly interested in or connected with any person, firm or corporation employed by the Company to render or perform a service, or to or from whom the Company may purchase, sell or lease property, shall not prohibit the Company from employing such person, firm or corporation or from otherwise dealing with him or it, and neither the Company, nor the Member, shall have any rights in or to any income or profits derived therefrom. All such dealings with a manager or such manager's Affiliates will be on terms which are competitive and comparable with amounts charged by independent third parties.

14. MEMBERS.

14.1 Limitation on Participation in Management. Except as expressly authorized by this Agreement or as expressly required by the Act, the Member, solely by virtue of its status as the Member, shall not participate in the management or control of the Company's business, transact any business for the Company or have the power to act for or bind the Company, said powers being vested solely and exclusively in the Board and the officers.

14.2 Assignment of Member's Interest. The Member may freely sell, assign, transfer, pledge, hypothecate, encumber or otherwise dispose of the Member's Units. If the member transfers all of its Units, the transferee of such Units shall automatically become a substitute Member in the place of the Member. The Board shall amend Exhibit A from time to time to reflect transfers made in accordance with this Section 14.2.

14.3 Dissociation of Member. Upon the occurrence of any of the events set forth in Section 605.0602 of the Act with respect to the member, the successor-in-interest or personal representative of the Member shall automatically become a substitute Member in place of the Member.

14.4 Certificates for Units.

(a) Certificates representing Units shall be in such form as may be determined by the Board. Such certificates shall be signed by the President or Vice President. The signature of such officer upon such certificates may be signed manually or by facsimile. All certificates for Units shall be consecutively numbered. The name of the person owning the Units represented thereby, with the number of Units and date of issue, shall be entered on the books of the Company. All certificates surrendered to the Company for transfer shall be canceled and no new certificates shall be issued until the former certificates for a like number of Units shall have been surrendered and canceled, except that, in case of a lost, destroyed or mutilated certificate, a new certificate may be issued therefor upon such terms and indemnity to the Company as the Board may prescribe.

(b) A Unit in the Company evidenced by a certificate shall constitute a security governed by Article 8 of the Uniform Commercial Code. Each certificate evidencing membership interests in the Company shall bear the following legend: "This certificate evidences an interest in Naples HMA, LLC and shall be a security for purposes of Article 8 of the Uniform Commercial Code." No change to this provision shall be effective until all outstanding certificates have been surrendered for cancellation and any new certificates thereafter issued shall not bear the foregoing legend.

15. DISSOLUTION.

15.1 Dissolution. Except as otherwise provided in the Act, the Company shall dissolve upon the decision of the Member to dissolve the Company or the sale or other disposition of all, or substantially all, of the assets of the Company and the sale and/or collection of any evidence of indebtedness received in connection therewith. Dissolution of the Company shall be effective upon the date specified in the Member's resolution or upon the sale or other disposition of all, or substantially all of the Assets of the Company and the sale and/or collection of any evidence of indebtedness received in connection therewith as applicable, but the Company shall not terminate until the assets of the Company shall have been distributed as provided in Section 15.3 and articles of dissolution are filed with the office of the Secretary of State of the State of Florida pursuant to Section 605.0707 of the Act. Notwithstanding dissolution of the Company, prior to the liquidation and termination of the Company, the Company shall continue to be governed by this Agreement.

15.2 Sale of Assets Upon Dissolution. Following the dissolution of the Company, the Company shall be wound up and the Board shall determine whether the assets of the Company are to be sold or whether some or all of such assets are to be distributed to the Member in kind in liquidation of the Company.

15.3 Distributions Upon Dissolution. Upon the dissolution of the Company, the properties of the Company to be sold shall be liquidated in orderly fashion and the proceeds thereof, and the property to be distributed in kind, shall be distributed as follows:

(a) First, to the payment and discharge of all of the Company's debts and liabilities, to the necessary expenses of liquidation and to the establishment of any cash reserves which the Member determines to create for unmatured and/or contingent liabilities or obligations of the Company.

(b) Second, to the Member.

16. GENERAL.

16.1 Amendment.

(a) Except as provided in Section 16.1(b), this Agreement may be modified or amended from time to time only upon the consent of the Member.

(b) In addition to any amendments authorized by Section 16.1(a), this Agreement may be amended from time to time by the Board without the consent of the Member to cure any ambiguity, to correct or supplement any provision hereof which may be inconsistent with any other provision hereof, or to make any other provisions with respect to matters or questions arising under this Agreement which will not be inconsistent with the provisions of this Agreement.

16.2 Captions; Section References. Section titles or captions contained in this Agreement are inserted only as a matter of convenience and reference, and in no way define, limit, extend or describe the scope of this Agreement, or the intent of any provision hereof. All references herein to Sections shall refer to Sections of this Agreement unless the context clearly requires otherwise.

16.3 Number and Gender. Unless the context otherwise requires, when used herein, the singular shall include the plural, the plural shall include the singular, and all nouns, pronouns and any variations thereof shall be deemed to refer to the masculine, feminine or neuter, as the identity of the person or persons may require.

16.4 Severability. If any provision of this Agreement, or the application thereof to any person, entity or circumstances, shall be invalid or unenforceable to any extent, the remainder of this Agreement, and the application of such provision to other persons, entities or circumstances, shall not be affected thereby and shall be enforced to the greatest extent permitted by law.

16.5 Binding Agreement. Except as otherwise provided herein, this Agreement shall be binding upon, and inure to the benefit of, the parties hereto and their respective executors, administrators, heirs, successors and assigns.

16.7 Entire Agreement. This Agreement contains the entire agreement with respect to the subject matter hereof.

The Board shall have sole and complete discretion in determining the consideration and terms and conditions with respect to any future issuance of Units. In addition, the Board is authorized to cause the issuance of any other type of security (including, without limitation, secured or unsecured debt securities and securities convertible into or otherwise granting a right to acquire any class of Units) from time to time to Members or other persons on terms and conditions established in the sole and complete discretion of the Board. In connection with future issuances of Units, the Board shall do all things necessary to comply with the Act and is authorized and directed to do all things it deems to be necessary or advisable in connection with any such future issuances, including compliance with any statute, rule, regulation or guideline of any federal, state or other governmental agency or any stock exchange on which the Units are listed for trading.

3.3 Loans from Interest Holders. If the Company has a temporary need for funds, the Company may borrow such funds from, among others, one or more of its Members or assignees of interests in the Company who are not admitted as substitute Members (Members and such unadmitted assignees are hereinafter collectively referred to as "Interest Holders") on such terms and conditions as shall be agreed to by the Board and such Interest Holders.

3.4 No Liability of Interest Holders. Except as otherwise specifically provided in the Act, no Interest Holder shall have any personal liability for the obligations of the Company. Except as provided in Section 3.1, no Interest Holder shall be obligated to contribute funds or loan money to the Company.

3.5 No Interest on Capital Contributions. No Interest Holder shall be entitled to interest on any capital contributions made to the Company.

3.6 No Withdrawal of Capital. No Member shall be entitled to withdraw any part of the Member's capital contributions to the Company, except as provided in Section 14. No Member shall be entitled to demand or receive any property from the Company other than cash, except as otherwise expressly provided for herein.

3.7 Capital Account. There shall be established on the books of the Company a capital account ("Capital Account") for each Interest Holder. It is the intention of the Members that such Capital Account be maintained in accordance with the provisions of Treas. Reg. § 1.704-1(b)(2)(iv), and this Agreement shall be so construed. Accordingly, such Capital Account shall initially be credited with the initial capital contribution of the Interest Holder and thereafter shall be increased by (i) any cash or the fair market value of any property contributed by such Interest Holder (net of any liabilities assumed by the Company or to which the contributed property is subject) and (ii) the amount of all net income (whether or not exempt from tax) and gain allocated to such Interest Holder hereunder, and decreased by (i) the amount of all net losses allocated to such Interest Holder hereunder (including expenditures described in section 705(a)(2)(B) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended ("Code"), or treated as such an expenditure by reason of Treas. Reg. § 1.704-I(b)(2)(iv)(i)) and (ii) the amount of cash, and the fair market value of property (net of any liabilities assumed by such Interest Holder or to which the distributed property is subject), distributed to such Interest Holder pursuant to Sections 8 and 14. If the Company has made an election under section 754 of the Code, Capital Accounts shall also be adjusted to the extent required by Treas. Reg. § 1.704-1(b)(2)(iv)(m). If an Interest Holder transfers all or any part of such Interest Holder's Units in accordance with the terms of this Agreement, the Capital Account of the transferor shall become the Capital Account of the transferee to the extent of the Units transferred.

3.8 No Preemptive Rights. No Interest Holder shall have any preemptive, preferential or other right with respect to (i) additional contributions to the capital of the Company, (ii) issuance or sale of Units, whether unissued or treasury, (iii) issuance of any obligations, evidences of indebtedness or other securities of the Company convertible into or exchangeable for, or carrying or accompanied by any rights to receive, purchase or subscribe to, any such unissued or treasury Units, (iv) issuance of any right of subscription to or right to receive, or any warrant or option for the purchase of, any of the foregoing securities or (v) issuance or sale of any other securities that may be issued or sold by the Company.

4. ACCOUNTING.

4.1 Books and Records. The Company shall maintain full and accurate books of the Company at the Company's principal place of business, or such other place as the Board shall determine, showing all receipts and expenditures, assets and liabilities, net income and loss, and all other records necessary for recording the Company's business and affairs. Upon reasonable request of a Member, such books and records shall be open to the inspection and examination by such Member in person or by such Member's duly authorized representatives during normal business hours and may be copied at such Member's expense.

4.2 Fiscal Year. The fiscal year of the Company shall be the calendar year ("Fiscal Year").

5. BANK ACCOUNTS.

5.1 Bank Accounts. All funds of the Company shall be deposited in its name into such checking, savings and/or money market accounts or time certificates as shall be designated by the Board. Withdrawals therefrom shall be made upon such signature or signatures as the Board may designate. The Board shall be entitled to make withdrawals from such accounts to invest such funds in connection with the cash management system employed by Community Health System, Inc. on behalf of its affiliated hospitals and health care facilities.

6. ALLOCATION OF NET INCOME AND NET LOSS.

6.1 Net Income and Net Loss.

(a) Except as otherwise provided herein, the net income and net loss of the Company for each Fiscal Year, computed without regard to net gains resulting from the sale or other disposition of any hospital owned by the Company, shall be allocated to the Interest Holders in accordance with their respective Percentage Interests. For purposes of this Agreement, the term "Percentage Interest" shall mean the percentage that the number of Units owned by an Interest Holder bears to the aggregate number of Units owned by all of the Interest Holders.

(b) Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, if an Interest Holder has a deficit balance in such Interest Holder's Capital Account (excluding from such Interest Holder's deficit Capital Account any amount which such Interest Holder is obligated to restore in accordance with Treas. Reg. § 1.704-1(b)(2)(ii)(c), as well as any amount such Interest Holder is treated as obligated to restore under Treas. Reg. §§ 1.704-2(g)(l) and 1.704-2(i)(5)) and unexpectedly receives an adjustment, allocation or distribution described in Treas. Reg. § 1.704-l(b)(2)(ii)(d)(4), (5) or (6), then such Interest Holder will be allocated items of income and gain in an amount and manner sufficient to eliminate the deficit balance in such Interest Holder's Capital Account as quickly as possible. If there is an allocation to an Interest Holder pursuant to this Section 6.1(b), then future allocations of net income pursuant to Section 6.1 shall be adjusted so that those Interest Holders who were allocated less income, or a greater amount of loss, by reason of the allocation made pursuant to this Section 6.1(b), shall be allocated additional net income in an equal amount. It is the intention of the parties that the provisions of this Section 6.1(b) constitute a "qualified income offset" within the meaning of Treas. Reg. § 1.704-l(b)(2)(ii)(d), and such provisions shall be so construed.

(c) If there is a net decrease in the Company's Minimum Gain (within the meaning of Treas. Reg. § 1.704-2(b)(2)) or Partner Nonrecourse Debt Minimum Gain (within the meaning of Treas. Reg. § 1.704-2(i)(3)) during any Fiscal Year, each Interest Holder shall be allocated, before any other allocations hereunder, items of income and gain for such Fiscal Year (and subsequent Fiscal Years, if necessary), in an amount equal to such Interest Holder's share (determined in accordance with Treas. Reg. §§ 1.704-2(g) and 1.704-2(i)(5), as applicable) of the net decrease in the Company's Minimum Gain or Partner Nonrecourse Debt Minimum Gain, as applicable, for such Fiscal Year; provided, however, that no such allocation shall be required if any of the exceptions set forth in Treas. Reg. §§ 1.704-2(f) or 1.704-2(i)(4) apply. It is the intention of the parties that this provision constitute a "minimum gain chargeback" within the meaning of Treas. Reg. §§ 1.704-2(f) and 1.704-2(i)(4), and this provision shall be so construed.

(d) Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the Company's partner nonrecourse deductions (within the meaning of Treas. Reg. § 1.704-2(i)(2)) shall be allocated solely to the Interest Holder who has the economic risk of loss with respect to the partner nonrecourse liability related thereto in accordance with the provisions of Treas. Reg. § 1.704-2(i)(l).

(e) Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 6.1(a), no net losses shall be allocated to an Interest Holder if such allocation would result in such Interest Holder having a deficit balance in such Interest Holder's Capital Account (excluding from such Interest Holder's deficit Capital Account any amount such Interest Holder is obligated to restore in accordance with Treas. Reg. § 1.704-1 (b)(2)(ii)(c), as well as any amount such Interest Holder is treated as obligated to restore under Treas. Reg. §§ 1.704-2(g)(l) and 1.704-2(i)(5)). In such case, the net loss that would have been allocated to such Interest Holder shall be allocated to the other Interest Holders to whom such loss can be allocated without violation of the provisions of this Section 6.1(e) in proportion to their respective Percentage Interests among themselves.

(f) Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 6.1(a), to the extent losses are allocated to the Interest Holders by virtue of Section 6.1(e), the net income of the Company thereafter recognized shall be allocated to such Interest Holders (in proportion to the losses previously allocated to them pursuant to Section 6.1(e)) until such time as the net income of the Company allocated to them pursuant to this Section 6.1(f) equals the net losses allocated to them pursuant to Section 6.1(e).

(g) For Federal, state and local income tax purposes only, with respect to any assets contributed by an Interest Holder to the Company ("Contributed Assets") which have an agreed fair market value on the date of their contribution which differs from the Interest Holder's adjusted basis as of the date of contribution, the allocation of depreciation and gain or loss with respect to such Contributed Assets shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of section 704(c) of the Code and the regulations promulgated thereunder using the method selected by the Board. For purposes of this Agreement, an asset shall be deemed a Contributed Asset if it has a basis determined, in whole or in part, by reference to the basis of a Contributed Asset (including an asset previously deemed to be a Contributed Asset pursuant to this sentence). Notwithstanding the foregoing, if the gain from the sale of any Contributed Asset is being reported on the installment method for income tax purposes, then the total amount of gain which is to be recognized by each of the Interest Holders in accordance with the above provision in all taxable years shall be computed and the amount of gain to be recognized by each of the Interest Holders in each taxable year shall be in proportion to the total gain to be recognized by each of the Interest Holders in all taxable years.

6.2 Allocation of Excess Non recourse Liabilities. For purposes of section 752 of the Code and the regulations thereunder, the excess nonrecourse liabilities of the Company (within the meaning of Treas. Reg. § 1.752-3(a)(3)), if any, shall be allocated to the Interest Holders as follows:

(a) First, such excess nonrecourse liabilities shall be allocated to the Interest Holders up to the amount of built-in gain allocable to such Interest Holders on section 704(c) property (as defined in Treas. Reg. § 1.704-3(a)(3(ii)) or property for which reverse section 704(c) allocations are applicable (as described in Treas. Reg. § 1.704-3(a)(6)(i)) where such property is subject to the nonrecourse liability, to the extent such gain exceeds the gain described in Treas. Reg. § 1.752-3(a)(2).

(b) Second, the balance of such excess nonrecourse liabilities, if any, shall be allocated to the Interest Holders in accordance with their respective Percentage Interests.

6.3 Allocations in Event of Transfer, Admission of New Member, Etc. In the event of (i) the transfer of all or any part of an Interest Holder's Units (in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement), (ii) the admission of a new Member or (iii) disproportionate capital contributions, at any time other than at the end of a Fiscal Year, the transferring Interest Holder's, new Member's or Interest Holders' shares of the Company's income, gain, loss, deductions and credits allocable to such Units, as computed both for accounting purposes and for Federal income tax purposes, shall be allocated between the transferor Interest Holder and the transferee Interest Holder (or Interest Holders), the new Member and the other Interest Holders, or among the Interest Holders, as the case may be, in the same ratio as the number of days in such Fiscal Year before and after the date of such transfer, admission or disproportionate capital contributions; provided, however, that the Board shall have the option to treat the periods before and after the date of such transfer, admission or disproportionate capital contributions as separate Fiscal Years and allocate the Company's net income, gain, net loss, deductions and credits for each of such deemed separate Fiscal Years in accordance with the Interest Holders' respective interests in the Company for such deemed separate Fiscal Years. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if the Company uses the cash receipts and disbursements method of accounting, the Company's "allocable cash basis items," as that term is used in section 706(d)(2)(B) of the Code, shall be allocated as required by section 706(d)(2) of the Code and the regulations promulgated thereunder.

7. DISTRIBUTIVE SHARES AND FEDERAL INCOME TAX ELECTIONS.

7.1 Distributive Shares. For purposes of Subchapter K of the Code, the distributive shares of the Interest Holders of each item of Company taxable income, gains, losses, deductions or credits for any Fiscal Year shall be in the same proportions as their respective shares of the net income or net loss of the Company allocated to them pursuant to Section 6.1. Notwithstanding the foregoing, to the extent not inconsistent with the allocation of gain provided for in Section 6.1, gain recognized by the Company which represents recapture of depreciation or cost recovery deductions for Federal income tax purposes shall be allocated in the manner provided in Treas. Reg. § 1.1245-1(e) (regardless of whether real property or personal property is involved).

7.2 Elections. The election permitted to be made by section 754 of the Code, and any other elections required or permitted to be made by the Company under the Code, shall be made in such a manner as shall be determined by the Board.

7.3 Partnership Tax Treatment. It is the intention of the Members that the Company be treated as a partnership for Federal, state and local income tax purposes, and the Interest Holders shall not take any position or make any election, in a tax return or otherwise, inconsistent with such treatment.

7.4 Tax Matters Partner.

(a) The tax matters partner ("TMP") for the Company shall be QHG of Springdale, Inc. so long as it is a Member. The TMP shall have such authority as is granted a TMP under the Code.

(b) The TMP shall employ experienced tax counsel to represent the Company in connection with any audit or investigation of the Company by the Internal Revenue Service and in connection with all subsequent administrative and judicial proceedings arising out of such audit. The fees and expenses of such counsel, as well as all other expenses incurred by the TMP in serving as the TMP, shall be a Company expense and shall be paid by the Company.

(c) The Company shall indemnify and hold harmless the TMP against judgments, fines, amounts paid in settlement and expenses (including attorneys' fees) reasonably incurred by the TMP in any civil, criminal or investigative proceeding in which the TMP is involved or threatened to be involved by reason of it being the TMP, provided that the TMP acted in good faith, within what the TMP reasonably believed to be the scope of the TMP's authority and for a purpose which the TMP reasonably believed to be in the best interests of the Company or the Interest Holders. The TMP shall not be indemnified under this provision against any liability to the Company or its Interest Holders to which the TMP would otherwise be subject by reason of willful misconduct or gross negligence in its duties involved in acting as TMP.

9. BOARD OF DIRECTORS.

9.1 General Powers. All powers of the Company shall be exercised by or under the authority of, and the business and affairs of the Company managed under the direction of, its Board of Directors ("Board").

9.2 Number, Election and Term. The Board shall consist of not less than one, nor more than seven individuals, the exact number of which shall be determined by the Board from time to time. Initially, there shall be three directors, Martin G. Schweinhart, W. Larry Cash and Rachel A. Seifert. Directors shall be elected at the first annual members' meeting and at each annual meeting thereafter. A decrease in the number of directors shall not shorten an incumbent director's term. Each director shall hold office until the director resigns or is removed. Despite the expiration of a director's term, such director shall continue to serve until the director's successor is elected and qualifies, until there is a decrease in the number of directors or the director is removed.

9.3 Resignation of Directors. A director may resign at any time by delivering written notice to the Board, its Chairman (as hereinafter defined), if any, or the Company. A resignation shall be effective when the notice is delivered unless the notice specifies a later effective date.

9.4 Removal of Directors by Members. A director shall be removed by the Members only at a meeting called for the purpose of removing such director and the meeting notice shall state that the purpose, or one of the purposes, of the meeting is removal of the director. The Members may remove one or more directors with or without cause.

9.5 Vacancy on Board. If a vacancy occurs on the Board, including a vacancy resulting from an increase in the number of directors, the Board shall fill the vacancy, and if the directors remaining in office constitute fewer than a quorum of the Board, they may fill the vacancy by the affirmative vote of a majority of all the directors remaining in office. A vacancy that will occur at a specific later date may be filled before the vacancy occurs, but the new director may not take office until the vacancy occurs.

9.6 Compensation of Directors. Directors on the Board shall not be entitled to receive a fee for the director's services as a director on the Board.

9.7 Meetings. The Board may hold regular or special meetings in or out of the State of Delaware. The Board may permit any or all directors to participate in a regular or special meeting by, or conduct the meeting through the use of, any means of communication by which all directors participating may simultaneously hear each other during the meeting. A director participating in a meeting by this means shall be deemed to be present in person at the meeting.

9.8 Special Meetings. Special meetings of the Board may be called by, or at the request of, the Chairman, if any, or the chief executive officer of the Company. All special meetings of the Board shall be held at the principal office or such other place as may be specified in the notice of the meeting.

9.9 Action Without Meeting. Any action required or permitted to be taken at a Board meeting may be taken without a meeting, without prior notice and without a vote if a consent or consents in writing, setting forth the action so taken, shall be signed by the directors having not less than the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to authorize or take such action at a meeting at which all directors entitled to vote thereon were present and voted.

9.10 Notice of Meetings. Meetings of the Board may be held without notice of the date, time, place or purpose of the meeting.

9.11 Quorum and Voting. A majority of the number of directors fixed by, or determined in accordance with, this Agreement shall constitute a quorum of the Board. If a quorum is present, an affirmative vote by a majority of the number of directors present shall constitute an act of the Board. A director who is present at a meeting of the Board or a committee of the Board when action is taken shall be deemed to have assented to the action taken unless (i) the director objects at the beginning of the meeting, or promptly upon the director's arrival, to holding it or transacting business at the meeting or (ii) the director's dissent or abstention from the action taken is entered in the minutes of the meeting or the director delivers written notice of the director's dissent or abstention to the presiding officer of the meeting before its adjournment or to the Company immediately after adjournment of the meeting. The right of dissent or abstention shall not be available to a director who votes in favor of the action taken.

9.12 Chairman and Vice-Chairman of the Board. The Board may appoint one of its members Chairman of the Board ("Chairman"). The Board may also appoint one of its members as Vice-Chairman of the Board, and such individual shall serve in the absence of the Chairman and perform such additional duties as may be assigned to such person by the Board.

10. OFFICERS.

10.1 Officers Generally. The Company shall have the officers appointed by the Board in accordance with this Agreement. A duly appointed officer may appoint one or more officers or assistant officers as provided in Section 10.11. The same individual may simultaneously hold more than one office in the Company. Section 10.10 delegates to the Secretary, if such office be created and filled, the required responsibility of preparing minutes of the Board's and Members' meetings and for authenticating records of the Company. If such office shall not be created and filled, then the Board shall delegate to one of the officers of the Company such responsibility.

10.2 Duties of Officers. Each officer of the Company shall have the authority and shall perform the duties set forth in this Agreement for such office or, to the extent consistent with this Agreement, the duties prescribed by the Board or by direction of an officer authorized by the Board to prescribe the duties of other officers.

10.3 Appointment and Term of Office. The officers of the Company shall be appointed by the Board. Vacancies may be filled or new offices created and filled at any meeting of the Board. Each officer shall hold office until such officer's successor shall be duly appointed or until the officer's death or until the officer shall resign or shall have been removed in the manner hereinafter provided.

10.4 Resignation and Removal of Officers. An officer may resign at any time by delivering notice to the Company. A resignation shall be effective when the notice is delivered unless the notice specifies a later effective date. If a resignation is made effective at a later date and the Company accepts the future effective date, the Board may fill the pending vacancy before the effective date if the Board provides that the successor shall not take office until the effective date. The Board may remove any officer at any time with or without cause.

10.5 Contract Rights of Officers. Appointment of an officer or agent shall not of itself create contract rights. An officer's removal shall not affect the officer's contract rights, if any, with the Company. An officer's resignation shall not affect the Company's contract rights, if any, with the officer.

10.6 Chairman of the Board. The Chairman, if that office be created and filled, may, at the discretion of the Board, be the chief executive officer of the Company and, if such, shall, in general, supervise and control the affairs and business of the Company, subject to control by the Board. The Chairman shall preside at all meetings of the Members and the Board.

10.7 President. The President, if that office be created and filled, shall be the chief executive officer of the Company, unless a Chairman is appointed and designated chief executive officer pursuant to Section 10.6. If no Chairman has been appointed or, in the absence of the Chairman, the President shall preside at all meetings of the Members. The President may sign certificates for Units, any deeds, mortgages, bonds, contracts or other instruments which the Board has authorized to be executed, except in cases where the signing and execution thereof shall be expressly delegated by the Board or by this Agreement to some other officer or agent of the Company, or shall be required by law to be otherwise signed or executed. The President shall, in general, perform all duties incident to the office of President of a Delaware corporation and such other duties as may be prescribed by the Board or the Chairman from time to time. Unless otherwise ordered by the Board, the President shall have full power and authority on behalf of the Company to attend, act and vote in person or by proxy at any meetings of shareholders of any corporation in which the Company may hold stock, and at any such meeting shall hold and may exercise all rights incident to the ownership of such stock which the Company, as owner, would have had and could have exercised if present. The Board may confer like powers on any other person or persons.

10.8 Vice-President. In the absence of the President, or in the event of the President's death, inability or refusal to act, the Vice-President (or, in the event there be more than one Vice-President, the Vice-Presidents in order designated at the time of their appointment, or in the absence of any designation, then in the order of their appointment), if that office be created and filled, shall perform the duties of the President and when so acting shall have all the powers of, and be subject to all the restrictions upon, the President. Any Vice-President may sign, with the Secretary or an assistant secretary, certificates for Units and shall perform such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to such person by the Chairman, the President or by the Board.

10.9 Treasurer. The Treasurer, if that office be created and filled, shall have charge and custody of, and be responsible for, all funds and securities of the Company, receive and give receipts for monies due and payable to the Company from any source whatsoever, and deposit all such monies in the name of the Company in such banks, trust companies and other depositories as shall be selected in accordance with the provisions of Section 5.1, and in general, perform all the duties incident to the office of Treasurer of a Delaware corporation and such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to such person by the Chairman, the President or the Board. If required by the Board, the Treasurer shall give a bond for the faithful discharge of such officer's duties in such sum and with such surety or sureties as the Board shall determine.

10.10 Secretary. The Secretary, if that office be created and filled, shall keep the minutes of the Members' meetings and of the Board's meetings in one or more books provided for that purpose, see that all notices are duly given in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement or as required by law, be custodian of the Company records and of the seal, if any, of the Company, be responsible for authenticating records of the Company, keep a register of the mailing address of the Members, which shall be furnished to the Secretary by the Members, sign with the President or a Vice-President certificates for Units, have general charge of the transfer books of the Company, and, in general, perform all duties incident to the office of Secretary of a Delaware corporation and such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to such person by the Chairman, the President or the Board.

10.11 Assistant Treasurers and Assistant Secretaries.

(a) Assistant Treasurer. The Assistant Treasurer, if that office be created and filled, shall, if required by the Board, give bond for the faithful discharge of such officer's duty in such sum and with such surety as the Board shall determine.

(b) Assistant Secretary. The Assistant Secretary, if that office be created and filled, and if authorized by the Board, may sign, with the President or Vice-President, certificates for Units.

(c) Additional Duties. The Assistant Treasurers and Assistant Secretaries, in general, shall perform such additional duties as shall be assigned to them by the Treasurer or the Secretary, respectively, or by the Chairman, the President or the Board.

11. STANDARD OF CARE OF DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS; INDEMNIFICATION.

11.2 Indemnification.

(a) To the fullest extent permitted by the Act, the Company shall indemnify each director or officer of the Company against reasonable expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees), judgments, taxes, penalties, fines (including any excise tax assessed with respect to an employee benefit plan) and amounts paid in settlement (collectively "Liability"), incurred by such person in connection with defending any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding (whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, and whether formal or informal) to which such person is, or is threatened to be made, a party because such person is or was a director or officer of the Company, or is or was serving at the request of the Company as a director, officer, partner, member, employee or agent of another domestic or foreign corporation, partnership, limited liability company, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, including service with respect to employee benefit plans, provided that the director or officer has met the standard of conduct described in Section 11.1. A director or officer shall be considered to be serving an employee benefit plan at the Company's request if such person's duties to the Company also impose duties on or otherwise involve services by such person to the plan or to participants in or beneficiaries of the plan.

(b) To the fullest extent authorized or permitted by the Act, the Company shall pay or reimburse reasonable expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees) incurred by a director or officer who is a party to a proceeding in advance of final disposition of such proceeding if:

(1) The director or officer furnishes the Company a written affirmation of his good faith belief that he has met the standard of conduct described in Section 11.1;

(2) The director or officer furnishes the Company a written undertaking, executed personally or on the director's or officer's behalf, to repay the advance if it is ultimately determined that the director or officer did not meet the standard of conduct. Such undertaking shall be an unlimited general obligation of the director or officer, but shall not be required to be secured and may be accepted without reference to financial ability to make repayment; and

(3) A determination is made that the facts then known to those making the determination would not preclude indemnification under the provisions of this Section 11.2.

(c) The indemnification against Liability and advancement of expenses provided by, or granted pursuant to, this Section 11.2 shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which those seeking indemnification or advancement may be entitled under any agreement, action of the Members or disinterested directors or otherwise, both as to action in their official capacity and as to action in another capacity while holding such office of the Company, shall continue as to a person who has ceased to be a director or officer of the Company, and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors and administrators of such a person.

(d) Any repeal or modification of this Section 11.2 by the Members shall not adversely affect any right or protection of a director or officer of the Company under this Section 11.2 with respect to any act or omission occurring prior to the time of such repeal or modification.

12. OTHER ACTIVITIES; RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS.

12.1 Other Activities. The directors and officers shall devote such of their time to the affairs of the Company's business as they shall deem necessary. The Interest Holders, directors, officers and their Affiliates (as hereinafter defined) may engage in, or possess an interest in, other business ventures of any nature and description, independently or with others, whether or not such activities are competitive with those of the Company. Neither the Company nor any Interest Holder shall have any rights by virtue of this Agreement in and to such independent ventures, or to the income or profits derived therefrom. The Interest Holders shall not be obligated to present any particular noncompeting business opportunity of a character which, if presented to the Company, could be taken by the Company and each Interest Holder and their Affiliates shall not have the right to take for their own account, or to recommend to others, any such particular business opportunity to the exclusion of the Company and the Interest Holders. For purposes of this Agreement, the term "Affiliate" shall mean any person, corporation, partnership, limited liability company, trust or other entity (directly or indirectly) controlling, controlled by, or under common control with, another person.

12.2 Related Party Transactions. The fact that a director, officer or their Affiliates are directly or indirectly interested in or connected with any person, firm or corporation employed by the Company to render or perform a service, or to or from whom the Company may purchase, sell or lease property, shall not prohibit the Company from employing such person, firm or corporation or from otherwise dealing with him or it, and neither the Company, nor any of the Interest Holders, shall have any rights in or to any income or profits derived there from. All such dealings with a director or such director's Affiliates will be on terms which are competitive and comparable with amounts charged by independent third parties.

13.1 Limitation on Participation in Management. Except as expressly authorized by this Agreement or as expressly required by the Act, no Member, solely by virtue of his or her status as a Member, shall participate in the management or control of the Company's business, transact any business for the Company or have the power to act for or bind the Company, said powers being vested solely and exclusively in the Board and the officers. No Interest Holder shall have any right to participate in the management or control of the Company's business.

13.2 Meetings. Meetings of the Members may be called by the Chairman, the chief executive officer or the Board, and shall be called by the chief executive officer at the demand of the holders of at least 20% of all votes entitled to be cast on any issue proposed to be considered at the proposed meeting, provided that such requisite number of Members sign, date and deliver to the Secretary of the Company one or more written demands for the meeting describing the purpose or purposes for which it is to be held. Unless otherwise fixed in this Agreement, the record date for determining Members entitled to demand a meeting shall be the date the first Member signs the demand.

13.3 Place of Members' Meeting. The Board may designate any place within or without the State of Delaware as the place for any meeting of the Members called by the Board. If no designation of place is properly made, the place of the meeting shall be at the principal office. If a meeting is called at the demand of the Members and the Members designate any place, either within or without the State of Delaware, as the place for the holding of such meeting, the meeting shall take place at the place designated. If no designation is properly made, the place of meeting shall be at the principal office.

13.4 Action Without Meeting. Any action required or permitted by the Act or this Agreement to be taken at a Members' meeting may be taken without a meeting, without prior notice and without a vote if a consent or consents in writing, setting forth the action so taken, shall be signed by the Members having not less than the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to authorize or take such action at a meeting at which all Members entitled to vote thereon were present and voted.

13.5 Notice of Meetings. Meetings of the Members may be held without notice of the date, time, place or purpose of the meeting.

13.6 Quorum and Voting. Members shall be entitled to take action on a matter at a meeting only if a quorum exists. Unless this Agreement provides otherwise, a majority of those votes entitled to be cast on the matter shall constitute a quorum for action on that matter. Members shall be entitled to one vote for each Unit owned. Unless this Agreement provides otherwise, if a quorum exists, action on any matter shall be approved if the votes cast favoring the action exceed the votes cast opposing the action.

13.7 Record Date. The Board may fix a record date of the Members of not more than 70 days before the meeting or action requiring a determination of the Members in order to determine the Members entitled to notice of a Members' meeting, to demand a special meeting, to vote or to take any other action. A determination of Members entitled to notice of, or to vote at, a Members' meeting shall be effective for any adjournment of the meeting unless the Board fixes a new record date, which it shall do if the meeting is adjourned to a date more than 120 days after the date fixed for the original meeting. If not otherwise fixed by the Board in accordance with this Agreement, the record date for determining the Members entitled to notice of and to vote at an annual or special Members' meeting shall be the day before the first notice is delivered to the Members, and the record date for any consent action taken by the Members without a meeting and evidenced by one or more written consents shall be the first date upon which a signed written consent setting forth such action is delivered to the Company at its principal office.

A Member may appoint a proxy to vote or otherwise act for the Member by signing an appointment form, either personally or by the Member 's duly authorized attorney-in-fact. An appointment of a proxy shall be effective when the appointment form is received by the Secretary, or other officer or agent authorized to tabulate votes. An appointment shall be valid for 11 months unless a longer, or shorter, period is expressly provided in the appointment form. An appointment of proxy shall be revocable by the Member unless the appointment form conspicuously states that it is irrevocable and the appointment is coupled with an interest. The revocation of an appointment of proxy shall not be effective until the Secretary or such other officer or agent authorized to tabulate votes has received written notice thereof. All proxies shall be filed with the Secretary or the person authorized to tabulate votes before or at the time of the meeting.

14. DISSOLUTION.

14.1 Dissolution. Except as otherwise provided in the Act, the Company shall dissolve upon the decision of the Members to dissolve the Company or the sale or other disposition of all, or substantially all, of the assets of the Company and the sale and/or collection of any evidence of indebtedness received in connection therewith. Dissolution of the Company shall be effective upon the date specified in the Members' resolution, but the Company shall not terminate until the assets of the Company shall have been distributed as provided in Section 14.3. Notwithstanding dissolution of the Company, prior to the liquidation and termination of the Company, the Company shall continue to be governed by this Agreement.

14.2 Sale of Assets Upon Dissolution. Following the dissolution of the Company, the Company shall be wound up and the Board shall determine whether the assets of the Company are to be sold or whether some or all of such assets are to be distributed to the Interest Holders in kind in liquidation of the Company.

14.3 Distributions Upon Dissolution. Upon the dissolution of the Company, the properties of the Company to be sold shall be liquidated in orderly fashion and the proceeds thereof, and the property to be distributed in kind, shall be distributed as follows:

(a) First, to the payment and discharge of all of the Company's debts and liabilities, to the necessary expenses of liquidation and to the establishment of any cash reserves which the Board determines to create for unmatured and/or contingent liabilities or obligations of the Company.

(b) Second, to the Interest Holders, in accordance with their respective Capital Accounts; provided, however, that if the Board has established any reserves in accordance with the provisions of Section 14.3(a), then the distributions pursuant to this Section 14.3(b) (including distributions of such reserve) shall be pro rata in accordance with the balances of the Interest Holders' Capital Accounts.

15. WITHDRAWAL, ASSIGNMENT AND ADDITION OF MEMBERS.

15.1 Assignment of an Interest Holder's Units. An Interest Holder may freely sell, assign, transfer, pledge, hypothecate, encumber or otherwise dispose of the Interest Holder's Units. If the Interest Holder was a Member, the transferee of the Units shall automatically become a substitute Member in the place of the Member.

15.2 Bankruptcy, Dissolution, Etc. of Interest Holders. Upon the occurrence of any of the events set forth in Sections 18-304 or 18-705 of the Act, the successor-in-interest of such Member shall have all of the rights of a Member for the purposes of managing such Member's affairs and, if the Interest Holder was a Member, automatically become a substitute Member in place of the Member.

15.3 Certificates for Units. (a) Certificates representing Units shall be in such form as may be determined by the Board. Such certificates shall be signed by the President or Vice President. The signature of such officer upon such certificates may be signed manually or by facsimile. All certificates for Units shall be consecutively numbered. The name of the person owning the Units represented thereby, with the number of Units and date of issue, shall be entered on the books of the Company. All certificates surrendered to the Company for transfer shall be canceled and no new certificates shall be issued until the former certificates for a like number of Units shall have been surrendered and canceled, except that, in case of a lost, destroyed or mutilated certificate, a new certificate may be issued therefor upon such terms and indemnity to the Company as the Board may prescribe.

(b) A Unit in the Company evidenced by a certificate shall constitute a security governed by Article 8 of the Uniform Commercial Code. Each certificate evidencing membership interests in the Company shall bear the following legend: "This certificate evidences an interest in Northwest Arkansas Hospitals, LLC and shall be a security for purposes of Article 8 of the Uniform Commercial Code." No change to this provision shall be effective until all outstanding certificates have been surrendered for cancellation and any new certificates thereafter issued shall not bear the foregoing legend.

16.1 Notices.

(a) All notices, requests, demands or other communications required or permitted under this Agreement shall be in writing and be personally delivered against a written receipt, delivered to a reputable messenger service (such as FedEx, DHL Courier, United Parcel Service, etc.) for overnight delivery or transmitted by mail, registered, express or certified, return receipt requested, postage prepaid, addressed as follows:

(1) If given to the Company, to the Company at its principal office; and

(2) If given to an Interest Holder, to the Interest Holder at the address set forth in the records of the Company.

(b) All notices, demands and requests shall be effective upon being properly personally delivered, upon being delivered to a reputable messenger service or upon being deposited in the United States mail in the manner provided in Section 16.1. However, the time period in which a response to any such notice, demand or request must be given shall commence to run from the date of personal delivery, the date of delivery by a reputable messenger service or the date on the return receipt, as applicable; provided, however, that if any party rejects delivery, then the time for a response shall commence to run two days following the mailing of the notice.

16.2 Amendment.

(a) Except as provided in Section 16.2(b), this Agreement may be modified or amended from time to time only upon the consent of the holders of a majority of the Units.

(b) In addition to any amendments authorized by Section 16.1(a), this Agreement may be amended from time to time by the Board without the consent of the Members to cure any ambiguity, to correct or supplement any provision hereof which may be inconsistent with any other provision hereof, or to make any other provisions with respect to matters or questions arising under this Agreement which will not be inconsistent with the provisions of this Agreement.

16.3 Captions; Section References. Section titles or captions contained in this Agreement are inserted only as a matter of convenience and reference, and in no way define, limit, extend or describe the scope of this Agreement, or the intent of any pro-vision hereof. All references herein to Sections shall refer to Sections of this Agreement unless the context clearly requires otherwise.

16.4 Confidentiality.

(a) Each Interest Holder agrees not to divulge, communicate, use to the detriment of the Company or for the benefit of any other person, or misuse in any way, any confidential information or trade secrets of the Company, including personnel information, secret processes, know-how, customer lists, formulas or other technical data, except as may be required by law; provided, however, that this prohibition shall not apply to (i) any information which, through no improper action of such Interest Holder, is publicly available or generally known in the industry or (ii) any information which is disclosed upon the consent of the Board. Each Interest Holder acknowledges and agrees that any information or data such Interest Holder has acquired on any of these matters or items were received in confidence and as a fiduciary of the Company.

(b) Each Interest Holder agrees that the Company would be irreparably damaged by reason of any violation of the provisions of Section 16.4(a), and that any remedy at law for a breach of such provisions would be inadequate. Therefore, the Company shall be entitled to seek and obtain injunctive or other equitable relief (including, but not limited to, a temporary restraining order, a temporary injunction or a permanent injunction) against any Interest Holder, for a breach or threatened breach of such provisions and without the necessity of proving actual monetary loss. It is expressly understood among the parties that this injunctive or other equitable relief shall not be the Company's exclusive remedy for any breach of this Section 16.4 and the Company shall be entitled to seek any other relief or remedy that the Company may have by contract, statute, law or otherwise for any breach hereof, and it is agreed that the Company shall also be entitled to recover its attorneys' fees and expenses in any successful action or suit against any Interest Holder relating to any such breach.

16.5 Number and Gender. Unless the context otherwise requires, when used herein, the singular shall include the plural, the plural shall include the singular, and all nouns, pronouns and any variations thereof shall be deemed to refer to the masculine, feminine or neuter, as the identity of the person or persons may require.

16.6 Severability. If any provision of this Agreement, or the application thereof to any person, entity or circum-stances, shall be invalid or unenforceable to any extent, the remainder of this Agreement, and the application of such provision to other persons, entities or circumstances, shall not be affected thereby and shall be enforced to the greatest extent permitted by law.

16.7 Binding Agreement. Except as otherwise provided herein, this Agreement shall be binding upon, and inure to the benefit of, the parties hereto and their respective executors, administrators, heirs, successors and assigns.

16.8 Applicable Law. This Agreement shall be governed by, and construed in accordance with, the laws of the State of Delaware without regard to its conflict of laws rules.

16.9 Entire Agreement. This Agreement contains the entire agreement with respect to the subject matter hereof.

16.10 Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts and all such counterparts shall, for all purposes, constitute one agreement, binding upon the parties hereto, notwithstanding that all parties are not signatory to the same counterpart.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the Members have duly executed this Agreement as of the date and year first written above.

(a) To acquire, own, manage and operate certain healthcare facilities.

(b) To engage in such other lawful activities in which a limited liability company may engage under the Act as is determined by the Board from time to time.

(c) To do all other things necessary or desirable in connection with the foregoing, or otherwise contemplated in this Agreement.

3.2 Company's Power. In furtherance of the purpose of the Company as set forth in Section 3.1, the Company shall have the power to do any and all things whatsoever necessary, appropriate or advisable in connection with such purpose, or as otherwise contemplated in this Agreement.

3.3 Term. The term of the Company as a limited liability company shall commence as of the date of the filing of Articles of Organization with the Missouri Secretary of State's Office, and shall continue until dissolved in accordance with Section 15.

4. CAPITAL.

4.1 Initial Capital Contribution of Member. The limited liability company interests in the Company shall be divided into units ("Units"). The total number of Units that the Company is initially authorized to issue is 100 Units. The Member may, but shall not be required to, make additional capital contributions to the Company from time to time.

4.2 No Liability of Member. Except as otherwise specifically provided in the Act, the Member shall not have any personal liability for the obligations of the Company. Except as provided in Section 4.1, the Member shall not be obligated to contribute funds or loan money to the Company.

4.3 No Interest on Capital Contributions. The Member shall not be entitled to interest on any capital contributions made to the Company.

5. ACCOUNTING.

5.1 Books and Records. The Company shall maintain full and accurate books of the Company at the Company's principal place of business, or such other place as the Board shall determine, showing all receipts and expenditures, assets and liabilities, net income and loss, and all other records necessary for recording the Company's business and affairs. 7. NET INCOME AND NET LOSS.

7.1 Net Income and Net Loss. All net income or net loss of the Company shall be for the account of the Member.

8. FEDERAL INCOME TAX ELECTIONS.

8.1 Tax Treatment. It is the intention of the Member that for Federal, state and local income tax purposes the Company be disregarded as an entity separate from the Member in accordance with the provisions of Treas. Reg. §§ 301.7701-2(c)(2)(i) and 301.7701-3(b)(1)(ii). The Member shall take all actions which may be necessary or required in order for the Company to be so disregarded for income tax purposes.

9. DISTRIBUTIONS.

9.1 Distributions. The Board shall determine, in the Board's sole discretion, the amount and timing of any distributions to the Member and whether such distributions shall be paid in cash or property.

10. BOARD OF DIRECTORS.

10.1 General Powers. All powers of the Company shall be exercised by or under the authority of, and the business and affairs of the Company managed under the direction of, its Board of Directors ("Board"). Any reference to a "director" of the Company in this Agreement shall be deemed to be the equivalent of a "manager" as that term is used under the Act.

10.2 Number, Election and Term. The Board shall consist of not less than one, nor more than seven individual directors, the exact number of which shall be determined by the Board from time to time. Initially, there shall be three directors, Martin G. Schweinhart, W. Larry Cash, and Rachel A. Seifert. Except as otherwise expressly provided herein, directors shall be elected at the organizational meeting of the Member and at each annual meeting thereafter. A decrease in the number of directors shall not shorten an incumbent director's term. Each director shall hold office until such director resigns or is removed. Despite the expiration of a director's term, such director shall continue to serve until the director's successor is elected and qualifies, until there is a decrease in the number of directors or the director is removed.

10.3 Resignation of Directors. A director may resign at any time by delivering written notice to the Board, its Chairman (as hereinafter defined), if any, or the Company. A resignation shall be effective when the notice is delivered unless the notice specifies a later effective date.

10.4 Removal of Directors by Member. A director shall be removed by the Member only at a meeting called for the purpose of removing such director and the meeting notice shall state that the purpose, or one of the purposes, of the meeting is removal of the director. The Member may remove one or more directors with or without cause.

10.5 Vacancy on Board. If a vacancy occurs on the Board, including a vacancy resulting from an increase in the number of directors, the Board shall fill the vacancy, and if the directors remaining in office constitute fewer than a quorum of the Board, they may fill the vacancy by the affirmative vote of a majority of all the directors remaining in office. A vacancy that will occur at a specific later date may be filled before the vacancy occurs, but the new director may not take office until the vacancy occurs.

10.6 Compensation of Directors. Directors on the Board shall not be entitled to receive a fee for the director's services as a director on the Board.

10.7 Meetings. The Board may hold regular or special meetings in or out of the State of Missouri. The Board may permit any or all directors to participate in a regular or special meeting by, or conduct the meeting through the use of, any means of communication by which all directors participating may simultaneously hear each other during the meeting. A director participating in a meeting by this means shall be deemed to be present in person at the meeting.

10.8 Special Meetings. Special meetings of the Board may be called by, or at the request of, the Chairman, if any, or the chief executive officer of the Company. All special meetings of the Board shall be held at the principal office or such other place as may be specified in the notice of the meeting.

10.9 Action Without Meeting. Any action required or permitted to be taken at a Board meeting may be taken without a meeting, without prior notice and without a vote if a consent or consents in writing, setting forth the action so taken, shall be signed by the directors having not less than the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to authorize or take such action at a meeting at which all directors entitled to vote thereon were present and voted.

10.11 Notice of Meetings. Meetings of the Board may be held without notice of the date, time, place or purpose of the meeting.

10.12 Quorum and Voting. A majority of the number of directors fixed by, or determined in accordance with, this Agreement shall constitute a quorum of the Board. If a quorum is present, an affirmative vote by a majority of the number of directors present shall constitute an act of the Board. A director who is present at a meeting of the Board or a committee of the Board when action is taken shall be deemed to have assented to the action taken unless (i) the director objects at the beginning of the meeting, or promptly upon the director' s arrival, to holding the meeting or transacting business at the meeting or (ii) the director's dissent or abstention from the action taken is entered in the minutes of the meeting or the director delivers written notice of the director's dissent or abstention to the presiding officer of the meeting before its adjournment or to the Company immediately after adjournment of the meeting. The right of dissent or abstention shall not be available to a director who votes in favor of the action taken.

10.13 Chairman and Vice Chairman of the Board. The Board may appoint one of its members as Chairman of the Board ("Chairman"). The Board may also appoint one of its members as Vice Chairman of the Board, and such individual shall serve in the absence of the Chairman and perform such additional duties as may be assigned to such person by the Board.

11. OFFICERS.

11.1 Officers Generally. The Company shall have the officers appointed by the Board in accordance with this Agreement. The same individual may simultaneously hold more than one office in the Company. Section 11.10 delegates to the Secretary, if such office be created and filled, the required responsibility of preparing minutes of the Board's and the Member's meetings and for authenticating records of the Company. If such office shall not be created and filled, then the Board shall delegate to one of the officers of the Company such responsibility.

11.2 Duties of Officers. Each officer of the Company shall have the authority and shall perform the duties set forth in this Agreement for such office or, to the extent consistent with this Agreement, the duties prescribed by the Board or by direction of an officer authorized by the Board to prescribe the duties of other officers.

11.3 Appointment and Term of Office. The officers of the Company shall be appointed by the Board. Vacancies may be filled or new offices created and filled at any meeting of the Board. Each officer shall hold office until such officer's successor shall be duly appointed or until the officer's death or until the officer shall resign or shall have been removed in the manner hereinafter provided.

11.4 Resignation and Removal of Officers. An officer may resign at any time by delivering notice to the Company. A resignation shall be effective when the notice is delivered unless the notice specifies a later effective date. If a resignation is made effective at a later date and the Company accepts the future effective date, the Board may fill the pending vacancy before the effective date if the Board provides that the successor shall not take office until the effective date. The Board may remove any officer at any time with or without cause.

11.5 Contract Rights of Officers. Appointment of an officer or agent shall not of itself create contract rights. An officer's removal shall not affect the officer's contract rights, if any, with the Company. An officer's resignation shall not affect the Company's contract rights, if any, with the officer.

11.6 Chairman of the Board. The Chairman, if that office be created and filled, may, at the discretion of the Board, be the chief executive officer of the Company and, if such, shall, in general, supervise and control the affairs and business of the Company, subject to control by the Board. The Chairman shall preside at all meetings of the Member and the Board.

11.7 President. The President, if that office be created and filled, shall be the chief executive officer of the Company, unless a Chairman is appointed and designated chief executive officer pursuant to Section 11.6. If no Chairman has been appointed or, in the absence of the Chairman, the President shall preside at all meetings of the Member. The President may sign certificates for Units, any deeds, mortgages, bonds, contracts or other instruments which the Board has authorized to be executed, except in cases where the signing and execution thereof shall be expressly delegated by the Board or by this Agreement to some other officer or agent of the Company, or shall be required by law to be otherwise signed or executed. The President shall, in general, perform all duties incident to the office of President of a Missouri corporation and such other duties as may be prescribed by the Board or the Chairman from time to time. Unless otherwise ordered by the Board, the President shall have full power and authority on behalf of the Company to attend, act and vote in person or by proxy at any meetings of shareholders of any corporation in which the Company may hold stock, and at any such meeting shall hold and may exercise all rights incident to the ownership of such stock which the Company, as owner, would have had and could have exercised if present. The Board may confer like powers on any other person or persons.

11.8 Vice President. In the absence of the President, or in the event of the President's death, inability or refusal to act, the Vice President (or, in the event there be more than one Vice President, the Vice Presidents in order designated at the time of their appointment, or in the absence of any designation, then in the order of their appointment), if that office be created and filled, shall perform the duties of the President and when so acting shall have all the powers of, and be subject to all the restrictions upon, the President. Any Vice President may sign certificates for Units and shall perform such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to such person by the Chairman, the President or by the Board.

11.9 Treasurer. The Treasurer, if that office be created and filled, shall have charge and custody of, and be responsible for, all funds and securities of the Company, receive and give receipts for monies due and payable to the Company from any source whatsoever, and deposit all such monies in the name of the Company in such banks, trust companies and other depositories as shall be selected in accordance with the provisions of Section 6.1, and in general, perform all the duties incident to the office of Treasurer of a Missouri corporation and such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to such person by the Chairman, the President or the Board. If required by the Board, the Treasurer shall give a bond for the faithful discharge of such officer's duties in such sum and with such surety or sureties as the Board shall determine.

11.10 Secretary. The Secretary, if that office be created and filled, shall keep the minutes of the Member's meetings and of the Board's meetings in one or more books provided for that purpose, see that all notices are duly given in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement or as required by law, be custodian of the Company records and of the seal, if any, of the Company, be responsible for authenticating records of the Company, keep a register of the mailing address of the Member, which shall be furnished to the Secretary by the Member, have general charge of the transfer books of the Company, and, in general, perform all duties incident to the office of Secretary of a Missouri corporation and such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to such person by the Chairman, the President or the Board.

11.11 Assistant Treasurers and Assistant Secretaries.

(a) Assistant Treasurer. The Assistant Treasurer, if that office be created and filled, shall, if required by the Board, give bond for the faithful discharge of such officer's duty in such sum and with such surety as the Board shall determine.

(b) Assistant Secretary. The Assistant Secretary, if that office be created and filled, and if authorized by the Board, may sign, with the President or Vice President, certificates for Units.

(c) Additional Duties. The Assistant Treasurers and Assistant Secretaries, in general, shall perform such additional duties as shall be assigned to them by the Treasurer or the Secretary, respectively, or by the Chairman, the President or the Board.

12. STANDARD OF CARE OF DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS; INDEMNIFICATION.

12.1 Standard of Care. The directors and officers of the Company shall not be liable, responsible or accountable in damages to the Member or the Company on account of such director's or officer's status as a director or officer of the Company or by reason of any act or omission related to the business of the Company performed or omitted by them in good faith with the care an officer of a Missouri corporation of like position would exercise under similar circumstances and in a manner reasonably believed by them to be in the best interests of the Company, and, with respect to any criminal proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe their conduct was unlawful. To the extent that, at law or in equity, a director or officer of the Company has duties (including fiduciary duties) and liabilities relating thereto to the Company, the Member or any other person, such director or officer acting under this Agreement shall not be liable to the Company the Member or any other person for breach of fiduciary duty for its good faith reliance on the provisions of this Agreement, and the provisions of this Agreement , to the extent that they restrict or eliminate the duties (including fiduciary duties) and liabilities relating thereto of a director or officer otherwise existing at law or in equity, are agreed by the Member and the Company to replace such other duties and liabilities of such director or officer.

12.2. Indemnification.

(a) The Company shall indemnify and hold harmless each director or officer of the Company against reasonable expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees), judgments, taxes, penalties, fines (including any excise tax assessed with respect to an employee benefit plan) and amounts paid in settlement (collectively "Liability"), incurred by such person in connection with defending any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding (whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, and whether formal or informal) to which such person is, or is threatened to be made, a party because such person is or was a director or officer of the Company, or is or was serving at the request of the Company as a director, officer, partner, member, employee or agent of another domestic or foreign corporation, partnership, limited liability company, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, including service with respect to employee benefit plans, provided that the director or officer has met the standard of conduct described in Section 12.1. A director or officer shall be considered to be serving an employee benefit plan at the Company's request if such person's duties to the Company also impose duties on or otherwise involve services by such person to the plan or to participants in or beneficiaries of the plan. The indemnities hereunder shall survive the termination of the Company and this Agreement.

(b) At the request of the director or officer entitled to indemnification hereunder, the Company shall pay or reimburse reasonable expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees) incurred by a director or officer who is a party to a proceeding in advance of final disposition of such proceeding if:

(1) The director or officer furnishes the Company a written affirmation of his good faith belief that he has met the standard of conduct described in Section 12.1;

(2) The director or officer furnishes the Company a written undertaking, executed personally or on the director's or officer's behalf, to repay the advance if it is ultimately determined that the director or officer did not meet the standard of conduct or is otherwise not entitled to indemnification hereunder. Such undertaking shall be an unlimited general obligation of the director or officer, but shall not be required to be secured and may be accepted without reference to financial ability to make repayment; and

(3) A determination is made that the facts then known to those making the determination would not preclude indemnification under the provisions of this Section 12.2.

(c) The indemnification against Liability and advancement of expenses provided by, or granted pursuant to, this Section 12.2 shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which those seeking indemnification or advancement may be, or hereafter become, entitled under any agreement, action of the Member or disinterested directors or otherwise, both as to action in their official capacity and as to action in another capacity while holding such office of the Company, shall continue as to a person who has ceased to be a director or officer of the Company, and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors and administrators of such a person.

Any repeal or modification of this Section 12.2 by the Member shall not adversely affect any right or protection of a director or officer of the Company under this Section 12.2 with respect to any act or omission occurring prior to the time of such repeal or modification.

13. OTHER ACTIVITIES; RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS.

13.1 Other Activities. The directors and officers shall devote such of their time to the affairs of the Company's business as they shall deem necessary. The Member, directors, officers and their Affiliates (as hereinafter defined) may engage in, or possess an interest in, other business ventures of any nature and description, independently or with others, whether or not such activities are competitive with those of the Company. Neither the Company nor the Member shall have any rights by virtue of this Agreement in and to such independent ventures, or to the income or profits derived therefrom. The Member shall not be obligated to present any particular business opportunity of a character which, if presented to the Company, could be taken by the Company, and the Member and its Affiliates shall have the right to take for their own account, or to recommend to others, any such particular business opportunity to the exclusion of the Company. For purposes of this Agreement, the term "Affiliate" shall mean any person, corporation, partnership, limited liability company, trust or other entity (directly or indirectly) controlling, controlled by, or under common control with, another person.

13.2 Related Party Transactions. The fact that a director, officer or their Affiliates are directly or indirectly interested in or connected with any person, firm or corporation employed by the Company to render or perform a service, or to or from whom the Company may purchase, sell or lease property, shall not prohibit the Company from employing such person, firm or corporation or from otherwise dealing with him or it, and neither the Company, nor the Member, shall have any rights in or to any income or profits derived therefrom. All such dealings with a director or such director's Affiliates will be on terms which are competitive and comparable with amounts charged by independent third parties.

14. MEMBERS.

14.1 Limitation on Participation in Management. Except as expressly authorized by this Agreement or as expressly required by the Act, the Member, solely by virtue of its status as the Member, shall not participate in the management or control of the Company's business, transact any business for the Company or have the power to act for or bind the Company, said powers being vested solely and exclusively in the Board and the officers.

14.2 Assignment of Member's Interest. The Member may freely sell, assign, transfer, pledge, hypothecate, encumber or otherwise dispose of the Member's Units. If the member transfers all of its Units, the transferee of such Units shall automatically become a substitute Member in the place of the Member. The Board shall amend Exhibit A from time to time to reflect transfers made in accordance with this Section 14.2.

14.3 Death, Incompetence, Dissolution, Etc. of Member. Upon the occurrence of any of the events set forth in Section 347.117 of the Act with respect to the member, the successor-in-interest or personal representative of the Member shall automatically become a substitute Member in place of the Member.

14.4 Certificates for Units.

(a) Certificates representing Units shall be in such form as may be determined by the Board. Such certificates shall be signed by the President or Vice President. The signature of such officer upon such certificates may be signed manually or by facsimile. All certificates for Units shall be consecutively numbered. The name of the person owning the Units represented thereby, with the number of Units and date of issue, shall be entered on the books of the Company. All certificates surrendered to the Company for transfer shall be canceled and no new certificates shall be issued until the former certificates for a like number of Units shall have been surrendered and canceled, except that, in case of a lost, destroyed or mutilated certificate, a new certificate may be issued therefor upon such terms and indemnity to the Company as the Board may prescribe.

(b) A Unit in the Company evidenced by a certificate shall constitute a security governed by Article 8 of the Uniform Commercial Code. Each certificate evidencing membership interests in the Company shall bear the following legend: "This certificate evidences an interest in Poplar Bluff Regional Medical Center, LLC and shall be a security for purposes of Article 8 of the Uniform Commercial Code." No change to this provision shall be effective until all outstanding certificates have been surrendered for cancellation and any new certificates thereafter issued shall not bear the foregoing legend.

15. DISSOLUTION.

15.1 Dissolution. Except as otherwise provided in the Act, the Company shall dissolve upon the decision of the Member to dissolve the Company or the sale or other disposition of all, or substantially all, of the assets of the Company and the sale and/or collection of any evidence of indebtedness received in connection therewith. Dissolution of the Company shall be effective upon the date specified in the Member's resolution or upon the sale or other disposition of all, or substantially all of the assets of the Company and the sale and/or collection of any evidence of indebtedness received in connection therewith as applicable, but the Company shall not terminate until the assets of the Company shall have been distributed as provided in Section 15.3 and a Notice of Winding Up for Limited Liability Company and Articles of Termination for Limited Liability Company are filed with the office of the Secretary of State of the State of Missouri pursuant to Sections 347.137 and 347.045 of the Act. Notwithstanding dissolution of the Company, prior to the liquidation and termination of the Company, the Company shall continue to be governed by this Agreement.

15.2 Sale of Assets Upon Dissolution. Following the dissolution of the Company, the Company shall be wound up and the Board shall determine whether the assets of the Company are to be sold or whether some or all of such assets are to be distributed to the Member in kind in liquidation of the Company.

15.3 Distributions Upon Dissolution. Upon the dissolution of the Company, the properties of the Company to be sold shall be liquidated in orderly fashion and the proceeds thereof, and the property to be distributed in kind, shall be distributed as follows:

(a) First, to the payment and discharge of all of the Company's debts and liabilities, to the necessary expenses of liquidation and to the establishment of any cash reserves which the Member determines to create for unmatured and/or contingent liabilities or obligations of the Company.

(b) Second, to the Member.

16. GENERAL.

16.1 Amendment.

(a) Except as provided in Section 16.1(b), this Agreement may be modified or amended from time to time only upon the consent of the Member.

(b) In addition to any amendments authorized by Section 16.1(a), this Agreement may be amended from time to time by the Board without the consent of the Member to cure any ambiguity, to correct or supplement any provision hereof which may be inconsistent with any other provision hereof, or to make any other provisions with respect to matters or questions arising under this Agreement which will not be inconsistent with the provisions of this Agreement.

16.2 Captions; Section References. Section titles or captions contained in this Agreement are inserted only as a matter of convenience and reference, and in no way define, limit, extend or describe the scope of this Agreement, or the intent of any provision hereof. All references herein to Sections shall refer to Sections of this Agreement unless the context clearly requires otherwise.

16.3 Number and Gender. Unless the context otherwise requires, when used herein, the singular shall include the plural, the plural shall include the singular, and all nouns, pronouns and any variations thereof shall be deemed to refer to the masculine, feminine or neuter, as the identity of the person or persons may require.

16.4 Severability. If any provision of this Agreement, or the application thereof to any person, entity or circumstances, shall be invalid or unenforceable to any extent, the remainder of this Agreement, and the application of such provision to other persons, entities or circumstances, shall not be affected thereby and shall be enforced to the greatest extent permitted by law.

16.5 Binding Agreement. Except as otherwise provided herein, this Agreement shall be binding upon, and inure to the benefit of, the parties hereto and their respective executors, administrators, heirs, successors and assigns.

16.6 Applicable Law. This Agreement shall be governed by, and construed in accordance with, the laws of the State of Missouri without regard to its conflict of laws rules.

16.7 Entire Agreement. This Agreement contains the entire agreement with respect to the subject matter hereof.

2.1 Name. The name of the Company shall be Port Charlotte HMA, LLC.

2.2 Principal Office. The principal office of the Company shall be at 4000 Meridian Blvd., Franklin, Tennessee 37067, or at such other place as shall be determined by the Board (as hereinafter defined). The books of the Company shall be maintained at such principal place of business or such other place that the Board shall deem appropriate. 3. PURPOSE AND TERM.

3.1 Purpose. The purposes of the Company are as follows:

(a) To acquire, own, manage and operate certain healthcare facilities.

(b) To engage in such other lawful activities in which a limited liability company may engage under the Act as is determined by the Board from time to time.

(c) To do all other things necessary or desirable in connection with the foregoing, or otherwise contemplated in this Agreement.

3.2 Company's Power. In furtherance of the purpose of the Company as set forth in Section 3.1, the Company shall have the power to do any and all things whatsoever necessary, appropriate or advisable in connection with such purpose, or as otherwise contemplated in this Agreement.

3.3 Term. The term of the Company as a limited liability company shall commence as of the date of the filing of a Articles of Organization with the Florida Secretary of State's Office, and shall continue until dissolved in accordance with Section 15.

4. CAPITAL.

4.1 Initial Capital Contribution of Member. The limited liability company interests in the Company shall be divided into units ("Units"). The total number of Units that the Company is initially authorized to issue is 100 Units. The Member has contributed the cash or other property identified on, and has been issued the number of Units listed on, Exhibit A. The Member may, but shall not be required to, make additional capital contributions to the Company from time to time.

4.2 No Liability of Member. Except as otherwise specifically provided in the Act, the Member shall not have any personal liability for the obligations of the Company. Except as provided in Section 4.1, the Member shall not be obligated to contribute funds or loan money to the Company.

4.3 No Interest on Capital Contributions. The Member shall not be entitled to interest on any capital contributions made to the Company.

5. ACCOUNTING.

5.1 Books and Records. The Company shall maintain full and accurate books of the Company at the Company's principal place of business, or such other place as the Board shall determine, showing all receipts and expenditures, assets and liabilities, net income and loss, and all other records necessary for recording the Company's business and affairs. Such books and records shall be open to the inspection and examination of the Member in person or by its duly authorized representatives at all reasonable times.

5.2 Fiscal Year. The fiscal year of the Company shall be the calendar year.

6. BANK ACCOUNTS.

6.1 Bank Accounts. All funds of the Company shall be deposited in its name into such checking, savings and/or money market accounts or time certificates as shall be designated by the Board. Withdrawals therefrom shall be made upon such signature or signatures as the Board may designate. The Board shall be entitled to make withdrawals from such accounts to invest such funds in connection with the cash management system employed by CHS/Community Health Systems, Inc., an affiliated company, on behalf of its affiliated hospitals and health care facilities.

7. NET INCOME AND NET LOSS.

7.1 Net Income and Net Loss. All net income or net loss of the Company shall be for the account of the Member.

8. FEDERAL INCOME TAX ELECTIONS.

8.1 Tax Treatment. It is the intention of the Member that for Federal, state and local income tax purposes the Company be disregarded as an entity separate from the Member in accordance with the provisions of Treas. Reg. §§ 301.7701-2(c)(2)(i) and 301.7701-3(b)(1)(ii). The Member shall take all actions which may be necessary or required in order for the Company to be so disregarded for income tax purposes.

9. DISTRIBUTIONS.

9.1 Distributions. The Board shall determine, in the Board's sole discretion, the amount and timing of any distributions to the Member and whether such distributions shall be paid in cash or property.

10. BOARD OF MANAGERS.

10.1 General Powers. All powers of the Company shall be exercised by or under the authority of, and the business and affairs of the Company managed under the direction of, its Board of Managers ("Board").

10.2 Number, Election and Term. The Board shall consist of not less than one, nor more than seven individual managers, the exact number of which shall be determined by the Board from time to time. Initially, there shall be three managers, Martin G. Schweinhart, W. Larry Cash and Rachel A. Seifert. Except as otherwise expressly provided herein, managers shall be elected at the organizational meeting of the Member and at each annual meeting thereafter. A decrease in the number of managers shall not shorten an incumbent manager's term. Each manager shall hold office until such manager resigns or is removed. Despite the expiration of a manager's term, such manager shall continue to serve until the manager's successor is elected and qualifies, until there is a decrease in the number of managers or the manager is removed.

10.3 Resignation of Managers. A manager may resign at any time by delivering written notice to the Board, its Chairman (as hereinafter defined), if any, or the Company. A resignation shall be effective when the notice is delivered unless the notice specifies a later effective date.

10.4 Removal of Managers by Member. A manager shall be removed by the Member only at a meeting called for the purpose of removing such manager and the meeting notice shall state that the purpose, or one of the purposes, of the meeting is removal of the manager. The Member may remove one or more managers with or without cause.

10.5 Vacancy on Board. If a vacancy occurs on the Board, including a vacancy resulting from an increase in the number of managers, the Board shall fill the vacancy, and if the managers remaining in office constitute fewer than a quorum of the Board, they may fill the vacancy by the affirmative vote of a majority of all the managers remaining in office. A vacancy that will occur at a specific later date may be filled before the vacancy occurs, but the new manager may not take office until the vacancy occurs.

10.6 Compensation of Managers. Managers on the Board shall not be entitled to receive a fee for the manager's services as a manager on the Board.

10.7 Meetings. The Board may hold regular or special meetings in or out of the State of Florida. The Board may permit any or all managers to participate in a regular or special meeting by, or conduct the meeting through the use of, any means of communication by which all managers participating may simultaneously hear each other during the meeting. A manager participating in a meeting by this means shall be deemed to be present in person at the meeting.

10.8 Special Meetings. Special meetings of the Board may be called by, or at the request of, the Chairman, if any, or the chief executive officer of the Company. All special meetings of the Board shall be held at the principal office or such other place as may be specified in the notice of the meeting.

10.9 Action Without Meeting. Any action required or permitted to be taken at a Board meeting may be taken without a meeting, without prior notice and without a vote if a consent or consents in writing, setting forth the action so taken, shall be signed by the managers having not less than the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to authorize or take such action at a meeting at which all managers entitled to vote thereon were present and voted.

10.11 Notice of Meetings. Meetings of the Board may be held without notice of the date, time, place or purpose of the meeting.

10.12 Quorum and Voting. A majority of the number of managers fixed by, or determined in accordance with, this Agreement shall constitute a quorum of the Board. If a quorum is present, an affirmative vote by a majority of the number of managers present shall constitute an act of the Board. A manager who is present at a meeting of the Board or a committee of the Board when action is taken shall be deemed to have assented to the action taken unless (i) the manager objects at the beginning of the meeting, or promptly upon the manager' s arrival, to holding the meeting or transacting business at the meeting or (ii) the manager's dissent or abstention from the action taken is entered in the minutes of the meeting or the manager delivers written notice of the manager's dissent or abstention to the presiding officer of the meeting before its adjournment or to the Company immediately after adjournment of the meeting. The right of dissent or abstention shall not be available to a manager who votes in favor of the action taken.

10.13 Chairman and Vice Chairman of the Board. The Board may appoint one of its members as Chairman of the Board ("Chairman"). The Board may also appoint one of its members as Vice Chairman of the Board, and such individual shall serve in the absence of the Chairman and perform such additional duties as may be assigned to such person by the Board.

11. OFFICERS.

11.1 Officers Generally. The Company shall have the officers appointed by the Board in accordance with this Agreement. The same individual may simultaneously hold more than one office in the Company. Section 11.10 delegates to the Secretary, if such office be created and filled, the required responsibility of preparing minutes of the Board's and the Member's meetings and for authenticating records of the Company. If such office shall not be created and filled, then the Board shall delegate to one of the officers of the Company such responsibility.

11.2 Duties of Officers. Each officer of the Company shall have the authority and shall perform the duties set forth in this Agreement for such office or, to the extent consistent with this Agreement, the duties prescribed by the Board or by direction of an officer authorized by the Board to prescribe the duties of other officers.

11.3 Appointment and Term of Office. The officers of the Company shall be appointed by the Board. Vacancies may be filled or new offices created and filled at any meeting of the Board. Each officer shall hold office until such officer's successor shall be duly appointed or until the officer's death or until the officer shall resign or shall have been removed in the manner hereinafter provided.

11.4 Resignation and Removal of Officers. An officer may resign at any time by delivering notice to the Company. A resignation shall be effective when the notice is delivered unless the notice specifies a later effective date. If a resignation is made effective at a later date and the Company accepts the future effective date, the Board may fill the pending vacancy before the effective date if the Board provides that the successor shall not take office until the effective date. The Board may remove any officer at any time with or without cause.

11.5 Contract Rights of Officers. Appointment of an officer or agent shall not of itself create contract rights. An officer's removal shall not affect the officer's contract rights, if any, with the Company. An officer's resignation shall not affect the Company's contract rights, if any, with the officer.

11.6 Chairman of the Board. The Chairman, if that office be created and filled, may, at the discretion of the Board, be the chief executive officer of the Company and, if such, shall, in general, supervise and control the affairs and business of the Company, subject to control by the Board. The Chairman shall preside at all meetings of the Member and the Board.

11.7 President. The President, if that office be created and filled, shall be the chief executive officer of the Company, unless a Chairman is appointed and designated chief executive officer pursuant to Section 11.6. If no Chairman has been appointed or, in the absence of the Chairman, the President shall preside at all meetings of the Member. The President may sign certificates for Units, any deeds, mortgages, bonds, contracts or other instruments which the Board has authorized to be executed, except in cases where the signing and execution thereof shall be expressly delegated by the Board or by this Agreement to some other officer or agent of the Company, or shall be required by law to be otherwise signed or executed. The President shall, in general, perform all duties incident to the office of President of a Florida limited liability company and such other duties as may be prescribed by the Board or the Chairman from time to time. Unless otherwise ordered by the Board, the President shall have full power and authority on behalf of the Company to attend, act and vote in person or by proxy at any meetings of shareholders of any corporation in which the Company may hold stock, and at any such meeting shall hold and may exercise all rights incident to the ownership of such stock which the Company, as owner, would have had and could have exercised if present. The Board may confer like powers on any other person or persons.

11.8 Vice President. In the absence of the President, or in the event of the President's death, inability or refusal to act, the Vice President (or, in the event there be more than one Vice President, the Vice Presidents in order designated at the time of their appointment, or in the absence of any designation, then in the order of their appointment), if that office be created and filled, shall perform the duties of the President and when so acting shall have all the powers of, and be subject to all the restrictions upon, the President. Any Vice President may sign certificates for Units and shall perform such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to such person by the Chairman, the President or by the Board.

11.9 Treasurer. The Treasurer, if that office be created and filled, shall have charge and custody of, and be responsible for, all funds and securities of the Company, receive and give receipts for monies due and payable to the Company from any source whatsoever, and deposit all such monies in the name of the Company in such banks, trust companies and other depositories as shall be selected in accordance with the provisions of Section 6.1, and in general, perform all the duties incident to the office of Treasurer of a Florida limited liability company and such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to such person by the Chairman, the President or the Board. If required by the Board, the Treasurer shall give a bond for the faithful discharge of such officer's duties in such sum and with such surety or sureties as the Board shall determine.

11.10 Secretary. The Secretary, if that office be created and filled, shall keep the minutes of the Member's meetings and of the Board's meetings in one or more books provided for that purpose, see that all notices are duly given in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement or as required by law, be custodian of the Company records and of the seal, if any, of the Company, be responsible for authenticating records of the Company, keep a register of the mailing address of the Member, which shall be furnished to the Secretary by the Member, have general charge of the transfer books of the Company, and, in general, perform all duties incident to the office of Secretary of a Florida limited liability company and such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to such person by the Chairman, the President or the Board.

11.11 Assistant Treasurers and Assistant Secretaries.

(a) Assistant Treasurer. The Assistant Treasurer, if that office be created and filled, shall, if required by the Board, give bond for the faithful discharge of such officer's duty in such sum and with such surety as the Board shall determine.

(b) Assistant Secretary. The Assistant Secretary, if that office be created and filled, and if authorized by the Board, may sign, with the President or Vice President, certificates for Units.

(c) Additional Duties. The Assistant Treasurers and Assistant Secretaries, in general, shall perform such additional duties as shall be assigned to them by the Treasurer or the Secretary, respectively, or by the Chairman, the President or the Board.

12. STANDARD OF CARE OF MANAGERS AND OFFICERS; INDEMNIFICATION.

12.1 Standard of Care. The managers and officers of the Company shall not be liable, responsible or accountable in damages to the Member or the Company on account of such manager's or officer's status as a manager or officer of the Company or by reason of any act or omission related to the business of the Company performed or omitted by them in good faith with the care an officer of a Florida limited liability company of like position would exercise under similar circumstances and in a manner reasonably believed by them to be in the best interests of the Company, and, with respect to any criminal proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe their conduct was unlawful. To the extent that, at law or in equity, a manager or officer of the Company has duties (including fiduciary duties) and liabilities relating thereto to the Company, the Member or any other person, such manager or officer acting under this Agreement shall not be liable to the Company, the Member or any other person for breach of fiduciary duty for its good faith reliance on the provisions of this Agreement, and the provisions of this Agreement, to the extent that they restrict or eliminate the duties (including fiduciary duties) and liabilities relating thereto of a manager or officer otherwise existing at law or in equity, are agreed by the Member and the Company to replace such other duties and liabilities of such manager or officer; provided, however, that the foregoing shall not be interpreted or construed so as to eliminate or restrict any fiduciary duty, including, but not limited to, the duties of loyalty, care, good faith and fair dealing, in such a manner as to be contrary to the provisions of Section 605.0105 of the Act.

12.2. Indemnification.

(a) The Company shall indemnify and hold harmless each manager or officer of the Company against reasonable expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees), judgments, taxes, penalties, fines (including any excise tax assessed with respect to an employee benefit plan) and amounts paid in settlement (collectively "Liability"), incurred by such person in connection with defending any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding (whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, and whether formal or informal) to which such person is, or is threatened to be made, a party because such person is or was a manager or officer of the Company, or is or was serving at the request of the Company as a manager, officer, partner, member, employee or agent of another domestic or foreign corporation, partnership, limited liability company, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, including service with respect to employee benefit plans, provided that (i) the manager or officer has met the standard of conduct described in Section 12.1, and (ii) indemnification under this paragraph does not violate the provisions of Section 605.0105 A manager or officer shall be considered to be serving an employee benefit plan at the Company's request if such person's duties to the Company also impose duties on or otherwise involve services by such person to the plan or to participants in or beneficiaries of the plan. The indemnities hereunder shall survive the termination of the Company and this Agreement.

(b) At the request of the manager or officer entitled to indemnification hereunder, the Company shall pay or reimburse reasonable expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees) incurred by a manager or officer who is a party to a proceeding in advance of final disposition of such proceeding if:

(1) The manager or officer furnishes the Company a written affirmation of his good faith belief that he has met the standard of conduct described in Section 12.1;

(2) The manager or officer furnishes the Company a written undertaking, executed personally or on the manager's or officer's behalf, to repay the advance if it is ultimately determined that the manager or officer did not meet the standard of conduct or is otherwise not entitled to indemnification hereunder. Such undertaking shall be an unlimited general obligation of the manager or officer, but shall not be required to be secured and may be accepted without reference to financial ability to make repayment; and

(3) A determination is made that the facts then known to those making the determination would not preclude indemnification under the provisions of this Section 12.2.

(c) The indemnification against Liability and advancement of expenses provided by, or granted pursuant to, this Section 12.2 shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which those seeking indemnification or advancement may be, or hereafter become, entitled under any agreement, action of the Member or disinterested managers or otherwise, both as to action in their official capacity and as to action in another capacity while holding such office of the Company, shall continue as to a person who has ceased to be a manager or officer of the Company, and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors and administrators of such a person.

Any repeal or modification of this Section 12.2 by the Member shall not adversely affect any right or protection of a manager or officer of the Company under this Section 12.2 with respect to any act or omission occurring prior to the time of such repeal or modification.

13. OTHER ACTIVITIES; RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS.

13.1 Other Activities. The managers and officers shall devote such of their time to the affairs of the Company's business as they shall deem necessary. The Member, managers, officers and their Affiliates (as hereinafter defined) may engage in, or possess an interest in, other business ventures of any nature and description, independently or with others, whether or not such activities are competitive with those of the Company. Neither the Company nor the Member shall have any rights by virtue of this Agreement in and to such independent ventures, or to the income or profits derived therefrom. The Member shall not be obligated to present any particular business opportunity of a character which, if presented to the Company, could be taken by the Company, and the Member and its Affiliates shall have the right to take for their own account, or to recommend to others, any such particular business opportunity to the exclusion of the Company. For purposes of this Agreement, the term "Affiliate" shall mean any person, corporation, partnership, limited liability company, trust or other entity (directly or indirectly) controlling, controlled by, or under common control with, another person.

13.2 Related Party Transactions. The fact that a manager, officer or their Affiliates are directly or indirectly interested in or connected with any person, firm or corporation employed by the Company to render or perform a service, or to or from whom the Company may purchase, sell or lease property, shall not prohibit the Company from employing such person, firm or corporation or from otherwise dealing with him or it, and neither the Company, nor the Member, shall have any rights in or to any income or profits derived therefrom. All such dealings with a manager or such manager's Affiliates will be on terms which are competitive and comparable with amounts charged by independent third parties.

14. MEMBERS.

14.1 Limitation on Participation in Management. Except as expressly authorized by this Agreement or as expressly required by the Act, the Member, solely by virtue of its status as the Member, shall not participate in the management or control of the Company's business, transact any business for the Company or have the power to act for or bind the Company, said powers being vested solely and exclusively in the Board and the officers.

14.2 Assignment of Member's Interest. The Member may freely sell, assign, transfer, pledge, hypothecate, encumber or otherwise dispose of the Member's Units. If the member transfers all of its Units, the transferee of such Units shall automatically become a substitute Member in the place of the Member. The Board shall amend Exhibit A from time to time to reflect transfers made in accordance with this Section 14.2.

14.3 Dissociation of Member. Upon the occurrence of any of the events set forth in Section 605.0602 of the Act with respect to the member, the successor-in-interest or personal representative of the Member shall automatically become a substitute Member in place of the Member.

14.4 Certificates for Units.

(a) Certificates representing Units shall be in such form as may be determined by the Board. Such certificates shall be signed by the President or Vice President. The signature of such officer upon such certificates may be signed manually or by facsimile. All certificates for Units shall be consecutively numbered. The name of the person owning the Units represented thereby, with the number of Units and date of issue, shall be entered on the books of the Company. All certificates surrendered to the Company for transfer shall be canceled and no new certificates shall be issued until the former certificates for a like number of Units shall have been surrendered and canceled, except that, in case of a lost, destroyed or mutilated certificate, a new certificate may be issued therefor upon such terms and indemnity to the Company as the Board may prescribe.

(b) A Unit in the Company evidenced by a certificate shall constitute a security governed by Article 8 of the Uniform Commercial Code. Each certificate evidencing membership interests in the Company shall bear the following legend: "This certificate evidences an interest in Port Charlotte HMA, LLC and shall be a security for purposes of Article 8 of the Uniform Commercial Code." No change to this provision shall be effective until all outstanding certificates have been surrendered for cancellation and any new certificates thereafter issued shall not bear the foregoing legend.

15. DISSOLUTION.

15.1 Dissolution. Except as otherwise provided in the Act, the Company shall dissolve upon the decision of the Member to dissolve the Company or the sale or other disposition of all, or substantially all, of the assets of the Company and the sale and/or collection of any evidence of indebtedness received in connection therewith. Dissolution of the Company shall be effective upon the date specified in the Member's resolution or upon the sale or other disposition of all, or substantially all of the Assets of the Company and the sale and/or collection of any evidence of indebtedness received in connection therewith as applicable, but the Company shall not terminate until the assets of the Company shall have been distributed as provided in Section 15.3 and articles of dissolution are filed with the office of the Secretary of State of the State of Florida pursuant to Section 605.0707 of the Act. Notwithstanding dissolution of the Company, prior to the liquidation and termination of the Company, the Company shall continue to be governed by this Agreement.

15.2 Sale of Assets Upon Dissolution. Following the dissolution of the Company, the Company shall be wound up and the Board shall determine whether the assets of the Company are to be sold or whether some or all of such assets are to be distributed to the Member in kind in liquidation of the Company.

15.3 Distributions Upon Dissolution. Upon the dissolution of the Company, the properties of the Company to be sold shall be liquidated in orderly fashion and the proceeds thereof, and the property to be distributed in kind, shall be distributed as follows:

(a) First, to the payment and discharge of all of the Company's debts and liabilities, to the necessary expenses of liquidation and to the establishment of any cash reserves which the Member determines to create for unmatured and/or contingent liabilities or obligations of the Company.

(b) Second, to the Member.

16. GENERAL.

16.1 Amendment.

(a) Except as provided in Section 16.1(b), this Agreement may be modified or amended from time to time only upon the consent of the Member.

(b) In addition to any amendments authorized by Section 16.1(a), this Agreement may be amended from time to time by the Board without the consent of the Member to cure any ambiguity, to correct or supplement any provision hereof which may be inconsistent with any other provision hereof, or to make any other provisions with respect to matters or questions arising under this Agreement which will not be inconsistent with the provisions of this Agreement.

16.2 Captions; Section References. Section titles or captions contained in this Agreement are inserted only as a matter of convenience and reference, and in no way define, limit, extend or describe the scope of this Agreement, or the intent of any provision hereof. All references herein to Sections shall refer to Sections of this Agreement unless the context clearly requires otherwise.

16.3 Number and Gender. Unless the context otherwise requires, when used herein, the singular shall include the plural, the plural shall include the singular, and all nouns, pronouns and any variations thereof shall be deemed to refer to the masculine, feminine or neuter, as the identity of the person or persons may require.

16.4 Severability. If any provision of this Agreement, or the application thereof to any person, entity or circumstances, shall be invalid or unenforceable to any extent, the remainder of this Agreement, and the application of such provision to other persons, entities or circumstances, shall not be affected thereby and shall be enforced to the greatest extent permitted by law.

16.5 Binding Agreement. Except as otherwise provided herein, this Agreement shall be binding upon, and inure to the benefit of, the parties hereto and their respective executors, administrators, heirs, successors and assigns.

16.6 Applicable Law. This Agreement shall be governed by, and construed in accordance with, the laws of the State of Florida without regard to its conflict of laws rules.

16.7 Entire Agreement. This Agreement contains the entire agreement with respect to the subject matter hereof.

(a) To acquire, own, manage and operate certain healthcare facilities.

(b) To engage in such other lawful activities in which a limited liability company may engage under the Act as is determined by the Board from time to time.

(c) To do all other things necessary or desirable in connection with the foregoing, or otherwise contemplated in this Agreement.

3.2 Company's Power. In furtherance of the purpose of the Company as set forth in Section 3.1, the Company shall have the power to do any and all things whatsoever necessary, appropriate or advisable in connection with such purpose, or as otherwise contemplated in this Agreement.

The Member may, but shall not be required to, make additional capital contributions to the Company from time to time.

4.2 No Liability of Member. Except as otherwise specifically provided in the Act, the Member shall not have any personal liability for the obligations of the Company. Except as provided in Section 4.1, the Member shall not be obligated to contribute funds or loan money to the Company.

4.3 No Interest on Capital Contributions. The Member shall not be entitled to interest on any capital contributions made to the Company.

5. ACCOUNTING.

5.1 Books and Records. The Company shall maintain full and accurate books of the Company at the Company's principal place of business, or such other place as the Board shall determine, showing all receipts and expenditures, assets and liabilities, net income and loss, and all other records necessary for recording the Company's business and affairs. 8. FEDERAL INCOME TAX ELECTIONS.

Reg. §§ 301.7701-2(c)(2)(i) and 301.7701-3(b)(1)(ii). The Member shall take all actions which may be necessary or required in order for the Company to be so disregarded for income tax purposes.

9. DISTRIBUTIONS.

9.1 Distributions. The Board shall determine, in the Board's sole discretion, the amount and timing of any distributions to the Member and whether such distributions shall be paid in cash or property.

10. BOARD OF MANAGERS.

10.1 General Powers. All powers of the Company shall be exercised by or under the authority of, and the business and affairs of the Company managed under the direction of, its Board of Managers ("Board").

10.2 Number, Election and Term. The Board shall consist of not less than one, nor more than seven individual managers, the exact number of which shall be determined by the Board from time to time. Initially, there shall be three managers, Martin G. Schweinhart, W. Larry Cash and Rachel A. Seifert. Except as otherwise expressly provided herein, managers shall be elected at the organizational meeting of the Member and at each annual meeting thereafter. A decrease in the number of managers shall not shorten an incumbent manager's term. Each manager shall hold office until such manager resigns or is removed. Despite the expiration of a manager's term, such manager shall continue to serve until the manager's successor is elected and qualifies, until there is a decrease in the number of managers or the manager is removed.

10.3 Resignation of Managers. A manager may resign at any time by delivering written notice to the Board, its Chairman (as hereinafter defined), if any, or the Company. A resignation shall be effective when the notice is delivered unless the notice specifies a later effective date.

10.4 Removal of Managers by Member. A manager shall be removed by the Member only at a meeting called for the purpose of removing such manager and the meeting notice shall state that the purpose, or one of the purposes, of the meeting is removal of the manager. The Member may remove one or more managers with or without cause.

10.5 Vacancy on Board. If a vacancy occurs on the Board, including a vacancy resulting from an increase in the number of managers, the Board shall fill the vacancy, and if the managers remaining in office constitute fewer than a quorum of the Board, they may fill the vacancy by the affirmative vote of a majority of all the managers remaining in office. A vacancy that will occur at a specific later date may be filled before the vacancy occurs, but the new manager may not take office until the vacancy occurs.

10.6 Compensation of Managers. Managers on the Board shall not be entitled to receive a fee for the manager's services as a manager on the Board.

10.7 Meetings. The Board may hold regular or special meetings in or out of the State of Florida. The Board may permit any or all managers to participate in a regular or special meeting by, or conduct the meeting through the use of, any means of communication by which all managers participating may simultaneously hear each other during the meeting. A manager participating in a meeting by this means shall be deemed to be present in person at the meeting.

10.8 Special Meetings. Special meetings of the Board may be called by, or at the request of, the Chairman, if any, or the chief executive officer of the Company. All special meetings of the Board shall be held at the principal office or such other place as may be specified in the notice of the meeting.

10.9 Action Without Meeting. Any action required or permitted to be taken at a Board meeting may be taken without a meeting, without prior notice and without a vote if a consent or consents in writing, setting forth the action so taken, shall be signed by the managers having not less than the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to authorize or take such action at a meeting at which all managers entitled to vote thereon were present and voted.

10.11 Notice of Meetings. Meetings of the Board may be held without notice of the date, time, place or purpose of the meeting.

10.12 Quorum and Voting. A majority of the number of managers fixed by, or determined in accordance with, this Agreement shall constitute a quorum of the Board. If a quorum is present, an affirmative vote by a majority of the number of managers present shall constitute an act of the Board. A manager who is present at a meeting of the Board or a committee of the Board when action is taken shall be deemed to have assented to the action taken unless (i) the manager objects at the beginning of the meeting, or promptly upon the manager's arrival, to holding the meeting or transacting business at the meeting or (ii) the manager's dissent or abstention from the action taken is entered in the minutes of the meeting or the manager delivers written notice of the manager's dissent or abstention to the presiding officer of the meeting before its adjournment or to the Company immediately after adjournment of the meeting. The right of dissent or abstention shall not be available to a manager who votes in favor of the action taken.

10.13 Chairman and Vice Chairman of the Board. The Board may appoint one of its members as Chairman of the Board ("Chairman"). The Board may also appoint one of its members as Vice Chairman of the Board, and such individual shall serve in the absence of the Chairman and perform such additional duties as may be assigned to such person by the Board.

11. OFFICERS.

11.1 Officers Generally. The Company shall have the officers appointed by the Board in accordance with this Agreement. The same individual may simultaneously hold more than one office in the Company. Section 11.10 delegates to the Secretary, if such office be created and filled, the required responsibility of preparing minutes of the Board's and the Member's meetings and for authenticating records of the Company. If such office shall not be created and filled, then the Board shall delegate to one of the officers of the Company such responsibility.

11.2 Duties of Officers. Each officer of the Company shall have the authority and shall perform the duties set forth in this Agreement for such office or, to the extent consistent with this Agreement, the duties prescribed by the Board or by direction of an officer authorized by the Board to prescribe the duties of other officers.

11.3 Appointment and Term of Office. The officers of the Company shall be appointed by the Board. Vacancies may be filled or new offices created and filled at any meeting of the Board. Each officer shall hold office until such officer's successor shall be duly appointed or until the officer's death or until the officer shall resign or shall have been removed in the manner hereinafter provided.

11.4 Resignation and Removal of Officers. An officer may resign at any time by delivering notice to the Company. A resignation shall be effective when the notice is delivered unless the notice specifies a later effective date. If a resignation is made effective at a later date and the Company accepts the future effective date, the Board may fill the pending vacancy before the effective date if the Board provides that the successor shall not take office until the effective date. The Board may remove any officer at any time with or without cause.

11.5 Contract Rights of Officers. Appointment of an officer or agent shall not of itself create contract rights. An officer's removal shall not affect the officer's contract rights, if any, with the Company. An officer's resignation shall not affect the Company's contract rights, if any, with the officer.

11.6 Chairman of the Board. The Chairman, if that office be created and filled, may, at the discretion of the Board, be the chief executive officer of the Company and, if such, shall, in general, supervise and control the affairs and business of the Company, subject to control by the Board. The Chairman shall preside at all meetings of the Member and the Board.

11.7 President. The President, if that office be created and filled, shall be the chief executive officer of the Company, unless a Chairman is appointed and designated chief executive officer pursuant to Section 11.6. If no Chairman has been appointed or, in the absence of the Chairman, the President shall preside at all meetings of the Member. The President may sign certificates for Units, any deeds, mortgages, bonds, contracts or other instruments which the Board has authorized to be executed, except in cases where the signing and execution thereof shall be expressly delegated by the Board or by this Agreement to some other officer or agent of the Company, or shall be required by law to be otherwise signed or executed. The President shall, in general, perform all duties incident to the office of President of a Florida limited liability company and such other duties as may be prescribed by the Board or the Chairman from time to time. Unless otherwise ordered by the Board, the President shall have full power and authority on behalf of the Company to attend, act and vote in person or by proxy at any meetings of shareholders of any corporation in which the Company may hold stock, and at any such meeting shall hold and may exercise all rights incident to the ownership of such stock which the Company, as owner, would have had and could have exercised if present. The Board may confer like powers on any other person or persons.

11.8 Vice President. In the absence of the President, or in the event of the President's death, inability or refusal to act, the Vice President (or, in the event there be more than one Vice President, the Vice Presidents in order designated at the time of their appointment, or in the absence of any designation, then in the order of their appointment), if that office be created and filled, shall perform the duties of the President and when so acting shall have all the powers of, and be subject to all the restrictions upon, the President. Any Vice President may sign certificates for Units and shall perform such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to such person by the Chairman, the President or by the Board.

11.9 Treasurer. The Treasurer, if that office be created and filled, shall have charge and custody of, and be responsible for, all funds and securities of the Company, receive and give receipts for monies due and payable to the Company from any source whatsoever, and deposit all such monies in the name of the Company in such banks, trust companies and other depositories as shall be selected in accordance with the provisions of Section 6.1, and in general, perform all the duties incident to the office of Treasurer of a Florida limited liability company and such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to such person by the Chairman, the President or the Board. If required by the Board, the Treasurer shall give a bond for the faithful discharge of such officer's duties in such sum and with such surety or sureties as the Board shall determine.

11.10 Secretary. The Secretary, if that office be created and filled, shall keep the minutes of the Member's meetings and of the Board's meetings in one or more books provided for that purpose, see that all notices are duly given in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement or as required by law, be custodian of the Company records and of the seal, if any, of the Company, be responsible for authenticating records of the Company, keep a register of the mailing address of the Member, which shall be furnished to the Secretary by the Member, have general charge of the transfer books of the Company, and, in general, perform all duties incident to the office of Secretary of a Florida limited liability company and such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to such person by the Chairman, the President or the Board.

11.11 Assistant Treasurers and Assistant Secretaries.

(a) Assistant Treasurer. The Assistant Treasurer, if that office be created and filled, shall, if required by the Board, give bond for the faithful discharge of such officer's duty in such sum and with such surety as the Board shall determine.

(b) Assistant Secretary. The Assistant Secretary, if that office be created and filled, and if authorized by the Board, may sign, with the President or Vice President, certificates for Units.

(c) Additional Duties. The Assistant Treasurers and Assistant Secretaries, in general, shall perform such additional duties as shall be assigned to them by the Treasurer or the Secretary, respectively, or by the Chairman, the President or the Board.

12. STANDARD OF CARE OF MANAGERS AND OFFICERS; INDEMNIFICATION.

12.1 Standard of Care. The managers and officers of the Company shall not be liable, responsible or accountable in damages to the Member or the Company on account of such manager's or officer's status as a manager or officer of the Company or by reason of any act or omission related to the business of the Company performed or omitted by them in good faith with the care an officer of a Florida limited liability company of like position would exercise under similar circumstances and in a manner reasonably believed by them to be in the best interests of the Company, and, with respect to any criminal proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe their conduct was unlawful. To the extent that, at law or in equity, a manager or officer of the Company has duties (including fiduciary duties) and liabilities relating thereto to the Company, the Member or any other person, such manager or officer acting under this Agreement shall not be liable to the Company, the Member or any other person for breach of fiduciary duty for its good faith reliance on the provisions of this Agreement, and the provisions of this Agreement, to the extent that they restrict or eliminate the duties (including fiduciary duties) and liabilities relating thereto of a manager or officer otherwise existing at law or in equity, are agreed by the Member and the Company to replace such other duties and liabilities of such manager or officer; provided, however, that the foregoing shall not be interpreted or construed so as to eliminate or restrict any fiduciary duty, including, but not limited to, the duties of loyalty, care, good faith and fair dealing, in such a manner as to be contrary to the provisions of Section 605.0105 of the Act.

12.2. Indemnification.

(a) The Company shall indemnify and hold harmless each manager or officer of the Company against reasonable expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees), judgments, taxes, penalties, fines (including any excise tax assessed with respect to an employee benefit plan) and amounts paid in settlement (collectively "Liability"), incurred by such person in connection with defending any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding (whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, and whether formal or informal) to which such person is, or is threatened to be made, a party because such person is or was a manager or officer of the Company, or is or was serving at the request of the Company as a manager, officer, partner, member, employee or agent of another domestic or foreign corporation, partnership, limited liability company, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, including service with respect to employee benefit plans, provided that (i) the manager or officer has met the standard of conduct described in Section 12.1, and (ii) indemnification under this paragraph does not violate the provisions of Section 605.0105 A manager or officer shall be considered to be serving an employee benefit plan at the Company's request if such person's duties to the Company also impose duties on or otherwise involve services by such person to the plan or to participants in or beneficiaries of the plan. The indemnities hereunder shall survive the termination of the Company and this Agreement.

(b) At the request of the manager or officer entitled to indemnification hereunder, the Company shall pay or reimburse reasonable expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees) incurred by a manager or officer who is a party to a proceeding in advance of final disposition of such proceeding if:

(1) The manager or officer furnishes the Company a written affirmation of his good faith belief that he has met the standard of conduct described in Section 12.1;

(2) The manager or officer furnishes the Company a written undertaking, executed personally or on the manager's or officer's behalf, to repay the advance if it is ultimately determined that the manager or officer did not meet the standard of conduct or is otherwise not entitled to indemnification hereunder. Such undertaking shall be an unlimited general obligation of the manager or officer, but shall not be required to be secured and may be accepted without reference to financial ability to make repayment; and

(3) A determination is made that the facts then known to those making the determination would not preclude indemnification under the provisions of this Section 12.2.

(c) The indemnification against Liability and advancement of expenses provided by, or granted pursuant to, this Section 12.2 shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which those seeking indemnification or advancement may be, or hereafter become, entitled under any agreement, action of the Member or disinterested managers or otherwise, both as to action in their official capacity and as to action in another capacity while holding such office of the Company, shall continue as to a person who has ceased to be a manager or officer of the Company, and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors and administrators of such a person.

Any repeal or modification of this Section 12.2 by the Member shall not adversely affect any right or protection of a manager or officer of the Company under this Section 12.2 with respect to any act or omission occurring prior to the time of such repeal or modification.

13. OTHER ACTIVITIES; RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS.

13.1 Other Activities. The managers and officers shall devote such of their time to the affairs of the Company's business as they shall deem necessary. The Member, managers, officers and their Affiliates (as hereinafter defined) may engage in, or possess an interest in, other business ventures of any nature and description, independently or with others, whether or not such activities are competitive with those of the Company. Neither the Company nor the Member shall have any rights by virtue of this Agreement in and to such independent ventures, or to the income or profits derived therefrom. The Member shall not be obligated to present any particular business opportunity of a character which, if presented to the Company, could be taken by the Company, and the Member and its Affiliates shall have the right to take for their own account, or to recommend to others, any such particular business opportunity to the exclusion of the Company. For purposes of this Agreement, the term "Affiliate" shall mean any person, corporation, partnership, limited liability company, trust or other entity (directly or indirectly) controlling, controlled by, or under common control with, another person.

13.2 Related Party Transactions. The fact that a manager, officer or their Affiliates are directly or indirectly interested in or connected with any person, firm or corporation employed by the Company to render or perform a service, or to or from whom the Company may purchase, sell or lease property, shall not prohibit the Company from employing such person, firm or corporation or from otherwise dealing with him or it, and neither the Company, nor the Member, shall have any rights in or to any income or profits derived therefrom. All such dealings with a manager or such manager's Affiliates will be on terms which are competitive and comparable with amounts charged by independent third parties.

14. MEMBERS.

14.1 Limitation on Participation in Management. Except as expressly authorized by this Agreement or as expressly required by the Act, the Member, solely by virtue of its status as the Member, shall not participate in the management or control of the Company's business, transact any business for the Company or have the power to act for or bind the Company, said powers being vested solely and exclusively in the Board and the officers.

14.2 Assignment of Member's Interest. The Member may freely sell, assign, transfer, pledge, hypothecate, encumber or otherwise dispose of the Member's Units. If the member transfers all of its Units, the transferee of such Units shall automatically become a substitute Member in the place of the Member. The Board shall amend Exhibit A from time to time to reflect transfers made in accordance with this Section 14.2.

14.3 Dissociation of Member. Upon the occurrence of any of the events set forth in Section 605.0602 of the Act with respect to the member, the successor-in-interest or personal representative of the Member shall automatically become a substitute Member in place of the Member.

14.4 Certificates for Units.

(a) Certificates representing Units shall be in such form as may be determined by the Board. Such certificates shall be signed by the President or Vice President. The signature of such officer upon such certificates may be signed manually or by facsimile. All certificates for Units shall be consecutively numbered. The name of the person owning the Units represented thereby, with the number of Units and date of issue, shall be entered on the books of the Company. All certificates surrendered to the Company for transfer shall be canceled and no new certificates shall be issued until the former certificates for a like number of Units shall have been surrendered and canceled, except that, in case of a lost, destroyed or mutilated certificate, a new certificate may be issued therefor upon such terms and indemnity to the Company as the Board may prescribe.

(b) A Unit in the Company evidenced by a certificate shall constitute a security governed by Article 8 of the Uniform Commercial Code. Each certificate evidencing membership interests in the Company shall bear the following legend: "This certificate evidences an interest in Punta Gorda HMA, LLC and shall be a security for purposes of Article 8 of the Uniform Commercial Code." No change to this provision shall be effective until all outstanding certificates have been surrendered for cancellation and any new certificates thereafter issued shall not bear the foregoing legend.

15. DISSOLUTION.

15.1 Dissolution. Except as otherwise provided in the Act, the Company shall dissolve upon the decision of the Member to dissolve the Company or the sale or other disposition of all, or substantially all, of the assets of the Company and the sale and/or collection of any evidence of indebtedness received in connection therewith. Dissolution of the Company shall be effective upon the date specified in the Member's resolution or upon the sale or other disposition of all, or substantially all of the Assets of the Company and the sale and/or collection of any evidence of indebtedness received in connection therewith as applicable, but the Company shall not terminate until the assets of the Company shall have been distributed as provided in Section 15.3 and articles of dissolution are filed with the office of the Secretary of State of the State of Florida pursuant to Section 605.0707 of the Act. Notwithstanding dissolution of the Company, prior to the liquidation and termination of the Company, the Company shall continue to be governed by this Agreement.

15.2 Sale of Assets Upon Dissolution. Following the dissolution of the Company, the Company shall be wound up and the Board shall determine whether the assets of the Company are to be sold or whether some or all of such assets are to be distributed to the Member in kind in liquidation of the Company.

15.3 Distributions Upon Dissolution. Upon the dissolution of the Company, the properties of the Company to be sold shall be liquidated in orderly fashion and the proceeds thereof, and the property to be distributed in kind, shall be distributed as follows:

(a) First, to the payment and discharge of all of the Company's debts and liabilities, to the necessary expenses of liquidation and to the establishment of any cash reserves which the Member determines to create for unmatured and/or contingent liabilities or obligations of the Company.

(b) Second, to the Member.

10.3 Resignation of Directors. A director may resign at any time by delivering written notice to the Board, its Chairman (as hereinafter defined), if any, or the Company. A resignation shall be effective when the notice is delivered unless the notice specifies a later effective date.

10.4 Removal of Directors by Member. A director shall be removed by the Member only at a meeting called for the purpose of removing such director and the meeting notice shall state that the purpose, or one of the purposes, of the meeting is removal of the director. The Member may remove one or more directors with or without cause.

10.5 Vacancy on Board. If a vacancy occurs on the Board, including a vacancy resulting from an increase in the number of directors, the Member shall fill the vacancy. A vacancy that will occur at a specific later date may be filled before the vacancy occurs, but the new director may not take office until the vacancy occurs.

10.6 Compensation of Directors. Directors on the Board shall not be entitled to receive a fee for the director's services as a director on the Board.

10.7 Meetings. The Board may hold regular or special meetings in or out of the State of Mississippi. The Board may permit any or all directors to participate in a regular or special meeting by, or conduct the meeting through the use of, any means of communication by which all directors participating may simultaneously hear each other during the meeting. A director participating in a meeting by this means shall be deemed to be present in person at the meeting.

10.8 Special Meetings. Special meetings of the Board may be called by, or at the request of, the Chairman, if any, or the chief executive officer of the Company. All special meetings of the Board shall be held at the principal office or such other place as may be specified in the notice of the meeting.

10.9 Action Without Meeting. Any action required or permitted to be taken at a Board meeting may be taken without a meeting, without prior notice and without a vote if a consent or consents in writing, setting forth the action so taken, shall be signed by the directors having not less than the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to authorize or take such action at a meeting at which all directors entitled to vote thereon were present and voted.

10.10 Notice of Meetings. Meetings of the Board may be held without notice of the date, time, place or purpose of the meeting.

10.11 Quorum and Voting. A majority of the number of directors fixed by, or determined in accordance with, this Agreement shall constitute a quorum of the Board. If a quorum is present, an affirmative vote by a majority of the number of directors present shall constitute an act of the Board. A director who is present at a meeting of the Board or a committee of the Board when action is taken shall be deemed to have assented to the action taken unless (i) the director objects at the beginning of the meeting, or promptly upon the director' s arrival, to holding the meeting or transacting business at the meeting or (ii) the director's dissent or abstention from the action taken is entered in the minutes of the meeting or the director delivers written notice of the director's dissent or abstention to the presiding officer of the meeting before its adjournment or to the Company immediately after adjournment of the meeting. The right of dissent or abstention shall not be available to a director who votes in favor of the action taken.

10.12 Chairman and Vice Chairman of the Board. The Board may appoint one of its members as Chairman of the Board ("Chairman"). The Board may also appoint one of its members as Vice Chairman of the Board, and such individual shall serve in the absence of the Chairman and perform such additional duties as may be assigned to such person by the Board.

11. OFFICERS.

11.1 Officers Generally. The Company shall have the officers appointed by the Board in accordance with this Agreement. The same individual may simultaneously hold more than one office in the Company. Section 11.10 delegates to the Secretary, if such office be created and filled, the required responsibility of preparing minutes of the Board's and the Member's meetings and for authenticating records of the Company. If such office shall not be created and filled, then the Board shall delegate to one of the officers of the Company such responsibility.

11.2 Duties of Officers. Each officer of the Company shall have the authority and shall perform the duties set forth in this Agreement for such office or, to the extent consistent with this Agreement, the duties prescribed by the Board or by direction of an officer authorized by the Board to prescribe the duties of other officers.

11.3 Appointment and Term of Office. The officers of the Company shall be appointed by the Board. Vacancies may be filled or new offices created and filled at any meeting of the Board. Each officer shall hold office until such officer's successor shall be duly appointed or until the officer's death or until the officer shall resign or shall have been removed in the manner hereinafter provided.

11.4 Resignation and Removal of Officers. An officer may resign at any time by delivering notice to the Company. A resignation shall be effective when the notice is delivered unless the notice specifies a later effective date. If a resignation is made effective at a later date and the Company accepts the future effective date, the Board may fill the pending vacancy before the effective date if the Board provides that the successor shall not take office until the effective date. The Board may remove any officer at any time with or without cause.

11.5 Contract Rights of Officers. Appointment of an officer or agent shall not of itself create contract rights. An officer's removal shall not affect the officer's contract rights, if any, with the Company. An officer's resignation shall not affect the Company's contract rights, if any, with the officer.

11.6 Chairman of the Board. The Chairman, if that office be created and filled, may, at the discretion of the Board, be the chief executive officer of the Company and, if such, shall, in general, supervise and control the affairs and business of the Company, subject to control by the Board. The Chairman shall preside at all meetings of the Member and the Board.

11.7 President. The President, if that office be created and filled, shall be the chief executive officer of the Company, unless a Chairman is appointed and designated chief executive officer pursuant to Section 11.6. If no Chairman has been appointed or, in the absence of the Chairman, the President shall preside at all meetings of the Member. The President may sign certificates for Units, any deeds, mortgages, bonds, contracts or other instruments which the Board has authorized to be executed, except in cases where the signing and execution thereof shall be expressly delegated by the Board or by this Agreement to some other officer or agent of the Company, or shall be required by law to be otherwise signed or executed. The President shall, in general, perform all duties incident to the office of President of a Mississippi corporation and such other duties as may be prescribed by the Board or the Chairman from time to time. Unless otherwise ordered by the Board, the President shall have full power and authority on behalf of the Company to attend, act and vote in person or by proxy at any meetings of shareholders of any corporation in which the Company may hold stock, and at any such meeting shall hold and may exercise all rights incident to the ownership of such stock which the Company, as owner, would have had and could have exercised if present. The Board may confer like powers on any other person or persons.

11.8 Vice President. In the absence of the President, or in the event of the President's death, inability or refusal to act, the Vice President (or, in the event there be more than one Vice President, the Vice Presidents in order designated at the time of their appointment, or in the absence of any designation, then in the order of their appointment), if that office be created and filled, shall perform the duties of the President and when so acting shall have all the powers of, and be subject to all the restrictions upon, the President. Any Vice President may sign certificates for Units and shall perform such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to such person by the Chairman, the President or by the Board.

11.9 Treasurer. The Treasurer, if that office be created and filled, shall have charge and custody of, and be responsible for, all funds and securities of the Company, receive and give receipts for monies due and payable to the Company from any source whatsoever, and deposit all such monies in the name of the Company in such banks, trust companies and other depositories as shall be selected in accordance with the provisions of Section 6.1, and in general, perform all the duties incident to the office of Treasurer of a Mississippi corporation and such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to such person by the Chairman, the President or the Board. If required by the Board, the Treasurer shall give a bond for the faithful discharge of such officer's duties in such sum and with such surety or sureties as the Board shall determine.

11.10 Secretary. The Secretary, if that office be created and filled, shall keep the minutes of the Member's meetings and of the Board's meetings in one or more books provided for that purpose, see that all notices are duly given in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement or as required by law, be custodian of the Company records and of the seal, if any, of the Company, be responsible for authenticating records of the Company, keep a register of the mailing address of the Member, which shall be furnished to the Secretary by the Member, have general charge of the transfer books of the Company, and, in general, perform all duties incident to the office of Secretary of a Mississippi corporation and such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to such person by the Chairman, the President or the Board.

11.11 Assistant Treasurers and Assistant Secretaries.

(a) Assistant Treasurer. The Assistant Treasurer, if that office be created and filled, shall, if required by the Board, give bond for the faithful discharge of such officer's duty in such sum and with such surety as the Board shall determine.

(b) Assistant Secretary. The Assistant Secretary, if that office be created and filled, and if authorized by the Board, may sign, with the President or Vice President, certificates for Units.

(c) Additional Duties. The Assistant Treasurers and Assistant Secretaries, in general, shall perform such additional duties as shall be assigned to them by the Treasurer or the Secretary, respectively, or by the Chairman, the President or the Board.

12. STANDARD OF CARE OF DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS; INDEMNIFICATION.

12.1 Standard of Care. The directors and officers of the Company shall not be liable, responsible or accountable in damages to the Member or the Company on account of such director's or officer's status as a director or officer of the Company or by reason of any act or omission related to the business of the Company performed or omitted by them in good faith and with fair dealing, with the care an ordinarily prudent person in a like position would exercise

under similar circumstances and in a manner reasonably believed by them to be in the best interests of the Company. To the extent that, at law or in equity, a director or officer of the Company has duties (including fiduciary duties) and liabilities relating thereto to the Company, the Member or any other person, such director or officer acting under this Agreement shall not be liable to the Company the Member or any other person for breach of fiduciary duty for its good faith reliance on the provisions of this Agreement, and the provisions of this Agreement , to the extent that they restrict or eliminate the duties (including fiduciary duties) and liabilities relating thereto of a director or officer otherwise existing at law or in equity, are agreed by the Member and the Company to replace such other duties and liabilities of such director or officer.

12.2 Indemnification.

(a) The Company shall indemnify and hold harmless each director or officer of the Company against reasonable expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees), judgments, taxes, penalties, fines (including any excise tax assessed with respect to an employee benefit plan) and amounts paid in settlement (collectively "Liability"), incurred by such person in connection with defending any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding (whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, and whether formal or informal) to which such person is, or is threatened to be made, a party because such person is or was a director or officer of the Company, or is or was serving at the request of the Company as a director, officer, partner, member, employee or agent of another domestic or foreign corporation, partnership, limited liability company, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, including service with respect to employee benefit plans, provided that the director or officer has met the standard of conduct described in Section 12.1. A director or officer shall be considered to be serving an employee benefit plan at the Company's request if such person's duties to the Company also impose duties on or otherwise involve services by such person to the plan or to participants in or beneficiaries of the plan. The indemnities hereunder shall survive the termination of the Company and this Agreement.

(b) At the request of the director or officer entitled to indemnification hereunder, the Company shall pay or reimburse reasonable expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees) incurred by a director or officer who is a party to a proceeding in advance of final disposition of such proceeding if:

(1) The director or officer furnishes the Company a written affirmation of his good faith belief that he has met the standard of conduct described in Section 12.1;

(2) The director or officer furnishes the Company a written undertaking, executed personally or on the director's or officer's behalf, to repay the advance if it is ultimately determined that the director or officer did not meet the standard of conduct or is otherwise not entitled to indemnification hereunder. Such undertaking shall be an unlimited general obligation of the director or officer, but shall not be required to be secured and may be accepted without reference to financial ability to make repayment; and

(3) A determination is made that the facts then known to those making the determination would not preclude indemnification under the provisions of this Section 12.2.

(c) The indemnification against Liability and advancement of expenses provided by, or granted pursuant to, this Section 12.2 shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which those seeking indemnification or advancement may be, or hereafter become, entitled under any agreement, action of the Member or disinterested directors or otherwise, both as to action in their official capacity and as to action in another capacity while holding such office of the Company, shall continue as to a person who has ceased to be a director or officer of the Company, and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors and administrators of such a person.

Any repeal or modification of this Section 12.2 by the Member shall not adversely affect any right or protection of a director or officer of the Company under this Section 12.2 with respect to any act or omission occurring prior to the time of such repeal or modification.

13. OTHER ACTIVITIES; RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS.

13.1 Other Activities. The directors and officers shall devote such of their time to the affairs of the Company's business as they shall deem necessary. The Member, directors, officers and their Affiliates (as hereinafter defined) may engage in, or possess an interest in, other business ventures of any nature and description, independently or with others, whether or not such activities are competitive with those of the Company. Neither the Company nor the Member shall have any rights by virtue of this Agreement in and to such independent ventures, or to the income or profits derived therefrom. The Member shall not be obligated to present any particular business opportunity of a character which, if presented to the Company, could be taken by the Company, and the Member and its Affiliates shall have the right to take for their own account, or to recommend to others, any such particular business opportunity to the exclusion of the Company. For purposes of this Agreement, the term "Affiliate" shall mean any person, corporation, partnership, limited liability company, trust or other entity (directly or indirectly) controlling, controlled by, or under common control with, another person.

13.2 Related Party Transactions. The fact that a director, officer or their Affiliates are directly or indirectly interested in or connected with any person, firm or corporation employed by the Company to render or perform a service, or to or from whom the Company may purchase, sell or lease property, shall not prohibit the Company from employing such person, firm or corporation or from otherwise dealing with him or it, and neither the Company, nor the Member, shall have any rights in or to any income or profits derived therefrom. All such dealings with a director or such director's Affiliates will be on terms which are competitive and comparable with amounts charged by independent third parties.

14. MEMBERS.

14.1 Limitation on Participation in Management. Except as expressly authorized by this Agreement or as expressly required by the Act, the Member, solely by virtue of its status as the Member, shall not participate in the management or control of the Company's business, transact any business for the Company or have the power to act for or bind the Company, said powers being vested solely and exclusively in the Board and the officers.

14.2 Assignment of Member's Interest. The Member may freely sell, assign, transfer, pledge, hypothecate, encumber or otherwise dispose of the Member's Units. If the member transfers all of its Units, the transferee of such Units shall automatically become a substitute Member in the place of the Member. The Board shall amend Exhibit A from time to time to reflect transfers made in accordance with this Section 14.2.

14.3 Bankruptcy, Dissolution, Etc. of Member. Upon the occurrence of any of the events set forth in Sections 79-29-313(3) or 79-29-709 of the Act with respect to the member, the successor-in-interest or personal representative of the Member shall automatically become a substitute Member in place of the Member.

14.4 Certificates for Units.

(a) Certificates representing Units shall be in such form as may be determined by the Board. Such certificates shall be signed by the President or Vice President. The signature of such officer upon such certificates may be signed manually or by facsimile. All certificates for Units shall be consecutively numbered. The name of the person owning the Units represented thereby, with the number of Units and date of issue, shall be entered on the books of the Company. All certificates surrendered to the Company for transfer shall be canceled and no new certificates shall be issued until the former certificates for a like number of Units shall have been surrendered and canceled, except that, in case of a lost, destroyed or mutilated certificate, a new certificate may be issued therefor upon such terms and indemnity to the Company as the Board may prescribe.

(b) A Unit in the Company evidenced by a certificate shall constitute a security governed by Article 8 of the Uniform Commercial Code. Each certificate evidencing membership interests in the Company shall bear the following legend: "This certificate evidences an interest in River Oaks Hospital, LLC and shall be a security or purposes of Article 8 of the Uniform Commercial Code." No change to this provision shall be effective until all outstanding certificates have been surrendered for cancellation and any new certificates thereafter issued shall not bear the foregoing legend.

15. DISSOLUTION.

15.1 Dissolution. Except as otherwise provided in the Act, the Company shall dissolve upon the decision of the Member to dissolve the Company or the sale or other disposition of all, or substantially all, of the assets of the Company and the sale and/or collection of any evidence of indebtedness received in connection therewith. Dissolution of the Company shall be effective upon the date specified in the Member's resolution or upon the sale or other disposition of all, or substantially all of the Assets of the Company and the sale and/or collection of any evidence of indebtedness received in connection therewith as applicable, but the Company shall not terminate until the assets of the Company shall have been distributed as provided in Section 15.3 and a certificate of dissolution of the certificate of formation of the Company is filed with the office of the Secretary of State of the State of Mississippi pursuant to Section 79-29-205 of the Act. Notwithstanding dissolution of the Company, prior to the liquidation and termination of the Company, the Company shall continue to be governed by this Agreement.

15.2 Sale of Assets Upon Dissolution. Following the dissolution of the Company, the Company shall be wound up and the Board shall determine whether the assets of the Company are to be sold or whether some or all of such assets are to be distributed to the Member in kind in liquidation of the Company.

15.3 Distributions Upon Dissolution. Upon the dissolution of the Company, the properties of the Company to be sold shall be liquidated in orderly fashion and the proceeds thereof, and the property to be distributed in kind, shall be distributed as follows:

(a) First, to the payment and discharge of all of the Company's debts and liabilities, to the necessary expenses of liquidation and to the establishment of any cash reserves which the Member determines to create for unmatured and/or contingent liabilities or obligations of the Company.

(b) Second, to the Member.

16. GENERAL.

16.1 Amendment.

(a) Except as provided in Section 16.1(b), this Agreement may be modified or amended from time to time only upon the consent of the Member.

(b) In addition to any amendments authorized by Section 16.1(a), this Agreement may be amended from time to time by the Board without the consent of the Member to cure any ambiguity, to correct or supplement any provision hereof which may be inconsistent with any other provision hereof, or to make any other provisions with respect to matters or questions arising under this Agreement which will not be inconsistent with the provisions of this Agreement.

16.2 Captions; Section References. Section titles or captions contained in this Agreement are inserted only as a matter of convenience and reference, and in no way define, limit, extend or describe the scope of this Agreement, or the intent of any provision hereof. All references herein to Sections shall refer to Sections of this Agreement unless the context clearly requires otherwise.

16.3 Number and Gender. Unless the context otherwise requires, when used herein, the singular shall include the plural, the plural shall include the singular, and all nouns, pronouns and any variations thereof shall be deemed to refer to the masculine, feminine or neuter, as the identity of the person or persons may require.

16.4 Severability. If any provision of this Agreement, or the application thereof to any person, entity or circumstances, shall be invalid or unenforceable to any extent, the remainder of this Agreement, and the application of such provision to other persons, entities or circumstances, shall not be affected thereby and shall be enforced to the greatest extent permitted by law.

16.5 Binding Agreement. Except as otherwise provided herein, this Agreement shall be binding upon, and inure to the benefit of, the parties hereto and their respective executors, administrators, heirs, successors and assigns.

16.6 Applicable Law. This Agreement shall be governed by, and construed in accordance with, the laws of the State of Mississippi without regard to its conflict of laws rules.

16.7 Entire Agreement. This Agreement contains the entire agreement with respect to the subject matter hereof.

(c) To do all other things necessary or desirable in connection with the foregoing, or otherwise contemplated in this Agreement.

3.2 Company's Power. In furtherance of the purpose of the Company as set forth in Section 3.1, the Company shall have the power to do any and all things whatsoever necessary, appropriate or advisable in connection with such purpose, or as otherwise contemplated in this Agreement.

Initially, there shall be three managers, Martin G. Schweinhart, W. Larry Cash and Rachel A. Seifert. Except as otherwise expressly provided herein, managers shall be elected at the organizational meeting of the Member and at each annual meeting thereafter. A decrease in the number of managers shall not shorten an incumbent manager's term. Each manager shall hold office until such manager resigns or is removed. 10.6 Compensation of Managers. Managers on the Board shall not be entitled to receive a fee for the manager's services as a manager on the Board.

10.7 Meetings. The Board may hold regular or special meetings in or out of the State of Florida. Any action required or permitted to be taken at a Board meeting may be taken without a meeting, without prior notice and without a vote if a consent or consents in writing, setting forth the action so taken, shall be signed by the managers having not less than the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to authorize or take such action at a meeting at which all managers entitled to vote thereon were present and voted.

10.10 Notice of Meetings. Meetings of the Board may be held without notice of the date, time, place or purpose of the meeting.

10.11 Quorum and Voting. A majority of the number of managers fixed by, or determined in accordance with, this Agreement shall constitute a quorum of the Board. If a quorum is present, an affirmative vote by a majority of the number of managers present shall constitute an act of the Board. A manager who is present at a meeting of the Board or a committee of the Board when action is taken shall be deemed to have assented to the action taken unless (i) the manager objects at the beginning of the meeting, or promptly upon the manager' s arrival, to holding the meeting or transacting business at the meeting or (ii) the manager's dissent or abstention from the action taken is entered in the minutes of the meeting or the manager delivers written notice of the manager's dissent or abstention to the presiding officer of the meeting before its adjournment or to the Company immediately after adjournment of the meeting. The right of dissent or abstention shall not be available to a manager who votes in favor of the action taken.

10.12 Chairman and Vice Chairman of the Board. The Board may appoint one of its members as Chairman of the Board ("Chairman"). The Board may also appoint one of its members as Vice Chairman of the Board, and such individual shall serve in the absence of the Chairman and perform such additional duties as may be assigned to such person by the Board.

11. OFFICERS.

11.1 Officers Generally. The Company shall have the officers appointed by the Board in accordance with this Agreement. The same individual may simultaneously hold more than one office in the Company. Section 11.10 delegates to the Secretary, if such office be created and filled, the required responsibility of preparing minutes of the Board's and the Member's meetings and for authenticating records of the Company. If such office shall not be created and filled, then the Board shall delegate to one of the officers of the Company such responsibility.

11.2 Duties of Officers. Each officer of the Company shall have the authority and shall perform the duties set forth in this Agreement for such office or, to the extent consistent with this Agreement, the duties prescribed by the Board or by direction of an officer authorized by the Board to prescribe the duties of other officers.

11.3 Appointment and Term of Office. The officers of the Company shall be appointed by the Board. Vacancies may be filled or new offices created and filled at any meeting of the Board. Each officer shall hold office until such officer's successor shall be duly appointed or until the officer's death or until the officer shall resign or shall have been removed in the manner hereinafter provided.

11.4 Resignation and Removal of Officers. An officer may resign at any time by delivering notice to the Company. A resignation shall be effective when the notice is delivered unless the notice specifies a later effective date. If a resignation is made effective at a later date and the Company accepts the future effective date, the Board may fill the pending vacancy before the effective date if the Board provides that the successor shall not take office until the effective date. The Board may remove any officer at any time with or without cause.

11.5 Contract Rights of Officers. Appointment of an officer or agent shall not of itself create contract rights. An officer's removal shall not affect the officer's contract rights, if any, with the Company. An officer's resignation shall not affect the Company's contract rights, if any, with the officer.

11.6 Chairman of the Board. The Chairman, if that office be created and filled, may, at the discretion of the Board, be the chief executive officer of the Company and, if such, shall, in general, supervise and control the affairs and business of the Company, subject to control by the Board. The Chairman shall preside at all meetings of the Member and the Board.

11.7 President. The President, if that office be created and filled, shall be the chief executive officer of the Company, unless a Chairman is appointed and designated chief executive officer pursuant to Section 11.6. If no Chairman has been appointed or, in the absence of the Chairman, the President shall preside at all meetings of the Member. The President may sign certificates for Units, any deeds, mortgages, bonds, contracts or other instruments which the Board has authorized to be executed, except in cases where the signing and execution thereof shall be expressly delegated by the Board or by this Agreement to some other officer or agent of the Company, or shall be required by law to be otherwise signed or executed. The President shall, in general, perform all duties incident to the office of President of a Florida limited liability company and such other duties as may be prescribed by the Board or the Chairman from time to time. Unless otherwise ordered by the Board, the President shall have full power and authority on behalf of the Company to attend, act and vote in person or by proxy at any meetings of shareholders of any corporation in which the Company may hold stock, and at any such meeting shall hold and may exercise all rights incident to the ownership of such stock which the Company, as owner, would have had and could have exercised if present. The Board may confer like powers on any other person or persons.

11.8 Vice President. In the absence of the President, or in the event of the President's death, inability or refusal to act, the Vice President (or, in the event there be more than one Vice President, the Vice Presidents in order designated at the time of their appointment, or in the absence of any designation, then in the order of their appointment), if that office be created and filled, shall perform the duties of the President and when so acting shall have all the powers of, and be subject to all the restrictions upon, the President. Any Vice President may sign certificates for Units and shall perform such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to such person by the Chairman, the President or by the Board.

11.9 Treasurer. The Treasurer, if that office be created and filled, shall have charge and custody of, and be responsible for, all funds and securities of the Company, receive and give receipts for monies due and payable to the Company from any source whatsoever, and deposit all such monies in the name of the Company in such banks, trust companies and other depositories as shall be selected in accordance with the provisions of Section 6.1, and in general, perform all the duties incident to the office of Treasurer of a Florida limited liability company and such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to such person by the Chairman, the President or the Board. If required by the Board, the Treasurer shall give a bond for the faithful discharge of such officer's duties in such sum and with such surety or sureties as the Board shall determine.

11.10 Secretary. The Secretary, if that office be created and filled, shall keep the minutes of the Member's meetings and of the Board's meetings in one or more books provided for that purpose, see that all notices are duly given in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement or as required by law, be custodian of the Company records and of the seal, if any, of the Company, be responsible for authenticating records of the Company, keep a register of the mailing address of the Member, which shall be furnished to the Secretary by the Member, have general charge of the transfer books of the Company, and, in general, perform all duties incident to the office of Secretary of a Florida limited liability company and such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to such person by the Chairman, the President or the Board.

11.11 Assistant Treasurers and Assistant Secretaries.

(a) Assistant Treasurer. The Assistant Treasurer, if that office be created and filled, shall, if required by the Board, give bond for the faithful discharge of such officer's duty in such sum and with such surety as the Board shall determine.

(b) Assistant Secretary. The Assistant Secretary, if that office be created and filled, and if authorized by the Board, may sign, with the President or Vice President, certificates for Units.

(c) Additional Duties. The Assistant Treasurers and Assistant Secretaries, in general, shall perform such additional duties as shall be assigned to them by the Treasurer or the Secretary, respectively, or by the Chairman, the President or the Board.

12. STANDARD OF CARE OF MANAGERS AND OFFICERS; INDEMNIFICATION.

12.1 Standard of Care. The managers and officers of the Company shall not be liable, responsible or accountable in damages to the Member or the Company on account of such manager's or officer's status as a manager or officer of the Company or by reason of any act or omission related to the business of the Company performed or omitted by them in good faith with the care an officer of a Florida limited liability company of like position would exercise under similar circumstances and in a manner reasonably believed by them to be in the best interests of the Company, and, with respect to any criminal proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe their conduct was unlawful. To the extent that, at law or in equity, a manager or officer of the Company has duties (including fiduciary duties) and liabilities relating thereto to the Company, the Member or any other person, such manager or officer acting under this Agreement shall not be liable to the Company, the Member or any other person for breach of fiduciary duty for its good faith reliance on the provisions of this Agreement, and the provisions of this Agreement, to the extent that they restrict or eliminate the duties (including fiduciary duties) and liabilities relating thereto of a manager or officer otherwise existing at law or in equity, are agreed by the Member and the Company to replace such other duties and liabilities of such manager or officer; provided, however, that the foregoing shall not be interpreted or construed so as to eliminate or restrict any fiduciary duty, including, but not limited to, the duties of loyalty, care, good faith and fair dealing, in such a manner as to be contrary to the provisions of Section 605.0105 of the Act.

12.2. Indemnification.

(a) The Company shall indemnify and hold harmless each manager or officer of the Company against reasonable expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees), judgments, taxes, penalties, fines (including any excise tax assessed with respect to an employee benefit plan) and amounts paid in settlement (collectively "Liability"), incurred by such person in connection with defending any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding (whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, and whether formal or informal) to which such person is, or is threatened to be made, a party because such person is or was a manager or officer of the Company, or is or was serving at the request of the Company as a manager, officer, partner, member, employee or agent of another domestic or foreign corporation, partnership, limited liability company, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, including service with respect to employee benefit plans, provided that (i) the manager or officer has met the standard of conduct described in Section 12.1, and (ii) indemnification under this paragraph does not violate the provisions of Section 605.0105 A manager or officer shall be considered to be serving an employee benefit plan at the Company's request if such person's duties to the Company also impose duties on or otherwise involve services by such person to the plan or to participants in or beneficiaries of the plan. The indemnities hereunder shall survive the termination of the Company and this Agreement.

(b) At the request of the manager or officer entitled to indemnification hereunder, the Company shall pay or reimburse reasonable expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees) incurred by a manager or officer who is a party to a proceeding in advance of final disposition of such proceeding if:

(1) The manager or officer furnishes the Company a written affirmation of his good faith belief that he has met the standard of conduct described in Section 12.1;

(2) The manager or officer furnishes the Company a written undertaking, executed personally or on the manager's or officer's behalf, to repay the advance if it is ultimately determined that the manager or officer did not meet the standard of conduct or is otherwise not entitled to indemnification hereunder. Such undertaking shall be an unlimited general obligation of the manager or officer, but shall not be required to be secured and may be accepted without reference to financial ability to make repayment; and

(3) A determination is made that the facts then known to those making the determination would not preclude indemnification under the provisions of this Section 12.2.

(c) The indemnification against Liability and advancement of expenses provided by, or granted pursuant to, this Section 12.2 shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which those seeking indemnification or advancement may be, or hereafter become, entitled under any agreement, action of the Member or disinterested managers or otherwise, both as to action in their official capacity and as to action in another capacity while holding such office of the Company, shall continue as to a person who has ceased to be a manager or officer of the Company, and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors and administrators of such a person.

Any repeal or modification of this Section 12.2 by the Member shall not adversely affect any right or protection of a manager or officer of the Company under this Section 12.2 with respect to any act or omission occurring prior to the time of such repeal or modification.

13. OTHER ACTIVITIES; RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS.

13.1 Other Activities. The managers and officers shall devote such of their time to the affairs of the Company's business as they shall deem necessary. The Member, managers, officers and their Affiliates (as hereinafter defined) may engage in, or possess an interest in, other business ventures of any nature and description, independently or with others, whether or not such activities are competitive with those of the Company. Neither the Company nor the Member shall have any rights by virtue of this Agreement in and to such independent ventures, or to the income or profits derived therefrom. The Member shall not be obligated to present any particular business opportunity of a character which, if presented to the Company, could be taken by the Company, and the Member and its Affiliates shall have the right to take for their own account, or to recommend to others, any such particular business opportunity to the exclusion of the Company. For purposes of this Agreement, the term "Affiliate" shall mean any person, corporation, partnership, limited liability company, trust or other entity (directly or indirectly) controlling, controlled by, or under common control with, another person.

13.2 Related Party Transactions. The fact that a manager, officer or their Affiliates are directly or indirectly interested in or connected with any person, firm or corporation employed by the Company to render or perform a service, or to or from whom the Company may purchase, sell or lease property, shall not prohibit the Company from employing such person, firm or corporation or from otherwise dealing with him or it, and neither the Company, nor the Member, shall have any rights in or to any income or profits derived therefrom. All such dealings with a manager or such manager's Affiliates will be on terms which are competitive and comparable with amounts charged by independent third parties.

14. MEMBERS.

14.1 Limitation on Participation in Management. Except as expressly authorized by this Agreement or as expressly required by the Act, the Member, solely by virtue of its status as the Member, shall not participate in the management or control of the Company's business, transact any business for the Company or have the power to act for or bind the Company, said powers being vested solely and exclusively in the Board and the officers.

14.2 Assignment of Member's Interest. The Member may freely sell, assign, transfer, pledge, hypothecate, encumber or otherwise dispose of the Member's Units. If the member transfers all of its Units, the transferee of such Units shall automatically become a substitute Member in the place of the Member. The Board shall amend Exhibit A from time to time to reflect transfers made in accordance with this Section 14.2.

14.3 Dissociation of Member. Upon the occurrence of any of the events set forth in Section 605.0602 of the Act with respect to the member, the successor-in-interest or personal representative of the Member shall automatically become a substitute Member in place of the Member.

14.4 Certificates for Units.

(a) Certificates representing Units shall be in such form as may be determined by the Board. Such certificates shall be signed by the President or Vice President. The signature of such officer upon such certificates may be signed manually or by facsimile. All certificates for Units shall be consecutively numbered. The name of the person owning the Units represented thereby, with the number of Units and date of issue, shall be entered on the books of the Company. All certificates surrendered to the Company for transfer shall be canceled and no new certificates shall be issued until the former certificates for a like number of Units shall have been surrendered and canceled, except that, in case of a lost, destroyed or mutilated certificate, a new certificate may be issued therefor upon such terms and indemnity to the Company as the Board may prescribe.

(b) A Unit in the Company evidenced by a certificate shall constitute a security governed by Article 8 of the Uniform Commercial Code. Each certificate evidencing membership interests in the Company shall bear the following legend: "This certificate evidences an interest in Rockledge HMA, LLC and shall be a security for purposes of Article 8 of the Uniform Commercial Code." No change to this provision shall be effective until all outstanding certificates have been surrendered for cancellation and any new certificates thereafter issued shall not bear the foregoing legend.

15. DISSOLUTION.

15.1 Dissolution. Except as otherwise provided in the Act, the Company shall dissolve upon the decision of the Member to dissolve the Company or the sale or other disposition of all, or substantially all, of the assets of the Company and the sale and/or collection of any evidence of indebtedness received in connection therewith. Dissolution of the Company shall be effective upon the date specified in the Member's resolution or upon the sale or other disposition of all, or substantially all of the Assets of the Company and the sale and/or collection of any evidence of indebtedness received in connection therewith as applicable, but the Company shall not terminate until the assets of the Company shall have been distributed as provided in Section 15.3 and articles of dissolution are filed with the office of the Secretary of State of the State of Florida pursuant to Section 605.0707 of the Act. Notwithstanding dissolution of the Company, prior to the liquidation and termination of the Company, the Company shall continue to be governed by this Agreement.

15.2 Sale of Assets Upon Dissolution. Following the dissolution of the Company, the Company shall be wound up and the Board shall determine whether the assets of the Company are to be sold or whether some or all of such assets are to be distributed to the Member in kind in liquidation of the Company.

15.3 Distributions Upon Dissolution. Upon the dissolution of the Company, the properties of the Company to be sold shall be liquidated in orderly fashion and the proceeds thereof, and the property to be distributed in kind, shall be distributed as follows:

(a) First, to the payment and discharge of all of the Company's debts and liabilities, to the necessary expenses of liquidation and to the establishment of any cash reserves which the Member determines to create for unmatured and/or contingent liabilities or obligations of the Company.

(b) Second, to the Member.

16. GENERAL.

16.1 Amendment.

(a) Except as provided in Section 16.1(b), this Agreement may be modified or amended from time to time only upon the consent of the Member.

(b) In addition to any amendments authorized by Section 16.1(a), this Agreement may be amended from time to time by the Board without the consent of the Member to cure any ambiguity, to correct or supplement any provision hereof which may be inconsistent with any other provision hereof, or to make any other provisions with respect to matters or questions arising under this Agreement which will not be inconsistent with the provisions of this Agreement.

16.2 Captions; Section References. Section titles or captions contained in this Agreement are inserted only as a matter of convenience and reference, and in no way define, limit, extend or describe the scope of this Agreement, or the intent of any provision hereof. All references herein to Sections shall refer to Sections of this Agreement unless the context clearly requires otherwise.

Unless the context otherwise requires, when used herein, the singular shall include the plural, the plural shall include the singular, and all nouns, pronouns and any variations thereof shall be deemed to refer to the masculine, feminine or neuter, as the identity of the person or persons may require.

16.4 Severability. If any provision of this Agreement, or the application thereof to any person, entity or circumstances, shall be invalid or unenforceable to any extent, the remainder of this Agreement, and the application of such provision to other persons, entities or circumstances, shall not be affected thereby and shall be enforced to the greatest extent permitted by law.

16.5 Binding Agreement. Except as otherwise provided herein, this Agreement shall be binding upon, and inure to the benefit of, the parties hereto and their respective executors, administrators, heirs, successors and assigns.

16.6 Applicable Law. This Agreement shall be governed by, and construed in accordance with, the laws of the State of Florida without regard to its conflict of laws rules.

9. DISTRIBUTIONS.

9.1 Distributions. The Board shall determine, in the Board's sole discretion, the amount and timing of any distributions to the Member and whether such distributions shall be paid in cash or property.

10. BOARD OF DIRECTORS.

10.1 General Powers. All powers of the Company shall be exercised by or under the authority of, and the business and affairs of the Company managed under the direction of, its Board of Directors ("Board"). Initially, there shall be three directors, Martin G. Schweinhart, W. Larry Cash, and Rachel A. Seifert. Except as otherwise expressly provided herein, directors shall be elected at the organizational meeting of the Member and at each annual meeting thereafter. A decrease in the number of directors shall not shorten an incumbent director's term. Each director shall hold office until such director resigns or is removed. Despite the expiration of a director's term, such director shall continue to serve until the director's successor is elected and qualifies, until there is a decrease in the number of directors or the director is removed.

10.3 Resignation of Directors. A director may resign at any time by delivering written notice to the Board, its Chairman (as hereinafter defined), if any, or the Company. A resignation shall be effective when the notice is delivered unless the notice specifies a later effective date.

10.4 Removal of Directors by Member. A director shall be removed by the Member only at a meeting called for the purpose of removing such director and the meeting notice shall state that the purpose, or one of the purposes, of the meeting is removal of the director. 10.6 Compensation of Directors. Directors on the Board shall not be entitled to receive a fee for the director's services as a director on the Board.

10.7 Meetings. The Board may hold regular or special meetings in or out of the State of Mississippi. The Board may permit any or all directors to participate in a regular or special meeting by, or conduct the meeting through the use of, any means of communication by which all directors participating may simultaneously hear each other during the meeting. A director participating in a meeting by this means shall be deemed to be present in person at the meeting.

10.8 Special Meetings. Special meetings of the Board may be called by, or at the request of, the Chairman, if any, or the chief executive officer of the Company. All special meetings of the Board shall be held at the principal office or such other place as may be specified in the notice of the meeting.

10.9 Action Without Meeting. Any action required or permitted to be taken at a Board meeting may be taken without a meeting, without prior notice and without a vote if a consent or consents in writing, setting forth the action so taken, shall be signed by the directors having not less than the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to authorize or take such action at a meeting at which all directors entitled to vote thereon were present and voted.

10.10 Notice of Meetings. Meetings of the Board may be held without notice of the date, time, place or purpose of the meeting.

10.11 Quorum and Voting. A majority of the number of directors fixed by, or determined in accordance with, this Agreement shall constitute a quorum of the Board. If a quorum is present, an affirmative vote by a majority of the number of directors present shall constitute an act of the Board. A director who is present at a meeting of the Board or a committee of the Board when action is taken shall be deemed to have assented to the action taken unless (i) the director objects at the beginning of the meeting, or promptly upon the director' s arrival, to holding the meeting or transacting business at the meeting or (ii) the director's dissent or abstention from the action taken is entered in the minutes of the meeting or the director delivers written notice of the director's dissent or abstention to the presiding officer of the meeting before its adjournment or to the Company immediately after adjournment of the meeting. The right of dissent or abstention shall not be available to a director who votes in favor of the action taken.

10.12 Chairman and Vice Chairman of the Board. The Board may appoint one of its members as Chairman of the Board ("Chairman"). The Board may also appoint one of its members as Vice Chairman of the Board, and such individual shall serve in the absence of the Chairman and perform such additional duties as may be assigned to such person by the Board.

11. OFFICERS.

11.1 Officers Generally. The Company shall have the officers appointed by the Board in accordance with this Agreement. The same individual may simultaneously hold more than one office in the Company. Section 11.10 delegates to the Secretary, if such office be created and filled, the required responsibility of preparing minutes of the Board's and the Member's meetings and for authenticating records of the Company. If such office shall not be created and filled, then the Board shall delegate to one of the officers of the Company such responsibility.

11.2 Duties of Officers. Each officer of the Company shall have the authority and shall perform the duties set forth in this Agreement for such office or, to the extent consistent with this Agreement, the duties prescribed by the Board or by direction of an officer authorized by the Board to prescribe the duties of other officers.

11.3 Appointment and Term of Office. The officers of the Company shall be appointed by the Board. Vacancies may be filled or new offices created and filled at any meeting of the Board. Each officer shall hold office until such officer's successor shall be duly appointed or until the officer's death or until the officer shall resign or shall have been removed in the manner hereinafter provided.

11.4 Resignation and Removal of Officers. An officer may resign at any time by delivering notice to the Company. A resignation shall be effective when the notice is delivered unless the notice specifies a later effective date. If a resignation is made effective at a later date and the Company accepts the future effective date, the Board may fill the pending vacancy before the effective date if the Board provides that the successor shall not take office until the effective date. The Board may remove any officer at any time with or without cause.

11.5 Contract Rights of Officers. Appointment of an officer or agent shall not of itself create contract rights. An officer's removal shall not affect the officer's contract rights, if any, with the Company. An officer's resignation shall not affect the Company's contract rights, if any, with the officer.

11.6 Chairman of the Board. The Chairman, if that office be created and filled, may, at the discretion of the Board, be the chief executive officer of the Company and, if such, shall, in general, supervise and control the affairs and business of the Company, subject to control by the Board. The Chairman shall preside at all meetings of the Member and the Board.

11.7 President. The President, if that office be created and filled, shall be the chief executive officer of the Company, unless a Chairman is appointed and designated chief executive officer pursuant to Section 11.6. If no Chairman has been appointed or, in the absence of the Chairman, the President shall preside at all meetings of the Member. The President may sign certificates for Units, any deeds, mortgages, bonds, contracts or other instruments which the Board has authorized to be executed, except in cases where the signing and execution thereof shall be expressly delegated by the Board or by this Agreement to some other officer or agent of the Company, or shall be required by law to be otherwise signed or executed. The President shall, in general, perform all duties incident to the office of President of a Mississippi corporation and such other duties as may be prescribed by the Board or the Chairman from time to time. Unless otherwise ordered by the Board, the President shall have full power and authority on behalf of the Company to attend, act and vote in person or by proxy at any meetings of shareholders of any corporation in which the Company may hold stock, and at any such meeting shall hold and may exercise all rights incident to the ownership of such stock which the Company, as owner, would have had and could have exercised if present. The Board may confer like powers on any other person or persons.

11.8 Vice President. In the absence of the President, or in the event of the President's death, inability or refusal to act, the Vice President (or, in the event there be more than one Vice President, the Vice Presidents in order designated at the time of their appointment, or in the absence of any designation, then in the order of their appointment), if that office be created and filled, shall perform the duties of the President and when so acting shall have all the powers of, and be subject to all the restrictions upon, the President. Any Vice President may sign certificates for Units and shall perform such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to such person by the Chairman, the President or by the Board.

11.9 Treasurer. The Treasurer, if that office be created and filled, shall have charge and custody of, and be responsible for, all funds and securities of the Company, receive and give receipts for monies due and payable to the Company from any source whatsoever, and deposit all such monies in the name of the Company in such banks, trust companies and other depositories as shall be selected in accordance with the provisions of Section 6.1, and in general, perform all the duties incident to the office of Treasurer of a Mississippi corporation and such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to such person by the Chairman, the President or the Board. If required by the Board, the Treasurer shall give a bond for the faithful discharge of such officer's duties in such sum and with such surety or sureties as the Board shall determine.

11.10 Secretary. The Secretary, if that office be created and filled, shall keep the minutes of the Member's meetings and of the Board's meetings in one or more books provided for that purpose, see that all notices are duly given in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement or as required by law, be custodian of the Company records and of the seal, if any, of the Company, be responsible for authenticating records of the Company, keep a register of the mailing address of the Member, which shall be furnished to the Secretary by the Member, have general charge of the transfer books of the Company, and, in general, perform all duties incident to the office of Secretary of a Mississippi corporation and such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to such person by the Chairman, the President or the Board.

11.11 Assistant Treasurers and Assistant Secretaries.

(a) Assistant Treasurer. The Assistant Treasurer, if that office be created and filled, shall, if required by the Board, give bond for the faithful discharge of such officer's duty in such sum and with such surety as the Board shall determine.

(b) Assistant Secretary. The Assistant Secretary, if that office be created and filled, and if authorized by the Board, may sign, with the President or Vice President, certificates for Units.

(c) Additional Duties. The Assistant Treasurers and Assistant Secretaries, in general, shall perform such additional duties as shall be assigned to them by the Treasurer or the Secretary, respectively, or by the Chairman, the President or the Board.

12. STANDARD OF CARE OF DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS; INDEMNIFICATION.

12.1 Standard of Care. The directors and officers of the Company shall not be liable, responsible or accountable in damages to the Member or the Company on account of such director's or officer's status as a director or officer of the Company or by reason of any act or omission related to the business of the Company performed or omitted by them in good faith and with fair dealing, with the care an ordinarily prudent person in a like position would exercise

under similar circumstances and in a manner reasonably believed by them to be in the best interests of the Company. To the extent that, at law or in equity, a director or officer of the Company has duties (including fiduciary duties) and liabilities relating thereto to the Company, the Member or any other person, such director or officer acting under this Agreement shall not be liable to the Company the Member or any other person for breach of fiduciary duty for its good faith reliance on the provisions of this Agreement, and the provisions of this Agreement , to the extent that they restrict or eliminate the duties (including fiduciary duties) and liabilities relating thereto of a director or officer otherwise existing at law or in equity, are agreed by the Member and the Company to replace such other duties and liabilities of such director or officer.

12.2 Indemnification.

(a) The Company shall indemnify and hold harmless each director or officer of the Company against reasonable expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees), judgments, taxes, penalties, fines (including any excise tax assessed with respect to an employee benefit plan) and amounts paid in settlement (collectively "Liability"), incurred by such person in connection with defending any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding (whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, and whether formal or informal) to which such person is, or is threatened to be made, a party because such person is or was a director or officer of the Company, or is or was serving at the request of the Company as a director, officer, partner, member, employee or agent of another domestic or foreign corporation, partnership, limited liability company, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, including service with respect to employee benefit plans, provided that the director or officer has met the standard of conduct described in Section 12.1. A director or officer shall be considered to be serving an employee benefit plan at the Company's request if such person's duties to the Company also impose duties on or otherwise involve services by such person to the plan or to participants in or beneficiaries of the plan. The indemnities hereunder shall survive the termination of the Company and this Agreement.

(b) At the request of the director or officer entitled to indemnification hereunder, the Company shall pay or reimburse reasonable expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees) incurred by a director or officer who is a party to a proceeding in advance of final disposition of such proceeding if:

(1) The director or officer furnishes the Company a written affirmation of his good faith belief that he has met the standard of conduct described in Section 12.1;

(2) The director or officer furnishes the Company a written undertaking, executed personally or on the director's or officer's behalf, to repay the advance if it is ultimately determined that the director or officer did not meet the standard of conduct or is otherwise not entitled to indemnification hereunder. Such undertaking shall be an unlimited general obligation of the director or officer, but shall not be required to be secured and may be accepted without reference to financial ability to make repayment; and

(3) A determination is made that the facts then known to those making the determination would not preclude indemnification under the provisions of this Section 12.2.

(c) The indemnification against Liability and advancement of expenses provided by, or granted pursuant to, this Section 12.2 shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which those seeking indemnification or advancement may be, or hereafter become, entitled under any agreement, action of the Member or disinterested directors or otherwise, both as to action in their official capacity and as to action in another capacity while holding such office of the Company, shall continue as to a person who has ceased to be a director or officer of the Company, and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors and administrators of such a person.

Any repeal or modification of this Section 12.2 by the Member shall not adversely affect any right or protection of a director or officer of the Company under this Section 12.2 with respect to any act or omission occurring prior to the time of such repeal or modification.

13. OTHER ACTIVITIES; RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS.

13.1 Other Activities. The directors and officers shall devote such of their time to the affairs of the Company's business as they shall deem necessary. The Member, directors, officers and their Affiliates (as hereinafter defined) may engage in, or possess an interest in, other business ventures of any nature and description, independently or with others, whether or not such activities are competitive with those of the Company. Neither the Company nor the Member shall have any rights by virtue of this Agreement in and to such independent ventures, or to the income or profits derived therefrom. The Member shall not be obligated to present any particular business opportunity of a character which, if presented to the Company, could be taken by the Company, and the Member and its Affiliates shall have the right to take for their own account, or to recommend to others, any such particular business opportunity to the exclusion of the Company. For purposes of this Agreement, the term "Affiliate" shall mean any person, corporation, partnership, limited liability company, trust or other entity (directly or indirectly) controlling, controlled by, or under common control with, another person.

13.2 Related Party Transactions. The fact that a director, officer or their Affiliates are directly or indirectly interested in or connected with any person, firm or corporation employed by the Company to render or perform a service, or to or from whom the Company may purchase, sell or lease property, shall not prohibit the Company from employing such person, firm or corporation or from otherwise dealing with him or it, and neither the Company, nor the Member, shall have any rights in or to any income or profits derived therefrom. All such dealings with a director or such director's Affiliates will be on terms which are competitive and comparable with amounts charged by independent third parties.

14. MEMBERS.

14.1 Limitation on Participation in Management. Except as expressly authorized by this Agreement or as expressly required by the Act, the Member, solely by virtue of its status as the Member, shall not participate in the management or control of the Company's business, transact any business for the Company or have the power to act for or bind the Company, said powers being vested solely and exclusively in the Board and the officers.

14.2 Assignment of Member's Interest. The Member may freely sell, assign, transfer, pledge, hypothecate, encumber or otherwise dispose of the Member's Units. If the member transfers all of its Units, the transferee of such Units shall automatically become a substitute Member in the place of the Member. The Board shall amend Exhibit A from time to time to reflect transfers made in accordance with this Section 14.2.

14.3 Bankruptcy, Dissolution, Etc. of Member. Upon the occurrence of any of the events set forth in Sections 79-29-313(3) or 79-29-709 of the Act with respect to the member, the successor-in-interest or personal representative of the Member shall automatically become a substitute Member in place of the Member.

14.4 Certificates for Units.

(a) Certificates representing Units shall be in such form as may be determined by the Board. Such certificates shall be signed by the President or Vice President. The signature of such officer upon such certificates may be signed manually or by facsimile. All certificates for Units shall be consecutively numbered. The name of the person owning the Units represented thereby, with the number of Units and date of issue, shall be entered on the books of the Company. All certificates surrendered to the Company for transfer shall be canceled and no new certificates shall be issued until the former certificates for a like number of Units shall have been surrendered and canceled, except that, in case of a lost, destroyed or mutilated certificate, a new certificate may be issued therefor upon such terms and indemnity to the Company as the Board may prescribe.

(b) A Unit in the Company evidenced by a certificate shall constitute a security governed by Article 8 of the Uniform Commercial Code. Each certificate evidencing membership interests in the Company shall bear the following legend: "This certificate evidences an interest in ROH, LLC and shall be a security or purposes of Article 8 of the Uniform Commercial Code." No change to this provision shall be effective until all outstanding certificates have been surrendered for cancellation and any new certificates thereafter issued shall not bear the foregoing legend.

15. DISSOLUTION.

15.1 Dissolution. Except as otherwise provided in the Act, the Company shall dissolve upon the decision of the Member to dissolve the Company or the sale or other disposition of all, or substantially all, of the assets of the Company and the sale and/or collection of any evidence of indebtedness received in connection therewith. Dissolution of the Company shall be effective upon the date specified in the Member's resolution or upon the sale or other disposition of all, or substantially all of the Assets of the Company and the sale and/or collection of any evidence of indebtedness received in connection therewith as applicable, but the Company shall not terminate until the assets of the Company shall have been distributed as provided in Section 15.3 and a certificate of dissolution of the certificate of formation of the Company is filed with the office of the Secretary of State of the State of Mississippi pursuant to Section 79-29-205 of the Act. Notwithstanding dissolution of the Company, prior to the liquidation and termination of the Company, the Company shall continue to be governed by this Agreement.

15.2 Sale of Assets Upon Dissolution. Following the dissolution of the Company, the Company shall be wound up and the Board shall determine whether the assets of the Company are to be sold or whether some or all of such assets are to be distributed to the Member in kind in liquidation of the Company.

15.3 Distributions Upon Dissolution. Upon the dissolution of the Company, the properties of the Company to be sold shall be liquidated in orderly fashion and the proceeds thereof, and the property to be distributed in kind, shall be distributed as follows:

(a) First, to the payment and discharge of all of the Company's debts and liabilities, to the necessary expenses of liquidation and to the establishment of any cash reserves which the Member determines to create for unmatured and/or contingent liabilities or obligations of the Company.

(b) Second, to the Member.

16. GENERAL.

16.1* Amendment.

(a) Except as provided in Section 16.1(b), this Agreement may be modified or amended from time to time only upon the consent of the Member.

(b) In addition to any amendments authorized by Section 16.1(a), this Agreement may be amended from time to time by the Board without the consent of the Member to cure any ambiguity, to correct or supplement any provision hereof which may be inconsistent with any other provision hereof, or to make any other provisions with respect to matters or questions arising under this Agreement which will not be inconsistent with the provisions of this Agreement.

16.2 Captions; Section References. Section titles or captions contained in this Agreement are inserted only as a matter of convenience and reference, and in no way define, limit, extend or describe the scope of this Agreement, or the intent of any provision hereof. All references herein to Sections shall refer to Sections of this Agreement unless the context clearly requires otherwise.

Unless the context otherwise requires, when used herein, the singular shall include the plural, the plural shall include the singular, and all nouns, pronouns and any variations thereof shall be deemed to refer to the masculine, feminine or neuter, as the identity of the person or persons may require.

16.4 Severability. If any provision of this Agreement, or the application thereof to any person, entity or circumstances, shall be invalid or unenforceable to any extent, the remainder of this Agreement, and the application of such provision to other persons, entities or circumstances, shall not be affected thereby and shall be enforced to the greatest extent permitted by law.

16.5 Binding Agreement. Except as otherwise provided herein, this Agreement shall be binding upon, and inure to the benefit of, the parties hereto and their respective executors, administrators, heirs, successors and assigns.

16.6 Applicable Law. This Agreement shall be governed by, and construed in accordance with, the laws of the State of Mississippi without regard to its conflict of laws rules.

16.7 Entire Agreement. This Agreement contains the entire agreement with respect to the subject matter hereof.

A. Rights to Indemnification. Each person who was or is made a party or is threatened to be made a party to or is otherwise involved in any action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (hereinafter, a "proceeding"), by reason of the fact that he or she, or a person of whom he or she is a legal representative, or is or was a director or officer of the Corporation or is only serving at the request of the Corporation as a director or officer of another Corporation or of a partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, including service with respect to an employee benefit plan (hereinafter an "indemnitee"), whether the basis of such proceeding is alleged action in an official capacity or as a director or officer or in any other capacity while serving as a director or officer, shall be indemnified and held harmless by the Corporation to the fullest extent authorized by the Delaware Code as the same exists or may hereafter be amended (but, in the case of any such amendment, only to the extent that such amendment permits the Corporation to provide broader indemnification rights than permitted prior thereto), against all expense, liability and loss (including, without limitation, attorneys' fees, judgments, fines, excise taxes or penalties and amounts paid or to be paid in settlement) incurred or suffered by such indemnitee in connection therewith and such indemnification shall continue with respect to an indemnitee who has ceased to be a director or officer and shall inure to the benefit of the indemnitee's heirs, executors and administrators; provided, however, that except as provided in paragraph (B) hereof with respect to proceedings to enforce rights to indemnification, the Corporation shall indemnify any such indemnitee in connection with a proceeding initiated by such indemnitee only if such proceeding was authorized by the Board of Directors of the Corporation. The right to indemnification conferred in this Article shall be a contract right and shall include the right to be paid by the Corporation the expenses incurred in defending any such proceeding in advance of its final disposition (hereinafter an "advancement of expenses"); provided, however, that if the Delaware Code requires, an advancement of expenses incurred by an indemnitee shall be made only upon delivery to the Corporation of an undertaking (hereinafter an "undertaking"), by or on behalf of such indemnitee, to repay all amounts so advanced if it shall ultimately be determined by final judicial decision from which there is no further right to appeal (hereinafter a "final adjudication") that such indemnitee is not entitled to be indemnified for such expenses under this Article or otherwise.

B. Rights of Indemnitee to Bring Suit. If a claim under paragraph (A) of this Article is not paid in full by the Corporation within sixty days after a written claim has been received by the Corporation (except in the case of a claim for an advancement of expenses, in which case the applicable period shall be twenty days), the indemnitee may at any time thereafter bring suit against the Corporation to recover the unpaid amount of the claim. If successful in whole or in part in any such suit, the indemnitee shall also be entitled to be paid the expense of prosecuting or defending such suit In (i) any suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right to indemnification hereunder (but not a suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right to an advancement of expenses) it shall be a defense that, and (ii) in any suit by the Corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking, the Corporation shall be entitled to recover such expenses upon a final adjudication that, the indemnitee has not met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in the Delaware Code. Neither the failure of the Corporation (including its Board of Directors, independent counsel or its stockholders) to have made a determination prior to the commencement of such suit that indemnification of the indemnitee has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in the Delaware Code, nor an actual determination by the Corporation (including its Board of Directors, independent legal counsel or its stockholders) that the indemnitee has not met such applicable standard of conduct, or in the case of such a suit brought by the indemnitee, shall be a defense to such suit. In any suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right to indemnification or to an advancement of expenses hereunder or by the Corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking, the burden of proving that the indemnitee is not entitled under this Article or otherwise to be indemnified, or to such advancement of expenses, shall be on the Corporation.

(b) To engage in such other lawful activities in which a limited liability company may engage under the Act as is determined by the Board from time to time.

(c) To do all other things necessary or desirable in connection with the foregoing, or otherwise contemplated in this Agreement.

3.2 Company's Power. In furtherance of the purpose of the Company as set forth in Section 3.1, the Company shall have the power to do any and all things whatsoever necessary, appropriate or advisable in connection with such purpose, or as otherwise contemplated in this Agreement.

3.3 Term. The term of the Company as a limited liability company shall commence as of the date of the filing of a Articles of Organization with the Florida Secretary of State's Office, and shall continue until dissolved in accordance with Section 15.

4. CAPITAL.

The Member has contributed the cash or other property identified on, and has been issued the number of Units listed on, Exhibit A. The Member may, but shall not be required to, make additional capital contributions to the Company from time to time.

5. ACCOUNTING.

5.1 Books and Records. The Company shall maintain full and accurate books of the Company at the Company's principal place of business, or such other place as the Board shall determine, showing all receipts and expenditures, assets and liabilities, net income and loss, and all other records necessary for recording the Company's business and affairs. Such books and records shall be open to the inspection and examination of the Member in person or by its duly authorized representatives at all reasonable times.

7. NET INCOME AND NET LOSS.

7.1 Net Income and Net Loss. All net income or net loss of the Company shall be for the account of the Member.

8. FEDERAL INCOME TAX ELECTIONS.

8.1 Tax Treatment. It is the intention of the Member that for Federal, state and local income tax purposes the Company be disregarded as an entity separate from the Member in accordance with the provisions of Treas. Reg. §§ 301.7701-2(c)(2)(i) and 301.7701-3(b)(1)(ii). The Member shall take all actions which may be necessary or required in order for the Company to be so disregarded for income tax purposes.

9. DISTRIBUTIONS.

9.1 Distributions. The Board shall determine, in the Board's sole discretion, the amount and timing of any distributions to the Member and whether such distributions shall be paid in cash or property.

10. BOARD OF MANAGERS.

10.1 General Powers. All powers of the Company shall be exercised by or under the authority of, and the business and affairs of the Company managed under the direction of, its Board of Managers ("Board").

10.2 Number, Election and Term. The Board shall consist of not less than one, nor more than seven individual managers, the exact number of which shall be determined by the Board from time to time. Initially, there shall be three managers, Martin G. Schweinhart, W. Larry Cash and Rachel A. Seifert. Except as otherwise expressly provided herein, managers shall be elected at the organizational meeting of the Member and at each annual meeting thereafter. A decrease in the number of managers shall not shorten an incumbent manager's term. Each manager shall hold office until such manager resigns or is removed. Despite the expiration of a manager's term, such manager shall continue to serve until the manager's successor is elected and qualifies, until there is a decrease in the number of managers or the manager is removed.

10.3 Resignation of Managers. A manager may resign at any time by delivering written notice to the Board, its Chairman (as hereinafter defined), if any, or the Company. A resignation shall be effective when the notice is delivered unless the notice specifies a later effective date.

10.4 Removal of Managers by Member. A manager shall be removed by the Member only at a meeting called for the purpose of removing such manager and the meeting notice shall state that the purpose, or one of the purposes, of the meeting is removal of the manager. The Member may remove one or more managers with or without cause.

10.5 Vacancy on Board. If a vacancy occurs on the Board, including a vacancy resulting from an increase in the number of managers, the Board shall fill the vacancy, and if the managers remaining in office constitute fewer than a quorum of the Board, they may fill the vacancy by the affirmative vote of a majority of all the managers remaining in office. A vacancy that will occur at a specific later date may be filled before the vacancy occurs, but the new manager may not take office until the vacancy occurs.

10.6 Compensation of Managers. Managers on the Board shall not be entitled to receive a fee for the manager's services as a manager on the Board.

10.7 Meetings. The Board may hold regular or special meetings in or out of the State of Florida. The Board may permit any or all managers to participate in a regular or special meeting by, or conduct the meeting through the use of, any means of communication by which all managers participating may simultaneously hear each other during the meeting. A manager participating in a meeting by this means shall be deemed to be present in person at the meeting.

10.8 Special Meetings. Special meetings of the Board may be called by, or at the request of, the Chairman, if any, or the chief executive officer of the Company. All special meetings of the Board shall be held at the principal office or such other place as may be specified in the notice of the meeting.

10.9 Action Without Meeting. Any action required or permitted to be taken at a Board meeting may be taken without a meeting, without prior notice and without a vote if a consent or consents in writing, setting forth the action so taken, shall be signed by the managers having not less than the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to authorize or take such action at a meeting at which all managers entitled to vote thereon were present and voted.

10.10 Notice of Meetings. Meetings of the Board may be held without notice of the date, time, place or purpose of the meeting.

10.11 Quorum and Voting. A majority of the number of managers fixed by, or determined in accordance with, this Agreement shall constitute a quorum of the Board. If a quorum is present, an affirmative vote by a majority of the number of managers present shall constitute an act of the Board. A manager who is present at a meeting of the Board or a committee of the Board when action is taken shall be deemed to have assented to the action taken unless (i) the manager objects at the beginning of the meeting, or promptly upon the manager' s arrival, to holding the meeting or transacting business at the meeting or (ii) the manager's dissent or abstention from the action taken is entered in the minutes of the meeting or the manager delivers written notice of the manager's dissent or abstention to the presiding officer of the meeting before its adjournment or to the Company immediately after adjournment of the meeting. The right of dissent or abstention shall not be available to a manager who votes in favor of the action taken.

10.12 Chairman and Vice Chairman of the Board. The Board may appoint one of its members as Chairman of the Board ("Chairman"). The Board may also appoint one of its members as Vice Chairman of the Board, and such individual shall serve in the absence of the Chairman and perform such additional duties as may be assigned to such person by the Board.

11. OFFICERS.

11.1 Officers Generally. The Company shall have the officers appointed by the Board in accordance with this Agreement. The same individual may simultaneously hold more than one office in the Company. Section 11.10 delegates to the Secretary, if such office be created and filled, the required responsibility of preparing minutes of the Board's and the Member's meetings and for authenticating records of the Company. If such office shall not be created and filled, then the Board shall delegate to one of the officers of the Company such responsibility.

11.2 Duties of Officers. Each officer of the Company shall have the authority and shall perform the duties set forth in this Agreement for such office or, to the extent consistent with this Agreement, the duties prescribed by the Board or by direction of an officer authorized by the Board to prescribe the duties of other officers.

11.3 Appointment and Term of Office. The officers of the Company shall be appointed by the Board. Vacancies may be filled or new offices created and filled at any meeting of the Board. Each officer shall hold office until such officer's successor shall be duly appointed or until the officer's death or until the officer shall resign or shall have been removed in the manner hereinafter provided.

11.4 Resignation and Removal of Officers. An officer may resign at any time by delivering notice to the Company. A resignation shall be effective when the notice is delivered unless the notice specifies a later effective date. If a resignation is made effective at a later date and the Company accepts the future effective date, the Board may fill the pending vacancy before the effective date if the Board provides that the successor shall not take office until the effective date. The Board may remove any officer at any time with or without cause.

11.5 Contract Rights of Officers. Appointment of an officer or agent shall not of itself create contract rights. An officer's removal shall not affect the officer's contract rights, if any, with the Company. An officer's resignation shall not affect the Company's contract rights, if any, with the officer.

11.6 Chairman of the Board. The Chairman, if that office be created and filled, may, at the discretion of the Board, be the chief executive officer of the Company and, if such, shall, in general, supervise and control the affairs and business of the Company, subject to control by the Board. The Chairman shall preside at all meetings of the Member and the Board.

11.7 President. The President, if that office be created and filled, shall be the chief executive officer of the Company, unless a Chairman is appointed and designated chief executive officer pursuant to Section 11.6. If no Chairman has been appointed or, in the absence of the Chairman, the President shall preside at all meetings of the Member. The President may sign certificates for Units, any deeds, mortgages, bonds, contracts or other instruments which the Board has authorized to be executed, except in cases where the signing and execution thereof shall be expressly delegated by the Board or by this Agreement to some other officer or agent of the Company, or shall be required by law to be otherwise signed or executed. The President shall, in general, perform all duties incident to the office of President of a Florida limited liability company and such other duties as may be prescribed by the Board or the Chairman from time to time. Unless otherwise ordered by the Board, the President shall have full power and authority on behalf of the Company to attend, act and vote in person or by proxy at any meetings of shareholders of any corporation in which the Company may hold stock, and at any such meeting shall hold and may exercise all rights incident to the ownership of such stock which the Company, as owner, would have had and could have exercised if present. The Board may confer like powers on any other person or persons.

11.8 Vice President. In the absence of the President, or in the event of the President's death, inability or refusal to act, the Vice President (or, in the event there be more than one Vice President, the Vice Presidents in order designated at the time of their appointment, or in the absence of any designation, then in the order of their appointment), if that office be created and filled, shall perform the duties of the President and when so acting shall have all the powers of, and be subject to all the restrictions upon, the President. Any Vice President may sign certificates for Units and shall perform such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to such person by the Chairman, the President or by the Board.

11.9 Treasurer. The Treasurer, if that office be created and filled, shall have charge and custody of, and be responsible for, all funds and securities of the Company, receive and give receipts for monies due and payable to the Company from any source whatsoever, and deposit all such monies in the name of the Company in such banks, trust companies and other depositories as shall be selected in accordance with the provisions of Section 6.1, and in general, perform all the duties incident to the office of Treasurer of a Florida limited liability company and such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to such person by the Chairman, the President or the Board. If required by the Board, the Treasurer shall give a bond for the faithful discharge of such officer's duties in such sum and with such surety or sureties as the Board shall determine.

11.10 Secretary. The Secretary, if that office be created and filled, shall keep the minutes of the Member's meetings and of the Board's meetings in one or more books provided for that purpose, see that all notices are duly given in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement or as required by law, be custodian of the Company records and of the seal, if any, of the Company, be responsible for authenticating records of the Company, keep a register of the mailing address of the Member, which shall be furnished to the Secretary by the Member, have general charge of the transfer books of the Company, and, in general, perform all duties incident to the office of Secretary of a Florida limited liability company and such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to such person by the Chairman, the President or the Board.

11.11 Assistant Treasurers and Assistant Secretaries.

(a) Assistant Treasurer. The Assistant Treasurer, if that office be created and filled, shall, if required by the Board, give bond for the faithful discharge of such officer's duty in such sum and with such surety as the Board shall determine.

(b) Assistant Secretary. The Assistant Secretary, if that office be created and filled, and if authorized by the Board, may sign, with the President or Vice President, certificates for Units.

(c) Additional Duties. The Assistant Treasurers and Assistant Secretaries, in general, shall perform such additional duties as shall be assigned to them by the Treasurer or the Secretary, respectively, or by the Chairman, the President or the Board.

12. STANDARD OF CARE OF MANAGERS AND OFFICERS; INDEMNIFICATION.

12.1 Standard of Care. The managers and officers of the Company shall not be liable, responsible or accountable in damages to the Member or the Company on account of such manager's or officer's status as a manager or officer of the Company or by reason of any act or omission related to the business of the Company performed or omitted by them in good faith with the care an officer of a Florida limited liability company of like position would exercise under similar circumstances and in a manner reasonably believed by them to be in the best interests of the Company, and, with respect to any criminal proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe their conduct was unlawful. To the extent that, at law or in equity, a manager or officer of the Company has duties (including fiduciary duties) and liabilities relating thereto to the Company, the Member or any other person, such manager or officer acting under this Agreement shall not be liable to the Company, the Member or any other person for breach of fiduciary duty for its good faith reliance on the provisions of this Agreement, and the provisions of this Agreement, to the extent that they restrict or eliminate the duties (including fiduciary duties) and liabilities relating thereto of a manager or officer otherwise existing at law or in equity, are agreed by the Member and the Company to replace such other duties and liabilities of such manager or officer; provided, however, that the foregoing shall not be interpreted or construed so as to eliminate or restrict any fiduciary duty, including, but not limited to, the duties of loyalty, care, good faith and fair dealing, in such a manner as to be contrary to the provisions of Section 605.0105 of the Act.

12.2. Indemnification.

(a) The Company shall indemnify and hold harmless each manager or officer of the Company against reasonable expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees), judgments, taxes, penalties, fines (including any excise tax assessed with respect to an employee benefit plan) and amounts paid in settlement (collectively "Liability"), incurred by such person in connection with defending any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding (whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, and whether formal or informal) to which such person is, or is threatened to be made, a party because such person is or was a manager or officer of the Company, or is or was serving at the request of the Company as a manager, officer, partner, member, employee or agent of another domestic or foreign corporation, partnership, limited liability company, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, including service with respect to employee benefit plans, provided that (i) the manager or officer has met the standard of conduct described in Section 12.1, and (ii) indemnification under this paragraph does not violate the provisions of Section 605.0105 A manager or officer shall be considered to be serving an employee benefit plan at the Company's request if such person's duties to the Company also impose duties on or otherwise involve services by such person to the plan or to participants in or beneficiaries of the plan. The indemnities hereunder shall survive the termination of the Company and this Agreement.

(b) At the request of the manager or officer entitled to indemnification hereunder, the Company shall pay or reimburse reasonable expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees) incurred by a manager or officer who is a party to a proceeding in advance of final disposition of such proceeding if:

(1) The manager or officer furnishes the Company a written affirmation of his good faith belief that he has met the standard of conduct described in Section 12.1;

(2) The manager or officer furnishes the Company a written undertaking, executed personally or on the manager's or officer's behalf, to repay the advance if it is ultimately determined that the manager or officer did not meet the standard of conduct or is otherwise not entitled to indemnification hereunder. Such undertaking shall be an unlimited general obligation of the manager or officer, but shall not be required to be secured and may be accepted without reference to financial ability to make repayment; and

(3) A determination is made that the facts then known to those making the determination would not preclude indemnification under the provisions of this Section 12.2.

(c) The indemnification against Liability and advancement of expenses provided by, or granted pursuant to, this Section 12.2 shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which those seeking indemnification or advancement may be, or hereafter become, entitled under any agreement, action of the Member or disinterested managers or otherwise, both as to action in their official capacity and as to action in another capacity while holding such office of the Company, shall continue as to a person who has ceased to be a manager or officer of the Company, and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors and administrators of such a person.

Any repeal or modification of this Section 12.2 by the Member shall not adversely affect any right or protection of a manager or officer of the Company under this Section 12.2 with respect to any act or omission occurring prior to the time of such repeal or modification.

13. OTHER ACTIVITIES; RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS.

13.1 Other Activities. The managers and officers shall devote such of their time to the affairs of the Company's business as they shall deem necessary. The Member, managers, officers and their Affiliates (as hereinafter defined) may engage in, or possess an interest in, other business ventures of any nature and description, independently or with others, whether or not such activities are competitive with those of the Company. Neither the Company nor the Member shall have any rights by virtue of this Agreement in and to such independent ventures, or to the income or profits derived therefrom. The Member shall not be obligated to present any particular business opportunity of a character which, if presented to the Company, could be taken by the Company, and the Member and its Affiliates shall have the right to take for their own account, or to recommend to others, any such particular business opportunity to the exclusion of the Company. For purposes of this Agreement, the term "Affiliate" shall mean any person, corporation, partnership, limited liability company, trust or other entity (directly or indirectly) controlling, controlled by, or under common control with, another person.

13.2 Related Party Transactions. The fact that a manager, officer or their Affiliates are directly or indirectly interested in or connected with any person, firm or corporation employed by the Company to render or perform a service, or to or from whom the Company may purchase, sell or lease property, shall not prohibit the Company from employing such person, firm or corporation or from otherwise dealing with him or it, and neither the Company, nor the Member, shall have any rights in or to any income or profits derived therefrom. All such dealings with a manager or such manager's Affiliates will be on terms which are competitive and comparable with amounts charged by independent third parties.

14. MEMBERS.

14.1 Limitation on Participation in Management. Except as expressly authorized by this Agreement or as expressly required by the Act, the Member, solely by virtue of its status as the Member, shall not participate in the management or control of the Company's business, transact any business for the Company or have the power to act for or bind the Company, said powers being vested solely and exclusively in the Board and the officers.

14.2 Assignment of Member's Interest. The Member may freely sell, assign, transfer, pledge, hypothecate, encumber or otherwise dispose of the Member's Units. If the member transfers all of its Units, the transferee of such Units shall automatically become a substitute Member in the place of the Member. The Board shall amend Exhibit A from time to time to reflect transfers made in accordance with this Section 14.2.

14.3 Dissociation of Member. Upon the occurrence of any of the events set forth in Section 605.0602 of the Act with respect to the member, the successor-in-interest or personal representative of the Member shall automatically become a substitute Member in place of the Member.

14.4 Certificates for Units.

(a) Certificates representing Units shall be in such form as may be determined by the Board. Such certificates shall be signed by the President or Vice President. The signature of such officer upon such certificates may be signed manually or by facsimile. All certificates for Units shall be consecutively numbered. The name of the person owning the Units represented thereby, with the number of Units and date of issue, shall be entered on the books of the Company. All certificates surrendered to the Company for transfer shall be canceled and no new certificates shall be issued until the former certificates for a like number of Units shall have been surrendered and canceled, except that, in case of a lost, destroyed or mutilated certificate, a new certificate may be issued therefor upon such terms and indemnity to the Company as the Board may prescribe.

(b) A Unit in the Company evidenced by a certificate shall constitute a security governed by Article 8 of the Uniform Commercial Code. Each certificate evidencing membership interests in the Company shall bear the following legend: "This certificate evidences an interest in Sebastian Hospital, LLC and shall be a security for purposes of Article 8 of the Uniform Commercial Code." No change to this provision shall be effective until all outstanding certificates have been surrendered for cancellation and any new certificates thereafter issued shall not bear the foregoing legend.

15. DISSOLUTION.

15.1 Dissolution. Except as otherwise provided in the Act, the Company shall dissolve upon the decision of the Member to dissolve the Company or the sale or other disposition of all, or substantially all, of the assets of the Company and the sale and/or collection of any evidence of indebtedness received in connection therewith. Dissolution of the Company shall be effective upon the date specified in the Member's resolution or upon the sale or other disposition of all, or substantially all of the Assets of the Company and the sale and/or collection of any evidence of indebtedness received in connection therewith as applicable, but the Company shall not terminate until the assets of the Company shall have been distributed as provided in Section 15.3 and articles of dissolution are filed with the office of the Secretary of State of the State of Florida pursuant to Section 605.0707 of the Act. Notwithstanding dissolution of the Company, prior to the liquidation and termination of the Company, the Company shall continue to be governed by this Agreement.

15.2 Sale of Assets Upon Dissolution. Following the dissolution of the Company, the Company shall be wound up and the Board shall determine whether the assets of the Company are to be sold or whether some or all of such assets are to be distributed to the Member in kind in liquidation of the Company.

15.3 Distributions Upon Dissolution. Upon the dissolution of the Company, the properties of the Company to be sold shall be liquidated in orderly fashion and the proceeds thereof, and the property to be distributed in kind, shall be distributed as follows:

(a) First, to the payment and discharge of all of the Company's debts and liabilities, to the necessary expenses of liquidation and to the establishment of any cash reserves which the Member determines to create for unmatured and/or contingent liabilities or obligations of the Company.

(b) Second, to the Member.

16. GENERAL.

16.1 Amendment.

(a) Except as provided in Section 16.1(b), this Agreement may be modified or amended from time to time only upon the consent of the Member.

(b) In addition to any amendments authorized by Section 16.1(a), this Agreement may be amended from time to time by the Board without the consent of the Member to cure any ambiguity, to correct or supplement any provision hereof which may be inconsistent with any other provision hereof, or to make any other provisions with respect to matters or questions arising under this Agreement which will not be inconsistent with the provisions of this Agreement.

16.2 Captions; Section References. Section titles or captions contained in this Agreement are inserted only as a matter of convenience and reference, and in no way define, limit, extend or describe the scope of this Agreement, or the intent of any provision hereof. 2. NAME AND OFFICE.

2.1 Name. The name of the Company shall be Sebring Hospital Management Associates, LLC.

2.2 Principal Office. The principal office of the Company shall be at 4000 Meridian Blvd., Franklin, Tennessee 37067, or at such other place as shall be determined by the Board (as hereinafter defined). The books of the Company shall be maintained at such principal place of business or such other place that the Board shall deem appropriate. The registered agent of the Company for service of process at such address is Corporation Service Company. Such registered office and registered agent may be changed by the Board from time to time.

3. PURPOSE AND TERM.

3.1 Purpose. The purposes of the Company are as follows:

(a) To acquire, own, manage and operate certain healthcare facilities.

(b) To engage in such other lawful activities in which a limited liability company may engage under the Act as is determined by the Board from time to time.

(c) To do all other things necessary or desirable in connection with the foregoing, or otherwise contemplated in this Agreement.

3.2 Company's Power. In furtherance of the purpose of the Company as set forth in Section 3.1, the Company shall have the power to do any and all things whatsoever necessary, appropriate or advisable in connection with such purpose, or as otherwise contemplated in this Agreement.

3.3 Term. The term of the Company as a limited liability company shall commence as of the date of the filing of a Articles of Organization with the Florida Secretary of State's Office, and shall continue until dissolved in accordance with Section 15.

4. CAPITAL.

4.1 Initial Capital Contribution of Member. The limited liability company interests in the Company shall be divided into units ("Units"). The total number of Units that the Company is initially authorized to issue is 100 Units. The Member has contributed the cash or other property identified on, and has been issued the number of Units listed on, Exhibit A. The Member may, but shall not be required to, make additional capital contributions to the Company from time to time.

4.2 No Liability of Member. Except as otherwise specifically provided in the Act, the Member shall not have any personal liability for the obligations of the Company. Except as provided in Section 4.1, the Member shall not be obligated to contribute funds or loan money to the Company.

4.3 No Interest on Capital Contributions. The Member shall not be entitled to interest on any capital contributions made to the Company.

5. ACCOUNTING.

5.1 Books and Records. The Company shall maintain full and accurate books of the Company at the Company's principal place of business, or such other place as the Board shall determine, showing all receipts and expenditures, assets and liabilities, net income and loss, and all other records necessary for recording the Company's business and affairs. Such books and records shall be open to the inspection and examination of the Member in person or by its duly authorized representatives at all reasonable times.

5.2 Fiscal Year. The fiscal year of the Company shall be the calendar year.

6. BANK ACCOUNTS.

6.1 Bank Accounts. All funds of the Company shall be deposited in its name into such checking, savings and/or money market accounts or time certificates as shall be designated by the Board. Withdrawals therefrom shall be made upon such signature or signatures as the Board may designate. The Board shall be entitled to make withdrawals from such accounts to invest such funds in connection with the cash management system employed by CHS/Community Health Systems, Inc., an affiliated company, on behalf of its affiliated hospitals and health care facilities.

7. NET INCOME AND NET LOSS.

7.1 Net Income and Net Loss. All net income or net loss of the Company shall be for the account of the Member.

8. FEDERAL INCOME TAX ELECTIONS.

8.1 Tax Treatment. It is the intention of the Member that for Federal, state and local income tax purposes the Company be disregarded as an entity separate from the Member in accordance with the provisions of Treas. Reg. §§ 301.7701-2(c)(2)(i) and 301.7701-3(b)(1)(ii). The Member shall take all actions which may be necessary or required in order for the Company to be so disregarded for income tax purposes.

9. DISTRIBUTIONS.

9.1 Distributions. The Board shall determine, in the Board's sole discretion, the amount and timing of any distributions to the Member and whether such distributions shall be paid in cash or property.

10. BOARD OF MANAGERS.

10.1 General Powers. All powers of the Company shall be exercised by or under the authority of, and the business and affairs of the Company managed under the direction of, its Board of Managers ("Board").

10.2 Number, Election and Term. The Board shall consist of not less than one, nor more than seven individual managers, the exact number of which shall be determined by the Board from time to time. Initially, there shall be three managers, Martin G. Schweinhart, W. Larry Cash and Rachel A. Seifert. Except as otherwise expressly provided herein, managers shall be elected at the organizational meeting of the Member and at each annual meeting thereafter. A decrease in the number of managers shall not shorten an incumbent manager's term. Each manager shall hold office until such manager resigns or is removed. Despite the expiration of a manager's term, such manager shall continue to serve until the manager's successor is elected and qualifies, until there is a decrease in the number of managers or the manager is removed.

10.3 Resignation of Managers. A manager may resign at any time by delivering written notice to the Board, its Chairman (as hereinafter defined), if any, or the Company. A resignation shall be effective when the notice is delivered unless the notice specifies a later effective date.

10.4 Removal of Managers by Member. A manager shall be removed by the Member only at a meeting called for the purpose of removing such manager and the meeting notice shall state that the purpose, or one of the purposes, of the meeting is removal of the manager. The Member may remove one or more managers with or without cause.

10.5 Vacancy on Board. If a vacancy occurs on the Board, including a vacancy resulting from an increase in the number of managers, the Board shall fill the vacancy, and if the managers remaining in office constitute fewer than a quorum of the Board, they may fill the vacancy by the affirmative vote of a majority of all the managers remaining in office. A vacancy that will occur at a specific later date may be filled before the vacancy occurs, but the new manager may not take office until the vacancy occurs.

10.6 Compensation of Managers. Managers on the Board shall not be entitled to receive a fee for the manager's services as a manager on the Board.

10.7 Meetings. The Board may hold regular or special meetings in or out of the State of Florida. The Board may permit any or all managers to participate in a regular or special meeting by, or conduct the meeting through the use of, any means of communication by which all managers participating may simultaneously hear each other during the meeting. A manager participating in a meeting by this means shall be deemed to be present in person at the meeting.

10.8 Special Meetings. Special meetings of the Board may be called by, or at the request of, the Chairman, if any, or the chief executive officer of the Company. All special meetings of the Board shall be held at the principal office or such other place as may be specified in the notice of the meeting.

10.9 Action Without Meeting. Any action required or permitted to be taken at a Board meeting may be taken without a meeting, without prior notice and without a vote if a consent or consents in writing, setting forth the action so taken, shall be signed by the managers having not less than the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to authorize or take such action at a meeting at which all managers entitled to vote thereon were present and voted.

10.10 Notice of Meetings. Meetings of the Board may be held without notice of the date, time, place or purpose of the meeting.

10.11 Quorum and Voting. A majority of the number of managers fixed by, or determined in accordance with, this Agreement shall constitute a quorum of the Board. If a quorum is present, an affirmative vote by a majority of the number of managers present shall constitute an act of the Board. A manager who is present at a meeting of the Board or a committee of the Board when action is taken shall be deemed to have assented to the action taken unless (i) the manager objects at the beginning of the meeting, or promptly upon the manager's arrival, to holding the meeting or transacting business at the meeting or (ii) the manager's dissent or abstention from the action taken is entered in the minutes of the meeting or the manager delivers written notice of the manager's dissent or abstention to the presiding officer of the meeting before its adjournment or to the Company immediately after adjournment of the meeting. The right of dissent or abstention shall not be available to a manager who votes in favor of the action taken.

10.12 Chairman and Vice Chairman of the Board. The Board may appoint one of its members as Chairman of the Board ("Chairman"). The Board may also appoint one of its members as Vice Chairman of the Board, and such individual shall serve in the absence of the Chairman and perform such additional duties as may be assigned to such person by the Board.

11. OFFICERS.

11.1 Officers Generally. The Company shall have the officers appointed by the Board in accordance with this Agreement. The same individual may simultaneously hold more than one office in the Company. Section 11.10 delegates to the Secretary, if such office be created and filled, the required responsibility of preparing minutes of the Board's and the Member's meetings and for authenticating records of the Company. If such office shall not be created and filled, then the Board shall delegate to one of the officers of the Company such responsibility.

11.2 Duties of Officers. Each officer of the Company shall have the authority and shall perform the duties set forth in this Agreement for such office or, to the extent consistent with this Agreement, the duties prescribed by the Board or by direction of an officer authorized by the Board to prescribe the duties of other officers.

11.3 Appointment and Term of Office. The officers of the Company shall be appointed by the Board. Vacancies may be filled or new offices created and filled at any meeting of the Board. Each officer shall hold office until such officer's successor shall be duly appointed or until the officer's death or until the officer shall resign or shall have been removed in the manner hereinafter provided.

11.4 Resignation and Removal of Officers. An officer may resign at any time by delivering notice to the Company. A resignation shall be effective when the notice is delivered unless the notice specifies a later effective date. If a resignation is made effective at a later date and the Company accepts the future effective date, the Board may fill the pending vacancy before the effective date if the Board provides that the successor shall not take office until the effective date. The Board may remove any officer at any time with or without cause.

11.5 Contract Rights of Officers. Appointment of an officer or agent shall not of itself create contract rights. An officer's removal shall not affect the officer's contract rights, if any, with the Company. An officer's resignation shall not affect the Company's contract rights, if any, with the officer.

11.6 Chairman of the Board. The Chairman, if that office be created and filled, may, at the discretion of the Board, be the chief executive officer of the Company and, if such, shall, in general, supervise and control the affairs and business of the Company, subject to control by the Board. The Chairman shall preside at all meetings of the Member and the Board.

11.7 President. The President, if that office be created and filled, shall be the chief executive officer of the Company, unless a Chairman is appointed and designated chief executive officer pursuant to Section 11.6. If no Chairman has been appointed or, in the absence of the Chairman, the President shall preside at all meetings of the Member. The President may sign certificates for Units, any deeds, mortgages, bonds, contracts or other instruments which the Board has authorized to be executed, except in cases where the signing and execution thereof shall be expressly delegated by the Board or by this Agreement to some other officer or agent of the Company, or shall be required by law to be otherwise signed or executed. The President shall, in general, perform all duties incident to the office of President of a Florida limited liability company and such other duties as may be prescribed by the Board or the Chairman from time to time. Unless otherwise ordered by the Board, the President shall have full power and authority on behalf of the Company to attend, act and vote in person or by proxy at any meetings of shareholders of any corporation in which the Company may hold stock, and at any such meeting shall hold and may exercise all rights incident to the ownership of such stock which the Company, as owner, would have had and could have exercised if present. The Board may confer like powers on any other person or persons.

11.8 Vice President. In the absence of the President, or in the event of the President's death, inability or refusal to act, the Vice President (or, in the event there be more than one Vice President, the Vice Presidents in order designated at the time of their appointment, or in the absence of any designation, then in the order of their appointment), if that office be created and filled, shall perform the duties of the President and when so acting shall have all the powers of, and be subject to all the restrictions upon, the President. Any Vice President may sign certificates for Units and shall perform such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to such person by the Chairman, the President or by the Board.

11.9 Treasurer. The Treasurer, if that office be created and filled, shall have charge and custody of, and be responsible for, all funds and securities of the Company, receive and give receipts for monies due and payable to the Company from any source whatsoever, and deposit all such monies in the name of the Company in such banks, trust companies and other depositories as shall be selected in accordance with the provisions of Section 6.1, and in general, perform all the duties incident to the office of Treasurer of a Florida limited liability company and such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to such person by the Chairman, the President or the Board. If required by the Board, the Treasurer shall give a bond for the faithful discharge of such officer's duties in such sum and with such surety or sureties as the Board shall determine.

11.10 Secretary. The Secretary, if that office be created and filled, shall keep the minutes of the Member's meetings and of the Board's meetings in one or more books provided for that purpose, see that all notices are duly given in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement or as required by law, be custodian of the Company records and of the seal, if any, of the Company, be responsible for authenticating records of the Company, keep a register of the mailing address of the Member, which shall be furnished to the Secretary by the Member, have general charge of the transfer books of the Company, and, in general, perform all duties incident to the office of Secretary of a Florida limited liability company and such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to such person by the Chairman, the President or the Board.

11.11 Assistant Treasurers and Assistant Secretaries.

(a) Assistant Treasurer. The Assistant Treasurer, if that office be created and filled, shall, if required by the Board, give bond for the faithful discharge of such officer's duty in such sum and with such surety as the Board shall determine.

(b) Assistant Secretary. The Assistant Secretary, if that office be created and filled, and if authorized by the Board, may sign, with the President or Vice President, certificates for Units.

(c) Additional Duties. The Assistant Treasurers and Assistant Secretaries, in general, shall perform such additional duties as shall be assigned to them by the Treasurer or the Secretary, respectively, or by the Chairman, the President or the Board.

12. STANDARD OF CARE OF MANAGERS AND OFFICERS; INDEMNIFICATION.

12.1 Standard of Care. The managers and officers of the Company shall not be liable, responsible or accountable in damages to the Member or the Company on account of such manager's or officer's status as a manager or officer of the Company or by reason of any act or omission related to the business of the Company performed or omitted by them in good faith with the care an officer of a Florida limited liability company of like position would exercise under similar circumstances and in a manner reasonably believed by them to be in the best interests of the Company, and, with respect to any criminal proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe their conduct was unlawful. To the extent that, at law or in equity, a manager or officer of the Company has duties (including fiduciary duties) and liabilities relating thereto to the Company, the Member or any other person, such manager or officer acting under this Agreement shall not be liable to the Company, the Member or any other person for breach of fiduciary duty for its good faith reliance on the provisions of this Agreement, and the provisions of this Agreement, to the extent that they restrict or eliminate the duties (including fiduciary duties) and liabilities relating thereto of a manager or officer otherwise existing at law or in equity, are agreed by the Member and the Company to replace such other duties and liabilities of such manager or officer; provided, however, that the foregoing shall not be interpreted or construed so as to eliminate or restrict any fiduciary duty, including, but not limited to, the duties of loyalty, care, good faith and fair dealing, in such a manner as to be contrary to the provisions of Section 605.0105 of the Act.

12.2. Indemnification.

(a) The Company shall indemnify and hold harmless each manager or officer of the Company against reasonable expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees), judgments, taxes, penalties, fines (including any excise tax assessed with respect to an employee benefit plan) and amounts paid in settlement (collectively "Liability"), incurred by such person in connection with defending any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding (whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, and whether formal or informal) to which such person is, or is threatened to be made, a party because such person is or was a manager or officer of the Company, or is or was serving at the request of the Company as a manager, officer, partner, member, employee or agent of another domestic or foreign corporation, partnership, limited liability company, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, including service with respect to employee benefit plans, provided that (i) the manager or officer has met the standard of conduct described in Section 12.1, and (ii) indemnification under this paragraph does not violate the provisions of Section 605.0105 A manager or officer shall be considered to be serving an employee benefit plan at the Company's request if such person's duties to the Company also impose duties on or otherwise involve services by such person to the plan or to participants in or beneficiaries of the plan. The indemnities hereunder shall survive the termination of the Company and this Agreement.

(b) At the request of the manager or officer entitled to indemnification hereunder, the Company shall pay or reimburse reasonable expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees) incurred by a manager or officer who is a party to a proceeding in advance of final disposition of such proceeding if:

(1) The manager or officer furnishes the Company a written affirmation of his good faith belief that he has met the standard of conduct described in Section 12.1;

(2) The manager or officer furnishes the Company a written undertaking, executed personally or on the manager's or officer's behalf, to repay the advance if it is ultimately determined that the manager or officer did not meet the standard of conduct or is otherwise not entitled to indemnification hereunder. Such undertaking shall be an unlimited general obligation of the manager or officer, but shall not be required to be secured and may be accepted without reference to financial ability to make repayment; and

(3) A determination is made that the facts then known to those making the determination would not preclude indemnification under the provisions of this Section 12.2.

(c) The indemnification against Liability and advancement of expenses provided by, or granted pursuant to, this Section 12.2 shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which those seeking indemnification or advancement may be, or hereafter become, entitled under any agreement, action of the Member or disinterested managers or otherwise, both as to action in their official capacity and as to action in another capacity while holding such office of the Company, shall continue as to a person who has ceased to be a manager or officer of the Company, and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors and administrators of such a person.

Any repeal or modification of this Section 12.2 by the Member shall not adversely affect any right or protection of a manager or officer of the Company under this Section 12.2 with respect to any act or omission occurring prior to the time of such repeal or modification.

13. OTHER ACTIVITIES; RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS.

13.1 Other Activities. The managers and officers shall devote such of their time to the affairs of the Company's business as they shall deem necessary. The Member, managers, officers and their Affiliates (as hereinafter defined) may engage in, or possess an interest in, other business ventures of any nature and description, independently or with others, whether or not such activities are competitive with those of the Company. Neither the Company nor the Member shall have any rights by virtue of this Agreement in and to such independent ventures, or to the income or profits derived therefrom. The Member shall not be obligated to present any particular business opportunity of a character which, if presented to the Company, could be taken by the Company, and the Member and its Affiliates shall have the right to take for their own account, or to recommend to others, any such particular business opportunity to the exclusion of the Company. For purposes of this Agreement, the term "Affiliate" shall mean any person, corporation, partnership, limited liability company, trust or other entity (directly or indirectly) controlling, controlled by, or under common control with, another person.

13.2 Related Party Transactions. The fact that a manager, officer or their Affiliates are directly or indirectly interested in or connected with any person, firm or corporation employed by the Company to render or perform a service, or to or from whom the Company may purchase, sell or lease property, shall not prohibit the Company from employing such person, firm or corporation or from otherwise dealing with him or it, and neither the Company, nor the Member, shall have any rights in or to any income or profits derived therefrom. All such dealings with a manager or such manager's Affiliates will be on terms which are competitive and comparable with amounts charged by independent third parties.

14. MEMBERS.

14.1 Limitation on Participation in Management. Except as expressly authorized by this Agreement or as expressly required by the Act, the Member, solely by virtue of its status as the Member, shall not participate in the management or control of the Company's business, transact any business for the Company or have the power to act for or bind the Company, said powers being vested solely and exclusively in the Board and the officers.

14.2 Assignment of Member's Interest. The Member may freely sell, assign, transfer, pledge, hypothecate, encumber or otherwise dispose of the Member's Units. If the member transfers all of its Units, the transferee of such Units shall automatically become a substitute Member in the place of the Member. The Board shall amend Exhibit A from time to time to reflect transfers made in accordance with this Section 14.2.

14.3 Dissociation of Member. Upon the occurrence of any of the events set forth in Section 605.0602 of the Act with respect to the member, the successor-in-interest or personal representative of the Member shall automatically become a substitute Member in place of the Member.

14.4 Certificates for Units.

(a) Certificates representing Units shall be in such form as may be determined by the Board. Such certificates shall be signed by the President or Vice President. The signature of such officer upon such certificates may be signed manually or by facsimile. All certificates for Units shall be consecutively numbered. The name of the person owning the Units represented thereby, with the number of Units and date of issue, shall be entered on the books of the Company. All certificates surrendered to the Company for transfer shall be canceled and no new certificates shall be issued until the former certificates for a like number of Units shall have been surrendered and canceled, except that, in case of a lost, destroyed or mutilated certificate, a new certificate may be issued therefor upon such terms and indemnity to the Company as the Board may prescribe.

(b) A Unit in the Company evidenced by a certificate shall constitute a security governed by Article 8 of the Uniform Commercial Code. Each certificate evidencing membership interests in the Company shall bear the following legend: "This certificate evidences an interest in Sebring Hospital Management Associates, LLC and shall be a security for purposes of Article 8 of the Uniform Commercial Code." No change to this provision shall be effective until all outstanding certificates have been surrendered for cancellation and any new certificates thereafter issued shall not bear the foregoing legend.

15. DISSOLUTION.

15.1 Dissolution. Except as otherwise provided in the Act, the Company shall dissolve upon the decision of the Member to dissolve the Company or the sale or other disposition of all, or substantially all, of the assets of the Company and the sale and/or collection of any evidence of indebtedness received in connection therewith. Dissolution of the Company shall be effective upon the date specified in the Member's resolution or upon the sale or other disposition of all, or substantially all of the Assets of the Company and the sale and/or collection of any evidence of indebtedness received in connection therewith as applicable, but the Company shall not terminate until the assets of the Company shall have been distributed as provided in Section 15.3 and articles of dissolution are filed with the office of the Secretary of State of the State of Florida pursuant to Section 605.0707 of the Act. Notwithstanding dissolution of the Company, prior to the liquidation and termination of the Company, the Company shall continue to be governed by this Agreement.

15.2 Sale of Assets Upon Dissolution. Following the dissolution of the Company, the Company shall be wound up and the Board shall determine whether the assets of the Company are to be sold or whether some or all of such assets are to be distributed to the Member in kind in liquidation of the Company.

The books of the Company shall be maintained at such principal place of business or such other place that the Board shall deem appropriate. The registered office in the State of Delaware is located at 2711 Centerville Road, Suite 400, Wilmington, DE 19808, County of New Castle. The registered agent of the Company for service of process at such address is Corporation Service Company. Such registered office and registered agent may be changed by the Board from time to time.

3. PURPOSE AND TERM.

3.1 Purpose. The purposes of the Company are as follows:

(a) To acquire, own, manage and operate certain healthcare facilities.

(b) To engage in such other lawful activities in which a limited liability company may engage under the Act as is determined by the Board from time to time.

(c) To do all other things necessary or desirable in connection with the foregoing, or otherwise contemplated in this Agreement.

3.2 Company's Power. In furtherance of the purpose of the Company as set forth in Section 3.1, the Company shall have the power to do any and all things whatsoever necessary, appropriate or advisable in connection with such purpose, or as otherwise contemplated in this Agreement.

3.3 Term. The term of the Company as a limited liability company shall commence as of the date of the filing of a Certificate of Formation with the Delaware Secretary of State's Office, and shall continue until dissolved in accordance with Section 15.

4. CAPITAL.

4.1 Initial Capital Contribution of Member. The limited liability company interests in the Company shall be divided into units ("Units"). The total number of Units that the Company is initially authorized to issue is 100 Units. The Member has contributed the cash or other property identified on, and has been issued the number of Units listed on, Exhibit A. The Member may, but shall not be required to, make additional capital contributions to the Company from time to time.

4.2 No Liability of Member. Except as otherwise specifically provided in the Act, the Member shall not have any personal liability for the obligations of the Company. Except as provided in Section 4.1, the Member shall not be obligated to contribute funds or loan money to the Company.

4.3 No Interest on Capital Contributions. The Member shall not be entitled to interest on any capital contributions made to the Company.

5. ACCOUNTING.

5.1 Books and Records. The Company shall maintain full and accurate books of the Company at the Company's principal place of business, or such other place as the Board shall determine, showing all receipts and expenditures, assets and liabilities, net income and loss, and all other records necessary for recording the Company's business and affairs. Such books and records shall be open to the inspection and examination of the Member in person or by its duly authorized representatives at all reasonable times.

5.2 Fiscal Year. The fiscal year of the Company shall be the calendar year.

6. BANK ACCOUNTS.

6.1 Bank Accounts. All funds of the Company shall be deposited in its name into such checking, savings and/or money market accounts or time certificates as shall be designated by the Board. Withdrawals therefrom shall be made upon such signature or signatures as the Board may designate. The Board shall be entitled to make withdrawals from such accounts to invest such funds in connection with the cash management system employed by CHS/Community Health Systems, Inc. on behalf of its affiliated hospitals and health care facilities.

7. NET INCOME AND NET LOSS.

7.1 Net Income and Net Loss. All net income or net loss of the Company shall be for the account of the Member.

8. FEDERAL INCOME TAX ELECTIONS.

8.1 Tax Treatment. It is the intention of the Member that for Federal, state and local income tax purposes the Company be disregarded as an entity separate from the Member in accordance with the provisions of Treas. Reg. §§ 301.7701-2(c)(2)(i) and 301.7701-3(b)(l)(ii). The Member shall take all actions which may be necessary or required in order for the Company to be so disregarded for income tax purposes.

9. DISTRIBUTIONS.

9.1 Distributions. The Board shall determine, in the Board's sole discretion, the amount and timing of any distributions to the Member and whether such distributions shall be paid in cash or property.

10. BOARD OF DIRECTORS.

10.1 General Powers. All powers of the Company shall be exercised by or under the authority of, and the business and affairs of the Company managed under the direction of, its Board of Directors ("Board").

10.2 Number, Election and Term. The Board shall consist of not less than one, nor more than seven individual directors, the exact number of which shall be determined by the Board from time to time. Initially, there shall be three directors, Martin G. Schweinhart, W. Larry Cash and Rachel A. Seifert. Except as otherwise expressly provided herein, directors shall be elected at the organizational meeting of the Member and at each annual meeting thereafter. A decrease in the number of directors shall not shorten an incumbent director's term. Each director shall hold office until such director resigns or is removed. Despite the expiration of a director's term, such director shall continue to serve until the director's successor is elected and qualifies, until there is a decrease in the number of directors or the director is removed.

10.3 Resignation of Directors. A director may resign at any time by delivering written notice to the Board, its Chairman (as hereinafter defined), if any, or the Company. A resignation shall be effective when the notice is delivered unless the notice specifies a later effective date.

10.4 Removal of Directors by Member. A director shall be removed by the Member only at a meeting called for the purpose of removing such director and the meeting notice shall state that the purpose, or one of the purposes, of the meeting is removal of the director. The Member may remove one or more directors with or without cause.

10.5 Vacancy on Board. If a vacancy occurs on the Board, including a vacancy resulting from an increase in the number of directors, the Board shall fill the vacancy, and if the directors remaining in office constitute fewer than a quorum of the Board, they may fill the vacancy by the affirmative vote of a majority of all the directors remaining in office. A vacancy that will occur at a specific later date may be filled before the vacancy occurs, but the new director may not take office until the vacancy occurs.

10.6 Compensation of Directors. Directors on the Board shall not be entitled to receive a fee for the director's services as a director on the Board.

10.7 Meetings. The Board may hold regular or special meetings in or out of the State of Delaware. The Board may permit any or all directors to participate in a regular or special meeting by, or conduct the meeting through the use of, any means of communication by which all directors participating may simultaneously hear each other during the meeting. A director participating in a meeting by this means shall be deemed to be present in person at the meeting.

10.8 Special Meetings. Special meetings of the Board may be called by, or at the request of, the Chairman, if any, or the chief executive officer of the Company. All special meetings of the Board shall be held at the principal office or such other place as may be specified in the notice of the meeting.

10.9 Action Without Meeting. Any action required or permitted to be taken at a Board meeting may be taken without a meeting, without prior notice and without a vote if a consent or consents in writing, setting forth the action so taken, shall be signed by the directors having not less than the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to authorize or take such action at a meeting at which all directors entitled to vote thereon were present and voted.

10.11 Notice of Meetings. Meetings of the Board may be held without notice of the date, time, place or purpose of the meeting.

10.12 Quorum and Voting. A majority of the number of directors fixed by, or determined in accordance with, this Agreement shall constitute a quorum of the Board. If a quorum is present, an affirmative vote by a majority of the number of directors present shall constitute an act of the Board. A director who is present at a meeting of the Board or a committee of the Board when action is taken shall be deemed to have assented to the action taken unless (i) the director objects at the beginning of the meeting, or promptly upon the director's arrival, to holding the meeting or transacting business at the meeting or (ii) the director's dissent or abstention from the action taken is entered in the minutes of the meeting or the director delivers written notice of the director's dissent or abstention to the presiding officer of the meeting before its adjournment or to the Company immediately after adjournment of the meeting. The right of dissent or abstention shall not be available to a director who votes in favor of the action taken.

10.13 Chairman and Vice Chairman of the Board. The Board may appoint one of its members as Chairman of the Board ("Chairman"). The Board may also appoint one of its members as Vice Chairman of the Board, and such individual shall serve in the absence of the Chairman and perform such additional duties as may be assigned to such person by the Board.

11. OFFICERS.

11.1 Officers Generally. The Company shall have the officers appointed by the Board in accordance with this Agreement. The same individual may simultaneously hold more than one office in the Company. Section 11.10 delegates to the Secretary, if such office be created and filled, the required responsibility of preparing minutes of the Board's and the Member's meetings and for authenticating records of the Company. If such office shall not be created and filled, then the Board shall delegate to one of the officers of the Company such responsibility.

11.2 Duties of Officers. Each officer of the Company shall have the authority and shall perform the duties set forth in this Agreement for such office or, to the extent consistent with this Agreement, the duties prescribed by the Board or by direction of an officer authorized by the Board to prescribe the duties of other officers.

11.3 Appointment and Term of Office. The officers of the Company shall be appointed by the Board. Vacancies may be filled or new offices created and filled at any meeting of the Board. Each officer shall hold office until such officer's successor shall be duly appointed or until the officer's death or until the officer shall resign or shall have been removed in the manner hereinafter provided.

11.4 Resignation and Removal of Officers. An officer may resign at any time by delivering notice to the Company. A resignation shall be effective when the notice is delivered unless the notice specifies a later effective date. If a resignation is made effective at a later date and the Company accepts the future effective date, the Board may fill the pending vacancy before the effective date if the Board provides that the successor shall not take office until the effective date. The Board may remove any officer at any time with or without cause.

11.5 Contract Rights of Officers. Appointment of an officer or agent shall not of itself create contract rights. An officer's removal shall not affect the officer's contract rights, if any, with the Company. An officer's resignation shall not affect the Company's contract rights, if any, with the officer.

11.6 Chairman of the Board. The Chairman, if that office be created and filled, may, at the discretion of the Board, be the chief executive officer of the Company and, if such, shall, in general, supervise and control the affairs and business of the Company, subject to control by the Board. The Chairman shall preside at all meetings of the Member and the Board.

11.7 President. The President, if that office be created and filled, shall be the chief executive officer of the Company, unless a Chairman is appointed and designated chief executive officer pursuant to Section 11.6. If no Chairman has been appointed or, in the absence of the Chairman, the President shall preside at all meetings of the Member. The President may sign certificates for Units, any deeds, mortgages, bonds, contracts or other instruments which the Board has authorized to be executed, except in cases where the signing and execution thereof shall be expressly delegated by the Board or by this Agreement to some other officer or agent of the Company, or shall be required by law to be otherwise signed or executed. The President shall, in general, perform all duties incident to the office of President of a Delaware corporation and such other duties as may be prescribed by the Board or the Chairman from time to time. Unless otherwise ordered by the Board, the President shall have full power and authority on behalf of the Company to attend, act and vote in person or by proxy at any meetings of shareholders of any corporation in which the Company may hold stock, and at any such meeting shall hold and may exercise all rights incident to the ownership of such stock which the Company, as owner, would have had and could have exercised if present. The Board may confer like powers on any other person or persons.

11.8 Vice President. In the absence of the President, or in the event of the President's death, inability or refusal to act, the Vice President (or, in the event there be more than one Vice President, the Vice Presidents in order designated at the time of their appointment, or in the absence of any designation, then in the order of their appointment), if that office be created and filled, shall perform the duties of the President and when so acting shall have all the powers of, and be subject to all the restrictions upon, the President. Any Vice President may sign certificates for Units and shall perform such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to such person by the Chairman, the President or by the Board.

11.9 Treasurer. The Treasurer, if that office be created and filled, shall have charge and custody of, and be responsible for, all funds and securities of the Company, receive and give receipts for monies due and payable to the Company from any source whatsoever, and deposit all such monies in the name of the Company in such banks, trust companies and other depositories as shall be selected in accordance with the provisions of Section 6.1, and in general, perform all the duties incident to the office of Treasurer of a Delaware corporation and such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to such person by the Chairman, the President or the Board. If required by the Board, the Treasurer shall give a bond for the faithful discharge of such officer's duties in such sum and with such surety or sureties as the Board shall determine.

11.10 Secretary. The Secretary, if that office be created and filled, shall keep the minutes of the Member's meetings and of the Board's meetings in one or more books provided for that purpose, see that all notices are duly given in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement or as required by law, be custodian of the Company records and of the seal, if any, of the Company, be responsible for authenticating records of the Company, keep a register of the mailing address of the Member, which shall be furnished to the Secretary by the Member, have general charge of the transfer books of the Company, and, in general, perform all duties incident to the office of Secretary of a Delaware corporation and such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to such person by the Chairman, the President or the Board.

11.11 Assistant Treasurers and Assistant Secretaries.

(a) Assistant Treasurer. The Assistant Treasurer, if that office be created and filled, shall, if required by the Board, give bond for the faithful discharge of such officer's duty in such sum and with such surety as the Board shall determine.

(b) Assistant Secretary. The Assistant Secretary, if that office be created and filled, and if authorized by the Board, may sign, with the President or Vice President, certificates for Units.

(c) Additional Duties. The Assistant Treasurers and Assistant Secretaries, in general, shall perform such additional duties as shall be assigned to them by the Treasurer or the Secretary, respectively, or by the Chairman, the President or the Board.

12. STANDARD OF CARE OF DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS; INDEMNIFICATION.

12.1 Standard of Care. The directors and officers of the Company shall not be liable, responsible or accountable in damages to the Member or the Company on account of such director's or officer's status as a director or officer of the Company or by reason of any act or omission related to the business of the Company performed or omitted by them in good faith with the care an officer of a Delaware corporation of like position would exercise under similar circumstances and in a manner reasonably believed by them to be in the best interests of the Company, and, with respect to any criminal proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe their conduct was unlawful. To the extent that, at law or in equity, a director or officer of the Company has duties (including fiduciary duties) and liabilities relating thereto to the Company, the Member or any other person, such director or officer acting under this Agreement shall not be liable to the Company the Member or any other person for breach of fiduciary duty for its good faith reliance on the provisions of this Agreement, and the provisions of this Agreement, to the extent that they restrict or eliminate the duties (including fiduciary duties) and liabilities relating thereto of a director or officer otherwise existing at law or in equity, are agreed by the Member and the Company to replace such other duties and liabilities of such director or officer.

12.2. Indemnification.

(a) The Company shall indemnify and hold harmless each director or officer of the Company against reasonable expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees), judgments, taxes, penalties, fines (including any excise tax assessed with respect to an employee benefit plan) and amounts paid in settlement (collectively "Liability"), incurred by such person in connection with defending any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding (whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, and whether formal or informal) to which such person is, or is threatened to be made, a party because such person is or was a director or officer of the Company, or is or was serving at the request of the Company as a director, officer, partner, member, employee or agent of another domestic or foreign corporation, partnership, limited liability company, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, including service with respect to employee benefit plans, provided that the director or officer has met the standard of conduct described in Section 12.1. A director or officer shall be considered to be serving an employee benefit plan at the Company's request if such person's duties to the Company also impose duties on or otherwise involve services by such person to the plan or to participants in or beneficiaries of the plan. The indemnities hereunder shall survive the termination of the Company and this Agreement.

(b) At the request of the director or officer entitled to indemnification hereunder, the Company shall pay or reimburse reasonable expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees) incurred by a director or officer who is a party to a proceeding in advance of final disposition of such proceeding if:

(1) The director or officer furnishes the Company a written affirmation of his good faith belief that he has met the standard of conduct described in Section 12.1;

(2) The director or officer furnishes the Company a written undertaking, executed personally or on the director's or officer's behalf, to repay the advance if it is ultimately determined that the director or officer did not meet the standard of conduct or is otherwise not entitled to indemnification hereunder. Such undertaking shall be an unlimited general obligation of the director or officer, but shall not be required to be secured and may be accepted without reference to financial ability to make repayment; and

(3) A determination is made that the facts then known to those making the determination would not preclude indemnification under the provisions of this Section 12.2.

(c) The indemnification against Liability and advancement of expenses provided by, or granted pursuant to, this Section 12.2 shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which those seeking indemnification or advancement may be, or hereafter become, entitled under any agreement, action of the Member or disinterested directors or otherwise, both as to action in their official capacity and as to action in another capacity while holding such office of the Company, shall continue as to a person who has ceased to be a director or officer of the Company, and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors and administrators of such a person.

Any repeal or modification of this Section 12.2 by the Member shall not adversely affect any right or protection of a director or officer of the Company under this Section 12.2 with respect to any act or omission occurring prior to the time of such repeal or modification.

13. OTHER ACTIVITIES; RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS.

13.1 Other Activities. The directors and officers shall devote such of their time to the affairs of the Company's business as they shall deem necessary. The Member, directors, officers and their Affiliates (as hereinafter defined) may engage in, or possess an interest in, other business ventures of any nature and description, independently or with others, whether or not such activities are competitive with those of the Company. Neither the Company nor the Member shall have any rights by virtue of this Agreement in and to such independent ventures, or to the income or profits derived therefrom. The Member shall not be obligated to present any particular business opportunity of a character which, if presented to the Company, could be taken by the Company, and the Member and its Affiliates shall have the right to take for their own account, or to recommend to others, any such particular business opportunity to the exclusion of the Company. For purposes of this Agreement, the term "Affiliate" shall mean any person, corporation, partnership, limited liability company, trust or other entity (directly or indirectly) controlling, controlled by, or under common control with, another person.

13.2 Related Party Transactions. The fact that a director, officer or their Affiliates are directly or indirectly interested in or connected with any person, firm or corporation employed by the Company to render or perform a service, or to or from whom the Company may purchase, sell or lease property, shall not prohibit the Company from employing such person, firm or corporation or from otherwise dealing with him or it, and neither the Company, nor the Member, shall have any rights in or to any income or profits derived therefrom. All such dealings with a director or such director's Affiliates will be on terms which are competitive and comparable with amounts charged by independent third parties.

14. MEMBERS.

14.1 Limitation on Participation in Management. Except as expressly authorized by this Agreement or as expressly required by the Act, the Member, solely by virtue of its status as the Member, shall not participate in the management or control of the Company's business, transact any business for the Company or have the power to act for or bind the Company, said powers being vested solely and exclusively in the Board and the officers.

14.2 Assignment of Member's Interest. The Member may freely sell, assign, transfer, pledge, hypothecate, encumber or otherwise dispose of the Member's Units. If the member transfers all of its Units, the transferee of such Units shall automatically become a substitute Member in the place of the Member. The Board shall amend Exhibit A from time to time to reflect transfers made in accordance with this Section 14.2.

14.3 Bankruptcy, Dissolution, Etc. of Member. Upon the occurrence of any of the events set forth in Sections 18-304 or 18-705 of the Act with respect to the member, the successor-in-interest or personal representative of the Member shall automatically become a substitute Member in place of the Member.

14.4 Certificates for Units.

(a) Certificates representing Units shall be in such form as may be determined by the Board. Such certificates shall be signed by the President or Vice President. The signature of such officer upon such certificates may be signed manually or by facsimile. All certificates for Units shall be consecutively numbered. The name of the person owning the Units represented thereby, with the number of Units and date of issue, shall be entered on the books of the Company. All certificates surrendered to the Company for transfer shall be canceled and no new certificates shall be issued until the former certificates for a like number of Units shall have been surrendered and canceled, except that, in case of a lost, destroyed or mutilated certificate, a new certificate may be issued therefor upon such terms and indemnity to the Company as the Board may prescribe.

(b) A Unit in the Company evidenced by a certificate shall constitute a security governed by Article 8 of the Uniform Commercial Code. Each certificate evidencing membership interests in the Company shall bear the following legend: "This certificate evidences an interest in Sharon Pennsylvania Holdings, LLC and shall be a security for purposes of Article 8 of the Uniform Commercial Code." No change to this provision shall be effective until all outstanding certificates have been surrendered for cancellation and any new certificates thereafter issued shall not bear the foregoing legend.

15. DISSOLUTION.

15.1 Dissolution. Except as otherwise provided in the Act, the Company shall dissolve upon the decision of the Member to dissolve the Company or the sale or other disposition of all, or substantially all, of the assets of the Company and the sale and/or collection of any evidence of indebtedness received in connection therewith. Dissolution of the Company shall be effective upon the date specified in the Member's resolution or upon the sale or other disposition of all, or substantially all of the Assets of the Company and the sale and/or collection of any evidence of indebtedness received in connection therewith as applicable, but the Company shall not terminate until the assets of the Company shall have been distributed as provided in Section 15.3 and a certificate of cancellation of the certificate of formation of the Company is filed with the office of the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware pursuant to Section 18-203 of the Act. Notwithstanding dissolution of the Company, prior to the liquidation and termination of the Company, the Company shall continue to be governed by this Agreement.

15.2 Sale of Assets Upon Dissolution. Following the dissolution of the Company, the Company shall be wound up and the Board shall determine whether the assets of the Company are to be sold or whether some or all of such assets are to be distributed to the Member in kind in liquidation of the Company.

15.3 Distributions Upon Dissolution. Upon the dissolution of the Company, the properties of the Company to be sold shall be liquidated in orderly fashion and the proceeds thereof, and the property to be distributed in kind, shall be distributed as follows:

(a) First, to the payment and discharge of all of the Company's debts and liabilities, to the necessary expenses of liquidation and to the establishment of any cash reserves which the Member determines to create for unmatured and/or contingent liabilities or obligations of the Company.

(b) Second, to the Member.

16. GENERAL.

16.1 Amendment.

(a) Except as provided in Section 16.l(b), this Agreement may be modified or amended from time to time only upon the consent of the Member.

(b) In addition to any amendments authorized by Section 16.l(a), this Agreement may be amended from time to time by the Board without the consent of the Member to cure any ambiguity, to correct or supplement any provision hereof which may be inconsistent with any other provision hereof, or to make any other provisions with respect to matters or questions arising under this Agreement which will not be inconsistent with the provisions of this Agreement.

16.2 Captions; Section References. Section titles or captions contained in this Agreement are inserted only as a matter of convenience and reference, and in no way define, limit, extend or describe the scope of this Agreement, or the intent of any provision hereof. All references herein to Sections shall refer to Sections of this Agreement unless the context clearly requires otherwise.

16.3 Number and Gender. Unless the context otherwise requires, when used herein, the singular shall include the plural, the plural shall include the singular, and all nouns, pronouns and any variations thereof shall be deemed to refer to the masculine, feminine or neuter, as the identity of the person or persons may require.

16.4 Severability. If any provision of this Agreement, or the application thereof to any person, entity or circumstances, shall be invalid or unenforceable to any extent, the remainder of this Agreement, and the application of such provision to other persons, entities or circumstances, shall not be affected thereby and shall be enforced to the greatest extent permitted by law.

16.5 Binding Agreement. Except as otherwise provided herein, this Agreement shall be binding upon, and inure to the benefit of, the parties hereto and their respective executors, administrators, heirs, successors and assigns.

16.6 Applicable Law. This Agreement shall be governed by, and construed in accordance with, the laws of the State of Delaware without regard to its conflict of laws rules.

16.7 Entire Agreement. This Agreement contains the entire agreement with respect to the subject matter hereof.

3. PURPOSE AND TERM.

3.1 Purpose. The purposes of the Company are as follows:

(a) To acquire, own, manage and operate certain healthcare facilities.

(b) To engage in such other lawful activities in which a limited liability company may engage under the Act as is determined by the Board from time to time.

(c) To do all other things necessary or desirable in connection with the foregoing, or otherwise contemplated in this Agreement.

3.2 Company's Power. In furtherance of the purpose of the Company as set forth in Section 3.1, the Company shall have the power to do any and all things whatsoever necessary, appropriate or advisable in connection with such purpose, or as otherwise contemplated in this Agreement.

3.3 Term. The term of the Company as a limited liability company shall commence as of the date of the filing of a Certificate of Formation with the Delaware Secretary of State's Office, and shall continue until dissolved in accordance with Section 15.

4. CAPITAL.

4.1 Initial Capital Contribution of Member. The limited liability company interests in the Company shall be divided into units ("Units"). The total number of Units that the Company is initially authorized to issue is 100 Units. The Member has contributed the cash or other property identified on, and has been issued the number of Units listed on, Exhibit A. The Member may, but shall not be required to, make additional capital contributions to the Company from time to time.

4.2 No Liability of Member. Except as otherwise specifically provided in the Act, the Member shall not have any personal liability for the obligations of the Company. Except as provided in Section 4.1, the Member shall not be obligated to contribute funds or loan money to the Company.

4.3 No Interest on Capital Contributions. The Member shall not be entitled to interest on any capital contributions made to the Company.

5. ACCOUNTING.

5.1 Books and Records. The Company shall maintain full and accurate books of the Company at the Company's principal place of business, or such other place as the Board shall determine, showing all receipts and expenditures, assets and liabilities, net income and loss, and all other records necessary for recording the Company's business and affairs. Such books and records shall be open to the inspection and examination of the Member in person or by its duly authorized representatives at all reasonable times.

5.2 Fiscal Year. The fiscal year of the Company shall be the calendar year.

6.1 Bank Accounts. All funds of the Company shall be deposited in its name into such checking, savings and/or money market accounts or time certificates as shall be designated by the Board. Withdrawals therefrom shall be made upon such signature or signatures as the Board may designate. The Board shall be entitled to make withdrawals from such accounts to invest such funds in connection with the cash management system employed by CBS/Community Health Systems, Inc. on behalf of its affiliated hospitals and health care facilities.

7. NET INCOME AND NET LOSS.

7.1 Net Income and Net Loss. All net income or net loss of the Company shall be for the account of the Member.

8. FEDERAL INCOME TAX ELECTIONS.

8.1 Tax Treatment. It is the intention of the Member that for Federal, state and local income tax purposes the Company be disregarded as an entity separate from the Member in accordance with the provisions of Treas. Reg. §§ 301.7701-2(c)(2)(i) and 301.7701-3(b)(l)(ii). The Member shall take all actions which may be necessary or required in order for the Company to be so disregarded for income tax purposes.

9. DISTRIBUTIONS.

9.1 Distributions. The Board shall determine, in the Board's sole discretion, the amount and timing of any distributions to the Member and whether such distributions shall be paid in cash or property.

10. BOARD OF DIRECTORS.

10.1 General Powers. All powers of the Company shall be exercised by or under the authority of, and the business and affairs of the Company managed under the direction of, its Board of Directors ("Board").

10.2 Number, Election and Term. The Board shall consist of not less than one, nor more than seven individual directors, the exact number of which shall be determined by the Board from time to time. Initially, there shall be three directors, Martin G. Schweinhart, W. Larry Cash and Rachel A. Seifert. Except as otherwise expressly provided herein, directors shall be elected at the organizational meeting of the Member and at each annual meeting thereafter. A decrease in the number of directors shall not shorten an incumbent director's term. Each director shall hold office until such director resigns or is removed. Despite the expiration of a director's term, such director shall continue to serve until the director's successor is elected and qualifies, until there is a decrease in the number of directors or the director is removed.

10.3 Resignation of Directors. A director may resign at any time by delivering written notice to the Board, its Chairman (as hereinafter defined), if any, or the Company. A resignation shall be effective when the notice is delivered unless the notice specifies a later effective date.

10.4 Removal of Directors by Member. A director shall be removed by the Member only at a meeting called for the purpose of removing such director and the meeting notice shall state that the purpose, or one of the purposes, of the meeting is removal of the director. The Member may remove one or more directors with or without cause.

10.5 Vacancy on Board. If a vacancy occurs on the Board, including a vacancy resulting from an increase in the number of directors, the Board shall fill the vacancy, and if the directors remaining in office constitute fewer than a quorum of the Board, they may fill the vacancy by the affirmative vote of a majority of all the directors remaining in office. A vacancy that will occur at a specific later date may be filled before the vacancy occurs, but the new director may not take office until the vacancy occurs.

10.6 Compensation of Directors. Directors on the Board shall not be entitled to receive a fee for the director's services as a director on the Board.

10.7 Meetings. The Board may hold regular or special meetings in or out of the State of Delaware. The Board may permit any or all directors to participate in a regular or special meeting by, or conduct the meeting through the use of, any means of communication by which all directors participating may simultaneously hear each other during the meeting. A director participating in a meeting by this means shall be deemed to be present in person at the meeting.

10.8 Special Meetings. Special meetings of the Board may be called by, or at the request of, the Chairman, if any, or the chief executive officer of the Company. All special meetings of the Board shall be held at the principal office or such other place as may be specified in the notice of the meeting.

10.9 Action Without Meeting. Any action required or permitted to be taken at a Board meeting may be taken without a meeting, without prior notice and without a vote if a consent or consents in writing, setting forth the action so taken, shall be signed by the directors having not less than the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to authorize or take such action at a meeting at which all directors entitled to vote thereon were present and voted.

10.11 Notice of Meetings. Meetings of the Board may be held without notice of the date, time, place or purpose of the meeting.

10.12 Quorum and Voting. A majority of the number of directors fixed by, or determined in accordance with, this Agreement shall constitute a quorum of the Board. If a quorum is present, an affirmative vote by a majority of the number of directors present shall constitute an act of the Board. A director who is present at a meeting of the Board or a committee of the Board when action is taken shall be deemed to have assented to the action taken unless (i) the director objects at the beginning of the meeting, or promptly upon the director's arrival, to holding the meeting or transacting business at the meeting or (ii) the director's dissent or abstention from the action taken is entered in the minutes of the meeting or the director delivers written notice of the director's dissent or abstention to the presiding officer of the meeting before its adjournment or to the Company immediately after adjournment of the meeting. The right of dissent or abstention shall not be available to a director who votes in favor of the action taken.

10.13 Chairman and Vice Chairman of the Board. The Board may appoint one of its members as Chairman of the Board ("Chairman"). The Board may also appoint one of its members as Vice Chairman of the Board, and such individual shall serve in the absence of the Chairman and perform such additional duties as may be assigned to such person by the Board.

11. OFFICERS.

11.1 Officers Generally. The Company shall have the officers appointed by the Board in accordance with this Agreement. The same individual may simultaneously hold more than one office in the Company. Section 11.10 delegates to the Secretary, if such office be created and filled, the required responsibility of preparing minutes of the Board's and the Member's meetings and for authenticating records of the Company. If such office shall not be created and filled, then the Board shall delegate to one of the officers of the Company such responsibility.

11.2 Duties of Officers. Each officer of the Company shall have the authority and shall perform the duties set forth in this Agreement for such office or, to the extent consistent with this Agreement, the duties prescribed by the Board or by direction of an officer authorized by the Board to prescribe the duties of other officers.

11.3 Appointment and Term of Office. The officers of the Company shall be appointed by the Board. Vacancies may be filled or new offices created and filled at any meeting of the Board. Each officer shall hold office until such officer's successor shall be duly appointed or until the officer's death or until the officer shall resign or shall have been removed in the manner hereinafter provided.

11.4 Resignation and Removal of Officers. An officer may resign at any time by delivering notice to the Company. A resignation shall be effective when the notice is delivered unless the notice specifies a later effective date. If a resignation is made effective at a later date and the Company accepts the future effective date, the Board may fill the pending vacancy before the effective date if the Board provides that the successor shall not take office until the effective date. The Board may remove any officer at any time with or without cause.

11.5 Contract Rights of Officers. Appointment of an officer or agent shall not of itself create contract rights. An officer's removal shall not affect the officer's contract rights, if any, with the Company. An officer's resignation shall not affect the Company's contract rights, if any, with the officer.

11.6 Chairman of the Board. The Chairman, if that office be created and filled, may, at the discretion of the Board, be the chief executive officer of the Company and, if such, shall, in general, supervise and control the affairs and business of the Company, subject to control by the Board. The Chairman shall preside at all meetings of the Member and the Board.

11.7 President. The President, if that office be created and filled, shall be the chief executive officer of the Company, unless a Chairman is appointed and designated chief executive officer pursuant to Section 11.6. If no Chairman has been appointed or, in the absence of the Chairman, the President shall preside at all meetings of the Member. The President may sign certificates for Units, any deeds, mortgages, bonds, contracts or other instruments which the Board has authorized to be executed, except in cases where the signing and execution thereof shall be expressly delegated by the Board or by this Agreement to some other officer or agent of the Company, or shall be required by law to be otherwise signed or executed. The President shall, in general, perform all duties incident to the office of President of a Delaware corporation and such other duties as may be prescribed by the Board or the Chairman from time to time. Unless otherwise ordered by the Board, the President shall have full power and authority on behalf of the Company to attend, act and vote in person or by proxy at any meetings of shareholders of any corporation in which the Company may hold stock, and at any such meeting shall hold and may exercise all rights incident to the ownership of such stock which the Company, as owner, would have had and could have exercised if present. The Board may confer like powers on any other person or persons.

11.8 Vice President. In the absence of the President, or in the event of the President's death, inability or refusal to act, the Vice President (or, in the event there be more than one Vice President, the Vice Presidents in order designated at the time of their appointment, or in the absence of any designation, then in the order of their appointment), if that office be created and filled, shall perform the duties of the President and when so acting shall have all the powers of, and be subject to all the restrictions upon, the President. Any Vice President may sign certificates for Units and shall perform such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to such person by the Chairman, the President or by the Board.

11.9 Treasurer. The Treasurer, if that office be created and filled, shall have charge and custody of, and be responsible for, all funds and securities of the Company, receive and give receipts for monies due and payable to the Company from any source whatsoever, and deposit all such monies in the name of the Company in such banks, trust companies and other depositories as shall be selected in accordance with the provisions of Section 6.1, and in general, perform all the duties incident to the office of Treasurer of a Delaware corporation and such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to such person by the Chairman, the President or the Board. If required by the Board, the Treasurer shall give a bond for the faithful discharge of such officer's duties in such sum and with such surety or sureties as the Board shall determine.

11.10 Secretary. The Secretary, if that office be created and filled, shall keep the minutes of the Member's meetings and of the Board's meetings in one or more books provided for that purpose, see that all notices are duly given in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement or as required by law, be custodian of the Company records and of the seal, if any, of the Company, be responsible for authenticating records of the Company, keep a register of the mailing address of the Member, which shall be furnished to the Secretary by the Member, have general charge of the transfer books of the Company, and, in general, perform all duties incident to the office of Secretary of a Delaware corporation and such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to such person by the Chairman, the President or the Board.

11.11 Assistant Treasurers and Assistant Secretaries.

(a) Assistant Treasurer. The Assistant Treasurer, if that office be created and filled, shall, if required by the Board, give bond for the faithful discharge of such officer's duty in such sum and with such surety as the Board shall determine.

(b) Assistant Secretary. The Assistant Secretary, if that office be created and filled, and if authorized by the Board, may sign, with the President or Vice President, certificates for Units.

(c) Additional Duties. The Assistant Treasurers and Assistant Secretaries, in general, shall perform such additional duties as shall be assigned to them by the Treasurer or the Secretary, respectively, or by the Chairman, the President or the Board.

12. STANDARD OF CARE OF DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS; INDEMNIFICATION.

12.1 Standard of Care. The directors and officers of the Company shall not be liable, responsible or accountable in damages to the Member or the Company on account of such director's or officer's status as a director or officer of the Company or by reason of any act or omission related to the business of the Company performed or omitted by them in good faith with the care an officer of a Delaware corporation of like position would exercise under similar circumstances and in a manner reasonably believed by them to be in the best interests of the Company, and, with respect to any criminal proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe their conduct was unlawful. To the extent that, at law or in equity, a director or officer of the Company has duties (including fiduciary duties) and liabilities relating thereto to the Company, the Member or any other person, such director or officer acting under this Agreement shall not be liable to the Company the Member or any other person for breach of fiduciary duty for its good faith reliance on the provisions of this Agreement, and the provisions of this Agreement, to the extent that they restrict or eliminate the duties (including fiduciary duties) and liabilities relating thereto of a director or officer otherwise existing at law or in equity, are agreed by the Member and the Company to replace such other duties and liabilities of such director or officer.

12.2. Indemnification.

(a) The Company shall indemnify and hold harmless each director or officer of the Company against reasonable expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees), judgments, taxes, penalties, fines (including any excise tax assessed with respect to an employee benefit plan) and amounts paid in settlement (collectively "Liability"), incurred by such person in connection with defending any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding (whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, and whether formal or informal) to which such person is, or is threatened to be made, a party because such person is or was a director or officer of the Company, or is or was serving at the request of the Company as a director, officer, partner, member, employee or agent of another domestic or foreign corporation, partnership, limited liability company, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, including service with respect to employee benefit plans, provided that the director or officer has met the standard of conduct described in Section 12.1. A director or officer shall be considered to be serving an employee benefit plan at the Company's request if such person's duties to the Company also impose duties on or otherwise involve services by such person to the plan or to participants in or beneficiaries of the plan. The indemnities hereunder shall survive the termination of the Company and this Agreement.

(b) At the request of the director or officer entitled to indemnification hereunder, the Company shall pay or reimburse reasonable expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees) incurred by a director or officer who is a party to a proceeding in advance of final disposition of such proceeding if:

(1) The director or officer furnishes the Company a written affirmation of his good faith belief that he has met the standard of conduct described in Section 12.1;

(2) The director or officer furnishes the Company a written undertaking, executed personally or on the director's or officer's behalf, to repay the advance if it is ultimately determined that the director or officer did not meet the standard of conduct or is otherwise not entitled to indemnification hereunder. Such undertaking shall be an unlimited general obligation of the director or officer, but shall not be required to be secured and may be accepted without reference to financial ability to make repayment; and

(3) A determination is made that the facts then known to those making the determination would not preclude indemnification under the provisions of this Section 12.2.

(c) The indemnification against Liability and advancement of expenses provided by, or granted pursuant to, this Section 12.2 shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which those seeking indemnification or advancement may be, or hereafter become, entitled under any agreement, action of the Member or disinterested directors or otherwise, both as to action in their official capacity and as to action in another capacity while holding such office of the Company, shall continue as to a person who has ceased to be a director or officer of the Company, and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors and administrators of such a person.

Any repeal or modification of this Section 12.2 by the Member shall not adversely affect any right or protection of a director or officer of the Company under this Section 12.2 with respect to any act or omission occurring prior to the time of such repeal or modification.

13. OTHER ACTIVITIES; RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS.

13.1 Other Activities. The directors and officers shall devote such of their time to the affairs of the Company's business as they shall deem necessary. The Member, directors, officers and their Affiliates (as hereinafter defined) may engage in, or possess an interest in, other business ventures of any nature and description, independently or with others, whether or not such activities are competitive with those of the Company. Neither the Company nor the Member shall have any rights by virtue of this Agreement in and to such independent ventures, or to the income or profits derived therefrom. The Member shall not be obligated to present any particular business opportunity of a character which, if presented to the Company, could be taken by the Company, and the Member and its Affiliates shall have the right to take for their own account, or to recommend to others, any such particular business opportunity to the exclusion of the Company. For purposes of this Agreement, the term "Affiliate" shall mean any person, corporation, partnership, limited liability company, trust or other entity (directly or indirectly) controlling, controlled by, or under common control with, another person.

13.2 Related Party Transactions. The fact that a director, officer or their Affiliates are directly or indirectly interested in or connected with any person, firm or corporation employed by the Company to render or perform a service, or to or from whom the Company may purchase, sell or lease property, shall not prohibit the Company from employing such person, firm or corporation or from otherwise dealing with him or it, and neither the Company, nor the Member, shall have any rights in or to any income or profits derived therefrom. All such dealings with a director or such director's Affiliates will be on terms which are competitive and comparable with amounts charged by independent third parties.

14. MEMBERS.

14.1 Limitation on Participation in Management. Except as expressly authorized by this Agreement or as expressly required by the Act, the Member, solely by virtue of its status as the Member, shall not participate in the management or control of the Company's business, transact any business for the Company or have the power to act for or bind the Company, said powers being vested solely and exclusively in the Board and the officers.

14.2 Assignment of Member's Interest. The Member may freely sell, assign, transfer, pledge, hypothecate, encumber or otherwise dispose of the Member's Units. If the member transfers all of its Units, the transferee of such Units shall automatically become a substitute Member in the place of the Member. The Board shall amend Exhibit A from time to time to reflect transfers made in accordance with this Section 14.2.

14.3 Bankruptcy, Dissolution, Etc. of Member. Upon the occurrence of any of the events set forth in Sections 18-304 or 18-705 of the Act with respect to the member, the successor-in-interest or personal representative of the Member shall automatically become a substitute Member in place of the Member.

14.4 Certificates for Units.

(a) Certificates representing Units shall be in such form as may be determined by the Board. Such certificates shall be signed by the President or Vice President. The signature of such officer upon such certificates may be signed manually or by facsimile. All certificates for Units shall be consecutively numbered. The name of the person owning the Units represented thereby, with the number of Units and date of issue, shall be entered on the books of the Company. All certificates surrendered to the Company for transfer shall be canceled and no new certificates shall be issued until the former certificates for a like number of Units shall have been surrendered and canceled, except that, in case of a lost, destroyed or mutilated certificate, a new certificate may be issued therefor upon such terms and indemnity to the Company as the Board may prescribe.

(b) A Unit in the Company evidenced by a certificate shall constitute a security governed by Article 8 of the Uniform Commercial Code. Each certificate evidencing membership interests in the Company shall bear the following legend: "This certificate evidences an interest in Sharon Pennsylvania Hospital Company, LLC and shall be a security for purposes of Article 8 of the Uniform Commercial Code." No change to this provision shall be effective until all outstanding certificates have been surrendered for cancellation and any new certificates thereafter issued shall not bear the foregoing legend.

15. DISSOLUTION.

15.1 Dissolution. Except as otherwise provided in the Act, the Company shall dissolve upon the decision of the Member to dissolve the Company or the sale or other disposition of all, or substantially all, of the assets of the Company and the sale and/or collection of any evidence of indebtedness received in connection therewith. Dissolution of the Company shall be effective upon the date specified in the Member's resolution or upon the sale or other disposition of all, or substantially all of the Assets of the Company and the sale and/or collection of any evidence of indebtedness received in connection therewith as applicable, but the Company shall not terminate until the assets of the Company shall have been distributed as provided in Section 15.3 and a certificate of cancellation of the certificate of formation of the Company is filed with the office of the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware pursuant to Section 18-203 of the Act. Notwithstanding dissolution of the Company, prior to the liquidation and termination of the Company, the Company shall continue to be governed by this Agreement.

15.2 Sale of Assets Upon Dissolution. Following the dissolution of the Company, the Company shall be wound up and the Board shall determine whether the assets of the Company are to be sold or whether some or all of such assets are to be distributed to the Member in kind in liquidation of the Company.

15.3 Distributions Upon Dissolution. Upon the dissolution of the Company, the properties of the Company to be sold shall be liquidated in orderly fashion and the proceeds thereof, and the property to be distributed in kind, shall be distributed as follows:

(a) First, to the payment and discharge of all of the Company's debts and liabilities, to the necessary expenses of liquidation and to the establishment of any cash reserves which the Member determines to create for unmatured and/or contingent liabilities or obligations of the Company.

(b) Second, to the Member.

16. GENERAL.

16.1 Amendment.

(a) Except as provided in Section 16.l(b), this Agreement may be modified or amended from time to time only upon the consent of the Member.

(b) In addition to any amendments authorized by Section 16.1(a), this Agreement may be amended from time to time by the Board without the consent of the Member to cure any ambiguity, to correct or supplement any provision hereof which may be inconsistent with any other provision hereof, or to make any other provisions with respect to matters or questions arising under this Agreement which will not be inconsistent with the provisions of this Agreement.

16.2 Captions; Section References. Section titles or captions contained in this Agreement are inserted only as a matter of convenience and reference, and in no way define, limit, extend or describe the scope of this Agreement, or the intent of any provision hereof. All references herein to Sections shall refer to Sections of this Agreement unless the context clearly requires otherwise.

16.3 Number and Gender. Unless the context otherwise requires, when used herein, the singular shall include the plural, the plural shall include the singular, and all nouns, pronouns and any variations thereof shall be deemed to refer to the masculine, feminine or neuter, as the identity of the person or persons may require.

16.4 Severability. If any provision of this Agreement, or the application thereof to any person, entity or circumstances, shall be invalid or unenforceable to any extent, the remainder of this Agreement, and the application of such provision to other persons, entities or circumstances, shall not be affected thereby and shall be enforced to the greatest extent permitted by law.

16.5 Binding Agreement. Except as otherwise provided herein, this Agreement shall be binding upon, and inure to the benefit of, the parties hereto and their respective executors, administrators, heirs, successors and assigns.

16.6 Applicable Law. This Agreement shall be governed by, and construed in accordance with, the laws of the State of Delaware without regard to its conflict of laws rules.

16.7 Entire Agreement. This Agreement contains the entire agreement with respect to the subject matter hereof.

The Member may, but shall not be required to, make additional capital contributions to the Company from time to time.

4.2 No Liability of Member. Except as otherwise specifically provided in the Act, the Member shall not have any personal liability for the obligations of the Company. Except as provided in Section 4.1, the Member shall not be obligated to contribute funds or loan money to the Company.

4.3 No Interest on Capital Contributions. The Member shall not be entitled to interest on any capital contributions made to the Company.

5. ACCOUNTING.

5.1 Books and Records. The Company shall maintain full and accurate books of the Company at the Company's principal place of business, or such other place as the Board shall determine, showing all receipts and expenditures, assets and liabilities, net income and loss, and all other records necessary for recording the Company's business and affairs. Such books and records shall be open to the inspection and examination of the Member in person or by its duly authorized representatives at all reasonable times.

5.2 Fiscal Year. The fiscal year of the Company shall be the calendar year.

6. BANK ACCOUNTS.

6.1 Bank Accounts. All funds of the Company shall be deposited in its name into such checking, savings and/or money market accounts or time certificates as shall be designated by the Board. Withdrawals therefrom shall be made upon such signature or signatures as the Board may designate. The Board shall be entitled to make withdrawals from such accounts to invest such funds in connection with the cash management system employed by CHS/Community Health Systems, Inc. on behalf of its affiliated hospitals and health care facilities.

7. NET INCOME AND NET LOSS.

7.1 Net Income and Net Loss. All net income or net loss of the Company shall be for the account of the Member.

8. FEDERAL INCOME TAX ELECTIONS.

8.1 Tax Treatment. It is the intention of the Member that for Federal, state and local income tax purposes the Company be disregarded as an entity separate from the Member in accordance with the provisions of Treas. Reg. §§ 301.7701-2(c)(2)(i) and 301.7701-3(b)(1)(ii). The Member shall take all actions which may be necessary or required in order for the Company to be so disregarded for income tax purposes.

9. DISTRIBUTIONS.

9.1 Distributions. The Board shall determine, in the Board's sole discretion, the amount and timing of any distributions to the Member and whether such distributions shall be paid in cash or property.

10. BOARD OF DIRECTORS.

10.1 General Powers. All powers of the Company shall be exercised by or under the authority of, and the business and affairs of the Company managed under the direction of, its Board of Directors ("Board").

10.2 Number, Election and Term. The Board shall consist of not less than one, nor more than seven individual directors, the exact number of which shall be determined by the Board from time to time. Initially, there shall be three directors, Martin G. Schweinhart, W. Larry Cash and Rachel A. Seifert. Except as otherwise expressly provided herein, directors shall be elected at the organizational meeting of the Member and at each annual meeting thereafter. A decrease in the number of directors shall not shorten an incumbent director's term. Each director shall hold office until such director resigns or is removed. Despite the expiration of a director's term, such director shall continue to serve until the director's successor is elected and qualifies, until there is a decrease in the number of directors or the director is removed.

10.3 Resignation of Directors. A director may resign at any time by delivering written notice to the Board, its Chairman (as hereinafter defined), if any, or the Company. A resignation shall be effective when the notice is delivered unless the notice specifies a later effective date.

10.4 Removal of Directors by Member. A director shall be removed by the Member only at a meeting called for the purpose of removing such director and the meeting notice shall state that the purpose, or one of the purposes, of the meeting is removal of the director. The Member may remove one or more directors with or without cause.

10.5 Vacancy on Board. If a vacancy occurs on the Board, including a vacancy resulting from an increase in the number of directors, the Board shall fill the vacancy, and if the directors remaining in office constitute fewer than a quorum of the Board, they may fill the vacancy by the affirmative vote of a majority of all the directors remaining in office. A vacancy that will occur at a specific later date may be filled before the vacancy occurs, but the new director may not take office until the vacancy occurs.

10.6 Compensation of Directors. Directors on the Board shall not be entitled to receive a fee for the director's services as a director on the Board.

10.7 Meetings. The Board may hold regular or special meetings in or out of the State of Delaware. The Board may permit any or all directors to participate in a regular or special meeting by, or conduct the meeting through the use of, any means of communication by which all directors participating may simultaneously hear each other during the meeting. A director participating in a meeting by this means shall be deemed to be present in person at the meeting.

10.8 Special Meetings. Special meetings of the Board may be called by, or at the request of, the Chairman, if any, or the chief executive officer of the Company. All special meetings of the Board shall be held at the principal office or such other place as may be specified in the notice of the meeting.

10.9 Action Without Meeting. Any action required or permitted to be taken at a Board meeting may be taken without a meeting, without prior notice and without a vote if a consent or consents in writing, setting forth the action so taken, shall be signed by the directors having not less than the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to authorize or take such action at a meeting at which all directors entitled to vote thereon were present and voted.

10.11 Notice of Meetings. Meetings of the Board may be held without notice of the date, time, place or purpose of the meeting.

10.12 Quorum and Voting. A majority of the number of directors fixed by, or determined in accordance with, this Agreement shall constitute a quorum of the Board. If a quorum is present, an affirmative vote by a majority of the number of directors present shall constitute an act of the Board. A director who is present at a meeting of the Board or a committee of the Board when action is taken shall be deemed to have assented to the action taken unless (i) the director objects at the beginning of the meeting, or promptly upon the director's arrival, to holding the meeting or transacting business at the meeting or (ii) the director's dissent or abstention from the action taken is entered in the minutes of the meeting or the director delivers written notice of the director's dissent or abstention to the presiding officer of the meeting before its adjournment or to the Company immediately after adjournment of the meeting. The right of dissent or abstention shall not be available to a director who votes in favor of the action taken.

10.13 Chairman and Vice Chairman of the Board. The Board may appoint one of its members as Chairman of the Board ("Chairman"). The Board may also appoint one of its members as Vice Chairman of the Board, and such individual shall serve in the absence of the Chairman and perform such additional duties as may be assigned to such person by the Board.

11. OFFICERS.

11.1 Officers Generally. The Company shall have the officers appointed by the Board in accordance with this Agreement. The same individual may simultaneously hold more than one office in the Company. Section 11.10 delegates to the Secretary, if such office be created and filled, the required responsibility of preparing minutes of the Board's and the Member's meetings and for authenticating records of the Company. If such office shall not be created and filled, then the Board shall delegate to one of the officers of the Company such responsibility.

11.2 Duties of Officers. Each officer of the Company shall have the authority and shall perform the duties set forth in this Agreement for such office or, to the extent consistent with this Agreement, the duties prescribed by the Board or by direction of an officer authorized by the Board to prescribe the duties of other officers.

11.3 Appointment and Term of Office. The officers of the Company shall be appointed by the Board. Vacancies may be filled or new offices created and filled at any meeting of the Board. Each officer shall hold office until such officer's successor shall be duly appointed or until the officer's death or until the officer shall resign or shall have been removed in the manner hereinafter provided.

11.4 Resignation and Removal of Officers. An officer may resign at any time by delivering notice to the Company. A resignation shall be effective when the notice is delivered unless the notice specifies a later effective date. If a resignation is made effective at a later date and the Company accepts the future effective date, the Board may fill the pending vacancy before the effective date if the Board provides that the successor shall not take office until the effective date. The Board may remove any officer at any time with or without cause.

11.5 Contract Rights of Officers. Appointment of an officer or agent shall not of itself create contract rights. An officer's removal shall not affect the officer's contract rights, if any, with the Company. An officer's resignation shall not affect the Company's contract rights, if any, with the officer.

11.6 Chairman of the Board. The Chairman, if that office be created and filled, may, at the discretion of the Board, be the chief executive officer of the Company and, if such, shall, in general, supervise and control the affairs and business of the Company, subject to control by the Board. The Chairman shall preside at all meetings of the Member and the Board.

11.7 President. The President, if that office be created and filled, shall be the chief executive officer of the Company, unless a Chairman is appointed and designated chief executive officer pursuant to Section 11.6. If no Chairman has been appointed or, in the absence of the Chairman, the President shall preside at all meetings of the Member. The President may sign certificates for Units, any deeds, mortgages, bonds, contracts or other instruments which the Board has authorized to be executed, except in cases where the signing and execution thereof shall be expressly delegated by the Board or by this Agreement to some other officer or agent of the Company, or shall be required by law to be otherwise signed or executed. The President shall, in general, perform all duties incident to the office of President of a Delaware corporation and such other duties as may be prescribed by the Board or the Chairman from time to time. Unless otherwise ordered by the Board, the President shall have full power and authority on behalf of the Company to attend, act and vote in person or by proxy at any meetings of shareholders of any corporation in which the Company may hold stock, and at any such meeting shall hold and may exercise all rights incident to the ownership of such stock which the Company, as owner, would have had and could have exercised if present. The Board may confer like powers on any other person or persons.

11.8 Vice President. In the absence of the President, or in the event of the President's death, inability or refusal to act, the Vice President (or, in the event there be more than one Vice President, the Vice Presidents in order designated at the time of their appointment, or in the absence of any designation, then in the order of their appointment), if that office be created and filled, shall perform the duties of the President and when so acting shall have all the powers of, and be subject to all the restrictions upon, the President. Any Vice President may sign certificates for Units and shall perform such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to such person by the Chairman, the President or by the Board.

11.9 Treasurer. The Treasurer, if that office be created and filled, shall have charge and custody of, and be responsible for, all funds and securities of the Company, receive and give receipts for monies due and payable to the Company from any source whatsoever, and deposit all such monies in the name of the Company in such banks, trust companies and other depositories as shall be selected in accordance with the provisions of Section 6.1, and in general, perform all the duties incident to the office of Treasurer of a Delaware corporation and such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to such person by the Chairman, the President or the Board. If required by the Board, the Treasurer shall give a bond for the faithful discharge of such officer's duties in such sum and with such surety or sureties as the Board shall determine.

11.10 Secretary. The Secretary, if that office be created and filled, shall keep the minutes of the Member's meetings and of the Board's meetings in one or more books provided for that purpose, see that all notices are duly given in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement or as required by law, be custodian of the Company records and of the seal, if any, of the Company, be responsible for authenticating records of the Company, keep a register of the mailing address of the Member, which shall be furnished to the Secretary by the Member, have general charge of the transfer books of the Company, and, in general, perform all duties incident to the office of Secretary of a Delaware corporation and such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to such person by the Chairman, the President or the Board.

11.11 Assistant Treasurers and Assistant Secretaries.

(a) Assistant Treasurer. The Assistant Treasurer, if that office be created and filled, shall, if required by the Board, give bond for the faithful discharge of such officer's duty in such sum and with such surety as the Board shall determine.

(b) Assistant Secretary. The Assistant Secretary, if that office be created and filled, and if authorized by the Board, may sign, with the President or Vice President, certificates for Units.

(c) Additional Duties. The Assistant Treasurers and Assistant Secretaries, in general, shall perform such additional duties as shall be assigned to them by the Treasurer or the Secretary, respectively, or by the Chairman, the President or the Board.

12. STANDARD OF CARE OF DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS; INDEMNIFICATION.

12.1 Standard of Care. The directors and officers of the Company shall not be liable, responsible or accountable in damages to the Member or the Company on account of such director's or officer's status as a director or officer of the Company or by reason of any act or omission related to the business of the Company performed or omitted by them in good faith with the care an officer of a Delaware corporation of like position would exercise under similar circumstances and in a manner reasonably believed by them to be in the best interests of the Company, and, with respect to any criminal proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe their conduct was unlawful. To the extent that, at law or in equity, a director or officer of the Company has duties (including fiduciary duties) and liabilities relating thereto to the Company, the Member or any other person, such director or officer acting under this Agreement shall not be liable to the Company the Member or any other person for breach of fiduciary duty for its good faith reliance on the provisions of this Agreement, and the provisions of this Agreement, to the extent that they restrict or eliminate the duties (including fiduciary duties) and liabilities relating thereto of a director or officer otherwise existing at law or in equity, are agreed by the Member and the Company to replace such other duties and liabilities of such director or officer.

12.2. Indemnification.

(a) The Company shall indemnify and hold harmless each director or officer of the Company against reasonable expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees), judgments, taxes, penalties, fines (including any excise tax assessed with respect to an employee benefit plan) and amounts paid in settlement (collectively "Liability"), incurred by such person in connection with defending any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding (whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, and whether formal or informal) to which such person is, or is threatened to be made, a party because such person is or was a director or officer of the Company, or is or was serving at the request of the Company as a director, officer, partner, member, employee or agent of another domestic or foreign corporation, partnership, limited liability company, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, including service with respect to employee benefit plans, provided that the director or officer has met the standard of conduct described in Section 12.1. A director or officer shall be considered to be serving an employee benefit plan at the Company's request if such person's duties to the Company also impose duties on or otherwise involve services by such person to the plan or to participants in or beneficiaries of the plan. The indemnities hereunder shall survive the termination of the Company and this Agreement.

(b) At the request of the director or officer entitled to indemnification hereunder, the Company shall pay or reimburse reasonable expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees) incurred by a director or officer who is a party to a proceeding in advance of final disposition of such proceeding if:

(1) The director or officer furnishes the Company a written affirmation of his good faith belief that he has met the standard of conduct described in Section 12.1;

(2) The director or officer furnishes the Company a written undertaking, executed personally or on the director's or officer's behalf, to repay the advance if it is ultimately determined that the director or officer did not meet the standard of conduct or is otherwise not entitled to indemnification hereunder. Such undertaking shall be an unlimited general obligation of the director or officer, but shall not be required to be secured and may be accepted without reference to financial ability to make repayment; and

(3) A determination is made that the facts then known to those making the determination would not preclude indemnification under the provisions of this Section 12.2.

(c) The indemnification against Liability and advancement of expenses provided by, or granted pursuant to, this Section 12.2 shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which those seeking indemnification or advancement may be, or hereafter become, entitled under any agreement, action of the Member or disinterested directors or otherwise, both as to action in their official capacity and as to action in another capacity while holding such office of the Company, shall continue as to a person who has ceased to be a director or officer of the Company, and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors and administrators of such a person.

Any repeal or modification of this Section 12.2 by the Member shall not adversely affect any right or protection of a director or officer of the Company under this Section 12.2 with respect to any act or omission occurring prior to the time of such repeal or modification.

13. OTHER ACTIVITIES; RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS.

13.1 Other Activities. The directors and officers shall devote such of their time to the affairs of the Company's business as they shall deem necessary. The Member, directors, officers and their Affiliates (as hereinafter defined) may engage in, or possess an interest in, other business ventures of any nature and description, independently or with others, whether or not such activities are competitive with those of the Company. Neither the Company nor the Member shall have any rights by virtue of this Agreement in and to such independent ventures, or to the income or profits derived therefrom. The Member shall not be obligated to present any particular business opportunity of a character which, if presented to the Company, could be taken by the Company, and the Member and its Affiliates shall have the right to take for their own account, or to recommend to others, any such particular business opportunity to the exclusion of the Company. For purposes of this Agreement, the term "Affiliate" shall mean any person, corporation, partnership, limited liability company, trust or other entity (directly or indirectly) controlling, controlled by, or under common control with, another person.

13.2 Related Party Transactions. The fact that a director, officer or their Affiliates are directly or indirectly interested in or connected with any person, firm or corporation employed by the Company to render or perform a service, or to or from whom the Company may purchase, sell or lease property, shall not prohibit the Company from employing such person, firm or corporation or from otherwise dealing with him or it, and neither the Company, nor the Member, shall have any rights in or to any income or profits derived therefrom. All such dealings with a director or such director's Affiliates will be on terms which are competitive and comparable with amounts charged by independent third parties.

14. MEMBERS.

14.1 Limitation on Participation in Management. Except as expressly authorized by this Agreement or as expressly required by the Act, the Member, solely by virtue of its status as the Member, shall not participate in the management or control of the Company's business, transact any business for the Company or have the power to act for or bind the Company, said powers being vested solely and exclusively in the Board and the officers.

14.2 Assignment of Member's Interest. The Member may freely sell, assign, transfer, pledge, hypothecate, encumber or otherwise dispose of the Member's Units. If the member transfers all of its Units, the transferee of such Units shall automatically become a substitute Member in the place of the Member. The Board shall amend Exhibit A from time to time to reflect transfers made in accordance with this Section 14.2.

14.3 Bankruptcy, Dissolution, Etc. of Member. Upon the occurrence of any of the events set forth in Sections 18-304 or 18-705 of the Act with respect to the member, the successor-in-interest or personal representative of the Member shall automatically become a substitute Member in place of the Member.

14.4 Certificates for Units.

(a) Certificates representing Units shall be in such form as may be determined by the Board. Such certificates shall be signed by the President or Vice President. The signature of such officer upon such certificates may be signed manually or by facsimile. All certificates for Units shall be consecutively numbered. The name of the person owning the Units represented thereby, with the number of Units and date of issue, shall be entered on the books of the Company. All certificates surrendered to the Company for transfer shall be canceled and no new certificates shall be issued until the former certificates for a like number of Units shall have been surrendered and canceled, except that, in case of a lost, destroyed or mutilated certificate, a new certificate may be issued therefor upon such terms and indemnity to the Company as the Board may prescribe.

(b) A Unit in the Company evidenced by a certificate shall constitute a security governed by Article 8 of the Uniform Commercial Code. Each certificate evidencing membership interests in the Company shall bear the following legend: "This certificate evidences an interest in «Entity Name», LLC and shall be a security for purposes of Article 8 of the Uniform Commercial Code." No change to this provision shall be effective until all outstanding certificates have been surrendered for cancellation and any new certificates thereafter issued shall not bear the foregoing legend.

15. DISSOLUTION.

15.1 Dissolution. Except as otherwise provided in the Act, the Company shall dissolve upon the decision of the Member to dissolve the Company or the sale or other disposition of all, or substantially all, of the assets of the Company and the sale and/or collection of any evidence of indebtedness received in connection therewith. Dissolution of the Company shall be effective upon the date specified in the Member's resolution or upon the sale or other disposition of all, or substantially all of the Assets of the Company and the sale and/or collection of any evidence of indebtedness received in connection therewith as applicable, but the Company shall not terminate until the assets of the Company shall have been distributed as provided in Section 15.3 and a certificate of cancellation of the certificate of formation of the Company is filed with the office of the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware pursuant to Section 18-203 of the Act. Notwithstanding dissolution of the Company, prior to the liquidation and termination of the Company, the Company shall continue to be governed by this Agreement.

15.2 Sale of Assets Upon Dissolution. Following the dissolution of the Company, the Company shall be wound up and the Board shall determine whether the assets of the Company are to be sold or whether some or all of such assets are to be distributed to the Member in kind in liquidation of the Company.

15.3 Distributions Upon Dissolution. Upon the dissolution of the Company, the properties of the Company to be sold shall be liquidated in orderly fashion and the proceeds thereof, and the property to be distributed in kind, shall be distributed as follows:

(a) First, to the payment and discharge of all of the Company's debts and liabilities, to the necessary expenses of liquidation and to the establishment of any cash reserves which the Member determines to create for unmatured and/or contingent liabilities or obligations of the Company.

(b) Second, to the Member.

16. GENERAL.

16.1 Amendment.

(a) Except as provided in Section 16.1(b), this Agreement may be modified or amended from time to time only upon the consent of the Member.

(b) In addition to any amendments authorized by Section 16.1(a), this Agreement may be amended from time to time by the Board without the consent of the Member to cure any ambiguity, to correct or supplement any provision hereof which may be inconsistent with any other provision hereof, or to make any other provisions with respect to matters or questions arising under this Agreement which will not be inconsistent with the provisions of this Agreement.

16.2 Captions; Section References. Section titles or captions contained in this Agreement are inserted only as a matter of convenience and reference, and in no way define, limit, extend or describe the scope of this Agreement, or the intent of any provision hereof. All references herein to Sections shall refer to Sections of this Agreement unless the context clearly requires otherwise.

16.3 Number and Gender. Unless the context otherwise requires, when used herein, the singular shall include the plural, the plural shall include the singular, and all nouns, pronouns and any variations thereof shall be deemed to refer to the masculine, feminine or neuter, as the identity of the person or persons may require.

16.4 Severability. If any provision of this Agreement, or the application thereof to any person, entity or circumstances, shall be invalid or unenforceable to any extent, the remainder of this Agreement, and the application of such provision to other persons, entities or circumstances, shall not be affected thereby and shall be enforced to the greatest extent permitted by law.

16.5 Binding Agreement. Except as otherwise provided herein, this Agreement shall be binding upon, and inure to the benefit of, the parties hereto and their respective executors, administrators, heirs, successors and assigns.

16.6 Applicable Law. This Agreement shall be governed by, and construed in accordance with, the laws of the State of Delaware without regard to its conflict of laws rules.

16.7 Entire Agreement. This Agreement contains the entire agreement with respect to the subject matter hereof.

(a) To acquire, own, manage and operate certain healthcare facilities.

(b) To engage in such other lawful activities in which a limited liability company may engage under the Act as is determined by the Board from time to time.

(c) To do all other things necessary or desirable in connection with the foregoing, or otherwise contemplated in this Agreement.

3.2 Company's Power. In furtherance of the purpose of the Company as set forth in Section 3.1, the Company shall have the power to do any and all things whatsoever necessary, appropriate or advisable in connection with such purpose, or as otherwise contemplated in this Agreement.

3.3 Term. The term of the Company as a limited liability company shall commence as of the date of the filing of a Certificate of Formation with the Delaware Secretary of State's Office, and shall continue until dissolved in accordance with Section 15.

4. CAPITAL.

4.1 Initial Capital Contribution of Member. The limited liability company interests in the Company shall be divided into units ("Units"). The total number of Units that the Company is initially authorized to issue is 100 Units. The Member has contributed the cash or other property identified on, and has been issued the number of Units listed on, Exhibit A. The Member may, but shall not be required to, make additional capital contributions to the Company from time to time.

4.2 No Liability of Member. Except as otherwise specifically provided in the Act, the Member shall not have any personal liability for the obligations of the Company. Except as provided in Section 4.1, the Member shall not be obligated to contribute funds or loan money to the Company.

4.3 No Interest on Capital Contributions. The Member shall not be entitled to interest on any capital contributions made to the Company.

5. ACCOUNTING.

5.1 Books and Records. The Company shall maintain full and accurate books of the Company at the Company's principal place of business, or such other place as the Board shall determine, showing all receipts and expenditures, assets and liabilities, net income and loss, and all other records necessary for recording the Company's business and affairs. 8. FEDERAL INCOME TAX ELECTIONS.

Reg. §§ 301.7701-2(c)(2)(i) and 301.7701-3(b)(1)(ii). The Member shall take all actions which may be necessary or required in order for the Company to be so disregarded for income tax purposes.

Initially, there shall be three directors, Martin G. Schweinhart, W. Larry Cash and Rachel A. Seifert. Except as otherwise expressly provided herein, directors shall be elected at the organizational meeting of the Member and at each annual meeting thereafter. A decrease in the number of directors shall not shorten an incumbent director's term. Each director shall hold office until such director resigns or is removed. Despite the expiration of a director's term, such director shall continue to serve until the director's successor is elected and qualifies, until there is a decrease in the number of directors or the director is removed.

10.3 Resignation of Directors. A director may resign at any time by delivering written notice to the Board, its Chairman (as hereinafter defined), if any, or the Company. A resignation shall be effective when the notice is delivered unless the notice specifies a later effective date.

10.4 Removal of Directors by Member. A director shall be removed by the Member only at a meeting called for the purpose of removing such director and the meeting notice shall state that the purpose, or one of the purposes, of the meeting is removal of the director. The Member may remove one or more directors with or without cause.

10.5 Vacancy on Board. If a vacancy occurs on the Board, including a vacancy resulting from an increase in the number of directors, the Board shall fill the vacancy, and if the directors remaining in office constitute fewer than a quorum of the Board, they may fill the vacancy by the affirmative vote of a majority of all the directors remaining in office. A vacancy that will occur at a specific later date may be filled before the vacancy occurs, but the new director may not take office until the vacancy occurs.

10.6 Compensation of Directors. Directors on the Board shall not be entitled to receive a fee for the director's services as a director on the Board.

10.7 Meetings. The Board may hold regular or special meetings in or out of the State of Delaware. The Board may permit any or all directors to participate in a regular or special meeting by, or conduct the meeting through the use of, any means of communication by which all directors participating may simultaneously hear each other during the meeting. A director participating in a meeting by this means shall be deemed to be present in person at the meeting.

10.8 Special Meetings. Special meetings of the Board may be called by, or at the request of, the Chairman, if any, or the chief executive officer of the Company. All special meetings of the Board shall be held at the principal office or such other place as may be specified in the notice of the meeting.

10.9 Action Without Meeting. Any action required or permitted to be taken at a Board meeting may be taken without a meeting, without prior notice and without a vote if a consent or consents in writing, setting forth the action so taken, shall be signed by the directors having not less than the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to authorize or take such action at a meeting at which all directors entitled to vote thereon were present and voted.

10.11 Notice of Meetings. Meetings of the Board may be held without notice of the date, time, place or purpose of the meeting.

10.12 Quorum and Voting. A majority of the number of directors fixed by, or determined in accordance with, this Agreement shall constitute a quorum of the Board. If a quorum is present, an affirmative vote by a majority of the number of directors present shall constitute an act of the Board. A director who is present at a meeting of the Board or a committee of the Board when action is taken shall be deemed to have assented to the action taken unless (i) the director objects at the beginning of the meeting, or promptly upon the director' s arrival, to holding the meeting or transacting business at the meeting or (ii) the director's dissent or abstention from the action taken is entered in the minutes of the meeting or the director delivers written notice of the director's dissent or abstention to the presiding officer of the meeting before its adjournment or to the Company immediately after adjournment of the meeting. The right of dissent or abstention shall not be available to a director who votes in favor of the action taken.

10.13 Chairman and Vice Chairman of the Board. The Board may appoint one of its members as Chairman of the Board ("Chairman"). The Board may also appoint one of its members as Vice Chairman of the Board, and such individual shall serve in the absence of the Chairman and perform such additional duties as may be assigned to such person by the Board.

11. OFFICERS.

11.1 Officers Generally. The Company shall have the officers appointed by the Board in accordance with this Agreement. The same individual may simultaneously hold more than one office in the Company. Section 11.10 delegates to the Secretary, if such office be created and filled, the required responsibility of preparing minutes of the Board's and the Member's meetings and for authenticating records of the Company. If such office shall not be created and filled, then the Board shall delegate to one of the officers of the Company such responsibility.

11.2 Duties of Officers. Each officer of the Company shall have the authority and shall perform the duties set forth in this Agreement for such office or, to the extent consistent with this Agreement, the duties prescribed by the Board or by direction of an officer authorized by the Board to prescribe the duties of other officers.

11.3 Appointment and Term of Office. The officers of the Company shall be appointed by the Board. Vacancies may be filled or new offices created and filled at any meeting of the Board. Each officer shall hold office until such officer's successor shall be duly appointed or until the officer's death or until the officer shall resign or shall have been removed in the manner hereinafter provided.

11.4 Resignation and Removal of Officers. An officer may resign at any time by delivering notice to the Company. A resignation shall be effective when the notice is delivered unless the notice specifies a later effective date. If a resignation is made effective at a later date and the Company accepts the future effective date, the Board may fill the pending vacancy before the effective date if the Board provides that the successor shall not take office until the effective date. The Board may remove any officer at any time with or without cause.

11.5 Contract Rights of Officers. Appointment of an officer or agent shall not of itself create contract rights. An officer's removal shall not affect the officer's contract rights, if any, with the Company. An officer's resignation shall not affect the Company's contract rights, if any, with the officer.

11.6 Chairman of the Board. The Chairman, if that office be created and filled, may, at the discretion of the Board, be the chief executive officer of the Company and, if such, shall, in general, supervise and control the affairs and business of the Company, subject to control by the Board. The Chairman shall preside at all meetings of the Member and the Board.

11.7 President. The President, if that office be created and filled, shall be the chief executive officer of the Company, unless a Chairman is appointed and designated chief executive officer pursuant to Section 11.6. If no Chairman has been appointed or, in the absence of the Chairman, the President shall preside at all meetings of the Member. The President may sign certificates for Units, any deeds, mortgages, bonds, contracts or other instruments which the Board has authorized to be executed, except in cases where the signing and execution thereof shall be expressly delegated by the Board or by this Agreement to some other officer or agent of the Company, or shall be required by law to be otherwise signed or executed. The President shall, in general, perform all duties incident to the office of President of a Delaware corporation and such other duties as may be prescribed by the Board or the Chairman from time to time. Unless otherwise ordered by the Board, the President shall have full power and authority on behalf of the Company to attend, act and vote in person or by proxy at any meetings of shareholders of any corporation in which the Company may hold stock, and at any such meeting shall hold and may exercise all rights incident to the ownership of such stock which the Company, as owner, would have had and could have exercised if present. The Board may confer like powers on any other person or persons.

11.8 Vice President. In the absence of the President, or in the event of the President's death, inability or refusal to act, the Vice President (or, in the event there be more than one Vice President, the Vice Presidents in order designated at the time of their appointment, or in the absence of any designation, then in the order of their appointment), if that office be created and filled, shall perform the duties of the President and when so acting shall have all the powers of, and be subject to all the restrictions upon, the President. Any Vice President may sign certificates for Units and shall perform such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to such person by the Chairman, the President or by the Board.

11.9 Treasurer. The Treasurer, if that office be created and filled, shall have charge and custody of, and be responsible for, all funds and securities of the Company, receive and give receipts for monies due and payable to the Company from any source whatsoever, and deposit all such monies in the name of the Company in such banks, trust companies and other depositories as shall be selected in accordance with the provisions of Section 6.1, and in general, perform all the duties incident to the office of Treasurer of a Delaware corporation and such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to such person by the Chairman, the President or the Board. If required by the Board, the Treasurer shall give a bond for the faithful discharge of such officer's duties in such sum and with such surety or sureties as the Board shall determine.

11.10 Secretary. The Secretary, if that office be created and filled, shall keep the minutes of the Member's meetings and of the Board's meetings in one or more books provided for that purpose, see that all notices are duly given in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement or as required by law, be custodian of the Company records and of the seal, if any, of the Company, be responsible for authenticating records of the Company, keep a register of the mailing address of the Member, which shall be furnished to the Secretary by the Member, have general charge of the transfer books of the Company, and, in general, perform all duties incident to the office of Secretary of a Delaware corporation and such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to such person by the Chairman, the President or the Board.

11.11 Assistant Treasurers and Assistant Secretaries.

(a) Assistant Treasurer. The Assistant Treasurer, if that office be created and filled, shall, if required by the Board, give bond for the faithful discharge of such officer's duty in such sum and with such surety as the Board shall determine.

(b) Assistant Secretary. The Assistant Secretary, if that office be created and filled, and if authorized by the Board, may sign, with the President or Vice President, certificates for Units.

(c) Additional Duties. The Assistant Treasurers and Assistant Secretaries, in general, shall perform such additional duties as shall be assigned to them by the Treasurer or the Secretary, respectively, or by the Chairman, the President or the Board.

12. STANDARD OF CARE OF DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS; INDEMNIFICATION.

12.1 Standard of Care. The directors and officers of the Company shall not be liable, responsible or accountable in damages to the Member or the Company on account of such director's or officer's status as a director or officer of the Company or by reason of any act or omission related to the business of the Company performed or omitted by them in good faith with the care an officer of a Delaware corporation of like position would exercise under similar circumstances and in a manner reasonably believed by them to be in the best interests of the Company, and, with respect to any criminal proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe their conduct was unlawful. To the extent that, at law or in equity, a director or officer of the Company has duties (including fiduciary duties) and liabilities relating thereto to the Company, the Member or any other person, such director or officer acting under this Agreement shall not be liable to the Company the Member or any other person for breach of fiduciary duty for its good faith reliance on the provisions of this Agreement, and the provisions of this Agreement, to the extent that they restrict or eliminate the duties (including fiduciary duties) and liabilities relating thereto of a director or officer otherwise existing at law or in equity, are agreed by the Member and the Company to replace such other duties and liabilities of such director or officer.

12.2. Indemnification.

(a) The Company shall indemnify and hold harmless each director or officer of the Company against reasonable expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees), judgments, taxes, penalties, fines (including any excise tax assessed with respect to an employee benefit plan) and amounts paid in settlement (collectively "Liability"), incurred by such person in connection with defending any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding (whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, and whether formal or informal) to which such person is, or is threatened to be made, a party because such person is or was a director or officer of the Company, or is or was serving at the request of the Company as a director, officer, partner, member, employee or agent of another domestic or foreign corporation, partnership, limited liability company, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, including service with respect to employee benefit plans, provided that the director or officer has met the standard of conduct described in Section 12.1. A director or officer shall be considered to be serving an employee benefit plan at the Company's request if such person's duties to the Company also impose duties on or otherwise involve services by such person to the plan or to participants in or beneficiaries of the plan. The indemnities hereunder shall survive the termination of the Company and this Agreement.

(b) At the request of the director or officer entitled to indemnification hereunder, the Company shall pay or reimburse reasonable expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees) incurred by a director or officer who is a party to a proceeding in advance of final disposition of such proceeding if:

(1) The director or officer furnishes the Company a written affirmation of his good faith belief that he has met the standard of conduct described in Section 12.1;

(2) The director or officer furnishes the Company a written undertaking, executed personally or on the director's or officer's behalf, to repay the advance if it is ultimately determined that the director or officer did not meet the standard of conduct or is otherwise not entitled to indemnification hereunder. Such undertaking shall be an unlimited general obligation of the director or officer, but shall not be required to be secured and may be accepted without reference to financial ability to make repayment; and

(3) A determination is made that the facts then known to those making the determination would not preclude indemnification under the provisions of this Section 12.2.

(c) The indemnification against Liability and advancement of expenses provided by, or granted pursuant to, this Section 12.2 shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which those seeking indemnification or advancement may be, or hereafter become, entitled under any agreement, action of the Member or disinterested directors or otherwise, both as to action in their official capacity and as to action in another capacity while holding such office of the Company, shall continue as to a person who has ceased to be a director or officer of the Company, and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors and administrators of such a person.

Any repeal or modification of this Section 12.2 by the Member shall not adversely affect any right or protection of a director or officer of the Company under this Section 12.2 with respect to any act or omission occurring prior to the time of such repeal or modification.

13. OTHER ACTIVITIES; RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS.

13.1 Other Activities. The directors and officers shall devote such of their time to the affairs of the Company's business as they shall deem necessary. The Member, directors, officers and their Affiliates (as hereinafter defined) may engage in, or possess an interest in, other business ventures of any nature and description, independently or with others, whether or not such activities are competitive with those of the Company. Neither the Company nor the Member shall have any rights by virtue of this Agreement in and to such independent ventures, or to the income or profits derived therefrom. The Member shall not be obligated to present any particular business opportunity of a character which, if presented to the Company, could be taken by the Company, and the Member and its Affiliates shall have the right to take for their own account, or to recommend to others, any such particular business opportunity to the exclusion of the Company. For purposes of this Agreement, the term "Affiliate" shall mean any person, corporation, partnership, limited liability company, trust or other entity (directly or indirectly) controlling, controlled by, or under common control with, another person.

13.2 Related Party Transactions. The fact that a director, officer or their Affiliates are directly or indirectly interested in or connected with any person, firm or corporation employed by the Company to render or perform a service, or to or from whom the Company may purchase, sell or lease property, shall not prohibit the Company from employing such person, firm or corporation or from otherwise dealing with him or it, and neither the Company, nor the Member, shall have any rights in or to any income or profits derived therefrom. All such dealings with a director or such director's Affiliates will be on terms which are competitive and comparable with amounts charged by independent third parties.

14. MEMBERS.

14.1 Limitation on Participation in Management. Except as expressly authorized by this Agreement or as expressly required by the Act, the Member, solely by virtue of its status as the Member, shall not participate in the management or control of the Company's business, transact any business for the Company or have the power to act for or bind the Company, said powers being vested solely and exclusively in the Board and the officers.

14.2 Assignment of Member's Interest. The Member may freely sell, assign, transfer, pledge, hypothecate, encumber or otherwise dispose of the Member's Units. If the member transfers all of its Units, the transferee of such Units shall automatically become a substitute Member in the place of the Member. The Board shall amend Exhibit A from time to time to reflect transfers made in accordance with this Section 14.2.

14.3 Bankruptcy, Dissolution, Etc. of Member. Upon the occurrence of any of the events set forth in Sections 18-304 or 18-705 of the Act with respect to the member, the successor-in-interest or personal representative of the Member shall automatically become a substitute Member in place of the Member.

14.4 Certificates for Units.

(a) Certificates representing Units shall be in such form as may be determined by the Board. Such certificates shall be signed by the President or Vice President. The signature of such officer upon such certificates may be signed manually or by facsimile. All certificates for Units shall be consecutively numbered. The name of the person owning the Units represented thereby, with the number of Units and date of issue, shall be entered on the books of the Company. All certificates surrendered to the Company for transfer shall be canceled and no new certificates shall be issued until the former certificates for a like number of Units shall have been surrendered and canceled, except that, in case of a lost, destroyed or mutilated certificate, a new certificate may be issued therefor upon such terms and indemnity to the Company as the Board may prescribe.

(b) A Unit in the Company evidenced by a certificate shall constitute a security governed by Article 8 of the Uniform Commercial Code. Each certificate evidencing membership interests in the Company shall bear the following legend: "This certificate evidences an interest in «Entity Name», LLC and shall be a security for purposes of Article 8 of the Uniform Commercial Code." No change to this provision shall be effective until all outstanding certificates have been surrendered for cancellation and any new certificates thereafter issued shall not bear the foregoing legend.

15. DISSOLUTION.

15.1 Dissolution. Except as otherwise provided in the Act, the Company shall dissolve upon the decision of the Member to dissolve the Company or the sale or other disposition of all, or substantially all, of the assets of the Company and the sale and/or collection of any evidence of indebtedness received in connection therewith. Dissolution of the Company shall be effective upon the date specified in the Member's resolution or upon the sale or other disposition of all, or substantially all of the Assets of the Company and the sale and/or collection of any evidence of indebtedness received in connection therewith as applicable, but the Company shall not terminate until the assets of the Company shall have been distributed as provided in Section 15.3 and a certificate of cancellation of the certificate of formation of the Company is filed with the office of the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware pursuant to Section 18-203 of the Act. Notwithstanding dissolution of the Company, prior to the liquidation and termination of the Company, the Company shall continue to be governed by this Agreement.

15.2 Sale of Assets Upon Dissolution. Following the dissolution of the Company, the Company shall be wound up and the Board shall determine whether the assets of the Company are to be sold or whether some or all of such assets are to be distributed to the Member in kind in liquidation of the Company.

15.3 Distributions Upon Dissolution. Upon the dissolution of the Company, the properties of the Company to be sold shall be liquidated in orderly fashion and the proceeds thereof, and the property to be distributed in kind, shall be distributed as follows:

(a) First, to the payment and discharge of all of the Company's debts and liabilities, to the necessary expenses of liquidation and to the establishment of any cash reserves which the Member determines to create for unmatured and/or contingent liabilities or obligations of the Company.

(b) Second, to the Member.

16. GENERAL.

16.1 Amendment.

(a) Except as provided in Section 16.1(b), this Agreement may be modified or amended from time to time only upon the consent of the Member.

(b) In addition to any amendments authorized by Section 16.1(a), this Agreement may be amended from time to time by the Board without the consent of the Member to cure any ambiguity, to correct or supplement any provision hereof which may be inconsistent with any other provision hereof, or to make any other provisions with respect to matters or questions arising under this Agreement which will not be inconsistent with the provisions of this Agreement.

16.2 Captions; Section References. Section titles or captions contained in this Agreement are inserted only as a matter of convenience and reference, and in no way define, limit, extend or describe the scope of this Agreement, or the intent of any provision hereof. All references herein to Sections shall refer to Sections of this Agreement unless the context clearly requires otherwise.

16.3 Number and Gender. Unless the context otherwise requires, when used herein, the singular shall include the plural, the plural shall include the singular, and all nouns, pronouns and any variations thereof shall be deemed to refer to the masculine, feminine or neuter, as the identity of the person or persons may require.

16.4 Severability. If any provision of this Agreement, or the application thereof to any person, entity or circumstances, shall be invalid or unenforceable to any extent, the remainder of this Agreement, and the application of such provision to other persons, entities or circumstances, shall not be affected thereby and shall be enforced to the greatest extent permitted by law.

16.5 Binding Agreement. Except as otherwise provided herein, this Agreement shall be binding upon, and inure to the benefit of, the parties hereto and their respective executors, administrators, heirs, successors and assigns.

16.6 Applicable Law. This Agreement shall be governed by, and construed in accordance with, the laws of the State of Delaware without regard to its conflict of laws rules.

16.7 Entire Agreement. This Agreement contains the entire agreement with respect to the subject matter hereof.

(c) To do all other things necessary or desirable in connection with the foregoing, or otherwise contemplated in this Agreement.

3.2 Company's Power. In furtherance of the purpose of the Company as set forth in Section 3.1, the Company shall have the power to do any and all things whatsoever necessary, appropriate or advisable in connection with such purpose, or as otherwise contemplated in this Agreement.

3.3 Term. The term of the Company as a limited liability company shall commence as of the date of the filing of Articles of Organization with the North Carolina Secretary of State's Office, and shall continue until dissolved in accordance with Section 15.

4. CAPITAL.

10.4 Removal of Directors by Member. A director shall be removed by the Member only at a meeting called for the purpose of removing such director and the meeting notice shall state that the purpose, or one of the purposes, of the meeting is removal of the director. The Member may remove one or more directors with or without cause.

10.5 Vacancy on Board. If a vacancy occurs on the Board, including a vacancy resulting from an increase in the number of directors, the Member shall fill the vacancy. A vacancy that will occur at a specific later date may be filled before the vacancy occurs, but the new director may not take office until the vacancy occurs.

10.6 Compensation of Directors. Directors on the Board shall not be entitled to receive a fee for the director's services as a director on the Board.

10.7 Meetings. The Board may hold regular or special meetings in or out of the State of North Carolina. The Board may permit any or all directors to participate in a regular or special meeting by, or conduct the meeting through the use of, any means of communication by which all directors participating may simultaneously hear each other during the meeting. A director participating in a meeting by this means shall be deemed to be present in person at the meeting.

10.8 Special Meetings. Special meetings of the Board may be called by, or at the request of, the Chairman, if any, or the chief executive officer of the Company. All special meetings of the Board shall be held at the principal office or such other place as may be specified in the notice of the meeting.

10.9 Action Without Meeting. Any action required or permitted to be taken at a Board meeting may be taken without a meeting, without prior notice and without a vote if a consent or consents in writing, setting forth the action so taken, shall be signed by the directors having not less than the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to authorize or take such action at a meeting at which all directors entitled to vote thereon were present and voted.

10.10 Notice of Meetings. Meetings of the Board may be held without notice of the date, time, place or purpose of the meeting.

10.11 Quorum and Voting. A majority of the number of directors fixed by, or determined in accordance with, this Agreement shall constitute a quorum of the Board. If a quorum is present, an affirmative vote by a majority of the number of directors present shall constitute an act of the Board. A director who is present at a meeting of the Board or a committee of the Board when action is taken shall be deemed to have assented to the action taken unless (i) the director objects at the beginning of the meeting, or promptly upon the director' s arrival, to holding the meeting or transacting business at the meeting or (ii) the director's dissent or abstention from the action taken is entered in the minutes of the meeting or the director delivers written notice of the director's dissent or abstention to the presiding officer of the meeting before its adjournment or to the Company immediately after adjournment of the meeting. The right of dissent or abstention shall not be available to a director who votes in favor of the action taken.

10.12 Chairman and Vice Chairman of the Board. The Board may appoint one of its members as Chairman of the Board ("Chairman"). The Board may also appoint one of its members as Vice Chairman of the Board, and such individual shall serve in the absence of the Chairman and perform such additional duties as may be assigned to such person by the Board.

11. OFFICERS.

11.1 Officers Generally. The Company shall have the officers appointed by the Board in accordance with this Agreement. The same individual may simultaneously hold more than one office in the Company. Section 11.10 delegates to the Secretary, if such office be created and filled, the required responsibility of preparing minutes of the Board's and the Member's meetings and for authenticating records of the Company. If such office shall not be created and filled, then the Board shall delegate to one of the officers of the Company such responsibility.

11.2 Duties of Officers. Each officer of the Company shall have the authority and shall perform the duties set forth in this Agreement for such office or, to the extent consistent with this Agreement, the duties prescribed by the Board or by direction of an officer authorized by the Board to prescribe the duties of other officers.

11.3 Appointment and Term of Office. The officers of the Company shall be appointed by the Board. Vacancies may be filled or new offices created and filled at any meeting of the Board. Each officer shall hold office until such officer's successor shall be duly appointed or until the officer's death or until the officer shall resign or shall have been removed in the manner hereinafter provided.

11.4 Resignation and Removal of Officers. An officer may resign at any time by delivering notice to the Company. A resignation shall be effective when the notice is delivered unless the notice specifies a later effective date. If a resignation is made effective at a later date and the Company accepts the future effective date, the Board may fill the pending vacancy before the effective date if the Board provides that the successor shall not take office until the effective date. The Board may remove any officer at any time with or without cause.

11.5 Contract Rights of Officers. Appointment of an officer or agent shall not of itself create contract rights. An officer's removal shall not affect the officer's contract rights, if any, with the Company. An officer's resignation shall not affect the Company's contract rights, if any, with the officer.

11.6 Chairman of the Board. The Chairman, if that office be created and filled, may, at the discretion of the Board, be the chief executive officer of the Company and, if such, shall, in general, supervise and control the affairs and business of the Company, subject to control by the Board. The Chairman shall preside at all meetings of the Member and the Board.

11.7 President. The President, if that office be created and filled, shall be the chief executive officer of the Company, unless a Chairman is appointed and designated chief executive officer pursuant to Section 11.6. If no Chairman has been appointed or, in the absence of the Chairman, the President shall preside at all meetings of the Member. The President may sign certificates for Units, any deeds, mortgages, bonds, contracts or other instruments which the Board has authorized to be executed, except in cases where the signing and execution thereof shall be expressly delegated by the Board or by this Agreement to some other officer or agent of the Company, or shall be required by law to be otherwise signed or executed. The President shall, in general, perform all duties incident to the office of President of a North Carolina corporation and such other duties as may be prescribed by the Board or the Chairman from time to time. Unless otherwise ordered by the Board, the President shall have full power and authority on behalf of the Company to attend, act and vote in person or by proxy at any meetings of shareholders of any corporation in which the Company may hold stock, and at any such meeting shall hold and may exercise all rights incident to the ownership of such stock which the Company, as owner, would have had and could have exercised if present. The Board may confer like powers on any other person or persons.

11.8 Vice President. In the absence of the President, or in the event of the President's death, inability or refusal to act, the Vice President (or, in the event there be more than one Vice President, the Vice Presidents in order designated at the time of their appointment, or in the absence of any designation, then in the order of their appointment), if that office be created and filled, shall perform the duties of the President and when so acting shall have all the powers of, and be subject to all the restrictions upon, the President. Any Vice President may sign certificates for Units and shall perform such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to such person by the Chairman, the President or by the Board.

11.9 Treasurer. The Treasurer, if that office be created and filled, shall have charge and custody of, and be responsible for, all funds and securities of the Company, receive and give receipts for monies due and payable to the Company from any source whatsoever, and deposit all such monies in the name of the Company in such banks, trust companies and other depositories as shall be selected in accordance with the provisions of Section 6.1, and in general, perform all the duties incident to the office of Treasurer of a North Carolina corporation and such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to such person by the Chairman, the President or the Board. If required by the Board, the Treasurer shall give a bond for the faithful discharge of such officer's duties in such sum and with such surety or sureties as the Board shall determine.

11.10 Secretary. The Secretary, if that office be created and filled, shall keep the minutes of the Member's meetings and of the Board's meetings in one or more books provided for that purpose, see that all notices are duly given in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement or as required by law, be custodian of the Company records and of the seal, if any, of the Company, be responsible for authenticating records of the Company, keep a register of the mailing address of the Member, which shall be furnished to the Secretary by the Member, have general charge of the transfer books of the Company, and, in general, perform all duties incident to the office of Secretary of a North Carolina corporation and such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to such person by the Chairman, the President or the Board.

11.11 Assistant Treasurers and Assistant Secretaries.

(a) Assistant Treasurer. The Assistant Treasurer, if that office be created and filled, shall, if required by the Board, give bond for the faithful discharge of such officer's duty in such sum and with such surety as the Board shall determine.

(b) Assistant Secretary. The Assistant Secretary, if that office be created and filled, and if authorized by the Board, may sign, with the President or Vice President, certificates for Units.

(c) Additional Duties. The Assistant Treasurers and Assistant Secretaries, in general, shall perform such additional duties as shall be assigned to them by the Treasurer or the Secretary, respectively, or by the Chairman, the President or the Board.

12. STANDARD OF CARE OF DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS; INDEMNIFICATION.

12.1 Standard of Care. The directors and officers of the Company shall not be liable, responsible or accountable in damages to the Member or the Company on account of such director's or officer's status as a director or officer of the Company or by reason of any act or omission related to the business of the Company performed or omitted by them in good faith with the care an ordinary prudent person in a like position would exercise under similar circumstances and in a manner reasonably believed by them to be in the best interests of the Company. To the extent that, at law or in equity, a director or officer of the Company has duties

(including fiduciary duties) and liabilities relating thereto to the Company, the Member or any other person, such director or officer acting under this Agreement shall not be liable to the Company the Member or any other person for breach of fiduciary duty for its good faith reliance on the provisions of this Agreement, and the provisions of this Agreement, to the extent that they restrict or eliminate the duties (including fiduciary duties) and liabilities relating thereto of a director or officer otherwise existing at law or in equity, are agreed by the Member and the Company to replace such other duties and liabilities of such director or officer.

12.2 Indemnification.

(a) The Company shall indemnify and hold harmless each director or officer of the Company against reasonable expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees), judgments, taxes, penalties, fines (including any excise tax assessed with respect to an employee benefit plan) and amounts paid in settlement (collectively "Liability"), incurred by such person in connection with defending any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding (whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, and whether formal or informal) to which such person is, or is threatened to be made, a party because such person is or was a director or officer of the Company, or is or was serving at the request of the Company as a director, officer, partner, member, employee or agent of another domestic or foreign corporation, partnership, limited liability company, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, including service with respect to employee benefit plans, provided that the director or officer has met the standard of conduct described in Section 12.1. A director or officer shall be considered to be serving an employee benefit plan at the Company's request if such person's duties to the Company also impose duties on or otherwise involve services by such person to the plan or to participants in or beneficiaries of the plan. The indemnities hereunder shall survive the termination of the Company and this Agreement.

(b) At the request of the director or officer entitled to indemnification hereunder, the Company shall pay or reimburse reasonable expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees) incurred by a director or officer who is a party to a proceeding in advance of final disposition of such proceeding if:

(1) The director or officer furnishes the Company a written affirmation of his good faith belief that he has met the standard of conduct described in Section 12.1;

(2) The director or officer furnishes the Company a written undertaking, executed personally or on the director's or officer's behalf, to repay the advance if it is ultimately determined that the director or officer did not meet the standard of conduct or is otherwise not entitled to indemnification hereunder. Such undertaking shall be an unlimited general obligation of the director or officer, but shall not be required to be secured and may be accepted without reference to financial ability to make repayment; and

(3) A determination is made that the facts then known to those making the determination would not preclude indemnification under the provisions of this Section 12.2.

(c) The indemnification against Liability and advancement of expenses provided by, or granted pursuant to, this Section 12.2 shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which those seeking indemnification or advancement may be, or hereafter become, entitled under any agreement, action of the Member or disinterested directors or otherwise, both as to action in their official capacity and as to action in another capacity while holding such office of the Company, shall continue as to a person who has ceased to be a director or officer of the Company, and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors and administrators of such a person.

Any repeal or modification of this Section 12.2 by the Member shall not adversely affect any right or protection of a director or officer of the Company under this Section 12.2 with respect to any act or omission occurring prior to the time of such repeal or modification.

13. OTHER ACTIVITIES; RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS.

13.1 Other Activities. The directors and officers shall devote such of their time to the affairs of the Company's business as they shall deem necessary. The Member, directors, officers and their Affiliates (as hereinafter defined) may engage in, or possess an interest in, other business ventures of any nature and description, independently or with others, whether or not such activities are competitive with those of the Company. Neither the Company nor the Member shall have any rights by virtue of this Agreement in and to such independent ventures, or to the income or profits derived therefrom. The Member shall not be obligated to present any particular business opportunity of a character which, if presented to the Company, could be taken by the Company, and the Member and its Affiliates shall have the right to take for their own account, or to recommend to others, any such particular business opportunity to the exclusion of the Company. For purposes of this Agreement, the term "Affiliate" shall mean any person, corporation, partnership, limited liability company, trust or other entity (directly or indirectly) controlling, controlled by, or under common control with, another person.

13.2 Related Party Transactions. The fact that a director, officer or their Affiliates are directly or indirectly interested in or connected with any person, firm or corporation employed by the Company to render or perform a service, or to or from whom the Company may purchase, sell or lease property, shall not prohibit the Company from employing such person, firm or corporation or from otherwise dealing with him or it, and neither the Company, nor the Member, shall have any rights in or to any income or profits derived therefrom. All such dealings with a director or such director's Affiliates will be on terms which are competitive and comparable with amounts charged by independent third parties.

14. MEMBERS.

14.1 Limitation on Participation in Management. Except as expressly authorized by this Agreement or as expressly required by the Act, the Member, solely by virtue of its status as the Member, shall not participate in the management or control of the Company's business, transact any business for the Company or have the power to act for or bind the Company, said powers being vested solely and exclusively in the Board and the officers.

14.2 Assignment of Member's Interest. The Member may freely sell, assign, transfer, pledge, hypothecate, encumber or otherwise dispose of the Member's Units. If the member transfers all of its Units, the transferee of such Units shall automatically become a substitute Member in the place of the Member. The Board shall amend Exhibit A from time to time to reflect transfers made in accordance with this Section 14.2.

14.3 Bankruptcy, Dissolution, Etc. of Member. Upon the occurrence of any of the events set forth in Section 57D-3-02 of the Act with respect to the member, the successor-in-interest or personal representative of the Member shall automatically become a substitute Member in place of the Member.

14.4 Certificates for Units.

(a) Certificates representing Units shall be in such form as may be determined by the Board. Such certificates shall be signed by the President or Vice President. The signature of such officer upon such certificates may be signed manually or by facsimile. All certificates for Units shall be consecutively numbered. The name of the person owning the Units represented thereby, with the number of Units and date of issue, shall be entered on the books of the Company. All certificates surrendered to the Company for transfer shall be canceled and no new certificates shall be issued until the former certificates for a like number of Units shall have been surrendered and canceled, except that, in case of a lost, destroyed or mutilated certificate, a new certificate may be issued therefor upon such terms and indemnity to the Company as the Board may prescribe.

(b) A Unit in the Company evidenced by a certificate shall constitute a security governed by Article 8 of the Uniform Commercial Code. Each certificate evidencing membership interests in the Company shall bear the following legend: "This certificate evidences an interest in Statesville HMA, LLC, and shall be a security for purposes of Article 8 of the Uniform Commercial Code." No change to this provision shall be effective until all outstanding certificates have been surrendered for cancellation and any new certificates thereafter issued shall not bear the foregoing legend.

15. DISSOLUTION.

15.1 Dissolution. Except as otherwise provided in the Act, the Company shall dissolve upon the decision of the Member to dissolve the Company or the sale or other disposition of all, or substantially all, of the assets of the Company and the sale and/or collection of any evidence of indebtedness received in connection therewith. Dissolution of the Company shall be effective upon the date specified in the Member's resolution or upon the sale or other disposition of all, or substantially all of the Assets of the Company and the sale and/or collection of any evidence of indebtedness received in connection therewith as applicable, but the Company shall not terminate until the assets of the Company shall have been distributed as provided in Section 15.3 and articles of dissolution of the articles of organization of the Company are filed with the office of the Secretary of State of the State of North Carolina pursuant to Section 57D-6-09 of the Act. Notwithstanding dissolution of the Company, prior to the liquidation and termination of the Company, the Company shall continue to be governed by this Agreement.

15.2 Sale of Assets Upon Dissolution. Following the dissolution of the Company, the Company shall be wound up and the Board shall determine whether the assets of the Company are to be sold or whether some or all of such assets are to be distributed to the Member in kind in liquidation of the Company.

15.3 Distributions Upon Dissolution. Upon the dissolution of the Company, the properties of the Company to be sold shall be liquidated in orderly fashion and the proceeds thereof, and the property to be distributed in kind, shall be distributed as follows:

(a) First, to the payment and discharge of all of the Company's debts and liabilities, to the necessary expenses of liquidation and to the establishment of any cash reserves which the Member determines to create for unmatured and/or contingent liabilities or obligations of the Company.

(b) Second, to the Member.

16. GENERAL.

16.1 Amendment.

(a) Except as provided in Section 16.1(b), this Agreement may be modified or amended from time to time only upon the consent of the Member.

(b) In addition to any amendments authorized by Section 16.1(a), this Agreement may be amended from time to time by the Board without the consent of the Member to cure any ambiguity, to correct or supplement any provision hereof which may be inconsistent with any other provision hereof, or to make any other provisions with respect to matters or questions arising under this Agreement which will not be inconsistent with the provisions of this Agreement.

16.2 Captions; Section References. Section titles or captions contained in this Agreement are inserted only as a matter of convenience and reference, and in no way define, limit, extend or describe the scope of this Agreement, or the intent of any provision hereof. All references herein to Sections shall refer to Sections of this Agreement unless the context clearly requires otherwise.

16.3 Number and Gender. Unless the context otherwise requires, when used herein, the singular shall include the plural, the plural shall include the singular, and all nouns, pronouns and any variations thereof shall be deemed to refer to the masculine, feminine or neuter, as the identity of the person or persons may require.

16.4 Severability. If any provision of this Agreement, or the application thereof to any person, entity or circumstances, shall be invalid or unenforceable to any extent, the remainder of this Agreement, and the application of such provision to other persons, entities or circumstances, shall not be affected thereby and shall be enforced to the greatest extent permitted by law.

16.5 Binding Agreement. Except as otherwise provided herein, this Agreement shall be binding upon, and inure to the benefit of, the parties hereto and their respective executors, administrators, heirs, successors and assigns.

16.6 Applicable Law. This Agreement shall be governed by, and construed in accordance with, the laws of the State of North Carolina without regard to its conflict of laws rules.

16.7 Entire Agreement. This Agreement contains the entire agreement with respect to the subject matter hereof.

6.04 Assignment of Dissolution. SECTION 12.
Miscellaneous

12.01 Non-Waiver. Any party's failure to seek redress for violation of or to insist upon the strict performance of any provision of this Agreement shall not be deemed a waiver and will not prevent a subsequent act, which would have originally constituted a violation, from having the effect of an original violation.

12.02 Severability. Every provision of this Agreement is intended to be severable. If any term or provision hereof is invalid for any reason whatsoever, its invalidity will not affect the validity of the remainder of the Agreement.

12.03 Good Faith. The doing of any act or the failure to do any act by a Partner or the Partnership, the effect of which causes any loss or damage to the Partnership, will not subject such Partner or the Partnership to any liability, if done in good faith to promote the Partnership's best interests.

12.04 Governing Law. This Agreement is to be construed according to the laws of the State of Delaware.

12.05 Other Business Activities. Every Partner may also engage in whatever business activities he, she or it chooses without having or incurring any obligation to offer any interest in such activities to any party hereof.

12.06 Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts with the same effect as if all parties hereto had all signed the same document. All counterparts shall be construed together and shall constitute one agreement.

12.07 Waiver of Partition. Each of the parties waives during the term of the Partnership any right that it may have to maintain any action for partition with respect to the Partnership's property or assets.

12.08 Binding Terms. The terms of this Agreement are binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties and, to the extent permitted by this Agreement, the administrators, legal representatives, successors and assigns of such party.

12.09 Personal Property. The interests of each Partner in the Partnership are personal property.

12.10 Gender and Number. Unless the context requires otherwise, the use of a pronoun includes the masculine and the neuter, and vice versa, and the use of the singular includes the plural, and vice versa.

ARTICLE VII

Section 1. Nature of Indemnity. Each person who was or is made a party or is threatened to be made a party to or is involved in any action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (hereinafter a "proceeding"), by reason of the fact that he (or a person of whom he is the legal representative), is or was a director or officer of the Corporation or is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, employee, fiduciary, or agent of another corporation or of a partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, including service with respect to employee benefit plans, whether the basis of such proceeding is alleged action in an official capacity as a director, officer, employee, fiduciary or agent or in any other capacity while serving as a director, officer, employee, fiduciary or agent, shall be indemnified and held harmless by the Corporation to the fullest extent which it is empowered to do so by the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware, as the same exists or may hereafter be amended (but, in the case of any such amendment, only to the extent that such amendment permits the Corporation to provide broader indemnification rights than said law permitted the Corporation to provide prior to such amendment) against all expense, liability and loss (including attorneys' fees actually and reasonably incurred by such person in connection with such proceeding and such indemnification shall inure to the benefit of his or her heirs, executors and administrators; provided, however, that, except as provided in Section 2 of this Article VII, the Corporation shall indemnify any such person seeking indemnification in connection with a proceeding initiated by such person only if such proceeding was authorized by the Board of Directors of the Corporation. The right to indemnification conferred in this Article VII shall be a contract right and, subject to Sections 2 and 5 of this Article VII, shall include the right to payment by the Corporation of the expenses incurred in defending any such proceeding in advance of its final disposition. The Corporation may, by action of the Board of Directors, provide indemnification to employees and agents of the Corporation with the same scope and effect as the foregoing indemnification of directors and officers.

Section 2. Procedure for Indemnification of Directors and Officers. Any indemnification of a director or officer of the Corporation under Section 1 of this Article VII or advance of expenses under Section 5 of this Article VII shall be made promptly, and in any event within 30 days, upon the written request of the director or officer. If a determination by the Corporation that the director or officer is entitled to indemnification pursuant to this Article VII is required, and the Corporation fails to respond within sixty days to a written request for indemnity, the Corporation shall be deemed to have approved the request. If the Corporation denies a written request for indemnification or advancing of expenses, in whole or in part, or if payment in full pursuant to such request is not made within 30 days, the right to indemnification or advances as granted by this Article VII shall be enforceable by the director or officer in any court of competent jurisdiction. Such person's costs and expenses incurred in connection with successfully establishing his right to indemnification, in whole or in part, in any such action shall also be indemnified by the Corporation. It shall be a defense to any such action (other than an action brought to enforce a claim for expenses incurred in defending any proceeding in advance of its final disposition where the required undertaking, if any, has been tendered to the Corporation) that the claimant has not met the standards of conduct which make it permissible under the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware for the Corporation to indemnify the claimant for the amount claimed, but the burden of such defense shall be on the Corporation. Neither the failure of the Corporation (including the Board of Directors, independent legal counsel, or its stockholders) to have made a determination prior to the commencement of such action that indemnification of the claimant is proper in the circumstances because he or she has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware, nor an actual determination by the Corporation (including its Board of Directors, independent legal counsel, or its stockholders) that the claimant has not met such applicable standard of conduct, shall be a defense to the action or create a presumption that the claimant has not met the applicable standard of conduct.

Section 3. Nonexclusively of Article VII. The rights to indemnification and the payment of expenses incurred in defending a proceeding in advance of its final disposition conferred in this Article VII shall not be exclusive of any other right which any person may have or hereafter acquire under any statute, provision of the certificate of incorporation, by-law, agreement, vote of stockholders or disinterested directors or otherwise.

Section 4. Insurance. The Corporation may purchase and maintain insurance on its own behalf and on behalf of any person who is or was a director, officer, employee, fiduciary, or agent of the Corporation or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise against any liability asserted against him or her and incurred by him or her in any such capacity, whether or not the Corporation would have the power to indemnify such person against such liability under this Article VII.

Section 5. Expenses. Expenses incurred by any person described in Section 1 of this Article VII in defending a proceeding shall be paid by the Corporation in advance of such proceeding's final disposition unless otherwise determined by the Board of Directors in the specific case upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of the director or officer to repay such amount if it shall ultimately be determined that he is not entitled to be indemnified by the Corporation. Such expenses incurred by other employees and agents may be so paid upon such terms and conditions, if any, as the Board of Directors deems appropriate.

Section 6. Employees and Agents. Persons who are not covered by the foregoing provisions of this Article VII and who are or were employees or agents of the Corporation, or who are or were serving at the request of the Corporation as employees or agents of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, may be indemnified to the extent authorized at any time or from time to time by the Board of Directors.

Section 7. Contract Rights. The provisions of this Article VII shall be deemed to be a contract right between the Corporation and each director or officer who serves in any such capacity at any time while this Article VII and the relevant provisions of the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware or other applicable law are in effect, and any repeal or modification of this Article VII or any such law shall not affect any rights or obligations then existing with respect to any state of facts or proceeding then existing.

Section 8. Merger or Consolidation. For purposes of this Article VII, references to "the Corporation" shall include, in addition to the resulting corporation, any constituent corporation (including any constituent of a constituent) absorbed in a consolidation or merger which, if its separate existence had continued, would have had power and authority to indemnify its directors, officers, and employees or agents, so that any person who is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of such constituent corporation, or is or was serving at the request of such constituent corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, shall stand in the same position under this Article VII with respect to the resulting or surviving corporation as he or she would have with respect to such constituent corporation if its separate existence had continued.

ARTICLE VIII

The Corporation reserves the right to amend or repeal any provisions contained in this Certificate of Incorporation from time to time and at any time in the manner now or hereafter prescribed by the laws of the State of Delaware, and all rights conferred upon stockholders and directors are granted subject to such reservation.

Reg. §§ 301.7701-2(c)(2)(i) and 301.7701-3(b)(1)(ii). The Member shall take all actions which may be necessary or required in order for the Company to be so disregarded for income tax purposes.

9. DISTRIBUTIONS.

9.1 Distributions. The Board shall determine, in the Board's sole discretion, the amount and timing of any distributions to the Member and whether such distributions shall be paid in cash or property.

10. BOARD OF DIRECTORS.

10.1 General Powers. Except as expressly provided otherwise by this Agreement for action of the Members or as expressly required by the Act, all powers of the Company shall be exercised by or under the authority of, and the business and affairs of the Company managed under the direction of, its Board of Directors ("Board"). Each member of the Board shall be and constitute a "manager" as such term is used in the Act, and the Board, collectively, shall operate as a board of managers. In the event the Board consists of more than one director, action of the Board and each member of the Board shall be subject to vote of the Board as provided in Section 10.11 hereof.

10.2 Number, Election and Term. The Board shall consist of not less than one, nor more than seven individual directors, the exact number of which shall be determined by the Board from time to time. Initially, there shall be three directors, Martin G. Schweinhart, W. Larry Cash and Rachel A. Seifert. Except as otherwise expressly provided herein, directors shall be elected at the organizational meeting of the Member and at each annual meeting thereafter. A decrease in the number of directors shall not shorten an incumbent director's term. Each director shall hold office until such director resigns or is removed. Despite the expiration of a director's term, such director shall continue to serve until the director's successor is elected and qualifies, until there is a decrease in the number of directors or the director is removed.

10.3 Resignation of Directors. A director may resign at any time by delivering written notice to the Board, its Chairman (as hereinafter defined), if any, or the Company. A resignation shall be effective when the notice is delivered unless the notice specifies a later effective date.

10.4 Removal of Directors by Member. A director shall be removed by the Member only at a meeting called for the purpose of removing such director and the meeting notice shall state that the purpose, or one of the purposes, of the meeting is removal of the director. The Member may remove one or more directors with or without cause.

10.5 Vacancy on Board. If a vacancy occurs on the Board, including a vacancy resulting from an increase in the number of directors, the Board shall fill the vacancy, and if the directors remaining in office constitute fewer than a quorum of the Board, they may fill the vacancy by the affirmative vote of a majority of all the directors remaining in office. A vacancy that will occur at a specific later date may be filled before the vacancy occurs, but the new director may not take office until the vacancy occurs.

10.6 Compensation of Directors. Directors on the Board shall not be entitled to receive a fee for the director's services as a director on the Board.

10.7 Meetings. The Board may hold regular or special meetings in or out of the State of Arkansas. The Board may permit any or all directors to participate in a regular or special meeting by, or conduct the meeting through the use of, any means of communication by which all directors participating may simultaneously hear each other during the meeting. A director participating in a meeting by this means shall be deemed to be present in person at the meeting.

10.8 Special Meetings. Special meetings of the Board may be called by, or at the request of, the Chairman, if any, or the chief executive officer of the Company. All special meetings of the Board shall be held at the principal office or such other place as may be specified in the notice of the meeting.

10.9 Action Without Meeting. Any action required or permitted to be taken at a Board meeting may be taken without a meeting, without prior notice and without a vote if a consent or consents in writing, setting forth the action so taken, shall be signed by the directors having not less than the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to authorize or take such action at a meeting at which all directors entitled to vote thereon were present and voted.

10.10 Notice of Meetings. Meetings of the Board may be held without notice of the date, time, place or purpose of the meeting.

10.11 Quorum and Voting. A majority of the number of directors fixed by, or determined in accordance with, this Agreement shall constitute a quorum of the Board. If a quorum is present, an affirmative vote by a majority of the number of directors present shall constitute an act of the Board. A director who is present at a meeting of the Board or a committee of the Board when action is taken shall be deemed to have assented to the action taken unless (i) the director objects at the beginning of the meeting, or promptly upon the director's arrival, to holding the meeting or transacting business at the meeting or (ii) the director's dissent or abstention from the action taken is entered in the minutes of the meeting or the director delivers written notice of the director's dissent or abstention to the presiding officer of the meeting before its adjournment or to the Company immediately after adjournment of the meeting. The right of dissent or abstention shall not be available to a director who votes in favor of the action taken.

10.13 Chairman and Vice Chairman of the Board. The Board may appoint one of its members as Chairman of the Board ("Chairman"). The Board may also appoint one of its members as Vice Chairman of the Board, and such individual shall serve in the absence of the Chairman and perform such additional duties as may be assigned to such person by the Board.

11. OFFICERS.

11.1 Officers Generally. The Company shall have the officers appointed by the Board in accordance with this Agreement. The same individual may simultaneously hold more than one office in the Company. Section 11.10 delegates to the Secretary, if such office be created and filled, the required responsibility of preparing minutes of the Board's and the Member's meetings and for authenticating records of the Company. If such office shall not be created and filled, then the Board shall delegate to one of the officers of the Company such responsibility.

11.2 Duties of Officers. Each officer of the Company shall have the authority and shall perform the duties set forth in this Agreement for such office or, to the extent consistent with this Agreement, the duties prescribed by the Board or by direction of an officer authorized by the Board to prescribe the duties of other officers.

11.3 Appointment and Term of Office. The officers of the Company shall be appointed by the Board. Vacancies may be filled or new offices created and filled at any meeting of the Board. Each officer shall hold office until such officer's successor shall be duly appointed or until the officer's death or until the officer shall resign or shall have been removed in the manner hereinafter provided.

11.4 Resignation and Removal of Officers. An officer may resign at any time by delivering notice to the Company. A resignation shall be effective when the notice is delivered unless the notice specifies a later effective date. If a resignation is made effective at a later date and the Company accepts the future effective date, the Board may fill the pending vacancy before the effective date if the Board provides that the successor shall not take office until the effective date. The Board may remove any officer at any time with or without cause.

11.5 Contract Rights of Officers. Appointment of an officer or agent shall not of itself create contract rights. An officer's removal shall not affect the officer's contract rights, if any, with the Company. An officer's resignation shall not affect the Company's contract rights, if any, with the officer.

11.6 Chairman of the Board. The Chairman, if that office be created and filled, may, at the discretion of the Board, be the chief executive officer of the Company and, if such, shall, in general, supervise and control the affairs and business of the Company, subject to control by the Board. The Chairman shall preside at all meetings of the Member and the Board.

11.7 President. The President, if that office be created and filled, shall be the chief executive officer of the Company, unless a Chairman is appointed and designated chief executive officer pursuant to Section 11.6. If no Chairman has been appointed or, in the absence of the Chairman, the President shall preside at all meetings of the Member. The President may sign certificates for Units, any deeds, mortgages, bonds, contracts or other instruments which the Board has authorized to be executed, except in cases where the signing and execution thereof shall be expressly delegated by the Board or by this Agreement to some other officer or agent of the Company, or shall be required by law to be otherwise signed or executed. The President shall, in general, perform all duties incident to the office of President of an Arkansas corporation and such other duties as may be prescribed by the Board or the Chairman from time to time. Unless otherwise ordered by the Board, the President shall have full power and authority on behalf of the Company to attend, act and vote in person or by proxy at any meetings of shareholders of any corporation in which the Company may hold stock, and at any such meeting shall hold and may exercise all rights incident to the ownership of such stock which the Company, as owner, would have had and could have exercised if present. The Board may confer like powers on any other person or persons.

11.8 Vice President. In the absence of the President, or in the event of the President's death, inability or refusal to act, the Vice President (or, in the event there be more than one Vice President, the Vice Presidents in order designated at the time of their appointment, or in the absence of any designation, then in the order of their appointment), if that office be created and filled, shall perform the duties of the President and when so acting shall have all the powers of, and be subject to all the restrictions upon, the President. Any Vice President may sign certificates for Units and shall perform such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to such person by the Chairman, the President or by the Board.

11.9 Treasurer. The Treasurer, if that office be created and filled, shall have charge and custody of, and be responsible for, all funds and securities of the Company, receive and give receipts for monies due and payable to the Company from any source whatsoever, and deposit all such monies in the name of the Company in such banks, trust companies and other depositories as shall be selected in accordance with the provisions of Section 6.1, and in general, perform all the duties incident to the office of Treasurer of an Arkansas corporation and such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to such person by the Chairman, the President or the Board. If required by the Board, the Treasurer shall give a bond for the faithful discharge of such officer's duties in such sum and with such surety or sureties as the Board shall determine.

11.10 Secretary. The Secretary, if that office be created and filled, shall keep the minutes of the Member's meetings and of the Board's meetings in one or more books provided for that purpose, see that all notices are duly given in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement or as required by law, be custodian of the Company records and of the seal, if any, of the Company, be responsible for authenticating records of the Company, keep a register of the mailing address of the Member, which shall be furnished to the Secretary by the Member, have general charge of the transfer books of the Company, and, in general, perform all duties incident to the office of Secretary of an Arkansas corporation and such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to such person by the Chairman, the President or the Board.

11.11 Assistant Treasurers and Assistant Secretaries.

(a) Assistant Treasurer. The Assistant Treasurer, if that office be created and filled, shall, if required by the Board, give bond for the faithful discharge of such officer's duty in such sum and with such surety as the Board shall determine.

(b) Assistant Secretary. The Assistant Secretary, if that office be created and filled, and if authorized by the Board, may sign, with the President or Vice President, certificates for Units.

(c) Additional Duties. The Assistant Treasurers and Assistant Secretaries, in general, shall perform such additional duties as shall be assigned to them by the Treasurer or the Secretary, respectively, or by the Chairman, the President or the Board.

12. STANDARD OF CARE OF DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS; INDEMNIFICATION.

12.1 Standard of Care. The directors and officers of the Company shall not be liable, responsible or accountable in damages to the Member or the Company on account of such director's or officer's status as a director or officer of the Company or by reason of any act or omission related to the business of the Company performed or omitted by them in good faith with the care an officer of an Arkansas corporation of like position would exercise under similar circumstances and in a manner reasonably believed by them to be in the best interests of the Company, and, with respect to any criminal proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe their conduct was unlawful. To the extent that, at law or in equity, a director or officer of the Company has duties (including fiduciary duties) and liabilities relating thereto to the Company, the Member or any other person, such director or officer acting under this Agreement shall not be liable to the Company the Member or any other person for breach of fiduciary duty for its good faith reliance on the provisions of this Agreement, and the provisions of this Agreement, to the extent that they restrict or eliminate the duties (including fiduciary duties) and liabilities relating thereto of a director or officer otherwise existing at law or in equity, are agreed by the Member and the Company to replace such other duties and liabilities of such director or officer.

12.2. Indemnification.

(a) The Company shall indemnify and hold harmless each director or officer of the Company against reasonable expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees), judgments, taxes, penalties, fines (including any excise tax assessed with respect to an employee benefit plan) and amounts paid in settlement (collectively "Liability"), incurred by such person in connection with defending any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding (whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, and whether formal or informal) to which such person is, or is threatened to be made, a party because such person is or was a director or officer of the Company, or is or was serving at the request of the Company as a director, officer, partner, member, employee or agent of another domestic or foreign corporation, partnership, limited liability company, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, including service with respect to employee benefit plans, provided that the director or officer has met the standard of conduct described in Section 12.1. A director or officer shall be considered to be serving an employee benefit plan at the Company's request if such person's duties to the Company also impose duties on or otherwise involve services by such person to the plan or to participants in or beneficiaries of the plan. The indemnities hereunder shall survive the termination of the Company and this Agreement.

(b) At the request of the director or officer entitled to indemnification hereunder, the Company shall pay or reimburse reasonable expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees) incurred by a director or officer who is a party to a proceeding in advance of final disposition of such proceeding if:

(1) The director or officer furnishes the Company a written affirmation of his good faith belief that he has met the standard of conduct described in Section 12.1;

(2) The director or officer furnishes the Company a written undertaking, executed personally or on the director's or officer's behalf, to repay the advance if it is ultimately determined that the director or officer did not meet the standard of conduct or is otherwise not entitled to indemnification hereunder. Such undertaking shall be an unlimited general obligation of the director or officer, but shall not be required to be secured and may be accepted without reference to financial ability to make repayment; and

(3) A determination is made that the facts then known to those making the determination would not preclude indemnification under the provisions of this Section 12.2.

(c) The indemnification against Liability and advancement of expenses provided by, or granted pursuant to, this Section 12.2 shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which those seeking indemnification or advancement may be, or hereafter become, entitled under any agreement, action of the Member or disinterested directors or otherwise, both as to action in their official capacity and as to action in another capacity while holding such office of the Company, shall continue as to a person who has ceased to be a director or officer of the Company, and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors and administrators of such a person.

Any repeal or modification of this Section 12.2 by the Member shall not adversely affect any right or protection of a director or officer of the Company under this Section 12.2 with respect to any act or omission occurring prior to the time of such repeal or modification.

13. OTHER ACTIVITIES; RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS.

13.1 Other Activities. The directors and officers shall devote such of their time to the affairs of the Company's business as they shall deem necessary. The Member, directors, officers and their Affiliates (as hereinafter defined) may engage in, or possess an interest in, other business ventures of any nature and description, independently or with others, whether or not such activities are competitive with those of the Company. Neither the Company nor the Member shall have any rights by virtue of this Agreement in and to such independent ventures, or to the income or profits derived therefrom. The Member shall not be obligated to present any particular business opportunity of a character which, if presented to the Company, could be taken by the Company, and the Member and its Affiliates shall have the right to take for their own account, or to recommend to others, any such particular business opportunity to the exclusion of the Company. For purposes of this Agreement, the term "Affiliate" shall mean any person, corporation, partnership, limited liability company, trust or other entity (directly or indirectly) controlling, controlled by, or under common control with, another person.

13.2 Related Party Transactions. The fact that a director, officer or their Affiliates are directly or indirectly interested in or connected with any person, firm or corporation employed by the Company to render or perform a service, or to or from whom the Company may purchase, sell or lease property, shall not prohibit the Company from employing such person, firm or corporation or from otherwise dealing with him or it, and neither the Company, nor the Member, shall have any rights in or to any income or profits derived therefrom. All such dealings with a director or such director's Affiliates will be on terms which are competitive and comparable with amounts charged by independent third parties.

14. MEMBERS.

14.1 Limitation on Participation in Management. Except as expressly authorized by this Agreement or as expressly required by the Act, the Member, solely by virtue of its status as the Member, shall not participate in the management or control of the Company's business, transact any business for the Company or have the power to act for or bind the Company, said powers being vested solely and exclusively in the Board and the officers.

14.2 Assignment of Member's Interest. The Member may freely sell, assign, transfer, pledge, hypothecate, encumber or otherwise dispose of the Member's Units. If the member transfers all of its Units, the transferee of such Units shall automatically become a substitute Member in the place of the Member. The Board shall amend Exhibit A from time to time to reflect transfers made in accordance with this Section 14.2.

14.3 Bankruptcy, Dissolution, Etc. of Member. Upon the occurrence of any of the events set forth in Sections 18-304 or 18-705 of the Act with respect to the member, the successor-in-interest or personal representative of the Member shall automatically become a substitute Member in place of the Member.

14.4 Certificates for Units.

(a) Certificates representing Units shall be in such form as may be determined by the Board. Such certificates shall be signed by the President or Vice President. The signature of such officer upon such certificates may be signed manually or by facsimile. All certificates for Units shall be consecutively numbered. The name of the person owning the Units represented thereby, with the number of Units and date of issue, shall be entered on the books of the Company. All certificates surrendered to the Company for transfer shall be canceled and no new certificates shall be issued until the former certificates for a like number of Units shall have been surrendered and canceled, except that, in case of a lost, destroyed or mutilated certificate, a new certificate may be issued therefor upon such terms and indemnity to the Company as the Board may prescribe.

(b) A Unit in the Company evidenced by a certificate shall constitute a security governed by Article 8 of the Uniform Commercial Code. Each certificate evidencing membership interests in the Company shall bear the following legend: "This certificate evidences an interest in Van Buren H.M.A., LLC, LLC and shall be a security for purposes of Article 8 of the Uniform Commercial Code." No change to this provision shall be effective until all outstanding certificates have been surrendered for cancellation and any new certificates thereafter issued shall not bear the foregoing legend.

15. DISSOLUTION.

15.1 Dissolution. Except as otherwise provided in the Act, the Company shall dissolve upon the decision of the Member to dissolve the Company or the sale or other disposition of all, or substantially all, of the assets of the Company and the sale and/or collection of any evidence of indebtedness received in connection therewith. Dissolution of the Company shall be effective upon the date specified in the Member's resolution or upon the sale or other disposition of all, or substantially all of the Assets of the Company and the sale and/or collection of any evidence of indebtedness received in connection therewith as applicable, but the Company shall not terminate until the assets of the Company shall have been distributed as provided in Section 15.3 and a certificate of cancellation of the certificate of formation of the Company is filed with the office of the Secretary of State of the State of Arkansas pursuant to the Act. Notwithstanding dissolution of the Company, prior to the liquidation and termination of the Company, the Company shall continue to be governed by this Agreement.

15.2 Sale of Assets Upon Dissolution. Following the dissolution of the Company, the Company shall be wound up and the Board shall determine whether the assets of the Company are to be sold or whether some or all of such assets are to be distributed to the Member in kind in liquidation of the Company.

15.3 Distributions Upon Dissolution. Upon the dissolution of the Company, the properties of the Company to be sold shall be liquidated in orderly fashion and the proceeds thereof, and the property to be distributed in kind, shall be distributed as follows:

(a) First, to the payment and discharge of all of the Company's debts and liabilities, to the necessary expenses of liquidation and to the establishment of any cash reserves which the Member determines to create for unmatured and/or contingent liabilities or obligations of the Company.

(b) Second, to the Member.

16. GENERAL.

16.1 Amendment.

(a) Except as provided in Section 16.1(b), this Agreement may be modified or amended from time to time only upon the consent of the Member.

(b) In addition to any amendments authorized by Section 16.1(a), this Agreement may be amended from time to time by the Board without the consent of the Member to cure any ambiguity, to correct or supplement any provision hereof which may be inconsistent with any other provision hereof, or to make any other provisions with respect to matters or questions arising under this Agreement which will not be inconsistent with the provisions of this Agreement.

16.2 Captions; Section References. Section titles or captions contained in this Agreement are inserted only as a matter of convenience and reference, and in no way define, limit, extend or describe the scope of this Agreement, or the intent of any provision hereof. All references herein to Sections shall refer to Sections of this Agreement unless the context clearly requires otherwise.

16.3 Number and Gender. Unless the context otherwise requires, when used herein, the singular shall include the plural, the plural shall include the singular, and all nouns, pronouns and any variations thereof shall be deemed to refer to the masculine, feminine or neuter, as the identity of the person or persons may require.

16.4 Severability. If any provision of this Agreement, or the application thereof to any person, entity or circumstances, shall be invalid or unenforceable to any extent, the remainder of this Agreement, and the application of such provision to other persons, entities or circumstances, shall not be affected thereby and shall be enforced to the greatest extent permitted by law.

16.5 Binding Agreement. Except as otherwise provided herein, this Agreement shall be binding upon, and inure to the benefit of, the parties hereto and their respective executors, administrators, heirs, successors and assigns.

16.6 Applicable Law. This Agreement shall be governed by, and construed in accordance with, the laws of the State of Arkansas without regard to its conflict of laws rules.

16.7 Entire Agreement. This Agreement contains the entire agreement with respect to the subject matter hereof.

Initially, there shall be three managers, Martin G. Schweinhart, W. Larry Cash and Rachel A. Seifert. Except as otherwise expressly provided herein, managers shall be elected at the organizational meeting of the Member and at each annual meeting thereafter. A decrease in the number of managers shall not shorten an incumbent manager's term. Each manager shall hold office until such manager resigns or is removed. Despite the expiration of a manager's term, such manager shall continue to serve until the manager's successor is elected and qualifies, until there is a decrease in the number of managers or the manager is removed.

10.3 Resignation of Managers. A manager may resign at any time by delivering written notice to the Board, its Chairman (as hereinafter defined), if any, or the Company. A resignation shall be effective when the notice is delivered unless the notice specifies a later effective date.

10.4 Removal of Managers by Member. A manager shall be removed by the Member only at a meeting called for the purpose of removing such manager and the meeting notice shall state that the purpose, or one of the purposes, of the meeting is removal of the manager. The Member may remove one or more managers with or without cause.

10.5 Vacancy on Board. If a vacancy occurs on the Board, including a vacancy resulting from an increase in the number of managers, the Board shall fill the vacancy, and if the managers remaining in office constitute fewer than a quorum of the Board, they may fill the vacancy by the affirmative vote of a majority of all the managers remaining in office. A vacancy that will occur at a specific later date may be filled before the vacancy occurs, but the new manager may not take office until the vacancy occurs.

10.6 Compensation of Managers. Managers on the Board shall not be entitled to receive a fee for the manager's services as a manager on the Board.

10.7 Meetings. The Board may hold regular or special meetings in or out of the State of Florida. The Board may permit any or all managers to participate in a regular or special meeting by, or conduct the meeting through the use of, any means of communication by which all managers participating may simultaneously hear each other during the meeting. A manager participating in a meeting by this means shall be deemed to be present in person at the meeting.

10.8 Special Meetings. Special meetings of the Board may be called by, or at the request of, the Chairman, if any, or the chief executive officer of the Company. All special meetings of the Board shall be held at the principal office or such other place as may be specified in the notice of the meeting.

10.9 Action Without Meeting. Any action required or permitted to be taken at a Board meeting may be taken without a meeting, without prior notice and without a vote if a consent or consents in writing, setting forth the action so taken, shall be signed by the managers having not less than the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to authorize or take such action at a meeting at which all managers entitled to vote thereon were present and voted.

10.11 Notice of Meetings. Meetings of the Board may be held without notice of the date, time, place or purpose of the meeting.

10.12 Quorum and Voting. A majority of the number of managers fixed by, or determined in accordance with, this Agreement shall constitute a quorum of the Board. If a quorum is present, an affirmative vote by a majority of the number of managers present shall constitute an act of the Board. A manager who is present at a meeting of the Board or a committee of the Board when action is taken shall be deemed to have assented to the action taken unless (i) the manager objects at the beginning of the meeting, or promptly upon the manager's arrival, to holding the meeting or transacting business at the meeting or (ii) the manager's dissent or abstention from the action taken is entered in the minutes of the meeting or the manager delivers written notice of the manager's dissent or abstention to the presiding officer of the meeting before its adjournment or to the Company immediately after adjournment of the meeting. The right of dissent or abstention shall not be available to a manager who votes in favor of the action taken.

10.13 Chairman and Vice Chairman of the Board. The Board may appoint one of its members as Chairman of the Board ("Chairman"). The Board may also appoint one of its members as Vice Chairman of the Board, and such individual shall serve in the absence of the Chairman and perform such additional duties as may be assigned to such person by the Board.

11. OFFICERS.

11.1 Officers Generally. The Company shall have the officers appointed by the Board in accordance with this Agreement. The same individual may simultaneously hold more than one office in the Company. Section 11.10 delegates to the Secretary, if such office be created and filled, the required responsibility of preparing minutes of the Board's and the Member's meetings and for authenticating records of the Company. If such office shall not be created and filled, then the Board shall delegate to one of the officers of the Company such responsibility.

11.2 Duties of Officers. Each officer of the Company shall have the authority and shall perform the duties set forth in this Agreement for such office or, to the extent consistent with this Agreement, the duties prescribed by the Board or by direction of an officer authorized by the Board to prescribe the duties of other officers.

11.3 Appointment and Term of Office. The officers of the Company shall be appointed by the Board. Vacancies may be filled or new offices created and filled at any meeting of the Board. Each officer shall hold office until such officer's successor shall be duly appointed or until the officer's death or until the officer shall resign or shall have been removed in the manner hereinafter provided.

11.4 Resignation and Removal of Officers. An officer may resign at any time by delivering notice to the Company. A resignation shall be effective when the notice is delivered unless the notice specifies a later effective date. If a resignation is made effective at a later date and the Company accepts the future effective date, the Board may fill the pending vacancy before the effective date if the Board provides that the successor shall not take office until the effective date. The Board may remove any officer at any time with or without cause.

11.5 Contract Rights of Officers. Appointment of an officer or agent shall not of itself create contract rights. An officer's removal shall not affect the officer's contract rights, if any, with the Company. An officer's resignation shall not affect the Company's contract rights, if any, with the officer.

11.6 Chairman of the Board. The Chairman, if that office be created and filled, may, at the discretion of the Board, be the chief executive officer of the Company and, if such, shall, in general, supervise and control the affairs and business of the Company, subject to control by the Board. The Chairman shall preside at all meetings of the Member and the Board.

11.7 President. The President, if that office be created and filled, shall be the chief executive officer of the Company, unless a Chairman is appointed and designated chief executive officer pursuant to Section 11.6. If no Chairman has been appointed or, in the absence of the Chairman, the President shall preside at all meetings of the Member. The President may sign certificates for Units, any deeds, mortgages, bonds, contracts or other instruments which the Board has authorized to be executed, except in cases where the signing and execution thereof shall be expressly delegated by the Board or by this Agreement to some other officer or agent of the Company, or shall be required by law to be otherwise signed or executed. The President shall, in general, perform all duties incident to the office of President of a Florida limited liability company and such other duties as may be prescribed by the Board or the Chairman from time to time. Unless otherwise ordered by the Board, the President shall have full power and authority on behalf of the Company to attend, act and vote in person or by proxy at any meetings of shareholders of any corporation in which the Company may hold stock, and at any such meeting shall hold and may exercise all rights incident to the ownership of such stock which the Company, as owner, would have had and could have exercised if present. The Board may confer like powers on any other person or persons.

11.8 Vice President. In the absence of the President, or in the event of the President's death, inability or refusal to act, the Vice President (or, in the event there be more than one Vice President, the Vice Presidents in order designated at the time of their appointment, or in the absence of any designation, then in the order of their appointment), if that office be created and filled, shall perform the duties of the President and when so acting shall have all the powers of, and be subject to all the restrictions upon, the President. Any Vice President may sign certificates for Units and shall perform such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to such person by the Chairman, the President or by the Board.

11.9 Treasurer. The Treasurer, if that office be created and filled, shall have charge and custody of, and be responsible for, all funds and securities of the Company, receive and give receipts for monies due and payable to the Company from any source whatsoever, and deposit all such monies in the name of the Company in such banks, trust companies and other depositories as shall be selected in accordance with the provisions of Section 6.1, and in general, perform all the duties incident to the office of Treasurer of a Florida limited liability company and such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to such person by the Chairman, the President or the Board. If required by the Board, the Treasurer shall give a bond for the faithful discharge of such officer's duties in such sum and with such surety or sureties as the Board shall determine.

11.10 Secretary. The Secretary, if that office be created and filled, shall keep the minutes of the Member's meetings and of the Board's meetings in one or more books provided for that purpose, see that all notices are duly given in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement or as required by law, be custodian of the Company records and of the seal, if any, of the Company, be responsible for authenticating records of the Company, keep a register of the mailing address of the Member, which shall be furnished to the Secretary by the Member, have general charge of the transfer books of the Company, and, in general, perform all duties incident to the office of Secretary of a Florida limited liability company and such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to such person by the Chairman, the President or the Board.

11.11 Assistant Treasurers and Assistant Secretaries.

(a) Assistant Treasurer. The Assistant Treasurer, if that office be created and filled, shall, if required by the Board, give bond for the faithful discharge of such officer's duty in such sum and with such surety as the Board shall determine.

(b) Assistant Secretary. The Assistant Secretary, if that office be created and filled, and if authorized by the Board, may sign, with the President or Vice President, certificates for Units.

(c) Additional Duties. The Assistant Treasurers and Assistant Secretaries, in general, shall perform such additional duties as shall be assigned to them by the Treasurer or the Secretary, respectively, or by the Chairman, the President or the Board.

12. STANDARD OF CARE OF MANAGERS AND OFFICERS; INDEMNIFICATION.

12.1 Standard of Care. The managers and officers of the Company shall not be liable, responsible or accountable in damages to the Member or the Company on account of such manager's or officer's status as a manager or officer of the Company or by reason of any act or omission related to the business of the Company performed or omitted by them in good faith with the care an officer of a Florida limited liability company of like position would exercise under similar circumstances and in a manner reasonably believed by them to be in the best interests of the Company, and, with respect to any criminal proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe their conduct was unlawful. To the extent that, at law or in equity, a manager or officer of the Company has duties (including fiduciary duties) and liabilities relating thereto to the Company, the Member or any other person, such manager or officer acting under this Agreement shall not be liable to the Company, the Member or any other person for breach of fiduciary duty for its good faith reliance on the provisions of this Agreement, and the provisions of this Agreement, to the extent that they restrict or eliminate the duties (including fiduciary duties) and liabilities relating thereto of a manager or officer otherwise existing at law or in equity, are agreed by the Member and the Company to replace such other duties and liabilities of such manager or officer; provided, however, that the foregoing shall not be interpreted or construed so as to eliminate or restrict any fiduciary duty, including, but not limited to, the duties of loyalty, care, good faith and fair dealing, in such a manner as to be contrary to the provisions of Section 605.0105 of the Act.

12.2. Indemnification.

(a) The Company shall indemnify and hold harmless each manager or officer of the Company against reasonable expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees), judgments, taxes, penalties, fines (including any excise tax assessed with respect to an employee benefit plan) and amounts paid in settlement (collectively "Liability"), incurred by such person in connection with defending any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding (whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, and whether formal or informal) to which such person is, or is threatened to be made, a party because such person is or was a manager or officer of the Company, or is or was serving at the request of the Company as a manager, officer, partner, member, employee or agent of another domestic or foreign corporation, partnership, limited liability company, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, including service with respect to employee benefit plans, provided that (i) the manager or officer has met the standard of conduct described in Section 12.1, and (ii) indemnification under this paragraph does not violate the provisions of Section 605.0105 A manager or officer shall be considered to be serving an employee benefit plan at the Company's request if such person's duties to the Company also impose duties on or otherwise involve services by such person to the plan or to participants in or beneficiaries of the plan. The indemnities hereunder shall survive the termination of the Company and this Agreement.

(b) At the request of the manager or officer entitled to indemnification hereunder, the Company shall pay or reimburse reasonable expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees) incurred by a manager or officer who is a party to a proceeding in advance of final disposition of such proceeding if:

(1) The manager or officer furnishes the Company a written affirmation of his good faith belief that he has met the standard of conduct described in Section 12.1;

(2) The manager or officer furnishes the Company a written undertaking, executed personally or on the manager's or officer's behalf, to repay the advance if it is ultimately determined that the manager or officer did not meet the standard of conduct or is otherwise not entitled to indemnification hereunder. Such undertaking shall be an unlimited general obligation of the manager or officer, but shall not be required to be secured and may be accepted without reference to financial ability to make repayment; and

(3) A determination is made that the facts then known to those making the determination would not preclude indemnification under the provisions of this Section 12.2.

(c) The indemnification against Liability and advancement of expenses provided by, or granted pursuant to, this Section 12.2 shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which those seeking indemnification or advancement may be, or hereafter become, entitled under any agreement, action of the Member or disinterested managers or otherwise, both as to action in their official capacity and as to action in another capacity while holding such office of the Company, shall continue as to a person who has ceased to be a manager or officer of the Company, and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors and administrators of such a person.

Any repeal or modification of this Section 12.2 by the Member shall not adversely affect any right or protection of a manager or officer of the Company under this Section 12.2 with respect to any act or omission occurring prior to the time of such repeal or modification.

13. OTHER ACTIVITIES; RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS.

13.1 Other Activities. The managers and officers shall devote such of their time to the affairs of the Company's business as they shall deem necessary. The Member, managers, officers and their Affiliates (as hereinafter defined) may engage in, or possess an interest in, other business ventures of any nature and description, independently or with others, whether or not such activities are competitive with those of the Company. Neither the Company nor the Member shall have any rights by virtue of this Agreement in and to such independent ventures, or to the income or profits derived therefrom. The Member shall not be obligated to present any particular business opportunity of a character which, if presented to the Company, could be taken by the Company, and the Member and its Affiliates shall have the right to take for their own account, or to recommend to others, any such particular business opportunity to the exclusion of the Company. For purposes of this Agreement, the term "Affiliate" shall mean any person, corporation, partnership, limited liability company, trust or other entity (directly or indirectly) controlling, controlled by, or under common control with, another person.

13.2 Related Party Transactions. The fact that a manager, officer or their Affiliates are directly or indirectly interested in or connected with any person, firm or corporation employed by the Company to render or perform a service, or to or from whom the Company may purchase, sell or lease property, shall not prohibit the Company from employing such person, firm or corporation or from otherwise dealing with him or it, and neither the Company, nor the Member, shall have any rights in or to any income or profits derived therefrom. All such dealings with a manager or such manager's Affiliates will be on terms which are competitive and comparable with amounts charged by independent third parties.

14. MEMBERS.

14.1 Limitation on Participation in Management. Except as expressly authorized by this Agreement or as expressly required by the Act, the Member, solely by virtue of its status as the Member, shall not participate in the management or control of the Company's business, transact any business for the Company or have the power to act for or bind the Company, said powers being vested solely and exclusively in the Board and the officers.

14.2 Assignment of Member's Interest. The Member may freely sell, assign, transfer, pledge, hypothecate, encumber or otherwise dispose of the Member's Units. If the member transfers all of its Units, the transferee of such Units shall automatically become a substitute Member in the place of the Member. The Board shall amend Exhibit A from time to time to reflect transfers made in accordance with this Section 14.2.

14.3 Dissociation of Member. Upon the occurrence of any of the events set forth in Section 605.0602 of the Act with respect to the member, the successor-in-interest or personal representative of the Member shall automatically become a substitute Member in place of the Member.

14.4 Certificates for Units.

(a) Certificates representing Units shall be in such form as may be determined by the Board. Such certificates shall be signed by the President or Vice President. The signature of such officer upon such certificates may be signed manually or by facsimile. All certificates for Units shall be consecutively numbered. The name of the person owning the Units represented thereby, with the number of Units and date of issue, shall be entered on the books of the Company. All certificates surrendered to the Company for transfer shall be canceled and no new certificates shall be issued until the former certificates for a like number of Units shall have been surrendered and canceled, except that, in case of a lost, destroyed or mutilated certificate, a new certificate may be issued therefor upon such terms and indemnity to the Company as the Board may prescribe.

(b) A Unit in the Company evidenced by a certificate shall constitute a security governed by Article 8 of the Uniform Commercial Code. Each certificate evidencing membership interests in the Company shall bear the following legend: "This certificate evidences an interest in Venice HMA, LLC and shall be a security for purposes of Article 8 of the Uniform Commercial Code." No change to this provision shall be effective until all outstanding certificates have been surrendered for cancellation and any new certificates thereafter issued shall not bear the foregoing legend.

15. DISSOLUTION.

15.1 Dissolution. Except as otherwise provided in the Act, the Company shall dissolve upon the decision of the Member to dissolve the Company or the sale or other disposition of all, or substantially all, of the assets of the Company and the sale and/or collection of any evidence of indebtedness received in connection therewith. Dissolution of the Company shall be effective upon the date specified in the Member's resolution or upon the sale or other disposition of all, or substantially all of the Assets of the Company and the sale and/or collection of any evidence of indebtedness received in connection therewith as applicable, but the Company shall not terminate until the assets of the Company shall have been distributed as provided in Section 15.3 and articles of dissolution are filed with the office of the Secretary of State of the State of Florida pursuant to Section 605.0707 of the Act. Notwithstanding dissolution of the Company, prior to the liquidation and termination of the Company, the Company shall continue to be governed by this Agreement.

15.2 Sale of Assets Upon Dissolution. Following the dissolution of the Company, the Company shall be wound up and the Board shall determine whether the assets of the Company are to be sold or whether some or all of such assets are to be distributed to the Member in kind in liquidation of the Company.

15.3 Distributions Upon Dissolution. Upon the dissolution of the Company, the properties of the Company to be sold shall be liquidated in orderly fashion and the proceeds thereof, and the property to be distributed in kind, shall be distributed as follows:

(a) First, to the payment and discharge of all of the Company's debts and liabilities, to the necessary expenses of liquidation and to the establishment of any cash reserves which the Member determines to create for unmatured and/or contingent liabilities or obligations of the Company.

(b) Second, to the Member.

16. GENERAL.

16.1 Amendment.

(a) Except as provided in Section 16.1(b), this Agreement may be modified or amended from time to time only upon the consent of the Member.

(b) In addition to any amendments authorized by Section 16.1(a), this Agreement may be amended from time to time by the Board without the consent of the Member to cure any ambiguity, to correct or supplement any provision hereof which may be inconsistent with any other provision hereof, or to make any other provisions with respect to matters or questions arising under this Agreement which will not be inconsistent with the provisions of this Agreement.

16.2 Captions; Section References. Section titles or captions contained in this Agreement are inserted only as a matter of convenience and reference, and in no way define, limit, extend or describe the scope of this Agreement, or the intent of any provision hereof. All references herein to Sections shall refer to Sections of this Agreement unless the context clearly requires otherwise.

16.3 Number and Gender. Unless the context otherwise requires, when used herein, the singular shall include the plural, the plural shall include the singular, and all nouns, pronouns and any variations thereof shall be deemed to refer to the masculine, feminine or neuter, as the identity of the person or persons may require.

16.4 Severability. If any provision of this Agreement, or the application thereof to any person, entity or circumstances, shall be invalid or unenforceable to any extent, the remainder of this Agreement, and the application of such provision to other persons, entities or circumstances, shall not be affected thereby and shall be enforced to the greatest extent permitted by law.

16.5 Binding Agreement. Except as otherwise provided herein, this Agreement shall be binding upon, and inure to the benefit of, the parties hereto and their respective executors, administrators, heirs, successors and assigns.

16.6 Applicable Law. This Agreement shall be governed by, and construed in accordance with, the laws of the State of Florida without regard to its conflict of laws rules.

16.7 Entire Agreement. This Agreement contains the entire agreement with respect to the subject matter hereof.

Any repeal or modification of the foregoing paragraph by the stockholders of the Corporation shall not adversely affect any right or protection of a director of the Corporation existing at the time of such repeal or modification.

ARTICLE IX

A. Rights to Indemnification. Each person who was or is made a party or is threatened to be made a party to or is otherwise involved in any action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (hereinafter, a "proceeding"), by reason of the fact that he or she, or a person of whom he or she is a legal representative, or is or was a director or officer of the Corporation or is only serving at the request of the Corporation as a director or officer of another Corporation or of a partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, including service with respect to an employee benefit plan (hereinafter an "indemnitee"), whether the basis of such proceeding is alleged action in an official capacity or as a director or officer or in any other capacity while serving as a director or officer, shall be indemnified and held harmless by the Corporation to the fullest extent authorized by the Delaware Code as the same exists or may hereafter be amended (but, in the case of any such amendment, only to the extent that such amendment permits the Corporation to provide broader indemnification rights than permitted prior thereto), against all expense, liability and loss (including, without limitation, attorneys' fees, judgments, fines, excise taxes or penalties and amounts paid or to be paid in settlement) incurred or suffered by such indemnitee in connection therewith and such indemnification shall continue with respect to an indemnitee who has ceased to be a director or officer and shall inure to the benefit of the indemnitee's heirs, executors and administrators; provided, however, that except as provided in paragraph (B) hereof with respect to proceedings to enforce rights to indemnification, the Corporation shall indemnify any such indemnitee in connection with a proceeding initiated by such indemnitee only if such proceeding was authorized by the Board of Directors of the Corporation. The right to indemnification conferred in this Article shall be a contract right and shall include the right to be paid by the Corporation the expenses incurred in defending any such proceeding in advance of its final disposition (hereinafter an "advancement of expenses"); provided, however, that if the Delaware Code requires, an advancement of expenses incurred by an indemnitee shall be made only upon delivery to the Corporation of an undertaking (hereinafter an "undertaking"), by or on behalf of such indemnitee, to repay all amounts so advanced if it shall ultimately be determined by final judicial decision from which there is no further right to appeal (hereinafter a "final adjudication") that such indemnitee is not entitled to be indemnified for such expenses under this Article or otherwise.

B. Rights of Indemnitee to Brine Suit. If a claim under paragraph (A) of this Article is not paid in full by the Corporation within sixty days after a written claim has been received by the Corporation (except in the case of a claim for an advancement of expenses, in which case the applicable period shall be twenty days), the indemnitee may at any time thereafter bring suit against the Corporation to recover the unpaid amount of the claim. If successful in whole or in part in any such suit, the indemnitee shall also be entitled to be paid the expense of prosecuting or defending such suit. In (i) any suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right to indemnification hereunder (but not a suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right to an advancement of expenses) it shall be a defense that, and (ii) in any suit by the Corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking, the Corporation shall be entitled to recover such expenses upon a final adjudication that, the indemnitee has not met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in the Delaware Code. Neither the failure of the Corporation (including its Board of Directors, independent counsel or its stockholders) to have made a determination prior to the commencement of such suit that indemnification of the indemnitee has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in the Delaware Code, nor an actual determination by the Corporation (including its Board of Directors, independent legal counsel or its stockholders) that the indemnitee has not met such applicable standard of conduct, or in the case of such a suit brought by the indemnitee, shall be a defense to such suit. In any suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right to indemnification or to an advancement of expenses hereunder or by the Corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking, the burden of proving that the indemnitee is not entitled under this Article or otherwise to be indemnified, or to such advancement of expenses, shall be on the Corporation.

C. Non-Exclusivity of Rights. The rights to indemnification and to the advancement of expenses conferred in this Article shall not be exclusive of any other right which any person may have or hereafter acquire under these Articles of Incorporation or any Bylaw, agreement, vote of stockholders or disinterested directors or otherwise.

D. Insurance. The Corporation may maintain insurance, at its expense, to protect itself and any indemnitee against any expense, liability or loss, whether or not the Corporation would have the power to indemnity such person against such expense, liability or loss under the Delaware Code.

E. Indemnity of Employees and Agents of the Corporation. The Corporation may, to the extent authorized from time to time by the Board of Directors, grant rights to indemnification and to the advancement of expenses to any employee or agent of the Corporation to the fullest extent of the provisions of this Article or as otherwise permitted under the Delaware Code with respect to the indemnification and advancement of expenses of directors and officers of the Corporation.

ARTICLE X

The Bylaws of the Corporation may be altered, amended or repealed or new Bylaws may be adopted by the Board of Directors of the Corporation.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand this 21st day of August, 2003.

(b) To engage in such other lawful activities in which a limited liability company may engage under the Act as is determined by the Board from time to time.

(c) To do all other things necessary or desirable in connection with the foregoing, or otherwise contemplated in this Agreement.

3.2 Company's Power. In furtherance of the purpose of the Company as set forth in Section 3.1, the Company shall have the power to do any and all things whatsoever necessary, appropriate or advisable in connection with such purpose, or as otherwise contemplated in this Agreement.

3.3 Term. The term of the Company as a limited liability company commenced as of the date of the filing of Articles of Organization with the Georgia Secretary of State's Office, and shall continue until dissolved in accordance with Section 15.

The total number of Units that the Company is initially authorized to issue is 100 Units. The Member has contributed the cash or other property identified on, and has been issued the number of Units listed on, Exhibit A. The Member may, but shall not be required to, make additional capital contributions to the Company from time to time.

4.3 No Interest on Capital Contributions. The Member shall not be entitled to interest on any capital contributions made to the Company.

5. ACCOUNTING.

5.1 Books and Records. The Company shall maintain full and accurate books of the Company at the Company's principal place of business, or such other place as the Board shall determine, showing all receipts and expenditures, assets and liabilities, net income and loss, and all other records necessary for recording the Company's business and affairs. 7. NET INCOME AND NET LOSS.

7.1 Net Income and Net Loss. All net income or net loss of the Company shall be for the account of the Member.

8. FEDERAL INCOME TAX ELECTIONS.

8.1 Tax Treatment. It is the intention of the Member that for Federal, state and local income tax purposes the Company be disregarded as an entity separate from the Member in accordance with the provisions of Treas. Reg. §§ 301.7701-2(c)(2)(i) and 301.7701-3(b)(1)(ii). The Member shall take all actions which may be necessary or required in order for the Company to be so disregarded for income tax purposes.

9. DISTRIBUTIONS.

9.1 Distributions. The Board shall determine, in the Board's sole discretion, the amount and timing of any distributions to the Member and whether such distributions shall be paid in cash or property.

10. BOARD OF MANAGERS.

10.1 General Powers. All powers of the Company shall be exercised by or under the authority of, and the business and affairs of the Company managed under the direction of, its Board of Manager ("Board").

10.2 Number, Election and Term. The Board shall consist of not less than one, nor more than seven individual managers, the exact number of which shall be determined by the Board from time to time. Initially, there shall be three managers, Martin G. Schweinhart, W. Larry Cash and Rachel A. Seifert. Except as otherwise expressly provided herein, managers shall be elected at the organizational meeting of the Member and at each annual meeting thereafter. A decrease in the number of managers shall not shorten an incumbent manager's term. Each manager shall hold office until such manager resigns or is removed. Despite the expiration of a manager's term, such manager shall continue to serve until the manager's successor is elected and qualifies, until there is a decrease in the number of managers or the manager is removed.

10.3 Resignation of Managers. A manager may resign at any time by delivering written notice to the Board, its Chairman (as hereinafter defined), if any, or the Company. A resignation shall be effective when the notice is delivered unless the notice specifies a later effective date.

10.4 Removal of Managers by Member. A manager shall be removed by the Member only at a meeting called for the purpose of removing such manager and the meeting notice shall state that the purpose, or one of the purposes, of the meeting is removal of the manager. The Member may remove one or more managers with or without cause.

10.5 Vacancy on Board. If a vacancy occurs on the Board, including a vacancy resulting from an increase in the number of managers, the Board shall fill the vacancy, and if the managers remaining in office constitute fewer than a quorum of the Board, they may fill the vacancy by the affirmative vote of a majority of all the managers remaining in office. A vacancy that will occur at a specific later date may be filled before the vacancy occurs, but the new manager may not take office until the vacancy occurs.

10.6 Compensation of Managers. Managers on the Board shall not be entitled to receive a fee for the manager's services as a manager on the Board.

10.7 Meetings. The Board may hold regular or special meetings in or out of the State of Georgia. The Board may permit any or all managers to participate in a regular or special meeting by, or conduct the meeting through the use of, any means of communication by which all managers participating may simultaneously hear each other during the meeting. A manager participating in a meeting by this means shall be deemed to be present in person at the meeting.

10.8 Special Meetings. Special meetings of the Board may be called by, or at the request of, the Chairman, if any, or the chief executive officer of the Company. All special meetings of the Board shall be held at the principal office or such other place as may be specified in the notice of the meeting.

10.9 Action Without Meeting. Any action required or permitted to be taken at a Board meeting may be taken without a meeting, without prior notice and without a vote if a consent or consents in writing, setting forth the action so taken, shall be signed by the managers having not less than the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to authorize or take such action at a meeting at which all managers entitled to vote thereon were present and voted.

10.11 Notice of Meetings. Meetings of the Board may be held without notice of the date, time, place or purpose of the meeting.

10.12 Quorum and Voting. A majority of the number of managers fixed by, or determined in accordance with, this Agreement shall constitute a quorum of the Board. If a quorum is present, an affirmative vote by a majority of the number of managers present shall constitute an act of the Board. A manager who is present at a meeting of the Board or a committee of the Board when action is taken shall be deemed to have assented to the action taken unless (i) the manager objects at the beginning of the meeting, or promptly upon the manager's arrival, to holding the meeting or transacting business at the meeting or (ii) the manager's dissent or abstention from the action taken is entered in the minutes of the meeting or the manager delivers written notice of the manager's dissent or abstention to the presiding officer of the meeting before its adjournment or to the Company immediately after adjournment of the meeting. The right of dissent or abstention shall not be available to a manager who votes in favor of the action taken.

10.13 Chairman and Vice Chairman of the Board. The Board may appoint one of its members as Chairman of the Board ("Chairman"). The Board may also appoint one of its members as Vice Chairman of the Board, and such individual shall serve in the absence of the Chairman and perform such additional duties as may be assigned to such person by the Board.

11. OFFICERS.

11.1 Officers Generally. The Company shall have the officers appointed by the Board in accordance with this Agreement. The same individual may simultaneously hold more than one office in the Company. Section 11.10 delegates to the Secretary, if such office be created and filled, the required responsibility of preparing minutes of the Board's and the Member's meetings and for authenticating records of the Company. If such office shall not be created and filled, then the Board shall delegate to one of the officers of the Company such responsibility.

11.2 Duties of Officers. Each officer of the Company shall have the authority and shall perform the duties set forth in this Agreement for such office or, to the extent consistent with this Agreement, the duties prescribed by the Board or by direction of an officer authorized by the Board to prescribe the duties of other officers.

11.3 Appointment and Term of Office. The officers of the Company shall be appointed by the Board. Vacancies may be filled or new offices created and filled at any meeting of the Board. Each officer shall hold office until such officer's successor shall be duly appointed or until the officer's death or until the officer shall resign or shall have been removed in the manner hereinafter provided.

11.4 Resignation and Removal of Officers. An officer may resign at any time by delivering notice to the Company. A resignation shall be effective when the notice is delivered unless the notice specifies a later effective date. If a resignation is made effective at a later date and the Company accepts the future effective date, the Board may fill the pending vacancy before the effective date if the Board provides that the successor shall not take office until the effective date. The Board may remove any officer at any time with or without cause.

11.5 Contract Rights of Officers. Appointment of an officer or agent shall not of itself create contract rights. An officer's removal shall not affect the officer's contract rights, if any, with the Company. An officer's resignation shall not affect the Company's contract rights, if any, with the officer.

11.6 Chairman of the Board. The Chairman, if that office be created and filled, may, at the discretion of the Board, be the chief executive officer of the Company and, if such, shall, in general, supervise and control the affairs and business of the Company, subject to control by the Board. The Chairman shall preside at all meetings of the Member and the Board.

11.7 President. The President, if that office be created and filled, shall be the chief executive officer of the Company, unless a Chairman is appointed and designated chief executive officer pursuant to Section 11.6. If no Chairman has been appointed or, in the absence of the Chairman, the President shall preside at all meetings of the Member. The President may sign certificates for Units, any deeds, mortgages, bonds, contracts or other instruments which the Board has authorized to be executed, except in cases where the signing and execution thereof shall be expressly delegated by the Board or by this Agreement to some other officer or agent of the Company, or shall be required by law to be otherwise signed or executed. The President shall, in general, perform all duties incident to the office of President of a Georgia corporation and such other duties as may be prescribed by the Board or the Chairman from time to time. Unless otherwise ordered by the Board, the President shall have full power and authority on behalf of the Company to attend, act and vote in person or by proxy at any meetings of shareholders of any corporation in which the Company may hold stock, and at any such meeting shall hold and may exercise all rights incident to the ownership of such stock which the Company, as owner, would have had and could have exercised if present. The Board may confer like powers on any other person or persons.

11.8 Vice President. In the absence of the President, or in the event of the President's death, inability or refusal to act, the Vice President (or, in the event there be more than one Vice President, the Vice Presidents in order designated at the time of their appointment, or in the absence of any designation, then in the order of their appointment), if that office be created and filled, shall perform the duties of the President and when so acting shall have all the powers of, and be subject to all the restrictions upon, the President. Any Vice President may sign certificates for Units and shall perform such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to such person by the Chairman, the President or by the Board.

11.9 Treasurer. The Treasurer, if that office be created and filled, shall have charge and custody of, and be responsible for, all funds and securities of the Company, receive and give receipts for monies due and payable to the Company from any source whatsoever, and deposit all such monies in the name of the Company in such banks, trust companies and other depositories as shall be selected in accordance with the provisions of Section 6.1, and in general, perform all the duties incident to the office of Treasurer of a Georgia corporation and such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to such person by the Chairman, the President or the Board. If required by the Board, the Treasurer shall give a bond for the faithful discharge of such officer's duties in such sum and with such surety or sureties as the Board shall determine.

11.10 Secretary. The Secretary, if that office be created and filled, shall keep the minutes of the Member's meetings and of the Board's meetings in one or more books provided for that purpose, see that all notices are duly given in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement or as required by law, be custodian of the Company records and of the seal, if any, of the Company, be responsible for authenticating records of the Company, keep a register of the mailing address of the Member, which shall be furnished to the Secretary by the Member, have general charge of the transfer books of the Company, and, in general, perform all duties incident to the office of Secretary of a Georgia corporation and such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to such person by the Chairman, the President or the Board.

11.11 Assistant Treasurers and Assistant Secretaries.

(a) Assistant Treasurer. The Assistant Treasurer, if that office be created and filled, shall, if required by the Board, give bond for the faithful discharge of such officer's duty in such sum and with such surety as the Board shall determine.

(b) Assistant Secretary. The Assistant Secretary, if that office be created and filled, and if authorized by the Board, may sign, with the President or Vice President, certificates for Units.

(c) Additional Duties. The Assistant Treasurers and Assistant Secretaries, in general, shall perform such additional duties as shall be assigned to them by the Treasurer or the Secretary, respectively, or by the Chairman, the President or the Board.

12. STANDARD OF CARE OF MANAGERS AND OFFICERS; INDEMNIFICATION.

12.1 Standard of Care. The managers and officers of the Company shall not be liable, responsible or accountable in damages to the Member or the Company on account of such manager's or officer's status as a manager or officer of the Company or by reason of any act or omission related to the business of the Company performed or omitted by them in good faith with the care an officer of a Georgia corporation of like position would exercise under similar circumstances and in a manner reasonably believed by them to be in the best interests of the Company, and, with respect to any criminal proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe their conduct was unlawful. To the extent that, at law or in equity, a manager or officer of the Company has duties (including fiduciary duties) and liabilities relating thereto to the Company, the Member or any other person, such manager or officer acting under this Agreement shall not be liable to the Company the Member or any other person for breach of fiduciary duty for its good faith reliance on the provisions of this Agreement, and the provisions of this Agreement , to the extent that they restrict or eliminate the duties (including fiduciary duties) and liabilities relating thereto of a manager or officer otherwise existing at law or in equity, are agreed by the Member and the Company to replace such other duties and liabilities of such manager or officer.

12.2. Indemnification.

(a) The Company shall indemnify and hold harmless each manager or officer of the Company against reasonable expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees), judgments, taxes, penalties, fines (including any excise tax assessed with respect to an employee benefit plan) and amounts paid in settlement (collectively "Liability"), incurred by such person in connection with defending any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding (whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, and whether formal or informal) to which such person is, or is threatened to be made, a party because such person is or was a manager or officer of the Company, or is or was serving at the request of the Company as a manager, officer, partner, member, employee or agent of another domestic or foreign corporation, partnership, limited liability company, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, including service with respect to employee benefit plans, provided that the manager or officer has met the standard of conduct described in Section 12.1. A manager or officer shall be considered to be serving an employee benefit plan at the Company's request if such person's duties to the Company also impose duties on or otherwise involve services by such person to the plan or to participants in or beneficiaries of the plan. The indemnities hereunder shall survive the termination of the Company and this Agreement.

(b) At the request of the manager or officer entitled to indemnification hereunder, the Company shall pay or reimburse reasonable expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees) incurred by a manager or officer who is a party to a proceeding in advance of final disposition of such proceeding if:

(1) The manager or officer furnishes the Company a written affirmation of his good faith belief that he has met the standard of conduct described in Section 12.1;

(2) The manager or officer furnishes the Company a written undertaking, executed personally or on the manager's or officer's behalf, to repay the advance if it is ultimately determined that the manager or officer did not meet the standard of conduct or is otherwise not entitled to indemnification hereunder. Such undertaking shall be an unlimited general obligation of the manager or officer, but shall not be required to be secured and may be accepted without reference to financial ability to make repayment; and

(3) A determination is made that the facts then known to those making the determination would not preclude indemnification under the provisions of this Section 12.2.

(c) The indemnification against Liability and advancement of expenses provided by, or granted pursuant to, this Section 12.2 shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which those seeking indemnification or advancement may be, or hereafter become, entitled under any agreement, action of the Member or disinterested managers or otherwise, both as to action in their official capacity and as to action in another capacity while holding such office of the Company, shall continue as to a person who has ceased to be a manager or officer of the Company, and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors and administrators of such a person.

Any repeal or modification of this Section 12.2 by the Member shall not adversely affect any right or protection of a manager or officer of the Company under this Section 12.2 with respect to any act or omission occurring prior to the time of such repeal or modification.

13. OTHER ACTIVITIES; RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS.

13.1 Other Activities. The managers and officers shall devote such of their time to the affairs of the Company's business as they shall deem necessary. The Member, managers, officers and their Affiliates (as hereinafter defined) may engage in, or possess an interest in, other business ventures of any nature and description, independently or with others, whether or not such activities are competitive with those of the Company. Neither the Company nor the Member shall have any rights by virtue of this Agreement in and to such independent ventures, or to the income or profits derived therefrom. The Member shall not be obligated to present any particular business opportunity of a character which, if presented to the Company, could be taken by the Company, and the Member and its Affiliates shall have the right to take for their own account, or to recommend to others, any such particular business opportunity to the exclusion of the Company. For purposes of this Agreement, the term "Affiliate" shall mean any person, corporation, partnership, limited liability company, trust or other entity (directly or indirectly) controlling, controlled by, or under common control with, another person.

13.2 Related Party Transactions. The fact that a manager, officer or their Affiliates are directly or indirectly interested in or connected with any person, firm or corporation employed by the Company to render or perform a service, or to or from whom the Company may purchase, sell or lease property, shall not prohibit the Company from employing such person, firm or corporation or from otherwise dealing with him or it, and neither the Company, nor the Member, shall have any rights in or to any income or profits derived therefrom. All such dealings with a manager or such manager's Affiliates will be on terms which are competitive and comparable with amounts charged by independent third parties.

14. MEMBERS.

14.1 Limitation on Participation in Management. Except as expressly authorized by this Agreement or as expressly required by the Act, the Member, solely by virtue of its status as the Member, shall not participate in the management or control of the Company's business, transact any business for the Company or have the power to act for or bind the Company, said powers being vested solely and exclusively in the Board and the officers.

14.2 Assignment of Member's Interest. The Member may freely sell, assign, transfer, pledge, hypothecate, encumber or otherwise dispose of the Member's Units. If the member transfers all of its Units, the transferee of such Units shall automatically become a substitute Member in the place of the Member. The Board shall amend Exhibit A from time to time to reflect transfers made in accordance with this Section 14.2.

14.3 Bankruptcy, Dissolution, Etc. of Member. Upon the occurrence of any of the events set forth in Section 14-11-601.1 of the Act with respect to the Member, the successor-in-interest or personal representative of the Member shall automatically become a substitute Member in place of the Member.

14.4 Certificates for Units.

(a) Certificates representing Units shall be in such form as may be determined by the Board. Such certificates shall be signed by the President or Vice President. The signature of such officer upon such certificates may be signed manually or by facsimile. All certificates for Units shall be consecutively numbered. The name of the person owning the Units represented thereby, with the number of Units and date of issue, shall be entered on the books of the Company. All certificates surrendered to the Company for transfer shall be canceled and no new certificates shall be issued until the former certificates for a like number of Units shall have been surrendered and canceled, except that, in case of a lost, destroyed or mutilated certificate, a new certificate may be issued therefor upon such terms and indemnity to the Company as the Board may prescribe.

(b) A Unit in the Company evidenced by a certificate shall constitute a security governed by Article 8 of the Uniform Commercial Code. Each certificate evidencing membership interests in the Company shall bear the following legend: "This certificate evidences an interest in Winder HMA, LLC and shall be a security for purposes of Article 8 of the Uniform Commercial Code." No change to this provision shall be effective until all outstanding certificates have been surrendered for cancellation and any new certificates thereafter issued shall not bear the foregoing legend.

15. DISSOLUTION.

15.1 Dissolution. Except as otherwise provided in the Act, the Company shall dissolve upon the decision of the Member to dissolve the Company or the sale or other disposition of all, or substantially all, of the assets of the Company and the sale and/or collection of any evidence of indebtedness received in connection therewith. Dissolution of the Company shall be effective upon the date specified in the Member's resolution or upon the sale or other disposition of all, or substantially all of the Assets of the Company and the sale and/or collection of any evidence of indebtedness received in connection therewith as applicable, but the Company shall not terminate until the assets of the Company shall have been distributed as provided in Section 15.3 and a certificate of termination of the Company is filed with the office of the Secretary of State of the State of Georgia pursuant to Section 14-11-610 of the Act. Notwithstanding dissolution of the Company, prior to the liquidation and termination of the Company, the Company shall continue to be governed by this Agreement.

15.2 Sale of Assets Upon Dissolution. Following the dissolution of the Company, the Company shall be wound up and the Board shall determine whether the assets of the Company are to be sold or whether some or all of such assets are to be distributed to the Member in kind in liquidation of the Company.

15.3 Distributions Upon Dissolution. Upon the dissolution of the Company, the properties of the Company to be sold shall be liquidated in orderly fashion and the proceeds thereof, and the property to be distributed in kind, shall be distributed as follows:

(a) First, to the payment and discharge of all of the Company's debts and liabilities, to the necessary expenses of liquidation and to the establishment of any cash reserves which the Member determines to create for unmatured and/or contingent liabilities or obligations of the Company.

(b) Second, to the Member.

16. GENERAL.

16.1 Amendment.

(a) Except as provided in Section 16.1(b), this Agreement may be modified or amended from time to time only upon the consent of the Member.

(b) In addition to any amendments authorized by Section 16.1(a), this Agreement may be amended from time to time by the Board without the consent of the Member to cure any ambiguity, to correct or supplement any provision hereof which may be inconsistent with any other provision hereof, or to make any other provisions with respect to matters or questions arising under this Agreement which will not be inconsistent with the provisions of this Agreement.

16.2 Captions; Section References. Section titles or captions contained in this Agreement are inserted only as a matter of convenience and reference, and in no way define, limit, extend or describe the scope of this Agreement, or the intent of any provision hereof. All references herein to Sections shall refer to Sections of this Agreement unless the context clearly requires otherwise.

16.3 Number and Gender. Unless the context otherwise requires, when used herein, the singular shall include the plural, the plural shall include the singular, and all nouns, pronouns and any variations thereof shall be deemed to refer to the masculine, feminine or neuter, as the identity of the person or persons may require.

16.4 Severability. If any provision of this Agreement, or the application thereof to any person, entity or circumstances, shall be invalid or unenforceable to any extent, the remainder of this Agreement, and the application of such provision to other persons, entities or circumstances, shall not be affected thereby and shall be enforced to the greatest extent permitted by law.

16.5 Binding Agreement. Except as otherwise provided herein, this Agreement shall be binding upon, and inure to the benefit of, the parties hereto and their respective executors, administrators, heirs, successors and assigns.

16.6 Applicable Law. This Agreement shall be governed by, and construed in accordance with, the laws of the State of Georgia without regard to its conflict of laws rules.

16.7 Entire Agreement. This Agreement contains the entire agreement with respect to the subject matter hereof.

9. DISTRIBUTIONS.

9.1 Distributions. The Board shall determine, in the Board's sole discretion, the amount and timing of any distributions to the Member and whether such distributions shall be paid in cash or property.

10. MANAGERS — BOARD OF DIRECTORS.

10.1 General Powers. All powers of the Company shall be exercised by or under the authority of, and the business and affairs of the Company managed under the direction of, its managers, who shall throughout this Agreement be referred to as its Board of Directors ("Board"), and each manager is throughout this Agreement referred to as a "director".

10.2 Number, Election and Term. The Board shall consist of not less than one, nor more than seven individual directors, the exact number of which shall be determined by the Board from time to time. Initially, there shall be three directors, Martin G. Schweinhart, W. Larry Cash and Rachel A. Seifert. Except as otherwise expressly provided herein, directors shall be elected at the organizational meeting of the Member and at each annual meeting thereafter. A decrease in the number of directors shall not shorten an incumbent director's term. Each director shall hold office until such director resigns or is removed. Despite the expiration of a director's term, such director shall continue to serve until the director's successor is elected and qualifies, until there is a decrease in the number of directors or the director is removed.

10.3 Resignation of Directors. A director may resign at any time by delivering written notice to the Board, its Chairman (as hereinafter defined), if any, or the Company. A resignation shall be effective when the notice is delivered unless the notice specifies a later effective date.

10.4 Removal of Directors by Member. A director shall be removed by the Member only at a meeting called for the purpose of removing such director and the meeting notice shall state that the purpose, or one of the purposes, of the meeting is removal of the director. The Member may remove one or more directors with or without cause.

10.6 Compensation of Directors. Directors on the Board shall not be entitled to receive a fee for the director's services as a director on the Board.

10.7 Meetings. The Board may hold regular or special meetings in or out of the State of Washington. The Board may permit any or all directors to participate in a regular or special meeting by, or conduct the meeting through the use of, any means of communication by which all directors participating may simultaneously hear each other during the meeting. A director participating in a meeting by this means shall be deemed to be present in person at the meeting.

10.8 Special Meetings. Special meetings of the Board may be called by, or at the request of, the Chairman, if any, or the chief executive officer of the Company. All special meetings of the Board shall be held at the principal office or such other place as may be specified in the notice of the meeting.

10.9 Action Without Meeting. Any action required or permitted to be taken at a Board meeting may be taken without a meeting, without prior notice and without a vote if a consent or consents in writing, setting forth the action so taken, shall be signed by the directors having not less than the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to authorize or take such action at a meeting at which all directors entitled to vote thereon were present and voted.

10.11 Notice of Meetings. Meetings of the Board may be held without notice of the date, time, place or purpose of the meeting.

10.12 Quorum and Voting. A majority of the number of directors fixed by, or determined in accordance with, this Agreement shall constitute a quorum of the Board. If a quorum is present, an affirmative vote by a majority of the number of directors present shall constitute an act of the Board. A director who is present at a meeting of the Board or a committee of the Board when action is taken shall be deemed to have assented to the action taken unless (i) the director objects at the beginning of the meeting, or promptly upon the director's arrival, to holding the meeting or transacting business at the meeting or (ii) the director's dissent or abstention from the action taken is entered in the minutes of the meeting or the director delivers written notice of the director's dissent or abstention to the presiding officer of the meeting before its adjournment or to the Company immediately after adjournment of the meeting. The right of dissent or abstention shall not be available to a director who votes in favor of the action taken.

10.13 Chairman and Vice Chairman of the Board. The Board may appoint one of its members as Chairman of the Board ("Chairman"). The Board may also appoint one of its members as Vice Chairman of the Board, and such individual shall serve in the absence of the Chairman and perform such additional duties as may be assigned to such person by the Board.

11. OFFICERS.

11.1 Officers Generally. The Company shall have the officers appointed by the Board in accordance with this Agreement. The same individual may simultaneously hold more than one office in the Company. Section 11.10 delegates to the Secretary, if such office be created and filled, the required responsibility of preparing minutes of the Board's and the Member's meetings and for authenticating records of the Company. If such office shall not be created and filled, then the Board shall delegate to one of the officers of the Company such responsibility.

11.2 Duties of Officers. Each officer of the Company shall have the authority and shall perform the duties set forth in this Agreement for such office or, to the extent consistent with this Agreement, the duties prescribed by the Board or by direction of an officer authorized by the Board to prescribe the duties of other officers.

11.3 Appointment and Term of Office. The officers of the Company shall be appointed by the Board. Vacancies may be filled or new offices created and filled at any meeting of the Board. Each officer shall hold office until such officer's successor shall be duly appointed or until the officer's death or until the officer shall resign or shall have been removed in the manner hereinafter provided.

11.4 Resignation and Removal of Officers. An officer may resign at any time by delivering notice to the Company. A resignation shall be effective when the notice is delivered unless the notice specifies a later effective date. If a resignation is made effective at a later date and the Company accepts the future effective date, the Board may fill the pending vacancy before the effective date if the Board provides that the successor shall not take office until the effective date. The Board may remove any officer at any time with or without cause.

11.5 Contract Rights of Officers. Appointment of an officer or agent shall not of itself create contract rights. An officer's removal shall not affect the officer's contract rights, if any, with the Company. An officer's resignation shall not affect the Company's contract rights, if any, with the officer.

11.6 Chairman of the Board. The Chairman, if that office be created and filled, may, at the discretion of the Board, be the chief executive officer of the Company and, if such, shall, in general, supervise and control the affairs and business of the Company, subject to control by the Board. The Chairman shall preside at all meetings of the Member and the Board.

11.7 President. The President, if that office be created and filled, shall be the chief executive officer of the Company, unless a Chairman is appointed and designated chief executive officer pursuant to Section 11.6. If no Chairman has been appointed or, in the absence of the Chairman, the President shall preside at all meetings of the Member. The President may sign certificates for Units, any deeds, mortgages, bonds, contracts or other instruments which the Board has authorized to be executed, except in cases where the signing and execution thereof shall be expressly delegated by the Board or by this Agreement to some other officer or agent of the Company, or shall be required by law to be otherwise signed or executed. The President shall, in general, perform all duties incident to the office of President of a Washington corporation and such other duties as may be prescribed by the Board or the Chairman from time to time. Unless otherwise ordered by the Board, the President shall have full power and authority on behalf of the Company to attend, act and vote in person or by proxy at any meetings of shareholders of any corporation in which the Company may hold stock, and at any such meeting shall hold and may exercise all rights incident to the ownership of such stock which the Company, as owner, would have had and could have exercised if present. The Board may confer like powers on any other person or persons.

11.8 Vice President. In the absence of the President, or in the event of the President's death, inability or refusal to act, the Vice President (or, in the event there be more than one Vice President, the Vice Presidents in order designated at the time of their appointment, or in the absence of any designation, then in the order of their appointment), if that office be created and filled, shall perform the duties of the President and when so acting shall have all the powers of, and be subject to all the restrictions upon, the President. Any Vice President may sign certificates for Units and shall perform such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to such person by the Chairman, the President or by the Board.

11.9 Treasurer. The Treasurer, if that office be created and filled, shall have charge and custody of, and be responsible for, all funds and securities of the Company, receive and give receipts for monies due and payable to the Company from any source whatsoever, and deposit all such monies in the name of the Company in such banks, trust companies and other depositories as shall be selected in accordance with the provisions of Section 6.1, and in general, perform all the duties incident to the office of Treasurer of a Washington corporation and such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to such person by the Chairman, the President or the Board. If required by the Board, the Treasurer shall give a bond for the faithful discharge of such officer's duties in such sum and with such surety or sureties as the Board shall determine.

11.10 Secretary. The Secretary, if that office be created and filled, shall keep the minutes of the Member's meetings and of the Board's meetings in one or more books provided for that purpose, see that all notices are duly given in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement or as required by law, be custodian of the Company records and of the seal, if any, of the Company, be responsible for authenticating records of the Company, keep a register of the mailing address of the Member, which shall be furnished to the Secretary by the Member, have general charge of the transfer books of the Company, and, in general, perform all duties incident to the office of Secretary of a Washington corporation and such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to such person by the Chairman, the President or the Board.

11.11 Assistant Treasurers and Assistant Secretaries.

(a) Assistant Treasurer. The Assistant Treasurer, if that office be created and filled, shall, if required by the Board, give bond for the faithful discharge of such officer's duty in such sum and with such surety as the Board shall determine.

(b) Assistant Secretary. The Assistant Secretary, if that office be created and filled, and if authorized by the Board, may sign, with the President or Vice President, certificates for Units.

(c) Additional Duties. The Assistant Treasurers and Assistant Secretaries, in general, shall perform such additional duties as shall be assigned to them by the Treasurer or the Secretary, respectively, or by the Chairman, the President or the Board.

12. STANDARD OF CARE OF DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS; INDEMNIFICATION.

12.1 Standard of Care. The directors and officers of the Company shall not be liable, responsible or accountable in damages to the Member or the Company on account of such director's or officer's status as a director or officer of the Company or by reason of any act or omission related to the business of the Company performed or omitted by them in good faith with the care an officer of a Washington corporation of like position would exercise under similar circumstances and in a manner reasonably believed by them to be in the best interests of the Company, and, with respect to any criminal proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe their conduct was unlawful. To the extent that, at law or in equity, a director or officer of the Company has duties (including fiduciary duties) and liabilities relating thereto to the Company, the Member or any other person, such director or officer acting under this Agreement shall not be liable to the Company the Member or any other person for breach of fiduciary duty for its good faith reliance on the provisions of this Agreement, and the provisions of this Agreement , to the extent that they restrict or eliminate the duties (including fiduciary duties) and liabilities relating thereto of a director or officer otherwise existing at law or in equity, are agreed by the Member and the Company to replace such other duties and liabilities of such director or officer.

12.2. Indemnification.

(a) The Company shall indemnify and hold harmless each director or officer of the Company against reasonable expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees), judgments, taxes, penalties, fines (including any excise tax assessed with respect to an employee benefit plan) and amounts paid in settlement (collectively "Liability"), incurred by such person in connection with defending any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding (whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, and whether formal or informal) to which such person is, or is threatened to be made, a party because such person is or was a director or officer of the Company, or is or was serving at the request of the Company as a director, officer, partner, member, employee or agent of another domestic or foreign corporation, partnership, limited liability company, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, including service with respect to employee benefit plans, provided that the director or officer has met the standard of conduct described in Section 12.1. A director or officer shall be considered to be serving an employee benefit plan at the Company's request if such person's duties to the Company also impose duties on or otherwise involve services by such person to the plan or to participants in or beneficiaries of the plan. The indemnities hereunder shall survive the termination of the Company and this Agreement.

(b) At the request of the director or officer entitled to indemnification hereunder, the Company shall pay or reimburse reasonable expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees) incurred by a director or officer who is a party to a proceeding in advance of final disposition of such proceeding if:

(1) The director or officer furnishes the Company a written affirmation of his good faith belief that he has met the standard of conduct described in Section 12.1;

(2) The director or officer furnishes the Company a written undertaking, executed personally or on the director's or officer's behalf, to repay the advance if it is ultimately determined that the director or officer did not meet the standard of conduct or is otherwise not entitled to indemnification hereunder. Such undertaking shall be an unlimited general obligation of the director or officer, but shall not be required to be secured and may be accepted without reference to financial ability to make repayment; and

(3) A determination is made that the facts then known to those making the determination would not preclude indemnification under the provisions of this Section 12.2.

(c) The indemnification against Liability and advancement of expenses provided by, or granted pursuant to, this Section 12.2 shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which those seeking indemnification or advancement may be, or hereafter become, entitled under any agreement, action of the Member or disinterested directors or otherwise, both as to action in their official capacity and as to action in another capacity while holding such office of the Company, shall continue as to a person who has ceased to be a director or officer of the Company, and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors and administrators of such a person.

Any repeal or modification of this Section 12.2 by the Member shall not adversely affect any right or protection of a director or officer of the Company under this Section 12.2 with respect to any act or omission occurring prior to the time of such repeal or modification.

13. OTHER ACTIVITIES; RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS.

13.1 Other Activities. The directors and officers shall devote such of their time to the affairs of the Company's business as they shall deem necessary. The Member, directors, officers and their Affiliates (as hereinafter defined) may engage in, or possess an interest in, other business ventures of any nature and description, independently or with others, whether or not such activities are competitive with those of the Company. Neither the Company nor the Member shall have any rights by virtue of this Agreement in and to such independent ventures, or to the income or profits derived therefrom. The Member shall not be obligated to present any particular business opportunity of a character which, if presented to the Company, could be taken by the Company, and the Member and its Affiliates shall have the right to take for their own account, or to recommend to others, any such particular business opportunity to the exclusion of the Company. For purposes of this Agreement, the term "Affiliate" shall mean any person, corporation, partnership, limited liability company, trust or other entity (directly or indirectly) controlling, controlled by, or under common control with, another person.

13.2 Related Party Transactions. The fact that a director, officer or their Affiliates are directly or indirectly interested in or connected with any person, firm or corporation employed by the Company to render or perform a service, or to or from whom the Company may purchase, sell or lease property, shall not prohibit the Company from employing such person, firm or corporation or from otherwise dealing with him or it, and neither the Company, nor the Member, shall have any rights in or to any income or profits derived therefrom. All such dealings with a director or such director's Affiliates will be on terms which are competitive and comparable with amounts charged by independent third parties.

14. MEMBERS.

14.1 Limitation on Participation in Management. Except as expressly authorized by this Agreement or as expressly required by the Act, the Member, solely by virtue of its status as the Member, shall not participate in the management or control of the Company's business, transact any business for the Company or have the power to act for or bind the Company, said powers being vested solely and exclusively in the Board and the officers.

14.2 Assignment of Member's Interest. The Member may freely sell, assign, transfer, pledge, hypothecate, encumber or otherwise dispose of the Member's Units. If the member transfers all of its Units, the transferee of such Units shall automatically become a substitute Member in the place of the Member. The Board shall amend Exhibit A from time to time to reflect transfers made in accordance with this Section 14.2.

14.3 Bankruptcy, Dissolution, Etc. of Member. Upon the occurrence of any of the events set forth in RCW 25.15.130(d) — (h) with respect to the Member, the successor-in-interest or personal representative of the Member shall automatically become a substitute Member in place of the Member.

14.4 Certificates for Units.

(a) Certificates representing Units shall be in such form as may be determined by the Board. Such certificates shall be signed by the President or Vice President. The signature of such officer upon such certificates may be signed manually or by facsimile. All certificates for Units shall be consecutively numbered. The name of the person owning the Units represented thereby, with the number of Units and date of issue, shall be entered on the books of the Company. All certificates surrendered to the Company for transfer shall be canceled and no new certificates shall be issued until the former certificates for a like number of Units shall have been surrendered and canceled, except that, in case of a lost, destroyed or mutilated certificate, a new certificate may be issued therefor upon such terms and indemnity to the Company as the Board may prescribe.

(b) A Unit in the Company evidenced by a certificate shall constitute a security governed by Article 8 of the Uniform Commercial Code. Each certificate evidencing membership interests in the Company shall bear the following legend: "This certificate evidences an interest in Yakima HMA, LLC and shall be a security for purposes of Article 8 of the Uniform Commercial Code." No change to this provision shall be effective until all outstanding certificates have been surrendered for cancellation and any new certificates thereafter issued shall not bear the foregoing legend.

15. DISSOLUTION.

15.1 Dissolution. Except as otherwise provided in the Act, the Company shall dissolve upon the decision of the Member to dissolve the Company or the sale or other disposition of all, or substantially all, of the assets of the Company and the sale and/or collection of any evidence of indebtedness received in connection therewith. Dissolution of the Company shall be effective upon the date specified in the Member's resolution or upon the sale or other disposition of all, or substantially all of the Assets of the Company and the sale and/or collection of any evidence of indebtedness received in connection therewith as applicable, but the Company shall not terminate until the assets of the Company shall have been distributed as provided in Section 15.3 and a certificate of dissolution of the Company is filed with the office of the Secretary of State of the State of Washington pursuant to RCW 25.15.273. Notwithstanding dissolution of the Company, prior to the liquidation and termination of the Company, the Company shall continue to be governed by this Agreement.

15.2 Sale of Assets Upon Dissolution. Following the dissolution of the Company, the Company shall be wound up and the Board shall determine whether the assets of the Company are to be sold or whether some or all of such assets are to be distributed to the Member in kind in liquidation of the Company.

15.3 Distributions Upon Dissolution. Upon the dissolution of the Company, the properties of the Company to be sold shall be liquidated in orderly fashion and the proceeds thereof, and the property to be distributed in kind, shall be distributed as follows:

(a) First, to the payment and discharge of all of the Company's debts and liabilities, to the necessary expenses of liquidation and to the establishment of any cash reserves which the Member determines to create for unmatured and/or contingent liabilities or obligations of the Company.

(b) Second, to the Member.

16. GENERAL.

16.1 Amendment.

(a) Except as provided in Section 16.1(b), this Agreement may be modified or amended from time to time only upon the consent of the Member.

(b) In addition to any amendments authorized by Section 16.1(a), this Agreement may be amended from time to time by the Board without the consent of the Member to cure any ambiguity, to correct or supplement any provision hereof which may be inconsistent with any other provision hereof, or to make any other provisions with respect to matters or questions arising under this Agreement which will not be inconsistent with the provisions of this Agreement.

16.2 Captions; Section References. Section titles or captions contained in this Agreement are inserted only as a matter of convenience and reference, and in no way define, limit, extend or describe the scope of this Agreement, or the intent of any provision hereof. All references herein to Sections shall refer to Sections of this Agreement unless the context clearly requires otherwise.

16.3 Number and Gender. Unless the context otherwise requires, when used herein, the singular shall include the plural, the plural shall include the singular, and all nouns, pronouns and any variations thereof shall be deemed to refer to the masculine, feminine or neuter, as the identity of the person or persons may require.

16.4 Severability. If any provision of this Agreement, or the application thereof to any person, entity or circumstances, shall be invalid or unenforceable to any extent, the remainder of this Agreement, and the application of such provision to other persons, entities or circumstances, shall not be affected thereby and shall be enforced to the greatest extent permitted by law.

16.5 Binding Agreement. Except as otherwise provided herein, this Agreement shall be binding upon, and inure to the benefit of, the parties hereto and their respective executors, administrators, heirs, successors and assigns.

16.6 Applicable Law. This Agreement shall be governed by, and construed in accordance with, the laws of the State of Washington without regard to its conflict of laws rules.

16.7 Entire Agreement. This Agreement contains the entire agreement with respect to the subject matter hereof.

8. FEDERAL INCOME TAX ELECTIONS.

8.1 Tax Treatment. It is the intention of the Member that for Federal, state and local income tax purposes the Company be disregarded as an entity separate from the Member in accordance with the provisions of Treas. Reg. §§ 301.7701-2(c)(2)(i) and 301.7701-3(b)(l)(ii). The Member shall take all actions which may be necessary or required in order for the Company to be so disregarded for income tax purposes.

9. DISTRIBUTIONS.

9.1 Distributions. The Board shall determine, in the Board's sole discretion, the amount and timing of any distributions to the Member and whether such distributions shall be paid in cash or property.

10. BOARD OF DIRECTORS.

10.1 General Powers. All powers of the Company shall be exercised by or under the authority of, and the business and affairs of the Company managed under the direction of, its Board of Directors ("Board").

10.2 Number, Election and Term. The Board shall consist of not less than one, nor more than seven individual directors, the exact number of which shall be determined by the Board from time to time. Initially, there shall be three directors, Martin G. Schweinhart, W. Larry Cash and Rachel A. Seifert. Except as otherwise expressly provided herein, directors shall be elected at the organizational meeting of the Member and at each annual meeting thereafter. A decrease in the number of directors shall not shorten an incumbent director's term. Each director shall hold office until such director resigns or is removed. Despite the expiration of a director's term, such director shall continue to serve until the director's successor is elected and qualifies, until there is a decrease in the number of directors or the director is removed.

10.3 Resignation of Directors. A director may resign at any time by delivering written notice to the Board, its Chairman (as hereinafter defined), if any, or the Company. A resignation shall be effective when the notice is delivered unless the notice specifies a later effective date.

10.4 Removal of Directors by Member. A director shall be removed by the Member only at a meeting called for the purpose of removing such director and the meeting notice shall state that the purpose, or one of the purposes, of the meeting is removal of the director. The Member may remove one or more directors with or without cause.

10.5 Vacancy on Board. If a vacancy occurs on the Board, including a vacancy resulting from an increase in the number of directors, the Board shall fill the vacancy, and if the directors remaining in office constitute fewer than a quorum of the Board, they may fill the vacancy by the affirmative vote of a majority of all the directors remaining in office. A vacancy that will occur at a specific later date may be filled before the vacancy occurs, but the new director may not take office until the vacancy occurs.

10.6 Compensation of Directors. Directors on the Board shall not be entitled to receive a fee for the director's services as a director on the Board.

10.7 Meetings. The Board may hold regular or special meetings in or out of the State of Delaware. The Board may permit any or all directors to participate in a regular or special meeting by, or conduct the meeting through the use of, any means of communication by which all directors participating may simultaneously hear each other during the meeting. A director participating in a meeting by this means shall be deemed to be present in person at the meeting.

10.8 Special Meetings. Special meetings of the Board may be called by, or at the request of, the Chairman, if any, or the chief executive officer of the Company. All special meetings of the Board shall be held at the principal office or such other place as may be specified in the notice of the meeting.

10.9 Action Without Meeting. Any action required or permitted to be taken at a Board meeting may be taken without a meeting, without prior notice and without a vote if a consent or consents in writing, setting forth the action so taken, shall be signed by the directors having not less than the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to authorize or take such action at a meeting at which all directors entitled to vote thereon were present and voted.

10.11 Notice of Meetings. Meetings of the Board may be held without notice of the date, time, place or purpose of the meeting.

10.12 Quorum and Voting. A majority of the number of directors fixed by, or determined in accordance with, this Agreement shall constitute a quorum of the Board. If a quorum is present, an affirmative vote by a majority of the number of directors present shall constitute an act of the Board. A director who is present at a meeting of the Board or a committee of the Board when action is taken shall be deemed to have assented to the action taken unless (i) the director objects at the beginning of the meeting, or promptly upon the director's arrival, to holding the meeting or transacting business at the meeting or (ii) the director's dissent or abstention from the action taken is entered in the minutes of the meeting or the director delivers written notice of the director's dissent or abstention to the presiding officer of the meeting before its adjournment or to the Company immediately after adjournment of the meeting. The right of dissent or abstention shall not be available to a director who votes in favor of the action taken.

10.13 Chairman and Vice Chairman of the Board. The Board may appoint one of its members as Chairman of the Board ("Chairman"). The Board may also appoint one of its members as Vice Chairman of the Board, and such individual shall serve in the absence of the Chairman and perform such additional duties as may be assigned to such person by the Board.

11. OFFICERS.

11.1 Officers Generally. The Company shall have the officers appointed by the Board in accordance with this Agreement. The same individual may simultaneously hold more than one office in the Company. Section 11.10 delegates to the Secretary, if such office be created and filled, the required responsibility of preparing minutes of the Board's and the Member's meetings and for authenticating records of the Company. If such office shall not be created and filled, then the Board shall delegate to one of the officers of the Company such responsibility.

11.2 Duties of Officers. Each officer of the Company shall have the authority and shall perform the duties set forth in this Agreement for such office or, to the extent consistent with this Agreement, the duties prescribed by the Board or by direction of an officer authorized by the Board to prescribe the duties of other officers.

11.3 Appointment and Term of Office. The officers of the Company shall be appointed by the Board. Vacancies may be filled or new offices created and filled at any meeting of the Board. Each officer shall hold office until such officer's successor shall be duly appointed or until the officer's death or until the officer shall resign or shall have been removed in the manner hereinafter provided.

11.4 Resignation and Removal of Officers. An officer may resign at any time by delivering notice to the Company. A resignation shall be effective when the notice is delivered unless the notice specifies a later effective date. If a resignation is made effective at a later date and the Company accepts the future effective date, the Board may fill the pending vacancy before the effective date if the Board provides that the successor shall not take office until the effective date. The Board may remove any officer at any time with or without cause.

11.5 Contract Rights of Officers. Appointment of an officer or agent shall not of itself create contract rights. An officer's removal shall not affect the officer's contract rights, if any, with the Company. An officer's resignation shall not affect the Company's contract rights, if any, with the officer.

11.6 Chairman of the Board. The Chairman, if that office be created and filled, may, at the discretion of the Board, be the chief executive officer of the Company and, if such, shall, in general, supervise and control the affairs and business of the Company, subject to control by the Board. The Chairman shall preside at all meetings of the Member and the Board.

11.7 President. The President, if that office be created and filled, shall be the chief executive officer of the Company, unless a Chairman is appointed and designated chief executive officer pursuant to Section 11.6. If no Chairman has been appointed or, in the absence of the Chairman, the President shall preside at all meetings of the Member. The President may sign certificates for Units, any deeds, mortgages, bonds, contracts or other instruments which the Board has authorized to be executed, except in cases where the signing and execution thereof shall be expressly delegated by the Board or by this Agreement to some other officer or agent of the Company, or shall be required by law to be otherwise signed or executed. The President shall, in general, perform all duties incident to the office of President of a Delaware corporation and such other duties as may be prescribed by the Board or the Chairman from time to time. Unless otherwise ordered by the Board, the President shall have full power and authority on behalf of the Company to attend, act and vote in person or by proxy at any meetings of shareholders of any corporation in which the Company may hold stock, and at any such meeting shall hold and may exercise all rights incident to the ownership of such stock which the Company, as owner, would have had and could have exercised if present. The Board may confer like powers on any other person or persons.

11.8 Vice President. In the absence of the President, or in the event of the President's death, inability or refusal to act, the Vice President (or, in the event there be more than one Vice President, the Vice Presidents in order designated at the time of their appointment, or in the absence of any designation, then in the order of their appointment), if that office be created and filled, shall perform the duties of the President and when so acting shall have all the powers of, and be subject to all the restrictions upon, the President. Any Vice President may sign certificates for Units and shall perform such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to such person by the Chairman, the President or by the Board.

11.9 Treasurer. The Treasurer, if that office be created and filled, shall have charge and custody of, and be responsible for, all funds and securities of the Company, receive and give receipts for monies due and payable to the Company from any source whatsoever, and deposit all such monies in the name of the Company in such banks, trust companies and other depositories as shall be selected in accordance with the provisions of Section 6.1, and in general, perform all the duties incident to the office of Treasurer of a Delaware corporation and such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to such person by the Chairman, the President or the Board. If required by the Board, the Treasurer shall give a bond for the faithful discharge of such officer's duties in such sum and with such surety or sureties as the Board shall determine.

11.10 Secretary. The Secretary, if that office be created and filled, shall keep the minutes of the Member's meetings and of the Board's meetings in one or more books provided for that purpose, see that all notices are duly given in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement or as required by law, be custodian of the Company records and of the seal, if any, of the Company, be responsible for authenticating records of the Company, keep a register of the mailing address of the Member, which shall be furnished to the Secretary by the Member, have general charge of the transfer books of the Company, and, in general, perform all duties incident to the office of Secretary of a Delaware corporation and such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to such person by the Chairman, the President or the Board.

11.11 Assistant Treasurers and Assistant Secretaries.

(a) Assistant Treasurer. The Assistant Treasurer, if that office be created and filled, shall, if required by the Board, give bond for the faithful discharge of such officer's duty in such sum and with such surety as the Board shall determine.

(b) Assistant Secretary. The Assistant Secretary, if that office be created and filled, and if authorized by the Board, may sign, with the President or Vice President, certificates for Units.

(c) Additional Duties. The Assistant Treasurers and Assistant Secretaries, in general, shall perform such additional duties as shall be assigned to them by the Treasurer or the Secretary, respectively, or by the Chairman, the President or the Board.

12. STANDARD OF CARE OF DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS; INDEMNIFICATION.

12.1 Standard of Care. The directors and officers of the Company shall not be liable, responsible or accountable in damages to the Member or the Company on account of such director's or officer's status as a director or officer of the Company or by reason of any act or omission related to the business of the Company performed or omitted by them in good faith with the care an officer of a Delaware corporation of like position would exercise under similar circumstances and in a manner reasonably believed by them to be in the best interests of the Company, and, with respect to any criminal proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe their conduct was unlawful. To the extent that, at law or in equity, a director or officer of the Company has duties (including fiduciary duties) and liabilities relating thereto to the Company, the Member or any other person, such director or officer acting under this Agreement shall not be liable to the Company the Member or any other person for breach of fiduciary duty for its good faith reliance on the provisions of this Agreement, and the provisions of this Agreement, to the extent that they restrict or eliminate the duties (including fiduciary duties) and liabilities relating thereto of a director or officer otherwise existing at law or in equity, are agreed by the Member and the Company to replace such other duties and liabilities of such director or officer.

12.2. Indemnification.

(a) The Company shall indemnify and hold harmless each director or officer of the Company against reasonable expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees), judgments, taxes, penalties, fines (including any excise tax assessed with respect to an employee benefit plan) and amounts paid in settlement (collectively "Liability"), incurred by such person in connection with defending any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding (whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, and whether formal or informal) to which such person is, or is threatened to be made, a party because such person is or was a director or officer of the Company, or is or was serving at the request of the Company as a director, officer, partner, member, employee or agent of another domestic or foreign corporation, partnership, limited liability company, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, including service with respect to employee benefit plans, provided that the director or officer has met the standard of conduct described in Section 12.1. A director or officer shall be considered to be serving an employee benefit plan at the Company's request if such person's duties to the Company also impose duties on or otherwise involve services by such person to the plan or to participants in or beneficiaries of the plan. The indemnities hereunder shall survive the termination of the Company and this Agreement.

(b) At the request of the director or officer entitled to indemnification hereunder, the Company shall pay or reimburse reasonable expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees) incurred by a director or officer who is a party to a proceeding in advance of final disposition of such proceeding if:

(1) The director or officer furnishes the Company a written affirmation of his good faith belief that he has met the standard of conduct described in Section 12.1;

(2) The director or officer furnishes the Company a written undertaking, executed personally or on the director's or officer's behalf, to repay the advance if it is ultimately determined that the director or officer did not meet the standard of conduct or is otherwise not entitled to indemnification hereunder. Such undertaking shall be an unlimited general obligation of the director or officer, but shall not be required to be secured and may be accepted without reference to financial ability to make repayment; and

(3) A determination is made that the facts then known to those making the determination would not preclude indemnification under the provisions of this Section 12.2.

(c) The indemnification against Liability and advancement of expenses provided by, or granted pursuant to, this Section 12.2 shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which those seeking indemnification or advancement may be, or hereafter become, entitled under any agreement, action of the Member or disinterested directors or otherwise, both as to action in their official capacity and as to action in another capacity while holding such office of the Company, shall continue as to a person who has ceased to be a director or officer of the Company, and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors and administrators of such a person.

Any repeal or modification of this Section 12.2 by the Member shall not adversely affect any right or protection of a director or officer of the Company under this Section 12.2 with respect to any act or omission occurring prior to the time of such repeal or modification.

13. OTHER ACTIVITIES; RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS.

13.1 Other Activities. The directors and officers shall devote such of their time to the affairs of the Company's business as they shall deem necessary. The Member, directors, officers and their Affiliates (as hereinafter defined) may engage in, or possess an interest in, other business ventures of any nature and description, independently or with others, whether or not such activities are competitive with those of the Company. Neither the Company nor the Member shall have any rights by virtue of this Agreement in and to such independent ventures, or to the income or profits derived therefrom. The Member shall not be obligated to present any particular business opportunity of a character which, if presented to the Company, could be taken by the Company, and the Member and its Affiliates shall have the right to take for their own account, or to recommend to others, any such particular business opportunity to the exclusion of the Company. For purposes of this Agreement, the term "Affiliate" shall mean any person, corporation, partnership, limited liability company, trust or other entity (directly or indirectly) controlling, controlled by, or under common control with, another person.

13.2 Related Party Transactions. The fact that a director, officer or their Affiliates are directly or indirectly interested in or connected with any person, firm or corporation employed by the Company to render or perform a service, or to or from whom the Company may purchase, sell or lease property, shall not prohibit the Company from employing such person, firm or corporation or from otherwise dealing with him or it, and neither the Company, nor the Member, shall have any rights in or to any income or profits derived therefrom. All such dealings with a director or such director's Affiliates will be on terms which are competitive and comparable with amounts charged by independent third parties.

14. MEMBERS.

14.1 Limitation on Participation in Management. Except as expressly authorized by this Agreement or as expressly required by the Act, the Member, solely by virtue of its status as the Member, shall not participate in the management or control of the Company's business, transact any business for the Company or have the power to act for or bind the Company, said powers being vested solely and exclusively in the Board and the officers.

14.2 Assignment of Member's Interest. The Member may freely sell, assign, transfer, pledge, hypothecate, encumber or otherwise dispose of the Member's Units. If the member transfers all of its Units, the transferee of such Units shall automatically become a substitute Member in the place of the Member. The Board shall amend Exhibit A from time to time to reflect transfers made in accordance with this Section 14.2.

14.3 Bankruptcy, Dissolution, Etc. of Member. Upon the occurrence of any of the events set forth in Sections 18-304 or 18-705 of the Act with respect to the member, the successor-in-interest or personal representative of the Member shall automatically become a substitute Member in place of the Member.

14.4 Certificates for Units. (a) Certificates representing Units shall be in such form as may be determined by the Board. Such certificates shall be signed by the President or Vice President. The signature of such officer upon such certificates may be signed manually or by facsimile. All certificates for Units shall be consecutively numbered. The name of the person owning the Units represented thereby, with the number of Units and date of issue, shall be entered on the books of the Company. All certificates surrendered to the Company for transfer shall be canceled and no new certificates shall be issued until the former certificates for a like number of Units shall have been surrendered and canceled, except that, in case of a lost, destroyed or mutilated certificate, a new certificate may be issued therefor upon such terms and indemnity to the Company as the Board may prescribe.

(b) A Unit in the Company evidenced by a certificate shall constitute a security governed by Article 8 of the Uniform Commercial Code. Each certificate evidencing membership interests in the Company shall bear the following legend: "This certificate evidences an interest in York Pennsylvania Holdings, LLC and shall be a security for purposes of Article 8 of the Uniform Commercial Code." No change to this provision shall be effective until all outstanding certificates have been surrendered for cancellation and any new certificates thereafter issued shall not bear the foregoing legend.

15. DISSOLUTION.

15.1 Dissolution. Except as otherwise provided in the Act, the Company shall dissolve upon the decision of the Member to dissolve the Company or the sale or other disposition of all, or substantially all, of the assets of the Company and the sale and/or collection of any evidence of indebtedness received in connection therewith. Dissolution of the Company shall be effective upon the date specified in the Member's resolution or upon the sale or other disposition of all, or substantially all of the Assets of the Company and the sale and/or collection of any evidence of indebtedness received in connection therewith as applicable, but the Company shall not terminate until the assets of the Company shall have been distributed as provided in Section 15.3 and a certificate of cancellation of the certificate of formation of the Company is filed with the office of the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware pursuant to Section 18-203 of the Act. Notwithstanding dissolution of the Company, prior to the liquidation and termination of the Company, the Company shall continue to be governed by this Agreement.

15.2 Sale of Assets Upon Dissolution. Following the dissolution of the Company, the Company shall be wound up and the Board shall determine whether the assets of the Company are to be sold or whether some or all of such assets are to be distributed to the Member in kind in liquidation of the Company.

15.3 Distributions Upon Dissolution. Upon the dissolution of the Company, the properties of the Company to be sold shall be liquidated in orderly fashion and the proceeds thereof, and the property to be distributed in kind, shall be distributed as follows:

(a) First, to the payment and discharge of all of the Company's debts and liabilities, to the necessary expenses of liquidation and to the establishment of any cash reserves which the Member determines to create for unmatured and/or contingent liabilities or obligations of the Company.

(b) Second, to the Member.

16. GENERAL.

16.1 Amendment.

(a) Except as provided in Section 16.l(b), this Agreement may be modified or amended from time to time only upon the consent of the Member.

(b) In addition to any amendments authorized by Section 16.1(a), this Agreement may be amended from time to time by the Board without the consent of the Member to cure any ambiguity, to correct or supplement any provision hereof which may be inconsistent with any other provision hereof, or to make any other provisions with respect to matters or questions arising under this Agreement which will not be inconsistent with the provisions of this Agreement.

16.2 Captions; Section References. Section titles or captions contained in this Agreement are inserted only as a matter of convenience and reference, and in no way define, limit, extend or describe the scope of this Agreement, or the intent of any provision hereof. All references herein to Sections shall refer to Sections of this Agreement unless the context clearly requires otherwise.

16.3 Number and Gender. Unless the context otherwise requires, when used herein, the singular shall include the plural, the plural shall include the singular, and all nouns, pronouns and any variations thereof shall be deemed to refer to the masculine, feminine or neuter, as the identity of the person or persons may require.

16.4 Severability: If any provision of this Agreement, or the application thereof to any person, entity or circumstances, shall be invalid or unenforceable to any extent, the remainder of this Agreement, and the application of such provision to other persons, entities or circumstances, shall not be affected thereby and shall be enforced to the greatest extent permitted by law.

16.5 Binding Agreement. Except as otherwise provided herein, this Agreement shall be binding upon, and inure to the benefit of, the parties hereto and their respective executors, administrators, heirs, successors and assigns.

16.6 Applicable Law. This Agreement shall be governed by, and construed in accordance with, the laws of the State of Delaware without regard to its conflict of laws rules.

16.7 Entire Agreement. This Agreement contains the entire agreement with respect to the subject matter hereof.

Initially, there shall be three directors, Martin G. Schweinhart, W. Larry Cash and Rachel A. Seifert. Despite the expiration of a director's term, such director shall continue to serve until the director's successor is elected and qualifies, until there is a decrease in the number of directors or the director is removed.

10.3 Resignation of Directors. A director may resign at any time by delivering written notice to the Board, its Chairman (as hereinafter defined), if any, or the Company. A resignation shall be effective when the notice is delivered unless the notice specifies a later effective date.

10.4 Removal of Directors by Member. A director shall be removed by the Member only at a meeting called for the purpose of removing such director and the meeting notice shall state that the purpose, or one of the purposes, of the meeting is removal of the director. The Member may remove one or more directors with or without cause.

10.5 Vacancy on Board. If a vacancy occurs on the Board, including a vacancy resulting from an increase in the number of directors, the Board shall fill the vacancy, and if the directors remaining in office constitute fewer than a quorum of the Board, they may fill the vacancy by the affirmative vote of a majority of all the directors remaining in office. A vacancy that will occur at a specific later date may be filled before the vacancy occurs, but the new director may not take office until the vacancy occurs.

10.6 Compensation of Directors. Directors on the Board shall not be entitled to receive a fee for the director's services as a director on the Board.

10. 7 Meetings. The Board may hold regular or special meetings in or out of the State of Delaware. The Board may permit any or all directors to participate in a regular or special meeting by, or conduct the meeting through the use of, any means of communication by which all directors participating may simultaneously hear each other during the meeting. A director participating in a meeting by this means shall be deemed to be present in person at the meeting.

10.8 Special Meetings. Special meetings of the Board may be called by, or at the request of, the Chairman, if any, or the chief executive officer of the Company. All special meetings of the Board shall be held at the principal office or such other place as may be specified in the notice of the meeting.

10.9 Action Without Meeting. Any action required or permitted to be taken at a Board meeting may be taken without a meeting, without prior notice and without a vote if a consent or consents in writing, setting forth the action so taken, shall be signed by the directors having not less than the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to authorize or take such action at a meeting at which all directors entitled to vote thereon were present and voted.

10.11 Notice of Meetings. Meetings of the Board may be held without notice of the date, time, place or purpose of the meeting.

10.12 Quorum and Voting. A majority of the number of directors fixed by, or determined in accordance with, this Agreement shall constitute a quorum of the Board. If a quorum is present, an affirmative vote by a majority of the number of directors present shall constitute an act of the Board. A director who is present at a meeting of the Board or a committee of the Board when action is taken shall be deemed to have assented to the action taken unless (i) the director objects at the beginning of the meeting, or promptly upon the director's arrival, to holding the meeting or transacting business at the meeting or (ii) the director's dissent or abstention from the action taken is entered in the minutes of the meeting or the director delivers written notice of the director's dissent or abstention to the presiding officer of the meeting before its adjournment or to the Company immediately after adjournment of the meeting. The right of dissent or abstention shall not be available to a director who votes in favor of the action taken.

10.13 Chairman and Vice Chairman of the Board. The Board may appoint one of its members as Chairman of the Board ("Chairman"). The Board may also appoint one of its members as Vice Chairman of the Board, and such individual shall serve in the absence of the Chairman and perform such additional duties as may be assigned to such person by the Board.

11. OFFICERS.

11.1 Officers Generally. The Company shall have the officers appointed by the Board in accordance with this Agreement. The same individual may simultaneously hold more hold than one office in the Company. Section 11. 10 delegates to the Secretary, if such office be created and filled, the required responsibility of preparing minutes of the Board's and the Member's meetings and for authenticating records of the Company. If such office shall not be created and filled, then the Board shall delegate to one of the officers of the Company such responsibility.

11.2 Duties of Officers. Each officer of the Company shall have the authority and shall perform the duties set forth in this Agreement for such office or, to the extent consistent with this Agreement, the duties prescribed by the Board or by direction of an officer authorized by the Board to prescribe the duties of other officers.

11.3 Appointment and Term of Office. The officers of the Company shall be appointed by the Board. Vacancies may be filled or new offices created and filled at any meeting of the Board. Each officer shall hold office until such officer's successor shall be duly appointed or until the officer's death or until the officer shall resign or shall have been removed in the manner hereinafter provided.

11.4 Resignation and Removal of Officers. An officer may resign at any time by delivering notice to the Company. A resignation shall be effective when the notice is delivered unless the notice specifies a later effective date. If a resignation is made effective at a later date and the Company accepts the future effective date, the Board may fill the pending vacancy before the effective date if the Board provides that the successor shall not take office until the effective date. The Board may remove any officer at any time with or without cause.

11.5 Contract Rights of Officers. Appointment of an officer or agent shall not of itself create contract rights. An officer's removal shall not affect the officer's contract rights, if any, with the Company. An officer's resignation shall not affect the Company's contract rights, if any, with the officer.

11.6 Chairman of the Board. The Chairman, if that office be created and filled, may, at the discretion of the Board, be the chief executive officer of the Company and, if such, shall, in general, supervise and control the affairs and business of the Company, subject to control by the Board. The Chairman shall preside at all meetings of the Member and the Board.

11.7 President. The President, if that office be created and filled, shall be the chief executive officer of the Company, unless a Chairman is appointed and designated chief executive officer pursuant to Section 11.6. If no Chairman has been appointed or, in the absence of the Chairman, the President shall preside at all meetings of the Member. The President may sign certificates for Units, any deeds, mortgages, bonds, contracts or other instruments which the Board has authorized to be executed, except in cases where the signing and execution thereof shall be expressly delegated by the Board or by this Agreement to some other officer or agent of the Company, or shall be required by law to be otherwise signed or executed. The President shall, in general, perform all duties incident to the office of President of a Delaware corporation and such other duties as may be prescribed by the Board or the Chairman from time to time. Unless otherwise ordered by the Board, the President shall have full power and authority on behalf of the Company to attend, act and vote in person or by proxy at any meetings of shareholders of any corporation in which the Company may hold stock, and at any such meeting shall hold and may exercise all rights incident to the ownership of such stock which the Company, as owner, would have had and could have exercised if present. The Board may confer like powers on any other person or persons.

11.8 Vice President. In the absence of the President, or in the event of the President's death, inability or refusal to act, the Vice President (or, in the event there be more than one Vice President, the Vice Presidents in order designated at the time of their appointment, or in the absence of any designation, then in the order of their appointment), if that office be created and filled, shall perform the duties of the President and when so acting shall have all the powers of, and be subject to all the restrictions upon, the President. Any Vice President may sign certificates for Units and shall perform such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to such person by the Chairman, the President or by the Board.

11.9 Treasurer. The Treasurer, if that office be created and filled, shall have charge and custody of, and be responsible for, all funds and securities of the Company, receive and give receipts for monies due and payable to the Company from any source whatsoever, and deposit all such monies in the name of the Company in such banks, trust companies and other depositories as shall be selected in accordance with the provisions of Section 6.1, and in general, perform all the duties incident to the office of Treasurer of a Delaware corporation and such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to such person by the Chairman, the President or the Board. If required by the Board, the Treasurer shall give a bond for the faithful discharge of such officer's duties in such sum and with such surety or sureties as the Board shall determine.

11.10 Secretary. The Secretary, if that office be created and filled, shall keep the minutes of the Member's meetings and of the Board's meetings in one or more books provided for that purpose, see that all notices are duly given in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement or as required by law, be custodian of the Company records and of the seal, if any, of the Company, be responsible for authenticating records of the Company, keep a register of the mailing address of the Member, which shall be furnished to the Secretary by the Member, have general charge of the transfer books of the Company, and, in general, perform all duties incident to the office of Secretary of a Delaware corporation and such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to such person by the Chairman, the President or the Board.

11.11 Assistant Treasurers and Assistant Secretaries.

(a) Assistant Treasurer. The Assistant Treasurer, if that office be created and filled, shall, if required by the Board, give bond for the faithful discharge of such officer's duty in such sum and with such surety as the Board shall determine.

(b) Assistant Secretary. The Assistant Secretary, if that office be created and filled, and if authorized by the Board, may sign, with the President or Vice President, certificates for Units.

(c) Additional Duties. The Assistant Treasurers and Assistant Secretaries, in general, shall perform such additional duties as shall be assigned to them by the Treasurer or the Secretary, respectively, or by the Chairman, the President or the Board.

12. STANDARD OF CARE OF DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS; INDEMNIFICATION.

12.1 Standard of Care. The directors and officers of the Company shall not be liable, responsible or accountable in damages to the Member or the Company on account of such director's or officer's status as a director or officer of the Company or by reason of any act or omission related to the business of the Company performed or omitted by them in good faith with the care an officer of a Delaware corporation of like position would exercise under similar circumstances and in a manner reasonably believed by them to be in the best interests of the Company, and, with respect to any criminal proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe their conduct was unlawful. To the extent that, at law or in equity, a director or officer of the Company has duties (including fiduciary duties) and liabilities relating thereto to the Company, the Member or any other person, such director or officer acting under this Agreement shall not be liable to the Company the Member or any other person for breach of fiduciary duty for its good faith reliance on the provisions of this Agreement, and the provisions of this Agreement, to the extent that they restrict or eliminate the duties (including fiduciary duties) and liabilities relating thereto of a director or officer otherwise existing at law or in equity, are agreed by the Member and the Company to replace such other duties and liabilities of such director or officer.

12.2. Indemnification.

(a) The Company shall indemnify and hold harmless each director or officer of the Company against reasonable expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees), judgments, taxes, penalties, fines (including any excise tax assessed with respect to an employee benefit plan) and amounts paid in settlement (collectively "Liability"), incurred by such person in connection with defending any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding (whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, and whether formal or informal) to which such person is, or is threatened to be made, a party because such person is or was a director or officer of the Company, or is or was serving at the request of the Company as a director, officer, partner, member, employee or agent of another domestic or foreign corporation, partnership, limited liability company, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, including service with respect to employee benefit plans, provided that the director or officer has met the standard of conduct described in Section 12.1. A director or officer shall be considered to be serving an employee benefit plan at the Company's request if such person's duties to the Company also impose duties on or otherwise involve services by such person to the plan or to participants in or beneficiaries of the plan. The indemnities hereunder shall survive the termination of the Company and this Agreement.

(b) At the request of the director or officer entitled to indemnification hereunder, the Company shall pay or reimburse reasonable expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees) incurred by a director or officer who is a party to a proceeding in advance of final disposition of such proceeding if:

(1) The director or officer furnishes the Company a written affirmation of his good faith belief that he has met the standard of conduct described in Section 12.1;

(2) The director or officer furnishes the Company a written undertaking, executed personally or on the director's or officer's behalf, to repay the advance if it is ultimately determined that the director or officer did not meet the standard of conduct or is otherwise not entitled to indemnification hereunder. Such undertaking shall be an unlimited general obligation of the director or officer, but shall not be required to be secured and may be accepted without reference to financial ability to make repayment; and

(3) A determination is made that the facts then known to those making the determination would not preclude indemnification under the provisions of this Section 12.2.

(c) The indemnification against Liability and advancement of expenses provided by, or granted pursuant to, this Section 12.2 shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which those seeking indemnification or advancement may be, or hereafter become, entitled under any agreement, action of the Member or disinterested directors or otherwise, both as to action in their official capacity and as to action in another capacity while holding such office of the Company, shall continue as to a person who has ceased to be a director or officer of the Company, and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors and administrators of such a person.

Any repeal or modification of this Section 12.2 by the Member shall not adversely affect any right or protection of a director or officer of the Company under this Section 12.2 with respect to any act or omission occurring prior to the time of such repeal or modification.

13. OTHER ACTIVITIES; RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS.

13.1 Other Activities. The directors and officers shall devote such of their time to the affairs of the Company's business as they shall deem necessary. The Member, directors, officers and their Affiliates (as hereinafter defined) may engage in, or possess an interest in, other business ventures of any nature and description, independently or with others, whether or not such activities are competitive with those of the Company. Neither the Company nor the Member shall have any rights by virtue of this Agreement in and to such independent ventures, or to the income or profits derived therefrom. The Member shall not be obligated to present any particular business opportunity of a character which, if presented to the Company, could be taken by the Company, and the Member and its Affiliates shall have the right to take for their own account, or to recommend to others, any such particular business opportunity to the exclusion of the Company. For purposes of this Agreement, the term "Affiliate" shall mean any person, corporation, partnership, limited liability company, trust or other entity (directly or indirectly) controlling, controlled by, or under common control with, another person.

13.2 Related Party Transactions. The fact that a director, officer or their Affiliates are directly or indirectly interested in or connected with any person, firm or corporation employed by the Company to render or perform a service, or to or from whom the Company may purchase, sell or lease property, shall not prohibit the Company from employing such person, firm or corporation or from otherwise dealing with him or it, and neither the Company, nor the Member, shall have any rights in or to any income or profits derived therefrom. All such dealings with a director or such director's Affiliates will be on terms which are competitive and comparable with amounts charged by independent third parties.

14. MEMBERS.

14.1 Limitation on Participation in Management. Except as expressly authorized by this Agreement or as expressly required by the Act, the Member, solely by virtue of its status as the Member, shall not participate in the management or control of the Company's business, transact any business for the Company or have the power to act for or bind the Company, said powers being vested solely and exclusively in the Board and the officers.

14.2 Assignment of Member's Interest. The Member may freely sell, assign, transfer, pledge, hypothecate, encumber or otherwise dispose of the Member's Units. If the member transfers all of its Units, the transferee of such Units shall automatically become a substitute Member in the place of the Member. The Board shall amend Exhibit A from time to time to reflect transfers made in accordance with this Section 14.2.

14.3 Bankruptcy, Dissolution, Etc. of Member. Upon the occurrence of any of the events set forth in Sections 18-304 or 18-705 of the Act with respect to the member, the successor-in-interest or personal representative of the Member shall automatically become a substitute Member in place of the Member.

14.4 Certificates for Units. (a) Certificates representing Units shall be in such form as may be determined by the Board. Such certificates shall be signed by the President or Vice President. The signature of such officer upon such certificates may be signed manually or by facsimile. All certificates for Units shall be consecutively numbered. The name of the person owning the Units represented thereby, with the number of Units and date of issue, shall be entered on the books of the Company. All certificates surrendered to the Company for transfer shall be canceled and no new certificates shall be issued until the former certificates for a like number of Units shall have been surrendered and canceled, except that, in case of a lost, destroyed or mutilated certificate, a new certificate may be issued therefor upon such terms and indemnity to the Company as the Board may prescribe.

(b) A Unit in the Company evidenced by a certificate shall constitute a security governed by Article 8 of the Uniform Commercial Code. Each certificate evidencing membership interests in the Company shall bear the following legend: "This certificate evidences an interest in York Hospital Company, LLC and shall be a security for purposes of Article 8 of the Uniform Commercial Code." No change to this provision shall be effective until all outstanding certificates have been surrendered for cancellation and any new certificates thereafter issued shall not bear the foregoing legend.

15. DISSOLUTION.

15.1 Dissolution. Except as otherwise provided in the Act, the Company shall dissolve upon the decision of the Member to dissolve the Company or the sale or other disposition of all, or substantially all, of the assets of the Company and the sale and/or collection of any evidence of indebtedness received in connection therewith. Dissolution of the Company shall be effective upon the date specified in the Member's resolution or upon the sale or other disposition of all, or substantially all of the Assets of the Company and the sale and/or collection of any evidence of indebtedness received in connection therewith as applicable, but the Company shall not terminate until the assets of the Company shall have been distributed as provided in Section 15.3 and a certificate of cancellation of the certificate of formation of the Company is filed with the office of the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware pursuant to Section 18-203 of the Act. Notwithstanding dissolution of the Company, prior to the liquidation and termination of the Company, the Company shall continue to be governed by this Agreement.

15.2 Sale of Assets Upon Dissolution. Following the dissolution of the Company, the Company shall be wound up and the Board shall determine whether the assets of the Company are to be sold or whether some or all of such assets are to be distributed to the Member in kind in liquidation of the Company.

15.3 Distributions Upon Dissolution. Upon the dissolution of the Company, the properties of the Company to be sold shall be liquidated in orderly fashion and the proceeds thereof, and the property to be distributed in kind, shall be distributed as follows:

(a) First, to the payment and discharge of all of the Company's debts and liabilities, to the necessary expenses of liquidation and to the establishment of any cash reserves which the Member determines to create for unmatured and/or contingent liabilities or obligations of the Company.

(b) Second, to the Member.

16. GENERAL.

16.1 Amendment.

(a) Except as provided in Section 16.l(b), this Agreement may be modified or amended from time to time only upon the consent of the Member.

(b) In addition to any amendments authorized by Section 16.1(a), this Agreement may be amended from time to time by the Board without the consent of the Member to cure any ambiguity, to correct or supplement any provision hereof which may be inconsistent with any other provision hereof, or to make any other provisions with respect to matters or questions arising under this Agreement which will not be inconsistent with the provisions of this Agreement.

16.2 Captions; Section References. Section titles or captions contained in this Agreement are inserted only as a matter of convenience and reference, and in no way define, limit, extend or describe the scope of this Agreement, or the intent of any provision hereof. All references herein to Sections shall refer to Sections of this Agreement unless the context clearly requires otherwise.

16.3 Number and Gender. Unless the context otherwise requires, when used herein, the singular shall include the plural, the plural shall include the singular, and all nouns, pronouns and any variations thereof shall be deemed to refer to the masculine, feminine or neuter, as the identity of the person or persons may require.

16.4 Severability. If any provision of this Agreement, or the application thereof to any person, entity or circumstances, shall be invalid or unenforceable to any extent, the remainder of this Agreement, and the application of such provision to other persons, entities or circumstances, shall not be affected thereby and shall be enforced to the greatest extent permitted by law.

16.5 Binding Agreement. Except as otherwise provided herein, this Agreement shall be binding upon, and inure to the benefit of, the parties hereto and their respective executors, administrators, heirs, successors and assigns.

16.6 Applicable Law. This Agreement shall be governed by, and construed in accordance with, the laws of the State of Delaware without regard to its conflict of laws rules.

16.7 Entire Agreement. This Agreement contains the entire agreement with respect to the subject matter hereof.

The opinions set forth in this letter are subject to the following qualifications:

1. The opinions set forth in this letter are based solely upon (a) our review of, as submitted to us, (i) executed copies of the Original Secured Notes Indenture, the First Secured Notes Supplemental Indenture, the Second Secured Notes Supplemental Indenture, the Unjoined Secured Notes Registration Rights Agreement, the Secured Notes Registration Rights Joinder, the Original Unsecured Notes Indenture, the First Unsecured Notes Supplemental Indenture, the Second Unsecured Notes Supplemental Indenture, the Unjoined Unsecured Notes Registration Rights Agreement and the Unsecured Notes Registration Rights Joinder, (ii) forms of the Exchange Notes and (iii) the Registration Statement (collectively the "Reviewed Documents") and (b) our review of law of the State of New York that a lawyer admitted to practice in the State of New York, exercising customary professional diligence, would normally be expected to recognize as being applicable to the transactions contemplated by the Reviewed Documents (collectively "New York Law"). Other than our review of the Reviewed Documents, we have not reviewed any document referred to in any of the Reviewed Documents or made any inquiry or other investigation as to any factual matter (including, but not limited to, (a) any review of any of the files and other records of the Issuer, any of the Guarantors, any affiliate of the Issuer or any of the Guarantors or any court or other governmental authority, (b) any review of any of our files and other records, (c) any inquiry of or other communication with any director, officer, member, manager, general partner, limited partner, employee or other agent of the Issuer, any of the Guarantors or any affiliate of the Issuer or any of the Guarantors or (d) any inquiry of any past or present attorney of ours).

2. We do not express any opinion concerning any law other than New York Law.

3. We have assumed without any inquiry or other investigation, (a) the legal capacity of each natural person, (b) the genuineness of each signature on any of the Reviewed Documents, the authenticity, accuracy and completeness of each of the Reviewed Documents and the conformity of each of the Reviewed Documents to the copy or form thereof submitted to us, (c) the accuracy on the date of this letter as well as on the date made of each statement as to any factual matter contained in any of the Reviewed Documents and (d) there not existing outside of the Reviewed Documents and New York Law anything that would render incorrect any opinion set forth in this letter.

4. This letter is given without regard to any change after the date of this letter with respect to any factual or legal matter, and we disclaim any obligation to notify you concerning any such change or any effect of any such change on any opinion set forth in this letter.

Subject to the qualifications set forth in this letter, it is our opinion that:

1. Assuming that (a) the Original Secured Notes Indenture was duly and validly authorized, executed and delivered by all parties thereto (including, but not limited to, Escrow Corp.), (b) each of the First Secured Notes Supplemental Indenture and the Second Secured Notes Supplemental Indenture was duly and validly authorized, executed and delivered by all parties thereto (including, but not limited to, the Issuer and those of the Guarantors that are parties thereto), (c) the Unjoined Secured Notes Registration Rights Agreement was duly and validly authorized, executed and delivered by all parties thereto (including, but not limited to, Escrow Corp.), (d) the Secured Notes Registration Rights Joinder was duly and validly authorized, executed and delivered by all parties thereto (including, but not limited to, the Issuer and those of the Guarantors that are parties thereto) and (e) the Secured Exchange Notes have been duly and validly authorized by the Issuer for issuance by the Issuer pursuant to the Secured Notes Indenture, the Secured Notes Registration Rights Agreement and the Secured Notes Exchange Offer, when duly and validly executed by the Issuer and duly and validly authenticated and delivered by the Trustee in accordance with the terms of the Secured Notes Indenture, the Secured Notes Registration Rights Agreement and the Secured Notes Exchange Offer, the Secured Exchange Notes will constitute legally valid and binding obligations of the Issuer, except as the enforcement thereof may be limited by any bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, moratorium or other similar law now or hereafter in effect relating to or affecting rights and remedies of creditors or by general equitable principles (collectively the “Enforceability Exceptions”).

2. Assuming that (a) Original Unsecured Notes Indenture was duly and validly authorized, executed and delivered by all parties thereto (including, but not limited to, Escrow Corp.), (b) each of the First Unsecured Notes Supplemental Indenture and the Second Unsecured Notes Supplemental Indenture was duly and validly authorized, executed and delivered by all parties thereto (including, but not limited to, the Issuer and those of the Guarantors that are parties thereto), (c) the Unjoined Unsecured Notes Registration Rights Agreement was duly and validly authorized, executed and delivered by all parties thereto (including, but not limited to, Escrow Corp.), (d) the Unsecured Notes Registration Rights Joinder was duly and validly authorized, executed and delivered by all parties thereto (including, but not limited to, the Issuer and those of the Guarantors that are parties thereto) and (e) the Unsecured Exchange Notes have been duly and validly authorized by the Issuer for issuance by the Issuer pursuant to the Unsecured Notes Indenture, the Unsecured Notes Registration Rights Agreement and the Unsecured Notes Exchange Offer, when duly and validly executed by the Issuer and duly and validly authenticated and delivered by the Trustee in accordance with the terms of the Unsecured Notes Indenture, the Unsecured Notes Registration Rights Agreement and the Unsecured Notes Exchange Offer, the Unsecured Exchange Notes will constitute legally valid and binding obligations of the Issuer, except as the enforcement thereof may be limited by the Enforceability Exceptions.

3. Assuming that (a) the Original Secured Notes Indenture was duly and validly authorized, executed and delivered by all parties thereto (including, but not limited to, Escrow Corp.), (b) each of the First Secured Notes Supplemental Indenture and the Second Secured Notes Supplemental Indenture was duly and validly authorized, executed and delivered by all parties thereto (including, but not limited to, the Issuer and those of the Guarantors that are parties thereto), (c) the Unjoined Secured Notes Registration Rights Agreement was duly and validly authorized, executed and delivered by all parties thereto (including, but not limited to, Escrow Corp.) and (d) the Secured Notes Registration Rights Joinder was duly and validly authorized, executed and delivered by all parties thereto (including, but not limited to, the Issuer and those of the Guarantors that are parties thereto), when the Secured Notes Exchange Notes have been duly and validly executed by the Issuer and duly and validly authenticated and delivered by the Trustee in accordance with the terms of the Secured Notes Indenture, the Secured Notes Registration Rights Agreement and the Secured Notes Exchange Offer, the Secured Exchange Notes Guarantees will constitute legally valid and binding obligations of the Guarantors, except as the enforcement thereof may be limited by the Enforceability Exceptions.

4. In rendering our opinions herein, we have relied with respect to factual matters, upon the representations, warranties and other information in the Notes Documents (as defined below), the Officers' Certificate (defined below), and certificates of public officials referred to below. In addition thereto, we have reviewed and relied upon originals or certified, conformed or reproduction copies of (i) the records and documents of the Guarantors and the certificates of public officials listed on Schedule II attached hereto (the "Entity Documents"), and (ii) the following documents (the "Notes Documents"):

(i) the Secured Notes Registration Rights Agreement;

(ii) the Unsecured Notes Registration Rights Agreement;

(iii) the Secured Notes Indenture;

(iv) the Unsecured Notes Indenture;

(v) the forms of Exchange Notes;

(vi) the Registration Statement; and

(vii) the prospectus contained within the Registration Statement (the "Prospectus").

We have reviewed no other documents in connection with the preparation or issuance of this opinion.

In our examination, we have assumed the legal capacity of all natural persons, the genuineness of all signatures, the authenticity of all documents submitted to us as originals, the conformity to original documents of all documents submitted to us as certified, facsimile, conformed or photostatic copies and the authenticity of the originals of such latter documents. In addition, we have assumed that none of the Guarantors is insolvent or shall be rendered insolvent as a result of the transactions contemplated by the Notes Documents.

Subject to the assumptions, exceptions and limitations hereinabove and hereinafter stated, it is our opinion that:

(1) Based solely on the respective Certificates of Existence (as defined on Schedule II) for such entities, each Guarantor is validly existing and in good standing under the laws of the State of Alabama, Mississippi, or North Carolina, as applicable.

(2) Each Guarantor has the requisite corporate or limited liability company, as applicable, power to execute, deliver and perform its obligations under the Indentures.

(3) The execution and delivery by each Guarantor of the Indentures and the performance of its obligations thereunder have been duly authorized by each Guarantor.

Unless explicitly addressed herein, this opinion does not address any of the following legal issues, and we specifically express no opinion with respect thereto:

(a) State securities laws and regulations (including all "Blue Sky" or legal investment laws), and state laws and regulations relating to commodity (and other) futures and indices and other similar instruments.

(b) State pension and employee benefit laws and regulations.

(c) State antitrust and unfair competition laws and regulations.

(d) Compliance with state fiduciary duty requirements or the consequences of any breach thereof.

(e) State environmental laws and regulations.

(f) State land use, zoning, building, construction, and subdivision laws and regulations.

(g) Any laws, rules, or regulations of any county, municipality, or similar political subdivision of any state or the agencies or instrumentalities thereof.

(h) State tax laws and regulations.

(i) State patent, copyright, trademark, and other state intellectual property laws and regulations.

(j) State racketeering laws and regulations.

(k) State health and safety laws and regulations.

(l) State labor laws and regulations.

(m) State laws, regulations and policies concerning (i) national and local emergency and terrorism, (ii) possible judicial deference to acts of sovereign states, (iii) corrupt practices, and (iv) criminal and civil forfeiture laws.

(n) State insurance laws and regulations.

(o) Other state statutes of general application to the extent they provide for criminal prosecution (e.g., mail fraud and wire fraud statutes).

(p) State banking and financial institution and financial services laws.

(q) State laws and regulations regarding usury, interest rates, loan fees, and other loan, lender, or transaction charges or fees.

(r) Any state anti-kickback or anti-referral laws, and regulations promulgated thereunder.

(s) Laws or regulations relating to swaps and other interest rate hedging arrangements or guarantees of obligations arising thereunder.

Further, the opinions set forth above are subject to the following qualifications and limitations:

(a) We express no opinion regarding (i) the effect of bankruptcy, insolvency, fraudulent conveyance, fraudulent transfer and other similar laws relating to or affecting the rights of creditors generally and (ii) restrictions relating to capital adequacy that may be applicable to the Guarantors to the extent the transactions or any Agreement may be deemed a dividend or distribution.

(b) Under Alabama, Mississippi, and North Carolina corporate and limited liability company law, our opinions as to the authority of each Guarantor to enter into the Notes Documents and the transactions described therein are subject to the assumptions that (i) no Guarantor is insolvent or rendered insolvent by the execution of the Notes Documents, because certain aspects of the transactions may be regarded as distributions under applicable corporate and limited liability company laws and distributions may not be made by corporations or limited liability companies that are insolvent or are rendered insolvent thereby, and (ii) the transactions are "fair" to each Guarantor within the meaning of applicable corporate and limited liability company laws, which may render voidable certain transactions among entities with interlocking directors, managers, shareholders, members, or officers that are otherwise "interested" in the transaction unless the transaction is (y) approved by certain parties that are not available in connection with the transactions, or (z) fair to the corporation or limited liability company.

(c) We note that the Notes Documents are governed by the laws of the State of New York. We express no opinion regarding the enforceability of any provisions of the Agreements or the sufficiency of such documents to create or perfect a security interest or enforceable liens on any property or collateral described therein.

We are admitted to practice law in the States of Alabama, Mississippi, and North Carolina, and we do not express any opinion as to the laws of any other jurisdiction, including federal law.

This opinion is limited to the matters expressly set forth above, and no opinion is implied or may be inferred beyond the matters expressly so stated. We assume no obligation to advise you of any future changes in the facts or law relating to the matters covered by this opinion.

We hereby consent to the filing of this opinion with the Commission as an exhibit to the Registration Statement in accordance with the requirements of Item 601(b)(5) of Regulation S-K under the Securities Act and to the use of our name therein and in the related Prospectus under the caption "Legal Matters." In giving such consent, we do not hereby admit that we are in the category of persons whose consent is required under Section 7 of the Securities Act or the rules and regulations of the Commission.

Very truly yours,

/s/ Bradley Arant Boult Cummings LLP

In addition, we have reviewed and relied upon such corporate or other organizational documents of the Company, Holdings and the Tennessee/Delaware Subsidiary Guarantors and such other records, documents, certificates and other instruments as in our judgment are necessary or appropriate to form the basis for rendering our opinions, including, without limitation, the following:

(i) the Secured Notes Registration Rights Agreement;

(ii) the Unsecured Notes Registration Rights Agreement;

(iii) the Secured Notes Indenture;

(iv) the Unsecured Notes Indenture;

(v) the forms of Exchange Notes;

(vi) the Registration Statement; and

(vii) the prospectus contained within the Registration Statement (the "Prospectus").

In connection with our examination of documents, we have assumed the genuineness of signatures on original documents, the authenticity of all documents submitted to us as originals, the conformity to the original documents of all copies submitted to us as certified, conformed or photographic copies, the legal capacity of all natural persons, and, as to certificates of public officials, we have assumed the same to have been properly given and to be accurate. We have assumed that all documents we have reviewed (i) are the valid and binding obligations of and enforceable against each party thereto and (ii) have been duly authorized, executed and delivered by each party thereto (other than to the extent we render opinions below as to due authorization, execution and delivery by the Company, Holdings or the Tennessee/Delaware Subsidiary Guarantors).

Except as expressly set forth in this opinion letter, we have made no independent investigation or inquiry as to the accuracy or completeness of any representation, warranty, data, certificate or other information, written or oral, made or furnished to us in connection with the transactions contemplated by the Registration Statement.

The opinions expressed herein are limited in all respects to the laws of the State of Tennessee, the Delaware General Corporation Law, the Delaware Limited Liability Company Act, and the Delaware Revised Uniform Limited Partnership Act, and no opinion is expressed with respect to (i) any federal laws of the United States of America or any other jurisdiction, or any effect which such laws may have on the opinions expressed herein, (ii) the bylaws, rules or regulations of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority, Inc. or (iii) the securities or "blue sky" laws of any jurisdiction. We are not rendering any opinion, and we are not providing any assurance, as to compliance with any antifraud law, rule or regulation relating to securities, or to the sale or issuance thereof.

We have not undertaken any independent investigation to determine the existence or absence of facts, and no inference as to our knowledge of the existence or absence of any such facts should be drawn from the fact of our representation of the Company, Holdings or the Tennessee/Delaware Subsidiary Guarantors.

With regard to our opinion in paragraph 1 below with respect to the Company's, Holdings' and the Tennessee/Delaware Subsidiary Guarantors' good standing, we have based our opinions solely upon examination of the certificates of good standing issued by the Tennessee Secretary of State and the Delaware Secretary of State as of a recent date.

Based on the foregoing, and subject to the assumptions, limitations and qualifications set forth herein, we are of the opinion that:

(1) Each of the Company, Holdings and the Tennessee/Delaware Subsidiary Guarantors is validly existing and in good standing under the laws of its respective jurisdiction of incorporation or formation, as applicable.

(2) The Company has the requisite corporate power under the laws of the State of Delaware to execute, deliver and perform its obligations under the Indentures and the Exchange Notes and to issue the Exchange Notes.

(3) The execution and delivery by the Company of the Indentures and the performance of its obligations thereunder, including the issuance of the Exchange Notes, have been duly authorized by the Company by all necessary corporate action under Delaware law.

(4) Each of Holdings and the Tennessee/Delaware Subsidiary Guarantors has the requisite corporate, limited liability company, or limited partnership power, as applicable, under Delaware or Tennessee law, as applicable, to execute, deliver and perform its obligations under the Indentures, including the guarantee of the Exchange Notes.

(5) The execution and delivery by each of Holdings and the Tennessee/Delaware Subsidiary Guarantors of the Indentures and the performance of its obligations thereunder, including guaranteeing the Exchange Notes in accordance with the provisions of the Indentures, have been duly authorized by each of Holdings and the Tennessee/Delaware Subsidiary Guarantors by all necessary corporate, limited liability company or limited partnership action under Delaware or Tennessee law, as applicable.

We express no opinion as to compliance with Section 48-16-401 of the Tennessee Business Corporation Act or Section 48-249-306 of the Tennessee Revised Limited Liability Company Act, as applicable, insofar as the incurrence of the obligations governed by the Indentures may be deemed to be a distribution by any Tennessee/Delaware Subsidiary Guarantor that is incorporated or formed in the State of Tennessee.

Our opinion is rendered as of the date hereof, and we assume no obligation to advise you of any changes in the facts or law relating to the matters covered by this opinion that may hereafter come to our attention.

We hereby consent to the filing of this opinion with the Commission as an exhibit to the Registration Statement in accordance with the requirements of Item 601(b)(5) of Regulation S-K under the Securities Act and to the use of our name therein and in the related Prospectus under the caption "Legal Matters." In giving such consent, we do not hereby admit that we are in the category of persons whose consent is required under Section 7 of the Securities Act or the rules and regulations of the Commission.

Very truly yours,

(x) the prospectus contained in the Registration Statement (the "Prospectus").

We have examined and relied upon the accuracy of original, certified, conformed or photographic copies of such documents, records, agreements and certificates as we have considered relevant hereto. In all such examinations, we have assumed the genuineness of signatures on original documents and the conformity to such original documents of all copies submitted to us as certified, conformed or photographic copies, and, as to certificates of public officials, we have assumed the same to have been properly given and to be accurate. We have also assumed that each agreement referred to in this letter has been duly authorized, executed and delivered by, and is a legal, valid, binding and enforceable obligation of, each party thereto other than the Georgia Guarantors. We have also relied, as to various matters relating to this opinion, on the certificates of public officials and officers of the Georgia Guarantors referenced above.

Additionally, we have, with your consent, assumed and relied upon the following without undertaking any independent investigation or inquiry:

This opinion is limited in all respects to the laws of the State of Georgia, and no opinion is expressed with respect to the laws of any other jurisdiction or any effect which such laws may have on the opinions expressed herein. Insofar as any Document invokes the laws of any state or jurisdiction other than Georgia as applicable to the construction, validity, binding effect or enforceability of such Document, we have assumed, with your consent, that the laws of such state or jurisdiction do not differ from Georgia law with respect to such matters. No opinion is expressed with respect to the enforceability of any choice of law provision.

Subject to the assumptions, exceptions and limitations hereinabove and hereinafter stated, it is our opinion that:

(1) Each Georgia Guarantor is validly existing and in good standing under the laws of the State of Georgia.

The obligations of the Company under the Secured Exchange Notes and the Unsecured Exchange Notes will be guaranteed by the PA Guarantors, the NJ Guarantor and the UT Guarantor along with the other guarantors, pursuant to the guarantee provisions set forth in the Indentures.

In so acting, we have examined executed copies of the Indentures.

We have also reviewed (i) the organizational documents of the PA Guarantors, the NJ Guarantor and the UT Guarantor identified on Exhibit A attached hereto (the "Guarantors' Organizational Documents") and (ii) such other documents as we deemed necessary in connection with the opinions set forth below. We have not reviewed any documents entered into in connection with the transactions contemplated in the Indentures (the "Other Documents"), other than the Indentures, the Registration Statement and the prospectus contained in the Registration Statement (the "Prospectus"), nor any documents referenced or incorporated by reference into the Other Documents or the Indentures, and we have assumed that there are no documents we have not reviewed which would affect our opinions.

Whenever our opinion in this letter with respect to the existence or absence of facts is stated to be based on our knowledge or awareness, it is intended to signify that during the course of our representation of the PA Guarantors, the NJ Guarantor and the UT Guarantor in connection with this transaction, no information has come to the attention of the attorneys within our firm who have devoted substantive attention to this transaction that would give them actual knowledge or awareness of the existence or absence of those facts. However, we have not undertaken any independent investigation to determine the existence or absence of those facts or any other facts and no inference as to our knowledge of the existence or absence of those facts or any other facts shall or may be drawn from our representation of the PA Guarantors, the NJ Guarantor and the UT Guarantor. We have made no independent factual investigations and, as to factual matters, we have relied exclusively on the facts stated in the representations and warranties contained in the Indentures, the Registration Statement, the Prospectus, officer's certificates and certificates of public officials. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, we have not made an independent search of the books and records of any party or of any court or other administrative tribunal or similar entity. We have assumed that (a) no laws or regulations of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania that do not apply to all entities in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania apply to the PA Guarantors, (b) no laws or regulations of the State of New Jersey that do not apply to all entities in the State of New Jersey apply to the NJ Guarantor, and (c) no laws or regulations of the State of Utah that do not apply to all entities in the State of Utah apply to the UT Guarantor. All assumptions made by us in this opinion letter have been made without independent verification.

We have assumed the legal capacity and competence of natural persons, the genuineness of all signatures, the authenticity of all documents submitted to us as originals and the conformity to original documents (which we have assumed are themselves authentic), of all documents submitted to us as certified, conformed, facsimile, electronic or photostatic copies. We have also assumed that all documents reviewed by us are complete.

We have also assumed that (a) the parties to the Indentures and the other documents we reviewed in connection with this opinion letter (other than the PA Guarantors, the NJ Guarantor and the UT Guarantor) are duly organized, validly existing or subsisting and in good standing in their jurisdiction of formation, and have the necessary power (including, without limitation, corporate power, partnership power and limited liability company power, where applicable) and authority to enter into and perform their obligations under the Indentures and such other documents to which they are a party; (b) the Indentures and such other documents have been duly authorized, executed and delivered by each party thereto (other than the PA Guarantors, the NJ Guarantor and the UT Guarantor with respect to due authorization of the Indentures); (c) the Indentures and such other documents constitute the legal, valid and binding obligations of each of the parties thereto, enforceable against each such party in accordance with their respective terms; and (d) the parties received good and valuable consideration for entering into the Indentures and such other documents. We have further assumed that the Guarantors' Organizational Documents, as applicable to each of the relevant guarantors, (i) are the only documents governing the internal affairs of the PA Guarantors, the NJ Guarantor and the UT Guarantor; (ii) have not been amended, restated, or supplemented (other than as set forth on Exhibit A attached hereto) and (iii) are in full force and effect.

Based upon the foregoing and subject to the qualifications, exceptions, assumptions and limitations set forth herein, we are of the opinion that:

1. Based solely on the PA Subsistence Certificates (as defined on Exhibit A attached hereto), each PA Guarantor is a corporation or limited liability company presently subsisting under the laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

2. Based solely on the Salem Good Standing Certificate (as defined on Exhibit A attached hereto), the NJ Guarantor is a corporation presently existing in good standing under the laws of the State of New Jersey.

3. Based solely on the Tooele Certificate of Existence (as defined on Exhibit A attached hereto), the UT Guarantor is a corporation presently existing in good standing under the laws of the State of Utah.

4. Each PA Guarantor has all requisite corporate or limited liability company power and authority, as applicable, to enter into and perform its obligations under the Indentures.

5. The NJ Guarantor has all requisite corporate power and authority to enter into and perform its obligations under the Indentures.

6. The UT Guarantor has all requisite corporate power and authority to enter into and perform its obligations under the Indentures.

7. Each PA Guarantor has taken all necessary corporate or limited liability company action, as applicable, to duly authorize the execution and delivery of, and performance of its obligations under, of the Indentures.

8. The NJ Guarantor has taken all necessary corporate action to duly authorize the execution and delivery of, and performance of its obligations under, of the Indentures.

9. The UT Guarantor has taken all necessary corporate action to duly authorize the execution and delivery of, and performance of its obligations under, of the Indentures.

The foregoing opinions are subject to the following exceptions, limitations and qualifications:

We express no opinion as to the application or requirements of any securities, patent, trademark, copyright, antitrust and unfair competition, pension or employee benefit, labor, environmental, health and safety, Dodd-Frank Act or tax laws in respect of the transactions contemplated by or referred to in the Indentures.

We express no opinion as to the law of any jurisdiction other than the law of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, the State of New Jersey and the State of Utah, as applicable.

We hereby consent to the filing of this opinion as an exhibit to the Registration Statement on or about the date hereof, to the incorporation by reference of this opinion of counsel into the Registration Statement and to the reference to our firm in the Prospectus under the caption “Legal Matters.” In giving this consent, we do not admit that we are within the category of persons whose consent is required by Section 7 of the Securities Act. Hodgson Russ LLP, legal counsel to the Company, CHS and each of the PA Guarantors, the NJ Guarantor and the UT Guarantor may rely upon this opinion with respect to matters set forth herein that are governed by Pennsylvania, New Jersey and Utah law for purposes of its opinion being delivered and filed as an exhibit to the Registration Statement.

This opinion letter is limited to the matters expressly stated herein. No implied opinion may be inferred to extend this opinion letter beyond the matters expressly stated herein. We do not undertake to advise you or anyone else of any changes in the opinions expressed herein resulting from changes in law, changes in facts or any other matters that hereafter might occur or be brought to our attention.

We have not undertaken any search of court or other public records for purposes of this letter. We have assumed for purposes of this letter: each document we have reviewed is accurate and complete, each such document that is an original is authentic, each such document that is a copy conforms to an authentic original, and all signatures on each such document are genuine; that the parties thereto, other than the Guarantor, had the requisite power to enter into and perform all obligations thereunder; that each such document was duly authorized by all requisite corporate or other action of the parties, other than the Guarantor, and that such documents were duly executed and delivered by each party thereto, other than the Guarantor; and that Company and Guarantor have acted in good faith and without notice of any fact which has caused Company and Guarantor to reach any conclusion contrary to any of the advice provided in this letter.

Without limiting the foregoing, the opinions hereinafter expressed are subject to the following additional assumptions:

A. Guarantor has received fair value for its execution of Transaction Documents applicable to it.

B. Neither the Company nor Guarantor will in the future take any discretionary action (including the decision not to act) permitted under the Transaction Documents that would result in a violation of law or constitute a breach of or default under any other agreement or court order;

C. The Company and the Guarantor, as applicable, will obtain all permits and governmental approvals required in the future, and take all actions similarly required, relevant to subsequent consummation of the transaction or performance of the Transaction Documents; and

Subject to the assumptions, exceptions and limitations hereinabove and hereinafter stated, it is our opinion that:

(2) Guarantor has the requisite limited liability company power to execute, deliver and perform its obligations under the Indentures, including its guarantee of the Exchange Notes.

(3) The execution and delivery by Guarantor of the Indentures and the performance of its obligations thereunder, including guaranteeing the Exchange Notes in accordance with the provisions of the Indentures, have been duly authorized by Guarantor.

Except for the activities described in this letter, we have not undertaken any investigation to determine the facts upon which the advice in this letter is based.

Our representation of Guarantor is limited by those specific matters for which we have been engaged. We have no familiarity with Guarantor's day-to-day operations, business or financial affairs. In preparing this letter we have relied without further investigation or independent verification upon: (i) information contained in certificates obtained from governmental authorities; (ii) factual information represented to be true in the Corporate Documents and Transaction Documents; (iii) factual information provided to us by the Guarantor or its representatives, including, without limitation, the Officer's Certificate referenced above; and (iv) factual information we have obtained from such other sources as we have deemed reasonable. We have assumed that there has been no relevant change or development between the dates as of which the information cited in the preceding sentence was given and the date of this letter and that the information upon which we have relied is accurate and does not omit disclosures necessary to prevent such information from being misleading.

In rendering the opinion set forth in paragraph (1) above as to the existence of the Guarantor, we have relied exclusively on the Certificate of Existence. In addition, as set forth in the LLC Agreement, the Guarantor is managed by a board of directors currently consisting of Martin G. Schweinhart, W. Larry Cash and Rachel A. Seifert. We assume that such individuals are legally competent to serve as directors and are not suffering from any mental condition or disability that would affect his or her capacity to enter into contracts generally.

As used in this opinion, references to our knowledge or awareness, or words of similar import, refer to the current actual knowledge of attorneys within the firm who have rendered legal services to Guarantor in connection with the Transaction Documents and the transactions contemplated thereby, and corporate law matters related thereto, and mean that, while such attorneys have not been informed by Guarantor that the matters stated are factually incorrect and no information that would give such attorneys current actual knowledge of any such factual inaccuracy has come to such attorneys' attention, we have not undertaken any independent investigation with respect thereto.

None of the foregoing opinions include any implied opinion, and we specifically express no opinion with respect to compliance with fiduciary duty requirements.

We are admitted to practice law only in the State of Washington. This opinion is limited to the laws of the State of Washington, and we express no opinion herein with respect to any other laws or to the application of the laws of any other jurisdiction. We express no opinion as to whether the laws of any particular jurisdiction apply, and express no opinion to the extent that the laws of any jurisdiction other than the laws of the State of Washington are applicable to the subject matter hereof. Additionally, we disclaim any opinion as to the application of any law of any city, county or other local subdivision or other local governmental authority of the State of Washington. To the extent that any of the documents reviewed by us in connection with this opinion are governed by the laws of any jurisdiction other than the State of Washington, our opinion relating to those documents is based solely upon the apparent meaning of the language without regard to interpretation or construction that might be indicated by the laws governing those agreements and instruments. This opinion is limited to the matters expressly set forth above, and no opinion is implied or may be inferred beyond the matters expressly so stated. We assume no obligation to advise Company or Guarantor of any future changes in the facts or law relating to the matters covered by this opinion.

We hereby consent to the filing of this opinion with the Commission as an exhibit to the Registration Statement in accordance with the requirements of Item 601(b)(5) of Regulation S-K under the Securities Act and to the use of our name therein and in the related Prospectus under the caption "Legal Matters." Section 3. Principal Place of Business.

The principal place of business of the Bank shall be in Birmingham, Alabama.

ARTICLE II. MEETINGS OF STOCKHOLDERS

Section 1. Annual Meeting.

Annual meetings of stockholders for the election of Directors and for such other business as may be stated in the notice of the meeting, shall be held at such place, either within or without the State of Alabama, and at such time and date as the Board of Directors, by resolution, shall determine and as set forth in the notice of the meeting.

At each annual meeting, the stockholders entitled to vote shall elect Directors, and they may transact such other corporate business as may properly come before the meeting.

Section 2. Special Meetings.

Special meetings of the stockholders for any purpose or purposes, other than the election of Directors, may be called at any time by the Chairman of the Board, the Chief Executive Officer, the President, the Secretary, or by resolution of the Directors. Special meetings of stockholders may be held at such time and place, within or without the State of Alabama, as shall be stated in the notice of the meeting.

Section 3. Voting.

The vote of a majority of the votes cast by the shares entitled to vote on any matter at a meeting of stockholders at which a quorum is present shall be the act of the stockholders on that matter, except as otherwise required by law or by the articles of incorporation of the Bank.

Section 4. Quorum.

A majority of the outstanding shares of the Bank entitled to vote, represented in person or by proxy, shall constitute a quorum at meetings of stockholders. If less than a majority of the outstanding shares are represented, a majority of the shares so represented may adjourn the meeting from time to time without further notice, but until a quorum is secured no other business may be transacted. The stockholders present at a duly organized meeting may continue to transact business until an adjournment notwithstanding the withdrawal of enough stockholders to leave less than a quorum.

ARTICLE III. DIRECTORS

Section 1. Number and Term.

The number of Directors which shall constitute the whole Board of Directors shall be fixed, from time to time, by resolutions adopted by the Board of Directors, but shall not be less than three persons. The number of Directors shall not be reduced so as to shorten the term of any Director at the time in office.

At each annual meeting of stockholders, all Directors shall be elected for terms of one year, and except as hereinafter provided, each Director shall hold office until the next annual meeting or until his or her successor shall have been elected and qualified, or until his or her earlier retirement, death, resignation or removal. Directors need not be residents of Alabama.

Section 2. Chairman of the Board and Vice Chairman of the Board.

The Board of Directors shall by majority vote designate from time to time from among its members a Chairman of the Board. The Chairman of the Board shall preside at all meetings of the stockholders and of the Board of Directors of the Bank. The position of Chairman of the Board is a Board position, provided however, the position of Chairman of the Board may be held by a person who is also an officer of the Bank.

The Board of Directors may by majority vote designate from time to time from among its members one or more Vice Chairmen of the Board. A Vice Chairman of the Board shall preside at all meetings of the stockholders and of the Board of Directors of the Bank which the Chairman of the Board shall be unable to attend. He or she shall assist the Chairman of the Board in the exercise of his or her duties and shall have and perform such duties as are prescribed from time to time by the Board of Directors. In the event of the death or incapacity of the Chairman of the Board, he or she shall perform all the duties of the Chairman of the Board until the next annual meeting of the stockholders or until the Board shall have sooner elected a successor Chairman of the Board. The position of Vice Chairman of the Board is a Board position, provided however, that the position of Vice Chairman of the Board may be held by a person who is also an officer of the Bank.

In the absence of the Chairman of the Board and Vice Chairman of the Board or in case of their inability to act, the Independent Lead Director, if at the time a Director of the Bank has been designated by the Board of Directors as such, shall have and exercise all the powers and duties of such office and shall preside at all meetings of the Board of Directors. If at any Board of Directors meeting none of such persons is present or able to act, the Board of Directors shall select one of its members as acting chair of the meeting or portion thereof.

Section 3. Resignations.

Any Director may resign at any time. Such resignation shall be made in writing, and shall take effect at the time of its receipt by the Chairman of the Board, Chief Executive Officer, the President, or the Secretary or at such other time as may be specified therein. The acceptance of a resignation shall not be necessary to make it effective.

Section 4. Vacancies.

If the office of any Director becomes vacant, the remaining Directors in office, though less than a quorum, by a majority vote, may appoint any qualified person to fill such vacancy, who shall hold office for the unexpired term and until his successor shall be duly chosen.

Section 5. Removal.

Any Director may be removed at any time, with or without cause, by the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of capital stock of the Bank entitled to vote generally in the election of Directors considered for this purpose as one class cast at a meeting of the stockholders called for that purpose.

Section 6. Powers.

The Board of Directors shall exercise all the powers of the Bank except such as are by law, by the Articles of Incorporation of the Bank or pursuant to the Bank's bylaws conferred upon or reserved to the stockholders.

Section 7. Meetings.

A regular meeting of the Board of Directors shall be held immediately before or after the annual meeting of stockholders. Additional regular meetings of the Directors may be held without notice at such places and times as shall be determined from time to time by resolution of the Directors.

Special meetings of the Board of Directors may be called by the Chairman of the Board, the Chief Executive Officer, the President, or by the Secretary on the written request of a majority of the Board of Directors on at least two days' notice to each Director and shall be held at such place or places as may be determined by the Directors, or as shall be stated in the call of the meeting.

Unless otherwise restricted by the Articles of Incorporation or these By-Laws, members of the Board of Directors, or any committee designated by the Board of Directors, may participate in a meeting of the Board of Directors, or any committee, by means of conference telephone or similar communications equipment by means of which all persons participating in the meeting can hear each other, and such participation in a meeting shall constitute presence in person at the meeting.

Section 8. Quorum.

A majority of the Directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. If at any meeting of the Board of Directors there shall be less than a quorum present, a majority of those present may adjourn the meeting from time to time until a quorum is obtained, and no further notice thereof need be given other than by announcement at the meeting which shall be so adjourned. Notwithstanding the withdrawal of enough Directors to leave less than a quorum, the Directors present at a duly organized meeting may continue to transact business until adjournment.

Section 9. Compensation.

Directors shall not receive any stated salary for their services as Directors or as members of committees, except that by resolution of the Board of Directors, retainer fees, meeting fees, and expenses of attendance at meetings may be authorized. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to preclude any Director from serving the Bank in any other capacity as an officer, agent or otherwise, and receiving compensation therefore.

Section 10. Action Without Meeting.

Any action required or permitted to be taken at any meeting of the Board of Directors or of any committee thereof, may be taken without a meeting, if prior to such action a written consent thereto is signed by all members of the Board of Directors, or of such committee as the case may be, and such written consent is filed with the minutes of proceedings of the Board of Directors or committee.

Section 11. Committees.

A majority of the whole Board of Directors shall have the authority to designate one or more committees, each committee to consist of one or more of the Directors of the Bank. The Board may designate one or more Directors as alternate members of any committee, who may replace any absent or disqualified member at any meeting of the committee. Any such committee, to the extent provided in the resolution of the Board or in these By-Laws, shall have and may exercise the powers of the Board of Directors in the management of the business and affairs of the Bank, and may authorize the seal of the. Bank to be affixed to all papers which may require it; provided, however, that in the absence or disqualification of any member of such committee or committees, the member or members thereof present at any meeting and not disqualified from voting, whether or not the member or members constitute a quorum, may unanimously appoint another member of the Board of Directors to act at the meeting in the place of any such absent or disqualified member.

Section 12. Eligibility.

No person shall be eligible to serve as Director of the Bank unless such person shall be the owner of shares of stock of the parent holding company of the number and held in the manner sufficient to meet the requirements of any applicable law or regulation in effect requiring the ownership of Directors' qualifying shares.

Section 13. Directors Protected.

Each Director shall in the performance of his or her duties be fully protected in relying in good faith upon reports made to the Directors by the officers of the Bank or by state or federal bank examiners or by any independent accountant or by any appraiser selected with reasonable care, or by counsel, or by a committee of the Board, or in relying in good faith upon other records or books of account of the Bank.

Section 2. Lost Certificates.

In case of the loss or destruction of any certificate of stock, the holder or owner of same shall give notice thereof to the Chief Executive Officer, the President, any Vice President, or the Secretary of the Bank and, if such holder or owner shall desire the issue of a new certificate in the place of the one lost or destroyed, he or she shall make affidavit of such loss or destruction and deliver the same to any one of said officers and accompany the same with a bond with surety satisfactory to the Bank to indemnify the Bank and save it harmless against any loss, cost or damage in case such certificate should thereafter be presented to the Bank, which affidavit and bond shall be, at the discretion of the deciding party listed in this Section 2, unless so ordered by a court having jurisdiction over the matter, approved or rejected by the Board of Directors or by the Chief Executive Officer or by the President or an Executive or Senior Vice President before the issue of any new certificate.

Section 3. Transfer of Shares.

Title to a certificate and to the shares represented thereby can be transferred only by delivery of the certificate endorsed either in blank or to a specified person by the person appearing by the certificate to be the owner of the shares represented thereby, or by delivery of the certificate and a separate document containing a written assignment of the certificate or a power of attorney to sell, assign, or transfer the same or the shares represented thereby, signed by the person appearing by the certificate to be the owner of the shares represented thereby. Such assignment or power of attorney may be either in blank or to a specified person.

Section 4. Fractional Shares.

No fractional part of a share of stock shall ever be issued by this Bank.

A determination of stockholders of record entitled to notice of or to vote at a meeting of stockholders shall apply to adjournment of the meeting; provided, however, that the Board of Directors may fix a new record date for the adjourned meeting.

Section 6. Dividends.

Subject to the provisions of the Articles of Incorporation, the Board of Directors may, out of funds legally available therefore at any regular or special meeting, declare dividends upon the capital stock of the Bank as and when they deem expedient. Before declaring any dividend there may be set apart out of any fund of the Bank available for dividends, such sum or sums as the Directors from time to time in their discretion deem proper for working capital or as a reserve fund to meet contingencies or for equalizing dividends or for such other purposes as the Directors shall deem conducive to the interests of the Bank. No dividends shall be declared which exceed the amounts authorized by applicable laws and regulations or are otherwise contrary to law.

Section 7. Seal.

The corporate seal of the Bank shall be circular in shape and shall include the words “Regions Bank” around the outer edge of the circle and the word “Seal” in the center of the circle. The seal may also include appropriate descriptors, such as the words: “An Alabama Banking Corporation”. The Secretary of the Bank shall have custody of the seal and is authorized to affix the same to instruments, documents, and papers as required by law or as customary or appropriate in the Secretary’s judgment and discretion. Without limiting the general authority of the Board of Directors of the Bank to name, appoint, remove, and define the duties of officers of the Bank, the Secretary is further authorized to cause reproductions of the seal to be made, distributed to, and used by officers and employees of the Bank whose duties and responsibilities involve the execution and delivery of instruments, documents, and papers bearing the seal of the Bank. In this regard, the Secretary is further authorized to establish, implement, interpret, and enforce policies and procedures governing the use of the seal and the authorization by the Secretary of officers and employees of the Bank to have custody of and to use the seal. Such policies and procedures may include (i) the right of the Secretary to appoint any Bank employee as an Assistant Secretary of the Bank, if such appointment would, in the Secretary's judgment, be convenient with respect to such employee's custody and use of a seal and/or (ii) the right of the Secretary to authorize Bank employees to have and use seals as delegates of the Secretary without appointing such employees as Assistant Secretaries of the Bank.

Section 8. Fiscal Year.

The fiscal year of the Bank shall be the calendar year.

Section 9. Checks, Drafts, Transfers, etc.

The Chief Executive Officer, the President, any Regional or Local President, any Vice President or Assistant Vice President, any Branch Manager or any other employee designated by the Board of Directors, is authorized and empowered on behalf of the Bank and in its name to sign and endorse checks and warrants, to draw drafts, to issue and sign cashier's checks, to guarantee signatures, to give receipts for money due and payable to the Bank, to sell, assign and transfer shares of capital stock, bonds, or other personal property or securities standing in the name of or held by the Bank, whether in its own right or in any fiduciary capacity, and to make or join in such consents, requests or commitments with respect to the same as may be appropriate or authorized as to the holder thereof, and to sign such other papers and do such other acts as are necessary in the performance of his or her duties. The authority conveyed to any employee designated by the Board may be limited by general or specific resolution of the Board.

Section 10. Notice and Waiver of Notice.

Whenever any notice is required by these By-Laws to be given, personal notice is not meant unless expressly so stated, and any notice so required shall be deemed to be sufficient if given by depositing the same in the United States, mail, postage, prepaid, or by telegram, teletype, facsimile transmission or other form of wire, wireless, or other electronic communication or by private carrier addressed to the person entitled thereto at his address as it appears on the records of the Bank, and such notice shall be deemed to have been given on the date of such mailing. Stockholders not entitled to vote shall not be entitled to receive notice of meetings except as otherwise provided by statute.

Whenever any notice whatever is required to be given under the provisions of any law, or under the provisions of the Articles of Incorporation of the Bank or these By-Laws, a waiver thereof in writing, signed by the person or persons entitled to said notice, whether before or after the time stated therein, shall be deemed equivalent thereto.

Section 11. Right of Indemnity.

To the full extent allowed by Section 10-2B-8.5 et seq. of the Code of Alabama (1975), or any statute amendatory or supplemental thereof, the Bank shall indemnify and hold harmless each director or officer now or hereafter serving the Bank against any loss and reasonable expenses actually and necessarily incurred by him or her in connection with the defense of any claim, or any action, suit or proceeding against him or her or in which he or she is made a party, by reason of his or her being or having been a Director or officer of the Bank, or who, while a Director or officer of the Bank, is or was serving as at the Bank's request as a director, officer, partner, trustee, employee, or agent of another foreign or domestic corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan, or other enterprise. Such right of indemnity shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which such Director or officer may be entitled under any statute, article of incorporation, rule of law, other bylaw, agreement, vote of stockholders or directors, or otherwise. Nor shall anything herein contained restrict the right of the Bank to indemnify or reimburse any officer or Director in any proper case even though not specifically provided for herein. The Bank may purchase and maintain insurance in such amounts as the Board of Directors deems appropriate on behalf of said Directors or officers so as to offset any potential liability asserted against said Directors or officers acting in such capacity as described in these By-Laws.

Section 12. Execution of Instruments and Documents.

The Chief Executive Officer, or the President, or any Regional or Local President or any Vice President is authorized, in his or her discretion, to do and perform any and all corporate and official acts in carrying on the business of the Bank, including, but not limited to, the authority to make, execute, acknowledge, accept and deliver any and all deeds, mortgages, releases, bills of sale, assignments, transfers, leases (as lessor or lessee), powers of attorney or of substitution, servicing or sub-servicing agreements, vendor agreements, proxies to vote stock or any other instrument in writing that may be necessary in the purchase, sale, lease, assignment, transfer, discount, management or handling in any way of any property of any description held, controlled or used by Bank or to be held, controlled or used by Bank, either in its own or in its fiduciary capacity and including the authority from time to time to open bank accounts with the Bank or any other institution, to borrow money in such amounts for such lengths of time, at such rates of interest and upon such terms and conditions as any said officer may deem proper and to evidence the indebtedness thereby created by executing and delivering in the name of the Bank promissory notes or other appropriate evidences of indebtedness, and to guarantee the obligations of any subsidiary or affiliate of the Bank. The enumeration herein of particular powers shall not restrict in any way the general powers and authority of said officers.

By way of example and not limitation, such officers of the Bank are authorized to execute, accept, deliver and issue, on behalf of the Bank and as binding obligations of Bank, such agreements and instruments as may be within the officer's area of responsibility, including, as applicable, agreements and related documents (such as schedules, confirmations, transfers, assignments, acknowledgments, and other documents) relating to derivative transactions, loan or letter of credit transactions, syndications, participations, trades, purchase and sale or discount transactions, transfers and assignments, servicing and sub-servicing agreements, vendor agreements, securitizations, and transactions of whatever kind or description arising in the conduct of the Bank's business.

The authority to execute and deliver documents, instruments, and agreements may be limited by resolution of the Board of Directors, by a committee of the Board of Directors, by the Chief Executive Officer, or by the President, by reference to subject matter, category, amount, geographical location, or any other criteria, and may be made subject to such policies, procedures, and levels of approval as may be adopted or amended from time to time.

Section 13. Voting Bank's Securities.

Unless otherwise ordered by the Board of Directors, the Chief Executive Officer, the President, any Executive Vice President or above, the Controller, the Bank's General Counsel, and any other officer as may be designated by the Board of Directors shall have full power and authority on behalf of the Bank to attend, and to act and to vote, and to execute a proxy or proxies empowering others to attend, and to act and to vote, at any meetings of security holders of any of the corporations in which the Bank may hold securities and, at such meetings, such officer shall possess and may exercise any and all rights and powers incident to the ownership of such securities which, as the owner thereof, the Bank might have possessed and exercised, if present.

Section 14. Bonds of Officers and Employees.

Section 15. Satisfaction of Loans.

On payment of sums lent, for which security shall have been taken either by way of mortgage or other lien on real or personal property or by the pledge of collateral, whether said loans have been made from funds of the Bank or from funds held in fiduciary capacity, any officer of the Bank shall have the power and authority to enter the fact of payment or satisfaction on the margin of the record of any such security or in any other legal manner to cancel such indebtedness and to release said security, and the Chief Executive Officer or the President or any Regional or Local President or any Vice President of the Bank shall have power and authority to execute a power of attorney authorizing the cancellation, release or satisfaction of any mortgage or other security given to the Bank in its corporate or fiduciary capacity, by such person as he or she may in his or her discretion appoint.

Section 16. Emergencies.

In the event of an emergency declared by the President of the United States or the person performing his or her functions, the officers and employees of this Bank will continue to conduct the affairs of the Bank under such guidance from the Directors as may be available except as to matters which by statute require specific approval of the Board of Directors and subject to conformance with any governmental directives or directives of the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation during the emergency.

ARTICLE VI. AMENDMENTS

Except as otherwise provided herein or in the articles of incorporation of the Bank, these By-Laws may be amended or repealed by the affirmative vote of a majority of the Directors then holding office at any regular or special meeting of the Board of Directors, and the Stockholders may make, alter or repeal any By-Laws, whether or not adopted by them.

DTC participants that are accepting the Exchange Offers through DTC's ATOP must transmit their acceptance to DTC, which will verify the acceptance and execute a book-entry delivery to the Exchange Agent's account at DTC. DTC will then send a computer-generated message (an "Agent's Message") to the Exchange Agent for its acceptance in which the holder of the Initial Notes acknowledges and agrees to be bound by the terms of, and makes the representations and warranties contained in, this Letter of Transmittal, and the DTC participant confirms on behalf of itself and the beneficial owners of such Initial Notes all provisions of this Letter of Transmittal (including any representations and warranties) applicable to it and such beneficial owner as fully as if it had completed the information required herein and executed and transmitted this Letter of Transmittal to the Exchange Agent. PLEASE READ THE ACCOMPANYING INSTRUCTIONS CAREFULLY

Ladies and Gentlemen:

Upon the terms and subject to the conditions of the Exchange Offers, the undersigned hereby tenders to the Company the aggregate principal amount of the Initial Notes indicated above. Subject to, and effective upon, the acceptance for exchange of all or any portion of the Initial Notes tendered herewith in accordance with the terms and conditions of the Exchange Offers (including, if the Exchange Offers are extended or amended, the terms and conditions of any such extension or amendment), the undersigned hereby exchanges, assigns and transfers to, or upon the order of, the Company all right, title and interest in and to such Initial Notes as are being tendered herewith.

The undersigned hereby irrevocably constitutes and appoints the Exchange Agent as its true and lawful agent and attorney-in-fact of the undersigned (with full knowledge that the Exchange Agent also acts as the agent of the Company, in connection with the Exchange Offers) with respect to the tendered Initial Notes, with full power of substitution and resubstitution (such power of attorney being deemed an irrevocable power coupled with an interest) to (1) present and deliver certificates representing such Initial Notes for transfer on the books of the Company, or transfer ownership of such Initial Notes on the account books maintained by the book-entry transfer facility specified by the holder(s) of the Initial Notes, together, in each such case, with all accompanying evidences of transfer and authenticity to, or upon the order of, the Company, and (2) receive all benefits or otherwise exercise all rights and incidents of beneficial ownership of such Initial Notes, all in accordance with the terms of the Exchange Offers.

The undersigned hereby represents and warrants that (a) the undersigned has full power and authority to tender, exchange, assign and transfer the Initial Notes tendered hereby, (b) when such tendered Initial Notes are accepted for exchange, the Company will acquire good and unencumbered title thereto, free and clear of all liens, restrictions, charges and encumbrances and (c) the Initial Notes tendered for exchange are not subject to any adverse claims or proxies when accepted by the Company. The undersigned hereby further represents that any Exchange Notes acquired in exchange for Initial Notes tendered hereby will have been acquired in the ordinary course of business of the person receiving such Exchange Notes, whether or not such person is the undersigned, that neither the holder of such Initial Notes nor any such other person is engaged in or intends to engage in, nor has an arrangement or understanding with any person to participate in, the distribution (within the meaning of the Securities Act) of such Exchange Notes, and that neither the holder of such Initial Notes nor any such other person is an "affiliate," as such term is defined in Rule 405 under the Securities Act, of the Company, or if it is an affiliate, it will comply with the registration and prospectus delivery requirements of the Securities Act to the extent applicable.

The undersigned also acknowledges that the Exchange Offers are being made based on the Company's understanding of an interpretation by the staff of the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") as set forth in no-action letters issued to third parties, including Morgan Stanley & Co. Incorporated (available June 5, 1991), Exxon Capital Holdings Corporation (available May 13, 1988), as interpreted in the SEC's letter to Shearman & Sterling, dated July 2, 1993, or similar no-action letters, that the Exchange Notes issued in exchange for the Initial Notes pursuant to the Exchange Offers may be offered for resale, resold and otherwise transferred by each holder thereof (other than a broker-dealer who acquires such Exchange Notes directly from the Company for resale pursuant to Rule 144A under the Securities Act or any other available exemption under the Securities Act or any such holder that is an "affiliate" of the Company within the meaning of Rule 405 under the Securities Act), without compliance with the registration and prospectus delivery provisions of the Securities Act, provided that such Exchange Notes are acquired in the ordinary course of such holder's business and such holder is not engaged in, and does not intend to engage in, a distribution (within the meaning of the Securities Act) of such Exchange Notes and has no arrangement or understanding with any person to participate in the distribution of such Exchange Notes. If a holder of the Initial Notes is an affiliate of the Company, is not acquiring the Exchange Notes in the ordinary course of its business, is engaged in or intends to engage in a distribution (within the meaning of the Securities Act) of the Exchange Notes or has any arrangement or understanding with respect to the distribution (within the meaning of the Securities Act) of the Exchange Notes to be acquired pursuant to the Exchange Offers, such holder (x) may not rely on the applicable interpretations of the staff of the SEC and (y) must comply with the registration and prospectus delivery requirements of the Securities Act to the extent applicable in connection with any secondary resale transaction. If the undersigned is a broker-dealer that will receive the Exchange Notes for its own account in exchange for the Initial Notes, it represents that the Initial Notes to be exchanged for the Exchange Notes were acquired by it as a result of market-making activities or other trading activities and acknowledges that it will deliver a prospectus in connection with any resale or transfer of such Exchange Notes; however, by so acknowledging and by delivering a prospectus, the undersigned will not be deemed to admit that it is an "underwriter" within the meaning of the Securities Act.

The undersigned will, upon request, execute and deliver any additional documents deemed by the Company or the Exchange Agent to be necessary or desirable to complete the exchange, assignment and transfer of the tendered Initial Notes or transfer ownership of such Initial Notes on the account books maintained by the book-entry transfer facility.

The Exchange Offers are subject to certain conditions as set forth in the Prospectus under the caption "The Exchange Offers—Conditions to the Exchange Offers." The undersigned recognizes that as a result of these conditions (which may be waived, in whole or in part, by the Company), as more particularly set forth in the Prospectus, the Company may not be required to exchange any of the Initial Notes tendered hereby and, in such event, the Initial Notes not exchanged will be returned to the undersigned at the address shown above, promptly following the expiration or termination of the Exchange Offers. In addition, the Company may amend the Exchange Offers at any time prior to the Expiration Date if any of the conditions set forth under "The Exchange Offers—Conditions to the Exchange Offers" occur.

All authority herein conferred or agreed to be conferred in this Letter of Transmittal shall survive the death or incapacity of the undersigned and every obligation of the undersigned hereunder shall be binding upon the successors, assigns, heirs, administrators, trustees in bankruptcy and legal representatives of the undersigned. Tendered Initial Notes may be withdrawn at any time prior to the Expiration Date in accordance with the procedures set forth in the terms of this Letter of Transmittal.

Unless otherwise indicated herein in the box entitled "Special Registration Instructions" below, please deliver the Exchange Notes (and, if applicable, substitute certificates representing the Initial Notes for any Initial Notes not exchanged) in the name of the undersigned or, in the case of a book-entry delivery of the Initial Notes, please credit the account indicated above. Similarly, unless otherwise indicated under the box entitled "Special Delivery Instructions" below, please send the Exchange Notes (and, if applicable, substitute certificates representing the Initial Notes for any Initial Notes not exchanged) to the undersigned at the address shown above in the box entitled "Description of Initial Notes Tendered Herewith."

GUIDELINES FOR CERTIFICATION OF TAXPAYER IDENTIFICATION NUMBER ON SUBSTITUTE FORM W-9

Guidelines for Determining the Proper Identification Number for the payee (You) to Give the Payer.—Social security numbers have nine digits separated by two hyphens: i.e., 000-00-0000. Employee identification numbers have nine digits separated by only one hyphen: i.e., 00-0000000. The table below will help determine the number to give the payer. 2. Circle the minor's name and furnish the minor's social security number.
3. You must show your individual name, but you may also enter your business or "doing business as" name. You may use either your social security number or your employer identification number (if you have one).
4. List first and circle the name of the legal trust, estate, or pension trust. (Do not furnish the taxpayer identification number of the personal representative or trustee unless the legal entity itself is not designated in the account title.)

GUIDELINES FOR CERTIFICATION OF TAXPAYER IDENTIFICATION NUMBER ON SUBSTITUTE FORM W-9

Payees Exempt from Backup Withholding

Payees specifically exempted from withholding include:

- ✕ The United States or a state thereof, the District of Columbia, a possession of the United States, or a political subdivision or wholly-owned agency or instrumentality of any one or more of the foregoing.

Exempt payees described above must file Form W-9 or a substitute Form W-9 to avoid possible erroneous backup withholding. FILE THIS FORM WITH THE PAYER, FURNISH YOUR TAXPAYER IDENTIFICATION NUMBER, WRITE "EXEMPT" IN PART 2 OF THE FORM, SIGN AND DATE THE FORM AND RETURN IT TO THE PAYER.

Privacy Act Notice.—Section 6109 requires you to provide your correct taxpayer identification number to payers, who must report the payments to the IRS. The IRS uses the number for identification purposes and may also provide this information to various government agencies for tax enforcement or litigation purposes. Payers must be given the numbers whether or not recipients are required to file tax returns. Payers must generally withhold 28% of taxable interest, dividend, and certain other payments to a payee who does not furnish a taxpayer identification number to payer. Certain penalties may also apply.

Penalties

(1) Failure to Furnish Taxpayer Identification Number.—If you fail to furnish your taxpayer identification number to a payer, you are subject to a penalty of $50 for each such failure unless your failure is due to reasonable cause and not to willful neglect.

(2) Civil Penalty for False Information with Respect to Withholding.—If you make a false statement with no reasonable basis that results in no backup withholding, you are subject to a $500 penalty.

(3) Criminal Penalty for Falsifying Information.—Willfully falsifying certifications or affirmations may subject you to criminal penalties including fines and/or imprisonment.

INSTRUCTIONS

FORMING PART OF THE TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF THE EXCHANGE OFFERS

General

Please do not send certificates for Initial Notes directly to the Company. Your certificates for Initial Notes, together with your signed and completed Letter of Transmittal and any required supporting documents, should be mailed or otherwise delivered to the Exchange Agent at the address set forth on the first page hereof. The method of delivery of Initial Notes, this Letter of Transmittal and all other required documents is at your sole option and risk and the delivery will be deemed made only when actually received by the Exchange Agent. If delivery is by mail, registered mail with return receipt requested, properly insured, or overnight or hand delivery service is recommended. In all cases, sufficient time should be allowed to ensure timely delivery.

1. Delivery of this Letter of Transmittal and Certificates; Guaranteed Delivery Procedures.

A holder of Initial Notes (which term, for the purposes described herein, shall include the book-entry transfer facility whose name appears on a security listing as the owner of the Initial Notes) may tender the same by (i) properly completing and signing this Letter of Transmittal or a facsimile hereof (all references in the Prospectus to the Letter of Transmittal shall be deemed to include a facsimile thereof) and delivering the same, together with the certificate or certificates, if applicable, representing the Initial Notes being tendered and any required signature guarantees and any other documents required by this Letter of Transmittal, to the Exchange Agent at its address set forth above on or prior to the Expiration Date, (ii) complying with the procedure for book-entry transfer described below or (iii) complying with the guaranteed delivery procedures described below.

Holders who wish to tender their Initial Notes and (i) whose Initial Notes are not immediately available or (ii) who cannot deliver their Initial Notes, this Letter of Transmittal and all other required documents to the Exchange Agent prior to the Expiration Date or (iii) who cannot comply with the book-entry transfer procedures on a timely basis, must tender their Initial Notes pursuant to the guaranteed delivery procedure set forth in "The Exchange Offers—Guaranteed Delivery Procedures" in the Prospectus and by completing Box 3. Holders may tender their Initial Notes if: (i) the tender is made by or through an Eligible Guarantor Institution (as defined below); (ii) the Exchange Agent receives (by facsimile transmission, mail or hand delivery), prior to the Expiration Date, a properly completed and duly executed Notice of Guaranteed Delivery in the form provided with this Letter of Transmittal that (a) sets forth the name and address of the holder of Initial Notes, if applicable, the certificate number(s) of the Initial Notes to be tendered and the principal amount of Initial Notes tendered; (b) states that the tender is being made thereby; and (c) guarantees that, within three New York Stock Exchange trading days after the Expiration Date, the Letter of Transmittal, or a facsimile thereof, together with the Initial Notes or a book-entry confirmation, and any other documents required by the Letter of Transmittal, will be deposited by the Eligible Guarantor Institution with the Exchange Agent; or (iii) the Exchange Agent receives a properly completed and executed Letter of Transmittal, or facsimile thereof and the certificate(s) representing all tendered Initial Notes in proper form or a confirmation of book-entry transfer of the Initial Notes into the Exchange Agent's account at the appropriate book-entry transfer facility and all other documents required by this Letter of Transmittal within three New York Stock Exchange trading days after the Expiration Date.

Any Holder who wishes to tender Initial Notes pursuant to the guaranteed delivery procedures described above and in "The Exchange Offers—Guaranteed Delivery Procedures" in the Prospectus must ensure that the Exchange Agent receives the Notice of Guaranteed Delivery relating to such Initial Notes prior to the Expiration Date. Failure to complete the guaranteed delivery procedures outlined above will not, of itself, affect the validity or effect a revocation of any Letter of Transmittal form properly completed and executed by a holder who attempted to use the guaranteed delivery procedures.

No alternative, conditional, irregular or contingent tenders will be accepted. Each tendering holder, by execution of this Letter of Transmittal (or facsimile thereof), shall waive any right to receive notice of the acceptance of the Initial Notes for exchange.

2. Partial Tenders; Withdrawals.

Tenders of Initial Notes will be accepted only in the principal amount of $2,000 and integral multiples of $1,000 in excess thereof. If less than the entire principal amount of Initial Notes evidenced by a submitted certificate is tendered, the tendering holder(s) must fill in the aggregate principal amount of Initial Notes tendered in the column entitled "Description of Initial Notes Tendered Herewith" in Box 1 above. A newly issued certificate for the Initial Notes submitted but not tendered will be sent to such holder promptly after the Expiration Date, unless otherwise provided in the appropriate box on this Letter of Transmittal. All Initial Notes delivered to the Exchange Agent will be deemed to have been tendered in full unless otherwise clearly indicated. Initial Notes tendered pursuant to the Exchange Offers may be withdrawn upon the delivery of a written notice of withdrawal to the Exchange Agent at any time prior to the Expiration Date, after which tenders of Initial Notes are irrevocable.

To be effective with respect to the tender of Initial Notes, a written notice of withdrawal (which may be by telegram, telex, facsimile or letter) must: (i) be received by the Exchange Agent at the address for the Exchange Agent set forth above before the Company notifies the Exchange Agent that it has accepted the tender of Initial Notes pursuant to the Exchange Offers; (ii) specify the name of the person who tendered the Initial Notes to be withdrawn; (iii) identify the Initial Notes to be withdrawn (including the principal amount of such Initial Notes, or, if applicable, the certificate numbers shown on the particular certificates evidencing such Initial Notes and the principal amount of Initial Notes represented by such certificates); (iv) include a statement that such holder is withdrawing its election to have such Initial Notes exchanged; (v) specify the name in which any such Initial Notes are to be registered, if different from that of the withdrawing holder; and (vi) be signed by the holder in the same manner as the original signature on this Letter of Transmittal (including any required signature guarantee). The Exchange Agent will return the properly withdrawn Initial Notes promptly following receipt of notice of withdrawal. If Initial Notes have been tendered pursuant to the procedure for book-entry transfer, any notice of withdrawal must specify the name and number of the account at the book-entry transfer facility to be credited with the withdrawn Initial Notes or otherwise comply with the book-entry transfer facility's procedures. All questions as to the validity, form and eligibility of notices of withdrawals, including time of receipt, will be determined by the Company, and such determination will be final and binding on all parties.

Any Initial Notes so withdrawn will be deemed not to have been validly tendered for exchange for purposes of the Exchange Offers. Any Initial Notes which have been tendered for exchange but which are not accepted for exchange for any reason will be returned to the holder thereof without cost to such holder (or, in the case of Initial Notes tendered by book-entry transfer into the Exchange Agent's account at the book entry transfer facility pursuant to the book-entry transfer procedures described above, such Initial Notes will be credited to an account with such book-entry transfer facility specified by the holder) promptly after withdrawal, rejection of tender or termination of the Exchange Offers. Properly withdrawn Initial Notes may be retendered by following the procedures described under the caption "The Exchange Offers—Procedures for Tendering Initial Notes Through Brokers and Banks" in the Prospectus at any time on or prior to the Expiration Date.

Neither the Company, any affiliate or assigns of the Company, the Exchange Agent nor any other person will be under any duty to give any notification of any irregularities in any notice of withdrawal or incur any liability for failure to give such notification (even if such notice is given to other persons).

3. Beneficial Owner Instructions.

Only a holder of Initial Notes (i.e., a person in whose name Initial Notes are registered on the books of the registrar or, in the case of Initial Notes held through book-entry, such book-entry transfer facility specified by the holder), or the legal representative or attorney-in-fact of a holder, may execute and deliver this Letter of Transmittal. Any beneficial owner of Initial Notes who wishes to accept the Exchange Offers must arrange promptly for the appropriate holder to execute and deliver this Letter of Transmittal on his or her behalf through the execution and delivery to the appropriate holder of the "Instructions to Registered Holder from Beneficial Owner" form accompanying this Letter of Transmittal.

4. Signature on this Letter of Transmittal; Written Instruments and Endorsements; Guarantee of Signatures.

If this Letter of Transmittal is signed by the registered holder(s) (which term, for the purposes described herein, shall include the book-entry transfer facility whose name appears on a security listing as the owner of the Initial Notes) of the Initial Notes tendered hereby, the signature must correspond exactly with the name(s) as written on the face of the certificates (or on such security listing) without alteration, addition, enlargement or any change whatsoever.

If any of the Initial Notes tendered hereby are owned of record by two or more joint owners, all such owners must sign this Letter of Transmittal.

If a number of Initial Notes registered in different names are tendered, it will be necessary to complete, sign and submit as many separate copies of this Letter of Transmittal (or facsimiles thereof) as there are different registrations of Initial Notes.

When this Letter of Transmittal is signed by the registered holder(s) of Initial Notes (which term, for the purposes described herein, shall include the book-entry transfer facility whose name appears on a security listing as the owner of the Initial Notes) listed and tendered hereby, no endorsements of certificates or separate written instruments of transfer or exchange are required. If, however, this Letter of Transmittal is signed by a person other than the registered holder(s) of the Initial Notes listed or the Exchange Notes are to be issued, or any untendered Initial Notes are to be reissued, to a person other than the registered holder(s) of the Initial Notes, such Initial Notes must be endorsed or accompanied by separate written instruments of transfer or exchange in form satisfactory to the Company and duly executed by the registered holder, in each case signed exactly as the name or names of the registered holder(s) appear(s) on the Initial Notes and the signatures on such certificates must be guaranteed by an Eligible Guarantor Institution. If this Letter of Transmittal, any certificates or separate written instruments of transfer or exchange are signed by trustees, executors, administrators, guardians, attorneys-in-fact, officers of corporations or others acting in a fiduciary or representative capacity, such persons should so indicate when signing, and, unless waived by the Company, submit proper evidence satisfactory to the Company, in its sole discretion, of such persons' authority to so act.

Endorsements on certificates for the Initial Notes or signatures on bond powers required by this Instruction 4 must be guaranteed by a member firm of a registered national securities exchange or of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority, a commercial bank or trust company having an office or correspondent in the United States or another "eligible guarantor institution" within the meaning of Rule 17Ad-15 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (an "Eligible Guarantor Institution").

Signatures on this Letter of Transmittal must be guaranteed by an Eligible Guarantor Institution, unless Initial Notes are tendered: (i) by a registered holder (which term, for the purposes described herein, shall include the book-entry transfer facility whose name appears on a security listing as the owner of the Initial Notes) who has not completed the box entitled "Special Registration Instructions" or "Special Delivery Instructions" on this Letter of Transmittal; or (ii) for the account of an Eligible Guarantor Institution.

5. Special Registration and Delivery Instructions.

Tendering holders should indicate, in the applicable Box 6 or Box 7, the name and address in/to which the Exchange Notes and/or certificates for Initial Notes not exchanged are to be issued or sent, if different from the name(s) and address(es) of the person signing this Letter of Transmittal. In the case of issuance in a different name, the tax identification number or social security number of the person named must also be indicated. A holder tendering the Initial Notes by book-entry transfer may request that the Initial Notes not exchanged be credited to such account maintained at the book-entry transfer facility as such holder may designate. See Box 4.

If no such instructions are given, the Exchange Notes (and any Initial Notes not tendered or not accepted) will be issued in the name of and sent to the holder signing this Letter of Transmittal or deposited into such holder's account at the applicable book-entry transfer facility.

6. Transfer Taxes.

The Company will pay all transfer taxes, if any, applicable to the transfer of Initial Notes to it or its order pursuant to the Exchange Offers. If, however, Exchange Notes and/or substitute Initial Notes not exchanged are to be delivered to, or are to be registered or issued in the name of, any person other than the Holder of the Initial Notes tendered hereby, or if tendered Initial Notes are registered in the name of any person other than the person signing this Letter of Transmittal, or if a transfer tax is imposed for any reason other than the transfer of Initial Notes to the Company or its order pursuant to the Exchange Offers, the amount of any such transfer taxes (whether imposed on the Holder or any other persons) will be payable by the tendering Holder. If satisfactory evidence of payment of such taxes or exemption therefrom is not submitted herewith, the amount of such transfer taxes will be billed directly to such tendering Holder.

Except as provided in this Instruction 6, it will not be necessary for transfer tax stamps to be affixed to the Initial Notes listed in this Letter of Transmittal.

7. Amendments; Waiver of Conditions.

The Company reserves the absolute right to waive, in whole or in part, any of the conditions to the Exchange Offers set forth in the Prospectus. If the Exchange Offers are amended in a manner that the Company determines constitutes a material change, including the waiver of a material condition, the Company will promptly disclose that amendment by means of a prospectus supplement that will be distributed to the holders. The Company will also extend the Exchange Offers to the extent necessary to provide that at least five business days remain in the Exchange Offers following notice of the material change.

8. Mutilated, Lost, Stolen or Destroyed Securities.

Any holder whose Initial Notes have been mutilated, lost, stolen or destroyed, should promptly contact the Exchange Agent at the address set forth on the first page hereof for further instructions. The holder will then be instructed as to the steps that must be taken in order to replace the certificate(s). This Letter of Transmittal and related documents cannot be processed until the procedures for replacing lost, destroyed or stolen certificate(s) have been completed.

9. No Conditional Tenders; No Notice of Irregularities.

No alternative, conditional, irregular or contingent tenders will be accepted. All tendering holders, by execution of this Letter of Transmittal, shall waive any right to receive notice of the acceptance of their Initial Notes for exchange. The Company reserves the right, in its reasonable judgment, to waive any defects, irregularities or conditions of tender as to particular Initial Notes. The Company's interpretation of the terms and conditions of the Exchange Offers (including the instructions in this Letter of Transmittal) will be final and binding on all parties. Unless waived, any defects or irregularities in connection with tenders of Initial Notes must be cured within such time as the Company shall determine. Although the Company intends to notify holders of defects or irregularities with respect to tenders of Initial Notes, neither the Company, the Exchange Agent nor any other person is under any obligation to give such notice nor shall they incur any liability for failure to give such notification. Tenders of Initial Notes will not be deemed to have been made until such defects or irregularities have been cured or waived. Any Initial Notes received by the Exchange Agent that are not properly tendered and as to which the defects or irregularities have not been cured or waived will be returned by the Exchange Agent to the tendering holder promptly following the Expiration Date.

10. Requests for Assistance or Additional Copies.

Questions relating to the procedure for tendering, as well as requests for additional copies of the Prospectus and this Letter of Transmittal, may be directed to the Exchange Agent at the address and telephone number set forth on the first page hereof.

IMPORTANT: THIS LETTER OF TRANSMITTAL OR A FACSIMILE OR COPY THEREOF (TOGETHER WITH CERTIFICATES OF INITIAL NOTES OR CONFIRMATION OF BOOK-ENTRY TRANSFER AND ALL OTHER REQUIRED DOCUMENTS) OR A NOTICE OF GUARANTEED DELIVERY MUST BE RECEIVED BY THE EXCHANGE AGENT ON OR PRIOR TO THE EXPIRATION DATE AS INDICATED IN THE PROSPECTUS AND THIS LETTER OF TRANSMITTAL.

IMPORTANT TAX INFORMATION

Under U.S. federal income tax law, a tendering holder whose Initial Notes are accepted for exchange may be subject to backup withholding unless the holder provides the Exchange Agent with either (i) such holder's correct taxpayer identification number ("TIN") on the Substitute Form W-9 attached hereto, certifying (A) that the TIN provided on Substitute Form W-9 is correct (or that such holder of Initial Notes is awaiting a TIN), (B) that the holder of Initial Notes is not subject to backup withholding because (x) such holder of Initial Notes is exempt from backup withholding, (y) such holder of Initial Notes has not been notified by the Internal Revenue Service that he or she is subject to backup withholding as a result of a failure to report all interest or dividends or (z) the Internal Revenue Service has notified the holder of Initial Notes that he or she is no longer subject to backup withholding and (C) that the holder of Initial Notes is a U.S. person (including a U.S. resident alien); or (ii) an adequate basis for exemption from backup withholding. If such holder of Initial Notes is an individual, the TIN is such holder's social security number. If the Exchange Agent is not provided with the correct TIN, the holder of Initial Notes may also be subject to certain penalties imposed by the Internal Revenue Service and any reportable payments that are made to such holder may be subject to backup withholding (see below).

Certain holders of Initial Notes (including, generally, all corporations and certain foreign holders) are not subject to these backup withholding and reporting requirements. However, exempt holders of Initial Notes should indicate their exempt status on the Substitute Form W-9. For example, a corporation should complete the Substitute Form W-9, providing its TIN and indicating that it is exempt from backup withholding. In order for a foreign holder to qualify as an exempt recipient, the holder must submit a Form W-8BEN (or other applicable Form W-8), signed under penalties of perjury, attesting to that holder's exempt status. A Form W-8BEN (or other applicable Form W-8) can be obtained from the Exchange Agent. See the enclosed "Guidelines for Certification of Taxpayer Identification Number on Substitute Form W-9" for more instructions. Holders are encouraged to consult their own tax advisors to determine whether they are exempt from these backup withholding and reporting requirements.

If backup withholding applies, the Exchange Agent is required to withhold 28% of any payments made to the holder of Initial Notes or other payee. Backup withholding is not an additional tax. Rather, the tax liability of persons subject to backup withholding will be reduced by the amount of tax withheld. If withholding results in an overpayment of taxes, a refund may be obtained from the Internal Revenue Service, provided the required information is furnished. The Exchange Agent cannot refund amounts withheld by reason of backup withholding.

A holder who does not have a TIN may check the box in Part 3 of the Substitute Form W-9 if the surrendering holder of Initial Notes has not been issued a TIN and has applied for a TIN or intends to apply for a TIN in the near future. If the box in Part 3 is checked, the holder of Initial Notes or other payee must also complete the Certificate of Awaiting Taxpayer Identification Number below in order to avoid backup withholding. Notwithstanding that the box in Part 3 is checked and the Certificate of Awaiting Taxpayer Identification Number is completed, the Paying Agent will withhold 28% of all payments made prior to the time a properly certified TIN is provided to the Paying Agent and, if the Paying Agent is not provided with a TIN within 60 days, such amounts will be paid over to the Internal Revenue Service. The holder of Initial Notes is required to give the Paying Agent the TIN (e.g., social security number or employer identification number) of the record owner of the Initial Notes. If the Initial Notes are in more than one name or are not in the name of the actual owner, consult the enclosed "Guidelines for Certification of Taxpayer Identification Number on Substitute Form W-9" for additional guidance on which number to report.
